Moisture Tests Made by Soil Conservation Dist.

Moisture penetration checks made by technicians of the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District were made on a number of district cooperators farms this week. Most cooperators, around Goodlett, Quanah, Chillicothe, and Crowell received eight to ten inches of rainfall during October with some reporting as much as 11 1/2 inches.

North of Quanah on the P. A. Barnes farm, technicians found moisture penetration six feet down on alfalfa land and only two and six tenths feet on cotton land. On the Carl Wall farm near Medicine Mound, moisture went down one and five tenths feet on cotton ground while it went down four feet in alfalfa on the Pete Colburn farm. On the Bones McBay farm near Quanah moisture in alfalfa went down three feet while it penetrated only one and three tenths feet on plowed land nearby.

Alfalfa with a long tap root penetrates the ground to open up a passage-way so that moisture can go on down into the soil. The plow pan from wheat, cotton, feed, etc., forms and will not permit the moisture to go down readily.

One wheat field checked north of Quanah on level one-wayed land had such a hard pan that moisture penetration after ten inches of rain was down 13 inches. On sandy land southeast of Chillicothe on the Montie Mudd farm moisture went down two and six tenths feet on cotton ground, and 3.6 feet on feed ground. North of Quanah on the A. G. Duncan farm moisture went down three and three tenths feet.

Where a good soil conservation program is followed such as terracing, contour farming, stubble mulching with legumes, the soil is in better condition to take water. If water gets into the soil a farmer will have a better chance to make a crop.

Crowell Wildcats Down Archer City 13-0; Get Week's Rest Before Meeting Powerful Paducah Dragons Nev. 13

The Crowell High School football team won its eighth consecutive game here last Friday night when the Wildcats defeated the Archer City team by the score of 13 to 0. This victory for Crowell makes the Paducah game that is to be played at Paducah next week a championship affair.

Crowell looked extra good on defense last Friday night, holding the Archer County boys to a mere 40 yards on the ground, 23 yards in the air, and only three first downs. They were never closer than Crowell's 40-yard line throughout the contest. All of the Crowell boys looked good on defense. James Pittillo and Buddy Caddell showed what made them all-district last season.

Crowell's offense did not measure up to par in this game. However, the Wildcats scored once in each of the first two quarters. They came close to scoring in the last quarter when Gordon Graves connected with a 34-yard pass to DuWayne Elliott, but the same pass combination backfired on the next play when Pat Knox, right half for Archer, intercepted on the goal line and ran it out to the eight.

Wayne Borchardt, left half-back for the Wildcats, has been crippled most of the season but he was not crippled Friday night. Behind key blocks thrown by Crowell's entire line, he returned a punt for 27 yards. On the next play, Borchardt went through the left side of the line, where Jackie Walker and Buddy Caddell play, to scamper for 33 yards and Crowell's first touchdown of the game. Elliott converted to make the first quarter end 7 to 0.

The Wildcats got to rolling again in the second quarter when Archer City failed to make a first down on a fourth down try out in the middle of the field. Nice running by Gerry Knox, Pittillo, and Graves placed the pigskin down on the 2-yard line from where Knox carried over. The extra point try was wide to leave the final count 13 to 0.

A 38-yard punt average for Bobby McGriff of Archer City helped to hold Crowell's score down. Jimmy Slack, right end, and center Monroe Williams for Archer looked the best on defense. Don Smith, for Crowell, recovered an Archer City fumble. Don Kidd played center in Robert Kincaid's absence.

The Wildcats do not play this week and most of them will probably journey to Paducah Friday night to watch the Chillicothe-Paducah contest. The Wildcats will be playing their most important game of the season next week at Paducah. The comparative scores on conference games and the fact that Paducah will be playing on its home field, will give them a slight edge in the prediction of the outcome of this important contest. However, the Wildcats should be at full strength for this game, and their outstanding defensive record for the season should make it an interesting affair.

Crowell has been allowed only 236 reserve tickets for this game. They are on sale at both local drug stores and the DeLuxe Cafe.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Merl Kincaid died November 1, 1953. Mrs. Kincaid was ill only two weeks, but even though her trip to the hospital was unexpected, in her thoughtful, systematic, and capable manner, she arranged for a substitute for her Sunday School Class, consisting of juniors from the seventh, eighth and freshman groups. In the same way she arranged for her club program to be carried out on the following Wednesday.

She was a class mother for thirteen years, twelve of which she was a double class mother, serving for Marcia's classes and also for Frances' and Robert's classes—a long time, yet a very short time for her loving friends of CHS, both students and faculty to have her with us, but there was time enough for all to appreciate her willingness to help solve a problem, to know someone who didn't know how to say "No" when asked to serve on any committee—

Time enough for her children's friends to know there was a place where the latch string was always open, as her home was always full of teenagers—

Time enough to feel the uplift of her happy disposition and ever ready encouragement—

Time enough to know that she gave efficient service in every type of professional activity—

Time enough for pupils, teachers, and other friends to feel the warmth and joy of her sincere friendship.

Truly her kind spirit shall ever abide with us as an inspiration; for

"It is not death to die;
 The Temple beautiful
 Is made by human hands,
 Under the touch divine,
 And she who builds
 Into the Life of Youth
 Builds for Eternity."

TWO "A" STRINGS IMPORTANT

How do you think students feel if they are getting a word of praise and someone starts sneering at them just because they are calling the boy or girl names or giggling, or making peculiar noises when a teenager gets a little encouragement from one of the teachers. This makes the student feel bad; he may even try to keep from making the higher grades just to keep from being teased by his friends.

Consider it from this angle. Do the girls or the boys who play football or any other sports call one another these names or make fun of them? No, they just pat each other on the back and say "Good job, Joe!" If a student plays well in a sport, he is awarded a spot on the "A" string for his efforts, and as everyone knows the "A" string player is respected more than a plain ordinary student.

If CHSites tried to make our classroom work on the same basis as sports, there would be no such unfair practices going on in school. If someone makes a good grade, we should pat him on the back and say "Good job, Joe!" Remember he is on the "A" string as far as the grades go!

GYWNE JOHNSON—QUEEN OF GRIDIRON

Gwynne Johnson, chosen by the Wildcat football team as their queen for 1953-54, was crowned during half-time ceremonies last Friday night.

The petite little dark haired sophomore was appropriately dressed in a beautifully made, brown velvet suit with white trim, rhinestone jewelry, and matching brown accessories.

In preparation for the ceremony, the band, led by Billye Bell, stepped on the field forming a guard of honor through which the two Bel-Air Chevrolets containing the queen and her attendants passed to the center of the field.

The attendants, Barbara Fairchild escorted by DuWayne Elliott, Sue Meason escorted by Gerry Knox, and Billye McCoy escorted by Jimmy Thaxton, stepped from the first car and were presented with mum corsages by their escorts.

The car containing the queen and her escorts, James Denton and James Pittillo, then arrived. She stepped from the car and was presented with a beautiful bou-quet of American Beauty roses. Both cars then circled the field exiting at the east gate with the band following, thus ending a beautiful and impressive event of the school year.

EX-CHS BASKETBALL STAR KILLED IN CAR WRECK

Carlos McBeath, who graduated from Crowell High School in 1946, was killed Saturday night in a car wreck near Wichita Falls. An outstanding basketball star while in CHS, Carlos was also center on the football team although he weighed only 132 pounds, Carlos was very popular with his schoolmates and teachers and gained the respect of all during his four years at Crowell High.

A year following his graduation, McBeath decided to serve his country in the Armed Forces. He was stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base. In 1950 he married Peggy Evans, who was a 1949 CHS graduate.

We, the students of CHS, extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. McBeath, and the entire McBeath family.

THIS, THAT, AND THE OTHER

The band carried out the coronation in an excellent manner with Billye Bell acting as drum major in the absence of assistant drum major, Frances Kincaid, who was unable to attend. Drum major, Billye McCoy, and Sue Meason, majorette, were runners-up, and of course, Gwynne Johnson was the Queen; this left a total of four vacancies in the front ranks of the band.

Thanks go to Henry Borchardt who provided the two new Chevrolets that were used in the coronation.

Has everyone noticed the new touch of paint that has been added to our front walk and senior stand?

Halloween fun is over, and believe it or not, the little goblins didn't damage anything seriously. Everyone appreciates the fact that Crowell youngsters are thoughtful and considerate.

We CHSites send James McBeath, who is in the Wichita Falls hospital, fifteen rahs for a quick recovery. James suffered a back injury in the recent accident in which his uncle, Carlos McBeath, was killed.

MRS. HULSE URGES CARE AND ORDER IN LIBRARY

A standing plea was made by

Mrs. Hulse this week for more consideration, care, and thought toward our library facilities.

Perhaps more damage is done by downright thoughtlessness. A current fad around CHS is to throw a book at your best girl friend or boy friend. Another is to tear pages out of Reader's Digests in order to make a good grade on English and history oral themes.

It takes a lot of things to make a successful school. A library is a main factor. Unless care and precaution is taken against needless destruction, CHS will have a library of which no one is proud. Let's all be more considerate of our books so we can use our library to the fullest extent.

FOOTBALL, CHURCH, PEGGY NEW FAVORITES OF EVERSON

A friendly, fun-loving senior boy, Jimmy Everson is five feet eight inches tall with wavy brown hair and blue-green eyes that sparkle with mischief. As Jimmy says "I have spent my entire life in Crowell; I believe that my parents have done their best to make the best of me; I have always enjoyed Church and go to every service I can."

A typical boy, with a typical appetite, Jimmy likes a generous serving of steak, all done up brown with french fries and gravy.

His favorite hobby, as with most boys, is hunting. He enjoys going exploring, too. Best expressing his personality, Jimmy says he "gets a kick out of doing things that other people are scared to do."

He enjoys all sports, but likes baseball and football best. He is outstanding at end position for the Wildcats. Jimmy informs us that his favorite pastime is sitting around and "shooting the bull" with his friends. He also enjoys traveling and singing. His hidden ambition is some day to write a song that will express his inner feelings. His favorite music is popular and classical.

He gets his greatest pleasure from running around with his friends from Crowell and Truscott, where his best girl, Peggy New, lives.

Jimmy is interested in farming or petroleum engineering. If things continue as they are, his future will probably include one of these and that cute sophomore mentioned in the preceding paragraph.

SENIOR GIRL, CHEERLEADER, IN SPOTLIGHT

CloVonne McKown, our senior girl of the week, is a popular, well-liked gal around CHS.

Vivacious CloVonne is five feet two inches tall with dark brown hair and sparkling green eyes that she manipulates skillfully to charm her friends. Her ideal day would undoubtedly include a meal with oodles of fried chicken and potato salad, her favorites. Some other favorites are typing, swimming and football games.

As a sophomore she was elected class favorite. She has served on the Wildcat Staff two years, and this year her job as associate editor on the annual staff takes up a good part of her time. "Clo," as her friends sometimes call her, is also one of the five cheerleaders this year, and was voted Most Courteous Girl. She is vice president of the Sub-Junior Columbian Club and vice president of the MYF group of the Methodist Church.

She really enjoys dancing, especially to popular music. Her favorite song is "In the Mood," by Glenn Miller.

This senior's favorite pastime is just riding around, and you can usually see her doing just that with her best chums, Jean, George Ann, Becky, Genevieve and Shirley.

After graduation, CloVonne plans to attend a business college in Fort Worth. But that's a while off yet; right now she just wants to enjoy this, her last year of high school.

CATS DOWN ARCHER CITY

The Crowell High School Wildcats chalked up their eighth consecutive victory last Friday night when they defeated the Archer City Wildcats 13-0.

Crowell struck their first blow in the first quarter when right halfback Wayne Borchardt returned an Archer City punt 27 yards and then galloped 33 yards off tackle to the end zone. DuWayne Elliott converted to make the score 7-0.

The Wildcats scored again in the second quarter when Gerry Knox plunged over from the two-yard line after quarterback Gordon Graves raced 20 yards on a

Students in the 11th and 12th grades in all of Texas public, private, and parochial schools were invited by Harry Benge Crozier, chairman of the Texas Committee for Employment of the Physically Handicapped, and H. P. Hackney, Commander, Department of Texas, Disabled American Veterans, to participate in the 6th Annual Essay Contest sponsored by the two organizations.

Crozier said that rules of the contest had been sent to all High School superintendents and principals and those students interested should contact their respective schools.

Commander Hackney stated the essay, on the subject "The Physically Handicapped — Competent, Dependable Workers," could be a lucrative project for the winners. He pointed out prizes for the State Contest will be $100 first plus a gold medal, $60 second plus a silver medal, $40 third plus a golden-bronze medal, $20 fourth plus a bronze medal, $10 fifth.

Newspapers to Be Used to Advertise New 1954 Chryslers

The greatest newspaper advertising campaign in Chrysler's 30-year history will use more than 3,300 newspapers for the 1954 Chrysler new model announcement program, reports John H. Caron, advertising manager, Chrysler Division, Chrysler Corporation.

"In addition to using the most powerful advertising in the 30-year history of the company, Chrysler, throughout the 1954 model year, will advertise more frequently and use larger ads than ever before," Caron said.

The newspapers to be used in the announcement have a combined circulation of 62,000,000 and were chosen to obtain maximum circulation penetration into the 3,000 counties in the U. S. that are served by Chrysler's 3,500 dealers.

Caron said that this year 22,000,000 families will be reached in the Chrysler announcement program through the use of Sunday supplements carrying four-color pages in This Week, American Weekly and independent supplements.

"Added to this tremendous campaign will be the impact produced by the biggest national magazine announcement and follow-up advertising campaign we have ever used," Caron said.

"The announcement campaign in newspapers and magazines will constitute the first of a whole new family of beautiful Chrysler ads designed to sell the beauty, safety, power and performance of the great 1954 Chryslers. These ads will highlight Chrysler's new beauty, the new 235-horsepower FirePower V-8 engine and new fully-automatic PowerFlite transmission to name only three of the 61 new features found in Chrysler for 1954."

How Long Will Drouthy Ranges Take to Recuperate?

The D. A. V. in Texas will pay transportation to Austin for the State winner to attend their state convention in June, 1954.

Crozier said for entries in the essay contest to be considered they must be postmarked not later than midnight February 5, 1954, and addressed to Chairman, Texas Committee for Employment of the Physically Handicapped, % Texas Employment Commission, Brown Building, Austin 19, Texas.

Crozier and Hackney said background material for the students is available from any one of the Texas Employment Commission local offices; through the Rehabilitation Division, Texas Education Agency; or by writing Disabled American Veterans, Department of Texas, P. O. Box 2061, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas.

Three factors of prime importance determine how long overgrazed west Texas ranges will take to recover from the drouth.

According to Joe Burkett, County Agent, research conducted by Leo B. Merrill at the Sonora Experiment Station shows it depends upon the drain of past grazing, the kinds of grasses on the pastures and grazing management after rains. These factors were recently concluded following grass survival tests to determine the effect of three years' severe drouth on native grass cover.

After the application of 4 1/2 inches of moisture to designated test plots, grass plants which did not green up after three weeks were considered dead. A check of the plots showed bunch grasses withstood drouth conditions much better than other grass types. Sideoats grama suffered only 3 per cent loss while silver blue-stem and wright threeawn showed a loss of 15 and 55 per cent, respectively. No loss of little blue-stem was observed. Curly mesquite in pure stands suffered 88 per cent loss for all stocking rates.

These tests emphasize that light grazing and deferment must be followed several years if ranges are to recover their former grazing capacity. Burkett says, Ranchmen should let the plants make some top growth and increase crown size before they are heavily grazed. This will also deepen the root system, Burkett says.

The goal for helping grasslands recuperate should be to have a good cover of the best kind of grass, Burkett concluded.

Cooperation Is Necessary to Solve Water Problem

By LYNDON B. JOHNSON
U. S. Senator

A coordinated, long-range water program in Texas would serve the best interests of both the State and the Nation. Such a program would increase the prosperity of both without detracting from the rights of either, provided we are able to find the proper dividing line.

We are living in a time when there appears to be a struggle between the Federal and the State Governments over dominance. Personally, I do not believe the wise men who wrote our Constitution looked forward to any such struggle.

Rights and Responsibilities

I believe they mapped out clearly defined authority for both Governments. I believe they thought each had definite rights and definite responsibilities.

The water program suggested for Texas in a report by the Bureau of Reclamation, following a study made at my request, seems to me a case in point.

I have transmitted copies of this report to the head of the Federal Government, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and the head of the Texas State Government, Governor Allan Shivers. I have asked both to consider the problem—and to seek to cooperate in solving the problem.

Solution Is Possible

As one who was born and brought up in cotton country, I do not believe a solution is impossible. As one who knows something of the problems in a land where too much sun is followed by too much water, I have complete confidence in the ability of intelligent men to balance the two factors.

This, I believe, is the kind of cooperation contemplated by the founders of this Government — cooperation among the Chief of the Federal Government, the chief of the State Government, and the representative to the Federal Legislature. Surely, with such cooperation, we can arrive at a program which will benefit both the State and the Nation.

I am not certain whether the program advanced by the Bureau of Reclamation through its Austin Area Planning Office is the right

one. But it does set forth the fundamental facts and figures about the Texas water problem. It does offer a basis for working out an effective approach to the problem.

Proposal Points Way

We seek a solution for our Texas water problem which will preserve the rights and responsibilities of both Texas and the Federal Government.

We have a proposal which points the way to that solution, even though we have yet to determine that it is the proper solution.

We need only to make up our minds with an eye to the best interests of the people of Texas and the United States—and then act.

There is ample time for full discussion in Texas of this whole project before the next regular session of Congress. I hope it will take place.

Mr. Ikard's theme will be based on our present day legislative program with emphasis on pressure groups and lobbyists in Washington, D. C.

For a real bargain — get a real truck!

SURE, you can save a few dollars now on a truck price-tagged slightly less than a GMC. But if you want a bargain that will still be a bargain after years of hard truck-work, ask these questions before you buy:

Does the truck give you a GMC's 105 H.P.? That's up to 19% more power than comparable sixes. It hustles a GMC's top loads up tough pulls—without engine strain.

Does it have a GMC's 8.0 to 1 super-high-compression? That gives you quicker getaways—more drive—better mileage. All on regular gas.

Does it offer a GMC's engine-sparing Truck Hydra-Matic*? With it, you say good-bye to gearshift wrestling. No more clutch repairs. Maintenance costs shrink.

Does it have the extra protection of a GMC's self-energizing brakes? The extra comfort of a GMC's "Six-Footer" cab? The handling ease of a GMC's ball-bearing steering action?

If all the answers are "yes," you have a real bargain—a GMC. And there are 19 handsome 1/2- to 1-ton models to choose from. How can you lose?

News items below were taken from the issue of the Foard County News of Friday, Nov. 2, 1923:

According to records at the county clerk's office, there were 60 boys and 59 girls born in the county up to Oct. 29, the first ten months of the year. There have been 34 deaths recorded during this time.

The license fee you pay this year depends on the kind of car you drive. If it is a runabout Ford the fee is $10.00. The highest for a Ford is $14.50. On the other hand, the fee for a Cole is $32.02.

The Frisco railroad is having another run of hard luck. Friday night the bridges across North and Salt Fork of Red River, north of Vernon, went out. For the past ten months the bridge crews have been kept busy driving piling and now bridge material is hard to get.

October has the second best rain record in the history of the county, 9.91 inches. Rainfall for the year, including October, reaches the amount of 34.41 inches.

Judge T. W. Staton, native of Alabama and a former resident of Crowell, and also a former Foard County judge, died at his home in Gainesville Monday night. Interment was in the Gainesville cemetery.

Joe Fowler of Harrold was here this week visiting R. J. Roberts and family.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ferguson returned the latter part of last week from a visit with relatives in Waco, making the trip in their automobile.

Mrs. F. W. Burna of Houston, who had been here for several weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Ferguson, left Monday for her home.

Cambridge, Mass. — When Luther A. Sawyer, 82, of Arlington, died recently, he left a bequest of $20,000 to Jerry, a 4-year-old parrot. Under the terms of the will, the parrot will be cared for by Sawyer's sister, Mrs. Vera Barnes, 73.

by VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas — Thirty of the conservative Democratic leaders held a private meeting here and laid plans to retain control of the party in Texas through the precinct, county, and state conventions next year.

Among those present were Wallace Savage of Dallas, state democratic committee chairman; Geo. Sandlin of Austin, secretary; and Claud Gilmer of Rocksprings, chairman of the Texas Democrats for Eisenhower campaign in 1952. This session came three months after organizers had begun their work, looking to next year's struggle with the liberal Democrats.

Governor Shivers was present, but according to reports coming out of the meeting, he gave no indication as to whether he would be a political candidate, and if so, in which race.

Texas Young Democrats have become a new focal point in the old political feud. Dormant since 1947, the organization is being built up again, says Boyd Taylor, a University of Texas student.

Taylor reports that according to the rules, state organizations must get a new permit every two years from the National Young Demos and pay a $100 fee.

This requirement has been carried out by his group, Taylor says. As evidence, he shows a telegram from John F. McCarthy of Bridgeport, Conn., treasurer of the national organization.

Taylor's associates are the Adlai Stevenson type of Democrats, as opposed to the Shivers type.

Several young Texans met with Stephen Mitchell, chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee, when he was here last July, says Taylor, at that time Mitchell suggested that the young Texans get a charter.

Now let's get to the other side of the argument.

George Sandlin of Austin, secretary of the Texas Democratic Executive committee, says he never officially heard of Boyd Taylor.

According to Sandlin, Taylor's group failed to follow the prescribed procedure, which is to be certified by the state Democratic chairman, the national committee man and committee woman.

"None of these had certified Taylor's group," Sandlin said. As far as the State Democratic Executive committee is concerned, the present head of the Texas Young Demos is Max Triplett of Hillsboro, who occupied that position in 1947, and for whom no successor has officially been chosen.

So—here we go again, the so-called liberal democrats versus the so-called conservative Democrats.

Boyd Taylor and his Young Demos, on the liberal side, plan a state convention in San Antonio Friday and Saturday (Oct.

30-31). Among the speakers will be Ralph Yarborough of Austin, who lost to Shivers in the race for governor last year; and Byron Skelton of Temple, who has opposed Shivers' party leadership.

Texas Republicans, meanwhile, were carrying forward their own election plans for 1954.

But Senator Price Daniel, in a speech at San Antonio, said he does not think they have much chance.

"Texas is a Democratic state," the senator said. "I don't think the Republicans are going to win any (statewide) offices next year."

Eisenhower's victory in Texas in 1952 was not a Republican triumph, but a personal victory for Ike, in Daniel's view.

There will be no special session of the Legislature on drought relief at this time, the governor has announced.

In an official memorandum, Attorney General John Ben Shepperd ruled that the governor can use his $200,000 deficiency appropriation to finance a state-federal hay program.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, in Shepperd's opinion, is empowered to administer the program for Texas.

The governor's deficiency appropriation is the Legislature's authority to the chief executive to spend money for any necessary purpose that may be unforeseen while routine appropriations of state moneys are being made. With $200,000, the governor estimates, the drought relief program can be carried along for a couple of months. After that time, the situation can be re-studied.

Texas oil production was reduced again, for the third straight month, by the Railroad Commission.

November's quota is 2,803,528 barrels daily, 360,374 barrels less than the figure for July, when the downward trend began.

From the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association came cries of protest at the drop in production.

Association spokesman protested that the reduction in Texas oil production comes about by virtue of the importation of foreign oil.

"We have merely forfeited more of our domestic market to foreign oil," said M. D. Bryant of San Angelo, president of the association.

Imports of foreign oil amounted to 869,125 barrels daily in September, according to reports received by the Railroad Commission.

There are too many insurance companies in Texas. So says Garland A. Smith, newly-appointed chairman of the State Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Smith added that he intends to draft legislation that will cut down the number of new insurance companies which have insufficient securities to protect holders of their policies.

There are now 1,822 insurance companies operating in Texas, Smith said. Of the total, 500 are Texas companies and the others are national companies with branches in Texas.

"That's far too many," Smith asserted.

He cited that three companies have liquidated in the last year, and one company could not meet $800,000 in liabilities.

Tightened enforcement of the liquor laws will be possible by the addition of 10 new inspectors for the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Coke R. Stevenson Jr., the board's administrator, announced that a training school will begin November 2 for selected candidates who seek the jobs.

After an intensive course of study, they will take an examination, and those who pass it will start work as inspectors.

Because most of these men will be assigned to the undercover squad, the trainees' names are not

It is the responsibility of undercover men to gather evidence regarding violators of the Texas Liquor Control Act.

For years the Legislature has worried over laws regulating the annexation of territory by cities.

Still troublesome, the question will get a going-over by a Texas Legislative Council committee composed of Senators Gus J. Strauss of Hallettsville, Neveille H. Colson of Navasota, and Jop S. Fuller of Port Arthur; and Representative Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio, Charles Murphy of Houston, Scott P. Sayers of Fort Worth, and Tom King of Dallas.

How to provide for the orderly expansion of cities while protecting the property rights of citizens is the problem.

Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey is chairman of the council. He also appointed committees on game and fish laws, juvenile code, and revising Texas' court system.

This week, calls for 1,264 men were being placed in the mail by Texas draft boards.

To be inducted in December, the draftees will join 1,210 to go into the service in November and 1,208 summoned for October induction.

Texans ought to "learn about the aims and organization of the United Nations so they may lend more support to its underlying ideas and spirit." These words are from Governor Shivers' proclamation, designated last Saturday United Nations Day.

DOCTOR DRAFT

Under the two branches doctors, dentists and veterinarians who served 21 months or more, have no further obligation except in all-out emergency. Those who served months are technically subject call. Obligation remaining others range from 15 months to those who served between 15 and 17 months to 24 months for those who served less than nine. $100 a month bonus payment provision for doctors who volunteer remains.

Miss Wanda Jones and Bobby Lax Marry in Electra

On Tuesday night, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Jones of Electra, Miss Wanda Jones became the bride of Bobby Lax, both of Crowell. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Eunice Jones and the late Roy Jones of Crowell, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lax, also of Crowell. The vows for the double ring ceremony were repeated under the direction of E. E. Coleman, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Electra.

For the recitation of their nuptial vows, the young couple stood before an improvised altar, which was backgrounded by circular arrangements of jade foliage. Tall cathedral candelabra of Swedish steel held arrangements of ivory tapers, which were lighted by Miss Virginia Tamplin and Mrs. Kenneth Ownbey of Crowell.

Mrs. Lewis Hunter of Crowell served the bride as the matron of honor. She was attired in a two-piece suit of mauve wool and completed her ensemble by wearing accessories of navy blue. Her shoulder corsage was of a soft shade of blue of feathered carnations. Don Marriott of Wichita Falls served the groom as best man. Janis Crowell, organist, played as pre-nuptial music "O Promise Me" and the traditional wedding march and the recessional and a muted arrangement of "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" as the vows were repeated.

The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, Earle Jones, Electra, who gave her in marriage. She chose for her wedding ensemble a two-piece suit of pastel blue wool, with which she wore navy accessories. Her bridal flowers fashioned to be worn as a shoulder corsage when the couple left on their honeymoon trip, were of pale pink roses carried atop a white Bible. For a further touch of sentiment the pastor used a Bible which belonged to the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Jones, of Electra.

Immediately following the ceremony, the newly wed couple were honored with a reception.

Guests were received by the newly wed couple, their parents and attendants at the wedding. The refreshment board was covered with a floor length cloth of blue and the point of interest, the unusual centerpiece which had been fashioned from large gold mums and smaller pom-pom mums, from which was suspended streamers of pastel blue, were held in a large container suspended from the wall, directly behind the table, used as the background for the lovely wedding table. The pastel blue satin streamers were caught at each extremity of the arrangement, fashioned of the same flowers as those in the centerpiece. The center satin streamer bore the inscription "Bob and Wanda." Other table appointments were in crystal, and the bride's chosen colors of blue and gold were noted in other table decorations.

The large three tiered wedding cake, which was topped by the traditional bride and groom, was served under the direction of Mrs. Bassett Keller of Abilene, cousin of the bride. Mrs. George Thompson of Midland presided at the punch bowl.

Guests were registered under the direction of Mrs. Hunter. Some 40 close friends and relatives were present.

The bride is a graduate of the Crowell High School and is attending a business college in Fort Worth. The groom is a member of the U. S. Air Force and is currently stationed in Greenland.

The author, Mrs. Ada Clendenon, is claimed by Ozona and San Angelo. She is a native Texan. She owns an antique shop in Ozona.

Mrs. Virgil Borchardt, Mrs. Ed Gafford and Mrs. Jeff Bell were hostesses for the tea. Mrs. Gafford presided at the well-appointed tea table.

Social Security Is More Than Old-Age Protection

"Don't make the mistake of thinking of social security insurance only as old-age protection," Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls Social Security Of-ice, cautioned this week.

"Because 'old-age' comes first in the title of the program, many people overlook the fact that it is survivors insurance, too," he said. "The survivors protection feature" of the program is of greatest importance to the young worker. While the time when he can retire and get monthly payments is many years away, his widow and children would get monthly benefit payments if anything should happen to him at any time while he is insured under the law," Tate declared.

Tate pointed out that under the survivors insurance portion of the social security program, monthly benefits were being paid to over 1,170,000 widowed mothers and minor children at the end of July. "In many families," Tate said, "social security insurance payments are making it possible to maintain the home and educate the children after the untimely death of the family breadwinner."

Tate said that more than 10 million workers are now insured under social security. They continue to have this protection if they work in covered employment or self-employment for length of time equal to at least one-half the time after 1950 up to the time they reach 65 or die. No more than 10 percent covered work is required in case, however.

Range Program Needed Texas Water

LYNDON B. JOHNSON
U. S. Senator

Note: This is one of a series of articles based on a Bureau of Reclamation survey of the Texas water resources made at the request of Senator Johnson.

Special division of Texas into water supply problem areas in the Bureau of Reclamation's appraisal of the State's water resources. These are the High Plains, the Pecos Valley, the Gulf Coast, and the Gulf Coast.

High Plains and Gulf Coast areas have major water problems, as defined by the Bureau.

Indian River Project
The High Plains, the Canadian River Project holds the answer to the problem of supplying municipal and industrial water—combined, of course, with effective use of ground waters. A comprehensive State and Federal program is being worked out at present holding up the project. It is of the greatest importance that the conflict be resolved as soon as possible.

The Red Bed portion of the area, the Bureau reports, is the most serious, and industrial water can be provided by multiphase developments using a computer source. Such developments are being well with capabilities of local or regional sources. Although water resources are limited, they are adequate to supply municipal and industrial requirements.

Gulf Coast Area
The Gulf Coast area that has the greatest water supply problem. The problem involves agriculture, industries, and irrigation projects.

Its solution, according to the Bureau's appraisal, will require an integrated, inter-basin project of great magnitude. This project would be designed to supply all water requirements of the entire area from common facilities.

Under the Bureau's plans, about 12 million acre-feet of reservoir space ultimately would be provided on Gulf Coast streams. The program would call for the movement of water, through the system of reservoirs and distribution facilities, from the eastern section of the area—which has a surplus of water—to the southwestern section, which has a marked water deficiency.

Long-Range Program

Now, this is, of course, a long-range program. The Bureau suggests that the development be carried on by stages over many years, units of the overall plan being installed as they become needed.

It is a program that would require close cooperation between the State and Federal levels of government.

It is a program that would recognize water supply rather than flood control—important as that is—as the basic water problem in Texas. The program calls not only for far-sighted planning but also for new concepts of planning.

Effect on State Income

Clearly, the proper use of our water resources deserves to receive the most careful consideration. We cannot escape the fact that per capita income in Texas is still below the national average. It is considerably below that of the Western States which have utilized their available water resources to bring about tremendous industrial and agricultural expansion.

Time continues to pass away—and 85 per cent of our potential water supply, year after year, runs off into the Gulf and is lost to us. That is the condition we must change. Our economic future depends on our success in solving our water problem.

"Novel" comes from an Italian word meaning tale.

COURT APPEAL — Belladonna Villines studies lawbooks at Arlington, Va., after being admitted to practice before U. S. Supreme Court at Washington. The high judges stared, obviously pleased, as the blond beauty appeared in a tight-fitting sweater. Miss Villines, 34, broke legal precedent by wearing the sweater, previously banned before supreme tribunal. She is married, and has a daughter, age 10.

Texas Farm Cash Income Shows 17% Decrease

Texas farmers' cash income from farm commodities was 17 per cent lower in the January-July period this year than in the first seven months of 1952, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Total farm cash income was $766,911,000, a decrease of $156,000,000 from the January-July amount of last year, according to reports gathered by the Bureau in cooperation with the federal Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Drought conditions, particularly in West Texas, insects and worms, and scant rainfall—all these have been major causes of declining crops and livestock, the Bureau said.

Three leading Texas crops which showed considerable decreases during the first part of the year were grain sorghum, down 47 per cent; wheat, 31 per cent; and cotton, 26 per cent. Other crops and commodities which showed considerable losses in income were: wool, down 36 per cent; mohair, 33 per cent; peanuts, 17 per cent; and corn, 15 per cent.

Three farm commodities showed rises in income: oats, up 48 per cent; flaxseed, 24 per cent; and eggs, 18 per cent. A 28 per cent drop in cattle income was attributed largely to drought conditions. The only cash increase for livestock in the January-July 1952-53 comparison was from sheep and lambs, which improved by 53 per cent. Calves were down 14 per cent and hogs down 8 per cent.

The Fifth Plate

John C. White, Commissioner Texas Dept. of Agriculture

The present birthrate in the United States indicates that one extra person will be sitting at every American table for four by 1975. People are now asking: "Where is the food coming from to fill this fifth plate?"

If population forecasters are right, our agricultural production will have to increase 20 per cent to feed the next generation as well as we are eating now. This means a big demand for additional food.

In the past, such demands have led to drastic changes in the lives of many people. When the Irish potato crop failed in 1845, hundreds of thousands left their native country to find homes in the United States. As the population increased in the eastern states, people moved west, opening new land and advancing the frontier.

In World War I, American farmers expanded their production by putting vast acreages of land into cash crops. And you all know the years of distress that followed when the war-time market collapsed in the 20's.

When a second World War again demanded the utmost of farmers, they increased production by nearly one-third. This was about the limit of our production capacity at that time.

Today, each farmer now raises enough to feed himself and about 15 others. And there are 7,000 new babies to be fed in the United States every morning of the year. New farmers and new farms can't be created fast enough to keep the ratio balanced.

If we have to raise our sights to feed a permanently expanding population, where shall we turn this time? There are no new frontiers of first-rate land to be opened up. Only a little more than one-fifth of our land area is now being used for crops, so millions more acres could be put into cultivation—but the investment for irrigation alone would be staggering.

The problem is not a new one. About 150 years ago, Thomas Malthus, a brilliant but rather shortsighted English economist, fore-

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, M. D., State Health Officer.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that it is the duty of every citizen, young and old, to help in preventing the spread of disease. Every man, woman and child in Texas has a personal obligation to keep as well as possible, and to do all they can to protect others from illness. Even a child in kindergarten can be taught to cover a cough or sneeze and thus help in preventing the spread of colds or other diseases that start with the symptoms of a cold.

Dr. Cox emphasizes the fact that the local health officer can do little to break the chain of communicable disease in the community if he does not have the whole-hearted support of the people. Every case of illness that looks suspicious of being a communicable disease should be promptly reported to the health officer. Physicians report to the county or city health officer the cases of communicable diseases they diagnose, but parents often fail in this duty. The local health officer cannot start control measures unless he is informed of cases or suspected cases of communicable diseases.

Some signs and symptoms which often accompany communicable disease are: running nose, coughing and sneezing, dizziness or faintness, swelling of the neck, sore throat, unusual paleness, ear ache or running ears, feverish appearance, rash, nausea, vomiting or diarrhea and irritability or other change in normal behavior and appearance.

Help to prevent the spread of communicable disease in your neighborhood by observing correct health practices and reporting promptly any appearance of suspicious symptoms.

Law does not compel husband and wife to live together.

Senator Johnson to Speak in Electra on Tuesday, Nov. 17

Senator Lyndon Johnson, one of Texas' most colorful political leaders, has accepted an invitation to be the speaker at the annual banquet of the Electra Chamber of Commerce. The affair is slated for Tuesday night, Nov. 17, at 7 o'clock at the high school gymnasium.

Johnson, who is 44, is said to be the youngest man to become Democratic Leader in Washington. He is noted throughout the South as an outstanding speaker. John McKelvey, president of the Electra Chamber of Commerce, says that Electra is unusually fortunate to be able to present Johnson as the banquet speaker.

Senators Johnson to Speak in Electra on Tuesday, Nov. 17

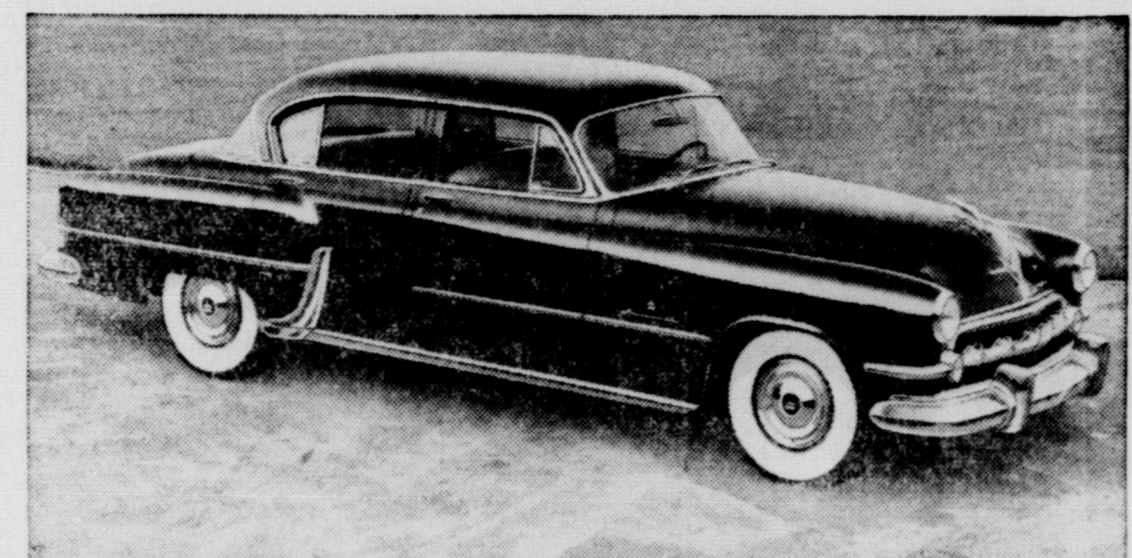

A reception will be held in Johnson's honor at 6 p. m. at the Electra Community Center. The public is invited to meet and greet Johnson at that time.

Ticket sales are heavy which indicates that a large crowd will attend the banquet. McKelvey pointed out. Tickets can be secured through the Chamber of Commerce office.

CLOSING CAMPS

The Army has announced that it is closing seven more camps and installations as an economy measure, with an estimated saving of about $11,000,000 the first year and $30,000,000 in succeeding years.

OIL-BASED FLU VACCINE

Influenza vaccine has been found to have 10 to 32 times more potency when mineral oil instead of water is used as a base. Mineral oil, which is made from petroleum, also has been used successfully as a base for a polio vaccine. Experiments at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine indicate the new influenza vaccine with mineral oil may double the period of immunity and protect the human body against all known types of flu virus. Oil promotes progress in medical fields as well as in fields of science, industry and business.

A BLACK DAY

Harpden, England. — Taking the family for a ride, a father asked his son to take the pet dog for a walk while he fixed the car which had broken down. While the boy was away, the auto, still in gear, shot forward and wrecked a gas lamp on the country road. The father took one whiff of the escaping gas and collapsed. The car overturned, and the mother received a black eye from the jolt. When the boy returned and the scene, he fainted. The dog howled and ran away.

Woodrow Wilson issued the first Mother's Day proclamation.

Trade, Not Aid

Foreign trade is a complex subject. However, one fact is not difficult to understand. Trade must be a two-way street.

An example of the constructive force of foreign trade may be found in the jute industry. The jute industry of India links the farmers of America with the farmers of Asia and, in doing so, accounts for two-way trade that is of benefit to both. Manufacture of burlap from the jute crop of Indian Pakistan is India's largest industrial enterprise. Burlap exports by India to the United States in 1951 accounted for 26 per cent of India's total dollar earnings and amounted to $80,000,000. About 80 per cent of the imports of burlap by America are used for the packaging of agricultural commodities in burlap bags. The use of burlap bags by farmers in turn has helped to create a foreign market for the products of American agriculture — in the year 1951 India bought $330,000,000 worth of American agricultural products, including $126,000,000 worth of cotton.

Aside from the fact that trade is the only practical alternative to pouring out billions in foreign aid at the expense of American taxpayers, this country needs the products of other lands. As President Eisenhower declared in his inaugural address, "For all our own material might, even we need markets in the world. Equally we need vital materials and products of distant lands."

Chevrolet Trucks!

From light delivery to heavy hauling, there's a Chevrolet truck to fit your needs.

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

Buy no truck until you get our deal!
Be ahead on price! Chevrolet trucks are America's lowest priced truck line! It's easy to find a truck that costs more, but nowhere else will you find all the advanced features, all the thrifty power, all the ruggedness and durability you get in a Chevrolet truck.
Be ahead on operating costs! Both the mighty Loadmaster engine on heavy-duty models and the rugged Thriftmaster engine on light- and medium-duty models squeeze more miles out of every gallon of gas. Chevrolet trucks cut upkeep costs, too.
Be ahead on trade-in! You're ahead with low first cost... you're ahead with low operating costs... and you're dollars ahead again when it's time to trade! That's because Chevrolet trucks traditionally command a higher trade-in value. Buy now and be ahead all ways!

Fort Worth — The movement of cattle and calves to market in the United States reached a new highwater mark as the first market day of November became history last Monday.

Most observers had felt that probably the peak of the Fall runs had been reached a couple of weeks ago, and that numbers would moderate in the weeks ahead.

However, the nation's 12 major livestock centers reported 162,600 cattle, nearly 35,000 more than a week ago on the same day. Monday's cattle runs more than 49,000 head above the same date a year ago.

The 12 major markets reported 33,000 calves, about 1,000 above a week ago, but 6,500 ahead of the same date last year.

The tops of the cattle market at Fort Worth was bearish from the outset and bids and sales of 50c to $1 lower were the rule at Fort Worth with many sales fully $1 below last week's close. Exception was choice stocker calves, which ruled steady.

Good and choice drylot fed steers and yearlings cashed at $17 to $23, and common to medium grassers sold largely from $9 to $15.50. Some raminian kinds of yearlings and steers cashed at $7 to $9.

Fat cows sold mostly from $9 to $11 at Fort Worth, a few higher. Cannors and cutters drew $6 to $8. Bulls sold from $7 to $11, with best heavies around $12.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold largely at $13 to $16.50, and common to medium offerings drew $9 to $12, and cull sorts sold from $7 to $8.

Good and choice stocker steer calves sold from $13 to $17, a few $18.50. Stocker and feeder steers and yearlings sold from $9 to $15.50. Stocker cows drew $8 to $11.50.

Hog prices staged a mild rally, and top hogs sold at $20.75 to $21 at Fort Worth Monday on weights of 190 to 250 pounds. This was 25 to 50c above last week's close. Sows cashed at $17.50 to $19, or steady.

Sheep and lamb prices were stronger at Fort Worth Monday. The supply of desirable stocker and feeder lambs continues to be small and prices on them were 50 cents or more higher at Fort Worth Monday with some feeders selling in the $14 to $16.25 bracket. Good and choice fat lambs topped at $17 to $19, some lambs with fall shorn pelts at $19. Low grade slaughter lambs drew $10 to $14.

Slaughter ewes sold from $5 to $6.50, and shorn slaughter yearlings drew $12 to $13. Old wethers sold from $6 to $8. Old butchers cashed at $2.50 to $3.

Since pelt credits will be used more and more in the market reports here is how they are listed:

Fresh shorn, or No. 3 pelt—less than one-fourth inch of wool.

No. 2 pelt—One-fourth to one-half inch of wool.

No. 1 pelt—One-half to one inch of wool.

Fall shorn or Summer shorn pelt—One inch to one and one-half inches of wool.

Full wool, or woolskin—over one and one-half inches of wool.

Tuberculosis Is Still No. 1 Health Menace to Texas Residents

"Tuberculosis is still playing a vicious game of hide-and-seek in Texas," Dr. Ralph E. Gray of Lake Jackson told directors of the Texas Tuberculosis Association at their quarterly meeting in Austin recently.

Dr. Gray in July was designated by the TTA to head a statewide survey of existing control practices, treatment facilities and other conditions bearing on the disease and its victims in Texas.

In his preliminary report to the board, the Lake Jackson physician outlined a comprehensive plan to "turn a strong searchlight on TB at the grassroots level where we must go to find how Texas really measures up to its No. 1 health menace."

Dr. Gray said his committee in working out methods of getting the information had taken into consideration "progress over almost a decade since a similar TTA study in 1945 pointed up the deplorable lack of hospital beds for thousands dying of TB."

As an outgrowth of the 1945 inquiry which revealed less than 2,000 hospital beds available to Texas TB patients, the association's control efforts have included emphasis on provision of TB hospital beds which now total approximately 3775, exclusive of the VA facilities within the state.

Dr. R. G. McCorkle of San Antonio, TTA president, said the study is being undertaken "to find just where we stand in combatting TB so that our program may keep pace with changing trends in treatment and control of the disease."

The voluntary health organization has affiliated local associations serving 102 counties in the state where TB incidence is reported heaviest.

Members of Dr. Gray's committee which will steer the gigantic fact-finding job from state to county level are Joe Bogel, Port Arthur; Dr. H. Frank Carman, Dallas; Dr. Carl A. Nau, Galves-
