Wheat Harvest in Foard County Making Good Progress This Week; Reported Yields from 1 1/2 to 25 Bushels Per Acre

Although four loads of wheat were brought to the Crowell grain elevators Tuesday afternoon of last week, harvest of the 1955 crop didn't really get underway until the first of this week. Rain which fell last Thursday night further delayed the harvest.

Up to Wednesday noon, approximately 165,000 bushels of wheat had been received by the elevators in the county. In the June 10 issue of the News in 1954, it was estimated that 120,000 bushels was reported by the elevators of the county.

The wheat crop is unusually spotted over the county, the best wheat being in the Thalia community and between Crowell and Thalia. It is reported that Dee Powers had wheat that averaged 25 bushels to the acre in the Thalia community. Claudius Carroll, on the Sandifer farm east of Crowell, made 25 bushels to the acre on 30 acres of summer fallowed land.

With continued dry weather and high winds, most of the Foard County wheat crop will be harvested at the end of next week. The average yield is from practically nothing to 25 bushels per acre.

West Texas Contains 63 Per Cent of Total Oil Reserves of Texas

Abilene (Sp.) — The region served by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce contains 63 per cent of the total oil reserves of Texas, including 83 per cent of the known secondary recovery reserves, according to an article in a recent issue of "West Texas Today."

Written by Dr. George H. Fancher especially for the monthly magazine of the regional chamber of commerce, the article is based upon a new book containing the first study ever made of Texas oil resources on a reservoir-by-reservoir, field-by-field, and county-by-county basis.

Fancher, a professor of petroleum engineering at the University of Texas, is director of the Texas Petroleum Research Committee which made the study. Robert L. Whiting and James Cretsigner assisted Fancher in preparing the book called "The Oil Resources of Texas."

"The West Texas region is notable in many respects," the West Texas Today article states. "For example, six of the 10 greatest oil producing counties in Texas are in this region, namely, Ector, Wichita, Pecos, Winkler, Crane and Cochran. All of the 10 deepest oil fields in Texas are in this region. Six of the 10 largest oil fields in the State based on cumulative production to Jan. 1, 1952, are in the West Texas region."

Seventy-nine oil producing counties of the West Texas region have a total reserve of 16,576 billion barrels of oil, or 63 per cent of the total oil reserves of Texas.

"Some 7,642 billion barrels of this huge oil reserve are obtainable by traditional methods," Fancher writes, "whereas the remaining 8,935 billion barrels can be obtained only through the use of the techniques of secondary recovery. The secondary recovery reserves of 8,935 billion barrels is 85 per cent of all such oil in Texas."

Increasingly, the petroleum world will look to West Texas for the latest development in improved techniques of oil recovery and will point with pride to what is being done and can be done in the realm of conservation of oil in this area, the article points out.

"Secondary recovery operations in West Texas will be of such scope, magnitude and importance as to lay firmly the foundation for the economic development of West Texas for many, many years," Fancher says.

Interest Mounts in Quail Restoration

E. A. Walker, director of Wildlife Restoration for the Texas Game and Fish Commission, said quail begin their crucial nesting year with indications that substantial man-made reinforcements will be forthcoming by production time next year.

He said even this summer sizeable habitat improvement will have been effected because of the increased public interest in helping the popular little game bird regain normal population status.

The Director of Wildlife Restoration said requests for literature about providing cover and food for quail continue at a surprising rate. He added that supplies now are coming mainly from a 15,000 reprint made of a special quail bulletin written by Dan Lay of Buna, Wildlife Biologist.

"We are getting literature requests from persons in every walk of life," said the director. "Farmers, 4-H Clubbers, professional men, Boy Scouts, housewives, county agents, future farmers, school children—everybody seems determined to help restore habitat destroyed by civilization and by the historic drought."

A Livingston man wrote for literature, saying he is trying to provide more cover on his Polk County place. A Blanco man said he is trying to replace what brush eradication, overgrazing and drought had destroyed. A Dallas plumbing supply executive asked for twelve copies of Dan Lay's quail bulletin for farm friends.

A Dallas man with ranches in Dallas County, Bosque County and Cooke County requested six copies so that he might supply each of his six foremen. A Fort Worth feed house wrote for ten copies to meet "numerous calls."

A Lubbock man, whose personal letterhead was illustrating with a pointing bird dog, acknowledged receipt of his copy of the Lay pamphlet by describing it as "one of the most scholarly and readable publications I have ever seen upon the subject."

A Van Zandt County Vocational School Coordinator wrote for twelve copies for his agriculture class. A New Braunfels woman asked for information since she is "trying to enlarge some coverts around her farm home. From way out in Fort Stockton, a man asked for advice on restoring quail on his irrigated farm."

A Georgetown grain company man wrote for counsel, saying, "There are several of us here willing to try anything to help our hunting. We have seed stock left but that's about all. And if we don't help them, I'm afraid we will lose that." Similar sentiments were expressed by a Corpus Christi oil man.

John Q. Is a Good Credit Control Man

The American consumer is one of the best credit managers in the world, according to Edwin P. Latimer, past president of the American Finance Conference, national association of automobile installment finance companies.

"Nowhere else in the world is the family unit operating so much like a well-run business, or with such well-planned use of credit as a tool of financial management," Latimer said. "This is a great tribute to the common sense of the American consumer."

Not only has the American consumer proved that he can use his credit wisely, the credit executive continued. "He has further shown from time to time that he is more prudent than business or government."

The average American family, he said, has enough assets to take care of all of its debt 8 1/2 times over.

UNUSUAL BIRTH

Delaware, Ohio. — Twins, a boy and a girl, were born to Mrs. Bernard Schnees, 35, 48 days apart. The boy, Douglas Lee Schnees, arrived by caesarian section on January 28. His sister, Deborah, arrived more than a month and a half later.

Game and Fish Commission Explains Raising of Minnows

Marion Toole, Chief Aquatic Biologist for the Texas Game and Fish Commission, has suggested that there's an interesting story behind those flipping minnows scooped into your bait bucket.

He made his observation in appraising the growing importance of minnow raising to keep up with steadily expanding fresh water fishing facilities. He used the word "billions" in estimating the number of bait fish used each year in Texas.

The biologist said minnow raising is a part of fish culture and therefore calls for great skill. He based his observations on state hatchery routine in raising minnows to feed brood bass.

"Minnow raising does not mean just placing minnows in some water and then reaping the harvest," he cautioned. "Fish culture has developed into a science over the centuries and still our hatchery personnel, although trained for many years in the science, are encountering new problems daily that must be solved in order to more successfully raise fish."

Some major angles behind those bait minnows: Each hatchery pond must be provided with a separate water intake and outlet. "Fish culture is a science over the centuries and still our hatchery personnel, although trained for many years in the science, are encountering new problems daily that must be solved in order to more successfully raise fish."

Some species of minnows can be seined from a pond successfully, but during warm weather golden shiners that are seined will be killed or will shortly die. Golden shiners, therefore, should be dipped or trapped.

A one-half-acre pond will produce more minnows than two one-quarter-acre ponds.

What do the fish waiting to eat the minnows think? The Chief Aquatic Biologist suggested they must be on the side of science, since they prefer their minnows "fat and sassy."

Texas' 4-H Business Continues to Thrive

The estimated value of demonstrations in agriculture, home economics and related fields owned by Texas 4-H club members is $7,500,000. The 122,000 4-H members last year, report the state 4-H leaders, conducted a grand total of 239,754 different demonstrations involving practically every phase of agricultural production and homemaking.

The state 4-H leaders in their annual report show that 4,918 local clubs conducted active programs during 1954. Also that 45,418 members received training in farm and home safety; 22,451 in soil and water conservation; 42,640 in citizenship; 13,940 in group recreation; more than 4,200 in music appreciation and 20,800 received training in some phase of judging.

The records also show that 4-H members are farmers and livestock producers. Their corn acreage last year exceeded 11,500 acres and one of their members, Doyce Turner of Lamb County, set an all-time corn production record for the state of 204.3 bushels an acre. They planted over 14,000 acres of cotton; 4,700 acres of garden vegetables and carried out soil and water conservation practices on 26,614 acres.

They owned 573,128 chickens and turkeys; 6,123 dairy animals; 13,461 beef animals; 31,466 swine; 12,112 sheep and almost 5,000 were enrolled in the tractor maintenance program.

Check for White Grubs in Sick Lawns

Spotty damage to lawns, or a general unthriftiness for which there is no obvious cause, may be the result of work done by white grubs.

Remaining in the soil throughout their larval stage, these grubs feed upon the roots of grasses and other plants. If a sufficient number are present in the lawn, whole root systems are destroyed and the grasses die.

Though lawns may suffer from the ravages of a great many insects, white grubs do most damage, and their activity is harder to detect, according to Joe Burkett, County Agent.

Burkett suggests an easy method of checking for the presence of grubs in the lawn. Cut down on three sides of a square foot of sod, two to three inches deep, with a sharp spade. Then forcing the spade underneath, lay back the foot of sod, using the uncut side as a hinge, and examine for grubs. If six or more grubs are found in this area of soil, the lawn is subject to damage, and some treatment is needed.

Tests so far have shown chlordane to be the most promising insecticide for lawn treatment,

In the News . . . 30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the issue of The Foard County News of Friday, May 29, 1925:

Thirteen teachers for Crowell schools were elected at a board meeting last week. They are Miss May Horn, Miss Ida May Switzer, Miss Jettie Arrington, Mrs. Lena Davis, Mrs. Oscar Bomar, Mrs. J. R. Self, Miss Winnie Self, Miss Lottie Woods, Miss Inez Sloan, Mrs. Glen Shultz, Mrs. D. R. Magee, Miss Zelma Owens, Mrs. John Meyers.

The big engine for the light plant has arrived and is now awaiting installation.

Contract for the new Margaret school building will be let June 6.

Miss Mattie Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Russell, has finished her course at Clarendon College this year with second honors, returning home Tuesday.

Velox Ward and Miss Jessie Howell were quietly married last Sunday in Childress, home of the bride.

Miss Albeene Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson, underwent an eye operation in the Quanaa sanitarium Tuesday.

Miss Frances Hill returned Sunday from Oklahoma City where she attended school the past term.

Ray Shirley of Vernon is here visiting his uncle, Paul Shirley, and family.

J. A. Whitfield was here this week from Alpine.

Miss Geneva Wishon is visiting relatives and friends in Henrietta and Dallas.

Mrs. G. L. Burk, Mrs. Rob Banister and Benton Burk have gone to Canyon to spend the summer.

Mrs. C. R. Ferguson returned Sunday from Houston where she visited her sister, Mrs. F. W. Bur-na.

A baby daughter arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Griffin Thursday of last week.

J. K. Quinn of Haskell, a former Crowell merchant, passed through Crowell Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King entertained Henry Black with a farewell dinner last Sunday. He is leaving for North Texas State Teachers College.

Burkett explains, but others include aldrin and dieldrin and heptachlor.

All these materials are poisonous and should be handled and applied according to manufacturers' directions. They are available in the form of wettable powders or emulsifiable concentrates that can be mixed with water and used in a sprayer. The dust forms may be applied directly to the lawn.

When treating for grubs it is a good practice to sprinkle the lawn after the insecticide is applied, adds Burkett. This will wash the poison down into the soil where it can reach the insect.

L-199, Guide for Controlling Insects on Ornamental Plants, available from the County Agent, gives full details controlling the white grub as well as other insects.

Radar Decreases Number of Accidents in North Texas Area

During the first six months of radar's use the Highway Patrol has stopped with radar 2,355 speeders in this north Texas area consisting of the following 12 counties: Archer, Baylor, Clay, Cottle, Foard, Hardeman, King, Knox, Montague, Wichita, Wilbarger and Young.

The results for the same period last year without radar were 21 fatal, 95 personal injury, 284 property damage accidents totaling 400 accidents. With radar, the past six months' picture looks brighter with 14 fatal, 73 personal injury, 179 property damage accidents making a total of 266 accidents, or 134 accidents that didn't happen.

Capt. K. B. Hallmark Jr., commanding officer for this district, states that radar has primarily helped this reduction and continued effort on the part of the Patrol will continue to reduce the accidents. Hallmark says a great deal of this reduction is due to the voluntary compliance with speed laws and urges continued cooperation through the coming vacation season.

F. F. A. BOYS

All of Texas' 30,000 FFA boys aren't country boys. Many live in towns or cities, take part in agricultural programs just like their rural brothers.

An outstanding vocational agriculture department operates at the Luther Burbank Technical High School in San Antonio. There, 193 boys, 90 per cent of whom live within the city limits of San Antonio, are studying practical farming methods. The school has its own farm of 50 acres adjoining the campus, has livestock, poultry and other facilities for the training of boys.

Chosen is the native name of Korea.

Cash in Farmer's Pocket

When it comes to cash income, meat animals are the farmer's best friends.

In 1953, Department of Agriculture figures show, 28 cents out of each dollar of farm income came from the sale of livestock. That was exactly twice as much as farmers received from their second largest source of income, dairy products. An interesting sidelight is found in the fact that prior to 1945 dairy products was the leader, while in every ensuing year meat animals have dominated agriculture's income.

This year on all-time meat production record is in the making. So farmers should receive as high a percentage, if not higher, of their income from livestock sales as they did last year.

Another recent report details the 1953 distribution of the meat packer's sales dollar—and it will come as a surprise to a great many people, both within and without agriculture. Here's how that dollar was spent: 75.6 cents went for livestock and other farm products; payrolls accounted for 11.9 cents; other expenses required 10.5 cents; taxes took 1.2 cents. That left less than a penny—8 of one cent to be exact. And this was the sum of the packer's net earnings.

Suffering from Headaches??

Thousands of people are suffering from headaches; some of them for many years. Headache sufferers are continually treating the effect rather than trying to determine the cause of their trouble.

Your family Chiropractor is best qualified to determine the cause of headaches. The human body can only be healthy if there is an uninterrupted nerve energy flow to all the tissue cells and organs. However, spinal misalignments may cause pressure on nerves, thereby interfering with the normal nerve flow to the various parts of the body. This nerve interference is the cause of such adverse symptoms as headaches.

If you are one of the multitudes who suffer from headaches, you will save time, money and misery by consulting your family Chiropractor. Once the cause of your headaches is corrected, normal health will ensue.

Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex.—Beer was tapped for the big pay-off as the Senate rolled out a new tax bill—expected to pour $198,000,000 in new money into the treasury in two years.

On the 137th day of an over-time session, the Senate passed a many-changed version of the House tax bill. It left the last say to the House and hoped for a quick wind up.

The bill is expected to produce $62,000,000 during the next two years, for the general revenue fund. It carried a bookkeeping re-allocation feature which will give this fund $3,000,000 more from current taxes. Thus it offered the House $9,000,000 more than the $56,000,000 required to unblock the record billion and a half dollar appropriation bill. It provides about $44,000,000 in the biennium for highway purposes.

Three round pennies will carry the brunt of the burden of the new tax structure—one cent more on gasoline and cigarettes and a new levy of a penny a bottle on beer.

In this, the sixth main version of a money bill, the Senate swung back to the House's proposal of one cent on gasoline and cigarettes. But the Senate substituted a whopping $10,000,000 a year additional tax on beer for the House's $1,000,000 a year increase on beer and wine dealers' license fees.

Final passage was voted 18 to 13.

Stripped out of the Senate passed tax bill were House proposals for a levy on cigars, snuff and tobacco. Added was a token one-tenth of a cent levy on "dedicated" natural gas—long-term exclusive contracts, payable by the long pipelines—and expected to produce $2,000,000. Gas pipelines were put under the intangible assets tax.

Dropped were Senate proposals for manufacturing taxes and gross receipts taxes on department stores, hotels and motels. Rejected by the Senate was a gross receipts tax on the metals and chemicals industries.

Sen. Grady Hazlewood, slender, graying member from Amarillo, emerged with the winning combination to unblock the long and confused Senate fight for new revenues.

At Friday's session, Sen. Otis Lock of Lubbock, who termed himself the "centered sponsor" of the tax measure, offered a new "in between" plan which salvaged part of Governor Allan Shivers' original recommendations and made concessions to an obdurate House.

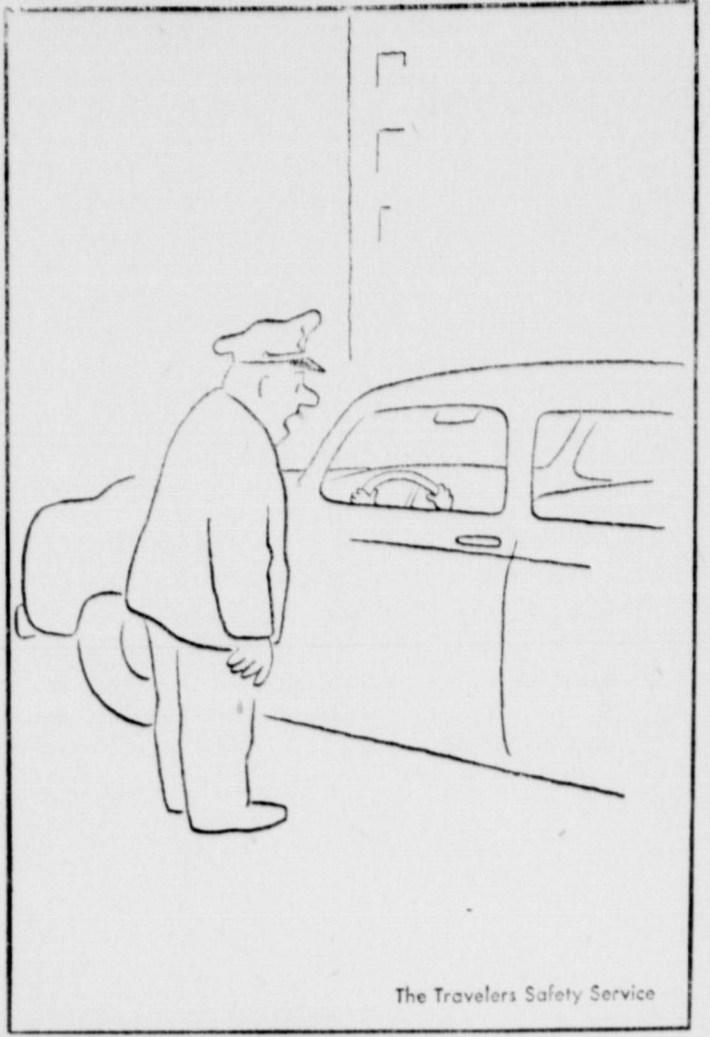

Lock proposed a 1 1/2 cent increase on gasoline, halfway between the two cents the Governor wanted and the one cent the House voted; and 1 1/2 cents on cigarettes; along with a 25c per $1,000 franchise tax levy on corporate stocks. It would bring in the needed $56,000,000 to the

The Professor's Plague

Professor Paul Armand-Delille started something over in Paris. He had no idea what he was starting, nor did anyone else. An experiment which was completely localized got out of bounds and now has spread around the world!

The professor's experiment was so successful that he's been in trouble ever since. It seems that rabbits like flowers and vegetables, and the professor had a garden filled with these. The rabbits came in droves and spoiled his garden. A scientist himself, the professor imported some myxomatosis from Australia and the rabbits immediately began to decrease. In fact, 99 per cent of them were dead in twelve days.

Over-friendly rodents spread the disease from town to village and from village to city, and from city to country; worst, yet, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, Germany and then Britain fell heir to this death-dealer in the animal kingdom. Now rabbits are practically extinct in that part of the world.

I know of another plague, much more serious than this one. It overlooks rabbits, and attacks the human race. It has covered the world and is found wherever man is known. Inherited at birth, it is passed from parent to child, and neither time nor nation has any bounds. It is fatal, and if not arrested will stay forever the body and the soul afflicted by it. It is not only uncontrolled, but uncontrollable. There is no known immunity — one can only suffer from it.

This awful plague has a deadly way of gripping people without their knowledge. They overlook the symptoms, pay no attention to friends who point out the danger, and are blind to both the cause and the consequence. In fact, in the later stages of the situation, they are usually very hard to talk with about the subject.

I speak of the awful plague of sin. The stain of disobedience has been spread through the human race, and it slays every member of Adam's family. There is only One Who can overrule its terrible power, and that One's name is Jesus Christ.

The Bible outlines the dark symptoms of sin, and prescribes forgiveness through Him Who died to save us. There is only one remedy, and that is a divine remedy, real salvation.

Why not call on the Great Physician now, and be saved from this greatest of all plagues forevermore?

Cottonseed Products Cause Off-Colored Yolks in Eggs

Eggs having off-colored yolks usually can be traced to hens fed cottonseed products. Such eggs appearing in Texas retail markets in recent weeks are objectionable to consumers.

No more than five per cent cottonseed meal in a hen's ration may cause yolk discoloration, particularly if the eggs are stored. Discolored yolks appear motley, olive to greenish-brown or even black in color.

Most cases of such yolks are traced to hens having access to cattle or hog feeding operations where a cottonseed product is being fed. In other instances, the hens are eating cottonseed or cottonseed hulls used as nesting litter.

"Some farmers mix their own poultry laying rations and use cottonseed meal unaware of its influence of yolk color," Burkett says.

Poultry scientists at Texas A&M College do not recommend its use in laying rations and advise shell producers to check any supply of cottonseed products that may lower egg quality by affecting yolk color.

FOR THAT RAINY DAY

The wise man doesn't wait 'til the rain falls before he gets himself an umbrella. Same sound sense applies to financial "rainy days." The money you meant to save—but didn't—won't do you a bit of good. Only money that will count is what you DID save . . . regularly, systematically, every pay day. Let your ever-growing account be your "umbrella" . . . and you can take life's "rainy days" in your stride.

Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

The tentative dates for our H.D. Camp at Lake Pauline are August 16 and 17. At our April council meeting, Mrs. Horace Phelps, recreation committee chairman, asked that each club turn in suggestions for the camp craft at the May meeting. Then at our last council, she asked for these suggestions. One club suggested leather work, one club suggested making picture frames, textile painting, or fabric bags. Later in June, the recreation committee will meet and choose a craft, so please give your recommendation to your recreation chairman. However, please bear in mind that our money is limited and we cannot buy a lot of expensive tools for this craft. Usually, we try not to spend more than $1.00 for crafts. Also, remember that our time is limited too.

Freezing is the simplest and quickest way to preserve foods at home. Freezing keeps natural color, fresh flavor, and food values of most fruits and vegetables better than other methods of food preservation.

Five factors determine final quality and success in freezing a product. They are: a quality product, careful preparation, proper packaging, correct freezing, and length of storage in the freezer.

Moisture-vapor proof packaging materials such as double cellophane bags, heavy aluminum foil, cellophane, polyethylene and laminated paper will prevent drying out, preserve food value, flavor, color and texture. Milk cartons, ice cream cartons, or waxed paper are not moisture-vapor proof and should not be used.

For up-to-date information on how to freeze and cook frozen foods, call or come by my office for the Bulletin, "Frozen Foods."

Mental Disorders Present Major Public Health Problem

Mental disorders today represent a major public health problem. Nearly fifty per cent of all hospital beds are occupied by patients with mental illness, declares Dr. Henry A. Holle, State

Health Officer.

But it is estimated that in addition to these, at least one in ten in the general population is suffering from an emotional illness sufficiently disabling to interfere with work and family life. Both severe and minor mental illness appear to stem from organic causes, psychological causes, or a combination of the two.

Much progress has been made in reducing the amount of mental illness due to organic disorders. At one time, 10 per cent of mental hospital beds in the south were occupied by patients whose mental illness was due to pellagra. Today, with improved understanding of nutrition, such cases are almost unknown.

Fifteen years ago, a large number of mental hospital patients suffered from "general paresis," or central nervous system syphilis. Today, due to strides made in control and prevention of syphilis, less than 2 per cent of mental hospital admission are patients with general paresis.

Only since World War II have extensive efforts been made in prevention of mental illness due primarily to psychological factors. Much additional research is needed here, as well as with organic factors.

However, recent studies are building up increasing evidence that early childhood experiences are of vast significance in mental health. Children need consistent, warm mothering, especially during their first three years of life. And in our high-speed modern society, they need guidance in the home and in the school in learning to handle their feelings effectively and in building healthy resistance to pressures of daily living.

Just as attention is needed to building strong bodies in children, so is attention needed to building sound minds.
