CONTRACT FOR JAIL IS LET HERE MONDAY

SOUTHERN PRISON CO. OF SAN ANTONIO AWARDED CONTRACT BY COMMISSIONERS COURT

The Southern Prison Company of San Antonio was awarded the contract for the construction of Foard County's jail. There were four bidders, all out-of-town contractors, on the proposition and the successful bid was $24,500.

E. E. Pickel, who represented the Southern Prison Company, stated that construction would start just as soon as details as to the financing of the structure were completed and said that he felt sure that construction would not start later than January 1, and that in all probability it would start before then.

The commissioners' court required all bidders to accompany their bids with a letter stating that local labor, local sub-contractors and material be used in every case possible.

Mr. Pickel stated to a News reporter that his company would of course furnish its own superintendent, but in every other case, home labor, sub-contractors and material would be given preference.

The new jail is to be located just across the alley east of the Allen Chevrolet Company. It is to be a two-story brick structure, 34 by 50 feet in size. The first floor will contain living quarters and office for the jailer and will also contain a cell for juveniles. The second floor will have special cells for women, negroes, criminals, drunks and lunatics. A light colored face brick is to be used on the structure.

A cell in the old jail is to be placed in the new structure, however, nothing has been done as to the disposition of the old jail building and at present it will be left intact with the exception of one cell and two vault doors.

Tool resisting steel is to be used for the principal part of the cells and the jail, throughout, is to be modern in every respect and should serve the needs of this county for a great number of years. A turn-key job will be provided by the successful bidders.

The Southern Prison Company is said to be the largest manufacturer of prisons in the United States. This Texas firm has built jails and prisons over the entire nation. Among cities where they have recently built jails are: Detroit, Michigan; Birmingham, Alabama; New Orleans; Mobile, Alabama; New Orleans; Minneapolis, Minnesota; St. Paul, Minnesota; St. Louis, Missouri; and Sweetwater, Plainview and Floydada.

Thalia Team Wins Over Odell and West Vernon

The Thalia senior boys defeated Odell 33 to 18 in a basketball program at Thalia last Friday night. Practically all of Odell's points were made from long shots near the center of the court. While not playing sensationally, Thalia used excellent team work and played a steady game throughout. The cold weather hampered the work of both teams. This is the second victory out of two games played with Odell for Thalia.

The Thalia senior girls defeated the West Vernon girls 15 to 8 in the same night. This is the first game that has been played between these teams this season.

The Thalia boys are making an impressive record this season, having won six out of eight games thus far. One game was lost to Oklaunion at Oklaunion by the close score of 30 to 28 and another game was lost to Five-in-One, however Thalia has won three other games over Five-in-One.

Thalia fans are now looking forward with much interest to the game that is to be played against Oklaunion at the Five-in-One gymnasium on Friday night, Dec. 5.

Tax Collector Will Issue Auto License Tags Beginning Dec. 1

Auto and truck license tags will be issued from the tax collector's office beginning Dec. 1, Monday, according to Que Miller, tax collector. The tags are already on hand.

They are considerably different from those that have been used in 1930. The 1931 auto tags have the figures in white on a black background and the truck tags are black figures with a white background. The words "Front" and "Rear" have been eliminated and on each tag a letter is used to represent a hundred thousand.

The auto tags issued Foard County begin with "D 6-8301" and end with "D 7-0500." The truck numbers begin with "7-776" and end with "7-8200." The new numbers are more easily read from a distance than the old ones and it is said that the letter at the beginning of the tags serves to make them more easily remembered.

To the present time there have been 1,381 automobiles registered in Foard County during 1930 and 241 trucks. Mr. Miller stated that he expects to see this number increased during 1931.

Foard County People Figure in Three Auto Accidents This Week

People of Foard County have figured in three auto accidents this week. The first accident came Monday morning at about 8 o'clock when J. H. Lanier Jr. ran into the side of the car driven by J. R. Allee. Mr. Lanier was knocked unconscious as the result of a slight injury to his head and remained in that condition for about an hour. Mr. Lanier was driving east and Mr. Allee, south, when the cars met at the corner next to Dr. Hines Clark's residence.

Mr. Allee received a slight injury to his side. The front end of the Lanier car and the side of the Allee car were badly damaged. Both drivers were leaned over choking the motors, they stated, when the accident happened, and each car was going at about 25 miles per hour.

Alfred Eddy and R. J. Thomas Jr. came early being in a dangerous accident Tuesday evening, shortly after 7 o'clock. The front end of the Eddy automobile was struck by the Santa Fe motor coach at the crossing on the pavement on Highway 28.

Both boys had made their exit from the sedan, however, before the accident happened by diving head-first through the windows of the vehicle when they observed the approach of the passenger motor car that arrives here each evening at 7:20.

Fred Kimsey, who was pushing the Eddy car in an effort to start its motor, had stopped his car shortly before the accident occurred. Unable to stop the car quickly due to worn brake bands, the youths jumped from it and the car coasted in gear until its front wheels stopped near the first rail. Eddy and Thomas tried to pull it from the track but were unable to do so before it was struck. Neither boy was hurt and injury to the car's frame was the main damage suffered.

While returning from Cordell, Oklahoma, the automobile driven by Lee Sims of Thalia figured in a head-on collision with another automobile near Rocky, Oklahoma. The lights of the Sims' car went out suddenly before the accident occurred, according to reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Sims had gone to Cordell Christian College and were returning with the following students for the Thanksgiving holidays: Misses Opal Randolph, Merle Banister and Maple Edens, at the time of the accident. Only a few scratches to the occupants of the car resulted, although the car was damaged considerably, but after some repairs was able to make its way to Thalia.

Former Resident of Foard County Died Nov. 7th at Anson

Rev. J. S. Woods, 78, Foard County pioneer, died Nov. 7, at his home in Anson and was buried in the cemetery there on Nov. 12. Rev. Woods was well known to many people here, having lived in Foard County for a great number of years. He came to this section forty years ago.

He was born in Hopkins County on Feb. 19, 1853. He is survived by his wife, three sons and seven daughters, six of the children being present for the funeral services. Mrs. Arrie Bell of the Four Corners community is one of the daughters. She returned Sunday from Anson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. S. Woods, and her sister, Miss Willie Woods, who are visiting here.

The deceased was a Primitive Baptist minister and his sermons have not only been heard in the various communities of this part of the state, but also in communities of many other states.

PLANTING OF ALFALFA ON FOARD COUNTY FARMS BEING PUSHED IN CAMPAIGN BY CO. AGENT RENNELS

MOST FARMS IN FOARD CAN GROW SOME ALFALFA AT A PROFIT SAYS COUNTY AGENT

There are very few farms in Foard County that could not profitably grow a few acres of alfalfa, according to Fred Rennels, county agent, who is now pushing a campaign for more alfalfa on Foard County farms. He has sent out many letters on this matter and is also pushing it in various other ways.

Fair success has been obtained from the heavy black land to the lighter sandy soils in Foard County with alfalfa. Almost every farm has from a small field to many acres, located somewhere on the farm, that will produce alfalfa if the land is properly prepared before seeding, Mr. Rennels stated.

In commenting on this matter the county agent stated that the secret of the success in growing alfalfa is in getting a stand and the secret of getting a stand depends on good preparation.

Early and deep breaking of the land is advised by Frank Lockett of the Lockett community in Wilbarger County, one of the most successful alfalfa growers of this section of the state. Other advice given by him for preparing the land and securing a stand follows: Sow twenty pounds of oats per acre, following the deep breaking of the land. Just before the oats come through the ground, sow twenty pounds of alfalfa seed per acre and harrow it lightly. The oats protect the alfalfa until it is well set. The latter part of September and the first of October is usually the best time for fall seeding. In spring sowing, weeds are usually troublesome and high winds damage the plants, however, some good results have been obtained by spring planting.

The planting of cowpeas is also recommended before seeding alfalfa. If the land is prepared early in the winter, planted in peas in the spring and cultivated well, then sowed in alfalfa with the oats as a protecting crop, a stand should almost be insured.

Another plan, Mr. Rennels stated, is to sow spring oats on well prepared land. Harvest the oats when they mature, disc the land and in September or October, sow in alfalfa. This plan does not lose a crop as using cowpeas in the spring, however, on some soils it might not be as good.

Alfalfa hay is one of the best all around roughages that can be fed to livestock. For dairy cattle it cannot be beaten. It is too good to graze, especially so for hogs. It will furnish early and late pasture.

George Barnes, beef cattle specialist of the farm board, who was in Foard County last week, took occasion to mention while speaking in Crowell, the fact that alfalfa hay fed to cattle always shows good results.

Rennels Is Winning Guesser of Football Scores for Last Week

Fred Rennels, one of the winners in the football score predicting contests of last year, duplicated that performance again last week. Marion Crowell was a close second. George Self was third, Guy Crews, the winner of the previous week and who was picked to repeat by this column, was fourth and Robert Oswald, fifth.

None of the guessers fared so well. All predicted T. C. U. and Oklahoma to win their games and all were wrong. Baylor smothered T. C. U. in the most startling upset of the season at Fort Worth by the score of 35 to 14. It was predicted by this column that Baylor would win.

The actual scores of the games and Rennels' predictions follow, actual scores and winning teams coming first: Baylor-T. C. U., 35-14, 7-13; S. M. U.-Rice, 33-0, 26-7; Notre Dame-Northwestern, 14-0, 14-7; Harvard-Yale, 13-0, 13-7; Oklahoma A. & M.-Oklahoma, 7-0, 7-14.

Those predicting this week are: Fred Rennels, 1; Tom Reeder Jr. of Texas University, 2; Jimmy Ashford, 3; William Bell, 4, and O. O. Hollingsworth, 5. The winner each week is given an opportunity to guess until he loses, however, no one has yet won twice in succession and this is the last opportunity for this record to be broken, since this is the last guessing contest of the season.

The predictions follow:

	1	2	3	4	5
Texas	0	14	30	13	19
A. & M.	7	0	6	6	6
S. M. U.	14	0	18	7	21
T. C. U.	7	0	7	7	13
Baylor	14	20	6	26	26
Rice	0	6	6	0	6
Centenary	14	21	13	7	13
Arkansas	7	6	0	13	7
Notre Dame	21	13	20	14	21
West Point	7	7	0	0	7

Fred Rennels surely must believe there is a Santa Claus to predict A. & M. to win over Texas at Austin. However, in most instances dope has not meant a thing in this annual clash and the underdog usually wins, but we cannot by any means dream of that happening this year. Rennels' other guesses seems to be good and we guess that it is his love for his old alma mater that causes him to predict this upset.

All guess S. M. U. to defeat T. C. U. with the exception of Tom Reeder Jr., who predicts a scoreless tie in this Dallas game. All predict Baylor to win over Rice with the exception of Jimmy Ashford, who guesses a 6-6 tie on this contest.

William Bell is the only one to predict a victory for Arkansas over Centenary in the game at Shreveport.

All predict Notre Dame to beat West Point.

It seems that O. O. Hollingsworth is a sure shot to win this week.

MUNDAY LOSES TO CROWELL BY SCORE OF 20-7

WILDCATS AVERAGE EARLY SEASON DEFEAT WITH VICTORY IN BEST GAME OF THE SEASON LAST FRIDAY

In the best football game that has been played here this season the Crowell Wildcats defeated the Munday Moguls 20 to 7 last Friday to gain revenge for an early season defeat at the hands of Munday by the score of 6 to 0. In spite of their defeat Munday gained the honor of being the only team that has crossed the Crowell goal line on the local field this season.

Crowell scored all of its points in the first half and Munday made its lone touchdown in the last quarter. The first touchdown came after Crowell received the opening kickoff when a drive to the 6-yard line was made, from which Crews Cooper took a lateral pass from Guy Todd and crossed the goal line.

The Wildcats' other two touchdowns came in the second quarter. Ragsdale Lanier, safety, made a sensational 47-yard return of Pruitt's punt for one, and the final touchdown came when a 15-yard pass was completed into the waiting arms of J. M. Crowell across the goal line. Captain Paul Pruitt scored the visitors' only touchdown in the last quarter on a 14-yard run through the line.

Crowell made 13 first downs to the Moguls' ten, however the yardage gained was more in proportion to the actual score.

First Quarter
The game started with Pruitt kicking off to the 30-yard line to J. Todd who returned 5 yards. Mullins went out-of-bounds on a 1-yard gain. G. (Continued on Page Four.)

"Gather Up Fragments" Is Subject of Sermon at M. E. Church Sun.

Rev. B. J. Osborn, who again has been appointed pastor of the local Methodist Church, delivered his first sermon of the new church year to a well filled house Sunday.

He used for a text: "Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost." The text was a rather unique one, and a very practical application to the plan of financing the church for the year.

Rev. Osborn had gathered some figures for the year, 1925, to show the relation of the amount spent for luxuries to the income of the United States to impress the thought of the sacredness of the "Fragments."

The following figures were given: Income of the U. S. for 1925 was $80,000,000,000.

Spent for luxuries—$51,000,000,000. Leaving for necessities—$29,000,000,000.

Of the $51,000,000,000 spent for luxuries, he mentioned a few items: Spent for tobacco—$2,110,000,000.

Spent for candies—$1,000,000,000. Spent for cosmetics—$750,000,000.

Spent for soft drinks—$350,000,000. Spent for chewing gum—$88,000,000.

The amount spent for tobacco in one year would carry on the present missionary operations of the Southern Methodist Church for 147 years, Rev. Osborn stated. That spent for soft drinks in one year would build a home for each of the superannuate preachers in the Southern Methodist church, at a cost of $5,000 each, and raise an endowment fund, 6 per cent interest, that would yield an amount sufficient to pay each one a salary of $1,500 a year. And in addition, would build an orphanage in each one of the 38 conferences in the church at a cost of $8,425,000. Two million of this would put up all the buildings and equip them, and have over $6,000,000 for an endowment. This would forever relieve the church of raising money for superannuates and orphans.

The amount spent for candy and gum in one year would build a university in each of the 38 conferences, allowing for each, $28,631,000. This would put up all the buildings and equip them and have a handsome sum for an endowment, for the price of just a small part of the "Fragments."

Local Fragments
The present total members of the local Methodist Church is 391. Rev. Osborn stated. Five cents a day, which is being spent as fragments by most every one, will amount to $18.25 a year each. This would amount to $7,137 for the total membership and would meet the entire expenses of the church for the year and leave $2,140 to be applied to the church debt.

During the past year, Rev. Osborn said that of the 391 members, only 107 paid anything. "There is our financial trouble. It is not that we have to raise too much, but it is not distributed correctly," the pastor stated. "The Master struck a fundamental truth when he called the attention of the people to the value of the 'fragments,' or 'scraps,' he concluded.

Dallas Man Suffering With Kidney Ailment Finds First Relief In New Medicine

"For over a year and a half I suffered with rheumatism and kidney trouble," said Mr. W. E. Rowley, 216 Bryan street, Dallas. "I had dull aching pains across my back and was forced to rise frequently at night. A constant pain in my right leg caused me much misery and I limped in getting around. Pains in my back and side did not permit a good night's rest. I felt dull and listless and my vitality became lower and lower. "A friend, who knew my condition, told me about Konjola. Konjola did so much for me that I am at a loss to express my appreciation. The rheumatic pains in my leg have left me for the first time in a year. My kidneys are once again functioning properly. My sleep is no longer broken by pains in my side and back. I have only taken two bottles but I certainly shall continue the treatment."

It is recommended that Konjola be taken over a six or eight week period. Best results are usually obtained in such cases.

Konjola is sold in Crowell, Texas, at Fergeson Bros. drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

FIRE LOSSES WHICH CANNOT BE MEASURED

Americans are accustomed to hear of our gigantic fire losses in terms of the money and lives lost—about $500,000,000 and 10,000 lives being reported annually by The National Board of Fire Underwriters.

There is another phase of fire loss people often overlook, which is felt keenly by those affected. Fire many times destroys documents and records. An example of this was the destruction of the building containing the Federal Trade Commission's headquarters. The authorities state the valuable records destroyed cannot be replaced.

Often times when a business suffers destruction by fire, vital records, without which the industry cannot function properly, are destroyed. It is not difficult to imagine what happens to a company when its accounts are sometimes destroyed, as well as possessions and antique furniture upon which no value can be placed. Some heirlooms have been treasured from generation to generation. The loss is thus immeasurable.

Yet preventable fires are permitted year after year and neither the enormous value nor the inconvenience of destroyed records seems to strike home to Americans who seem to think that it will always be the "other fellow" who will suffer the loss.

KEEPING THE FAITH

Some two thousand years ago, it is recounted, a Roman playwright said, "He's not to be commended who trusts another any further than he can see."

That may have been good advice in those days—we can't say whether it was or was not—but if it were the rule of the business and social life of this country today, we would all be headed for the bow wows.

Imagine what would be the result if, when someone handed you a check in payment for something, that you demanded to see his bank account, what would it mean if you did not trust him?

You would insist that the person giving you the check should take you to the bank. But would you trust the banker? Not if you were guided by the teachings of two thousand years ago. You would probably ask the banker to show you the money this person had in the bank. The banker likely would exhibit some gold or silver certificates.

But what do they mean? They are valueless unless they are backed up by the required amount of gold and silver in the United States treasury. It would be out of reason to ask the banker to take you to Washington to see the metal coins that stood back of the paper money.

So you would be in a blind alley, as it were, up against a brick wall. As a matter of fact none of us can be guided by this sort of teaching. We must have faith in our associates, our friends, our neighbors, our townspeople, our merchants and our public officials. Our whole manner of living is based on faith. If it were not for confidence that men repose in one another, our social and business structure would be on a flimsy foundation.

So, when your faith in someone is shaken, just recall how much depends upon the faith and confidence of people in one another. Where it is violated once, it is kept thousands of times. Without it we would all be lost.

WHEAT AND WEIGHT

In the United States gain markets, wheat is designated by bushels. But the wheat is never measured; it is weighed, and the bushel of wheat is synonymous with sixty pounds weight. Incidentally, this ratio of weight to measure of wheat is incorporated in all our state laws and in the federal laws, and thus an equivalent legal in the thousands of contracts under which wheat is bought and sold in this country, both in state and in interstate commerce.

Liverpool and Chicago are the two wheat centers of the world, and the daily communication between these two exchanges is enormous. It is from the intimacy of Liverpool and Chicago that prices of wheat futures for the whole universe arise.

It is not generally known that international traffic in wheat is now carried on solely in terms of United States bushels of sixty pounds, and the simple abbreviation "bush" after the figure denoting quantity is understood in every wheat market wherever located.

When wheat has "passed through the international markets on paper," local units of weight and measure often come into play. For instance, in England itself, wheat is measured by the quarter of 400 pounds. In metric countries wheat is usually measured locally in quintals. The local Russian wheat trade is in poods, of 36.116 pounds.

But the quarter, quintal and pood, never appear at Liverpool and Chicago, the international wheat centers. In them only the bushel of sixty pounds figures.

ARE EXPERT BUYERS

There are more than 22,000,000 homes in the United States and the women who buy for these homes spend on an average of $500 each. That is more than $36,000,000 for every working day.

Each woman is a part of this army of buyers and each, if she will, may be guided to wise and economical purchases if she will but make up her mind to read as many as she can of the advertisements which merchants are printing for her benefit.

The advertising in every newspaper is a buying guide for this greatest force in the world. This advertising makes it safe and easy for every member of this buying army to make her purchases.

It establishes in her mind a buying habit and gives her a preference for one brand of goods to another or an advertised article to one that is unknown.

It identifies for her a certain product as being standard, so that she may easily dodge the wiles of sellers who try to dispose of something that is not so good.

It makes her know the dealer who is proud of his merchandise and jealous of his reputation and character cannot do otherwise than make his goods at least as good as he says they are.

It's Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil. Ask for it whenever you see the Conoco Red Triangle.

Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil is de-waxed to prevent congealing at low temperatures. That's the first reason. Second, its penetrative lubricity insures instant lubrication at the first touch of the starter. By decreasing friction, Germ-Processed oil adds to the ease of starting.

CHURCHES

Christian Science

Sunday, 11 a. m. Subject for Sunday, November 30, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced." Sunday School at 9:30. Wednesday evening service at 8:00. The public is cordially invited.

Christian Church

We had two splendid services Sunday besides a fine gospel team service at Margaret. All the services were well attended. The Gospel Team goes to Margaret each fourth Sunday from now on. Bro. Joe Ward brought the message for us last Sunday evening and it was exceptionally fine. It was a chart lesson on "The Highway to Heaven," and was well illustrated and clearly explained. Those who missed this service missed something real good. Bro. Caudle could not be with us last Sunday evening as announced, on account of helping in a revival meeting at Trascott. He will preach for us some other time.

Bro. C. R. Dodd will give us a ten minute talk on "prayer" next Sunday morning at the teaching service. Don't miss this for it will be both interesting and inspirational. Let's not forget to be thankful in a genuine way for the many daily and unnumbered special blessings that our Heavenly Father has bestowed upon us. The best way to show our gratitude is by accepting Christ, serving Him and being a blessing to others. Christianity must be shared with others if it is genuine. Christ could well be expressed in one word, the word "Others."

Don't forget to begin now in your planning for 1931, both for yourself and for the church. By beginning our preparation now we will better be able to make 1931 really worth while for the advancement of Christ's church.

C. V. ALLEN, Elder.

Baptist Church

The subject Sunday was "Heavenly Comforts," well delivered to a fine and appreciative audience. God is now and always has been ready to help those who love and obey Him. There is always a condition to be met to have His smile upon us, and He will show you what it is if you will just let Him. Through ages past He has begged His people to follow Him. Wonderful master is He in this universal crisis. Financial depression, droughts, the greatest that ever came our way. If we will just trust Him and do good, we are going to get by.

Maybe you feel blue, no money, no credit, a few old clothes, the future dark clouds hang heavy—don't see how you are going to make the hill.

The major prophets had the same problems. The heavenly comforts were theirs by asking. They asked and got it. The same one rules the universe today as then. He asks us to try Him. Read the last book of the Old Bible and you will have the key.

The pastor spoke of the people staying away from church on account of hard times and not able to get new clothes. He told them he was wearing an old suit three years old, but was going forward. Just the same as it was new. He begs the people to come in the clothes they have and honor God and He will bless them.

Sunday was a good day. A ladies trio Sunday night was sung by Mrs. Smith, Wright and Griffith that was very nice and elevating.

The Brotherhood meeting last Monday night was well attended, fine cats and several good speeches were made, and plans for future work discussed.

Be with us next Sunday in all our services. Bring some one. Stay for church.—Reporter.

At the Methodist Church

Sunday School 9:45 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. League 6 p. m. Song service 8:45 p. m. Woman's Missionary Society Monday 3 p. m.

The new conference year opened last Sunday with a splendid congregation. There was a fine attendance at each service, and the spirit of the services was refreshing. We are praying, pleading and expecting the attendance at church to be much better than it was last year. There is no excuse why it should not be. The membership of the church pledged at the altar of the church, before God, that it would attend the services. So each member is under special obligation to make it the habit of his life to attend church as regularly as it is possible.

Those who are not members of the church owe it to the church to attend as it is the influence of the church that makes society stable and worthwhile. All who are not members of the church, ought to be. There is no excuse for their not being members. None would live in a community where there is no church. We extend a personal invitation and pledge a warm welcome to any person who will meet us at the Methodist church next Sunday morning and worship Almighty God with us. We promise to have a message that will help you. Give us the inspiration of your presence to help us deliver that message.

M. E. Missionary Society

Monday at 3 p. m. the women of the missionary society met in the home of Mrs. Thomas Hughston for the monthly missionary program and social meeting combined. Mesdames T. D. Roberts and B. F. Hinds were assistant hostesses.

The meeting was opened by singing "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult," followed with prayer by the leader, Mrs. W. H. Bell.

Missionary topic: "Helping to supply Mexico's educational need" was discussed by the leader assisted by Mesdames M. S. Henry and J. C. Brian. Mrs. S. S. Bell gave an interesting article, "A Pentecost in Mexico" by F. S. Onderdonk, missionary to Mexico. Mrs. T. L. Hughston told of the schools in Mexico and we find there are 35,000 teachers and 1,400,000 children enrolled in the schools of Mexico, the largest number ever receiving an education in Mexico. The devotional topic: "Living the approved life here and now," was presented by Mrs. Hines Clark. President Mrs. A. Y. Beverly announced that the "Harvest Day" program is to be given in Chillicothe Dec. 5, and urged as many to attend as possible. A number of our conference officers are to be there. During the social hour hostesses served a dainty refreshment plate. Mrs. Luther Roberts of Dallas was a guest for the afternoon.—Pub. Supt.

ZACCHAEUS THE PUBLICAN—A BUSINESS MAN CONVERTED

Luke 19:1-10

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

During the past summer tree sitting became a fad with many ambitious youths, even women, who wanted to establish a new kind of record. Zacchaeus also used a tree when he had a supreme purpose in mind. It was while Jesus was passing through Jericho for the last time.

Curiosity was doubtless the motive that impelled him to get a sight of the Nazarine, about whom he had heard so much. When he tried to press near the bystanders would be none too gentle in elbowing him away. Then our man of determination ran around the crowd seeking some point of vantage on the road whither the company would pass. A yucca tree with its outreaching, low-hanging branches revealed the possibility of an unobstructed view and to this place he climbed.

No matter how busy Jesus had been in meeting the outcries of individuals who needed help He always was aware of every one else in the crowd. When in sight of the tressitter He looked up with recognition. Then the unparalleled thing occurred as Jesus in a kindly manner called Zacchaeus by name. There was still greater amazement when the passerby invited himself to be the guest that day of the man who was held in contempt by the entire community.

When in the presence of Jesus there is instantly the consciousness of unworthiness. Involuntarily there is effort to measure up to His idea of righteousness. A quick audit of his record as tax collector revealed the excesses that had taken place in his office. What he had wrongfully gained called for restitution. At once one half of his goods are assigned to the poor.

Christian Science Churches

"Soul and Body" was the lesson-sermon subject in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday Nov. 23.

The golden text was from Matthew 6:22. "The light of the body is the eye; if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light."

The service included the following passages from the Bible: "Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord. And I will set my tabernacle among you; and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people"—Leviticus 26: 2, 11, 12.

Citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, were also read; among them the following: "Christian Science attaches no physical nature and significance to the Supreme Being or His manifestations; mortals alone do this" (p. 117). "Because of human ignorance of the divine Principle, Love, the Father of all is represented as a corporeal creator; hence men recognize themselves as merely physical, and are ignorant of man as God's image or reflection and of man's eternal incorporeal existence" (p. 13).

HOME ECONOMICS CLASS VISITS FOARD CITY CLUB

The home economics class went to Foard City Monday afternoon to the 4-H club's meeting at the home of Claude Callaway. The purpose of the meeting was to demonstrate meat canning.

A representative from A. and M. College was there and gave a very interesting talk on meat canning. A great deal of meat was canned. The class certainly enjoyed the trip and all expressed their appreciation for getting to go.

APPRECIATION

Regardless of the fact that the majority of the students think they work too hard, that the rules are strict, and that the teachers are insistent in the amount of work they want brought up, Crowell High School is a grand place.

To the majority of us it is a place of congenial companionship, interesting work, and a place for pleasant forms of recreation. We have every opportunity of an education, even though some of us do not take advantage of this. The whole atmosphere of our school is an incentive for us to do better work. The boys and girls are ambitious in the quest of knowledge, and sometimes the teachers seem capable of understanding us.

But what our school ranks the foremost in is athletics. It is above those of the other schools in this section, not only do our boys play good games, but they also play them fairly. Whether they win or lose a game, it is always done fairly. The pep girls and all of the other students get a thrill out of watching our boys in action on a gridiron. We try to be loyal to our Wildcats, our teachers, to our ideal, and to one another. We shall always be proud of the memories of our school. The school spirit of C. H. S. is what it should be, it exists only in the hearts of the students.

PERSONALS

Miss Frances Cook, who has been ill, has returned to school.

Miss Ophelia Diggs, who has been away for a short time, has resumed her school work.

Dan Hines Clark, who was hurt in the Armistice Day football game, has been out of school on account of his injuries.

Miss Lottie Woods has donated about 30 literary magazines to the high school library. The high school students wish to thank her for them, for they were certainly appreciated.

Musings of the Owl

After a week's rest we again find ourselves at the business of writing this column of philosophy, sarcasm or what have you, only to find that we are still in the mist as to what this business of life is anyway.

This is the season of Thanksgiving, and as we recall some of the Thanksgiving dinners we have eaten, we wonder if that old story about Jonah swallowing the whale could possibly be true.

We notice that Guy Todd has taken to the business of being entertained by the fair sex. Oh well, it's a matter of history that Achilles postponed the Trojan War to have a date with Helen of Troy.

We understand that from Denton comes a letter accusing Mr. Black of writing this column. We thank you C. H. S. exes for that compliment.

The 1930 football season is history and by the way, pleasing history to read. Thanks to Coach Graves and all those that participated in any way in making this a very successful season. It has been just that.

We think that we are a wise old bird. In the popularity contest we lost not a single vote.

We have been accused of everything except plagiarism. It is probably because no other publication would print such nonsense as this column is.

We doubt if the dumb Freshman who thought that a football coach had four wheels was any worse than the scholarly senior who thought that Monte Carlo was a movie actor.

We have noticed that the fellow who has a ready sarcastic remark to make of anyone's effort in doing something very seldom does any constructive work himself.

The fact that, "Variety lends enchantment," probably explains why John Todd has so many "girl friends."

WHAT DR. CALDWELL LEARNED IN 47 YEARS PRACTICE

A physician watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the system and is not habit forming. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for anybody's system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly.

Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to the nearest druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

Munday Football Star Wins Trip to Chicago

Paul Pruitt, captain, quarterback and leading player for the Munday Moguls, who played Crowell here last Friday, is one of the nineteen 4-H club boys of Texas to win a trip to Chicago for the 4-H Club Congress which is to be held from Nov. 28 to Dec. 8. The 19 prize educational trips are offered to Texas farm boys by the Santa Fe Railway. Winners were announced through the Extension Service of Texas A. & M. College.

The project upon which Pruitt won the award consisted of 35 acres of maize, which produced one-half tons per acre. The trip was awarded on the profit per acre, size of project and a history of the project which he prepared.

Appreciation for Band Music Shown

The Crowell band helped the pep squad out last Friday afternoon by playing school songs between quarters, and at the half. They played a march for the pep squad girls when they made formations.

The band boys accompanied the pep squad girls when they sang snappy school songs. The pep squad girls and football boys take this opportunity of thanking the band boys for the music they gave them.

THANKSGIVING PARTY GIVEN BY MR. AND MRS. T. P. REEDER

A delightful party of the Thanksgiving season was given by Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Reeder at their home Tuesday evening. The home was decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums and other autumn flowers and each table was centered with a low bowl of pretty flowers.

Attractive place cards symbolic of Thanksgiving marked places for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Crews, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Self, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Klepper, Q. R. Miller and the host and hostess.

A delicious Thanksgiving menu in two courses was served. The first course consisted of grape-fruit cocktail, chicken salad, cranberry sauce and cream cheese sandwiches. The second was pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee. Plate favors for the ladies were unique little browned turkeys "stuffed" with candies, while the men were given cigars. Between courses a contest entitled "A Turkey Tale," was held, the solving of which added to the merriment of the evening.

A number of games of 42 were played, at the close of which S. T. Crews received a box of candy for high score and John Ray received a surprise box of candy for low score.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

Members of the Adelpian Club and their guests were delightfully entertained with a lovely rainbow party Wednesday, Nov. 19, at the home of Mrs. S. S. Bell with Mesdames J. H. Lanier Jr., W. A. Dunn and Mrs. Bell as joint hostesses.

The reception suite was prettily decorated for the occasion in varied colored chrysanthemums and autumn colors. A rainbow formed an arch between the dining room and the living room and the traditional pot of gold was found nearby.

Games of 42 furnished entertainment for about an hour after which Mrs. J. H. Lanier Jr. asked the couples at each table to go to the pot of gold, make a wish aloud and pull one of the varied colored ribbons and find their fortune. Each wish and fortune proved very entertaining.

The rainbow color scheme was effectively used in the tallies, table appointments and dainty refreshment course.

Mrs. N. A. Crowell was hostess to the Dorcas Sunday School Class of the Baptist Church last Thursday when an all-day quilting party was held, featured with a covered dish luncheon at noon.

One quilt was completed and sent to Buckner's Orphan Home at Dallas. Those present during the day were: Mesdames Ida Reavis, R. B. Edwards, J. H. Self, E. T. Kirkman, L. G. Andrews, J. S. Long, Otho Green, M. F. Meadors, H. D. Poland, Maye Andrews, and the hostess.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

A. F. Cannon was very much surprised on his 71st birthday Sunday, the 9th. He was ushered into the dining room by Mrs. Cannon, where all his other relatives and friends were awaiting him. The dining table was beautifully decorated with flowers and held lots of good things to eat, including a big fat hen and two very large cakes.

Mr. Cannon's daughter, Mrs. O. N. Baker, and family were present with a well filled basket. His granddaughter, Addie Lorene Baker, attended to his place of business while he enjoyed the feast.

Mr. Cannon stated that he enjoyed this dinner more than any dinner he had eaten in the last four years. Another reason for his enjoying the dinner so well was it being in his new home that he has just recently bought it also being his first meal at his own home in two years.

The relatives and friends who could not be here for the dinner sent nice presents in place of attending the dinner, which was greatly appreciated.

Those present for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Baker and family, Mrs. W. L. Dishman, Rev. J. T. Bryant, the hostess and honoree.—A Guest.

ACID STOMACH

EXCESS acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and sourness about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which will neutralize acid. The best corrective is Phillips Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians for the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. It is harmless and tasteless and its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods once you learn how quickly this method acts. Please let it show you—now.

Be sure to get the genuine. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

Mrs. Henry Principal Speaker at Luncheon

Mrs. M. S. Henry was the principal speaker at the Rotary luncheon Wednesday and gave an interesting discussion on community service. The program was in charge of T. N. Bell. Mrs. W. B. Johnson gave two interesting musical readings, "The Girl That I Used to Be," and "The Bride and the Groom." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Jimmy Doolen. Eli Smith opened the program with a humorous discussion concerning Sheriff Que Miller.

Mrs. Henry's talk on community service was divided into three major classifications—health, beautification and recreation. She advocated many worthwhile projects in which the citizenship could co-operate, such as support of the county library, bettering conditions in the "negro section, a tree planting campaign, parks and playgrounds, healthful measures and various other matters that would tend to make the community a more pleasant place in which to live.

In her talk she stated that if one cannot bear criticism to leave community service alone, for anyone will be criticized who does public work. "If you love humanity, then wade out into the ocean of community service—the water is fine," Mrs. Henry said. In conclusion she stated that to really live, one must give and illustrated this point with a comparison of the Sea of Gallilee with the Dead Sea. Gallilee gives as much it receives and lives, but the Dead Sea absorbs all and gives nothing and remains dead," Mrs. Henry stated.

The Co-Laborers Class

The Co-Laborers Class met with Mrs. Jeff Bruce and Mrs. Gordon Cooper Nov. 20 at the home of Mrs. Cooper. Mrs. Hubert Brown led the Bible study. A delicious plate was served.—Reporter.

Chevrolet's New Car for 1931 Is Improved And Has Lower Price

Thousands of people who thronged showrooms throughout the nation last week to get their first view of the new 1931 Chevrolet commented particularly upon the features new to the low priced field achieved in the current line of Fisher-Chevrolet bodies.

First remarked among the new features are the increased size and roominess made possible by the longer wheelbase, while numerous other changes not obvious to the eye combine to make the bodies stronger, more rigid, and as completely squeak-proof as human ingenuity can devise.

A surprising amount of hand-work goes into every individual body in the new Chevrolet series. In the application of the exterior finish, alone, 22 individual steps have to be taken along the line, ranging from the cleaning of the metal with an acid solution on through the glazing and wet-sanding operations, the dry-sanding application of a moist coat, to the final Ducoing, touching up and striping. The combination steel-and-hardwood method of body construction, for example, is now a separate assembly known as the "slat-and-bow" type, the strongest known in the industry. The bows, instead of being steam bent, are cut to shape so that they will retain their shape indefinitely. Double steel braces easily accessible for servicing, replace the wood strainers formerly used along the sides of the roof, and strong steel braces are now used at the corners to add to the roof rigidity. The roof structure is thoroughly padded to prevent drumming, and is covered with a material consisting of two layers of fabric bound by an inner layer of rubber.

Traffic through the Holland tunnel, which connects New York city with Jersey City, amounts to 15,000,000 motor vehicles in a year.

Anti-squeak material in liquid, rubber dough or friction form is used between all steel braces and their respective wood parts. As a further aid to quietness, insulating material is used wherever wood touches metal.

Exclusive patent rights just obtained by the Fisher Body Corporation for a new type of spring never before used in automobile seat construction assure greater comfort for the passengers. The coils of these springs are larger, with strips of burlap running lengthwise to separate the rows of coils.

In the sedan 32 coils make the front seat unusually resilient, and 45 coils are in the rear seat, nine more than in the 1930 models. Over the springs is placed a thick layer of padding unusually durable and soft. The upholstery cloth is piped with another layer of padding, and the seats are trimmed with a "Turkish" front, with tufts and buttons ranged along the front side of the cushion, a style of trim which adds much to the tailored beauty of the interior.

For the greater protection of front seat passengers, a layer of jute or felt is vulcanized, this year, to the rubber floor mats, and an insulated pad covers the entire dash to keep out heat or cold and add quietness. The mats in the rear compartments of the coach and sedans are a round wire tapestry type of great durability, and in the sport sedan the carpet has a high wool content with a new mottled pattern.

Option of broadcloth or mohair upholstery trimming is provided with every closed body in the new Fisher line. Curtains on all bodies have a high luster, and curtain tassels are provided in the special sedan and sport coupe.

All interior hardware has been newly designed and beautified. Exterior handles have the Prototak feature which foils the would-be thief. Doors are locked from the inside simply by lifting the door handle.

Dome lights with the coach, sedans and sport coupes. A highly polished robe rail is found in the sedan, while a silk cord type is used in the special sedan. Foot rests, comfortably located in all sedans and the coach, are regulated from the front seat adjuster.

The chief damage done by moles is in burrowing, since they eat comparatively small quantities of roots and seeds, and live chiefly on insects and earth-worms.

The dragon's bones and dragon's teeth called for in old Chinese medical prescriptions usually referred to fossil ivory and old animal bones.
