BY L. A. WILKE

If you weren't among the thousands who visited the National Rifle Association's annual convention in Dallas recently you missed a great show. Convention proceedings were most interesting. But the thing that held most of us was the exhibits of firearms.

We saw there literally hundreds of guns dating back to the beginning of firearms. Collectors from all over the United States brought in iron-bound wooden boxes with flint lock and percussion cap guns with which our freedom in America was won.

They had old Colts, Remingtons, Sharps and Winchester's galore. Each gun was prominently displayed so it could be viewed and admired, along with modern day guns.

The whole show was a reminder that firearms are here to stay, and that we'd better do something about keeping a place to use them.

I was particularly impressed with the statement made by an old-timer who had been to most of the Camp Perry shoots. He was talking with a couple of game wardens at the Game & Fish Commission exhibit.

"Why don't you fellows in Texas get a real shooting range?" he demanded. "You have a few pretty fair rifle and pistol clubs scattered around over the state, but as big as Texas is you need a place to shoot that will even outrank Camp Perry."

That fellow had an idea which we hope some Chamber of Commerce will pick up and follow through on. We do need that big range, and we do need many smaller ones.

I realized this just the other day when a friend called me and asked where his 11-year-old son could get some 22 rifle practice. He had been shooting in a country gravel pit, but someone put a stop to that.

I couldn't keep from thinking how open the country was when I was a kid. We could shoot 22's anywhere. Today, however, cities are expanding rapidly and random 22 shooting is extremely dangerous.

Perhaps the problem could be solved locally in many places by some rancher dedicating one small canyon to 22 shooters under the age of 17. Anyway, it's a good idea.

FASTER ON THE DRAW—Another thing that interested me at the NRA convention was the work of amateur gunslingers. There were several fellows there who'd better not run into Marshall Dillon. If they do, Gunsmoke will disappear in a puff.

Some of these quick draw artists are older men, but most of them are young fellows, who have quick reflexes and use a lot of science. They can flick out a long barrel six gun with either or both hands faster and faster.

Most of them were using the old single action, cocking type revolver. It will be interesting to see now whether another fraction of a second can be shaved from drawing and firing time with a new fast gun just announced by High Standard. It is patterned after the Frontier models, but is double action and chambers nine 22 caliber cartridges.

This "Double Nine," as it is called, is sure to be showing up in all quick draw and rapid fire competitions where western guns will be required.

For years High Standard has been making top quality automatic pistols and revolvers for 22 ammunition. This gun should be their best.

BETTER AMMUNITION TOO—Ammunition manufacturers are contending to bring out new and improved versions of sporting how we ever killed anything with the old "thuty-thuty."

Winchester has just announced a couple of new loads. One is the 264 Winchester Magnum, which will provide hunters with a high velocity, flat shooting, long range load, ideal for deer, sheep and antelope.

The other is a 33 Magnum, as an intermediate cartridge for moose, Kodiak bear, lion, tiger and other heavier game.

Both cartridges are based on a case similar to the 458 Winchester

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 46TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

In the current race for the office of District Judge, we wish to recommend to you the candidacy of Tom Davis.

Tom Davis, a graduate of the Law School of the University of Texas, was elected County Attorney of Wilbarger County in 1948 and has served our county so well that he has never had an opponent for re-election. The varied duties of the office of County Attorney, together with his experience as a practicing attorney have given him a broad field of experience and knowledge in both civil and criminal matters which well qualifies him to serve as District Judge.

As a mature, experienced lawyer, he would bring to the office of District Judge not only age, experience and ability, but a reputation for honesty, courtesy and efficiency. At 37 years of age, Tom Davis would come into the office of District Judge in the prime of life and can look forward to many years of public service. One fact which we consider important is that he is not seeking the office as a political stepping stone to a state office and will not use it as such.

Tom Davis is married to Jeannine Davis, a daughter of the late R. O. Brown, veteran Vernon druggist. He and Jeannine have a lovely daughter, Leslie Ann, age 5. He and his family are active members of The First Methodist Church of Vernon where he presently serves as General Superintendent of the Sunday School and as a member of the Official Board of the Church. He has always actively supported and taken part in those organizations which are dedicated to the betterment of our community. He is considered one of our best citizens.

Tom Davis is a Christian gentleman possessed of an abiding belief in the wisdom of the people as reflected in their laws and dedicated to the proposition that every man, regardless of station in life, is entitled to have his rights of life and property determined in a court of law presided over by a judge of integrity, fairness, ability and dignity.

We earnestly solicit your vote and support for Tom Davis on July 26.

Magnum, which permits the Model 70 action.

Col. Charles Askins Jr. recently returned from a field tested one of these 338's. He told me he had killed 12 animals with it in Africa. Only shot was necessary on 13 of them.

Colonel Askins is one of the world's great marksmen. He shot all over the world, first forest ranger, then as a U.S. Patrolman. While in the U.S. Army he held all world's records in pistol shooting. Then he went into the Army. During the 20 years he has shot big game over the world, including and elephants in Africa and in India.

He thinks the 338 is top a hunting gun. It will kill a 200 grain bullet at 3050 yds with 4130 pounds of muzzle velocity, or a 300 grain bullet at 3000 yds with a knockdown of pounds.

By comparison a 30-06 out a 200 grain bullet at 2400 yds with a muzzle energy of 2400 foot pounds. It almost equals the H&H Super Speed, which is a 300 grain bullet at 2500 yds with an energy of 4330 foot pounds.

PELLET GUNS POP NOW—While on the subject of guns we were also impressed with the Crosman display at the NRA show. Here is a pellet gun that has made very rapid progress in the last few years, especially for indoor targets.

These guns are available in air or gas powered. They are in both 2 and 177 calibers.

The pellet gun offers a great for both indoor and outdoor use. It is less dangerous than open than conventional rifles must not be sold short for power, and should be handled with the same care as any gun.

Crosman provides an indoor target range for the pellet gun, permits a lot of target practice at a very reasonable price.

Newest in the Crosman line is the CO2 pistol, which gives you without powder. The Model, which was on display at the Dallas show attracted a deal of attention from marksmen.

We stood and watched with great admiration some of the boys who had been used to going away with 45 ACPs, put up one of those light pellets and putting pellets in the bull's eye at every shot.

They seemed to get as much kick out of the accuracy of powderless guns as did the marksmen who admired their marksmanship.

And, while Crosman makes guns for fun, the company produces another gun with a purpose. This gun, especially made for wildlife biologists, used in trapping and tagging operations. It shoots a dart containing an anesthetic which paralyzes the animal until he is tagged or treated as the might be.

A fathom, used principally marine measure, is six feet.

LONGEST BLIND FLIGHT

On July 21, 1930, Marine Capt. Arthur Page made the longest recorded blind flight up to that time, from Omaha, Nebr., to Anacostia, D. C., a distance of 1,000 miles. He received the Distinguished Flying Cross posthumously for the flight, having been killed in the Thompson Trophy Race only a few weeks later.

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, D. O., Commissioner of Health.

She is five years old and pretty, full of childish zest. She is also almost deaf.

Three weeks ago specialists found this black-haired, black-eyed youngster's hearing loss might one day be restored to the point where she might hear without a hearing aid.

She is one of four children—all of whom might otherwise have faced lifelong handicaps—who have been accepted for help under a new program of the State Department of Health.

Operated by the department's division maternal and child health, the new service is intended for deaf and hard of hearing children living in areas covered by local health departments whose parents have limited income. Eligibility and appointments for service under the program is determined by the local health department director.

The Dallas Society for Crippled Children, in cooperation with the State Health Department, is set up to do examinations and to fit children with hearing aids if necessary. Additional centers will soon be set up in other areas.

Evening College at Midwestern Begins September 15th

The Evening College of Midwestern University is asking the surrounding area to help in scheduling non-credit courses for the term beginning September 15, according to Joe Stockwell, new director of the M. U. Evening College.

Adult education courses are offered by the Evening College in addition to academic courses, and are designed for the adult who is not seeking a college degree, but who nevertheless desires to widen his or her business or cultural horizons through university-level instruction.

These courses are open to everyone, regardless of age or prior schooling, and are held one night each week for nine weeks usually between the hours of 7 and 10 p. m.

In the past, courses have covered such widely diversified subjects as how to buy securities, electronics, wine and estate planning, shorthand, creative writing, and many others.

"If the need exists, we will do our best to provide courses in anything from square dancing to great books of western civilization," Stockwell said. "However, we need time for planning."

"In this regard, individuals and groups interested in adult education courses are urged to convey their suggestions to us no later than July 7," Stockwell said. "Mail should be addressed to the Evening College, Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, Texas. Our phone number in Wichita Falls is 767-8352."

President Proclaims National Farm Safety Week July 20-27

"The health, prosperity, and well-being of our rural families are vital to the strength of the Nation and accidents suffered by rural residents result in thousands of deaths and injuries each year and constitute a serious social and economic problem," said President Eisenhower in his proclamation announcing National Farm Safety Week for 1958.

In setting the week of July 20 as Farm Safety Week, the President also said, "Experience has shown that these accidents can be reduced through educational programs directed toward safety precautions in the homes, in the fields, and on the highways of the Nation. I, therefore, call upon the people of the Nation to observe Farm Safety Week and urge all farm families and all persons allied with agriculture to join in a continuing campaign to prevent needless accidents."

The Board County 4-H Council and the Health and Safety Committee have pledged their support to this campaign and join the President in requesting all persons and organizations interested in the welfare of farm people to participate in National Farm Safety Week activities.

In the United States last year, almost 13,000 farm people lost their lives in accidents and more than a million suffered injuries. The 4-H Clubs suggest that a little checking be done in every neighborhood for the purpose of finding and eliminating accident hazards. "How many persons do you know who have suffered crippling injuries and how many neighbors are gone forever because of an accident?"

Only by finding the cause and then making sure the same mistake isn't made by someone else, can we cut the farm and home toll of accidents. Safety works for you when you work for safety. Don't tempt fate in '58 but put safety to work on your farm. It will save you time and money, and could save your life or a member of your family. Safety is that important.

Low Bridge

A jet tanker fuselage has accumulated 100,000 "flight" miles to date—all underwater. The "flights" are made in a tank at an aircraft company as part of the exhaustive testing program for the new aircraft. The mileage, which is barely a start, was computed by mathematical analysis of hydrostatic cycling tests conducted on the fuselage.

There is no age limit for the payment of social security taxes. All employees and self-employed individuals pay the tax on their covered earnings regardless of age. This reminder comes from Erton F. Tate, district manager of the Wichita Falls office of the Social Security Administration.

"It makes no difference that a person may be over retirement age and receiving social security insurance payments," Tate explained. "Social security taxes are payable if an employee is paid covered wages of any amount, or if a self-employed person has net income of $400.00 or more from his business during the year." Earnings are credited to a person's account after he reaches retirement age in the same manner as before and may affect the amount of benefits that he receives.

not be reported, Tate pointed out. So long as a minor child does not work for his own parent, he is covered in exactly the same manner as adults, regardless of how young he is.

Tate advises those persons who have questions about the tax collecting provisions of the Social Security Act to contact the District Director of Internal Revenue, Dallas. If information is needed about the benefit provisions of the Social Security program, get in touch with the Wichita Falls district office of the Social Security Administration located in room 432, Post Office building, Wichita Falls.

SOCIAL SECURITY REPORTS ARE DUE IN JULY

Social security reports on domestic workers for the May-June quarter are due in July, Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls social security office, announced this week.

Under the present law, most domestic employees, such as gardeners, cooks, maids, and housekeepers, are covered under social security. Employers of these and other household workers must report the cash wages paid and remit the social security tax of 4 1/2 per cent of the employee's wages. In cases where the domestic employee has earned less than cash in the quarter, the employer does not have to make any report. Mr. Tate stressed the point that these wage reports are extremely important to the domestic employee, since old-age, survivors, disability insurance benefits under social security are figured on the basis of the amount of wages credited to a person's account. The form used in making return on household employees requires only a few minutes to complete and may be obtained from the office of the District Director of Internal Revenue in Dallas.

Home Demonstration Notes MRS. MARY D. BROWN

Now that children are home, the furnishings may be receiving more wear and more soiling. Grease and oily spots are more serious on synthetic fibers than on wool and cotton because grease, if not removed promptly, will combine with the resin to form a dark spot which very likely will be permanent. These dark spots often appear in front of TV sets where youngsters have munched and spilled potato chips, peanuts or buttered popcorn. These may be trod into the carpet, then swept away in a vacuum cleaner, but the oil lingers.

There are two simple formulas which will remove most stains caused by food spills. These will not set a stain, a calamity which often results from haphazard attempts at spot removal.

The two tested remedies are:
Formula 1: A teaspoon of neutral soapless detergent mixed with pint of lukewarm water.

Formula 2: A teaspoon of white vinegar mixed with three teaspoons of lukewarm water.

Apply directly to the stain with an eyedropper and sponge from the outer area inward with white unstarched cloth. Blot the area well. In the case of Formula 2, allow the mixture to remain on the stain about 15 minutes before blotting.

Where a dry cleaning fluid is recommended, caution should be exercised against using too much on latex-backed rugs since it has a tendency to deteriorate the rubber. (Carbon tetrachloride is very dangerous.)

Specific stain treatments are:
Alcohol, coffee, tea, soft drinks: Treat at once to avoid a delayed action brown stain called caramelization. Sponge several times Sunday.
