Miss Janey Bowers and Mr. Baker Marry in Quanah

In a ceremony performed Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church in Quanah, Miss Evelyn Jane Bowers of Crowell became the bride of Joe Gayle Baker of Quanah. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowers, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Baker.

Rev. Clarence Bounds, retired Methodist minister, was officiant for the double ring ceremony. Focal point of the nuptial setting was a huge epergne holding white stock, backed by a twenty-one branch cathedral candelabrum. The setting was completed by a pair of pyramidal candelabra decorated with small white flowers and fern tips on either side of the prie dieu.

Music was provided by organist Noel Wilkins of Crowell and Miss Charlotte Sledge of Fort Worth, soloist, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Bowers presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal length gown of white silk organza and alencon lace over taffeta. The figurine bodice was designed with a scalloped square neckline accented with seed pearls. Pointed long sleeves buttoned at the wrist. The bouffant skirt was accented with insets of alencon lace and swept to a chapel train. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift from the groom.

She carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and delicate velvet cord atop a pearl encrusted prayer book.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Beth Baker, sister of the bridegroom, of Quanah. She wore a dress of white chiffon over taffeta with fitted bodice and full skirt and a ribbon embroidered bolera. Her headpiece was a circlet of light blue tulle

The bridesmaids, who were roommates of Miss Bowers in college, were Misses Sharon Casbeer of Lampasas, and Jo Carolyn Dendy of DeLeon. They wore dresses of white chiffon over taffeta with fitted bodices accented at the waist line with crushed cummerbunds and full skirts. Their bolera jackets were made of double chiffon with tiny covered buttons at back closing. Their headpieces were circlets of white tulle held in place with blue bows. They carried out-sized long stem carnations created in blue and white.

Serving the groom as best man was Mike Taylor, Quanah. Groomsmen were Herschel Swendell and Van Sparkman of Quanah. Ushers were Johnny Baker, brother of the groom, Charles Sparkman, Roger Tabor and Mike Smith, all of Quanah.

Mr. Tabor and Mr. Sparkman served as candlelighters. Ring bearers were Becky Brandon and Brad Smith of Quanah.

Parents of the bride were hosts for the reception held in the fellowship hall of the church. The table was covered by white satin with draping across front of white chiffon held by satin bows. The centerpiece was a silver candelabra holding four white candles centered with an arrangement of white flowers and fern tips. Reception assistants were Mmes. Floyd Ferguson, aunt of the bride; Key Denison, aunt of the groom; D. L. Drake, Kenneth Drake, Van Sparkman and Miss Mary Ann Pheasant of Lampasas.

The bride was graduated in 1960 from Crowell High School. She attended Tarleton State College where she was a member of the O. W. L. S. social club, T. S. C. grand choir and the madrigal choir.

The fitted bodice featured double rows of lace and was completed with a short jacket of chantilly lace with three-quarter length sleeves. Her veil of illusion was attached to satin crown of white and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid which she later wore as her going-away corsage.

LITTLE LEAGUE NEWS

by MARION CROWELL

It was an amazing thing on the night of "Juneteenth," the night Steve Gray's bat got away from him. It sailed right on over the screen, went through a vacant place in the stands. A few moments before, the stand had been jam-packed with youngsters, but, when the bat came through, no one was there where the bat landed. A very fortunate occurrence, to be sure. In fact, it was downright miraculous. And an occurrence that emphasizes the fact: when you sit in the stands, keep alert and with your eyes on the game every minute!

And, while on the subject of Steve Gray, man, can that young gent throw that old agate! His "Juneteenth" throw to the plate to cut off Charles Nichols with what might have been the Braves' first run . . . that was a masterpiece.

I'll Try Again Dept.: I was wrong last week when I said Bob Bird and Ronny Evenson were tied for the home run lead with three each, for—at that time—Ronny only had two . . . so-o-o, he hit another on Friday night, June 22, to make my figure right. Bill Nichols, official scorer, will probably publish some accurate information next week!

Was it true that Bill Bell chartered a jet plane to convey Lynn Rader back here last week? Nah-h, Bill just happened to be way-up-there in Spearman on the exact day, and at the exact time, that Rader happened to be there too! Man, man, what an All-Star team we'll field this year. We've got to pitch, with enough depth to win a tournament. We've the hitting, the fielding, the speed. We have no information yet as to where the area tournament will be played this year, but these Crowell kids will be after that first place trophy this time!

This column will be written next week—as well as the game writeups—by your Official Scorer, Bill Nichols. The game announcing will be done by Bud McLain. These two gents took over for me at about the same time last year. It's sure nice to know I'm leaving these jobs in such capable hands!

Card of Thanks

We want to thank each one that had a part in helping to make the recent sorrow easier to bear with the loss of our loved one, Ed Dunn. We especially want to thank the doctors and the hospital staff for their watchful care, the flowers that were sent, the memorials that were given, the food that was prepared and served to our families, to those friends of Ed's who cared for his stock and his dogs, and those that have helped in various ways and many ways we do not know of. Many, many thanks and may God's richest blessings be your's now and in the days to come.
