Red Cross Quota of $1,395.00 for Foard County Almost Reached Wednesday

Foard County's quota of $1,395.00 in the Red Cross fund campaign started last Thursday morning, March 1, was almost reached by Wednesday of this week. Up to Wednesday afternoon $1,304.52 had been raised, only $90.48 short of the quota. Fund Drive Chairman Cecil Carroll thinks the remainder will be collected within the next few days. Clinton McLain is Foard County's Red Cross chairman and Miss Margaret Curtis is the treasurer. Anyone who might have been missed by the soliciting committees is requested to give their donation to Mr. Carroll, Mr. McLain or Miss Curtis, as it is very important that the quota be completed at an early date. For many years following the destruction of Foard County by the tornado in 1942, Foard County was the first, or among the first, to raise its Red Cross quota. Any community that has not raised its quota within the county, can do so and report it at any time this month. Six communities in the county oversubscribed their quotas. They are Vivian, Black, Four Corners, Margaret, Riverside and Thalia. The ten communities listed in the county and their quotas and the amount raised follows: Crowell, with a quota of $770, has raised $615.81; Vivian, with a quota of $55, collected $62; Good Creek and Claytonville, with a $32.50 quota, has raised $23.00; Foard City, who's quota was $65.00, collected $50.20; Black, with a quota of $37.50, reported $38.25; Four Corners, assigned a quota of $90, raised $98.50; Margaret, with a $100 quota, reported $103.50; Riverside, which had a quota of $40, collected $73.25; Rayland, with a $65 quota, collected $55.50; and Thalia, with a $150 quota, has raised $184.51.

ATTEND MEETING

The two day program of the 1956 Area IV meeting of Future Homemakers of America in Stephenville, Texas, will contribute to more gracious living.

The guest speaker, Dr. A. C. Whimpey of Dallas, spoke interestingly on "Things You Don't Hear Every Day." Everyone was inspired by the sincerity of Dr. Whimpey's message.

In the afternoon, another highlight in entertainment was a dress rehearsal of the pageant, "Deep in the Heart of Texas," written and directed by Mrs. Nancy Jo Murphy of Seymour. This pageant is to be Area IV's contribution to the program of the State FHA meeting to be held in Fort Worth April 20 and 21.

The climax of the meeting came when Mrs. Anna Ferguson was installed as second vice president of Area IV. Another feature in Crowell's list is Anna Marie Faxon who was runner up for Area IV nominee for national vice president. Dr. Anna is now eligible to attend the National FHA meeting at Chicago this summer, July 2-6.

Another enjoyable occurrence was meeting our five ex-CHSites: Thomas Stone, J. C. Kincheloe, Edlye Graves, Gordon Graves and Robert Graves.

Those who attended were Mrs. Doyle Kennet, Mrs. George Sledge, Dr. Anna Ferguson, Anna Marie Faxon, Letrelle Duckworth, Sandra Chase, La Vey Remmel, Duane Sledge, Gayle Taylor, Jeanie White and Peggy Long. Also present for the afternoon session were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duckworth, who drove over from Hiss.

HAS PART IN PLAY

Dr. Jennie Louise Hindman, head of the Drama Department at Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, has just informed the Crowell Speech Department of the coming presentation of "Ten Little Indians," an Agatha Christie murder mystery.

Betty Sue Bartley, 1955 graduate of our local school, is playing the romantic lead, and V. A. Smith is cast in a major role. Betty Sue, who was active in dramatics in high school, is attending Midwestern on the attractive four year Lebus Speech Scholarship, the first one to be granted by the University, to a high school graduate.

V. A. who was rated as the most outstanding student in drama at the university last year, seems to be an ideal choice to play the part of the murderer.

Productions runs March 14, 15, and 16 in the university auditorium. Hour of performance is 8:15 each evening. Prices are $1 for adults and 50c for public school students. Those wishing to attend may contact Elizabeth or Bobby Dees at once.

"Ten Little Indians" was a " smash hit" on Broadway and throughout the country. The title comes from a rhyme about ten little Indians statures on a man-of-war in an old country house in Devon, England.

The play is full of suspense, action and comedy; therefore, it should prove a most exciting experience for a theater-goer.

BENNY SHORT LOADS ROCKETS IN SCRAMBLE TO INTERCEPT "ENEMY" AIRCRAFT

In Sherman and Denison last Thursday morning, Feb. 23, shortly after 9 a. m., at Perrin Air Force Base, alert hangar where F-84 Sabre jets are kept in constant readiness, a warning horn sounded. The hangar was a "scramble" signal for two pilots, A2C Benny Short and A2C Teddy Hunt to get their jets off the ground in less than five minutes and intercept the "enemy."

The air attack warning part of a planned program for training

TEXAS PRESS MANAGER HONORED

Brig. Gen. Lewis S. Griffling, Chief of the Texas Military District, is pictured here as he presents a U. S. Army Certificate of Achievement to Vernon T. Sanford, general manager of the Texas Press Association. Lt. Gen. J. H. Collier, Commanding General of the Fourth Army at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, signed the Certificate. It was presented in the office of General Griffling in Austin. Among those present were Col. Thomas C. Gwyn, TMD Executive Officer; Col. David F. Brown, Senior Army Advisor for Texas Reserves; and Charles A. Green, editor of the Austin American-Statesman. Sanford was honored for contributing his own time and effort to a publicity campaign promoting U. S. Army Reserve Day in Texas. Said General Griffling: "Lt. Sanford has greatly strengthened relations between the United States Army and newspaper publishers in the State of Texas. He has contributed significantly to the Army Reserve Program and the National Defense Effort."

newsmen from the midwest, brought home to them the importance of both the Air Force jet flight training program and air defense of key industrial cities.

After the air alert sounded, news writers watched the two Sabrejets as they roared from their hangars out to the flight line. Time elapsed from the warning buzzer sounded to the time both aircraft were in the air was 2 minutes and 10 seconds.

Not more than 10 minutes later, over a special radio hook up, the touring writers heard the pilot's "daily ho," signifying the pilot could see his target on his radar scope. Minutes later, the pilot called out, "one splash." The enemy target was destroyed. From the time the Sabrejets left the ground until the time the "enemy" was destroyed, not more than 15 minutes had elapsed. Location of the "kill" was approximately 54 miles south of Perrin, just south of Dallas.

The "scramble" gave the touring writers a graphic illustration of what could happen in this area, and how the threat is met. Taking the experience back with them to their respective newspapers, they were better acquainted with similar defense measures set up for their own respective communities.

Following a dinner, given by the Sherman Chamber of Commerce and Perrin AFB, the writers were driven back to observe a night takeoff by a jet using afterburner. The afterburner, explained one of the Perrin officers, is a device that feeds extra fuel into the combustion chamber to provide an additional 2000 lbs. of thrust. With the added boost, the aircraft "doesn't fly off the ground," said the officer. "It's pushed," he said. Standing just feet away from the jet, the ignition of the fuel and resulting combustion — shooting a blue-white flame some four feet out of the tail of the plane—split the air with an ear-shattering roar. The writers acted without prompting when they were advised to hold their fingers in their ears, but still could feel the vibrations given off by the jet throughout their bodies.

Explaining the purposes of Perrin, Col. Whitehouse noted a three fold responsibility: training of F-84 pilots, air defense of the Dallas - Fort Worth - Oklahoma City area, and adding to the Air Defense Command's manpower potential.

Within the building the group was told there is $4 million worth of light simulation equipment. Showing two types of flight simulators, newsmen were awed by the complexity of the equipment that reproduces every possible flight condition except the force of gravity and falling out. One machine alone costs $400,000, newsmen learned, but more than

Friday morning: They stuck me in the finger with a pin and took some blood. The nurse was about 30 years old, married, and had about five "kids."

Friday noon: At dinner they gave me a shot, and I felt as if I was "gone, man."

Friday afternoon: About 2:15 they took me to the operating room and a nice looking nurse with a mask came in and stuck a foot long needle in my arm until it tickled my heart. She told me to take a deep breath, and that was "all she wrote."

Friday night: I came to.

Saturday: They fed me a good breakfast; one ounce of hot tea, and a good dinner; one ounce of hot bullion.

Sunday: They released me.

FEB. SPANISH MEETING

The Picaros de Enrique met February 28 in the home of Roma Jan Spikes. The customary Spanish dishes consisting of enchiladas, tamales, casserole, salad, tortillas were enjoyed by about 25 guests. The tables, covered with red cloths and matching napkins, each had a centerpiece of a Spanish relish.

Because of the Leap Year dance, the usual program was omitted after planning the next meeting which will be held in the home of Janis Crowell.

Mothers helping with the supper were Senora Clarence Garrett, Sally Pace, Foster Davis, Raymon Raspberry and Louis Painter.

One more week has rolled around and here we are racking our brains (???) to prepare this column.

"A person cannot be in two places at once" is an accepted fact, but on Monday morning, March 5, the students were quite sure that our own Mrs. Davis, by some sort of voodoo, had done the impossible, for appearing in the paper was a picture of her as a matron at TCU.

"How? Did she have a magic lamp with a genie? A magic carpet, perhaps. Or was it some special "witches brew"? None of these. The answer is really very simple. It was her sister, Mrs. Catherine Ball, who could pass for her twin.

CHARLES TODD WINS HONORS AT HOUSTON SHOW

Charles Todd, freshman in Crowell High School from Truett, has just returned from Houston, where he entered eight registered Hampshire sheep and two fat lambs in both open and junior divisions of the Houston Fat Stock Show.

He returned to school Monday morning, hoping he had studied and learned in his spare moments in his Houston hotel room, the correct facts for Mrs. Davis' world history examination, scheduled for 9 a. m. He says contemplating a history test without Mrs. Davis' wonderful class discussion is not very pleasant.

Charles' trip proved both exciting and exhausting, but successful. It was exciting because he travelled by Braniff airlines, leaving from Wichita Falls and reaching his destination before his mother, who had driven him to the airport, could reach home by automobile. Additional excitement was occasioned by his almost missing his plane out of Dallas since engine trouble had caused a sudden drop of several hundred feet and delayed their arrival in that city. Later, on the return trip, the pickup in which he was riding to the Houston airport, was held up in early morning traffic at the viaduct, and he almost missed his plane again.

Showing in Houston this season was exhausting because of the large number of entries, which meant standing longer for sifting as well as the actual contests. In addition, the entire burden of grooming, feeding, and caring for the sheep fell on Charles since his father, who usually helps, was assistant sheep superintendent this year.

However, Charles was pleased to bring home the following places: grand champion ram, reserve champion ram, reserve

The boys had better hurry up and make plans for this important date. Wherever there is a group of girls gathered, the topic of conversation is invariably new formal and dates for the banquet.

POWER OF POSITIVE THINKING

Lowell Brown, minister of the Eastside Church of Christ and student at ACC, Abilene, spoke in assembly Monday, March 5.

His topic brought out the idea that we should think positively rather than negatively. Using Hitler and Stalin as examples, he illustrated the danger of using our influence in the wrong way.

News from the Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

Debate has started in the Senate on the legislation that will fund the agricultural program for next year. The House Committee on Agriculture has this been holding hearings. Within the next few weeks the matter will be considered by the Senate. There has been much said about the agricultural surplus. It seems that there is one thing that has not been fully understood, and that is some degree of our sizeable surplus have been caused by the fact that the State Department in the exercise of our foreign policy effectively prevented movement of a large portion of these surpluses into the world market, and also over a period of several years, they have credited foreign countries active in the fight for our agricultural surplus. Since this is the case, it seems unfair that so much should be said about charging our surplus up to the American farmer rather than a great share being charged to the State Department and our foreign policy as it should be. We should understand that we have and are stockpiling many strategic materials in the event we should be involved in a war. If a war should occur, and everyone hopes, of course, that it will not, a large portion of our agricultural surpluses would be used immediately in the war effort and would certainly stand us in good stead.

Shortly, consideration will be given here to a large program for Federal aid to education. Everyone recognizes the fact that a proper and adequate system of education is essential to the continuation of our form of government, and the stress that has been put on our existing system by the great increase in our population is well known; however, the underlying question is whether or not the Federal Government should ultimately take over the responsibility of supporting, maintaining, and eventually controlling our public school system. Throughout our history, the states and the local school districts have had this responsibility and through the years have done a remarkable job of providing a high quality of free education. If the states and local authorities are to be relieved of this responsibility by the Federal government, it would obviously be just one more step toward the centralization of everything here in Washington, and it would leave much less of the governmental function to be controlled at the local level. It seems to me that the states and the local authorities can do a much more efficient and worthwhile job of administering our schools than can the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

"Education for Freedom" Theme of Teachers' Convention

"Education for Freedom" is the theme of the fifteenth annual convention of District VII teachers, who will meet in Sweetwater, March 9 and 10.

Educators of national prominence such as Dr. William Van Til, director of teaching and curriculum at Peabody College; Mrs. Billie Davis, "The Hobo Kid," and Dr. Glenn O. Blough, professor of education at the University of Maryland, will speak at the three general sessions, according to R. M. Hix, district president. Speakers for luncheons and sectional meetings fill more specialized assignments and in most cases come from Texas college and university halls.

Traffic Signs Are Designed to Protect Human Lives

"Traffic signs are designed to protect human life. It is essential that you know them by sight and obey them without fail."

This advice was given to motorists this week by E. C. McFadden, vice president of Employers' Casualty Co., Dallas, and president, Texas Safety Association, Inc., speaking in behalf of the Signs of Life program being sponsored this month by the Texas Safety Association, Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council. This program is a state-wide drive against traffic accidents in which motorists are urged to know and obey traffic signs.

"Traffic signs represent the expert thinking of traffic engineers and safety officials and have proven their effectiveness in preventing accidents," Mr. McFadden said. "Our main job in the enforcement field is persuading motorists and pedestrians to obey these Signs of Life for their own protection."

Urging motorists to learn the Signs of Life by shape so that they may immediately recognize them on sight, Mr. McFadden described these six traffic signs as follows:

1. Octagon . . . red with white lettering. It means come to a full stop and make sure the way is clear before proceeding. This is a revision of the older stop sign painted yellow with black lettering, but the meaning remains the same.
2. Triangle . . . yellow with black lettering reading "Yield Right of Way." It signifies slow down or stop to give right of way to cross traffic at intersections.
3. Rectangle . . . white with lettering in black or another color. This sign indicates traffic laws concerning parking restrictions, speed limits, turning and passing regulations, etc.
4. Round . . . yellow with "X" and "RR" in black lettering. It warns of a highway-railroad crossing some 300 to 500 feet ahead.
5. Diamond . . . yellow with black lettering. This sign warns of dangerous or unusual conditions ahead such as curves, side roads, intersections, hills, dips, bumps, school zones, etc.
6. Crossbuck . . . tall white

March 3-11 Dates for National 4-H Week

"Improving Family and Community Living" is the 1956 theme for National 4-H Club week set for March 3-11.

During the week, the more than 121,000 4-H Club members in Texas will make special efforts to let folks in their communities and counties know about the purpose of 4-H Club work, the program of work and special activities. Also, they will pay special tribute to the adult local leaders, of which there are more than 10,000 in the State.

In Texas, 4-H Club work is directed by the Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M College System. Locally, 4-H programs and activities are directed by county extension agents with assistance from parents, local leaders and friends of 4-H.

The voluntary youth program has a nationwide enrollment of more than 2,000,000 members, and 42 foreign countries have now organized 4-H clubs. Through a two-way exchange program, known as the International Farm Youth Exchange, outstanding older 4-H Club members exchange experiences with foreign rural boys and girls by living and working for 6 months in farm homes abroad.

4-H Club members conduct demonstrations and activities which touch every phase of farming, ranching and home life. They learn from actually doing the job in their homes and on their farms.

Plan Adopted for Training Swimming Pool Operators

A plan for training and certifying pool operators and for rating pools on the basis of sanitation and safety has been announced by the State Department of Health.

State Health Commissioner Henry A. Holle said the plan, which is voluntary, will get underway by April. It is designed to reduce drownings and similar pool mishaps, and disease transmissions through contaminated water.

Under terms of the plan, any public pool operator may register for "short schools" to be held according to announced schedules. The schools will be sponsored by the health department and the Texas Beach and Pool Association. Operators who successfully complete the instruction and pass a written test will be awarded certificates of competency.

Public pools will be awarded health department placards of approval if periodic inspections show the pools are conforming to minimum standards of safe and sanitary operations as prescribed by the State Health Department.

The placards, similar to those awarded to tourist courts which maintain acceptable sanitation standards, are designed to be hung in a conspicuous place at the pool.

The presence of the placard will denote to swimming enthusiasts that the pool is being run according to accepted standards.

Schools will be held in Dallas March 19, in Wichita Falls March 26, and Lubbock March 27.

Austin, Tex.—Texans will hear a lot about "interposition" during the next few months.

Gov. Allan Shivers has asked the Democratic State Executive Committee to consider placing on the July ballot a referendum on "interposition."

"Interposition" as it is being used in this case means "to stand between." And the Federal Government's interference with States Rights is what Governor Shivers refers to. He seeks to place the Texas Legislature between the people of Texas and "the abnormal extension of power by the Federal Government in all its branches—Legislative, Executive and Judicial."

Shivers contends that certain rulings are beyond the power of the court. Therefore the referendum to be voted on in July would be a declaration by the people lie pools—exclusive of private and semi-private pools maintained by tourist courts and like organizations.

Dr. Holle said the recreation departments of several cities had indicated that they will require pool operators to win certification under the new plan as a condition for employment.

of Texas that US Supreme Court decisions on such matters as the Tidelands, integration and the Federal Power Commission's control over gas are inapplicable because they go beyond Federal jurisdiction.

If approved by the people, the referendum would be a mandate to the Legislature for them to vote for submission of a Federal constitutional amendment firming up and defining State Sovereignty.

While other states are using interposition in a negative fashion, Shivers plans to use it in a positive way to protect the state's rights. He is strongly opposed to the extension of power by the Federal Government at the expense of state and local governments.

"Interposition" will be an often used word during the coming months. People who do not like the idea say it is "nullification." Shivers contends he is opposed to nullification as being contrary to truly constitutional government.

VETERANS' LAND SALES will be court house news again in Austin, come March 6. That's when the trial scheduled for B. R. Sheffield, Brady land promoter and one-time business associate of former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, will be held.

Sheffield has summoned 131 witnesses, including Governor Shivers, Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd, and Land Commissioner J. Earl Rudder. Also John Osorio, aide to Shivers; Robert S. Trotti, former first assistant attorney general; and Homer Garrison, director of public safety.

Sheffield is charged with theft of state funds in connection with a Kinney County land deal.

TEXAS POLITICS heated up ahead of season when Governor Shivers announced that he might run for a fourth term. It is the closest he has come to saying "yes." This news quickly eclipsed an earlier statement by Sen. Jimmy Phillips of Angleton that he was withdrawing from the race for governor for lack of campaign funds. A later announcement by Shivers was that he would reveal his political plans for 1956 on March 1.

U. S. Sen. Price Daniel said that Shivers' decision, whichever way it went, would in no way affect his own decision about becoming a gubernatorial candidate. His announcement awaits disposal of farm legislation now pending in Congress, and is expected by mid-March.

Health Department Urges Texans to Clean Up Premises Now

Spring and clean up time are with us, and Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health, urges all good citizens of the state to join in an effort to make each community a better and safer place in which to live.

One benefit of cleaning up is the elimination of fire hazards which cause a heavy toll of life and property. This can be done by keeping premises free from inflammable rubbish.

Flies also breed in trash and filth and spread disease. Each residence should have a metal garbage can with a tight-fitting lid. The three known methods of getting rid of flies are screening, keeping premises clean and the use of insecticides.

The rat is a menace to public health and is capable of spreading several diseases. He is fond of making his home in dead spaces or holes around porches and walks. Rats cause trouble by eating and contaminating large quantities of grain and other foods, destroying property and are sometimes the cause of fires.

When cleaning up your premises, take a look at the following:

- Garbage pail . . . is it a metal one with a tight-fitting lid?
- Porch steps . . . do they need repairing or painting?
- Closets and attic . . . do they need repairing or painting?
- Cellar . . . is it rat-proof and clear of rubbish?
- Screens . . . are any of them broken? Remember, flies make an entrance this time of year.
- House . . . is it soap-and-water clean inside, and painted outside? Is it safe from accident hazards?
- Yard and garage . . . has all trash been removed, and tools hung in safe places?

OPPORTUNITIES IN SPORTS

Possibly some of the athletes in CHS have thought of making a living by the sport in which they excel. An article in a recent edition of "Sport" magazine tells of the situation and chances of an athlete who turns professional. If you do plan to carry on your sports activities professionally, you had better be prepared to go into some other business, because the "golden years" in the sports bracket last, as an average, only six years. A survey showed that sports professionally last playing years professionally last only about four years; basketball, five to six; and baseball, five to six. The best are usually very young when they start playing professionally. The large portion of the rookies are only 21. The oldest rookies are about 25. It is hard to attain the goal of a good pro player, but the rewards are great. The men of the diamond sport average some $12,000 yearly, while gridiron and basketball performers make about $8,000 per annum. Of course, athletes realize that it would be easier to play baseball and football since there are some 400 men playing major league baseball and nearly the same number on pro football teams. Basketball affords only 80 places. As you can see, you've got to be very good to reach a major athlete's post of any kind, but you can also see that it certainly has its rewards.

KNOTHOLE NEWS

If you can scrape the dirt out of your eyes, read this. Who had the most fun at Stephenville? Peggy, DeAnna or LaVoy? Heard you had fun at the Baptist Youth Center. Have Peggy and Gerald called it quits? All future freshmen, take warning. You better start being good little boys. That new twist has really taken hold—meaning J. C. and Ned. Ray isn't giving the other boys a chance with Roxie. Why does Beverly call Dianne "Phoenix," maybe the scandal knows. Who is Rayford Trammel after? Couldn't be Sandra Choate, could it? Why do those sophomore girls have to tag it to Vernon? Aldon - Lizzy, Ray - Betty Jane, Jackie - Sandra, Jack - Carolyn and the other steadies—still going strong. Bud, don't tear up any more letters. Barbara - Ted, Betty Jane - Ray made Vernon Saturday and Sunday nights both. Well, spring is officially here. Why? The boys have started bleaching their hair. It has been the spring fashion to do this at CHS for many years. Meeting the bunch from the FHA convention Saturday night were Bill and Edward. Wonder why? A certain girl we know thinks that Lowell Brown is the best preacher in town. Could it be that she's right? Davis, were you lonesome during Twyla's trip to Denton? Our deepest sympathy goes to Bubba Monkes. He cut two fingers off Monday. Does Orr have to go to the hospital to get Patsy to come to see him? Got some good snapshots, haven't you, Hoot? Looks like "stormy weather" for Edward and LaVoy. Fredrik, what were you doing behind the cafeteria Saturday night? Seen fixing a flat very early Sunday morning at Foard City (??) were Frank and Dale Keith. Who cut the tape off Ted's ring, Babs? Peggy, LaVoy and De Anna really like Tarleton now, especially the boys there. Latrelle thinks that '38 Chevrolets are the best cars on the road. A new steady is Jo Helen Aly and David Bursley. They were seen together Saturday night. Why is Bobby Hopkins called T. T. I. F. L. B.? Seems as though Dianne has a strong crush on a certain freshman boy. Could his initials be David Carpenter? We wonder what attraction the football field has for Ray and Betty Jane. Till next week, that's all from the Knothole news.

Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

Last week we had two training meetings and all of the clubs were not represented at either one of them. I realize that sometimes you are unable to attend a training meeting, but please try to get someone else from your club to take your place if at all possible so that your club will have this demonstration.

If you have not already done so, you may prune trees now. However, remember, prune for a purpose. Plan carefully and prune moderately. Severe pruning or "de-horning" can permanently deform and injure trees. Prune trees to make the place more comfortable, convenient, safe and attractive. Often trees can be shaped to improve their appearance. Low hanging limbs can be pruned off so that the lawn will be open and look more spacious. The health of the tree can be improved by removing dead, diseased, or injured limbs.

Use good tools to do the job. A pruning saw and pruning shears are necessary. Pole pruners and pole saw may be needed to reach high into the tree to remove diseased or injured limbs or to nip back high branches to make a tree form a dense shade.

Watch your pruning technique! Make clean cuts, flat or flush with the main limb or trunk. Stubs left by improper cutting may cause rotting of the heart wood. You may need to treat cuts on large limbs by painting with a pruning compound, such as orange shellac, to hasten healing. Most trees make oils to cover small cuts. Generally, horticulturists advise putting nothing at all on a cut 2 inches or less in diameter.

If pruning is done now, spring growth will soon hide the cuts. Our recipe this week is:

Banana Nut Bread
1/3 cup fat, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 egg, 2/3 cup bananas, 2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/3 cup sweet milk, 1/2 cup nuts.

Cream shortening and sugar; add beaten egg; add the mashed bananas; add the milk and sifted dry ingredients and nuts alternately. Bake in a pound size greased loaf pan 8"x4" in pre-heated oven 350 degrees F. 1 hour.

MARGARET H. D. CLUB

Mrs. C. W. Ross was hostess to the Margaret Home Demonstration Club last Thursday with 12 members and one visitor present.

The meeting was opened by the vice president, Mrs. W. F. Bradford in the absence of the president, Mrs. Joe Bledsoe. Roll call was answered with a joke.

"Should children have an allowance to spend and if it was all used, should they be given more?" was asked by Mrs. Arthur Bell and was discussed by the members of the club.

Refreshments of cake, sandwiches and salad was served by the hostess.

THALIA H. D. CLUB

Mrs. Charlie Gray, as hostess, served coffee, pops and cookies to Mesdames Leroy Henry, Merle Moore, L. H. Hammonds, T. R. Cates, McCarty, Raymond Grimm, W. A. Johnson, Roy Shultz and B. A. Whitman, and one visitor, Mrs. Duane Camps. The club is going to sell vanilla for the club house at Crowell to get a coffee urn.

Mrs. Cates gave a talk on "What is your weight?" for underweight and overweight.

Pragmatic philosophy reasons that "if it works, it's good."

Public Schools Will be Held in Texas to Be Held March 5th thru 10th

from Mrs. L. E. Dudley, President The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs is proud to report the Public Schools program scheduled for the month of March 5th, 1956. It is important that we, as citizens, visit schools to find out the program that has been made in disseminating knowledge—for we know knowledge is power and it is intended for the advancement of mankind, hence we should watch carefully over the programs used in development schools are public property, we are the owners and responsible for the care and protection of the property. The teachers in schools are entrusted with responsibility of not only giving knowledge, but in developing the character of the citizen tomorrow. They need the constant that we manifest when we employ, visit and appreciate their work.
