Easter Time

It's Easter time once again! It's the time of the fuzzy white rabbit and the rainbow-colored eggs. Children eagerly rush out with their baskets, searching in the grass and under the trees for eggs left there by the Easter Bunny. When the children grow older, they put their Easter baskets on the shelf and remember the day by dressing in fancy, new clothes. Boys look "sharp" in their new suits; little girls are "all dolled up" in their frilly, new spring fashions. Their parents are also attired in the latest style clothes, including snappy fedoras and smart Easter bonnets.

Easter is the time that school children get two days out of school for holidays. It is a time of family reunions and picnic outings, a time of relaxation and fun.

This is a picture of Easter in America—but is it the complete picture? Fortunately, some people of America still remember the true meaning of Easter—the anniversary of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Easter is the time Christians become poignantly aware of God's great love in giving "his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16). Let this Easter mean more than just a day to wear that new hat or to find that brilliantly colored gifts from the Easter bunny. Let it be a time of giving thanks for the greatest gift of all time—the Lord Jesus.

Senior Personality

The senior personality this week is Arcina Ann Garrett, an 18-year-old blonde.

Her favorites include the color, brown; the food, broiled steak; the sport, tennis; the book, "Gone with the Wind"; the actor, Geo. Chakiris; the actress, Audrey Hepburn; the teacher, Mrs. Todd; and the subject, bookkeeping. Her pet peeve is a person who says something he doesn't mean.

She has participated in such organizations as the Wildcat staff, annual staff, Adelpian Club, Junior Leaders, rifle club, Spanish Club, and F. H. A.

After graduating, Arcina, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Garrett, plans to attend North Texas State University; she will major in psychology.

Mrs. Brown Shows Slides of Mexico

Instead of holding their regular meeting, members of the Crowell FHA enjoyed slides shown by Mrs. Hubert Brown Tuesday, Mar. 17, in the auditorium. Other members of the student body were invited to attend.

Mrs. Brown talked of Old Mexico and showed many colorful slides which she and Mr. Brown had taken on a trip there. The students got a glimpse of the customs and dress of the Mexican people as well as of many interesting places; such as Pyramid of the Sun, the mural painted buildings of the University of Mexico, the beautiful flower-covered boats at Xochimilco, etc.

The students wish to thank Mrs. Brown for giving them a chance to "visit" Mexico.

Cisco College Entertains

The Crowell Schools were privileged to have the Cisco Junior College concert and stage bands, choir and drill team to entertain them Monday, March 23. Earl Hesse, Crowell's band director last year, led the all-boy Rangier Concert Band in playing several numbers.

Then, the Rangier Belles, dressed in fringed shorts and vests and cowboy shirts and hats, did some interesting routines to the accompaniment of the band. Mrs. Kathy Hesse is the sponsor of the drill team.

Mr. Goleman, head of the band department of CPC, directed the choir in singing western, folk, and religious music. Included in this group were Mr. Hesse and Gary Griffith, a former Crowell graduate.

The stage band then came on with some "swinging" numbers, including "White Silver Sands," sung by the assistant drum major of the drill team.

Perhaps the highlight of the entire program was a performance by the Cockroaches, Cisco's version of the Beatles! Mr. Hesse and several students played and sang in Beatle hair styles—some wore their own hair, others wigs.

The program was brought to a close with the playing of "Theme and Variation" and the band's theme song. This program was a rare treat for the entire student body as well as for many town guests who were present.

Library Welcomes Spring

To welcome spring, Dolores Eubanks and Mary Ann Ramsey have decorated a beautiful bulletin board in the CHS Library. They have made beautiful flowers of all colors, springing from a carpet of green grass. Above this "spring scene" are colorful pictures of three books.

With spring comes the challenge to seek new adventures. Reading can be both pleasure and adventure. The three books that Dolores and Mary Ann suggested are "The Robe," "Gone with the Wind" and "Lost Horizon." Students should notice the bulletin board because it is of great beauty and interest. The librarians would like to thank Mary Ann and Dolores for volunteering their time and talent to make the attractive display.

New books that have arrived in the library are The Sal Maglie Story, The Coast Guard, Sunrise at Campobello, Underwater Adventures, If Cows Could Talk, Murder at the Corners, Four States Corner, Lincoln's Journey to Greatness, Reader's Digest Condensed Books, and Mandate for Challenge.

Student Council Members Attend Convention

The annual T. A. S. C. convention was enjoyed tremendously by the newly elected officers—Ken Ferguson, Steve Kralicke, Hollis Halbert and Larry Taylor—and this year's president, Carolyn Hickman. Marvin Myers, sponsor of the Student Council, accompanied the students.

The convention was held in Houston March 19-21. The group arrived in this seventh largest city in the U. S. Thursday noon, and were assigned to their various rooms at the Towers Motor Hotel. Thursday at 7:30 p. m. the first general session was held at the Delmar Field House. Afterwards, the students attended a "mixer" in the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel. Friday morning at 9:30, the second general session got underway. At noon, lunch was catered to the students and sponsors. Friday evening, the officers and delegates attended discussion groups and problem clinics.

At 8:30 p. m. there was a semi-formal dance in the Emerald room of the Shamrock-Hilton. Saturday at 9:30 a. m., the third and final session was held.

Our delegates had the opportunity to hear many outstanding speakers, as well as to take part in many discussions. The officers for 64-65 gained many ideas which they can use next year.

The group would particularly like to express its appreciation to Mr. Myers. Besides accompanying them to the meeting, he drove the group through Huntsville to see both the prisons and in Houston to see Rice University.

Acknowledgment from Mrs. Kennedy

(Editor's note: The following is a copy of a note received by Carolyn Hickman, president of the Student Council. This is in regard to a donation of $27.00 which the Crowell students sent for the Kennedy children's birthdays. The money was sent on to the Tippitt family.)

Dear Friend: Mrs. Kennedy has asked me to thank you for your kind letter of sympathy and thoughtful contribution. She is only sorry that the tremendous volume of mail prevents her from writing a personal message to all those who have taken the time to write her. Your contribution is being forwarded to the cause which you specified in your letter and we are sure it will be received with appreciation. Sincerely, Nancy Tuckerman Secretary to Mrs. Kennedy.

Spring Has Sprung!

It's spring! As all of you girls know, this is the season when a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love. However, when I asked several of the CHS boys, "What do you think of when you think of spring?" these are some of the answers I got:

Gary Taylor, golf; Larry Henry, warm weather, green leaves; Pete Campbell, riding horses, everything turns green; Paul Campbell, getting out of school; James Neeley, tennis; Rickey Traweek, soccer; Woody Lemons, "ho-i-ing"; Otis Smith, spring fever; Kenneth Carroll, sleep; Jimmy Gillespie, fishing; James Corder, laziness; Monte Smith, green things, warm weather; Steve Kralicke, old age (my birthday's in April); Philip Welch, fishing.

Well, girls, there's always summer, fall and winter!

there's just no limit

... to how clean electricity is. With just the flick of a switch or punch of a button—you never see it, or smell it, it's so clean you'd hardly know it was there. With no flame there is no smoke, smudge, film or fumes, no vents to check or burners to adjust—this means less cleaning required for walls, curtains, furniture. If you'll stop and think about it you'll agree that flameless electricity is the easiest, cleanest, most comfortable way to live.

Marvin Jones Retiring
as Chief U. S. Claims Court Judge

President Johnson approved last Thursday the retirement of regular active service of Chief Judge Marvin Jones of the United States Court of Claims. Jones is a Texan who has served in Washington since 1917, at various times in all three branches of the government.

He will be put on a roster of senior judges so he can be available for service at any time when assigned by the chief justice of the Supreme Court. "I'm in good health and I want to serve from time to time," the 78-year-old judge said. "I've already heard from three circuit courts that they want me to work when they need me."

Judge Jones plans to live part of the time in Washington and part of the time in Texas after he leaves the Court of Claims.

He still calls Amarillo home and still votes there, having served in Congress 24 years from the Amarillo district at which time he represented Foard County. He was born near Gainesville.

Judge Jones went to the House of Representatives in 1917, at 29 its youngest member at that time. He left Congress in 1941 to take a place on the Court of Claims. In 1942, however, he became assistant to James Byrnes, then director of war mobilization. While in this position, he headed the U. S. delegation to the first International Conference on Food and Agriculture, held at Hot Springs, Va., in 1943. Jones was federal food administrator during the last two and a half years of World War II. In 1947, he was appointed chief justice of the Court of Claims. Later the title was changed to chief judge.

During his service in the House of Representatives, Judge Jones was a frequent visitor in Foard County.

Mrs. Maude Fish of the Vivian community spent Sunday night and Monday night here visiting Mrs. Allen Fish.

Chevrolet will go to any length to make you happy

Things have changed a lot since a Chevy was only a Chevy. Especially your ideas of what you want a Chevy to be.

So now you have the Jet-smooth Chevrolet—17½ feet of pure luxury, bumper to bumper. The size makes it a luxury car. But not the price.

Or you can choose the thrifty Chevy II, a 15¼-foot family car with all kinds of passenger and luggage space.

This year, your choice might be the new 16-foot-plus Chevelle, sized to fit nicely between Chevrolet and Chevy II (and between parking meters, with five whole feet left over).

Then, too, there's the sporty 15-foot Corvair, so right for so many people (you girls, in particular) that we've never touched an inch of it. And finally, Corvette—still 14½ feet and still too much for any true sports-car lover to say no to.

The long and short of it is, you don't have to go to any length to find exactly the kind of car you want. Just see the five different lines of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Mrs. Eva D. Williamson of Columbia, N. C., and Matt M. O'Shields of Tryon, N. C., were married at 5 p. m. Saturday, March 21, in the First Christian Church in Columbia. Rev. Neal Wyndham, pastor, officiated in the presence of the family and close friends.

The bride wore a heavenly blue lace and French crepe dress with full length skirt, and matching hat veil. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Hope Green of Hendersonville, N. C., was the bride's only attendant. She wore a full length dress of apricot taffeta and tulle with matching headpiece. Her flowers were yellow roses.

The bridegroom's best man was his son, Patrick O'Shields of Tryon, N. C.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the social hall of the church. Later, the couple left for a wedding trip and upon their return will reside at 6600 Arcadia Woods Road in Columbia.

Plain talk about profits and taxes

If this coop made any profit it would pay income taxes. But we're not permitted to make a profit. Federal law prohibits any person from profiting from a venture set up under cooperative laws.

The purpose of a cooperative is to allow people to join together to do something for themselves which normally isn't profitable. Coops must serve a real need and benefit not only their members but society as well.

When the income — such as from the sale of electrical service — is greater than the expense then refunds are paid to the member-owners.

These member-owners each pay taxes the same as people who aren't members of any cooperative. In this way every citizen benefits from a more efficient use of the nation's resources.

Rural electric cooperatives are good examples of people working together to be better, more productive citizens.

from Paul's second letter to Timothy, chapter four, verses two to five. She introduced James Welch whose subject was "Science Teaching—After Sputnik."

"Progress is always the result of some scientific discovery; for this reason the teaching of science should be encouraged," Mr. Welch said and he told of several experiments that can be made with costly devices and how he carries out the same experiment with a piece of equipment he has made. He said lack of space is the greatest deterrent to his local science program.

Mrs. Lewis Sloan served refreshments to thirteen members. The club welcomed back Mrs. Baxter Johnson, who had just returned from a tour around the world.

Columbian Club

A travelogue program on a freighter trip across the Pacific Ocean and to several Asiatic nations was presented to members of the Columbian Study Club at a meeting March 18 in the home of Mrs. Gerald Knox.

Mrs. A. L. Daniels was program leader. She introduced Mrs. James Daugherty of Nocona who told of her trip by freighter to Asia with her daughter. Mrs. Carl Hodges of Jacksonville, Texas.

The itinerary included the Philippine Islands, China and Japan. Mrs. Daugherty said she was impressed by the great beauty in many parts of Asia but the story of refugees from Red China left a great heartache with all who saw them. She illustrated her talk with slides and closed with a poem she wrote upon her return home. "A Picture of Life." Mrs. Daugherty has had a book of devotionals published, "Beauty for Ashes."

Mrs. John Ray, vice president, presided at the meeting. The devotional, "Christ Is Risen," was read by Mrs. Knox.

Gambleville H. D. Club

With Mrs. Buster Cates as hostess, the Gambleville Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. John Coffey Jr. on Friday, March 20. Mrs. C. S. Bartley presided at the meeting and Mrs. Cates gave an opening exercise, "How to attend Sunday school." Each member answered roll call with a "nutrition problem in my home." Additional plans were discussed for the THDA district meeting which will be at the Methodist Church in Crowell on April 28. Mrs. Clyde Cobb gave the program on "Nutrition Fads" in which she stated, "Don't be taken by food fads and salesmen who sell these products. The best way to get the full value of food is to know the nutritional value of each product you prepare." Secret pills were revealed and Mrs. Warren Haynie was awarded the door prize. Mrs. Coffey was then surprised with a gift from each member of the club for her new home. The hostess served refreshments to visitors: Mrs. Elliston of Hereford, Mrs. Jack Huebner, and fifteen members. The next meeting will be on April 3 with Mrs. Bettie Chatfield as hostess.

Crowell Garden Club

The Crowell Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Chester Hord on Friday, March 20.

Mrs. Maude Rasberry was leader for the afternoon and presented Mrs. L. A. Andrews and Mrs. Virgil Johnson who told of plans for the forthcoming flower show which will be in April.

Some High School girls who are interested in a Junior Garden Club were presented and Mrs. Andrews conducted a workshop for them. Mrs. C. T. Murphy, Mrs. Maude Rasberry and Mrs. Ed Huskey shared hostess duties with Mrs. Hord. Refreshments were served to thirteen members, Mrs. Glen Fox and the high school girls.

Pool Koki Party

The Martha Low G. A. enjoyed a "pool koki" party at its March 16 meeting. Billye Sue McClain was in charge of the forward steps program, the topic being: "Watchword: Forward: Model: Annie Armstrong!" At the conclusion of the program, the tea members present memorized forward steps scripture requirements while the pool koki was being prepared.

Pool koki is a Korean meat dish. The recipe was sent from Korea by Mrs. Don Jones, formerly Juanita Ann Wheelock of Childress, now a missionary in South Korea. The BAs became personally acquainted with Mrs. Jones at GA camp at Vernon last summer, and have followed her work with interest. The pool koki is cooked in a sauce of oil, brown sugar, soy sauce, sesame seed and spices, and served over steaming rice, in the manner of oriental foods. The girls enjoyed the new dish so much they "licked the platter clean."

Jon Ann Carter will have charge of the stewardship program for the next meeting. After the program, the semi-annual election of officers will be held. Some of the girls and sponsors are preparing to attend the state-wide queen's court at Brownwood beginning Thursday, March 26.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Mary Weaver, who has been a shut-in for some time, was honored with a surprise birthday party Friday afternoon, March 19, in the home of Mrs. R. B. Lilly.

Many nice and useful gifts were presented to the honoree and interesting games and a Bible quiz were enjoyed, and a poem was read by Mrs. Clarence Barker.

The lovely birthday cake, presented by Mrs. Jean Halbert, was served with punch to 15 guests, and the honoree by the hostesses, Mrs. Ella Autry and Ethel Barker.

Did You Know?

None of the creatures with whom we share the world are slaughtered as senselessly as the hawks, and are as much misunderstood. Hawks will never kill for sport, but only when they are hungry. Hawks have near-human qualities of love, anger, and playfulness, and they can be trained to be as affectionate and as obedient as a dog.

Hawks are one of the birds-of-prey that are very helpful to humanity. Most hawks spend their life waging a ceaseless war on rodents, destructive birds, and insects who could overrun our basic national economic system of agricultural food supply if left unchecked. Only three of the hawks in Texas ever feed on poultry or game birds. These three, the goshawk, chicken hawk and the blue darter, are not protected by the state. A scientific survey showed that an average hawk would save an average farmer $110.00 on rodent damage.

There are several different types of hawks. The marsh hawk, a typical harrier, will fly about five feet up, combing the ground for prey. Falcons are power fliers and display the most controlled power in their avian maneuvers

Two Minutes With the Bible

True Liberty

We were interested to read, recently, about the man in California who ran short of grazing land for his herd of 13 buffalo. To solve the problem he put them on a large island in Lake Berryessa where there was lots of pasture. But what did the buffalo do? They jumped back into the lake, swam to shore and began charging fishermen and chasing automobiles—so enraged were they at being imprisoned on an island!

After all, neither man nor beast enjoys bondage, though many of us are indeed in bondage.

Our Lord said in John 8:32: "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." To this the religious leaders replied: "We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?" But our Lord answered: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin" (ver. 34).

St. Paul says the same thing in Rom. 6:16: "Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?"

Sad to say, many sincere religious people think that they can free themselves from sin by putting themselves in bondage to the law, the ten commandments. This never works, for the law can only condemn the sinner. Rom. 3:19,20 declares that the law was given "that every mouth might be stopped and that all the world might be brought in guilty before God . . . for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

Again we have to turn to Christ for salvation and true liberty. He "died for our sins" (I Cor. 15:3) and "hath redeemed us from the curse of the law" (Gal. 3:13).

Having believed this and trusted Christ as his Savior, the true Christian serves his Lord, not from fear, or to gain favor, but out of sheer love and gratitude. This is true liberty and this service is the only kind that God desires from us. Probably no man ever served the Lord more sincerely or tirelessly than the Apostle Paul. In II Cor. 5:14 he gives us the secret: "The love of Christ constraineth us."

of all birds. The sparrow hawk, a typical falcon, is frequent around here. The kites are shaped similarly to the falcons but bourjant gliders. The majority of American hawks are butea hawks. The red-tailed hawk, a representative of the buteos, is frequently seen around here. Buteos are the highest flying hawks, flying from 1½ to two miles up, gliding on their wide wings and tails and watching for prey.

You probably read the announcement last week to the effect that I would undergo surgery in Lubbock. I am glad to report that my condition is entirely satisfactory and doctors advise that I will be able to resume normal activity in about two weeks.

In the meantime, I hope that all my friends throughout the district will be active in my behalf. As soon as I am physically able I will be around to see you. Any suggestions you may have can be communicated in my office in Paducah.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, March 29, 1934, issue of The Foard County News.

Final figures from the Bureau of the Census at Washington show that 23,343 bales of cotton were ginned in Foard County from the 1933 crop, compared with 19,463 bales for 1932. The 1933 ginnings are just 955 bales short of the all-time ginning record in Foard County which was reached in 1926, when the total was 24,298 bales.

Mrs. W. G. Chapman is the new president of the Thalia Home Demonstration Club.

Although "The Birth of a Nation" was filmed many years ago, yet this picture has maintained a reputation of being one of the greatest features ever produced and its showing at the Rialto on Thursday is looked forward to by those who have seen it in past years and others who have not had the opportunity to see this great screen spectacle, which deals with the Civil War and the Reconstruction period.

Did you know that Ralph Cogdell is now president of one of the most important clubs at Texas Tech, the Aggie Club?

Eat with the Foard City Ladies Trades Day at A. L. Johnson's Store. Chili 10c, coffee 5c, pie 4c.

Farmers who wish to join in the reduction of wheat acreage in line with the government program, may do so provided they get their applications in by April 15, according to Hubert Brown, secretary of the Foard County Wheat Control Association.

Saturday will offer school taxpayers of the Crowell Independent School District their final opportunity to pay their delinquent school taxes without penalty or interest.

Card of Thanks

Only God really knows just how much I enjoyed my stay in the hospital. I want to thank Dr. Kralicke and Dr. Stapp for a job well done. To the cooks, janitors, good nurses and nurses aides, who were so nice to me, please keep up the good works. I want to thank all my good friends and neighbors for your prayers, words of encouragement, beautiful cards, gifts, flowers and all the food that was sent. May God's richest blessings be sent to each and every one, and an extra special one to the three neighbor women who watched over my home and family while I was away.

Mrs. Foy McRae.

Brush Control Important to Land Owners
by Ray Duckworth, Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District

The spread of cedar and mesquite in Foard County is alarming as all land owners realize. Not only in this county, where cedar and mesquite are well adapted, but all over the nation where other undesirable plants are on the increase.

Surveys covering 100 counties in Texas show that today there are approximately four or five times as many acres in cedar alone, as there were 100 years ago. To make this problem more alarming, it takes four times as much water to produce a pound of dry leaves from mesquite than grass.

Many reasons are evident as to this rapid spread. The most important are: The enormous increase in numbers of livestock, therefore producing a reduced grass cover. Lack of protection from fires and the control of predators that spread seed. Rabbits and fruit-eating birds are now believed to be the chief disseminators of cedar seed.

To help overcome this problem, requires the help of each landowner. First, lessen the number of livestock per acre. To keep income the same level, increase the quality of livestock. Second, take economical and proven steps to kill or control brush. Help is provided through ACP and Great Plains conservation program on cost-sharing. Third, protect your range from fire. Fourth, take a positive step this year toward the brush problem on your farm.

West Side H. D. Club

"It takes more than just being a good cook to serve nutritious meals," stated Mrs. Ernest Shrode in the program for the West Side Home Demonstration Club meeting March 25 in the home of Mrs. Dwayne Borne. Nutrition is one of the most important factors to good health. Mrs. Shrode read from a theme written by Martha Fish, student nurse.

Mrs. Charley Wishon, president of the club, was in charge and Mrs. L. G. Simmons served with secretarial duties. Twelve members and one visitor, Terri Boren, were present. Mrs. Simmons gave council report. The club voted to sponsor party for patients of Vernon hospital on May 1. Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Bill Halenak April 14. Everyone is always welcome to attend.
