SNOW SCENE IN MULESHOE . . . A cold front moved into Muleshoe Country leaving approximately two inches of fluffy white snow on the ground. Hazardous driving warnings were out for most of the early morning for the panhandle. A dense fog moved over the area after the snow ceased and visibility was down to near zero for a short time. The sun chased away the fog before late morning and most of the accumulated snow was melted before late afternoon.

Heager Sentenced 5 Years, Aviles 18

Jurors, who deliberated over six hours Wednesday in the second murder trial of Willie J. Heager, Jr., 18, found him guilty of murder without malice. Jury foreman Don Lowe delivered the verdict to Judge Pat Boone, Jr., in 154th District Court.

Heager was charged with the shooting death of Nathaniel Williams, 31, of Muleshoe on February 15, 1971.

Heager was first tried in September, but the trial ended when the jury could not reach a verdict after several hours of deliberation.

In the re-trial, testimony was heard Wednesday from both the defendant and his mother Mrs. Annie Mae Heager. They both testified that Heager shot the man after he had allegedly abused Mrs. Heager and fired a shotgun blast through the window of a cafe in which they were in.

Defense attorney was Jim Durham of Amarillo and Jack Young, District Attorney, prosecuted for the state.

Elias Gonzales Aviles, 21, was found guilty of murder with malice Friday in 154th District Court. He was sentenced to 18 years in the penitentiary.

He was charged with the shooting death of Jose Villareal, 20, of Dimmitt on October 16, 1971.

Villareal was shot three times, once in the back, once in the back of the head and once between the eyes. The shooting apparently took place about 2 a.m., and Villareal died approximately 12 hours later in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital without ever regaining consciousness.

Apparently the shooting stemmed from an argument at a wedding dance the night of the shooting. Villareal was found in an alley behind the residence of Royce Garth in Muleshoe.

The jury deliberated less than two hours before handing down the guilty verdict and about the same length of time before handing down the 18 year sentence.

Testimony in the trial began Thursday. District Attorney Jack Young represented the state and Don Cihak was defense attorney. The defense called no witnesses to the stand and offered no testimony. The state called 10 witnesses to the stand including Lubbock pathologist, Dr. William Strange, who performed the autopsy on Villareal's body.

Southwestern Corn Borer

Cultural control, a fancy name for preventing insect damage without using chemicals, has been found to be the best method of controlling the southwestern corn borer in West Texas.

Information from two years of result demonstrations by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has shown that various cultural practices have outperformed insecticides in controlling the small borers, which hit many American corn producers square in the pocketbook each year.

"In our tests, we found that very little yield increase was obtained through chemical control," reports Dr. Bill Clymer, area entomologist at Amarillo.

For the past two seasons, he has worked with county agricultural agents and farmers trying various practices to stop the insect, which can infest 100 percent of the plants in a corn field and completely prevent grain production.

"Damage is caused by young plants being killed or dwarfed by borer activity in the stalk," Clymer says. "Yield is reduced by extensive tunneling and grain may be lost as a result of girdling which causes lodging or falling of the stalk."

The recent tests have produced concrete suggestions to minimize corn borer damage. Clymer warns that late corn plantings are especially subject to severe attack by second generation borers at a critical time in the development of the plants. He suggests planting as early as possible with early-maturing varieties to minimize crop damage.

In the Panhandle and other colder areas, double disking or plowing corn stubble exposes the borers to drying and freezing temperatures and allows almost complete overwinter kill. If wind erosion is a problem, the entomologist suggests listing the soil, which also prepares it for good retention of any winter rainfall.

If no cultural practices are used in the fall or winter, the larvae will overwinter in the stalks below ground level. Later on, farmers can usually gain some control by deep plowing in the spring to bury the larvae so the mature moths cannot emerge. Some control can be obtained by deep plowing prior to planting.

In-season control is limited to application of chemicals, which must be critically timed because the larvae are safe after they bore into the stalk. Clymer adds that insecticidal control on moderate infestations has not been economical in the tests.

Army Announces Law Opportunity

Young men interested in law enforcement can not take advantage of a new enlistment opportunity, it was announced yesterday by SFC Maddocks, Local Army recruiter. Sergeant Maddocks said the option has two attractive guarantees for a three-year enlistee: eight weeks of law enforcement training at Ft. Gordon, Ga., and the choice of assignment to one of six locations in various parts of the United States for a minimum of 16 months.

The six locations are: San Francisco, Ca.; Ft. Bragg, N.C.; Ft. Riley, Ks.; Ft. Hood, Tx.; Ft. Meade, Md.; and Ft. Dix, N.J.

Sergeant Maddocks said that the person who enlists under this option will be assigned to a military police unit at his choice of location for 16 months.

To qualify for enlistment under this option, an individual must be of the highest character, pass a physical, be at least 5' 9" in height, have normal color vision, be at least 18 years and 10 months of age upon completion of basic training and be able to obtain a driver's license.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes up with a counter tax proposal this week. Its success seems dim.

As I understand it, Washington, faced, like you and me, with the problem of having more demands for money than it has, is considering a new kind of tax called the Value-Added Tax. The way it works, I've been told, is that every time a product is improved, from the iron ore stage through the steel process through manufacturing to the finished automobile or tractor or whatnot, a Value-Added tax is imposed.

When a steel company turns ore into steel it has increased its value so at that point a tax is assessed. The company pays the tax but adds the amount to the price of steel. When the steel is forged into a knife or a car bumper, naturally its value has increased so another tax is assessed there, which that manufacturer pays and then ups his price by that much, and so it goes, every step being taxed and added to the cost of the finished product, which by then is carrying a pretty heavy load which is paid in the end by the consumer.

This is being heralded as a new source of tax revenue, which in political phraseology means a new way of getting at the same old source, you and me and the rest of us.

Now understand I don't object to this tax, anymore than I object to any other tax, and after all land and other property stand just so much tax and point has already been reached and passed in most places, but the consumer ought to be entitled to some small break in this new tax proposal, and I have a suggestion.

If he's going to pay a Value-Added tax all the way from iron ore to the finished car, he ought to be entitled to a Value-Lowered Refund every time the finished car heads back down on its way to scrap metal.

Say you pay $3,500 for a new car and 4 years later when you trade it in on a new one the dealer looks in his book and says it's worth $500. Clearly you ought to be able to throw the Value-Added tax into reverse and collect a Value-Lowered Refund. The same would apply to refrigerators, television sets, tires, tractors, furniture, etc.

I hope you'll call this to the attention of Congress. A dealer just offered me $75 for my old car, provided I'd bring it around to the back.

Yours faithfully,

J.A.

Kathleen Jennings Installed As Rainbow Worthy Advisor

Miss Kathleen Jennings was installed as Worthy Advisor of the Muleshoe Order of Rainbow for Girls, No. 161, Saturday, February 5, at 7 p.m. in the Masonic Hall. Miss Jennings, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jennings, is a junior at Muleshoe High School.

Her theme was the "Good Samaritan"; her colors were green and yellow; her flower was the daffodil; and her symbol was The Praying Hands. She chose the Prayer of Serenity for her prayer: "God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference."

Miss Jennings' motto was "I shall pass through this world but once; if, therefore, there be any kindness I can show or any good thing I can do, let me do it now - let me not defer it nor neglect it for I shall not pass this way again." She dedicated her term of office to her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. T.G. Craft.

Installing officers were Tracy Cowan, installing officer; Martha Jane Chapman, marshal; Debbie Kerr, chaplain; Mrs. Eric J. Smith, recorder and Karen Hamilton, musician.

Ernest Kerr presented the invocation. Following the installation service, Donna Woodard read a selection entitled "The Rainbow" and the scripture Matthew 25: 31-46. Entertainment was provided by Karen Hamilton, Charlotte Wedel, Cassie Precure, Linda Lambert, Jennifer Davis, Kathy Schuster and Larry Shafer. They presented the vocal numbers "I Believe," "He" and "Others."

A Past Worthy Advisor's pin was presented to Tracy Cowan and a gift was presented to Mrs. Ernest Kerr as Outgoing Mother Advisor.

A group of Rainbow girls then presented the new Worthy Advisor with a flower drill.

The benediction was given by Rev. T.G. Craft, and the Rainbow girls gave the retiring march. Registering guests was Susan Foster.

The serving table was covered with a yellow tablecloth and white net overlay with green streamers. An arrangement of daffodils in a base of lemon leaves and "The Praying Hands" served as the centerpiece. The cake with the traditional rainbow was decorated in green and yellow. The cake, lemon-pineapple punch, and green and yellow mints were served by Donna Woodard and Tina Morphis.

Other officers installed were Christy Ford, Worthy Associate Advisor; Gayla Hooten, Charity;

Kim Cowan, Hope; Beverly McCamish, Faith; Prisca Young, Chaplain; Jana Oyler, drill leader; Marcia Rudd, recorder; Kim Small, treasurer; Kelly Cihak, Love; Maribeth Dillman, Religion; Debbie Dunbar, Nature; Belinda Nickels, Immortality; Cindy Cason, Fidelity; Lawren Hall, Patriotism; Faith Free, Service; Sheryl Brown, Confidential Observer; Carol Brown, Outer Observer; Frances Dunbar, musician; Cynthia White, choir director and choir.

Mrs. Wayne Lagrone was installed as Mother Advisor.

The advisory board for 1972 is Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Epting, Mr. and Mrs. Muri Brown, Mrs. Wayne Lagrone, Mrs. Harold Cowan, Mrs. Bobby Free, John Dunbar, Jim Small and James Jennings.

School Financing Is Topic For AAUW Program

Neal Dillman, superintendent of Muleshoe Schools, spoke to the Muleshoe Branch of American Association of University Women Monday, February 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Mary DeShazo Library. The topic, "School Financing," was selected by the Branch, since the study topic for the year is "A Dollar's Worth."

Dillman explained how the Muleshoe Schools are financed through local, state, and federal resources. According to the latest Statewide annual statistical report from the Texas Education Agency, the revenue from all local sources is approximately 45%, revenue from state sources is 52%, and revenue received direct from Federal Agencies is 1%.

Under the Minimum State Foundation Program the State pays approximately 85% and the local district pays 15% of the total cost. The estimated budget for the Muleshoe Schools for 1971-72 is $1,520,550. Of this budget $1,286,620 is already obligated through salaries and debt services, which leaves $233,930 for maintaining the school, for supplies and utilities and other operating costs.

Last year the assessed valuation of property was raised from 33 1/3% to 45%, but the tax rate was lowered from $1.50 to $1.25 on the maintenance tax and from .53 to .38 on the debt service tax, making the total tax rate reduction from $2.03 to $1.63 per 100 dollar evaluation. Dillman projected an interesting survey which showed the pattern of growth of the Muleshoe Schools. In 1943-44 the total enrollment was 562, the total number of teachers was 21, the assessed valuation was $1,998,000 and the total teachers salaries was $30,303. The peak in enrollment was reached in 1965-66 with 2088; 102 teachers, $26,400,000 assessed valuation and total salaries of $613,500. In 1970-71 the enrollment was 1874, 113 teachers, $29,006,700 assessed valuation, and salaries were $1,001,731.

Dillman said that the Texas Schools have been given two more years to study the local tax structures and to recommend changes to better equalize the distribution of money spent for education. Mrs. Jane Rudd, president, presided during the business session. Mrs. John Gunter, Jr., Mrs. Robert Sanders, and Mrs. Jack Rennels were elected to serve as the nominating committee.

Mrs. Jack Rennels reported that The Children's Theater group from Eastern New Mexico University will present two performances of the play "A Physician In Spite of Himself" to Muleshoe students in grades 3-12 on March 6. Mrs. Glenn Harlin, Mrs. Tom Jinks and Mrs. Jim Shafer were elected to make plans for the tea sponsored by AAUW to honor area senior high school girls in May. Hostesses for the meeting were Miss Virginia Bowers, Mrs. Mabel Wolfe and Mrs. Robert Sanders. Cherry tarts, nuts, coffee and cokes were served to Neal Dillman and Mrs. Jim Hudgens, guests, and the following members, Mrs. Neal Dillman, Mrs. John Gunter, Jr., Mrs. Lena Hawkins, Mrs. Aiden Henderson, Mrs. Robert Hooten, Mrs. Tom Jinks, Mrs. C.F. Moore, Mrs. Jack Rennels, Mrs. W.O. Rudd, Mrs. Eric Smith, Mrs. Addie Mae Spence, Mrs. John Watson, and Mrs. D.L. Thompson.

Facts Regarding Profits Of Preston Smith On NBL Stock

From The Office Of Preston Smith

Many questions have been asked about a profit that the Governor made on an investment in National Bankers Life stock. This investment was made by a long-time friend of the governor's, Dr. Elmer Baum, whom he trusted, and still trusts, and was not related in any way with the duties of the Governor's Office nor with any type of legislation. In 1963, when Governor Smith became the Lieutenant Governor of Texas, he assigned his outside investment interests to the care of Dr. Baum, because it was his belief that his time and his efforts should be devoted to the duties of the public office to which he had been elected. Since 1963, Dr. Baum has made many investments for himself and the governor. These investments have not always been profitable, and the records will reveal that there has been a net loss when all the transactions are considered.

The governor has always believed in and supported the Democratic system of government, a free enterprise system and the philosophy which made our country strong. He believes in every man working, investing and trying to make the world a better place in which to live for himself, his family and for other people. Every person who purchases a home, some land, a car, some cattle, a farm or stocks and bonds makes an investment. In every instance, the person who makes any kind of investment hopes that it will be profitable.

In order to make this point perfectly clear, we refer to political personalities who make investments, not in any way or with any effort to smear these personalities politically, but just to illustrate clearly some points that need clarification.

There are two announced candidates, besides Governor Smith, in the race for governor, and there might be more at a later date. These two candidates are Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes and Dolph Briscoe. They are both considered to be wealthy men. Let us consider their situation briefly. Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes, since 1963, has earned only $4,800 per year as a legislator and as lieutenant governor. In view of this, he could not, under any circumstances, have become the wealthy man that he is on this salary. The only way he became wealthy was to make profitable investments and accumulate this wealth through investments. There is no criticism of him for having made these investments, because there is nothing wrong with simply making investments. This is the free enterprise system and the American way of life.

Dolph Briscoe is one of the largest land owners in our state and also one of the largest owners of bank stocks in Texas.

He has accumulated a tremendous personal wealth. He could not have accumulated this vast amount of land or the tremendous amount of stock that he has without making profitable investments. He is not to be criticized for this, because this is the free enterprise system and the American way of life.

These facts concerning Ben Barnes and Dolph Briscoe are for clarification purposes only insofar as making investments are concerned. It appears that the only reason that the governor's investment was questioned is because he happens to be governor. Those who are making these allegations are obviously politically motivated. Since 1963, at the time Governor Smith was lieutenant governor, the records will show that he has made many investments. He has paid his taxes, and his financial net worth, due to some of his investments that were not profitable, is now less than it was in 1963 when he became lieutenant governor.

Some questions have been raised about the collateral or lack of collateral for certain loans. In 1936, the governor borrowed money to get started in the business world, as many of our other citizens have done. He and his wife worked hard for many years, paying back every loan that they received, with the proper interest and meeting all the deadlines. He has always kept his financial affairs in good shape and today has a very good credit rating. This record was established over 34 years by his accomplishments and trustworthy financial dealings. It was not easy. He worked hard all of his life to establish a good name in government, in business and in his personal life.

Some persons have considered this particular investment a result of inside information. There is no way to get inside information. The stock continued to go up in value after the investment had been terminated. The fact of the matter is that the entire financial empire of Mrs. Frank Sharp was brought to its knees by the governor vetoing the bills. It was not likely that the governor would veto these bills if he had a personal risk involved or had he known of any supposed connection between the bills and the stock value. The truth is that his good judgment in vetoing these measures was in the best interests of the people of Texas.

It is important to note that in Governor Smith's veto message he stated, "I am in accord with the basic purpose of providing full protection for deposits on their bank accounts but I am not satisfied that the approach taken by these bills is the proper one and for that reason I am calling upon the Finance Commission to make a study of the best solution to this problem to present to the next Legislature." He also pointed out in his veto message that there had not been opportunity for full public hearings on these bills or on this particular approach to this problem. These two bills were vetoed and at the bottom of the veto document is the only place that the Governor's signature appears in connection with these two bills.

Thespians Sponsor Beauty Pageant

Mr., Miss MHS, Prince Princess Of Friendship Named

By Fatty Murray
The MHS Student Council met on Monday afternoon to plan for the sale of Valentines on February 14. It was decided that the standard red hearts and dollies would be used. Different verses were written and each Student Council member was given a copy of these. Orders were taken by the members during the week. Students could use the written verses or make up their own. The written Valentines were sold for 10¢. Singing Valentines could also be purchased for 25¢. The Valentines will be delivered Monday during orientation.

The Student Council wrote spirit slogans on paper plates for the Basket Homecoming Pep Rally on February 8. These were passed out as the student entered the gym and everyone threw theirs during the Fight Song.

Elections were held during the first week in February for Mr. and Miss MHS and Prince and Princess of Friendship. Larry Shafer was elected as Mr. MHS and Ricky Faver as Prince of Friendship. Jenny Milburn received double honors as Miss MHS and Princess of Friendship.

PROTECTION FROM THE ELEMENTS

It has been said in the Lone Star State that there is nothing between Texas and the North Pole but a barbed wire fence. That certainly gives you the idea that in Texas you're not given much protection from the cold North wind.

There are times when you might think there is no protection and comfort afforded from the hardness and cruelty of the world. But there is a buffer between you and the world. This help and protection is the church. As members of the church, you are with good people of like minds who love you, pray with you, comfort you and assist you. They are the ones who "by love serve one another." (Gal. 5:13)

We invite you to attend the church of your choice this week. You will find a warm welcome there.

"And this commandment we have from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also."

1 John 4:21

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Do you really want your brother-in-law to know how much you earned last year?

Of course not. It's nobody's business but your own.

However, annually millions of taxpayers bear this kind of personal information to people who really shouldn't know. For what? Just so they can save a few dollars doing their income tax.

That's some price to pay.

You see, for only a few dollars more than it costs to do it with any amateur who might not know that work clothes in some instances are deductible, or that income averaging might save tax dollars, you can have your tax return done by a specially trained member of the H & R Block team with complete confidentiality. There are thousands of them in over 6,000 conveniently located offices. H & R Block's fees start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for the 7 million families we served last year.

This means that H & R Block is ready to offer you year 'round tax service for just one low fee a year, with no extra charge for audits and estimates. Yes, we cost a little bit more than your relatives or friends or neighbors but when you think of what we deliver, you can't afford anything less than H & R Block.

A happy spirit is the greatest possession that comes to man, regardless of his wealth or lack of it.

Congressman Bob Price

This has been a busy week in Washington involving a number of developments of importance to Northwest Texas area residents.

FARM PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENTS

I am pleased that Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz this week has made the decision to allow farmers a new option under the 1972 feed grain program which will mean larger payments to them for set aside of feed grain acreage. Under the new option, grain producers after setting aside the 25 percent of their feed grain base to qualify them will be able to earn an increased payment of 76 cents per bushel of grain sorghum (80 cents per bushel for corn) on an additional 10 percent set aside of their base. To qualify for the higher payment rate under this new provision, the producer will agree that for each acre of additional set aside, his 1972 plantings of corn-grain sorghum will be reduced by two acres below his 1971 corn-grain sorghum acreage. Thus, one acre would be set aside and held out of all production and the second acre would be held out of corn-grain sorghum production but could be planted to any crop not subject to other program restrictions. In addition, producers may offer an additional 5 percent of their corn-grain sorghum base at the same rate which may be accepted at the option of the Secretary. However, there is no extra option for barley producers.

In another announcement, the Agriculture Department will permit winter wheat producers to revise their Federal Crop Insurance Corporation coverage to exclude land they put into additional set aside acreage from insurance coverage and reduce premiums to be paid by producers who participate in the additional set aside.

It was also emphasized that there will be no changes made in the 1972 upland cotton program announced by the Department of Agriculture on October 19, 1971. As in 1971, there is no restriction on cotton planting.

FEDERAL JUDGESHIP FOR NORTHERN TEXAS
I am very pleased that the House passed a bill this week that will add one more federal district judge to the Northern District of Texas. This bill contains the provisions of a bill I introduced last year. The workload in the Northern District is such that at the end of fiscal year 1971 there were a total of 1,278 cases still pending. I firmly believe that we must make the wheels of justice move more swiftly and surely if we are expected to make progress in the effort to strengthen respect for the law, and I applaud this action as a step in the right direction.

WEST COAST DOCK STRIKE
Congress has failed to deal with the West Coast dock strike and has refused to approve legislation to block other major transportation strikes. A number of other members and myself have begun efforts to pry loose the dock strike legislation which the President introduced over two years ago out of the House Education and Labor Committee. I have introduced my own bill dealing with massive strikes in transportation, and I hope that the Congress will face up to its responsibility to protect the American people and our overall economy from being victimized by the self-serving actions of one labor union.

DRUG ABUSE CONTROL
This week the House unanimously voted to establish a Special Action Office for Drug Abuse Prevention and to concentrate the resources of the Nation against the problem of drug abuse. I supported this legislation because illicit drug use in the United States has reached epidemic proportions in several regions, and we must develop an organized plan of attack on this problem if we are to save citizens from this tragic and unnecessary affliction.

U.S. & LOANS
The Treasury has reported that foreign governments still owe the United States $50 billion in debts dating back to World War I—about $250 for every man, woman and child in the country.
