Improvement and Enlargement Project for Foard County Hospital Has Been Completed; Modern in Every Respect

All construction work on the Foard County Hospital has been completed, and the project has been accepted by local, state and Federal authorities.

The remodeling of the old hospital building was so interwoven with the new addition that the result is really an entirely new hospital. Only the stone front and entrance of the old building remain untouched.

The new wing erected on the north of the old building extends from the front of the hospital lot to the alley in the back. This wing provides space for modern operating room and delivery room suites, emergency room, sterilizing room, X-ray, laboratory, kitchen, dining room for hospital employees, locker rooms, and storage space. The ambulance entrance is near the center of the north side of this wing, and provides concrete unloading platform. On one side of this platform there is a short flight of steps. On the other side a ramp provides means to move patients that come to the hospital in cars. Service entrances are provided further down the building for the use of employees, and for the delivery of supplies.

The frame structure attached to the rear of the old building was removed, and replaced by a fire resistant wing that extends to the alley on the east. This wing became a part of the completed building by a remodeling of two wards. This wing provides space for eleven patients, as well as modern utility and bath rooms.

In the main portion of the old building, the space formerly occupied by the kitchen, operating room and delivery room, has been converted into private rooms. This part of the new hospital provides space for ten patients as well as a nursery for the new-born, the nurse's station, business and admitting office, administrator's office and lobby.

To the right of the lobby, the wall was set back to provide an information and admitting counter. The administrator's office is in the same location, but is smaller and is entered from the information office. The old X-ray room has been converted into a business office.

On the left of the lobby when entering is a large window looking into the nursery. This makes possible a good view of the new arrivals in their sunny new homes.

Just beyond the door that leads from the lobby to the main part of the hospital is the nurse's station. Here, a built-in desk provides space for the nurses to keep patients' records. Also, in the enclosure is the medicine cabinet and sink.

Near the nurse's station is the door leading into the nursery work room. This space provides storage space for clothing and supplies for the new-born. This room connects directly with the nursery, where there is ample space for four bassinets and the infant incubator.

Of the twenty-one adult beds provided by this building, thirteen are in private rooms, and eight in four two-bed rooms. Two of the private rooms share bathroom facilities. Two private and two of the semi-private rooms have private bathroom facilities. All rooms are within a few steps of bathroom accommodations.

The hospital has been completely redecorated in pastel colors. The corridors are lime yellow, and the rooms and offices are in either soft grey or soft blue. The floors are covered in a marbled asphalt tile of shades grey, cream and brown. The floors of the operating and delivery suites, as well as of the emergency room, kitchen and laboratory are of terrazzo, made with predominate colors of cream, white and green.

The walls of the emergency room, and the operating and delivery suites are of a pastel green ceramic tile to a height of six feet. Above this the plastered walls are painted in a harmonizing shade of green.

All of the equipment to be purchased at the present time has been ordered, and most of it has been received and installed. Still to be delivered are the new bedroom furniture, a desk, safe, and electrically heated tray conveyer. Delivery of this equipment may be further delayed by the current steel strike.

Outstanding items of new equipment already installed include the modern dishwashing unit in the kitchen, and the overhead surgical light in the operating room.

The cost of this building program was provided for by bonds voted by the citizens of Foard County, and matched Federal and State funds. Due to the increases in cost of construction and equipment after the bonds were voted the purchase of several items of needed equipment have been deferred. All of the most essential items have been provided for, and the county now has a modern, well equipped, and attractive hospital.

Architects for the building was the firm of Wilson and Patterson of Fort Worth. Beveridge Construction Company of Fort Worth, Francis Company of Quannah, and Jack & Jobe Electrical Company of Quannah were contractors on the construction of the building.

Plans are being made to hold open house as soon as possible to provide an opportunity for the residents of the county, and other friends of the hospital, to view the new facilities. As soon as these plans are completed, a public announcement will be made.

HEAVY DUTY NI-RESIST

The Ni-Resist high nickel cast irons continue to show an increase in demand for direct defense equipment and in the defense-supporting industries. As an example, heavy duty truck and bus engines, as well as aircraft engines, employ Ni-Resist parts for a combination of properties unattainable in other alloys. These parts include exhaust systems, valve guides, piston bands and pumps, where Ni-Resist's high resistance to heat, wear and corrosion is essential.

Still Beating Drums

A short time ago an organization called the Electric Consumers Conference met in Washington. Various people — including the President of the United States and one of the principal labor leaders — spoke. And every speech had the same tenor. A clarion call was sounded for more socialized power development — which would be at the taxpayers' expense, of course. And the business-managed, tax-paying power utilities, naturally, were denounced and vilified in every conceivable way.

Some reporters think the Conference was called in an attempt to block the cuts Congress plans to make in requested appropriations for Federal power schemes — the responsible committees, at long last, have been turning cold eyes on projects which are either unnecessary, or can be accomplished by private enterprise. And others have hazarded the view that the Administration may shoot the works on the power issue in order to divert attention from such embarrassing issues as corruption in the government.

It's hard to believe that this last strategem can succeed. If anything is small pumpkins to most householders, farmers and businesses, it is the cost of electricity, which is one of the smallest items in the typical budget. Moreover, the quality of electric service in this country, as provided by the regulated utilities, is generally beyond criticism. Finally, in these days of murderous taxes, it is a shortsighted citizen indeed who would wish to throw away forever the hundreds of millions the utilities pay in taxes to all units of government. The industry's tax payments actually come to more than 20 per cent of all their revenues from customers.

The drumbeaters for socialism are working overtime—but an informed and alert public isn't apt to be taken in by their phony blandishments.

STEADFAST AGAINST FATIGUE AND CORROSION

Three miles of expansion joints made of Monel, a nickel-copper alloy, were installed between the Cleveland Union Terminal and surrounding buildings, sidewalks and pavements when the station was erected in 1928. Periodic inspections have shown the Monel joints still in good condition due to this material's excellent fatigue strength which kept it from cracking.

Ginger Rogers won a Charleston contest in Fort Worth, and thereby entered upon the career that led to movie stardom.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS About the BIGGEST BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

Question: What is the biggest single business in the world?

Answer: The production of oil and gas—and Texas is the biggest single (or separate) division of the world's biggest business.

Question: Just how big is this Texas share—and how well is it run?

Answer: Texas had more than 136,000 oil wells in operation last year, and more than 85,000 gas wells. Our state produced ONE BILLION barrels of oil—and SIX TRILLION cubic feet of gas. Far beyond any ordinary standard of comparison, this immense industry ran efficiently and honestly, in the service of the state and its population.

Question: Do we have a department of our Texas government devoted to supervising this gigantic business, and is this department's work important?

Answer: The Railroad Commission of Texas oversees and regulates—strictly in accordance with Texas laws—ALL oil and gas production of the state. And it is the most important SINGLE governmental body in the world—dealing with the world's largest single division of the world's largest business. This bars none, international, national or statewide.

Question: Are the members of our Railroad Commission in Texas capable men, and does their work earn recognition elsewhere?

Answer: The Railroad Commission of Texas has a worldwide reputation for personal honesty, integrity in office, and ability to do its job. It governs well the best-run and largest business in the world, as to Texas, and through the world governments and men know it, and hundreds of officials come to Texas each year to study our Commission's methods.

Question: Does this Railroad Commission of Texas have any other duties, and time for them?

Answer: Yes, it supervises and regulates the operations of some 23,611 motor trucks and buses, which serve Texas as public freight and passenger carriers. And it regulates the distribution of natural gas and butane to nearly two million Texas homes and farms.

Question: What about the Railroad Commission's record in handling its own financial and departmental affairs?

Answer: It has one of the finest records of any Commission anywhere, in all American history. In the past ten years, our Railroad Commission has RETURNED to our state treasury EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS it had SAVED by careful management of its own affairs.

Question: Do Texas voters elect members of the Railroad Commission of Texas, and is any railroad commissioner running for re-election this year?

Answer: Yes, all members of our Railroad Commission are elected by popular ballot, and the present chairman of the Commission, Olin Culberson, is asking the voters of Texas for re-election. With admirable dignity, and with utmost courtesy to all, he asks re-election SOLELY on his record, and on the work the Railroad Commission has done.

EDITORIAL

The gesture of the City Council in donating the use of the upstairs of the City Hall for a trial period of six months to the Crowell Volunteer Fire Department is only one of the many things the present Council has done in the civic interest. The Council members accept no salary, but spend a good percentage of their time in civic duties. They hope that by having comfortable and adequate facilities for their meetings and drills, that it will encourage more able-bodied men of Crowell to join the Fire Department.

Thanks again to all Council members. Grips may flourish, but deep down all citizens realize how progressive you all are. Hats off to Mayor Hubert Brown and Councilmen Marion Hughston, Lee Black, M. M. Welch, Henry Borchardt, Homer Johnson and City Attorney Foster Davis.

They were united in a simple double ring ceremony on the evening of July 5 by Dr. E. S. James, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Vernon, at his home.

Miss Crisp was dressed in a street length white nylon dress with a full pleated skirt. Her accessories were white and she carried a white Bible topped with pink carnations. She was attended by Miss Paddy Neely of Vernon as maid of honor, who also wore a white nylon dress with gold designs. Sammy Thompson attended Mr. Wilson as best man.

Miss Crisp attended the Northside and Vernon schools. Mr. Wilson attended the Crowell Schools. Only the attendants and the following members of the family were present for the ceremony: Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Crisp, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Wilson, Miss Dorothy Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, Paddy Neely and Sammy Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left immediately after the wedding for scenic points in Colorado. Upon their return, they will reside in Vernon.

Mrs. Joe Howard Williams was honored with a pink and blue shower given at the home of Mrs. Johnny Wright on Saturday afternoon, July 12. Hostesses were Mesdames Travis Vecera, Joe Roper, J. C. Autry Jr., Harold Thomson and Johnny Wright.

Guests calling between the hours of 3 and 5 were greeted at the door by Mrs. Wright. After signing the register they were directed to the dining room where Mrs. Roper and Mrs. Vecera presided. The serving table was centered with the pink punch bowl and blue candles. The cookies were marked with a silver stork wearing a blue bow.

Mrs. Autry greeted the guests in the gift room.

Those from out-of-town who called were Mrs. O. M. Grimm of Thalia and Mrs. Guy Daugherty, Mrs. Cecil Fite and Miss Emmy Leonard of Quanah.

SEVENTH BIRTHDAY OF SANDRA WISDOM OBSERVED

The seventh birthday of Sandra Wisdom was celebrated with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Wisdom, of Thalia recently. Friends gathered on the lawn made gay with many hued balloons, and games were enjoyed by the group.

Sandra opened her many lovely gifts after which refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream cones, cup cakes and soda pops were served. Mrs. Wisdom was assisted in serving by Sandra's two grandmothers, Mrs. A. W. Willis of Crowell and Mrs. A. B. Wisdom of Thalia.

Guests included Jerry Tole, Gary Edens, Teresa Wright, Bobby and Jimmie Moore, Carolyn Willis, Gamble and Dallas Texas McCarty, Patricia and Marilyn Cates, Paulette and Larry McBeath, Van and Rocky Wisdom, Mesdames Beatrice McCarty, Yonnie Edens, Blanche Tole, Faye Cates, Mildred McBeath, Gladys Moore and A. W. Willis.

COKE PARTY HONORS MISS BETTY BARKER

Miss Maurine Youree entertained several of her friends Saturday afternoon with a Coke party honoring Miss Betty Barker, who is a student during the summer session at North Texas State College in Denton.

The entertaining room was decorated with white shasta daisies and other flowers from the garden. Those attending were Misses Rondyn Self, Jenny Wehba, Bobbie Abston, and the honoree and hostess.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

You can make your own purse size whisk brooms, stated Mrs. Mary Brown, Acting County Home Demonstration Agent, when she introduced two 4-H Club girls, Kay and Janet Raspberry, to the ladies of the West Side Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. Walter Thomson on July 8th.

To make the brooms, Kay and Janet continued, you will need gimp and fiber and plastic gimp string. By using strips of the fiber and braiding it for the handles. Then cut the fiber in twice the length of the groom and fold in center and about one inch from top of broom wrap with the plastic gimp string fastening handle on with this, wrap tightly and tie with slip knot and pull loose ends through with string.

Mrs. Brown, assisted by Kay and Janet, led several sit-down games.

Mrs. Thomson served a lovely refreshment plate to the guests, Mrs. Brown and Kay and Janet, and the following members: Mrs. Oscar Gentry, Henry Ross, E. A. Dunagan, Jack Lyons, G. H. Kincheloe, J. L. Kincheloe, Henry Edgington and C. R. Bryson.

The club will meet on July 22 with Mrs. John Teague at 8:30 in the morning when Mrs. G. H. Kincheloe will give a book review.

district where the child lives while so employed. The Act as now written does not prohibit the employment of children outside school hours and does not apply to the farmer's own children who work on their parents' farm.

Galvin's action simplifies the present requirements applying to farmers.

Complete text of the amendments was scheduled for publication in the Federal Register for July 8. Copies may be obtained from the U. S. Labor Department's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

Social Security Representative to Be Here on July 22nd

Since the Social Security Act was changed to include the self-employed, field offices of the Social Security Administration have noted that numerous wives of self-employed businessmen have been applying for social security account numbers.

Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls social security office, states that apparently both the wives and their husbands are under the impression that inasmuch as they are permitted to file a joint income tax return, they may also split their income when reporting their net earnings for social security. This, of course, is not true. Tate explains that only the spouse who owns and operates the business from which the net income from self-employment is derived pays the social security tax, and he alone receives credit toward social security benefits. Income from a family-owned business is usually considered as income of the husband. Wives are not partners in the business unless the business is a genuine partnership and recognized as such by the public, creditors and the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The representative of the Wichita Falls office will be in Crowell in the basement of the court house

Pennsylvania Town Sets Up Welfare Fund

Duncannon, Pa. — Without personal solicitation Duncannon residents poured several hundred dollars into a "Fund for Ann" established at the Duncannon National Bank to provide thirteen-year-old Ann Kumlir with resources enabling her to walk again.

All of the contributions were made voluntarily. It was the community's way of showing it could take care of its own.

The idea for the "Fund for Ann" was formulated after the girl returned to her home here from a Harrisburg hospital where she had been confined for 10 weeks following the amputation of her left leg. The money in the fund will be used for purchasing artificial limbs during the girl's growth to adulthood, and in partially paying the surgical fees.

LEGAL NOTICE
 TO Any Sheriff or Any Constable
 Within the State of Texas—GREETING:
 You are hereby commanded to cause to be published once each week for four consecutive weeks, the first publication to be at least twenty-eight days before the return day thereof, in a newspaper printed in Foard County, Texas, the accompanying citation, of which the herein below following is a true copy.

WHAT IS A CHRISTIAN?

from Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

No name in history has been more meaningful — more hated and more loved throughout the centuries — than "Christian."
 Now a judge has ruled that it is impossible to define the word sufficiently to administer an estate bequeathed as a trust fund for "persons of Christian faith who actively promote their beliefs."

Who is at fault? The judge who called upon no less than seven clergymen to testify in the hearing? The clergymen who could not agree with each other? or generations of Christians who somehow failed to make Christianity a living thing?

When first applied, "Christian" was a hateful epithet, spat out against the followers of a crucified Lord—followers who feared and hated sin. No one then dared bear that name unless he was prepared to pay the cost in ridicule, hardship and even death.
 But the things for which those early Christians stood were clearly known and the name they bore was meaningful.

The years have made their difference. Somehow "Christian" has come to have a more casual meaning, until today the word may signify a dozen things to a dozen different persons. Even the dictionary defines a "Christian"
 as one who shows such virtues as gentleness and kindness.

The bitter fact is this: the name would not be meaningless except that we who bear it have made it so. In short a Christian is one who is Christ-like, and walks according to the statutes set down in God's word, the Bible.

Mrs. Juliette Low organized the Girl Scouts in American in 1912.

Amendment of the Fair Labor Standards Act's record - keeping regulations as they apply to children employed on farms, was announced recently by the U. S. Department of Labor.

Issued by Michael J. Galvin as Acting Secretary of Labor, the amended regulations become effective August 11. Under them, the farmer will be required to record three items for children under 18 year of age who work on his farm on days when school is in session.
 They are: (1) the child's name;
 (2) his date of birth, and (3)
 the address of his permanent home and where he lives while working if not at his permanent home.
 These items need be entered only once for each child hired by the farmer.

Galvin's action was taken under the Act's provisions which prohibit the employment of chil-

The Law Can Be In Simple Language

Any document signed by a Foard County citizen may someday have to be interpreted by the

 the interest of the people of

 of the people sit on that high court. Judge Joe S. Moss of Gar-

Syverson-Long Vows Read in Vernon Last Friday

In a candlelight service read in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church in Vernon last Friday evening at 8 o'clock, Carolyn Hazard Syverson was married to Edgar Earl Long. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Hazard, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Long of Thalia.

The double ring ceremony was performed before an arch of greenery, flanked by branched candelabra, entwined with emerald leaves, and bearing cathedral tapers. Bows of white satin marked individual pews on the bridal aisle.

Mrs. Wallace Gates, organist, presented a medley of pre-nuptial selections and accompanied Miss Norma June McPherson, as she sang "I Love You Truly" by Bond and "The Lord's Prayer" by Matlotte.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a ballerina length imported silk organdy dress of shell pink over taffeta. The tucked bodice featured an off-shoulder neckline, accented with soft folds of the organdy. She wore a pink feather cloche, with veil trim, and short mitts of pink net. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, and she carried a white prayer book, supporting a single white orchid, tied with pink satin ribbon.

Miss Elizabeth Ann Hazard attended her sister as maid of honor, and Miss Robbilyn Barker was bridesmaid. They wore identical frocks of white embroidered organdy over taffeta, similar in design to the bride's, with sashes of pink satin. The bridesmaids wore white tulle, and they carried nosegays of tiny pink sweet-heart roses, festooned with white satin showers.

Ted Reeder of Crowell, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man, and the ushers were John Juvenal and John Hazard.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Hazard chose to wear pale blue lace and linen, complimented with navy accessories, and her hat was of pastel blue flowers.

Mrs. Long was dressed in a rose lace with matching floral hat, and black accessories. Both mothers wore pink rosebud corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor, which was decorated with the bride's chosen colors of pink and white. The serving table was laid with white organdy over pink and was beautifully appointed with silver. The three-tiered bride's cake, centering the table was white with tiny pink rosebud trim and was flanked by white tapers in silver candelabra. The punch service completed the decor.

Assisting in the reception were Misses Beth Bristo, Quilla Armes, Caroline Eales, Carolyn Smith and Mrs. W. M. Brock of Dallas, Mrs. Sam Rich and Mrs. J. R. Huie, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Ted Reeder of Crowell, sister of the groom. Also Mesdames F. A. Caperton, Bess Barker, R. D. L. Killough, Mickey Sharp, Victor Robinson, O. L. Raines and Edmund Dedek.

For the wedding trip to Colorado, Yellowstone National Park, Glacier National Park and Banff Springs, Canada, Mrs. Long began the trip in a suit of navy faille, accented with white. Her hat was of navy velvet with lace trim. Navy accessories and a white orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Long will be at home after August 15 at 2500 Texas Street in Vernon.

Rehearsal Dinner

A dinner was held in the dining room of the Canton Cafe in Vernon on Thursday evening preceding rehearsal for the Syverson-Long wedding.

Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Long, were hosts. Featuring the bride's color theme of pink and white, the table was centered with an arrangement of pink rosebuds and white carnation. Placards were in the form of miniature brides and grooms.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hazard, parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Long, hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reeder, Rev. Marshall Rhew, Mrs. W. M. Brooks, John Hazard, John Juvenal and Misses Robbilyn Barker, Quilla Armes, Norma June McPherson, and the bride and groom to be.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. G. C. Laney, pastor of the Margaret Baptist church. Miss Margaret Thompson attended the bride as maid of honor, and the groom's best man was Curtis Tucker.

The bride was attired in an iridescent green dress of net over taffeta and accessories of white. Her corsage was of white carnations. Miss Thompson's dress was of navy organdy. Her accessories were white, and she wore a white carnation corsage.
