Watch Your Step

I was introduced to an old proverb recently that states, "No bird ever flies too far for its tail to follow." And so it is with us. No deed we do is too slight for its tail to follow.

We understand the drives and motivations, sometimes unseen, that create a reason for the things we do.

Wildcats Host for District Banquet

The school cafeteria, on Jan. 15 at 7 p. m., was the scene of the District 1A-11 Football Award Banquet with the Crowell Wildcats, winner of the district as hosts.

Coach Amonett, as master of ceremonies, introduced Keith Swin, superintendent of the schools at Iowa Park.

Mr. Graves then presented Certificates of Commendation to the all-district and honorable mention players.

of life. He also stressed the importance of furthering one's education by attending college.

The football theme was carried out in the table decorations. At the head table was an attractive floral arrangement bearing a football and ball player, donated by the Crowell Flower Shop.

The banquet was prepared by the Underwood Catering Service of Wichita Falls, and was served by Roxie Adkins, Jo Frances Long, Kay Johnson, Alta Nell Bartley and Lois Shultz.

Bettie Knox and David Carpenter Are Senior Personalities of the Week

It has finally been announced! The book, "How to Master Deep Sleeping in Class," by the co-authors Bettie Knox and David Carpenter, is now in all the leading book stores in Crowell.

Her favorite foods are ham, potatoes and strawberry short cake. "My Happiness," by Connie Frances, is her favorite record, but she likes all "rock and roll" music.

When it is movie time, she enjoys any good romantic movie that stars Rock Hudson, Paul Newman or Elizabeth Taylor.

After graduation, Bettie plans to attend West Texas State College to major in child psychology.

to attend West Texas State College to major in child psychology.

Good luck, Bettie.

David Carpenter is 6' tall, has blue green eyes, black hair, and is eighteen years old.

His favorite meal consists of chicken fried steak, french fries, salad, and strawberry short cake.

David has been a class officer, class favorite, captain of the football team, most courteous boy, a Beast two years, and FFA officer.

His pet peeve is a "sniffer." David is undecided about which college he is going to attend.

A team had a hard time putting the ball through the hoop at first, but the guards, Adkins, Shultz, Simmons and Vessel, played a tremendous defensive game and held the Bearcats until the Wildcats successfully completed the game with a 47-36 score.

Three games were played here, Friday night, Jan. 16, against Electra. The boys' B team trounced the Electra B team 58-9.

on his office and knew that Blackie Dead Eye Sam's flying saucer had landed. Quickly he drew a disguise from the Handy Junior Detective Kit, jumped on his trusty motorcycle, and roared to the airport to challenge this hardened criminal.

The crowd waited in fearful suspense as Blackie Dead Eye Sam faced the disguised sheriff. They waited tensely as the outlaw's trigger finger twitched with impatience.

What will Sheriff El Zordilton Wayne Rodgers Cassidy do now that he faces this careless criminal? What will be the outcome of this fearsome meeting? Don't miss chapter 5!

Billy Don, and Freddie - Barbara. We hope you make it last time, kids!

We regret to lose Mary Akers from our study body, but we feel that she will enjoy Odessa.

Ronnie seems to like blue and white Pontiacs. I wonder why. Charlie seems to be wanting to go to Quannah a lot.

Jennie seems awful unhappy. Could it be because Eugene left? We hear Pat and Jimmy aren't going together anymore.

Gaye, you ought to be ashamed of yourself letting Jim Mack go with other girls.

Edward, you better watch out because I know two or three freshman girls who are trying to catch you.

Jo Carol, did you have fun at Estelline? We hear that Jerry - Ronald and Jeanie - Eugene had fun Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Bryant and Jo Carol has finally called it quits. Too bad, kids! Together Sunday were Peggy - Bubba, Carol - Dale, Jerry - Ronald, Gayle - Billy Don, Roxie - Gerald, Mary Ann - Albert, Ginger - Bobby, Larry - Jeanette, Boob - Kay, Jo - Wes, Taylor - Eilly, and George - Carria.

Did anyone notice the car Freddie drove to school Monday morning? It must be nice to be going steady.

Lonesome Valley—Chapter 3
As Sheriff El Zordilton Wayne Rodgers Cassidy sat uninterested at his desk, the fully compact, retractable flying saucer, bearing the feared outlaw, Blackie Dead-Eye Sam, landed at the Peace City airport.
His hands rested lightly on the notched handles of his deadly spear guns that hung in the holsters on his belt. The dangerous West Dallas special danger was clutched readily between the three rows of his teeth. His boots, genuine Levis, and Buck Rogers T-shirt bulged with concealed weapons. The power of fear gripped the dwindling crowds and workers on strike. No one dared to move! Casually, well aware of his feared position, he sauntered across the lobby to the snack bar. Suddenly his eyes crossed and centered on the sweet young innocent waitress that tumbled behind the counter. The crowd leaned forward and waited tensely for the words that were forming on his lips. Slowly, cautiously, he spoke: "How do you do, Madam. May I have a cup of tea, please?"
Blackie whirled suddenly, tripped on his genuine cowhide 36-inch boot, and faced the sedate looking gentleman that then approached the bar. The crowd could see the hate and anger that blazed in his eyes as they slowly uncrossed.
Lonesome Valley—Chapter 4
Blackie Dead Eye Sam faced the gentlemanly stranger that sat quietly at the counter and waited while the sweet innocent young waitress fearfully prepared the tea that he had ordered. The tense atmosphere hung heavily over the Peace City airport as the crowd gasped! One by one, they recognized the stranger. He was the one, the only champion trouble stopper, gun shot, rope artist, rider, tiddle wink player, the world renowned Sheriff of Peace City, Sheriff El Zordilton Wayne-Rodgers Cassidy.
He had tuned in his superionic wave beam interrupter as he sat

THIS WEEK -In Washington

Clinton Davidson

With the new Congress only a week old it is already apparent that Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson has as many troubles as anyone in Washington.

He starts out with a predominantly Democratic Congress that is sure to oppose his farm plans and, in general, make 1959 anything but a happy year for him.

Pigs and politics will be the principal cause of his woes. There will be too much of both. And, as if that were not enough, he'll have too much wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco and a few other surpluses.

During the past year Benson paid farmers almost a billion and a half dollars for farming practices principally designed to hold down production. Farmers, instead, produced bumper crops, 11 per cent larger than the previous record on the smallest acreage in 80 years.

The Bulging Budget

Benson believes that the costs of government farm programs are too high and that Congress should take steps to reduce them. But, he concedes, he hasn't much chance of reducing costs until the farm laws are changed.

Farm programs, which include such things as subsidized exports, the School Lunch program, etc., last year cost $6 billion. Unofficial estimates are that these programs may cost as much as $7 billion this year.

With the exception of the Department of Agriculture, the Department spends more money than any other government agency. Despite these expenditures, government holdings of farm surpluses have reached $7 billion, and may go to $8 billion within the next few weeks. Storage charges alone amount to more than $1 million a day.

The worst may be yet to come. With hog prices high for the past couple of years, farmers raised 17 per cent more pigs last fall for market next spring and, the USDA estimates, the spring pig crop will jump by 13 per cent over a year ago.

A Congressman's Best Friend

Dogs may be man's best friend, but any farm belt congressman will tell you that hogs are more important, politically. There are something like two million hog raisers and when prices go down farmers become very displeased.

The man they usually pin the blame on is the Secretary of Agriculture. Benson has been warning growers for two years to hold down their hog production, but that won't keep him from being blamed when prices drop.

And, if the forecasters are correct, other farm prices will be going down during the year. Even USDA economists who know that pessimistic predictions displease their boss, are forecasting a 5 to 10 per cent decline in 1959 farm prices.

Farmers squeezed between falling prices of the things they sell and rising prices of things they buy are in the habit of telling their troubles to their congressman. It is up to the congressman to place the blame.

While farm prices are going down, food prices almost certainly will be going up. In the past 10 years, farm prices have gone down 23 per cent, while food prices have increased by 27 per cent. Neither farmers nor consumers are happy about that.

Either way Benson can't win. Farmers blame him for the low prices they receive, and consumers kick because of higher food prices. Taxpayers object to the high cost of "farm subsidies." One thing Benson can count on: Hogs and Democrats will make life uncomfortable for him in 1959.

Living Costs Will Hold Steady for Next Few Months, Say Editors

Prices of everyday necessities will settle down for the next six to nine months, predict the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine. There may be mild increases in the price of hif, shoes and plumbing equipment, but reductions in such important areas as food and textile items will keep living costs in check.

Borrowing money, however, is going to be another story. It will get tougher. The screws are being tightened to contract the money supply available for lending as an anti-inflationary move. You'll feel the effects should you shop for a mortgage or attempt to finance a car. Prospective borrowers might as well face it—they will have trouble finding money and more trouble getting a loan at an interest rate within their expectations.

Legislatures Vote for Increase in Taxes

"It may be unhappy news for taxpayers that of 18 state legislatures that met to approve budgets this year, two-thirds of them increased taxes or changed collection procedures to bring in more money..."—Abilene, Kansas, Reflector-Chronicle.

Forecasts Spectacular Boom in Next Two Years

According to the Department of Commerce, the average size of families, statistically, is 3.05 persons. Rural farm families were the largest, with an average of 4.08. The total number of families as of last March was 43,700,000.

The Navy's newest floating airbase, the aircraft carrier USS Independence, is equipped with a modern 84-bed hospital and a dental department with the latest equipment.

Sales Tax on Advertising Ruled Unconstitutional

The highest court in Maryland has unanimously ruled that a 4 per cent sales tax and a 2 per cent gross receipts levy on advertising imposed by Baltimore is unconstitutional insofar as they apply to newspapers, radio and TV stations, and their customers.

Gasoline Is 18 Per Cent Cheaper Than in 1930

Today, says the American Petroleum Institute, a gallon of gasoline moves a ton of automobile 18 miles further than in 1930—and a gallon of gas (excluding taxes) is 18 per cent cheaper for the work it does than it was in 1930.

Hughton, S. S. Bell, M. S. Henry, A. Y. Beverly, L. A. Beverly, Paul Shirley, T. B. Klepper and Miss Lottie Woods. Tom Beverly left Sunday night for Texas where he has accepted a position as pharmacist in a drug store. Pete Gobin was in town yesterday from the Rayland community. Bible Halts Highway Robbery by Lowell Saunders, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago Missouri, the land of Jesse James, still has its highwaymen—complete with masks and six shooters! Just after midnight on August 24, my wife and I were driving west on highway 40 some 80 miles from Kansas City. A car which had been following closely for about 15 miles finally made a bid to pass. As it drew alongside, however, the driver began to crowd us off the road. His companion leveled his gun at the front of our car and fired five times to enforce his command to stop. We did. "Don't give us any trouble! Hand over your wallet," snapped a young man in his early 20's as the car ground to a halt. "Here you are," I said, handing it over. "Take this Bible, too," my wife called out as she thrust it toward him. "And here's a New Testament for your buddy to read!" The young bandits—shocked and speechless—meekly accepted the Scriptures. "God will punish you for this, but we'll pray for you that you might be saved." Returning my now-emptied wallet, the highwaymen ordered us to drive on. Then, doubling back on the road, they disappeared in the darkness, failing to ask for watches, rings, purse, typewriter and other valuables we carried. Why does the presence of a Bible halt the actions of a robber, hush the lips of a profaner and sober a drunk? Why do men fear the Bible and respect it? Because they recognize the Bible is from God and realize they will be judged by its sacred pages. Jesus said, "The word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him at the last day" (John 12:48). Perhaps these two young highwaymen will repent of their sins and turn to God. They have in their hands "the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus" (II Timothy 3:15). In June 1854 the first formal graduation ceremonies were held at the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Although classes had been graduating for eight years, this marked the first formal ceremony to be held.

Increase in Bankruptcies

"The increase in the number of bankruptcies may not mean that business, in general, has gone to pot. It does mean that some people have stuck their necks out too far. The creditors lose all chance of collecting and the debtors suffer the humiliation of being declared insolvent. The debtor also yields any assets he may have, beyond a few personal possessions, and has to start over from scratch. Surprisingly, many debtors who are discharged as bankrupts, can begin at once to accumulate new debts. They cannot go bankrupt again for six years but they can be mighty slow pay." —Norwich, N. Y., Chenango Union.

U. S. Should Avoid Ruinous Socialistic Pitfalls

"From news reports and the recent election in France, it seems both France and Great Britain, who have tried many socialistic schemes and found them wanting, are veering more to the conservative side in their governmental operations. "May the United States, which has been toying with entirely too many socialistic plans in its national life, watch closely our allies, and avoid ruinous pitfalls." —Port Gibson, Miss., Reveille. No man should have reason to complain if he is measured by his own yardstick. The man who looks before he leaps often gives the other fellow a chance to get in ahead of him.

Art of Finding Pleasure at Home Often Overlooked

"In the present age, when television, movies, automobiles, and many other luxuries we now enjoy take so much time, the art of finding pleasure and satisfaction at home, in the form of hobbies or projects, is sometimes overlooked." —Summerville, Ga., News.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Griffin have returned from visits with their children in Floydada, Pecos and Odessa, while Mr. Griffin was recovering from an operation. They were accompanied home by a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Oster, and children of Pecos. Classroom Failures Should Not Worry Parents "If your child has classroom failures, parents, don't be concerned — that would be the advice of Stanley E. Diamond, the University of Michigan, who believes that classroom failures should be accepted as part of 'growing up.' "He reminds parents . . . is probably impossible to make in our society without experiencing failure. The good is not in failure, but in the overcoming failure' . . ." —Boonton, N. J., Times-Bulletin. We judge ourselves by what we feel are our capabilities; the world judges us by what we accomplish.

The Road Toll

by Jerry Marcus

Collisions with fixed objects added 143,080 casualties to the road toll.

"On those planes there was no vibration and I could read or write as easily as if at my desk at home," he commented.

The trip was made possible by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. E. Hamblen of Dallas.

"The modern world has moved over into the ancient world," Dr. Hamblen said. "The Near East is certainly in a ferment. Moslem guards with modern machine guns stand at ready."

At Rome Dr. Hamblen entered the catacombs where early Christians hid away, and the Colosseum where they were offered to the ferocity of hungry lions before thousands of spectators. In Rome he said he stood in the dungeon where Paul was confined before his dispatch.

King Tut's Tomb
At Cairo, a city of 3,000,000, everything was hum and bustle. Nasser, Egyptian ruler, he found popular. During the two-day stay in Egypt he visited the pyramids, riding round them on a camel. In one he saw the gold-lined tomb of old King Tutankamen, who was buried there in the 14th century before Christ.

A flight across the Suez canal, and over land mostly sand and waste, brought him to the Holy Land. He visited the ancient tomb of the patriarch Abraham, saw the purported place where Jesus was born, and viewed the expanse of prairie where the angels announced to the shepherds the birth of Christ.

In Jerusalem he saw still extant biblical scenes described in both the Old and the New Testament. There was the "upper room," the walls of the city, with its gates through which Stephen was taken to his martyrdom, and its court of justice where Jesus was mock-tried. Out on the hill Dr. Hamblen stood and surveyed the city of Jerusalem as Jesus did nearly 2000 years ago and wept over its impending destruction in A. D. 72. He stood at the site where Jesus was crucified, walked down the path to the tomb where he was interred.

"I'm confident the cave hewn out of solid rock was where His body was laid," Dr. Hamblen said. "I went in, knelt, rededicated my life. It was an awesome feeling. And I better understood the gospel account that says the 'stone was rolled to the door.' In the rock floor before the tomb was a deep groove that flanged the rock that was rolled to seal up the body of Christ."

Temptation
Dr. Hamblen viewed the Mount of Temptation where Christ underwent 40 days of satanic entreaties to submit to early inducements.

An impressive sight was ancient Jericho, the city whose walls fell under the blasts of trumpets and the marching of the Israelites round it. The city was cursed—and the curse still remains, Dr. Hamblen remarked.

"The site has been excavated," he continued. "I stood on the rim of that excavation, peered deep into the bottom and saw ruins of ancient buildings and temples. Excavators recovered coins of ancient time and other mementoes of the long ago."

Dr. Hamblen said he crossed the Jordan river, then swollen, and laved his feet in its waters. Farther he approached troubled Trans-Jordan and just missed an interview through an interpreter with King Hussein, a youth and courageous leader.

"The trip did things to me," Dr. Hamblen said. "I was deeply impressed. What I saw heightened my faith in God and indicated to me the authenticity and truth of the Bible."

Dagger Whip
He brought back many souvenirs. One is a camel whip with a handle of inset stones. Its stock pulled apart becomes a long dagger, evidently used by camel drivers when attacked on the desert.

Dr. Hamblen has received several invitations from churches over the nation to relate his experiences in the Holy Land.

Accompanying him on his tours of the Holy Land were Dr. C. P. Haggard, assistant general superintendent of the Evangelical Methodist Church and president of Azusa College, Azusa, Calif.; Dr.

Bro. Hamblen Returns from Trip to Holy Land

(The following item was taken from the Abilene Reporter-News.)

Flying at 600 miles an hour in a jet airplane, Dr. J. H. Hamblen, 82-year-old general superintendent of The Evangelical Methodist Church, has just completed a 3-week visit to Paris, Rome, Athens, troubled Beirut and the Holy Land.

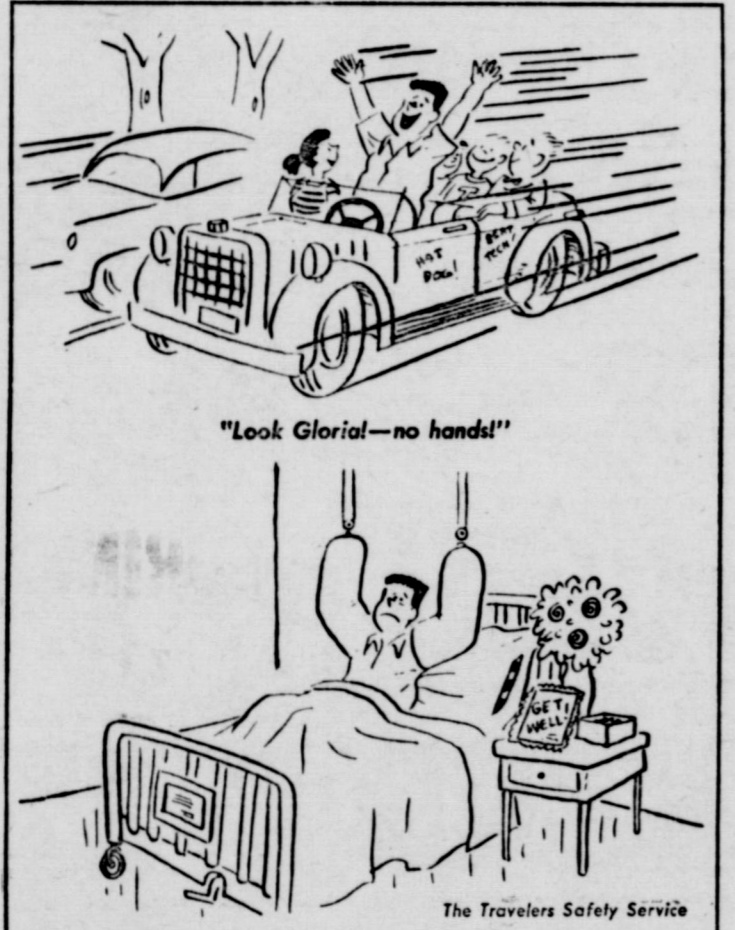

In two messages at the Palm St. Evangelical Methodist Church Sunday, Dr. Hamblen took his congregation on a verbal journey to scenes hallowed by Christ and the early apostles. The morning talk described the trip to the catacombs and the Colosseum in Rome, to Mars Hill in Athens, and his experiences in troubled Beirut, where he spoke to the student body of a Christian college.

The evening message concerned a recital of experiences in Cairo, Egypt, his flight over the Land of Goshen where the Israelites lived centuries in bondage, and of visits to the birthplace of Jesus, shrines in and about Jerusalem, to Jericho (now being excavated), and to the swollen Jordan river and Jordan itself.

Eight Nations
In all he traveled in eight countries. Everywhere, he said, as an American he was treated well. At Beirut the student body greeted him and listened to his message through an interpreter. At the close, they pressed him eagerly to learn about Texas.

He flew from New York to Paris on a jet airliner. The return trip was from London. The jet liner landed at Amarillo instead of Dallas because of a dense fog.

Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Tex.—Some cheered and some wept, but none will soon forget the eventful, suspenseful opening day of the House of Representatives of the 56th Legislature.

Waggoner Carr became the third man in recent history to win a second term as Speaker of the House; and Joe Burkett became the only one in many years to lose by so close a vote—79 to 71.

Burkett and Carr had been in a hard-fought contest for a year and a half. Burkett, from Kerrville in the Hill country, is a staunch conservative. Carr, from Lubbock in the South Plains, had more liberal support.

When the day came, every representative was present, and the floor and galleries were jammed with spectators. Secretary of State Zollicoffer presided as temporary presiding officer. An elaborate voting procedure was agreed upon to safeguard secrecy and assure fairness.

Representatives filed to the front of the chamber, one by one, had their folded ballots initiated by the clerk and then placed them personally in the ballot box. Six watchers, three representing each candidate, stood by.

The ballot box was opened and results called out, one by one. Only sound in the large chamber was the scratching of the pens of many score keepers, and the occasional fidgeting or gasping as the lead saw-sawed between the candidates.

A cheer went up as Carr received his victory-assuring 70th vote. A round of hand shaking, back slapping and congratulating began. Following the final count, a procession composed of Carr's family and supporters escorted the Lubbock representative to the rostrum to take the oath of office.

ON WITH THE SHOW—After the opening dust had settled, legislators turned to their everyday concerns.

Most immediate and pressing problem was finding money to operate the Legislature. Since the general revenue fund, was state's main monetary cupboard, here (worse still, in debt), there wasn't so much as a nickel on hand to pay salaries of the lawmakers and their helpers, nor even for stamps, stationery, phone calls and travel. A bill was offered to appropriate $2,300,000 that had accumulated in two special funds.

Several plans were being talked about to solve the even more vexatious long-term problem of overall budget balancing. To do so will involve finding money to pay off an expected general fund deficit of $85,000,000 plus some $130,000,000 in new money to meet expected expenses for 1960-61. Only alternative would be numerous and painful economies.

Generally, there seem to be two schools of thought developing on taxation: (1) those who hope to avoid a new tax by upping many present levies, such as selective sales taxes, removing several exemptions and re-shuffling funds here and there and (2) those who say the present tax blanket can't be stretched any further and that "pot shot, patch work" taxation should be replaced by an over-all plan to distribute the increasing cost of government among more people.

PANORAMA—Other items for record of what promises to be an historic Legislature: Senator George Parkhouse of Dallas is new president pro tempore of the Senate, and as such, third in line to the governor. An outdoor advertising executive, Parkhouse is beginning his third Senate term.

No free overtime, resolved Senators in one of their first official acts, a resolution to quit on the dot May 12 when the 120-day pay period runs out. House members cheered the announcement.

A famous name returned to public life as Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin took the oath as senator. Former Congressman Martin Dies Sr., long identified with the Dies Un-American Activities Investigating Committee, came to see his son sworn in.

"Baby of the House" is Rep. Jack Connell Jr. of Wichita Falls, youngest person ever to sit in the House. Connell was 21 years old just 14 days on general election day.

A football star when he's not a lawmaker is Yale Lary, freshman representative from Fort Worth. Lary, a defensive back for the Detroit Lions pro team, was a college star for Texas A&M.

One governor's son succeeded another as W. P. Hobby Jr. was named parliamentarian of the Senate, a post held last session by Dan Moody Jr.

An early crisis was averted when the House sergeant-at-arms pushed a spittoon to the desk of anti-dipping Rep. Jerry Sadler of Pecos. Spittoons, once a standard accessory, had gotten lost in the chamber's revamping.

Folks with money-spending ideas had best be armed with money-finding ideas when they come to the Legislature this year. This warning was issued by Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria in an Austin address.

Third House has its own ceremonies this year as, for the first time, lobbyists are required to register under the new law. From the length and variety of the list, there is a lobbyist for practically everything and everybody—teachers, farmers, firemen, policemen, labor unions, industries and even church groups.

GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENTS—Gov. Price Daniel has appointed Secretary of State Zollicoffer to a second term and promoted two assistants in the governor's office.

George Christian, former press assistant, becomes executive assistant, taking over non-legal duties of Jake Jacobsen. Jacobsen left to enter private law practice.

John Goldsum was promoted to administrative assistant and will take over Jacobsen's legal duties.

PAY FOR SECRETARIES DEBATED—One of the first issues for debate in the 56th Legislature was pay for secretaries of Senate and House members. Generally accepted rate is $14 per day for Senate secretaries and $10 for the House. But a resolution must be passed setting amounts of the salaries, at the beginning of each session. Rep. Obie Jones of Austin said House secretaries should receive $12 a day because the $10-a-day figure was embarrassing to House secretaries when they met their Senate counterparts during coffee breaks. Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria pointed out that the state couldn't afford the increase. "Maybe," he said, "we'll have to pay them out of our own pockets," and he pointed out that not all Senate secretaries received $14—that some of them were paid as low as $7 per day.

Lot to Be Thankful For
"Those of us who live in this nation have a lot to be thankful for—we are not at war; our economy is standing up very well; our standards of living continue on the up-side; our health, as a people, continues to improve; there is more tolerance, less bigotry; we have a most wonderful form of government in which the dignity of the individual as well as his freedom is preserved; we have the right to attend and follow the teaching of the church of our choice; we have the right to express our thoughts and opinions. "But we shouldn't become complacent. Complacency has taken a heavy toll of nations over the centuries and it could happen to us. . . ."—Tinley Park, Illinois, Times.

Opportunity to Earn a Profit
"The man with money will invest risk capital when there is opportunity to earn a profit. When he invests his money he creates jobs. Experience shows that people go where jobs are plentiful. No one objects to a sales tax, or any other tax for that matter, if job security is to be found. But we can't and won't have job security so long as we have no incentive for risk capital."—Roseburg, Ore., The News-Review.

Science Has Only Begun Study of Mental Illness
"There is no disgrace when one becomes mentally ill. The only difference in this form of sickness and other forms is that science has only just begun its studies into cures for mental illness, and therefore, it is widely misunderstood. But about half the cases of mental illness can be cured, and the people afflicted restored to completely normal life again, if proper treatment is provided. And no stigma should be attached to the treatment."—London, Ky., Sentinel-Echo.

Miscellaneous Shower Given to Honor Mrs. Joe Don Thompson

A bridal shower was given at the Adolphian Club house Saturday afternoon, January 17, to honor Mrs. Joe Don Thompson, who before her marriage was Miss Patsy Mechel.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Bernice Sanders who presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Thompson, the bride; Mrs. Ed Mechel, her mother; and Mrs. W. C. Thompson, mother of the groom.

Piano music was furnished by Misses Janie Bowers and Judy Borchardt.

Mrs. Dwayne Boren presided at the bride's book and the guests were directed to the dining room by Miss Bettye Duncan.

Blue and silver were the chosen colors of the bride and they predominated in the decorations in the dining room. A white satin cloth covered the table which featured a bouquet of white baby's breath in a blue setting and were flanked by blue candles glittering with silver.

Streamers of blue ribbon and lettered in silver held the words, "Joe Don—Patsy," running from the crystal card tables. Miss Donna Norris and Mrs. Bud Hammonds served white sherbet punch from a crystal punch bowl set in a matching stand containing greenery, crescent cookies, mixed nuts and mints were also served.

Mrs. R. C. Sanders directed the guests from the dining room into the gift room where Mrs. Marla Thompson, Mrs. Henry Hrabal and Mrs. Charlie Bartley displayed the many lovely gifts.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Gilbert Lakford and Vicky of Quanah and Mrs. Jim Austin of Vernon.

Hostesses were Misses Donna Norris and Bettye Duncan, and Mesdames Dwayne Boren, Bernice Sanders, Marlin Thompson, Donald Norris, Charlie Bartley, R. C. Sanders, Bud Hammonds and Henry Hrabal.

Following the invocation given by Mrs. Laura Johnson, a sack lunch was enjoyed with the host church serving drinks.

In the afternoon session, Mrs. W. E. Bradford, secretary, read the minutes and gave a financial report. Rev. E. E. White presented Mrs. Henry Borchardt with a Life Membership pin from the sub-district.

Thalia Methodists Enjoy Family Night Last Friday

Last Friday evening the monthly "Family Night" basket supper was held at the Thalia Methodist Church. "Winter Wonderland" was the theme carried out in the decorations. Snowflakes, icicles, snowmen and eskimos decorated the walls.

After a delicious meal, the group joined in some recreation.

The film strip, "Family on Trial," was shown by Rev. Garner Berg. It emphasizes the responsibilities of Christian parent-hood.

Colored slides which had been taken in the church the last few months were then shown. These were pictures of the different activities which have taken place, such as vacation Bible school, rally day, family night programs, and also the community Christmas pageant which was presented at the school in December.

At the conclusion of the evening's activities, Rev. Berg dismissed the group with prayer.
