Charlie Smith, 73, pioneer colored cowpuncher in this area and resident of Crowell since 1929, passed away in the Foard County Hospital Sunday morning at 11 o'clock with a heart attack shortly after he was taken to the hospital. He had apparently recovered from the flu and was feeling good at the time the attack struck him Sunday morning.

Cutworms Causing Damage to Wheat in Foard County

By Joe Burkett, County Agent

Cutworms have recently been found to be heavily infesting some fields of wheat while other fields in Foard County have few or no worms to be found in them. The worms are apparently very spotted. From the way these infestations are showing up, it is quite possible that this pest will continue to spread.

Many of these worms are so small they are very hard to see; therefore, if you have noticed your stand of wheat disappearing, look closely for these worms. Cutworms usually stay in the soil during the day and come out to feed at night. Sometimes on cloudy days they will continue to stay above ground and eat. The best way then to look for these worms is, to find a spot where something has been clipping off the wheat and scratch around in the soil there a little. You should readily uncover the worms, if that is what is causing the damage.

The eggs of this particular pest are laid in the fall of the year. They soon hatch and the entire winter is spent in the worm stage. These worms will feed during warm spells throughout the winter, and when the cold spells come they will burrow deeper into the soil. In the spring and early summer, as these worms reach maturity, they will burrow several inches under the soil and then enter the pupal or inactive stage of their life cycle. This resting stage will last from one to two weeks, usually. The adult, or moth, will then emerge and soon begin to lay eggs for the next generation. These moths may lay up to 1,000 eggs each.

Next Week End to Offer Dollar Day Bargains Here

Friday and Saturday, Feb. 6 and 7, will inaugurate the fifth in a series of "Dollar Days" in Crowell. This monthly week end event has proven quite popular in the four previous sales and the next one will not be an exception, stated president Irving Fisch of the Crowell Booster Club, sponsors of the "Dollar Days."

Since the news will have advertisements from almost all local firms participating in the "Dollar Day" sales, it is requested that the merchants please turn in ads this week end if possible, with Tuesday noon the deadline. This cooperation will help greatly since extra issues must be printed to send into all homes in this trade area to acquaint the people of values being offered in Crowell.

ARE YOU A SLAVE TO TIME?

Are you a slave to the clock on the wall? If you are, don't feel individual because there are about 150,000,000 Americans in the same predicament.
 Junior has to rush because he has a date at eight, and it's already eight fifteen. Father just hasn't the time to fix that leaky faucet or the broken hinge on the back door.
 What is time, anyway? Webster says it is the proper moment for something to happen or an appointed hour for something to begin or end. Time to us is measured in hours, minutes or seconds. Do you really know what you mean when you say, "I just haven't the time"?

You loathe talking about time. Well, what could you do without it? Of course, you "hate" to see the hands of the clock roll we do to 9 a. m. but what could we do to clock the 80 or 40 yard dash without it? Much of our favorite entertainment is made possible by time. Precise timing is required for acrobats to execute difficult feats or actors to coordinate an interesting play or movie.

Hours are golden! Once they are gone, they can never return. Many outstanding books, plays, poems are written in leisure time. We all have time. Do you?

TATTLE BOARD INTRODUCED INTO C. H. S.

No more class skipping or hooky playing from now on. The reason? CHS has just acquired a new addition to its list of "detective agency" devices. This one is called a tattle board by CHS students because it really tells off on some chronic offenders.

The board is placed on the bulletin board for all to see. By each name listed there's a thumb tack. A white one means that a person has been absent one-half a day due to sickness, yellow stands for a whole day due to sickness. Light and dark blue symbolize a whole and half day of absences for other reasons. A green tack denotes tardiness and a red one denotes an absence of one period. By the way, four tardies or four period absences mean a whole day counted against you.

 Seems as though this tattle system is working very efficiently. This cuts down the number of offenses because who wants the whole school to know what mischief they've been up to?

EDUCATIONAL SURVEY CONDUCTED AT CHS

An educational survey of the senior class conducted by Henry Black, principal, revealed various vocational interests, church affiliations, and college preferences. Vocational interests ranged from farming to missionary work, farming at the top of the list. Bookkeeping, music and journalism followed in that order.
 The survey showed the Methodists to have a slight edge on the Baptists in church affiliation. Other churches mentioned were Church of Christ, Assembly of God, Christian and Catholic. Only a small percentage of the class did not attend church at all.
 University of Texas seemed to be the most popular choice of all colleges. Midwestern, Texas Tech, ACC, TSCW, A&M and various business colleges were about even in college preferences.

 Out of the entire class, there were only eight who were not planning to attend some college after graduation. Five of these were boys who are nearing the draft age.
 There are 42 members of the 53 senior class of which 29 are boys.

103 STUDENTS MAKE THE "GRADE" FOR HONOR ROLL

Seems like the New Year's resolutions have been working wonders. At the end of this six weeks, there were 32 students polled with the required 25 points to make the A honor roll. Their lazier brothers polled 71 having 17 points to make the B honor roll total 103, nearly 70 per cent of the entire student body. Pretty nifty, eh?
 The freshmen newcomers "out-did" the senior veterans with a total of 45 honor students to the seniors' 20. Of course in comparison to class size, the number of honor students were about even due to the fact that the number of freshmen is about double that of the seniors. Sophomores and juniors ran neck and neck with each placing 18 on the list.
 One more item of interest is to the female population. They beat the boys almost two to one with the girls placing 65 and the boys placing 38 on the honor roll.

NEW SHRUBS AND FENCES

No doubt everyone has noticed the new fences in front of high school. Well, as you wisely guessed, these are for the protection of the shrubs, some of which were planted only last week by the VA boys with the assistance of Mr. Myers, Mr. Huskey and Mr. Black who ordered the shrubs. Credit goes to Norman Shultz, Eugene Kajs and C. T. McDaniel.
 Mr. Huskey, by diligent work, kept the grass and shrubs alive through the heat of last summer.
 Let's all do our part and help to make our campus beautiful by observing the fences and keeping off the shrubs.

VERNON FTA CLUB ENTERTAINED IN CROWELL

Rebecca Calvin and George Anne Davis, members of the Future Teachers of America, were hostesses for the January meeting of the club, held at Crowell in George Anne's home.
 Ronnie Hamm, Frances Mote and Anne Loder gave hints on how to become a teacher and how to be a good teacher.
 The hostesses served refreshments of Cokes and cookies to sixteen Vernon members and their sponsors, Mrs. Stella Bryant, Miss Dorothy Watson, Miss Frankie Kirkpatrick was also a guest.

CANDID COMMENTS

The Football Boys . . . and their dates are still re-living the banquet which in their opinion was the best in CHS history.
 Abe Martin . . . made a hit with everyone who heard him speak and especially the football players who accredited this to "he seemed to be just a real good guy."
 I'm Sure . . . the players and everyone else for that matter would like to express their appreciation to Mr. Self for his excellent "In Memoriam" for Billy Ray. It was a last public tribute to the memory of a fighting player and a great guy.
 Several Dates . . . at the banquet were Jean Whitby and Buddy Caddell, Carolyn Bell and Billy Abston, Frances Kincaid and Duane Elliott, Marcia Kincaid and Ginger Johnson, Sue Meason and Gerry Knox, Billy Bell and Gordon Graves, Vida June Tarver and Don Kidd, Wayne Borchardt and Zonell Eddy, Jimmy Everson and Peggy New.
 English Term Themes . . . are rolling around again. Seniors: remember the requirements. Term themes are due at the end of this six weeks.

Chet Dixon presented something new in marionette shows for the entertainment of a large student audience in the high school auditorium, Monday, Jan. 26.
 Supt. Grady Graves, feeling the program would prove especially entertaining for the younger students seated the grade school students toward the front of the auditorium and the high school students were seated in the back and in the balcony.
 Chet Dixon opened his program with a magic comedy skit in which his old "professor" directed him in performing a magical stunt. The "professor" spoke in the form of a voice from a recording. The effect was astonishing and realistic.
 From an entirely black stage, Dixon brought forth his puppets which glowed in the dark. Lighting effects which are said to have seldom been seen in the entertainment world were achieved thru the use of ultra violet lighting as used in World War II for night flying.
 His puppets which were hand-carved by Dixon himself were realistic imitations of such well known characters as Al Jolson, Mr. Bones, and the Daring Young Man on the flying trapeze. All performed with the accompaniment of lively music in the background.
 Jackie Walker assisted Mr. Dixon with the demonstrations of this art in which Jackie with Dixon's help made one of the puppets dance about him.

 In another highly amusing skit, Mr. Dixon had six grade school boys ascend the stage. He gave each boy a hat and arranged them in a circle. At Dixon's rapid-fire orders, the boys exchanged hats with first one and then another. The orders, however, were given so fast that the boys often got mixed up which provided the laughter from the audience.
 Mr. Dixon, in the last phase of his show, made colorful toy dogs from balloons.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT, PETROLEUM ENGINEERING, AMBITIONS OF YELL LEADER, WILDCAT GUARD

You rarely see him with her or her without him, so it seems only logical that this week's Wildcat choices should be Carolyn Bell and Billy Abston.
 From the very first day she started to school, fate has really been good to Carolyn Bell. A cheerleader for three years in high school, Carolyn has really had five years experience because of the fact that she led yells in the seventh and eighth grades. Vivacious, hazel eyed Carolyn was also seventh and eighth grade Halloween queen. Her list of high school achievements could go on indefinitely, but here are just a few: class officer two years, most friendly girl two years, class favorite one year, and one of the ten most beautiful girls this year.
 Some "favorites of a favorite" are typing, football, playing the piano, a supper of frog legs and dancing with Billy Abston to her favorite record, "Blue Moon."
 It's rumored that Baylor is the lucky school that will get Carolyn after graduation. She'll major in child development and will probably have all the children charmed before she finishes.
 To keep pace with past honors, Carolyn's personality will probably win her many more in college and all through life.
 As for the masculine half of the duo, Billy Abston has some pretty worthwhile ambitions and honors to his credit.
 A personality plus and all round sense of humor won "Abbo" the title of FHA king last year, best all-around boy this year and numerous offices in his class and FFA.
 An all-out sports enthusiast, Billy was an outstanding guard on the Wildcat football team two years. Of his many just "likes" in sports he chooses baseball, tennis and basketball.
 Other "likes" include murder mystery books, sleep, sleep, sleep—oops, record's stuck—and Carolyn Bell. As for music, just any kind except hillbilly which is, as "Abbo" puts it, "for the dogs."
 Next year ACC will have Billy on its list of freshmen who are majoring in petroleum engineering. Also future plans might include Carolyn Bell, but well, who knows?

THE UNSEEN MURDERER

(Notice, this theme was chosen by Homemaking II girls as the best accident theme of the class).
 Lurking in the shadows of your home is a killer. Because you are unaware of his presence, he has a better opportunity to perform his terrible crimes. He hides in all parts of the house; however, he prefers the kitchen. Here are many gadgets to aid him in performing his crimes.

Let's look in on the John and Mary Doe family. It's a beautiful, sunny day, a day when you would least expect something to happen. John has just left for the office, and in the kitchen, moving about from cabinet, to stove, to sink, Mary goes her perilous way, quite unaware of the danger that is going to beset her. Little does she know that a murderer named "Accident" is crouching in the corners of her kitchen waiting for an opportunity to do his dreadful deeds. Finishing the breakfast dishes, Mary goes to see about Baby Jane. "Ah," think accident, "Now is my chance. M-m-m. Let's see . . . If I wrinkle the rug, she will slip and fall and then I'll have a victim to add to my list."

 With a million things on her mind, Mary comes hurriedly to the hall. As she steps on the . . .

Austin Highlights
by Senator George Moffett

The Legislature is now beginning the serious work of the session. Bills by the dozens are being introduced into each branch every day. The total number of bills will probably be between 1,400 and 1,500. Almost every member has at least one pet bill which he would like to pass. It can easily be seen that the large number of bills which are introduced makes it impossible for all of them to reach the Governor's desk, and, of course, some of them are not in line with wise public policy.

The Constitution of our State, as well as other states, requires that each bill be sent to a suitable committee immediately after it has been introduced. The committees are usually composed of from five to twenty-one members, dependent upon the importance of said committee. It is necessary that each committee take up and consider the bills which have been referred to it. If a bill deals with a matter of important state-wide policy, a date is usually set for a public hearing, at which time any citizen may come and express his views upon the merits or demerits of the bill. On some highly important bills, hundreds of people come to Austin to express their viewpoints for or against the bill under consideration. After these hearings are held, the committee meets again and often suggests amendments or changes, after which the committee votes upon a motion to report the bill favorably or unfavorably. If the committee report is favorable, the bill is then placed on the calendar of the House in which it has been introduced and it then comes up for consideration by the entire membership of that branch. If it passes through the House in which it has been introduced it then goes over to the other branch where the same process is repeated. A bill may not pass each branch in the same form. A committee from each House is then appointed to reach a compromise upon the differences between the two Houses, after which the bill goes to the Governor's office. He may veto or approve it as he sees fit.

According to records at the sheriff's office, there have been 710 cars registered this year, which does not represent all the cars in the county, as some have put their cars in the garage rather than to pay the license fee at the present. There were 835 registered in 1922.

Dave Sollis, the auctioneer, says last Saturday witnessed the biggest crowd to ever assemble in Thalia, the occasion being the community auction sale. An auction sale is set for Crowell on Feb. 5.

Rainfall recorded for each year since 1913 follows: 1913, 18.42; 1914, 29.69; 1915, 28.60; 1916, 11.97; 1917, 11.27; 1918, 19.68; 1919, 39.49; 1920, 28.80; 1921, 16.32; 1922, 16.84.

THE WILDCAT

she loses her balance. Grabbing the door, she saves herself from a nasty fall. "I must be more careful," thinks Mary as she prepares Baby Jane for her bath.

"Oh, well," says Accident, "I'll get another chance. I think I'll see what traps I can lay in the kitchen while she's out."

Busy in the kitchen Accident is having the time of his life. He has already been in the cutlery drawer. Yes, there is soapy water on the floor. "Let's see, if I place the salt on the top shelf and put this old chair nearby, she's sure to have an accident. She's so careless that she is sure to use it."

Hurrying back to the kitchen, Mary glances at the clock. "Oh, dear, I'd better put the stew on now, if I want it done in time for supper." As she reaches into the cutlery drawer to get a knife, she exclaims, "Ouch!" Withdrawing her hand, she sees a deep gash which is bleeding badly. Hastily she bandages it and finishes cutting meat and vegetables for her stew. Now all she needs is seasoning. Looking everywhere for the salt, she finds it on the top shelf where Accident placed it. Reaching for the rickety chair, she climbs upon it. With a loud crash, Mary, the chair, and salt hit the floor. Getting up and finding that no bones are broken she finishes the stew. "I'll mop the floor and then clean John's suit," decides Mary as she goes about her task.

"Come on, Baby Jane," says Mary, catching sight of her in the doorway, "Let's go clean Daddy's suit."

Together they climb the stairs to get the suit. Mary decides to clean it in the bathroom where the cleaning fluid and water are on a shelf.

In the bathroom the hot water heater is lighted. She fills the basin with cold water and pours the cleaning fluid on the suit. The fumes from the cleaning fluid fill the room. An explosion is heard and the room bursts into flames. The sirens of fire engines and ambulances are heard rushing to the scene of the disaster, but they're too late because Accident has already claimed his victims.

We do not know when and where Accident will strike again, but keep the protection of these precautions at hand. For home dry cleaning, use a non-flammable cleaning fluid, use it outdoors or with the windows open to prevent poisonous toxic fumes.

Keep non-edible substances (paint, cleaning fluid, bleaches, pest poisons) out of children's reach in a place where they will not be mistaken for food by a hurried cook.

Keep knives in a rack from which you can take them by the handle, rather than in a drawer where you must fumble among the blades.

Never touch interior parts of electric sockets. Avoid touching any metal part of a lamp or other electrical device in such damp locations as kitchens or laundries. It might be alive.

Avoid touching bare or abraded spots on appliance cords. Handle cords carefully, and have them replaced at once when you notice a break in the insulation.

In buying any household appliance, insist on one that has been inspected and approved by the proper authority. Ask for instructions on its use, and follow them.

Don't work near a stove while wearing loose clothes which might catch fire.

representing CHS turned in creditable performances. Billy Marlow missed this game because of a case of influenza.

In the B game, DuWayne Elliott slugged in 13 markers to pace the reserves by the Archer City Bees, 54-35. Robert Graves netted 11 points for runner-up scoring honors in this game.

Friday night the Wildcat participants will have an opportunity to observe one of the top games on the current schedule when the Eagles of Chillicothe invade the stronghold of the mighty CHS rebounders in what should be a thriller diller. Let's all come out and see those Cats clip the Eagles' wings and give our bustling team our support in this crucial contest.

Mrs. W. A. Dunn, as leader, brought a program on the History of Music. She developed her subject in a most interesting manner. Assisting Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. M. A. ## Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

I am sorry to have missed so many clubs this month, but it was unavoidable. I will combine this demonstration with the one for February and that way we can all catch up together.

On Thursday, Jan. 29, Mrs. Tom Callaway of the Foard City Club and I will go to Haskell for a THDA meeting. At that time we hope to receive information which we can bring home to you for use at your second meeting in February.

I had planned to visit all demonstrators this month. However, due to this outbreak of flu I did not get to. I will contact each demonstrator sometime early in February as the most convenient time to visit her and make these delayed visits then.

Here is a recipe for Salmon Cups which is an excellent supper dish.
2 tsp. butter, 2 tsp. flour, 1/4 tsp. pepper, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1 cup milk, 1 lb. can flaked salmon, 1 tsp. prepared mustard, 4 hard cooked eggs — chopped, 1/2 cup chopped celery, 1 cup grated American cheese.
Melt butter; add flour, pepper and salt. Gradually add milk; cook stirring constantly, until thickened. Add salmon, mustard, hard-cooked eggs and celery. Heat; pour hot mixture into 6 well greased custard cups. Top with grated cheese. Place in pan with 1 inch of hot water. Broil slowly until cheese is brown. Serves 6.

CO-LABORERS CLASS

The song service was followed by Mrs. Clint White who brought an impressive devotional. Mrs. W. C. Erwin was lesson leader on II Peter. She brought out a number of good lessons.
Mrs. S. S. Bell, class president, conducted a business meeting. The hostesses served a delicious refreshment plate to sixteen members.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM your State CAPITOL

Maybe you don't realize it, but as a taxpayer you have 40,000 employees.
These people are state workers. And it looks like you are going to increase their salaries. All depends on the legislature.
A bill to hike the pay of state workers has been introduced by the Austin delegation: Representatives Obie Jones, Pearce Johnson and C. L. Sandahl Jr. and Senator Johnnie B. Rogers.
If it passes, the measure will give "temporary emergency" wage boosts of 15 per cent on all state salaries up to $3,600 per year and 15 per cent on the first $3,600 of higher salaries.
Robert B. Baldwin, Shivers' budget director, proposed a job by job, cost of living increase, on an equalized basis.
In his opening message to the legislature, Governor Shivers asked that an increase in workers' pay be included in the budget bill, but that can not become effective until Sept. 1 when the fiscal year begins. Hence the emergency legislation.

It is Edward Clark, Austin attorney, who bosses the legislature.

Judge Kessinger to Speak at Knife and Fork Club Feb. 3rd
A large number of the members of the Vernon Knife and Fork Club and their out-of-town guests are expected to be present at the next meeting of the organization when Judge Harold C. Kessinger, speaker, wit humorist and genial philosopher, will be the guest of honor.
According to Norman Loader, the president, the affair will be held on Feb. 3 at the Wilbarger Auditorium.
He has the droll humor of Will Rogers and the manner and appearance of Wendell Wilkie. His genial personality and brilliant speech have captivated scores of audiences throughout the United States. His lectures have been briefly summarized as "common sense dramatized."
In addition to his ability to administer justice, the Judge has been successful as editor, publisher, business executive and educator.
Inhabitants of the Isle of Man are called Manxmen.

says Leslie Velie, writing in the February Reader's Digest. Velie charges that some of the state's most important laws are written in Clark's office and in his capacity as lobbyist for Herman Brown of the firm of Brown & Root.
Velie says Clark has used the power to tell potential political candidates "not to bother" to run, and that he can tell the lawmakers "what they should bother with."
In reply to all this, Clark snapped that Velie's story was a "false, foul, and infamous smear." He added that he was "shocked and surprised" that the Digest would print a story so "very definitely off-color and completely untrue."
The source for the story, Clark believes, is a "well known local radio propagandist who has been working very closely with the radical wing of the labor movement."

A number of bills going into the hopper for legislative consideration are familiar — they had been introduced at previous sessions.

One of these is the so-called fair-trade bill. This time its author Rep. Lamar Zively of Temple. The measure would prohibit advertising or selling of goods below cost.
Proponents of this bill argue that it would prevent a big merchant's running a little one out of business by ruinous sales. Opponents contend that the public benefits when such sales permit purchases at bargain prices. This is one bill that will affect the women, who do about 80 per cent of the buying nowadays.
—tpa—
Also familiar was a bill to legalize race track betting in Texas. The author of this one, Rep. Ed Sheridan of San Antonio, declared it would raise many millions of dollars in tax revenue.
—tpa—
Another way to get more money for the state would be to a tax on natural gas companies says Rep. Dolph Briscoe of de.

Briscoe's proposition is to a $60 per year for each horse of capacity of each company used to move natural gas lines. The great bulk of it would be paid by people of Texas who use Texas gas, bill's author said.
