DOWN TOWN BIBLE CLASS

There were 46 present at the Sunday morning meeting of the Down Town Bible Class with Recie Weback bringing the lesson. In the opening exercises conducted by Dick Todd, Miss Jo Frances Long gave a reading, a sermon by Billy Graham. A solo rendered by Miss Janie Bowers was "Open Mine Eyes," with Noel Williams as accompanist.

Twenty-First Annual F. F. A. and 4-H Project Show to Be Held February 7, 8

Plans are being made by the Crowell Rotary Club for the twenty-first annual F. F. A. and 4-H Project Show which will be held starting Friday afternoon, Feb. 7, at 5 p. m. and running all day Saturday, Feb. 8, in the Self Motor Company building in Crowell, according to information released Tuesday by the Rotary Club.

The Rotary Club committees are busy making arrangements for the show. George Self will turn his building over to the F. F. A. and 4-H Club boys and girls beginning Friday, Feb. 7, at noon so that they can move in and arrange their exhibits.

The F. F. A. and 4-H Club boys and girls are busy getting their exhibits ready for the show and, according to Marvin Myers, Vocational Agriculture instructor, and

"Ham" Operators to Conduct Code Class in Crowell

Robert and Gordon Fish, both local amateur radio operators, have been asked to conduct a code class in Crowell. They plan to start one within a week or so. Anyone interested in becoming a "ham," contact either one of the young men, phone 2452 Foard City, for details.

Ham radio is not only an interesting and fascinating hobby, it is also very useful in time of storm season, or any time when phones are out of order. It's educational also, if a girl, boy or adult is interested in electrical engineering, which is the field the Fish brothers plan to enter.

Visitors viewing the boys' radio station will usually say, "But isn't it awfully expensive?" Whereby, Mrs. Henry Fish, their mother, who like most mothers wants her children at home just as long as she can normally expect them to stay, answers, "Yes, you might call a complete radio station pretty expensive, but I look at it this way. It gives my sons a hobby that helps them in a way to provide a living when they become men, and not nearly so dangerous or expensive as one car wreck. The boys are content with the entertainment they get, meeting people from all over the world.

"They have only been 'hams' for a little over a year and they have talked to people in 30-odd states and some foreign countries. So parents, if you have children that you have trouble getting home at night, or would like to get them off the streets and out of drug dens, try to interest them in becoming a 'ham' radio operator. It costs nothing but a little study and 50c for a license manual to begin with."

A large per cent of amateurs are handicapped people, polio victims, etc. It gives them something to pass away the time while they're young, and it can be of great help in their future.

Anyone wishing to see and hear the Fish brothers operate their radio station, call or write Robert and Gordon at 2452 Foard City, Crowell, Texas.

Polio Fund Makes $220.40 at Program Monday Night

The program at the High School gymnasium on Monday night raised $220.40 for the March of Dimes drive. This includes the amount taken in on the "Queen's Contest." Miss Roxiann Adkins of the Junior Class was the winner. Other contestants were Miss Bettie Davis for the Seniors; Miss D'Lois Shultz for the Sophomores; and Miss Margaret Fiske for the Freshmen.

The program consisted of several choral numbers by the Colored children under the supervision of Mrs. Paul Barree; the crowning of the Queen; a basketball game between the Crowell all-stars and the Childress all-stars; and a "sock hop" for the school children with Earl Hesse's "Mad Men" orchestra furnishing the music.

The Foard County Polio Drive has netted $513.61 up to the present time. The March of Dimes committee composed of Cecil Driver, Mrs. Otis Gafford and Mrs. Guy Todd has requested all residents of Crowell to leave their porch lights on tonight (Thursday) until they are visited by the boys who are helping with the Mother's March. This march will start at 6:00 p. m.

THREE NEW CARS

Three new cars were registered in the tax assessor-collector's office on January 13 and 14. They are: Jan. 13, Charlie Myers, 1958 Chevrolet Impala; Jan. 14, Jeff Matysek, 1958 Chevrolet 2-door; Jan. 14, Hartley Easley, 1958 Oldsmobile 4-door.

SINGING HERE SUNDAY

The monthly singing of the Churches of Christ in this area will be held at the East Side Church of Christ here Sunday at 2:30. Everyone is invited to attend.

Tomorrow Is Last Day to Pay Poll Tax

Tomorrow is the last day for paying that poll tax—only $1.75 for the right to vote in at least three elections coming up this year.

As of Tuesday, Sheriff P. W. Taylor reported 582 poll tax receipts had been issued. At least 1,000 poll taxes are usually paid in the county during an election year.

Several races are scheduled on the county and district level—in addition to the state races.

1958 holds promise of being an exciting election year, and all eligible Foard County citizens should qualify themselves to vote by paying a poll tax by tomorrow, January 31.

Your Vote Does Count!
Thomas Jefferson was elected President by one vote in the Electoral College.

John Quincy Adams rose to the highest seat in the land because of one vote.

Rutherford B. Hayes was elected by one vote. His election was contested, and referred to an Electoral Commission. Again his margin of victory was one vote.

The States of California, Idaho, Oregon, Texas and Washington joined the Union by virtue of one vote.

The Draft Act of World War II passed the House of Representatives by one vote.

In 1950 a U. S. Senator was elected by a margin of just 20 votes in the entire state of Texas. Alaska lost its bid for statehood by one vote.

Remember—your one vote does count!

City and Property Owners Graveling Streets in Crowell

In keeping with the spirit of cooperation, the City of Crowell has been working with property owners to eliminate some muddy streets. Where the property owners pay for the hauling of gravel, the city has been paying for the gravel at the pit and doing all of the spreading of the gravel and watering it down.

The hauling cost is approximately $1.00 per cubic yard or about $6.00 for a load of gravel of six yards. If and when the property owners on any street for one block or more will put up the money for the hauling, the City will pay for the gravel at the pit and do all of the work laying gravel, preparing the street and watering the gravel down to make it pack and finish.

Mayor Claude Callaway stated that "There has been quite a lot of inquiries about paving. We find that it is not practical to try to pave during the winter months. However, it might be that something could be worked out in the spring."

"If you are interested in having your street gravelled, call M. M. Welch, Street Commissioner, or see me for detailed cost," Mayor Callaway also added.

F. F. A. Boys Attend Fat Stock Show

Nine members of the local Future Farmers of America Chapter attended the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show last week end. The youths saw the rodeo and watched judging of several events.

Those who made the trip were Don Welch, Bobby Barker, Jack Hickman, Joe Barry, Bryant Thompson, Jim Henry, Curtis Stone, Duane Nichols and Charles Carroll. The boys were accompanied by their instructor, Marvin Myers, and his daughter, Miss Mary Ann Myers.

Friday Is Last Day To Pay Taxes Without Penalty and Interest

Friday, January 31, is the last day to pay 1957 taxes without the penalty being added. This includes state and county, school and city.

This is a date that taxpayers should not forget.

FIRE DAMAGES TRAILER

Fire Monday morning did extensive damage to the trailer house home of J. Y. Campbell, located west of the Cameron lumber yard. The blaze was extinguished by the Crowell Vounteer Fire Department.

Boys March for Polio Fund Drive to Be Held Tonight Beginning at 6 o'Clock

The Boys March on Polio will be held in connection with the March of Dimes campaign, and will get underway promptly at 6 p. m. Thursday night, January 30.

The marchers, cashiers and secretary will assemble at the Barker Implement Co. on South Main at 6 o'clock, and Sheriff P. W. Taylor and Deputy Jake Wisdom will escort the caravan to the square. From there the town will be worked in groups with a captain and workers for each division.

The following groups of boys have been selected to help with the march:

Southwest District: Noel Wilkins, captain; Gerald Bradford,

Joe and Robert Wheeler.
Southeast District: Printess Gidney, Harvey Smith, Larry Love and Jimmy Weaver.
Northwest District: R. H. McCoy, captain; Ronald Yarbrough, Larry Hord, Eldon Whitman.
Northeast of Texas Street: J. W. Golden, captain; Louis Rettig, Jerry Sellers.
Henry Black and Marvin Myers will act as cashiers for the workers. Mrs. Munson Welch is secretary.

Mrs. Curtis Barker, chairman of the local boys drive, urges Crowell residents "to leave their porch lights on, and those who do not have porch lights are requested to be on the alert for the workers between 6 and 7 o'clock. If, by any chance, your house is missed, call 145-J and a special trip will be made to pick up your donation."

Basketball Teams Win Games at Paducah Friday

The Crowell High School basketball teams, boys and girls, remained in the lead for the western half of the IA-11 basketball race by defeating the Paducah teams over there last Friday night. The boys won by the score of 63 to 59, and the girls won 53 to 24. This gave each team three victories and no losses in district play.

Jerry Bob Sellers led the way for the boys with 23 points. The Cats had trouble with their passing game and were not able to sew the contest up until the third quarter. Jimmy Rader and Ivan Cates looked good on the guard positions in the second half. The Carpenter brothers, David and Gary, were not hitting the hoop in their usual manner.

Coach Glen (Tiny) Taylor used all of his players in the easy victory for the Crowell girls. Forwarders were Gayle Taylor, Judy Vaughn, Pat Prosser, Margaret Fiske, and Dorothy Denton. Guards for Crowell were Roxiann Adkins, D'Lois Shultz, Sandra Simmons, Helen Vessell, Lois Ann Painter, Mary Akers and Carolyn Aydelotte.

The Crowell "B" boys and Grade School boys also won their games at Paducah. Fred Younce and Claude Dean Sellers led the way in these contests.

Crowell will play at Chillicothe tomorrow (Friday) night in the second round of the western half play. The Crowell girls should not have any trouble in their game, but the Crowell boys are due to lose to the strong Eagle team. Crowell won here two weeks ago in an overtime contest.

Bowley Well Has Potential of 197.09 Barrels Crude

Daily pumping potential of 197.09 barrels of 40 gravity oil was reported by Kadane-Griffith Oil Co. for No. 1 Lula M. Bowley, in the Rasberry Field of Foard County, nine miles west of Crowell, in section 27, block A, SPRR survey.

Production is from open hole at 6090-6139 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 410-1. Pay was treated with 1500 gallons of acid.

Foard Residents Buy 91 Per Cent of Savings Bonds Goal

Foard County achieved 91 per cent of its 1957 Savings Bonds goal.

This announcement was made this week by George Self, chairman of the Foard County Savings Bonds committee. Total sales in the county were $110,010 during 1957, which was 91 per cent of the 1957 goal of $120,896.

Sales in Texas during 1957 were $165,686,403, which was 85.8 per cent of the state 1957 goal of $193,100,000.

Chairman Self had this reminder: "Labor unions, fraternal, civic, service, patriotic and veterans' organizations, eleemosynary institutions and local and state government bodies are now eligible to purchase Series E and H Savings Bonds. Any organization interested in purchasing E or H bonds can make application at their local bank."

Magnolia Station Opened Monday

The Magnolia Service Station on East Commerce was opened Monday for business by H. E. Monkres and M. M. Welch. The station had been closed for the past six months.

The station handles Mobil products. A new machine for changing and repairing tubeless tires has been installed.

Mrs. Sim Gamble Honors Husband on 82nd Birthday

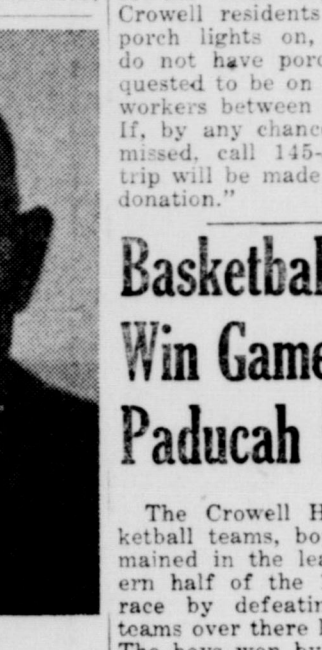

Sim Gamble, pioneer resident of Foard County, was honored on his 82nd birthday Saturday, Jan. 25, by his wife who served a turkey dinner buffet style at the noon hour at the Gamble home northeast of Thalia. A beautiful birthday cake was the center of attraction.

Mrs. Gamble's three daughters, Mrs. W. A. Johnson of Thalia, Mrs. Frank Gamble of Vernon and Mrs. E. F. Durham of Anton, were present and assisted Mrs. Gamble.

Other relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gamble, Mrs. C. C. Lindsey of Thalia, Mr. Gamble's sister; a granddaughter, Mrs. Willie Garrett, and two sons, Alton and Dennis. Mrs. Herman Greening, Mrs. Kenneth Greening and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williams, all of Crowell; Frank Gamble of Vernon, W. A. Johnson of Thalia, E. F. Durham of Anton, and Mrs. D. H. Allen, another granddaughter, and her husband of Grady, N. M., and Mr. Gamble's son, Sim V. Gamble, and wife and son, Mike.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Gamble's pastor, Rev. C. C. Lamb and wife of Thalia; Mrs. A. S. Hart, Miss Judy Borchardt and T. B. Klepper of Crowell.

Mayor Gamble came to Foard County with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gamble, when he was a boy and has lived at his present farm home many years.

EDITORIAL
YOU AND YOUR PARENTS

One of the hardest jobs in the world is to be in your teens. The next hardest job is to be the parent of a teen-ager. Since these two jobs must be done simultaneously, the problems are doubled, and life is full of tensions for both you and your parents.

Your parents push you in a direction you do not wish to go. You pull back. Other times, you push forward in a direction you want to go. Your parents pull back.

You are you, and there's no one in the world exactly like you. You have some intense new feelings that you don't quite know how to handle. One minute you are carried away by searing joy—oh, life is so wonderful! The next minute you're sunk in gloom—you'll never smile again! Now you laugh, then you cry. You get angry so fast it amazes even you; you lash out at people. Other times the smallest thing can hurt your feelings, and you slink away wounded.

And now while this is going on inside you, what's happening to your parents? Here are two facts that never change. First of all, your parents love you. Second, your parents are not just your mother and father, but they are also people—persons in their own right and with their own rights. You probably think of your mother as your mother, period. But your mother is an individual personality to the rest of the world.

Can you blame your parents for not shifting moods as fast as you do? You are like an actor or actress, trying several different roles. The only trouble is that you forget to warn the rest of the cast of the change! While you are shifting so quickly from one of your selves to the other, what do you ask of your parents?

You expect them to roll with the punches! You take it for granted they will console, appease and forgive—which they actually do most of the time.

Don't think your parents are having an easy time of your growing up. They are having "growing pains" along with you!

MEET JOHN SCHMOE

by "Spider" Bell
This week's senior boy is a new senior, John Schmoie. John, or Jonathan, as he is sometimes called for short, is 1' 2" tall, is bald headed, and has crossed eyes. John's favorite subjects are physics, chemistry, English IV, and Algebra II, while study hall is his most difficult.

His favorite hobby is not coming to school, and his favorite TV star is his idol, "Lassie."

John's favorite food is raw steak, followed up with a dessert of vinegar on spinach.

John is president of the Loafers Club, and before coming here, he was mascot for the Paducah Dragons. During his ten years of high school, John has been very active in the dramatic club by acting as the official curtain opener and closer. John told me that at one time he was a cheerleader but gave up that idea when he fell off the stadium.

After graduation, if he ever does graduate, Schmoie plans to go to college and obtain a degree in order that he can come back and teach our children. If this be the case, John Schmoie, may you have the worst of luck possible!

FASHIONS (AS TO C. H. S.)

Mexican cowboy pants? Hula skirts? Bongo britches? Shorts? Well, if you want to know what's indescribable, it's clothes—especially girls' clothes. Now don't get me wrong; boys wear some outlandish costumes and the like—but they aren't even in the running when it comes to girls' fashions.

In the yesteryear it was bushes—and now it's buckles. Why, I've seen girls who looked as if they were in a straight jacket. They had buckles on their ears, shoes, pants, blouses, everywhere! And you talk about stripes! For about three days a week, CHS looks like a women's prison farm.

During the first four days of the week there are great variations of costumes. These include skirts, sweaters, peddle pushers, Dad's old white shirts, and little brother's (we do mean little) Levis. But then comes Friday. Every cotton pickin' girl in school hits the Levi Trail! (along with a large size boys' sweat shirt). Maybe it's a celebration of some kind or it might be that they just want to show everybody that they can do what they please (at least it shows that girls have no mind of their own and do what the crowd does—or does it?)

But then there are blessed Saturday nights and divine Sundays. The feminine population comes up dressed fit to kill (which isn't bad idea, in itself). Some are fixed up with nice full skirts (and thirty petticoats), high heels (ladders are more like it), and red, red, red, red lipstick (the only thing most boys really like!)

All this noise which as aforementioned is too far out. Let's go back to the days before the sack look. Why, back all the way to the day of the—what else—Bikini bathing suit. Man, that's what I dig! That has DESIGN!

HALF-WAY AND ALL THE WAY

CHS needs to support its basketball team—the right way—enthusiastically. Oh, sure, we support our team, but only half-way. Only half of the students attend the game, only half of them cheer for our team, only half even watch the game. Still, you've got to admit, all will join in on one thing—booing the referee and the opposing team. (Oh, granted, a poor referee or unsportsman-like conduct on the part of the other team allows disagreement, but only with the principle, not the person). But, somewhere in the middle comes the dividing line where half-way switches to all the way. Booing and cat-calling are all the way wrong, and someday, they will get us "booted" all the way from the Texas Interscholastic League.

So, let's change Crowell High's attitude. Let's show our visitors that Crowell is a hospitable town, a good winner, and a good loser. (Perish the thought). Then, too, let's show them that we like our basketball team. And the best way to do that is by a full gym and loyal support.—The Student Council.

"CAT SCRATCHES"

One less week till school's out! That sounds very good to me. Last Sunday was a "hassle." I'll never forget. I suppose everyone knows why. The favorite pictures were made for the annual at the home of Jerry Fairchild. All last week, people were running around wondering what to wear and how to be posed. Finally the day came—the great day—pictures for the annual! There was one extra there, and you have probably already guessed who that one extra was—you're right—me! (Well, I couldn't let anything get by without my being in on it.)

I hid in the back seat of Charlotte Sledge's car and rode out with her. I thought we would never get there—it's so far away from us but we did! When we stopped, I jumped out of the open window and immediately began nosing around. Once inside the house, I spied some fellow cats; we became friends quickly. This was a stroke of good luck for me because they could guide me around very skillfully.

When the photographers came, they began their work quickly. Beautiful girls took their places and began to pose for the lovely pictures. Somehow I always managed to get in the way. Just as the girls were posed just right, and the photographer was just about to snap the picture, I looked up and saw that the camera was aimed directly at me! Quickly I jumped aside—all but my tail, that is—so if you wonder about that when you get your annual this spring, you'll know what happened.

Another time, I was peering between two of the girls—the camera snapped—my beady green eye was shining between the girls. I'm glad they didn't catch me, or I might be ground up hamburger meat by now. Somehow I ended up in every picture taken Sunday!

After a hazardous day when I was safely home, I told all my cat friends that I am in pictures. I've been signing autograph books ever since.

So long, Tabby.

TATTLE TALE

Were Kay and Sue lonesome over the week end? We hear that Carol and Ronnie are steady-bound now.

Bryant, what grade school girl has her eye on you? Could it be Carol Lee Oliphant?

Bill Greer seems to have found an especially interesting item in Quanah. Could her name be Marketta?

David-D'Lois were seen in the show Saturday and Sunday nights. Seen over the week end were Ginger-J. M., Patsy-Louis, Judy-Harvey.

Attending the Plaza Friday night were Bubba-Peggy, Arlos-Sharon, Monte-Wan M., Aldon-Judy, and a number of tags.

Margie-Duane were at church Sunday night. Gerald-Roxie were together Sunday.

It seems as if Barbara Goodwin and Gary Griffith have been seeing a lot of each other. What about this, Barbara?

We hear that Linda, Lou Ann and Hattie Lou like to keep late hours.

We hear Linda Caddell has a Vernon admirer. Could it be Dean Taylor?

Seen in Quanah at the show Saturday night were Carolyn-Ted, Elizabeth-Sonny.

At the Plaza Saturday night were Lowell-Bettie Linda, Joe-Jeanie, Don-Judy, Jimmy-Jana. Everyone was tired after all the pictures had been taken Sunday afternoon.

It seems that Fort Worth was blazing over the week end. It must have been "a hot time in the old town" that night. Riding around in the big city of Crowell Sunday afternoon were Judy-Don.

EL PASO — POLIO MOTHER OF THE YEAR for the 1958 March of Dimes in Texas. Mrs. John L. Crouch (Kathy), of El Paso, joins daughter Connie Ruth, 11, and son Larkin, 13, in a family game. Most interested in the photographer is the Cocker, Ginger. Mrs. Crouch, executive secretary of the El Paso County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and widow of a World War II fighter pilot, was named to symbolize in the 1958 March of Dimes the hundreds of Texas mothers who have overcome the crippling after-effects of polio to resume active and useful lives.

Carolyn. We would like to welcome Charlica Durham to Crowell High. She moved here from Oklahoma. She is really not a new student here, for she attended our school when she was in the first and second grades.

Gayle was really a "lonesome Joe" over the week end. Jerry Bob was in Seymour until Sunday night.

Everyone who didn't hear Bill Taylor talk at the Baptist Church Sunday night really missed something.

Jerry Ann, Peggy Long and Gayle "buzzed" over to Vernon Saturday afternoon and saw the show—stag!

Diane Sledge had a short (long) trip over the week end. She and her parents went to visit Larry and Roy Don at Camp Carson, Colo. She reports that the boys are liking the army fine, but hardly have time to give old friends at CHS a thought. She brought home some pictures. Those boys sure do look good in uniforms!

Jerry and Billy went to Quanah Sunday night to the show.

SENIOR GIRLS OF THE WEEK

Patty McGinnis is 5' 5 1/2" tall, has brown hair, and has contrasting green eyes.

Her high school life has been quite active. For instance, she was elected the most courteous for this year. She was chosen class favorite of her junior class as well as being re-elected to the same position in her senior class. Also, her classmates elected her class officer her sophomore year and again this year. Patty's also active in dramatics, and she is on the Wildcat and Roundup staffs.

Her favorite sport is swimming; however, football is her favorite spectator sport.

Patty's favorite food is fried chicken and gravy. Popular music is her favorite brand of music, with "Oh, Julie" being her favorite record.

Her favorite movie stars are Natalie Wood and Tab Hunter. Patty's favorite hobby is writing to a certain "you know who" soldier boy.

Patty's favorite subject is home economics, and Algebra II is her most difficult.

Her future plans, as of right now, are undecided, but personally, I could make a guess. Couldn't you?

Our other girl for this week is our own Jana Black. Jana is 5' 3" tall, has blond hair, and green eyes.

Jana thinks of study hall as being her easiest subject; Algebra II or English IV as her hardest.

Jana's favorite sport is football. Barbecued chicken is her favorite food, followed by a dessert of lemon-ice-box pie.

Her favorite brand of music is rock n roll, while "Get a Job" is her favorite record.

Jana has also been active in high school. She has been cheerleader for the past three years, and she was head cheerleader this year. She was class officer her freshman and junior years. She also works on the Wildcat and Roundup staffs. I nearly forgot to add that Jana has been elected a school beauty for the past three years.

After graduation, she plans to go to Texas Tech and major in elementary education. We wish you luck, Jana, in your battle with the little school children that you may someday teach.

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS TO BE HELD

Elections for the Student Council officers will be held February 12. Students running for office will be allowed to campaign beginning Feb. 10. Those planning to enter the race must file their names with Mr. Black at least a week in advance of the election. The Council has been doing a fine job. Let's remember to elect responsible people to these important positions.

COLLEGE STUDENTS ARE WELCOME VISITORS

It's good to see the college set at home for a "between term" breather. A few came to school to say hello, others we saw just here and there. Anna Marie gave some of the classes a "smattering" idea of what college really is like. It didn't sound so bad—after all, if one goes to college surely he expects to work.

We are always glad to hear of ex-students' experiences, so drop by when you are in town.

BALL CLUB CONTINUE TO BE VICTORIOUS

Well, basketball fans, both the girls and boys teams have won their third conference game. The girls team challenged the Paducah girls last Friday at Paducah—the final score was 53-24. Gayle Taylor, Judy Vaughn, Pat Prosser, the three starting forwards, scored over forty points before the half-time. Helen Vessel, Roxie Adkins, D'Lois Shultz, Sandra Simmons, Mary Akers did outstanding guarding Friday night. A freshman that we'll be seeing more of in the future is Margaret Fiske.

63-53 was the final score for the boys A game at Paducah Friday. Once again, number 34, Jerry Bob Sellers, put in 23 points for the team. "Boob" Carpenter, that hard fighting freshman, scored 12 points, followed close behind by Jimmy Rader and Ivan Cates, who each scored 10 points.

Both the girls and boys teams look as if they are well on their way to winning district! So, let's be sure to go out and back the teams 100 per cent. The fourth conference game is to be played Friday night at Chillicothe.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By VERN SANFORD

Ever build a brush cover in your favorite fishing lake? Right now is just about the best time of the year to do it.

If you like crappie or bream fishing, then a brush cover has a great deal to offer.

Biologists are agreed that a good brush cover offers a definite advantage in catching fish. And a good one can be built in a couple of hours. It is hard work, however, especially if you are a desk man.

Generally brush covers don't work too well in a running stream. They must be firmly anchored. In relatively still lakes they can be tied down with heavy rocks. However, if they can be built around an old tree trunk it is even better.

To build a brush shelter you'll need a sharp axe, a pair of pliers, and plenty of bailing wire. A good tow-rope will be helpful too. It is best to work with two boats, or a boat and some type of barge or raft.

The process of building the shelter is relatively simple. Cut an armful of brush, such as willow, tie it together, and attach a stone so that it will sink to the bottom of the lake. Select a suitable spot where the shelter will not be a hazard to navigation, or get in the way of deep trawlers.

It doesn't have to be too far from shore. At least a dozen large bundles of brush should be transported to the spot. Some of it should consist of fair-sized brush, such as mesquite trees.

In lowering the brush into the water, it is well that the brush be stacked, so that it will be in a pile at the bottom of the lake. A brush shelter a dozen feet around and some five or six feet through is ideal.

Some fishermen find it profitable also to anchor a bale of alfalfa hay in the center of the pile.

To be most effective the brush should not be matted together. Fish must be able to swim around freely among the branches. At the same time, some shelter builders prefer a brush pile that big fish cannot get into... one that furnishes a refuge for smaller fish.

When big fish chase the little ones into the brush pile, they'll hang around nearby. That's a pretty good time to lower a minnow in the vicinity. For that reason the perimeter should be well marked. Plenty of hooks can be lost fishing in brush shelters, if its bounds are not known.

Some fishermen use poultry netting to hold the brush together. In that event the entire project must be completed on land and then towed to its resting place.

We once heard of a fisherman who made an unusual, yet ideal, shelter in a lake that had just been lowered. He found a couple of old outhouses, filled them with heavy brush, then hauled them to a spot that would be just the right depth when the lake was re-filled. There he anchored them down to stay. They were left flat on their sides, with the door open.

Needless to say, he had an ideal cover for fishing and caught more than his share of crappie and bream.

Another good plan is to build the shelter directly under the end of the boat dock or pier. In this instance it is necessary to use heavy wire to keep the brush from washing out, and to keep hooks from snagging.

Anyway, now is a good time to build you a brush shelter. Just be careful where you cut your brush and where you put it. Do the job right and you'll have a good fishing spot.

What About the Man Overboard?

Ever so often I wonder just what I'd do if a sudden and wholly unexpected need for a life preserver existed. This thought hits me whether I'm just plain fishing or pleasure-boating. And I'm not afraid of the water either.

Fact of the matter is, my concern is over what I'd be able to do to help someone else. Chances are I'd be paralyzed with fear. Apparently that's why I always carry a surplus of buoyant cushions, in addition to the familiar old-style, round shaped life preserver, with a long rope attached.

In my book you can't overdo the safety angle. The law requires one approved life preserver for every passenger in your boat. Don't forget it! Better yet, see to it that your guests wear life preservers. Insist that children do. The wise outdoorsman will never take a chance, especially on or near rough waters.

Speaking of life preservers, now comes the Muter Company of Chicago with a Res-Q-Pak that's an easy addition to any safety kit. This inflatable emergency life preserver comes in a pocket-sized package, no larger than a pack of cigarettes. Should be a part of every tackle box.

Res-Q-Pak inflates instantly. A gentle squeeze on the package... and presto, you have a two-foot float, shaped very much like the old-style water wings. Manufacturers say it will support a 250-pound man for hours in the water.

Learning to Cast

To spin cast or bait cast with accuracy takes practice. An old-timer's method of mastering the trick is to place an empty beer can under the casting arm, then practice casting without dropping the can. This makes it necessary to use only the wrist for action which is the secret of successful casting.

And, by the way—if you have trouble dis-assembling your casting rod, at the end of a day of fishing, here's an idea. Next time you get ready to put your gear together, wipe the male ferrule against your nose a few times, rolling the ferrule over and over as you rub. That will put a base of oil from your skin onto the ferrule and make the connection easy to assemble, and most important of all, easy to dis-assemble.

Slick trick. And it works!

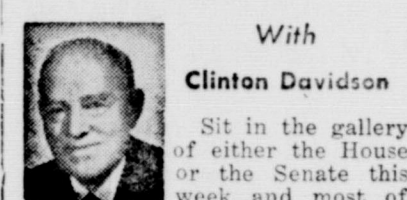

Caught the Wife's Eye

Finally got the wife interested in fishing.

Actually, South Bend's colorful, green Spin Cast 2320 rod and matching "7" reel did the trick. Cooperation on the part of some nice black bass cinched the deal.

Now we got a fishing partner—partner—anytime, anywhere.

THIS WEEK - In Washington

With Clinton Davidson

Sit in the gallery of either the House or the Senate this week and most of the talk you will hear will be about increased government spending for a big build-up in the defense program.

Probably none of the orators will say anything about how a big increase in spending is to be financed, yet that is almost as important as building intercontinental missiles. Will it mean more taxes, or more debt?

That is a question to be faced, sooner or later, and the man who is expected to provide the answer is a quiet Arkansan named Wilbur Daigh Mills, Representative from the Second District of Arkansas and new chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

This is the committee through which all tax and fiscal policies must first clear before reaching congressional debate. It has first jurisdiction over all revenue legislation. Mr. Mills has been a member for 15 years.

I have known Wilbur Mills for the entire 20 years he has been a member of Congress, and my estimation of his ability and integrity has grown in each of those years. At 48 years of age, he is one of the youngest and most capable committee chairmen under a seniority system that gives years of service priority over ability. Fortunately, Mr. Mills has both.

Probably no man in Congress, and few if any men in the country know more about taxation and fiscal policy than Mr. Mills. In those matters he has the respect and complete confidence of members of both parties in Congress.

Little given to old-fashioned oratory, Mr. Mills relies instead on a thorough knowledge of his subject, painstaking preparation and a clear, convincing delivery to win the support of his colleagues in Congress.

Some of them have told us there have been times when they followed his advice against warnings that to do so was "bad politics," but that invariably his advice was both sound and good politics.

An example of this occurred

Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

Last week Mrs. Edith Roark, co-administrator of the Foard County Hospital, met with a group of club leaders at my house for a training meeting on Home Nursing. At that time, Mrs. Roark discussed with your leaders the possibilities of a Home Nursing course being taught in Crowell. These leaders will be discussing this with you soon.

This course would take approximately 9 hours to complete. You could meet 3 times for 3 hours each or 5 times for 2 hours as you preferred. Mrs. Roark has offered to teach this course because she feels, as many of you do, that there is a definite need for it. We simply don't know how to care for someone who is ill at home. There will be no charge for this course at all, and I hope that many of you will take advantage of it. It is also open to everyone, regardless of whether or not they are club members. You are to send in to the February council meeting, the number of women from each club or community who are interested in this Home Nursing Course.

Our Junior Leaders 4-H Club meets every 2 weeks and usually the girls take turns at giving their own demonstrations. Ordinarily, they work in pairs, but last week Joyce Latimer gave a very nice demonstration on meat salads by herself. By giving these demonstrations before each other, the girls are already practicing for the 4-H contests this spring.

Our recipe this week is:

Peanut Waffles

6 tablespoons chunky-style peanut butter, 1 cup pancake mix, 2 tablespoons sugar, ½ cup evaporated milk plus ½ cup water, 1 egg, unbeat, Honey Butter, below.

Start heating waffle iron as manufacturer directs. In saucepan, melt peanut butter over low heat. In bowl, with egg beater, beat pancake mix, sugar, milk, egg, melted peanut butter until fairly smooth. Pour half of batter into center of lower half of preheated waffle iron; bring cover down gently. Cook as manufacturer directs. Do not raise cover during baking. When waffle is done, lift cover; loosen waffle with fork; serve at once with Honey Butter, below. Repeat with remaining batter. Makes about 2.

Honey Butter: Blend 1/4 cup soft butter or margarine with 2 tablespoons honey. Makes 1/3 cup.

News from the Congress

by Congressman Frank Ikard

The Great Plains Conservation Program is the new conservation tool which has been fashioned to speed up soil and water conservation in those portions of the Great Plains States that are subject to wind erosion. The Great Plains claims about 37 per cent of all of our nation's land and 40 per cent of all its crop lands. This is the area which has suffered most from the extreme droughts that have occurred about every twenty years. Just a year ago moisture conditions were critical in Texas. Six million acres of land were in condition to blow, and over half a million had been damaged by wind erosion. Last winter one million and three-quarters acres of land were seriously damaged by wind erosion. A number of the counties in the western part of our district are in this program which is now ready to get started. It will move along at a fast pace.

This week the House appropriated additional funds in a supplemental appropriation to provide additional financing for our missile program. This measure will no doubt receive speedy approval in the Senate. As we have pointed out heretofore, there can be little question but that there is a need for some additional funds, but our real crying need is for better management in our Defense Department.

The Committee on Ways and Means continues to hold general tax hearings which are the first of this type that have been held in a good many years. As they unfold, it becomes more apparent that a reasonable reduction in personal and some business taxes would actually not affect the revenues of the government because the present rates are so oppressive.

Many proposals have been made to encourage our young people to complete a college education. Some have proposed federal scholarships and others have suggested direct aid to our colleges and universities. I have introduced a bill that would allow a student to deduct as an expense from his or her parents' income tax all of his expenses for tuition, fees, and books while attending college. This would give some effective immediate relief to college students and would not require any great federal bureau to administer it and also would not put the federal government in the education business.

Newspaper Is Undisputed Leader Throughout Country for Food Ads

By T. B. KLEPPER

The newspaper is undisputed leader throughout the country as a medium for food advertising. Or, as David J. Swann, a former sales manager of Kroger Stores, has stated, "The food retailers of America have proven the newspaper to be the number one medium for merchandizing national or local products. The food retailer knows the local newspaper has no equal as a medium for developing immediate traffic and sales."

This position is supported by the practices of great food stores in all parts of the United States. The giants of the food business, Krogers, A&P, Acme, Colonial, among others, use the newspaper as a basic selling medium. The same is generally true of the more successful independent food stores. Nothing could be a stronger testimonial for newspaper advertising than its universal acceptance by the nation's leading grocers.

The grocer, perhaps more than any other retailer, is in a position to test the effectiveness of his advertising. He knows almost immediately how good his advertising is. The speed with which items move from week to week measures precisely the quality of his advertising.

The grocer who regularly runs a large newspaper advertisement is not gambling. He knows what

News items below were taken from the issue of the Foard County News of Friday, January 27, 1928:

Shirley & Offield and Claude Barry shipped a car of ponies to Ft. Reno, Okla., Monday. They are to be trained for polo sport.

Nina Ruth, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Beasley of Rayland, died at the home at that place last Sunday morning, following a brief illness.

According to the tax collector there yet are about 650 cars in Foard County that have not been registered for this year.

Announcements for public office in this issue were: A. F. McMillan for public weigher; R. D. Oswalt for county judge; A. W. Lilly for sheriff.

Walter Ross and family of near Granite, Okla., were here Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives and friends.

Cotton ginnings for the county for this season have reached 20,768 bales.

After an illness of about two weeks, H. E. Hays, resident of Foard County for nearly 30 years, died at his home 4 miles east of Crowell Tuesday morning, Jan. 24.

Dr. M. M. Hart, former Crowell resident, died at his home in Mesquite Tuesday of last week. Dr. Hart first came to this section with his parents from Greenville in 1884, then after an absence of many years, returned to Crowell to make his home and practice medicine.

Miss Marion Cheek has accepted a position with the West Texas Utilities Co. to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Miss Estelle Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Martin of Quitaque were in Crowell Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Eunice Randolph has gone to Amarillo to attend a business college.

Mrs. Ed Tharp of Matador is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. R. Magee, and family.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sunford

Austin, Tex.—From the Panhandle to the Valley, a good safe topic for a rousing speech right now is "The Tidelands—They're All Ours."

Texans haven't been stirred up on this issue since 1953. That was the year Congress passed the Submerged Lands Act which recognized the coastal states' ownership of off-shore lands to their "historic boundaries."

Texas won title to land three leagues (10 1/2 miles) from shore in its independence treaty with Mexico. Texans, at least, were convinced, this was the "historic boundary." Hence, the state began operating in the three-league territory, leasing tracts to oil, gas and sulphur companies to gain money for the public school fund.

Now the fact's in the fire again. Last year outgoing U. S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell filed suit in the U. S. Supreme Court contesting Texas' claim to more than three miles of tidelands. Other 7 1/2 miles, he said, belong to the federal government.

Of this claim, Texas officials have this to say: Atty. Gen. Will Wilson: "It was Louisiana who knocked over the coffee pot."

Things were going along fine after passage of the 1953 law, explained Wilson, until Louisiana (limited to three miles of tidelands) decided that if Texas could have three leagues, so should they. Louisiana filed suit for the extra land. Federal government replied that "no state" owned more than three miles out.

"This," observed Wilson, "struck Texas in a tender spot." But neither Louisiana nor other coastal states have the same sort of case as Texas, he emphasized. At the time Louisiana entered the Union, the commonly accepted boundary of a country was the distance a cannon could fire from shore—or three miles.

Texas, however, said Wilson, won right to three leagues in 1836 War for Independence, and U. S. officials recognized this when the state entered the Union.

Today the value of the contested lands is estimated at $500,000,000. Ruelly, Wilson noted he has allotted only one hour before the court to argue for it.

Land Commissioner Earl Rudder: If U. S. court knocks down Texas' claim to the 10 1/2-mile shoreline, then "Russia, Mexico or anybody else can claim it."

NEW "TRAFFIC DIRECTOR"
—Brad H. Smith, Rio Grande Valley newspaper, and past president of the Texas Press Association, becomes Texas' first state traffic safety director on Feb. 1.

Governor Daniel said that Smith will spearhead one of the most intensive traffic safety campaigns in the state's history. Daniel has made war on road deaths one of the prime goals of his administration.

Smith will work with the Texas Traffic Safety Council created by the Legislature last spring to coordinate the safety activities of "WEAKEST LINK" — Bearing on the same problem, speakers at a traffic courts conference in Austin said the courts must command respect for the law.

Traffic courts conducted by laymen or part-time judges in ill-housed court rooms may be partly responsible for the casual attitude many have toward traffic offenses, said one speaker. Such courts, it was charged, are the "weakest link in the traffic enforcement chain."

SMALL FRY NOT WANTED — Texas Board of Insurance has problem of deciding whether to grant permission to charge lower rates to casualty companies which avoid the "little business."

Five companies are requesting the special rates. They said they plan to insure only more expensive homes. Loss ratios are higher in the $5,000 and under bracket, they explained, and cost of handling offsets commissions. Board recognized this, but asked, "Who is going to take the $5,000 home owner?"

CREDIT RULING CONSIDERED — An Amarillo insurance agent has filed suit to prevent new credit insurance rules going into effect March 1. State Board of Insurance issued an order that would estimate 50 per cent credit insurance charges. Attorneys for Cosmo Insurance Co. contend the order exceeded its authority. Credit insurers say the order would hurt their business.

Numerous state officials urged the change on the grounds that excessive insurance charges being used as a means to charge borrowers exorbitant rates.

Guarding Tomorrow's Freedom

How to maintain a lasting peace . . . how to preserve full employment . . . how to ward off recession . . . how to keep our high standard of living. Those are problems which continually face the Government of our country.

Tomorrow they may blaze into issues that must be solved by the factions and interests that make up our democracy. Each of these factions and interests will demand to be heard — and they will be heard.

The press of America will report and comment on what each and every party to an issue has to say. The public will know what is going on. It is only thus that the best interests of America can be served over and above the interests of any one faction or any limited-interest group.

This vital function can be performed only by a press that is free to write and free to publish the story of national issues, unfettered by dictation from any source.

Today's freedoms can be secured and tomorrow's freedoms guarded only by a press that owes allegiance to no ogre of tyranny bent upon shaping our destiny to suit its own ends.

If the press of America is, in a real sense, to remain the guardian of our future, we must preserve the freedom it possesses today.

LEST YE FORGET

Though you go your way, and I go mine, apart, yet not so far, for only a thin veil hangs between the pathways where we are.

Whether a man lives fifty days or fifty years in Foard County, he can never entirely leave, so it is with me now. While in going to California with Beulah and Harry, a part of me will never leave Texas, and you can be sure my thoughts will be with you daily. Be careful what you do, as I'll be reading The Foard County News every week. It's not goodbye, it's just "so long." Write to me: T. W. Agent Gives Tips on Planting Trees

January and February, tree planting time is here, and there are lots of things that we should keep in mind if we get our orchard started in tip top shape. Joe Burkett, County Agent, has several suggestions on how to handle trees upon arrival and how to prepare soil for planting.

If the trees cannot be planted at once, they should be "heeled in" by digging a trench wide and deep enough to receive the roots. In covering the roots with soil, care should be taken to work the soil into the spaces where the roots are massed together, otherwise there is a danger of drying out. Avoid "heeling in" in poor drainage areas. The soil where the trees are to be planted must be thoroughly prepared. Deep plowing is recommended and should be done in the fall or early winter at which time a cover crop such as vetch, clover, rye or oats may be sown. Broken or torn roots should be removed before the tree is set in the hole. Plant the tree at the same depth that it was in the nursery, and pack the soil firmly around the roots.

Demand for High Grade Cotton Now at All-Time High

The world demand for cotton is, now, at an all-time high and is growing stronger. The increased demand is a direct result of an ever-expanding population, greater world buying power, and the desire of the peoples of other lands to improve their living standard.

There has been a continuous expansion of cotton consumption during the last six seasons. World consumption has increased by over 5 million bales or 15 per cent. World consumption last season rose to a record 39 million bales.

Because of the short 1957 crop, and the rapidly vanishing CCC holdings of desirable cottons, American cotton growers must increase production in 1958 if they are to hold and supply our foreign markets.

The cotton farmer who can grow high quality cotton in 1958, can look to a pleasant future. That's the rosy prospect facing growers as they make their 1958 crop plans, according to cotton economists attending a recent American Farm Bureau cotton meeting in Dallas.

These are the elements that make 1958 look good: shortage of high quality lint, lower carry-over than in several years, big decrease in CCC stocks, and a stand-off in foreign cotton production. This means that in 1958, cotton prices are likely to be higher than in 1957.

What should cotton growers do in 1958? Best thinking of the experts is to plant your full allotment, use fertilizer according to soil tests, carefully control insects and cut out all hand labor possible in growing the crop. Then, harvest so as to get the best grade possible.

State Uses 'High Road' to Make Low Road

The State of Maryland has a new highway notably different from other highways in the State.

The road is unusual because every phase of it was planned and engineered from aerial photographs. According to Maryland State Roads Commission engineers, all engineering maps, drainage surveys and even geological reports on soils were made by an aerial mapping service.

The Highway Commission said that the speed and expertise with which the plans were made were so successful that aerial planning and engineering are to be adopted permanently by the Commission.

Envelopes were not used for mailing purposes in this country until about 1845.

ADDED COSTS TO AVERAGE AMERICAN CITIZEN

"With the current exposes by the Senate Rackets Committee of the squandering of funds paid by union members, the average American must realize that he was the one who paid the money that added these lush funds available. Our Weekly Sermon

Problems? Try This

The new year was only a few hours old when an 11-year-old boy in Houston, Texas, shot himself with his father's pistol.

The brown haired youth explained to police that his girl friend had spurned him for a rival who made better marks in school.

"She don't love me any more," he managed to say.

The girl reportedly became angry with the lad, took away an identity disk she had given him and gave it to another 11-year-old boy. Doctors said the would-be suicide had a 50-50 chance to live.

A foolish action of an immature youth? Yes, yet many adults with more serious problems follow the same erratic logic. The thought is: "I shall destroy myself and solve my problem."

Such thinking is wrong on two counts. First, suicide never solves any problem. It merely crystallizes and enlarges it. The conditions that cause a person to run away from himself are still there, thrust upon loved ones left behind.

Secondly, the term "self-destruction" is incorrect. Existence does not end with the last breath. We go out from this life to meet God in eternity. How tragic to enter His presence by taking one's

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.
HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

A dangerous undercurrent of rabies runs throughout the broad range of Texas wildlife. The condition, while not new, could erupt into a full scale epidemic in an unguarded moment.

Rabid wildlife species infect dogs, and dogs infect other dogs. Therein lies the greatest source of danger to humans.

Twenty-eight cases were diagnosed in State Health Department laboratories during December. In addition, six positive cases were diagnosed in dogs by the El Paso County laboratory.

The 28 cases were submitted from 15 counties. Included in the total were 12 dogs, 11 foxes, three cats, and one bat and one coyote. Jasper County in deep East Texas was hardest hit. Situated in the center of the most active focus of wildlife rabies, the county reported eight positive cases—six foxes, one cat and one dog.

Cameron County at the southern tip of the State was second with four cases, all in dogs. Freestone, Llano, and Red River Counties experienced two cases apiece. Bexar, Grayson, Hardin, Harris, Hidalgo, Marion, Presidio, Tom Green, Tyler, and Wichita Counties each had a single case.

There is general agreement among health and veterinary officials that only a small fraction of the actual number of rabies is reported. Thus, rabies in Texas

Miss Price and Mr. Harrison Marry at Thalia Saturday Night

The marriage of Miss Jackie Louise Price and Lynnward W. Harrison was solemnized at the First Baptist Church in Thalia Saturday, Jan. 25, at 7 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Price of Thalia. The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Linward Harrison of Colorado City, and formerly of Lockett.

The couple stood at the altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and carnations. Rev. Harrison, father of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle. She carried a bouquet of white tuberoses atop a white Bible, given to her by Miss Barbara Serratt. For something old she wore the wedding band that had belonged to her grandmother Johnson, the late Mrs. Will Johnson of Thalia.

Miss Barbara Serratt of Mary Hardin-Baylor College was the bride's only attendant. She wore a fitted suit of pink wool, with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Weldon Newton of Abilene, brother-in-law of the groom, was the best man.

Mrs. Price, mother of the bride, wore a royal blue crepe dress, and her accessories were black. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Harrison, mother of the groom, wore a suit of gray tulle. Her accessories were black and she also wore a corsage of white carnations.

An informal reception was held in the church parlor following the wedding ceremony. On the table was a white crocketed table cloth over blue made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Grady Price of Thalia. The wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom was on one end of the table and a crystal punch set on the other. The table was lighted by long white candles.

Misses Jackie Kidwell of Texas Tech College of Lubbock, Shirley Ross of Wichita Falls and Sandra Duckworth of Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, presided over the bride's table. Mrs. Rufus Whitman of Wichita Falls was at the bride's side.

Mrs. Harrison is a graduate of Lockett High School and a sophomore in Midwestern University.

Mr. Harris, a 1956 graduate of Lockett High School, took training in a radio and television school in Fort Worth. He has just finished a training school at Sheppard Air Force Base at Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will leave soon for Palm Beach, Fla., to make their home, as Mr. Harrison is to report to the Palm Beach Air Force Base for duty Feb. 8.

Oliver-Ramsey Nuptial Vows Read at Thalia Baptist Parsonage

The home of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Fitzgerald in Thalia was the scene of the January 21 wedding of Miss Mary Margaret Ramsey of Oklahoma and Kenneth Ray Oliver of Amarillo.

Rev. Fitzgerald, pastor of the Thalia Baptist Church, conducted the double ring ceremony.

The former Miss Ramsey is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ramsey of Oklahoma and Mr. Mrs. A. E. Oliver of Thalia.

The bride chose for her wedding a suit of gray worsted flannel. She wore a white feather hat and black patent accessories. She complemented her attire with a heart necklace and bracelet of rhinestones and carried a white Bible topped with pink sweetheart roses garlanded with white pom-poms.

An informal reception followed the ceremony at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Fitzgerald. Mrs. Don Ramsey of Oklahoma, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Floyd Oliver of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the groom, presided at the refreshment table.

Mrs. Oliver is a 1957 graduate of Oklahoma High School. She attended Midwestern University, Wichita Falls.

The groom is a graduate of Crowell High School and also attended Midwestern. He has been employed by Texas Oil Company in Amarillo, but will leave Jan. 30 for basic training in the U. S. Air Force.

RIVERSIDE H. D. CLUB

"Are you bright and cheerful all morning long?" was a question asked by Mrs. George Wesley when the Riverside Home Demonstration Club ladies met in her home Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 21.

"A good breakfast can cure fatigue and even bad manners," continued Mrs. Wesley as she went ahead to explain that about 2 out of every 3 Americans do not eat good breakfasts. She handed out leaflets on "Breakfasts for You," and for her demonstration she made butterscotch and spicy raisin biscuits.

Mrs. S. C. Kuehn, president, brought the club to order. The Collect for Club Women and the Courtesy Reminder were read in union. All the committee recommendations were read, discussed and adopted by the club. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. C. L. Adkins Feb. 4 when Mrs. John S. Ray will give the program on "Home Nursing."

The tasty little biscuits were served with coffee and drinks to one new member, Mrs. Billy Cleveland, and to members, Mesdames Louis Kieschnick, C. L. Adkins, S. C. Kuehn, Frank Ward, Monroe Karcher, James Bowers, Grover Moore, John S. Ray and George Wesley.

COLLABORERS' CLASS MEETS

Mrs. Clint White, Mrs. Sam Mills and Miss Dine Mitchell were hostesses to the Collaborers' Class of the Methodist Sunday School when they met in a social meeting at the home of Mrs. White Thursday afternoon.

A clever reading was given by Miss Linda Johnson. With Mrs. S. S. Bell as leader, the meeting was opened by the singing of "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," with Mrs. Paul Shirley playing piano accompaniment. Mrs. Jim Russell was assistant leader and read appropriate scriptures to the subject, "The Mighty Power of Faith." Mrs. Bell gave an inspiring, helpful talk on the subject, "God Will Take Care of You," was sung as a closing number.

Mrs. Guy Bounds, class president, conducted a business session at the close of the lesson study period.

The hostesses served a dainty refreshment plate to twenty-three members and one guest, Mrs. S. T. Crews.

FOARD CITY H. D. CLUB

The Foard City Home Demonstration Club met at the recreation hall at 2 p. m. with 9 members present last week.

Mrs. Walters read the homemaker's creed and had the opening prayer. Mrs. Grover Owens had the exercises. She read the prize winning essay on citizenship by a Texas woman, Bonnie Johnson, the president, read the recommendations and they were voted on and adopted.

The club voted to have supper for their families and the families of the community Feb. 11 at 6:30 p. m. They also voted to donate $5.00 to the March of Dimes.

Mrs. Ethel Traweck had the demonstration on a better breakfast. She demonstrated butterscotch biscuits and spicy raisin biscuits and served them to the club.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 4, and all visitors will be welcome to come.

T. E. L. CLASS

The T. E. L. Sunday School Class met Jan. 23 in the home of Mrs. Doyle Callaway for its regular business and social meeting.

The meeting was opened with the president in charge. Mrs. W. R. Womack led in prayer and Mrs. C. C. McLaughlin brought the devotional, using as her subject, "The Three Beginnings," with scriptures from Gen. 1:1 and Mark 1:1. After a short business session, Mrs. Frank Moore had charge of the social hour.

Mrs. Callaway was assisted with hostess duties by Mrs. Loretta Roberts. Refreshments were served to 8 members of the class.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dobb gave a birthday party last week in honor of their son, Dennis, who was 4 years old Jan. 16, at their home near Truscott.

Games were enjoyed. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to the following: Murry Bullion, Betty Sue Barry, Bill and Bob Taylor, Nancy Looney, Janet Sue Jacobs and Buddy Myers.

Dennis received many pretty and useful gifts. Adults who attended were Mrs. Harold Barry, Mrs. Paul Bullion, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Don Jacobs.

Grady McDaniel and Miss Bumpass to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bumpass of Hereford are announcing the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Peggy, to Grady McDaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McDaniel Sr. of Crowell.

Miss Bumpass is the granddaughter of George Brown of Crowell, and is a senior student in the Hereford High School. Her fiancé is a senior student of the Crowell High School, and is the grandson of Mrs. Nannie McDaniel, also of Crowell, and Mrs. Clara Whitley of Blackwell, Okla.

An early June wedding is being planned by the young couple who will make their home in Wichita Falls where the groom-elect will attend business college.

HONORED WITH SHOWER

The W. M. S. ladies of the Baptist Church sponsored a shower for Mrs. Lynn Harrison Friday evening in the basement of the church in Thalia. Mrs. Bill Cates registered 63 guests in the bride's book.

The receiving line was composed of the bride and her mother, Mrs. Morgan Price, and her grandmother, Mrs. Grady Price, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Harrison.

Mrs. O'Neal Johnson helped at the gift table and Joan Shultz assisted Mrs. Mack Edens in serving finger punch, cake and mints from a crystal punch set, which was surrounded by violets and an arrangement of pearls.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

The Columbian Club met on Wednesday, Jan. 22 with Mrs. Gerald Knox as hostess. The club met at the school auditorium for the program on Americanism which was presented by Mrs. Moody Bursey's class. Reading and songs were given. The program was dedicated to Mrs. Sam Crews on her birthday. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Karl ten Brink, Mrs. Jack Roberts presided. Roll call was answered by old and new events.

The hostess served refreshments to 11 members and Mrs. Moody Bursey and the class in the Home Ec. building. The next meeting will be guest day and will be with Mrs. John Ray Feb. 5.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

The Thalia 4-H girls met in the school cafeteria Monday afternoon of last week at 2 o'clock. The girls discussed how to make a motion at a meeting and asked the president if she could make a motion. They talked about the 4-H party. There were games and folk games.

7TH GRADE 4-H CLUB

The 7th grade 4-H meeting was held Jan. 21 in Mrs. Clark Hitt's home room. Judy Barker, president, called the meeting to order at 9:05 a. m. and Marolyn Denton read the minutes and called the roll. Mrs. Mary Brown helped the girls work on their 4-H records of foods and clothing.

OBSERVING 75TH BIRTHDAY

The Texas State Teachers Association, meeting in Mexia in 1880, named a committee to prepare a plan for the organization of the University of Texas. The committee's 12 recommendations were included in Governor Oran M. Roberts' message to the 17th Legislature, and the law establishing the University was passed in 1881. The University opened in 1883, and is observing its 75th year throughout 1958.

Former Foard Man Conducting Survey for Texas University

The amount of "natural occurring" radioactivity in Texas streams and river sediments will be measured by University of Texas sanitary engineers on an eight-month Texas Department of Health grant.

Dr. Ernest F. Gloyna, University Sanitary Engineering Project director, will conduct the radiation survey of Texas major river basins beginning Feb. 1. Dr. Gloyna is a former Foard County resident and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gloyna of Kress.

Dr. Gloyna's goal will be to determine the "base level" of radioactivity now in Texas streams. The base level is the amount of naturally-occurring radiation in the streams plus that artificially-produced radiation distributed by atomic bomb explosions.

The radiation survey is one of the varied water-resources investigations and stream-pollution studies being conducted by the University's sanitary engineers.

Former Residents to Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Standlee of Seymour will observe their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 2, when they will be honor with an open house at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Standlee, one mile north of Seymour on the Lake Kemp road. Their other two sons and daughters-in-law will share host and hostess duties for the affair.

The entertainment will be from 2:30 to 6 p. m. and all friends of the couple are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Standlee moved to Baylor County in 1948, moving there from Haskell County. During their 50 years of married life, they lived in Wilbarger, Knox, Haskell and Baylor Counties. They spent their childhood days in Foard County.
