Elizabeth Davis Named State Winner in Conservation Essay Contest

Elizabeth Davis, student of Crowell High School, was notified that she was state essay contest winner in the Fort Worth Press. She will receive a cash prize, a plaque and an all-day vacation trip to Colorado. In place of the $200.00 prize, she can take a $200.00

The essay winner will receive her award at 7 p. m. on May 4 in the Exhibit Building on Fort Worth's Stock Show grounds, at which time, all the winners in the 1957 "Save the Soil and Save Texas" competition will be honored. She will be accompanied to Fort Worth by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Davis.

The only other Crowell High School student to have advanced as far as regional competition in the essay contest, was a class-mate of Miss Davis, J. C. McCoy, who won regional honor in 1954.

In addition to being an outstanding student in the local school and winning this most recent award, she was also elected sweetheart of the Crowell Wildcat Band for the current school year.

The prize-winning essay, which was selected from over 25,000 entries from over the state, may be found in this issue of the Wildcat.

Baseball Team Won 1, Lost 1 During Past Week

The Crowell High School baseball team won one game and lost one in conference play during the last week. The Wildcats defeated Paducah over their last Thursday afternoon by the score of 17 to 8. They lost to the Chillicothe Eagles at Chillicothe on Tuesday afternoon by the count of 6 to 3.

The game at Paducah was a free hitting affair with Printess Gidney and David Carpenter leading the way for Crowell. Gidney hit a home run with two on, and Carpenter connected for a triple with two on. Crowell's starting pitcher, Gerald Bradford, was having trouble with his control. Gidney pitched the last two innings.

The Crowell boys got off to a good start in the Chillicothe game with a three-run lead until the fourth inning. The Eagles were able to push three over in that inning and three more later to tie the game away. Bradford held the Chillicothe boys to four hits, but Crowell was able to connect for only three safeties. Larry Sledge, Eugene Davis and Ivan Cates garnered one hit each for the Wildcats. Johnny Quinby pitched for Chillicothe.

Paducah will be here for a game tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Chillicothe will play here on Friday of next week. Coach Erwin plans on starting the following lineup: Larry Sledge, catcher; Gerald Bradford, pitcher; David Carpenter, first base; Robert Wheeler, second base; Ivan Cates, short stop; Printess Gidney, third base; Eugene Davis, left field; Jerry Bob Sellers, center field; and Fredrick Youree, right field. Roy Ford, Jimmy Weaver and Duane Nichols are utility players for Crowell.

HEAVIEST RAIN IN 18 MONTHS SOAKS FOARD COUNTY LAST SATURDAY

Storm-darkened skies opened up over Crowell and Foard County Saturday afternoon, measuring from just over an inch of rain in the south part of the county to over 3.5 inches in the west portion. Crowell recorded 2.55 inches by the government gauge. The fire alarm was sounded as a tornado alert early Saturday afternoon, and at least two were spotted, one to the northeast of Crowell and one to the northwest. The alert sent practically every Crowell resident scurrying to the safety of storm cellars, but no damage was reported from the twisters.

TWO NEW CARS

Two new cars were registered in the office of P. W. Taylor, sheriff, tax assessor-collector, on April 9. They are W. S. Carter, 1957 Ford 2-door; and T. F. Hughston, 1957 Oldsmobile 4-door.

THREE BLASTS ON SIREN IS TORNADO WARNING!

Three blasts on the fire alarm has been selected as a means of notifying Crowell residents that danger of a tornado in this area exists. Four blasts signals all-clear, and one and two blasts have been reserved for the Volunteer Fire Department. The new signals were adopted by Sheriff P. W. Taylor, Fire Chief Herman Kincheloe and the telephone company.

Much confusion arose Saturday afternoon when the tornado alert was sounded. Telephone operators were deluged with calls as to the cause of the fire alarm. Sheriff Taylor stated that the new signals should eliminate any confusion, and he urgently requests that when the tornado alert is sounded, that residents not call the operator. Lines must be kept open for emergency calls, if at all possible.

He also said that the Crowell and Thalia Schools will be notified, as well as the towns of Margaret and Thalia. The Wichita Falls Weather Bureau tracks by radar all tornadoes in this area, and always notifies Sheriff Taylor when danger of one is imminent here. In turn, he keeps the Wichita Falls station posted on local weather conditions.

Local officials also urged parents not to rush to school to get their children when the alert is sounded. The children will be safer in the school building, than they would be in a car, they said.

Betty Bartley Named "Miss Home Builder"

Miss Bartley is a Crowell High School graduate and also attended Midwestern University. She is now employed as secretary at the Wichita General Hospital.

Tickets for the contest are selling for $1.00 at Ferguson Drug, Shirley-Youree and DeLuxe Cafe. They will be $1.50 at the gate.

ODD-FELLOWS TO ENTERTAIN FAMILIES APRIL 26

The Crowell Odd-Fellow Lodge will entertain members of the lodge and their families with a supper to be held at the Odd Fellow hall on Friday evening, April 26, beginning at 7:30.

Storm-darkened skies opened up over Crowell and Foard County Saturday afternoon, measuring from just over an inch of rain in the south part of the county to over 3.5 inches in the west portion. Crowell recorded 2.55 inches by the government gauge. The fire alarm was sounded as a tornado alert early Saturday afternoon, and at least two were spotted, one to the northeast of Crowell and one to the northwest. The alert sent practically every Crowell resident scurrying to the safety of storm cellars, but no damage was reported from the twisters.

Water crossed the highways out of Crowell in several places during the storm, but traffic was not disrupted during that time. By late Saturday and early Sunday, Pease and Wichita Rivers were roaring for the first time in over a year-and-a-half with waters in the Wichita River rising nearly to the bottom of the bridge on Highway 283. The rain was accompanied by a light hail.

It was surprising to note that with the large amount of moisture which fell in a relatively short time, very few stock tanks caught to over-running. Most of them received several feet of water, however. The earth was so dried out, that most of the moisture soaked in, rather than ran off.

The wheat, which had begun to suffer greatly after several hot, windy days last week, has taken on a new look, and most farmers predict that the rain Saturday will be sufficient to mature the crop, barring extreme weather. White-caps are now visible in some of the wheat, probably the result of the late freeze.

Pastures also will benefit greatly from the moisture.

The rain which fell Saturday was general over this entire section of the state, and was the most moisture received here at one time since the rains of October, 1955.

Rain Last Thursday

Crowell also received .42 of an inch last Thursday night. The rain was also accompanied by high winds and ominous clouds. The fire whistle was also sounded that night, again sending Crowell residents to shelter in cellars.

The high winds did considerable damage that night—blowing down a barn on the Sam Bell farm, and also destroying a new barn and killing a mare on the Truman Quillen farm northwest of town. The mare's young colt and two other horses were not injured. A barn was also demolished on the John Cogdell farm.

More Rain Monday

Stormy weather conditions were prevalent in this section also on Monday evening, and .58 of an inch of rain fell here. It was accompanied by high winds. A tornado warning was also given early in the evening. Portions of the west part of the county reported more than an inch of rain Monday.

According to Merl Kincaid, this brings the total amount of rainfall for the month of April to 4.3 inches.

Three New Wells Added to Rasberry Field Last Week

Three new good producing oil wells were added to the Rasberry Field, 13 miles northwest of Crowell, last week.

On the east side of the field, Kadane & Griffith B-3 Maude E. Rasberry was brought in last week as a flowing well and a good producer.

Also on the east side of the field, work was finished Monday in bringing in the Texas Company No. 2 Maude E. Rasberry as a good producer and flowing well.

On the west side of the field, Kadane & Griffith V. A. Johnson No. 5 has been put on pump.

TEEN-TORIAL

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Do you criticize others freely? If so, don't feel too bad. So do many, many other people.

We all do it at one time or another. We do it because we do not think. Yes, the old adage, "Think before you speak," is quite applicable to everybody at some time in his or her life.

When someone blurts out the wrong thing, the person naturally feels hurt about having done so. More coals on his head from the criticizing by-standers are quite unnecessary. The person is already sorry as soon as the words are spoken. The best way to cope with a situation which you are prone to criticize is to ask yourself, "Suppose I were that person? How would I feel? What probably caused him or her to stumble? What would I do if I were in his place?" What would you do?

1956-57 JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET—WESTERN STYLE

Thursday night, April 18, at eight o'clock, the juniors of Crowell High School graciously honored their elders, the seniors of 1957, with a rip-roaring cowboy banquet at the school cafeteria.

Cattle skulls, chaps, a hangman's noose, ten gallon hats, and boots created a scene of the "Old West."

The cowgirls from the sophomore class served delicious barbecue which was furnished by Underwood's Catering Service of Wichita Falls. The food was enjoyed in the light of candles which sprouted from rows of cacti at each table.

Ray Thomson, junior class president, welcomed the seniors, and J. C. McCoy, senior class president, gave the response. The invocation was offered by Elizabeth Davis. Charlotte Sledge, Janie Bowers and Lois Ann Painter provided the musical entertainment.

Roma Jan Spikes was spokesman for the Class of 1957, who bequeathed their most prized possessions to the seniors of '58. Having brought his crystal ball, Charlie Bell finally consented to foretell each senior's future.

After the banquet, the juniors and seniors with their guests danced to the music of Ray Shirley's juke box. Special thanks go to the junior class sponsor, James Welch, and to the junior class mothers.

EASTER SERVICE

Thursday, April 18, Bro. Grady Adcock brought an inspiring message of Easter joy to the high school students. Before the talk, two songs, "Christ Arose" and "The Old Rugged Cross," were sung by Charlotte Sledge, Lois Ann Painter and Marketta Painter.

After Brother Adcock dismissed the group with a prayer, each student left the auditorium with a better understanding of the meaning and significance of Easter.

FHA ELECTS OFFICERS

On Monday afternoon, April 15, the FHA girls assembled in the homemaking cottage to elect officers for the year, 1957-1958.

After the voting delegates had cast their votes, the following were announced officers for next year: Roxie Adkins, president; Janet Rasberry, vice president; Bettie Knox, secretary; Judy Vaughn, treasurer; Carol Bell and D'Lois Shultz, sergeants-at-arms; Janie Bowers, pianist; Lois Ann Painter, song leader; Jo Frances Long, parliamentarian; Joyce Howard, historian; and Jerry Fairchild, reporter.

Mary Ann Myers, Lois Ann Painter, Gayle Taylor and Sandra Simmons served the group iced drinks.

LONG-AWAITED TALA PINS ARRIVE: NEXT YEAR'S OFFICERS ELECTED

Well, they have finally arrived! Of course, we are speaking of the TALA (Teen Age Library Association) pins which arrived last week.

The pins are a bronze book with Texas written on the back and TALA inscribed on the front cover. The date '57 is attached to a chain leading from the book. We know that the librarians who ordered pins will wear them with pride.

At the call meeting in which the pins were issued, Peggy Cates will be the president, Lill Ann Painter as vice president, Lill Ann Painter will be secretary; Judy Hollenbough reporter. This year's officers have done an excellent job, and we are sure that next year's officers will do the same.

SHORT SLIPS INTO SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

The 6' 2" boy has brown hair, green eyes, and weighs 156 pounds. He likes all music. Being a true Texan, his favorite food is fried chicken. His favorite school sport is football, but he enjoys hunting and fishing more. Movie starring Rock Hudson and Marilyn Monroe are tops with Short. Red and white seem to be his favorite colors; and P. E. is his favorite "subject." Billy has been an active member of the FFA club for four years. Even though Short's plans for the future include working for Uncle Sam, we know that he will succeed.

HINKLE HOLDS SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Ruth Hinkle is this week's senior girl of the week. She is 5' 6" tall with blond hair and green eyes. Ruth is well-liked around CHS because of her sweet personality. Ruth also has brains to go with her nice disposition. This is proved by her favorite subject being geometry. She likes the color, blue, and the song, "Round and Round." Fried chicken is Ruth's choice when it comes to something nourishing. Ruth enjoys playing baseball and watching football. Her favorite pastimes are ketching pictures of people and watching a good movie starring James Dean and Natalie Wood.

Ruth was an active member of FHA her freshman year, and she is a real asset to the Wildcat staff this year. She has been a member of both the Spanish and Library Clubs for two years. She holds the office of reporter in the Library Club this year.

Ruth is now training to be a laboratory and x-ray technician, and she plans to make a career of this. Ruth, CHS wishes you the best of luck in your future life.

BAND NEWS AND VIEWS

Climaxing a week of intensive rehearsals, the band will leave Saturday at 9 a. m. to attend the Region XIV University Interscholastic League contest to be held in Wichita Falls on the Midwestern campus. For members of the band, this is the "big one." Hopes are high for another "sweetstakes" for the band, but being realists, members of the organization realize that competition is much stiffer and judging much harder than at the previous contests. Also, the band is required to play three numbers instead of only two, which was the case at the Jacksboro Festival. Whatever the outcome, the band will be putting forth its best effort Saturday. For those that might like to hear the band on Saturday, performance time has been set for 1:30 p. m. in the University ballroom. This coming Monday and Tuesday the band will put on its marching shoes to get ready for the big Santa Rosa Roundup parade to be in Vernon on Wednesday afternoon, May 1. This will be the last performance of the year for the entire band marking the 28th appearance of the organization during the school year. A complete resume of the band's activities for the year will be in a later issue of the Wildcat.

CONGRATULATIONS, SENIOR HONOR STUDENTS

We want to congratulate DeAnna Ferguson, valedictorian; Anna Marie Faske, salutatorian, and the seven other honor students of the 1957 graduating class: Roma Jan Spikes, Nelda Kay Brooks, Layoy Rummel, Marketta Painter, Lowell Page, Marilyn Stone and Janis Crowell. CHS is proud of you.

MARKETTA'S MUMBLINGS

Attention people! The senior honor students have been found to be DeAnna Ferguson, valedictorian, and Anna Marie Faske, salutatorian. Congratulations, girls. Many ex-CHSites visited school Monday. They were Carolyn Bursey, Robert Davis, Buddy Caddell, Gordon and Billy Graves, Robert Graves, Peggy Long, Jimmy Thaxton, Shorty Orr, J. P. Bartley, Don Gobin, Clara Faske, Don Smith and Ann Riethmayer.

The highlight of the senior and junior years, the junior-senior banquet and prom passed off last Thursday night amidst wind and rain. Some of the girls and boys got sort of wet.

Last Tuesday the eighth grade girls gave a tea honoring their mothers. It was held in the teachers' lounge in the high school.

An assembly commemorating Easter was held in the auditorium Thursday morning.

The FFA boys held a barbecue Tuesday night honoring the FHA girls.

The senior research themes are off our hands. We had to hand them in Monday.

"This lament makes my arm smart."
 "Why not rub some on your head?"

There was an earthquake recently, which frightened inhabitants of a certain town. One couple sent their little boy to stay with an uncle in another district, explaining the reason for the nephew's sudden visit.

A day or two later, the parents received this telegram: "Am returning your boy. Send the earthquake."

ELIZABETH DAVIS WINS STATE ESSAY CONTEST

May we present Elizabeth Davis, state winner of the Soil Conservation Essay Contest sponsored by the Fort Worth Press.

It is she who has done what many have tried to do. For years we have been encouraged to enter the contest; we have, hoped, even wished, but hardly expected to win the coveted prize. Realizing that the judges, in whose hands rest our fate, are ordinary men with different outlooks in regard to the soil conservation problem.

We have entered essays of many varying types—long, short, serious, informative, dramatic, creative. For these efforts we have received numerous winners in our area, one of five in the state, which stretches from as far as Amarillo to the north, Levelland to the west, and Wichita Falls to the east.

Elizabeth, however, has used a different approach: she has appealed to us, the youth of the nation, to face the ever growing problem of soil conservation in the same manner in which our forefathers faced and met their many problems. When the going is rough, we as they must remember that better times are ahead. This approach—simple but direct—has received the nod of approval from the judges.

Her essay has been chosen from thousands of entries—so we are indeed proud of her. We are printing her essay in order that you may share, with us, her honor. Please read it carefully—perhaps more than once—for with each reading comes a better, a deeper understanding of what lies beneath each word.

Youth's Stake in Soil Conservation
 The world that I want to live in is just like a house—it must have a very strong foundation. Our soil is that foundation—the basis of our existence. Our future depends on the conservation of this soil.

The population of the United States is increasing daily, and, so far, no one has figured out a way to feed the people except through the products of the land. The prospects of feeding all these people make conserving our soil very important, because soil conservation and high production fit together like the parts of a motor.

We should not be discouraged by the drought and think: "Oh, what is the use—the chances of making a decent living on the farm are slim. I will just leave the farm." It may be bad now, and it will probably get worse before it gets better, but it will get better. So let us save our soil if for no other reason than to have good living from it, and make our living.

"In time of drought, precious soil just must be good! It has been the soil that took heart and looked ahead when things were that have made this country it is. It is in the same way the youth of today must get together and inform and themselves in conserving it. If we, the youth of today, heed the cry for soil conservation we have indeed laid the American initiative of American all the way!"

Soil Conservation News of District

Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District, Lower Pease River District Board: W. C. Howard, Grady Halbert, O. T. Holmes, O. H. Brandon, H. L. Ayers.

Determining when to irrigate is a problem which confronts many farmers during the irrigation season. An easy, simple method called the "Ball Test" has proved to be very successful.

The problem is to be able to determine the total amount of readily available moisture that your soil will hold per foot of soil depth for a particular crop grown. What is readily available moisture? It is the moisture that the soil while maintaining rapid growth. Based on irrigation trials it was found that heavy soils and loam soils will hold approximately 2 inches of available moisture per foot of soil depth. Sandy loams hold only about 1 to 1.5 inches.

For most row crops, you can delay irrigation for several days if the readily available moisture is more than one half the soil will hold. In other words if you have a loam soil, it will hold approximately 2 inches of available moisture. When a little more than one half is remaining irrigation can be delayed a few days.

By knowing the above figures we can then determine when to irrigate and how much water is needed. As a first step, take a typical handful of soil from a depth of 6 to 12 inches. Squeeze the ball of soil three or four times just about as hard as you would a hard-milking cow, not too much, not too little. If the soil is too dry to form a ball, it contains less than one-fourth available moisture. When the soil is moist enough to form a ball it contains at least one-fourth available moisture. Take the moist ball and toss it about one foot into the air. Then catch the ball as you would catch a baseball. If the ball breaks with five tosses or less, it contains from one-fourth to one-half readily available moisture. This is the best time to put on irrigation water. If the ball still remains intact after five tosses, the soil has more than one-half readily available moisture. Irrigation can be omitted for a few days.

Experience has proved that a plant obtains 40 per cent of its moisture from first one-fourth of the root zone, 30 per cent from the second, 20 per cent from the third and 10 per cent from the fourth. This being the case, it is of utmost importance that for maximum production the entire root zone should contain at least 50 per cent readily available moisture.

A probe made from a half inch gate rod or jet rod made like a "T" and sharpened on the end is a useful tool to determine if the entire root zone is wet throughout. The sharpshooter or spade is a useful tool to use in determining when to irrigate.

Your local Soil Conservation Service technicians will be glad to assist you with your irrigation problems.

Texas Fights Cancer

Age is a factor—a very slippery factor—in cancer. As a general rule, the older one is the greater the risk of cancer. To this, however, there are many exceptions. Of all diseases, cancer is the Number One Killer of American children.

Some mice pained with a coal tar substance soon after birth will develop leukemia within a few months.

Texas scientists have shown that an important part of the age factor, so far as leukemia is concerned, is hormones. If they give very young animals male sex hormones, they protect them against the virus. If they shut off their hormone supply by castration they rob them of the resistance to leukemia. Removing the thyroid gland also blocks this leukemia.

Scientists have shown that x-rays and a coal tar product given together are many times as potent in inducing leukemia as either agent alone.

Bad Business

The following is from National Review: "The New Jersey Taxpayers' Association says New Jersey wants no help from the federal government for school construction. Testifying before the House Education and Labor Committee, the group pointed out that New Jersey would have to pay out $2.33 for every dollar received under one proposed bill and $1.41 under a second."

In other words, federal aid to the states of this kind is a bad financial proposition. It is also bad for a far more important reason. If the Federal government is to do everything and administer everything, the logical course is to forget state and local rights and responsibilities and accept the super-government philosophy in toto.

GRASS-ROOTS OPINION

"The increasing number of unqualified and sometimes dishonest income tax 'aiders' has prompted the Internal Revenue Service to issue a strong warning to taxpayers to be careful whom they consult for help in preparing Federal tax returns. Nationwide, the Intelligence Division of the Service turned up a record number of fraudulent and incompetent assistants last year." — Warwick, N. Y., Advertiser.

House Cleaning

Victor Riesel, the distinguished writer on labor affairs who was blinded with acid by goons, believes that the current Congressional investigation into alleged abuses by certain labor leaders, will result in legislation forcing unions to clean house. Public opinion—which includes the opinion of the rank-and-file union members and the many honest officers of unions—will demand that.

Mr. Riesel goes on to describe three specific fields in which legislation can be expected. First, the law must see that union members run and actually control their own unions. Second, protections must be erected around the welfare and pension funds, which now total the incredible sum of $25 billion. Third, something must be done about labor's political activities so far as they lead to corruption and racketeering.

This is all to the good. But there is one more essential step—entirely aside from special legislative needs which will be made clear by the present investigation. That is adoption, by all the states, of right-to-work laws which make union membership a voluntary matter, which each worker can decide for himself, without coercion.

Indiana recently became the 18th state to adopt such a law and, significantly, it was the first major industrial state to do so. Right-to-work is in no way anti-union—the unions are free to organize as many workers as wish to join. It is, however, pro-worker and pro-good union. For it makes the union "sell itself" on the basis of the kind of service it gives and the standards of conduct it follows. It does away with union monopoly—and monopoly, in any field, inevitably breeds corruption.

With
Clinton Davidson

The 1957 Soil Bank closed this week with approximately 27 million acres of farm land on deposit, but anxious Washington farm officials will have to wait six months to learn whether it is a success or a failure.

A lot depends on whether, or by how much, the Bank reduces crop production this year. Congress put up $1.2 billion on a gamble that the Acreage and Conservation Reserve programs would help reduce surpluses.

The 27 million acres signed up by farmers are just over Agriculture Secretary Benson's minimum goal of 25 million, but considerably short of the maximum 45 million acres sought. It is about 7 per cent of total crop land.

If the result is a 5 per cent or more reduction in total crop production this year, the Soil Bank will have to be counted a good investment. But, because the weather plays such an important role in determining final yields, the value of the bank may continue a debatable issue.

A great deal depends on whether the Bank is judged a success or failure when the harvests are in next fall. If the result is a substantial reduction in production, and an accompanying rise in prices, the Benson farm program will have received a big boost.

If it fails to produce the desired results, then Congress will be looking for a new farm program, and Benson may be looking for another job. Farm price recovery would be set back by at least another year or two.

Monday of this week was the final day for the Conservation

Texas Fights Cancer

Does a virus cause cancer? A Texas scientist, magnifying matter 100,000 times its normal size, has made electron microscopic pictures of cancer cells. He has caught viruses in the act. He has shown them peppered throughout the cells of history's most incurable disease, lymphatic leukemia, the cancer of blood-forming tissues which costs the lives of many children as well as adults each year.

While the scientist has yet to prove that the viruses he pictured are the cause of leukemia, he has shown apparently the same virus in lymphatic cells of leukemic humans, mice and chickens. The lymphatic cells of normal man, mouse and chick apparently do not contain the virus.

SENTRY DUTY

IN AMERICA every editor is on sentry duty, guarding constantly against all encroachments on the Freedom of the Press. It has always been like this. Ever since the press battled for and won freedom of expression, its guardians have had to be on the constant lookout for infiltration by the enemies of that freedom. Infiltration—pressure from powerful groups to tone down comment on a situation...pulling of strings to keep a story from being published...predigested propaganda releases.

But the press knows the importance of never giving up its freedom. For on freedom of the press depend all other freedoms that make up democracy. Therefore, the men of America's press refuse to recognize any check—except military security—on complete, unabridged and inviolate freedom to print the truth.

That is the challenge of today to the courage and the vigilance of these sentries of America's press.

News from the Congress

by Congressman Frank Ikard

Just this week the Committee on Agriculture has released a report of one of its subcommittees on food costs trends. The report concerns itself to a large degree with the price spread between the raw farm products and the processed foods which we buy in the grocery market. The report shows that in the last ten years, for instance, food prices have increased 16 per cent while the price the farmer receives for the raw product has declined something like 14 per cent. During this ten year period, the average city family has increased its expenditure for food by $500 per year, and of this additional outlay that the city family has paid for its food, 80 per cent, or $400 of it, went for processing, transportation, and distribution, and only $45 went to the farmer. It is the expressed intention of the subcommittee making this study to seek ways to improve efficiency in the processing of foods and to increase the per capita consumption of agricultural products.

It is interesting to note that when the city family purchases a loaf of bread or cereal product, they pay mostly for processing, packaging, and distributing the product and that actually very little of the retail price goes to the farmer. For example, there is less than 3c worth of corn in a 22c package of corn flakes, and only 1c worth of wheat in a 28c package of crackers. The pound loaf of bread that sold over the country in 1956 at an average price of almost 18c contained wheat having a farm value of 2.6c. In 1956 the report shows that the average city family spent $1500 for food. Of this amount $105 was paid to food importers and fishermen for imported foods and fish, and $465 went to farmers for farm products.

National Home Demonstration Week Set for April 28-May 4

Texas home demonstration club women, over 36,000 of them, will be among the 6 and one-half million homemakers throughout the nation who will observe National Home Demonstration Week April 28-May 4, according to Mrs. Mary D. Brown, County Home Demonstration Agent. "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World" is again serving as the national theme of the week.

Purposes of National Home Demonstration Week are to acquaint more families, especially young families, with this educational program in homemaking, to encourage families in improving the communities in which they live, and to recognize volunteer local leaders of home demonstration groups.

Home demonstration work is that part of the agricultural extension program concerned with the family and home. New research information in all phases of homemaking is brought to homemakers through specialists, home demonstration agents and local ed, unprocessed foods. The balance of $930 went for the processing, transporting, and distributing of foods to the retail purchasers. The national food consumption by the average urban family was about the same in 1956 as it was ten years earlier; however, it is interesting to see some of the trends in food purchases. The use of potatoes in cereals by the city family during this ten year period showed a decrease while the use of livestock products increased, and per capita meat consumption increased 8 per cent.

One of the most effective ways of providing a permanent solution to our agricultural surplus problem is through increased consumption. Studies such as this one can be of immeasurable help in developing new and greater uses of agricultural products.

Austin, Tex. — Reorganization of the Insurance Commission is a supercharged issue again.

More than a month ago the Senate passed a bill that would sweep out present commissioners and allow the governor to name a new board. But the House State Affairs Committee shunted it off to an unfriendly subcommittee.

Some thought it would die there. Then a verbal battle broke out between John Osorio, chairman of the commission, and Gov. Price Daniel.

Osorio, who was appointed by former Gov. Allan Shivers, will lose his job if Governor Daniel's reorganization plan goes through.

In answer to questions from Rep. Jerry Sadler, Osorio said that Daniel had offered to help him find another job if he would support reorganization. Osorio replied that he felt such a "deal" would violate his oath of office.

Osorio also said, in answer to Sadler's questions, that the governor apparently did not oppose his confirmation by the Senate until after the Commission had closed down the ICT Insurance Co.

Governor Daniel called the charges false. He said he had expected personal attacks to result from his efforts for reform. Then he declared he would fight "even harder for cleanup and reorganization."

In reply to the governor's accusation of a "false" charge, Osorio offered to take a lie detector test, if Daniel would.

House committee members, meanwhile, took new looks at the reorganization bill, admitted to being in a tight spot. Sentiment is reportedly very evenly divided.

ANNUAL SESSIONS FAVOR-ED—With time running out on this session, the prospect of annual sessions in the future is gaining favor.

Senate gave preliminary approval to a measure for annual sessions and $7,500-a-year salaries for legislators. House passed a similar version with only $4,800 a year pay.

Sessions on odd-numbered years would be as now. On even-numbered years a short budget appropriation session would be held.

Measure is a constitutional amendment which would require approval of the voters in November, 1958.

SLUM BILL MOVES — Texas cities would be able to get federal aid for cleaning up blighted areas under a bill given final House passage.

Senate State Affairs Committee blackballed the same bill 9 to 8.

But supporters gained an unusual victory when the Senate voted 23-6 to accept the report of the committee minority.

Opponents attacked as unconstitutional the provision allowing a city to condemn property for sale to private parties. Backers said the bill had safeguards to prevent abuse of condemnation powers.

SEGREGATION UP TO SENATE — Enactment of 8 bills designed to preserve school segregation is in the hands of the Senate.

Sponsors predicted an easy majority in the upper house. However, two South Texans whose constituencies are already integrated promised opposition. Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo and Sen. Henry B. Gonzales of San Antonio indicated they might try to talk the bills to death in an end-of-session filibuster.

Measures already given House approval would (1) allow school boards to assign pupils to schools, (2) exempt children from compulsory attendance at integrated schools, (3) authorize state to pay tuition for pupils to segregated non-sectarian schools where no segregated public school is available, (4) authorize school boards to designate schools as "White," "Negro," or "integrated," (5) direct the attorney general to defend anti-segregation suits against the state, (6) require registration of persons paid to work for integration, (7) prohibit public employment of NAACP members and (8) ban future integration without a local school district vote.

TEACHER MONEY SOUGHT — Two bills aimed at gaining funds for teacher pay raises probably will be debated this week. Each has gained committee approval in both houses.

One would double tuition at state colleges for an estimated $10,000,000 more in revenue. Another would make one per cent of the permanent school fund available for current spending. It would bring in $7,000,000 to $11,000,000.

Added to a predicted $27,000,000 surplus in the general fund, passage of the two bills would bring to about $47,000,000 the amount available for teacher raises.

Teachers originally asked a basic $399-a-year boost, plus improvement in the schedule of increases for experience. This would cost a total of $67,000,000.

Governor Daniel suggested a compromise whereby teachers would get the basic raise, but not the experience increase. Teacher spokesmen have indicated probable acceptance.

WOMEN GAIN GROUND — Women's clubs won a modified victory with Senate passage of a much-patched separate property bill. It would give married women authority to manage their own estates without husband's consent.

A number of restrictive amendments were put in before passage. One would require a woman be 21 before assuming estate management "to prevent a 14-year-old girl from getting married and throwing away her inheritance."

REAR COMPROMISE OKAYED — A bill designed to smooth over the squabble between private and cooperative utilities has been voted out of committee in both houses.

Bill stems from a recent Supreme Court decision limiting activities of REA co-ops.

Proposed changes in law would allow a co-op to continue to serve old customers in an area after it is annexed by a city and add new customers where private power is not available.

Texas Fights Cancer

A Texas scientist shows that in at least some cases hormones are the difference between health and cancer.

He feeds rats butter yellow, the compound used in some parts of the world but not in the United States to color butter. The rats develop liver cancer after several months on this diet.

If the master gland, the pituitary at the base of the brain, is removed, however, the rats do not develop cancer.

Something in the pituitary—more of the many hormones it produces—apparently permits the butter yellow to cause the cancer.

The scientist has been giving various hormones to rats whose pituitary hormones are responsible for the cancers.

When he gives the animals either ACTH (the pituitary hormone which stimulates the adrenals) or growth hormone, the pituitary-less rats readily develop liver cancer from eating butter yellow.

Miss Linda Adcock and Carl Anderson Jr. Exchange Marriage Vows Thursday

The marriage of Miss Linda Kay Adcock, daughter of, Rev. and Mrs. Grady Adcock, to Carl M. Anderson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson of Sweetwater, was solemnized Thursday evening, April 18, in the Crowell Methodist Church. Both are students at McMurry College in Abilene. The officiant at the candle-light ceremony was Rev. Adcock, the bride's father. The double-ring rites were used.

Rev. Adcock also gave his daughter in marriage. She was attired in a wedding gown of silk taffeta with bodice of lace over taffeta embroidered with seed pearls and sequins, seed pearls also outlining the neck and three-quarter sleeves. The gown was modeled princess style, the full skirt extending into a cathedral train. Her tiara, pearl-trimmed, held in place her finger-up veil of illusion. She carried her cascade bouquet of white roses on a white Bible belonging to Delta Beta Epsilon sorority of which she is a member. She carried out the tradition of wearing something old, new, borrowed and blue. She wore the wedding slippers of the mother of the groom. The bride also wore cultured pearls, the gift of the groom.

Attendants to the bride were Miss Margaret Anne Miliken of Garland as maid of honor, who carried a bouquet of Talsman roses; Miss Judy Adcock, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid; and as bridesmaids, Mrs. Troy Casey, the bride's cousin of Rule, Miss Anne Anderson, sister of the groom, of Sweetwater, Miss Virginia Davis of Paducah, and Miss Jowannah English of Jasper. They were attired in gowns modeled alike, but of various pastel colors, of crystalline over taffeta. Each wore a headpiece to match her costume and carried a single long-stemmed Happiness rose.

Stanley Adcock, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer and Temple Dickerson of Sweetwater served his cousin as best man.

Mrs. Adcock, mother of the bride, wore a mauve dress of por de sois with matching hat and corsage of white roses. Mrs. Anderson, the groom's mother, wore a dress of beige por de sois with headpiece and corsage of pale pink roses.

The church was artistically decorated with groups of candelabra with tall cathedral lamps in the rear with smaller ones in front. Each candelabra was adorned with greenery and white satin ribbon. Emerald greenery and palms completed the decorative scheme.

Groomsmen Don Yarborough and George Ellis lighted the candles. Miss Bettie Showbert of Lubbock provided organ music and played appropriate wedding music, also accompanied by Crosby of Amarillo as he sang "Because" and "O, Perfect Love." He also sang "The Wedding Prayer" after the ceremony.

Groomsmen were Don Yarborough of Westaco, George Ellis of Southland, Conrad Cherry of Dallas, Keith Wiseman of Dumas and Edwin Livengood, cousin of the bride, of Haskell as junior groomsmen.

For going-away, the bride wore a black and white checked suit, with which she wore patent accessories. Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

April 28-May 4 will be National Home Demonstration Week. Each club has made plans for some kind of observance.

Our Home Demonstration Council will meet this Saturday, April 27, at 2:30 p. m. in my office.

Last week, Mrs. Fred Traweck of the Foard City Club said she had helped to set out over 30 shrubs since we had that demonstration in March. I wonder if any one else has set out that many or more. Let's all be prepared to tell how many shrubs and trees we've set out when I meet with you in May.

Mrs. H. L. Shultz of Margaret took a number of cuttings from the shrub samples used in the March demonstration and she reported at club that they were all rooting—even the photinia.

It is getting a little late to set out shrubs and trees but you can still start cuttings and I'll be glad to send you a copy of L-272, Growing Shrubs and Trees from Cuttings, if you will call or come by my office.
