Sam Kuehn, a cooperater with the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District, has a field which borders near the Pease River. This area which consists of approximately 9 acres is deep sand and needs a close growing crop or a heavy stubble cover to protect it and adjoining land from blowing. Mr. Kuehn sowed switchgrass and a bluestem mixture in the spring of 1959 and now has a good protective cover of grass. The grass has stopped the soil from blowing and spreading onto other parts of the field and has developed a good wildlife cover and feeding ground for quail.

W. A. Patton Honored on 91st Birthday Dec. 28

On December 28, the home of W. A. Patton was the scene of a homecoming of his children and grandchildren to help him celebrate his 91st birthday. At the noon hour a bountiful turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served to all those present.

The day was spent visiting and playing dominoes. A grandson, Lt. Dan Patton, had just returned home from 15-months duty in the European countries and he showed slides of the most interesting places he visited. He told of his trip to Moscow, showing slides of his tour behind the Iron Curtain.

Those present were Mr. Patton, the honoree; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Patton and son, Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barker, Miss Alma Patton and Truda Swint of Crowell; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Patton and sons, Dan and Dean, of College Station; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Farrar and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farrar and children, Larry Joe and Janet, of Pampa. A daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Henderson, was unable to attend. Henry Johnson was a visitor in the afternoon. Mr. Patton received gifts, cards and best wishes from his friends in Crowell.

Mr. Patton enjoys good health and goes to town every day to play dominoes.

It was believed by Amarillo authorities that he died of smoke inhalation, but he was burned beyond recognition in a bed at his home where he was asleep.

Survivors include his stepmother, Mrs. H. E. Gribble of Vernon; two sisters, Mrs. Clyde Fox of Vernon and Mrs. T. D. Beach of Bowie; three brothers, C. D. Gribble of Vernon, Lewis Gribble of Abilene and James Gribble of San Antonio.

1964 to Be Big Election Year for Foard Countians

On the Foard County political scene this year, interest will be focused on a sheriff, tax assessor-collector's race, commissioners' races in Precinct 1 and 3, district attorney's contest and state representative's and senator's place.

County and district offices carry a four-year term while those of state representative and senator are two-year terms only.

City voters will vote on April 6 to elect councilmen, and voters of the Crowell Consolidated Independent School District will ballot on several school board members, and will possibly be presented a bond issue for the school some time during the year.

All these local and district races will come in addition to the state and national contests to be voted on this year.

Nephew of Local Man Killed When Struck by Auto

A Melissa mechanic, Jack Webster Murphy, 39, was killed when struck by an automobile as he walked on state highway 289 a mile south of Plano last Wednesday. Murphy apparently was walking for help after his car had plunged into a dry creek bed on an abandoned road nearby in Dallas county, officers said. Highway Patrolman C. W. Harbison said Murphy was walking north in the middle of the road when hit from behind by a station wagon driven by Donald Stanley Scott of Kirkwood, Mo. He was carried 98 feet before falling from the automobile.

Murphy was a nephew of Tom Eubanks and had visited in Crowell several years ago.

Hunting Seasons in Foard County Near Conclusion

With deer season and duck season already closed, Foard County hunters will see the remaining open seasons close during the next few days.

Deer season that opened on November 16 closed out Tuesday, Dec. 31, with several killed along Pease River. Duck season closed Saturday, January 4, with most hunters reporting less than an average bag during the season that opened December 1.

Goose season ends Tuesday, January 14. Hunters found exceptionally large numbers of the big birds in the Gilliland area during the earlier part of the season, but goose numbers thinned out to a large extent following the extremely cold weather before Christmas. Quail season shuts down on Thursday, January 16.

According to Charles Talbert, Game Warden for Foard, Hardeeman and Cottle Counties, the quail season will end up an average year.

He reported a few wild turkeys sighted in Foard and Cottle counties with some coming within range of firing but, none so far as he knew, were bagged.

District Attorney's Race May Draw Several Candidates

With Curtis Renfro, Vernon incumbent District Attorney, not announced for re-election, the Quannah Tribune-Chief says three other Vernons attorneys are being mentioned as likely candidates.

Renfro told the Quannah newspaper he would make his plans known sometime in January.

If predictions are correct, the Chief says the strongest contender will be Jim D. Hughes, a 29-year-old lawyer of the firm, Pruitt & Hughes in Vernon. He hails from Cottle County and is married to the former Miss Jane Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cooper of Thalia.

The second young attorney mentioned as a likely candidate is Bill Eblen, a native of Paducah who is now serving as county attorney of Wilbarger.

Fourth name mentioned, the Quannah paper says, is J. G. Souris, native of Vernon who has his own law office in that city.

Comes from Private Businessman

President Neilan of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States observes: "The powerful generative force of a democratic system comes from the energies and incentives of the private businessman, from the boldness of the risk taker and the innovator. It comes from such enterprisers operating freely in the competitive market place... Attractive business climates are made up of stable governments, stable currencies, equitable tax systems, adequate skilled labor, responsible labor leadership, adequate banking and financial institutions. We can add adequate facilities for housing, transportation, schools and health."

New License Plates on Sale Feb. 1

Foard County has been allotted a total of 1,350 sets of passenger car license plates for 1964, according to P. W. Taylor, sheriff, tax assessor-collector. The numbers are AT 1100 to AT 2449. The shipment of plates for all types of motor vehicles were received here recently and are being readied for sale over the counter starting February 1. Commercial truck license plates for the county total 375 and are numbered 1C 8925 to 1C 9299. Four hundred and fifty farm truck plates are numbered from 8B 1200 to 8B 1649. License plates for 1964 will have a black background with white numbers.

Only 278 Poll Tax Receipts Issued

With only twenty days left in which to pay poll taxes, only 278 Foard County residents had secured a receipt up to Monday morning.

This is considerably below normal for an election year, and is due largely to the wait by potential voters until after the general election in November when Texas residents voted to retain the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting. In addition to 1964 being a presidential election year, a number of local elections will be coming up during the year.

THE WEATHER

Foard County has had the first week in January with unusually mild temperatures for this time of year. Highs and lows for the week follow:
Jan. 2: high 57, low 30.
Jan. 3: high 56, low 29.
Jan. 4: high 52, low 28.
Jan. 5: high 54, low 26.
Jan. 6: high 63, low 28.
Jan. 7: high 49, low 38.

High School Principal Henry Black was elected superintendent of the Crowell Consolidated Independent School District at a meeting of the school board Monday night.

The 58-year-old veteran school administrator and teacher, will succeed Grady Graves, who will retire next July 1.

Mr. Black graduated from Crowell High School in 1923 and then attended North Texas State University. He received his bachelor of arts degree in languages from Sul Ross State College in Alpine, and later completed his bachelor of science degree in history, also at Sul Ross. In 1950 he completed his work on his master of arts degree in school administration at Highlands University, Las Vegas, N. Mex.

His first public school teaching position included two years as principal of Jameson School, a small school northwest of Crowell. Upon its consolidation with the Crowell Schools, Mr. Black taught in the Crowell Elementary School one semester and then became Spanish instructor in Crowell High School.

He enlisted in the Navy in June, 1942, and served until December, 1945, when he returned to Crowell to teach. In 1947, he was named principal of Crowell High School, and has served in that capacity since.

He is a member of the State and National Association of Secondary School principals, the Texas Foreign Language Teachers Association, and the Texas State Teachers Association.

Mr. Black served two terms as an alderman prior to becoming mayor about three years ago. Under his administration as mayor, Crowell has secured membership in the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority. His interest in youth resulted in the accomplishment of acquiring the former Premier Hotel for a community and youth center for the county. He is a director of this building's operation committee.

The newly-named superintendent is a member of the First Methodist Church of Crowell and was a Sunday school teacher for ten years. He has served as a member of the Official Board for ten years. He is a member of the Crowell Masonic Lodge and is a former leader of Boy Scouts.

3,910 BALES COTTON GINNED

Back in the early fall when the cotton harvest in this area was just getting started, the Texas Employment Commission office in Vernon forecast a 1963 cotton yield for Foard County at about 4,000 bales.

Foard County is slowly nearing that pre-season estimate as a check with the four gins operating in the county revealed Monday that a total of 3,910 bales had been ginned up to that time.

A total of 488 bales have been ginned during the past two weeks, as the total reported in the News two weeks ago was 3,422 bales.

Wake Up Students

Students, the close of the first semester of school is here! With it comes the beginning of the second half of the educational process undertaken this year. Since the grades are recorded in the permanent records each semester, work will begin on a new set of grades.

Seniors, you are about to begin your last semester in high school. You will never have another chance to prove to your teachers, your parents, and yourselves that you can make good grades if you choose to—unless, of course, you choose not to make good grades this year so that you may take the same courses over next year!

Juniors, do you know that the grades you make in your junior year are required on your applications for the college entrance exams? The grades you make this year will have great bearing on your future, so keep them high.

Sophomores, this semester marks the end of your first half of high school. Take an invoice of the grades you have made thus far in high school, and if they do not indicate your best ability, you had better get busy! The transcript required for college admission lists all the grades you make throughout your high school years.

Freshmen, perhaps your grades were not so high as they should have been the first semester of school, but since you have become accustomed to the routine of high school life, they should improve this next semester. Remember, the grades that you make during all of high school are averaged in determining the honor students of your class.

Make a special effort, however you are classified, to make higher grades this semester than you've ever made before, but in that effort, don't forget that the high grades are pointless if they don't give an honest picture of the knowledge you have acquired.

How to Choose a School

Your success in life may be based on your choice of school or college. Select it carefully. Get the answers to questions like these:

- In what does the school specialize?
- What kind of standards does it maintain?
- What type of students attend?
- How soon must applications be made?
- Are the faculty members experts in their fields?
- Does it have up-to-date equipment?

Does it have a reputation for leadership in training for the occupation which you plan to enter? Where is it located? (Large or small city, distance from home.) How much does it cost to attend? Are you sure that you can see your way clear to finish the course at this college? How successful are its graduates? Does it assist graduates in securing positions? Visit the schools in which you are interested. Study their literature. Ask your high school counselors, teachers, and principal for their suggestions.

Senior Personality

The senior personality for this week is the band's drum major, Paula Ruth Sanders. Ruth is an 18-year-old, hazel-eyed brunette who really "lives up" C. H. S.

She has been a member of such organizations as F. H. A., Columbian Club, Student Council, Wildcat staff, and band. She has been an officer in many of these organizations.

Under her list of favorites, Ruth chooses the color, blue; food, steak; subject, English; teacher, Mrs. Manard; actress, Doris Day; actor, James Garner, and the sport, football. Her most difficult subject has been geometry. She dislikes most a two-faced person.

Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sanders, plans to attend West Texas State University where she intends to major in English.

Library Learning Center

Does the high school have a "heart"? I do not mean a "heart" in the colloquial sense of being charitable or unselfish, but a "heart" in the sense of an educational center, a place that unifies the departments and makes the high school more than a mob of people divided into classes of composition, chemistry, mathematics, physical education, etc.

If such a heart does exist, the most likely place to find it is in the library. Where else can the students and faculty from all parts of CHS discover the mathematics of Einstein's Theory of Relativity, the heroic couplets of Alexander Pope, or a copy of a political document of historical importance? Many students and instructors forget that the knowledge "given" to them in classes originally came out of the library through long hours of study and research.

A library, by definition, is books assembled "for use." The magic words are "for use." If there is one thing teachers wish for students, it is that students use the library extensively and that they carry a good deal of the "heart" of the school away with them, mentally, when they are graduated.

Annual Staff Continues Planning

The annual staff is meeting each day to plan and to work on the 1964 yearbook. The staff has, thus far, completed and sent in forty-three pages of the yearbook.

Student Council Meets

The Crowell Student Council had its regular meeting Monday, January 6.

For the month of January, the Student Council will sponsor a Teachers' Talent Show. A fee of 25 cents will be charged in order to raise money. Plans for future Student Council-sponsored activities were also discussed.

Ventriloquist Entertains

On Tuesday morning, Jan. 7, the student body was entertained by Stu Scott, nationally known ventriloquist. In his amusing act, Mr. Scott displayed his ability to prove that the hand is quicker than the eye. The cleverness of his running commentary was clearly shown through his comical conversations with his two dummies, George the Crow and Barney the Bull Frog.

Mr. Scott's experience in the entertainment field has been extensive and varied. He had his own television show in San Francisco for several years and has also appeared on the Lawrence Welk show.

Recently, Mr. Scott was on a tour of Australia and Hawaii and was featured on more than ten network TV shows. He is presently with the Southern School Assemblies of North Hollywood, Calif.

Edward White, who was transferred to El Paso from Okinawa, has now received his discharge and is in Crowell.

Fauncine Fairchild, the feature twirler for the University of Mississippi, appeared on TV during the half-time performance of the Sugar Bowl game between "Ole Miss" and Alabama State University.

Pat Cates visited Baylor University over the week end.

Beverlie Gray visited Cisco Junior College during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garrett and Dennis and John Schilling went to Cisco over the holidays to attend the wedding of Aldon Garrett and Miss Pat Goleman.

Vodka of Free Enterprise

"First they were hungry, so we prepare to feed them. Now they are thirsty, so we will have to give them drink. In the first case it was wheat—now the Russians say that their vodka supplies are mighty low and they want to buy our potable alcohol—so they won't lack their favorite drink . . . In the case of the Russians, we wonder what will happen when the communists are driven to sample the vodka of free enterprise."—Rosholt, S. D., Review.

March of Dimes Lends a Hand, To Silence Child's Tormentors

When Lori Nelson blew out the candles on her fourth-birthday cake recently, it seemed that every youngster her age in Rosalie, Neb., turned out for her party.

Only a few months before, the remarkably pretty child had been the butt of taunts and giggles from these same children. Lori was born with a rare birthmark—a thick, unsightly covering of hair extending from her right shoulder to mid-forearm. Instead of finding playmates among the other boys and girls, all she ever encountered were finger-pointers and name-callers.

Lori found these gibes, when scarcely out of infancy and the crib, more than any sensitive child could endure. So did her parents, Marlene and Chester Nelson, an attractive farming couple, who for almost three years searched unsuccessfully for a medical answer to the problem.

Brother Also Heartsick

Also heartsick was David, 6, Lori's brother, who more than once came home with a black eye because he fought all the heartless kids in town who poked fun at his "hairy" sister.

"Chester and I were almost out of our minds with this terrible affliction," the mother explained. "Lori, a frightened and confused little girl, withdrew into a shell. The present picture was painful enough, but my husband and I looked with dread into the future when our pretty child, like any young woman, would want to go to dances and have dates and fun and, in time, a husband and family."

"No one gave us any reason for hope. Then I read somewhere that the March of Dimes was planning a birth defects center in Omaha. We were waiting at the door when it opened a year and a half ago."

The center, supported by March of Dimes contributions from chapters throughout Nebraska, is at Children's Memorial Hospital and is directed by Dr. Theodore R. Pfundt, chairman of the pediatrics department of Creighton University School of Medicine. It is one of 48 such centers across the nation.

Albert S. Black, a noted Omaha cosmetic surgeon, who is a "team member" of the March of Dimes-supported center and an associate professor of surgery at the University of Nebraska Medical School. He saw no reason for despair.

Lori underwent four surgical procedures by Dr. Black. He removed the hairy surface of the right arm which was then replaced by grafts of skin from her right thigh.

Lori Now Carefree

"Essentially what we did," Dr. Black explains, "was to excise the cause of Lori's fears and tormentors, and restore a whole little girl to the carefree world of children. The arm is still rather scarred, inevitably. But later on by high-speed planing and tattooing, the arm will be normal in appearance—and by the time she is in high school Lori will have difficulty remembering which arm exhibited this perverse quirk of nature."

Mrs. Nelson was selected as the Nebraska March of Dimes Mother for 1963. She and her husband have forgotten their fears about persuading their daughter to go to kindergarten. They confide that next summer, as a reward for her pluck, Lori may be riding around the farm aboard a Shetland pony.

who's doing the dishes tonight?

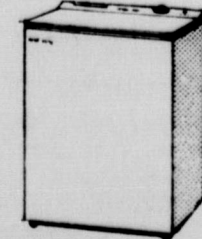

That's a silly question. I take it for granted you are, mom. Do you know that it's been proven the average woman puts in over sixty 8-hour working days per year in hand-washing dishes? . . . time that you can put to far better use.

An automatic dishwasher is the answer to your dishwashing chore. It will save you more than half of your after-meal cleanup time, and keep the kitchen neat and clean after between meal snacks. As sure as I'm Reddy Kilowatt, you'll have to admit that continuing to do the dishes by hand is about as pointless as laundering the clothes by hand.

no "REA" in this STATE

Because REA is short and easily remembered, some people associate the entire rural electrification program with the symbol. To refer to the independent home-owned Electric Cooperatives simply as, "REA" is just as inaccurate as calling a neighbor who financed his home, "Mr. FHA," "Mr. VA" or "Mr. First National Bank."

REA is a Federal Government agency with headquarters in Washington, D. C. The REA doesn't own or operate electric power lines. The lines serving rural homes and farms in this area are owned and operated by us local people. We simply joined together to provide ourselves with electric power — the only way most of us could obtain it.

The REA helped us with starter loans, and we still look to REA for technical advice and loans to extend and build heavier lines. But, by law, every penny of REA loans must be repaid — with interest — by the same local people who are consumers-owners-operators of this rural electric system. We're the real owners. REA is just our banker.

Lake Pauline
 Stocked with 18,000 Blue Catfish

Lake Pauline, already teeming with over 200,000 young bass, perch, channel cat, crappie, had 18,000 blue catfish planted in the lake recently when the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department placed that many five-to-six-inch fingerlings in the water.

The fish were brought to the lake from the Sheldon State Fish Hatchery near Houston and also were in excellent condition after the long haul. It is hoped that many of these blues will show the rapid growth the fingerlings of the other species show during periodic surveys made by the department personnel.

Small blue catfish look much like small channel catfish but there is actually a whole of a difference. Channel catfish seldom exceed 20 pounds whereas the maximum weight for blues is 150 pounds. The larger fish is not likely to be taken from the lake as the body of water is not the size conducive to producing such monsters but game officials do expect blue catfish weighing around 40 pounds to be taken from the water in several years.

The blue catfish (Ictalurus furcatus) is also known as the great forktail cat and high-fin blue cat. According to personnel of the Parks and Wildlife Department, the blue catfish is the largest of native cats.

Although the blue catfish is not as widely distributed in the state as the channel catfish, it is a very common fish in the areas where it does occur. It is mostly found in the larger streams and lakes. It is also abundant in fresh waters along the Texas coast and in the lower reaches of the large rivers.

Blue catfish are numerous in Lake Texoma and in the Red River below the lake.

Their food habits are similar to those of the channel catfish with the exception that larger fish such as the sunfish and shad are found in their diet.

May Remember
 1963 as the Year of
 Their Discontent

Many cattle feeders will remember 1963 as the year of their discontent. The cause was low profits, and the primary culprits were falling fed cattle prices and higher feed costs.

Also contributing to the low profits was the cost of feeder cattle in relation to the price of fed cattle, according to the latest summary published by the Cattle Feeders Division of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

Lloyd Bergema of Fort Worth, director of the Cattle Feeders Division, said at year's end the price of 999 to 1,199 pound choice steers in Chicago was down $6.25 per hundred compared to prices a year earlier. Prices on 500 to 800 pound good feeder steers at Omaha were down $3.75 per hundred during the same period. Cattle prices followed a downward trend nearly all year.

Total domestic production of beef reached an estimated 16,470 million pounds during 1963, and this total was swelled by record beef imports. Per capita consumption of beef was 95 pounds during the year, an all-time high.

In 1964, domestic beef production is expected to be slightly above 1963 levels and shipments of foreign beef to the United States could exceed the record 1963 tonnage. Feed costs are expected to average near 1963 levels and feeder cattle below 1963 levels.

"With the supply of beef available in 1964 estimated above 1963, we can not expect fed cattle prices to return to 1962 levels," Bergema explained. "However, with a continued strong demand we might expect prices to be above those of the last half of 1963."

Enemy Is Hatred

"... communism alone is the enemy of freedom and dignity and good will. The enemy is hatred wherever it festers. Hatred is the enemy of man and of God—hatred which may have been created by unjust and prolonged oppression, hatred calculatedly stepped up as a force behind violence, contagious hatred glorified and spread as only modern man can spread ideas and emotions."—Juneau, Alaska, Alaska Empire.

New Liability Provisions Are Now in Effect

New provisions of the Texas Motor Vehicle Responsibility Law, effective January 1, are of vital importance to all drivers, according to Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Mr. Garrison, in a release to the News, called attention to a revision in the law, made by the last session of the Texas Legislature, which sets the minimum auto liability insurance limits at $10,000 bodily injury liability for each person; $20,000 bodily injury each accident and $5,000 property damage, each accident.

He also called attention to other more stringent provisions of the state's safety responsibility law made by the Legislature.

Col. Garrison emphasized that the law required the Department to suspend the driver licenses and vehicle registrations of drivers and owners who are not in compliance with the law at the time of accident involvement, if the accident comes under the Safety Responsibility Act.

"The law provides that drivers and owners of vehicles involved in traffic accidents occurring or originating on a public street, highway or thoroughfare resulting in $100 or more property damage, injury or death must file written reports with the Department of Public Safety within 10 days, and its requirements must be met," he explained. "Accidents not involving death or injury but with $25 or more damage involved still must be reported to the Department but will not come under the Safety Responsibility Law.

"The Department is required to suspend driver licenses and all motor vehicle registration plates of both the operator and owner of vehicles involved in an accident coming under the Safety Responsibility Law, unless:

"1. Evidence of liability insurance coverage in the minimum amounts of $10,000 where one person was injured or killed, $20,000 where more than one; and $5,000 for property damage is reported to the Department.

"2. A release signed by damaged or injured persons is filed with the Department.

"3. A signed agreement to pay damages in installments is accepted by the damaged or injured persons, and filed with the Department.

"4. The operator and owner are found not to be liable in a civil court of competent jurisdiction, and a copy of such finding is filed with the Department.

"5. The operator and owner deposit with the Department cash or bond security in an amount sufficient to cover any judgment for damages resulting from the accident that might be obtained by damaged or injured persons, which in no case shall be less than $200."

In addition, the operator and owner must file proof of financial responsibility for the future and must maintain it for five years.

Garrison noted that under the new law, suspensions of licenses and registrations will be for a period of two years, unless the requirements of the Safety Responsibility Act are met.

Also, he said that when a person's driver license is suspended or revoked under any Texas law because of a conviction on a serious charge, the Department is required to suspend such person's motor vehicle registration, unless

In addition to other statutory filing fees required, a $10 reinstatement charge has been provided for restoration of suspended license and/or vehicle registration in those cases where proof of financial responsibility for the future must be filed.

Garrison listed these exceptions where the law does not apply:

1. The law does not apply to the owner of a vehicle if it is involved in an accident while being driven by another person without the owner's consent.

2. If the operator or owner involved in an accident is the only person damaged or injured.

3. If the vehicle was legally parked or stopped at a traffic signal at the time of the accident.

4. If the vehicle involved was being driven by an employee of the United States Government in connection with official duties.

The great highway performer

'64 Jet-smooth Luxury Chevrolet

What does it take to make a car a great highway performer?

If the car happens to be a '64 Chevrolet, one thing only. A highway.

You'll find everything else already neatly packaged for you—on the car exactly as you pick it off the showroom floor.

There's a choice of seven engines—all the way up to a twin-carb high-compression 425-hp V8*—and four transmissions, including a finely honed 4-speed stick shift.*

And underlying it all—a bump-skimming Jet-smooth ride that helps keep the performance great even when the highways aren't so great.

What about special performance equipment? Professional driving skills? Forget them.

Nobody has to doctor or coax or soup up these Chevrolets to get the best out of them. And that's really the test of a great highway performer: Just about anyone can get a kick out of driving one, just about anywhere, just as it comes out of the showroom.

Next time you're out your dealer's way, allow a few extra minutes to sample one of these highway performers on your own. A few are really all you'll need. That's enough time to do a lot of driving in a Chevrolet. *Optional at extra cost.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

Austin, Tex.—Austin has settled back to being just the capital of Texas after nearly two hectic weeks news-wise as the vacation White House.

Dozen of top cabinet officers, military leaders and federal agency heads followed German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard and his advisors to the LBJ Ranch for conferences with President Lyndon Johnson.

Encouraging predictions of progress toward world peace emerged from the President's international discussions. The federal budget and economy were spotlighted in the domestic talks.

Before he departed, White House sources gave these insights into the President's thinking:

He does not feel the U. S. can drag its feet until after elections this year before pressing for new peace breakthroughs.

He regards civil rights and the $11,000,000 tax cut as legislative "musts." Also, he has expressed support for the medicare program of aid to the aged.

Reducing the budget to save money for essential human needs, including education, is regarded by the President as of concern to all Americans. He hopes cost cutting will serve as a pattern for future years.

Slum clearance and "a home for every American" are seen as goals of his administration. Some news-men interpreted this as a likely 1964 campaign slogan.

Johnson hopes to steadily improve American preparedness. But he is strong for elimination of military obsolescence, particularly old bases and installations retained in the budget for political reasons.

Congressional leaders will run their own legislative show. But the new President won't hesitate to ask old congressional friends for what he thinks is needed.

Johnson hopes to draw on the talents of both business and labor to render public service.

He is concerned about unemployment and is calling for new solutions.

PRISON POPULATION REDUCED — For the first time in 18 years, the number of prisoners in the Texas Department of Corrections shows a decrease.

Department Director Dr. George Beto reports that the December 31 count was 12,150, compared with 12,202 the year before. Since 1945, there has been a steady climb in number of prison inmates.

Beto cited these reasons for leveling off; more adequate parole supervision; opening of a new first-offender unit; a pre-release program of preparing prisoners for freedom; an expanded trusty program; and overall improvement in the prison treatment program. Prison chief said the reduction not only will save money on prison care, but also in welfare funds spent on families of inmates, not to mention restoring prisoners to productive lives as citizens and taxpayers.

PRISON SYSTEM INCOME — Farm products and livestock produced more than $6,500,000 of the prison system's 1962 income, according to the auditor's report just released. Other sources were: manufactured products, $3,704,616; oil and gas leases, $39,237; miscellaneous, $3,287,167.

Report placed total income from farms and farm industries at $10,144,773, with expenses of $14,304,734, for a deficit of $4,159,961.

Manufacturing operations include license plates, shoes, textiles, clothing and other products.

SCHOOL INCOME THREAT — Texas school income will be drastically reduced unless the Federal Power Commission sets an adequate price for gas in the Texas Gulf Coast area and the Hugoton-Anadarko area of the Texas Panhandle, Attorney General Carr contends.

Carr has filed a petition to intervene in price hearings ordered by FPC to determine reasonable rates for sale of natural gas in the areas.

Earlier he filed briefs requesting FPC to set the price of all gas in the Permian Basin area at 21 cents MCF. The FPC staff sought a nine cents MCF rate for casinghead gas and 13.7 cents MCF for gas well gas.

Attorney General noted in his brief that Texas levies a 7 per cent occupation tax based on market value of the gas at the well head to help support state government.

He also pointed out that the University of Texas system owns more than 4,700,000 acres of land in the Permian Basin area. Bonus money and royalty income from this acreage goes to the permanent school fund for Texas education. More than 18,000,000 acres of state land are involved in the Gulf Coast hearing.

From the News . . .

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, Jan. 11, 1934, issue of The Foard County News:

"Birthday Balls" for President Roosevelt on January 30 will be held in towns and cities throughout the country, the returns to go to the Warm Springs (Ga.) Foundation which is to be endowed as a national center for the development of methods of treatment for infantile paralysis, a movement to which the President has lent much support.

The record of giving birth to four calves in eleven months belongs to a 6-year-old brown Jersey cow on the farm of Bill Barrett, about ten miles northeast of Crowell in the Thalia community.

The Crowell Production Credit Association was organized here last Thursday with representatives present from Wilbarger, Hardeman, Cottle and Foard, the counties that will be represented by the local association, the headquarters of which are in Crowell.

One hundred and ninety checks with a total value of $25,246.00 were received at the office of Fred Rennels, county agent, Tuesday to be distributed to 190 Foard County farmers for their participation in the U. S. government's wheat program.

The Home Demonstration Club women of Foard County have reported since September a total of 27,223 quarts of canned foods.

The Foard County News and The Pathfinder, both delivered to your postoffice every week for an entire year for only $1.85.

Leo Spencer and T. B. Klepper attended the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet in Vernon last Tuesday night.

One of the social events of the Christmas season was a dinner party given by Miss Bertha Womack at her home on Thursday evening, Dec. 28.

A Ford car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Novie Pitman and a friend and a Chevrolet occupied by James Lloyd, James Meadors and Dock Jonas of Crowell collided on the Crowell-Margaret highway Saturday night. Several of them were injured but none seriously.

There has not been any school at Gambleville this week on account of the painting of the inside and outside of the building.

The strong basketball teams of Wichita Falls, Olney and Turkey will be played by the Crowell Wildcats within the next few days.

A meeting will be held at the district court room in Crowell Friday afternoon for the purpose of explaining the 1934-35 cotton reduction contract. Meetings have already been held at Thalia, Rayland, Margaret, Good Creek, Black and Foard City.

Rainfall recorded at the Crowell State Bank, official weather recording station here, was only 19.27 inches for 1933, compared with 25.57 inches for 1932.

Holidays Climaxed by Dance by Sub-Junior Clubs

The holiday season for the Sub-Junior Adelpian Club was climaxed with a dance New Year's Eve at the Country Club house. This gala dance is an annual affair with the Sub-Junior Adelpian Club. Red and white was the color theme with a huge kissing ball suspended from the ceiling in the center of the room. Crepe paper streamers and balloons accentuated the orchestra stand, and also throughout the dancing area. The refreshment table was centered by an arrangement of red and white carnations with white tapers. The cloth was red with a big "1964" in the center.

Chaperones for the occasion included Mr. and Mrs. Glyndon Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. DuWayne Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lynch and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sanders.

The other affair during the holiday season was a Christmas tea given by the girls for members of their sponsoring senior Adelpian Club. It was held in the home of Mrs. Bill McClain on Dec. 14. Billy Sue McClain and Karen Shirley were hostesses with their mothers assisting.

The dining room table was laid with a green linen table cloth. The centerpiece was a beautiful Christmas arrangement in a silver bowl. Other appointments were silver. Punch and a poinsettia decorated sandwich loaf were served to 30 members of the two clubs.

Mary Sue Speer gave a Christmas reading and Karen read the Biblical story of Christ's birth. Betty Ann Welch sang two carols.

TEXAS SALES TAX TABLE 1963

Each year thousands of Texans call, write or visit Internal Revenue Service offices to obtain the amount deductible for sales tax. The table is printed here for your convenience. Clip and save this table until you are ready to prepare your income tax returns, since your instructions received from Internal Revenue Service do not contain these figures for Texas taxpayers.

National Problem

"Careless littering is a national problem, but must be attacked on a unit level, with each county responsible for its own. Each piece of paper or can tossed aside is one more eyesore. It would be so easy to place this trash in a container for disposal."—Centerville, Md., Record-Observer.

Two Minutes With the Bible

214 Going Down

I heard something over the radio a few weeks ago, the like of which I've never heard before—and certainly never want to hear again. I heard the last words of the pilot on No. 214, the big jet plane that crashed to earth with 81 people aboard.

Because of the weather conditions the planes were "stacked" rather high around the Philadelphia airport, so the airport tower had just asked him: "Do you want to go on or do you want to hold?" The pilot had barely replied that he wanted to "hold," when he said something about his big Boeing 707 being on fire. Then came the awful words: "We're going down. Two fourteen is going down in flames." He said it calmly, and the Philadelphia tower answered back: "We have your message, two fourteen."

Just imagine, hearing the actual last words of the pilot while he and eighty others were being hurled more than 5,000 feet to their death amid the flaming parts of their stricken plane!

Yet, one does not have to be in a plane to meet death suddenly. He can stumble off a curb and be killed or die suddenly in a hundred different ways.

The important thing is to be ready. We do not wish to scare people into accepting Christ as

Seat Belts Save Lives

Anyone can have poliomyelitis—a crippling and killing disease—but no one can be cured.

The key to avoiding the dread disabling disease is prevention. Two vaccines—discovered, developed and tested in the last ten years—can prevent the disease.

The first hope of a vaccine came in 1953. A scientist at the University of Pittsburgh had developed a vaccine, composed of killed polio viruses. But the vaccine had to be tried and tested before mass immunization could take place.

Then, in 1955, the public was able to receive protection with Salk vaccine injections.

Now an oral vaccine developed by Dr. Albert Sabin of Cincinnati is also available. It is made of weakened live viruses and can be administered as a liquid, mixed with sweet tasting substances such as simple syrup or lump sugar.

The advent of poliomyelitis vaccines brought polio incidence down to eight cases and deaths to zero. This is the story about the zero that made big news. And zero will continue to be headlined so long as each person takes advantage of the protection available.
