A Series of Local Children's Pictures to Be Taken Free for Publication in News

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation, and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publisher of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures... they must all be of uniform size and quality... we have invited the Woltz Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, a nationally known portrait studio, to take these special pictures for us.

An expert children's photographer for the studios, with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here on Tuesday, January 15. Pictures will be taken at the City Hotel and will be open from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

No Charge to Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures, the Better

The News simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more, the better. So the mothers and fathers of the community in which this paper circulates should remember the date—January 15—at the City Hotel and not fail to bring their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad, afterwards, if you did, and very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have much fun and the youngsters, too—will be very proud to see their pictures in the paper later.

Appointments may be made by calling 43.

COLOR CRAZY

Did you ever stop to think of the many things with which we associate each shade and hue of the many different colors?
 "Blue" and "eyes" are inseparable compound terms. Black is a favored color (not really a color), but it has two very different meanings. With the right accents, it can mean "conservative" or "wicked." Green is just naturally "poison"—if it's any food other than vegetable. I wonder why? I guess someone ate too many green apples.

 Color is a part of our everyday life. Not necessarily do we have to be dressed in color or drive a colorful car to a colorful red brick school house or a tricolor movie, but the intensity with which we work, play, speak, and eat—these are things which color our lives. An ideal life shade for some people I know might be called "vivid and varied." Those who "don't care" may be pictured in the minds of others as "washed out" which is one good way to become "washed up" as far as a very successful future is concerned.
 Let's become colorful artists. We're all assigned—to paint our lives.
 What colors will your life contain?

WILDCATS WIN WELL-EARNED AWARDS

Christmas came a little late for the CHS football team—Jan. 3, to be exact. Students returning from the Christmas holidays entered halls "abuzz" with the news that the long-awaited football jackets had finally arrived.
 At 9 o'clock, an assembly was called, and after a speech by the superintendent, Grady Graves, in which he praised this year's team and expressed the hope that next year's team "would go all the way," the coveted jackets were awarded to the coaches, Thayne Ammett, Glenn Taylor and Gordon Erwin; the managers, James Grady McDaniel, Joe Wheeler and Larry Ferguson; and the Wildcat lettermen. Team members receiving the handsome black jackets with gold insets at the sleeves and gold letters were Gerald Bradford, Joe Calvin, David Carpenter, Gordon Cates, Ivan Cates, James Doyal, Billy Everson, Princess Gidney, Edward Howard, R. H. McCoy, Roy Don Payne, Jerry Pittillo, Dale Rettig, Louis Rettig, Larry Sledge, Harvey Smith and Ray Thomson.

 The sweaters were late in coming, therefore, the reserves, Tom Crowell, Jerry Clifton, Bill Graves, Jim Henry, Duane Nichols, Bobby Powers and Fredrick Youres, had to wait until Monday, Jan. 7, to receive them.
 Willie, the CHS Wildcat, says, "Congratulations, football team of 1956 and best wishes football team of 1957."

MARKETTA'S MUMBLINGS

"TV or not TV—that is the question."
 Perhaps that is not the way Will Shakespeare would have said it—but if he still lived today, I'll bet my last English book that he would change his line.
 Of course, I like TV, but sometimes the more technical programs, like Sheena, Queen of the Jungle, and Ding Dong School, get too deep for me.
 By this time everyone should have recovered from Christmas and new year's eve enough to begin studying for that all important event—mid-term exams. Does everyone have good citizenship?
 Marriages, engagements, and more marriages! Seriously, we wish the best of everything in the future for the lucky couples. We old maids would just like for it to be us.
 From all reports the Roses in the Snow Dance, sponsored by the Junior Adelphean Club, and the sock hop, sponsored by the Junior Columbian Club, were both successes. If students will support the dances, maybe they will occur more often.

A call came over the public address system for the football boys, "report to the office." Upon arriving in the office, they found they were to report to the auditorium. In the auditorium, they received their long awaited football jackets.

We do everything different around CHS! Especially the annual staff of this year arranged for a new autograph section. Last Wednesday the students met in the cafeteria to sign the autograph sections of the yearbook. The sections will be sent back to the printing company to be bound in our yearbook.

Short and sweet is the theme of this column, but so was school last week.

STUDENT BODY EXPRESSES SYMPATHY

We, the faculty and student body, extend our deepest sympathy to the E. H. Crosnoe family in the loss of their husband and father recently and to the John L. Hunter Sr. family in the loss of their father recently. Mr. Hunter was Mrs. Guy Bounds' father.

CLASSROOM TEACHERS SOCIAL

The Classroom Teachers met Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 19, immediately after school at the home of Mrs. Moody Bursey for a Christmas tea. The Christmas motif was featured throughout the home.

The afternoon was spent in visiting. Dainty refreshments were served to those present. Mrs. Clint White assisted her niece, Mrs. Bursey, with hostess duties.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Six feet, brown eyes, brown hair, dressed in western clothes—this describes our senior of the week, Edward Daniel.

"Big Ed," who is graduating at mid-term, lists algebra as his favorite subject and "Tiny" Taylor as his favorite teacher.

A favorite pastime of Ed's is riding horses or attending a movie in which Jane Russell or Slim Pickens stars. Among his favorite vocalists, Ed puts Jimmy Davis singing "Peace in the Valley" at the top. His favorite color, pink, is pictured in his western shirts. Attracting Ed a little more than algebra was football. Making A team and also the district team highlighted his freshman year.

When he was asked what irritated him most, he answered, "Marketta Painter."

The Armed Forces—instead of Ed—is making plans for his immediate future.

COLUMBIAN CLUB "THROWS PARTY"

To start the new year off with a bang, the Sub Junior Columbian Club gave a sock hop. At the country club, members and their guests danced amid an array of multi-colored balloons and crepe paper. The big, black clock on the east wall, with its hands set at midnight, reminded everyone of the approaching new year.

Spicy, mint green punch and delicious cookies were served by the sponsors: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Halbert, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bell and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hughston. Many, many thanks to the Columbian Club. We had a wonderful time!

STUDENTS PANIC AS EXAMS DRAW NEAR

As the time draws near for the approaching mid semester exams, many students will go into slight panic for the lack of knowledge in the courses in which they are enrolled. Reason: they have not prepared themselves during the past four and one-half months.

About the only alternative left now is cramming. It is hard on the mind, and it does no lasting good. It is just a case of memorizing enough facts to "get by" on. It is not lasting knowledge, knowledge that has been gained in day by day preparation.

The primary purpose for taking a course is not merely to make good grades but to obtain information that may be of value in future use.

The amount of preparation necessary for you to pass an examination is an acknowledgment of how you have used your time. A passing grade is a nice thing to have on the report card to show your parents, but it will be almost worthless if it is attained by mere cramming to pass a test.

An employer will not judge you by the grade you made but by the knowledge you have of subject matter and your ability to apply that knowledge.

There is no excuse for any student to make a failing grade. We have instructors who are capable, facilities that are adequate. The trouble is that we have too many pupils content just to pass.

If you haven't been doing so well in your class work, "dig in" a little harder next semester. Don't cheat yourself out of an education. It is a golden opportunity that will never again come your way.

PUPILS HAVE PARTY

Wednesday, Jan. 2, the annual staff sponsored an annual signing party in the school cafeteria for the purpose of completing the autograph section of the 1957 Roundup.

Using an entirely new idea this year, each student will receive an annual with his individual autograph section bound in the book.

This method is used by many surrounding schools and aids in having a neater book. Also, students away from home when the 1957 Roundup is issued will still be enabled to have those much coveted autographs of friends and foes.

ANNUAL ABC'S

A—A box has been placed in the office.

B—You are requested to drop any snap shots suitable for use in the 1957 Roundup into said box.

C—The Annual staff will greatly appreciate any contributions.

SPORTS SPOTLIGHT

The Crowell Wildcats journeyed east last Friday afternoon to play Holliday. Both the A and B teams lost their games. With Larry Sledge leading the pack, the A boys were bested by the score of 70-54. Tough luck! The B team followed suit and were downed by the score of 53-37.

Fans, be sure to follow and back the boys in all their games. The main thing—don't give up—the season is still young. Good luck, Wildcats!

LIBRARY NEWS

The Crowell High School Library Club met on Thursday, Jan. 30 for their Christmas meeting.

To get the meeting off to a good start, beautiful book covers and Christmas bells were on the girls by Mrs. King. Next a Christmas story was read by Lavoy Rummel. To follow that Jeanie White and Lois Ann Parker sang a duet, "White Christmas." Then the group sang several Christmas carols.

Refreshments were served to the officers, Anna Marie Faske, DeAnna Ferguson, Lavoy Rummel and Ruth Hinkle.

Since the holidays, preparations have been started for remodeling the shelves in the library office. The old shelves have been taken down, and a new coat of paint has been applied to the walls.

Some very good news is store for book lovers, for 300 books have taken their place on the shelves since Christmas.

STORY NO. 3

Mexican Border Troubles of 1915-17 Hatched in Parr Capital, San Diego

By—FREDERICK HODGSON

SAN DIEGO, TEX.—Like his father, George Berham Parr is a small man as Texans go. In him there is a curious touch of Pancho Villa, or Robin Hood.

A psychologist could explain Parr much better than I can explain his sometimes baffling behavior.

Unlike his father, George Parr is trigger-tempered, often to the point of rashness. For example, there is the incident of a few weeks ago when a Duval County commissioner, Tomas H. Molina, angered him. Parr grabbed a rifle and raged out of his office and into the Courthouse across the street, shouting for Molina. He was cornered in the basement by Ranger Walter Russel and disarmed.

Parr's white hair is dyed red, a mahogany red. In contrast to both the "Anglos" and the Latins, he always dresses neatly in a business suit. He is deep-tanned, soft spoken and there is much about him that is charming—and disarming. He lives high and, among other things, loves fast horses and bull fights.

"And he won't listen to anybody," one of his top lawyers told me. "If he'd listen to his attorneys when they flash a red light on him he wouldn't get into half as much trouble."

George Parr, age 55, is a lawyer himself although his only client is George B. Parr, his only son.

I watched Parr on the night of the July 28 primaries. The polls were just about to close when I talked to him. He was a very busy man, issuing orders right and left in rapid Spanish, giving followers crisp green bills and sending them on errands. He seemed harassed, even wistful. The scene was the Mexican-style plaza in front of the church of San Paulo.

Parr's people, hundreds of them, milled around in the dusk under the trees. Across the street from the Parr forces was anti-Parr headquarters—and between the two groups armed Texas Rangers under Captain Alfred Allee moved quietly. The atmosphere was tense and electric. San Diego police, often called Parr's pistoleros, under Chief Manuel Amaya, circulated through the two groups, guns slapping against their thighs. The street in front of the City Hall, across the plaza from the church, had been roped off by the Rangers.

I was watching Parr when the soft bell of the angelus rang from the Church of San Paulo. He stopped talking and stood quite still. Around him his people became silent. Hats came off. Here and there a woman lifted her mantilla, nun-like, over her dark hair.

The last echo of the Angelus had long gone when the spell was broken by juke box music from a candy store.

It was difficult just then to imagine San Diego, Texas, as the hottest spot in Texas politics, as the scene of plundering, of murder—sixty three murders in just over a dozen years according to Attorney General John Ben Shepperd.

Yet the story of San Diego, of the Parrs and of Duval is on the record. Beside my typewriter as this is written is a long list, three foolscap pages, of men and women who met sudden death in Duval in recent years. Duval of the first has been a county of violence. The man whose name the county bears, Capt. Burr H. Duval, was massacred with Fannin's men at Goliad.

That frightening list of homicides, most of them unsolved and unpunished, might be doubled if the truth were known about many cases listed officially as suicide or accident.

For example, the death of Border Patrolman Ed Wheeler was first listed as accidental. Wheeler was, to use his own words, "about to blow the lid off Duval" in a narcotics report when his car went off the road and his body was found in the flaming wreck. Then the undertaker found a small bullet hole at the base of his skull.

Just for the record here are a few of the cases officially on the books as homicide:

Horacio Garza, knifed to death in San Diego; Jacinto Gutierrez, shot, San Diego; Ricardo Escobar, shot, Freer; Juan Elizondo, shot, Benavides; Rolando Ruiz, shot, San Diego; John F. Gilbert, shotgun, Freer; Thomas Banks, shotgun, Freer; Rodolfo Munoz, shot, San Diego; Guy Hastings, shot, Freer; Frank Lotto, shot, San Diego... but why go on!

There is nothing on the record to show that these murders were political. Certainly the wanton slaying on September 9, 1952, of Jacob Floyd, Jr., was political. So were the killings of radio newsman Bill Mason and of Edwin Wheeler.

Assistant Attorney General Sidney Chandler puts it this way: "Before Shepperd came here, if a man committed a crime in Duval, including murder, it depended on which side of the fence he was on whether he got punished or not. The evidence didn't matter. It was how the jury voted. If the machine wanted you acquitted, you were acquitted.

"It worked another way, too. If a man killed another man, in a fit of temper or for any other reason, and he was acquitted, then the machine could count on his loyalty and the loyalty of his family from then on."

No matter how the figures for violent death in Duval are interpreted, one fact is grimly clear: they are far higher than the national average. The suicide rate, for example, is more than four times that for the United States as a whole—and Latins, being Catholic, do not commit suicide. The Mexican-American is intensely religious and to him suicide is a mortal sin, punishable by an eternity of damnation.

It was just forty-one years ago,

Jan. 20, 1915, when George Berham Parr was in his teens, a man named Basilio Ramos, alias Abasco, was arrested in McAllen, Texas, with a copy of the ultra-fantastic "El Plano de San Diego" on his person. Ramos, alias Garza, promptly became a celebrity and the Federal Government moved fast to take over jurisdiction.

The plan was for revolution against the United States.

In San Diego today they show you the sun-blistered building where the plan was hatched in August, 1914, and they'll tell you of the future comings and goings of mysterious Germans on his person. Ramos, alias Garza, General Staff in Berlin.

The San Diego plot wasn't taken so seriously at the time, but in 1917 when the famous Zimmerman note, a document that helped put the United States into World War I, was intercepted, a tonished official in Washington suddenly realized that the plan was real and not the product of a raving crackpot. The mysterious strangers who conferred in San Diego with Mexican-Americans and with Huerta agents from Mexico were what they seemed to be.

Huerta, it will be remembered, was violently anti-American because President Wilson had refused to recognize his "government by assassination." Americans had captured Vera Cruz and Marine snipers had killed many Mexicans. Feelings ran high on both banks of the Rio Grande.

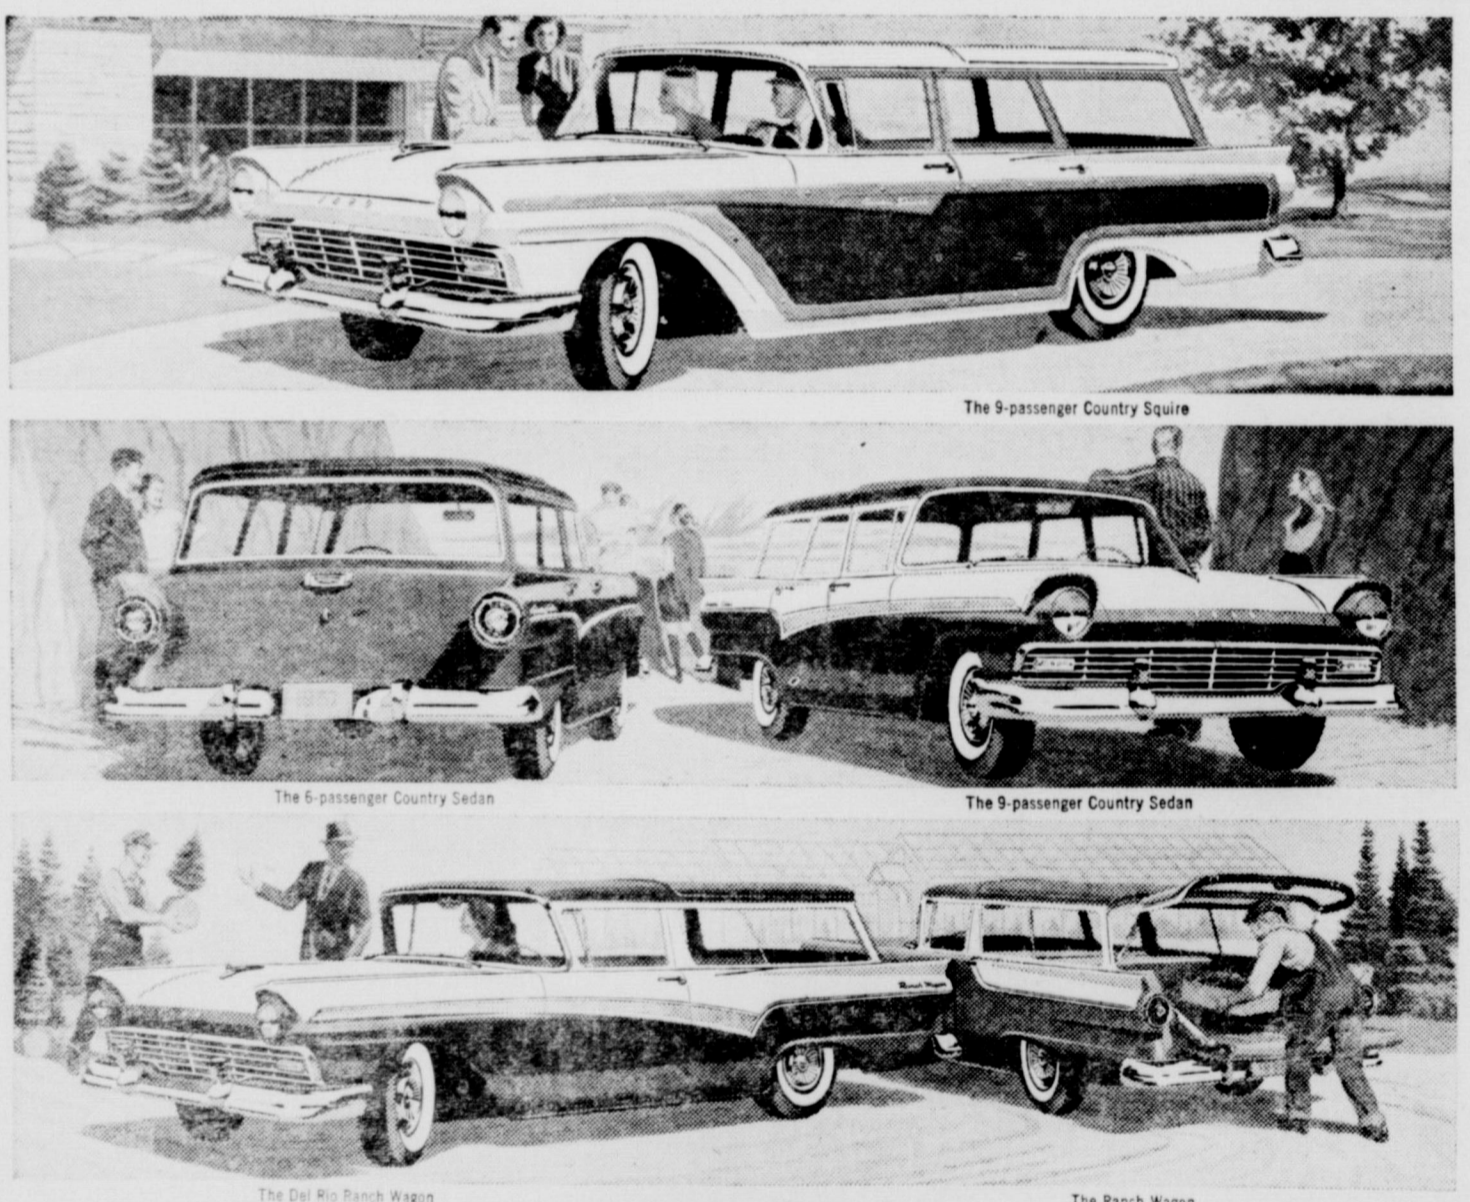

Under the plan Mexicans in five states—Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado and California—were to revolt on February 20, 1915, and declare an independent Mexican republic. A "liberating" Army would then "free" six states to the north and set up a Negro republic as a buffer state. All "Anglo" men—except Germans—were to be killed.

The whole insane idea from Germany's point of view was to keep the United States so busy on the Mexican border that she'd be unable to join the Allies in fighting the Central Powers in Europe.

Certainly the plan was mad and just as certainly it did have part of the effect the plotters wanted. The border area, including Duval, seethed with excitement and killings, with raids from both sides of the Rio Grande, with train robberies and the flames of burning ranch houses. More than 500 Americans lost their lives in the fighting before General Pershing and his troops restored a semblance of order.

A curious fact in the border troubles just preceding America's entrance into World War I was the deference paid to the word "Aleman"—German—by parties of raiding Mexicans. More than one "Anglo" saved his life by proclaiming himself "Aleman" when guns were leveled at his head.

It is against this background that the Parr political empire was erected and it is against this background that it still lives, tottering on its last leg under the continual legal slugging of Attorney General Shepperd, but still alive.

FIVE NEW FORD glamour wagons long, low and loaded with Go!

Leave it to the station wagon leader to make the big news for '57! And what news? Wagons so big, so full of fine-car prestige that you'll wonder how it can be done at low Ford prices.

If your choice is the Country Squire, you'll be proud to pull up at the finest places in this new glamour wagon with its wood-like trim.

If you need call for a 6-passenger wagon with four doors, you'll love the new Country Sedan. It has almost nine feet of loadspace—nearly a foot more than ever before.

There's still another 4-door Country Sedan. It has the extra third seat for 9-passenger room. And, as in all Ford wagons for '57, you have the new single-control handle which opens both the wrap-around liftgate and tailgate with one motion. And they can't be opened from inside!

There's good news, too, about Ford's popular Ranch Wagon. This 6-passenger, 2-door model features Ford's new subdued tones, and smart interiors which defy muddy little shoes and drippy chocolate cones.

In the wonderful way that Ford can take a fine thing and make it even finer, the Del Rio Ranch Wagon goes beyond the Ranch Wagon in style, fabrics and trim.

Better take a Ford wagon for a spin. You'll agree that for styling it's a sweetheart... for work and power, it's an obedient slave!

New '57 Fords have toughest shakedown cruise in history!

The '57 Ford broke 458 national and international records from 1 kilometer to 50,000 miles at Bonneville, Utah. For 50,000 miles, two '57 Fords averaged over 107 and 108 mph respectively. This time included all pit stops... the greatest endurance feat of all time!

B. & P. W. CLUB

The Business and Professional Women's Club's annual Christmas party was held in the home of Maymie Lee Collins.

The house was beautifully decorated throughout in the Christmas motif. Guests were greeted by Maymie Lee and her sister, Mrs. A. B. Calvin, who invited them into the living room where the fire burned cheerfully in the fireplace. Beside the fireplace stood a gaily trimmed tree, loaded with gifts.

Little Margaret Collins and Jan Carroll entertained with two song and tap-dance numbers. Inez Spencer told of different customs of Christmas celebration in different lands. Mrs. Earl Manard told a very lovely and interesting Christmas story.

Gifts were exchanged from the tree, after which refreshments of coffee, punch, cookies, sandwiches and spiced nuts were served from the artistically decorated table by the hostesses, Maymie Lee Collins and Viola Biggerstaff.

Members present were: Lottie Russell, Gusta Davis, Mae Solomon, Inez Spencer, Mary Olive Womack, Fern McKown, Dorothy McClain, Louise Fisch, Sally Archer, Audrey Collins, the hostesses and guests, Mrs. Cecil Carroll, Mrs. A. B. Calvin, Mrs. Jessie Collins, Misses Margaret Collins, Jan Carroll, Nancy Archer and Mrs. Earl Manard.

The first meeting of the new year for the club was held Jan. 3 at Davis Beauty Shop. Seven members were present to study the subject of "Career Advancement." The program was led by Dorothy McClain, who gave a very pointed and interesting discussion on the well dressed business woman from head to toe.

Viola Biggerstaff assisted in the study on a discussion of the aims, purposes and accomplishments of the career business woman.

Refreshments were served at the close of the study.

GAMBLEVILLE H. D. CLUB

To begin with, did everybody know that Jana and Larry had broken up. Well, they have—so boys, let's see some action. Jana has already been seen with Chas. Farrar from Lockett. There were several nice dances over the holidays. And everyone seemed to have a wonderful time at them. The football jackets have been well received and several have already changed hands. Peggy got Gerald's after he had it only a day. Seems as though those Vernon boys fill the bill quite nicely. Gayle was seen at the show with Ralph Rollins Sunday night. Another little item is that Janie Bowers and Grady seem to Speaking of English, has everybody heard the deep and tear-jerking story of the great human tragedy, "Everyman"? You probably haven't heard it since it was presented in such a quiet manner!

Jo Frances, who is your new boy friend? Couldn't he Neil Turner from Quannah, could it? Couples at the new year's eve dance were Janis - Alton, Betty - Lowell, Patty - Butch, Ronald - Yarborough - Joyce Howard and Roma-Bill. Did everyone see the little "Blond Bombshell" visiting Judy over the holidays? Jimmy Rader and Fredrick did. Twitch and Jackie have parted company, so have Jerry Ann and Roy Don, Carolyn and Charles. This seems to be the season for break-ups.

James Doyal and Gail Johnson of Quannah enjoyed Tuesday night together. Billy Gene and Jo Frances seem to be getting up a case. R. H., do all those Quannah girls appeal to you and Dale? We now have two newly married girls in CHS, Barbara Borchardt and Sandra Thompson. Our percentage rates are going back to normal.

We hear Weaver had to go—where did he have to go—in Vernon Sunday. Is this so, Weaver. Carolyn and Jack were seen in the show Sunday night? We couldn't tell whether Jack was watching Marilyn or Carolyn. Flash: Roxie, Ray said that he was broke. Thomson paid me five to put this in. Larry is really on the ball. He was seen with two girls in one week—Jana and Bettie Linda. Traffic to Eldorado has slowed up considerably, we noticed. P. S. As this goes to press, Jana and Larry are back together. Jimmy Rodgers is happy. Alton Garrett is happy, Ray Thompson is happy, Sonny Cates is happy, Johnny Webba is happy. Reason: Butch Jefferson has finally bought himself a real, live car. Bill and Roma are really getting thick. Bill picks her up at school now. Flash! Calvin is really good in algebra!

Janis and Lowell are not going steady any more. Now there is a nice looking girl, boys! Jack has proven that persistence pays off. He has caught his dream girl again. Carolyn and Jack are now going steady. Janet Raspberry and Bobby Miller were seen in the local show Saturday night. That boy has the right idea—going with the local "oil queen." What is the matter with all

MRS. CAP ADKINS

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Phillips and daughters left Saturday for their home in Knoxville, Tenn. after an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Phillips. While here, Mr. Phillips spent several days in Lubbock on business and Mrs. Phillips and the boys in Crowell? They never go with girls any more! Jeannie White was seen in the show Saturday night with a Quannah boy. Name: unknown. We hear that Howard is still trying to catch Dianne. How is she coming along, Howard? Marilyn and Butch had a blow-out Saturday night? Has everyone met Peggy's boy friend? He has a sweet little foreign name of Andre Kitlinger. Well, the bell just rang and we gotta quit. See ya next week.

GEORGE'S GAGS

Bill: "Aw, Ma, why must I wash my face before dinner?"
Mother: "Because there's dirt on it."
Bill: "Why can't I just powder it over like you do?"
Junior: "Papa, what is dew?"
Pop: "The rent, the note at the bank, and the installment on our car."
Neighbor: "Is this your ball I found in my yard, Charlie?"
Charlie: "Any windows or anything broken?"
Neighbor: "No."
Charlie: "Yes, thanks, it's mine."
The class was given the task of writing an essay to be entitled "Our Dog."

Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

Next Monday, Jan. 14, all of the Home Demonstration and council committees, except the yearbook committee, will meet at 9:30 a. m. in Mr. Burket's office which is just across the hall from mine. At that time we will have a short training meeting. Then each committee will meet separately to make recommendations for this coming year. These recommendations will be presented to council and to the clubs to be voted on.

I'm sending letters to all the committee chairmen who are to be present, so if you are one of these chairmen, please make every effort to attend.

I have two new bulletins in my office that will be of interest to you who sew.

L295 is "One Piece Tailored Buttonholes" and L147 is "Make Your Own Belts and Buckles."

They both contain excellent information and I'll be glad to give you a copy if you will call or come by my office.

Ward Kuehn. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bice and Floyd spent Tuesday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Raska of Electra and Mr. and Mrs. John Showers of Elliott.

Mrs. J. D. Massie Honoree at Shower

Mrs. J. D. Massie Jr. of Lubbock, who, before her recent marriage was Miss Helen Russell, was named honoree at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Clarence Garrett on Friday, Jan. 4, during the hours from 2 to 4 p. m.

As the guests arrived, they were greeted by Mrs. Garrett, who presented them to the honoree and her mother, Mrs. J. F. Russell. Mrs. Houston Adkins presided at the bride's book.

Pink punch from a crystal punch service and cookies were served to the guests by Mrs. Rex Andrews.

The dining table was beautiful with a lace cloth over a pink shirt and a centerpiece with a large decorated white candle on styrofoam and the punch service.

Mrs. Daisy Thompson invited the guests into the gift room where many lovely and useful gifts were on display.

PIONEER CIRCLE MEETS

Mrs. F. B. Flesher was hostess to members of the Pioneer Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church in her home on Monday afternoon. She was assisted in hostess duties by Mrs. J. N. Ribble and Mrs. Lewis Ballard.

Mrs. A. Y. Beverly was lesson leader on the subject, "Islands in My Own Community." The program was opened by the singing of two songs by the group.

Mrs. Fred Wehba was leader of an inspirational devotional, basing her thoughts on "For in Him we live, move and have our being." A piano solo, an arrangement of "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" was played by Mrs. S. T. Crews.

Mrs. S. S. Bell, conducted a thought provoking playlet on the subject. They were further assisted by members present. This was followed by a general discussion of the present problems and their possible solutions.

The hostesses served a delicious refreshment plate to sixteen members.
