TEI FOR ROAD BONDS SATURDAY, MAY 7

Have you forgotten that there will be an election one of these days for issuing of bonds with which to build roads and bridges in Foard County? The date is May 7th. Read the order for the election in this issue.

Personally the News is in favor of the issue and will vote for it. We give our reasons for favoring good roads.

First of all we need good roads. We are living in a day when all business is pitched on a scale far ahead of that of ten years ago, and since traffic is one of the most important elements of the business and commercial activity of a community, that traffic must be facilitated by better roads if we are to keep pace with the rest of the world, as we must do, or lose out. The roads, so many of which we now have, are inadequate for our present needs. Any one can understand this.

In fifteen years ago there were no automobiles. We rode on horseback or in buggy. We hauled our products in wagons to market and we did not have to hurry then as we do now, so that poor roads were more tolerable than they are now, since nearly all travel is done by auto and by hauling by truck. Better roads, good roads, we should say, such as we need our needs will do more to speed up our commercial pace, perhaps, than any other one thing. Over the roads we can go to town in half the time we could over poor roads. Why go to town? You break your binder and need repairs. Suppose you had to go for them like you did ten years ago. The weeds would be your ground sure before you got to crop off. But suppose you start in your car over the rough roads and run into a chug hole and broke your car before you got there, you would have to be very pious or you would break one of the ten commandments. If you had a good road, you would be there soon after starting and the joy attending the going would be great. The time saved would amount to dollars, perhaps, for one trip. The same thing is true with respect to the hauling of your produce to market. With two horses, if you had that kind of motive power, you could haul all your wagon will bear up and walk along with good speed and ease. If you move your stuff with a truck, there is little danger of a breakdown, and a consequent heavy expense therefrom, as well as a big loss of time.

We veritably believe that good roads will effect a saving of time and money enough to pay for them. In the first place time is money itself, and when one speaks of a time saving that means money saving. There are now times in the year when one can't get his time to be then a saving of time means a saving of money. The highway running west from Crowell offers a fine example of what a road means in point of time saving. Those people up near the Cotton County line will tell you that when they used to take them one and a half hours to come to Crowell by auto would place the saving beyond these figures.

Approximately 2,000 bales were pooled, says Mr. Chaney, and an average of about $5.00 per bale saved by this means of marketing.

The Chamber of Commerce of Memphis is putting on a rat killing campaign. Prizes are being offered from $10 down to $2 for the largest number killed. Besides this an offer of 1 cent is made for each rat tail.

Many more gallons of gas will it buy and how much pleasure and comfort will it provide? And after all, that is what everybody is hunting.

Would anybody oppose the issue because he is afraid the highway will not pass his plate? Of course, everybody will not get equal advantages from a highway, but everybody will get value received, we believe, and no one should oppose a proposition because it does not give him the best there is in it. We do not have that opinion of anybody in Foard County. If there are those who will oppose the bond issue we believe they will do so because they don't want taxes increased. Ordinarily that is a fairly good reason, but in the case of good roads it does not apply, because, as any one can see for himself, they will actually make it possible to effect a saving.

Carroll Huddleston of Mabank and Miss Lola Huddleston of Allen came in Wednesday on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Josie Huddleston. They were met in Quanah by J. R. Beverly.

Talking About Sewerage System for the City of Crowell

Urban & Bentley of Burkburnett have become interested in the proposition of building a sewerage system for Crowell.

These people are now putting in a system at Burkburnett and think when water is developed at Crowell a proposition they could make our city might appeal to us. One thing necessary, however, is plenty of water. We could not expect a sewerage system unless the water supply is sufficient to justify this. The proposition these people will be able to make Crowell in case we get water, is one that would relieve the town of any burden in the way of indebtedness. They represent a company capitalized at a million dollars which asks for a franchise and puts in the system without cost to the city.

There are details to the matter which perhaps it is not necessary to mention now, because Crowell is not ready for sewerage yet, at best that is a considerable distance in the future. Yet it is not bad to know that these propositions can be brought to a town, if in no other way, by means of outside capital. When water is had for Crowell sewerage will be one of the next things to consider, and if we are broke when we get water and want sewerage, a plan of this kind might look mighty good.

Methodist Meeting Closed; Much Good Was Accomplished

One of the biggest revivals Crowell has ever experienced closed with Sunday night's services at the Methodist church. For two weeks the meeting was in progress and with each succeeding service the interest seemed to grow, and the last night witnessed a crowded house and a manifestation of high interest. The spirit of co-operation was as fine as could be wished for. Denominational lines were obliterated for the time being at least and all entered into the services with a spirit to strengthen the spiritual needs of the community.

Rev. Fuller of Margaret assisted the pastor, Rev. J. H. Hamblen, in all these services and impressed himself upon his hearers as one intensely earnest in the ministerial work and as a man of ability. He and the pastor made an excellent team in the pulpit, but it took "Uncle" Jake Wright as leader of the choir to make the meeting what it was in point of music.

There were 50 conversions during the meeting and 46 additions to the church.

A free will offering was taken just before the Sunday morning service, which amounted to about $500, a splendid expression of the public's appreciation of the efforts of the two preachers during the meeting.

Farmers of County Save Money by Pooling Cotton

Co-operative marketing of cotton by the farmers in Foard County this year has meant a saving of about $10,000, says the county agent. That is a conservative estimate. Some would place the saving beyond these figures.

Approximately 2,000 bales were pooled, says Mr. Chaney, and an average of about $5.00 per bale saved by this means of marketing.

The Chamber of Commerce of Memphis is putting on a rat killing campaign. Prizes are being offered from $10 down to $2 for the largest number killed. Besides this an offer of 1 cent is made for each rat tail.

Many more gallons of gas will it buy and how much pleasure and comfort will it provide? And after all, that is what everybody is hunting.

Would anybody oppose the issue because he is afraid the highway will not pass his plate? Of course, everybody will not get equal advantages from a highway, but everybody will get value received, we believe, and no one should oppose a proposition because it does not give him the best there is in it. We do not have that opinion of anybody in Foard County. If there are those who will oppose the bond issue we believe they will do so because they don't want taxes increased. IMPORTANT MEETING OF CHAMBER CALLED TONIGHT

A meeting has been called for Friday night, April 22nd, in the district court room for the following purposes:

1. Shall the Foard County Chamber of Commerce organization be continued or shall we quit and go back to the individual idea of every man for himself with no organized effort?

2. If we decide to continue the organization we must elect officers for the coming fiscal year.

3. The Chamber of Commerce will make the test for water and a report rendered at the meeting.

4. Should the water supply show sufficient water for the city in this test, the matter of requesting the City Council to order an election to vote bonds will be taken up.

5. We must take steps to inform the voters of the county just why the road bonds must pass.

These questions are of vital importance to the organization and every citizen is urged to be present. We must get water in the city and good roads in the country. Come out and help.

PRESS ASSOCIATION FAVORS TEACHING PRINTERS TRADE

Amarillo, April 18.—Institution of a complete printing shop with a number of linotype machines at the state normal at Canyon was recommended in a talk before the Panhandle Press association convention here by Representative Lee Satterwhite of Panhandle, who is also editor of the Herald at that place.

"The fact that no apprentices now are being schooled in the printing craft in our newspaper shops is going to prove a great handicap to us in the years to come," said Satterwhite. "The practice of discouraging the teaching of the printing trade already is showing its effect over the country.

The state is willing to equip such a plant at Canyon. A great number of the students at that institution would be pleased to learn the printing trade. The proposed shop would be properly equipped with linotype machines where the students in printing could learn not only how to set type by hand but by machine. The unions now have a monopoly of the linotype.

Satterwhite asked that the convention unanimously pass resolutions recommending this installation so that he would be in position at the earliest possible moment to secure an appropriation from the state legislature for the plant.

Undergoes Operation

Mrs. J. W. Bell underwent an operation Saturday for appendicitis, Dr. Frizzell of Quanah, assisted by the local doctors, performing the work.

The condition of the patient is reported as indicating rapid improvement and hope of speedy recovery if no complications set up.

Governor Neff says all our people rejoice when West Texas got two state normals, the tubercular sanitarium, the epileptic colony, a lunatic asylum, and a few other things of minor importance. The governor at that time may not have been quite so handy with the veto hatchet as is the present one.

One reason why Foard County should build highways at this time is because we have the best opportunity we will ever have to get the work done right. There will be no risk to take in making contracts with parties who might seek to put a bad job over Mr. Noland's services are available and he knows the business in minutest details. His work in Foard County is not surpassed in the State.

One of our townsmen who recently made a trip to Austin says the highway in this county is the best strip of road he passed over. We want others like it in the county. A vote favoring bonds on May 7th by the citizens of the county will give them to us.

Carroll Huddleston of Mabank and Miss Lola Huddleston of Allen came in Wednesday on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Josie Huddleston. They were met in Quanah by J. R. Beverly.

MRS. BARNES, CLOTHING SPECIALIST HERE LAST WEEK

Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist of the extension department of A. & M. College arrived on Sunday of last week to assist our home demonstration agent, Miss Flora E. Goodwin, in doing some special work in clothing.

The entire day Monday was spent with the group of club girls who are preparing to enter the state contest in clothing. Mrs. Barnes complimented these girls upon the splendid work they are doing and assured them that if they completed their work in the same careful manner that they could expect to win honors for Foard County in the state contest.

Tuesday morning a public lecture and demonstration was given on the use of Commercial Patterns and in Finishes. This was an especially helpful program and was greatly appreciated by the ladies present. In the afternoon, Mrs. Barnes spoke to the Crowell club girls and ladies at the school building upon the subject of appropriateness in dress. Several club girls dressed to represent different types of dress appeared on the stage and lent an interesting illustrative touch to the lecture. A demonstration was then given in the making of a useful but inexpensive dress form. The ladies were delighted with this work because of its practical nature.

Wednesday morning a community meeting was held in Margaret and a good crowd was present. Mrs. Barnes spoke on some general health principles stressing the care of the body by the selection of proper clothing. This talk was illustrated by a series of attractive charts and posters and samples of clothing. A textile demonstration followed concerning the selection of clothing materials.

We feel everyone who had the pleasure of being present in any phase of this work derived both pleasure and benefit from it. Mrs. Barnes is an enthusiastic worker and her enthusiasm is contagious. The influence for good that she is exerting upon the girls of Texas can hardly be estimated. We are glad to have had her in Foard County. Our only regret is that every one of our girls could not have had the opportunity of being with her in the work last week.

ORIENT EXTENSION OUTLOOK BRIGHTENS

San Angelo, Texas, April 18.—Concession has been granted by the Mexican and American Governments for the building of an international railway bridge over the Rio Grande at Del Rio in order to effect a crossing for the branch of the Mexican National Railroad that is being built northward from Allende, in Coahuila, to Del Rio, according to a dispatch received here.

It is understood that three Americans who live in the vicinity of Del Rio and three Mexicans, two of whom reside in San Antonio and the other in Mexico City, have formed a company to build the bridge. Funds are said to be available and work will start immediately.

W. S. Poole of London, representative of both bond and note holders in the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad, was in Del Rio the latter part of the week, as a part of his inspection, with Frederick Hurdle of London and Charles H. Jones, New York banker, and stated that with the connecting up of Del Rio with Mexico it was imperative that the Orient should as soon as possible build its 170-mile extension from San Angelo to Del Rio. Such a line would afford a direct Kansas City-to-Mexico City route and, according to Mr. Poole, would enable the Orient at last to begin making money.

Visit of Orient Officials

The English investors and the New Yorker were in San Angelo March 30 and 31 on an inspection of the Orient properties in Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas and Mexico and said that whether or not finances would be forthcoming for the completion of the Orient system, as originally planned by Arthur E. Stillwell, would depend largely upon the report they made upon their return home.

The county commissioners of Wilbarger County ordered an election to vote bonds amounting to $100,000 last week for the building and equipping of a county hospital.

Vernon is to have a county fair this fall. Last year no fair was held at Vernon, the first time in many years they had failed.

County Commissioners Employ Assistant County Agent

The commissioners voted unanimously while in session last week to employ an assistant county agent for Foard County.

This is made necessary by reason of the increased duties crowded upon County Agent P. D. Chaney. The organization of the Farm Bureau has naturally increased Mr. Chaney's work and he finds himself unable to care for it all. This action of the commissioners is in line with what is being done in practically all the other counties.

It is not known when an assistant can be placed on the ground, but the beginning of the year of his employment is May 1st.

When the assistant can be here to take up his work, Mr. Chaney hopes to be able to give more attention to the details of his work with the club members. And too, he is planning to organize an association for thoroughbred stock breeders and get matters in shape for an exhibit, or fair, this fall, all of which will mean more or less work.

Boys Got Beat Monday

The worst game the Crowell boys have played this season was pulled off between them and Paducah Monday at Paducah. The scores stood 12 to 2 in favor of Paducah.

Up until this game was played the boys had made the finest kind of record and they are not going to be discouraged by reason of this defeat. They can not definitely attribute the defeat to any one thing. They say they just got started wrong somehow and everything went against them from the very beginning. They play Vernon this afternoon.

SCHOOL ANNUAL, "THE MELTING POT," ALMOST READY FOR THE PRESS

The Melting Pot, a year book of the happenings of Crowell High School, will be ready for the press by May 2. Much time and hard work has been spent on this book and it will no doubt be a credit to the school and the town. It will contain the pictures of all the high school pupils, many stories and poems written by the students, jokes, original dramas, and cartoons. It will be larger and better than the one put out last year and the staff already has orders for almost twice the number that was sold last year.

The campaign for the sale of the annuals has closed but if there is any one who would like to have one you can put in your order at the News office or with any member of the Senior Class between now and the first of May.

As stated above the financing and preparing of this annual for the press has required no small amount of work and much credit is due the members of the class for their untiring efforts.

Revival Meeting to Start at Baptist Church Sunday

Preparations have been arranged for the commencement of a revival at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. The preaching will be done by the pastor and the singing by home talent.

Big Snow in Colorado

A letter from Mrs. J. D. Shinpaugh, formerly Miss Pauline Smith, asking the News to change the address of her paper from San Marcus, Texas, to Colorado Springs, says that they had 8 inches of snow in Colorado on April 15 and that it was still snowing so that one could scarcely see across the street. This she says is a record for that country at this season of the year.

Mrs. Shinpaugh says she and her husband are permanently located in Colorado Springs.

The Denver road will reduce wages of its employes May 11. This is found to be necessary in order to keep from going broke, it is said. Many roads will reduce pay of employes.

A Baptist revival closed at Snyder last week in which there were some thirty conversions. Within the last few weeks there have been many great revivals over this part of the state.

Vernon is to have a county fair this fall. Last year no fair was held at Vernon, the first time in many years they had failed.

ARMY OFFICER TELLS OF CONDITIONS IN GERMANY

Vernon, Texas, April 16.—A touching but comprehensive letter on conditions in Europe as found by the American army of occupation has recently been received by Blake H. Lewis, living four miles east of Vernon. The letter contains the musings of an officer with Uncle Sam's forces, Capt. William G. Purdy, formerly of this county and who lived on Mr. Lewis' farm shortly before the war broke out. Captain Purdy has traveled extensively during his stay on the continent and has had abundant opportunity to judge competently the merits of the individual countries. His conclusions are interestingly set forth as follows:

"When Sunday comes my thoughts are of you and the pleasant days when I could forget, for a time, the worries of everyday life and turn to God for council and comfort. The responsibility, the work, and the surroundings here do not so easily lend themselves to those things which are not necessary to spiritual happiness. I would that, this day, as in many others, I could get away for a few hours to associate with and talk to those that know God as I do.

"I do not wish to leave the impression that all my associates and all the American officers and soldiers are immoral and irreligious. The atmosphere is different. There are too few with the same ideas. We have all religious beliefs in the army. These things are left to the individual and very rarely mentioned or discussed. Our American officers and soldiers have the highest standard of any soldiers. I have seen many of the soldiers of the other countries and associated with them and I am sure my deduction is correct. However, Americans are by no means angels.

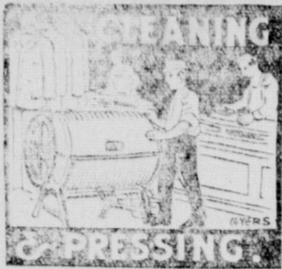

"The stay of the Americans on the Rhine is uncertain. Some think that we will all be home by August, but no one knows. I will be glad to get back to America. However, living conditions here are not so bad. The German people are mostly all hard at work and it will be only a matter of months until they are back to the pre-war conditions.

"The French are not doing much. They are holding out their hands to America for help and not doing anything much to help themselves. Americans going into France are charged much more for everything than other people. In Brussels there were over one million dollars worth of supplies, clothing, etc., sent to aid the devastated areas of the country. It was being given to the people who needed it. The merchants tried to obtain this so that it might be sold through them. The Americans would not consent to anything of the kind so the Belgian merchants, through legal or illegal action, stopped for a month the distribution of the supplies, stating that it would ruin all their trade and profits. During the time the warehouses were closed, they mysteriously burned down, not one dollar's worth being saved. I would not give the French or Belgians one penny until they get down to work to help themselves. In fact, I believe in America leaving Europe alone to settle most of her problems. The allies seem to want to use America for a cat's paw. There is, however, a certain amount of help due from the United States which is necessary for the reconstruction of worldly affairs. This must not be decided hastily.

"There is too much secret work and agreements going on for the good of all concerned. I hope our new administration will solve some of the problems now confronting us.

"Our work here is very hard. While the people do not give any trouble we must keep in perfect shape for anything that might turn up. The German people like the Americans better than the other armies of occupation. There is, however, no great love for us. There is quite a bit of propaganda here so that Germany may get a better gain in a peace treaty with America. Germany should be made to pay every cent that she can. They openly talk of another war with France and no doubt are making preparations to that end."

Mrs. Josie Huddleston of Mabank is critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Beverly, in this city. She was here on a visit and took seriously ill Sunday and no hopes of her recovery is retained.

The Dirt That Sifts From Your Clothes

If you could see the common street dirt, dust and grit that sifts from your clothes when they are dusted in our special dusting machine before we clean them, you'd wonder what happens when you wear clothes that are not dry-cleaned.

Of course the dirt sifts through, onto your under apparel—and your person.

More than that, it grinds and cuts the fibres of your outer garments—they wear out faster than they should.

Both for health's sake and economy's sake, skirts, jackets, suits and coats should be dry-cleaned frequently—and of course there is the matter of good looks to be considered, too.

Have us call for your things today. We dry-clean the modern way.

Tires Will Be Scarce

Don't hold back thinking perhaps tires will go down. REASONS—Last summer there was a tremendous over-stock of tires. One of the largest manufacturers had a 100 per cent over-stock in his warehouse; as a result the curtailment of production has been the greatest ever known. 67 Gyp tire manufacturers went broke in a few months; the larger factories are operating at less than 25 per cent of normal production. 98 per cent of motorists are using their old tires that ordinarily would have been junked long ago; warm weather is near and you know what this means; everyone will need tires. Does it look as if they will get cheaper. Don't delay your purchase.

Mr. Warren's near Margaret Saturday night. They report a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nailon went to Lake View, Texas, Saturday returning Sunday afternoon with Mr. Nailon's children, who have been staying with their aunt and going to school in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Fowler of Crowell and Miss Nellie Brown of Dallas, who is visiting them, and Mrs. A. L. Johnson of Crowell were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Johnston Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shook and baby and Jim and Miss Una Miller of the Gribble community attended Sunday School here Sunday afternoon and singing Sunday night.

Mrs. Ross has moved back to her farm in this community. We are glad to welcome her back with us again.

Duke Wallace and Uncle Ben Meason of Crowell were with us Monday night at singing. They complimented the class very highly.

There was a large crowd at Sunday School Sunday afternoon, and also a good crowd at singing Sunday night, including a number of visitors from other communities, whose help in the singing was appreciated very much. We hope they will be with us often.

Resolutions

At a regular meeting of Crowell Lodge No. 840, A. F. & A. M., the following resolutions were adopted: To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Crowell Lodge No. 840, A. F. & A. M.:

We, your committee, appointed to draft resolutions in regard to the death of Bro. Albert D. Magee, submit the following:

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father, on Easter Sunday, March 27, A. D. 1921, A. L. 5921, to remove by death from our midst, Bro. Albert D. Magee, aged 23 years, after only a few hours sickness;

Therefore be it resolved: First: That we hereby submit to the Divine Will.

Second: That in the death of Bro. Magee we fully realize that though he was one of the youngest as to age and in the time he had been a Mason, that no member was more earnest, useful and proficient, both in and out of the lodge room.

Third: That during the few years of his manhood he was prompt in the discharge of every duty. When the call to war was made he freely and voluntarily offered his services and was enlisted in the Navy. The esteem in which he was held by soldiers and sailors was shown in his election as Post Commander of Gordon J. Ford Post of the American Legion of this place. He was also a member of our City Council and worked diligently for the good of the public.

Fourth: That we see many things in his life work that are to be commended. "He kept his store of kindness and love from growing less by unceasing lavishness."

Fifth: That we extend our sympathies to his brothers, and especially promise to his wife and mother the care and protection due them by reason of his being a Mason.

Sixth: As he was Senior Warden of this lodge we recommend that his station be draped in mourning for the remainder of this Masonic year.

Respectfully submitted,
JOE W. BEVERLY,
N. J. ROBERTS,
CLAUDE A. ADAMS.

Dorcas Class

Mrs. E. B. Edwards was hostess to the Dorcas Sunday School class of the Baptist church on Thursday afternoon, April 14th.

Mrs. Andrews lead in prayer and Mrs. Claude Adams read Scripture lesson. The roll call was answered by a Bible verse. Business was then taken up and disposed of in its order. Mrs. Adams then gave some interesting incidents of her trip to the O. B. C. convention at Austin.

The hostess served delicious refreshments which all enjoyed and went home feeling glad they came out.—Reporter.

Crowell, Texas, April 22, 1921

MARGARET MUSINGS (By Special Correspondent)

Winter still lingers in the lap of spring. Our Joe Bailey garden has had a serious set-back but we hope like Joe it will come again.

Everything around our town is quiet and indications are that we are up against a worse proposition than Hoover gave us. We had money then but could not buy, now we could buy if we had the money. Why, O, why, did we not stay with the grand old party that scattered money so profusely? Texas still stays, but she scatters according to scripture, in "Unto him who hath shall be given, but he who hath not, is in a bad fix."

Our farmers are planting a little cotton and feed stuff. They go forth weeping bitter tears and we are afraid they will return about the same way.

Mr. Stephens has gobbled up the chicken and egg business. He makes weekly trips to Vernon with poultry and eggs and loads his truck back with groceries, which makes our merchants look blue. Already groceries are down and chicken and eggs are up. Plant more chickens.

Our M. E. pastor, Bro. Fuller, has had the misfortune to lose his fine cow. We hope the ladies may come to the rescue and have a pie supper or something of that kind and buy him another one.

In regard to the little bond controversy in the News, it states that the explanation is for me alone. Taking it for granted that all the readers of the News understood the situation except me. I am not from Missouri, but I must be shown. So I may line up with all the other readers of the News.

It states that the order of election does not mention Pease River bridge, yet, Joe Orr says the petition he read asked for bonds to build our half of it. The petitions that were circulated asked for $100,000 bonds, while the order of election asks for $150,000. Now if the commissioners can make such an order it was not necessary to petition at all, for they had no right to order an election for more than the petition called for. It states that the boundary line can be thrashed out at the proper time, and I wish to remark that it was thrashed away back in the '90's when there was an attempt made to bond the county to rebuild the bridge. Ask John Stegar why it was not built. Ask Dave Reavis why the boundary line was not moved to the middle of Pease River when he put it there by survey. If we are to build the bridge why did Hardeman county take all the material in the old bridge and use it for their own benefit, and threatened to prosecute parties who caught some of the floating lumber. Pease River bridge was built for a purpose and it accomplished its purpose. The County Hardeman made bonds for $43,000 to pay for it. We of Foard County assumed half of the bonds and are still paying them. Hardeman claimed and took the bridge because it was all in that county and now if they want a bridge across their river, let them build it. The News tells us that the bridge will be thrashed out at the proper time and since the News told us this money would build the bridge and the petition asked for bonds to build it, we think this is about the proper time to do the thrashing.

Our "Uncle" balks when it comes to being convinced against his will. No explanation, it seems will satisfy our venerable friend as to the petition, call for election, etc. We have feared that he has a chronic case of some kind of aches which can not be cured, and which will cause him to see boogers of all sorts and dozen of niggers in one woodpile. "Uncle" there is nothing wrong about the order for election. The petition for $100,000 was deemed too small by the commissioners after it was circulated and brought back. The one for $150,000 was asked for in order that the commissioners might build more roads over the county than was at first thought possible with $100,000. The one for $150,000 got twice the number necessary to order the election and since the people over the county had signed the other one freely it was thought unnecessary to go over the entire county again with the petition for $150,000, and this was the one acted on by the commissioners. This was recommended by the commissioners after they had ascertained the fact that we could vote that much bonds and it met the approval of every man to whom the proposition was submitted.

"Uncle" says the boundary line was thrashed out away back in the '90's. Well, for the love of Mike what is he monkeying with the thing for now. It was supposed to have been thrashed out, and with that thought in mind the county has started its building program. As to this matter, Dave Reavis says the south bank was the line. But he says the question is, where was that bank? But he states that it can be re-established, but that what was then the south bank is in many places now the middle of the stream. That very thing is true at the crossing between here and Quanah. So, "Uncle," we have some river on our hands.

The only way we see by which we might have saved ourselves the annoyance of bridging the pesky river would have been for our commissioners to have sold the river with excursion privileges, when they did sell Foard County's part of the bridge for the consideration of $1,000 when our "Uncle" was one of the commissioners. But if there was any portion of the vexatious proposition he failed to "thresh" out that was it. If "Uncle" John will put the channel back where it was in '91 then we will make Hardeman build the bridge.

This further might be said. The building of a bridge across the river is the smallest part of the issue. Little more than one tenth of the money to be raised by the bond issue will be used in building the bridge, provided the bridge is built. That is a conditional proposition, while the construction of highways is the big end of the matter and that work will be done if the bonds carry whether a bridge is built in a hundred years or not. Roads are what we need and that is the main purpose of the bonds.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends, one and all, who so kindly assisted us in our recent seizure of sickness. We realize that our burdens were made lighter by your thoughtfulness and watchful care of our little Harold. We trust each one may ever be surrounded by just such friends and loved ones.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Banister.

FIGURED IN HISTORIC PAST

Representation of Monarch of the Time of Abraham Now in Pennsylvania Museum.

In the dim old days of the patriarch Abraham people looked very much as they do now, judging from the oldest representation of human figures unearthed by the toiling brotherhood of archeologists. Two striking figures, one standing and one seated, are included in the elaborate design of the clay seal, or "postage stamp," which has excited the enthusiasm of Dr. Legrain, curator of the Babylonian section of the University of Pennsylvania museum.

Dr. Legrain has figured out the inscriptions of the little tablet as indicating that it dates from the period when "Ur of the Chaldees," mentioned in Genesis in connection with the history of Abraham, was a flourishing kingdom. And he finds reason to believe that the seated figure, decorated with fineness of beautiful acrodeon plaiting, is a portrait of his majesty Ibi-Sin, the last king of Ur and possibly an intimate friend of the Father of Israel.

To the modern eye both figures are remarkably well drawn and lifelike in attitude, especially considering the fact that they were modeled in clay on a very small scale. Dr. Legrain thinks the tablet served the double purpose of a seal and a postage stamp on a sack of money forwarded to a banker named Shulpae by his reverence the high priest of the temple of Ur, at which Abraham worshipped.

THE HOUSE OF SERVICE

Telephony or Telepathy.

The telephone gets blamed for a whole lot of things and the gentle operator often gets hawled out by the irate subscriber or the fellow who is borrowing somebody else's phone. On the other hand the telephone and the gentle operator are not always credited with all they should be and they deserve mention when they add telepathy to their other accomplishments. That must explain this incident. A few days ago a subscriber at Jeffersonville wished to telephone to Mr. Smith, and was told at his office that he had just gone to the bank. The subscriber called the bank number while actively thinking of Mr. Smith; the telephone operator—or her subconscious self, let us say—plugged in at quite another number, of course "Is this the bank?" "No, this is the newspaper office." "Sorry, I was looking for Mr. Smith." "Well, wait a minute; he has just stepped in." How's that for "service"—Indianapolis News.

Secretary Lawson Purdy of the Charity Organization society, said in a recent address:

"Unorganized giving usually does more harm than good. Let me tell you a true story.

"A lady last week besought her husband with tears in her eyes to buy her a set of near-coney furs which she had seen in a Fifth avenue shop marked down to $1,000.

"My love," her husband said, "I can't do it. This very day I subscribed $1,000 to save poor dear old Sinnickson from bankruptcy.

"The lady a few days later rushed into her husband's office in great excitement.

"Jack, what do you think? she cried, 'You know that $1,000 set of near-coney furs I wanted you to buy for me? Well, I saw them on Mrs. Sinnickson in Fifth avenue this afternoon.'

Consolation in Fatigue Couch.

It will be a revelation to many to find how sure an aid electricity has been and still is in troubles small and great, from the neurasthenic with logorrhea and the woman who is "so ill as to think she is ill when she is not," to the despondent, mutilated, war-spent soldier with increasing paralysis, says the New York Medical Journal in a review of Dr. J. Curtis Webb's "Electrotherapy."

It can soothe and banish all those everyday attacks of headache, ties neuritis, and make all nerves approach the happy condition of the ninth one. Only those who have tested the restfulness of what is sometimes termed the fatigue couch can appreciate its consoling power.

The Farm Bureau Movement

The adoption recently of the co-operative grain marketing plan by the American Farm Bureau Federation, and the campaign now in progress in Texas to enlist 100,000 cotton farmers in the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Growers' Co-Operative Marketing Association are real signs of the times. Both indicate that the farmers themselves, under efficient leaders and with the assistance of the best technical experts money can employ, are going to make a genuine effort to solve the marketing question.

Texas wheat growers and cotton farmers can do nothing better than to get inside these two movements. Indeed, the whole Farm Bureau movement, which is spreading out to include every branch of agriculture, and to deal with every problem connected with it, not only marketing, but credits, transportation rates and the rest, should receive the co-operation of all forward looking farmers. It is not a political organization, has no radical schemes to promote, is not setting out to revolutionize the world nor to capture the government in order to make every farmer happy and prosperous. Its motto is "Organized for Business," and it aims to be a strictly business organization. It will be whatever the farmers who compose its rank and file make it, to be sure, which is all the more reason that every common sense farmer should get inside it.

County Farm Bureaus are being organized all over Texas. They should receive the co-operation of all farmers and the encouragement of all community leaders, bankers, merchants, Chambers of Commerce and whoever may be interested in permanent progress, which must rest firmly upon agricultural prosperity.—Star-Telegram.

Much Gasoline Wasted

About one-third of the gasoline used in automobiles is wasted. This is the conclusion reached by A. C. Fieldner of the United States bureau of mines, from experiments under traffic conditions to determine the air pollution of the vehicular tunnels under New York city. The waste is chiefly due to too rich gasoline mixture. It is estimated that an improved and practically automatic carburetor might save American automobilists $34,000,000 a year.

Free Medicine

A prominent city man, who is as parsimonious as he is wealthy, is very fond of getting advice free. Meeting a well-known physician one day, he said to him: "I am on my way home, doctor, and I feel very seedy and worn out generally; what ought I to take?" "Take a taxi," came the curt reply.—Tit-Bits, London.

Farm Bureau News

On April 26th representatives from each of the cotton producing states will assemble at Memphis, Tenn., for the purpose of consolidating the State Bureau Federations into one United Federation, covering the entire South. I refer to the Cotton Growers Association, which is an adjunct of the Farm Bureau. Each state has its own federation composed of the counties within that state. The county bureau is composed of the local bodies throughout that county. The local bodies meet when they choose. The local bodies elect representatives to the county bureau. The county bureau is the body of these local representatives. The county bureau in turn choose or elect delegates or representatives to the State bureau federation.

No man can become a member who does not grow or at least have the marketing of a staple crop. No officer in the farm bureau may hold office in the county or state and continue to serve as an officer in the farm bureau. As an organization it is absolutely non partisan in politics. You are welcome just the same whether you are a Socialist, Democrat or Republican.

This idea should be always borne in mind in thinking of the farm bureau movement. It is to make farming more profitable and more pleasant, in the broadest sense of the term, but in doing this, we are offering no fight on legitimate business. We propose to use the present facilities in handling the products of the farm when proper arrangements can be made.

There are some few who choose to fight the movement. It may be they don't understand the purpose and it may be from selfish purposes. It is growing like a mushroom at midnight. Bankers in general, endorse the movement very strongly. It offers a better means of handling your produce, why should they not endorse it? Please bear in mind banks don't buy nor sell. They lend money for interest and their manner of doing business is more conservative than any other proposition. If you are a farmer join with us, we need you badly but not near so badly as you need us.

Copper's Value as Alloy

The use of a small proportion of copper in all iron and steel products exposed to air and moisture is advised by D. M. Buck, metallurgical engineer of the American Sheet and Tin Plate company. The use of 0.15 to 0.25 per cent. in normal open-hearth or Bessemer steel greatly lessens corrosion, but heretofore the use of copper steel has been chiefly confined to sheet metal. It is estimated that the life of the sheet metal is at least doubled by the addition. Copper melts at about 700 degrees F., below the average tapping temperature of the steel and it diffuses readily through the metal without tendency to separate out afterward.

The Wrong Number.
Mrs. New Auto owner, all excited, called her husband over the telephone at his office, and announced: "The auto tags came by mail, but we will have to send them back. They sent the wrong number." Business of considerable questioning from the business office end of the telephone.
Then: "Well, they're not the same numbers we had last year, so I thought they had made a mistake."
Explanatory: The machine had come into possession of the family late in the year, a license number was obtained that had six figures and the husband got in early for a 1921 license hoping to obtain a smaller number and he got it.
Anyway, the wife had a good laugh at her own expense when the husband arrived home that evening. And she is learning something each day about autos.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which gripped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

TO EXPLORE OCEAN'S DEPTHS

British Government Contemplating an Expedition for the Gathering of Scientific Information.

The British government is contemplating the dispatch of a deep-sea exploring expedition which is expected to gather much valuable scientific information.

Most people imagine that the depths of the ocean have been pretty thoroughly explored, but this is very far from being true. As a matter of fact, only a very small fraction of the whole area of deep sea bottom has been surveyed. Attention is particularly called to a vast subaqueous region around the Falkland Islands and up as far as Montevideo, which is almost unknown, and which, having a depth of less than 100 fathoms, may offer opportunities for the development of lucrative fisheries.

The first deep-sea exploring expedition, that of the famous Challenger, was set on foot just 50 years ago. The ship left port in 1872, and ideas on the subject were in those days so primitive that there was dispute as to whether she should use wire or hempen rope for soundings. It took a whole day to make one sounding, or a single cast of the dredge for bringing up fishes and other animals.

TOO MUCH FOR SMALL MINDS

Childish Messengers Have Hard Time Remembering Names of Books They Are Sent For.

"I want 'Resurrection in the Parks,'" demanded a little chap of the librarian at the West Indianapolis branch library. "My brother said for me to get it for him."

The librarian did not wish to let the little chap know she was puzzled. She knew it was something that went on in the parks that the boy wished. The "resurrection," she decided, might be "recreation," and that was what she suggested. "That's it," smiled the little chap, "I knew I had that word wrong."

Librarians often deal with little brothers and sisters who are running errands for big brothers and sisters in high school. When one of the tots asked the librarian at the West Indianapolis branch for "Europe's Fables," the librarian smiled, for that was simple to translate into "Aesop's Fables." It was different when another asked for "Out of the Twist," the librarian then had to inquire diligently before she found that the child patron meant "Oliver Twist."—Indianapolis News.

Explanation Briefly Made.

Harold Knutson, Republican whip of the house, tells a yarn about an old fellow up in his country who has a job carrying the mail from the depot to the postoffice, for all of which he gets $1 a trip.

Some of the boys around the grocery store the other night got to kidding the old chap about his job and, eventually, they asked him how much he made out of it.

"I make $1 a trip, three trips a day, $125 a month, or $3,000 a year," he said.

These figures not sounding just right, one of the boys sought to pin him down on his calculations.

"How do you make $3,000 a year?" he asked.

"A-carryin' the mail," responded the carrier, and with those few words he departed.

Saturday Change.

Many storekeepers begin their Saturdays by shopping in the neighborhood for small change—dimes, nickels, and pennies. Seven customers out of ten at the butcher's, baker's and grocer's on Saturday pay for their purchases with $10 and $5 bills. Not one in twenty counts out the exact amount.

One storekeeper has found that $50 in subsidiary coins is none too little to carry him through.

Transit lines and automatic vending machines receive tons of coins in a day. Within 48 hours these coins are back in circulation.

Dimes, nickels and pennies are the most active elements of our circulating medium.

Cat Evidently Was Offended.

A yellow cat called Shimmy, of no particular breed, but lately a cherished mascot of the Aberdeen (Wash.) fire department, left her home there suddenly. Shimmy, according to the fire laddies, who hunted three days without success for their vanished pet, made her nest in a coil of hose which is used to wash the floor of the fire hall. On the morn of Shimmy's disappearance a careless fireman turned the water into the coil. Shimmy was catapulted toward the ceiling and shot by the stream of water into the street. The cat has not yet come back.

Financial Backing.

"Your friend the reformer seems to be enjoying great prosperity these days."

"He had a stroke of luck."

"What was it?"

"He ran across a very rich person who had a troubled conscience."

The Yellow World.

It is easy to see why China's imperial color is yellow, writes a correspondent from Yangste river. Her rivers are yellow, her long plains are yellow—especially in a famine year such as this, and as for her seas—the boundaries of her world—so desert-yellow is her color that a string of camels crossing them would look more in keeping than a string of junks. And so one can understand why the very heart of the heart of China, the imperial city, should lie like a shimmering lake of golden tiles within her lotus-besieged walls. Even against the evidence of my own eyes I cannot believe that the Great Wall is built of solid ordinary stones laid one upon the other. Rather it seems moulded out of the stuff of which the mountains themselves were made, long ago when the world was plastic and empty of all save possibilities. There never was so sinuous a thing as the Great Wall built by men, I think, so sinuous and so aspiring.

Does Away With Long Climb.

Something unusual has been accomplished in the completion of the entrance to the Southwest museum, in Los Angeles. The building is situated on a high hill and until recently it has been necessary for pedestrians to make a long and laborious climb up the hill to reach the main entrance. Now, however, the climb has been obviated by an artistic as well as practical improvement. A tunnel, 224 feet long, was bored into the hill and ended in a large octagonal waiting room, on one side of which is a twelve-passenger electric elevator of the automatic type. The elevator makes a climb of 108 feet, delivering the passenger into the main hall of the museum.

Women Crave Excitement.

The wife of a very wealthy man was arrested with a group of bandits after a pistol battle with the police, in which the woman was shot in the arm. She is a woman who has traveled, is educated and bears every evidence of refinement. The police say that there are many women of this kind who work with thieves unbeknown to their families. The call of adventure is the prime motive. In a raid on an East side wine cellar recently ten men and one woman were taken to headquarters in a patrol. All the men had criminal records. The woman is happily married to all appearances, and is a patron of the opera. She said the men and women in her set were dull and that she liked to get out and mingle with the men who lived by their wits and were not afraid of dangerous paths.—New York Times.

The Chef's Daily Manicure.

One of the daily events in the life of a chef in any of the large New York hotels is his morning manicure. Before he touches food, his hands are carefully washed and his nails are cleaned, cut and polished.

The job is not given to a sweet girl manicurist, but to one of the hotel physicians. He is always on hand during the day; should the chef accidentally cut himself, the doctor will bandage the wound, as he is there for that purpose.

Chefs are precious these days; many of the French ones—unable to get back to France, where the thought of prohibition can still be treated as a joke, though even in France there are heard ominous rumbles between the jokes passed at our expense.—Popular Science Monthly.

MAN'S BIG BLUFF

Here Fiction That He Is Incapable of Housework.

Throughout the History of the World, as Writer Points Out, He's Got Away With It.

When Adam delved and Eve spun, the fiction that man is incapable of housework was first established. It would be interesting to figure out just how many foot-pounds of energy men have saved themselves, since the creation of the world, by keeping up the pretense that a special knack is required for washing dishes and for mending. The pretense of incapacity is rampant in its audacity, and yet works. Heywood Brown writes in Call's Magazine.

Men build bridges and throw railroads across deserts, and yet they cannot successfully do the job of sewing on a button beyond them. Accordingly, they don't have to sew buttons.

It might be said, of course, that the duty of suspension bridges is so much more important than that of suspenders that the division of labor is only fair, but there are many of us who have never thrown a railroad in our lives, and yet swagger in all the glory of masculine achievement without undertaking any of the drudgery of odd jobs.

Probably men alone could never have maintained the fallacy of masculine incapacity without the aid of women. As soon as that rather limited sphere, once known as woman's prerogative, was established, women began to glorify and exaggerate its importance, by the pretense that it was all so special and difficult that no other sex could possibly begin to accomplish the tasks entailed. To this declaration men gave immediate and eager assent and they have kept it up. The most casual examination will reveal the fact that all the jokes about the terrible results of masculine cooking and sewing are written by men. It is all part of a great scheme of sex propaganda.

Naturally there are other factors which have been unscrupulous enough to discriminate markedly against women, and men have seized upon this advantage to press the belief that the hearing of children is exclusively the province of women. It is just the same as the caring for them belongs properly to the same sex. Yet how ridiculous this is.

Most things which have to be done by children are of the simplest sort. They should tax the intelligence of no one. Men profess a total lack of ability to wash baby's face simply because they believe there's no great fun in the business, at either end of the sponge. Protectively, man must go to the whole distance and pretend that there is not one single thing which he can do for baby. He must even maintain that he doesn't know how to hold one. From this pretense has grown the shockingly transparent fallacy that holding a baby correctly is one of the fine arts; or, perhaps, even more fearsome than that, a wonderful intuition, which has come down after centuries of effort to women only.

Seek Candle Light Shade.

At a committee of the National Electric Light Association, investigating the question of toning lamps for color, it seemed to be the general judgment of those to whom samples were submitted that a light even somewhat more distant from white than that of the carbon incandescent lamp was desirable, something indeed approximating the kerosene flame of earlier days.

The result of practical experience on a considerable scale in the candle-flame lamp now brought out meets the color requirements very beautifully, and moreover, the coating given to the bulb is permanent in hue even when used on the gas-fitted lamps, thus possessing a virtue which most of the earlier experimental lamps did not have in a reliable degree. The loss in efficiency by the color-toned diffusing coating is relatively small, the specific consumption being less than half that of a carbon lamp of anything near the same color.

Interesting Altitude Test.

A lieutenant of the French aviation corps recently successfully subjected himself to a test to determine whether or not life could be sustained at 12,000 meters, (39,360 feet, or about seven and one-half miles) altitude, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. Entering a large airtight cylinder, the signal to start the exhaust pump was given. At a pressure corresponding to an altitude of about 13,500 feet (two and one-half miles), the experimenter was compelled to resort to a specially designed mask and an oxygen tank. At about 30,000 feet (five and three-quarter miles) observers noticed that he seemed to experience difficulty in moving his limbs. This is an experience reported by all aspirants to the altitude record. To a figure corresponding to the height of about 34,000 feet (six and one-half miles) the subject closed his eyes as though weary. As the barometer touched a figure equal to a height of 39,360 feet, the trial was stopped and air slowly admitted to the cylinder that there might be no disastrous shock.

ANOTHER SWAT FOR THE FLY

Supreme Court of Maine Adds Its Voice to Denunciation of Almost Universal Pest.

The dog having had his day before the Supreme court in Washington, we now find the "busy, curious, thirsty fly" preening his wings in the solemn precincts of the Supreme court of Maine as a co-defendant. He finds few sympathizers. For his size he is the most malodorous and detestable of beasts, and the mischief he does is immeasurable. In this case the court of appeal was told that a summer boarder had engaged rooms at a hotel for two weeks and had left at the end of four days, declaring the flies intolerable. The Supreme court upholds the plaintiff in his refusal to pay for his infested accommodations.

The Journal of the American Medical Association makes the case the text of one of the most exhorting denunciations of the fly that have been penned; but will the fly care? Not a bit of it. "A fly," wrote Emerson in his despair, "is as untamable as a hyena." Probably a fly was teasing the sage of Concord as he wrote. The best thing Josh Billings ever said was "D— a fly!" Shakespeare would have said it if he had thought of it. As a carrier of pestilential putrescence the fly is without a peer. The help of the Supreme court of Maine is welcome in putting him down.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

WILL TAKE LAND FROM SEA

People of Holland Meet Problem of Expanding Population in Characteristic Dutch Fashion.

After many years' deliberation the people of Holland have decided that they need more land, and having reached that decision, they have gone about the acquisition of it with characteristic Dutch energy and determination, says Popular Mechanics Magazine.

The program contemplates the building of a 30-mile dike across the outlet of the Zuyder zee and gradual reclamation of parts of that body by means of smaller dikes and a filling-in and pumping process. The damming of the north end of the Zuyder zee presents difficulties, not only on account of the length of the dam, but also due to the fact that at the Friesland shore end the water depth varies from 11 to 33 feet. The foundation of the great dam will be, literally, billions of all sizes of tree branches, lashed together into great bundles. These will be sunk, forming a supporting mat of enormous area. Upon this will be placed a thick layer of coarse crushed stone, and on this powerful foundation will be reared the masonry of the dike.

Plant Diseases Costly.

Millions of bushels of grain, fruit and vegetables and a big tonnage of cotton were lost to American farmers last year by plant diseases, according to figures compiled by the plant disease survey of the Department of Agriculture. The survey said that the statistics indicate that lack of prompt application of known measures of control was largely the cause of the loss.

The plant disease survey estimated the losses at 112,000,000 bushels of wheat, 50,000,000 bushels of oats, 80,000,000 bushels of corn, 50,000,000 bushels of potatoes, 185,000 tons of tomatoes, 850,000 bales of cotton, 5,000,000 bushels of peaches and 16,000,000 bushels of apples.

Tuberculosis Ebbs and Flows.

The decline of tuberculosis is likened to that of leprosy by Dr. Louis Corbett, lecturer in pathology at the University of Cambridge. Leprosy was formerly one of the world's great scourges, but has become practically extinct in western countries. Tuberculosis seems to be following, as it is declining at an increasing rate, its deaths having fallen off nearly 60 per cent since 1865. Apparent causes of the change are lessened overcrowding, otherwise improved social conditions, more and better food, and the adoption of methods of real ventilation. The war has given tuberculosis a new lease of life in European nations, especially in half-starved Austria, where it runs riot.

"Polite" Motor Horn.

The magazine Motor announces the arrival of the courteous motor horn.

Up to now the motor horn has been decidedly cacophonous. It squawks unpleasantly; it bellows alarmingly; it utters noises disagreeably suggestive of nausea.

But the new horn, which is appearing on the market, has a tone that is at once polite and powerful. It warns, yet does not offend the sensitive ear. The tone-adjusting mechanism is so contrived and arranged that the horn is easily regulated for any degree of vociferousness, but it yet carries a warning to the pedestrian.

BAD HABITS GROW

Successive Stages in Husband's Carelessness.

Especially Is He Apt to Be Thoughtless of His Wife's Comfort as the Years Advance.

Man is a careless creature by nature and displays it in the stages of his life when he should be most careful. Perhaps his carelessness is only visible in its most aggravating form to his women folk.

The imputation that it is a constant vice would be resented, because a man, while he may grow more careful as he grows older in matters affecting his work, his health, possibly his appearance, fails to observe self-centered creature as he is, that a careless attitude has arisen and become a habit in his married life.

Before marriage a man's every effort is to please the woman; afterward, to please himself, writes Lady de Frece, in the Paris Mail. There comes a time—some people call it the danger year—when cigars, clubs and company are first consideration with a man. He makes appointments and then tells his wife, where once he consulted his wife, and then made appointments.

Carelessness, that is all. But his wife, whose thoughts are at times vividly retrospective, is wounded on each and every occasion.

The blatant carelessness of the breakfast newspaper once started develops from first hasty glimpses at the news to grim, masticating silences. A husband becomes careless in his hours, careless in his caresses, careless in all his attentions to his wife.

Some men become careless about their clothes, particularly in the house. Anything will do for the house. That is an added slight to his wife and a flattery to himself. He implies that she is not worth the price of a new tie, or the donning of a collar, and that his own personality is potent against the effect of the baggiest of trousers.

Men never quite lose the little traits that marked them in their courtship days. They will still show a hundred and one little politenesses and considerations—but to other women than their wives. The effort to continue for years the same attentions to the one woman is too much for the average man. Where once he hastened to recover a fallen ball of wool he now allows his wife to carry the coal upstairs. Yet his manners outside his home may still be up to his old standard.

CHARACTER TOLD BY HAND

Charles Schwab Can Afford to Disregard Appearances, but Not So the Average Man.

Charles Schwab, the steel king, was pictured recently in the feature section of a New York newspaper wearing a pair of ragged, decrepit-looking gloves. To every appearance they might have been a little token to the magnate from the ashman. Beneath the picture was an explanation by Mr. Schwab that he had "worn these gloves for over a year."

Dirty, soiled, ugly gloves! And yet Charles Schwab, one of the greatest industrial lords of the earth, proudly boasted how long he had made them wear.

Mr. Schwab's boast doesn't ring sincerely. He probably would not advise one of the rising young executives of his company to wear old gloves or soiled gloves. On the contrary, he likely would "call down" that young executive for doing exactly what he has bragged about.

Mr. Schwab can afford to wear those gloves. If he wanted to he probably could wear green golf knickers to work, and get away with it. But the rest of the world, exclusive of Mr. Dempsey, Mary Garden, Babe Ruth, and other prima donnas who have "arrived," so to speak, in their respective careers, must watch its step.

A noted American psychologist recently said that he could tell more about a man by his hands than any other physical factor. Our faces are our gifts—and a lot of them look like gifts—but we make our own hands.

One look at a man's hand gives you an instant line on his character. Is the hand soft and flabby? Or is it the hand of a man who does things? Does he shake hands like a man? Or does he extend you a collection of clammy fingers?

What do his gloves look like? Do they show that he is careful of his appearance, thus indicating his self-respect, or are they ragged and dirty? Worn, soiled or out-at-the-finger gloves create exactly as unfavorable an impression as dandruff on the collar or an unintentional open-worked sock.

In spite of these facts many men who are otherwise scrupulously particular about their personal appearance never grow a bit perturbed upon noting that their gloves look like a last summer's bird's nest.

Generals of United States Army.

Following are the six American generals: Ulysses S. Grant, Philip H. Sheridan, William Tecumseh Sherman, Tasker H. Bliss (emergency), Peyton C. March (emergency) and John J. Pershing. Pershing was made a full general September 3, 1919. He was in command of the American expeditionary forces.

There are two lieutenant generals in the army—Hunter Liggett and Robert L. Bullard—and five major generals—Leonard Wood, John F. Morrison, Charles G. Morton, William L. Sibert and Henry G. Sharpe.

His First Shoes at 74.

J. T. Cartman of Sodas, N. Y., although seventy-four, has just bought his first pair of shoes. He has worn boots all his life and still wants to buy, search as he may, he can find none for sale in any of the neighboring cities.

Some FACTS About

Here are authentic figures from the Ford factory at Detroit. They show you just how many Ford cars and trucks have been built each month since January 1, 1921, and how many have been sold to retail customers, in the United States.

| | Produced | Delivered to Retail Customers |
|-------------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------|
| JANUARY | 29,883 | 57,208 |
| FEBRUARY | 35,306 | 63,603 |
| MARCH | 61,886 | 87,221 |
| Total Production | 127,074 | Total Retail Sales 208,032 |

showing that actual sales for the first three months of 1921 exceeded production by 80,958 Ford cars and trucks!

April requisitions already specify 107,719 additional cars and trucks and the estimated April output of the factory and assembly plants combined calls for only 90,000!

These facts clearly show that the demand for Ford products is growing much faster than manufacturing facilities to produce and were it not for the dealers' limited stocks, which are now being rapidly depleted, many more customers would have been compelled to wait for their cars. It will be only a matter of weeks, therefore, until a big surplus of orders will prevent anything like prompt deliveries.

If you would be sure of having your Ford car or truck when you want it, you should place your order now. Don't delay. Phone us or drop us a card.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 4

A Joint Resolution of the Legislature of the State of Texas amending Sections of the Constitution of the State of Texas as follows: Sections 5 and 21 and 22 and 23 of Article 4, relating to the compensation of executive officers; and Section 24, Article 3, relating to mileage and per diem of Members of the Legislature; of said State.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. Sections 5 and 21 and 22 and 23 of Article 4, and Section 24, Article 3, of the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be amended as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 5. He shall, at stated times, receive of compensation for his services an annual salary not to exceed Eight Thousand ($8,000.00) Dollars and no more, and shall have the use and occupation of the Governor's Mansion, fixtures and furniture.

Section 21. There shall be a Secretary of State, who shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall receive an office during the term of service of the Governor. He shall authenticate the publication of the laws and keep a fair register of all official acts and proceedings of the Governor, and shall, when required, lay the same, and all papers, minutes and vouchers relative thereto, before the Legislature, or other House thereof, and shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by law. He shall receive for his services an annual salary of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, and no more.

Section 22. The Attorney General shall hold his office for two years and until his successor is duly qualified. He shall represent the State in all suits and pleas in the Supreme Court of the State in which the State may be a party, and shall especially inquire into the charter rights of all private corporations, and, from time to time, in the name of the State, take such action in the courts as may be proper and necessary to prevent any private corporation from exercising any power or demanding or collecting any species of taxes, toll, freight, or wharfage, not authorized by law. He shall, whenever sufficient cause exists, seek judicial forfeiture of all such charters, unless otherwise expressly directed by law, and give legal advice in writing to the Governor or other executive officers when requested by them, and perform such other duties as may be required by law. He shall receive for his services an annual salary not to exceed Seven Thousand Five Hundred ($7,500.00) Dollars, and no more.

Section 23. The Comptroller of Public Accounts, the Treasurer, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office, shall each hold office for the term of two years, and until his successor is qualified; receive an annual salary not to exceed Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, and no more; reside at the Capital of the State during his continuance in office; and perform such other duties as are or may be required of him by law. They and the Secretary of State shall not receive for their own use, any fees, costs or prerequisites of office. All fees that may be payable by law for any service performed by any officer specified in this Section, or in his office, shall be paid, when received, into the State Treasury.

Section 24. Mileage and per diem: The Members of the Legislature shall receive from the public treasury such compensation for their services as may from time to time be provided by law, not exceeding Ten ($10.00) Dollars per day for each regular session of one hundred and twenty days, and not exceeding Five ($5.00) Dollars per day for the remainder of each session; and provided, further, that Members of the Legislature shall receive not to exceed Ten ($10.00) Dollars per day for each special session of the Legislature that may be called from time to time by the Governor. In addition to the compensation above provided for, the Member of each House shall be entitled to mileage in going to and returning from the seat of Government which mileage shall be ten cents per mile, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct travel by land regardless of railways and water routes; and the Comptroller of the State shall prepare and preserve a table of distances to each county seat, and by such table the mileage of each Member shall be paid; but no member shall be entitled to mileage for any extra session that may be called within one day after the adjourning of a regular or called session.

Section 2. The Governor is hereby directed to cause to be issued his necessary proclamation for an election to be held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1921, at which election these amendments shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection and make the publication required by the Constitution and laws of the State. Said election shall be held under and in accordance with the general election laws of the State, and the ballots for said election shall have printed or written thereon in plain letters the following words: "For the amendment to Sections 5 and 21 and 22 and 23 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for compensation of executive officers."

"Official Ballot." "For the amendment to Section 24 of Article 3 of the Constitution relating to mileage and per diem of Members of the Legislature of the State of Texas." "Against the amendment to Section 24 of Article 3 of the Constitution relating to mileage and per diem of Members of the Legislature of the State of Texas."

Section 3. The Governor is hereby directed to cause to be issued his necessary proclamation for an election to be held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1921, at which election these amendments shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection and make the publication required by the Constitution and laws of the State. Said election shall be held under and in accordance with the general election laws of the State, and the ballots for said election shall have printed or written thereon in plain letters the following words: "For the amendment to Sections 5 and 21 and 22 and 23 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for compensation of executive officers."

Section 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses of the proclamation and publication of these amendments and the election to be held hereunder.

S. L. STAPLES, Secretary of State.

State of Texas, providing for compensation of executive officers." And the result of the election shall be published and declared according to the majority of the votes cast in such election; and

Those voters who favor such amendment relating to mileage and per diem of members of the Legislature shall erase by marking through the words "Against the amendment to Section 24 of Article 3 of the Constitution relating to mileage and per diem of the members of the Legislature of the State of Texas."

Those who oppose such amendment relating to mileage and per diem of members of the Legislature shall erase by marking through the words "for the amendment to Section 24 of Article 3 of the Constitution relating to mileage and per diem of the members of the Legislature of the State of Texas." And the result of the election shall be published and declared according to the majority of the votes cast at such election.

Section 3. If the majority of the votes cast in the election herein provided for should be in favor of the amendments proposed, the maximum sum named herein shall become effective on the first day of January, 1921, and so remain until otherwise provided by law, and the compensation allowed shall be paid out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Section 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses of the proclamation and publication of these amendments and the election to be held hereunder.

House Joint Resolution No. 11

Proposing an amendment to Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas to provide that the Legislature may grant pensions to Confederate soldiers, sailors and their widows, who have been citizens of Texas since prior to January 1, 1910, providing that all soldiers, sailors and their widows eligible under the provisions hereof, shall be entitled to be placed upon the rolls and participate in the pension fund created hereunder; levying a tax of (.80) cents on the $100.00 valuation of property in this State for the payment of such pension, providing that the Legislature may reduce the rate of pension for such purpose, fixing a time for the election to be held on such amendment, and making an appropriation to pay the expenses thereof.

Section 1. Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 51. The Legislature shall have no power to make any grant or authorize the making of any grant of public money to any individual, association of individuals, municipal or other corporations whatsoever, provided, however, the Legislature may grant aid to indigent or disabled Confederate soldiers and sailors, who came to Texas prior to January 1, 1910, and to their widows, in indigent circumstances and who have been bona fide residents of this State since January 1, 1910, and who were married to such soldiers or sailors prior to January 1, 1910, and to indigent and disabled soldiers who under special laws of the State of Texas during the war between the states served in organization for the protection of the frontier against Indian raiders, or Mexican marauders and to indigent and disabled soldiers of militia of the State of Texas who were in active service during the war between the states and to the widows of such soldiers who are in indigent circumstances and who were married to such soldiers prior to January 1, 1910, provided that the word "widow" in the preceding lines of this Section shall not apply to women born since the year 1861, and all soldiers and sailors and widows of soldiers and sailors eligible under the above conditions shall be entitled to be placed upon the pension rolls and participate in the distribution of the pension fund of this State under any existing laws or laws hereafter passed by the Legislature, and also to grant aid for the establishment and maintenance of a home for said soldiers and sailors, their wives and widows and women who aided in the Confederacy under such regulations and limitations as may be provided by law, provided the Legislature may provide for husband and wife to remain together in the home. There is hereby levied in addition to all other taxes heretofore permitted by the Constitution of the State a State ad valorem tax on property of seven (.80) cents on the $100.00 valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations and the militia of the State of Texas, and for the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia; provided that the Legislature may reduce the tax herein levied, and provided further that the provisions of this Section shall not be construed so as to prevent the grant of aid in cases of public calamity.

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of this State at an election to be held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1921, at which all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the amendment to Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that only native born or naturalized citizens of the United States shall be qualified electors in this State, and providing that either the husband or wife may pay the poll tax of the other and receive the receipt therefor, and permitting the Legislature to authorize absentee voting." And all those opposed to said amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, "Against the amendment to Section 2 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that only native born or naturalized citizens of the United States shall be qualified electors in this State, and providing that either the husband or wife may pay the poll tax of the other and receive the receipt therefor, and permitting the Legislature to authorize absentee voting."

Section 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution, and existing laws of the State.

Section 4. That the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses of such publication and election.

S. L. STAPLES, Secretary of State.

General funds of this State not otherwise appropriated for expenses of publications and elections thereunder.

Section 1. That Article 17, Section 58, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, abolishing the Board of Prison Commissioners; providing for the supervision and management of the Prison System, under such laws as may be provided for by the Legislature.

Section 2. The above constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a general election to be held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1921, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballot the words: "For the amendment of Article 17, Section 58, of the Constitution, abolishing the Board of Prison Commissioners."

Section 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by law.

Section 4. The sum of $5,000.00 or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

S. L. STAPLES, Secretary of State.

Section 1. That Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing that only native born or naturalized citizens of the United States shall be qualified electors in this State, and permitting either the husband or the wife to pay the poll tax of the other and receive the receipt therefor, and permitting the Legislature to authorize absentee voting.

Section 2. Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and who shall be a citizen of the United States and who shall have resided in this State one year next preceding an election and the last six months within the district or county in which such person offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector; provided that electors living in any election precinct in the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before offering to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing that said poll tax was paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Or if said voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt, he or she may vote at any election precinct in the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before offering to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing that said poll tax was paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Or if said voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt, he or she may vote at any election precinct in the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before offering to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing that said poll tax was paid before the first day of February next preceding such election.

Section 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution, and existing laws of the State.

Section 4. That the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

S. L. STAPLES, Secretary of State.

Section 1. That Section 2 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as hereafter to read as follows:

Section 2. Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and who shall be a citizen of the United States and who shall have resided in this State one year next preceding an election and the last six months within the district or county in which such person offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector; provided that electors living in any election precinct in the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before offering to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing that said poll tax was paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Notice of Road Bond Election

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Foard.

To the property taxpaying voters of Foard County, Texas:

Take notice that an election will be held on the 7th day of May, 1921, within Foard County, Texas, to determine if said county shall issue bonds and if a tax shall be levied in payment thereof, in obedience to an election order entered by the Commissioners Court on the 25th day of March, 1921, which is as follows:

On this the 25th day of March, 1921, the Commissioners Court of Foard County, Texas, convened in special session, at the regular meeting place thereof in the court house at Crowell, Texas, all members of the court, to-wit: G. L. Burk, County Judge; C. D. Stephenson, Commissioner of Precinct No. 1; John L. Hunter, Commissioner of Precinct No. 2; H. E. Davis, Commissioner of Precinct No. 3; J. B. East, Commissioner of Precinct No. 4, being present, came on to be considered the petition of J. A. Wright and other persons, praying that bonds be issued by said Foard County, in the sum of $150,000.00, bearing 5 1/2 per cent rate of interest, maturing at such times as may be fixed by the commissioners court, serially or otherwise, not to exceed thirty years from date thereof, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, and whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of said county, subject to taxation for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity; and

It appearing to the court that said petition is signed by more than fifty of the resident property taxpaying voters of said Foard County; and

It further appearing that the amount of bonds to be issued will not exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of said Foard County; and

It is Therefore Considered and Ordered by the court that an election be held in said county on the 7th day of May, 1921, which is not less than thirty days from the date of this order, to determine whether or not the bonds of said county shall be issued in the amount of $150,000.00 bearing 5 1/2 per cent rate of interest, and maturing at such times as may be fixed by the commissioners court, serially or otherwise, not to exceed thirty years from the date thereof; and whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of said county, subject to taxation, for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity.

The said election shall be held under the provisions of Articles 627 to 641, inclusive of Chapter 2, Title 18, Revised Statutes 1911 as amended by Section 1, Chapter 203, Acts of 1917, Regular Session.

All persons who are legally qualified voters of this State and of this County, and who are resident property taxpayers in this County, shall be entitled to vote at said election and all voters desiring to support the proposition to issue the bonds shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "For the issuance of bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof."

And those opposed shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "Against the issuance of bonds and the levying of the tax in the payment thereof."

The polling places and presiding officers of said election shall be respectively as follows:

At Good Creek school house in Foard County, Texas, with P. M. Hinkle as presiding officer of voting precinct No. 12.

The manner of holding said election shall be governed by the general laws of the State of Texas regulating general elections, when not in conflict with the provisions of the statutes hereinabove referred to.

Notice of said election shall be given by publication in a copy of this order in the Foard County News, a newspaper published in the county, for four successive weeks before the date of said election and, in addition thereto, there shall be posted other copies of this order at three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door, for three weeks prior to said election.

The County Judge is hereby directed to cause said notices to be published and posted as hereinabove directed and further orders are reserved until the returns of said election are made by the duly authorized election officers and received by this court.

Given under my hand, with the seal of the commissioners court affixed, this 29th day of March, 1921.

(Seal) G. L. BURK, 45 County Judge, Foard County, Tex.

BAPTISTS REPORT GAIN IN NUMBERS

IN LAST 14 YEARS THEY HAVE ADDED OVER MILLION MEMBERS IN SOUTH.

WILL MEET IN CHATTANOOGA

Many Matters Related to Future Work Will Come Up for Consideration at the Annual Convention May 12 to 18.

DR. E. Y. MULLINS, President Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Who is Touring South.

Following the close of the second year of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign April 30 several thousand messengers from the local churches are expected to assemble at Chattanooga, Tenn. for the seventy-sixth annual session of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Convention met in Chattanooga last in May, 1906, and during the interim there has been a marked growth in every department of the Convention's activities and in the numbers and work of the local churches as well. The total number of Baptists reported to the Convention in 1906 was 1,855,784, while last May, fourteen years later, when the body met in Washington, the total membership of the local churches as reported was 2,961,348, or a gain of 1,105,564. The returns for this year are not yet available, but inasmuch as it is known there were practically 175,000 additions to the local churches last year by baptism alone, there is every reason to believe the showing for 1921 will be even larger.

Growth Shown in All Lines.

At the same time there has been a marked increase in the membership of the churches, there has been a distinct advance in all departments of local and denominational work, it is set out. The total number of local churches has grown from 20,129 in 1906 to 25,303 in 1920; the total number of Sunday Schools from 11,322 to 17,688; and the number of Sunday School pupils from 857,244 to 1,835,936, an increase of more than 100 per cent. The value of local church property has mounted from 4,591,122 in 1906 to $74,278,728 in 1920, an increase of more than 1600 per cent, while contributions to missions and benevolences in 1906 were $1,591,396.67, as compared to $7,331,266.55 in 1920, an advance of practically 500 per cent. Fourteen years ago the contributions to all purposes in a year were $5,941,282.44, as against $21,327,446.67 for 1920.

Next Meeting Important.

The approaching session of the Convention is regarded as vitally important to the future of the denomination's work. It is hoped that by the Convention two-fifths of all subscriptions to the 75 Million Campaign will have been paid in cash and that the program for the completion of the remainder of the campaign task can be formulated at this time. Dr. J. B. Gambrell, president of the Convention and Dr. E. Y. Mullins, who recently completed a tour of Europe, where they carried fraternal greetings to the Baptists of that continent, will give their impressions of Baptist opportunity in that country, while Dr. George W. Truett and Dr. J. F. Love, who represented the Foreign Mission Board at the London Conference last summer when the mission fields of Europe were considered, will tell of the new territory of Spain, Jugo-Slavia, Hungary, Roumania and Southern Russia which Southern Baptists are asked to occupy. This territory is as large as the Southern States and has a population of 128,000,000.

All the boards of the Convention will report the largest year's accomplishments in their history, the Home Mission Board being scheduled to report the completion of 12 million dollar loan fund for church buildings. In addition to the aiding of a thousand churches during the year with gifts and loans for the erection of new houses of worship, the Sunday School Board will report more than $1,000,000 in sales for the year and with collections as well as sales better than any previous time in its history.
