STORM LAST FRIDAY DOES CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE IN COUNTY

The storm that struck here last afternoon was one of the worst we have witnessed in several years. Quite a lot of damage was done to outbuildings over the county. Two persons are known to have been bodily injured. Mrs. John Long of near Foard City had started a storm house with her baby on a piece of plank struck her on the head rendering her unconscious some time. A boy belonging to George Little was caught by an overturned wagon and injured. Neither of these, it is thought, is serious. Property damage consisted in destroying outbuildings, blowing down trees, etc. At Foard City a tin house was torn to pieces and scattered over the prairie. A granary was blown over at Jim Bell's place east of town. A house on A. Long's farm was badly damaged, a portion of it being torn away. Sam Bell lost a granary and chicken house, some of the outbuildings at Bell's were moved and the big barn at Mrs. W. S. Bell's place was badly wrecked. Considerable damage of a like nature was done in the other parts of the county. The storm seems to have been pretty general but it was a narrow strip that suffered the damages above mentioned. The direction of the storm was from the southwest towards the east.

Storey Announces for District Attorney

The News is authorized to publish an announcement of John A. Storey as a candidate for District Attorney, and we are reproducing the statements made by the Vernon Times, one of the papers of Mr. Storey's home town. We might say that since he has been serving in this capacity by appointment upon the resignation of Mr. Nicholson, who preceded Mr. Storey, he has impressed our people as a very able and conscientious prosecuting attorney and is fully capable in every way of handling the job. The Vernon Times says: "In this issue of the Times we are authorized to announce John A. Storey as a candidate for district attorney of the 46th Judicial District subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July. Mr. Storey is filling the unexpired term of A. C. Nicholson who resigned in April. Mr. Storey was county attorney of Wilbarger county when he was appointed by Governor Neff and has served about ten months as district attorney. Mr. Storey was appointed when the 46th judicial district included six counties. When the Legislature passed the redistricting bill and gave the 46th district three counties Mr. Storey was transferred to this district. During his term of office he has made a good record on convictions and has worked hard to see that the laws are enforced. He has been a member of the Wilbarger county for 12 years with the exception of 2 years served in the army. On behalf of Mr. Storey's candidacy the Times requests a careful consideration at the hands of the voters when they come to the polls in July."

FINE PROGRAM AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH LAST SUNDAY

A program was prepared and rendered at the Christian church last Sunday in addition to the regular one, giving an all-day service.

The afternoon program was a special one and some of the people in town outside of members of the Christian church took part in it. Rev. Louis P. Kopp of Vernon was also present and delivered a very interesting and profitable sermon at the afternoon service and preached again at the evening hour. His afternoon talk was especially interesting because it dealt with a subject of vital importance to every Christian, "The Social Clubs and Their Relation to the Church."

The speaker made it plain that the social club is one of the evils undermining some Christians and taking their time and interest and service from the important things of life. The social club is too unimportant to waste time on. Not only that, but it is actually harmful in its influence. The occasion was that of a praise service, the first one held in the Christian church since the work of remodeling the roof started some weeks ago. A fairly large crowd of people attended and every one enjoyed the service and doubtless was profited by it.

The Christian people have spent several hundred dollars on their church building recently and now have a comfortable house of worship.

BUSINESS MEN HERE GIVE AGRICULTURAL CLUBS PRIZES

County Agent Fred Rennels is sending out information this week relative to county club work, together with announcements as to prizes that are being offered.

The agricultural clubs are organizations for the boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 18. These may enter the Livestock or Crop Clubs, also the Poultry Clubs.

The members are required to keep records of all their work and expense they must meet during the time they are in the club. Mr. Rennels will furnish them record books, literature and instructions for carrying on the work.

The club members' products will be shown at the county fair here this fall and the prizes will be distributed among the winners.

For the purpose of encouraging agricultural club work in the county a number of the business men of Crowell are offering special prizes.

Cameron Lumber Company offers a free trip to the State Fair of Texas at Dallas for the best pen of poultry exhibited by the club members with a record of the profits made from the poultry. The trip will be issued on the basis of the profits made on the club member's flock.

Cicero Smith Lumber Company offers a free trip to the State Fair for the best acre of milo maize. The trip is to be given on the basis of yield of the acre. Complete record must be kept and ten heads must be shown at county fair.

Self Motor Company offers a free trip to the State Fair to the boy exhibiting the best junior fat pig at the county fair. That means the best pig that is not over six months old on September 1, 1924 that has been raised at the least expense and shows the greatest profit.

Swain's Garage & Motor Company offer a free trip to the State Fair to the club member raising the best acre of feterita. The trip will be given on yield per acre. A complete record must be kept and ten heads exhibited at the county fair.

Crews-Long Hardware Company offers a free trip to the State Fair to the boy showing the best senior pig. That is a pig not over one year old on September 1, 1924, that has been raised at the least expense and shows the greatest profit.

M. S. Henry & Company gives a $12.50 cash prize to the girl's club on poultry. This is the equal of a free trip to the State Fair, but since the free trip to the fair is not offered the girls a cash prize is offered.

Ferner Crowell Man Dies at Pecos

A copy of the Pecos Enterprise was handed the News recently in which was given an account of the death of Richard Lynn which occurred on February 29, 1924.

Mr. Lynn is well known by many old timers here. He made his home in Crowell for several years from about 1906.

He came originally from New York City, where he had at one time worked on the New York World as a news reporter. He has traveled over a considerable portion of the South for the last 20 years but for the last ten years has made his home for the most part in West Texas. He had no family and was advanced in age.

Construction of New Gasoline Filling Station Begun Tuesday

H. D. Poland and his force commenced work Tuesday on a new filling station for M. N. Kenner. The building will be 14x22 feet with concrete approaches and is located just north of the Masonic lodge building. It is expected that the building will be completed and the business in operation by the first of May.

Mr. Kenner is an experienced filling station man, having been employed in that business for several years in Crowell and knows his business. For several years he has been employed at Ivie's Station which position he resigned the first of the month to enter business for himself. He is a wide-awake young man and no doubt will make a success.

Popular Crowell Girl Weds Wichita Falls Man Last Thursday

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Edwards was the scene of a pretty wedding last Thursday afternoon when Miss Mary Cook of this city became the bride of Marion D. Sloan of Wichita Falls. The spacious living-room was artistically decorated in cut flowers and potted plants.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Decker Magee sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. T. S. Haney. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, also played by Mrs. Haney, Miss Cook and her maid of honor, Miss Zoe Liles, entered from one doorway, while the groom with his attendant, Mr. Collier of Wichita Falls, entered from another. They met before a beautiful improvised altar and Rev. P. R. Huckleberry said the sacred and impressive ring ceremony which made them husband and wife.

Mrs. Sloan was charmingly gowned in a tailored going-away suit of blue with becoming black hat of milan with maline trimmings. Miss Liles wore a gold and black lace dress with hat to match. Both wore corsages of brides' roses and lilies of the valley.

The wedding was witnessed by only relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan left immediately for Wichita Falls where they will be at home at the William Mary Hotel.

Mrs. Sloan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook, who for many years resided in this county but who now live in Pilot Point. She has for some time been in the employ of R. B. Edwards Co., and by her loving disposition and charming manner has endeared herself to all those with whom she has come in contact. She has been an active worker in the Christian church and will be greatly missed in all circles of the city.

Mr. Sloan is a deputy internal revenue collector with headquarters at Wichita Falls.

The very best wishes of the entire people go with them as they enter into their new life.

Foard City School Making Good Progress

A visit was made to the Foard City school Monday by Fred Rennels, County Agent, and a News man and a live and energetic bunch of boys and girls was found there, apparently doing good work under the efficient superintendency of Mr. McClellan, aided by his splendid assistants, Misses Minnie Logan and Leta Burk.

Mr. Rennels' mission was to explain some of the details of boys and girls club work with the view of enlisting some or all of them in it. He is also explaining this by letter which he is sending out this week.

Several of the business men of Crowell are manifesting an interest in the boys' and girls' clubs by offering free trips to the Dallas Fair, and while that is some inducement, it is only secondary in importance. The real thing to be gained in this work is efficiency in agricultural pursuits. Mr. Rennels is trying to get the boys and girls lined up now so that they can commence as soon as it is necessary to complete the season's club work and get into the county fair with their products. It requires several months to do this and they must have time.

This should be one of the best years they have ever had, that is judging from present indications. Crop prospects are good and besides entering contests in which they will have a chance to win, they will also have the satisfaction of seeing the fruits of their work in finished products of real merit. In other words it should be a year when they can actually see what they can do.

Mr. Rennels will not overlook any community. He is intensely interested in these clubs and wants them to commence now and is confident that they will make a fine showing this fall.

A. T. FISH FOR COMMISSIONER

A. T. Fish of Vivian is a candidate for commissioner of Precinct No. 4 and authorizes his name to be placed before the voters of his district as such. Mr. Fish is a resident of many years and is well known to his people. He asks their consideration in the race for this office.

LANDSLIDE VOTE FOR AMENDMENT HERE NONDAY

The vote in the special election Monday was a fair and thorough test of the sentiment of the property tax payers as to whether they want to pave the Crowell streets. The vote showed that 178 were for and 26 against the adoption of the amendment making it possible to pave.

Some opposed the proposition because they thought it would give the council too much power but when they looked into the matter closely they found that this was a scare crow and some of those at first opposing it on that ground voted for the amendment.

The election simply means that Crowell can pave if it wants to pave, whereas under the old charter it could do nothing as a city. Any paving or any side walk building that was done had to be done by individual agreement. Every one knows that that means very little, if any, street improvement.

The adoption of the amendment is the beginning of street improvement which should not cease as long as the town grows. It is just such beginning as every town must make or never develop.

The News feels proud of the citizenship of Crowell. There has been no fight in this matter, only a little opposition, and even those opposing it we think will throw themselves in line for it now and help to make a better town.

The vote Monday does not mean that paving will start next week or next month. There are preliminaries to be made and details to be worked out before the city is ready to pave. And to do it properly the city must await the action of the commissioners court in giving their consent to pave the half of the street fronting the court house square. The court no doubt felt that the city should take the initiative, which it has done, and which means a further invitation to the commissioners to cooperate with them.

This is one of the most advanced steps ever taken by Crowell. It will be followed by others that will mean that the town has the spirit of progress characteristic of West Texas towns. It will give confidence in ourselves that we can do things. The fact is that any town can do what it wants to do, if it really wants to that thing. Crowell has done some impossible things and we have never been hurt by it. This is another one of the impossibilities but we shall find that it is entirely possible to not only pave but to have sidewalks over the city and when we have once come into possession of them we will wonder why we did not have them earlier.

Foard City Revival To Commence Tonight

The News is authorized to say that a revival meeting will commence at the Baptist church at Foard City tonight. Rev. Foster of Abilene will be the preaching and Rev. Tankersley, the pastor, will conduct the singing.

The Foard City people extend a cordial invitation to everybody to attend these meetings. We have not been advised as to the hours of the service but presume that they will be in the morning and at night at the usual hours.

Boy Is Bitten By Large Bulldog

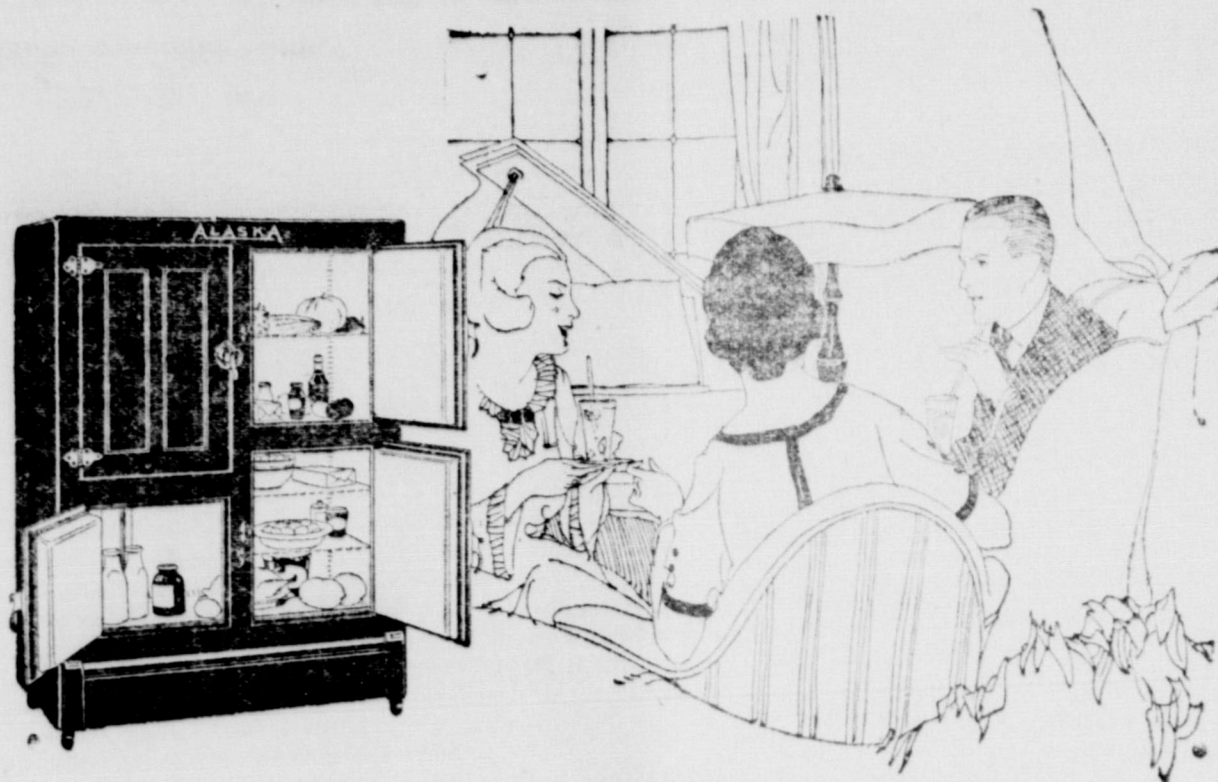

Carl Williams, about 12 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Williams, was bitten by W. C. Thompson's bull dog Tuesday when the boy was trying to intervene in a fight between his own dog and that of Mr. Thompson. The teeth of the animal were seen almost entirely through the hand of the boy. It was said that the dog did not snap at the boy but was trying to get to the boy's dog when the accident happened.

FOR PUBLIC WEIGHER

Tom Johnson authorizes us to say that he is in the race for public weigher of Justice Precinct No. 1 and asks the voter to consider his claims as a man fitted for the office. Mr. Johnson is an old timer in this county and knows most of our people and most of them know him. He will make a conscientious and faithful servant if he is elected to the office he seeks.

COOKING?

Discriminating housewives in Crowell and vicinity have found that it is easy to get up delicious meals with our foodstuffs.

They have also found that the expense is no greater.

This is the result of our policy of selling good groceries at the ordinary price of inferior grades.

Crowell, Texas, April 4, 1924

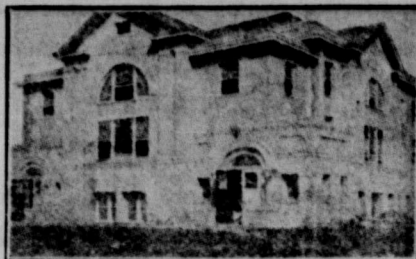

The Orient railroad, which is over 1,100 miles in length sold the other day for $2,700 a mile, a great deal less, of course, than it could have been built and equipped for. The Orient was built long before the country it was built thru was settled sufficiently to support a railroad. The owners sank something like $40,000,000 in building and trying to operate it and were cursed heartily for not giving better service. However, this has been the common fate of railroads in the West that the very people they have sought to benefit usually would turn against them—no matter how much the property of these folks had increased in value by that railroad.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

But the people the Orient served have not been so mighty much against the road. The fact is most of the towns along the line in this part of the Orient's territory have shown a very generous spirit of helpfulness, and by the way that has been pretty well appreciated by the Orient officials, too. We need only to point to the fact that for some years the property was exempt from taxation in the counties through which the line runs by the consent of our good people. We have our first person whose community the Orient serves say that the Orient ought not to have been built, but it has been said by some who apparently have feared development of the Orient's territory to an extent that their town would suffer loss of business. The Orient people know the best friends it has are the people it has served.

Have you ever noticed the extreme efforts of some people to gain popularity? They will sacrifice principle to be popular. They will hazard their reputation, if they ever had any, for truthfulness that they may be popular. They stand for the things the crowd stands for. They laugh when the crowd laughs. They say "yes" when the crowd says it and they say "no" when the crowd says "no." They smile when the crowd smiles and laugh when the crowd laughs. They get on the side of the biggest crowd on everything and always keep an eye on the trend of public sentiment. The fact is they stand for nothing, not even for themselves, but don't know it. They move with the trend of the traveling masses. They are as driftwood encircling the vacuum of a whirlpool. They are too light to resist its force and go with the current. So far as individuality goes they amount to nothing, but they are popular.

It may be interesting to you to read the headlines of some daily paper, any of them, and then make note of what you found. We did that Wednesday and noted the following: Report of a train collision; oil scandal; volcanic eruption; imprisonment of criminal; account of murder; account of case of fraud; account of a death; man given penitentiary sentence; account of holdup; charge of treason; case of murder; accidental death by fire. There is no criticism of the paper. It was the Dallas News, one of the least sensational of any of our dailies. That was the news that was sent out and if it had not been printed there would have been little news carried. Of the 13 items having prominent headlines on the front page of that issue of the News 12 of them reported news that brought sorrow or fear to somebody. Does it indicate anything?

Lieut. Governor Davidson spoke a great truth the other day when he said that sentiment is the main thing in a community in the enforcement of law. Where sentiment is in sympathy with mobs there will be more or less mob law. A grand jury can not be had that will indict individuals participating in mob activities. The peace officers are helpless in trying to bring to justice these criminals and the purpose of our laws is thwarted. It is a sad fact that some citizens have been sucked into the ku klux Klan. They have by that alliance been rendered absolutely unfit for service as citizens. It's the most un-American thing that was ever thrust upon our people.

HERE'S WHERE I START

Lieutenant Governor Davidson Delivers Address Here Tues.

A fairly large audience greeted Governor T. W. Davidson in the district court room here Tuesday at 2:30 after the announcement had been given out that he would speak at that hour.

The speaker was introduced by Judge G. W. Walthall and went directly into a discussion of the issues being discussed in the state campaign.

The speaker began by pointing out the fact that whoever is elected to the governorship of the state will face a deficit in the treasury and said that if he were elected it would be his aim to put the state on a cash basis. He believes that can be done in state affairs just as it can in individual affairs. He believes many appropriations of the Legislature might be wisely blue-penciled by the Governor, and that is what he proposes to do in case these call for expenditures in excess of the state's finances.

The governor gave special attention to roads, and while he favors their construction he thinks they ought by all means be maintained. He regards it a reckless waste of money to build roads and then allow them to go to ruin. Neither is he in favor of bond issues for road building but thinks they ought to be built with the money derived from the tax placed on the use of gasoline. In other words, he says let the users of the roads build them and then provide a system of maintenance that will preserve them.

As an evidence of the folly of the road building program thus far inaugurated, which lacks system, he pointed to the fact that within the last ten years $100,000,000 in road bonds had been voted in Texas and because of the lack of providing a maintenance system 50 per cent of the money had been wasted. "We must build highways," said the governor, "but we must do it right and then keep them up. There has been too much enthusiasm in building and not enough for maintaining."

The candidate spoke at length on the state prison system and said that he favored putting it on a self-sustaining basis. The state's 4,000 penitentiary prisoners and the inmates of all the eleemosynary institutions places on the state a burden of caring for 20,000 people annually and he thinks that 50 per cent of the state's 80,000 acres of farming lands should be sold and the remainder devoted to diversified farming in such way that supplies may be produced for the needs of these institutions. The cotton crops of these farms have lost the state $5,000,000 within the last five years and the inmates of these institutions have been thrust upon the tax payers to be supported. That would save to the state an annual sum of $4,300,000.

Mr. Davidson thinks 1,000 or 1,500 of the best of the state's prisoners could be profitably used in the construction of highways over Texas and he would use them in building a system of roads across the state in all the cardinal directions.

Pardons
The Governor said that he had been criticized for having the pardoning power during the five different times he has acted as Governor in the absence of Governor Neff, which amounted to 40 days service. During that time he had issued 19 pardons, or one every two days, while the smallest number issued by a Governor had been 1 per day and with some of them it had gone as high as three. In every instance where he had issued a pardon he said that he had evidence to abundantly warrant the justice of the act and he had a clear conscience that he had done what was right.

Law Enforcement

The speaker believes in a strict enforcement of the laws of the state and is strongly against mob activities. He recited numerous instances where masked mobs had committed crimes upon individuals and said that in some of these cases prosecution was impossible because of sympathetic sentiment in those communities. Grand juries could not be had that would indict the criminals.

The Governor came up from Benjamin where he had spoken Monday and left immediately after his speech here for Vernon where he was to speak

Wednesday.
He impresses one as being a solid and dependable man competent and worthy of the high position he seeks and without doubt he made a favorable impression with the people here.

Missionary Society

The regular social meeting of the missionary society met with Mesdames B. F. Ringgold, T. L. Hughston and Tom Ferguson as hostesses, in the home of Mrs. Ringgold.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee." Mrs. Henry, the leader for the afternoon, gave us the Bible lesson of 1 Chronicles XXXIX, 10-16, beseeching all to be about their Father's business and not to be negligent of the call of standing firm, service and ministrations.

Mrs. Belle Allee brought an appeal for "The Superannuate Campaign." In her own conviction she was able to make us feel in our own hearts that we wanted more than ever to care for those who gave their all to the church and the salvation of souls. One thought especially that was very impressive was that the more she informed herself on the subject the more she wanted to help. So why not all of us inform ourselves on the worthwhile things of life, also the campaigns of our church that we may create that inevitable desire to further His kingdom on earth.

Mrs. H. K. Edwards announced the latest church movements and advancements from "The Bulletin."

A round table discussion of race relations was entered into by all and ended with the questions, "Are we doing our part for the negro in our midst? What God would have us do? Are we teaching them inferiority only, or attempting to raise them to the heights of Christianity?" Mesdames Baxter Johnson and George Self each sang a negro folk song which was enjoyed by all, as they brought us the simple spirit of the black race.

The meeting then adjourned with each one feeling glad she had come.

Local Oil Booster Asks for Opportunity

No man in Foard County has worked more tirelessly to try to get development in Foard County than has J. D. Wright of Margaret. He thinks he knows something about how to make locations that will prove profitable and only wants the opportunity.

J. H. Watts, a driller in the field at Iowa Park, and once a citizen of this county strongly recommends Mr. Wright's services where they have been used, and says:

"I have dug wells where Mr. J. D. Wright made the locations and recommended and I have never failed to get oil. I have dug where he would not recommend and did not get oil. This gives me the utmost confidence in his ability to locate the oil. I heartily recommend him to any one who may be interested in the oil business."

Mr. Wright thinks there is the possibility of developing some good fields in Foard County and he wants to help bring development and get what is coming to us as a county.

AUTOMOBILE TAXES PAY FEDERAL AID

According to statistics compiled and sent out by the State Road Commission of West Virginia, the total Federal aid bill of the United States is paid by automobile taxes, with a comfortable balance left over.

Since 1917, the Federal Government has collected from the automobile industry, in taxes, the sum of $589,912,021. In the same period the total of Federal aid for road building has been $264,782,216, or only 45 per cent of the special motor vehicle and accessory taxes. For the last fiscal year the Government collected $146,000,000 in these special taxes, and paid out for Federal aid to the States only $72,000,000.

Thus, the special motor vehicle and accessory tax has not only paid all of the Federal aid on road building but has left a balance in the Treasury of more than the amount paid out.

Things in General

Tax Exempt Securities

Stroke of lightning is said to be the line of least resistance; a "live man" chance to furnish work, he may not be alive when the lightning gets through with him. A law of economics that money flows in the line of least resistance; tax-exempt securities furnish a line, money flows into this line. Investing interest on bonds requires as little energy as "turning a bed," when one gets tired of a position. It would be a fine thing for the Patagonians who are to sleep eighteen hours with a day to twenty-four out of every day. This manner of getting a gives abundance of time for the of all the rules of etiquette, but not fulfill that law of the New which says: "If a man work not neither shall he eat." Collecting interest on bonds has been known to contribute toward that welling up in the human breast known as patriotism; while, on the other hand, it is not difficult to understand that if too many persons get their beef and potatoes in this manner, more hours of labor—or greater ingenuity—will be required on the part of those who produce the beef and potatoes.

Just now there is a strong sentiment in favor of taxing bonds that up to the present time have been known as "tax-exempt securities." This seems to be the only way to get at the difficulty; because the gray matter of the brain balks when it tries to delve deeper into the subject. In the light of a very difficult situation, and with public bankruptcy

"Just around the corner," we have concluded that the only way to "put on the brake" is to tax these securities.

Time deposits in bank bring 4 per cent and are taxable. This new move would place the public bond and private time deposits on "an equal footing before the law;" and in doing so, public and private enterprise would stand on an equal financial basis.

With no favoritism shown between public and private enterprise, time-deposits in bank would undoubtedly increase and, if Stock Exchange did not sniff the rich ozones of these deposits, as in years gone by but still in memory—with this increase in time deposits, industry would feel the pulse of rich arterial blood in its veins.

If a man holds bonds drawing interest in amount equal to the amount of his taxes he is in possession of that regulating power which, if carefully guarded in a community would insure safety and prosperity to the community. Hence, it is highly advisable that a township, county, corporation, or even a state know precisely who furnishes the funds to buy its bonds; else these same bonds that were intended for the public good, form a rope to hang it to the limb of financial distress. Just as a mortgage note on a farm—under changed conditions from those under which the loan was extended—may come to look not quite so good as an up-to-date farm in a high state of fertility; even so, a "community" may look better than a "bond" to a blood-sucker with a greedy eye and a European son-in-law.

"But," says some one, "it is impossible for road and school bonds to be held locally. The township nor even the county has the money required for local improvements." Why has not the local unit the money for both public and private improvements? It has not the money required for one of two reasons: Either it is going too fast and learning the spendthrift habit, or it is not gaining what it has rightfully earned for the things it has raised and manufactured. If the first of these is true, then retrenchment is necessary, if the latter, then the next way out is "co-operative marketing." Individuals and communities yearn for the things that make life ideal; but they do not wish to be sold out at sheriff's sale in order to acquire them.

Be Fair to the Boys

The usual spring argument about taking the boys out of school and putting them to work in the fields will soon begin in the farm home. The father is very busy. Plowing and planting must be done on time. It is hard to hire men that can be trusted with the machinery or the horses. Hired men mean more work—in the kitchen for the mother and daughters. The school may not be interesting. The boys are dependable, like to be out of doors, and are proud to take a man's place and help with the work. That is the easy, lazy way of looking at it and the boy gives up his spring school term and becomes a rural child laborer. If that occurs two or three years in succession he has lost his chance for an education.

The stronger, better way is to sacrifice something of present comfort and expediency for the child's future welfare. By his work this spring or next spring the boy may save to the family two or three dollars a day for a few weeks but he does it at a very great loss to himself and probably to his people. He is giving up the time that should be used to deepen, broaden, and refine his life. Besides that, if he does not get proper schooling and enough of it now, he will not be able to earn as much as he ought when he becomes a man. Then he too, will feel that his children must give up their chances for an education and spend their childhood days at some kind of labor. That may be the way to bring the entire family to a finer plane of life.

Passing It On

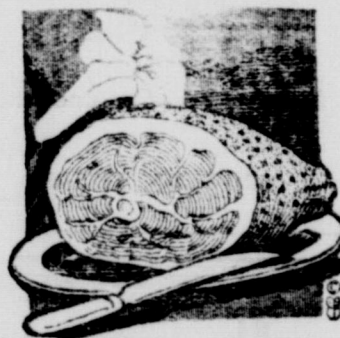

A wage earner—one of apparently very moderate income—wrote to a Congressman urging reduction of the high surtax rates of the present income tax law. The Congressman replied with a very caustic letter asking the wage earner what interest he had in the reduction of the high surtax rates since his income must be so small as not to be affected by the rates on large incomes.

The question seems plausible on its face and yet anyone who stops to consider the matter for more than one minute will readily understand that the wage earner knew what he was talking about and the Congressman did not.

As a matter of fact the small wage earner is not at all interested in the reduction of the income tax rates on small incomes for he pays no income tax directly. His income in most instances is so small as not to exceed his exemptions. But the small wage earner pays indirectly the high surtax rates on large incomes. The manufacturer, the professional man, the corporation operating large transportation or public service concerns, pays a heavy income tax and adds that tax to the cost of doing business and necessarily that cost is included in the prices charged for goods or services. The consumer or the patron pays the tax in the end.

This is a fact that no one will question when he analyzes the effect of taxation, and yet it is a fact that a great many people overlook.

Adelphian Club

The Adelphian Club members enjoyed the delightful meeting with Mrs. Wishon on Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Oswalt led the lesson on local color short stories. The stories for the afternoon were "The Luck of the Roaring Camp," "Winning the Blue Ribbon at the County Fair," and "Ben and Judas." The members discussed the lesson.
At the conclusion of the lesson Mrs. Baxter Johnson sang a negro melody accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Self. The hostess announced refreshments in the dining room. Around the table was lighted rows of candles. The guests wondered if the club was having an anniversary but Mrs. Wishon gracefully explained it was April Fool. Delicious refreshments were passed to the club members and the following guests, Mes. McLaughlin, Cheek and Thacker. Mrs. John Rasor was enrolled as a member of the club.—Reporter.

Dinner Honoring Bride Elect

Mrs. M. L. Hughston was hostess at a dinner Wednesday, March 26th, honoring Miss Mary Cook. The well appointed table was pleasingly decorated in nuptial colors. Two large reflectors reflected bouquets of pink and white carnations. The color scheme was further carried out in the place cards and pink and white bows of ribbon holding the croutons. Pink and white brick cream completed the four courses.
Covers were laid for Misses Cook, Liles, Brian; Mesdames Haney, Magee; Messrs. Sloan, Collur, Magee and Haney.—A Guest.
