Taxes and Prices

The individual taxpayer now knows that his income tax payments are the highest in history. More money than ever before is being withheld from our pay checks. More money than ever before is due the government each March 15.

What is true of the individual, is also true of industry.

Oil is an excellent example. A publication of the American Petroleum Institute recently published a number of excerpts from the 1951 financial reports of representative oil companies. It was not at all unusual for these concerns to pay government far more in taxes than was paid to stockholders in dividends. In some cases the combined taxes paid on a company's operations and products even exceeded the total wages paid to its employees. And this year the tax burden is substantially greater than it was in 1951.

It is estimated that, in 1951, the federal, state and local taxes levied against the oil industry's operations and products reached the staggering total of $4,500,000,000. If the hundreds of assorted taxes concerned had been combined into a single tax on crude oil, it would have worked out to $1.86 on each barrel produced during the year. In 1945, by contrast, when we were at the height of the war effort, this tax equivalent would have amounted to but $1.12 per barrel.

Keep that in mind next time you buy gas or some other oil product and feel inclined to kick about the price. One of the biggest reasons for high prices is taxation.

Mr. Truman's Example

"Now the President is upset by the evil doings of the private power companies. He says they are spending millions and millions of dollars, which otherwise would go to the government in taxes, to influence the 'mass mind' against public power."

"Mr. Truman thinks this is pretty outrageous, and he says he may ask his new Attorney General to see whether it violates the Corrupt Practices Act. It is not clear just what the violation of law may be, but it is obviously a shabby thing for the power companies to be engaged in. If they weren't spending this money to

Irrigation Wells Lose 30 to 50 Per Cent of Water Pumped

Can you imagine losing 30 to 50 per cent of every glass of water you try to drink? Of course, the example is far-fetched, but the figures are right for water loss in open-ditch irrigation, according to Dr. Arthur Young, head of the departments of agriculture engineering and agronomy at Texas Tech.

Tech has eliminated water loss in a 200-acre, livestock pasture irrigation venture installed in April. Dr. Young said it's all done with underground concrete pipes and rises, spaced at desired intervals. Surface caps allow the water to be used or shut off as needed. Dr. Young estimates the cost of installing such a system from $1 to $1.10 a foot, depending on the number of rises. Water savings from evaporation and seepage offset the cost of installation, he said. In addition, there are no longer the open ditch problems of how to get water uphill and keeping weeds from growing around the ditch.

Dr. Young pointed out that seepage loss in the open ditch will always be the same regardless of the amount of water used in any situation. From this, he explains, the farmer with a low-flowing well would be particularly benefitted by an underground system. Proper joint fittings and the use of rubber seals, both to stop underground seepage, will increase water-use efficiency, he said. These and other problems have been worked out, and Tech's livestock pasture irrigation system stands as an example of efficient underground watering.

The Spirit of 1976

Leaders in all lines of activity are increasing efforts to maintain the highest levels of integrity in the operation of business and industry. They are aware of the peril to the moral standards of the country as a whole which has accompanied revelations of widespread corruption in government. Their first concern is for young people from whose ranks must come tomorrow's leaders.

William H. Miller, an official of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, in speaking of the responsibilities of businessmen, points out that "Today's office boy may be president of your company when the U. S. celebrates its second centennial in 1976. . . the training of executives begins with the young people who walk into your business out of high school or college. If businessmen and fathers are not going to make it clear to youngsters that practically all business is moral and ethical, who is?"

Mr. Miller suggests three ways in which businessmen can help children: "Give our own youngsters and others something money can't buy—our time. Be a good citizen. Be a good church member."

AIR FORCE COMMISSIONS

Texas Tech's five regular Air Force commissions, awarded to spring graduates, may have set a record, according to the commanding officer, Col. Ollen Turner.

Only 232 regular commissions were given to graduates in 187 units this year. The national average was 1.4 regular commissions per unit.

The 37 other members of the May graduates in the Air ROTC received reserve commissions.

HEALTH LETTER

From Texas State Dept. of Health

Austin, Texas — Public health workers are encouraged by the drop in venereal disease, but are wary of the future developments should persons feel that the danger is past, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

As long as the infections remain a relatively small segment of the population the danger of spread to non-infected persons exists, Dr. Cox declares that everyone should avail himself of the free information concerning the nature, cause and spread of venereal diseases.

There is little reason for a person who becomes infected with a venereal disease today to suffer without treatment. Modern "wonder drugs," principally penicillin, have made possible the rapid treatment required one and a half to two years care by a specialist.

Despite the encouraging progress against venereal diseases it must be recognized that many undetected mental exist. Our overcrowded mental institutions are populated with thousands of patients with syphilitic mental disorders. Last year 431 persons died of syphilis.

Dr. Cox states that this personal and public health problem is still with us and everyone should join in the fight against the venereal diseases.

Huge Catfish Taken in Throckmorton County

Austin—A crew supervised by Game Warden Bert Iverson of Throckmorton, seized 57 big catfish when Woodson Lake shrank from 320 to 20 acres because of dry weather.

The fish, all yellow cats, ranged in size from 21 to 105 pounds. A few channel cats, crappie and black bass also rescued were taken to the Possum Kingdom hatchery by Hatchery Superintendent Harmon Henderson. Since seining is legal in Throckmorton County and since the big fish were taken from private waters, they were distributed among the men who manned the boats and seines.

When the lake was created 28 years ago, it was stocked with cats taken from the Clear Fork of the Brazos River. For many years it provided good fishing but dry weather reduced it to a shallow mudhole.

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer

The control of the fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city, community and individual in the state, declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The most effective measure for fly control is to prevent their breeding. Flies breed in filth and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her life time of several months, one fly lays from 600 to 1,000 eggs.

To eliminate flies, the breeding places must be destroyed. Manure piles, garbage, and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture, and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. Flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which such food and drink are prepared and served. Likewise, they should be kept from access to privy vaults where they pick up the infections, which they later spread to humans by contact with the food and drink, and by unwashed hands and utensils.

See that your windows, doors, and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor will not molest your family. See that your grocer keeps meat, vegetables, and fruit screened from flies.

The use of DDT and other sprays for the control of all varieties of adult flies and fly larvae have come into wide usage. However, their use should be, after all trash and breeding places have been eliminated. Otherwise, spraying will give only temporary relief and a false sense of security.

Admittance of Polio Patients at Gonzales at Record Level

Reflecting the upsurge in polio incidence in Texas already this year, admissions at Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children have continued at a record-setting level for the last several weeks. Ten patients entered the rehabilitation hospital on July 7 and nine a week later, the largest patient groups admitted in several years.

All but three of the 19 are post-acute polio victims. The rest are other types of neuromuscular cases.

The Gonzales hospital of physical medicine and rehabilitation is currently operating at the maximum capacity its staff can efficiently handle, with admissions each week dependent on the discharges during the week previous. However, hospital officials point out that admissions might be increased if additional registered nurses and physical therapists could be recruited. The extreme shortage of professional personnel of this type, they indicated, makes recruitment most difficult, a problem which faces nearly every hospital in the country.

As soon as additional nurses and therapists can be located and employed, the Gonzales treatment center can increase its patient load substantially. Since this hospital draws patients from all over Texas, it is anticipated that the increase of applications for admission may result in a waiting period before patients can be admitted.

Four of the recently admitted patients are from the San Antonio area, but included in the group were patients from Del Rio, San Angelo, Big Spring, Shiner, Austin, Texas City, Sweetwater, Midland, Corpus Christi, San Marcos, Giddings, Laredo and Seguin, indicating the state-wide aspect of the treatment center's activity.

Weekly Sermon

from Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

Our attention is often called to the fact that rain falls on both just and unjust—a marvel of goodness, indeed; but we frequently overlook the fact that our heavenly Father sends the rain.

Because we know the direction of the winds and the seasons of the year, together with a vast number of general facts and laws, we forget God. Like children who eat the food but forget the parents who produce and prepare it, we fail to consider "hath the rain a father?" (Job 38:28).

Although for a rainfall of only one inch over one square mile, the clouds that hold that water weigh 64,700 tons, we fail to remember that "God bindeth the thick cloud" as surely as that "he stretched out the north over the empty space, and he hangeth the earth upon nothing" (Job 26:7). Not only does He bind the cloud, but He constitutes it. He originates it, and He it is who causes the gentle rain to kiss into food and fragrance a million growths.

We trace a raindrop and we come to the cloud and wind, but how very far short is our tracing until we see above the cloud and back of the wind that the Creator provides them. One raindrop or one dewdrop contains enough interrelated arrangements and designing to encourage me to adore God.

We may say that the earth moves on its axis, giving daylight after night, but who made the earth and who arranged the axis? God's Word says, "By him (Jesus Christ) all things hold together." The earth is a dead thing. The axis is imaginary. But Jesus Christ, who manages this rotation, is living and real. It is common to remark that the rotation of the earth will produce sunrise in the morning. But is it not better to consider that our Lord gives us the dawn of day?

Farming and gardening can be done in the atmosphere of worship if we but realize how dependent we are upon God. Much as a blind man cannot see a work of art, so a person who has not received Christ lacks the realization of the goodness of God in the midst of daily toil. To him rain may be only falling water. But to one who has been justified in Christ, the fields, the growth, the sunshine, the rain all have a higher significance—to him they are God-sent. Rain is but a symbol of the love sent down from heaven.

Canada climbed to the acknowledged first place in the production of nickel in 1905, three years after the Canadian nickel-copper ores and the then best method for their separation into nickel and copper, the so-called Orford Process, were brought together in the formation of the International Nickel Company. At that time, Canadian nickel production was at a rate of slightly over 1,500,000 pounds per month. Today International Nickel alone is producing 21,000,000 pounds per month and total Canadian production is over 23,000,000 pounds monthly. Syllabub is a dessert of cream and wine.

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, M. D., State Health Officer.

A dime store paint brush and a few ounces of chlordane are the only tools you need to run off those pesky cockroaches, State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox advises.

But he says keeping them off is a bigger job.

Cockroaches are disease carriers, from way back, the health officer pointed out. They've been found naturally infected with polio virus. And that alone is reason enough to declare war against the filthy ridden pests. Here's the way to do it:

First: get a 2 per cent chlordane spray and a two-bit paint brush from the drug store. Then take all the pots, pans, and dishes from the kitchen cabinet and wash them in soapy water.

Now paint the chlordane into all the cracks where shelves join walls, and around the drain and water pipes. That's all — don't paint the whole cabinet. While the spray is drying in the cabinets, behind the stove and the hot water heater where water and gas pipes enter the house.

Take off the motor panel of the refrigerator, and treat the floor and corners of the motor compartment. Paint the walls behind the refrigerator, because roaches will hide any place they can find protection. Be sure to paint around bathroom pipes, too.

In older houses it's possible that roaches will be hiding in cracks between the wall boards and door and window frames. So don't pass up a crack because it looks too small to harbor roaches. The young insects are mighty small.

After the spray in the cabinets has dried thoroughly, cover the shelves where dishes and food are stored with paper.

You can get a can of caulking compound for just a few cents, which makes filling cracks permanently an inexpensive process. But run some of the spray into cracks before sealing them up. This will kill ants, too.

All this will help you get rid of roaches, Dr. Cox emphasizes. But if you leave food exposed, they'll soon be back at the same old stand.

Hot Weather Hard on Fish, Says Agent

Hot, dry weather is even harder on the fishy tribe, especially those in farm ponds, says Joe Burkett, county agent.

Fish in farm ponds may die from parasites or diseases, poison in the water or a depleted supply of oxygen. The shortage of oxygen is listed as the most common cause of fish die-off in the summer time. Burkett says fish suffering from a lack of oxygen come to the surface gasping and swim into the shallow water. They sometimes, in desperation, jump out on the bank.

Wave action is very important to maintaining a supply of oxygen in the water, and during periods when this action is at a minimum, trouble may develop. Also, he says, the pond vegetation, including various pond weeds and microscopic algae, take up carbon dioxide in the water and release oxygen. This process is slowed down during cloudy periods due to the lack of sunlight. At this time of the year, when there is often little wind and some cloudy weather, fish may suffer.

When fish show symptoms of being short on oxygen, Burkett says stir up the water by running boats propelled with outboard motors over the pond. This will assist in building up the amount of oxygen in the water and since the calm periods are often of short duration, such action may save the fish.

Burkett points out that heavy applications of fertilizer should not be applied to ponds during July and August, especially in ponds that are heavily infested with pond mosses. The fertilizer stimulates the growth of microscopic algae to such an extent that the water is clouded up and sunlight cannot penetrate the water to sustain the life of the vegetation. This decaying vegetation, decomposing, takes up the free oxygen in the water and thus worsens the oxygen situation.

Fish, he says, sometimes die from poison getting into the water. Toxaphene and DDT are deadly to fish and when they have been used on crops or grasshoppers on the pond watershed, heavy rains following their application may wash them into the pond.

Parasites sometimes cause fish to die, but generally, parasites don't cause heavy losses. Heavy infestations of parasites do lower the vitality of fish and may contribute to their death. The yellow grub is the most common of the parasites infesting fish. Others include the threadworm or nematodes, spiny-headed worms, tapeworms and flukes. None of these parasites found in this country are harmful to man, says Burkett. Controlling parasites in the

"We are his people and the sheep of his pastures" (Psa. 100:2). So the psalmist sings, and from his song we glimpse God's great love for us.

But if God loves us, why do we suffer physical pain and mental torment? He is our Father in heaven, we reason, so why should He not smooth away every worry in our lives? Thus, we wrongly picture not a Father in heaven but a grandfather, a kindly benevolence who should indulgently grant us everything we crave.

To the human mind, love is the desire to make other people happy. But obviously, the world is full of suffering and unhappiness. Does God really love the world then? Rather than question God's love by our own finite reasoning we must realize that we can never fully comprehend or understand the Infinite's conception of love.

Yet God has permitted us to see His love through human expressions of love. In some ways, God's love might be compared with the love of a man for a dog. The companionship of these two is primarily for man's sake. He tames the dog that he may love it, not that it may love him; and that it may serve him, not that he may serve it. So man interferes with the dog in its natural state to make it more lovable. After he has washed it and house-trained it and taught it not to bite, he loves it more completely. Probably the puppy often wonders about the "love" of man, but the mature dog, in its new world of affection, privileges, and comforts, has no doubts.

Man takes a dog into his house to train and love, not a caterpillar. And God trains and loves man. Let us praise God that we are so high in His estimation that we are not left to follow our natural impulses but that through our sufferings we are made more lovable in His sight.

State Bar Endorses Loan Law to Get Rid of Loan Sharks

Declaring that loan sharks in Texas "in numbers and nuisance are now more in evidence than ever before," the State Bar of Texas has thrown its support behind a proposed small loan law. The measure, modeled from laws already in effect in almost all other states, provides for licensing and supervising the small loan industry, with both civil and criminal penalties, and for a maximum charge for loans "that will be fair to both borrower and lender."

Action by the State Bar at its recent convention in Houston was based upon a year's study of the problem by a special committee headed by District Judge W. S. Barron of Bryan and Tom Reavley, Lufkin attorney. Hearings were held and attorneys and executives of lending companies were heard.

Miss Miller and Mr. Norton Marry in Thalia

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson of Thalia was the setting Saturday evening, July 12, for the rites which united Miss Barbara Miller and J. H. (Bud) Norton in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jessie Miller of Vernon and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Norton of Vernon.

The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. B. Fitzgerald, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Thalia, as the couple stood before an improvised altar massed with greenery topped with an arrangement of white gladioli, and flanked by candelabra bearing tall white tapers.

Preceding the exchange of vows, the candles were lighted by Miss Kay Miller, sister of the bride, who wore a dress of pale green dotted organdy, and carried a nosegay of white split carnations. Mrs. W. B. Fitzgerald sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Walter Ramsey, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Miss Greta Greer served as maid of honor and was dressed in pale blue linen, accented with rhinestones; the bridesmaid, Miss Koelle Jones was attired in pale blue organdy, and she and the maid of honor carried nosegays identical to that of Miss Miller.

Kenneth Palmer of Burkburnett was best man for the groom. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Miller chose a navy dress of navy sheer, navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom was costumed in black nylon with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, J. C. Taylor of Thalia, was attired in a ballerina length dress of white embroidered organdy over pale blue taffeta, featuring a fitted bodice and short jacket. Her halo hat of white petals was sprinkled with rhinestones, and pale blue lace mitts completed her ensemble. She carried a cluster of white carnations tied with blue satin streamers. And, for tradition she wore pearls belonging to her sister, and sixpence in her shoe for luck.

Following the exchange of vows, a reception was held for the wedding party and friends. Wedding cake and punch were served from the table which was draped with a hand crocheted cloth over blue.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller, Tulsa, Okla.; Miss Mabel Miller and Mack McClintock, Dallas; Miss Frances Norton, Fort Worth; Mrs. L. B. Byars, Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Taylor and Gayle, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Taylor and Bill, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Gamble, Jean and Mike, J. C. Taylor, Thalia; Mr. and Mrs. Jack English and R. B. Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Cagle, Mrs. Elda Petty and Scarlett, and Joyce Jones, Vernon; Mrs. Dolly Jones and daughter, Koelle, and Virginia Rogers, Tipton, Okla.

For the wedding trip to New Mexico, Mrs. Norton chose a tan linen ensemble and red accessories.

The bride is a senior in Vernon High School and will continue her studies there. Mr. Norton attended the Medicine Mound school, and is employed in Vernon where the couple will reside.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

"The Edge of Time" was given as a book review by Mrs. G. H. Kinchele to the ladies of the West Side H. D. Club when they met with Mrs. John Teague as hostess Wednesday morning, July 23.

"The Edge of Time" has as its setting the Panhandle of Texas, and concerns a couple, Wade and Bethany, married in Missouri after Beth's cousin, Rosemary, jilted Wade. They traveled to Texas in a covered wagon and started their home on the claim Wade had already staked out.

They went through all the trials and hardships of a pioneer family. They had to drive miles to visit their nearest neighbors or to help sick friends.

Droughts and fires took their toll of their savings. Snow storms and blizzards made life hard, but they were of strong stock and braved it all. They learned to love the new land where they had established their home.

Mrs. Teague and daughters, Arleta and Linda Poar, served a lovely refreshment plate to Mrs. Clyde Cobb, a visitor; and Mesdames S. E. Tate, M. O'Connell, Henry Ross, Henry Edgin, J. L. Kinchele, G. H. Kinchele and C. R. Bryson.

The club will not have another meeting until Sept. 9 when they will meet with Mrs. Oscar Gentry. All members are urged to attend the encampment at Lake Pauline August 5 and 6.

SHIP BURNS, 45 RESCUED—Smoke hides main deck of Norwegian freighter Black Gull as 5,000-ton ship burns 65 miles off Long Island, New York. Forty-five of the 49 who leaped overboard were saved by Swedish liner Gripsholm. Four are missing.

Home Demonstration Notes

MARY DEEB BROWN

I have received only a few of the return cards from you club ladies concerning our annual encampment. The club recreation chairman and Mrs. Monroe Karcher, county recreation chairman, have done a fine job of planning this camp and certainly you will have a wonderful time if you go. So mail your card in today.

At our last council meeting we found that 4 of the 6 clubs had asked that we start a clothing program next year. Naturally with over 100 club women, some would rather have other programs. However, since the majority have asked for clothing I know we will all try to take an active part in it. We get out of a program only what we put into it. If you will try, I think that each and every one of you can learn something from these sewing programs.

Most of us feel that August is too hot to do much visiting. Nevertheless, now is the time for all club presidents, E. E. E. chairmen, and each and every club member to start getting new members for this fall.

THALIA W. S. C. S.

The Thalia Women's Society of Christian Service met Monday, July 28, with Mrs. Ed Huskey for the monthly social. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. H. W. Gray, president, who turned it over to the program chairman, Mrs. Sherman McBeath. The theme was "The world is so full; the wealth of the people on the left; on the right the millions of people in hopeless poverty." Prayers were offered by Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Langley.

The projects for this quarter are sponsoring and supporting an orphan child overseas in a war-torn country, sending a box to the Neighbor Homes in Kansas City, and having a weekly visiting team as a home mission.

A delicious plate of Cokes, tuna fish sandwiches, potato chips and cookies was a refreshing treat for the eleven members present.
