Soil Conservation Service Announces New Practices Being Made by Foard County Farmers to Conserve Soil

W. F. Stasser, cooperater with the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District, has planted a mixture of native grasses on one of his farms north of Crowell recently. The mixture consisted of buffalo, side-ot and blue grama and sand love grass. Stasser planted these grasses with a special drill owned by the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District.

Merritt Carruth, George Rieth and J. M. Barker have recently completed construction of field terraces on their farms. Paul Shirley has recently completed construction of a farm pond on his farm west of Crowell.

A topographic survey has been completed by personnel of the Soil Conservation Service on the farm of Emmitt Martin, which is located east of Margaret. This survey will aid Martin in determining his row direction for irrigation and will also show areas that need to be levelled for best irrigation water application.

Charlie Hinkle, who operates the Genevieve Smith farm north of Crowell, plans to shape a waterway on the farm and seed it to king ranch bluestem grass in the near future. Mr. Hinkle plans to terrace this farm this fall or winter and outlet the terraces in the waterway after the grass is established.

The supervisors of the local district have a two row planter which has been modified for planting blue panic grass and it is available to farmers and ranchers in the district who are interested in planting grass.

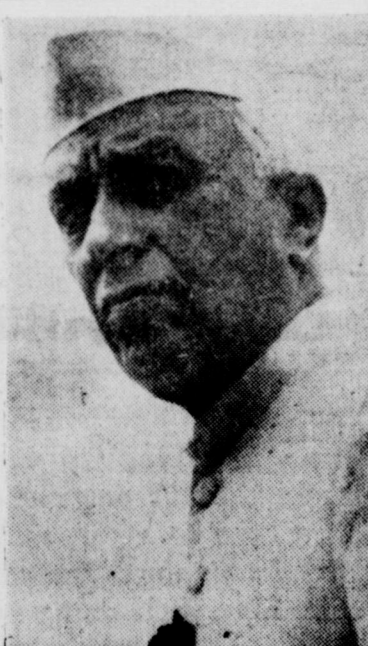

At the regular monthly meeting of the supervisors of the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District held recently in Quanah, eleven new conservation agreements were approved. These agreements are on the farms of H. J. Tabor, W. L. Wilson, Quinton Wilson, Elbert Easley, Mrs. Vivian Bethal, L. B. Wofford, Jack Hurst, Genevieve Smith, W. L. Fechack and Walter P. Thomson. These eleven new agreements added 2,313 acres to the land now under agreement with the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District. Following the meeting, the supervisors toured the irrigated farms of W. C. Howard, operated by Herman Duncan and of Gene Horton.

Recently, Grady Halbert and W. C. Howard, two supervisors of the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District, along with supervisors from other districts, met in Amarillo with various implement dealers to discuss the problem of wind erosion on the high plains. These dealers were eager to assist in controlling wind erosion by furnishing the soil conservation districts with various stubble mulching equipment to be used by the district cooperators.

Nearly Two Inches of Rain Received Here Followed by Extreme Cold Spell

Almost two inches of rain has been recorded by the Government gauge at the Crowell State Bank since early last Thursday morning when a thunder shower which covered most of the county measured .37 inch in Crowell. The rain was heavier in some parts of the county, measuring 1 1/2 inches on the Henry Borchardt farm between here and Foard City. The Foard City community received an inch of rain.

Light snow fell most of the day Monday with the temperature remaining below freezing until Tuesday morning.

The rain Sunday morning was accompanied by a severe electrical storm which damaged several television sets in Crowell, according to Marion Crowell of the Crowell Radio & T. V.

Fruit trees were in full bloom over the county and it is expected that the fruit crop will be badly damaged, if not a total loss.

CYCLONE

Flash, a cyclone has just passed through. At least it looks that way when you pass by the library magazine racks.

It gives you a strange feeling to be in the middle of a "thriller" murder mystery story and at the bottom of the page find "continued on page 74," then you turn to page 74, to find only a torn page. Then your murder mystery is really a mystery, and if you could find who tore up your magazine, there really would be a murder.

The library has furnished these magazines for our enjoyment; let's not destroy the privileges endowed upon us by a few careless, thoughtless acts. The principle of America's democratic system is being shaken with such acts. Only a small shake, agreed. But nevertheless, enough of these shakes at enough places would finally weaken our ideals and principles. It is up to the entire student body to see that these privileges are maintained and upheld, so that others may enjoy the same privileges that we were given.

FORMER CHS STUDENT STANDS OUT IN HIS WORK

The Wildcat staff is always interested and happy when one of its ex-members is doing well in the field of business. Bill Bruce, who was a member of the class of 1944, is now real estate editor of The Houston Post. In a recent issue, Jan. 30, one section had a feature article covering several pages on "The Homes," written by Bill. On reading the article, we found not only a discussion of the diversified homes (English manor, modern design, super modern, futuristic, frantically ranch style, southern colonial, Spanish, pueblo and others), but a history of home building from the earliest houses built by Indians on the Neches river west of Alto in Cherokee County to the modern prefabricated homes of today, the latest trends and developments.

As real estate editor, Bill has attended state and national conventions of home builders and real estate men; he knows many of the homes first hand.

Bruce attended the University of Texas after leaving CHS. He was editor of the Temple Daily Telegram and night editor of the Waco News-Tribune before accepting his present position on the Post. While in CHS he worked after school for The Foard County News.

MERL KINCAID SPEAKS TO BOOKKEEPING CLASS

Merl Kincaid, president of our local bank, gave the bookkeeping class an interesting history of banking, and the operation of the Crowell bank last Wednesday morning, March 16.

He told of the early history of banks. Our first banks seemed to have appeared among the Babylonians in 2000 B. C., because they were located in an industrial area, and the people as individuals had business ways. They had banks for several reasons; however, they needed them mostly for the uses of making wills and mortgages. High interest caused the loans to be very risky because the rate was thirty three and one-third per cent of the loan. Banks finally reached into Persia, Egypt, Greece and Italy. The banks in each of these countries were a little different. For example, in Egypt, the bank was operated by the priest of the church. They were much more strict than the Babylonians. Some banks were owned by the family. International trade was soon started. One of the most famous banks was the Bank of England, which was known as the Mother Bank.

In later years, the number of banks began to increase. In 1931, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation originated, which has been a great help to banks. He concluded his address by presenting each member of the class with a mechanical pencil.

JOHN WAYNE ALLEE CAST IN "AH WILDERNESS" PART AT T. C. U.

In Fort Worth, an 11 year old boy named John Wayne Allee is cast in a play called "Ah Wilderness" at the Little Theatre at TCU. The production starts March 25. He is the son of Mitchell Allee, nephew of Mrs. Carrie Hart of Crowell. He has definitely decided that he will make the stage his career as he proclaimed. "I think it would be a lot of fun to act all the time."

The black haired boy has the juvenile lead as Tommy Miller in the play. He is a sixth grade pupil at Bluebonnet Elementary School. John Wayne has appeared in several elementary plays at school, but "nothing like this."

His mother, Mrs. Rae Baker Allee, is doing graduate work in original drama at TCU. John Wayne, according to "The Shift," TCU's paper, is popular with other members of the cast, who seem to find it not a hard job to work with the polite little boy.

CONTEST PLAY PRESENTED

Crowell's one-act contest play, "The Enemy," was presented to the entire school last Monday, March 21, in the high school auditorium.

The play is a tragedy which takes place in Vienna, Austria, in the year 1917, during World War I.

The characterization is as follows: Paul—Roma Jan Spies; Mizzi—Betty Bartley; Professor—Gordon Graves; Baruska—Carolyn Bursay; Behrend—Joe Brown; and Jan—Aldon Garrett.

These students have worked diligently in an effort to make this performance a winner.

The stage crew, Shirley Fox, Glenn Carroll and Jackie Walker, have given much of their time, also, for the success of the play. Mrs. Elmo Todd, director of the play cast, has, as usual, made this production an outstanding one.

"The Enemy" was produced by Langman's Green & Co. in New York.

QUANAH PRESENTS PLAY

Quanah presented their one-act contest play, "The Fifteenth Candle," to the CHS students last Thursday, March 17, in the high school auditorium.

This play was under the direction of Miss Janet Cook.

The setting was in modern-day New York in the one-room shack of a poor shoe cobbler and brought out the problems of a teenager whose foreign-born father did not know the value of an education.

DAILY ATTENDANCE

Those out of school last week because of sickness were Mary Lou Denton, Larry Love, Marilyn Stone, James Doyal, Jimmy Werley, Jim Kennedy, Norma Hall, Lynn Harvey, La Rue Diggs, Ella Black, Billye Graves and Lula Scott.

Work and other reasons kept out J. M. Cates, Gaylon Whitley, Betty Vessel, Barbara Holland and Mary Hudson.

Magazine Says "Good Things Happen Too"

All too often the gloomy and tragic news rates a banner headline. To correct this situation, Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine, has assembled some statistics that reflect the sunny side of life in the United States.

There are 162,922,000 Americans who are not members of the Communist Party.

Some 37,011,460 couples will stay more or less happily married during the year.

On the average, there are 63-868,000 people working to bring home the bacon.

Last year, the scheduled airlines safely carried passengers 18,902,134,841 miles in the U. S. and possessions; railroads safely carried passengers 31,674,931,200 miles.

Some 162,717,890 persons do not die of cancer in 1955.

And 162,380,580 persons are safe from fatal heart attacks. About 629,000,000 acres of land will not be seized by careless smokers and goers this year.

Most of the time, organized workers are on strike.

Of the 18,977,472 littons in the country who are in the age of 10, only 10,000,000 will have to go to the terrible ordeal of being identified of the United States.

At least 162,944,424 have not been frightened by flying saucers hurtling in the air.

The Internal Revenue will find that 43,846,154 tax returns are filed correct in 1955.

Finally, there are 83 million in the world that have covered the secret of the hydrogen bomb.

How Much Is a Penny Worth?
 It all depends on how you look at it. These are all American pennies. Worth, at face value, only one cent. But to a coin collector, some of these pennies are worth many times more. To him, their real value is high.
 The real value of the pennies you spend for electric service is high, too. Think what you get for them in terms of comfort, convenience and easier living.
 Electric service is always there to help with the housework, the cooking, the laundry and dishwashing. It will warm the baby's bottle late at night or help Dad shave in the morning.
 When you count all the things your electric service does for you, don't you agree that you get more for the electric pennies than for the money you spend for anything else in your family budget?

Owners Wanted!

"Wanted: More Owners of American Business." That is the title of a brief booklet by Keith Funston, President of the New York Stock Exchange, which has just been published by Harvard University's Graduate School of Business Administration.

Mr. Funston points out that investments in stocks "is the foundation upon which our entire corporate financial structure rests." Yet in the postwar years, only eight per cent of new long-term corporate funds have been provided by stock financing. For every dollar raised by new stock issues, industry has gone into debt almost $3 and has supplied close to $9 from retained earnings and depreciation reserves. Such heavy reliance on debt financing, he warns, may imperil a company's financial stability. And industry no longer has the accumulation of retained earnings which were available immediately after World War II.

Over the long run, he continues, American business will have to maintain its rate of capital expenditure at or above the present level if it is to meet the needs of our growing population, to continue to improve our living standards, and to insure our continued position as leader of the free world. He then states his belief that stock investment should be trebled—from the postwar average of $2,000,000,000 to as much as $6,000,000,000. And we must look beyond the wealthy for that—we must "look to the mass savings of millions of Americans for mass investment." The goal he envisions, to quote him once again, is "an economic democracy as potent as our political democracy."

First Transoceanic Telephone Cable

The laying of the world's first transoceanic telephone cable, linking North America and Europe, will begin this year. More than 2,000 miles in length, it will span the Atlantic Ocean between Newfoundland and Scotland. The new cable will enable people anywhere in the United States and Canada to talk to those in Europe as if they were making a local telephone call, as it will not be subject to atmospheric disturbances, such as electrical storms and fading, that sometimes interfere with existing communications by radio circuits. Due to the fact that the human voice will not carry a great distance over wire, repeaters or "boosters" will be built into the cable every 40 miles. In these repeaters will be special amplifying tubes with oxide-coated nickel cathodes which may operate continuously on the ocean bottom for as long as forty years.

The Navy battleships, which are given the arbitrary designation BB, are built to defeat the most powerful vessel than an enemy can put to sea.

News from the Congress

by Congressman Frank Ikard

The matter of Hawaiian and Alaskan statehood is currently being considered by committees here. Each territory has its partisans who are urging statehood, and it is anybody's guess right now as to what action the Congress will take, if any, on this question.

Personally, I feel that Alaska is not yet developed to the point where it is ready for statehood, and while it is entirely possible that they may be ready for admission to the Union in ten, fifteen, or twenty years, they are not now. As far as Hawaii is concerned, there is serious question in my mind as to whether or not we should ever admit to the Union a country that is not a part of the North American continent. In fact, it is not generally known here what the Hawaiian State, if it were admitted, would encompass in the way of islands. In other words, the boundaries are not certain by any means. If we ever adopt a practice of admitting territories that are not contiguous to this continent, then any other island or country in the world could make a reasonably good argument for admission. I would favor commonwealth status for Hawaii which would be something comparable to the dominions of the British Empire or like the status that Puerto Rico now enjoys as far as we are concerned. I do not, however, feel that I could support an effort to bring Hawaii into the Union as a state.

Another issue that is re-occurring is the one as to whether or not eighteen year olds should be allowed the right to vote. There is a great deal to be said for and the take phases of its money job.

House and Senate committees reported the biggest biennial budget in history. The Senate version calls for $1.5 billion. The House bill ran slightly less.

In one day of debate, the House passed its bill, calling for $212 million in two years from the general revenue fund, now currently in the reds. It would require $33,600,000 more than current spending, for general purposes, plus a proposed addition of $27 million for highways.

Hearings by the revenue and taxation committee finally were held on Gov. Allan Shivers' tax recommendations — the Murphy 2-cent per gallon gasoline tax increase; and the Kirkin one-cent cigarette tax increase.

Although the current House is one of the "workingest" groups ever, Speaker Jim Lindsey, called on the members to work harder. He predicted that most of the urgent program — water, insurance laws, hospital, tax and spending — could be achieved. He estimated $60 million new taxes would be required.

Governor Shivers renewed his urging for the gasoline tax hike, backed by the highway commissioner's estimate that Texas needs to spend $2,200,000,000 on highways during the next 10 years.

Rep. Jerry Sadler who said he was "authorized to speak for a majority of the House," told the revenue and taxation committee that the 2-cent gasoline tax hike won't pass.

Sadler prefers a one-cent per gallon gasoline and condensate processing tax. This, he contends, would bring in $160 million a year and permit repeal of the present 4-cent gasoline sales tax. A processing tax would reach out-of-state as well as Texas buyers of gasoline.

Sadler also has proposed a $3.30 per barrel hike in the tax on beer.

Heard by the oil, gas and mining committee was Rep. J. B. Walling's "anti-waste" bill to set minimum prices for natural gas. At present rates this bill would bring in an estimated $20 million a year.

Under committee rules, the tax and gas-conservation bills automatically went to sub-committees for a week's study.

Veterans' Affairs

Veteran land deals and their investigation resulted in an ever-growing list of legal suits against Bascom Giles, former commissioner of the General Land Office.

Filed by Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd in 53rd District Court here was a civil suit against Giles, seeking a lien on property purportedly owned by the former Commissioner in Falls County.

Giles has been indicted by a Bexar County grand jury on a charge of accepting a bribe. He

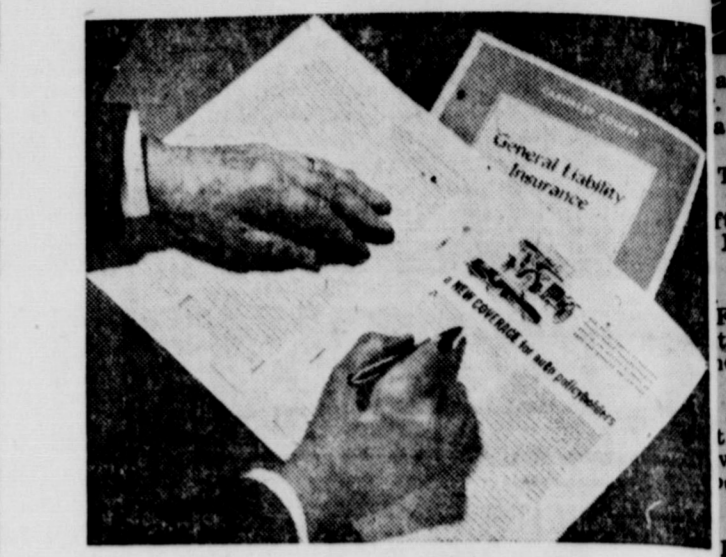

The Navy's first airplane flight from a ship was in January 1911 from the battleship USS Pennsylvania in San Francisco harbor.

Each year everyone in Washington tries to guess just exactly when the cherry blossoms will be at their height. The best predictions now seem to be that they will be in full bloom the week end of March 26-27, which, of course, is a little early on account of an extremely mild spring. During the time that these famous blossoms are in full bloom, literally tens of thousands of people come from all over the country to enjoy the beautiful spectacle that they create.

Issued by the Travis jury was a subpoena directing officials of the Capital National Bank of Austin, to produce Giles' bank records.

Other civil suits for recovery were filed, making a total of over $2 million that Shepperd is trying to recover for the state.

Shivers Testifies Again

Governor Shivers went back a second time to appear before the Senate investigating committee. This time under oath.

He said that neither he nor any of his aides brought "undue pressure" on the veterans land board to expedite processing of applications for loans.

It is the policy of the governor's office, said Shivers, to refer questions about the program to the veterans land board.

Shivers testified further that he had never received any warning of any irregularities concerning the program, and that if he had, something would have been done about it.

Commending the investigators for their work, Shivers said "There isn't anything as some are bringing out the facts and letting the public know about them."

1954 Stainless Steel Output

Production of the chromium-nickel stainless steels in the United States in 1954 is estimated to have been about the same as it was the previous year, although total output of all types of stainless steels is believed to have been below the record high attained in 1953. Chromium-nickel stainless steels continued to be employed extensively by the aircraft, architectural, chemical, food processing and petroleum industries because of their superior resistance to heat and corrosion, good appearance and ease of fabrication.

Over 3,000 Nickel Alloys

There are over 3,000 alloys currently used containing nickel in varying proportions — an indication of the importance and versatility of nickel as an alloying element. The nickel percentage in these alloys varies from 99.7 per cent in malleable nickel to upwards of 0.20 per cent in low alloy—high strength steels.

Miss Jean Hughston and Jim Paul Norman Marry Here Saturday

Before an altar improvised of greenery and baskets of white glads in front of a window, the marriage of Miss Jean Hughston and Jim Paul Norman was solemnized Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Hughston. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Norman of Crowell. A color motif of blue and white was used in all the wedding appointments. A low arrangement of white glads was placed on the piano.

J. T. Hughston, brother of the bride, greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. J. T. Hughston presided at the guest register. Miss Virginia Tappin sang "Because" preceding the ceremony and was accompanied by Mrs. Paul Shirley, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Mrs. Ralph Flesher of Vernon, her sister, as matron of honor. H. C. Norman attended his son as best man. Rev. Grady Adcock, pastor of the Crowell Methodist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of members of the immediate families and close friends.

The bride was attired in a lovely wedding gown, a Benham original of Wedgewood blue imported tulle, modeled with a low scalloped sweetheart neckline edged in blue matching lace, a fitted bodice tucked to fit waistline with short sleeves and a full street length skirt with insets of net scalloped edged with the lace. She carried a yellow-throated white orchid atop a white beaded and pearl and a diamond brooch which had belonged to her paternal grandmother, the late Mrs. T. L. Hughston. She carried out the tradition of wearing something old, new, borrowed, blue and a six pence in her shoe.

The matron of honor wore a petal pink dress of imported tulle, with a scoop neckline and an accordion plaited skirt with alternating panels, edged in matching lace. She carried a circular nosegay of white glads. The mothers of the bride and groom wore, respectively, dresses of tan and gray, and each wore a gardenia corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman left immediately for a short wedding trip and for going-away. Mrs. Norman wore a toast-colored suit of Moy-gashel linen made with a boxy-type coat, with which she wore brown accessories.

Reception
An informal reception was held following the marriage. Mrs. J. M. Hill Jr. cut the three-tiered white wedding cake and Mrs. Kenneth Owensley poured punch. The dining table was laid with an Italian cut-work cloth and crystal and silver appointments were used. Members of the house party wore white and blue corsages.

The couple will reside in Crowell where the groom is employed at Shirley-Youree Drug and the bride is an employee of the local A. S. C. office.

TRUSCOTT H. D. CLUB

The Truscott Home Demonstration Club met in regular session Thursday at the Community Center at 2 p. m. with Mrs. Bill Owens as hostess.

Mrs. Jack Hickman, president, gave council report. Each of the following recommendations were approved: Recreation, education, marketing, exhibit, expansion and education. Finance was not reported. Mrs. Jack Brown was elected THDA delegate for the district meeting to be held in Archer City April 14. Roll call was answered with "my favorite shrub."

The first lesson in first aid was given with Mrs. G. J. Adcock as leader, with Mrs. Jack Hickman, Mrs. Rex Haynie and Mrs. Jack Brown as helpers. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Jack Hickman, Mrs. Rex Haynie and children, Mrs. H. P. Gillespie, Mrs. Ed Good and Miss Mary K. Chowning, and one visitor, Mrs. M. W. Reynolds.

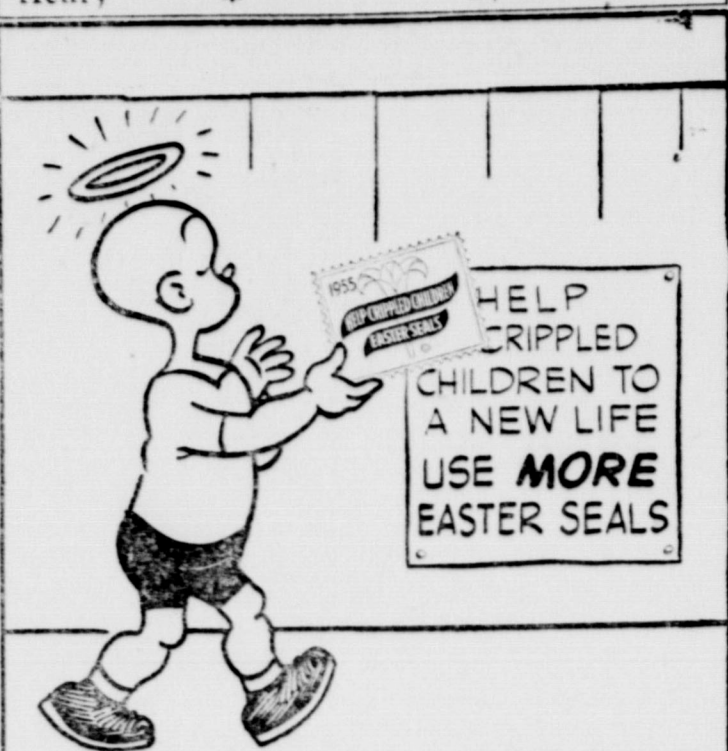

The next meeting will be March 24 with Mrs. Farris Caddell as hostess, and Mrs. J. M. Chowning will be leader for the second lesson in first aid. barms.

GAMBLEVILLE H. D. CLUB

The making of aluminum trays was selected by members of the Gambleville Home Demonstration Club as the craft they would like to have in April. Mrs. Horace Phelps was hostess to the group for their March 18 meeting. Members not present who would like to make trays were urged to place their orders immediately.

Mrs. Buster Cates, president,

Henry By Carl Anderson

COLUMBIAN CLUB

On March 16, members of the Columbian Club were entertained in the home of Mrs. M. O'Connell with Mrs. Emma Dillman as a guest. Following the calling of the meeting to order, Mrs. D. R. Magee gave a devotional on "I Believe." Attendance at the district conference in Snyder in April was urged by Mrs. Van Brown.

Mrs. Roy Fox, leader for the afternoon, gave a preview of the lesson, after which, Mrs. Brown recounted the story of the victorious battle of San Jacinto. Mrs. N. J. Roberts gave a brief but interesting account of Erasmo "Deaf" Smith and the important part he played during the months of war with Mexico.

Announcement of the March 30 meeting with Mrs. W. R. Womack as hostess in the home of Mrs. R. J. Thomas was made and the meeting was adjourned. A delectable refreshment plate was served by the hostess.

B. & P. W. CLUB

With Lottie Russell as co-hostess, Eva Sloan entertained the Business & Professional Women's Club last Thursday night in her home.

Members and guests were greeted at the door by Audrey Collins who presented each one a shamrock and top-hat favor. The dining room was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and each of the quartet tables held flower arrangements.

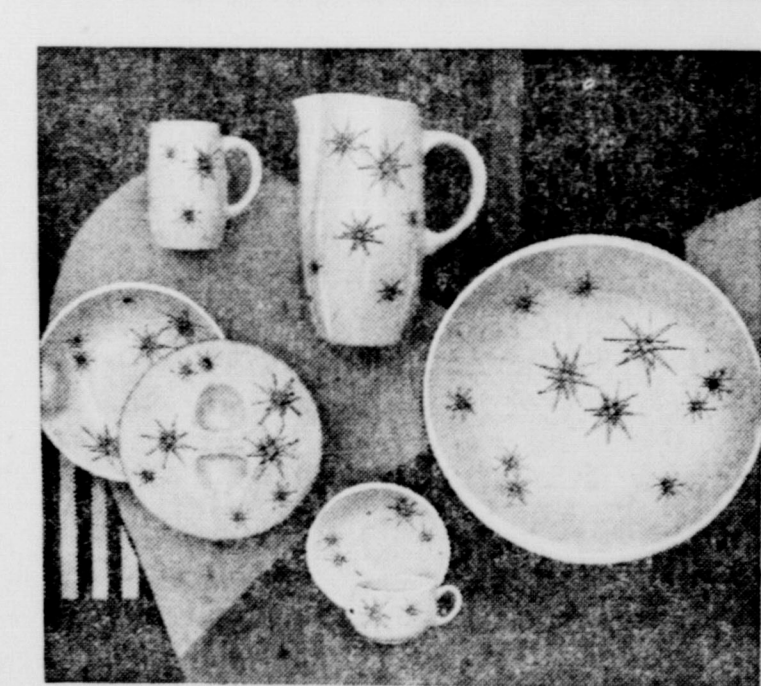

The delicious salad plate carried the St. Patrick's Day theme, and following the dinner, group singing of "My Wild Irish Rose" and "Peggy Oneal" and other music further carried out the St. Patrick's Day theme.

Games of 42 finished the evening's entertainment with Fern McKown and Ruth Kenner being high scorers.

Thirteen members and two guests, Mary Thompson and Ruth Kenner, were present.

p. m. Mrs. Darwin Bell of the Vivian Club, will have charge of the subject, "Let's Make Trays."

WOMACK'S

Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

Don't forget that all club presidents are to send to Mrs. Walter Thomson, Co. THDA chairman, Crowell, Texas, the number of people from their club who plan to attend the THDA meeting in Archer City. Mrs. Thomson needs this number by April 1st, so that she can write for lunch reservations.

When to prune can often be a problem. An easy rule to remember is this: if shrubs bloom early, prune them early. The reason is fairly obvious. Early blooming shrubs start forming buds for next year's flowers right after their petals fall off in the spring.

Many of our most popular shrubs are early blooming, such as bridal wreath, flowering peach and flowering quince, sometimes called japonica. Red bud, golden bell, and many others bloom even before leaves come out. Waiting until late spring or early summer to cut back these early blooming plants will remove some of the blossoms which the plant has started to grow for next spring.

Right after pruning is a good time to feed the plants to get them started on making a crop of blooms for next spring.

At the Margaret H. D. Club, Mrs. Bob Thomas, who was hostess, served home-made doughnuts and I believe they were among the best I've ever eaten, so I asked for her recipe to pass on to you. This is a very large recipe and can be used for rolls or doughnuts. The dough can be stored in the refrigerator for about a week if it is punched down every day.

Refrigerator Rolls or Doughnuts
Dissolve 2 pkg. yeast in 1/2 c. water and 1 tsp. sugar. Scald 1 qt. milk. Add 1 c. sugar and 1 c. shortening while milk is hot. Cool and add to yeast mixtures. Beat in 4 c. sifted flour and let dough rise until doubled in bulk. Punch dough down and add 3 c. flour sifted with 2 tsp. baking powder, 1 tsp. soda, and 1 tbsp. salt. Let dough rise in refrigerator until doubled in bulk (about 1 hour). Take out amount of dough needed for doughnuts and roll on floured cloth. Cut doughnuts and let them rise until doubled in bulk. Place in hot grease bottom side up and cook until golden brown.
