CROWELL, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1905.

Women's Home Mission Society.

The eleventh annual meeting of the W. H. M. S. of Northwest Texas Conference, convened at Midlothian, May 12-16. On the morning of the 12th, quite a large delegation had assembled at the beautiful new church at Midlothian and though the rain poured down and caused the streets to be so muddy that it seemed almost impossible for men to get about, to say nothing about the women, there was at each session a large audience present. The first session opened with Mrs. Honeycutt in the chair, after scripture reading and prayer, an experience meeting was held when many of the ladies testified to God's very great and tender mercies in all their work of last year. After this meeting the committees were announced and this brought us to the Quiet Hour, conducted by our deaconess, Miss Taylor of the Waco Deaconess Home. She read us a part of God's word and made a talk on personal work for the Lord, which made us all feel we ought to do something personal for God.

The afternoon session was opened by a devotional service, conducted by Mrs. Eddins of Clarendon, after which Mrs. Honeycutt took the chair and continued the session. First on program was the report of first vice President, Mrs. Eddins, and though she had received but few answers to her questions concerning our parsonages, she made a good report of that work. Our people are beginning to awake to the fact that our pastors ought to have as good houses and it furnished as good as any in the church. She reported three patrons to the loan fund. Next came the report of the second vice President, Mrs. Sensabaugh, she was not present and the report was read by the Secretary. Next was the report of third vice President, Mrs. Bloodworth, on the Baby Roll and the Florence McEachern Brigade. She reported 183 names added to the Baby Roll and 283 names to the Mite Box Brigade. She has the distinction of having enrolled more names on the Baby Roll than any other third vice president in the whole Southern church. After the reading of her report, she solicited names for the Baby Roll and seventeen were added, this brought us to the hour for adjournment.

At the night service we had the address of welcome and response and both were very nice. Then we heard the President's annual address which was very beautiful and was delivered in a most happy style. I refer you to the minutes to read it. Then came Mrs. Hey's report to the Board Meeting and so plain and interesting it was that we felt, when she got through, that we had also been to the Board Meeting, this brought us to the social hour. The Midlothian ladies had planned a nice reception in the church parlors and I am sure all present were running over with appreciation for this tribute of love.

The next morning dawned a gloomy, cloudy day and before many of the delegates got to the church the rain began to pour. After devotional exercises, report from the agent of "Our Homes," Mrs. Purcell, was made. She has the distinction of sending the largest list of subscribers than any other in the whole church. Then came the report of Mrs. Radolph, Sup't of the reading course. She gave many helpful suggestions and stressed the need of taking the Bible study outlined in "Our Homes." Next came the report of Mrs. Follin, our Conference Press Supt. She made a good report and gave us many helpful suggestions concerning the press work, by her comparisons we find that we have one among the best local Press Supt's in the Conference.

After these reports Mrs. W. H. Johnson was introduced and represented the Missou Home and Training School at Dallas. She has done a wonderful work for poor unfortunate girls and many will rise up at the last day and call her blessed. This brought us to the quiet hour which was conducted by Miss Haskins. After the devotional services in the afternoon of Saturday reports from auxiliaries by districts were taken up and continued most of the afternoon. Just before the close of the session Miss Haskins made an address in behalf of the Missionary work of the Home Mission Society, she told us the Society needed now one hundred trained workers. She expected us to help her to stir up the young women of our church to the great needs of the times. At the night session reports were continued and after listening to all the reports we find the work all over the Conference in a prosperous condition.

The Sabbath dawned still gloomy and the morning session was held in interest of the public school, it being the Commencement occasion Bro. Sensabaugh preached the sermon and it was fine. I am sure that the old as well as the young will live to nobler purposes by having heard it.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CROWELL

To be Changed to a Private Bank

Letter from Jas. S. Hagler, Pres.
May 28, 1905.

Jas. P. Hagler,
Crowell, Texas.

Dear Sir and Bro.:

I have been thinking for a long time of liquidating the First National Bank of Crowell and at the same time putting in a private bank there, and I have recently decided to make the change. By doing this it will not deprive the people of Crowell of a bank by any means. The private bank will be run on about the same principles as the C. T. Herring bank at Vernon. The private bank will be more responsible to the people than a national bank, and it will do away with a great deal of expense that a national bank necessarily has. By establishing a private bank we are in a position to accommodate our trade. Some of our customers want more than the limit, some have good land notes they want to put up as security,—both of these propositions are forbidden by the National Banking Laws. I believe that a private bank at Crowell will suit the people much better and will be of great benefit to us. It will also reduce our expenses fully one-half. I can, and we will, accommodate the general public much better with a private bank than a national bank, as it is we can only loan $2,500 to any man. With a private bank we can loan that many thousand dollars if we want to.

When this bank was first opened we were all of the opinion that we would soon have a railroad, but we were all disappointed. Still, in the future, when the E. R. comes and the country settles up, if we see that a national bank will do better we will reorganize a national bank, but until then I think it best for all that we change the First National Bank of Crowell into a private bank. So I want you to call the Board of Directors together and set the 1st day of August, 1905, as the day to liquidate, and at the same time let the private bank take all the business. Our private bank will be capitalized at $10,000.00 and be individually responsible for $150,000.00. The private bank ought to enjoy the confidence and support of every citizen of Foard county who is interested in the welfare of Crowell and her enterprises. It might be well to publish this letter that all may know and understand.

Very respectfully,

JOHN S. HAGLER, Pres.

Official Route for Epworth Leaguers to Denver

Official announcement is made by the State Chairman of Transportation that for the Seventh International Epworth League Conference to be held at Denver July 5th to 9th, the Ft. Worth and Denver City Railway ("The Denver Road") has been selected as the "Official Route" from Texas and that in connection with that line arrangements have been perfected for Special Service leaving Ft. Worth at 9:55 a. m., July 4th, the schedule being such as to put the Delegates and friends in Denver early the following afternoon.

In addition to the always up-to-date regular service available via that route, which will include Palace Sleepers and Cafe Cars, the special arrangements also provide for the operation of first class Pullman Tourist Sleepers, through, in which entirely satisfactory sleeping accommodations will be available at but one-half the usual expense. In other words upon a basis of two persons to a double berth, individual expenses for Through Sleeping Car Accommodations need not exceed $1.25 from Ft. Worth to Denver.

As the passage rate will be but one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip and tickets will be good for stop-overs, also good for 60 days for return, and as usually low rate side trips will be available from Denver to the numerous adjacent resorts and points of attraction in and along the mountains, it is anticipated that Texas leaguers will, as they most undoubtedly should, be on hand in large numbers.

As a strong effort is to be made toward securing the next International Conference for Texas, many Pastors and other Church workers will head delegations from their respective charges and communities in the interest of accomplishing the end referred to; hence it is a fore-gone conclusion that "Grand Old Texas" will be strongly and enthusiastically represented, and that, among the many thousands who will be present from every section of the country, Texas and its claims will be made manifest and become justified through its delegations.

A Real Bargain.

In residence property in Crowell; that is first class property at from thirty three and one-third to fifty per cent less than cost. That is what I propose until July the first.

By losing $1000 or $1500 this month I can make twice that much in a short time. After July 1st will not want to trade.

Dr. E. H. Cowan

Both Russia and Japan have accepted Roosevelt's suggestion to appoint plenipotentiaries of the two powers to settle their trouble. Neither the time or place of meeting has yet been set, nor any terms of peace been made public.

It is the fault of the local merchants themselves if the quantity of mail order business increases in any town, and this it never does where the merchants advertise persistently what the people want, quoting prices and enumerating their wants attractively. It is merely using the same weapon that the mail order houses utilize so extensively and will have more effect where the people know the advertiser personally, and have confidence in his guarantee. All they need is to be shown that they can get the same or better goods at home at the same or but slightly higher prices, and they will buy at home: a natural sequence to the inherent desire of every well balanced person to advance the interests of their own community.—Beville Sentinel.

Harvesting and threshing is now the order of the day.

The Chicago strike trouble is gradually dying down. There are no new hostile demonstrations appearing and the employers claim that their business has about reached normal condition.

A call session of the Legislature without expense to the state. Such a thing may happen and if it does it will be something unparalleled in modern history, for it has always been and is still the custom to bleed the government every chance you get.

Chicago, Ill., June 10, 1905.
Mr. M. V. Roberts, Editor
Foard County News. Dear Sir: I have been here for the past five or six weeks assisting the company in the present strike. Your paper has been striking me, but indirectly. As I will probably be here some time yet you will confer a favor by changing my address from Dallas to this point. I will notify you upon my return. I hope to get away not later than August and when I leave here it is my intention to spend a vacation before returning to work at Dallas. I will probably visit your county in my rounds.

The Chicago Strike is a shame and disgrace to civilization. Organized labor is not unjust in itself, but the results, (in the form of violence) of organized labor is so shameful that the unions realize that their only hope of public respect depends upon their power to conceal their guilt and lead the public to believe that violence is wholly the outbreak of sympathizers. As a matter of fact it is the chief weapon which they inaugurate to carry their point, though denied because dignity would not permit of an acknowledgment. All intelligent people, I think, will admit that a portion of the sympathy, but a portion only, and in such cases the promoters are usually weak minded and are lead to their actions by the foolish encouragement of Union men.

Yours very truly,
Chas. E. Cole.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS.

Thousands of its readers proclaim it the best general newspaper in the world. Its secret of success is that it gives the farmer and his family just what they want in the way of a family newspaper. It furnishes all the news of the world twice a week. It has a splendid page where the farmers write their practical experiences on the farm. It is like attending an immense farmers' institute. It has pages specially gotten up for the wives, for the boys and for the girls. It gives the latest market reports. In short, it gives a combination of news and instructive reading matter that can be secured in no other way.

For $1.55 cash in advance, we will send The Semi-Weekly News and the each for one year. This means you will get a total of 156 copies, of a combination which can't be beat, and you will secure your money's worth many times over. Subscribe at once at the office of this paper.

Clubbing Arrangement.

We have made arrangements whereby all our friends and patrons can secure both the Foard County News and "Bob Taylor's Magazine" for the small sum of $1.55 for both for one year. You need our paper for the local news essential to your interests and for the news of the day. You need "Bob Taylor's Magazine" for its literature, for the Taylor doctrine of "Sunshine Song and Love," for its inspiration to higher ideals; for its influence in the home circle. If you want these in such permanent form that you can preserve them, and a feast of other goods every month, give us your subscription. $1.55 covers the cost of both for one year.

The heavy rains that have fallen the past winter and spring have wrought great damage to the roads all over the county and some of them are almost impassable. This is a great detriment to the convenience of the public and the trade of the town, and should be persistently looked after by the citizens and especially by the road overseers. This is a very trying time for the over seers however, on account of the press of work, but if a man is too busy to go himself, he ought to pay in his money and let the much needed work of road working go on.

The International Epworth League Conference will meet in Denver, Colorado, July 5-9. The Entertainment Committee has provided homes for more 40,000 visitors and the program will be the greatest of its kind ever rendered.

Why not the Crowell League wake-up and send a delegate? Send one who will keep their eyes and ears open, and that would learn something that would benefit the League when they got back. Every League should be represented.

The Power of Country Boys

The country boy wins in every contest if permitted to enter without handicaps. He may lack schooling, but in the discipline that comes from work regularly done in childhood days he finds a training that insures staying qualities. He may lack the swagger and appearance of self confidence, but he knows his own limitations and respects his ignorance. He does not "despise the day of small things." His habits are frugal. His constitution is iron. His ambition is healthy. The country boy is hungry to accomplish something because he is instinct with life.—Farm And Ranch.

New York's New Transit Line.

"The proposed underground electric railway for New York will be the greatest enterprise of its kind in the world," said a man from Gotham the other day. "It will relieve the present congestion of passenger traffic, and will greatly augment Gotham's local transportation facilities. The plan is to have quadruple tracks, which will give rapid transit between the lower part of the city and the resident districts of Westchester. Without for track there can be no fast express trains because of frequent stoppages for passengers. It will take five years to finish the tunnel. The road will have an enormous business from the day the first car is started, but the demands of transportation on Manhattan Island are so great that the business of the surface roads and elevated trains will not be affected in the slightest degree."
