BRIDGE MATTER POSTPONED MONTH

The meeting of the Hardeman county commissioners with the Foard county commissioners which had been planned for Tuesday of this week at Crowell relative to the Pease River bridge proposition was postponed on account of the fact that R. C. Moore, president of Austin Bros. Bridge Co., could not be present because of sickness in his home.

In the meantime matters are assuming proper shape, apparently, in regard to the bridge. The sentiment at Quannah seems to predominate in favor of the proposition as made by Mr. Moore for a toll bridge instead of a free bridge. Foard County has accepted the proposition, so it is Hardeman's move next, and whatever that move may be, Foard County will find itself confronted with no perplexing problem that must be solved at all hazards.

One of the comforting thoughts to us is that the south, east and west have been and are being opened up to us and we can worry along, if we have to, whether Pease River is bridged in a thousand years or not. Our profit, if it is bridged, will be less than Quannah's, so will our loss be less if it is not. Hardeman County's move will more than likely conclude the whole matter with reference to the bridge.

URGED MEN TO TAKE THEIR PLACES IN CHURCH

George Mason of Vernon who is doing enlistment work as a layman in this association spoke at the Baptist church Sunday morning and Sunday night. His subject at the morning service dealt with man's work in the church. He said that every man has a place in the church work and that place can be found if he will identify himself with the work. He said some very practical things along the line of parents' influence with their children. Children see in their parents their ideals, and whether they are good or bad children want to be like their fathers and mothers. Hence the responsibility of parents.

At the night service Mr. Mason's text was, "I have sinned," and was taken from the scripture giving account of the prodigal son. The speaker said it took a great deal of courage for one to say the words, "I have sinned." "Some think it is cowardly to say them, but it is manly," said the speaker, "and often if a prayer meeting can be converted into a confessional one we will find it to be very beneficial to us when we can just open our hearts and confess our sins." Emphasis was given to the fact that Christian people sin and therefore they should confess their sins just as those who are not Christians should confess their sins. Sin is the shame so far as the sin itself is concerned, whether committed by the saved or unsaved, and the penalty must be paid.

That payment, said the speaker, is made here as well as hereafter, and he cited many instances where it had been made. The prodigal son lost all his father had given him; Saul lost his kingdom; David suffered the remorse of a wayward son, as found in the example of Absalom; the price for which Judas sold his Savior became an unbearable sting to his conscience and he threw the money away and went and hanged himself. All these, and others of the days of old, acknowledged at one time in their lives that they had sinned. The speaker was not dealing with the matter of forgiveness but with the need of confession and emphasized the fact that only through confession is there the possibility of forgiveness. Some are trying to get in by routes that would eliminate this essential, but disappointment awaits them.

Mr. Mason spoke of covetousness as the root of most sins and gave examples. Phario coveted the labor of the Hebrew children; Saul coveted the cattle of the Amalikes and would not destroy them as God had commanded; David coveted the wife of Uriah. Underlying most sins of men are lack of consideration for others, lack of courage to speak and act the truth; lack of purity, and the unpleasant fact to be admitted is that our sins hurt others. We can not suffer from their effect alone.

Kincaid Buys Thacker Home

Last week Dr. R. L. Kincaid purchased the home of Mrs. Fannie Thacker in the north part of town. Mrs. Thacker reserved two lots on the south side of the block where will perhaps erect a smaller house.

QUANAH TRIBUNE-CHIEF FINALLY SEES THE LIGHT

For weeks and weeks the News has told its readers that Foard County is not broke and could, if she saw fit to do so, dig up her half of a $30,000 bridge across Pease River, but this paper has maintained that a better plan would be the toll bridge proposition which Austin Bros. submitted to the two counties, that is for each to pay $7,500 and Austin Bros. the balance and that company to operate same for a period of ten years, after which the bridge would become the property of the two counties.

After making a considerable roar about Foard County "not having a dime" with which to help build its half of the bridge, and all the time boasting about Hardeman being so well fixed, the Tribune-Chief seems to have suddenly awakened to the facts in the case and prints in its mid-week edition the following:

"Tomorrow the commissioners of Hardeman county will go to Crowell to take up with the commissioners of Foard county the matter of building the wagon bridge across Pease river. It is believed that a contract for the bridge will be let, and if the Tribune-Chief understands the matter correctly, the plan which will be adopted is this:

"Each county will put up $7,500 making a total of $15,000, or half the amount of money necessary for the construction of the bridge. The bridge company will erect the bridge and maintain it for a period of ten years, collecting the tolls during that period, at the end of which time the bridge company agrees, shall be in good condition and repair, and it will be turned over without further cost to the two counties which then will operate it as a free bridge.

"Unintentionally the Tribune-Chief did Foard county an injustice last week in its report of the joint meeting of the two bodies of county commissioners held at the court house in this city. Foard county commissioners came to Quannah prepared to finance their half of the bridge, which was that they would put up their share $7,500 in cash; and it was then stated that they were ready to construct the highway from Crowell to the bridge making a fine road of it. If Hardeman county will do as much as Foard county agrees to do, we will have the news of a contract being let for the construction of the long hoped for bridge, and work thereon will be started as soon as possible thereafter."

The News dislikes to "jaw" back at anybody, but sometimes it is necessary. The truth is always somewhere around and one can find it usually pretty easily if he wants to. It is hoped that the Tribune-Chief will not again "unintentionally" do Foard County an injustice by misstating facts that there is no excuse for not knowing.

Entertains With Shower For Miss Alice McLarty

An elaborate shower for Miss Alice McLarty, local young woman who will leave next month to commence her studies for becoming a missionary was held yesterday afternoon from 5 to 6:30 at the home of Mrs. Y. H. Babin on South Main Street. A program was rendered and the hostess was assisted in entertaining by ladies of the Methodist church. From seventy-five to 100 guests were in attendance. Little Misses Dorothy Rogers and Mary Elizabeth Piper bore a huge basket of gifts to the feet of Miss McLarty. Punch was served the guests and each wrote a wish in a special book provided.

The program given was as follows: Reading—Miss Ruth Carney; violin solo—Mrs. John Brown; reading—Mrs. A. N. Vernon; vocal solo—Mrs. E. C. Christian.—Vernon Record.

Will Teach in Hawaiian Islands

Miss Lola Huddleston arrived in Crowell Monday from Mabank, Texas, to visit her sister, Mrs. J. R. Beverly, for two weeks. She will go from here to San Francisco and will sail from there to Honolulu where she will join another sister, Miss Myrtle Huddleston. The young ladies will teach school on one of the Hawaiian Islands this winter. Miss Myrtle taught there last winter.

Building Storage Room for Tractors, Plows, Etc.

E. Swain is having a frame building, 24x40, erected at the rear of his garage which will be used for storing Wallis tractors, plows and extras.

BAYLOR CO. AGENT WANTS OUR WHEAT

G. C. McGown, county agent of Baylor County, and family were here Tuesday and Wednesday from Seymour. Mr. McGown was here locating some Kanred wheat for the farmers in Baylor County. He wants a carload of this wheat for the fall sowing. He located that much for sale and examined it and found it to meet the requirements.

This variety of wheat has proven a great success in Foard County this year. In nearly every instance where it was sowed last fall it yielded a fourth more to the acre than the ordinary variety. There is enough in the county to practically seed the county another year.

What Wilbarger's Road Building Campaign Will Mean to Foard County

Wilbarger County is getting ready to build roads. This is evidenced by the fact that a petition is being circulated calling for a bond issue of $500,000 for the purpose of building highways in Wilbarger County. It is presumed, of course, that that program will include Wilbarger's portion of the highway already designated between Vernon and Crowell, and on which state aid has been allowed.

This will mean as much to Crowell as any highway that could be established between this and any other town near us. Vernon and Quannah have always been rivals in offering such things as the larger towns afford, such as wholesale supply houses, railroad connections, etc. A first class highway to Vernon will increase the traffic from Crowell to that place perhaps one hundred per cent and will be a source of profit to both towns and to the entire communities surrounding them. It should stimulate healthy competition between the two for the trade of the territory between them and consequently increase its development in a thousand ways.

Such highway as will be put up can result only to the profit of the entire country interested and its building will be a long step in the development of the intervening territory.

This highway, too, will be the shortest possible link between the Gulf and Colorado Highway and the F. F. F. Highway and will give a direct route to the middle Panhandle, Mexico and Colorado. Thousands of tourists will pass this way from North Texas and Southern Oklahoma.

Miss Christine Allen Honored

On Friday afternoon, Aug. 5, at the home of Mrs. A. Y. Beverly the Woman's Missionary Society and the Young Woman's Missionary Society gave a joint entertainment in honor of Miss Christine Allen.

At four o'clock the program was opened by a piano solo rendered by Miss Frances Clark. After readings by Bevy Jewel Ringgold and Katherine Clark, Madams Rob and George Wells gave a vocal duet. An interesting Bible contest was then enjoyed. Mrs. Rob Wells, Katherine Clark and Mrs. Hines Clark were the most successful in this contest, these three scoring the same.

Mrs. M. S. Henry stated the purpose of this entertainment. In a most impressive manner she spoke of the necessity of every life having dominating purpose, and paid a beautiful tribute to the noble purpose that had constrained Miss Allen to give her life to those in heathen darkness.

A miniature boat decorated with American flags laden with the gifts brought by loving hands to present to the guest of honor was appropriate for the occasion as Miss Allen has asked to be sent to the dark continent to break the bread of life. Just before this boat was brought into the room where the guests were assembled, Mrs. H. E. Ferguson gave, "When My Ship Comes Sailing Home."

"On inspecting the contents of that 'African Bound Boat' it was proven that those contributing to this shower had shown much wisdom in their selection, as the collection varied from a green back to the daintiest of gifts. The guests were served to punch during the afternoon by the young ladies.—Contributed.

Road Bonds Finally Approved

Judge Burk tells us that the Attorney General has finally returned from his fishing trip and has approved the Foard County road bonds of $150,000.

WILL ADVERTISE F. F. F. HIGHWAY

The News received a letter from the Automobile Club of Texas Sunday saying that a party representing that organization would leave Dallas on Tuesday of this week for Las Vegas, N. M., on a logging and publicity campaign over the F. F. F. Highway.

The communication says the trip will be made in a Ranger Pathfinder car and in it will be F. W. Jarrell, business manager; E. W. Willett, organization manager; and H. B. Sammons, publicity director of the club.

These men will visit all the towns and communities along the route and it will be up to them to receive these men and give them a hearty welcome as they pass through.

Publicity of the route has only commenced and the advertisement the Texas Automobile Club will give the highway will be of no small value to the road.

This is one of the most important highways leading to the Northwest and will eventually receive a great deal of the tourists travel. It is already doing it, but travel will not commence in earnest until the gaps are closed across the rivers along the route. One of these is the Wichita, which is soon to be bridged. Some of the counties will have to put up their roads.

It might be interesting to the people to say that when the F. F. F. Highway association was held last week at Plainview new officers were elected and a reorganization perfected. Ford Shook, president of the Fort Worth Automobile Club, was elected president of the association. Floydada was chosen as the next meeting place for the association which is to be Sept. 15 and 16.

Speaking of the traffic that will be turned this way Mr. Shook said that there is an average of 200 tourists registering daily with the Automobile Club and that 60 per cent of these are bound for California. He thinks when the F. F. F. Highway is firmly established it will be one of the leading highways of the country.

He stated that the Tarrant County bond issue already voted is being applied on the Bankhead Highway, which from Fort Worth to Mineral Wells, will be the same course of the F. F. F. route.

Parker County is reported to be building its section of this highway now, and it is reported to be one of the finest roads in the State. It can be traveled in wet or dry weather.

Leaving Fort Worth westward, the highway will traverse the National Bankhead road through Weatherford into Mineral Wells. It will turn northward, passing through Graford, Graham, Jean, Olney, Westover, Mezarcel, Seymour, Red Springs, Vera, Benjamin, Crowell, Paducah, Matador, Lockney, Floydada, Plainview, Farwell, Santa Rosa, Texas, and Las Vegas, N. M. It is planned to extend the route from Las Vegas into California.

THE NEWS ADDS MILLER FEEDER

While business is dull the News is taking advantage of the opportunity it offers to install a Miller feeder for our 10x15 job press. It is now in working shape and does mighty nice work.

The advantages of a machine like this is the saving of time and the better quality of work. As to the saving of time it will almost take the place of one person in the mechanical department of the shop. This is especially true on long runs. The quality of work is improved by the accurate feeding which the Miller feeder does. No man can feed to an exact register by hand. This machine does that.

It will be interesting to any one to come in and see this machine operate.

John M. Williamson Dead

John M. Williamson was born Jan. 5, 1855, and died August 8, 1921. He was therefore 66 years, 7 months and 27 days of age.

He had been taking medical treatment for two years for chronic kidney trouble, which disease was the cause of his death.

Mr. Williamson was a native Texan, having been born in Williamsor, County. His parents were natives of Tennessee. The remains were interred in the Thalia cemetery on August 9th.

News from Northwest Texas State Normal College, Denton

Miss Inez Sloan of Crowell visited friends at the college last week-end. Messrs. Cecil Lutteral and Earl Jones of Vernon spent last week with friends in Denton.

The barbecue given by the West Texas Club of the College proved to be one of the most interesting occasions of the summer school. A hard rain during the afternoon prevented the use of Highland Park for the barbecue, but Dr. Bruce kindly allowed the club to use the old S. A. T. C. mess-hall, which was found to be a delightful place for such an occasion. Punch, sour pickles and bread were served with the barbecue. After the table was spread Miss Lottie Woods discovered that an important part of the menu—namely, onions—was missing; so she and her room-mate ran two blocks to a store to purchase a dime's worth of onions for the meal. The barbecue was of high quality, even though one boy who is not so very young insisted that the meat was that of a calf that he had ridden when a child. When the members of the club had eaten sufficiently of the meat, almost a wagon load of water melons was served to the crowd.

Beginning Monday, August 8th, and continuing through Thursday August 11th, examinations for state teachers' certificates will be held at the college. These examinations are under the direction of the State Department of Education, and their completion marks the close of the summer normal section of the College. The work of the summer school will continue through Saturday, August 20th, when the commencement of the summer session will be held. At this time degrees will be conferred upon fourteen young men and young women; and diplomas with permanent certificates will be awarded to one hundred forty young men and young women. One hundred seventy first grade certificates will be issued to students who complete the freshman year of the college, and one hundred seven first grade certificates will be issued to those who complete the second year of the normal school. Only fifty six second grade certificates will be issued by the college this summer.

Among those who will receive diplomas this summer is Miss Lottie Woods of Crowell. According to announcement from the office of the college, the summer commencement will be one of dignity. The faculty and candidates for degrees, dressed in their academic caps and gowns, and the candidates for diplomas will form in procession at the library and will march to the auditorium where the commencement exercises will be held. "Lead On, O King Eternal" will be sung as the procession. Dr. W. H. Bruce, President of the College, will deliver the address to the class. The candidates for diplomas will be presented by the registrar, Mr. McDonald, and the diplomas will be awarded by Dean Butler. Dean Criddle of the summer school will then present the candidates for degrees to Mr. Butler, who will certify to their having earned their degrees, and the degrees will be conferred by the President.

WILL HAVE ROUND-UP AND CO. FAIR

A temporary association or organization has been formed here for the purpose of pulling off a big round-up and county fair Sept. 5 and 6, and it is hoped that this is the beginning of an annual affair of this kind.

W. A. Woodard is manager of the affair and Fred Rennels is assistant. These are both business men with a spirit of enterprise that will make the effort a success. Of course, they will have the hearty co-operation of most of our people, both in town and in the country.

These men are going at this with system. They have already appointed various committees which are to have charge of the different departments and who will be instructed thoroughly as to what will be expected of them, so that if all these look after their various duties the effort cannot fail. The success of a proposition of this kind is measured by the zeal and effort carried into it by the managers.

There will be a two-days' program which has been outlined as follows:

FIRST DAY—Monday Morning
Livestock and agricultural exhibits.
10:00 a. m. speaking, court house lawn.

11:30 a. m. barbecue, court house lawn.
Afternoon
1:00 Rodeo.

This will consist of bronc riding contest, steer riding, wild mule races, wild pony races and relay races, also Shetland pony races. Prizes will be offered for all contestants.

A program is to be put on at 8:30 p. m. but arrangements have not been perfected as to the nature of this. It is expected that this can be announced later.

SECOND DAY—Tuesday Morning
10:00 A. M. Stock judging and awarding of prizes.
11:30 A. M. Basket picnic.
1:30 to 3:30 P. M. Roping and riding.

4:00 P. M. Ball game between Crowell and some other team to be named.

The most important committees are as follows: On livestock and agriculture, P. D. Chaney, superintendent. J. L. Orr is named as manager of the swine department; J. B. Easley, cattle; P. D. Chaney, agriculture; Mrs. R. E. Sparks, poultry; Fred Rennels, assistant county agent, agricultural club exhibits.

On rodeo, Fred Bomar, manager; Grover Hays, Parker Churchill.

Entertaining committee, Gabe Sanders, Q. R. Miller, R. L. Boyd. There are other committees but these are the principal ones and those who will have stock to enter or agricultural products to exhibit, or those who may want to enter some of the contests can report to some one of the committees here named, the one who will have charge of that feature of the program in which you may be interested.

There is no reason why this two-days program should not prove a great success and it can be made very profitable to the agricultural and stock raising interests of this county.

KIMSEY & KLEPPER, Owners and Publishers

Crowell, Texas, August 12, 1921

Very Much Awake

There may have been a time when the residents of a small country town or a farming district took little or no interest in affairs outside of their own local community, other than to vote their straight party tickets at election time.

But that time is not now. It has not been for many years.

The man behind the counter or the plow is just as vitally interested in state and national affairs as is his cousin in the great city.

The foreign news is just as carefully scanned from day to day, and the field of research and invention is religiously scrutinized.

There is little that transpires in the world of affairs that is not known and understood by the man in his rural home, for it is through his constant search for advanced knowledge of a practical nature that he is enabled to keep pace with the swiftly moving tides of life.

If a just comparison could be made it is probable that, man for man, the person in the country town or on the farm would be found to be better posted on the affairs of the world in general than the average dweller of any of the great cities.

Y. P. Missionary Society

The Young Peoples Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 9, with Mrs. Clyde McKown as hostess.

Thirteen members responded to roll call with current events. An "Imaginary Visit to Korea" was given, then the lesson on "Education Through Play" was discussed.

The names of Mesdames D. Roberts Oscar Gentry, Walford Thompson and Henry Ross were added to our roll at this meeting. We were glad to have several visitors present.

After the lesson an ice course was served by the hostess.

At our business meeting for July a committee was appointed for the purpose of having the pastor's study kitchen and parlor of the church screened. Another committee was appointed to purchase a table for the kitchen.

Henry Gribble has razed his old home building in town and is having erected in its stead a modern 6-room bungalow. Henry has one of the most desirable home sites in the city and will have a comfortable home when the new house is completed.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kind deeds and words of sympathy during the sickness and death of our father. May God's choice blessings rest on one and all.

THE WILLIAMS FAMILY.

Otto Schroeder was here from Thalia Tuesday. Mr. Schroeder is one of Foard County's most thrifty farmers and always raises plenty of everything to do him on the farm. He has been planting about 80 acres of cotton but this year has cut the crop half in two. He still has most of the 1920 crop stored. He is confident that the price will be better when Europeans go to work.

CORNELL

Woodboard

40 Per Cent Below

Wartime Price

Now 5c Per Square Foot

During July and August we have decided to give our customers an extra discount, amounting to fifteen percent of the Manufacturer's price on Cornell Wood Board.

The purpose of this wall board bargain is to stimulate our sales during the warm weather, and every prudent buyer will do well to take advantage of this offer whether he needs wall board immediately or for future use.

Coupled with previous reductions, this discount makes a total saving to the public of forty percent from the Wartime price.

Say today, Cornell, besides being the top-quality wall board, also costs less than other standard makes.

No other has Cornell's handsome "Oatmeal" finish, nor its "Mill-Primed" surface that takes a perfect spread of paint or calcimine without a priming coat.

No other wall board gives the triple protection against moisture, expansion and contraction provided by Cornell's "Triple-Sizing."

Buy now and finish the interior of your attic, spare room, summer cottage, office, store, garage, farm buildings or factory with Cornell Panels instead of lath and plaster. The Cornell way costs less, is cleaner and better, and the room is finished in just a few hours.

Remember, this special price applies only until September 1st. Call or telephone your order without delay.

to faithfully perform the duties allotted to them; to justify to the fullest our confidence in them as the coming farmers of this section. No distant field; no opportunities for advancement offer greater possibilities than right here at home.

And this bank is right here to aid the young men of this community to take advantage of the opportunities that present themselves.

THE FIRST STATE BANK OF CROWELL

M. L. HUGHSTON, Vice President SAM CREWS, Cash.

Mr. Rockefeller has so many millions or billions that he is able to dominate about everything and everybody he comes in contact with. But all of his wealth was as naught to that slunk that calmly took up his residence on the John D. golf course and put the players to ignominious flight.

Whether it be fiction or fact, it is rather interesting to read one day that the interest on the ten billions of dollars owed to us by the allies is not to be collected for fifteen years, and the next day to learn that Washington plans to use it in the payment of a bonus to ex-service men.

In Your Idle Hours

While resting in the cool shade these hot days why not let your thoughts dwell upon this town and countryside—upon what they need, what you can do for them, and upon how you can spur others to greater exertions in behalf of our community life?

They need more thought, deeper concentration, greater action.

Many a great and ennobling deed receives its inception in an idle moment. The hours of work and action serve but to expend and develop it.

It might be so with that idle thought of yours, with this community of ours.

No town is ever so perfect but what it might become a hundred per cent more so. Even ours is no exception to the rule.

Cool off in the shade if you feel so inclined.

Let your thoughts wander afield, and gather in the ideas of fancy that may later crystallize into a greater and better community development.

We add a new coat of paint to our house and gaze upon the finished product with pride. Its improved appearance more than justifies the labor and expense.

And if improvement is good for the home of the individual, why not for the community as a whole?

Let your hours of idleness beget others of energy and aggressiveness.

It ennobles yourself and enhances your value to the community.

It develops the community and increases its value to you.

Experimenting in the effects of wood alcohol is not confined to chemists or physicians alone. But you'd better "let George do it."

Small Town vs. Big City

For years it has been a favorite amusement of the large city dailies to refer to the local news contained in the country press as "small town stuff."

It pleases the city dweller to read it at his breakfast table.

It emphasizes the superiority of "Metropolitan wisdom."

And we of the country press are content to let it go at that, with a passing word or two of comment.

The "small town stuff" which furnishes so much amusement to our city friends may be homely in its phraseology—it may be unimportant as compared to the vital affairs of the world—but it possesses the merit of being the truth.

The average country publisher does not resort to misrepresentation and sensationalism in the columns of his paper. His news articles and items are composed of facts as he finds them, and they are not doctored or colored for the purpose of pleasing any class or faction, or for the building up of a huge subscription list.

When he takes a stand editorially on any public question, be it local, state or national, he has in view the welfare of the people as a whole, and not the interests of some political faction or machine.

His columns may not contain an overplus of news, but such as there is may be read with perfect safety by the growing children of the community without parental fear of instilling questionable thoughts and desires in their budding minds.

His paper may be small, and provincial, but it is clean.

The reader is never at a loss to know whether or not a statement made by the editor is based upon fact, or whether it is composed principally of what is commonly known as "news-paper bunk."

The publisher of any city daily who can legitimately and truthfully say as much for his own paper is at liberty to amuse himself at our expense to his heart's content.

It will be viewed by us in a spirit of fellowship and brotherly love.

We learn from the secretary of the treasury that cleaner money is to be put into circulation. That is pleasing. When we get it it will be still more pleasing. But until we do, just keep right on sending in the dirty old stuff and we'll be eternally pleased.

Mr. Harding may be able to induce the world to disarm in so far as war is concerned, but he will never be able to disarm certain dominating housewives as long as their favorite weapon is able to wag.

Call Address "Edison, New York"
From the Laboratory of Thomas A. Edison, Orange, N.J. May 31st, 1922

Read this Letter

It is a reproduction of Mr. Edison's Letter to Rachmaninoff, the famous Russian composer-pianist.

Will any talking-machine company dare to let Rachmaninoff record his "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" and other famous compositions, which he has recorded for Edison? We fear that no talking-machine manufacturer will permit this deadly parallel. However, you do not have to rest. Rachmaninoff has recorded other selections for talking-machines. You can draw your own parallels.

Sergel Rachmaninoff, Esq., 22 East 95th Street, New York City.

My dear Mr. Rachmaninoff:

Under a contract between yourself and Thomas A. Edison, Inc., dated the 24th of April, 1919, it is provided, in effect, that the royalties payable to you on various selections, which you have recorded for us, shall continue, only so long as you do not make phonographic recordings of such selections for anyone else.

I shall be very glad to give you permission to record these selections for others, without the loss of royalties under the aforesaid agreement. This will give you the opportunity to record your "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" and other important works, which you have already recorded for us.

Yours very truly

Thomas A. Edison

CLEAN-UP SQUAD COMING TO QUANAH

A so-called "Clean-up Squad," operating out of Dallas, and in conjunction with the War Risk Insurance Bureau sends a copy of its itinerary to the American Legion post here and makes this statement of interest to all ex-service men:

"The purpose of the campaign is to fully advise all ex-service men of their rights under the War Risk Insurance Act; to assist a disabled ex-service person in securing compensation, medical treatment and hospital care; to inform and assist all claimants regarding the procedure necessary in filing claims for compensation and insurance; to assist those whose claim is pending in securing final action where additional evidence is necessary; to connect their disability with the service or other data required by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance; and to provide for immediate physical examination where necessary, and promptly furnish hospitalization for urgent needs."

This clean-up squad will reach Quanah on August 17, and invites ex-service men or women of the following counties to meet it at Quanah on that date if they have questions pertaining to the above to be cleared up: Haskell, Knox, Foard, Hardeman, Childress, Hall, Motley, Cottle, King, Dickens, Kent, Stonewall and Fisher. Any claimant who expects to find it impossible to be in Quanah on that day is advised in the circular to make out his claim and present it with all data to the local Legion post for presentation to the clean-up squad. All Legion members are asked to give the matter as much publicity as possible.

Remember, at Quanah, Aug. 17, one day only.

The British government owes the government of the United States some billions of dollars of money borrowed from us during the war. None of the principal has ever been paid, and only a small pittance of the interest due has been collected. The United States owed England $35,000,000 for transporting American soldiers to France in British ships. The British presented their bill the other day and the government at Washington promptly paid it. In the meantime thousands of our disabled soldiers are neglected and in want. Can you beat it?

Barbecue on Edgin Lawn

The barbecue on the lawn between J. R. Edgin's and T. M. Beverly's homes Tuesday evening of this week given by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edgin was an enjoyable occasion for the large crowd in attendance. There was perhaps 100 or 125 people present. The honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Brooks of Tolar, nephew and niece of Mr. and Mrs. Edgin.

It would be inconsistent to accuse a married woman of having a price. She gave herself away.

To the Farmers of Congressional District No. 12

You have no doubt noticed the report of the daily papers in regard to the great cotton pool which has been carried on and completed by the Farm Bureau of Texas. You have read of things to be done; you have dreamed of things that you hoped would come to pass, but on August 1st, the cotton farmers' Shibboleth was actually born into existence.

The Farm Bureau Cotton Association is chartered under the laws of the State of Texas, and is considered by the commercial world one of the biggest pools ever effected by the agricultural classes. 40,000 farmers or 600,000 bales have been pooled together to be sold by twenty directors, actual farmers, who have been elected by the cotton growers of each congressional district of Texas.

Now, Mr. Farmer, you no doubt have said that the farmer should organize and run his own business; that the farmer should be in the legislatures, etc. You now have something of your own, controlled by your own class, and to make this great undertaking a success we must organize the entire south into one compact association.

If there be a man in Texas who does not realize the necessity of being organized, that man is to be pitied and it is our duty to show that man the importance of becoming a member of this great pool.

If we raise too much cotton, which is not the case, but more than the foreign countries can buy, then it is necessary for us to organize and reduce the acreage in a systematic way.

The members of the association will receive statements in regard to the pool through the Farm Bureau Monthly News, but as director of your district I am asking the papers in the eleven counties which I represent to give me space once in a while, for it is through the county papers and the county agents that we reach the rural farmer.

I promise you, as a man on the square, to do all in my power to keep this organization straight and to make it a success.

To the outsider who is afraid to join because you have been stung heretofore, we ask you to investigate our plan or contract, which has been investigated by some of the richest men in the world and has been pronounced perfectly safe and sound.

I hope you are not the kind of a man who insists on riding while your brother farmer bears the burden. Remember that "No man liveth to himself." Sign a contract and become a worker. The sign-up campaign will continue until notified to stop.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTEY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!
