WILSON PROCLAIMS THANKSGIVING DAY

PRESIDENT REMINDS US OF THINGS FOR WHICH WE SHOULD BE THANKFUL

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson issued his Thanksgiving proclamation last night, saying that "in plenty, security and peace, our virtuous and self-reliant people face the future," and setting aside Thursday, Nov. 25, for the usual observance. The text follows:

"The season approaches when it behooves us to turn from the distractions and preoccupations of our daily life, that we may contemplate the mercies which have been vouchsafed to us, and render heartfelt and unfeigned thanks unto God for his manifold goodness.

"This is an old observance of the American people, deeply imbedded in our thoughts and habits. The burdens and the stresses of life have their own intensities.

"We have abundant cause for thanksgiving. The lessons of the war are rapidly healing. The great arms of free men, which America sent to the defense of liberty, returning to the grateful embrace of the Nation, has resumed the useful pursuits of peace, as simply and as promptly as it rushed to arms in obedience to the country's call. The equal justice of our love has received steady vindication in the support of a law-abiding people against various and sinister attacks, which have reflected only the baser agitations of war, now happily passing.

"In plenty, security and peace, our virtuous and self-reliant people face the future, its duties and its opportunities. May we have vision to discern our duties; the strength, both of hand and resolve, to discharge them; and the soundness of heart to realize that the truest opportunities are those of service.

"In spirit, then, of devotion and stewardship we would give thanks in our hearts, and dedicate ourselves to the service of God's merciful and loving purposes to his children.

"Wherefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 25th day of November, next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and I call upon my countrymen to cease from their ordinary tasks and avocations on that day, giving it up to the remembrance of God and his blessings, and their dutiful and grateful acknowledgment."

FOUND TREATMENT OF HOGS EXPENSIVE

When the cholera broke out among hogs here two weeks ago J. L. Orr of Margaret did not think it advisable to take chances on waiting for a supply of treatment to come from College Station, and so he had a veterinarian to come to his place from Vernon. Two trips cost him something over $50, which amount is several times the cost of having the serum administered by a state man, so he thinks those having hogs are fortunate in getting the services of Drs. Flaherty and Harrison who are in the service of the state.

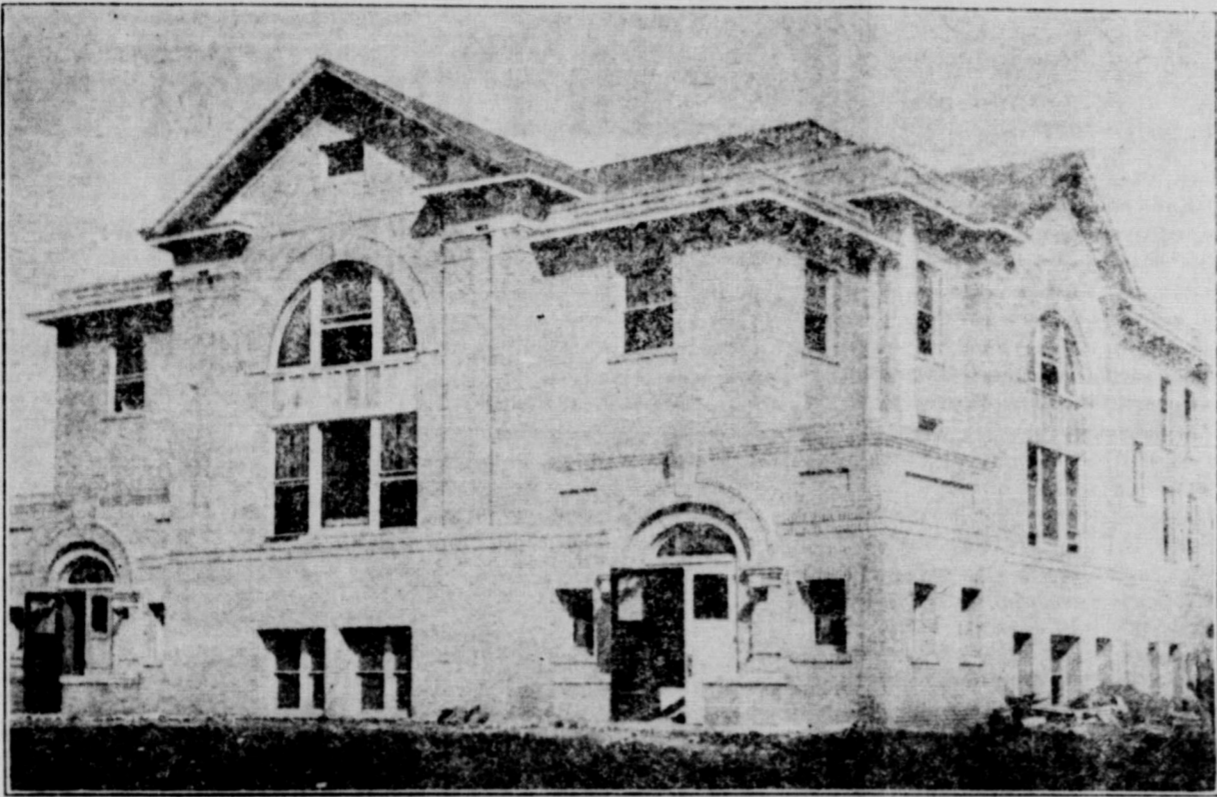

Mr. Orr had all his hogs treated and is not worrying any longer, so far as he is concerned, over his hogs. He lost only one.

CELEBRATED AT TRUSCOTT

J. E. Bell says the people of Truscott celebrated the signing of the armistice at that place the 11th in grand style.

Some 200 people were there to enjoy the occasion and several of the soldier boys, all dressed in uniform, made talks, besides other citizens of Truscott and surrounding community. It was one of those good gatherings for which West Texans are noted. The good women cooked a fine dinner and a table a hundred feet in length was spread. There were about 25 soldier boys there from all over Knox County.

A new potato curing plant is now in operation at Wellington. The capacity of the plant is 80,000 bushels. The Wellington Leader says the farmers gave over a part of their land this year to the growing of sweet potatoes largely as an experiment, or rather to demonstrate the fact that they could be raised as a paying commercial product, which would justify the building of a curing plant. As a result some of the farmers have realized as high as $350 per acre on their land devoted to potatoes.

The new Methodist church of Crowell, just completed at a cost of $62,000. The formal opening was held October 10th, services being conducted by Bishop McMurry. This magnificent building is the happy realization of the vision of the pastor, J. H. Hamblen, for the last two years.

HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT HERE

Miss Flora E. Goodwin is here this week to begin her work as county demonstration agent for the women and girls of Foard County. She was accompanied by Miss Bess Edwards, district home demonstration agent, whose work is that of supervising the work of a number of counties.

Miss Goodwin is a graduate of the State University and of the C. I. A. of Denton and comes to enter upon her work at once.

She will office in the room west of the county judge's office in the court house.

The News has always had a standing offer to the county agents to use space in the paper in connection with their work each week, and while the offer has appealed to Mr. Chaney, he has never found it possible for him to make use of the offer as he wanted to, but Miss Goodwin hopes to be able to use a department of this kind and have something to say relative to her work each week.

We can hardly realize what this work will mean to the women and girls of Foard County. To them it will be the same as Mr. Chaney's work is to the men of the county. And we are coming to realize more and more the need of his work. The government long ago knew what it meant and in order to introduce it put agents in the field in almost every county in the United States and paid their expenses.

But it would not be fair to the women and girls to be deprived of the services of a home demonstrator for work in which they are as vitally interested as men are in theirs.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Senior class expects to have a good annual this year and is now at work on it. The staff is organized and each of the classes in High School has appointed an editor of their part of the book. The pictures are being made and we hope to have our annual started soon.

Since the faculty conspired against the young students and would not allow them a holiday on Armistice day the Seniors planned a picnic. They left town at 9:15 and spent three hours hunting. Lunch was spread in Russell's pasture, kodak pictures were made and lots of wild game killed, such as ducks and crows. They returned at 4:30 all saying they had a wonderful time.

The Juniors, seeing that it was necessary for a good annual, had their pictures "taken" Monday. Miss Raso realizing that the annual would be incomplete without them, suggested this. There is no finery about the picture, each Junior wearing his school clothes.

NEW MANAGER AT GIN

E. W. Hackleman of Saddle, Texas, comes this week to take the management of the Vaughn gin and will be permanently located here. He did not bring his family on account of the uncertainty of securing house room, and since he has come and found it impossible to get a house he thinks it is best that his family did not come.

B. R. Hicks, who has been acting as temporary manager of the gin since the death of Mr. Byrd, will go to Quanah where he will be employed in a gin at that place.

REV. J. H. HAMBLEN

THE VOTE OF THE COUNTY

Until this week it has been impossible for the News to publish the official count of the vote of Foard County in the last election. The canvass of the returns was not made until the commissioners met last week and this was not done until it was too late for publication of the facts in last week's paper. Besides, two other unavoidable circumstances happened to make it practically impossible for us to handle this, even if we had had it on Thursday, the last day of news gathering. One was the fact that the county clerk had just married and the other was that the power plant went down and there was no more linotype composition to be done. But the matter of the county vote, we knew would keep, so we are here giving it just for the county.

Based on the votes given to the candidates for governor of Texas there were only 637 votes polled in the county. These were divided as follows among three candidates: Neff 498; Culbertson 99; the Socialist 33.

The National ticket stood as follows: Democrat 491; Republican 101; Socialist 38; American 1. No black and tan vote nor independent vote was cast.

This represents only about two thirds of the voting strength of the county, it is estimated.

FORMER THALIA MAN ELECTED SHERIFF IN NEW MEXICO

The friends of Dan T. Roberts will be glad to learn that he has been elected as sheriff of Union County, N. M., the only candidate running on the Democratic ticket to be elected in that county.

Mr. Roberts was formerly a resident of Thalia and was well known here. He has been residing in New Mexico for about 15 years, and the fact that he won in a county that is Republican at least this year speaks well for him.

NEW MARKET OPENS

The new meat market assumes the name of the Standard Meat Market and is now open for business on the north side of the square with new fixtures out and out. Everything looks like Williams & Bomar, the proprietors, mean business. They have a large new refrigerator, new blocks, etc., and things appear neat and sanitary.

By referring to their ad in this issue you will learn more about what they intend to do in the way of serving the public.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT M. E. CHURCH

Arrangements have been made for the holding of a union Thanksgiving service at the Methodist church next Thursday at 10:30 a. m. It is to be understood that the services will commence promptly at the hour above designated in order that there may be no interference in any way with any dinners to be served at home or elsewhere on that day. Everybody can attend this service and have plenty of time to go home or anywhere else he may wish to go.

All the singers of the various churches of the town are urged to come and join the choir and help out in the song service.

Rev. J. E. Billington of the Baptist church will preach at the service.

It is hoped that everybody will attend and try to make it one of pleasure and profit to all.

VERNON SUFFERS FROM $80,000 FIRE; GARAGE DESTROYED

Vernon, Nov. 15.—Fire said to have originated from defective wiring destroyed the White garage together with thirty-six cars and two trucks stored in garage about 3 o'clock Monday morning. The loss will aggregate $80,000, with number of high priced cars in garage covered by insurance. About half the cars burned were Fords the remainder were high priced.

The stock, accessories, vulcanizing and repairing plant were owned by H. C. Baker and building owned by Will Piper of Denton, extensive oil men. Insurance was carried by Baker and Piper. The garage was the largest in the city and all times filled with cars. Fire company responded to alarm, but handicapped on account of extreme cold weather.

According to the Vernon Record the loss to S. H. Baker, owner of the garage, is $20,000, with $13,000 insurance. The building belonged to W. R. Piper of Dallas and was valued at $25,000.

Two Crowell men lost cars, Zeke Bell, a Buick and Dr. Schindler, a Monroe.

HIDES RIDICULOUSLY CHEAP

"I wish you would tell me why it is," said Dave Sollis, "that a fellow would have brought him about $9.00 while hides are not worth anything."

That is the question many are asking just now. Some say the law of supply and demand is simply operating to the loss of the producer and that after a while we shall see a reflection of the present cheap prices of hides in that of foot wear. Another theory is that hides being on the free list allows foreign hides to play smash with home trade. The only thing we are certain of is that hides are comparatively worthless. Mr. Sollis says a year ago the same hide which he sold this week for $1.15 would have brought him about $9.00. And that is too much difference in the price of hides. It looks like something is wrong.

W. F. Carter, pharmacist at Ferguson Bros. drug store, has recently brought his wife to Crowell and they are now living in the Collins house one block northwest of the Baptist tabernacle.

WILL INSTALL DELCO SYSTEM AT MARGARET

Messrs. Roden and Kempf started in several months ago to put in a light plant at Margaret, but they found that with the engine they then figured on using, which was a large gasoline engine, the proposition would be an impracticable one, so the plan has been changed. They are now figuring on putting in a Delco system, which will cost perhaps $1,700.

Mr. Roden was here this week from Kansas City looking after interests at Margaret and said that Mr. Kempf had the matter of lighting the town of Margaret in his hands and was planning as we have said above. Mr. Roden thinks that a Delco plant that will cost something like the figures here mentioned will give the town the service it needs at present. That will furnish some 75 lights or more. He does not expect such a plant to be of sufficient size to furnish power for the operation of machinery.

The plant will be operated in connection with the garage at Margaret, and Mr. Kempf, we understand will put this machinery in as soon as possible.

A light plant that gives good service is one of the most essential enterprises a town can have, and when the citizens of Margaret once get such a plant in operation they will feel it to be indispensable to their comfort, convenience and pleasure.

GETS ARM FRACTURED

Elmo Motsinger happened to the accident of getting an arm fractured Sunday night while trying to crank a Ford. Some of the cars had been left in front of the garage and he had started to run them in when one in particular balked. He is getting along all right.

Rev. S. H. Holmes was here Monday and Tuesday assisting the local Chapter of Royal Arch Masons in conferring degrees. Those who took the work were, T. L. Ward, R. E. Huskey, Jas. Howard Foley, Chas. C. Parker, J. F. Matthews and P. S. Skipworth of Thalia, and Counts Ray, Lee Allan Beverly and Glen Offield, of Crowell.

The death rate in the United States for 1919 was the lowest in the history of the country, being 12.9 per 1,000. This shows a drop of 5.1 per thousand from the 1918 rate, which was unusually high because of the influenza epidemic.

THINKS HE HAS HOG CHOLERA UNDER CONTROL

County Agent P. D. Chaney says he thinks he now has the hog cholera in this county under control.

He thinks he was fortunate in securing the assistance of two veterinarians last week, Dr. Flaherty of Fort Worth who is working under the A. & M. College, and Dr. Harrison also of Fort Worth who is under the Sanitary Commission of Texas.

These doctors put in the latter part of last week in administering the serum treatment and Dr. Flaherty left Sunday. Dr. Harrison staid over the first of the week, finishing his work up Tuesday.

W. O. Logan, county agent of Cottle County was ever Sunday and Mr. Chaney pressed him into service in helping him to administer the serum.

Speaking of conditions in Cottle County, Mr. Logan says they have no cases of cholera there. He said they had taken precautions against the disease which he thinks has enabled them to escape. He went before the county commissioners last year and induced them to take action against any shipments of hogs into the county that had not been immunized against the disease. Consequently they are free from it.

It is possible that the bringing in of hogs from infected herds is the cause of the presence of cholera in this county. It is a known fact that a car came to Crowell last year, some of which died. Others have been imported by individuals from time to time for breeding purposes, and it is not unlikely that some of these brought cholera germs.

The situation is now well under control and with the proper precaution in the future outbreaks can be avoided.

A BABY PARTY

Tuesday, November 16th, at three o'clock, Mrs. L. A. Chout gave a party for babies at the home of Mrs. N. A. Crowell. All those invited were characterized by extreme youth—the oldest not quite two years and the youngest just three months. It also seemed to be boy day as well as baby day as little Modena Sue Stovall and Ruth Burns were the only girls gracing the occasion.

All went merry as wedding bells till the baby contest came on, then the mothers prepared for conquest. But Master Joe Bax Bell was an easy victor and bravely carried off the blue ribbon.

Those present with their mothers were: Joe Bax Bell, Dewitt Cock Jr., Billy Gene Kirkpatrick, Glendon Reeder, Sam Tribble Crews, Fred Allan Beverly, Ray Burns, Ruth Burns, Modena Sue Stovall and Banks Campbell. Among the grown-ups were: Dr. Hill, Dr. Kincaid, Mrs. Ollis and Mrs. N. A. Crowell.

Delicious refreshments were served after which the guests departed for home, each pronouncing the baby party a great success.

Hog killing time is here and the people are not buying 35c bacon.

The price of cotton does not trouble the farmers as much as the scarcity of fuel.

The parsonage is nearing completion and we expect the new preacher this week.

Miss Elgie Bagley has gone to Foard City to teach and the other fellow is still waiting.

The first taste of winter is now here. We have been having heavy frost and plenty of ice.

Mrs. Carrie Thomas has accepted a position in the Margaret school, and we now have a full corps of teachers.

We have very little news to write this week on account of bad weather, but we expect something to happen in the near future.

The evangelist who was to preach on the street last Saturday failed to put in an appearance. He was a black and tan preacher and they cannot stand cold weather.

Mrs. Middlebrook still remains away, but if she knew what Uncle Jake is doing she would hurry home. We don't want to be a witness in a divorce case, so we will say nothing.

TO BUILD GREATEST NAVY IN THE WORLD

According to statements credited to the Secretary of Navy Daniels, the program outlined for the United States would not indicate happy anticipations of peace that would justify Uncle Sam's laying his gun in the rack. Here is what he said the other day at Norfolk, Va.:

"America's program is to make her navy the greatest that ever has been floated by any nation in any times, Secretary of the Navy Daniels declared today in an address to Portsmouth Rotarians.

"And Hampton Roads is destined to be the greatest naval base in the world."

The Baptist ladies will serve an all-round turkey dinner at the Sanitary Cafe on Thanksgiving Day. This will be all home cooked.

BEAVER NEWS

(By Special Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown are entertaining a new girl.

Several people in this community have been killing hogs lately.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Statser and little son, W. F., were visitors in this community Sunday.

Miss Vera Johnston spent Saturday night with Miss Julia Gafford of the Clayton community.

There was singing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Tye Sunday night. All report an enjoyable time.

Miss Lorena Randolph of the Jamison community was a guest of Misses Carrie and Alto Draper Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Grimes of Chillicothe spent the week end with the latter's parents, Mr. and C. L. Gray.

D. B. Guess and Buford Randolph of the Jamison community were visitors of the John M. Johnston family Sunday.

We have been having lots of rain and some real cold weather, but we are in hopes of having some fair weather now.

School started last Monday with Miss Elzie Bagley of Margaret, principal, and Miss Ozella Blanchette of Crowell, assistant.

Mrs. Robertson and two grandchildren from east of Crowell were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ely and children of this community last week.

There was a good singing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gray's Sunday night. We had many visitors from other communities who we wish to come back again.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent and daughter, Miss May Beth, and little grandson, Julius Sargent, of Cone, Texas, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sargent's daughter, Mrs. W. F. Draper.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Graham and children, Mrs. Charlie Graham and children and Miss Tiny Statser of Foard City, were callers at the W. F. Draper home Sunday afternoon.

Find Natural Purple Dye.

A shellfish exists on the Pacific coast of Costa Rica from which a specially fine purple color is obtained and used for dyeing silk thread. A report received by the department of commerce states the discovery of this natural dye came to light through an inquiry from Guatemala, where some silk thread imported from Costa Rica commands a good price.

The dyers, who apparently are limited to a few old persons, take the thread to the shore, where the shellfish abound, and dye it there. The person who picks up a shell blows his breath upon it, whereupon a few drops of greenish liquid ooze out. This liquor is collected in an open clam shell or other small container. After a sufficient quantity has been collected the thread is passed through it. The thread soon afterward, on exposure to the sunlight, assumes a beautiful purple color, which is absolutely fast.

In ancient days it is believed this dye was called "Tyrian purple," and was even then so rare that it was reserved for royalty.

Capital Feels Paper Shortage.

The paper shortage is making itself felt in the post office department, where the greatest difficulty is being experienced in getting the needed supplies of stamped envelopes. Postal cards, also, are scarce.

A few weeks ago there was discovered a large quantity of the old 3-cent stamped envelopes, for which there is now almost no demand. They are being sold now for 2 cents apiece, plus the small charge for the envelope, with a distinguishing cancellation mark over the stamp. More recently the post office department began to sell a quantity of postal cards of the vintage of about ten years ago. The department is restamping 400,000,000 2-cent postal cards issued during the war.

The moonshiner is said to be coming back to take the place of the bootlegger in the state of Kansas. It looks like the same is true in Texas and other States. Not long ago a still was found in the middle of a man's corn field in Iowa and several acres of the farmer's corn had been used in making whiskey.

THE FOARD COUNTY NEWS
KIMSEY & KLEPPER, Owners and Publishers

Crowell, Texas, November 19, 1920

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been influential in giving all the western part of the State a great deal of valuable advertisement this year. By the work of this organization we were advertised in much of the north, and just now the chamber, through the efficient service of its exhibit manager, J. C. Wells, our resources are being made known to the people of our own state, who know little of West Texas. West Texas won $1,000 at the Cotton Palace for the best sectional exhibit of its kind at this year's exposition.

Several officials and stockholders of the Orient railroad will attend the inauguration of the new Mexico president. It is believed that Mexico will have a stable form of government under President Obregon, which, if that becomes a reality, will mean a probable early extension of the Orient to its objective point at Topolobampo, Mexico. Then the Orient will become one of the great trunk lines of the country.

Mr. Coolidge is acting so strange in that he stays at home attending to his official duties, while Harding goes fishing, that he has become a subject of wide comment, and the fact that he seems to be wanting to do something all the time may render him unsuitable for the office to which he has been elected.

The recent fire at a Vernon garage in which several thousand dollars worth of automobiles were destroyed should be a warning to everybody who owns a good car to carry insurance. Not many garages are responsible for cars left with them in case of fire.

The commissioners of Scurry County waited rather late in the season to provide heating arrangements for the court house at Snyder and now the officials are shivering while they wait for encouraging predictions from the weather man.

The Hall County Herald remarks that the court house bonds of Hall County will be wiped out and canceled the coming March, but predicts that it will not be many years until a new one will have to be built.

The American soldiers now in the occupation army at Coblenz, Germany, are no longer prohibited from marrying German girls, but when they do, they are sent home on the first available transport.

COW, SOW, HEN VS. COTTON
Perhaps the best thing to do about cotton growing is to quit it as much as possible. And in most cases that depends on what the farmer wills to do in the matter.

The experience of the exclusive cotton grower is that of a hard time. He is loaded with mortgages from year to year. Heavy debts weight him down from the time he begins to prepare his land for a crop until the crop is harvested and then if he breaks even he is fortunate. There have been a few exceptions to the rule, but seldom when conditions generally are normal. The only independent farmer is he who raises his own living and does not have to buy it.

A fine combination is that suggested by the Paris News of the cow, sow and hen. That paper makes the assertion that these three will yield as much revenue as cotton does and will assist in growing just as much cotton on half the acreage now devoted to it. "That is trite," says the News, "and has been said so many times that everyone grows weary when they hear it. But occasionally someone acts upon it and that makes constant reiteration worth while."

How many farmers are trying to double the yield of cotton and cut the acreage half in two? That very thing can be done and is done in Foard County, but it's not general. With less risk, and a stronger guarantee of increased revenue the cow, the sow and the hen can be more safely relied upon than can the cotton patch, for with the proper attention these will pay 100 per cent profit, and that beats cotton.

The remarks of the Paris News on the subject calls forth these words from State Press of the Dallas News:

"Cow, Sow & Hen compose a firm that can make any Texas farm owner rich if he will give them a fair chance to thrive. The trouble with that firm's popularity in most parts of the South is that the members of it require a good deal of waiting on and considerable care and patience in handling. This is objectionable to many of our very best people. They prefer to give their land to a hit or miss tenant to raise a crop of cotton on. There is no use in quarreling with this condition. It was inherited and is all but ineradicable. Meat and bread and butter crops are grown throughout the world by high-class labor accustomed to good-living standards. Cotton is grown throughout the world by Hindus in India, fellahs in Egypt, coolies in China—and American citizens in the United States. This means precisely that American cotton farmers, producing a world staple, have to compete with the cheapest labor on earth, whereas meat and bread and butter farmers compete with the higher priced labor of earth. Is it any wonder that very often our cotton raisers are reduced to poverty? Can our cotton growers, competing with the pauper labor of Asia, afford to buy their foodstuffs? They can not. And that's all there is to it."

The Canyon News points out the fact that while the hides of cattle are now selling for less than one-tenth what they were a year ago, leather and shoes have not declined enough in price that one can hardly tell it. Says the News: "The hide of a 250 pound calf sold in Canyon this morning for 42 cents. The same hide one year ago would have been worth $3.60. The calf was fat, and the hide the most desirable on the market. Men who have not been handling cattle little realize what the cow man is up against today. Leather is higher and harder to get than ever before yet there has been a tremendous slump in the price of hides, until the lowest price in the history of the country now prevails. At the present prices, it does not pay to skin the animals."

The high school of Chillicothe is putting out a monthly publication. The paper is a five-column folio and besides the news matter relative to the school it carries a good lot of advertising from the business men of Chillicothe.

It is estimated that the interurban line to be run from Wichita Falls to Dallas will now cost a million dollars less than figured last summer, owing to the decline of material. It is now estimated to cost $6,500,000.

Kept Fish Alive.
During the recent storm several automobiles got into such deep water at Pennsylvania and Twenty-second streets that they had to stop until the flood abated. One member of a fishing party climbed out on the running board of his car and carefully tied a net of live fish to a spoke and rained dropped it into the water.—Indianapolis News.

Triumph of Art.

A young artist, out on a sketching trip, came across a living specimen of the "barefoot boy with cheek of tan," properly outfitted with rod and string of fish, and for a consideration induced him to pose for a sketch. In a few minutes there came along a man who would have been spotted instantly by a reasonably sophisticated observer as the head, theoretically at least, of a family. For half an hour he stood watching the artist work, then burst out in admiring enthusiasm:

"Well, sir, if that isn't wonderful! Beats all I ever saw!"

"Like the sketch, do you?" the flattered artist responded with a pleased blush.

"Sketch? Oh, that! Yes, it's all right, I guess. What I meant was the way you have managed to keep that boy quiet for so long."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Hard to Combat.

A scientist said in a discussion of an anti-tuberculosis campaign: "Ignorance—ignorance of hygiene—is our worst foe, and ignorance is very hard to combat."

"I am reminded of a story about a scientist who once came upon an old flint-cutter digging flints from chalk. The scientist, remembering a superstition prevalent among flint-cutters, said:

"Do you think flints grow?"
"I don't think nothin' about it, sir," said the old man. "I know they grow."
"Well," said the scientist, "take a flint home, put it on your mantelpiece, and see how much it grows in a year."
"All right, sir," said the flint-cutter; "and you do the same with a potato, and see how much it grows."

Varying Opinions.

Deacon Gildrow says that if a man loves a woman well enough to cheerfully write a check in payment for her new suit, though he knows it means that he will have to make his old overcoat do another winter, it is safe to marry her.

And Mrs. Deacon Gildrow says that if you love a man well enough to think you would like to see the floor of the closet littered up with his old shoes it will be perfectly safe to marry him.

ACTIVITIES RESUMED IN HARDEMAN COUNTY

Activity is on the increase in Hardeaman County, being revived by the entrance of the Sigler interests into that field. Large truckloads of new machinery and heavy casing have been taken to the Wheat well, which has been taken over by the Sigler interests. A complete string of heavy casing will replace the collapsed casing now being pulled from the hole. Work of removing the casing is progressing finely, the driller at one time succeeded in removing 1 section of 300 feet of telescoped casing. The Koch Oil company, owned by the Sigler interests, has made a location near the Wheat well on the Neal ranch. Eli Wagler has been promised a big turkey dinner by Quannah if he will bring the Wheat well in by Christmas.

Lloyd Sigler of the Sigler Drilling company, who brought in the Sigler wildcat, is personally superintending the operations at the Wheat well, and reports plenty of oil in the hole.

The Fort Pitt Oil company, on the Penniston ranch, is preparing to resume drilling operations.

Frizzell's No. 1 Norton is drilling steadily and approaching a depth where the sand may be encountered at any time.

The Walters well is preparing to change from a rotary to a standard.

President Switzer of the Nee-No-She is expected in Quannah this week to resume drilling operations on that well.

HONORING MRS. McDONALD

On Thursday, October 28th, Mrs. R. M. Magee threw open the doors of her home to the ladies of the Methodist church in honor of Mrs. McDonald of Quannah, secretary Vernon District, W. M. S. The meeting was opened with a song followed by prayer and Scripture reading by Mrs. McDonald.

We feel sure this visit will mean much to the women of our society for one could not help being inspired to be a real missionary after hearing Mrs. McDonald talk. There is so much to be done at home as well as abroad. If we would all pray to catch the vision of our duties as missionaries, then what great things we could accomplish.

The talks by Mrs. J. U. Fields of Haskell, Mrs. Potter of Bowie and Mrs. Douglas of Hamlin were full of beautiful thoughts and helpful suggestions. We regret every woman of the church could not hear these women. We only hope the time is not far distant when we can have another such meeting.

As a climax to the afternoon's many pleasures Mrs. Albert Magee rendered a beautiful piano solo, after which Mrs. Magee, assisted by Mesdames J. J. Brown and J. A. Stovall served lovely refreshments.—Supt. of Publicity.

50 Years Ago

A young man who practiced medicine in a rural district became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce who afterward moved to Buffalo, N. Y. He made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and he put up what he called his "Favorite Prescription," and placed it with the druggists in every state in the Union.

For fifty years Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has sold more largely throughout the United States than any other medicine of like character. It's the testimony of thousands of women that it has benefited or entirely eradicated such distressing ailments as women are prone to. It is now sold by druggists in tablet form as well as liquid.

THE ADELPHIAN CLUB

The Adelpian Club was pleasantly entertained in regular meeting November 10th at the home of Mrs. W. F. Kirkpatrick.

During the business session, Mrs. J. A. Stovall's resignation as press reporter was read and accepted and Mrs. Matthews was elected to fill that office. It was announced that the club would hold its annual bazaar December 11, on which date candy, magazines and many beautiful and serviceable miscellaneous articles will be on sale, making a practical and convenient market for Christmas shopping.

A lively discussion of current events followed the business session, after which the lesson for the afternoon, Italian Painting from Cimabue to Leonardo da Vinci was studied.

At the close of the lesson, the hostess brought the minds of those present from memories of the past to a realization of the present by way of two tempting refreshment courses.

Miss Nina Moorehouse, sister and guest of the hostess, was guest of the afternoon.

The club will be entertained at its next meeting in the home of Mrs. Kirkpatrick by Miss Purcell.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Foard County, Greeting:

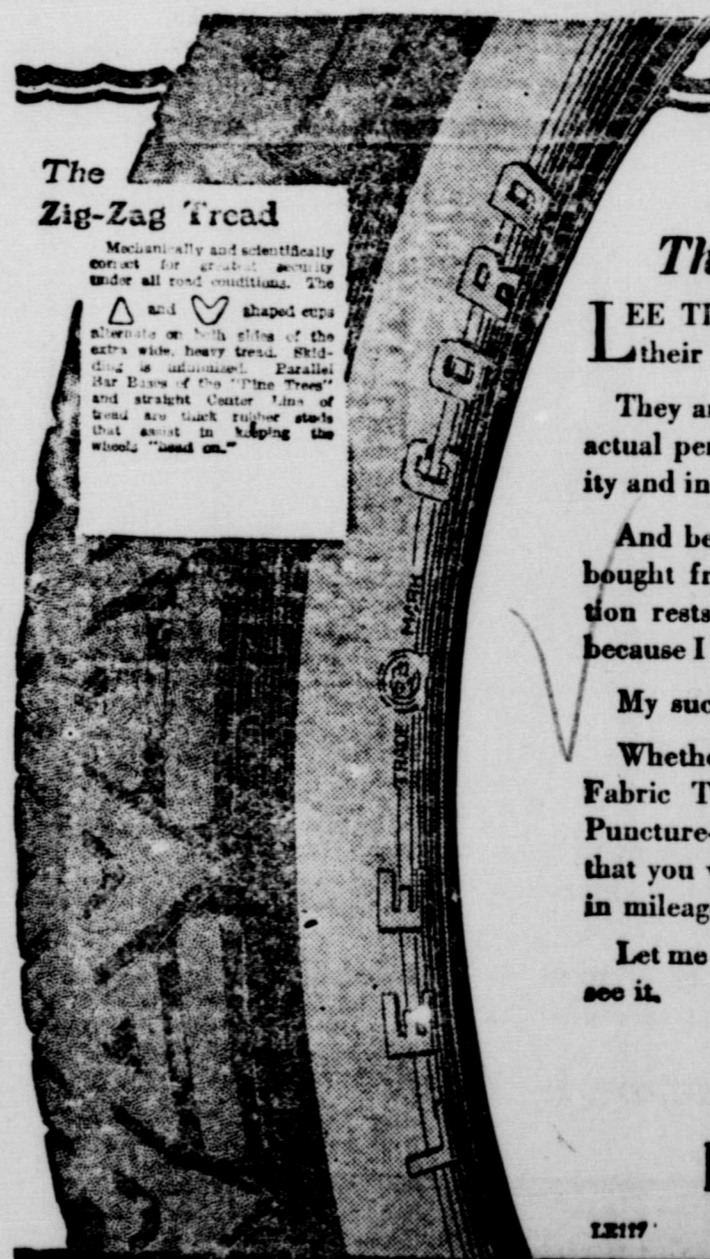

You are hereby Commanded to cause to be published once each week for a period of ten days before the return day hereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year in said Foard County, a copy of the following notice:

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To all persons interested in the Estate of Frank Young, deceased, you are hereby notified that Elon Young has filed in the County Court of Foard County, an application for the probate of the last Will and Testament of said Frank Young, deceased, filed with said application, and for letters testamentary, which will be heard at the next term of said Court, commencing on the First Monday in December, A. D. 1920, the same being the 6th day of December, A. D. 1920, at the Court House thereof, in the town of Crowell, at which time all persons interested in said Estate may appear and contest said application, should they desire to do so.

Herein Fail Not, but have you before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Crowell, Texas, this 9th day of November, A. D. 1920.

MARIE HARRIS,
Clerk County Court, Foard County, Texas.

RESOURCEFUL

There is hardly the possibility of an emergency in political affairs which can not be successfully met by somebody in the grand old State of Georgia. For instance, the prohibition laws of that State put the wine bibbers or wine peddlers or both to the task of contriving a scheme of importing whiskey. They fell upon a most clever one of using "dummy" cows. Here is the story.

Two "dummy" cows, stabled in the stalls of a real dairy farm, giving instead of milk, high grade imported whiskey, drawn from a fifty-gallon tank submerged in the Savannah river a short distance away, constitute what local officers believe to be the most complete smuggling apparatus ever uncovered in Georgia. Both the cows and the tank were destroyed yesterday afternoon in Chatham county by representatives of the United States marshal's office in conjunction with county officers from Chatham.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Foard County, Greeting:

You are Hereby Commanded to cause to be published once each week for a period of ten days before the return day hereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year in said Foard County, a copy of the following notice:

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To all persons interested in the Estate of Anna Phillips, deceased, L. D. Phillips has filed in the County Court of Foard County, an application for the Probate of the last Will and Testament of said Anna Phillips, deceased, filed with said application, and for Letters Testamentary which will be heard at the next term of said Court, commencing on the 1st Monday in December, A. D. 1920, the same being the 6th day of December, A. D. 1920, at the Court House thereof, in Crowell, Texas, at which time all persons interested in said Estate may appear and contest said application, should they desire to do so.

Herein Fail Not, but have you before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Crowell, Texas, this 8th day of November, A. D. 1920.

(Seal)
MARIE HARRIS,
24 Clerk County Court, Foard County, Texas.

MODERN ROBBERY

STAGED ON BIG SCALE

One of the biggest train robberies in the history of the country occurred Sunday morning on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway between Omaha and Council Bluffs, Nebraska, when bandits broke into an express car, and robbed it of large shipments of stocks and bonds and a number of boxes of gold. The paper was from various cities and towns in California and were going to banks in eastern cities. Chicago and New York were to have received large shipments of these. A portion of the loot was gold from the United States Mint in San Francisco to the United States Treasury in Washington.

The amount stolen, it is said, can not be known until a report is had from the shippers in San Francisco as to the amounts shipped. An unofficial report placed the loot at one million dollars.

The chief of police of Omaha is frank to say that some one connected with the Department was in the plot.

The robbery was well planned and perfectly executed. The car was evidently secretly entered, the door locked from the inside and the registered packages and boxes of gold thrown out as the train was in motion and picked up by parties of the plot stationed along the route with autos.

It was too much to ship in one car. Somebody's bad judgment or carelessness.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

Mrs. Lee Allan Beverly was hostess to the Columbian Club on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

The rooms were bright in their decorations of yellow chrysanthemums and white cosmos.

Under the leadership of Mrs. R. L. Kincaid the study of Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer" was begun. The lesson embracing acts I and II.

Browning's beautiful story, "A Blot in the 'Scutcheon,'" was discussed by Miss Jode Brian.

As the meeting drew to a close the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Albert Magee, served delicious refreshments.

Mmes. Leo Spencer and T. P. Reeder were elected to membership in the club.

On November the twenty-fourth Mrs. C. R. Ferguson will be hostess.

HOW A WILBARGER MAN

MAKES TWO BALES TO ACRE

Mere mention of the fact was given in the News last week that W. M. McCaleb of Vernon expected to get two bales of cotton to the acre. We are here reproducing an article from the Vernon Times telling how Mr. McCaleb is doing it. The article follows:

W. M. McCaleb, who lives in the eastern outskirts of the city of Vernon, has twelve acres in cotton that he believes will make around two bales to the acre. This particular plot of ground was planted in seed that Mr. McCaleb has been working on for three years.

The main part of his field is on ground formerly planted in alfalfa and a small part on a hill side where the ground is not so good. Before the fruit on the plants got so heavy that it pulled the stalks over nearly every cotton stalk in the field was as high as a man's head.

This seed is a mixture of Acala, Lone Star Mebane and Half and Half. The first year the cotton was planted Mr. McCaleb went through the field and hand picked his seed from bolls that were five locks and from plants that had the most number of bolls on the limb. In this way he has developed a plant that tends to produce the most number of bolls to the limb and also a good staple of cotton with it. There are numbers and numbers of stalks in his field that have from 150 to 200 bolls of cotton that will open this year. The stalks are all large and well developed.

Another reason Mr. McCaleb gives for his cotton doing so well is that he personally supervised this crop and saw to it that it was worked just right and at the time it needed working. Now the plants are all loaded so heavy with bolls that they are bending over nearly to the ground. Mr. McCaleb says that he will have to pay more to get this picked but that he is going to save the seed for planting purposes.

The fruit on each stalk as a rule is a large round boll, while every now and then a stalk will appear with a long slender boll. Mr. McCaleb says that he has devoted a great deal of time to producing this particular type of cotton and that he believes he has gotten a variety that will deliver the goods.

Mr. McCaleb said that he had four renters on his farms and each one of them had in seventy-five acres of cotton. He said that when he planted his crop he told these men that he would make more cotton on his twelve acres than any one of them would make on his seventy-five acres and he believes that he will do it.

The seed from this cotton will be kept clean from other varieties and later on he will place it on the market in small quantities so that others may experiment with it and see what they think of it. Experienced cotton men have visited this field and all say that they have never seen anything to equal it for yield.

FIRST NOTICE

East, West, Home's Best

It has been said that The Youth's Companion has had more readers per copy than any other publication in America. There is good reason to believe this to be true. But the important thing is that the influence of the paper upon its millions of readers has always been directed to building character. "East, west, home's best," has been its unvaried slogan. In its articles, editorial and otherwise, it has dwelt upon the importance of good citizenship. In all its contents it has aimed to give not only entertainment, but "stepping stones to higher things."

A year of The Youth's Companion brings a tremendous tide of delightful and diversified reading that cannot be found elsewhere.

The county agent of Dallas county gives out some interesting figures relative to the products of that county. According to his statements cotton is first, amounting this year to nearly six million dollars. Milk is second, being $2,400,000. But the value of eggs reaches the surprising amount of $1,875,000.

The first shipment of 100,000 head of dairy cattle will be made from Texas to Germany within a few days, it is said. The first consignment will consist of about 750.

CALOMEL

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury—quicksilver; and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, or them eat anything afterwards.

Small Women Look Best in Youthful Styles

A woman these modern days is as young as she looks--and clothes have a lot to do with age--

PEGGY PARIS Suits and Coats are modish looking--on small women--

Because they are designed especially upon smart youthful lines so they will look well upon a woman of smaller than average size.

Their sprightly style lines are just what every girl, not yet grown, loves to wear. They're young looking clothes--not misses styles--either--

But patterned, cut and made to gracefully fit the less developed figure.

That's what PEGGY PARIS means.

They're tailored with the utmost skill--and finished as quality garments should be finished, to give service and satisfaction to the girls and women who buy them. Made of modish materials in the season's popular shades and effects.

Artistic Jewelry

Jewelry is an ornament, pure and simple. Some jewelry is artistic--it is appropriate for the person or the occasion--and the mission of jewelry fails utterly when it does not fulfill the requirements of propriety. In selecting our jewelry we aim to meet the most exacting demands of good taste. Jewelry is the thermometer of refinement simply because it indicates the degree of one's taste. You have little chance to transgress the laws of propriety if you purchase your jewelry at this store.

Some of the Trials of Present-Day Executives.

Man Who Complained That There Were No Efficient People in the World Had Some Excuse for His Bitterness--Trouble Is Moral.

Several years ago, when I had just been promoted to my first real job, I called on a business friend of mine. He is a wise and experienced handler of men. I asked him what suggestions he could make about executive responsibility, writes Bruce Barton, in the Red Book.

"You are about to make a great discovery," he said. "Within a week or two you will know why it is that executives grow gray and die before their time. You will have learned the bitter truth that there are no efficient people in the world."

I am still very far from admitting that he was right, but I know well enough what he meant. Every man knows, who has ever been responsible for a piece of work or had to meet a pay roll.

Recently another friend of mine built a house. The money to build it represented a difficult period of saving on the part of himself and his wife; it meant overtime work and self-denial, and extra effort in behalf of a long-cherished dream.

One day when the work was well along he visited it, and saw a workman climbing a ladder to the roof with a little bunch of shingles in his hands. "Look here," the foreman cried, "can't you carry a whole bundle of shingles?"

The workman regarded him sullenly. "I suppose I could," he answered, "if I wanted to bull the job."

By "bull the job" he meant "do an honest day's work."

At 10 o'clock one morning I met still another man in his office in New York. He was munching a sandwich and gulping a cup of coffee which his secretary had brought in to him.

"I had to work late last night," he said, "and meet a very early appointment this morning. My wife asked our maid to have breakfast a half hour early so that I might have a bite and still be here in time."

"When I came down to breakfast the maid was still in bed."

She lives in his home and eats and is clothed by means of money which his brain provides; but she has no interest in his success, no care whatever except to do the minimum of work.

"The real trouble with the world today is a moral trouble," said a thoughtful man recently. "A large proportion of its people have lost all conception of what it means to render an adequate service in return for the wages they are paid."

He is a generous man. On almost any sort of question his sympathies are likely to be with labor, and so are mine. I am glad that men work shorter hours than they used to, and in certain instances I think the hours should be even shorter. I am glad they are paid higher wages, and hope they may earn still more.

But there are times when my sympathy goes out to those in whose behalf no voice is ever raised--to the executives of the world, whose hours are limited only by the limit of their physical and mental endurance; who carry not merely the load of their own work, but the heartbreaking load of carelessness and stolid indifference in so many of the folks whom they employ.

Perhaps the most successful executive in history was that centurion of the Bible.

"For I am a man of authority, having soldiers under me," he said. "And I say to this man go, and he goeth; and to another, come, and he cometh; and to my servant, do this, and he doeth it."

Marvelous man! The modern executive also says, "Go," and too often the man who should have gone will appear a day or two later and explain, "I didn't understand what you meant." He says, "Come," and at the appointed time his telephone rings and a voice speaks, saying, "I overslept and will be there in about three-quarters of an hour."

SECOND LEPER FOUND IN INDIANA BEING HELD

Indianapolis, Nov. 16.--The second leper ever found in Indiana is under quarantine here today. He is Robert Burdine, 45, who saw service in the Philippines as an American soldier. With him are confined his wife and 7-year-old daughter. They will be cared for by the state until such time as Burdine can be removed to a Government leprosarium in Mississippi.

The only previous known instance of leprosy in Indiana was the famous "Byers case," which stirred wide attention four years ago.

NOTICE OF BOND ELECTION

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held at the Justice Court room in the court house in the town of Crowell, Texas, within the Crowell Independent School District, on the 20th day of November, 1920, to determine whether the bonds of said Crowell Independent School District shall be issued to the amount of $10,000.00, payable forty years from their date, and bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum for the purpose of constructing permanent repairs of roofing and brick material to the Crowell Public Free School of said district, and whether there shall be annually levied, assessed and collected on all taxable property in said district for the current year and annually thereafter, while said bonds, or any of them, are outstanding, a tax sufficient to pay the principal at maturity.

J. W. Beverly has been appointed manager of said election, which shall be held as nearly as may be possible in conformity with the general election laws of the State.

No person shall vote at said election unless he be a qualified voter under the Constitution and Laws of this State, and a taxpayer in said Crowell Independent School District.

Those in favor of the issuance of the bonds and the levying of the tax shall write or print on their ballot, "For the Bonds and the Tax," and those against the issuance of the bonds and the levying of the tax shall write or print on their ballot, "Against the Bonds and the Tax."

Said election was ordered by the board of trustees of said Crowell Independent School District by order passed on the 19th day of October, 1920, and this notice is issued pursuant to said order.

Dated this 20th day of October, 1920.

T. M. BEVERLY,
President of Board of Trustees of Said District.

DISEASES OF HEART MORE FATAL THAN CONSUMPTION

Washington, Nov. 16.--The death rate of the United States for 1919, 12.9 per thousand of population, was the lowest recorded for any year since the establishment of the death registration area. In 1918 the rate was 18 per 1,000, due to the influenza epidemic. According to figures made public today by the Bureau of Census, 1,096,436 deaths occurred in 1919 in the registration areas, which covered 33 states and an estimated population of 85,147,822. Organic diseases of the heart carried off more citizens than any other cause, 111,579 deaths being attributed to these diseases or 10.2 per cent of the entire total. The great white plague was next in fatalities, 106,985 losing their lives from tuberculosis. This is 9.8 per cent of the total deaths. Influenza accounted for the deaths of 84,113.
