Nearly 2,500 Bales Cotton Ginned in Foard County Gins

Gathering of the 1956 cotton crop in Foard County got a fresh start this week following the heavy rains that fell over the county last week. According to reports, the rains did little damage to the cotton.

Up to Wednesday morning, 2,325 bales had been ginned at the four gins in the county: Farmers Co-Op. Gin in Crowell, West Texas Gin Co.'s gin at Margaret, Thalia Farmers Co-Op. Gin and the Rayland Gin.

It is estimated by managers of the gins that the crop is more than half out.

More Rain Falls Here Last Week

Another rain storm visited Foard County last Thursday afternoon and night which measured .65 of an inch by the rain gauge at the Crowell State Bank. However, the rainfall was heavier especially in the west part of the county where it measured from an inch to one and a half inches.

An approximate average of two inches covered the east half of the county on Sunday, Oct. 14, including Crowell where 1.9 inches was recorded. Wheat that was dusted in has come up and the fields are beginning to get green and will no doubt make good winter pasture with a reasonable amount of rain at the proper time.

Ft. Worth Juveniles Apprehended Here

Two Fort Worth teen-age boys driving a stolen pickup were apprehended by the Foard County Sheriff's Department about two miles east of Thalia last Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

The youth, ages 15 and 13, both of Fort Worth, were driving a 1946 Chevrolet pickup stolen in Fort Worth. They were also wanted in connection with a filling station burglary in Fort Worth. Juvenile authorities from Fort Worth came for them Friday night and returned them to that city.

Frozen Food Lockers Sold to Jack Walker and Glenn Shook

The Frozen Food Lockers were sold last week by John Rader to Jack Walker and Glenn Shook. They took over operation of the business Thursday morning.

Grade School Wins Over Chillicothe 46 to 6 Monday

The Crowell Grade School Wildkittens won another conference game at Chillicothe last Monday night by the score of 46 to 6. Jack Hickman, Bobby Barker, Jerry Eubanks and Mike Whitten scored the touchdowns, but some of the linemen were just as valuable in the lopsided victory. Guy Todd made three of the extra points. Don Keith Lyons and Gary Carpenter looked the best on defense.

The high school "B" team won their scrimmage by the score of 42 to 0. Jim Henry, Jerry Cliff, Billy Everson and Ivan Cates did the ball carrying. Guy Calvin and Bill Graves played the end positions; Bobby Powers, Duane Nichols and Bryant Thompson, tackles; Ronald Boyd, R. H. McCoy and Gordon Cates, guards; and Tom Crowell, center.

"DITCHING" HERO — Machinist Mate 2C Ronald Christian, of Los Angeles, Calif., crew member of the Coast Guard Cutter Pontchartrain, was singled out for particular praise in the heroic rescue of 31 passengers and crew members of the Pan American Clipper plane which was ditched in the Pacific. Christian, 19, boarded the sinking plane to be sure that no one had been left behind.

Dundee Hatchery Delivers Fish Here Last Friday, Oct. 19

Three employees of the Texas Game and Fish Commission's fish hatchery at Dundee delivered about 10,500 game fish to Foard County Friday afternoon.

The fish, about 3,500 bass and 7,000 channel catfish, were given to farmers who had made application for the fish earlier in the year. Hippi Williams of the Dundee hatchery and Charles Boynton, local game warden, were in charge of the distribution of the fingerlings.

The fish, which were from about 3 to 6 inches in length, were hatched in May and June, Mr. Williams said.

Crowell Wildcats Defeat Chillicothe Eagles 20 to 13 Here Last Friday Night

The Crowell High School football team broke back into the win column here last Friday night when the Wildcats defeated the Chillicothe Eagles in a conference game by the score of 20 to 13. This was Crowell's first victory over Chillicothe in three years. This second win of the season for Crowell kept the Eagles at the bottom of the heap without a victory in six games.

The Wildcats scored their three touchdowns during the first half before the Eagles could find pay dirt. David Carpenter intercepted an Eagle pass on their 35-yard line to set the first score up. Gerald Bradford, halfback, followed some good line blocking to scamper 22 yards for the TD. Harvey Smith kicked the extra point to make it 7 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

Crowell's second touchdown came on a 64-yard drive. Sixty yards of this was picked up on a pass and run play from Bradford to Carpenter, left end. Ray Thomson carried around right end for the final three. Smith's kick was wide. Crowell's third and final touchdown was set up by a 50-yard punt return by Printess Gidney. The entire team did some good blocking to make this run possible. Bradford scored his second touchdown of the evening on an eight-yard run. Smith kicked the extra point to make the score 20 to 0.

The Eagles were not to be denied in the first half as they took over on Crowell's 32-yard line one minute before halftime and manufactured a score. Thomas Worley hit the line for one yard before Johnny Holden, Eagle quarterback, passed for twenty yards to Douglas Reagan, who in turn, turned on the steam to make the other ten yards for a Chillicothe TD as the time ran out for the half. The extra point was wide to leave the halftime score 20 to 6.

The last half was just about all Chillicothe's as the Wildcats had control of the ball only four times and none of these produced a threat. The Eagles marched 64 yards in the third quarter for a score. Douglas Reagan, halfback, did most of the ball carrying on this drive. Thomas Worley, fullback, made the final yard for the touchdown. Henry Bunch kicked the extra point to make the final score of the game 20 to 13 for Crowell. The last quarter was scoreless for both teams.

The Wildcats were hurt quite a bit on their six penalties for 15 yards each. Chillicothe was penalized four times for 20 yards. Crowell made fourteen first downs to Chillicothe's seven.

Crowell's line made up of David Carpenter and Louis Rettig at ends; James Doyal and Dale Rettig at tackles; Gordon Cates and Jerry Pittillo at guards; and Harvey Smith at center, looked pretty sharp during the first half. However, they were outplayed by the Eagle line during the second half. Billy Everson and Ivan Cates did yeoman service on defense throughout the contest.

Colored School to Resume Classes Monday, Oct. 29

The Crowell Colored School will resume classes next Monday morning, October 29. Children attending this school have been out for the past six weeks helping gather the Foard County cotton crop. They started this term of school on August 13 and attended on Saturdays until they were turned out for the cotton harvest on September 15. This gives them only two weeks to make up the 175 days of instruction when the term is over next May.

SCHOOL BOOK BLUES

Do you ever feel that if another teacher makes an assignment, you'll scream? Do you think, "I just simply can't manage all the things I have to do?" If you feel anything similar to that description, shake hands with "a lot of" classmates who feel the same way. But there's a hint. If you must get the job done, take time out right now to do it. Then take some more time to do the other things. Forget to worry about how you'll ever find time to accomplish these tasks, because worry takes up valuable, usable time. If you can't do a thing, "fretting" certainly won't do the trick for you. Anyway, there's a silver lining to this heavy black cloud, and it's well worth the considering. It's an old, old saying: "An idle mind is the devil's workshop." This should console us as long as we've some homework to do, we can't possibly get into trouble... can we?

NOVEMBER 5-9 DECLARED FRIENDSHIP WEEK IN CHS

The Student Council has proclaimed the school week of November 5-9 as "Friendship Week." The purpose of this project is to make CHS, long noted for its friendliness, even friendlier. Committees have been appointed to make CHSites friendship conscious. The week will be launched by an assembly program on Monday and closed on Friday with a program honoring CHS's friendliest boy and girl.

So, give a big smile and a friendly "Hi" to everyone you meet. Let's make every week at CHS "Friendship Week."

CHSITE RETURNS

Everyone was glad to see Virginia Williamson in school Friday. Due to a broken leg, Virginia was unable to attend school the first six weeks. Even though she was on crutches, she had a smile for everyone. Welcome back, Virginia. CHS has missed you!

CHOSTS AND GOBLINS TO GO SHOELESS

On Saturday, October 27, the Country Club will be filled with happy teenagers, for that is the date chosen by the Sub-Junior Adolphian Club for its Halloween Sock Hop. Bring your favorite date and leave your "blue suede shoes" at the door. Admission is only fifty cents each. So come and have fun.

GO, MAN, GO!

"Man, did you dig that pep band's jazz song, 'South,' at the pep rally Friday?" "More, man, more, we want more" was a most familiar expression around the high school last week. Everyone appreciated the song at the pep rally, and we heard several parents say they liked it at the ball game too. We want more, and that means Mr. Rickard, get the old ball rolling. "Man," we "dig" that "jazz" the most!

OIL PROGRESS WEEK OBSERVED

The Crowell High School wishes to express its appreciation to Ben Crowell for giving a magic barrel demonstration in the observance of Oil Progress Week. We believe that the students will have greater appreciation for the hundreds of articles that are made of by-products of oil.

HOW'S YOUR VOCABULARY?

1. Septuagenarian — a person between seventy and eighty years of age.

HOW ABOUT A DATE!

You're all in for a big treat if you see "Beauty and the Beef." This amusing three-act comedy clearly shows the complications that occur when two girls try to make the whole football team sick in order to get a game postponed. The cast, which includes: Janis Crowell, Roma Jan Spikes, Aldon Garrett, Patricia Prosser, Jimmy Rader, James Choate, Johnny Webba, De Anna Fergeson, George Morgan, Patty McGinnis, Fred Youree, Charlie Bell, Lowell Page, Layoy Rummel, Betty McKown, Beverly Kelly, Diane Sledge, Sandra Choate, Edward Howard, Kenneth Bell, and others, is evidence that the play must be good. Judy Borchardt handles publicity, and Gary Griffith and Eugene Davis are stage managers.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS VISIT QUANAH

On Wednesday, Oct. 17, the officers of the Student Council—Nelda Brooks, Jana Black, Roxie Adkins and Ivan Cates—were the guests of the Quanah High School Student Council.

They were greeted at the cafeteria and were led to a table set for them and the members of the Quanah council. After enjoying a delicious lunch, they were shown around the school plant until time for the regular meeting at 12:20 p. m.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Eammy Eubanks; the pledge to the flag was given; and a prayer was offered by Jerolyn Cummings.

Then, the Quanah organization submitted some helpful advice as to the way in which our newly organized council could improve the spirit and work of our school. Those who attended, as well as the entire student body, want to thank the Quanah council for being so cooperative in "lending us a helping hand." We are looking forward to their visit with us.

SAVED—BUT HOW!

It was the third straight day that Jack had been late to English class. Mrs. Manard's eyes registered disapproval as she told him that this must not occur again. Jack promised that he would be on time for the next class.

So, the following day when the bell sounded to announce that he had three minutes to get to class, he remembered his promise. He dashed across the room, leaving in his path the crumpled figure of a once beautiful girl who looked up at him with accusing eyes. Then he noticed blood—blood spouting from an ugly gash just below her left eye brow. This aroused his sense of gallantry, and he stopped to set her aright—but this brought only calamity in class—his elbow struck an object on a nearby desk, leaving behind him a vicious splatter of ink as the bottle hit the floor with a sudden thud.

Once outside he made for his locker at the other end of the hall. He took a hasty glance at his watch—two minutes and forty-one seconds remained. Just then something loomed in the pathway ahead of him. He threw on his brakes, swerved slightly to the right, then cut sharply to the left, and by a narrow margin avoided colliding with that colossus character, "Tiny" Taylor.

Thus having narrowly escaped disaster, he quickly gained momentum and was hastening on when he caught a glimpse of the water fountain just ahead of him. Suddenly he felt an urge to stop for a swallow that cool, refreshing liquid better known as "gyp." By this time a crowd of students surrounded the fountain—and really he had no choice—there was only one way—so he ducked beneath the arm of Roxy Adkins as she stooped over the fountain—and immediately he encountered a gigantic splash of water right in his face. This refreshed, he continued on his way.

But, "oops," that would never do, he was forced to slacken his pace for there before him stood Mrs. Davis in her class room door with one eye on him and the other on the familiar sight of Carolyn Monkes arriving at the appointed time at her locker just next to his. What would he do! What could he do! He must not tarry to talk with Carolyn—no—not that day. The vision of Mrs. Manard and her disapproving look—and a hurried glance at Mrs. Davis and her sudden frown drove him to grab his book—and having no time to explain—he brushed past Carolyn leaving her staring, wide eyed, after him.

Another glimpse at his watch told the story— one minute still remained. He bounded up the stairs with a feeling of "satisfaction for a task well done" slowly creeping up his spine. But then he stopped dead still. Where was it? Where could it be? His pencil. Madly he retraced his steps, flung open his locker door, searched frantically—but no pencil could be found.

Then in a crazed state, he scurried for the office hoping no one would be in his way. He ran his hand into his pocket fumbling for change. Alas—a two bit piece was the smallest coin he could find, and the office was empty. There was no one to make change for him. What would he do! Then for him, what would he do! Then for him, what would he do! Then for him, what would he do! Then for him, what would he do!

Again he bounded up the stairs expecting to hear the shrilly ringing bell pronouncing his doom—and sure enough as fate would have it—as he whizzed around the corner the sound came and he was greeted by the familiar sound of "Jack, you're late again" as his mother called him to breakfast.

And so you have learned of one of our senior boys, Jack Wishon, a bright eyed, handsome youth of 18 who has a good sense of humor, a smile for everyone, especially for his "one and only," Carolyn Monkes. Jack's smile is brightest when he's listening to hop music, eating shrimp, or watching a good western movie. At the present Jack works part-time at Adkins Station. His plans for the future are not definite, but next summer he hopes to secure a job at Conair in Fort Worth.

CLASSROOM TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Texas Classroom Teachers Association held a Fall Workshop program for District VII in Seymour on Saturday, October 20. The theme of the day's activities was "We Proudly Teach." Mrs. Alva Proffer, TCTA executive board member of Denton, presided over the meeting. Representatives were present from Abilene, Albany, Denton, Haskell, Jacksboro, Littlefield, Quanah, Seymour, Snyder, Stamford, Sweetwater, and Vernon. The following attended the meeting from Crowell: Mrs. Guy Bounds, Mrs. Moody Bursey, Mrs. Lena Davis, Miss Marian Hays, Mrs. Clark Hitt and Mrs. Newell Hofmann.

WHAT NEXT?

Have you been bitten by the curiosity bug lately? If you have, you can blame it on the librarians. The bulletin board and posters in the library have aroused much curiosity among the CHSites. One can hardly help but "sneak" a glance around the minute he enters the study hall to see what the librarians thought of to capture attention for the day. EX-STUDENT MAKES GOOD Latrelle Duckworth has been made assistant editor of the year book at Howard Payne College in Brownwood. Nice going, Latrelle. STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS IN REGULAR SESSION The Crowell Student Council held its fourth meeting at the noon hour on October 18. The meeting was called to order by the president, Nelda Brooks, followed by the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Roxie Adkins. It was decided that 12:20 p. m. on every Thursday would be the permanent meeting time of the council. It was also decided that "Friendship Week" and plans were made for various activities during that week. Another decision made was that on each Monday morning from 9:00-9:05 there would be a devotional period. Each class will be responsible for a program every fourth week. The Student Council will be responsible for the first one followed by the seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen, respectively. The constitution was amended to read "The vice president will serve as the council reporter for the 'Wildcat'."

HALF-TIME FRIDAY NIGHT

The half-time ceremonies were somewhat shorter Friday night than usual. Due to the weather last week, the band was unable to practice outside until Friday afternoon. However, they went ahead, as previously announced, with the presentation of the Band Sweetheart, Miss Elizabeth Davis. The band stepped off in the entrance formation which has become a tradition with the band, being used at each of the games throughout the season. Reaching mid-field, the band went into a column right toward the visitors' stands. Then followed a counter-march and going directly into the "Heart" formation, playing "Grid-iron March," the band made preparation for the presentation ceremony. Miss Elizabeth Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Davis, was escorted onto the playing field by majorettes of the band. Noel Wilkins, band president, presented her with an arm bouquet of white mums with streamers in the school colors of black and gold. She was then presented with a framed plaque which read, "Sweetheart Award, presented by the Crowell Wildcat Band to Miss Elizabeth Davis, duly elected Crowell High School Band Sweetheart. Elected on the 24th day of September, 1956, for the ensuing school term." The plaque was signed by the band president and director of the band. Going into block formation playing "State Center March," they returned to mid-field and formed a block "C" to honor both the Chillicothe and Crowell teams and fans. The CHS "Fight Song" was played just prior to the band's exit from the playing field.

KEYHOLE KAPERS

Dear old Crowell is back up to par! One marriage, no divorces, and very little scandal. Seriously, congratulations to Linda and Karl Wayne Thomson. The first cold spell, well cool anyway, gave the lucky girls who go with football players a chance to sport their steadies' football jackets. The Homemaking I dinner Saturday night was a big success. Those enjoying the good food were Lois Painter and Jimmy Henry, Carolyn Aydelott and Karl Bell, Helen Vessel and Roy Ford, Linda Johnson and Duane Nichols, Wanda James and Duane Johnson, Charlotte Sledge and "Cotton" Love, Judy Johnson and Gary Griffith, Jo Frances Long and Eddie Lee Sparkman, Mary Ann Myers and Tom Crowell, Judy Borchardt and Bill Graves. Shirley Fox had stars in her eyes while Jimmy Rodgers was here, but they changed to tears when he left Saturday. The Crowell girls had better beware this week end. Good looking Jane Hunt from Vernon is ture projects, the meeting was adjourned to meet again on Thursday, October 25.

EVERYONE IS LOOKING FOR

Everyone is looking for the "sock hop" Saturday night. Pat Prosser thinks her cycle is good company. What is this we hear about of Sue Bursey's exes, Neil Turner, from Quanah wanting to with Gayle Taylor. Triple dating Saturday night were Janie Bowers and Jan Grady, Beverly Kelly and Jan Johnson, and Jeannie White, Jimmy Weaver.

The Wildcats' victory over Chillicothe Eagles made the teen a happier place Friday night. Let's all help the Student Council make "Friendship Week" a success.

Something old: Jana Black, Larry Sledge. Something new: Dianne Sledge and "Bubba" Monkes. Something borrowed: DeAnna Fergeson's football jacket. Something blue: Eugene Davis over Judy Borchardt.

Ray, what's all this about invading Q-town? This Sharon person must be quite a doll. We were glad to see so many of the college "kids" home of the week end. A few of them were Barbara Fairchild, Betty Bartley, Mike Wishon, and course, Bobby Davis, who came home to see his little "sis" and Lizzie Davis made a pr band sweetheart in her bright dress.

We think the Student Council devotional every Monday is wonderful idea. Seen Saturday night at no were Peggy and Glenn, and Jimmy, Ruth Ellen and Doyle, and Patricia-Johnny E. Webba has had a perfect up to date. He hasn't had a yet!

An announcement of decisive importance to anyone about to buy a new automobile

The most exhaustive endurance test ever given an automobile has just been completed by two stock '57 Fords—identical in every respect with cars now being offered by Ford Dealers.

Under the supervision of the United States Auto Club and the Federation Internationale de Automobile, each of these two '57 Fords traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days. Ford No. 1 averaged 105.16 mph for the entire run... Ford No. 2, over 107 mph. These averages include time for all pit stops.

In all, the '57 Ford smashed 455 national and international records.

This test was run on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah... it was the longest left turn in history.

A car, like a man, is known by its deeds, not words.

That is why, we at Ford, despite our confidence in our '57 cars, let their deeds of accomplishment speak for themselves.

Therefore, we engaged an independent engineering organization to test our '57 cars more thoroughly than any other cars have ever been tested before—in this country or abroad.

We provided them with '57 Fords—cars identical with those now offered by Ford Dealers. The rest we left up to them.

Here is what they did:

They took these cars to the Salt Flats at Bonneville, Utah.

Here, twelve of the world's greatest drivers took over.

In relays they drove these cars night and day for a distance greater than twice around the world... a distance equal to 5 years of normal driving.

Not in all history has a man-built machine traveled so far in so short a time—by land or sea!

But this was not a test of speed—but of endurance of the "Inner Ford." A trial to take the measure of Thunderbird Y-block V-8 power without qualification of any kind. A test of running gear—of brakes, of materials in body and chassis. Of steering and roadability, yes, and comfort, too!

A test, indeed, such as no other cars have ever undergone, let alone successfully concluded.

Surely they have told you, in decisive terms, that they are worth more when you buy... and when you sell!

Your Ford Dealer will gladly place at your disposal the new kind of Ford that means a new kind of value for your car-buying dollar—the greatest the world has ever seen.

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

Those of you who were at council Saturday will join me, I know, in complimenting Mrs. Monroe Karcher and Mrs. S. E. Tate on their excellent report on the State and National THDA meeting. It was a real treat for us to hear them and made us feel almost as if we too had attended the meeting.

Mr. Burkett and I will be gone all next week to attend the annual Agents' Conference at A&M College. I'm sure we will receive many new and worthwhile ideas which we can pass on to you when we return.

Our recipe this week is: Oven Fried Chicken

1 chicken, cut up for frying, 1 cup flour, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 cup butter or margarine (1 stick), 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Mix flour and seasonings in paper bag. Melt butter or margarine in shallow baking pan. Shake 3 or 4 pieces of chicken up in bag at a time to coat well. Place the chicken in single layer, skin side down, in baking pan. Bake 30 minutes in 425 degree F. oven. Turn chicken; bake another 15 minutes or until tender and brown. Serve hot.

FARM WORKERS

There were about 8,900,000 persons working on the farms of the nation as of the week of June 17-23, according to the Department of Agriculture.

Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Iceland comprise the Scandinavian countries.

$1 BILLION WORTH METALS

It is estimated that the value of Canada's total metal production during 1955 exceeded $1 billion. Copper was first with a value of $239 million, nickel next with $216 million, and gold third with $157 million. Others contributing to this total include: zinc, iron ore, lead, silver, pitchblende and platinum metals.

Newspaper Advertising

An enumeration of the reasons for advertising has recently been given out. There are eight reasons advanced, but there are many others, of course. However, here are eight that are very splendid and highly convincing.

Newspaper advertising is a universal daily habit; newspaper advertising, therefore, reaches each day virtually all who buy.

Newspaper advertising is the life blood of local trade because it touches all consumer sources in every community. It gives the national advertiser the same opportunity for complete consumer appeal in any locality.

Newspaper advertising cuts selling costs because it entails no waste in locality of circulation. Manufacturers use it to cover markets where it is profitable to do business.

Newspaper advertising insures quick, thorough and economical dealer distribution and dealer good will, because retailers are willing to sell products advertised direct to consumers.

Newspaper advertising enables manufacturers to tell where their products may be bought.

Newspaper advertising can be started or stopped over night, can be prepared between days to meet certain developments and to obtain immediate results.

Newspaper advertising enables manufacturers to check advertising results and costs in every market which they enter.

Newspaper advertising costs less than any other kind.

The merchant or other business man who is not taking advantage of the opportunities offered by newspaper advertising is facing readjustment problems when his competitor is back on a normal business plane.

Only with the permission of Congress may an officer in the U. S. Government accept a title of nobility or order of honor from another country.

Doleful Senators Due Shock When Ike Wins, Fears Doc

One of the strongest Eisenhower men in our town is Doc Brown. Doc says he just can't put up with Stevenson's socialized medicine program; there are a lot of other things he doesn't like about Adlai, but that one is enough for him, he says. Doc is a pretty outspoken cuss, but he's a good doctor. At least, he's the best one in town, being the only one, and our people always call him when they get sick whether they like his politics or not.

The other day several of us were standing around in front of the post office, talking politics—some Eisenhower men and some for Stevenson—when Doc walked up looking glum. One of the Stevenson men said, "Hey, Doc, what's the trouble, did I just call you in some bad news?"

Doc Brown said no, he hadn't heard from Ike this week, but he was worried.

"Not about Ike, you understand," he told the Stevenson fellow. "Ike has got it made. Even the Stevenson people are beginning to admit that. Poor old Adlai isn't going to get any farther in this race than he could throw Kefauver's coonskin cap with the tail out."

"The ones I am worried about are these out-of-state senators who are coming down here to Texas to tell us how to vote. I sure feel sorry for those boys. It must be tough to face life with their attitude."

"To hear them tell it, this country is in a terrible shape. All the farmers are starving, all

by VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex.—Gov. Allan Shivers is heading the ranks of Texans for Ike. After killing a 1,000-pound bear in Alaska, the governor came home gunning for Adlai Stevenson.

Shivers is to make three out-of-state speeches for Eisenhower this week. He said he is ready to make more "any time, any place."

He criticized scheduled appearances in Texas of out-of-state U. S. senators who voted against the tidelands bill.

In reply Sen. Lyndon Johnson said that the governor was "being discourteous and insulting" to visitors to Texas. "The tidelands issue," he said, "is as dead as Allan Shivers."

SPECIAL ELECTION DANGERS—Campaigners for Price Daniel's U. S. Senate seat are in for more tortuous waiting.

Governor Shivers has said he will have no announcements on calling an election until after Nov. 6. A special senate election, he added, "has no place being mixed up with a presidential election."

COTTON REFERENDUM SET—Texas cotton farmers will vote Dec. 11 on whether to extend federal marketing quotas to the 1957 crop.

Two-thirds approval of farmers voting nationwide is required to put quotas into effect. Continuation of wheat quotas has already been voted.

USDA also announced that each Texas county's 1957 cotton acreage allotment will be within at least one per cent of its 1956 level. This decision apparently was aimed at quelling a prolonged rivalry between East and West Texas counties for increased acreage.

Total Texas cotton acreage for 1957 is to be 7,410,893 acres, slightly higher than 1956.

ELECTION INVALIDATED—Local option elections held in an area less than a justice precinct are illegal, say the courts.

Texas Supreme Court has upheld a Civil Appeals Court decision to this effect. As a result, a section of Austin considered

THIS WEEK

—In Washington

Local option elections, said the appellate court, can be held only county-wide, city-wide or in an entire justice precinct.

STATE GROWTH FORESEEN—Texas' need for state office space will be tripled by 1980.

So says planning consultants for the state building program. They estimate that Austin alone will have some 11,500 state employees 24 years hence. Statewide the total is set at 24,000 to 30,000.

Planners say the 200,933 square feet of floor space in the Capitol should be augmented to make a total of 1,720,000 square feet. To accomplish this, four new office buildings would be built. Capitol grounds would be extended north six blocks to 19th Street.

"Broad estimate" of the cost: $87,000,000.

Another recommendation in the recently completed Capitol area master plan is to sell or abandon four older state-owned buildings dotted over Austin.

GAS TEST CASE SET—Whether the state should refund some $4,000,000 in natural gas taxes will be considered by the Third District Court of Civil Appeals on Feb. 6.

District court ruled for the gas company in the test case. An issue is whether some 30 companies who paid taxes, without protest, can get their money back.

Companies which paid under protest were repaid shortly after the law was declared unconstitutional.

ALCOHOLICS INCREASE—A sharp rise in alcoholism among Texans during 1956 is indicated.

Twice as many patients have been admitted to alcoholic wards this year as last, reports the State Hospital Board.

Total number of alcoholics in the state is estimated at 155,100. This is almost twice the 1940 estimate of 83,304, and represents about 3 per cent of total population.

FARM INCOME UP—Texas cash farm income for 1956 is running slightly higher than 1955, despite the drought.

But, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, the figures reflect desperation, not prosperity.

High income, it is explained, comes from sale of production materials, such as breeding stock. Specialists compare it to the situation of a factory which keeps income up by selling its machinery.

Total through August was $927,000,000, compared to $925,000,000 a year ago.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES CONFER—Texas school board members talked all around their integration problems, finally settled on a resolution urging each district to approach the question with "dignity."

Only one dissenting vote was heard among the some 200 attending the Texas Association of School Boards convention in Austin.

One speaker declared integration should be handled strictly on a local basis. Another deplored that school boards have been made the "goats" in the controversy.

Navy Sends Ice Breaker into Ross Sea Ice Pack

In the Antarctic — The Navy's icebreaker USS Glacier this week became the first ship in sailing history to enter the Ross Sea ice pack this early in the season. Earliest contact with the Ross Sea belt was made on Dec. 7, 1912, by the Kainan Maru, a Japanese ship.

Chief Boatswain Walter E. Fraumert, USN, of Jacksonville, Fla., officer of the deck at the time the Glacier entered the outer pack, described it as "small icebergs and floes of brash ice (jagged fragments)."

The 8,000-ton ice-buster plans to skirt the outer fringe of pack ice and take up a position to serve as picket station for the aircraft flying from New Zealand to McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, as part of "Operation Deepfreeze II."

THIS WEEK

—In Washington

With Clinton Davidson

Every year along about this time the U. S. Department of Agriculture issues what it calls a "Balance Sheet for Agriculture" to show just how farmers are doing. The 1956 report may surprise you.

You could cite the figures to show that although some farmers are having serious troubles, agriculture as a whole has prospered during the past few years. If all farmers were average, there wouldn't be much to worry about.

The Balance Sheet is made up from an inventory of farm assets and liabilities taken at the start of each year. The 1956 report shows that the net worth of farmers increased by $2.5 billion over a year earlier.

Farm assets this year reached a record $170.1 billion, a figure more than three times that of 1940 and a third higher than in 1950. The average per farmer has increased more because there are 25 per cent fewer farmers than in 1940 and 10 per cent fewer than in 1950.

The Department concedes that there has been some slowing down in the rise of net farm worth. A year ago, it reported an increase of $4 billion over a year earlier.

Most of the increase in farm assets has been due to a rise in land prices. Last year, farm real estate values increased by $3.9 billion to a total of $102.7 billion.

Other increases were $600 million in the value of machinery, $400 million in household furnishings, and $200 million each in U. S. savings bonds and investments in cooperatives.

Add those, and you get a total increase of $5.3 billion in farm assets over the 1955 figures. That is the brighter side of the picture. There is another, and far less favorable, side.

On the debit side, the value of livestock took a $500 million tumble to $10.8 billion, the lowest in many years. Crops stored on farms and under CCC loans decreased in value from $9.6 billion to $8.3 billion. Both decreases were due to the decline in farm prices.

Farm debt, other than that money borrowed against crops put under CCC loans, showed the biggest increase in many years. The $16.9 billion total was $1.4 billion above a year earlier and the highest since the big boom of the early 1920's.

Farm mortgage debt increased by nearly 10 per cent, jumping from $8.2 billion to $9 billion, and non-real estate borrowings increased by $400 million to $4.4 billion total. In addition, farmers owed merchants and other suppliers an estimated $3.5 billion, up over $200 million.

While most of the increases were in book values, the declines were in the things farmers sell. Cash income from marketings was down by about $600 million, due entirely to lower prices for crops and livestock sold. A 2 per cent rise in farm supply prices added an extra $200 million to the costs of farm operation.

At the start of the year, farmers had $11.3 billion in currency and bank deposits, and that was the same as a year earlier. Seven out of 10 farmers had no mortgage on their farm, and that, too, was the same as a year earlier.

Texas Wheat Farmers Sign More than 12,000 Soil Bank Contracts

Texas wheat farmers signed 12,116 agreements and placed 919,985 acres under the winter wheat Acreage Reserve program of the Soil Bank through October 5. The figures were released by the state office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation to A. B. Wooten, extension economist.

Wooten said if the farmers who have signed agreements comply with the requirements of the program, they will be eligible for a maximum of $14,067,075 in Acreage Reserve payments on the acreage pledged.

Aimed primarily at reducing price-depressing surpluses of wheat, corn, cotton, rice, tobacco and peanuts, the Acreage Reserve program of the Soil Bank is available only to producers having acreage allotments of these crops or a Soil Bank corn base acreage, said Wooten. Program details for 1957 have been made available so far only for winter wheat seeded this fall for harvest next year.

The 1957 Acreage Reserve program goal for the nation for both winter and spring varieties of wheat is 15,000,000 acres. Nationally, through September 28, wheat farmers had signed 106,485 agreements placing 4,335,555 acres under the 1957 winter wheat Acreage Reserve program. The final date for signing agreements was October 5.

30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the issue of The Foard County News of Friday, Oct. 29, 1926:

Lots of fields of fine cotton in the county remain untouched because of the low price and the cost of picking which is $1.25 per hundred. Lint cotton is worth 10 or 11 cents a pound over Foard and Wilbarger counties, but pickers are scarce and owing to the low price farmers are not much interested in saving the crop.

The Crowell football team was defeated Friday when the boys met Monday on the latter's home ground.

It is estimated by farmers that from 75 to 95 per cent of the wheat crop has been sown and prospects for a good crop are exceptionally good, owing to the fine rains received this fall.

Amendment Seven Concerns Mentally Ill Persons

"New safeguards against the 'trafficking' of a sane person into a mental hospital will be guaranteed by the passage of Constitutional Amendment Seven in the November general elections," said Jack P. Cook Jr., attorney and Chief Draftsman of the Mental Health Code Drafting Project at the University of Texas Law School.

"Although the diagnosis of mental illness is a medical problem, under our present laws a person can be committed to a mental hospital by a jury of laymen without the benefit of medical testimony. Then, once the order is entered, there is no right to appeal the decision of the court," Mr. Cook stated. "Amendment Seven will require competent medical or psychiatric testimony and the right of appeal will be provided by the proposed Mental Health Code."

The new Mental Health Code is a sweeping, up-to-date revision of outmoded Texas laws dealing with the mentally ill and is being prepared for submission to the Legislature if Amendment Seven is passed. The drafting project, under the direction of Mr. Cook, is being carried on by the University of Texas Law School through a grant from the Hogg Foundation for Mental Hygiene and with the guidance of the Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools.

"Every effort is being made to protect the legal rights of the ill person," emphasized Mr. Cook. "The second provision of the amendment, allowing a waiver of jury trial in commitment proceedings, will not abolish the right to a jury trial, but will permit a sick person to avoid unnecessary humiliation if he so wishes. In order to waive a jury trial, the amendment will require a written agreement by the person under inquiry, or his next of kin, and his attorney. If the person is not represented, an attorney for him will be appointed by the court."

Texas is the only state in the nation which still retains the mandatory jury trial in commitment proceedings of the mentally ill.

State Fair Largest in United States

The State Fair of Texas embellished its recognized position as the largest annual fair in America by running up a record-breaking 2,672,253 attendance for the 16 days of the 1956 exposition.

The gigantic total exceeded by 60,982 the national attendance record of 2,611,271, established by the fair last year in 16 days and 17 nights, one more evening than the 1956 fair included.

Another record was also set by the fair. Total proceeds of the important Junior Livestock and Poultry Auction sales were the highest in history.

A total of $208,221.56 will go to the boys and girls from all over Texas who sold their steers, lambs, pigs, turkeys and broilers during the fair's auction sales. This is $35,558 more than the 1955 total of $172,663.

Only on two days of the 1956 fair, Oct. 15 and 16, did attendance fail to top attendance for the corresponding days last year.

On Saturday, Oct. 13, the 1956 fair also established a new world's record for a single day's attendance at any annual fair. Attendance on that one day was 325,741.

Only once in the ten years the fair has been in operation since World War Two has the total attendance failed to exceed that of the year before. That was in 1953 when attendance lagged slightly behind 1952.

Each year the fair has set a new national attendance record and holds firmly to its No. 1 rank the largest annual exposition the U. S. in terms of attendance.

The State Fair crept a bit higher this year to the attendance of the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, Canada, generally regarded as the world's largest Canadian fair's attendance 2,632,253 year was announced as 2,632,253.

NOTICE TO VOTERS OF FOARD COUNTY

There is no doubt in my mind that every one living in Foard County has some faith in a Supreme Being, and have heard of the seven plagues of Egypt as the Children of God were forced to dwell under the federalism of the Egyptian government. It is recorded that the first plague was a drought such as we have now. Is it not strange that Egypt is in the outline of our lives today? Federalization in our life began in 1950 when the Charles F. Brannan farm program was set up, and the drought began in the fall of 1950 after the first penalty was imposed on a just farmer who looked to God instead of a government run by contemptuous men. Today, we have springs that were never known to be dry, but they are bone dry now. We have trees that are over two hundred years old, dying from the lack of moisture; such as oaks, sycamores, cottonwoods, elms—even live oak trees, and dry land mesquite trees are dying or are now dead. Many of you farmers are planting wheat in dry dust, hoping for a rain to bring it up; you are not alone in doing this, for in Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Montana, North Dakota and Nebraska, farmers are doing the same thing. Fourteen of our United States are in drastic need of rain, and is it not strange that all fourteen are the backbone of our nation's stability? When we elected Dwight D. Eisenhower as President of this Nation, it was in hopes that he could clean out the mess in our government affairs in Washington; but the obligations already made could not be overcome in so short a time; these obligations must be taken care of, or we would be worse off than before. A great evil can not be overcome by one more drastic than the first. As we witness the dying of cows, sheep, hogs, and even the wild life, such as deer, quail, doves and all such normal food value that sustains our life on this earth; we should stop in our haste of selfish desire, and get on our knees before God; for we are destroying what He gave us for our own good. In four more years we should overcome the obligations of our evil doings. Vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower for another term as President of the United States of America.

THE WILDCAT

these suggested things would actually be done—but—just for fun—read the following list!

I'd have one more swallow of good "ole" cold sweet milk and a last bite of my favorite sandwich.—Thelma Henry.

Knowing that it was too late to again change my mind, I'd sign my will.—Roy Don Payne.

I'd drop off to sleep and try to forget it all.—Gordon Cates.

I'd make the "last block" one more time.—Louise Gordon.

I'd stand up so that I could have a dramatic exit (he would)—George Morgan.

I'd hope a few people would be around so that I could "tell them" a few things.—Kerry Brown.

Well, I guess it would be time to start telling everybody goodbye.—Noel Wilkins.

I'd make a desperate effort to erase one more error in my typing paper.—Elizabeth Davis.

Really, I guess I'd just wait, not knowing what to do.—Shirley Fox.

I'd think of all those bad things I'd done.—Sandra Sanders.

I'd call up coach and say, "I'm sorry, old fellow, but I just can't make football work out, today—or ever!"—Dale Rettig.

I'd bid farewell to my favorite "fishing hole."—Robert Wheeler.

I'd be so scared I'd just die!—Louis Rettig.

I'd turn to the last page of my funny book to see what happened to Superman.—Johnny Odell.

I'd rake up an asbestos suit, just in case.—Ray Thomson.

I'd just think, "Won't Satan be surprised when he finds I'm missing."—Jerry Bob Sellers.

SPORTS SPOTLIGHT

Let's all give a cheer,
And take off our hats
For a well earned win
By the Crowell Wildcats.

The whole team did swell,
And had lots of fun,
When Bradford made two,
And Thomson made one.

Let's put on our coats,
And to Archer City we'll go.
Let's beat those Wildcats!
We hope so!

Keene, Texas, a town founded by Seventh Day Adventists in 1890, is said to be the only community in the United States where the post office is open on Sunday.

Night Traffic Accidents Are Most Dangerous Killers

"Death stalks at dusk!" That isn't the title of a TV chiller—it's an all-too-true statement about the behavior pattern of one of our most dangerous real-life killers—night traffic accidents.

The statement was made this week by E. C. McFadden of Dallas, president of the Texas Safety Association Inc., as he discussed the safety-after-dark program which the Texas Safety Association and the National Safety Council are conducting this month. He cited facts to back up his assertion.

"In an average year, TSA estimates that the mileage death rate is three times as great at night as in the daylight hours," McFadden said. "And surprisingly, the peak hours for fatal traffic accidents are from 5 to 8 p. m.—the hours of dusk and early darkness."

He said the heavy traffic caused by homeward bound workers undoubtedly is a contributing factor to the deadliness of this three-hour period. But he placed much of the blame on the failure of many people to make an adequate transition from daylight to nighttime driving and walking habits.

"This is especially true at this time of year when night falls earlier," McFadden said. Workers going home, who make up the bulk of traffic from 5 to 8 p. m., have been used to making the journey during the summer months and many of them try to cover the distance in the same time and manner as they did in summer.

"Drivers and walkers must recognize the difference between daytime and nighttime conditions," he said. "Visibility is decreased at night, and the two major ways both walkers and drivers can compensate for this is to decrease their speed and increase their alertness."

McFadden advised drivers to turn on their driving lights at the first hint of dusk and to be on the look-out for pedestrians and bicycle riders.

He warned walkers not to trust their judgment too far in estimating the speed of an approaching car by its headlights at night. He also advised them to walk on sidewalks or on the left side of the road, where there are no sidewalks, and to carry a flashlight or something white or reflectorized so motorists can see them.
