The following paragraphs were taken from the Dalhart Daily Texas: "Emmett Williams—one of the grand old men of the Plains—reached his 90th birthday on Nov. 5, 1956.

"For some years, Mr. Williams has lived in Dalhart. Prior to that, he was a stockman living near Hartley and served 12 years as Hartley County commissioner.

"In 1953 and again in 1954, Mr. Williams and Rich Crump of Dumas were still boarding cowpunches to ride in the Annual XIT and other parades in the Dalhart area.

Growers to Decide Marketing Method for '58 Wheat Crop

Wheat farmers themselves will decide whether they want to use marketing quotas for their 1958 wheat crop when they vote in the referendum on June 20, 1957, Ray Hysinger, Chairman of the Foard County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

Recent proclamation of marketing quotas for the 1958 crop of wheat conforms with legislative directives, Mr. Hysinger explained. Under the governing legislation, the Secretary of Agriculture must proclaim marketing quotas for the next wheat crop when the available supply is 20 per cent or more above normal. The estimated supply of 1,825 million bushels available for the 1957-58 marketing year is actually 56 per cent above the normal supply of 1,170 million bushels, thus requiring a marketing quota proclamation for the 1958 wheat crop. (The normal supply is based on estimate domestic consumption and exports, plus a 20 per cent carryover allowance.)

The quotas do not become effective, however, unless at least two-thirds of the producers voting in the referendum favor the use of the quotas. The outcome of the referendum will decide the level of the available price support for the 1958 crop, as well as whether quotas and penalties on "excess" wheat are used for the crop.

All wheat growers are eligible to vote in the June 20 referendum who will share in the 1958 wheat crop from a farm in the commercial wheat area on which the wheat acreage to be harvested, plus any acreage to be placed in the Soil Bank's wheat Acreage Reserve, will be more than 15 acres.

As in previous years, ballots in the referendum may be cast at local polling places, the location of which will be announced prior to the time of voting.

Farmers who wish further information on wheat marketing quotas or the referendum are urged to get in touch with the Foard County ASC office.

Penalty Rates Set for 1957 Crop of "Excess Wheat"

A marketing quota penalty rate of $1.12 per bushel on excess wheat of the 1957 crop was announced May 24 by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

As directed by law, the rate of the marketing quota penalty is 45 per cent of the parity price per bushel of wheat as of May 1 of the calendar year in which the crop is harvested. The current parity price for wheat is $2.50 per bushel.

Growers voted approval of marketing quotas for the 1957 wheat crop on July 20, 1956. When wheat marketing quotas are in effect, a farmer who does not comply with the wheat acreage allotment established for his farm and who harvests more than 15 acres of wheat is subject to a penalty on his farm marketing excess. The wheat crop from such a farm is also ineligible for price support.

The national average price support for the 1957 wheat crop was announced on July 2, 1956, at $2.00 per bushel.

Eight spans of the Pease River bridge between Crowell and Quanah were washed out about 10 o'clock Sunday morning, following extremely heavy rains which fell on the river's watershed in Motley and Cottle Counties Saturday.

The river crested about dawn Sunday morning, and by the time the water began subsiding, the bridge had developed about a 3-foot bend and had begun to sink slightly, on one side. The bridge had been closed to traffic all morning and about 10, the eight spans cracked and fell into the boiling water below. The river, at the time the bridge collapsed, was not as high as it has been during the current rainy spell. Portions of another bridge which was washed out in Motley County were believed to have struck the bridge here and severely weakened it.

Vance Favor of Quanah stated Wednesday that an emergency contract will be let for the repair of the bridge, and work should be completed within 45 days.

Work on the bridge was begun on March 15, 1935, and was opened to traffic December 9, 1935. The bridge, which was made up of fifty-one 28 ft. 6 in. spans, was erected at a cost of $71,776.97.

On May 18 of the year it was built, a rise on the river washed out a 350-foot section of the new structure, and on May 30, the swirling waters claimed the life of Chester Robinson, State Highway Engineer, who was in charge of the construction work.

All day Sunday, the only way traffic could get from Vernon to Amarillo was through Crowell, and on FM road 104 near Paducah north to Kirkland.

2.60 inches of rain have been received here since last Friday. On Friday morning, .95 of an inch was recorded here by the government gauge, and Saturday and Sunday, 1.2 inches fell. On Monday night, .18 of an inch was recorded, and Tuesday, .27 inch. According to Merl Kincaid, this brings the year's total to 24.40 inches. The county received 10.56 inches all last year.

The rains are continuing to damage the wheat and oat crops. The wheat which was ripe has suffered the most, and a large amount has already fallen over.

The first heavy rain of this year was recorded on Saturday afternoon, April 20, and the rains have continued since that time.

He said: "We are confident that we will provide for Red Cross in the same manner as the Red Cross providing assistance for I base my statement, my faith in the American especially the generosity in Texas."

He made the statement while visiting in Lampasas, one of the 45 widely operations brought about by tornadoes and floods.

Get in the fine-car swim at the low Ford price!

There's no need to pay a "fancy price" to enjoy fine-car luxury. Ford is lowest priced* of the low-price three, yet offers values you'd expect only in cars costing far more!

To start with, you can easily pay twice the money, and not find lines that can hold a candle to Ford's for lowness, loveliness, or just plain good taste.

But step inside. That's when you'll find the real evidence of Ford's quality!

And, on the way in, note that Ford offers door checks that hold doors open in either of two positions—for easy entrance or exit. A little thing. But, in a fine car, why not? Then, inside, notice how comfortable those plush, foam-rubber seats are. They'll stay that way. And on long trips. For they're scientifically contoured over non-sag springs. Your rear-seat passengers are treated extra kindly, too—with spring assists to help them open and close the doors—with the most leg room in Ford's field!

Fine cars are smooth—and that's another place Ford really shows its stuff! Ford delivers its famous V-8 power smooth as a whisper. That's because only Ford takes the pains to electronically balance each engine while running under its own power. Not even the makers of the most expensive automobiles go this far to bring you super-smooth performance.

Ford rides fine-car smooth and quiet, too. You can thank the new "Inner Ford" for that. Ford, for instance, has a swept-back front suspension that actually "rolls with the punch" of every road bump.

Ford's rear springs automatically adjust to give the right ride for every road. And Ford keeps things quiet, with the most sound insulation in its field.

Fine cars are built to stay solid. So's Ford!

Cotton's Vital By-Product

Many old-timers in Texas can recall the days when cottonseed was dumped away as waste. But cottonseed today plays a highly significant role in our every day life.

The ingenious skills of American scientists and research specialists have taken this once-discarded agricultural commodity and put it into consumer channels throughout the world.

Cotton producers have benefited greatly from development of seed uses. A market for the seed means some $100,000,000 annually to Texas farmers, or one-sixth of the lint's value. About 900 pounds of seed are in the average bale that goes to the ginner.

Cottonseed crushing began 90 years ago at High Hill in Fayette County. Since then, this vital industry has expanded into every major cotton producing area. Lubbock, Texas, today has the world's greatest concentration of cottonseed crushing.

Among the many consumer goods made possible by the former "waste" product are salad dressing, shortening, mayonnaise, margarine and a synthetic ice cream, known as Mellorine.

Besides foodstuffs, cottonseed is made into feeds for animals and a variety of plastic products. Cottonseed meal is a popular fertilizer of high nitrogen content.

The story of the cottonseed industry fits well into the picture of American progress—a perpetual progress based on the technological skills of a free and independent democracy. Research's role in past progress offers optimism for the future. New crop uses, new markets, new products from the farm, will be marvelled at by the old-timers of tomorrow.

The waste of today might well be the necessity of tomorrow.

$235,000 Loaned to Area Farmers by FHA

More than $235,000 has been loaned to farmers in Foard, Hardeman and Wilbarger counties during the ten months ended April 30, 1957, by Farmers Home Administration, the agency's county supervisor, Glenn E. Womack, announced this week.

The heaviest demand has been for credit to finance cotton and wheat enterprises, as appropriate for this area, with a heavier than normal demand for replacement equipment.

During this same 10 months' period, Farmers Home Administration extended credit in operating, emergency and real estate loans to some 18,500 Texas farmers and ranchers for a total of $54,773,000, the agency's State Director, Walter T. McKay, reported. This is an increase over the same period last year of about $6,500,000. "This increase is due primarily to the demand from family-type farmers for credit needed to place their farming operations on an efficient basis," McKay explained. "In fact," he added, "agency records reveal that there has been a slight decline in the demand for emergency credit so far this year. Long-term credit, to develop balanced systems and make full use of resources available, has been extended to a number of operators of family-type farms who previously obtained emergency loan assistance."

McKay and members of his staff are meeting this week with National Administrator Kermit Hansen to go over agency operations for next year. This meeting is preparatory to training meetings to be held for county office staffs throughout the State. The objective of these meetings will be to insure that maximum service is rendered to Texas farmers and ranchers promptly and efficiently.

News from the Congress

by Congressman Frank Icard

The designation of Robert B. Anderson of Vernon as Secretary of Treasury bring back into public service a popular and extremely competent Texan. This appointment has been very well received in Washington. Bob Anderson, who formerly served as Secretary of Navy and Deputy Secretary of Defense, convinced everybody here of his outstanding ability. He will be taking over the Treasury Department at an extremely difficult time; however, there is no doubt but what he will do an outstanding job.

The Congress continues to make substantial reductions in the President's budget. This week the Defense appropriations were reduced some 2 and one-half billion dollars below the Presidential request. Despite all that has been said to the contrary, these cuts were made without affecting our overall defense program or diminishing our armed strength. There can be little question but what further reductions must be made in the expenditures proposed by the administration so that they may be possible to have some general tax reduction. Tax rates are at such staggering levels that they are working an undue hardship on individuals and preventing the growth and development of many businesses. The people cannot be expected to bear this tax burden indefinitely, and it is high time that Congress takes action to bring some relief. This relief in the tax rates can only come by effectively reducing our government expenditures. This necessarily will mean that many programs which some people believe necessary must either be postponed indefinitely or substantially curtailed. The present determined drive on the part of Congress to hold the line on expenditures should be continued.

The chances of enacting legislation that would free producers of natural gas from federal control which is so important to every person associated with the oil and gas industry whether they be producer, land owner, or employee, continue to grow dimmer and dimmer. Much of the confusion that exists concerning this legislation has been brought about by the failure of the Administration to make its position clear on this matter.

FANCY COUNTING
A leaflet issued by Holiday magazine tells of a Las Vegas, Nevada, child who claimed to be able to count though he hadn't yet gone to school. Asked to demonstrate how far he could count he responded in this wise: "One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, jack, queen and king!"

Veterans Land Bonds Fail to Sell

Anticipated accelerated purchase of land by the new one hundred bond issue that was sold to the voters last November a temporary setback. The first twelve and a half dollars worth of bonds offered for sale but not received.

In a joint statement of Land Commissioner Everett Page of Cartago and William Gossett of El Paso failure to find a purchaser due to the condition of the market. The money has been tight for some time and conditions have not improved under the limitations imposed. The interest rate paid by the Board is three per cent by the market and has not been favorable.

Austin, Texas — Fifty-fifth Legislators will have a shorter-than-usual "vacation." Gov. Price Daniel says he will call them back, probably about October, for a special session.

Final score showed 47 out of 51, or better than 90 per cent, of the governor's recommended bills passed in the regular session. But the missing 10 per cent are vital, says Daniel. He still wants:

1. His law enforcement commission, a sort of statewide grand jury to investigate official misconduct.

2. A lobbyist registration act, registration of persons who represent others before state agencies, and possibly, other "better government" bills previously advocated.

3. A state plan for buying water storage space in federal reservoirs. A constitutional amendment to do this died in the past session. Since amendments cannot be considered in a special session, the governor said he is working on a statutory plan—possibly the creation of a statewide water district with authority to issue bonds and levy taxes.

4. Action on "other matters that may arise" after the Travis County grand jury reports. Jury is looking into any irregularities that might have caused the ICT Insurance Co. collapse and alleged payoffs to legislators by the Texas Naturopathic Association.

So, instead of the usual post-session lull, the Capitol faces a summer of suspense followed by a frenzied fall.

NEW JURY AT WORK—Texas has generated more troubles than one grand jury could see to in two months. Hence, a brand new Travis County jury begins this week where the old one left off after digging away all during April and May.

Its study of ICT's past and naturopathic legislation will probably last all summer.

A Dallas grand jury already has indicted Ben Jack Cage, one-time ICT manager, on charges of theft and embezzlement. Authorities are trying to get him returned from South America so he can be tried.

WHO, WHAT, WHERE AND WHEN?—Texas' off-again, on-again Insurance Commission is still a prime source of speculation.

Last legislature passed laws abolishing the old board and enabling the governor to appoint new members. It also directed the commission to move within three years from its leased office quarters into a building to be erected with insurance tax revenue. And it passed dozens of new restrictive insurance laws for the new commission to administer.

Old board members Mark Wentz and John Osorio promptly resigned. But Gov. Daniel refused to accept their resignations. He said they'd have to stay on until their successors were named.

Then Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled the insurance tax revenue couldn't be used for a new building. It goes into the general revenue fund and is already earmarked for other things, he pointed out.

And, until the new commission gets going, insurance men over the state are uncertain as to how to comply in detail with some of the new laws.

ETHICS QUANDARY—Just who should do what to comply with the new code of ethics is still being discussed in the Capitol. Some 163 legislators and state officials have given the secretary of state statements about their connections with businesses under state regulation. Assets ranged from Cuban oil companies to small town dry goods stores.

Sec'y. of State Zollie Steakley said failure to file such a statement could be grounds for removal from office, but that he didn't have authority to enforce it.

Gov. Daniel said he saw no need for his filing, since the constitution prohibits a governor's serving as officer or director of a corporation under state regulation. But, he suggested the secretary of state might ask for an attorney general's ruling to clear up other points about the law.

BONDS GO BEGGING—First sale of the second $100,000,000 issue of Texas veterans land program bonds attracted no takers.

In today's "tight money" market the constitutionally prescribed 3 per cent interest doesn't lure buyers, said Land Commissioner Earl Rudder.

He said the bonds would not be offered again until conditions improve.

CROPS LAG—After years of longing for water, most Texas farmers now are trying to "recover" from the rains.

White estimates flood damage to crops at $50,000,000 or more. Cotton planting deadlines had to be extended by the state office because farmers were delayed in plowing their wet fields. Even so, some crop loss was foreseen from inability to plant.

In some areas of North Texas small grains were reported hurt by too much water. But dryland cotton farmers in South Texas said they could use a little more moisture.

Texas already has received more rain in the first five months of 1957 than in the entire year of 1956. Sample totals for '57: Dallas, 36 inches; Austin, 24 inches; San Antonio, 19 inches; Greenville, 44 inches.

NEW BUILDINGS SLATED—From four to six new buildings are to go up soon, moving toward the eventual creation of a "state government center" clustered around the Capitol. In the offing are:

1. A State Courts Building, now under construction, to cost about $3,750,000.

2. A State Office Building, for which contracts have been let and site-clearing begun, to cost about $4,000,000.

3. A Central Power Building to furnish heat and air conditioning for the Capitol and other buildings. Authorized by Legislature with directive that it be ready by October, 1958.

4. A State Archives and Library Building for which Legislature appropriated $2,500,000.

5. A Texas Employment Commission Building and an Insurance Commission Building. Lawmakers told each to move from rented quarters, but money for new buildings is not immediately available.

SHORT SNORTS—June will see a rise in the number of job holders in Texas, despite layoffs from school endings, predicts the Texas Employment Commission. More jobs in industry will make up the difference. . . . Despite overcrowding, morale of Texas prison inmates is good—no longer "hopeless and forelorn"—reported Pardons and Paroles Board members after a week-long tour. More space is due as a result of a $3,500,000 appropriation last session.

LABOR QUOTES
Walter Reuther says: "When you find a crooked labor leader who took a bribe from a crooked employer, put them both in jail for about fifteen years and give them plenty of time to talk it over among themselves." Secretary of Labor Mitchell says: "There are two types of labor hoodlums—the corrupted apostle of labor's cause and the committed criminal who,
after a life of crime, attaches himself to the labor movement.
The second invariably depends upon the first to gain access to the movement."

UNCLE SAM BIG WINNER
pictures of beaming holders of winning tickets in this year's Irish Grand National Sweepstakes. A waiter in an eastern restaurant won $140,000.

The beams must fade a good deal, however, come taxpaying time. For the federal income tax on $140,000 is over $84,000, leaving only $56,000, which makes Uncle Sam the really big winner.

A House - Senate
Economic subcommittee headed by tax policy maker
Rep. Wilbur D.
Mills (D., Ark.) begins hearings this week on your tax bill for next year.

The subcommittee expects to hear tax testimony by numerous experts on how, where and when to reduce taxes. Although it has no specific tax bill before it, the joint Congressional group expects to report to Congress before the end of June.

By the end of this month, it is expected, the Appropriations Committees will have paved the way for tax cuts by lopping some $3 billion off of President Eisenhower's original $71.8 billion 1958
budget.

Two big questions will remain to be answered. Who gets tax relief, and when? There are all sorts of proposals as to who should be first in line for tax reduction.
Then, there is the question of whether to pass a tax law this year, or wait until next.

The hearings will tackle the entire budget-taxes topic by covering four main subjects: The current economic situation and prospects for the future; the effect budget cuts on government spending; government fiscal controls; and the timing of tax reductions.

Hearings are scheduled to wind up late next week with testimony from Treasury Secretary Humphrey, Federal Reserve Board Chairman Martin and Budget Bureau Director Brundage.

The most authentic estimates we have seen indicate the Treasury expects to collect about $74 billion in taxes this year. If the budget is cut to $69 billion that would permit a maximum tax reduction of $5 billion.

Congress is not likely to cut it that close, however. Treasury experts have cautioned Congress that the maximum reduction could,
if there is even a slight business recession, throw the government deeper into the red next year.

There is some support for an across-the-board 5 per cent tax reduction, effective next January 1. That, however, doesn't seem to be the majority view. Selective tax cuts here and there appear to be more probable.

There are more than 100 tax bills before Congress now, and they offer more than 100 ways to cut taxes. Mills, however, says his subcommittee will not be geared to producing "specific legislative recommendations."

Since this is a joint committee, made up of both Senators and Representatives, it cannot write

BEYOND MERE HUMANS

Raymond Moley held high rank and was a powerful figure in the early years of Franklin D. Roosevelt's Presidency. At that time, he believed in economic planning and regulation by the government.

He has since changed his views.
Writing in Newsweek, he tells why: "This was due to the conviction, which grew with close association with those charged with the power of government from the President down, that while planning is a grand idea, it assumes a wisdom and skill which mere humans can never attain.
The safety of the individual is attained only when economic decisions are the product of an infinite number of individual judgments, and the power of government is kept close to the people through decentralization."

Decisions of that kind can be reached only in a free society whose economic system is based upon the free market.

The first shot in the Civil War
was fired at Fort Sumter.

Democrats, generally, favor going head now with tax cuts for 1958. They say that if they don't pass tax legislation this year the President will recommend reductions next January, and that Republicans would claim credit in the election year.

Both parties agree that a tax reduction is due, but each wants to make sure it gets credit for making it.

Massachusetts is the only state governed under its original constitution.

Miss Rondyn Self and Richard Miller Wed in Vernon Rites Saturday Evening

Miss Donda Rondyn Self of Crowell and Richard Wade Miller of San Antonio exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening in the chapel of the First Methodist Church of Vernon.

Dr. Dallas D. Denison, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Abilene, and a former pastor of the Crowell Methodist Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Drake Self of Crowell. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miller of Orange Grove, Texas.

Mrs. Dallas D. Denison, organist, furnished traditional wedding music. Miss Judy LeBlanc of Beaumont sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Vows were exchanged beneath an archway adorned with greenery. Blush cathedral candles in branched candelabra illuminated the altar space. Baskets of bridal blush mums flanked by jade foliage and palms enhanced the setting.

The nuptial aisle was lighted with hurricane candles and ropes of smilax. Dainty bouquets of palmated mums marked the family pews.

As "The Lord's Prayer" was softly sung, the couple knelt on a satin covered prayer bench.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of blush silk organza over taffeta and tulle. The wide decollete neckline, enhanced by soft gathers, was appliqued with imported velvet and organza flowers, touched with tiny seed pearls. The brief cap sleeves of organza were also sprinkled with seed pearls.

The tightly moulded bodice, marked by a hand rolled corsage at the "V" shaped waist, fastened in back with tiny organza-covered buttons. The bouffant skirt, which extended to a court sweep train, featured a soft tuck around the bottom and was re-embroidered in front with velvet and organza flowers and leaves, forming a crescent shape.

Her veil of imported blush French silk illusion fell in misty tiers to her fingertips from a petal calot of floral appliques as were in her gown.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis showered with ribbon streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss Mary Armstrong of Fort Worth served the bride as maid of honor. She wore a Nile green chiffon dress with a bouffant skirt. Her headpiece was of Nile green taffeta with bow and net of the same color. She wore satin Nile green open pumps and carried a cascade bouquet of feathered pink carnations and English ivy.

Dr. Jarvis Miller of Bryan served his brother as best man. Tommy Duke of Fort Worth and Bill Highsmith of Bryan served as candlelighters and ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Crowell. The winding walk to the home was decorated with hurricane lamps burning white candles.

The bride's table was laid with an imported bridal blush cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake of bridal blush was topped with a miniature bridal bouquet of stephanotis and streamers. Blush candies in silver candelabras, silver appointments and a formal arrangement of Venus carnations and baker fern, completed the setting.

An arrangement of blush gladiolus and peonies were used on the mantle behind the receiving line. Blush peonies were floated in a container on the desk with the bride's book.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. Arlie Cassie of Hamlin, Mrs. Robert Leggett of Brownfield, Miss Carolyn Bell of Crowell and Miss Mary E. Cooper of Amarillo.

Other members of the house party were Mrs. Jim Paul Norman, Crowell; Miss Ann Dunnewall, Laramie, Wyo.; Miss Betsy Ferguson, Seymour; and Miss Elizabeth Davis, Crowell.

For their honeymoon trip to the mountains, Mrs. Miller chose a black and white cotton suit with black patent accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Miller attended Ward-Belmont College in Nashville, Tenn., graduated from Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., received a BA degree from SMU, completed 48 hours in Religious Education on a Master's degree from Perkins School of Theology in Dallas, and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Mr. Miller graduated from Texas A&M College with a BS degree, as a distinguished scholastic and military student. He was on the International Livestock Judging team for two years. He is a member of Alpha Zeta Honorary Agriculture fraternity. He spent three years in the U. S. Air Force, serving as a B-25 instructor. At the present, he is employed with the Rocky Reagan Jr. Commission Co. in San Antonio.

Both bride and groom are members of pioneer families of their respective localities. The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Self, pioneer residents of Foard County and Mrs. O. H. Dodson and the late Mr. Dodson, pioneer residents of Hardeman County, while Mr. Miller is a member of a prominent South Texas family.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Honor Miss Self

Miss Rondyn Self, whose marriage to Richard Wade Miller was an event of last Saturday evening, was honored on several occasions prior to her marriage. The various functions were as follows:

Announcement Tea
The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Rondyn Self to Richard Wade Miller was announced at a tea given by the mother of the bride-elect at her home on Wednesday, May 15. The honoree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Drake Self.

Bridal blush, the bride's chosen color, was featured in all appointments of the artistic, informal tea. The tea table was laid with an imported cloth from which Mrs. Arlie Cassie, Hamlin, poured coffee and tea.
