THE BEST BROODING SYSTEM

F. W. Kazmeier, Poultry Husbandman, A. & M. College of Texas

ARTICLE NUMBER THREE

The rearing of chicks is and always has been a big problem, on the general farm as well as commercial poultry plants. With time, many kinds of brooding systems have been evolved. Of all the brooding systems, the colony house with portable hovers, is the best for general farm use.

On farms, where chicks are to be brooded in flocks of less than 300, we recommend building a house 8'x8' or 10'x10' and high enough so you can work anywhere in the house without bumping your head. In the middle of this house we place a 1-2" mesh wire partition 20" to 24" high, so it is easily straddled. A partition this high will go away with all gates and yet, keep the chicks apart. This gives us two pens of equal size in the house. We place a hover in one or both of these pens, large enough to accommodate 150 chicks.

These houses should always be built portable so they may be moved onto fresh ground each year. Contaminated yards and grounds, around brooding crops or houses is a common cause for all kinds of chick diseases, including gape worms. It is a great mistake to raise baby chicks on the same ground year after year.

Another good reason for constructing these houses portable, is so they can be scattered about the farm, so the growing chicks, will pick up more grains and insects. Many farmers are recognizing growing chicks as great insect destroyers. Some farmers use turkeys and chickens to control cotton insects.

Where only a few portable houses are used it is best to build them on skids. The skids may consist of 2"x6" tapered at the ends.

We have found the shed roof type of house the best. The rear wall about 5' high and front 6' high. The door in the south end, facing the house south.

Portable houses are best built with wooden floors, because without floors, movable houses soon rack to pieces.

It is not necessary to build new houses when other buildings are available.

Old buildings sometimes harbor many rats, hence it is necessary to recognize this because one rat can kill an entire brooder full of chicks in one night. One of the best ways of controlling rats that we have found, is by blocking all buildings about a foot above ground, and cleaning up the rubbish about the premises. Rats like to hide in wood piles, lumber piles, boxes, etc.

We have found two kinds of brooders very satisfactory—the coal heated and the kerosene. For early brooding and where hard coal is available we find the coal heated colony house hovers the best. The more simple the heater the better. Hard coal should be used. We have found soft coal very unsatisfactory. The coal heated brooders, are fine in cold weather, because they warm up the entire room more. Coal heaters are safer and provide more heat than kerosene.

The blue flame kerosene hovers may be used in the place of coal heaters. We have found them very satisfactory for brooding chicks in warm weather or late spring. The use of kerosene hovers, always involves some risk from fire. For this reason they should not be placed in or close to valuable large farm buildings. The use of a kerosene lamp always involves fire risk.

All hovers or brooders are about 50 per cent overrated. We place only 250 to 300 chicks in a hover rated by the manufacturers for 500 chicks. It never pays to crowd too many chicks in one brooder.

Electric brooders have not been found very satisfactory because they are stone cold a few minutes after the current goes off. It is seldom a season passes without the current going off at least once.

Fireless brooders are not satisfactory, because it has been found that heat is a very important factor in raising chicks.

Small out-door kerosene heated brooders have not been found very satisfactory. They are too expensive and not large enough.

The first few days, we place a foot-high yard about 12 inches from the edge of the hover all the way

REVIVAL TO START AT M. E. CHURCH

Chillicothe Pastor Evangelist Will Do the Preaching, Assisted by Local Pastor

A series of revival services will start at the Methodist church Sunday morning, which it is expected will continue for two weeks. Rev. L. N. Lipscomb, pastor of the M. E. Church at Chillicothe, will occupy the pulpit.

Rev. Lipscomb is said to be a very successful revivalist and pastor. He is now serving his second year at Chillicothe as pastor, his return having been asked by the church. His popularity at home is also attested by the fact that his people not only asked for his return but raised his salary several hundred dollars of that of the first year. This is said only to emphasize the fact of Rev. Lipscomb's standing where he is known. Our people may rest assured that the revival under his preaching will be worth attending.

The singing will be conducted by Mr. Wright, the leader of the local choir.

FIRST PAY CALL FOR CO. "I" LAST SATURDAY

Company I. T. N. G., was called together Saturday by Lieut. Q. R. Miller to receive their first six months pay, which amounted to $2,000. The Headquarters Company did not receive their pay but will receive it within a short time.

Including the armory expenses, etc., the two companies receive about $12,000 a year. A large portion of this is actual cash put into circulation in Crowell.

Announces for District Judge

James V. Leak of Memphis announces as a candidate for the office of District Judge. He has served as District Attorney since Sept. 1, 1919. He has the endorsement of the Hall County Bar.

Attorney Leak volunteered his services April 29, 1917, when the call came for men to enter the war, and became an officer in the training camp at San Antonio. He arrived overseas August 11, 1918, and was in some of the most important engagements of the war. He was in the "Lost Battalion" with Major Whittlesey in Argonne Forest. He was captured by the Germans October 5th, 1918, and released November 29, 1918.

around the hover. We do this to keep the chicks close to the source of heat, and to prevent their getting too far away from the source of heat and getting chilled.

We provide one chick size fountain to every fifty chicks. These fountains are so fixed the chicks can not get wet in them. Too few water fountains is a serious mistake. Grit, oyster shell and charcoal boxes are also necessary.

Shallow pie tins, clean boards, heavy card board and common newspapers may be used as feeding dishes or pans. Always provide a sufficient number of these so that the chicks will not have to crowd at feeding time.

For runs or yards we have found common tin about 20" high and 30" long to be very good. We put this yard up in a circle shape, attaching each end of the tin to one side of the chick exit. Stakes about two feet long are driven into the ground to hold up the tin yard.

For an incline for the chicks to get in and out, we have found nothing better than dirt. We take a shovel and fill in enough dirt, so they can readily get back and forth and in and out of the building.

All corners in the house, should be rounded out so the chicks can not crowd into them, which they are sure to do. Chicks like to crowd into corners.

We recommend nailing a piece of tin or sheet iron, under the heater, either coal or kerosene. This will save the floors and reduce the danger from fires.

Where brooders are not used, natural brooding with the old hen is necessary. The common "A" shaped type of coop has been found most satisfactory. Shed roof coops and common salt barrels may also be used.

Capons sometimes make excellent mothers. Not all capons, however, will take chicks. The broody hen and coop must be kept clean and free from vermin, by the liberal use of kerosene, on the coop only.

REV. L. N. LIPSCOMB

CHRIST THE SAME ALWAYS

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever.—Heb. 13-8.

On the above scripture were based the remarks of the pastor of the Christian church, Rev. J. Frank Montgomery, at the morning service last Sunday.

There is a constant shifting and changing of conditions with man, said the pastor, which is a gracious provision, in that it is conducive to the unfolding of life. But while this is true, man wants something that is fixed and that is unchangeable. There are the changes in the seasons, Spring time when vegetable life blooms into new life, and then later ripens with fruitage. Then comes decay and apparent death, but delightful is the thought that there is that fixed law that brings the spring and the summer again. The sun rises and sets, often under different conditions, sometimes behind the clouds, then with the greatest brilliancy, but it is a comfort to know that the rising and setting are according to something that is fixed.

The same facts are true with relation to human life. Changes are unceasingly taking place in the physical life of man from the time he comes into the world until death ends his career, but there may be some things fixed about life. It is pleasing to know that he may build a character that is unchangeable, so that when you are separated from a friend you can find him the same true friend in later years. That is the something that is fixed after the fashion of the Savior of the world, who was and is the same always. It is a gracious thought that your friend may always have for you the same sympathy, the same trust and the same faith.

Speaking of Christ's unchangeable character, the pastor called attention to the fact that while he was approachable when on earth, so that many people of every kind of disease and unfortunate physical circumstance were brought to him for comfort and for healing, he is the same today and is just as ready as then to manifest those divine characteristics. And just as he attached great importance to the little things, as the world sees them, when he was on earth, so he does today—the unchangeable Christ. His teachings, said the preacher, are the same today as when he walked among men. He does not suit those teachings to man's wishes for his convenience or pleasure, but these have stood through the ages, and with correct interpretation all his teachings co-ordinate to make up his unchangeable message of truth to the world.

MAIZE FED IN HEAD MEANS 50 PER CENT LOSS

At the organization of the Pure Bred Live Stock Association at the court house recently the matter of feeding was discussed to some extent and J. L. Orr related his experience in the feeding of maize in the head and also ground. He learned by experience that by grinding the maize it takes just half as much as when it is fed in the head. Mr. Orr grinds his maize by the use of a gasoline engine and a grinder and feeds this to his hogs.

It is worth something to every one who feeds maize to know that there is the possibility of a big saving by grinding feed. It would require only a short time for one to save enough to pay for a grinder and an engine.

A staff of the Chillicothe Rebekahs visited with the Crowell Lodge Wednesday night and conferred degrees on a class of 18 new members.

LOCAL GUARDSMEN WILL GET GOOD INSPECTION REPORT

Major Wm. L. Culberson Here Thursday, Attends Legion Banquet After Inspection

The banquet given by the American Legion and the coming of Major Wm. L. Culberson Thursday of last week to inspect the two companies here were coincidental, and after the inspection a general good time was experienced by the boys at the Sanitary Cafe.

Some time ago a membership campaign was put on by the American Legion, Q. R. Miller and George Hinds being captains. It was agreed that the one whose side enrolled the fewest new members should put up the feed. This fell to the lot of Miller, and it was done up in very great style, 74 plates being placed.

Among the guests were Major Culberson, federal inspector, and Captain Staten Hankins, state inspector, besides some of the local business men.

Decker Magee, post commander of the Legion, acted as toast master, and this he did in his own individual style, which was characterized by his individuality and occasional and appropriate humor. H. L. Kinsey, M. S. Henry and C. T. Schlagal responded to the call for remarks relative to the work of the Legion, after which the visiting guests, Captain Hankins and Major Culberson delivered addresses. This was followed by a few remarks by Major Adams relative to the advertising the two companies at Crowell is giving our town and community.

The address of the hour was that of Major Culberson. He paid a very high tribute to the high standard maintained by the two companies here, which ranks with the best in the State. He spoke of the four and a half million men who stand ready to defend America against attack. They constitute a force that insures us against attack. Major Culberson had nothing but the highest praise to offer both the officers and men of the two companies for their splendid record.

The Death of T. M. Meason

Not until this week was the News able to get any of the particulars concerning the death of T. M. Meason of Big Sandy, which occurred the 27th of February. After his brother Frank returned last week from attending the funeral he was sick and was at home most of the time so that we did not get to see him and learn of Tom's death. This week Frank gave us the Big Sandy Times which contains the account of his brother's death.

According to that paper he had been in bad health for some weeks. He seems to have had a complication of troubles of the kidney, heart, lungs and stomach. Until about a week before he died he was able to be at his place of business only part of the time, and was finally confined to his room, growing worse until death came.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Meason, who formerly resided at Crowell and who are well known to the pioneer settlers of this county.

T. M. Meason was 41 years of age and had been in the grocery business at Big Sandy since shortly after the family moved from Foard County to Big Sandy some fifteen years ago.

Mrs. Eva Eaves Who Died in Fort Worth Buried Here Wed.

Mrs. Eva Eaves was born January 2, 1875, and died March 14, 1922.

The deceased was the daughter of Mrs. G. A. Mitchell by her first husband, whose name was Miller. At the time of her death, which was due to pneumonia, she was residing in Ft. Worth to which place she had moved from Palestine about a year ago. She had moved from Crowell to Palestine about 1917. She is well remembered by the people of Crowell who are made sad by reason of her death. The remains arrived at Crowell Wednesday for burial and the services were attended by a large host of friends.

Mrs. Eaves is survived by her only two children, Wayne, of Palestine, and Mrs. Mabel Taylor of Wharton, both of whom were present to attend the funeral services.

Arkansas will be some state when she gets Foard County.

CAR TURNS OVER AND PINS OCCUPANT

Remains in Uncomfortable Position for Hour and a Half Until Relief Comes

Dr. Hart has never been known as a speeder, yet he happened to an accident Friday night somewhat like accidents that happen occasionally to speeders.

He was going to the Foard City community about 9 o'clock at night to answer a call, and as he went to the corner east of the Bomar place 5 miles southwest of town his car skidded and went into the ditch with him, turning completely upside down and pinning the doctor beneath the car in mud and water. He remained in this position until about half past 10 when Gordon Gribble happened along and seeing the wreck got out to make an investigation. He was unable to rescue Dr. Hart and went to the Bomar place after Mr. Bursley and the two were able to release him from his imprisoned condition. All this time Dr. Hart was in water and mud but was able to hold his head above it. He was brought back to town and given medical aid but for a few days was confined to his room. No serious injuries are sustained and the doctor is now up and going about.

Pioneer Foard County Citizen Dies at Home in Aspermont

Dr. M. M. Hart received a message from Aspermont yesterday that his brother, Tob, had died at 7:00 o'clock with cancer of the liver. He was 67 years old and lived in Foard County about ten years, coming here in 1884, and is well known by all old-timers. He went from here to Aspermont where he made his home until death.

Mr. Hart was the first to die out of a family of six boys, he being the oldest one.

Dr. Hart left on the noon train yesterday for Aspermont to attend the funeral which will be held today.

Sees Buzzard with Bell On

A number of years ago, perhaps 12 or 15, it is said by residents of Crowell, the Dallas News gave publicity to the fact that a bell had been put on a buzzard in that city and the bird turned loose. Last week Johnnie Roulain who lives on J. R. Allee's farm west of town saw a buzzard with a bell on. Of course, it has been so long since the one was turned loose in Dallas that it would be hard to tell whether it was the same buzzard or not, however, it is said that they live for many years.

Girl Gets Shot

Dr. J. M. Hill answered a call to come to the home of B. B. Bonner, who resides at the H. G. Teague place in the Black community, Saturday afternoon about 6 o'clock and when he arrived he found that the 17 year old daughter of Mr. Bonner had a bullet wound in her left side. The wound had been made, supposedly, with a 22 caliber target. The ball had entered from the front and struck a rib and only made a flesh wound, coming out on the left side of her neck.

No particulars seem to be available and this is all that is known of the matter.

Announces for Commissioner

J. W. Curtis announces in this issue of the News for commissioner of precinct No. 4. This is Mr. Curtis' first time to ask for an office in this county and he asks the voters of his precinct to consider his claims. One of the important things to be looked after in the immediate years is the new roads of the county and Mr. Curtis feels a very great interest in them. He has had considerable to do with the building of some of them and feels that he knows something about them. Mr. Curtis will serve the people of his precinct to the very best of his ability if elected to this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry Martin and small son, H. M., went to Quanah Sunday to visit Mr. Martin's mother, Mrs. J. H. Thomson, who was at the Sanitarium with her son, Joel. Mrs. Thomson expected to return to her home in Paducah last Monday.

Mrs. A. W. Crawford came in Tuesday from Winterset, Iowa, to make a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Bell, and also to look after her extensive land interests in this county.

OKLA. MAYOR SAYS ORIENT CRY FOR HELP GROWS OLD

Road Viewed in Light of "Spoiled" Child Gets What it Wants When Complaining

As a member of the delegation which appeared before the Railroad Administration Directors on May 27, 1918, in an effort to have the Orient Road retained under Federal control, and again being one of the delegation appearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission on June 3, 1920, in behalf of the application of the Orient for a loan from the Government Revolving Fund in the amount of $2,500,000.00, I cannot permit the discrepancies and inconsistencies of the present junking propaganda to pass without comment.

From the view of a citizen and by reason of my abode being in a community served exclusively by the Orient road I can fully appreciate the importance of that road to like communities, all of which have sacrificed from time to time to assist the Orient, in addition to the earlier inducements offered to secure construction of the line in the various territories. But where is this to end? Because of the ment to operate without loss the public is again appealed to help save the line is again appealed to help save the Orient from the junk heap. I quote the following from the findings of the Interstate Commerce Commission, given after hearing held in connection with the application of the Orient road for loan on June 3, 1920:

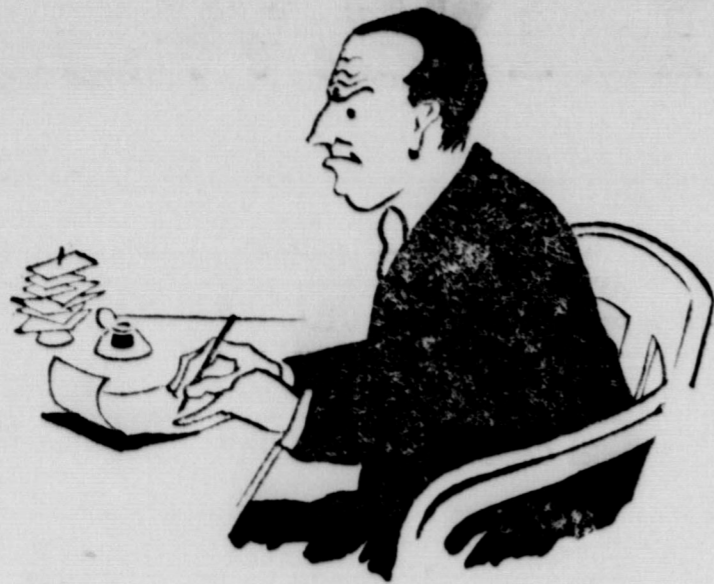

"Great interest in these applications was manifested by the communities served by the Orient Lines. This concern was evidently the result of a widespread fear that if the loan should not be granted operation of the Orient might be abandoned. It is not disputed that the Orient System, or at least that part which lies within the United States, is of essential importance in meeting the transportation needs of the public in the territory which it serves. As the law now stands, it could not be abandoned without our approval. Failure to discharge outstanding receiver's certificates and thus 'clear title to the property' might result in a receiver's sale, but such a sale might well prove of benefit to the operation of the property by scaling down the present top-heavy capitalization."

From the foregoing it is noted that the Interstate Commerce Commission, our only authentic source of information as to financial conditions of railroads, recognizes that permanent relief of the Orient can only come through a sale and the scaling down of the top-heavy capitalization, and any other means would afford only temporary relief and would not relieve the public of listening to that periodical cry, "The Wolf."

At the time of the hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission in behalf of the loan, the Commission was urged to divert the small amount of additional traffic over the Orient road which would permit such road to "pay its board." The Commission has this prerogative under provisions of the Transportation Act, and perhaps there are underlying causes which prevented them going further than they did. However, it is barely possible that another delegation could secure more in this line and therefore the relief is sought no doubt through the bringing of public opinion before the Labor Board in an effort to secure a material reduction in wages and a change in working rules of employees, amounting to between 40 and 50 per cent. This can only remind us that while freight rates were increased beyond the amount necessary to meet increased labor costs, the recent 12 1/2 per cent reduction of wages have not been reflected to the public in reduced freight rates. Neither can a reduction of wages of its employees save the Orient, because, according to their own figures, if the employees donated their services it would still be in the red, and could not be operated at a profit.

Anyone familiar with the situation well knows that American railroad labor cannot accept such a wage cut. It is, however, possible that foreign labor, living in the usual manner of several families in a small hut, might get by. But even that will save the Orient only temporarily. The present labor of the road have contributed their bit by working for years for

Mrs. H. W. Short and sons, Joe and G. S. Short, left Sunday morning for Lockney to attend the bedside of the former's grandson, Homer J. Myrick. He died at 5 p. m. Monday, the 13th. We extend sympathy to all the bereaved.

Fort Sumner Getting Ready for Tourist Travel

Fort Sumner, N. M., March 6, 1922.—Fort Sumner is preparing for big business from tourists next summer. Local merchants believe that the making of the F. F. F. Highway from end to end will result in greatly increased travel over it. The F. F. F. Highway intersects the Abo Pass Highway, from Kansas City to California, at Fort Sumner, which makes this quite a highway center. Many Texas tourists are expected to follow the F. F. F. route to Fort Sumner and then travel on the Abo route to California.

Have You Ever Read of "NOBRUSH?"

NOBRUSH is the name of a high grade, clear finishing VARNISH. NOBRUSH gets its name because it is not necessary to use a brush of any kind to apply it. When you use NOBRUSH on your AUTOMOBILE, your LINOLEUM or any kind of FURNITURE, you do not have to buy a brush at all.

Just take a piece of bleached cheesecloth or any other soft cloth free from lint, saturate it in NOBRUSH, and after having cleaned the object properly, apply one or two coats of NOBRUSH according to directions, and you will be well pleased with the results.

NOBRUSH DRIES HARD READY FOR USE IN 24 hours. Dries free to road dust in three or four hours.

NOBRUSH IN INTENDED TO BE USED ON things that have become faded or dull but where the original coloring is still on. For surfaces that have been gouged or scratched below the original finish we recommend PITCAIN'S AGED "SOLE-PROOF" colored varnishes. We carry a large assortment of best colors.

Does your automobile look dingy or dull? Do not try to make it shine by using polishes. Put a high finish on it with NOBRUSH. Make it look like a new one. Make your LINOLEUM or your furniture like new with a coat of NOBRUSH.

Good paint properly applied is always money well spent, bad paint is always an expense.

It is not enough to use paint simply because you may want your house to look well—that is good so far as it goes but it does not go far enough. When you consider its worth in the prolonging of the building you are thinking along the right line, and then the next good thinking in that connection will be about the quality of the paint you expect to use. Paint both to give beauty and length of life to the building and you'll feel happy in the thought that you have acted wisely. This you may do by using

THINKS NEW ROAD SHOULD PARALEL F.F.F.

Mezargel, Texas, March 6, 1922.—The Mezargel Chamber of Commerce believes that the proposed Fort Worth Plains Railroad should follow very near the route of the F. F. F. Highway from Fort Worth to the Plains and the leaders of the organization are working to that end. The Mezargel boosters are hopeful that the new railroad will follow the G. T. & W. to Seymour and then build north and west to the Plains.

The Mezargel live wires point out that the F. F. F. Highway traverses the most productive part of West Texas and that it likewise follows the course of least resistance to the Plains. They point out that those features would make it the best route for the railroad.

Miss Marie Bell proved a delightful hostess to the members of the "42" Club last Friday evening. Five tables participated in progressive "42."

After several games were played and greatly enjoyed a delicious course was served to the following: Misses Marie Bell, Mary Sam Crews, Vera Crews, Geneva Wishon, Frances Hill, Bernice Long, Fern Nicholson, Olive Hanks, Beatrice McDaniel, Bess and Thelma Thompson, and Mildred McLaughlin; Tom Beverly, Sidney Collins, George Cates, John Carter, Horace Lovelady, Walter Thomson, Ernest King, B. J. Glover, Sidney Miller and Travis Hayes.

We will meet with Miss Mary Sam Crews Friday evening, the 17th. The boys will entertain the girls Saturday night with a theater party.—Reporter.

Notice of Trustee Election

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held at the county court house in the town of Crowell, Foard County, Texas, within the Crowell Independent School District, on the 1st day of April, 1922, same being the first Saturday in April for the purpose of electing three white trustees to serve as trustees of the Crowell Independent School District for a period of two years.

J. W. Beverly has been appointed manager of said election which shall be held as nearly as may be possible in conformity with the general election laws of the State. Said polls shall be open at 8 o'clock, a. m., and shall close at 6 o'clock, p. m., of same day.

No person shall vote at said election unless he be a qualified voter under the constitution and laws of this State and a tax payer in said Crowell Independent School District. Said election was ordered by the board of trustees of said Crowell Independent School District by order passed on the 24th day of February, 1922, and this notice is issued pursuant to said order.

Dated this 6th day of Mar., 1922.

H. L. KIMSEY,

Pres. of Board of Trustees of Said District

(Seal) R. R. MAGEE,

Secretary of Board of Trustees of Said District

Optimists continue to predict a revival in business. We hope everybody gets converted.

BUZZIN' AROUND

Ladies are much better buyers and shoppers than men because they are eternally buzzin' around which is alright. They buy where the bargains are best and they usually know.

We expect to have some buzzin' around in our store Saturday of this week because we are going to sell 15 dresses, six of them of the well-known Sperling make, for the nominal sum of $12.75 each

Remember please that many of these dresses formally sold for around $50.00, and if you don't think they are absolutely A1 just come and see.

Crowell, Texas, March 17, 1922

The controversy concerning the Ku Klux waxed warm almost every time two men meet on the streets. One is for it, the other is "agin" it. One sees in it the hope of the country, the other sees in it the menace of all we hold dear. And so the argument rages. Let everybody remember we are Americans, and one of our fundamental principles is the right of private judgment. One man has a right to believe in the Ku Klux if he sees it that way, and the other man has just as good right to be opposed to them. But neither man has a right to deny the other the right of his opinion.—Tulia Herald.

We judge from the above that the editor is neither for nor against the Klan. He has concealed himself as completely as do the members of the Klan when they go out to administer tar and feathers, and, of course, in that particular is like them. But may we be permitted to say that we believe every man should come out on this thing and let the world know where he stands. The work of the Ku Klux Klan is either right or wrong, it can not be both, and if a man does not take a stand on it why should he straddle over the thing, mumbling words and saying nothing, as our esteemed contemporary has here.

Why Not the Better Way?

Some good people think we should prevent any more foreigners from coming to this country—that we should restrict all further immigration.

But why? We have millions and millions of undeveloped land waiting for the plow, and many other millions that are only partially developed. All should be under cultivation.

A good way would be to admit only those foreigners who can furnish a clean record before they sail. Then compel them to obey every law of our land, and the moment they are convicted of crime, or of stirring up strife, or of criticising our form of government, ship them back to the countries from whence they came.

A firm and impartial enforcement of law is what we require.

The Asiatic question, though, might be treated from a different point of view.

Has Very Fine Cow

If we owned the two-year old Jersey belonging to N. J. Roberts we would be proud of her, too, just as Jack is. She is fresh and is giving 4 gallons of milk and is making two pounds of butter a day. She is a perfect picture and he thinks he has one of the finest Jersey cows in the country today. A cattle judge from Kansas City saw the heifer a few days ago and stated that she was the best two-year old he ever saw. Mr. Roberts says he refused $300 for her.

Members of the Klan Did It

A number of men have been flogged and run out of Dallas lately, ostensibly by the Ku Klux, though the latter denies it, and is even offering a reward for the miscreants responsible. Usually the man run out is prospering in business, and charges are laid at his door which he is given no chance to disprove. We believe in many cases business rivalry is at the bottom of such devilry, and while the crime may not be committed by the better class of members of the Klan, there are enough rascals in the lodge willing to abet such actions. We cite what happened at Childress when Judge Fires received a scurrilous letter written on Ku Klux stationery, which authorship was later denied by the Klan. Judge Fires, of course, has a very fair idea who was responsible for that letter, even though the better element in the lodge deprecated it.

We have never been able to quietly see a bunch of men pick on one poor devil to satisfy their grudge, no matter how sorry he might be. Their being masked and going about in the dark like common criminals, does not add to our esteem of them as good citizens. If we are law-abiding, we should be willing to let the law take its course, and help the officers all we can.—Quanah Tribune-Chief.

ANTI-KLAN BODY IS FORMED IN OKLAHOMA

Healdton, Okla., March 15.—An anti-Ku Klux Klan organization known as the Knights of the Visible Empire has been formed here. John Q. Hyde, one of the organizers, announced in a statement last night that the purpose of the society "is to protest against mob rule, as exemplified in the teachings of the Ku Klux Klan." Hyde is a local attorney.

According to Hyde, the organization had its inception at a meeting Monday night of forty-eight citizens of Healdton. Hyde said the membership had jumped to 150 and that 150 others were waiting to sign applications. He said the organization might be expanded throughout the State but that no definite plans had been decided upon.

"There is not one line in the Constitution that cannot be approved by every liberty-loving, law-abiding citizen," said Hyde. "No masks will be worn and there will be no secret meetings."

We play some of the best teams in West Texas this season on the home diamond, including two college teams. Our team is being boiled down from a total of thirty-five tryouts, and we expect to put some of the best exhibitions high school baseball yet witnessed on the home diamond. Get with the boys! S. W. McLARTY TAKES PRIZE ON JUNIOR BULL

The Star-Telegram of March 15th, carried on the front page a picture of a Poll Durham bull bred by S. W. McLarty of Vernon which took first prize in the junior class at the Fat Stock Show. Mr. McLarty is so nearly a Foard County cattle breeder that we almost claim this honor for Foard County. This success of Mr. McLarty only goes to prove further that this western country can without doubt be made one of the leading sections for purebred stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Belsher returned Wednesday from a visit in Ralls, Texas, accompanied by Mr. Belsher's brother, Steve Belsher, who expects to remain in Crowell for a while. They report our old friend, A. H. Bennett, as doing fine in Ralls.

Those attending the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth this week are: H. J. Crosnoe, J. W. Bell, Zeke Bell, Edgar Kimsey, J. W. Wishon and Paul Shirley. Mr. Shirley also made a trip to Ardmore, Okla., and one to Hico, Texas, where he visited his parents.

The sheriff of Wilbarger County has advised the residents of Vernon to lock their doors and windows at night as a safeguard against thieves and robbers. What is the matter with Vernon? We thought they had a Ku Klux Klan there to help the officers run down criminals and it seems that they are not having the desired effect on the crime wave. Better leave off their church programs and get out after the tuffs or else take down their sign.

J. B. Hicks, piano tuner, is in town and will be here for several days. Leave orders with Mrs. Crews or Smith Hotel.

Lightning struck the Baptist church at Shamrock recently which caused the destruction of the building by fire.

The Kidneys Should Receive Help. Crowell People Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills

The constant strain of busy life is hard on the kidneys, and in later years

The kidneys call for help. Old backs often ache, day in, day out;

Urinary ills frequently add their weight of woe.

Give the help the kidneys need.

Aid the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills.

Crowell people endorse this remedy. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. S. J. Vernon, Crowell, says: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have used them off and on for years. Whenever my back gives me any trouble I know my kidneys are a little out of order, so I take a few Doan's and they never fail to give me great results."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Vernon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 44

"A SHINE IN EVERY DROP"

Black Silk Stove Polish is different. It does not dry out; can be used to the last drop; liquid and paste one quality; absolutely no waste; no dust or dirt. You get your money's worth.

Black Silk Stove Polish

is not only most economical, but it gives a brilliant, silky lustre that cannot be obtained with any other polish. Black Silk Stove Polish does not rub off—it lasts four times as long as ordinary polish—so it saves you time, work and money.

Don't forget—when you want stove polish, be sure to ask for Black Silk. If it isn't the best stove polish you ever used—your dealer will refund your money.

Black Silk Stove Polish Works, Sterling, Illinois.

Use Black Silk Air Drying Iron Cream on grates, registers, stove-pipes, and automobile tire rims. Prevents rusting. Try it.

Use Black Silk Metal Polish for silverware, nickelware or brass. It works quickly, easily and leaves a brilliant surface. It has no equal for use on automobiles.

ARKANSAS SEEKS TO ANNEX 56 TEXAS COUNTIES NEAR BORDER

Austin, March 12.—That portion of Texas territory which the State of Arkansas seeks title to in its attempt to obtain permission from the Supreme Court of the United States to intervene in the Texas-Oklahoma boundary suit, not only includes all of the bed of the Red River, but includes 56 Texas counties, constituting that portion of Texas between the Louisiana boundary and the one-hundredth meridian and north of the thirty-second parallel.

In this territory lies virtually all of the oil territory recently developed, known as the North Texas oil fields.

Dallas, Fort Worth, Cleburne, Texas, Hillsboro, Ennis, Breckenridge and virtually all of the important financial and industrial centers of North Texas are included in the slice of Texas territory which Arkansas modestly desires to annex.

The Texas counties on the thirty-second parallel forming the southern tier of counties which Arkansas desires to swallow by legal procedure, are: Taylor, Callahan, Eastland, Erath, Hood, northern portion of Bosque, Johnson, the northern half of Navarro, Henderson, the extreme north portion of Anderson, and Cherokee, Smith, Rusk and Palona.

Beginning at the Louisiana line the counties included in the slice which Arkansas desires to separate from Texas, in addition to those named as the southern tier of counties bordering on the thirty-second parallel are: Harrison, Marion, Cass, Bowie, Red River, Titus, Morris, Camp, Upshur, Gregg, Wood, Franklin, Lamar, Delta, Hopkins, Rains, Van Zandt, Kaufman, Rockwall, Hunt, Fannin, Grayson, Collin, Dallas, Ellis, Johnson, Tarrant, Parker, Wise, Montague, Clay, Jack, Palo Pinto, Stephens, Young, Archer, Wichita, Wilbarger, Baylor, Throckmorton, Shackelford, Jones, Haskell, Knox, Foard and Hardeman.

Missionary Societies Observe Day of Prayer

The Woman's Missionary societies of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches observed the first Friday of Lent, March 3rd, which was set apart by the Federation of Woman's Boards of Foreign Missions and Council of Women for Home Missions as the day of prayer and praise. The services were held in the basement of the Methodist church, and conducted by Mrs. S. O. Woods in a responsive program beginning at 10 a. m. A sumptuous repast was served at 12 o'clock. When the program was completed a social hour was indulged in.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather quite a number attended and expressed themselves as enjoying the occasion. It was unanimously decided to make it an annual affair.

There is one great satisfaction in paying an income tax. You can always brag about it.

THE STATE OF TEXAS To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Foard County—GREETING:

You Are Hereby Commanded to summon E. R. Swift by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 46th Judicial District; to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Foard County, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Crowell, Texas, on the 8th Monday after the first Monday in February, A. D. 1922, the same being the 3rd day of April, A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1922, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 1130, wherein Alice Marie Swift is plaintiff, and E. R. Swift is defendant, and the cause of action being alleged as follows: That on or about the 4th day of March, 1920, plaintiff was duly married to defendant at Lubbock, in Lubbock County, Texas, and thereafter until about the 15th day of June, 1921, plaintiff and defendant lived and cohabited together as husband and wife. That during the time plaintiff and defendant lived together as aforesaid plaintiff treated defendant with respect and kindness and done all in her power to make him a good wife and companion, but defendant disregarding his marriage vows soon after their marriage began a course of cruel and abusive conduct toward plaintiff and often cursed, abused and struck her. That soon after their marriage defendant took plaintiff on a trip to New Mexico and just a few days after their arrival at Dexter, New Mexico, defendant was charged with the theft of Winchester rifle and other property and was arrested and put in jail but was afterwards released and returned to plaintiff and gave her a severe beating with a leather belt. That prior to said beating defendant had beat, cursed and abused plaintiff

Making Dollars Work

The evolution from the old time real estate mortgage to the present system of issuing interest bearing bonds when a loan of any size is negotiated marks a distinct milestone in the history of the expansion and development of this country.

Bonds are in themselves mortgages, and possess all of the protecting clauses for investors that are found in the straight real estate mortgage.

Generally a bank or a bond house buys up the entire issue of a bond loan and sells it to the public in separate bonds of various denominations. Those of $100, $500 and $1000 are the most popular.

The possibility of investing a hundred dollars at a time in a bond bearing six or seven per cent interest offers a splendid opportunity to young people to begin life in the right way—by regularly investing their savings in small sums at a profitable rate of interest.

Again, it has a tendency to bring out the hidden wealth of the country from the old stockings and stove pipes and tin cans and put it to work in manufacturing and commercial enterprises that all go toward increasing the prosperity of the country.

But beware how you buy bonds from a stranger. The safe way is to go straight to your local banker and buy from him. He knows the bonds that are safe and those that are best to let alone.

It is his business to know, and his judgment may be relied upon with perfect safety.

T. E. L. Social

The T. E. L. Class met with Mrs. Arnold Rucker Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Edgin. In spite of the disagreeable weather a good number was present.

Mrs. Poland lead the devotional. Splendid reports were given by the officers especially the treasurer.

Following the business session we were asked to take part in a little contest in which Mrs. Albert Dunagan was the most successful. The hostess presented her with a dainty little gift, which she in return placed in the bazaar. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Wright.—Reporter.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

Civic organizations from Maine to California have been asked to swing into line to back up the Legion and make a concerted effort which will be felt in all sections of the country. By stimulating industry, by pushing engineering projects and municipal development, by speeding up public utility enterprises, roadbuilding, paving, dredging, truck gardening, reforestation and reclamation, and by encouraging the "back-to-the-farm" movement, the Legion hopes to break the labor slump which has kept worthy men out of work and caused widespread distress. Each city will be divided into regions, each under its own post and employment committee, with a general committee coordinating the efforts of all.

To put 700,000 ex-soldiers into jobs in the American Legion's immediate objective, according to an announcement from Legion national headquarters. To accomplish this, a nationwide drive will be launched from local posts in every city and town in the country on March 20, and employers and business men will be called into conference to devise ways and means of creating jobs and putting an end to a situation which Hanford MacNider, Legion commander, has called "the greatest crisis in the Legion's history."

Capt. Charles Ainsleigh, skipper of a coal barge in 1918, was the only American wounded off the coast by enemy fire. He was hit by a shell from a submarine while his small son stood on deck and waved an American flag. Jobless for almost a year, Ainsleigh, through the American Legion, has landed a position as watchman at the State House in Boston, Mass.

"There is only one god, and that god is Allah," yelled a young man at midnight, from the top of a lonely hill in Nashville, Tenn. The police were not placated until American Legion comrades explained that he was being initiated into a Greek letter fraternity.

Napoleon was right! Fifty cakes, 40 cases of soft drinks, two bushels of peanuts, 20 gallons of ice cream, 4,000 sandwiches, and a crate of oranges were consumed by 900 ex-soldiers (and friends) at an American Legion housewarming at Binghampton, N. Y.

The Assembly of the State of New York, in legislative session, has passed a resolution endorsing the American Legion's five-fold adjusted compensation measure and urging its passage. Copies of the resolution were sent to New York's members of Congress.

It took a small Jewish girl and a little maid from Italy to win first and second prizes for the best essays on "Our Greatest American." The contest was held by the American Legion at Auburn, N. Y.

Oil Cheaper Than Machinery

Poor oil makes extra work for your engine.

Cheap oils are the most expensive. They simply can not lubricate properly—the RESULT is friction—friction puts an extra burden on your engine—wears it out prematurely—wastst both fuel and oil.

Get away from these troubles by using the high grade scientific lubricants, a tractor and automobile oil of superior quality. It pays.

Theater Party

On last Saturday evening, the 11th, the boys of the "42" Club entertained the girls with a theater party. We met at the home of Miss Mildred McLaughlin, and went from there to the theater.

After the show was over we returned to her home where a mid-night lunch was served to all. The dining room was beautifully decorated in the club colors—gold and white. Following is the menu which was served cafeteria style:

- Marie Russe Dainty Poses
- Mildred a la Sausse Horace-Leadin-the-Hole
- Beat-ricie Souppie
- Tom Eclaires Mary Sam Nabiscoes
- Carter Cocktail

An impromptu program was rendered and greatly enjoyed. Many other games were played that added to the evening's enjoyment. At a late hour the boys departed. Both boys and girls each thanked the other for the enjoyment of this joint-occasion.

The girls were given a lunch party by Miss Mildred McLaughlin. The fun continued until the wee hours of the morning. Everyone present declares this to have been one of the most enjoyable occasions of their lives. Those present at the theater party were: Misses Willie Mae Woods, Etta Goode, Mildred McLaughlin, Marie Bell, Bess Thompson, Marion Cheek; Thelma Thompson, Beatrice McDaniell, Frances Blakemore, Fern Nicholson, Vera Crews, Mary Sam Crews, Bernice Long, Geneva Wishon and Olive Hanks; John Carter, Horace Lovelady, George Cates, Roy Barry, Sidney Collins, Glenn Jones, Paul Barry, B. J. Glover, Tom Beverly, Sidney Miller, Alton Nicholson, Travis Hayes, Walter Thomson and Berwell Sessions.—A Guest.

A SPLENDID RAIN

The rain at Crowell Monday amounted to seven-tenths of an inch. It is reported to have been lighter in the eastern portion of the county, but west it seems to have been much heavier. It will be quite a help to the crops of wheat which are yet alive. There are some few crops that will possibly make fair wheat if they get moisture from now on.

The rain will be a help to the farmers who want to prepare for row crops, as most of them will do. The sandy land especially is in good condition and plowed very well before this last rain. This will put it in excellent shape.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL

Treacherous Drug Can Not Be Trusted and Next Dose May Start Trouble

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quicksilver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to the druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

OKLA MAYOR SAYS ORIENT'S CRY FOR HELP GROWS OLD

less than a standard rate of pay. In fact, better than 90 per cent of the present engine service employes have been in the service 14 years or over, have went through the hardships encountered on a new road, contended with the greater hazard, poorer power conditions, the inadequate terminal facilities, irregular work due to frequent business fluctuations, dirt road bed and above all, extremely slow promotion in comparison to other lines, all of which would lead one to believe that rates of pay should be greater on such lines as the Orient. A reduction of wages of the Orient employes as proposed for relief of the road can only serve to further reduce the already curtailed purchasing power in the various communities and, in addition, will be lowering the standard fixed by a Government Tribunal, for which the railroads asked, and which has been termed by such tribunal as a just and reasonable wage.

It is now contended that the Orient is neither a Short Line, nor a class 1 road, yet I find the following included in a brief filed with the Railroad Administration in 1918 by the Orient's General Manager, while showing cause why the Orient should be retained under Federal Control:

1. "The Orient is not a short line.
2. "By all tests and standards of comparison, it measures favorably with the average class 1 railroads in its territory."

Considering the foregoing, I can only view the Orient in the light of a spoiled child accustomed to receive its candy at every call. We have been very faithful in answering the call of the Orient child and have denied ourselves from time to time in order that it might have its candy. Since arriving at the state of maturity and now insisting on its candy at the expense of those who have assisted in petting and raising it, we must certainly feel that it should at least buy its own candy, even though it refuses to work for us to reciprocate the many favors extended throughout its infancy. Who should save the Orient?

It's a treat to sit down to a bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes

You'll agree that you never ate such delicious, such satisfying cereal as Kellogg's Corn Flakes! Those big, sunny-brown "sweet-hearts-of-the-corn" are so fascinating in flavor and so crispy and crunchy that you don't wonder the children are thrilled to eat them!

Compare Kellogg's with imitations to realize their quality, their appetizing appeal, their wonder-crispness! Kellogg's are never tough or leathery or hard to eat! Each heaping spoonful of Kellogg's is even more joyous and satisfying than the last!

Be sure that you get Kellogg's—the delicious Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Toasted Corn Flakes! NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT!

Don't forget, KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes are made by the folks who gave you the JUNGLELAND Moving Pictures. Coupon inside every package of KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes explains how you can obtain another copy of JUNGLELAND.
