MULE TOUCHDOWN — Tulia came to Muleshoe Friday night and went home with a 25-6 victory to maintain a perfect season's record. Muleshoe's only TD came in the third period when Ronnie Johnson, a quarterback, plunged a yard to ring up the tally after a Muleshoe drive. Here's the touchdown scene. (Journal Photo & Engraving)

Board Approves Budget For Ten UF Agencies

The 60-member board of directors of Muleshoe's first United Fund gave quick approval Friday night to the recommendations of the committee on budget and admissions, Mrs. Pat Bobo, general chairman, said Saturday.

Budget for the first year is $13,000 with 10 agencies and organizations included in the first year's campaign.

The budget and the agencies were approved by the committee, headed by Sam Fox, after a lengthy session last Tuesday night. Local and area officers of the various organizations appeared before the 11-man committee to make their requests.

As approved by the committee, and the general board of the UF campaign were these agencies and their amounts:

Girl Scouts, $1,600; American Red Cross, $800; Salvation Army, $1,500; Boy Scouts, $2,100; Texas United Fund (representing 12 agencies including USO), $200; Muleshoe Area Youth Center, $750; Bailey County Junior Livestock Show, $2,500; 4-H club recognition committee, $150; Muleshoe Area American Field Service Scholarship, $700, and Babe Ruth League, $600.

The committee also approved $900 for campaign expenses and for a public education program to tell folk about the United Fund. Another $1,200 was added to the budget as "reserve for contingencies, pledge losses, and initial expenses of next year's campaign."

Mrs. Bobo, in commenting about the program, said she had been "very pleasantly surprised at the instant and enthusiastic acceptance of United Fund for Muleshoe." She added: "Every one has been most co-operative, and I am greatly pleased that the program is off to such a fast start."

She said the campaign committee, headed by Mrs. Thurman White, "is eager to get its work under way."

"They want to map their campaign and get everything set up as soon as possible so the actual campaign can kick off smoothly and swiftly on October 15."

Ray's 'Ritin'

By RAY MARTIN

"Your old car story—that column you did the other day on ancient automobiles was not complete; you didn't mention the Bush. Now there was an automobile that was a pioneer if ever there was one."

That was from Prof. Shelby. He reads this column because he says we have come down the same road—the same old cars, the same kind of country town, the same rich and the same poor people. The same pigeons that got in the church belfry and had to be taken out by a "committee" one Saturday afternoon. And then screenwire was put over the loovers in the church steeple and for days frustrated pigeons flew around town, cooing and screeching at the same time, protesting the closing of their home.

Mr. Harris had a Bush. It cranked in the side while Mrs. Harris sat primly in the seat and twisted and pulled various levers at Mr. Harris' suggestion. He sweated and fumed as he yanked at the sidwinder crank. Finally its one cylinder caught on, and then Mr. Harris jumped quickly into the car and made more adjustments in the throttle and the spark lever, and off down the street they went in a cloud of dust.

Old Brother Massey, seeing Mr. Harris and his contraption approaching, leaped out of the buggy quickly and grabbed Jake, his horse, by the bridle until after the Harrises had passed. Jake, it might be mentioned, never accepted the gasoline age. (See Ray's Page 5)

County Court Docket 'Cleaned,' Cases Re-filed

This has been "docket cleaned" week in Bailey county court. County Judge Glen Williams said Monday after all cases slated for trial had to be postponed for various reasons. Judge Williams said a new jury term is being set up tentatively for October 15, to be followed by a civil jury term of court slated for October 21.

A criminal term of county court, scheduled for last Monday was dismissed after all cases slated for trial had to be postponed for various reasons. Judge Williams said a new jury term is being set up tentatively for October 15, to be followed by a civil jury term of court slated for October 21.

One defendant charged with giving a worthless check, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs by Judge Williams. She was Martha Warren.

In the cases disposed of this past week, one case was dismissed for insufficient evidence in an alleged child desertion. A liquor case was dismissed because of defective warrant, and another case of worthless check was declared defective because the offender was a juvenile.

Defective filing of three cases of driving while intoxicated were dismissed and are to be refiled. Two worthless checks cases were stricken because the checks had been paid off.

Three new cases were filed in county court late in the week, both for allegedly giving worthless checks. Those charged in separate cases were Mervin L. King, Billy O. Bryant, Midland, and Johnny Fried.

School Closes For Fair Day

Muleshoe schools will be dismissed Monday for school children's day at the South Plains fair at Lubbock, Superintendent Neal Dillman said Friday.

The fair holiday is one of the regularly scheduled holidays on the school's calendar as announced at the start of the school year, Dillman pointed out.

Santa Fe Seeks To Close Depot

The Panhandle and Santa Fe Railroad, a spur line which runs from Lubbock west through Levelland, Lehman to Bledsoe, would like to discontinue its depot at the west end of the line — Bledsoe — and transfer all its services to Lehman.

A Railroad Commission official conducted a hearing in Morton Thursday to hear Santa Fe officials and Bledsoe users of the railroad, and afterward prepared to make his report to the Commission in Austin.

The railroad offered to provide toll-free calls to its office at Lehman and also pointed to a once-a-week truck service operated in that area as a substitute for full station status at Bledsoe. Shippers who have need for carload service can call Lehman collect and order a car spotted, the Railroad told the commission official. Eight witnesses appeared at the (See Depot Page 5)

Hereford scored on a 12-yard pass from Frank Cain; a 15-yard drive by the same player, and 12-yard plunge, and the Whiteface tally came when full back Jim Higgins rambled 55 yards up the middle. Dimmitt's Jim Aldredge and Steve Hutton scored for the 'Cats.

Sunshine is a Boon To Cotton Farmer

Warm weather continues to be a blessing to Bailey county cotton farmers, and business men depending on cotton, says J. K. Adams, county agent.

Fairly general rains over southern Bailey county last week even have the dryland farmers asking for sunny days. Grain sorghum harvest has been resumed and is stepping up in tempo as the weather gets warmer and dryer, Adams said.

Local market is fairly strong as grain is needed for large feed-lot operations, he explained.

Some 400 acres of tomatoes are being harvested and prices are reported holding up well on pinks and white-ripes. Fields are now being harvested of full-ripe

Tulia Romps on Mules In 25-6 Run-away

By JAY SPAIN

The Tulia Hornets came to Muleshoe Friday night and swarmed all over the Mules, by the score of 25 to 6.

As play started neither team could move the ball for four series of downs but finally the Hornets came to life as quarterback Frank Hooper threw a 31 yard pass to end Charles Shelton who moved from the 50 to Mules five before he was pulled down by Kenny Heathington. Two plays later Jeff Tucker ran over for the first score. Hooper's kick for PAT was wide and the score read 6 to 0 with only three minutes left in first quarter.

Muleshoe received the punt and ran only two plays before Hooper intercepted a pass from Heathington on the 50 and ran to the Muleshoe 39 before he was stopped. Four plays later Jeff Tucker ran over from the Mule's eight to make the second tally. Hooper's kick again was wide.

The Mules took the ball but were unable to move and punted. Tulia took possession and moved to the Mule 24 before Mule Stanley Black recovered a fumble on the Mules 24. As Muleshoe started to move Jim Pat Sharp intercepted a Muleshoe pass on the Mule 31. One completed pass and three power plays later Jim Arnold ran over for the third TD of the ballgame.

Hooper's kick for PAT was good for the only time of the night.

Muleshoe took the ball and moved to the Mules 30 before punting and Tulia took over and ran the clock out to end the first half with the score 19 for Tulia and 0 for the Mules.

The Mules received the kick on their own five and moved to the Muleshoe 48 before they punted (See Mules, page 5) tomatoes for canneries at a reported price of $30 per ton.

The irrigation farmer is about through planting wheat and is giving that cotton crop a daily going over to be certain the leaf worm eats no more than the tender top before applying poisons.

A recent conference between the county agent and Dr. W. L. Owen, of the experiment station, Lubbock, revealed that straight parathion was not giving lasting control and the 2-1 mix was not giving rapid enough control.

Therefore, he recommended the use of the full dosage of parathion, combined with full dosage of toxaphene—a DDT when ap- (See Cotton Page 5)

Luncheon to Honor Mexican Tourists

Fourth Famous Paper Offered

Fourth in a series of 12 reproductions of famous American documents is being offered by the Muleshoe Journal and the Bailey County Journal this week.

The current offering is the famous Prayers of Peter Marshall. Price is 30 cents per copy for each of the series. The documents are all printed on fine, heavily antiquated parchment.

The list includes:

The Declaration of Independence, The Bill of Rights, The Star Spangled Banner, Prayers of Peter Marshall, History of U. S. Flag, Battlefields of Revolution, World Pilgrims Knew Map, Portraits of the Presidents, Constitution of the United States, Etching of U. S. S. Bonhomme Richard, and Etching of U. S. S. Old Ironsides.

while the men visit various farm-centered spots of interest.

The luncheon is being sponsored by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce with its People-to-People committee in charge. Muleshoe Jaycees will suspend their regular luncheon meeting to meet with the visitors from south of the border.

On the committee are Elvon DeVaney, chairman, Harold Allison, Oscar Allison, Dr. Ray Santos, Stanley Williams, Mrs. Horace Blackburn, Burl Block, Bo Bryant, Bobby Airhart, Jessie Leal, Kenneth Precure and Louis Scoggins. Dr. Santos will be master of ceremonies at the luncheon. Airhart, as president of the Chamber, is an ex-officio member of the committee.

The tour is a part of a two-weeks' tour by the visitors which started September 12 at Eagle Pass. Purpose of the tour, the Chamber has been informed, "is to determine whether these peasant leaders can benefit from showing them practical ways to improve their crops, how to use water for maximum benefit, and to let them see for themselves that Americans are willing to help them to help themselves."

The group is coming to Muleshoe. (See Luncheon Page 5)

UNITED FUND PROJECTS — Muleshoe Area's United Fund got off the ground this past week when 10 agencies were admitted to the first year's membership. The committee, headed by Sam Fox, met with representatives of all the different groups seeking admission, and here are some of the groups who turned out to present their organization's request for admission. The Bailey County Livestock Show had six men on hand to present its cause (picture at far left), and the Muleshoe Youth Center was also well represented. Second picture shows three of the persons who spoke for the center. American Cancer Society was on hand, too (far right), but that organization field representative, Don Lambert, said the Cancer group prefers to conduct its own fund drive. (Journal Photos & Engravings)

TIPS...

FROM THE OFFICE OF HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT

Need some information about sewing on double knit fabrics? Double knits for home sewing are relatively new, although jerseys are familiar to most women.

While no special skill is required to sew double knit fabrics, an understanding of their characteristics can simplify and speed the handling.

Select a pattern with few seams, a rather easy fit and no buttonholes. It is wise to avoid circular skirts and bias cuts. Weight of the double knit fabric should be chosen to conform to the design of the pattern. And if the knit fabric is "off grain" more than one inch, it should be straightened by pulling slightly on the bias while steam pressing it.

All knit fabrics should be shrunk before cutting—steam pressed at home or at the dry cleaners. Double knits are made in tubular form and some are sold this way. Others are cut along the fold of the flattened tube and edges are overcast. The lengthwise edges should be examined before buying the fabric to see that they follow the grain line. In knits, the grain line is a continuous rib. In the finishing process, some tubular knits twist as much as 4 to 6 inches. This cutting along the fold cuts across the continuous ribs the depth of the twist. To straighten such fabric will cause some loss.

If the tubular knit has not been cut, baste along the rib the entire length of the fabric, refold on the baste line and pull the fabric into a flat shape as it is steam pressed.

Here's How to Bake Fresh Fruit Pies

Fresh fruit pies are favorite desserts this time of year. For proper baking, it is recommended that oven racks be placed in the correct position and that the oven be preheated for about 10 minutes. The correct temperature is 400 to 425 degrees. When the prescribed baking time is up remember to turn the heat off, immediately.

Stain Removers

Yellowish stains on sheets, pillowcases and undershirts are caused by body oils. Home economists recommend the use of water heated to at least 140 degrees to remove this type of soil. They suggest that you turn the temperature control of the water heater to 140-160 degrees on washday for a cleaner, whiter wash.

Strange Bills Causes Chuckles

The business manager of a major television production team is apt to be familiar with bills for a gross of eyelashes or for the rental of a dozen wigs and skull caps from the make-up department. He is doubtless used to music department bills for reverberation chambers and one lower octave chromatic boobams. But some of the bills crossing the desk of Jim Geisheimer, business manager of Group W's "The Steve Allen Show" production unit, are so wildly far from the routine as to provide daily shocks and chuckles.

"An example is a $25 bill recently processed for a life-sized cut-out of a key club bunny with the face of Mona Lisa, a gag prop used in one of Stan Burns and Mike Marner's comedy sketches," Geisheimer recounted.

"A bill for eleven dollars for ants at a penny a piece was for insects which were distributed over Allen's body when he served as a dinner table for a rapacious ant-eater," he recalls.

Backstage guests at the Allen Playhouse consume almost $350 worth of coffee and hot chocolate per month.

When four hundred members of the Allen show audience recently hurled 400 pies at one another, Geisheimer inherited bills of $175 for rain coats and bonnets, $130 for a gross of aerosol shaving cream and $25 for paper pie plates. Added to this were extraordinary cleaning bills for having the goo vacuumed from the walls, floor and curtains of the Steve Allen Playhouse.

When Allen takes to the water in a portable pool erected on La Mirada Avenue, it takes 30 gallons of spring water to fill it, as hydrant water is not clean enough to use. Allen's favorite food, some months ago, it cost almost $400 for the mammoth, inedible dessert and an additional $30 to have the gelatine pumped and carted away by a company specializing in such disposal.

Allen's favorite sway-back horse costs $15 an evening, while vintage vehicles of the twenties go at $25 per night. Other vehicles Geisheimer has rented include 8 tricycles, a toy airplane used by Steve to crash through a billboard, a Venetian gondola, a land yacht, stilts, and assorted flying cranes.

"One of the most curious food bills I've yet received," Jim concluded, "was for four bags of

Freshmen Nip Hereford, 26-8

Muleshoe won its second game against much heavier Hereford freshman team. After holding the Hereford eleven on the first series of play, Suber recovered a fumble on the Hereford 40. Six plays later Terry Tropp scored on fourth down. Point after was wide. In the second quarter short scored on a forty yard run. Point after by Stovall was good. Half time score was 13-0. In the third quarter Stovall scored from thirty yards out. Point after was blocked. Muleshoe full-back Jones scored again in the third quarter from the six. Point after by Stovall was good. Turning point in the ball game came when Muleshoe held the Hereford Frosh inside their 10 early in the game and took over on downs. Outstanding on defense Darnell, Martin, and Swint with 8 tackles each. The game was filmed and will be shown at the Muleshoe Boosters club regular meeting 7:30 p.m. Monday at the PCA office. Next game is here with Tulia Thursday at 6:00 p.m. Sept. 26.

Worth a Fine, Woman Figures

A Muleshoe, Tex., housewife "struck out" on the third pitch thrown her by a Clovis patrolman — but she took it like a good sport.

According to Traffic Clerk Mel Armijo, the woman received two courtesy parking tickets for overtime parking.

On the tickets were the words, "The City of Clovis extends a welcome..." and a hope that the violator would not repeat the violation.

The third ticket issued was a real one. But the Texas woman had the last word.

She wrote on the back of the ticket, "I feel I owe you this dollar for all the welcome visitor things I have gotten." Inside was one dollar.

CHURCH RACE APPEAL

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Gaines M. Cook, executive secretary of the Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) has issued an appeal to all denominational agencies, to "match their words with deeds" in seeking "full moral and civil rights for all Americans."

Tito's Gratitude

Because the Yugoslavs want our dollars and our aid they successfully conceal the repulsive features of their communist dictatorship from American eyes. But once in a while a slip occurs and for a moment, the gleaming truth shines forth.

Another such event came to pass recently when Tito and Nikita Khrushchev were having a communist love feast in Yugoslavia. Tito took the Soviet leader to visit a huge plastics chemical plant, built with American money to the tune of $32,000,000.

At the entrance to the plant were Russian and Yugoslav flags and nowhere was there any admission that the plant was built with American taxpayer dollars.

American newsmen who accompanied the two communist dictators were not allowed to go into the plant, and were roughly handled by Tito police when they sought to enter. They report workers at the plant have never been told the story of American aid for the huge plastics installation.

Nor have local newspapers ever told the truth — that American dollars built the plant. Obviously, then, this is the same old communist game. Tito has used the American dollar we so naively sent him in quantity to glorify his regime and to signal communist economic accomplishment.

Hits Goldwater

The anti-Goldwater campaign enjoyed a boost recently when the nation's leading columnist, Walter Lippmann, spoke out on the Arizona Senator's chances, and the effect a Goldwater nomination would have on the Republicans like Eisenhower and Nixon.

Lippmann, who is generally conceded to be among the most respected of American newspaper columnists, said recently, in a column devoted to Goldwater, that the Senator's chances for the nomination were not so good as they seem.

Lippmann contended that Goldwater's recent boom resulted as much from the loss of support for Governor Nelson Rockefeller as from anything else. He believes it was a case of only one sound horse in the race — Rockefeller having pulled up lame as a result of his second marriage to a divorcee.

Next, he believes the great bulk of party moderates, the majorities who so solidly supported Eisenhower, will not accept Goldwater. In ending the recent analysis, which gave so much heart to those opposed to the Arizona Senator, Lippmann concluded that such Republicans as Eisenhower, Nixon, Rockefeller, Romney, Scranton, Morton, etc., are not likely to allow themselves to get in the "predicament" of having to write statements of support for Goldwater's philosophy of limited federal government responsibility.

But the most obvious weakness of the last Lippmann conclusion, concerning former President Eisenhower, is that Eisenhower has already said Goldwater would be acceptable to him if nominated. The former Supreme Commander made the statement referring to both Goldwater and Rockefeller.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

By REV. J. FRANK PEERY

ADULT DELINQUENCY

Being a teenager isn't just a matter of chronology. Some chronological teenagers are in the stages being senior citizens in life so far as their mental attitude and zeal for living are concerned. They have a hardening of the teens and yearn for gray hair and the ol' rocking chair. The true teenager is young in heart — such teenagers are Casey Stengel, the late Pope John XXIII, Branch Rickey, General Douglas MacArthur, Jimmy Durante, and Honorable John Nance Garner. Some 4,000 years ago an Egyptian teacher wrote, "Teenagers are disintegrating. 'Teenagers' throughout the land have a disrespect for their elders, and a contempt for authority in every form. Vandalism is rife, and crime of all kinds is rampant among our young people. That nation is in peril." Socrates said 2,400 years ago, "Our 'teenagers' today love luxury. They have bad manners, a contempt for authority, and disrespect for their elders, and they like to talk instead of work. They contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up the table food, and bully their teachers." Brendon Byrne, a member of the New York City Board of Education, writing a few months ago in Vital Speeches of the Day said, "The denunciation of the young is a necessary part of the hygiene of older people and greatly assists the circulation of their blood."

When the right challenge presents itself, I've seldom known a young person to fail in answer to the hour at hand. I challenge our youth of today to confront the survival of our free society depends upon the quality of our schools. A top-notch, effective democracy is impossible without a top-notch, effective educational system. Vital though are schools are to the continued freedom for our day, we in America have never really granted them the high place they deserve. Did you know that between 1950 and 1960, we spent 110 billion for amusement, 151 billion for cosmetics, alcohol and cigarettes, but only 78 billion for public elementary and high school education. Could it be that Mom's and Dad's golf score get more attention than Junior's academic score? Could it be that Four Roses command a higher priority than the Four Freedoms?

Frankly Speaking — youth is a time for courage and adventure. Adult courage and adventure must enter in. The early Athenians used the term "Idioties" to describe a person who took no part in community life. Need I say more? The intelligent thing for Americans to do is to get involved in school activities, giving skills, experiences, and attitudes that encourage full-scale meaningful practicing citizenship — not only for our youth in school affairs, but in community life as well. Let's join our teachers in challenge and purpose. Good citizens are the products of good schools.

There was finally the time when Brother Massey failed to see the approach of the Bush, and he panicked. He dashed through a Byars alley, while the truck and ed clergyman tried desperately to hold onto his dignity. Jake emerged from the alley and headed for the wide-open spaces, of which there were many around Byars.

Jake, the sparking buggy and Mr. Massey all landed smack in the middle of Frank Smith's prize blackberry patch just as the berries were at the ripest. Jake was traded to a cowboy for a pony that was more docile, and it's said that Mr. Massey was picking blackberry thorns out of his skinny frame for several days.

Yes, Prof, I remember the Bush. There was one in a museum in Chicago that I saw several years ago, labeled "one of America's first automobiles." And as I stood and looked at it, the whole incident of Brother Massey, Jake, and the Bush from Byars came back to mind.

I guess folks thought I was chuckling over the brassy lines of the Bush on display, but I wasn't; I was recalling the Bush from my very early childhood and Jake, and the preacher and the blackberry vines.

The real pride of Byars, however, was Mr. Andrews' White Steamer. Already it was a showpiece by the time I arrived on the scene, and already the steamer had been replaced by the "internal combustion engine which is always ready to start at a moment's notice." (Wanta bet?) Anyway, Mr. Andrews kept his White Steamer, a beautiful all-holstery and brass trim. Right after the assorted Andrews family got home from church, Mr. Andrews donned coveralls, and went out to the barn to fire up the boiler on the White Steamer. That was no small task within itself, as the burner frequently clogged.

But along about 3 o'clock, the steam was up and the Andrews family loaded into the car and sailed noiselessly down the street, leaving behind a trail of white steam. One thing could be said for the White Steamer, and even Jake, the preacher's horse, didn't mind the White Steamer; in fact it usually crept around Jake before he realized it was another of those horseless carriages that folks predicted would one day replace the horse. The livery stable man in Byars used to sit on his front porch and tell all and sundry that the automobile was just a fad and would never replace the horse. He said that right on up to the day the sheriff closed his place and hung out a bankruptcy sign.

But the real eye-stopper of the day was the Studebaker. The Rollows sold the Studebaker, and they had two models, the 4 cylinder job and the 4 cylinder job, both of which were just a shade smaller than a railroad car. The 4 had a four-foot hood and the 6 had a six-foot hood, and there was space enough between the front and back seats to store a good-sized cow.

The Goddards bought one of the 4-foot jobs and later traded it for the six-foot as they prospered. In fact, length of the hood on an automobile determined the financial status of people in those days—the longer the hood, the more money one had.

hearing. Farmers and stockmen vigorously object to closing the depot at Bledsoe, saying it would handicap railroad service for both incoming and outgoing freight. Representing the railroad were G. A. Alexander, superintendent of the road, and David F. Tiple, division freight and passenger agent. Santa Fe claims it is losing money on the Bledsoe operation.

A decision by the Commission in Austin will make its recommendation in November, it was announced.

Two Area Men Held on Stock Selling Charges

Two promoters, one of them under a three-year prison sentence, were in jail last week in a crackdown on illegal stock selling in the Texas South Plains area.

C. L. "Ducky" McCaleb was jailed in Littlefield awaiting grand jury action on a charge that he assisted in offering for sale unregistered stock in Central Equity Corporation, a nursing home holding company based at Wichita Falls, without being licensed as a securities dealer or salesman. The complaint was filed by State Securities Board Investigator Rex Aycock.

McCaleb also was indicted in Lubbock three weeks ago for violation of the Texas Securities Act in connection with sales of stock in Roka-Bed Corporation. Securities Commissioner William M. King last June issued a Cease and Desist Order prohibiting sales of the stock.

Following issuance recently of a District Court order for execution of a three-year prison sentence and $1,500 fine imposed on him February 11, W. C. "Johnny" Johnson is being held in jail at Littlefield for Carson and Sherman County authorities for trial on Securities Act charges. Johnson pleaded guilty at Littlefield to unlicensed securities selling, but Lamb County District Judge Pat Boone, postponed execution of the prison sentence and fine until January 1, 1964, under an agreement that Johnson repay $11,500 received for the sale of securities and refrain from further securities sales.

By letting these peasant leaders. He suggested they confer with the District Attorney's office, the State Securities Board in Austin, or the local Better Business Bureau regarding the securities offered and the salesmen's credentials.

Commissioner King said that an unusually large number of cases involving questionable securities have come to his attention lately from the South Plains area. King cited the excellent cooperation the Securities Board is receiving from District Attorney Young and Lubbock County District Attorney Alton Griffin.

Most hunted game bird in Texas is the mourning dove.

It also is one of the most trying of all winged targets. And that probably is the reason it ranks so high with sportsmen.

When you go dove hunting, you don't just take along one box of shells. Most hunters take two boxes and sometimes more.

A few expert shotgun artists can grass a dove with almost every shot. But let's face it—only a minute percentage of hunters are expert marksmen.

The mourning dove is a small bird. It can't take a lot of punishment, and it's easy to kill. That is, if you can hit it. And hitting this bird is the real challenge in dove hunting.

To begin with the dove flies very fast. Furthermore, its flight pattern is deceptive.

For example, most birds will tower for altitude when shot at... but not the mourning dove. It makes a shallow dive to pick up speed. This shallow dive confuses tyro gunners into believing they have a hit bird. Thus they las, Muleshoe, was promoted to sergeant, Sept. 13, while assigned as motor sergeant with William Beaumont General Hospital in El Paso.

Sergeant Criswell was graduated from Lubbock High School in 1953 and entered the Army in December of that year.

His wife, Priscilla, is with him in El Paso.

don't follow up with a second shot.

The dove's small size makes range estimation difficult. With field loads in a 12-gauge gun you can kill doves at 40 to 45 yards. But at that distance the bird looks mighty small. Some hunters pass up these shots because they think the bird is out of range.

Too many hunters wait until the bird is just 20 or 25 yards out. At this distance, if they're shooting a full choke gun, they must have the bird right in the pattern. Actually, at this short range, the pattern of a full choke gun doesn't open up enough.

So, quite often they'll shoot in front of or behind the bird.

A modified choke is best for this range. Open bore is even better. But an open bore gun is useless on long range shots.

Some hunters even wait to make their shots at 10 or 15 yards. Unless it's a straight-in shot, they'll usually miss at this close distance because of the difficulty in swinging the gun on a target crossing at 50 or 60 miles per hour. And when they do hit on these short shots, they literally blow the birds to bits.

Doves are plentiful throughout Texas. Often you can get some choice shooting just outside the city limits.

There are several ways to hunt doves. In dry years the best hunting usually is around a pond or farm tank. Take a stand and pop the birds as they sail in for water.

You don't even need a blind. Just squat down in the grass and keep still.

Good hunting is found in corn and rice fields too. Note where the birds are coming to feed and take a station accordingly.

Dove hunting can get tough in a wet year. Then the birds don't have to use ponds and farm tanks for water.

Wet-year hunting calls for jump shooting. Crisscross a field and take your shots as you jump the birds out of the grass.

It's a lot like quail shooting, except that doves will take to the air when you get within 30 or 40 yards of them. You'll have a lot of long shots. But it only adds to the sport.

Improve your hunting by using decoys. Place the decoys on fence wires or on the limbs of trees.

When picking trees for decoys, select only those with little foliage so doves can spot the decoys from a distance.

You can place decoys on the shorelines of ponds and farm tanks. But pick spots where there is little grass so that the decoys will show up.

Decoying doves differs from decoying waterfowl in that you only need a few decoys to do the trick. A half dozen is plenty if they're placed in conspicuous places.

Face the decoys into the wind. Doves, like other birds, don't like their back feathers ruffled by the wind.

Because of the small size of the dove, some folks may think a small shotgun is needed.

Well, you can drop doves with a .410 if you're a good shot, but if you check the hunters in the field, you'll find the 12-gauge is by far the most popular weapon.

Shot size is a matter of hunter choice with the range going all the way from No. 6 to No. 9.

Use 8 or 9 for those 30-yard shots. But is there a stiff wind blowing, you can expect some terrible windblown patterns with the light No. 9 pellets.

It's a good idea to carry several shot sizes and use the size that best fits the occasion.

But remember this. Take along plenty of ammo. Doves are tricky targets, and you'll blow a lot of holes in the sky before getting your limit.
