EULA.

Oct. 2.—Hello Uncle Billie! We find time to come again.

We are having some rainy weather, which has stopped cotton picking and the gin isn't doing so much, but really the gin boys don't seem to care as they were all about worked down, and cotton isn't half out yet.

Z. T. Webb took cotton to town today.

Chas. Compton and others, of Eula, attended the Opera at Abilene Saturday night.

W. M. Edwards went to Baird one day last week.

W. T. Reynolds, of Mineral Wells, is visiting his son, J. M. Reynolds.

Robt. Stephenson went to Baird Thursday evening and reports a fine time.

Rev. Dick of Abilene, preached Sunday at 11 o'clock at the Baptist Church.

Rev. D. M. Howell preached Sunday night.

John McGowen was out with us Sunday. Glad to have you Johnnie, come again.

Dr. Phelps made a flying trip to Baird one day last week.

Sam Kelson is down with slow fever. He is doing very well.

Miss Annie Steen was thrown from a buggy one day last week and was pretty badly hurt.

J. M. Watts went to Baird Saturday.

W. A. Baulch and W. B. Ferguson went to Clyde today.

Jim Monroe, of Clyde spent last Saturday in Eula.

Dr. VonLingham, of Taylor County, was in Eula one day last week.

Bob Smith was down in Eula all smiles recently and Mr. Steen asked Bob what was making him look so pleased. Bob said, "its a girl."

Marvin Thaxton is on the sick list this week.

Tom Tipton was in Eula Sunday.

PATSIIE.

CLYDE CULLINGS.

Sept. 29.—It has been some time since I saw anything in your paper from Clyde and I will write again, even at the risk of offending.

Our town is right now very busy working off the large quantities of cotton coming in from Eula, Eagle Cove and elsewhere. Four car loads went out yesterday, and three more car loads on hand. The new Murray Gin is doing splendid work and our people may well be proud of it. Too much praise cannot be given to our friend Tabor, who has been day and night superintending its construction. Just such things as this in every town is what is wanted. Still there are some who have to be bit and there are others who if they can't rule want to ruin. Yes, such is mankind everywhere.

Our people have had a very prosperous season with their fruit and vegetables. The express agent says it is the largest season since Clyde has entered the field of competition and from the present outlook we will have a record breaker of cotton receipts.

Now if we could only get some roads clayed into Clyde it would be a great benefit to us. Would it not be better for the people to expend the money of the road and bridge fund on the roads than having it lying in some vault, but we presume our Commissioners will get to it in time.

Our town is still improving, new houses going up all the time. Mr. Prew is putting up a fine residence just east of the Catholic church.

The Railroad Co. has put their lots up to $100 per lot and say they do not care much to sell them at these figures, but they had disposed of most of their desirable lots before they realized their true value. The Company is going to remove the wire fence and cattle guards from around and near the depot, which will help us greatly.

Frank X. Prew is going to put in a full line of furniture in the house built by E. W. Graves. Hope he will do well.

T. E. Powell is at last putting in a stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, etc, but he has no suitable house at present. We understand that he intends building a brick store in the near future.

Our merchants are doing a very large business. Cal & Elbert are selling all that three clerks can wait upon. They are soon going to put in a heavier stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, etc.

Mr. Butler is also doing a fine business and Gene is always ready to attend to your wants in a gentlemanly manner.

Humphry & Collins, well they are doing not only well, but very well, and they are also putting in a large stock of dry goods, boots, shoes and clothing.

Jim Williams can't get ice cream as fast as he can sell it.

McIntosh & Estes have their iron warehouse full of feed and grain always have good corn meal on hand.

Hotels are full and running over. Mrs. Williams will soon add several rooms to the Romania.

There are to be several orchards and vineyards put out this fall and winter.

Land is changing hands around here fast and new parties have located in the last few weeks, in fact, Clyde's prospects were never brighter than now and we have secured the endorsement of all the State officials as well as all the R. R. officials to our experimental farm project and it is sure to land. Of course this is the only place for it as everyone knows.

Mr. Editor, don't you think Baird should have shown a little more interest in the Stock Law election? Baird is still the county seat of Callahan county and ought to take a leading part in all county matters.

UNO.

Baird already had a stock law and was willing for the county to settle the matter.—ED. STAR.

Doctors said He could not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well."

The Electric Light Company received the long lost pulley for the dynamo Sunday night. Lights have been turned on all over town except where the wires were broken or taken down. Several globes and fixtures were found to be out of order without any apparent cause after the long rest; for instance at the residence of the writer a globe on one wire and a fuse on the ceiling on another wire were burnt out though no one had changed any part of the wires. A defective globe probably caused both accidents as the globe that at first went out was put on another wire to see if it would burn when it caused the fuse to burn out. Other globes burned just as they were when the plant was shut down January 1st.

So far the lights are steadier, brighter and better in every way than formerly, and if the service continues as it has started out it will not be long before another dynamo and engine will be needed.

J. S. Rogers, who lived in Baird a long time, has moved to Big Springs where he has charge of a gasoline pumping engine for the T. & P. We regret to see Mr. Rogers and wife leave us, but since Mr. Rogers lost his arm the job he has is about all the Company could give him.

CONDITION OF COTTON.

Twenty-Nine Per Cent Less Ginned and Practically No Top Crop.

Dallas, Oct. 3.—The cotton report of the National Ginners' association, made public Monday, is as follows:

Texas has ginned 46 per cent less cotton than last year at this time; there is no top crop except in the Red river belt, and not very good there.

Mississippi has ginned 40 per cent less than last year. Crop conditions are 38 per cent worse; no top crop; seed, $13.

Alabama has ginned 45 per cent less; condition 22 per cent worse; no top crop; seed, $12.

Arkansas has ginned 91 per cent less; condition, 41 per cent worse; light top crop; seed, $12.

Indian Territory has ginned 80 per cent less; condition, 31 per cent worse; seed, $10.

Oklahoma has ginned 62 per cent less; condition, 26 per cent worse; no top crop; seed, $10.25.

South Carolina has ginned 49 per cent more; conditions, 32 per cent worse; no top crop; seed, $13.50.

North Carolina has ginned the same as last year; condition, 34 per cent worse; no top crop; seed, $14.50.

Virginia is not ginning; condition, 25 per cent worse.

Missouri is not ginning; condition, 25 per cent worse.

Tennessee has ginned 53 per cent less; condition, 40 per cent worse; some top crop; seed, $11.

Georgia has ginned 71 per cent more; condition, 28 per cent worse; no top crop; seed, $13.25.

Louisiana has ginned 59 per cent less; condition, 40 per cent worse; no top crop; seed, $10.

Reports indicate that ginning is from 75 to 90 per cent over in the southern part of the cotton belt, and there will have to be a late frost to make any top crop at all.

Many gins are idle in some sections, due to short and late crops.

Summarized, the above shows that 29 per cent less cotton has been ginned to this date than at the same time last year. The condition of the crop is 34.16 short of last year and there is practically no top crop.

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.

A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness.

In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

SWEET MEMORIES OF HOME.

In the utter loneliness of his own life, John Howard Payne wrote the beautiful song that has been sung so often in the nursery of the costly mansion and in the humble cottage by the mother with her babe at her breast.

He sang of home because the denial of it intensified his longing for it. It has often been said that we do not value our treasures until time has ruthlessly swept them up and away beyond our reach forever; but no sooner do they slip from out of our grasp than we pine for them again.

The most valued of all earthly possessions should be the home. No matter if it be but rude dwelling place, nevertheless it is home, and should be jealously guarded from the blight of evil outer influences. There should the better part of us be in continual evidence; there should we strive for the realization of the loftier ideals that have birth in the human heart; there are laid the foundations of the characters of men and women who in their turn lay the corner-stone of other lives; there hangs the golden halo of our youthful dreams that shed their mystic radiance on the sterner one of maturity.

There are the words and songs whose melody echoes down through the vista of storm-swept years and haunt us, bringing with them sweet remembrance of that far time when when life itself seemed throbbing full of rhyme.

How many of us, sick with the toil and grief of after life, let our work lie idly by while we stop to dream of the bluebird's song that awakened the summer morning when our hearts were young?

We remember how the sunshine fell that has never seemed so bright as when it lingered lovingly on the flaming hollyhocks that grew so tall. Taller, perhaps, than our tangled heads. And the breath of the wind seems sadder than when it sighed amongst the roses out in the little garden, Roses that now may drop their scented petals upon a mother's grave, and we love the memory of these because of the recollections that coax us to turn away from the passing world and look toward the

HOLLAND'S FOR OCTOBER.

The October number of Holland's Magazine comes with a splendid array of good things for home readers. The cover for the month is a study in grapes artistically done by Mrs. S. E. Buchanan, who also contributes an article, "The Fruit of the Vine," for this number.

Gilson Willets spent several years traveling in Europe and Asia as the special representative of Collier's and other periodicals. He has written a series of articles for Holland's Magazine, describing in detail some of the customs and methods of living in foreign lands. The first of these articles, which appears in the October issue, is entitled, "How They Do Things in Russia," and the numerous illustrations are made from photographs taken by Mr. Willets while in the Empire of the Czar.

"Bulbs for Spring and Winter Blooming," by Wm. Lomas, is a special feature for the month, and the article is superbly illustrated. Among the other special articles, F. P. Holland has a hunting sketch dealing with game on the Texas coast; and Frank H. Sweet tells how smelt are caught on the coast of Maine. In "Publicity Without Profit," Hester Grey deals with a subject of particular interest to merchants and their employees, and many shoppers will recall experiences similar to those related.

The stories for October include "Shellbark Williams Reformation," by Will Deming Hornaday; "Jumping Anothers Claim," by Anna M. Dixon; "An Echo of the Rosierucians" by Mrs. Lawrence Lewis; "A Halloween Bride" by Nellie Cravy Gillmore; "The Fatal Five-Cent Piece," by Jno. P. Guckes; "The Reign of Marion" by Mary Lewis; "The Fairy of Phooda Spring" by Harrietta M. Collins, and a number of others.

There are numerous Halloween suggestions, and the fashion, fancy work and kitchen departments are full of helpful hints.

Holland's Magazine, published at Dallas Texas, is rapidly taking a high place in magazine as the most fitting Southern representative of magazine literature.

CONFESSES HIS CRIME

Young New York Clerk States He Forged the Check

AND GOT SECURITIES

Henry Ambrose In a Statement He Signed Gives a Detailed Account of His Methods of Operations Were Conducted.

New York, Oct. 3.—Locked up at police headquarters is a young man named Henry Ambrose. He was employed as messenger by Halle & Stieglitz, brokers, 30 Broad street. He is twenty-four years old. He was arrested Sunday just as he left his residence, in West One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street, on his way to church. The young man was arrested on the charge of having by means of a forged check obtained from the National City bank securities valued at $359,080. Four hours later Ambrose broke down and in a flood of tears told the complete story of his crime. Captain McCauley of the detective bureau has in his possession more than half of the stolen securities. The remainder have been located. The young man has been regarded by his employers and by his friends as a model of propriety and honesty. His position was one of responsibility and trust. His engagement to a young woman, well known in society of this city, was recently announced and he was soon to have been married.
 According to the confession he signed the crime was all his own from the conception to its execution. He had made arrangements to dispose of the stocks and bonds which he had stolen, but at the time of his arrest, not one of them had been hypothecated by him. After he had completed and signed his confession he said that until the moment of his arrest, he did not deem it possible that he could be detected. The ambitions of the young man have been great. They led him to devote the greater part of his time, not given to his business, to the study of law, and he would, in a short time, have graduated from the Columbia Law school. He told Captain McCauley yesterday that his crime first found termination in his mind when he began to study how to make it impossible for just such a theft to be committed. He was present when Pearl & Co. hypothecated the securities upon which they obtained a loan of $300,000. He knew that the loan was at the rate of interest of four and one-half per cent. Right then he determined to take advantage of his knowledge of the banking routine and obtain possession of the stock shares and the bonds which had been used as collateral.
 After having seen the transaction completed he went to the Hanover National bank, where from a desk he picked up a pad of ordinary blank checks. Instead of using a stamp for the purpose of numbering the forged check, he used an ordinary pen and red ink.
 It was not any of his crude methods, however, that brought about the arrest of the young forger. He knew that no check would be accepted by the teller of the National City bank unless it were properly certified. Accordingly he went to an obscure stamp maker from whom he secured a die, such as is used by banks in certification of checks. It was this die which led to his arrest.
 After all other clues had been exhausted the detectives made a search of the city, visiting every stamp maker in each of the several boroughs. It thus came about that the description of the forger was obtained. That description was taken to Wall street, and an attempt was made to fit it to some one there employed. The right clue was discovered and the man who made the stamp was taken to Wall street and identified his customer.
 When the young forger gave the order for the certification stamp he directed that it be sent to him in care of one of the local branches of the Young Men's Christian Association. The clerk who delivered the stamp to him made the identification complete.
 The arrest followed. After he questioned his prisoner for some time Captain McCauley had almost concluded that it would be impossible to persuade him to make any confession, when suddenly the entire attitude of the young man changed.
 "It is true, Captain," he said, "you have me right. I am the man. I got the securities from the National City bank. None of them has been disposed of. I will return them all. I am glad that I have been captured. I have been a fool."
 He then made a complete statement, which was taken down in writing, and which he signed. To Captain McCauley he said it had not been his desire at any time to commit a crime, but he had been impelled to show the fallacy of the present surface methods of banking.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflames the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucin instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

CALLAHAN COUNTY WINS AGAIN.

S. H. French won the first prize for the best county exhibit at the Abilene Fair, and J. W. McEachin, of Eula, Callahan County, won second prize.

S. H. French is a veteran, having exhibited at fairs for the past eighteen or twenty years and has probably taken more premiums on agriculture and horticulture products than any man in West Texas.

Old Callahan County can knock the spots off any county in the West when they try, especially with such veterans as S. H. French to make up the exhibit.

The Dallas News was twenty years old last Sunday. In calling attention to the growth of the News and of Dallas during that time the News is justified in feeling proud of the success of both the News and its home city. The News is a great paper and we all like it, though sometimes we do not agree with it. The editor has been a constant reader of the Morning News from the date of its birth, first as a subscriber and two years later, or in 1887, have received it in exchange for THE STAR. For forty years we have been reading the News; beginning in 1865 as a good sized kid at the old home in Washington county, and a few years later when we went out into the world we took the News on our own hook. No wonder we regard the News as an old friend and as before stated, we do not always agree with it, neither does it always agree with us, so we suppose honors are even on that score. In the language of old Rip Van Winkle "May ye live long and prosper."

One evening as Beecher was in the midst of an impassioned speech, some one attempted to interrupt him by suddenly crowing like a rooster. It was done to perfection; a number of people laughed in spite of themselves, and the speaker's friends felt that in a moment the whole effect of the meeting and of Mr. Beecher's thrilling appeals might be lost. The orator, however, was equal to the occasion. He stopped, listened till the crowing ceased, and then, with a look of surprise, pulled out his watch.

"Morning already!" he said; "my watch is only at 10. But there can be no mistake about it. The instincts of the lower animals are infallible." There was a roar of laughter. The lower animal in the gallery collapsed, and Mr. Beecher was able to resume as if nothing had occurred. Success.

The Maxwell hotel and saloon property was sold at Administration sale Tuesday. Henry James bid it in for $2000.

DEATHS.

MRS. JOSEPHINE RICHARDSON.

Mrs. Josephine Richardson, aged 61 years, widow of the late Maj. D. Richardson, died last Monday evening, Oct. 2d. Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church Tuesday evening at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Charles A. Loveless, pastor of the church. Mrs. Richardson was one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Baird.

Several weeks ago Mrs. Richardson had a stroke of paralysis from which she never recovered, and while her death came not unexpected it was none the less sad to the family and the many friends of the family.

The church was crowded to its utmost capacity by friends, who came as a mark of respect to the deceased and her late husband, Maj. D. Richardson so well and favorably known to all the older residents of Baird and Callahan county.

The pastor paid an eloquent and merited tribute to the character of the deceased. The remains, accompanied by one of the largest processions ever seen in Baird, were interred in Baird cemetery.

Ellis Richardson, eldest son of the deceased, and family of Albany, Murray Harris, Road Master on the T. & P. near Texarkana, and Mr. Thomas Richardson, of Eula, were relatives out of town that attended the funeral.

THE STAR joins the many friends of the family in extending to them our heartfelt sympathy in their sorrow.

MRS. R. A. WILLIAMS.

The friends and neighbor of Mrs. R. A. Williams were surprised and pained to learn early this morning that she had died about 1:30 o'clock last night. Her death was caused by heart failure. About a week ago she had a severe spell and Mr. Williams and son Louis, who were out West on the T. & P., were wired to come home and arrived last Thursday. She recovered and yesterday was apparently as well as ever, and she and her husband had made arrangements to go fishing today. About 1 o'clock last night Mr. Williams was awakened by his wife making some slight exclamation. He arose hastily and did what they could for her, but in a short time she had passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams have lived in Baird since 1883, and have many friends who are made sad by the sudden blow the family have sustained.

We extend sincere sympathy and condolence to the bereaved family, and especially to little Mattie, who idolized her mother. To her the loss will be harder to bear than to the older members of the family. The loss of a mother under any condition is one of the saddest events in human life and to a child that looks to mother for everything as this little girl did none can realize the sorrow that must come to her.

Hayden Williams, the eldest son, who lives at Fort Worth, is expected on the evening train.

The funeral will take place this evening at 4 o'clock.

The newspaper is a wide field and full of roses and thorns. When you roast the preacher the ungodly smiles, when you roast the ungodly the preacher smiles. If you roast the saloon man the teetotler smiles; when you roast the teetotler the saloon man sets 'em up. If you swear, you are a wicked man, and if you pray you are a hypocrite. If you have an opinion you get cussed, and if you don't you are a nonentity. The preacher knows one thing, the saloon man another, but the journalist is expected to know everything. Matters of Interest Happening at the Capital of Lone Star State.

Austin, Oct. 2.—Railroad Commissioner Allison Mayfield returned from Zavala county, where he had been for ten days. He announced that he had turned down all petitions or applications from any railroads to be exempt from operation of emergency order on dry goods. The commission was waiting until his return before any action was taken on a number of applications pending. This practically means that no railroad will be exempt from the order.

Schultz was fined $150 and given eighty days in jail, while Breder was assessed $75 and twenty days' jail sentence.

URWITZ FOUND DEAD.

Houston, Oct. 2.—Dr. Max Urwitz, president of the Houston Turnverein and twice the Republican candidate for congress from this district, was found dead in his office Monday morning by his wife. He was in a chair, where he had been seated reading.

FUNNY BULLFIGHT.

More Like a Comic Opera Than a Sanguinary Encounter.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Los Angeles, says: A bullfight, with the attachments of a comic opera thrown in, was held at Santa Monica. The action was there, but of gore there was none, for the bulls were clad in football armor until they were twice their natural size and looked as if they had eaten something that had caused serious internal disorders. The matadors were similarly attired, and when one, hampered by his padding, was unable to escape the charge of the bull, the impact resembled a collision between two feather beds.

The fight was more on the order of a limited round pugilistic contest, in that the palm of victory was awarded on points. The judges decided in every instance in favor of the bulls, which would mean in Spain that the matador should commit suicide, as he swears to kill the animal or be killed by it. The defeated matadors are pleading "manana" and other dilatory phrases in explanation of their failure to end their lives and thereby wipe out disgrace of defeat.

The most amusing incident of the battle occurred when the judges, who represent the president in Mexican bull fights, announced their decisions. With one accord the two dozen matadors swung their arms wildly into the air, and swore in Spanish and shouted Mexican defiance at the decision.

Originally the intention was to hold a genuine bullfight, with plenty of blood shedding, but the authorities interfered. It was the first event of the kind ever held on American soil on the Pacific coast.

BATEMAN STABBED.

Well Known Texas Baseball Player Injured by Catcher Dexter.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 3.—Charles Dexter, catcher of the Des Moines Western League ball team, while intoxicated Monday evening, stabbed and probably fatally wounded first baseman, H. Q. Bateman, of the Milwaukee American association team, which had been playing a series of exhibition games here.

Dexter, Bateman and several other players of Des Moines and Milwaukee teams, were making the rounds of the city in a cab. Dexter and Bateman quarrelled over paying for the cab. Bateman is alleged to have called Dexter a Nig name, whereupon Dexter drew a knife and slashed Bateman across the breast, the blade cutting into the lung.

Dexter is widely known as a ball player and was one of the youngest players to enter the National league, being signed with Baltimore at the age of sixteen years. Bateman lives at Melissa, Collin county, Texas.

HOME OF HIS MOTHER

President Roosevelt Will Journey to Bulloch Hall.

ROOM OF LOVED ONE.

To View Apartment Where the Good Woman Who Bore Him Passed the Earlier Days of Her Existence on Earth.

Roswell, Ga., Oct. 2.—At a mass meeting held here, plans were perfected for the entertainment of President Roosevelt, who comes here Oct. 26 to inspect Bulloch Hall, the childhood and girlhood home of his mother, Mittie Bulloch, and the place where she was married to the president's father many years ago. The plan decided upon for the reception of the president on his visit are briefly as follows:

Senator Clay, who will be spokesman for the town in welcoming the president and party, will drive over from Marietta on the evening of the 19th. Mr. Clay will be the guest that night of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wing, who own the former home of the president's mother, and which has been named in honor of her, Bulloch Hall.

On the morning of the 20th, Mr. Clay, J. W. Wing, Mr. Sherman, mayor of Roswell, S. Y. Stribling and S. Crowley, will be driven to the station where they will be delivered into R. W. J. M. C. They will meet the president's special and convey the Roosevelt party to Bulloch Hall in carriages.

When the president and his party have reached the former home of his mother, he will be delivered into the hands of Mrs. J. B. Wing and Mrs. G. H. Wood, and these ladies will conduct him over Bulloch Hall. The president will be shown the room which his mother used as a child and as a grown up girl and as a young lady. In these rooms he will be shown, too, some of the furniture his mother used. The president will deliver an address.

HILL'S CONTENTION.

Patrick's Counsel Presents Remarkable Brief to Appeal Court.

Albany, Oct. 2.—The case of Albert T. Patrick, who since March 26, 1902, has been under conviction for the murder of the aged millionaire, William Marsh Rice, in New York City in 1900, came again before the court of appeals Monday in an aspect as remarkable as any of the previous phases of this case, which throughout has been one of the most extraordinary in the criminal history of this state.

Former Senator David B. Hill, in his brief, pointed out that a son of Judge Gray of the court of appeals was an assistant district attorney of New York and that this fact should disqualify Judge Gray.

In his reply, District Attorney Jerome asserted that the "suggestion that Judge Gray had violated proprieties is as contemptible as it is impudent." Judge Gray wrote the opinion against Patrick.

GOVERNMENT FIGURES.

First of Series Which Will Be Issued Regularly Hereafter.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The census bureau has issued a bulletin showing the quantity of cotton ginned from the growth of 1905 to Sept. 25 to be 2,558,631 bales.

These figures were compiled from telegraphic reports of special agents of the bureau, who have canvassed the ginneries of the various states and territories, and the report is one of a series which will be issued regularly hereafter until the completion of the ginning of the crop of 1905. The report is earlier than any made in 1904, rendering comparison impossible. FRANKLIN'S FIX.

Salvation Army Man is Accused of Having Two Wives Too Many.

Birmingham Ala., Oct. 2.—J. Walter Franklin was arrested here Saturday night by detectives while taking part in the services of the Salvation Army, on the charge of bigamy. Franklin is alleged to have three wives. His first marriage was in Newport, Ky., and the wife's name is Mrs. Cora Franklin.

About three years ago he came to this county and married a relative of Deputy Sheriff Reeves at Taddyville. A short time ago he brought his second wife and child to Birmingham but soon sent them home to visit relatives.

Soon after their departure he is alleged to have married Miss Penchie Jones a pretty eighteen year old Salvation Army girl of this city. He was with the latter wife when the arrest was made, and she was leading a prayer service when the officers appeared.

AGONIZING ACCIDENT.

"Oh, Honey, You Shot Me!" Gasp'd Lady as Husband Caught Her.

Beaumont, Oct. 2.—Mrs. F. J. Lewis was accidentally shot through the heart and instantly killed Sunday by her husband at the second lift of the Beaumont Irrigation company canal about nine miles from the city. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis were out hunting and he was standing about ten feet from the buggy preparing to shoot at some kind of game near by. He had a rifle and in some way it was prematurely discharged and the bullet passed squarely through Mrs. Lewis' heart.

She gasped, "Oh, honey, you shot me!" and then, just as she was falling from the buggy, her husband caught her in his arms. He pleaded with her to tell him more, but she never spoke again. He summoned neighbors, and a doctor, who stated that death came instantly, and that nothing could be done.

Mrs. Lewis was formerly Mrs. W. H. Monroe, daughter of Steve Pennington. The family is well known to all the oldtime Beaumonters, they having lived here several years. Mr. Lewis is heartbroken and nearly crazed.

CUTS HIS THROAT.

Desperate Deed of a Man on a Passenger Train.

Fort Worth, Oct. 2.—While a Texas and Pacific train was speeding along Sunday night, a man supposed to be Michael Shields, about fifty years old, well dresser, and of refined appearance, cut his throat in the toilet room near this city. When found he was dead. The gash was a horrible one. He got on the train at Dallas. He was hanging on the steps when the train started and a brakeman asked him where he wanted to go, and he replied, "El Paso." The brakeman told him that he had better get into the car; that he might get thrown under the wheels and killed.

"I haven't but one life to live," he said, and nothing more was thought of the matter until the lifeless body was found after the train pulled into the union station here.

Fatally Crushed by a Car.

Galveston, Oct. 2.—Will Arant night car inspector, Galveston, Houston and Henderson railroad, was killed Sunday night by being caught under a Galveston, Houston and Henderson passenger coach, which toppled over as the evident result of a derailment of its trucks.

Killed by Quarantine Fixture.

PAT CROWE CAPTURED.

Man Wanted Several Years For Alleged Kidnapping Arrested.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 3.—Pat Crowe, wanted by the Omaha police for the kidnapping of the son of Millionaire Packer Edward Cudahy in 1900, was arrested in this city Monday night. Crowe acknowledged he was the fugitive, becoming alarmed when he feared the authorities were going to shoot him. Captain of Police W. F. McGrath and Detective McInerney made the arrest, placing the muzzles of their revolvers against his stomach as he emerged from a saloon in the tenderloin section of the city. Crowe declared he would return to Omaha without requisition papers. He cursed bitterly at his arrest, expressing chagrin at his apprehension in a town the size of Butte, where he, as he said, had traveled the world over and evaded capture in all the large cities.

A friend of Crowe's informed the local police of Crowe's presence in the city and his arrest followed after photographs of the fugitive had been secured from Omaha.

Letter to Jeo Tisdale, Baird Texas.

Dear Sir: If it took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devoe, we save you $8 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as paint.

Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa. always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devoe took 6.

But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear?

The paint that goes furthest in covering, wears best too.

All paint, true paint, and full measure, are on one side; part paint false paint, and short measure are on the other. What can you expect?

Yours truly

"While out strolling last evening," says a reporter, "we passed a house from which emanated the inspiring strains of music from a piano and the throat of a charming young lady. The only words the reporter caught from the song were something about 'dear mother.' Passing on and turning down a side street the reporter saw through the kitchen window the dear mother with her arms buried almost to the elbow in a pan of dough, the sweat streaming down her wrinkled face and the hot range enveloping her. She was singing: 'We'll Work till Jesus Comes.'"—Killeen Herald.

UNCLE "JOSH SPRUCEBY."

The realistic saw mill scene in "Uncle Josh Spruceby" the way down east play, comes nearer to the genuine article than any of the many stage effects now before the public. In fact so real is the 36 inch buzz saw, that one of the actors of the play had his right hand cut off at the wrist during a performance last season in Illinois. No play nowadays is complete without something in the way of mechanical effects. "Uncle Josh Spruceby" lays claim to one of the most novel scenes of any piece on the road this season. A full and entirely practical saw mill is placed upon the stage and appropriate scenery is used to make a superior stage picture. When the heroine is rescued from her perilous position at the climax of the act the hearty applause gives evidence of the appreciation of this acme of stage realism.
