No Feed Rate Reduction For This Section

The failure of one of the principal railroads of this section of Texas to agree to a reduced feed rate for about eleven counties in the drought stricken area makes it practically impossible for a reduced feed rate to be granted for this section.

A conference was held in Quanah last week with over sixty representatives present from ten counties. The condition existing in each county was given by the various representatives and a complete record was kept. M. B. Oates, agricultural agent for the Fort Worth & Denver, the principal road involved, explained that it was impossible for their general freight agent, L. M. Hogsett, to be present at that meeting as a result of a hearing in Dallas, but conveyed information from Mr. Hogsett that he would be pleased to meet a committee from the affected district at any time and place.

Seymour was selected as the place for this meeting and a conference was held Monday with Mr. Hogsett and other Denver officials. Mack Boswell represented Foard County at the meeting and made the trip to Seymour with Carl Guin who represented Hardeman County. Seven counties were represented at this meeting and the rainy weather prevented others from attending. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been actively represented in all meetings on this matter and was represented at the meeting by Homer D. Wade, manager.

It was hoped that the Denver would come to an agreement for a reduced rate as the whole matter practically rested on their decision, but their failure to do so makes further efforts useless. While there are many ramifications and complications to be dealt with by the carriers in dealing with a reduced rate and while many roads would be concerned, yet the chief responsibility rested on one road and its failure to reach an agreement in keeping with the combined request of the counties of this section for a reduced rate which it so badly needs, is very interesting.

Joe Roberts in Car Wreck That Kills Two

Joe Roberts, son of N. J. Roberts, was in a car wreck five miles southeast of Lubbock Sunday night that resulted in the death of two people, however Joe was not injured and telephoned his parents concerning the accident shortly after it happened. The wreck was caused by a collision of two cars.

Paul Brewer of Memphis, Texas, Tech freshman, and Clint Lewis, Wylie, farm laborer, were killed; Jessie Dyer, Littlefield, student at Lubbock, was seriously injured and eight others were slightly hurt. The car in which Joe was riding was returning from Fort Worth with Tech students who had attended the Tech-T. C. U. football game. The other car carried eight persons, among them a number of cotton pickers en route to Littlefield.

According to reports in a Lubbock paper, Joe was the only person of the fifteen in the two cars that was not hurt at all. As a result of being thrown clear of the wreckage, he was able to administer aid to others, and it is believed his aid saved a life or two.

Wholesale Oil Business Sold to Henry Ross

A deal was closed this week which will make Henry Ross wholesale dealer for the Pierce Petroleum Corporation, he having bought the business from George Hinds. Henry has sold his half interest in the Quick Service Filling Station to Clarence Davis of Wichita Falls. Mr. Davis is a brother-in-law of Otis Ross who owns the other half of the Quick Service Station. Mr. Hinds has not made known his plans for the future.

Mr. Davis has moved his family here and has taken charge of the business.

Mrs. J. W. Klepper returned the first of the week from a visit of two weeks with her mother and other relatives in Mineral Wells. She also visited her son, Lanier Brooks, in Mar-

Ministers Give Reasons For Not Supporting Smith

Special to the Foard County News: We, the undersigned, are ministers of the Gospel in various churches and are Democrats from traditions and from principle. But we are opposing the election to the presidency of Governor Alfred E. Smith. We are doing this because we think that his election jeopardizes our national prohibition laws, which laws we believe to be best for our country of any laws ever enacted by the American people.

We are also opposing the election of Al Smith because we sincerely believe that his election will wreck the Democratic Party. This statement, recently made by various ministers and laymen who are Democrats, but who are opposing the election of Al Smith, has been called in question by the supporters of Governor Smith in language that impugn his sincerity, and which calls for a clear statement of why we believe that Governor Smith's election will wreck the Democratic Party. It is a well known fact that repudiating his party's platform utterance on prohibition, Al Smith adopted the program of the Association Opposed to Prohibition. This program calls for, first, the modification of the Volstead Act, and ultimately the repeal of the 18th Amendment.

Governor Smith's statement that he is opposed to the return of the saloon cannot be accepted sincerely. His whole past record has been for the saloon. In 1923 he was anxious to "put a foot on the rail again and blow off the froth." About a year previous to that we have it on good authority that he said: "I do not believe the Democratic Party should camouflage on this subject. The Democratic Party is a saloon party and everybody knows it is a saloon party, and it ought to come out and say so."

In his speech at Nashville recently he advocated such an amendment of the 18th Amendment as would mean its utter repeal, and also advocated that the states themselves should go into the business of manufacturing and selling liquor to debauch our people.

All this clearly commits the Democratic Party, under his leadership, to the return of the legalized liquor traffic. If he is elected it will mean to confirm the Democratic Party as the liquor party; if he is defeated, it will discredit Governor Smith's rating of the Democratic Party as the "saloon party," and give us a chance to give it a good "dry cleaning," and thereby save the party.

Governor Smith has repudiated every principal for which our party has stood as distinguished from the Republican Party, and has placed J. J. Raskob, an unwashed Republican, in charge of the party. We propose to stand by our Democratic principles but repudiate the party's leaders, who, we believe, have betrayed the party.

We want to say to the party leaders of the Democratic Party in Texas that we are much closer to the great body of the good citizenry of our state than they seem to be, and we know that if the Democratic Party should be confirmed as the Saloon Party, that the majority of the voters, who previously have affiliated with the Democratic Party in Texas will repudiate that party. We know the minds of these voters. We know how they resent what they believe to be their party's betrayal in this campaign. The brass collar has been torn from their necks and thrown away. They are mad. They are not going to be driven like dumb sheep by the party's lash.

We note from the press the threat that those in charge of the Democratic Party in Texas at present are making, that at the next session of the legislature will be passed legislation barring from democratic primaries two years hence those who now refuse to vote for Governor Smith. Of course we know that that threat is made to intimidate the vot-

Crowell Plays Scoreless Tie With Knox City

Crowell completely outplayed Knox City in a football game here last Friday but was unable to win the game in spite of the fact that the local boys made fifteen first downs to four for Knox City, and the game ended in a scoreless tie. Crowell was within the ten yard line at three different times during the game and at one time reached the two yard line but were held for downs. This point was reached following a forty yard run by Lanier. Lanier was also on the receiving end of a number of passes and made a number of large gains on line plays. Spears also made some beautiful runs that netted large gains for Crowell.

Crowell tried twenty-four passes, completed eleven and had four intercepted. Knox City opened up with a passing attack in the last quarter and reached Crowell's twenty-yard line from which they failed in an attempt to kick a field goal. Knox City tried seven passes and completed four and had none intercepted. Crowell completely outplayed the visitors throughout most of the game and the only time that Knox City threatened to score was in the last quarter.

The Line-Up.

Prominent Thalia Farmer Dies at Home Thursday Morning

Joe Richter, prominent farmer of the Thalia community, died suddenly at his home last Thursday morning. Apparently Mr. Richter was enjoying good general health. He had made a trip to Thalia the morning of his death and upon returning home had gone to the field to take some scales to his cotton pickers. While in the field he complained of feeling ill and requested his son, who was driving his car, to take him to the house at once and summon a physician. He succumbed however, before medical aid could arrive.

Mr. Richter had been a resident of Foard County for the past twenty years and had lived on the same farm three miles north of Thalia for the past eighteen years.

The deceased was 64 years of age. He is survived by his wife and twelve children, all of whom were present for the funeral except one. Funeral services were conducted in the Baptist Church, after which interment was made in the Thalia cemetery.

Little Theatre Program Postponed to Friday, Nov. 8

Due to the rainy weather that has existed here, the first program of Crowell's Little Theatre Club has been postponed to Friday, November 8th. The three one-act plays that will be given at that time have already been prepared in splendid manner under the direction of Miss Jessie A. Johnson and an entertaining program is in prospect for those who attend this opening number of Crowell's Little Theatre Club.

Special numbers between acts will also be given and it is hoped that a large crowd will attend this opening performance. The three plays to be given are "Gretna Green," "Hanging Out the Wash," and "Suppressed Desires." Elizabeth Kincaid, Leoma Knox, Peggy Thompson, Mrs. F. A. Davis, Miss Louise Ball, Winnie Self, Henry Black, and Thelma Shaw are the principal characters in the plays.

Mrs. Carl Thacker, who is visiting here from Los Angeles, Calif., returned last Friday from Venus, where she visited relatives for a few

G. A. Mitchell Defends Stand on National Ticket

Editor of Foard County News: I am handing you herewith some clippings—and there is no mud-slinging to be found in these statements—from the Wichita Falls Times and the Houston Post, which we ask you to reprint.

As your appetite has all along been whetted for the truth, we Democrats who have supported The News from its first publication to the present time, ask in all fairness, and as our right, (though believing as we do, that The News has been guilty of mud-slinging as much as any "soap box orator"—we refer especially to the editorial on immigration in last week's issue, that you publish these clippings in full.

We believe, as real true and tried Democrats, that we have been unduly criticized and condemned in this unprecedented campaign, both by speakers of the opposition and by writers in the daily press. At the same time, we know that if the old ship of Democracy survives this fearful onslaught against the principles of True Democracy, that to us and us alone will be due all credit. And that out of this chaotic condition will be enacted a primary law which will be iron clad—a law that every one must admit is badly needed.

I wish to say here, while I have not supported Governor Dan Moody in the past, that I am firmly convinced that if every Democrat in the State of Texas, will take the time and thoroughly digest the speech delivered by Mr. Moody on Saturday night at Dallas, that, on November 6th, the Democratic majority will be the greatest in the history of the state. Of course, there will be thousands that will never read it, and others too stubborn to relent. I am reminded here of an answer to a question propounded some two thousand years ago: "If they hear not Moses and the prophets; neither will they believe, though one arise from the dead."

You may say that these clippings are not new. We will grant that this is true. But nothing of this nature has ever at any time been printed in The Foard County News. We believe as regular Democrats and subscribers and readers of your paper, we are entitled to some consideration, and not only at the hands of The News, but at the hands of all the people of our Southland. And having at heart and feeling deeply for all the people of this great nation, we only feel that the principles of Democracy must be upheld and preserved, but there is an underlying sentiment in this campaign that must forever be crushed.

If you vote for Mr. Hoover, you are voting against Democracy. The principles of Democracy are greater than any man or than any one or two issues that have been injected into this campaign. Politics is just as essential to the life and progress of this country as is religion. The Indians, they say, had a religion, but how long, think you, would it have taken the Indians to make this country what it is today?

Politics is the science of government, and without government what would become of our country?

Hear me! Be it far from your thoughts that I would be guilty of undervaluing the necessity or value of religion. It has its place in the world—so has politics. God forbid that we should try to mix them and thereby injure if not destroy both. Here's hoping that good horse sense and not passion and prejudice be allowed to enter the voting booths on next Tuesday.

G. A. MITCHELL.

New York is a normally Republican state. Only three times since the Civil War has its electoral vote been cast for a Democrat. When such a state elects a Democrat as governor for four terms, it does so not because of its party but in spite of it. A Democrat in a normally Republican state must be not merely a good governor, but an extraordinarily good one, to gain such a following, and to win with such consistency.

Governor Smith's fees have assiduously avoided discussion of his record as governor of New York. If there were anything in it on which he might justly be attacked, they know that Republican politicians would have dug it up long ago and made use of it. It is a phase of campaign discussion that the Republicans, real and companionate, have let strictly alone. The more they examine that record, the more credible

Two Inches of Rain Fall Here First of Week

Two inches of rain fell here and over most of Foard County this week, beginning Sunday morning and ending Wednesday afternoon. This is the first real rain we have had in about two months and the moisture will be extremely beneficial to wheat and range conditions. The rain will be enough to bring up wheat and hold its growth for at least a month.

Most of the rain fell slowly and full benefit of the rain was received. Cold weather accompanied the rain with first real touch of winter.

Crowell Girl Weds Salt Lake City Man Saturday

A very beautiful home wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening when Dr. and Mrs. Hines Clark gave their daughter, Frances, in marriage to Mr. Leonard H. Male of Salt Lake City, Utah.

The reception suite was beautifully decorated in ferns and cut flowers. The vows were taken before an improvised altar of ferns and floor baskets filled with mammoth white chrysanthemums and six tall white cathedral candles. Miss Caroline Shawver sang "Because" as a pre-nuptial solo, with Mrs. Lee Probst, a cousin of the bride, as accompanist. Mrs. Probst also played Lohengrin's and Mendelssohn's wedding marches as processional and recessional, respectively.

Mrs. Chas. S. Clark, aunt of the bride, descended the stairway at the close of the solo and lighted the altar candles. Miss Katherine Clark, a student at State University, and sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed in pink taffeta with silver slippers and carried an arm-bouquet of pink roses. She entered and approached the altar alone followed by the bride on the arm of her father, Dr. Hines Clark, who gave her in marriage to the groom, who was waiting at the altar. Mr. Harold Brockett of Topeka, Kansas, was best man. Rev. W. R. McCarter of the Methodist Church said the beautiful ring ceremony that made them man and wife.

Mrs. Male is the elder daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hinds Clark. She has grown to young womanhood in Crowell and has given of herself and her splendid musical talents until she has endeared herself to a large circle of friends who wish for her every happiness. She was beautiful in a white satin gown, white slippers and a long white veil that fell in graceful folds. She carried a real old lace kerchief that belonged to her mother. Her flowers were white rose buds and lilies of the valley.

Mr. Male is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Male of Wakefield, Kansas. He is very kindly remembered by Crowell people as the young civil engineer in the employ of the city for about a year some three or four years ago. At present he is sanitary engineer of the state of Utah, and a member of the state board of health.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party and wedding guests repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark S. Henry where an elaborate reception for two hundred guests was held. The guests were received at the south entrance by Madams Kincaid and Paul Shirley. Edward Huffman and Granville Lanier acted as ushers and conducted them to the bride's book, presided over by Mrs. Bryan O'Connell. In the sun parlor the first receiving line was formed where Mrs. Henry introduced Dr. Clark, who in turn presented Mr. Richard N. Male, father of the groom while Mrs. Clark presented Mrs. Richard N. Male, the groom's mother. In the living room Mr. Henry headed the receiving line and introduced the wedding party. Madams A. Y. Beverly, T. P. Reed and M. O'Connell assisted in receiving in the reception suite.

The dining table was laid with a beautiful Madeira embroidered cloth, on which rested a handsome wedding cake, all white and on top stood a miniature bride and groom. Four tall pink candles completed the setting for the pretty bride as she daintily cut her wedding cake. Miss Winnie Self and Mrs. Chas. S. Clark served the cake and Mrs. Baxter Johnson assisted by Elizabeth Kincaid presided at the punch bowl.

Farmers Investigate Feed Conditions

Several men who are interested in the feed situation of Foard County have recently made trips to various sections of the State investigating the supply and the prices that it may be purchased at.

H. E. Davis and W. B. Jones made a trip to the plains last week. They report an abundance of feed but the people who have it are not anxious to sell. It is Mr. Davis' opinion that feed will be as cheap near the first of January as it is now, considering the feed that is gathered now will shrink considerably. Claude Callaway returned from the plains the first of the week. He purchased a carload of maize heads which will be delivered to Foard City at less than $20.00 per ton.

C. E. Gafford and S. Moore made a trip to parts of Oklahoma and North Texas. They report corn fine and plentiful, but due to the cotton picking, there has not been very much gathered.

These men who have investigated the situation thoroughly advise that those in need of feed, buy now, provided it can be purchased at a reasonable price. If it cannot be bought at a fair price now, with the abundance of feed in the state in various localities, it may not go very much higher.

Miss Kate White Attends Grand Chapter O. E. S. at El Paso

Miss Kate White returned Sunday afternoon from El Paso where she attended the 46th Grand Chapter, order of the Eastern Star. The number of delegates attending this convention were 570. Miss Kate reports a very pleasant trip. The next Grand Chapter will be held in San Antonio.

Preaching at Baptist Church Next Sunday

According to information furnished the News, Rev. W. R. Underwood of Albany, will fill the pulpit at the Baptist Church next Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:15 p. m. Rev. Underwood is a good preacher and it is hoped a large representation of the membership of the church as well as others will be present to hear him.

GINNERS' REPORT.

According to the ginners' report from the Department of Commerce, handed to us by W. B. Griffin, there were 3,205 bales of cotton ginned in Foard County from the 1928 crop prior to October 18, 1928, as compared with 6,918 bales ginned to October 18, 1927.

H. W. Gray left last Monday for the plains to purchase feed for the Thalia farmers. The feed will be bought co-operatively and handled for the farmers through the Farmers' Co-operative Society of Thalia.

Mrs. J. S. Ray was in charge of a delightful program of music rendered throughout the reception hours.

Hundreds of beautiful and useful wedding gifts were on display throughout the reception suite. Prominent among them were a lovely quilt in colonial laid work, the work and gift of the groom's mother, and a quilted pillow, proudly wearing the blue ribbon from the Kansas State Fair, the gift of two aunts of the groom, and a quaint cross stitch sampler made by the groom's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Male will spend a few days in Denver, Colorado, before going to their home in Salt Lake City. A host of loving friends and relatives bid them bon voyage through all the years to come. The bride's going-away gown was a beautiful brown ensemble suit with a handsome fox collar and all accessories to match.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Male, Wakefield, Kans.; Mr. Harold Brockett, Topeka, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Clark, Austin; Mrs. Lona Shawver and Miss Shawver, the Shawver Ranch; Mrs. D. P. Beaty and daughters, Marie and Winnie Bess, Wichita Falls; Mrs. H. W. Norwood, Mrs. Dee Norwood and Mrs. Lee Probst, Vernon; Mrs. R. G. Campbell, Pampa; Miss Christine Campbell, State University; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Morris, Thalia.

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday School at 10 o'clock under capable management. All teachers with specially prepared lessons. All members of the school are urged to be present. Visitors are invited and will be welcomed by the teachers and student body.

Worship at 11 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. All our people should attend worship Sunday and give expressions of thanks to our Heavenly Father, the giver of all good, for the timely rain. All will be welcomed at our services.

Junior church worship at 11:30. The boys and girls are greatly interested in their work and show their appreciation more and more by attending the services.

Young people's meeting at 6:30. These meetings are being well attended and our young people are doing a fine work in a splendid way. They help in the regular evening service by taking their places in choir and assisting with the music.

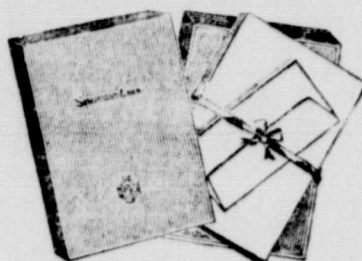

Only three Sundays remain for finishing up the work of the year. Let us all cooperate together and make the very best use of these possible that the work of our Lord may be done.

THALIA SCHOOL NEWS.

The second year Spanish Class of the Thalia High School organized a Spanish Club, Le Luz, on Wednesday afternoon, October 24. The club voted to meet on first and third Tuesdays of each month. On October 25, the new members of the club were initiated. On the following day, as a result of the initiation, new members were seen with their dresses on backwards and with their hair braided. Refreshments were served by the Spanish teacher, Miss Russell.

On last Wednesday morning Thalia High School was very delighted to hear an excellent talk from Mr. Hartman about the high points of interest which he noted at the State Fair this year. In this talk he showed just how much is being done by the city of Dallas to help the school children of Texas to attend the Fair. Each year free tickets are furnished to school children of Texas for one day of the fair. This includes not only tickets into the fair grounds but also interurban tickets.

Gas is being installed in the school building.

Several children who have been absent from school, because of having to pick cotton, have started back to school for the new six weeks period.

The Thalia Tigers met the Truscott Bulldogs on the Truscott court for a game of basketball Thursday evening. The result of the game was a score of 13 to 17 in favor of the Truscott Bulldogs.

CLASS MEETING.

The monthly meeting of the Co-Laborers Class of the Methodist Sunday School was held Thursday, October 25, at the home of Mrs. Jeff Bruce, with 15 members of the class being present. Mrs. Bruce and Miss Dine Mitchell were hostesses. The lesson study in 1st Kings was led by Mrs. H. L. Kimsey.

The business meeting was held first at which time officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Mrs. Hubert Brown; vice president, Mrs. Paul Shirley; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Tom Russell; leader of devotional work, Mrs. Ruby Pearce; class service leader, Miss Josie Wright; reporter, Mrs. H. L. Kimsey. Mrs. T. L. Hughston was re-elected as teacher of the class. The next meeting will be held Nov. 22, Mrs. Clint White being leader.

Everyone who can possibly attend these monthly class meetings is urged to do so and help make them interesting and profitable.

Every purchaser of a new Ford is entitled to Free Inspection Service for the first 1500 miles

THE modern automobile is a finely built piece of machinery and it will stand a lot of abuse. Considering the work it does, it gives surprisingly little trouble. But there isn't a car made that will not run better and longer if given proper care.

The first few hundred miles are especially important because that is when the mechanism of your car is being broken in.

Proper attention during this period will lengthen its life and prevent unnecessary trouble later on.

We are particularly interested in this matter because we believe it is our duty not only to make a good automobile, but to help the owner get the greatest possible use over the longest period of time at a minimum of trouble and expense.

With this in view, the entire Ford dealer organization has been specially trained and equipped to service the new Model A car.

Furthermore, we have instructed every Ford dealer to give the following Free

Inspection Service at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles:

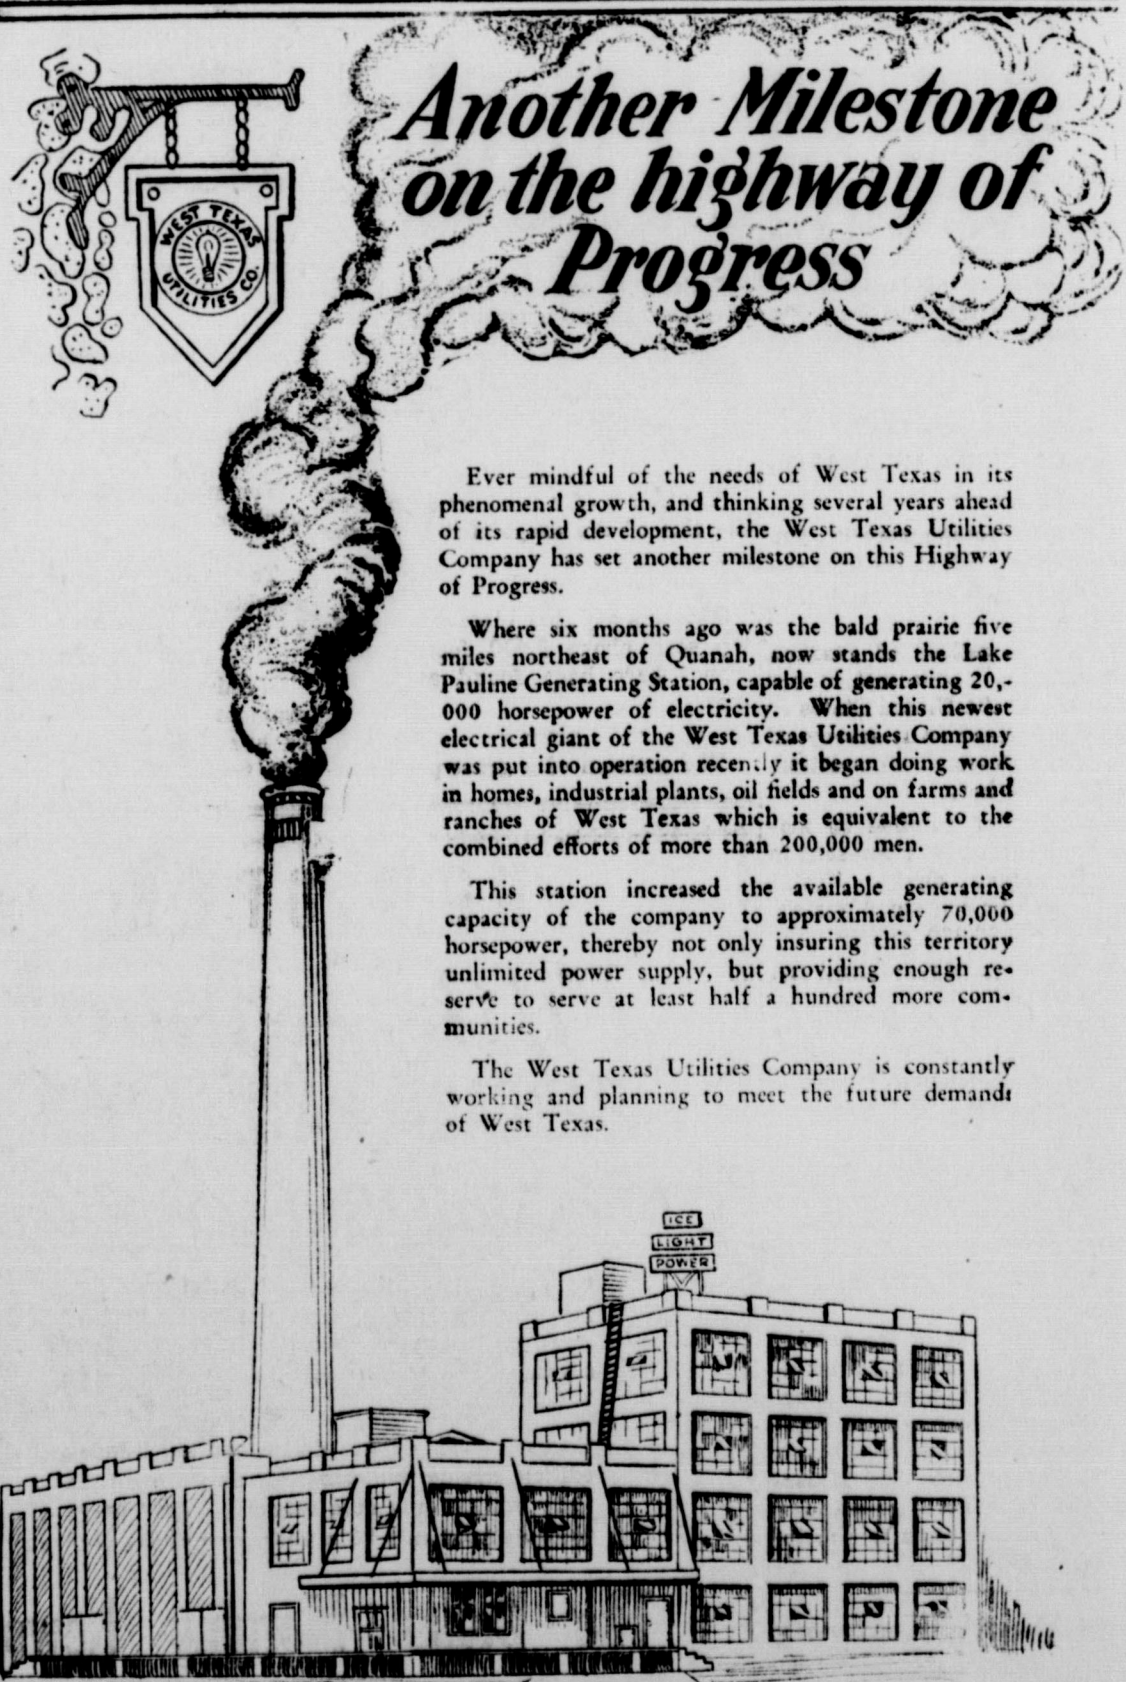

- Check battery
- Check generator charging rate
- Check distributor adjustment
- Check carburetor adjustment
- Check lights
- Check brakes
- Check shock absorber adjustment
- Check tire inflation
- Check steering gear
- Change engine oil
- Lubricate chassis

No charge is made for labor or materials incidental to this service, except, of course, where repairs are necessary through accident, misuse or neglect. The only charge is for new oil.

See your Ford dealer, therefore, and get this Free Inspection of your new car at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles. Find out, too, how little it will cost to have your car given a thorough going-over at regular periods thereafter.

A checking-up by experienced mechanics, together with oiling and greasing every 500 miles, will add months and years to the life of your car and mean more economical and pleasurable motoring every mile you drive.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY

Another Milestone on the highway of Progress

Ever mindful of the needs of West Texas in its phenomenal growth, and thinking several years ahead of its rapid development, the West Texas Utilities Company has set another milestone on this Highway of Progress.

Where six months ago was the bald prairie five miles northeast of Quanah, now stands the Lake Pauline Generating Station, capable of generating 20,000 horsepower of electricity. When this newest electrical giant of the West Texas Utilities Company was put into operation recently it began doing work in homes, industrial plants, oil fields and on farms and ranches of West Texas which is equivalent to the combined efforts of more than 200,000 men.

This station increased the available generating capacity of the company to approximately 70,000 horsepower, thereby not only insuring this territory unlimited power supply, but providing enough reserve to serve at least half a hundred more communities.

The West Texas Utilities Company is constantly working and planning to meet the future demands of West Texas.

ELECTION TUESDAY

Sometimes an election can slip up on us and is gone almost before we are aware of it. That is why it is likely to occur next Tuesday for the reason that more than ordinary interest is centered in this one.

Perhaps there never was in our history a more general awakening over political matters than now. It is certain that there never was such breaking away from party lines. There is a wreckless crossing from one party to the other, so much that whoever is elected will owe his election largely to members of the party opposing him in politics. Indeed, it looks like there might be new party alignments in the future.

No harm need result from honest and intelligent discussion of issues, but on the contrary good must result. It is regrettable, however, that many objectionable things have been injected into the campaign, things that are false on both sides. These have reflected the smallness of the falsifiers and with thinking people have had no weight. Many of the speeches heard are to be classed as pure bunk and were intended to sweep men from their feet. But with the advance in education, thinking for one's self is becoming more general and now it is a pathetic picture to see a spell-binder flop and fall like a crippled duck.

What the results of Tuesday's election are going to be, nobody knows. It is likely that the minds of the people all over the nation are now made up. If so, one of the candidates is already elected and Tuesday's vote will be a visible expression of the fact. Whoever that man may be, we have little fears that things will go along about as usual, down in Texas, anyway. There may be some disturbance among pie-counter candidates. Over-zealous persons who have nothing to gain in either event will get a jolt and they will soon begin to recall hard things they have said about somebody. Some of them will have the manhood to try to make things right, while others will go down the years with a long lip and a friendless feeling for some who did not agree with them. That will be true in every community. There is nothing sillier or less manly. We are not going to reside with Herbert Hoover or Al Smith. We shall be forced by circumstances to have as our neighbor, Bill Jones, and John Brown, and he, for the same reason, will have us as neighbor. Just the street between us, or possibly a few blocks, we see each other each day. How silly to let politics come between us!

The News has stood for Hoover all the way through. We believe he is going to be elected next Tuesday. Our reasons have been expressed. But if Al Smith should be the choice of the people, we expect the country to continue to make progress as long as we have plenty of rain.

TRAINING THE PARENTS

There is no profession in the world that would for one day tolerate a member who knew so little about the task, as does the average parent, declared a representative recently of the American Social Hygiene Association.

This worker has declared that the greatest sociological need of the world today is the training for parenthood, and that so many parents fail in the important task of their family union—that of bringing up their children.

Our schools, the press, and society shun the subject of parenthood, and the average young couple enter it with an ignorance that is appalling. They are left to learn as best they may in the school of experience.

"If I had my way there wouldn't be a school or college of higher learning in America that did not have as one of the required subjects included in the curriculum, preparation for parenthood," the social worker declared.

"The average parents feed, clothe and send their children to school, and think they are discharging their full responsibility. Training for home life is fully as important as any of these.

Parents need not expect children to assume responsibilities at 15 or 16, unless they are given some responsibilities when they are quit little," she said. "Give youth something constructive to do, whether it is part of the management of the house, playground, or work."

by two ghosts with icy cold hands, who seemed determined to shake hands with the guests.

When all the guests arrived they were led into a dark room, where all kinds of ghostly things touched them, and they were told to find their way out of the room.

Then they were invited to the living room which was decorated with witches, black cats, owls and jack-o'-lanterns, which furnished the only light. After several games were enjoyed, the lights were turned on and Mrs. J. E. Blakemore gave a piano selection.

Refreshments consisting of chilli, cookies and hot chocolate were served by the hostess to members, husbands and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moody, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakemore, Mrs. Arie Bell and Miss Frances Cook.

GAS CONSUMPTION INCREASES.

If you are an average motorist, you give the order to "fill'er up with ten gallons," exactly forty-six times during the year.

At least, 458 gallons of gasoline was the average consumption per motor vehicle in the United States in 1927, it is disclosed in a survey of the American Research Foundation, just made public here.

"Consumption of gasoline by motor vehicles increased 8.2 per cent in 1927," the survey shows. "Total amount of gasoline consumed was approximately 10,506,000 gallons.

"Taxation of gasoline during the year produced a total net revenue of $258,966,851, according to information collected from state authorities by such large oil companies as Sinclair and Standard. Of this sum, $182,059,503 was available for the construction and maintenance of state highways under the supervision of the state highway departments and $55,440,161 was apportioned to counties for local road building purposes.

"In all, 96 per cent of the net receipts were allotted for road building, including the payment of interest and retirement charges on highway bonds. The tax yield, which was collected in every state but Massachusetts and New York, constituted an important contribution to the total highway revenue."

The new Buick
is the new Style

Men and women on every street-- in every city and town-- are pronouncing the new BUICK with Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher, the most beautiful automobile of the day--

Never before in the history of motor car manufacture have the motorists of America welcomed any new automobile as they are welcoming the Silver Anniversary Buick with new Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher! Sweeping into the market at a time when motor car lines were practically standardized--when imitation was destroying individuality--these epic Buick creations introduced an entirely new mode-- A mode of body-symmetry--of size and magnificence--of soft contours instead of straight lines--of embossed side and hood panels involving the most costly steel paneling work employed on any car in the world! And as the weeks have passed--and the full significance of Buick's achievement has become apparent to the public--enthusiasm for this car has swelled and grown to unprecedented proportions! Buick sales records have been broken! Production schedules have been increased again and again! The great Buick plants are working to the limit of their capacity to supply the demand.

TEXAN TALES.

There's a guy down here that is plumb ignorant. He never went to school none in his life. He reads on his fingers. He read the ads in the News last week and got a dozen of them nearly right but not hardly. Get out last week's News and see if you can find whose ads these is and how much he missed them, etc. It's sorter like working a cross-eyed puzzle. "High powered values—Held for the right man—Your car runs better with cocoanut gasoline—Fill those empty sox—Don't dry to eat the whole out-of-doors—Good grass and oil—Wash the crook special for Saturday—Well, give your clothes a chance to look—it is as true a saying as was ever repeated. Flourishing shoes—City slaving parlor—Splints."

There's a bird down here says he don't like to have things to worry him while at the same time there's nothing he enjoys more than pleasure.

Believe it or not this one is new! "She was such a spendthrift he had to quit her. He said all she knew was buy, buy. It was buy, buy, until it was bye buy so he told her bye bye."

Ever hear the one about the little dog? Oh, it's a howl, it's a wow! That's all there is to it.

One thing about the election—to the victors belong the responsibilities.

ON THE FARM

By the County Agent

Poultry Culling.

Tom King and W. H. Bell culled their poultry flocks this week. The main object of the culling was to get the boarders from the flock and make high priced feed pay a profit. Mr. Bell has been keeping the Rhode Island Reds and the Buff Orpingtons, but they have been culled down to one breed, the Buff Orpingtons, which will be kept on the Bell farm. Mr. King also has two breeds, the White Leghorns and the Buff Orpingtons. He will continue to keep two breeds. Mr. King has been feeding a home mixed mash and has been getting some extra good results. His chickens are in excellent laying condition and from the record of sales from eggs they have been "delivering the goods" for some time. It pays to keep a smaller flock and feed them well rather than too many that do not lay.

A good ration for poultry may be made from the following feeds:

- 100 pounds of wheat bran.
- 100 pounds of shorts.
- 100 pounds of ground maize or corn.
- 100 pounds of ground oats.
- 100 pounds of meat meal. (Cotton seed meal may be used.)

This should be fed dry in mash hoppers and kept before the flock at all times. Plenty of water is also very important in getting winter egg production.

Terracing Work.

Carl Zeibig was in the office the first of this week to discuss plans for terracing a portion of his farm. Mr. Zeibig has a good farm and it is very productive, but it is washing in some places. He plans to construct terraces on the level in order to conserve the moisture and save the soil from washing.

Plans are being made for a trip to the Spur Experiment Station to study the results of some experiments that have been conducted with various types of terraces.

Several men who are preparing to terrace their farms will make the trip.

Many men have found that a word to the wives is not sufficient.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of expressing our sincere thanks to those who ministered so faithfully to our beloved father, Joe Richter, during his illness and death.

The acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy will always remain with us. We want to thank those who sent the beautiful floral offerings and the minister who consoled us with God's promises.

To all who comforted us in any way, may God bless you.

MINISTERS GIVE

 ers, but they are in no humor to be intimidated. If such a step should be taken it will mean that the majority of voters in the state of Texas will seek alignment with a party which respects their conviction on the question of prohibition and good government.
 Conditions in Texas on this question are duplicated in nearly every Southern state. What we warned the Texas Democratic leaders may happen in Texas, may also happen throughout the entire South, if this element of the Democratic Party of the South are driven, by such method as those in charge of the party at present are pursuing, to abandon their party and seek alignment with the party which will respect their views. The heart of our national democracy will have departed from its fold. The voters who have always rendered a loyal support to the party when other sections of the nation failed, will no longer be found supporting the party dominated by Tammany Hall and the outlawed liquor traffic. Then where lies the hope of the Democratic Party ever again to function as one of the major parties of our nation? Her days will be ended, her usefulness gone.
 We are fighting to prevent just this disaster to the Democratic Party. They are charging that the preachers and women are wrecking the party. We hurl that charge back into the teeth of the politicians, and say that they are the ones who are wrecking the party.
 In order to save the party, the voters of each state in the South must repudiate their party leaders at the ballot box November 6th, by casting their vote for Herbert Hoover. Texas must do this, and so we call upon all true Democrats to cast their vote for Herbert Hoover, as a drastic, but necessary measure for saving our own party.

G. A. MITCHELL DEFENDS

 it appears.
 It is a record replete with achievements in the direction of humanitarianism. It shows a sympathy for, and an understanding of, the common man, that no other man in American public life can even pretend to have.
 Discussing Governor Smith's remarkable record, the Houston Post-Dispatch says:
 Governor Smith's record as a friend and powerful champion of the people of New York state, including the poor and the under-privileged, can not be refuted, nor can the weight of this record be lessened by extremist attacks.
 The achievements of Governor Smith are doubly remarkable in that they were accomplished over the relentless opposition of the New York Republican machine, which controlled, and still controls, the state legislature.
 The New York chief executive beat down legislative opposition by taking his fights to the people, and bringing the full force of aroused public opinion to bear upon the Republican legislative majority.
 He is entitled to full credit for such far-reaching reform measures as the following, to mention a few out of many:
 The New York constitutional amendment and enabling laws reorganizing and consolidating departments of government. Under this program more than 100 departments were consolidated into less than a score, with a major resulting gain in efficiency, and a corresponding decrease in expense.
 The setting up of the executive budget system, regarded as a model fiscal arrangement, under which grant in the handling of state affairs is rendered wellnigh impossible.
 The putting into effect of a far-reaching program to safeguard the natural water power resources of New York state from greedy private monopolies. The state's power resources are safeguarded by a water power authority, or commission which is charged with the duty of retaining all power sites and leasing the current development at these sites, under terms which give the state full power to control rates to the consumers.
 Adoption of a statewide public health program, including the slaughtering of several hundred thousands of tubercular cattle. The reimbursement of New York state farmers for these cattle, to the extent of $20,000,000—a move bitterly opposed by the Republican state machine.
 Increase in public school appropriations from $7,033,555 in 1918, the year Governor Smith was first elected Governor, to $70,000,000 in 1927.
 Completion of one of the best systems of hard-surfaced state highways found in the world.
 Creation of a huge state park system, strenuously fought by the Republicans, to the end that the congested urban dwellers of New York state might enjoy the benefits of fresh air and healthful outdoor exercise.
 The 48-hour law to protect workmen. Compulsory accident insurance for workmen. The state board of housing, which has performed wonderful work in remedying the evils of New York tenement life. A whole string of laws to protect women in industry and conserve the health of expectant mothers and of children.
 The building of numerous public buildings to house the departments of state, thereby adding to the efficiency of the government and relieving it from paying exorbitant rent.
 Abolition of the state income tax to 300,000 income taxpayers, citizens of small or moderate wealth. Reduction of the direct ad valorem tax from 2 1-2 mills to 1-2 mill.
 A record of intensely practical and lofty humanitarian service of which any governor, and the people of any state, could be justly proud. Through it all, a passion for the welfare of the common people.

LUNCHEON.

Mesdames M. O'Connell, Brian O'Connell and Kincaid were hostesses to a beautifully appointed luncheon on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Kincaid, honoring the Clark-Male wedding party.

The bride's table was centered with a miniature bride which demurely hid beneath her wedding veil and the folds of her wedding gown fashioned from a linen cup towel, an array of kitchen articles. The little lady provoked much curiosity and merriment throughout the meal and was presented to the honor guests at the close.

A bountiful four-course luncheon was served, consisting of grapefruit, cocktail, Manhattan salad, baked chicken, dressing, gravy, vegetables, pumpkin pie and whipped cream with coffee. Beautiful pink and white carnations were presented each guest with the desert plat.

Covers were laid for Miss Clark, Mr. Leonard H. Male, Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Male, Wakefield, Kans., father and mother of the groom, Dr. and Mrs. Hines Clark, Mrs. Bettie Thompson, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S.
