

City Council Informed of Possible New Source of Water for Crowell

Members of the Crowell City Council and several other Crowell residents heard Roland W. Walden, president of the Security National Bank in Quanah, give a general outline of the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority's plans to build a dam on Salt Fork of Red River which could supply plenty of water for towns in this area. Although Crowell is not among the seven towns who are member cities of the authority, Mr. Walden expressed the viewpoint that if Crowell residents were interested in the project, he thought that it could be worked out for Crowell to participate.

Although there are seven member cities in the authority at the present time, the cost of the project was figured only with Clarendon, Hedley, Childress, Paducah and Quanah. Wellington has been interested only in a county-wide project and Memphis can not go any further with the authority until the city buys its present water system which is privately owned.

Total cost of the project will be $9,818,000 which is $4,000,000 less than estimated as the most of the project at the Collinsworth County Little Gyp Site which would have impounded more water but tests have showed that the water at that site would not be fit for human consumption.

The cost also includes a filtration plant.

Tests of the water at the present site, which is north of Lelia Lake and has been named the Greenbelt site, shows that the average hardness during drought years will be 160 parts per million.

The water will be approved by both state and federal health departments.

The financing, according to Mr. Walden, can be handled entirely by water revenue bonds and will be paid off in 35 years.

Jim Nichols, consulting engineer for the firm of Freese, Nichols and Endress, said, "I was surprised that the project could be financed without voting a tax and that it could be paid out in less than 40 years."

At the present time, the authority does not know whether they will finance it with federal aid or with state aid or even through private funds, but they are going to take the best possible route for the users.

The engineering report based its findings with state aid.

Once the bonds are voted for the project, it will take approximately two years to complete.

Water to Childress, Clarendon, Hedley and Quanah will be sold for approximately 35 cents a thousand gallons, treated and delivered to the respective towns' water towers.

Should Memphis come into the project, the cost will be reduced to all cities about 2.6 cents per thousand gallons.

The dam site is the finest yet and is the result of a number of years of searching and testing the area for what is believed to be the last adequate supply of good water in this area.

An important factor in the storage of water, especially in West Texas, is the evaporation factor. The water impounded in the Greenbelt project will be 76 feet deep at the damsite and will average about 35 feet in depth over the entire lake. This means less evaporation and much better water.

The projection shows that the project will produce two and a third times the amount of water the member cities will be using in the year 2000. The report also shows there will be plenty of water for Memphis, Wellington, Hollis, Crowell, Chillicothe, Shamrock and McLean to join.

According to Mr. Walden, the cost of a pipeline from Quanah to Crowell would be included in the original bonds, and that the only thing Crowell would have to do would be to sign a contract to buy so much of the water each day, to be in line with what is ordinarily consumed here.

A letter accompanied the report of the engineering firm which was written by S. W. Freese. The letter follows:

"Herewith find engineering report on water supply from Salt Fork of Red River made in compliance with your agreement with the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency. The report recommends a reservoir on the upper Salt Fork near the center of Donley County with a capacity of 90,000 acre feet. Core borings of the proposed dam site have been made and detailed plans and specifications for the dam have been prepared, ready for the receipt of bids on construction.

"Other than cost, the critical water supply reservoir on the Salt Fork has always been the quality of the water. Some ten years of chemical analysis of daily samples of the flow of the Salt Fork, taken at U. S. Highway 83 north

Truscott Girls Spent Tuesday, June 18, at Camp Maku ala

Nine young campers spent Tuesday, June 18, at Camp Maku ala, west of Truscott, under the direction of Sue Eubank and Kay Looney. The camp was directed by the two junior high students without adult assistance. Nancy Williams of Floydada assisted in planning the day's schedule.

No adults felt free to sponsor a camp so Sue and Kay borrowed books from the Truscott Camp Fire Girl group and planned day camp. Nancy, an 11-year-old visitor in Truscott, was the other person helping plan the camp. Crafts were planned with used available materials. No fee were charged for the camp.

Both girls are interested in entering Junior Hi Camp Fire and are investigating the possibility of forming a rural group in Truscott. Rural groups are given special permission to organize even though the membership is less than the recommended minimum.

Campers met at 8 a. m. in the Truscott post office for a brief flag ceremony. J. B. Eubank drove them to Camp Maku ala on the banks of China Creek near the Jack W. Brown home.

Upon arrival, each girl made a name card, using an Indian name. Then the camp directors made a short nature hike to find Indian name butterflies, wild flowers and cloud formations.

Other activities included making and autographing a flag decorated with Indian symbols for each girl. Lecture and discussion of Indian and Indian ways, and making rock or curler boxes decorated with rock and charcoal faces.

Campers ate sack lunches and roasted marshmallows for dessert.

All planned activities were interspersed with free periods to allow time for many games and songs to keep the young campers whose average age was 10, interested in each activity.

Among those attending the camp were Bette Sue Barry, Nancy wan ka; Nancy Looney, W. ki ya; Elvera Palacio, W. ki ya; Shirley Robinson, Ma me; Nancy Williams, Ta yi to; Brown, Ya ka ni; Jacqeline Brown, Ko ki ka; Kay Bob Brown, Yellow Hawk; Kay Looney, kon ya; and Sue Eubank, W. ki ka pa.

Two Minutes with the Bible

Are You Sure?
Would you like to have the assurance and the promise of heaven? Would you be sure of heaven? Well, the first step to heaven is to realize that you cannot get there by trying. You can't walk there. You can't climb there. You can't fly there. Only God can take you there. Many try to earn it. They try to climb there on a ladder of good works. They talk about "adding another rung." But look out for that good works ladder! It's not anchored at the top and the higher you climb the farther you will fall.
God's Word says that salvation is "the gift of God, not of works lest any man should boast" (Eph. 2:8,9). He is not going to have boasters in heaven—there are enough of them on earth and nobody likes them.
All of us should realize that even the best are not good enough for heaven, for "all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23), but in this same statement the Apostle Paul declares that believers in Christ, who died for our sins, are "justified freely by His grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 5:1).
So, friend, it is not by trying, or crying, or praying, or paying, or doing anything that you will reach heaven—it is only by believing. God says He loves sinners, and that Christ died for our sins. Will you believe this and trust Christ as your own Savior?
"For the Father loveth the Son and hath given all things into His hands. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life, and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him" (Jn. 3:35, 36). It's as simple as that.

USDA Reviews

Program Provisions for '64 Wheat Crop

The wheat program for 1964 under provisions of existing law are reviewed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in response to questions that have arisen since the referendum of May 21.

Price support will be available to producers who plant within the acreage allotments which have been established for the 1964 wheat crop. Allotments were announced in April. The national average support price will be 50 per cent of parity. (The present parity price is $2.50 per bushel.) There will be no marketing quota penalties for planting in excess of acreage allotments. However, the statute provides that producers who overplant their allotments will receive "history" credit only in the amount of their allotments.

Farmers who have Conservation Reserve contracts agreed to plant within their farm acreage allotments, and this means that the 1964 Conservation Reserve payment for the farm is dependent on compliance with the wheat acreage allotment.

Wheat that was grown in excess of marketing quotas in the past will be subject to the original penalty provisions until July 1, 1964. After that date, stored excess wheat may be released without penalty. The amount of such wheat in storage on farms and in warehouses is estimated at 45 million bushels. This could be increased from the 1963 crop, which is subject to marketing quotas, and excess wheat from this crop may be stored by the producer to avoid payment of the penalty. On the other hand, un-derplanting or underproduction of 1963-crop wheat could result in the early release of excess wheat that had been stored from previous crops to avoid payment of penalty.

Other items of interest to growers in administration of the 1964 wheat program without marketing quotas include:
—ASC county committees will hear all appeals of 1964 farm wheat acreage allotments. Farmers have 15 days from the date of the county committee's decision to appeal to the ASC State Committee if they do not agree with the county committee decision.
—Hearings on appeals of farm normal yields will not be scheduled because the yield figures will not be applicable for 1964. Where producers wish to furnish proven yield data, such data will be filed

Wheat that was grown in excess of marketing quotas in the past will be subject to the original penalty provisions until July 1, 1964. After that date, stored excess wheat may be released without penalty. The amount of such wheat in storage on farms and in warehouses is estimated at 45 million bushels. This could be increased from the 1963 crop, which is subject to marketing quotas, and excess wheat from this crop may be stored by the producer to avoid payment of the penalty. On the other hand, un-derplanting or underproduction of 1963-crop wheat could result in the early release of excess wheat that had been stored from previous crops to avoid payment of penalty.

Other items of interest to growers in administration of the 1964 wheat program without marketing quotas include:
—ASC county committees will hear all appeals of 1964 farm wheat acreage allotments. Farmers have 15 days from the date of the county committee's decision to appeal to the ASC State Committee if they do not agree with the county committee decision.
—Hearings on appeals of farm normal yields will not be scheduled because the yield figures will not be applicable for 1964. Where producers wish to furnish proven yield data, such data will be filed and get lost...

Chevy II Wagons—
The hilt of a suitcase. The rustle of a road map. There's something about one of these spruce, surprisingly spacious wagons that can turn even the routine preparations into a happy part of your trip.
Take that old bugaboo of packing for instance. No bother. With the kind of room you get in that easy-loading cargo compartment, you can just about toss things in any old whichway and come out with space to spare. The load won't dampen the spirits of the spunky 6-cylinder engine either. It just hums along passing up gas pumps (there's also a choice of an even thrifter 4 in most models) like it didn't have a care in the world. Fact is, it has far fewer cares than most engines—being built with the special knack Chevrolet engineers have for dependability and ease of maintenance.
Like a car with ginger—without a lot of needless gingerbread? Your dealer's got a full line of Chevy II's to pick from. Why not drop down and check now while the trading and the traveling are especially good?

 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Tex.—Former Railroad Commissioner Bill Murray has been exonerated by the Travis County grand jury of any criminal wrongdoing in his personal business relations with the oil industry while a member of the Commission.

Murray's duties as one of the commissioners included the drafting of rules regulating the oil industry.

It was the feeling of the grand jury that his personal investments in the oil business had in no way influenced his decisions as a commissioner.

Gov. John Connally previously had released a report, presented to him by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, to the effect that an investigation of Murray's personal income tax reports had revealed that he had made more than $1,600,000 from his oil investments while serving on the commission.

This report was turned to the grand jury.

Murray resigned from the commission several weeks ago when the conflict of interest question arose. He admitted at the time that he had been making such investments but emphatically declared they in no way influenced his decisions.

DISREGARDING DISREGARDERS—Governor Connally says the Senate-House appropriations conference committee, which came up with the state budget bill that he has protested so vigorously, never bothered to look at his budget recommendation.

Connally claims this was one reason higher education was "short changed" in the appropriations bill.

In a recent meeting of the Legislative Budget Board, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith said the same sort of situation, was in legislators' disregard governor's recommendation, could apply to the Governor's Committee to Study Education Beyond the High School. (No legislators serve on the 25-member committee.)

So the Legislative Budget Board, made up of state Senators and Representatives, set up its own college study committee, and ordered its staff to study problems of financing the state's 20 colleges.

Sen. Galloway Calhoun of Tyler, who asked for the board study, said he was afraid the state might run private colleges out of business by creating more tax-supported colleges. He also said that students should bear "a more reasonable portion of the cost" of their college education.

This statement could be interpreted as a preface to state-college tuition increases in the fall of 1965.

INDUSTRIAL PICTURE LOOKS GOOD—Texas fell from the second place to fourth among the Top Ten States in Industrial Development last month.

But B. R. Shelton, assistant director of the Texas Industrial Commission, said the report does not show a clear picture.

Actually, says Shelton, industry is developing in Texas at a more rapid pace than it did in 1962. At that time the state finished third among the 50 states contending for new industries.

In the month preceding the report, 24 new plants were opened in 15 cities. These included small towns like Georgetown, Refugio, Littlefield and Lewisville, as well as metropolitan cities.

DEATH KNEEL FOR BRACERO PROGRAM—Congress killed the Bracero program and set a burial date of December 31 when it refused to extend the agreement to import Mexican farm laborers for two more years.

It may help agriculture workers in other states, but Henry LeBlanc, Director of the Texas Employment Commission's farm labor division, says it won't help Texas' farm workers.

It might even hurt local workers, LeBlanc allowed, "because the Bracero program has kept the pay rate up."

Absence of the Bracero competition, LeBlanc explained, could result in lower wages for this state's workers.

It is rumored that Colorado lawmakers plan to introduce a bill to extend the Bracero program there for one year. Purpose is to allow more time for readjustment of the farm labor system.

COASTAL PARK PIER PLANED—State Parks Board has granted a permit for an elaborate, 900-foot fishermen's pier which would stretch across narrow Velasco State Park into the Gulf of Mexico.

Park is a 26-mile long stretch of sand, of undetermined width, covering the coastal front of Brazoria County in the Freeport area.

Developers expect to complete the $40,000 pier and connect it with a $25,000 acre land development in two months.

PLEASURE CITY—State School Land Board accepted the only bid it received for a contract to lease state submerged land to build a 10,000-foot long channel from Corpus Christi to a proposed multi-million dollar pleasure city on Mustang Island.

Bid-winner was Mustang Beach Development Corporation. It is the same organization (owned by Piper Aircraft Corporation) that intends to develop 900 acres of Mustang Island into a Marina City, complete with homes, personal boat slips, industry and recreation facilities.

Channel is expected to cost $100,000 and will be available, free, for public use.

SUPREME COURT HOLDS

FIRM—State Supreme Court overruled Attorney General Carr's motion for a rehearing of the case, Government Services Insurance Underwriters et al versus 53rd District Judge Herman Jones. It stood firm on its earlier ruling that legislative continuances are constitutional.

Texas' 20-year-old legislative continuance law provides automatic postponement of court hearings and trials for parties represented by legislator-lawyers when the Legislature is in session.

Carr has been backing Judge Jones' contention that the law is unconstitutional.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULING—Attorney general has ruled that a recently-passed bill by Rep. Forrest Harding of San Angelo gave the State Highway Commission authority to alter maximum speed limits. Commission could set them as high as 70 miles per hour.

Also it could set minimum speed limits on controlled access highways, whether within or without a city's limits, regardless of any speed limit set by city ordinance.

ESCHEAT PROCESS SLOW—It took the 1961 Legislature two special sessions to pass escheat-reporting laws to insure the state's right to dormant personal property and bank accounts, unclaimed for more than seven years by owners whose whereabouts are unknown.

To date more than $1,600,000 has been collected by the state.

Most came from the "bank escheat" law, which became effective on May 3, 1962. Law requires banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions to publicize dormant accounts in an attempt to uncover lost owners. Unclaimed deposits then are turned over to the state.

So far, this has totaled $1,340,493.15. A provision in the law allows a person claiming interest in escheated properties to recover his money. This has caused $1,686.68 to be refunded.

Originally, utility companies, county treasurers, insurance firms, court officers and others affected by the first escheat-reporting law reported more than $3,300,000 worth of unclaimed holdings.

However, by the time public notice was given, the amount dwindled to $2,260,691.88. Newspaper publicity relative to the new act resulted in numerous inquiries and claims.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

IF YOU KNEW WHAT THIS "CAR KILLER" KNOWS...YOU'D BE DRIVING A SOLID, SILENT SUPER TORQUE FORD

This steel-edged pothole is probably the world's toughest test of a car's suspension. We drive into this car killer at 30 mph, locking our brakes as we go so the wheels can't roll through the hole as they normally would. The car slams against the far edge of the hole with such impact that it literally bounces out.

If you added up the cumulative effect of all the jars and jolts your car's suspension system experiences in years of normal driving, it wouldn't match the impact of one trip through the hole. Yet—a Ford must run this test three times to prove its strength.

How can a Ford take it? Because Ford's front suspension has extra beef in spindles, springs, suspension arms—in fact, it's about 20 pounds heavier than the front suspension of our principal competitor's car.

We don't expect you to abuse your car the way we do our test cars. But, however you drive, you'll welcome the extra strength of a total performance Ford. Ford strength is tested in a thousand ways in Ford's laboratories and proving grounds—and in open competition in the world's toughest rallies and stock car events.

Look at Ford's astounding record in open competition this year in the grueling Daytona, Riverside, and Atlanta 500's, the World 600 at Charlotte, N.C., and in the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials. Only a car with total performance—the best combination of strength, balance, precision control and road-clinging suspension—could roll up so many wins.

Before you buy any new car, test-drive the solid, silent Super Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Make this important discovery: if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance...total performance.

"Don't speak to me," grunted Marcus Mills.

"I'm gonna cut the wires on the sound system," threatened Dan Mike Bird.

I guess you just can't violate one of the oldest superstitions in all baseball. Leslie Hopkins and Billy Hord had pitched no-hit all the way. Two were out in the final inning. The bases were loaded. The stupid announcer then told the crowd that a no-hitter had been pitched—lacking one more out.

So Jimmy Johnson hit the very next pitch, a double to left-center field that scored three runs. You just can't afford to violate the sacred laws of baseball!

(Hub Fish and Richard Blackburn were much more reasonable about it all.)

"I SURE wanted to see our kids get ONE hit," said Hub Fish. "Sure appreciate your help," said Richard.)

I guess Bill Erwin reads his press notices. At any rate he came through for the Tigers last Thursday night to help that group win its first game of the season. Bill got the only genuine basehit of the contest and struck out two Rattlesnakes in the final inning. And, from now on in, each contest should be a toss-up.

Do you realize that the league championship may be decided in the final game of the final night of the current season? Splitting their two-game series of last week, VFW and Crowell State Bank, going into the final double round-robin can, quite possibly, pull into that final week with still only a half-game separating the two. However, Farmers Elevator and Foard County Mill may possibly be spoilers with an upset game or two over the top two teams. Well, as we remarked earlier in the season: It's a great year for the fans but a tough one for the managers!

Every Little Leaguer will want to be present Friday (tomorrow) night. A photographer will be on hand, and pictures will be taken of all four teams. Make sure that your smiling face is present with the other dozen of your team!

Price Fixing Always Ends in Failure

Letter to Barron's, National Business & Financial Weekly:

"... Price fixing has been tried thousands of times and always ended in failure. Let me remind you of three famous occasions: In the reigns of Tiberius, Domitian and Commodus, price fixing was tried and immediately created a black market; in Domitian's reign, sellers in the black market were executed, but the black market still persisted. How blind can our leaders be to the past? — John Pennywitt.

Miscellaneous Bridal Shower Saturday Honors Mrs. Borchardt

The Community Center was the scene of a miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Mrs. Bob Borchardt last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Howard Ferguson greeted guests and presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Revis Harris, mother of the bride; Mrs. Borchardt, the honoree; Mrs. Pearl Sims of Floydada, grandmother of the bride; and Mrs. Henry Borchardt, mother of the groom.

Mrs. Borchardt was attired in a soft blue jersey sheath with a matching linen full length sleeveless jacket. She wore a yellow gladiola and camelia corsage, a gift of the hostesses.

Miss Alta Nell Bartley registered the guests in a white leather bride's book. An arrangement of daisies using the bride's chosen colors of yellow and white completed the decor. Guests were directed to the refreshment table by Mrs. Thomas A. Bond, sister of the groom.

The serving table was laid with an exquisite white linen cloth with cut-out work over yellow cotton.

Crystal appointments and white napkins inscribed in gold with "Lynda and Bob" were used in serving. A bridal stairway, made by Mrs. W. L. Johnson, and a silver candelabra enhanced with white dahlias and snap dragons adorned the other end of the table. Assisting in serving were Mesdames Jim W. Henry and Jim Mack Gafford, and Misses Mary Sue Speer and Carria Driver.

Misses Lanette Lemons and Gayle Smith furnished incidental music.

The hostesses' gift to the bride was an electric mixer.

Other out-of-town relatives attending were Mrs. C. L. Record and Donna Lynn of Lockney and Mrs. Dale Blaine of Vernon.

Hostesses were Mesdames Howard Ferguson, Lee Black, W. L. Johnson, Ted Reeder, Bert Ekern, Frank Cooper, Elton Carroll, Gordon Erwin, Bill McClain, James Sandlin, Irving Fisch, Percy Taylor, Cecil Driver and Miss Mary Sue Speer.

Mrs. Borchardt was presented with a corsage of yellow carnations with miniature cooking utensils by the hostesses.

The focal point in the living room was a ming tree covered with yellow birds. Each bird held a verse telling Mrs. Borchardt where to look for her kitchen gadgets. They were hidden in various spots in the house and yard.

of Wellington, at the mouth of Whitefish Creek and at State Highway 70 north of Clarendon, indicate that 90,000-acre foot reservoir at the proposed Greenbelt site will catch all of the runoff of the upper Salt Fork which is of usable quality for municipal and industrial purposes. The water from the reservoir below the mouth of Whitefish Creek, as originally contemplated, would not be of usable quality for municipal purposes. Water from the proposed Greenbelt reservoir will be of good chemical quality.

"The proposed Greenbelt reservoir will have an estimated dependable yield of 13.7 million gallons of water per day, during a critical drought period, which is two and one-third times the presently estimated requirements of the authority of 5.84 million gallons per day as of year 2000. The Greenbelt reservoir is the only economical and feasible source of surface water of good quality for a large area of Northwest Texas centering on the Greenbelt cities. Sooner or later, there will be a demand for all of the water which can develop at the Greenbelt site. The recent amendment to the State Constitution and the enabling act, passed by the legislature in the current session, permits the Texas Water Development Board to purchase storage space in a reservoir where such purchase will insure the optimum development of a reservoir site and where the sponsor cannot afford the optimum development.

"It is therefore proposed to sell to the Water Development Board an undivided 57 1/2 per cent interest in the Greenbelt reservoir, which is estimated to cost $4,900,000 (state's share, $2,300,000 and authority's share, $1,700,000).

Indications Are Traffic Deaths in '63 to Be Highest

The director of the Texas Department of Public Safety reported this week the state is approaching the mid-point in the year amid definite indications that traffic deaths will hit an all-time high in 1963.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr. at the same time announced that the expected traffic death toll for the Fourth of July is eight fatalities, and called upon Texas drivers to "make his holiday the turning point in this year's traffic toll."

"If we continue to take lives at the present rate 1963 will become the most deadly year in Texas history for traffic fatalities," he said. "Motorcycles at this time are over 100 more than at the same time last year, and considering the trend of increased accidents and casualties, we have every reason to expect that traffic deaths will exceed the previous all time high in Texas of 2,611 in 1956.

"Only 194 more deaths in 1963 than in 1962 will make a total of 2,615 deaths, an all-time high and an increase for the year of eight per cent over 1962. Our statistical services advise that this is not just a probability, that it is fairly certain to become a reality unless something happens to break the trend."

Garrison said that "Operation Motorcade" will be placed in effect from 12:01 a. m. until 11:59 p. m. July 4 in order to focus attention upon the added dangers of holiday travel when traffic is at a peak. As part of the operation, which calls for maximum enforcement and public support, additional personnel from other uniformed services of the DPS will augment the regular Highway Patrol force.

Garrison commended the several public and private agencies and organizations which are cooperating in the Fourth of July safety emphasis program.

Sister of Late W. A. Cogdell Died in Vivian, Louisiana

Funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Calie Ann Cogdell Avery, 89, in Vivian, La. Mrs. Avery, a sister of the late W. A. Cogdell, of Crowell, died early Wednesday morning after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Avery was one of Vivian's oldest and most respected citizens. She was known for her many gifts of charity, most that went unpublicized. Two years ago she contributed $10,000 for a scholarship at Centenary College for ministerial students. The original gift was to remain in perpetuity in the endowment fund of the college and the interest was to be used each year for the scholarship.

Mrs. Avery was born in 1874 in Alcorn County, Miss., one of nine children. At the age of 19, she began to work in Corinth, Miss., to help support her widowed mother and her brothers and sisters, and she joined the Methodist Church of Corinth at the age of 18. In 1903 she married Charles Avery in Waco and the young couple moved to Louisiana in 1911, living first in Treas, and after, 1918, in Vivian. Mrs. Avery's husband died in 1945.

A member of the Methodist Church since her girlhood, Mrs. Avery taught Sunday School classes, participated in the program of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and was active in other phases of church work. Four of her uncles served as ministers in the Methodist Church in Mississippi.

Services were conducted by Rev. George York, Methodist Church, with interment in the Vivian cemetery.

Survivors are a number of nieces and nephews.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cogdell of Crowell and Mr. and Mrs. James Brothers of Shamrock attended the services.
