News From the Congress

by Frank Ikard, 13th Dis.

The shift in population in this country is one of the things that most directly affects the national economy. It is well known that there is a strong present trend toward the more metropolitan areas. This week we acquired figures from the Library of Congress that project this trend in the Thirtieth Congressional District. Since next year is the year the census will be taken, these figures may be disproved when the actual count is made.

This shows the county-by-county population in our district to be as follows: Archer County population in 1950 was 6,816. The estimate of January 1, 1959, population is 6,100; 1950 Baylor County 6,875 and January of this year estimate 5,900. Clay County in 1950 was 9,896. The January 1959 estimate is 7,500. Cooke County 1950 was 22,146 and January 1959 is 24,100. The City of Gainesville in 1950 was 11,246. This year's estimate is 14,500. Denton County 1950 census was 41,365. Estimates of this year are 46,100. The City of Denton 1950 was 21,372. January estimate is 30,000.

Foard County was 4,216 in 1950. It is estimated to be 3,200 in January of this year. Figures on Hardeman County were not available. Haskell County in 1950 was 13,730; January estimates 11,200. Jack County 1950 was 7,755; January 1959 estimate 5,900. In the 1950 census Kent County had 2,249; January estimate 1,400. King County 1950 census 870; January 1959 estimate is 900. Knox County had a population by the 1950 census of 10,082. January estimates, it is 7,600. Montague County had 17,079 by the 1950 census, and 14,000 in the January estimates. Stonewall County population of 3,679 in 1950, and 3,500 in the January estimates. Throckmorton County had 3,618 in 1950 and 3,000 in January 1959.

Wichita County in 1950 had a population of 98,493, and for the January 1959 estimate of 132,500. The city of Wichita Falls has grown from 68,042 in 1950 to 97,300 according to the January estimates. Wilbarger County in 1950 had 20,552; in January of 1959 estimates 18,500. In 1950 Wise County 16,141; the 1959 estimates 13,800. Young County 16,810 in the 1950 census and in the January estimates 14,300.

Besides the economic effect of this shift in population to the urban areas, it carries with it also many social and political problems. Historically, the rural population of this country has been the political balance wheel, and its influence has been a most healthy one. Long range, it would be most unfortunate if this very evident population trend continues to develop.

There is good reason for the gloom that has spread from wheat growers to the growers of corn, cotton, rice, tobacco and peanuts, the other crops which have both production controls and minimum price supports set by Congress. The Commodity Credit Corporation owns or has loans on nearly $9 billion worth of those six basic commodities. Storage costs alone on those surpluses run to almost a billion dollars a year.

It was the so-called "city vote" in Congress that turned the tide against the wheat bill raising price supports from 75 per cent to 90 per cent of parity. Their contention was that it would both raise the price of bread and increase price support costs. Seven times this year, President Eisenhower asked Congress to pass a wheat bill that would let prices in the open market determine how much of the grain farmers grow. Seven times Congress said it would not agree to the big reduction in growers' income that would result from cut-throat pricing.

Sooner, rather than later, farmers, consumers, Congress and the Administration must come to the inescapable conclusion that present farm programs are not worth what they are costing. Continuing them as they are would be as foolish as complete repeal would be tragic for both farmers and consumers.

Would Qualify as Expert in American Diplomatic Work "The fellow who built a boat so large that he had to tear down the barn in order to get it out would qualify for an expert in American diplomatic work. "For today we see the world threatened with charges and counter-charges bolstered with threats of war and attacks because our supposedly great American leaders provided for a Berlin controlled by four powers, but without providing access to West Berlin. Our American leaders entered into final agreement with Russia for control of the fallen German city but let Russia keep the 110 miles of territory separating Berlin from the rest of the free world. — Salem, Indiana, Republican Leader.

$170 Million on Research

Fortune magazine reports: "Last year U. S. pharmaceutical firms spent an estimated $170 million on research. During the same period the British pharmaceutical industry spent only $11,200,000. The difference spelled success for some twenty-five subsidiaries of U. S. companies in Great Britain. U. S. firms completely dominate the British antibiotic and tranquilizer market, supply an estimated one-half of all the ethical drugs prescribed by the country's physicians."

The Henry Borchardt home was the scene of a lovely bridal shower honoring Miss Gayle Taylor, bride-elect of Billy Don Scott, on Saturday, July 11.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

Austin, Tex.—Whatever the outcome of the summer tax battle, when the smoke has all cleared, the fire won't be out. Like live coals banked in ashes, the tax issue will be ready to flame up again when new fuel is added.

Sources of new fuel are easily foreseeable.

Every member of this Legislature, by his voting record, expressed a tax viewpoint. Many of them will have to face opponents attacking this viewpoint in the 1960 elections. Since a new law moves primaries up by two months campaigning will begin long before the dogwood is out . . . may be while the Christmas lights are up.

Many candidates may be wary of lighting into an issue on which it's almost impossible to take an all-around popular stand. But whoever gets elected and comes to Austin in 1961 will find the old tax monster waiting, bigger and fiercer than ever.

This Legislature will likely enact just barely enough new taxes, mostly on "old favorite" sources, to cover the budget. But the 1961 budget will have to be bigger. For some time population growth and other factors have kept budgets going up by about 10 per cent every two years.

Additionally, there will be, as always, demand for new programs, new buildings, new spending. Hales-Aikin school improvement program alone would call for at least a $100,000,000 tax bill.

Only hope for avoiding an even hotter tax battle in '61 is for 1960 voters to give their elected officials clear instructions on what they want and how they're willing to pay for it.

BATTLE LINES — Show-down fight of the second called session came on a $90,000,000-a-year tax bill based on about three-fourths selective sales taxes, one-fourth business taxes.

It was in line with expressed sentiments of the Senate, but many House members regarded it as "another insult." All the five Senators and five House members on a conference committee that worked out the bill signed the report and recommended adoption.

It was designed to get revenue from these sources over a 2-year period:

- TOBACCO — Cigarettes up 3 cents a pack (for two years)—then back to one cent; to raise $60,000,000. Other tobacco products, except snuff, a 25 per cent tax to raise $13,500,000.
- NATURAL GAS — raise in the production tax from 7 to 8 per cent to bring in $12,000,000.
- CORPORATION FRANCHISES — Increase of 75 cents per $1,000 capital to May, 1960. 50 cent increase thereafter, to raise $32,000,000.
- UTILITIES — a 20 per cent increase in gross receipts tax except for telephone and telegraph, for $3,000,000.
- MOTOR VEHICLES — increase in sales tax from 1.1 to 1.6 per cent, for $20,400,000.
- BEVERAGES — Liquor up from $1.48 to $1.68 a gallon, wine up 20 per cent, for $6,000,000.
- BOATS, MOTORS, AND AIRPLANES — a new 1.6 per cent sales tax, for $3,250,000.
- RADIOS, TELEVISIONS, PHONOGRAPHS — a 2.2 per cent

accident tax. Accidents zero.

INSURANCE CUT DUE—State Board of Insurance has ordered reductions in auto insurance rates ranging from 10 to 15 per cent in some parts of the state.

Effective date is August 1.

Most of the cuts will stem from a reduction in expenses, such as agent commissions, rather than low accident rates. State-wide the cuts will amount to about $226,000,000, saving some drivers as much as $29 a year.

In some areas, mostly larger cities, the drop will be smaller, and in a few counties the rate will rise.

Board Chairman Penn Jackson said that a merit rating plan, setting lower rates for accident-free drivers, will be made later.

The objective of National Farm Safety Week is to establish safety in farm living. Farm safety activities aim at developing the attitudes, customs and environment for safe living for every member of the family every day in the year. In the vital contest of education vs. accidents, the score should be Safety Education 100 vs. Accidents zero.

sales tax, for $6,000,000.

CAMERAS—temporary 10 per cent sales tax for $6,000,000.

Provisions for more vigorous tax collecting would bring an estimated $4,000,000 more.

NEW INSURANCE BILL — Out of the House-Senate conflict over the State Board of Insurance came a reorganization bill aimed at getting rid of at least some present officials.

Sen. Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford introduced the bill calling for organization of a new three-member, full-time Board of Insurance.

One member would be designated Commissioner at a $20,000 salary. One would be the chairman at $15,000; another, a member at $15,000. Nothing in the bill says present members could not be appointed, but all appointments would be subject to Senate confirmation.

Senators tried to oust present Commissioner William A. Harrison two years ago, but were balked by Board Chairman Penn Jackson and an Attorney General's ruling that they lacked this authority.

Since then Senate hostility toward Jackson and Harrison has been open and frank. Senate appropriation bill slashed salaries to one-third time for Board members. House held out for full-time Board.

Senators' counter-offer was the reorganization bill . . . with a full-time Board to please the House and a chance to name new members to please the Senate.

LET NATURE BE — A group of West Texas ranchers won another round in their court fight to force a cloud-seeding firm to leave the weather alone.

Texas Supreme Court upheld an injunction to stop a "weather modifying" program by Southwest Weather Research, Inc.

Weather Research had been hired by a group of Fort Stockton cotton farmers to drop silver iodide pellets into clouds that threatened to bring in crop-destroying hail storms.

Water-loving ranchers brought suit. They contended the cloud seeding not only chased off the hail but moisture of all kinds.

It was designed to get revenue from these sources over a 2-year period:

Foard County Little League News

by Marion Crowell, President

The New York Yankees were quite jubilant last year after winning the world series, but their joy was small potatoes compared to that experienced by the Foard County Mill kids after winning their first ball game last Tuesday night. It was truly heart-warming to neutral and partisan fans alike to see these kids shouting, in effect: "our cup runneth over!"

Chalk up an "assist" to Ray Shirley. We who sit on the sound platform had been completely engulfed in writhing, giggling, screaming young boys . . . so much so, in fact, that sitting out a game, especially the second one, was much like riding a bucking bronco—without a stirringle! Then one night it suddenly stopped. Not one kid was climbing around on our tower . . . no one disturbed my feet or legs . . . and Ray showed me what had stopped them EVERY ONE. He had scrawled three words on an improvised sign that we've used ever since: PLEASE STAY DOWN!

I just wonder if the parents can be controlled as easily? We've a fine bunch of managers. Beverly Gray came back to us last week . . . he's helping Farmers Elevator. I just don't believe anywhere. They're deserving of full cooperation from parents, and I believe they'll get it if I make mention of one little thing. During the first half, at times, some parents insisted on staying just back of the screen at the dugouts or near their son's infield position, shouting advice to the youngster, and sometimes it was in direct contradiction to his manager's orders. Remember: during the duration of a game, a Little Leaguer is responsible strictly to his manager, and all other advice is confusing to him and hurts his chances of playing his best game. So, if you're a parent, during your son's ball game, just picture in your mind a sign with the words, PLEASE STAY BACK!

In conclusion, I'd like to admit making a "boo boo" last week reduction in the auto registration fee.

Mrs. Delmar McBeath spent Wednesday night with her sister, Mrs. Howard Ferguson of Crowell. Joan and Cathy Barnes of Pampa are visiting in the Delmar McBeath home.
Reshaping a human soul is the sovereign work of God. Man must desire God's transforming work and invite Him to do it.
If any one is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new! (II Corinthians 5: 17).

Rebuilding the Soul
The blitz raid on London the night of December 29, 1940, set 1,500 fires and destroyed hundreds of homes, public buildings and churches.
Three years ago the Ministry of Housing decided to rebuild this section of the famed city. A team of architects drew up an imaginative master plan.
The $56 million project will contain modern apartment houses, hotels, a sports center, a cultural center and an artificial lake.
Given time and money, a city can make itself into a thing of beauty—no matter how badly scarred by war.
But what about a human soul? Can a similar transformation be made here?
The Bible speaks of the "new man" created in the likeness and image of God (Colossians 3:10). This "new man" practices compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, patience, forgiveness and love (Colossians 3:12-14). He refrains from immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, covetousness, anger, wrath, malice, slander, foul talk and lying (Colossians 3:5, 8, 9).
Surely this change is as great as rebuilding a bombed city. But it does not result from human effort, education or good resolutions.
Chippendale furniture bears the name of its creator, an 18th century English cabinetmaker and wood-carver.

Turn the Other Cheek Policy

In an editorial concerning the most recent attack by MIG jet fighters on a U. S. Air Force plane, the Portland, Oregonian, says: "Whatever means the Pentagon chooses to use to give American transports and patrol planes better protection against an enemy that is alternately 'cold' and 'hot' is in the military domain. But the American public is thoroughly fed up with these 'incidents' in which U. S. policy appears to be to turn the other cheek."

About Your HEALTH

Nothing can live without food, suitable temperature and an appropriate amount of moisture. This applies to man, animals, fish—and plants.
It also applies to bacteria! The range of needs for bacteria is slim, but when they are present bacteria can be very prolific, multiplying themselves by the millions in mere minutes.
That is why food poisoning is so much more common in warm weather—and why you need to be especially careful now about preparing food and storing it.
The main rule to remember is that bacteria which are apt to cause food poisoning thrive best in lukewarm foods.
Thus if you make it a hard-fast habit to keep hot foods hot and cold foods cold, the chances of bacteria getting a foothold are slim.
However, there are certain foods that have proven to be more susceptible to bacteria's growth and the resulting food poisoning conditions.
For instance, egg and milk mixtures, including custards and meats, either in salads or sandwiches, and potato salad—one of the most popular picnic foods—are often quickly suspected when food infections occur in summer.
Making sandwiches and wrapping them in wax paper to let stand for hours before eating is SCUTTLING A SHIP
San Francisco, Calif.—On April 16 the World War II liberty ship William C. Ralston will be loaded with 6,500 tons of Army Lewisite gas cylinders and mustard gas bombs, towed out to sea and scuttled in water 2,257 fathoms deep.
The Army Chemical Corps says "dumping the chemicals in deep holes in the ocean involves no danger to human beings or fish."
It doesn't say why it will dispose of the gas.
Before chicle came into use tree resin was used for chewing gum.
The Great Chicago fire occurred in 1871, leaving homeless all but about 7,000 of a population of 77,000.
