Plan to Reduce Salt Pollution of Red River Told in Vernon

An Army engineer told a public hearing in Vernon Tuesday that the most economically feasible plan at this time to begin controlling salt water pollution in the Red River basin would be low-flow dams on the three forks of the Wichita River.

Col. John W. Morris of Tulsa, Okla., estimated it would cost $21 million to control pollution on the North Fork of the Wichita River, and some $27 million for both the South and Middle Forks.

"These projects as planned will capture 85 per cent of the natural brines entering the river, and by controlling this part of the chloride load, the chloride concentration at Lake Kemp can be reduced," Morris said.

"The control attained in the Wichita basin will reduce the average natural daily chloride load into Lake Texoma by 18 per cent."

Ten locations in the Red River basin are scheduled for pollution control study under the authority contained in a Senate Public Works committee resolution adopted in 1959.

Control at all 10 locations would reduce the level of salt content entering Lake Texoma to 250 parts per million, he said, noting that this would be rated satisfactory for municipal water use.

Don't Be a Litterbug!

Are you the one who just threw that paper cup out of the car window? Was that you who tossed that gum wrapper on the school lawn? Maybe you weren't the guilty one this time, but are you always careful not to throw trash on the highways or on the school campus?

Paper and bottles along the sides of roads present an unsightly picture for the traveler. Otherwise, pretty countryside are made to look shoddy by the rubbish cast aside by careless motorists. These thoughtless people not only decrease the beauty along the highways, but also increase the costs of road maintenance—costs paid with tax money.

Many a school campus is also a "victim" of the careless and the lazy persons. Though much time and money are spent in landscaping and in tending the school campus, these efforts are useless if the students do not help to keep the grounds litter free. Trash cans are usually provided for discarding paper cups, candy wrappers, and paper napkins. A little effort on the part of the students to use these containers will help to make their school campus a place of beauty, one of which to be proud.

England has become famous for her Beatles; let's not make America famous for her litterbugs!

Senior Personalities

Again this week, we are presenting two senior personalities—Michael (Mike) Roy Shrode and Patricia Dell Cates.

Mike, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shrode, is eighteen years old, six-foot-one-inch tall, and has brown hair and brown eyes. Mike has enjoyed taking part in track events and football during his high school days; this year, he has been one of the captains of the Wildcat football team. He has also been active in the FFA for which he has served as reporter to the Wildcat.

Mike lists his favorites as the following: color, blue; subject, history; actor, Paul Newman; actress, Suzanne Pleshette; sport, football; food, steak; pastime, hunting. He dislikes most a smart alec.

He believes that his greatest influences have been his parents. Mike has not yet decided what he will do after graduating, but plans for attending college are in the making.

Patricia Cates is a popular black-haired, brown-eyed 18-year-old, who definitely graces the halls of CHS. Among her favorites are color, blue; the sport, basketball; the book, "Gone with the Wind"; the actor, Steve McQueen; the actress, Audrey Hepburn; the food, fried chicken; the subject, Spanish; and the singer, Andy Williams. English IV is her most difficult subject. She dislikes most a person who will not forgive another person.

Patricia, editor of the yearbook this year, has participated in such organizations as FHA, Spanish Club, drill team, basketball team, Wildcat staff, High School ensemble, and the Student Council. She has had such honors as "doll" and "most courteous." She is also a senior class officer.

Patricia believes that her parents have been most helpful throughout her life.

After graduating, Patricia, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cates of Thalia, plans to attend Hardin-Simmons.

"Slave Days" to Be Held

The Crowell Student Council voted Monday morning, Feb. 24, to sponsor "Slave Days" March 2, 3 and 4. All the high school and eighth grade students, especially the girls, are urged to bring their piggy banks Monday to buy a strong, young slave for those days. Each slave will wear a sign around his neck saying, "I belong to—"

The Student Council also discussed sponsoring the project of marking off parking places in the parking lot and setting aside parking places for the superintendent, the principal, and teachers.

Homemaker for February

The "Homemaker of the Month" for February is Evelyn Faske. She has been an active member of the F. H. A. throughout her high school years. Her service on committees and in programs has been most beneficial to the work of the organization. As an officer this year, as well as in other years, Evelyn accepts responsibilities and can be depended upon to do her best. She was chosen to serve as reporter because she has a "nose for news" and has the ability to write well. She is a good example of what FHA girls strive to become.

Why People Read?

To ask this question of either students or professionals is to raise suspicions and defenses. "Reading is good," they imply, "and let's leave a good thing alone." Or, "It's a communication like talking. You don't ask a person why he talks." Books are good. People are good. Therefore, reading books is good. When one asks this question in a research study, motivation for reading usually is described in these terms: People read for education and self-improvement. Reading is a part of the process of study and research. People read to add to their knowledge. People read for recreation.

Reading books is often expressed in terms of drive for education and self-improvement. In the case of the student, the drive for education may be from a desire to achieve status with fellow students, with the instructor, or with parents or friends. Or it may be a feeling of insecurity of competition with fellow students.

The person's responsibility may be to learn more and more about the human beings who use libraries, why they use them, and how librarians who serve them can better respond to their needs.

F. H. A. Has Panel Discussion

A panel discussion on dating and marriage was the program for the regular meeting of the Crowell F. H. A. Chapter when it met Tuesday, Feb. 18, in the Homemaking Cottage. Betty Ann Welch directed the interesting discussion of various questions. Those debating the issues were Elaine Crowell, Billye Sue McClain, Karen Shirley, Barry Barker, Mike Gamble and Steve Kralick. Opinions were voiced on questions ranging from "When should dating begin?" to "What age should a person be when he gets married?"

In the business session, Beverlie Gray read a note from Mrs. Kenner in which she thanked the girls for the flowers that they had sent during her stay in the hospital.

The next meeting of the club will be on March 16.

Quanah Students Entertain

Tuesday, Feb. 18, the Crowell student body enjoyed an unusual program prepared by the Quanah students. Carolyn Hickman, president of the Crowell Student Council, introduced Ridley Gibson, president of the Quanah Student Council, who in turn, introduced Mr. McElroy, the Quanah band director. Mr. McElroy directed the Quanah Stage Band as they played the numbers they had prepared for the band contest in Brownwood.

Next on the program was the Kentucky Cut-Ups—Jerri Preston, Gwen Gravelly, Utonia Penn, Carleen Hust and Barbara Daugherty—who, dressed in hillbilly costumes, sang and did a comedy routine.

A "German" band, comprised of Mark Mosely, John Cummings, John Schrader, Douglas Jeffreys, Mattie Stepp, Darlene Beavers, Jeanie Falks and Rick Truitt, performed next. Their music and jokes were enhanced by their costumes representing two Swedes, an Englishman, a Mexican, a German, an Italian, a Chinese, and an American hillbilly.

In contrast to the humor presented by the Kentucky Cut-Ups and the "German" Band, the next group—Ardath Payne, Diana Rogers, Bettina Ellis and Ritta Butts—sang two beautiful love songs: "When and Where" and "Blue Moon." Mr. McElroy accompanied at the piano.

The piano really hummed during the next act. Wayne Collins did his imitation of Jerry Lee Lewis by playing and singing "Great Balls of Fire," "Long, Tall Texan," "I've Got a Woman" and "Tell Me What'd I Say." He was accompanied by John Schrader at the drums and Mike Barnes on the saxophone.

The entire program was an immense success, and the Crowell Stage Band is looking forward to presenting a program in Quanah.

Harlem Stars Perform Saturday Night

Last Saturday night in the Crowell High School gym, the Crowell All-Stars met the Harlem Stars in a suspense-filled contest sponsored by the Senior Class.

The Harlem Stars, who are natives of California, are about the funniest team of basketball players around. Their control over the ball was almost unbelievable. Though they could be a great professional team, they prefer making people laugh with their comical "shenanigans."

Their 77-75 win over the Crowell All-Stars was approximately their 1203rd victory, with only six defeats.

The game, marked by a display of fantastic ball handling and showmanship, was truly well worth seeing.

C. H. S. Report

Ex-students home for the week end were M. L. Speer, Bill and Linda Graves, Bob and Lynda Borchardt, Marcia Carroll, and Carole Sue Fisch. Congratulations to the newlyweds—Alta Bartley and Larry Andrews. Sophomore Jimmy Smith, a former Crowell student who has been in school in Olney, has re-enrolled.

The last few days, Mike Shrode has been hobbling around the halls of CHS on crutches. Reason—a fractured foot suffered in the basketball game Thursday night.

Opinions of Beatles

This week we asked several students what they thought of the Beatles, the latest singing sensation. Here are their replies: Mary Sue—I like them.

Gary T.—They're not worth anything.

Beverlie G.—They have a free, clean style, and they are wonderful.

Judy L.—They're idiots.

Ruth S.—I think they are sweet.

Ronnie C.—They're wild, man. That's all I can say.

Mr. Lykins—I really don't know. I haven't heard them enough to say, but they'd be all right with a haircut. Monty—I like them; I don't mind their hair.

Dennis G.—Crummy! Larry H.—Stomp 'em! Jerry L.—They're out of this world.

LaRue G.—I think they sound like hillbillies.

Kathy J.—They're great—even with their shaggy hair.

Barry B.—They're out of my orbit.

Adelphian Club

"Strength Through Patriotism" was the theme for the Adelphian Club when it met on February 19 at the club house.

Mrs. L. H. Wall was leader and gave a short but impressive devotional thought. In part, she said, "Life is God's gift to us. What we make of life, with God's help, is our gift to God." She introduced Mary Ann Ramsey and Patricia Cates who sang "The Lord's Prayer." At the piano was Gayle Smith.

Mrs. Wall presented Mrs. Vera Manard who traced the history of the United States through songs. Some of the music lacked harmony but depicted moods and messages. To illustrate, Ella Ann Cates, in Indian attire, gave an Indian dance to the beat of the drum by Freddie Wehba.

The Early Settler Song Book was first printed in 1840 and only three copies are known to be preserved. Since that time, the beloved spirituals have been written and enjoyed. Mary Ann Ramsey, accompanied by Gayle Smith, sang "Deep River."

To trace the history of this nation in song is to mention the many national songs which have come out of different periods of history. James Allen Welch, Dennis Garrett, Otis Smith and Bobby Bond, from the local stage band, rendered four patriotic numbers. Gayle Smith played a medley of Armed Forces songs.

As men worked on the plantations and later as cowboys held herd on the range, various songs came to be known as "work songs." Freddie Wehba, David Denton and Rickey Hooper sang "Home on the Range" and "Red River Valley." Guitar accompaniment was played by Rickey.

The folklore songs came to play an important role in music as they treated the charms and customs of the day in which they were written. Mrs. Manard mentioned Stephen F. Foster as one of the best known composers, who was a resident of the North, and defied the general belief that only a Southerner could produce Negro melodies. Jon Ann Carter, accompanied by Ella Ann Cates, sang "Beautiful Dreamer," after which the High School Ensemble, accompanied by Gayle Smith, gave a rendition of "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming." This group includes Paula Sparks, Ella Ann Cates, Janice Gray, Jon Ann Carter, Patricia Cates, Mary Ann Ramsey, Frances Cates and Schermy Goodwin.

The opera has played an important role in the cultural influence of the nation as it has combined story telling with music. Mrs. Manard mentioned "Naughty Marietta" by Victor Herbert. Betty Ann Welch, accompanied by Elaine Crowell, sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

The day came when the geographical boundaries of the United States opened its doors and accepted the 49th and 50th states. Kristi and Kathy McLain, dressed in grass skirts and wearing the traditional lei, gave a Hawaiian dance to the record, "Keep Your Eyes on the Hands."

Finally, there came that day in November, when sadness rolled across the nation, as the news of the untimely death of President Kennedy became known. Gayle Smith played a record, "In the Summer of His Years," by Connie Francis.

Twenty-three members were present. Besides the guests already mentioned, Lessley Prosser, Mrs. Clinton McLain and Mrs. Jack Welch were present.

Mrs. J. C. Prosser was assisted in hostess duties by Mrs. Virgil Johnson.

Possibly each of them! Electric Cooperatives have made electric power available to areas not served by other utilities . . . farms, rural industries and business, resorts and cabins. And the Electric Cooperatives are owned and operated entirely by those they serve.

The principle of consumer-ownership has not changed since the first Electric Cooperative was formed, more than a quarter of a century ago, to provide electricity where none was available.

Austin, Tex.—It used to be the dogwood blooms which set off politics in Texas. But the Legislature changed that when it moved primaries to May and June.

So, Texas candidates are losing no time in getting down to roughhouse campaigning.

Gov. John Connally and his rival for the Democratic nomination, Don Yarborough, spoke to the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, but neither asked for endorsement.

Labor made no endorsements in races for state offices. Instead, it centered its interest on Washington. It gave strong support to President Lyndon Johnson and Senator Ralph W. Yarborough and to the re-election of Texas Congressmen who support the Johnson program. It urged union members to help defeat Congressmen who do not support the LBJ administration.

Republican candidate for U. S. Senate George Bush complained that COPE failed to invite Republicans to its meeting.

John Van Cronkrite of Dallas announced his withdrawal from the Senate race after what he called "unbelievable pressure." But Gordon McLendon, conservative Democrat, said he was in the race "as solid as a grand piano set in concrete."

Former District Attorney Dan Sullivan of Andrews provided the upset of the session. COPE leaders recommended that the group support former Sen. Robert W. Baker of Houston for the statewide Congressional seat now held by Rep. Joe Pool. Sullivan made a speech that sold many delegates, and when it came to a showdown, in business at Balmorhea and when Mr. Crow and his twin brother were teen-agers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Payne of Liberal, Kansas, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Payne.

History shows that women have had scant success in state elections. One notable exception is the late Miriam A. Ferguson, governor of the state from 1925 to 1927 and from 1933 to 1935.

Whether their luck will be better in legislative races in 1964—a leap year—remains to be seen. It may be significant to note that as of January, 1964, the number of Texas women aged 21 and over was estimated to be a little more than 3,000,000, while their male counterparts were estimated to number less than 3,000,000.

FREE VOTER REGISTRATION CONTINUES — Registration of voters who want to qualify for free votes in federal elections will continue through March 7. County tax collectors are issuing the free receipts which may be obtained by direct personal or mail application.

Holdings of the free registrations cannot vote in state or local races, in constitutional amendment or bond elections—only for president, vice president, U. S. senator, U. S. representative and congressman-at-large.

State attorneys emphasize, however, that the free registration receipts are good for primary elections, the November general election and any special election involving federal offices during the coming year. In other words, those who have them can vote in their party primary for senator, congressman and congressman-at-large or in any special election for these offices, as well as the general election.

RECORD VOTE PREDICTED — Although the official compilation of poll tax payments and exemption certificates is not due from State Comptroller Robert Calvert until the first of April, many county tax assessor-collectors have stated they expect the number of qualified voters to exceed 1960's 2,594,000.

This prediction does not take into account registrations of those voters who cast ballots in federal races only. Registration for federal certificates seems to be going slow, but poll-tax registration also ran slow until the last week in January.

A statement by Pat O'Keefe, executive director of the State Democratic Committee, indicated that interest in voter registration seems lightest in rural areas.

Republican party officials have not hazarded a guess on the score but are hoping to get 300,000 Texans to cast ballots in their May 2 primary. Total of 1962 GOP primary participants was 135,000.

Words cannot begin to express the gratitude and thanks to all the wonderful people who helped us during our hours of sorrow. We would like to thank everyone for the food, beautiful flowers, money, also to the ladies who helped prepare the food and cleaned the house and especially to Bro. Warren Everson for the beautiful sermon he preached at our baby's funeral. Also thanks to Thelma Lois Lemons and daughter for the special music.

Miss Alta Nell Bartley and Larry Andrews Wed Here Friday

A candlelight wedding in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Vercera united Miss Alta Nell Bartley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bartley, and Larry Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Andrews, all of Crowell, Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. John Fitzgerald, pastor of the Crowell Methodist Church. The setting was centered with two tapering candelabra forming an arch flanked by baskets of white gladiolas with a background of palms and greenery which descended to the floor. The white kneeling bench completed the setting. The piano held a bouquet of white roses with six candles in triplet milk glass holders on either side.

Miss Carolyn Hickman attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a beige lace dress and carried a bouquet of champagne carnations. Candelights were Misses Pat Cates and Mary Ann Ramsey of Crowell, who also sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Gayle Smith of Crowell. Each wore beige dresses with matching accessories. Kenny Ownbey of Crowell was best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Miss America lace. The bodice with its traditional V neckline, was accented by seed pearls and a scalloped neckline and cap sleeves that complemented her elbow length gloves of matching lace. The very full skirt was designed with a colonial bustle with three soft roses covered with seed pearls in back.

The finger tip veil was caught on a crown of seed pearls and iridescent crystals. The bride carried a single orchid atop a net-covered Bible with white satin streamers tied in love knots. She wore a single strand of pearls, borrowed from a sister, and her mother's wedding band for something old, until she received her own.

The bride's mother wore a one-piece dress of beige powder puff tulle with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a deep turquoise knit suit with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the den. The bride's table was covered with a cut-work table cloth, centered with an arrangement of champagne carnations with four candles included the arrangement. The tiered wedding cake was served by Miss Joyce Burkhart of Wichita Falls. Serving the punch was Miss Sandy Harder, also of Wichita Falls. A single white rose in a milk glass bud vase graced the register table attended by Miss Linda Nance, also of Wichita Falls. Milk glass appointments were used throughout the reception room.

For a short wedding trip, the bride chose a beige lace dress-suit with matching papalastic accessories, with the orchid from her bridal bouquet. On their return, the bride will stay in Wichita Falls until arrangements can be made to join the groom who is serving in the United States Navy at Port Magueo near Los Angeles, Calif.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Misses Pat Garl, Prudence Woods, Joyce Burkhart, Sandy Harder, Lavonne Glenn and Linda Nance, all of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman McBeath, Malinda and Sidney, of Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Noble, Lisa, Lesley and Rayner, of Big Spring; and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bartley, Keith and Kevin, of Amarillo.

Open House Honors Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ward on 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ward were honored on the occasion of their Golden Wedding anniversary with an open house at the First Christian Church annex last Sunday afternoon. Hosts were children of Mr. and Mrs. Ward: Coy Ward, Don Ward and Mr. Melba Holt, and their families.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Marion Crowell, and were registered by Mrs. John Long and Mrs. Jim Cook who presided at the register table. The receiving line was composed of the honorees and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Layton Holt.

First Baptist Church Is Scene of Two Banquets Last Week

On Saturday night, Feb. 15, the W. M. U. of the First Baptist Church entertained the young people of the church and their guests with a Sweetheart banquet, an annual affair with this church. The Valentine motif was carried out, with the dining room of the church being beautifully decorated with hearts and flowers. The lights were shaded with bird cages covered with red flowers. The head table was laid with a red net cloth and was centered with a large arrangement of white flowers.

Mrs. Loraine Carter was in charge of decorations. Other committee chairmen were Mmes. Guy Todd, Leo Cates, James Welch, Glenn Willson and Robert Taylor. Catering service was by Underwoods of Wichita Falls.

The program was given by three students and two faculty members of Howard Payne College, Brownwood. They were Miss Martha St. Clair, speaker. She is director of student activities at the college. Also Pat Owen, Ronnie Jones, Ritchie Craig and Bob Eaton, professor in the Speech Department.

Kenneth Carroll was master of ceremonies. Woody Frank Lemons gave the invocation.

The intermediate department in Sunday School won out over the young people in their contest which is based on grading and attendance, and the nominees, Miss Lanette Lemons and James Allen Welch were crowned king and queen. The throne chair was covered in red. Miss Lemons was crowned by last year's queen, Miss Dena Todd, while the king was crowned by Glen Doyle Goodwin. A red leather bound New Testament was presented to the king and queen by the pastor, Rev. Willson. Miss Gayle Smith and Ken Ferguson, nominees for the young people's department, also received Bibles.

The benediction was given by Ken Ferguson. The young people from Howard Payne remained overnight and had charge of the morning services of the church on Feb. 16. Miss Martha St. Clair is a former classmate of Mrs. Faye Statser and Mrs. Jo Hitt and has visited in the Homer Zeigbig home on a number of occasions.

On Monday night, Feb. 17, the adults of the church, taking advantage of the lovely decorations already available, enjoyed a banquet for themselves. Bro. Willson was in charge of the program, which consisted of music by Mrs. W. H. Stapp and a quartet sung by Dickie and Don Bill Statser, Gary Cates and Paul Stapp. Albert Lykins and two of his band pupils, Caroline Hickman and Ella Ann Cates, also furnished music. A book review, "Monnie Belle," was given by Mrs. A. L. Daniel. Mrs. Wilma Cates, Training Union director, was crowned queen of the adult banquet. The lovely crown was made by Mrs. Willson and was fashioned out of paper money which was presented to Mrs. Cates as a love gift from the church.

Guests for this delightful occasion were Leo Cates, husband of the queen; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ramsey of Thalia and Mrs. Della Stubblefield of O'Donnell.

The benediction was given by Dr. C. A. Powell.

4-H Club Meeting

The 7th grade 4-H Club met in Mr. Washington's room at 9 on Feb. 14. Rudy Magee opened the meeting and Paul Stapp led in prayer. Paul Halsell led the pledge. Paul Stapp brought a speech on birds. He talked about the birds around Foard County and other parts of the country. The next meeting will be on March 12. They will discuss the fat stock show which will be on March 14.

Sweetheart Banquet Given at Methodist Church Saturday Nite

In the beautifully-decorated basement of the Crowell Methodist Church, the Methodist Youth Fellowship was honored at a Sweetheart Banquet last Saturday night. Theme of the banquet was "The Holy City."

The banquet setting was decorated in white with the names of the twelve tribes of Israel and the twelve Disciples printed on the four sides of the room. Two large candelabra holding burning tapers were placed at end of the head table. Colors of gold, blue and white were used in the decorations. The head tables were centered with large arrangements of white glads, stock and snapdragons. The entire banquet was by candlelight.

Following the invocation by Rev. John Fitzgerald and the welcome by Philip Welch, president of the MYF, Rev. Fitzgerald was in charge of the coronation ceremony. Steve Weathered was crowned king and Miss Shirley Mike Raspberry was crowned queen. The crown and flowers for the queen were carried to the coronation setting by John Lee Thomas and John Klepper. The second king and queen were Barry Barker and Sandra Weathered and the third king and queen were Mike Manard and Margaret Collins. The king and queen of this Sweetheart banquet were chosen on the basis of points received over a period of time for attendance at Sunday School, MYF and church services and for memorizing Scripture. There was a three-way tie for both the king and queen positions; hence, the second and third kings and queens.

Following a delicious meal served by the junior high girls and the women of the church, Misses Mary Ann Ramsey and Patricia Cates sang "The Holy City," accompanied by Miss Gayle Smith.

Warren Silver, popular TV announcer of Wichita Falls and member of Faith Village Methodist Church there, was the principal speaker for the banquet and brought an excellent message to the young people. In talking of the hectic times in which we live, Mr. Silver told the young people to ask themselves some questions: What do I believe? Where am I going? What is my goal? What would Christ do if he were in my place? He also gave the young people three words to live by: humility, reverence and surrender. Mr. Silver was accompanied to Crowell by his wife.

The benediction was given by Leslie Thomas.

Mrs. Howard Ferguson and Mrs. Fred Collins are MYF counselors, and were in charge of arrangements for the banquet.

Riverside H. D. Club

A very interesting piece, "Helpful tips on wearing jewelry," was given by Mrs. H. L. Ayers Jr. for opening exercises when the Riverside Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Roy Ayers on Feb. 18. Mrs. Ayers also gave the council report and conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Billie Cleveland brought the program, which was planned by the club and consisted of showing some ladies' hats which had been made by her mother, Mrs. T. F. Lambert. The women ordered some hat materials and will have a day of working on hats later.

Two clever contests touching on Washington's birthday were conducted by Mrs. Roy Ayers and Mrs. Grover Moore. The hostess, Mrs. Roy Ayers, served delicious refreshments to six club members, and two visitors, Mrs. August Rummel and Mrs. Charles Hud-

Rep. Heatly Makes Announcement in Bid for Re-Election

Representative W. S. (Bill) Heatly of Paducah has authorized The Foard County News to make his formal announcement as a candidate for re-election as Representative from the 82nd Legislative District comprised of Foard, Childress, Cottle, Donley, Hall, Hardeman, Motley and Wilbarger Counties.

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Heatly made the following statement:

In ten years service in the Legislature, I have acted on the theory that my primary responsibility was to represent the views and interests of the people of my district and to act as their spokesman in their dealings with the state government. My conviction in the soundness of this policy is based on the fact that special groups are well represented through their organizations by persons who have large office and field staffs and plenty of money with which to carry on their activities.

In addition, the state government, functioning through approximately 150 commissions, boards and other agencies, is ably represented by people employed for that purpose. These agencies have the responsibility of collecting taxes, making regulations governing business and professional activities, and making arrests under certain conditions. They also assess and collect fines and penalties and have authority to institute civil court action.

My service to the individual citizen includes obtaining for person in need of special care admission to hospitals and special schools maintained by the state. During my ten years in the Legislature I have handled hundreds of applications of this nature.

Knowledge of the law and long experience in such matters enable me to be helpful to constituents in matters of this kind without cost to them.

Of importance to citizens of the 82nd District is the fact that three of the five terms I have served in the House I have been honored with the chairmanship of an important committee. I am particularly proud of the fact that I have headed the House Appropriations Committee in two sessions, a distinction enjoyed by only one previous House member. My work for the Appropriations Committee has given me a thorough knowledge and understanding of the functions of all the state agencies.

It is my feeling that counties in a fair cross-section of the interests and needs of the entire state. Consequently, in representing interests of the people in my district, I feel I am doing a good job for all of Texas.

One of the issues which always arises in my campaigns involves my attitude toward various organized business and professional groups. In this connection I think it is fair to state that such groups as organized professions, businesses and labor have a perfect right to organize and maintain lobbies in Austin to represent their interests.

But I also believe that none of these is entitled to special privileges or favors particularly in such matters as taxation. For example, I believe workers have a right to organize a union to promote their interests, but I also believe that no individual should be compelled to join a union or to contribute to a campaign fund or any political party or candidate in order to hold a job in Texas. I also believe that the beer industry has a right to maintain a lobby for promoting its legitimate interests, but I believe that beer should be taxed in the same ratio to sales value as cigarettes and gasoline at the present time.

These examples illustrate my philosophy of government, but naturally my views do not always suit representatives of special interests which seek or already enjoy special favors. One of the results is that in my races for reelection I have had well-financed and well-organized opposition, particularly from representatives of the beer industry, with help from certain other organized groups. I am sure this year's campaign will be no exception in this regard. Agents from some of these special interests will be at work in the 82nd District trying to bring about my defeat. Every member they can elect to the House of Representatives will make it easier for them to obtain special favors.

Of special importance, because it will be discussed in this campaign, is my record of sponsoring increased appropriations for all branches of education. Appropriations by the 58th Legislature for education represented marked increases over appropriations for the previous biennium. The increase in my appropriations bill for higher education was $63,867,667. This represented an increase of 29 per cent and the increase for public schools was $103,950,952, making a total increase in the field of education of $167,818,619. I think my record will support the statement that I have been a genuine friend of education throughout my service in the Legislature.

It is impossible to discuss in detail all of the matters I would like to mention. I would just say, however, that my record shows that I have consistently represented my people in this area by assisting the farmer, students with part-time jobs in college, the elderly people who have had problems with the Welfare Department and other individuals who have dealings with state agencies.

I was born on a farm near Mart, Texas, attended public school there and later attended Decatur Baptist College. After graduation there I entered Baylor University, receiving a BA and LLB degree in 1936. I married Jonnie Green Hawkins of Wichita Falls. We have three sons, Gene and Bill, who are presently attending Baylor University, and Stan, who is presently attending Schreiner Institute. We are members of the First Christian Church in Paducah where I serve as elder on the Official Board and chairman of the building committee. I am also engaged in the practice
