Constant Challenge

Members of the Junior and Senior classes, all of the students have been named to the Dean's List prior to the present semester, and most of them have been campus leaders throughout their Sul Ross careers.

Band Parents Club to Be Organized

All parents who have children in the Crowell Band program are urged to attend a band parents' meeting this coming Tuesday, November 27, at 7 p. m. This meeting is for the formation of a Crowell Band Booster Club.

Earl Hesse, Band Director, said Monday, "All parents, whether your child is in the beginner band or the high school band, are urged to attend. This will be the first meeting this year and will not last too long. Refreshments will be served. Let's keep our hand on top and have a large turnout at this first meeting."

The Crowell Wildcat Band and Majorettes received high ratings at the U. I. L. Marching and Twirling Contest held at Midwestern Stadium in Wichita Falls last Tuesday, November 13. The band entered with all Class A bands of this area and received a Division II rating, which is considered excellent. The only class A band of this area to receive a higher or superior rating was the Monday band. The Henrietta band also received a II division and the other bands, Paducah, Archer City and Holliday, all received class III ratings.

The Majorettes received a first division rating on their twirling ensemble. Faunshine Fairchild, Ella Ann Cates, Ruth Sanders and Paula Sparks all received I ratings on their solos and Sandra Weathered received a II rating on her solo.

Crowell Girls' Basketball Team Defeats Oklaunion

The Crowell High School girls' basketball team avenged an earlier loss to Oklaunion High School Monday night by a decisive score of 64 to 49.

The turning point of the game was in the second quarter when Crowell's stalwart defense, headed by Carolyn Eubank, Barbara Bell, and Scherry Goodwin, limited the opposition to only five points while the Crowell offense racked up 16 points. Crowell was never seriously threatened after this stanza, as the Crowell offense, spearheaded by Betty Kajs, Cloma Brown, Evelyn Fiske, and Linda Whitley, kept the pressure on the visitors throughout the game.

Jo Wynn Ekern and Mary Ann Ramsey made creditable showings as guards and the entire team gave forth a team effort which was too much for the visiting team to conquer. High point girl for Crowell was Betty Kajs with 28 points, followed closely by Cloma Brown with 25 points. The high point girl for Oklaunion was Betty Ann Byars with 27 points followed by Karen Tompkins with 17 points.

The Crowell High School football boys covered themselves in glory here last Friday night in a 50 to 21 victory over the Paducah Dragons in the final game of the season for both teams. Especially did the three Wildcat seniors, Dale Doyal, Paul Bax Ekern and Bill Fitzgerald, perform in a brilliant manner. Doyal, fullback, had a "field day" in scoring 32 points. He ran touchdowns for 14, 8, 14 and 4 yards in the first half and collected eight points by the extra point route. All three of these boys played good defensive ball.

This lopsided victory gave Coaches Thayne Amorette and L. H. Wall an opportunity to use most of next year's prospective players. Some of them also turned in a good game. These boys were Larry Henry, Dan Mike Bird, Freddie Wehba, Mike Gamble, Paul Campbell, Steve Kralick, Randy Adkins and Duane Simmons in the backfield. Those playing in the line were Jimmy Hudgens, Jon Lee Black, Ronny Clifton, James Corder, Bill Harris, Mike Shrode, Jimmy Pendergraft, John Carl Borchardt, Randy Smith, James Hayes, Jesse Brown, and Toye McCurley.

The Wildcats scored two touchdowns in the first quarter on runs of 14 and 8 yards by fullback Dale Doyal. One of these scores was set up on a recovered fumble by guard Paul Bax Ekern. Doyal also scored the extra points after each of these touchdowns to make the count 16 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

Doyal scored two more TDs in the second quarter on 14 and 4 yard jaunts. Crowell halfback Larry Henry also scored a touchdown on a 35-yard intercepted pass return. Roy Don Fox, halfback for Paducah, scored from three yards out late in this second quarter. The score was 36 to 7 at halftime.

There was only one touchdown made in the third quarter. Quarterback Dan Mike Bird tossed a short pass to left end Jimmy Pendergraft, who in turn raced for the score. The entire play covered 63 yards. Doyal ran over his fourth conversion of the evening to make the score 44 to 7.

Bird scored once for Crowell, and Paducah scored two TDs in this final period. The Wildcat lineup was made up mostly of freshmen and sophomores throughout this quarter. Halfback Dwight Read and quarterback Bill Neskorik made runs of two and 15 yards, respectively, for the counters. A pass from Neskorik to end Jerry Long produced two extra points. This made the final score 50 to 21.

Two of Paducah's better defensive boys were brothers, Danny and Ronnie Mints. Their offensive stars were Dwight Read and Bill Neskorik. Dale Doyal and Larry Henry stood out for Crowell on offense. However, the blocking and tackling of the linemen, led by Paul Bax Ekern, was a big contribution to the district 11A victory. Two Crowell seniors, Bob Borchardt and Junior Hopkins, were unable to play in this contest due to injuries.

Two of Paducah's better defensive boys were brothers, Danny and Ronnie Mints. Their offensive stars were Dwight Read and Bill Neskorik. Dale Doyal and Larry Henry stood out for Crowell on offense. However, the blocking and tackling of the linemen, led by Paul Bax Ekern, was a big contribution to the district 11A victory. Two Crowell seniors, Bob Borchardt and Junior Hopkins, were unable to play in this contest due to injuries.

The Wildcats scored two touchdowns in the first quarter on runs of 14 and 8 yards by fullback Dale Doyal. One of these scores was set up on a recovered fumble by guard Paul Bax Ekern. Doyal also scored the extra points after each of these touchdowns to make the count 16 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

Doyal scored two more TDs in the second quarter on 14 and 4 yard jaunts. Crowell halfback Larry Henry also scored a touchdown on a 35-yard intercepted pass return. Roy Don Fox, halfback for Paducah, scored from three yards out late in this second quarter. The score was 36 to 7 at halftime.

There was only one touchdown made in the third quarter. Quarterback Dan Mike Bird tossed a short pass to left end Jimmy Pendergraft, who in turn raced for the score. The entire play covered 63 yards. Doyal ran over his fourth conversion of the evening to make the score 44 to 7.

Bird scored once for Crowell, and Paducah scored two TDs in this final period. The Wildcat lineup was made up mostly of freshmen and sophomores throughout this quarter. Halfback Dwight Read and quarterback Bill Neskorik made runs of two and 15 yards, respectively, for the counters. A pass from Neskorik to end Jerry Long produced two extra points. This made the final score 50 to 21.

True Spirit of Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day has come to be a day for enjoying food, fun, and family. Kindred from far and near often gather to share a bountiful meal of turkey and the trimmings. However, Thanksgiving wasn't originally intended to be a day of frivolous pleasures; the Pilgrims dedicated this day to sincere worship for the blessings they had received during their first year in America.

During our busy life in America, we forget to be grateful for the many things that we take for granted but which would be considered luxuries by the people in other nations. Television, automobiles, record players, automatic washers and dryers, abundance of food—all these things and many others we consider as a part of our everyday life, little realizing how fortunate we are to possess them. We also can claim another thing that people of many other countries can not. That something is freedom—freedom of worship, speech, press. We have a democratic government with which we can govern ourselves.

Yes, the people of America need a Thanksgiving Day—a day especially designated for the purpose of remembering to give thanks for many wonderful things—things that make America what it is today.

Absentees

During the week November 12-18, twelve students were absent for one or more days. Sherri Covington was absent for four days; Jimmy Pendergraft, Danny Patton and Sharon Everson were absent two days each. Evelyn Eubanks, Billy Sokora, Jimmy Thompson, Jimmie Moore, Pat Brown, Karen Shirley, Carla Browder and Carolyn Akers were each absent one day.

Accrediting Committee Compliments Student Body

Supt. Grady Graves and other faculty members of the Crowell School System take this opportunity to thank the entire student body for the good showing that was made in our school last week while the Accreditation Committee from the Texas Education Agency was visiting our campus.

This committee was composed of Mrs. Irene Westmoreland, Director of Division of Special Education, and J. B. Payne, Area Supervisor of Vocational Agriculture. The formal written report will not be released until the early part of December, but the members of the committee did make the following statement: "In all of our visits to schools in this capacity, and there have been many of them, we have never encountered such friendly hospitality on the part of the student body as has been exhibited here at Crowell."

Senior Personality

The senior personality for this week is blond headed and blue eyed. He has been a member of the F. F. A. for three years and of the 4-H club for eight years. He has been secretary, vice president and president of the Foard County 4-H Club, and co-chairman and chairman of the 4-H County Council. His junior year, he was the class favorite and the president of the Spanish Club. This year, he is reporter of the Spanish Club and has been voted the most courteous boy in CHS.

His hobbies include outdoor sports, photography, and tinkering with machinery. Among his favorites are: actor, Robert Mitchum; actress, Tuesday Weld; foods, pineapple pie, T-bone steak, enchiladas and tacos; singers, Elvis Presley and Perry Como; song, "Return to Sender"; color, blue; subject, chemistry. His hardest subject is English IV. He has been influenced most by his parents and teachers.

After graduation, he plans to enter Texas Tech to study veterinary medicine. By now you should have guessed that the senior personality of the week is Joe Drabek. Joe, we wish you the best of luck in all your future plans.

Harmony and Discord

The Friday night halftime performance for the Crowell-Paducah game was dedicated to the seniors of CHS, especially to the four senior members of the band—M. L. Speer, Sue Cates, Charles ten Brink and drum major Fauncine Fairchild. These students stepped out for recognition as the band played "Auld Lang Syne." Teresa Wright, flag bearer, is also a senior who has participated with the band.

After some precision marching, the band paid tribute to the Wildcatettes, their ex-drum majorette, Carolyn Hickman, and the mascot, Valerie Hesse. This group has helped to make the year's half-time performances outstanding.

Sports

Well, the Wildcats won their last game, 50-21 by defeating the Paducah Dragons here last Friday night. Dale Doyal racked up four TD's the first half, with the assistance of a stout Crowell line. The Wildcat line was outstanding the entire game, allowing only a minimum of yardage to be gained on them by the Paducah Dragons. Many on the B string saw action for the first time in a conference game.

This was the last game for some of the Crowell players. The Wildcat team started the season with five seniors: Bob Borchardt, Dale Doyal, Bill Fitzgerald, Junior Hopkins and Paul Ekern. Bob and Junior did not get to finish the season because of injuries; the other three played their last game of their high school football career Friday night.

Speaking of last—two of the cheerleaders led their last yells for the Crowell Wildcats. These are the seniors, Ely Wehba and Judy Sandlin. So ends the '62 football season!

Homemaking I

Thanksgiving came early for the Homemaking I class when they prepared and served a bountiful dinner to their guests last Wednesday night at the Homemaking Cottage.

The room was appropriately decorated for the Thanksgiving season with floral centerpieces and attractive name cards made by the girls.

After Otis Johnson led the group in prayer, the delicious dinner was served, and then the group enjoyed playing charades.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the F. H. A. King, Jackie Eddy. The crown, made of the FHA colors—red and white—was presented to Jackie by Marilyn Cates, president of the Home Economics I class.

The freshman girls want to thank Mrs. Kenner for her help in preparing the dinner.

A Salute to the Seniors

At this Thanksgiving season, it is fitting that "a special bit of thanks" be given to the seniors for the attitudes that they are setting for CHS. Numerous compliments have been made by faculty members, parents, visitors and friends about the harmonious atmosphere that is prevalent in our student body. It is perhaps through the determination of the seniors to make this—their last—a successful year that the spirit of friendly cooperation has developed. This wholesome atmosphere is a sign of healthful progress in our school.

A special recognition might well be made for those seniors who have participated—perhaps for four years—in activities connected with the football season. To play ball, to be in the band, or to be a cheer leader requires hours and hours of practice. So hats off to them, as well as to all members of the senior class.

Students Aid in Community Center Drive

Friday morning, twenty-three CHS students participated in a fund raising drive for the Community Center. A breakfast was held at the Community Center for the students and adults who also worked in the drive. Mayor Black and Leon Speer each gave short speeches pointing out the improvements that would be made with the money collected. To canvass the town, the students divided into groups and left the Center.

All who participated would like to express their appreciation to those who so generously donated. The improvements your contributions will make to the Center will benefit the entire community.

Lighthouse of Education

Ruthie Doyal and Saunna Martin have made a bulletin board with the words, "Read, Study, Learn" beaming from the "Lighthouse of Education." The caption is "Keep the light burning." Books they used are four of our new paperback books, This Side of Paradise, Ethan Frome, The Great Gatsby, and Cry, the Beloved Country.

Speaking of paperback books, there are some new ones in the library to be processed. Among these are Men Against the Sea and Robert Frost's Poems. Take advantage of these and other books offered by our library! Read!

State Health Dept. Conducts Meat Inspection Program

Late in 1955 several large meat packing companies in Texas which needed a freedom of movement for their products throughout the State arranged for their products to be inspected and stamped by the Texas State Department of Health as an indication of wholesomeness.

This request followed on the heels of permissive legislation earlier in the year which permitted the State Department of Health to collect fees from meat producers to defray the expenses of a meat inspection program originally established in 1945.

Meat packers had long seen the need for a comprehensive meat inspection program which would allow free intra-state movement of their products, in addition to letting the consuming public know that those products met the high standards required under the state laws.

From this beginning the state meat inspection program has grown to its present inspection services which now covers 22 meat packing and producing plants, plus an additional 80 plants operating under the municipal-state cooperative meat inspection program.

The program has resulted in improved quality and wholesomeness of food and meat food products, cleaner plants, more up-to-date facilities and equipment and the employment of improved sanitary procedures.

Briefly, the inspection program consists of examining food animals and their carcasses at the time of slaughter; inspection at all stages of preparation of meat and meat food products to assure sanitary handling; destruction of condemned products to prevent their use for human food.

It is proof that the product has been carefully inspected and found to be sound and wholesome and that the labels are not deceptive or misleading. No Trick to Grow Old

Once said Edgar A. Guest, the popular American poet: "It's no trick to grow old; anyone can do it—if he has the time."

Behind the humor is the implication that time is the essence. But it has been said that the loneliest man on earth is he who has lived many years, selecting for the target of his efforts only himself. He is the man who has regarded his vocation as merely means for profit, not as a trust for serving society. He is the man who has had no time to keep friendships on constant repair. It is the man who has not learned the delights of a hobby, nor the thrill of a majestic sunset. He is the man who has finally become bored with himself, and all his experiences have been uninteresting.—Rotarian.

Count Your Wealth

Cash low? Short of dough? That's a common ailment of time of year. But think of things money can't buy.

Money can't buy friendship, must be earned.
Nor a clear conscience. Squaring dealing is the price tag.

Money can't buy good health. Right living is the secret.

It can't buy happiness. That's a mental attitude.

Money can't buy sunsets, singing birds. They are as free as the air we breathe.

Money can't buy inward peace. Nor can it buy character.

Make a list of your priceless possessions. You'll find you are as rich as Rockefeller.

Meat Prices Only Look High

Housewives may be surprised to learn that they are paying less for meat today than their mothers paid. According to Ed Uvacek, extension livestock marketing specialist, the proportion of the total family income that is spent for meat has dropped from 7 per cent in 1920 to only 4 1/2 per cent today, while the proportion spent for other consumer goods has increased four times.

At the same time, we are getting better quality meat and a wider selection to choose from at the retail market, the specialist adds. The U. S. Department of Agriculture presently grades about 50 per cent of the beef, 15 per cent of the veal and calf, and 33 per cent of the lamb slaughtered in the U. S.

These USDA grades for carcass beef are prime, choice, good, standard, commercial, utility, cutter and canner. Most of the prime beef is used by hotels and restaurants while the choice, good, standard and some commercial beef is available to consumers at the retail counter, Uvacek says. Good cuts can be obtained from any of these grades but the lower grades are usually better for the cuts which are cooked slowly, while steaks are usually more tender if taken from the higher grades.

Slaughter calves are graded prime, choice, good, standard, utility and cull, but the consumer usually sees the appealing terms, calf, young fed tender beef, veal and others at the meat counter. Most of the lambs marketed fall into the top three USDA grades. These are prime, choice and good.

Pork is evaluated through the packer brand names and is not sold on a federal graded basis, according to Uvacek.

Farm Sales Up—Net Income Down

Farmers, like other businessmen, in recent years have increased their gross sales but have received less net income, reports C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

The nation's farmers have increased gross sales since 1945 by 46 per cent but their net income has declined more than 9 per cent, Bates adds. Gross income in 1945 was $25.7 billion and production expenses were $12.9 billion. Net income equaled $12.8 billion. By 1960, gross income was up to $37.9 billion but expenses had jumped to $26.3 billion, leaving a net of only $11.6 billion.

Farmers have sought to improve their situation, says Bates, by shifting the inputs or "mix" of production resources. They have substituted machinery for labor. In 1940, U. S. farmers spent $1.75 on machinery and buildings for each dollar spent on hired help. By 1960, they were spending $2.77 on these items for each dollar spent for hired labor.

Another effort to boost efficiency is reflected in the amounts spent for fertilizer and lime. By 1960, U. S. farmers were spending 4.8 times more for these items than was spent in 1940. This means a great increase in quantity since prices for fertilizer and lime have increased only 50 per cent.

Although comparable figures are not available on farmer expenditures for pesticides and herbicides, the trend has been sharply upward, says the specialist. These inputs have tended to keep down the cost of food to consumers, he adds.

The question is often raised, points out Bates, why do farm units continue to increase in size? A major factor behind the pressure for larger units is the use of machinery and the narrower margin received on products marketed, explains the specialist. Today's farmer must invest three to four times as much capital in fixed assets as was needed in 1940 to obtain net returns on a comparable level and the price-cost squeeze is continuing, he adds.

"Boss, to pretty, young applicant: 'So you want a job? Had any experience?'"

Applicant: "Oh, some very wonderful ones!"

Good cuts can be obtained from any of these grades but the lower grades are usually better for the cuts which are cooked slowly, while steaks are usually more tender if taken from the higher grades.

Slaughter calves are graded prime, choice, good, standard, utility and cull, but the consumer usually sees the appealing terms, calf, young fed tender beef, veal and others at the meat counter. Most of the lambs marketed fall into the top three USDA grades. These are prime, choice and good.

Pork is evaluated through the packer brand names and is not sold on a federal graded basis, according to Uvacek.

Proper Records Vital for Federal Tax Deduction Purposes

Keeping proper records of travel expenses for federal tax deduction purposes is a vital matter in the life of Mr. Hard Working Businessman—be he self-employed, or corporation employee.

Ellis Campbell Jr., Internal Revenue Service Dallas district director, has some helpful tips—especially for the man who travels using his personal car, taxis, or other public transportation for business trips.

"Business trip records should include: dates, places, and business purpose of travel; transportation cost for each trip; number of days away from residence overnight; itemized statement listing total costs for meals, lodging, baggage, cab fares, and such; receipts for large expenditures; how paid—by cash, credit card, check, or direct charge to employer; and last but far from least," Campbell said, "personal expenses for vacation, or wife, should be separated and by no means included as business travel expenses."

The district director added: "The businessman using his personal car for transportation should indicate business connection and purpose of all business trips; keep total mileage and copies of all expense bills; as well as method of payment of expenses—by cash, credit card, or check."

"When in doubt," Campbell concluded, "telephone or visit the nearest IRS office and remember," he reminded, "reliable record keeping during the year will make that April 15 chore a much easier one for all concerned."

Texas Tourist Industry May Be on the Upswing

The Texas tourist industry may be on the upswing again after a long period of decline, the Texas Highway Department has announced.

The department reported that the number of tourists serviced this summer by its Tourist Bureaus was up 22 per cent over a year ago, while summer requests handled through its Austin mailing offices were up 26 per cent as compared to 1961. Comparison was made for the months of June, July and August for the years 1961 and 1962.

The Highway Department's statistical research has shown a steady decline in the number of tourists visiting Texas since 1957. However, preliminary findings this year indicate that the stepped-up tourist attraction activities of the department may be taking hold to level off this decline and encourage a moderate upswing—despite the unavailability of funds for a media advertising program to compete with other states.

As the state's official tourist agency, the department has increased its travel promotion activities to the point where it now provides direct travel service to more than 550,000 people annually and reaches millions more through a nationwide program which generates free publicity for Texas.

The department now distributes more than two million pieces of travel literature annually to encourage vacationing in Texas, and operates eight Tourist Bureaus at key entry points in the state. These "hospitality centers" are located at Gainesville, Denison, Texarkana, Wichita Falls, Orange, Waskom, Laredo and Anthony.

Meat Prices Only Look High

Housewives may be surprised to learn that they are paying less for meat today than their mothers paid. According to Ed Uvacek, extension livestock marketing specialist, the proportion of the total family income that is spent for meat has dropped from 7 per cent in 1920 to only 4 1/2 per cent today, while the proportion spent for other consumer goods has increased four times.

At the same time, we are getting better quality meat and a wider selection to choose from at the retail market, the specialist adds. The U. S. Department of Agriculture presently grades about 50 per cent of the beef, 15 per cent of the veal and calf, and 33 per cent of the lamb slaughtered in the U. S.

These USDA grades for carcass beef are prime, choice, good, standard, commercial, utility, cutter and canner. Most of the prime beef is used by hotels and restaurants while the choice, good, standard and some commercial beef is available to consumers at the retail counter, Uvacek says. Good cuts can be obtained from any of these grades but the lower grades are usually better for the cuts which are cooked slowly, while steaks are usually more tender if taken from the higher grades.

From the Wall Street Journal: "People are no longer fooled by inflation. Instead of being exhilarated by its prospects, people are now frightened by them. It's nonsense to think that today the promise of more inflation would once again send the stock market swirling upwards or that it would make people act more confidently with their money, whether as individual spenders or as managers of the money of great enterprises."

“Three Billion Wills”

As long as man remained obedient to the will of God, his Maker, all was well with him. His life was perfectly balanced because it was centered in God. As soon as he listened to Satan, however, and set his will against God's, all began to go wrong. His life was now off center and out of balance. It was no longer subject to one central Will. Alienated from God, man now reaped the fruit of his rebellion, not only in his banishment from Paradise, but in the self-will of his offspring.

Of the first two children born into the world, one bludgeoned the other to death and this was but the beginning. Whereas God had originally created man in His own “image” and “likeness” (Gen. 1:26,27), we read later that Adam begat Seth “in his own likeness, after his image” (Gen. 5:3).

And so parents down through the ages have begotten children like themselves, with fallen natures and wills of their own, until today we have some three billion wills operating in the world instead of the one, central will of God.

This does not mean, however, that God has abdicated, or that the future of the world is now subject to the wills of three billion fallen creatures. Nor was God forced to formulate new plans because of the fall of man. Far from it, for despite man's rebellion—even through it—God has been carrying out His plan and every true believer rejoices that God “worketh all things after the counsel of His own will” (Eph. 1:11). While He does not rule directly in the affairs of men, He very definitely overrules, and as a result “all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose” (Rom. 8:28).

Outlook for Deer Hunts Reassuring

The recent flood of news concerning the Hill Country deer conditions may have caused many people to cancel their plans to go hunting in that area of the state this season. Don't misinterpret the information to mean that all the deer in the Hill Country are dead or in such bad shape they aren't fit to be hunted.

Hardin Bradley, conservation officer for District 3, reported that Mason County as a whole, for example, now has almost as many deer as this past year. “The only area showing a shortage of deer is in the Castell area,” said the Game and Fish Commission officer. “As most people know, the Castell area is not ideal deer country to begin with, most of it being open mesquite country.”

Bradley reported that most areas had a good crop of mesquite beans and persimmons and now has an excellent crop of acorns, both liveoak and post oak.

“Don't think the bucks will have antlers as large as those of last year, due to the extremely dry weather during the period of antler development,” said Bradley.

“However,” he assured, “taking everything into consideration, I think we will have a very good season and the hunters will find the deer in good condition.”

The conservation officer reported that about the same number of antlerless deer permits will be issued this year as the 10,000 plus issued last year. There are some fine hunting leases still open, mostly season leases. If you are interested in hunting the Hill Country, simply write to one of the chamber of commerce offices in the city nearest to where you wish to hunt.

Cotton Classing Office Adds More Personnel

The Altus Cotton Classing Office increased its classing personnel by one-third, and the Micronaire facilities were doubled, in anticipation of a build-up of samples to be classed, according to C. E. Cox, officer in charge.

More than 11,000 samples were classed during the week ending November 16, bringing the season total to about 58,000. Total classed to the same date last year was 168,000. At this time a year ago cotton harvest had already passed the peak and receipts had begun to decline.

Grades and staples classed during the week remained relatively unchanged, according to figures based on statistical averages. Grades showed 26 per cent classed white, 62 per cent light spotted, and 11 per cent spotted.

Staples averaged 16 per cent 29/32 inch, 38 per cent 15/16 inch, 18 per cent 31/32 and 25 per cent 1 inch and longer. Three-tenths of one per cent was called wasty.

More than 6,000 samples were miked for farmers under the U. S. Testing Service for the week ending November 16. Averages showed two per cent reading 2.9 and lower, four per cent in the 3.0 to 3.4 range, eleven per cent in the 3.5 to 3.9 range, 67 per cent reading from 4.0 to 4.9, and 16 per cent 5.0 and higher.

Average prices paid to farmers for current ginnings are: middling light spotted 15/16, 30.35 cents per pound; middling light spotted 31/32, 30.75 cents; strict low middling light spotted 15/16, 29.32 cents; and strict low middling light spotted 31/32, 29.80 cents per pound.

Plain Talk

The best hitters in professional baseball have batting averages of between .300 and .400. This means that, out of every 10 times they have come up to the plate, they have to hit safely three or four times. And that's hitting, as any ballplayer knows.

But look at it another way. These great batters fail to hit oftener than they hit. Time after time they step up to the plate and hit a grounder to an infielder, or fly out to an outfielder, or strike out.

In the same way a great ball carrier in football is often stopped for no gain. And a great inventor has dozens of failures before he perfects a successful invention. And a great chemist tries hundreds of experiments before he makes one important discovery.

All of which means one thing: success isn't figured by averages. Nobody will remember the times you struck out in the early innings, if you hit a home run with the bases full in the ninth. The crowd won't care about the many shots you missed if you win the basketball game with one brilliant goal. Failures mean nothing at all if success comes eventually. —Albert C. Smith.

The Irony of It

If a nation values anything more than freedom, it will lose its freedom; and the irony of it is that, if it is comfort or money that it values more, it will lose that too.—Somerset Maugham.

No Will? Who Inherits Property?

What will happen if you should die without executing a legal and proper will? Who will inherit your property? Your husband, wife, mother, father, children, your wife's relatives? The best way you can say who will have it is to provide a will which will protect your rightful beneficiaries and dispose of your property in accordance with your wishes.

When a deceased has no will, or dies “intestate” as the law calls it, the property of that person is distributed according to a detailed formula fixed by law. In some cases this may be the way you yourself would divide it—but in many cases it is not.

The provisions of the law concerning the distribution of the property of a person who dies without a will are rather complicated, and all of the possibilities cannot be covered by a general statement.

There are different rules for real estate and for personal property, for community property and for separate property, for homestead property, and for all of the many possible combinations of surviving relatives. Each situation must be carefully studied to determine the correct distribution of the property.

For example, here is a general idea of how the community property which you and your spouse have accumulated will be divided if you do not make a will prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and there are no children, the surviving spouse receives all of the property.

If, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of deceased children, they will divide one-half of the property, while the surviving spouse would receive the other one-half.

Of course, grandchildren do not share in the estate unless their parent who would inherit is deceased. And when descendants of previously deceased children do inherit, they receive only the portion that the child would have received, regardless of the number of such descendants.

An odd note, perhaps, is that the surviving spouse already owns one-half of the community estate prior to your death, and the law adds nothing to this share where there are children surviving.

When there are only children and their descendants surviving, they divide the entire community estate between them.

“Indomitable To Conquer”

Tyrants invariably come to a violent end. Being tyrants, they lack respect for the individual, and the capacity to judge the latent energies of free nations. Perhaps, the greatest danger of war lies in this one weakness of the dictator.

The Joplin, Missouri, Globe recently addressed a timely message editorially to Mr. Khrushchev:

“You wouldn't understand such things, but the full force of America's patriotism is within her breast, it permeates her soul. It may be latent, but it is all-powerful. It would be the greatest tragedy in all world history for you to mistake human fears of nuclear war for a lack of courage and faith to fight and sacrifice for a priceless freedom which you and your people do not comprehend.

“If you doubt this, let's go back to Pearl Harbor day, December 7, 1941, when America was caught napping . . .

“Almost overnight, Americans were outproducing both Hitler and the Japanese warlords. They went from a few thousand warplanes to 300,000, from 464 outmoded tanks to 90,000 modern ones, from a trickle of shipping production to a peak of 24 million tons in 1943. They mobilized the greatest mechanized military machine in all history . . .

“In addition, they picked your punch-drunk nation up off the floor and revived it to help turn back Hitler's legions. And American science gave the world nuclear power that ended the war, the secrets of which your country didn't have the ingenuity to fathom, but instead stole from us. This kind of a powerful America still lives today . . . It may be vulnerable to attack, but it remains indomitable to conquer.”

Destruction by Over-Regulation

Many cities that have allowed their rail lines to disappear “are belatedly finding out that they will have to be rebuilt, and at far higher cost.” This is the view of Representative Van Zandt of Pennsylvania, who is one of the top Congressional experts on the transportation situation and transportation problems. He also said that 10 years of preoccupation with multi-lane freeways “as solution to metropolitan transportation problems is now revealed as the wrong approach.”

The effects of the railroad depression are not, of course, confined to the metropolitan area. They are of direct concern, or way or another, to every community in the country. Railroads as they long have been, the very backbone of our transcontinental transportation complex regardless of other carriers, desirable as necessary as they have become.

What is the solution to the railroad problem in particular—and to the transportation problem in general? Mr. Van Zandt spots for virtually all experts on the subject when he said that making freedom should be extended and not curtailed, and the railroads should not be denied the right to adjust their prices merely to protect other forms of transport. In his words, “Each transportation agency should be free to tailor services to fit the need of customers. But under government regulation today . . . basic principles of sound regulatory policy are completely ignored. The result has been to encourage the inefficient in transportation at the expense of the efficient.”

Mr. Van Zandt made another significant point. After observing that we have spent $1,364,000,000 in foreign aid to railroad projects abroad, he said: “Surely it is reasonable to expect our government to give as much attention to insuring adequate railroad service at home as it has to providing for railroad needs in other countries.”

Chief Support of Virtue, Morality, Civil Liberty and Religion

Benjamin Franklin once said: “A good newspaper and Bible in every house, a good schoolhouse in every district, and a church in every neighborhood, all appreciated as they deserve are the chief support of virtue, morality, civil liberty and religion.”

Re-Established

According to David Lawrence prohibition cost the nation in lost revenue and enforcement expenses an “estimated . . . 30 billion dollars.” Finally, he says, “The Eighteenth Amendment was repealed by adoption of the Twenty-first Amendment, which turned the problem back to the States. The principle of local option was re-established.”

4-H Builds Physically Fit Citizens Through National Program

by Margarite McNally

There were not always four H's in the 4-H Club emblem.
Around 1909, a three-leaf clover overlaid with three H's was designed and made into pins.
These were awarded to prize-winning corn club members, forerunners of the 4-H movement. The original H's stood for head, heart and hands, as they still do.

Then in 1911 at a meeting of club leaders in Washington, D.
C., a pioneer of boys and girls club work, O. B. Martin, recommended a fourth H be added. This represented "health," and thus the purpose of the clubs became four-fold.

A half century later, the health
H continues to fulfill the expectation of those farsighted Americans who pioneered the now world-wide youth organization.
The fourth H inspires boys and girls from both farm and city to strive for "better health" and prepares them to "resist disease, enjoy life, and make for efficiency," as stated 50 years ago.

Next November, six 1962 national 4-H Health program award winners will be selected by the Cooperative Extension Service.
Each will receive an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress plus a $400 college scholarship.

They will be among 48 state health award winners attending the congress on a free trip given by Eli Lilly and Company, sponsor of the 4-H Health program.

It is a fact that all 2.3 million 4-H Club members pledge their "health to better living." But more specifically, well over three-quarter million members are engaged in the national 4-H Health program, according to the Cooperative Extension Service.

This space-age health program has well defined objectives, and offers gratifying awards. Members themselves gain physical fitness through exercise, proper diet, rest and recreation. What's more, they participate in county-wide health projects, and give leadership to health activities locally.

Check the Rules
Before You Hunt
That Bonus Deer

Many hunters still do not know how to use the bonus deer tag attached to their regular hunting license this year. Here's the way it works, according to H. D. Dodgen, executive secretary for the Game and Fish Commission.

First of all, it can be used only on antlerless or doe deer. It cannot be used on buck deer. Before you can use this bonus tag you must have an antlerless deer permit. The antlerless deer permit can be obtained only from the landowner on whose land you are hunting. You must have this antlerless deer permit before you can kill an antlerless or doe deer.

As soon as you get your antlerless or doe deer the bonus tag must be tied along with the permit to the foreleg of the deer.
You can use your other two tags on antlerless deer so long as each has an antlerless deer permit to go with it. The bonus tag is located by itself at the far left of your license. The bonus tag and the antlerless or doe deer permit are two entirely different forms.

Before you kill an antlerless or doe deer, be sure to check with the landowner and get your permit. Remember, you cannot use the third, or bonus, deer tag on buck deer. Only the two tags together at the far right of your licenses can be used for bucks.
The antlerless or doe permits can only be obtained from the landowner on whose property you intend to hunt.

Ex-Crowell People Involved in Car
Wreck Near Dallas

A Weatherford man was killed and two Carrollton residents—former citizens of Crowell—injured, one critically, in a head-on collision Monday afternoon of last week on East Jefferson near the Dallas city limits.

The dead man was identified as William C. Garland, 76.

Mrs. Lawrence Kimsey, 62, of Carrollton, was taken to Methodist Hospital in critical condition.
Her husband, also at Methodist Hospital, was in good condition following the wreck, hospital officials said.

Grand Prairie police said the wreck occurred in a 50-mile speed zone about 2:30 p. m. A car driven by the Weatherford man collided with the Kimsey vehicle on the Kimseys' side of the street, police said.

A wrecker was required to remove Garland from his car. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Great Southwest Hospital.

Junior Leaders

Junior Leaders met in the Community Center on November 20.
Jean Burkett read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll. The hostesses for the next meeting are Jon Ann Carter and Joylyn Haynie. The hostesses for the meeting Nov. 20 were Rosalie Latimer, Betty Ann Welch and Sharon Golden. It was brought up before the club to have a party, and it was decided to have a skating party at Sand Beach in Wichita Falls, on Dec.
8. Good reports were given by Dena Todd, Karen Shirley and Hollis Halbert on poisonous snakes.
They learned what to do in case of snake bite and how to recognize certain snake bites.

Nearly $2 Million Required to Keep Highways Clean

Almost two million dollars—funds that could have built 72 miles of farm to market roads or 24 miles of two-lane primary highways—had to be spent by the Texas Highway Department to remove litter from the highways and repair vandalism damage last year.

This is much like a man throwing trash in his own yard and then paying someone to pick it up, for Texas motorists are covering the "front yards" of their state with a trail of trash and then "footing the bill" to have it cleaned up.
Last year the Highway Department had to spend $1,344,000 to remove this unsightly and unsanitary mess from the roadsides.

In addition, sign vandalism accounted for another $385,900.
Other vandalism totaled $70,000 to bring the total for litter removal and vandalism to $1,799,- 900.

Vandalism, according to the Highway Department classification, covers such items as damaging and destroying signs and sign supports, marking on structures, and damaging safety rest areas (roadside parks). Litter includes beer cans, watermelon rinds, bottles, wrappers, newspapers, milk cartons, and cigarette packages.

The litter problem is more or less localized to certain sections of highways along the more heavily traveled routes and the urban areas. It is believed that people are more likely to throw trash from their cars when they travel the same route every day. Also, roads leading from "wet" counties to "dry" counties comes under heavy bombardment of cans and bottles.

At the present time, well-traveled federal and state highways are cleaned about three or four times a year, farm to market roads once or twice a year. Freeways in the urban areas require much more mowing and cleaning.

Highway engineers are constantly seeking new methods or machines that will help to remove the mess from our highways, but so far the only satisfactory method has proved to be the man with the stick.

When Is Father Just "Dad?"
H. C. Chatfield answers this question this way: If he's wealthy and prominent, and you stand in awe of him, call him "Father." If he sits in his shirt-sleeves and suspends at ball games and picnics, call him "Pop." If he tills the land or labors in overalls, call him
"Pa." If he wheels the baby carriage and carries bundles meekly, call him "Papa," with the accent on the first syllable. If he belongs to a literary circle and writes cultured papers, call him "Papa," with the accent on the last syllable. If, however, he makes a pal of you when you're good, and is too wise to let you pull the wool over his loving eyes when you're not; if, moreover, you're sure no one else you know has quite so fine a father, you may call him
"Dad."

LAND UNDER FIRE — Officials of state and federal government had a heated discussion over land values on Matagorda in a preliminary round in General Land Office.

State of Texas will contest the Island since 1942 for Air

Tex. — Republicans turned Texas into a two-party state. Heavy vote for Jack Cox and John Connally, election members to the national House of Representatives and members to the Texas Legislature, plus substantial Republican vote in nearly all areas, are interpreted by many State observers as meaning that again will the Democratic Party be "tantamount to County elected every legislative candidate for county legislative office they had on ballot, and gave Cox a 25-point lead over Connally. Taylor and Harris were close. Hernandez, Travis and Nueces, four of the big counties, Democratic. Official and incomplete returns indicate that Connally carried 94 counties and Cox carried 6. It was the substantial victory in the 204 counties he which makes this election significant. Connally is conferring with legislature and with state boards and commissions. He will not make budget recommendations to the Legislature in January. Connally will make his own proposals in his message to the Legislature.

Industrialization, tourism, high-education and water conservation are the areas of state activity which Connally stressed most in his campaign. He will propose creation of a Bureau of Conservation to take over tourist and industry-attracting. The new governor, with a 120-point margin of victory under belt, said he holds no ill will for areas which voted against him. He will be governor for 4½ years as well as Democrats. Areas where the Republican strong were in the oil fields of West and East Texas, in major cities, and in the Panhandle. They elected local officials in Midland, Ector, Smith, Elbert, Kerr, Bexar, Pecos, Hutchinson, Zavala and Randall counties.

CAMPAIGNS TOO LONG — The longest political campaign in Texas history there is a campaign on the part of many candidates, newspaper reporters who vote with the candidates, and voting public—to return to shorter campaign periods. The old late-in-July, late-in-August and early-in-November months were far less strenuous than the present early-in-June, early-in-June and early-November dates. Campaigning in the heat of the summer now is very much preferred over the cold winter months the long-tedious battle period that extends from December to February.

Plans for the dam, which was backed by local citizenry 2 1/2 to 1 in a local bond election, will include a reservoir with storage capacity of 25,210 acre feet; supply pipeline to town; and a filter plant. Surface water will be used with water from Trinity wells until the well supply dwindles. Then the reservoir is expected to supply all water for a population expected to reach 24,000 in 1995.

TALKING BOOKS — Only about 10 per cent of the estimated 25,000 blind people in Texas are taking advantage of a free service just for them, said Dr. Norman H. Winfrey, director of the Texas State Library. Winfrey said that this 10 per cent "read" about 56,467 talking books last year. But he estimated that the books which are recorded on phonograph records would be read by 10,000 if they were told about them.

The state library circulates both talking books and Braille, free of charge, including postage, to any eligible blind person. Inquires about eligibility should be sent to the State Commission for the Blind, 201 East 14th Street, Austin.

House committee is in the process of checking the efficiency of operations of each of Texas' 24 state licensing agencies. Rule challenged by attorney Quentin Keith would prevent optometrists from practicing under a trade name, and force an optometrist to be in his office 50 per cent of the time he's open for business.

Disputed rule—approved in December, 1959—has never gone into effect because of a restraining order Lee Optical filed three days after its passage. Injunction is still effective, since the suit has not come to trial.

STINSON HIRED—Texas Tourist Council hired an executive vice president, Bill Stinson, a member of governor-elect John Connally's campaign staff. Stinson, former public relations director for the Gunter Hotel in San Antonio, will open an office in Austin soon.

FARM INCOME DOWN — Between 1929 and 1961, farmers' and farm laborers' incomes showed a percentage decrease of 12.8 per cent, according to the Bureau of Business Research. Percentages are up in mining, contract construction, manufacturing and retail trade, but down in transportation, property income and proprietors' income.

BIG THICKET ACTIVITY — Governor Daniel picked 31 state officials, historians and East Texans to study the feasibility of a state park in the Big Thicket area. A report is due by the time the Legislature meets in January.

TAXES AND DEFICIT BOTH RISE — The state deficit has increased despite higher tax collections. Robert S. Calvert, State Comptroller, reports the general fund deficit stood at $56,284,795 as of October 31. This compares to $51,002,099 a month earlier.

TRANSFER OF AUTHORITY — Gov. Price Daniel wants regulatory control over radioisotope used in Texas vested in the State Health Department. On behalf of the State he has asked the Atomic Energy Commission to transfer control to the Health Department "as soon as possible."

HOPES TO EXPAND — Some 50 top general aviation leaders have asked the Texas Aeronautics Commission to expand its program of improving small airports and giving safety instructions. Commission Chairman Paul M. Fulk of Wolfe City pointed out that the commission's problem lies in the more than $20,000 accruing monthly from unclaimed aviation fuel tax refunds.

TOURIST TRAFFIC RISING — Reports to the Texas Highway Department indicate tourist traffic into the state is on the rise. Travel promotion is credited with ending the five-year decline. Governor Daniel says his mail gives two good reasons why folks like to tour Texas: a fine highway system and the friendliness of Texans.

INAUGURATION FEVER — Capital city folks already are getting "Inauguration Fever." "Inaugural plans for Governor-elect John B. Connally will be far more elaborate than any held in the past decade." So reports Frank Erwin, secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, who is in charge of arrangements.

Festivities will begin the evening of January 14 when 5,000 Democrats are expected to pay $25 a plate for a Victory Dinner in Austin's Municipal Auditorium. On the morning of the 15th, there will be an interfaith Prayer Breakfast in the Driskill Hotel.

At noon Governor-elect Connally and Lieutenant Governor-elect Preston Smith will be "sworn in" in a ceremony supervised by the State Senate and House of Representatives. Inaugural parade, following the ceremony, is expected to be one of the largest ever held in Austin. High school bands from all over the state are accepting Connally's invitation to participate. Many out-of-town floats also will participate. Also taking part will be the U. S. Navy, with a salute to its former secretary, John Connally.

The Capitol and all state buildings on its grounds will be illuminated that evening. All Texans will be invited to greet their new chief executive and other elected state officials and enjoy refreshments and entertainment in the Capitol.

minated that evening. All Texans will be invited to greet their new chief executive and other elected state officials and enjoy refreshments and entertainment in the Capitol.

TEXTBOOKS SELECTED — State Board of Education voted to accept the State Textbook Committee's recommendations for new texts in 12 public school courses, and approved its recommendation not to select new economics texts at this time. In compiling a list of some 65 textbooks for selection by local boards, the 16-member committee studied 188 books submitted by 33 publishers, with the assistance of 517 professional advisors and 400 laymen.

TEXAS EDUCATION AGENCY — Experts in 10 fields then reviewed their selections and submitted some 400 suggested corrections, which the publishers agreed to make. Most of the corrections refer to typographical mistakes and minor factual errors. State Library agreed to keep a copy of each recommended text so that they will be available to individuals who may want to protest acceptance by local school boards.

Board of Education also will send samples to local boards, according to enrollment: one set for 500 pupils; 16 sets for 10,001 to 50,000 pupils; etc. Local boards must appoint their selection committees by Dec. 15. REPORT POSTPONED—House Textbook Investigation Committee postponed completion of its final report to the next Legislature for the second time.

Committee, headed by Rep. W. T. Dungan of McKinney, will meet on December 27. Then each of its five reports will submit individual reports on hearings held in Austin, Amarillo and San Antonio. Decision to make separate reports from each committee member underscored the squabbling which has beset the committee since it began public hearings last January.

Committee voted to exclude mention of a Dallas hearing, where former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker testified, since Representative Dungan was the only member present. RABIES DOWN — State Department of Public Health reports that the incidence of rabies is decreasing. For example, the number of rabies cases reported between January 1 and September 30 of 1960 was 1,336. Reports for the same period in 1962, nine years later, totaled 448.

No cases of rabies in bats were listed from 1953 to 1956. But they numbered 26 this year. Dogs were the animals most frequently infected with rabies. Foxes followed second. Only 15 cases of rabies in humans have been reported over the past 10 years.

EIGHT DAYS AGAIN — Texas Railroad Commission has set an eight-day oil allowable for the 11th month in a row. January was the last month that oil producers were allowed to operate prorated wells on a nine-day allowable. Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners proposed fractional-day orders.

A spokesman for the Texas Landowners and Independent Producers Association said his group will ask the Legislature to change the market demand law so the Railroad Commission can set allowables on a basis of Texas' share of national oil reserves. But Chairman William J. Murray Jr. stated that the commission believes it now has the authority needed "to set allowables as high as the market will take."

He added that the commission would go to fractional days, or to a percentage, if such a step is needed. Murray also said that a plan for tougher new test requirements in the East Texas field is being devised by the commission. HOUSE CEREMONY—Speaker of the House James A. Turman invited newly-elected members of the House of Representatives to take their oath of office in a mass ceremony on November 23.

That's the day votes officially will be canvassed and all non-returning representatives will be removed from the House payroll. Turman's invitation was issued immediately after Attorney General Will Wilson ruled that Turman will continue to serve until his successor, Rep. James Dee Cole of Greenville, qualifies for his new term.

Opinion was requested to clear up a situation muddled by redistricting of legislative districts. Cole was elected to represent a new district which includes his old one as well as Turman's. Members whose districts were abolished by re-districting can hold office until newly-elected members

He can administer the oaths, etc., and then the Senate can go through the exercises prescribed by proper procedure. HIDES FOR THERAPY — The Volunteer Services Council for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools is urging deer hunters to donate hides of killed deer to state patients and students for occupational therapy use.

Council said shipping tags giving specific directions for donating the hides are available from most chambers of commerce. Council arranges tanning and delivery of the finished leather to the State Hospitals and Special Schools. SAVING LIVES — Texas six-year traffic safety program has resulted in 300 lives saved. Governor Daniel and the Texas Traffic Council so summed up the effort at decreasing the rate of fatalities on streets and highways.

Then they passed the torch to Governor-elect Connally, Attorney General-elect Waggoner Carr and their administration. How to save lives was the subject of a two-hour conference in Austin. Connally and Carr were present to accept the challenge. DRAFT CALL UP — The State Selective Service director says Texas' December draft quota calls for 235 men.

This is an increase of 82 over November. Col. Morris Schwartz said the December call is the state's share of a national quota of 6,000 men, all for the Army. Local boards will send no men for pre-induction physical and mental exams.

Schwartz said the December quota will be filled with men who are at least 22 years old on December 1, except for volunteers and those legally termed delinquent under the draft law. Short Snorts Governor Daniel has named Jenkins Garrett of Fort Worth to succeed Lincoln Borglum of Beville as a member of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee of the Texas Historical Foundation.

Sen. Tom Creighton, chairman of the Texas Election Study Committee, says public hearings will be held in Austin on December 6-8 to discuss changes in the Texas Election Code. The Board for Hospitals and Special Schools has voted unanimously to make Richmond the next site of a school for the men-ally retarded. A new Railroad Commission rule on slant oil wells provides that deviation surveys can be made on existing wells at the request of a neighboring operator. The two per cent general sales tax is meeting estimates of its sponsors. Taxes on cigarettes, hotels, natural gas, motor vehicles sales and inheritances are exceeding expectations.

Ernest G. Thompson, who has served on the Texas Railroad Commission longer than any other man, is back at his desk after a long illness. Religion Is Taught All Day Every Day Once when inspecting a school, a visitor asked this question of the head teacher: "Where in your day's schedule do you teach religion?"

"We teach it all day long," was the reply. "We teach it in arithmetic by accuracy. We teach it in language by learning to say what we mean. We teach it in history by humanity. We teach it in geography by breadth of mind. We teach it in handicrafts by thoroughness. We teach it in astronomy by reverence. We teach it in the playground by fair play. We teach it by kindness to animals, by good manners to one another, and by helpfulness in all things. We teach it by showing the young that we, their elders, are their friends."—The Katelids.

Three Basic Rights Come From God "The right to life comes from God and to live it one does not have to deprive others. The right of liberty comes from God and one may enjoy it without taking it from others. The right to pursue happiness or enjoy what we have created also comes from God and does not involve taking anything from others. . . . We in America are discovering ourselves in the position of having gone far beyond the basic three rights named above. We hear of other added 'rights'—which sound good at first, but which have already led us a long way down the path of socialism. . . ."—Freeman, S. D., Courier.

Presents Challenge

In a recent issue of Stanford Today, Karl Brandt says, "Thanks in considerable measure to the bully tactics of Stalin, Molotov, and their successors, Europe is striking off its fetters of narrow nationalism, reverting to its superior historical tradition. As it does so, it becomes a strong partner of the United States. Preservation of this partnership, which in effect means guarding against the European Economic Community turning into an emancipated Third Power, challenges the diplomatic resources of this country."

Government Has Enough Problems

A recent editorial in the Foard County News, Wisconsin, Commonwealth Reporter, says, "The government has enough business problems without trying to sell electricity. The yearly post office deficit is just one example. Private enterprise has been the mainstay in our country's growth. We see no reason why the government should try to take over a successful private enterprise like the utility industry."

Deterrent to Investment

Robert G. Dunlop, president of Sun Oil Company makes the following statement: "The public has virtually no conception of the administrative maze of regulation surrounding business in this country. But to the businessman the regulation is a hard reality. The flow of new regulations and reinterpretations of old regulations—many appearing to be at cross-purposes with one another—introduce elements of confusion and uncertainty over the future. Of all the deterrents to investment, a clouded future is the most effective."

NOTICE!

Notice is hereby given that the following acts are injurious to the Public Health:

Article 696
 Whoever shall leave the carcass of any animal, which died in the actual possession of such person, within five hundred yards of any private residence, or in any public road or highway, or in any street or alley of any town or city, or within fifty yards of such public road, highway, street or alley, shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Article 696A

It shall be unlawful for any municipal corporation, private corporation, firm or person to dump, deposit, or leave any refuse, garbage, rubbish or junk on any public road or highway in this State or permit the same to remain within or nearer than three hundred (300) yards on any public road or highway in this State, whether the refuse, garbage, rubbish or junk being dumped, deposited or left, or the land upon which refuse, garbage, rubbish or junk is dumped, deposited or left, belongs to the person or persons so dumping, depositing or leaving it or not; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not affect farmers in the growing, handling and care of livestock, or the erection, operation and maintenance of any and all such improvements that may be necessary in the handling, thrashing and preparation of any and all agricultural products.

Any violation of this Act by any person, firm or private corporation, shall, upon conviction, subject the offender to a fine of not less than $10.00 and not more than $200.00, and each day of any such violation shall be treated as a separate offense. In the event of any threatened or probable violation of it shall be the duty of the County or District Attorney in the county in which such violation is threatened, to bring suit for injunction to prevent such threatened or probable violation. Any person affected or to be affected by any such threatened or probable violation shall have the right to enjoin such violation or threatened violation. The enforcement of the remedy hereinabove provided by injunction shall not prevent the enforcement of the other penalties provided in this Act. (See Article 696 and 696A of the Vernon's Texas Penal Code for complete law.)

It is requested by the Commissioners' Court of Knox County, and the Knox County Sheriff's Department that all violations be reported. Violators will be prosecuted.

Blast Virtually Demolishes Mack Edens' Home

An explosion, apparently from accumulated gas under the floor of the kitchen, virtually demolished the living quarters of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Edens at the rear of their service station and store seven miles north of Vernon on U. S. Highway 283. The explosion occurred Monday afternoon of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edens are former residents of Thalia.

Four persons, two of them in the living room and two others in the store, miraculously escaped injury. A gasoline wholesale delivery truck operator who was filling the service station's underground storage tanks with gasoline was picked up and shaken by the blast.

Grady Austin, the truck driver, was able to smother out flames in grass and flowers around the filler cap some 10 feet south of the house with asbestos siding—avoiding a gasoline fire which could have turned the entire scene into a holocaust.

Mr. Austin said he stopped delivery of the gasoline and moved the truck safely out of range.

There was no indication that fire, other than the original flash of the blast, developed in the house.
