Installation Service Held by B&PW Club

Mrs. Audrey Collins was installed as president when a business-social session was held by the Business and Professional Women's Club on last Thursday evening.

Other officers assuming duties for the 1953-54 season were Mrs. Mae Solomon, vice president; Mrs. Viola Biggestaff, secretary; and Mrs. Inez Spencer, treasurer.

The installing officer was Miss Mayme Lee Collins, the retiring president. For the ceremonies she used the Emblem Installation Service, likening the duties of the various officers to the symbols which make up the Club emblem; namely, Winged Victory of Samothrace, Nike, Ship of Commerce, Scrool and the Torch.

Plans were made for attending the state convention to be held in San Antonio on June 5-7.

Miss Cora Carter presented a lovely gift to the retiring president, and also to Mrs. Dove Carlile, who has served as director of District 10 during the past year.

A pretty and appetizing salad plate was served by the hostesses, Miss Carter, Mrs. Cressie Stovall and Mrs. Eva Sloan, to seven members and guests, Misses Marilyn and Marian Hays and Rebecca Calvin.

FAMILY NIGHT

"Family Night" will be observed at the Methodist Church Friday night, June 5, on the lawn east of the church building at which time every family of the church is urged to be present.

Rev. R. M. McAnally, the incoming pastor, and his family will have moved in and this occasion will be an opportunity to meet and welcome them.

The program will begin at 7:30 p. m. and all who attend are asked to bring a picnic lunch. A program is being prepared and a period of fellowship will follow.

"BABE IN WOODS" FOUND—Ocella and Paul Bradley bend over their daughter, Beverly, 2, after two lost 49 hours in bear and wolf-infested wilds around Menominee, Mich. Virtually every man in Menominee County sought lost girl until helicopter pilot spotted her and brought her to Menominee Hospital.

More Than 470,000 Bushels of Foard County's Drouth-Stricken 1953 Wheat Crop Harvested Up to Wednesday Noon

Harvesting of Foard County's 1953 wheat crop steadily is drawing to a close, according to estimates made by farmers and elevator operators. The general consensus of opinion indicated that approximately 75 per cent of the county's grain has been harvested. A great deal of late wheat sated tered over the county remains to be cut, however.

Wednesday morning, elevator officials of Crowell estimated that over 470,000 bushels had been received in the county's elevators. From every indication the entire total wheat harvested will not exceed the 600,000 bushel mark. By this date last year approximately 900,000 bushels had been cut and the entire crop total was calculated to reach one million bushels. The cause for this difference was due, no doubt, to lack of moisture on the wheat during the year.

The amount of wheat harvested in the county will vary greatly. Some farmers in the eastern section of the county have reported up to 20 bushels yielded per acre. However, the average over the entire county will probably tally out less than 10 bushels per acre.

Royal Arch Grand Visitor Speaks Here Tuesday Night

A. A. McSweeney of Stephenville, Grand High Priest of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas, was the principal speaker at a meeting held for Masons of this district at the Crowell Masonic hall Tuesday night. Other visitors were District Deputy Grand High Priest A. L. Fitts of Wichita Falls, who introduced the speaker; W. T. (Bill) Elder, past District Deputy Grand High Priest; W. R. Werley, past Grand High Priest, and R. Lee Joiner, fraternal correspondent for the Grand Royal Arch Chapter, all of Wichita Falls, and several other visitors from Wichita Falls, Chillicothe and Thalia.

The Grand High Priest had made fraternal visits to several towns in West Texas. In making these engagements he tried to select towns never visited by a Grand High Priest. It was brought out during the meeting that the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas owns and operates the home for aged Masons at Arlington and that a man does not have to be a Royal Arch Mason to enter this institution when it becomes necessary. Master Masons in good standing for ten years are eligible to enter the home if they are physically able to be up and go to their meals.

Mr. McSweeney's talk was enjoyed by a reasonably large crowd considering the busy harvest season. He has been a mathematics professor in John Tarleton College in Stephenville for the past thirty years and retired as of June 1.

Refreshments of ice cream and soft drinks were served.

Roe Bird of Hale Center is here looking after his wheat harvest. He reports an average of 11 bushels per acre on his farm east of Crowell.

Three People Seriously Injured in Pickup-Wheat Truck Collision East of Crowell Friday Afternoon; Truck Burns

Four people involved in a wheat truck-pickup collision two miles east of Crowell on Highway 70 Friday afternoon barely escaped the traffic fatality statistics when the truck loaded with wheat collided with the late model pickup transporting three passengers. The westward bound truck, driven by a Plainview man, collided with the pickup, containing Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Scheller and daughter, Lola, of Olton, when Mr. Scheller lost control of his pickup and could not avoid crashing into the loaded truck. The Olton trio was en route to Bowie when the wreck occurred. The trucker was taking the wheat to a Crowell elevator.

When the two vehicles collided, the impact was so near the truck's gasoline tank that an immediate explosion occurred. The driver managed to liberate himself from the burning confines of the wrecked vehicle and sustained only minor lacerations and bruises. Members of the other party were not so fortunate, however. All three occupants were rushed to the Foard County Hospital where medical officials termed the condition of the patients as critical. Latest reports indicated that the wreck victims were improving.

Both vehicles were completely demolished. The truck and the wheat were rapidly destroyed by accelerated flames from the highly inflammable gasoline tank. Ruins of the wreck were brought to Crowell and are now parked across the street south of the county jail.

According to information released by Joe Burkett, County Agent, the first planned group activity will come on Tuesday night parties for the leaders and 4-H members. The official opening session is scheduled for Sbis Hall on Wednesday morning. Dr. G. C. Baker Jr., chaplain, Southern Methodist University, is the featured speaker and will use the theme of the Roundup, "From Here Where . . . What Does the Future Hold for You," as the basis for his address.

The delegates, after the address, will take their places in assigned groups to develop the points raised by Baker. The leaders will meet in a separate session. A chuck wagon feed is scheduled for Wednesday evening. The 4-H visitors will spend Thursday morning seeing Texas A&M College and in the afternoon will hear reports from the 4-H groups.

The annual banquet is scheduled for Thursday evening and will again be given by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. C. T. Johnson, southwestern area director for the Foundation, is arranging the entertainment part of the banquet program.

Attendance for the 1953 Roundup is limited to one 4-H boy and girl and one man and woman adult leader from each county in the state. Two county extension agents from each district and all district extension agents . . . about 1,000 total.

A total of $225.67 was raised for the benefit of disabled veterans and veterans who may become needy and require help. To those people who contributed so generously of their money, to the merchants who contributed advertising space, to the girls and members of the Girl Scout and Boy Scout troops who volunteered their help in the sale of the Buddy Poppies, members of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies' Auxiliary would like to take this opportunity to say a sincere "Thank you" for a job well done.

On Saturday, May 30, members of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9177 and its Ladies' Auxiliary, assisted by girls from the local Girl Scout Troop, boys from the local Boy Scout Troop, and other volunteer workers sold 1,000 Buddy Poppy flowers.

A large enrollment has been made for the first week and much interest manifested.

Dividing the Customer's Dollar

Who gets the most out of each dollar that customers spend with American business?

The answer varies substantially from business to business, of course. But it is commonplace today for typical enterprises, and especially the larger enterprises, to pay more money to government in taxes than to any other group or agency.

Last year's financial experience of a leading oil company is very much in point. Here is what happened:

Its employees received 14 1/2 cents out of each customer's dollar. And they were well paid indeed—the average was $5.810 per employee.

Profits came to 8 1/2 cents of each customer's dollar. But only 3 1/2 cents was paid out to the shareholders. The remainder, 4 1/2 cents, was plowed back into the business to help pay for expansion and the replacement of worn-out equipment.

Federal, state and local tax collectors got 18 1/2 cents out of every dollar customers spent for the products of this company. In short, government received more than five times as much as the owners of the business—and one-quarter more than the employees.

Many other companies report similar experience. Vote-seeking politicians often use attacks on business as their stock in trade. But it's the tax dollars of such businesses as this oil company that pay a very large part of the huge costs of government.

Weakest Argument

One current argument in favor of the St. Lawrence waterway is that Canada will undertake the work alone if we don't go in with her, and that joint control is vital to the interest in the United States.

A spokesman for the Association of American Railroads aptly told a Senate committee that the joint control claim "is the weakest of the multitude of weak arguments that have been advanced through the years in an effort to persuade Congress to embark upon this venture." Existing treaties, he pointed out, assure equal rights of navigation to the ships and citizens of both countries, and provide for equal toll charges. Moreover, we would have the protection of U. S. control of facilities used by Canadian vessels on the Great Lakes.

If Canada wants to build the waterway, that is her right. So far as we are concerned, every objective study—and there have been many—indicate that an adequate waterway would be almost unbelievably costly, that it would be unusable much of the year, that it would be exceedingly vulnerable to air attack in the event of a war, and that it would provide no service beyond the capabilities of the railroads and other existing agencies.

VA Explains Recent Removal of Credit Controls on GI Loans

Veterans Administration this week spelled out what the recent removal of credit controls on GI loans means to the home-buying World War II or Korean veteran. The action, effective April 25, 1953, and authorized by the Housing and Home Finance Agency, removes the last vestige of credit controls which were applied to GI loans under the Defense Production Act.

In addition, VA said it has removed restrictions on how the four per cent gratuity payment made to veterans who obtain GI loans may be applied.

The gratuity payment made by VA equals four per cent of the guaranteed portion of the GI loan up to a maximum of $160. Previously under credit controls, the gratuity had to be applied to reduce the principal amount of the loan.

Now, the lender and the veteran may also apply the gratuity in other ways, for example, to pay the first two or three installments on the loan, or to pay all or part of the first year's taxes and insurance.

The removal of credit controls means that under VA regulations it is now permissible for veterans to obtain GI home loans with no down payment and with a repayment term up to 30 years.

VA emphasize, however, that since VA guaranteed loans are made by private lending institutions, the lender makes the decision as to the terms of the loans it makes.

The amount of down payment and the length of the repayment period are matters to be agreed upon between the veterans and the lending institution making the loan.

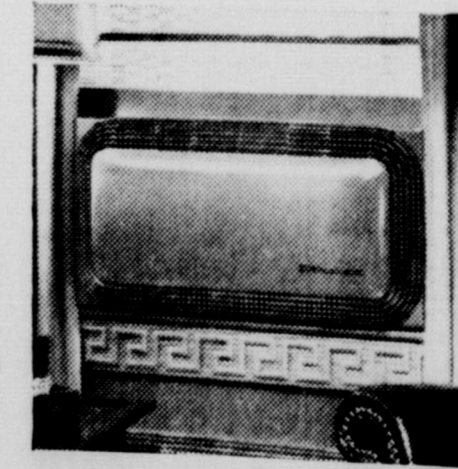

Prior to the action removing controls, veterans were required to pay at least 5 per cent down in most cases, and the maximum loan was usually restricted to 20 or 25 years.

Credit controls were first applied to GI loans in 1950 shortly after the beginning of the Korean conflict as an anti-inflationary measure.

News from the Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

Washington, D. C. May 29.—All indications are that the administration has revised its position about what is "must" for this session of Congress. It now seems highly probable that any amendments to the Taft-Hartley Act will be considered before Congress reopens. I doubt if any of the amendments to this law will be introduced during this session. There is also no chance that any amendments will be given to Social Security in view of the fact that the Chairman of the Committee has jurisdiction over this matter in the House has stated there would be no bills reported out during this session that affect Social Security. It is a great need for revision of Social Security laws, particularly in view of the fact that the present law, in many respects, those that need the most attention are getting the least. However, the House did approve funds for a study of the complete Social Security program by a subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee. Still on the program to be considered by Congress adjourns is legislation to admit 240,000 Eastern European refugees, extension of excess profits tax, reorganization of the Agriculture and Commerce Departments, and extension of the reciprocal trade program. In addition to this and several other legislative proposals, of course, there are several appropriation bills that will be considered by the House just as soon as they are reported out of the various committees that are now working on them.

This week the House passed the Department of Army Civil Functions Appropriation Bill for 1954. As it passed the House, the bill was seventy-five million dollars below the budget estimate and, roughly, one hundred and sixty million dollars under the appropriations for the current year. As this action indicates, the House has so far been very economy minded in considering appropriations.

The only Department of the Government that I know of which has some real record of economy is the Department of Agriculture. The Agriculture appropriation in 1953 was 30.4 per cent less than was appropriated for that Department in 1940. During this same period of time the Department of Commerce received 1,370 per cent more. The Labor Department received 543 per cent more. The State Department received 1,146 per cent more, and the Treasury Department appropriations were greater by 203 per cent. Also, since 1939, the Department of Agriculture has reduced its employees by 38.7 per cent. No other Department of our government has shown any such decrease. There undoubtedly can be more progress made in economy and efficiency in this Department, but I think they should be commended for the progress that has been made during the last thirteen years, and many of the other Departments should certainly follow their lead.

Visitors from home this week were Mr. and Mrs. Gowin Davis of Bellevue; Mr. D. C. Eiland and son, Allen, of Munday; Mrs. Grover C. Johnson, Professor A. F. Edwards, David Robinson, Miss May Harrison, Miss Bertha Taylor, Mrs. William Newell, all of Wichita Falls; and Cpl. Anthony Fenoglio now stationed at the Army Chemical Center in Maryland whose home is Nocona.

Rains Lift Bass Hatch in West Texas

Now that the rains have come again to at least some parts of West Texas, many drought-blighted activities are being resumed.

Among these, according to the Chief Aquatic Biologist of the Game and Fish Commission, is the State Fish Hatchery at San Angelo. In fact, he considers what the hatchery has recently rallied to do to be among the better wildlife success stories following the original downpour in early March. The Chief Aquatic Biologist said the hatchery which had faced abandonment, quickly capitalized on the timely water supply so effectively that approximately five million black bass have been hatched and already distributed. And it's a near record production for that hatchery.

He credited Superintendent Luke Proctor of the San Angelo Hatchery with handling the amazing comeback.

In the face of talk about moving his parent fish to another hatchery, Proctor had been struggling to pump in enough water to preserve his precious brood bass when it began raining the second week in March. Actually, when Proctor's rearing ponds caught water, a few bass already spawned. These comparatively few eggs were lost and Proctor now says that was a good idea since the early crop would have preyed on the later hatch.

Proctor and his crew, using pickup trucks with aerated tanks, have distributed roughly five million black bass fry to the big lakes and new lakes in the thirty-seven central West Texas counties in his district, and to some counties in adjoining districts. He soon will deliver a shipment of number one fingerling bass to the El Paso and Davis Mountain area and will retain about half a million bass to raise to the five-inch fingerling size for fall delivery.

With the bulk of the bass out of the way, Proctor and his crew will concentrate now on the forthcoming fatfish, crappie and bream hatch.

Texans Owe Half of All Money Owed to Loan Sharks

Of all the money owed to loan sharks in the United States, nearly one-half is owed by the citizens of Texas, according to a study made by the Bureau of Business Research of Western Reserve University.

Edward B. Winn of Dallas, first vice president of the Junior Bar of Texas, citing this finding, asks, "Why do Texans pay almost as much to loan sharks as the people of the other 47 states combined? Because 33 states have solved the small loan problem through legislation that is fair alike to borrower and lender—with the result that the usurers, driven out of these other states, concentrate in the remaining states, of which Texas is the chief."

"And that is why our State is known as the 'loan sharks' paradise."

The Junior Bar of Texas is urging adoption of a constitutional amendment and a statute, prepared by a special committee of the State Bar of Texas, placing a ceiling on all charges, whether called interest or anything else, that a borrower has to pay. This small loan legislation also would place the loan companies under the supervision of the State Banking Department.

A. A. Holds Third General Conference

New York — "Alcoholics Anonymous" has held its third general conference here in New York without fanfare or hangers-on which feature many conventions.

The four-day sessions received no publicity, but the 75 delegates and 14 trustees helped spread the word of the success of the movement that rehabilitates sufferers from alcoholism.

The "AA" delegates had a good time and they drink, all right, but it is always coffee or soft drinks. They stay up late, like other conventioners in the big town, but their enjoyment was tempered with serious discussions about how to lead other people from the merrasses of alcoholism.

In New York the delegates inspected "AA" facilities in the metropolitan area, including hospital wards in the Knickerbocker and Bellevue hospitals, and the 24th Street center from which "AA" operates. On the edge of the Bowery they inspected the Third Avenue center where 10,000 "Skid Row" derelicts have sought help during the last five years.

Volunteers Run Center
This center is operated by volunteers, with the exception of one of the caretakers who is paid $1 a day for his work. He is a rehabilitated alcoholic from the jungles of the Bowery.

In many respects an amazing present day human movement, Alcoholics Anonymous is not an organization. It has no officers. It is even more of a fellowship than a society. Deeply spiritual by accident rather than by design, "AA" members concern themselves with only one task—to stay sober themselves by helping others to get sober.

Into the fellowship come persons from all walks of life, from all economic, cultural and intellectual levels, from all racial and religious groups in 60 countries. In 18 years since its start, about 128,000 men and women have joined. There are 4,925 groups, of which 3,198 are in the United States.

The highlight of the New York meeting was a speech by the founder of Alcoholics Anonymous, a man known round the world as "Bill." With a physician, now dead, "Bill" discovered in 1934 that the only way he could help himself live normally without alcohol was to help others whose problem was identical with his own.

"Bill" is selfless. From a small beginning in Akron, Ohio, the movement now is credited with saving more people from degradation and even death than any of the other treatments conceived by man in his 5,000-year-old battle against the crippling disease known as "alcoholism."

Completely selfless, "AA's" Bill today took the conference delegates along the milestones of the past and pointed them toward other milestones of the future. A tall, slender, gray and grave New Englander, in his fifties, he spoke about the responsibilities of "AA," the necessity for its never-ending movement, however good or noble; stressing the fact that it has "nothing to sell, but everything to give away."

Once a successful stockbroker and investment banker who "rode the jug to the gutter," he has had, since his rehabilitation, countless opportunities to make a personal fortune as a result of his success with "AA." Principal author of the society's Bible, "Alcoholics Anonymous," which is known to members as "The Big Book," he tells the story of "AA" with deep feeling and simplicity.

Alcoholics Anonymous accepts no financial support from anyone outside its membership; has no initiation fees, no dues. There is no business side to the society, from "Bill" down to the newest, shakiest communicant.

All "AA's" have but one thing in common. They are people whose alcoholism has been arrested. They say no victim of the disease ever is "cured." Their chief aim in life is to stay sober, day by day, by helping others fight their way back to sobriety.

Shaddock is another name for grapefruit.

Specialist Gives Advice on Proper Use of Home Freezer

Use your home freezer to gain the highest dollars and cents return on your investment.

Mrs. Eula J. Newman, home management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says the family that lives out of the freezer is the one making wisest use of the equipment.

You can make your home freezer profitable if you select an appropriate size, and make efficient use of it for the home food supply. The specialist says selecting a freezer large enough for the number in the family is important. One way to figure the size is to estimate about six cubic feet per person. A family of five could well use a 30-cubic foot freezer. If you produce much of your food at home, then you would need a larger size.

Cost of operating a home freezer would include the interest on the investment for what you consider the life of the equipment, repairs, electricity for freezing, and also for keeping a zero temperature, as well as the cost of the food and packaging. The specialist says you can use three per cent for figuring interest on a twelve year investment, two per cent of the purchase price for repairs, about three cents per kilowatt hour for freezing and three cents for maintaining zero temperature, with two cents a pound for packaging costs. This does not include the cost of food.

The six cents a day for electricity to operate the box is a national average arrived at from studies by E. C. McCracken, physicist, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Local rates may vary for much of Texas has lower than national rates. The cost may be lower for other electricity costs on the farm and ranch and may put you in the lower rate group.

Now, consider the amount of food placed in the freezer in a year. If there is almost no turnover, the cost per pound of the frozen food will be about twice the cost per pound where you fill the box three times during the year.

Homemakers often ask if the freezing of food doesn't run up electric costs considerably. The motor does run a little more to freeze than to hold frozen food. But Dr. McCracken's figures on operating costs show that more than 90 per cent of the electricity used annually by a freezer is to hold foods at zero F., and less than 10 per cent is for freezing. The savings in freezing home-produced foods, or foods that can be purchased at low cost, more than offset the cost of current used for the freezing.

Another economy point freezer owners need to understand is that the more food that goes through the freezer, the less the operating cost per pound. It's using, not saving, food in the freezer that pays. Families who arrange to live out of their freezers as much as possible and thus have a rapid turnover of frozen food make the most economical use of this appliance.

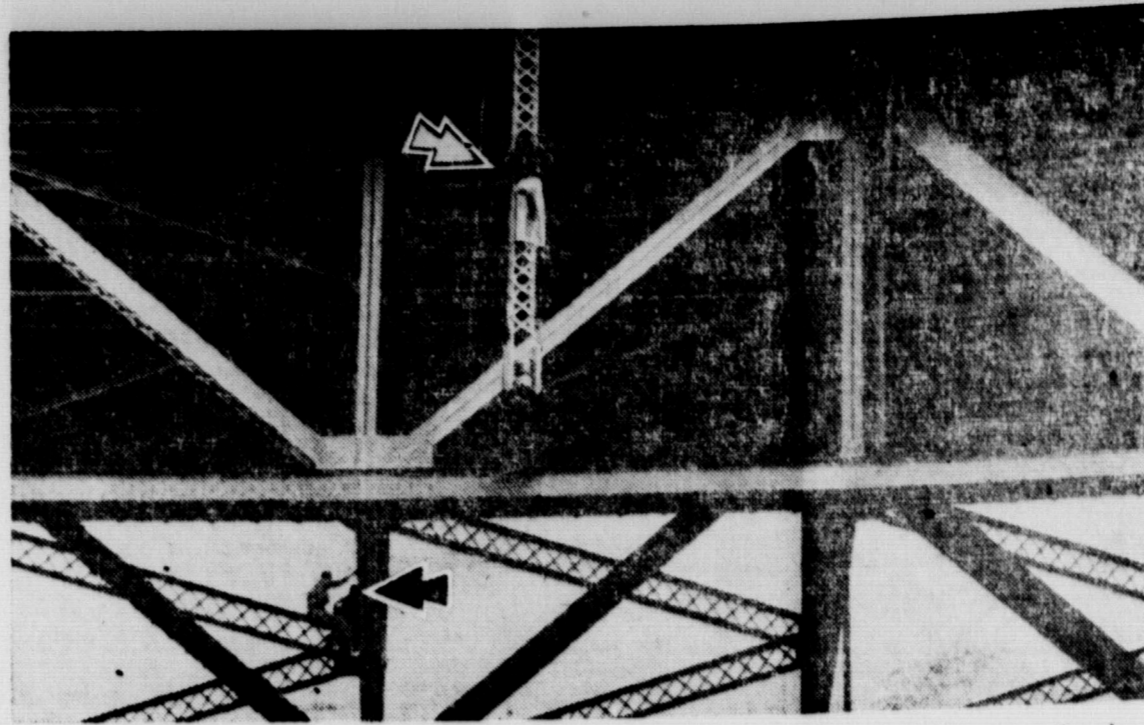

Other ways to save on operating costs are to locate the freezer in a cool, dry, well-ventilated place where the motor will not have to run excessively and where heat from the motor can escape easily. Have a separate electric circuit for the freezer to avoid overloading wires which strains and heats up the motor.

"The satisfaction of enjoying fresh-flavored food of high nutritive value throughout the year is an item families cannot overlook," Mrs. Newman says. "The time and energy saved in freezing as compared with other preservation methods is another important point in favor of the freezer."

Telephone Company Adds Chief Engineer

Walter G. Wright, president of General Telephone Company of the Southwest, has announced the appointment of Evert E. Karlsson to the newly created position of chief engineer.

Mr. Karlsson is well qualified for his new position of chief engineer. He graduated from the Tekniska Gymnasiet (College of Engineering) in Orebro, Sweden, and worked as an electrical power engineer before coming to this country. In addition to his studies in Sweden, Mr. Karlsson attended the University of California and the University of Southern California where his postgraduate work included such subjects as business finance and engineering economics. Prior to joining the General Telephone Company of the Southwest, Mr. Karlsson was associated for 25 years with the General

Telephone Company of California where, in addition to coping with the varied technical telephone problems, he conducted plant extension studies involving the location of new exchanges, as well as the conversion of manual exchanges to dial.

The General Telephone Company of the Southwest and General Telephone Company of California are part of the General Telephone System, the largest independent (non-Bell) telephone system in the United States. The General Telephone Company of the Southwest has previously announced that its estimated 1953 gross construction will amount to about $6,300,000, with retirements of approximately $2,100,000, resulting in net additions to telephone plant of about $4,200,000. Such construction, which is financed through the sale of stocks and bonds, consists principally of additions, improvements and replacements, including conversion of additional exchanges from manual to dial operation. The company, which owns and operates telephone facilities in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana, and Arkansas, converted a total of 21 exchanges from manual to dial operation in 1952.

The subscribers' revenues are applied to the operation and depreciation of the facilities, and to provide a return to investors who have provided the capital necessary to improve and expand the facilities.

Good Insect Repellent Necessary to Outdoor Comfort, Says Agent

A good insect repellent preparation can pay big dividends in outdoor comfort and safety in warm weather. Joe Burkett, County Agent, says home gardeners and other outdoor workers, campers, picnickers or families sitting in the yard will find repellents helpful against mosquitoes, gnats, chiggers and ticks, for example. Pack a preparation with Junior's camping equipment or in the family car when starting on a vacation trip and keep one handy with gardening supplies.

Burkett says repellents should not be confused with insecticides. Repellents are applied to your skin or clothing to keep insects off but insecticides are used in the garden or elsewhere to kill insects. Repellent preparations, usually in liquid, lotion or cream form, are available at drug, hardware or grocery stores under different trade names. Among the most satisfactory chemicals as repellents are dimethyl carbate; dimethyl phthalate; ethyl-hexanedol and indalone. The container usually lists the names of the chemicals in the repellent preparation. Unlike some of the older repellents, these substances have little or no odor and give protection from insects for several hours.

Apply repellents for mosquitoes, flies and gnats directly to the skin. Rub uniformly on the exposed areas and renew after two or three hours. Be sure there are no skin abrasions and do not apply near the eyes or other places where the skin is tender. The County Agent cautions not to apply repellents too liberally to your forehead as they cause a temporary, but rather severe, stinging if they get into your eyes. Repellents are oily materials and will feel somewhat sticky on your skin for a few minutes after application.

For protection from chiggers and ticks, apply repellent to your clothing — but not your best clothes. The chemicals are likely to spot or stain clothing and may cause damage to synthetic fibers. Plastics, paints, varnishes and fingernail polish can also be damaged by repellents. A few drops of repellent daubed around the top of your shoes and on your socks will give considerable protection. Applying the repellent to all the openings of clothing — waistbands, cuffs, collars — is very effective. Cotton or wool clothing with no synthetic fibers blended in, can be sprayed or dipped in emulsions of the repellent, and will effectively prevent chigger attack between washings.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Railsback of Electra visited Mr. and Mrs. Ora Wilson here Sunday.

Store Founded by Mrs. Minnick's Father Has 75th Anniversary

During the month of May, Holthausen Department Store of Union City, New Jersey, observed its Diamond Jubilee, or 75th anniversary. The store was founded in the spring of 1878 by Arend Holthausen, father of Mrs. J. H. Minnick and grandfather of Mrs. Ray Shirley of Crowell.

From a news item of the Hudson Dispatch, Union City, N. J., paper: "There were no department stores in that day and very little ready to wear merchandise. Dressmakers came to the store of supplies, yard goods, lace buttons, hooks and eyes, etc. Sometimes their customers would come in themselves to make their own selections. Muslin was sold by the yard (5c) and when a young lady was engaged — purchases were considerable so that sewing could begin on her trousseau.

"Business continued to increase and in 16 years he was able to move out of a rented building and to fulfill a dream by opening a store in his own building in 1894. Probably in those days he was fearful that he was taking too big a step but within a year's time of the opening business increased in all of the added departments. As quickly as a manufacturer produced a new and satisfactory line of ready to wear, Mr. Holthausen put it on his shelves. "Mr. Holthausen died in 1915 after an illness of several months.

His widow, Mrs. Helen Holthausen, was named president; his son, Carl, treasurer and general manager, and his youngest son, Ernest, vice president. They still hold these offices, though Mrs. Holthausen will mark her 89th birthday in August.

"During the years 1920 and 1928, the store acquired the buildings on its block, and modernization of this new section meant the store had block long frontage, which it still occupies. Another article in the paper described the original ledger kept by Mr. Holthausen which was on display during the anniversary month.

"Months before the opening of the store he apparently started buying the necessities. On February 28, 1878, he purchased a coal stove for $19.85. In March he bought his sales tickets for $1.20, his wrapping paper for $2, his gas fixtures for $19.56, the stools for his customers for $19.80; a showcase for $14.

"The complete capital outlay for the business came to $791.65. During the first days of his business the receipts averaged from $25 to $35. A year later this average was from $40 to $120 and by 1880 the average was between $80 and $200.

"In August, 1897, he hired a clerk for $12 a month. In December, 1880, he paid $8.91 in taxes but business was apparently good and stock in the shop had grown to such proportions that he purchased a burglar alarm for $20 in December, 1880. He also purchased a new ledger—and the story of a new business ends because the next book was not kept."

You've Been Working for Government!

Whom did you work for during the first four months of this year? You'll say that you worked for yourself, or for some business or other. But, in a very real sense, you worked for government! The nation's total 1953 tax bill will be as much as the wages, rents, interest and dividends received by all of us during the January 1 to April 22 period!

Read that again—and then decide whether economical government and eventual tax reduction are in your personal interest.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Every time there has been a reduction in federal tax rates, the following year saw an increase in the amount of overall revenue collected by the government, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States points out.

Austin Highlights

by Senator George Moffett

The 53rd session of the Texas Legislature adjourned on May 27 after being in session 135 days. It was the shortest regular session in ten years. Nearly 1300 bills were introduced in the two branches. They covered a wide variety of subjects. Naturally, a good many of these bills never passed.

In a democratic form of government any member has a right to introduce a bill on any subject of his choice, but a favorable vote of the majority of the members of each branch of the Legislature is required before any particular bill may be placed on the Governor's desk. This is often hard to secure.

Expressions from the people about proposed laws were numerous at this session than any other which I have attended. It was not unusual for a member of the Senate to get above 50 letters in a single day. The people saw fit to express various beliefs and opinions and generally the members were glad to have the benefit of such information. Because of the variety of opinions expressed upon proposed legislation, it was not possible to secure the passage of many of the bills introduced. Their sponsors will have to await the time with patience until another session when a more favorable attitude may prevail.

At this time, I desire to call attention to a special bill providing for the registration of out-of-state trucks which I introduced and which may be of considerable importance to those who employ out-of-state truckers during the wheat harvest. This bill was signed by the Governor about a month ago and provides for a special 30-day license for out-of-state wheat trucks who desire to transport wheat from the field to the elevator in this State. The old law expired and a new one was necessary. However, the old law provided for a 60-day license, and it was thought a 30-day license would fit the conditions better. I am glad to have been of some assistance in this matter. The new law is permanent and will be helpful in the future when our part of the State produces a heavy wheat crop, thus calling for hundreds of wheat trucks from other states to help handle the Texas crop. In the absence of a law providing for this special thirty day license, these out-of-state trucks would have to register in Texas for the full 12 months if they hauled for hire here. Not many would care to purchase a twelve months' license and thus a shortage of wheat truck transportation would develop. The new law fills this gap. I will discuss other bills in a later issue.

Let's Talk Livestock

by Ted Gouddy

Observers on the Fort Worth stockyards Monday expressed the view that closing of the Mexican border because of a new outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease would help to stabilize the cattle industry in the U. S. If the U. S. government follows the usual procedure the Mexican imports of cattle will be banned for at least a year from the time the last sick animal is destroyed.

Most observers felt that while cattle imports from Mexico are not oppressive (averaging about half a million a year) the psychology of a somewhat shortened supply should stimulate lagging stocker demand. This development should be especially noticeable in the Western States and California. Possibility of a strong move to bar imports of meat, unless cooked, from Mexico looms. With the culling season for cow herds at hand in the Southwest, the imports of boned out beef from Mexico would depress live cattle prices in the U. S. during a season of heavy production. One observer said, "letting new meat into the U. S. is like putting a loaded gun at our head, as they do in the game called Russian Roulette. We could get the disease across the border that way. The meat should be subject to the same restrictions as the South American variety."

At Fort Worth a number of order buyers with connections in California reported that for many months the Mexican imports had been a deterrent to selling plain Texas stocker cattle to the West Coast feeders. It is reported there are thousands of the Mexican cattle in the U. S. at this time that stand to lose their owners lots of money. In some cases these Mexican cattle cost from $3 to $5 above what comparable native U. S. cattle would cost today.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture is rushing a staff headed by Dr. M. R. Clarkson to Mexico City. The new outbreak is in Vera Cruz, the state in which the original outbreak occurred about six years ago. The same 500 cattle involved have been slain and buried. The U. S. spent over $127 million dollars in the five year fight to eradicate the disease and the border has been open since last September. The latest outbreak is some 500 miles south of the U. S.-Mexican Border. Previous last known appearance of the disease in Mexico was August, 1951.

Record numbers of cattle again went to market this week in the United States. Monday's offering of over 101,000 at 12 major markets was the largest for this season of the year in many years, and was possibly a record for the date.

VIVIAN H. D. CLUB RIVERSIDE H. D. CLUB "A well padded ironing board, 20 inches wide and the same length as your regular ironing board, is more satisfactory for ironing shirts than the usual narrow board," stated Mrs. Johnny Marr to the Vivian Home Demonstration Club which met in the home of Mrs. Will Jones in Crowell on Thursday, May 28, with eleven members and six visitors present. "Make this board of three-quarter inch plywood and adjust the height of the regular board so that an upright posture can be maintained while ironing and you can also save energy by sitting while you iron," continued Mrs. Marr in her work simplification demonstration on ironing shirts. With Miss Myrtle Fish, vice president, in charge, roll call was answered by "My Favorite Bible Story" and games led by Miss Neoma Fish were enjoyed. Mrs. T. W. Cooper conducted an interesting Bible quiz and Miss Myrtle Fish was elected by acclamation as THDA delegate nominee. The club voted to go to Lake Pauline for the summer encampment. Visitors present were Mrs. R. R. Magee, Mrs. C. A. Carroll, Mrs. J. M. Marr, Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Miss Bernita Fish and Mrs. J. M. Denton of Abilene. Members present were Mesdames T. W. "Love casteth out fear, the father of hate," said Mrs. George Wesley as she led a very interesting Bible program at the Riverside Home Demonstration Club meeting that was held in the home of Mrs. R. E. Moore Tuesday afternoon, May 19. The meeting was opened by a prayer led by Mrs. Ben Hopkins and the roll call was answered by "My Favorite Bible Story." Mrs. Wesley read a good story illustrating how jealousy, fear, hate, etc., in ourselves, can destroy our well being, as well as that of those with whom we are associated. In closing the club sang "God Will Take Care of You." The club voted to have the summer encampment meeting at Quannah in August, and nominated Mrs. Ewald Schroeder as THDA state delegate at the meeting in Galveston. In remembrance of Home Demonstration Week and to honor its charter members, Mrs. Cap Adkins, Mrs. John S. Ray and Mrs. Frank Ward, the club will have a "good old fashioned picnic" at the Wesley reunion grounds, May 29, at 7:30 p. m. "It took a long time to learn to do things the way you are doing them now, and it will take time to change your habits, but it will be worth it," Mrs. Sam Kuehn stated as she continued with another work simplification demonstration on a much simpler way to make a bed. She and Mrs. Grover Moore showed sketches of how they each had simplified some of their house work by "planning ahead." The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Grover Moore on June 2 and 2:30 p. m. Refreshments were served to Mrs. A. J. Morris, visitor, and to 13 members, Mesdames Cap Adkins, James Bowers, Ernest Elliott, Ben Hopkins, Monroe Karcher, Sam Kuehn, G. M. Moore, Ewald Schroeder, Frank Ward, R. G. ## Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

It's time to start thinking of summer camp again. This month each club will need to decide whether they want to return to Quanah or have the encampment here.

I hope more of you will try to go this year. We always have a wonderful time and it does us all good to get away from home occasionally.

Our recipe this week is for Individual Alaskas

4 egg whites, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract; 1 pint ice cream, 1/4 cup sifted confectioners' sugar, 6 individual sponge cake shells (strawberry short cake shells that you buy are perfect). Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Add vanilla extract. Add confectioners' sugar gradually. Continue beating until meringue stands in peaks. Divide ice cream into 6 portions and place a portion in the center of each sponge cake shell. Cover cake and ice cream closely with meringue. Place on a cookie sheet and brown quickly in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) for about 5 minutes. Serve immediately. Makes 6 individual Alaskas. (Alaskas may be made oven-ready in advance. Keep frozen for 2 weeks in freezer or for 2 days in refrigerator freezing compartment.)

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the many friends for their kindness in sending so many "get well" cards and messages of love and sympathy during my recent serious illness. Thanks a million.

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, M. D., State Health Officer.

With spring house cleaning and the anti-moth battle under way, housewives all over Texas have been using insecticide sprays. Because most of these are poisonous and some are inflammable, special precautions noted on the labels should be observed, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Common sense safety rules include protection of food, dishes, silverware and cooking utensils from moth, mosquito or fly sprays. If you spill concentrated insecticide solutions on yourself, wash off immediately with soap and water.

Don't expose yourself or members of your family unnecessarily to insecticide dust or spray mists. Provide extra ventilation by opening doors and windows when extensive jobs are being done.

Care should be taken not to spray liquid insecticides into electrical outlets or on exposed electrical connections because of danger of short circuits. Don't apply oil-base sprays near fire, flame or sparks and don't smoke while applying them.

Special precautions should be taken to store insecticides where children will not be able to reach them. Never put into a kitchen cupboard where they might be mistaken for food.

Cancer kills more children from 3 to 15 years of age than does any other disease, American Cancer Society statistics show.

an end in the Fall.

Reviewing the session, Governor Shivers commended the legislators as a hard-working lot who had put through about 75 to 85 per cent of the program he requested.

Lawmakers deserve praise, the governor said, for passing some legislation and for defeating other bills.

It was well, he thought, that no new taxes were passed, no expensive state services were inaugurated, and no punitive measures were taken against either management or labor.

As to legislation passed, the governor thought these measures were good:

Authorizing new tuberculosis hospitals at San Antonio and Harlingen; setting up a stronger water conservation program; establishing a state toll road authority; increasing the pay of state employees $180 per year; toning down the auto safety inspection law; providing three-day jail sentences for driving while intoxicated; and taking steps to study and deal with alcoholism.

The chief executive also thought favorably of these proposals:

posed constitutional amendments, to be voted on by the people in November next year.

Permitting Texans in the armed services to vote; authorizing use of a surplus in the Confederate Pension fund for state buildings; boosting the ceiling on state welfare expenditures from $35 million to $42 million; and permitting women to serve on juries.

There were several of the governor's proposals that the legislature failed to put into effect, including:

Revising the election code; congressional and judicial redistricting; raising the money for road building; financing new buildings at Southwestern Medical School at Dallas; the University of Texas cancer research hospital and dental school, the deaf school and the prison system; and providing public school teachers a salary raise.

Increasing the teachers' pay was the hottest and most controversial issue of the session.

Teachers asked for $600 per year additional salary — they got nothing, although a compromise, had they accepted it, would have given them $306.

"It wasn't so much the money," the teachers' spokesmen complained. "It was the principle of the thing."

They said that administration leaders never considered any way of financing the pay increase except by hiking local property taxes.

School people also balked at the administration's insistence that state payments to school supervisors and counselors be eliminated.

A statement was issued by the Texas State Teachers Association to the effect that it "should not be and has not been in the position of being willing to cripple or sacrifice its school program for the conditional promise of a small salary increase when the principles involved were so far-reaching."

The association said it would continue its fight for salary raises at the next session and pointed out that a special session could be called to deal specifically with this problem.

In addition to the proposed constitutional amendments listed above, these additional ones were passed by the Legislature and will be submitted to the people:

Increasing the pay of elected state officials, including members of the Legislature; giving precinct, county, and district officials four year terms instead of two-year terms; permitting teacher retirement system credits to be transferred; forbidding the state to assume any debt on bonds issued to building toll roads; allowing state and local government workers to go under the federal social security plan; and authorizing counties under 10,000 population to keep separate tax assessor-collectors by local option.

Some of these issues are controversial—you'll be hearing more about them as election time approaches.

As the session ended, Governor Shivers' desk piled up with bills passed and sent to him for his signature. He signed 25 of them in one day. These included provisions to:

Permit courts to order compulsory hospitalization of those who use narcotics except under a doctor's order.

Give the University of Texas regents power to lease land on the Southwestern Medical School campus to private research agencies.

Hike from $150 to $200 per month the Confederate pension of Walter W. Williams and his wife, who live near Franklin. Williams is one of the only two Confederate veterans living in Texas.

Set aside $30,000 to prosecute the Rio Grande water fess with New Mexico.

Give state and local government workers 15 days annual military leave for National Guard or reserve training without loss of vacation time or salary. Members of the Legislature are exempted.

If Governor Shivers and Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey should both leave the state at the same time, the acting governor will be Senator Jimmy Phillips of Angleton.

Phillips was elected president pro tempore ad interim of the Senate. That means he is the presiding officer of the Senate for the time between sessions. The president pro tem is second in line, behind the lieutenant governor, to fill the governor's shoes in his absence.

Phillips holds the modern filibustering record. Two years ago he spoke for 17 hours and 55 minutes against a bill that would have abolished the state hospital board.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd wants to oust from Texas the "communist-dominated" International Fur and Leather Workers Union of the U. S. and Canada.

Shepperd asked for an injunction against the union and its agent, Emanuel Coutlakis, on the grounds that they had not registered with the Texas secretary of state.

Coutlakis, the attorney general said, has been attempting to organize the workers of a tanning company of San Antonio.

In line with Shepperd's request, District Judge Charles O. Betts issued a temporary restraining order.

Short Shorts: Frank D. Quinn, chairman of the state parks board said in a speech here the tourist business can be the state's biggest — but it is handicapped by a rule against state advertising.

Driving Through Water is Not the Time to Make a "Big Splash"

PHOTOS BY CHEVROLET MOTOR DIVISION

Although today's automobile has progressed far beyond the point where a severe spring rain will stall the engine, it still is not an amphibious vehicle.

Failure of the engine to bring you through normal flood waters, which might cover highways, can be attributed mostly to water on the ignition system caused by splashing. Today's engines are better equipped to combat excessive moisture and driving through water, by the use of such things as improved rubber housings on the spark plug terminals.

These pictures show the splash effect when a car "plows" into a seven-inch depth on a flooded highway. At 20 m.p.h., the water shoots high, completely drenching the underneath part of the car. At 3 m.p.h., the forward motion of the car creates a small wave running ahead of the front bumper, with control of the vehicle greatly improved.

When you encounter an inundated highway, slow your car down and approach with caution. As a safety tip, on driving through flooded areas, remember to try out your brakes at slow speed immediately after reaching dry ground. When wet brakes do not respond to pedal action, hold brake pedal down moderately with left foot, while right foot feeds enough power to carry car forward and dry out brakes. This action, over a few hundred yards, should restore your brakes to safe driving condition.

SINUSITIS

We are having spectacular results with sinus conditions that failed to respond to other forms of treatment. We usually find the cause of most sinus conditions similar to those of Asthma and Hay Fever. All respond to treatment under proper Chiropractic care.

HEADACHES

Lady, 45—This patient spent one week every month in the hospital because of the severity of her condition. Under Chiropractic care the headache became less severe and in four months time stopped completely. Starting under Chiropractic care she had not thought about going to the hospital with a headache.

Migraine conditions who have given Chiropractic a fair trial are pleased with the results. Sinusitis and sinus headaches also respond swiftly under adjustments.

ASTHMA—HAY FEVER

- Girl, 12—Had asthma 7 years. Case well in two months. No recurrence in past year.
Girl, 13—Had asthma two months. Case clear after two weeks at our clinic.
Man, 67—Asthma 7 years. Case clear after 10 weeks of service.
Lady, 26—Asthma and Hay Fever 5 years. No attacks in past 16 months.
Lady, 80—Asthma 30 years. Case well in eight months. No attacks since taking Chiropractic adjustments.
Lady, 37—Asthma, Sinusitis and Hay Fever 17 years. Case clear after 12 weeks service.

Here are a few case histories taken from the files of the Rose Chiropractic Clinic. Chiropractic offers the only known cure for Asthma. If you have Asthma consult Dr. Rose as soon as possible and be back on your feet to good health.

ANGINA PECTORIS (Nervous Heart)

- Man, 72—Angina 22 years. Noticed relief after very few adjustments. Gained strength swiftly.
Man, 63—Angina 2 months before starting under Chiropractic care. Case normal in three months.
Lady, 33—Angina condition well after four months Chiropractic care. All Angina patients are still under service at the Rose Chiropractic Clinic and making good progress.

ARTHRITIS, RHEUMATISM (Chronic and Acute)

- Lady, 50—Hands and fingers nearly paralyzed. Joints swollen. Condition had existed for years. Under Chiropractic care at our clinic she was covered fully in three months time. No more pain with hands for past 16 months.
Lady, 56—Arthritis of the Spine was making her unable to get up for this lady until she discovered Chiropractic. Spinal X-rays taken one year after starting taking adjustments revealed a breakdown of calcium deposits between the vertebrae. Removal of spur and nodular growth between vertebrae.
Lady, 67—Rheumatism of the knee made her patient's leg stiff. Under Chiropractic care she was as good as new in less than three months. Patient reports no trouble with knee in nine months.
Man, 33—Rheumatism and Lumbago caused her patient to walk in a stooped position most of the time. After a course of Chiropractic adjustments patient walks and feels better than in years.

IF... Chiropractic were insignificant as some would have you believe, then there wouldn't be any Chiropractic here today — after more than fifty years' successful application of its accurate healing principles. If on the other hand, Chiropractic were a "cure all" then all other professions in the healing arts would have to close shop. Reasonable Chiropractic has won its place in the sun, and regardless of any prejudiced idea you may have, it will pay you to have a talk with your Chiropractor.

A. A. Gregory, M. D., wrote: "Under Spinal Adjustments, acute diseases are cut short and chronic diseases recover which have been believed to be incurable."

All case histories shown here are taken from the files of the Rose Chiropractic Clinic and are placed here to show the extent of Chiropractic.

These diseases are caused by a direct nerve pinch. Hundreds of cases have been handled at our Clinic. Cases last from one hour to several months. Chief factors involved which determine how fast patient will get well are: 1. Age of patient. 2. Severity of nerve pinch. 3. Length of time condition has existed.

STOMACH-COLON DISORDERS

- Lady, 29—Severe vomiting, 10 days. Hospitalized one week. Losing weight rapidly. This patient was very weak when Dr. Rose accepted the case. Patient started to retain food after second adjustment. In four days patient was able to come to the clinic. Dismissed after two months.
Man, 59—Gastric Ulcers, headaches, dizzy spells. Part of this man's stomach had been removed to relieve pains from ulcer, but pain continued. Under adjustments at our clinic the headache and dizziness were gone after one week. All signs of ulcer and pain gone in two months. Six months later patient was still feeling like a new man. RUPTURED DISC

Many cases have entered the Rose Chiropractic Clinic with a condition which has been diagnosed as ruptured disc. We have been successful in returning over 90 per cent of these cases to perfect health. We have recommended operations for less than 5 per cent of these cases.

The usual cause of these symptoms is a pinched nerve and a misaligned vertebra. If it's Nerves—See Your CHIROPRACTOR!

TITHES AND OFFERINGS

from Moody Bible Institute, Chicago 10, Ill.

A group of Abernathy, Texas, farmers brought in their tithes and offerings to the First Baptist Church there. What they brought filled two washtubs with $14,132.65 in cash and checks—money from harvest on land they dedicated to God last spring. Each farmer dedicated one-tenth of his acreage.

Most of the men among the 500 members of the church are farmers on the rolling plains around Abernathy, a town of 1,692 in western Texas, north of Lubbock.

Their pastor, C. A. Kennedy, asked them to dedicate one-tenth of their land to God and see what the returns would be. They did, each dedicating anywhere from one to 68 acres. Kennedy said that the farmers who did so had

"phenomenal results."
"There is Albert Hart, with five acres dedicated," the pastor said. "He called me to his farm late in the summer to show that all his acreage was bountiful, but on the dedicated land the cotton stood 12 inches higher than the rest and yielded one and three-quarters bales an acre, compared with an average yield of one bale an acre on his other land."

"He asked me why."
"Why? Malachi 3:10 says, 'Bring ye all the tithes in to the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.'"

The pastor could have added, in the words of David, "Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee" (1 Chron. 29:13, 14).

Washington, D. C. — Mrs. Roger J. Browne of Arlington, Va., returned from grocery shopping, parked in her sloping driveway, pulled up the hand brake and began taking groceries into the kitchen. Lulabelle, the Brown's 4-year-old boxer, was on the front seat and in the back were the Brown's children, Mickey 5, and Jennifer 3. Somehow, the dog hit the hand brake and the car began rolling downhill. Mrs. Browne, in trying to pull the brake, was pinned under the car and suffered a fractured pelvis. Health Letter
Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, Health Officer

Don't put too much stock in advertised claims for the bug-killing properties of so-called "vaporizers." State Health Officer George W. Cox cautioned Texans this week.

He said "indiscriminate use" of the gadgets in homes or sleeping quarters could make the fumes more toxic to humans than to insects.

Vaporizers are familiar as small glass or metal instruments with a conical-shaped insecticide container in the top and a light bulb wired into the bottom. The insecticide is placed in the cone and vaporized by the heat generated by the bulb underneath.

Widely advertised and sold for "killing bugs the easy way," one brand comes complete with an 8-month supply of chemicals, and makes claims of being "non-toxic, odorless, guaranteed positive, extermination of flies, roaches, mosquitoes, all insects . . . Meets all state and federal requirements."

Dr. Cox called these claims "completely misleading," and pointed to a March 27 statement released by the federal Interdepartmental Committee on Pest Control to back him up. The statement said:

"Because of the health hazards inherent in the misuse of insecticide vaporizers used as fumigators, (the committee) recommends against their use in living quarters."

The committee is composed of representatives of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare; Departments of Agriculture and Interior; and the army, navy, and air force.

The health officer conceded the gadgets might have some beneficial application in commercial or industrial establishments where human exposure will not be continuous and food contamination will not occur.

But he emphasized that it is "dangerous and foolhardy to install them in homes, and advertising them for such use is indefensible."

Is Canada Really Bigger Than Texas?

Is Canada really bigger than Texas? And how do American visitors to Canada learn to deal in pounds, shillings and pence?

These questions, put to a Canadian citizen by U. S. visitors, are fairly typical. The first fellow was pretty sore when he was assured that the Lone Star state can't be stretched to cover Canada, while the second questioner was surprised to learn that Canadian money is the same as ours. (Canadians ask some silly questions about the United States, too.)

Pet interest in the vast north-land sitting tip-top of our border is picking up in this country, according to the Canada-U. S. Committee maintained by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and its counterpart in the Dominion.

For Canada, always a lusty infant, is becoming an ambitious adolescent with big ideas for the future. To put it more formally, Canada is discovering herself economically. She has reached the point where this country found itself a half century ago, but with the big advantage of beginning her industrial expansion in an age of jet-planes and atomic energy.

Oil and gas discoveries in Alberta are causing almost as much excitement as the California Gold Rush, and there are additional discoveries of uranium and iron ore to attract American capital. And American investments in Canada are increasing rapidly.

According to "The Economist" (London), new U. S. investments in Canada rose from $78 million in 1948 to $299 million in 1951. Our Canadian investments now equal our total investments in all Latin-American countries.

The Canada-U. S. Committee believes all this means that American business men can profit by a better understanding of their neighbor. It therefore has proposed some practical steps businessmen can take in this direction.

The first step is to encourage travel between the two countries. This might be done by offering trips to Canada as bonuses and other rewards to company personnel. Other suggestions:

Boards of directors in this country can profitably hold meetings in Canada, particularly when the United States company has interests in both countries.

Associations and business groups could arrange joint meetings with their Canadian counterparts.

Control of the Purse

Interchange of students can be undertaken by commerce and industry as well as schools. On-the-job training could be done in Canada by U. S. firms with interests in both countries, and in this country by Canadian firms with American affiliates.

According to Steffan Newsaper of the North American Newspaper Alliance, Comptroller General Warren said, at a closed door hearing of the House and Senate appropriations subcommittees, that Congress "has lost control of the purse."

He said further that he is appalled by wasteful spending by federal agencies without any authority of any kind from Congress. He then cited several conspicuous examples of flagrant waste, including tremendously luxurious and costly housing and recreational facilities for government personnel stationed abroad.

Congress' top-priority job now must be to get back its control of the purse, and to sternly stop unauthorized spending. The result will be a vast saving to us taxpayers—without impairing any worthwhile government undertaking one iota.

Man's first weapon in warfare was the slingshot.

Wyoming granted woman suffrage in 1869.

Granddaughter of Margaret Residents Marries in Vernon

The First Baptist Church in Vernon was the scene of an impressive wedding ceremony in which Miss Joyce Ann Middlebrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

S. B. Middlebrook and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bax Middlebrook and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McCurley of Margaret, and Presnall Wood, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hansal Wood, were united in marriage. Rev. E. S. James, pastor of the church, officiated at the formal service.

When given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown fashioned by Neiman-Marcus of bluish pink Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The lace bodice was highlighted by a sweetheart neckline and tiny sleeves of the lace. The moulded bodice was buttoned down the back with tiny lace-covered buttons. The layered full-gathered skirt of nylon tulle featured a lattice of chantilly lace applique at the hipline. Layers of tulle fell in deep folds, poised over hoops and crinoline and terminated in a wide sweep train.

Her veil of imported French illusion was fingertip length in matching bluish pink and was attached to a chantilly lace colot, matching her gown.

Mrs. Jack Attaway, sister of the groom, attended as the matron of honor. A quartet of bridesmaids consisted of Misses Ann Thomas and Bobbie Nell Richards of Vernon and Misses Marilyn Burns of Texarkana and Kathy Goode of Dallas. They wore identical waltz-length gowns of camellia nylon tulle over taffeta. The gowns were fashioned with a shirred strapless bodice, accentuated by a stole attached on the left side, which covered their shoulder. Full formed a portrait neckline. Full gathered skirts down the left side and completed with tiny camellia pink nose veils. They carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses.

The flower girl was little Derrinda Hill, niece of the bridegroom, who wore pink organdy, styled in the fashion of the bridesmaids' dresses. She scattered pink rose petals before the bride.

The honorary attendants were Kathryn Hill, Patsy Hainline, Pansy Kidwell, Cleora Jo Hill of Fort Worth, Emma Branch of Rotan and Paula Bley of Olton, all of whom wore white formal, and preceded the arrival of the wedding party. Each carried a single, long-stemmed pink rose.

Warren Pruitt served as best man and the groomsmen were Troy Lee Hand, Marvin Rogers and Jack Attaway, all of Vernon, and Bill West of Fort Worth. Ushers were Bill James and R. C. Harris.

The vows were exchanged beneath an archway of huckleberry and pink roses and flanked on either side with palms and tall baskets of pink gladioli. Innumerable pink candles and palm trees completed the decorations.

A reception following the marriage was held at the home of the bride's parents for the wedding party and guests.

The bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Colorado. For travel Mrs. Wood wore a Joblov suit of navy light weight wool, highlighted by white accessories, and her corsage was an orchid from her bride's bouquet. They will reside in Waco where Mrs. Wood will attend summer school at Baylor University. She will receive her BA degree in elementary education and will teach in a Fort Worth school this fall. At Baylor, she was elected May Queen during her freshman year and she is a member of Alpha Omega, social club. Mr. Wood is a graduate of Vernon High School and attended Baylor University. He is now pastor of the Baptist Church at King, Texas. He will enter Southwestern Theological Seminary in the near future where he will continue his studies for the ministry.

Following the luncheon, which was served at quartet tables in the living room and dining room, the concluding program on the study of the United States was given.

Mrs. N. J. Roberts was leader and called on Mrs. Grady Halbert, who had just returned from a month's visit to a number of Northeastern States and points in Canada.

Mrs. B. W. Self gave an interesting review of places in California where she had made numerous visits.

Mrs. M. O'Connell carried her listeners to Arizona where she found some of the greatest wonders of the Western World. Nevada, the last of the forty-eight states, has the eyes of the world turned on its atomic proving grounds, just 55 miles from Las Vegas.

At the conclusion of the program, officers for the coming two years assumed their duties.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

The United States Treasury took in more money in the five days March 16-20, than it collected in the 83 years from 1789 to 1872, during which time it fought three wars and bought Louisiana, Florida and Alaska, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.
