Utilities Company Have Program at Stamford Tuesday

REPRESENTATIVES FROM ALL PLANTS IN WEST TEXAS WERE PRESENT

Never discovered that anything of the ordinary was taking place at the West Texas Utilities Company until Wednesday morning when the front door this sign "Irish Holiday" will be out all day Tuesday.

The "Irish Holiday" was merely a little humor and all of the employees of the company were not present. Some of them remained to see the business while the others went to Stamford to attend the district safety meeting, a semi-annual affair.

Manager Dudley U. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Clary, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Addox, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Fox, Miss Elizabeth Baxter, H. H. Hallmark, and Robert J. Gal, all attended the meeting at Crowell and all are employees of the company except Mrs. Hallmark who is wife of H. H. Hallmark, an employee.

The program left at 5 o'clock Tuesday and was to be present at the beginning of the program, which included registration at 10 a. m., followed by a business meeting and then at noon.

After the noon hour was another program extending over 3:30. This was followed by a polo game between the West Texas Utilities Company and the Stamford team. The West Texas Utilities Company winning. At 6:30 a barbecue was given at the Colbert ranch about 3 miles from Stamford where everything is electrical, lights, cooking, the current being furnished by the West Texas Utilities Company's line.

The program included a dance at 8 and ended about 11 o'clock. Crowell visitors arrived at home Tuesday about noon.

There were about 160 visiting employees of the West Texas Utilities Company at this meeting. Their program included discussions of matters of general interest to the company and are bound to be profitable many standpoints.

Organized Sunday School at Gamble

The people of the Gambleville community met at the Gamble school house last Sunday and organized a Sunday School.

This is one of the best communities in the county but like most all others it is difficult to maintain a Sunday School the year around. So the fact that an organization has become necessary means that the Sunday School they had in that community a few months ago failed to function for some cause or other. Possibly it was due to the rains or heavy farm work or to both or something else. Anyway the time, it is thought, has come for another effort in that direction and those good people are anxious that all who can come out to Gambleville each Sunday afternoon and help keep the school going.

They extend a hearty welcome to visitors.

MAY PLANT BROOMCORN

As a means of diversification some of the farmers in the Thalia community are figuring on planting broomcorn another year. Of course they do not intend to make this the main crop but will merely make an experiment of it. C. A. Crisp has been leading this up with some of the farmers in his locality and it is thought possibly they can get about 300 bushels. It seems that broomcorn has become a profitable crop in some localities. However, the price fluctuates even more than that of cotton. It has been known to sell as low as $2.00 a ton and as high as $300.00. It is thought that a small acreage would prove profitable in this county.

SIN NO MORE BOLLIES

The gins have agreed to gin no more bollies. Of course, if a load is at the gin when this notification reaches the farmers or they have part of a load already in the field, that will be ginned, but no more.

SCHOOL NOTES

In accordance with the plan which we started last year of publishing the names of those pupils who have been neither tardy nor absent for a period of six weeks, and also those who have made an average of 90 or above, we submit the following:

In the first grade, the following are found in Miss Lottie Woods' room who have been neither absent nor tardy for the first six weeks period of our school year, 1926-27: Addie Campbell, John Bowley, Alva Clary, Junior Nelson, Louis Owens, J. C. Ross, Lawrence Lovelady, Tom Ray Roberts, Genevieve Ferguson, Florence Miller and Mary Elizabeth Hughston.

In Miss Inez Sloan's room we find James Adams, Effie Griffin, Milford Howell, Goodlow Meason and Juanita Schlagal have been neither absent nor tardy.

We find that Miss Barbara Cryer has the following ones who have made an average of 90 or above: Fred Allen Beverly, Edward Brisco and Ala Ketchersid. And that Merrill Allee, J. C. Allen, Burke Bell, Fred Allan Beverly, Edward Brisco, J. M. Brown, John Cogdell, Sam Crews Jr., Louis Rettig, Ruth Barnes, Rosemary Crawford, Edith Fox, Ruth Ferguson, Beulah Ivie, Lois Evelyn Norris, Doris Oswald, Koxie Dean Robertson and Ocie Pearl Thompson, have been neither absent nor tardy.

Mrs. J. R. Self reports the following as having been neither absent nor tardy: Earl Gray, Milton Magee, Eugene Palm, Cordie Pierce, F. L. Rennels, Mark Saunders, Stanley Womack, Ada Beidleman, Geraldine Carter, Mattie Florence Collins, Ruth Fox, Frances Ivie, Bernice Poland, Gladys Wheeler and Marjorie Schooley.

In the fourth grade Miss Zelma Owens reports Cressie Brown, Prudence Coffey, Lorene Gray, Mattie Bell Greening, Caretha Bell Robertson, Margaret Schlagal, Lewis Brown, Ruedell Russell, Coy Ward, and John Welch, as having been neither absent nor tardy.

A report from Miss Noma Gray's room shows the following ones to have been perfect in attendance for the first six weeks: George Carter, Wilburn Clary, Bernice Collins, Frances Couch, Pauline Donaldson, Catherine Ferguson, Mary Fox, Berl Lovelady, James Loyd, Frank Palm, and Fred Spears.

Miss Roberts reports the following ones from her room as having been neither absent nor tardy: Otis Coffey, Ira Denton, Mart Denton, Lillie Mae Edgin, Murrell Gray, Weldon Hays, Charlie Lyles, Mary Eva Meason, Robert Parker, Velma Parker, Lois Schlagal.

Miss Ruth Patterson says that Mitchell Allee, Addie Brisco, Loraine Carter, Dan Hines Clark, J. M. Crowell, George Fox, Louise Greening, Herbert King, Eula Ribble, Eloise Saunders, Frances Schlagal and Leslie Thomas, have neither been absent nor tardy for the first six weeks period.

The following ones are reported as being perfect in attendance for the first six weeks period from Mrs. Cash's room: Bonnie Cogdell, Josephine Griffith, Mildred Johnson, Lenora Thompson and Bertha Womack.

Miss Winnie Self reports the following pupils with perfect attendance records for the first six weeks period of school: Frances Allison, Reba Collins, Catherine Crowell, Mella Gorrell, Ida Pearl Harris, Lila Mae Hudson, Clarine Nicholson, Mary Frances Self, Evelyn Sloan, Elbert Griffith and Harold Hinds.

Mr. J. T. Prestwood reports those who are 100 per cent in attendance from his room to be the following: Olive Mae Collins, Thelma Draper, Lucile Sparks, Nettie Maude Yount, Joe Brown, Tom Greening, Henry Teague, Munson Welch and Recie Womack.

In the high school we find the following pupils have a clear record that is they have been neither absent nor tardy for the first six weeks period: In the freshman class we have: Arthur Bell, Ralph Cogdell, Richard Ferguson, Preston Rettig, Buster Smith, Robert Thomas, Arrie Fieta Beidleman, Mary Brisco, Nancy Cogdell, Virginia Sue Crowell, Mildred Donaldson, Ludell Green, Venetia Hall, Blanche Hays, Mable Ivie, Belle Locke, Elizabeth Locke, Frances Patton, Lela Patton, Elsie Fay Roark, Blanche Schooley, Harriet Evelyn Swain and Mary Ragland Thompson.

Lots of Cotton Untouched in the Fields of County

It looks like a pity to see the thousands of acres of fine cotton as white as a snow bank, much of it yet untouched. But that is said to be the spectacle that greets one not only in Foard County but in Wilbarger. Several parties went to Vernon Saturday and they report that they did not see anybody picking cotton and all along the highways were hundreds of acres as fine as one ever saw grow. One may go in almost any direction in Foard County and he will see hundreds of acres of cotton as fine as one could wish to see and few pickers. This is not because pickers can not make good wages picking but because there is a scarcity of them and then, too, more than likely because the price of cotton is so low that many of the farmers are not interested in saving the crop. They figure that they must save it at a considerable loss any way it is figured and it is discouraging to the farmers to pay $1.25 for picking cotton that is bringing around 10 and 11 cents a pound at best. The pickers can make more than the farmers who own the cotton. It has been figured that it costs around 18 cents a pound to make cotton, hence one can easily see that the crop this year means a heavy loss to the producers.

But of course the best will have to be made of the situation. It may prove discouraging, not only to the farmers, but to the business men as well, for all interests depend largely upon the farmers' success. It looks like Clarence Ousley is right in saying that the people of the South must solve the cotton problems themselves and not depend upon the Government, State or National. We believe he is right about it. All these solutions are worthy of consideration but none of them will provide a permanent guarantee against ruinous prices. They are only temporary in their nature. In the face of the last Government report on cotton, which indicates a larger crop than ever, we doubt if much rise in the price of cotton can be hoped for soon if at all. We simply can't get around the fact that we have a record crop and it's going to be mighty hard to handle it without heavy loss.

Howard Ringgold Married October 10th

The many friends of Howard Ringgold will be glad to know of his marriage on Sunday, October 10th, to Miss Ida Johnson in Pasadena, Cal., both being residents of that city. Howard has been living in Pasadena for several years and is in love with Southern California. He was reared in Crowell and is well known here, being the son of B. F. Ringgold.

GETS CAR STOLEN

John Wright, son of J. D. Wright, of Margaret, had his Chevrolet touring stolen from him at Vernon Wednesday night of last week.

Suspicion rests on a young man who gave his name as J. V. Bass and who had been riding with the Wright boy before the car was missed.

J. D. Wright was in town Monday and had cards printed at the News office to be sent out over the country in an effort to apprehend the thief. He was offering a reward of $50.00.

The senior class brings us Allen Cogdell, Carl Ivie, Mary M. Bell, Nellie Brisco, Gusta Mae Davis, Sybil Hays, Inez Ivie, Louise Johnson, Lottie Russell and Bernice Schlagal all with 100 per cent attendance.

This is a very fine record for the first six weeks period when we consider the amount of wet weather that we have had, and the week we began at 8 o'clock, together with the fine weather for cotton picking. May we improve both in attendance and in our work is our hope for the future.

Yours very truly,
R. B. UNDERWOOD, Supt.

SAYS 95 PER CENT OF WHEAT IS NOW SOWN

ACREAGE THIS YEAR TO SMALL GRAIN WILL BE VERY MUCH INCREASED

While talking to Dr. Hill Monday morning he remarked that we might say that 95 per cent of the wheat land in the county had been sown already. Dr. Hill himself is through and has sown 800 acres. Dr. Kincaid, another big wheat grower, says he thinks 75 to 80 per cent of the acreage has been sown.

At any rate a large bulk of the wheat has been put into the ground and these men, with many others, say that the small grain acreage this year will be greatly increased, owing to the low price of cotton and the favorable conditions for a wheat crop another year.

The last week has been fine for wheat sowing as well as for cotton picking and farm work in general has been going forward with satisfactory progress.

Young Man From Bonham Died Sunday

Edgar Dennis, a young man from Bonham, died at the hospital here Sunday morning at 10 a. m.

He had come to this county some weeks ago to pick cotton and was sick when he left home and soon after arriving here came down with typhoid. His father and mother were present at the time of his death.

The body was prepared for shipment and was sent to Bonham Monday for burial.

CROWELL FOOTBALL TEAM DEFEATED BY MUNDAY

The Crowell football team met its first defeat Friday when the boys met Munday on the latter's home ground. The teams were very evenly matched. The Crowell boys were forced to take to the air route due to the field being very sandy. Total passes from Burrow to Norman, totalling 122 yards, from Burrow to Hallmark 68 yards.

Score, Munday 9; Crowell, 0.

Munday is not an interscholastic league team, therefore Crowell's interscholastic standing is still one hundred per cent.

A GOOD PIG RECORD

Dr. Kincaid has two gilts each of which has become the mother of a record-breaking litter of pigs, one 11 and the other 12.

Ordinarily this might not be a news item, but for the last few years it will be remembered that hogs have almost become a thing of the past, and so we consider it a very important news item at this time when hogs are so scarce in this country.

It would be a fine thing if every farm in the county had one sow with 11 pigs. A large portion of that fine feed that has been raised in the county could be turned into profit. With more pigs on the farms and more feed to grow them and with fewer bales of cotton the farmers could soon snap their fingers in the faces of the cotton gamblers and put their cotton under the shed and wait for better prices.

SOME FINE SPECIMENS

Carl Zeibig brought to the News office Tuesday some of his fine specimens of sweet potatoes and peanuts as one ever saw anywhere. The potatoes weigh a little more than three pounds each and the peanuts are large, each pod having three and four peas each. The seed for these Carl got from Georgia, the famous peanut state of the union. He planted only fourteen short rows to peanuts but thinks he will have about 7 bushels.

He plans to increase his acreage to both potatoes and peanuts another year, as he thinks there is profit in them both. He has very fine soil for anything he wants to grow and if anybody in Foard County can grow such things Carl Zeibig can.

$14.00 Scholastic Apportionment Is Now Assured

Austin, Texas, Oct. 25. (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson Monday signed the bill appropriating $3,500,000 from the general fund to raise the per capita scholastic apportionment from $11.50 to $14.00.

This was passed at the recent call session here of the 39th legislature. The bill provides that $3,500,000 or as much thereof as may be necessary to raise the apportionment to $14 shall be made available for school purposes, and that the apportionment for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1927, shall not be more than $14.

One-third of the apportionment is made available December 1, 1926, one-third March 1, 1927, and the other third May 1, 1927. It is hoped this plan will prevent the state going on a deficiency.

The governor submitted to the special session the raising of the gasoline gallonage tax from one to three cents. The three-cent gasoline tax was passed by the house, but killed off by the senate, and the bill appropriating money from the general fund for school purposes was passed shortly thereafter. One-fourth of the revenue from the gasoline tax goes to the public schools.

At the time of its passage there was some doubt as to whether such a bill would become a law, even though the governor should sign it, because she had not submitted the proposition to the call session.

S. M. N. Marrs, state superintendent of public instruction, in a letter last week urged Governor Ferguson to sign the bill, "in the interest of 1,300,000 school children."

The governor also signed a deficiency bill appropriating $463,481.61 for the judiciary.

Haskell Watchman Killed Saturday Night

Night Watchman J. K. Beauchamp was found dead in a store in Haskell Sunday morning about 10 o'clock after a search had been made for the missing man. The man was lying on his side with a wound in one side and another in the top of the head. It is said the officer apparently met death after having fired one shot from his pistol which was lying by his side.

A dispatch in the Dallas News further says: Entrance had been gained by removing heavy screen wire from a rear window on the ground floor of the building in the rear of the store. A suitcase and bags had been filled with merchandise to a value estimated at $5,000 by Mr. Davis.

Awning and show window lights were found burning Sunday morning over the business section, although usually they were turned off by the night watchman about 10 o'clock, and led Chief Welsh to investigate.

A small dog that accompanied Beauchamp usually all night went home alone, and the master not appearing about the usual time, his wife called the chief of police and friends, asking about him. Chief Welsh already had started investigating when called by Mr. Davis into the store as he was going his round inquiring about the watchman.

The officer recently moved here from Rochester, where his parents and other relatives reside. His wife and two small children survive him here. He had gained quite a reputation as a wrestler previous to his coming here to live.

Mayor T. C. Cahill is asking for a suitable reward for the murderer and substantial sums will be added by local business men, according to Chief of Police Welsh. A fingerprint expert has been asked to come here at once to assist local officers and information sent county and State officers over this section. Three men seen here last evening and missing Sunday are thought by officers to be the parties wanted.

COTTON

Cotton declined in price the first of the week but went back ten points Thursday and the high point reached here Thursday was 11.60.

The cotton yard report of weights shows 4143 late yesterday afternoon with 100 more bales in prospect by night. More than 300 bales are being weighed each day.

General Election Comes Next Tues.

FOUR IMPORTANT PROPOSED AMENDMENTS BEFORE THE VOTERS

The News is here calling attention to the fact that the general election comes next Tuesday and it would urge all voters in the county to go to the polls and cast your vote. This is an important matter and claims the public attention just as much as one's own personal affairs.

There are four important amendments to vote on. One is to make public school lands owned by counties in different parts of the state taxable property just the same as if these lands were owned by individuals or syndicates. East Texas counties own school lands in West Texas and for years these have been increasing in value, due to the efforts of residents in the west to develop the country and at the same time the counties owning the lands have not had to pay taxes on these school lands. If you think that state affairs ought to continue, then stay at home. If you think it ought to cease, then go to the polls and vote for this amendment.

Another proposed amendment is to eliminate the provision authorizing the Legislature to create special or independent school districts. While Crowell has just been benefited by such act of the Legislature, it is somewhat different from many cases that have received action by the Legislature. Ours was a case where the sentiment of the people favored the enlargement of the district and the action of the Legislature was sought to remove a technicality. It is possible for an act of the Legislature in matters of this kind to be very unsatisfactory. Especially may this be true when the will of a majority may be overridden. In reality it is undemocratic and therefore the amendment should be supported.

As to the third and fourth amendments we herewith quote what the Dallas News says, which may be helpful to voters in casting their votes. This is what the News says:

"The amendment relating to the prison system is simple. It provides merely that the control of the prison system shall be vested in a board under such law as the Legislature may provide, and further, that the Legislature may provide by law that the executive authority of the system shall be exercised by a manager. It is contemplated that if this amendment shall be adopted the prison board shall be appointed biennially, and that its members shall serve without more than nominal compensation, as was the case prior to 1911. It is also contemplated that legislation shall be enacted authorizing this board to select a manager in whom all executive authority shall be vested. This amendment was fostered by the Texas Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor, and so far as The News knows, has met with no opposition. It is said that the plan is identical with the city manager plan of cities and the government in vogue in our institutions of higher learning. It can also be truthfully said that it is in line with the governments of corporations and other business institutions.

"There is a fourth amendment that also is meritorious. It would permit of members of the National Guard and the Reserve Corps to hold civil office. They are now barred by a provision of the Constitution which declares that no person shall hold more than one office, except postmasters, Justices of the Peace and Notaries Public. There is no good reason why men who give a small part of their time to an important and worthy public service should be barred from holding other office in Texas, and certainly there is no good reason why the people should deny themselves the opportunity to employ these men more fully."

We believe this is one instance where wisdom will be exercised by the voters in voting for each proposed amendment. We do not believe a mistake can be made by so doing.

The revival began at the Baptist church last night, the preaching being done by Rev. McDonald. Rev. McDonald has been to Crowell several times and many are acquainted with him and know him to be a strong preacher. The revival is to run ten days.

The music is clear—true—real! It comes in over big distances—makes the evenings lively.

And the weather reports—the news and speeches—are clear. Radiola 20 gets the actual tone—gets it with a single turn of one control. It has a power tube for volume. It has five tubes, drawing small current, but made to do the same work as many more tubes. It runs inexpensively on dry batteries—gets the distant stations dependably—leads the field in performance among sets anywhere near its price!

As you will note the work is planned to include all grades. The first grades will be required to recognize the picture at sight and be able to give name of the artist. All other grades will be required to recognize picture and give name and nationality of artist. The first four grades will give each orally while all others will be required to write spelling each correctly.

Lists with Perry Pictures numbers are being mailed each school. However it is suggested that as many of the pictures as can be secured in colors be shown the pupils.

Womack Bros. are giving the contest their hearty support and will have the pictures in colors on display.

A department average of 95 per cent or better will be considered the "Standard of Excellence." All departments, primary, intermediate or high school, attaining such standard will be given some kind of recognition. Announcements relative to

Crowell, Texas October 29, 1926

Heavy buying of cotton is said to have been the cause of the failure of the price to drop more than $1.50 a bale when the Government's report foretold a crop of nearly seventeen and a half million bales. There are reasons for the belief that should the price drop much more at present the effect will be felt by the buyers next year. Heavy buying at present may be taken as a fortification against very much higher prices next year. In other words, something seems certain to be done to make cotton growing profitable another year and that means higher prices. If the farmers could be financed to hold 25 to 40 per cent of the present crop, they would make money by not planting a row of cotton next year.

This issue is brim full of ads, not an unusual thing. Some of these are from people and firms who have not been advertising in this paper but they have interesting talks for the reader. Others are of the regular advertisers, who also have store news for you and bargains as well. It may not be necessary to call attention to the ads in the paper but we are doing this as a favor to both the reader and advertiser, for if bargains bring you together you are both benefitted and the News is pleased to be the medium through which that is accomplished. Read the ads in each issue, there is always a chance for you to save money by accepting some of the offers made.

A Coleman farmer has tested out the value of one turkey hen on his farm and has found that she has netted him more clear profit than 100 acres of cotton. The hen laid 81 eggs during the season and raised 71 turkeys, 56 of which are grown and remain on the farm. Those who are familiar with cotton growing and turkey raising can figure this out.

While Henry Ford was advertising he found it hard to supply the demand for Ford cars by working his forces six days in the week. He thinks five days are sufficient now. Within a few more months he can supply the demand by operating three days, but concerns forging to the front will not agree to Henry's short week plan.

Clarence Ousley says the Southern farmers must solve their own economic problems. Nothing more than temporary relief can be expected from outside sources.

MARGARET AND THALIA
M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Next Sunday is 5th Sunday. I will preach at Thalia at 11 o'clock and at Margaret at the evening hour, 7:30.

Sunday, November 7th, will bring to a close our third year on this charge. In many respects the present year has been the best of the 3 we have had. Seventy-five conversions at our altars, some few of these at our regular services. There was a beautiful conversion at our service Sunday night at Thalia. Have had 51 additions to the Methodist church and several giving their names for the Baptist and their names referred to the proper authorities. Thirty-six by baptism, 14 by letter, 7 by vow.

We expect to go to conference with a full report. You can help us very much in this by paying in your conference claims.

Our Sunday Schools, Missionary societies and Epworth Leagues are well organized and doing fine work.

The Thalia society will observe the week of prayer, beginning the 2nd Monday in November. The Margaret society will have a bazaar and bakery sale the first Saturday in November and will also observe the week of prayer the second Monday in November.

Bad Color (liver trouble)

OCCASIONALLY I am troubled with spells of constipation and inactive liver," says Mrs. John L. Pence, Broadway, Va. "I always use Theford's Black-Draught when I feel a spell of this kind coming on, for it saves me a bad headache. My color gets sallow at times. I get real yellow, showing that the trouble comes from the liver. "I have found Black-Draught to be the finest kind of a remedy for this. I take Black-Draught and make a tea out of it, and take it, along in small doses for several days. I have never found anything that served me so well. "Since I have known about Black-Draught, I have not suffered nearly so much with headache, caused from indigestion. If I find my tongue is coated, and I wake up with a bad taste in my mouth, I know I have been eating indiscreetly, and I immediately resort to Black-Draught to straighten me out."

WEST TEXAS NEWS (By West Texas C. of C.)

Seminole—Following out a suggestion made by officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Gaines County roads are to be marked at all intersections and other points. The movement will be undertaken through the co-operation of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce and the commissioners court in belief that such markings will prove of inestimable value to both tourists and the general public.

Baird—Baird, one of the oldest towns in the state, now claiming 10,000 population, has recently let contracts for the installation of a modern sanitary sewer system and a first class water system.

Throckmorton — Throckmorton County is being ruined by a drain of its citizenry caused through the possession of 66,000 acres of so-called school land in its territory by outside counties, according to A. H. King, member of the state legislature. The movement for taxation of such school lands still existing in the state is backed by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and will reach a climax in November when an amendment will be presented to voters of Texas recommending that these lands be made taxable. Should the measure pass, a great impediment to the progress of a number of West Texas Counties would be removed.

Brady—More turkeys and less cotton was advocated by a number of delegates to the Texas Poultry, Butter and Egg Association convention held in Fort Worth October 13 over which Wilson D. Jordan, member of the executive board of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce presided in the president's chair. The meeting was told that Thanksgiving turkeys would be plentiful and of good quality this year.

San Saba—Officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce have been invited to attend the celebration of San Saba's Annual Pecan Day. "Pecan Coronation, King of the Nuts," was recently chosen as the name of the observation which will take place November 8. The opening address will be made by Governor-Elect Dan Moody. A big parade and a sumptuous banquet are promised attractions of the day.

Childress—Plans are being completed for the establishment of a big industrial plant here that will involve the expenditure of $2,000,000. The factory will consume 5,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily, and will furnish employment to between 400 and 500 workmen.

Rankin—Contract for the building of the Upton County court house has been let and work will begin at once.

McCombs—Construction of a two-story, 85 room, semi-fire proof hotel of sheet rock and steel is announced by the McBurnett Hotel Company. It is expected that the structure will be completed in 30 days. The building will cost around $25,000.

Fort Stockton—Cotton grown this year on irrigated lands adjacent to Fort Stockton has brought the highest average price of any cotton grown and ginned in Texas, according to a letter from I. A. Gans of the Fort Worth cotton firm of Gans & Bath, and according to daily cotton quotations.

Decatur—Plans for terracing many Wise County farms are being pushed here by County Agent E. C. Jameson. Application to the extension department of A. & M. College has been made for assistance of the farm engineer of that institution in the movement.

Wheeler—Plans are underway for the opening of a new addition to this town.

Bridge Club Entertained

Mrs. O. O. Hollingsworth was hostess to members of the Swastika Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon, October 20th, at the home of Mrs. H. Schindler. Mrs. Bryan O'Connell won high score while consolation went to Mrs. M. O'Connell. Refreshments were served to the club members and Mrs. M. N. Kenner and Miss Esther McCoy as guests. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. H. Schindler. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. M. M. Hart.—Reporter.

DUAL RIGHTS

Many accidents might be avoided if pedestrians and motorists would not forget that each have well defined rights in the streets and that they deserve recognition. Observance of these rights is the solution of the growing problem of congested streets.

With rapidly growing use of the automobile, street congestion is a question that has to be solved on every "Main Street" in America. Small communities once regarded with disdain as "cross roads" have their traffic signs and every passing motorist has to "stop" and "go" as the sign directs. So there is no town that can not either condemn or boast of its traffic problem.

Some pedestrians are as prone to forget that the automobile driver has rights in the thoroughfare as the motorist is apt to be neglectful in recognizing the rights of the pedestrian.

The automobilist should not be permitted to detain people on foot at street corners for a longer time than is necessary and pedestrians should not insist on what they believe is their privilege to cross the street at any place and any time they choose, thus increasing the danger of accidents and the liability of the automobile owner.

It is scarcely fair for one who is walking to dart in front of a moving motor vehicle just because he thinks he can "make it." Neither is it just for the motorists to attempt to drive through a crowd of people crossing the street.

If the motorist will be uniformly courteous to the pedestrian and the pedestrian will be equally courteous to the motorist, each acknowledging the rights of the other, many of these common traffic problems will solve themselves.

USING TIME

We speak of "killing time," but the phrase is a misnomer. Time is but the opportunity to accomplish something. All that we kill is our own chances.

Time to the wise man is a treasure to be exchanged for other treasures—knowledge, fame, wealth, attainment, service or healthful recreation.

Time to the unwise is an invitation to folly, a means of self destruction. To the idler it is a bore. In most cases it is fair to judge a man by the value he places on time, for it is the true measure of his own real value.

Time is the one thing that can't be laid by for a rainy day. It must be used or it is lost forever.

Someone has said that opportunity knocks but once at everyone's door, but in reality every moment's an opportunity.

Time is the great democrat—it comes alike to all. It knows no favorites, no social distinctions, draws no line between race or color.

Neglected, time returns no more. It never runs in reverse—always forward and at high speed, into hours, days, months and years.

To a great general, a few minutes mean the difference between victory and defeat. To a great statesman, an hour may spell attainment or disappointment. To anyone it may mean the difference between success and failure.

If you can't agree with the other fellow you can at least agree that he isn't right.

SICKLY, PEEVISH CHILDREN

Children suffering from intestinal worms are cross, restless and unhealthy. There are other symptoms, however. If the child is pale, has dark rings under the eyes, bad breath and takes no interest in play, it is almost a certainty that worms are eating away its vitality. The surest remedy for worms is White's Cream Vermifuge. It is positive destruction to the worms but harmless to the child. Price 35c. Sold by

What Shall I Have For Dinner?

It is perplexing at times not to be able to think of something different for a meal.

When we are asked that question (which is very often) if the article we mentioned does not appeal to the lady, we suggest that she come to the store and look around for a few minutes.

There are so many things displayed on our shelves that are "just a little different" that it makes the planning of a meal comparatively easy.

Make Use of Animal Bone in Various Ways

The Chinese have added to their industries by the use they make of bones, allowing very few, if any, animal bones to go to waste. The largest section of the back leg of the cow is used for making mah-jongg tiles, and Chinese workmen, despite their extensive use of imported material, maintain that the tile from the native bone is superior, lasting longer than that from the imported product. Of the rib bones, only the upper part of the front three pairs from the cow and ox is used in making handles for knives, fans and similar articles. These three pairs are white and clean when properly treated, while the remainder are usually cartilaginous, or defective in grain. The third section of the rear bone in the sheep leg is used to make cigarette holders and pipe stems, and this bone, it is said, is the only one from the sheep which can be used in the manufacture of other things besides fertilizer. Chinese pipes of this sheep bone are extensively used in certain parts of the country.

Powerful Mushroom

One of the queerest things done by any plant is the extraordinary power shown by a common mushroom when it wants to grow up into the open. Tender and spongy, the slightest thing will crush its fragile substance. But this feeble thing can, and sometimes does, lift a paving-stone that happens to impede its movements towards the air and light.

By what remarkable faculty of engineering is this wonder accomplished?

Give us your blow-out troubles. We fix them.—Ivie's Station.

Exide BATTERIES

IT'S no longer necessary to pay a high price for a dependable and economical battery. The price at which an Exide, the long-life battery, may be bought today, enables all car owners to own this famous product of the world's largest manufacturers of batteries.

Axolotls

A remarkable scientific achievement, says Tid Bits, London, was discovered at Brighton aquarium recently. Some time ago Prof. Julian Huxley of London made experiments with the progeny of axolotls. Axolotls, which are found in America, have tails like fish, but they have lungs in addition to gills. Professor Huxley injected them with thyroid gland extract and brought them to maturity in six months. Further experiments have now been made by Doctor Spaul of London university, who by a similar process to that of Professor Huxley, has changed an aquatic axolotl into a land-living axolotl. The transformed axolotl is on view at the aquarium and may be compared with the aquatic species in an adjoining tank. The aquatic axolotl has three gills on each side, but in the transformed specimen these completely disappeared.

Waters Sacred to Hindus

Bathing fairs and pilgrimages are very popular among Hindus of all castes, who believe that spiritual grace may be acquired by bathing in the Ganges at the sacred city of Benares. In other holy rivers, and in sacred lakes. In the midst of a tract of land containing the 360 holy places, south of Thanessa, are two lakes, Tirath Kurukshatra and Sanlahet. On the night of an eclipse of the moon, gatherings of thousands of pilgrims bathe in these lakes. Pilgrims try to immerse themselves in both lakes during the short time the eclipse lasts, and the vast crowd is wrought up to an intense pitch of religious frenzy. Thousands of devotees struggle and splash in hundreds of bathing ghats, while throngs fill the roads.

Presents as Specified

There was a merchant who was very stingy, but it seems he could not do otherwise, no matter how hard he tried. One day he conceived what he termed "a grand idea." The next day he ran a big advertisement in the local paper, stating that he would give away presents to all his customers. Cigar-lighters and coat-hangers, he stated, were the presents, to be distributed. The following day his store was almost mobbed by a crowd anxious to view a specimen of his generosity. The two presents were neatly packed in one bundle—it consisted of a nail and a match.

Flower Knows Bedtime

You can't fool the magnolia. It knows daylight from artificial light. Some scientists at the Department of Agriculture made an experiment to determine whether the magnolia would remain open all night in a room lighted by electricity. But when natural darkness came the flower closed its petals and went to sleep, notwithstanding the room was flooded with light. In the morning the flower opened again.—Exchange.

Beautiful Work Done by Spanish Potters

Ceramic arts flourish throughout Spain, partly because fine clays are common and also because the Spaniard is an expert potter.

The beautiful reproduced in the shapes of Etruria, as of Phoenicia and Egypt, are old pottery of the Iberian regions. The finest and most extensive use of ceramics is seen in the southerly provinces, where house floors, walls, and much of the garden may be adorned with brightly colored pottery tiles. The vases, cups, plates and other domestic articles made in such regions as Seville, Granada, Talavera and Valencia, are widely known, while the coarse but beautifully shaped and brilliantly colored work of Murula, the production of local peasantry, is a delight to the eye and hand. No Greek or Roman vases are more beautiful than those of modern Spain, based upon the work of long-forgotten predecessors in the art.—London Times.

There are many styles in black for autumn, the fashion experts state; but the black eye is not among them.

On display this week Latest Perfection Cookstoves

Look for this sign in store windows

All this week you can see practical demonstrations of the Perfection Stove six famous cooks have tested and endorsed. Look for above sign in store windows. See the stove today and judge for yourself what the experts approve. Prices and sizes to suit every need.

"Utensils free from soot," says Philadelphia cooking expert

"No mingling of flavors or odors," reports New Orleans authority

"Steak browns beautifully without turning," says Boston Expert

Add variety by broiling meats in a Perfection Broiler. Cooks on both sides at same time due to special construction. Turning unnecessary. No juice can drip into flame. Easily cleaned.

"Cooks as quickly as gas," says Battle Creek expert

Glass door oven. Baking always visible. Browns both top and bottom due to rapid "live heat" circulation from 108 holes. Special catch seals door perfectly, saving heat for baking. Get a Perfection oven heat indicator, also. Don't guess at oven temperatures.

Ideal stove for camping. Fast Perfection burner, protecting wind-shield, ever cool handle. Stands firm on circular base. Won't tip easily.

Four pieces of tempting brown toast quickly made at one time on this Toaster. Handle is always cool.

THIS PERFECTION is the model six famous cooks used in their tests. It is being demonstrated today at all dealer's, along with other Perfection models. See its actual performance with your own eyes. You'll be convinced the experts are right in endorsing Perfection Stoves!

Cooking begins when you touch a match to the wick. No time lost in heat generation. Clean, intense heat flows up the long chimneys direct to your cooking. Every drop of oil is completely burned before the heat reaches utensils so they are kept clean and unstained.

Each burner is independently operated and capable of every range of heat. You can bake, boil, broil, fry and simmer on a Perfection—all at one time. Adjust the flame for any cooking process and it remains as you set it. Be sure to see the Perfection demonstrated today. In size from two to five burners.

Little of Wild Life

Is British in Origin

Very few of the animals best known in our countryside are British in origin. Indeed, with the possible exception of the fox, the badger, the otter, the hare, and the red deer, there are today few, if any, survivors of animals native to this country.

The rabbit, for example, was not known here in early Christian days. It is believed to have originated in Spain; very old coins have been found in that country imprinted with the figure of a rabbit. Rats are quite foreign to these shores, though they are now too firmly established here. The English black rat came from the Continent eight centuries ago.

Both the fallow and the deer came to us from abroad, the first from Norway, the second from Asia. The pheasant found its way here in Roman times. The partridge, on the other hand, is perhaps the most British of all our game birds.—London Tit-Bits.

Objection heard to girls wearing knickers to school, but they at least afford more protection than dresses some of the young things wear.

Some Queer Beliefs

Held About Cuckoos

The cuckoo has been a bird of mystery from time out of mind, and many strange superstitions still center round it.

A common belief is that whatever you are doing when you hear the cuckoo's note for the first time, you will do most often during the year.

Both Aristotle and Pliny remark that the cuckoo makes no nest, but lays her eggs in the nest of another bird.

It was once thought that one of the gods had taken the form of a cuckoo; and it was then a serious crime to kill the bird.

Years ago the cuckoo was associated with the character of the man whose wife was unfaithful. This belief appears to have come from the Romans, and probably entered English folklore through the Normans.

In many parts of England the old people still believe that the cuckoo is only a hawk changed for a time and unable to forget its old habits. They say this from the cuckoo's habit of perching—like hawks and owls—on posts and rails, or on anything upright and detached. And the old folks also say that if an unmarried man hears the cuckoo he will remain a bachelor for as many years as he hears the cuckoo repeat its call.

Clear Musical Notes

From Acorn Strings

Following the introduction of the musical saw which is played between the knees and either tapped with a wooden hammer or vibrated by means of a bow, comes the announcement of the discovery among the older members of Indian tribes in Southern California, of a musical instrument made of acorns.

The acorns are tuned according to their size, and strung together in the order of the musical scale. To play the instrument the Indian musician takes one end of the string in his hand and holds each acorn in turn between his teeth. Then, using the other hand, he swings the string and pulls it taut, causing the acorn to vibrate between his teeth and produce a perfectly clear note.

A favorite instrument among them is the elderwood flute. A green stick is cut from the tree and left to dry with the leaves attached in order to draw the sap and prevent it from cracking. Then the wall of the flute is scraped thin in four places and holes bored by forcing in a glowing twig of the particular size required. Only four holes are made in each flute, and these placed at various distances so that each instrument has a different scale.

Collects Valuable Dust

A fan effectively collects the filings and grindings in a shop where valuable metals are worked, and saves the portion usually lost in the cracks in the floor. The electric motor and controller operate the grinding wheel. At the left is a small motor-operated exhaust fan which draws the particles into a funnel-shaped opening, placed as near the work as possible. This discharges into a sack on the floor.

The simplicity of this arrangement and the savings resulting from its use recommend it highly wherever precious or semiprecious metals are worked.

Most jewelers do not need the arrangement, because the saving would be too small, but manufacturers have found the investment paid beyond all expectations.—Washington Star.

Who's Cuckoo?

"A schoolboy," said the naturalist, "wrote this:

"The cuckoo is a bird that lays other birds' eggs in its own nest and viva voce!"

"Well, that is all wrong, of course; but naturalists are all wrong invariably when in talking about the cuckoo they give it a bad name.

"For a new truth has been discovered about the cuckoo. When the cuckoo lays its eggs in the nests of other birds it isn't doing a mean, low trick; it is obeying nature's commands; for the cuckoo is anatomically constructed in such a way that it can't 'set.' Eggs under a cuckoo would never hatch out."

Drains of Nature

A careful survey of the underground water courses in the carboniferous district (limestone region) of Yorkshire, England, has revealed the fact that there exists in that country an extensive system of subterranean streams, many of which issue miles from the points called "sinks," where the water which is drained from the surface enters the rocks. Similar phenomena in other parts of the world, not yet so carefully investigated, occur on a much larger scale, and recent studies of the ocean bottom near the borders of continents have shown that rivers of considerable size sometimes enter the sea beneath the surface.

Rossetti's Publicity Idea

A London paper recalls a story of Rossetti. The post-painter one day told Browning that he intended, when funds ran to it, to buy an elephant. "Whatever for?" inquired Browning. "To clean my windows," answered Rossetti, and went on to explain: "When passers-by see him doing this they will ask, 'Who lives there?' and when they are told, 'Oh, a painter named Rossetti,' they will say, 'I think I should buy one of that man's pictures,' so they will come and ring the bell, and buy."

FALL LOW PRICE SALE!

Thousands of Dollars Worth of High-Grade Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing, Ladies' Ready-to-Wear, Millinery, Men's Furnishings, Notions, etc., Marked Down to Real Profit Sharing Prices

SALE STARTS FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 9 a. m.

A Money Saving Event Extraordinary

A Fine Surprise Premium to the First 25 Ladies Entering Our Store Opening Morning

We have a surprise package for the first 25 ladies who enter our store opening morning—a fine useful present—not just a souvenir. No drawing necessary—no purchase required, just be one of the first 25 to get in our store when the doors open at nine o'clock opening morning.

EXTRAORDINARY—though a forceful word is hardly strong enough to convey the true superiority of this mammoth price wrecking event. You may have seen sales, heard of sales, attended them and profited by them, but never in your most exalted moments of imagination have you pictured such a wanton slaughter and terrific cutting of prices as you will find here. To try to tell you in cold print what awaits you would be an utter impossibility for there is no type big enough, no ink heavy enough nor words strong enough to tell you about these spectacular bargains. Here is a sale especially prepared to make bargain history in this part of the state and one carrying low prices, on high-grade goods, that will be remembered for months to come. It's an event you simply cannot afford to miss—make your preparations to be here—come opening morning and every day.

A Bargain Event that will save the people of this section hundreds and hundreds of Dollars.

UNUSUAL—in its preparation and crushing in its effect on high prices. Nothing like it has ever been attempted here before. Thousands and thousands of dollars worth of high-grade merchandise on the altar of sacrifice at low prices that will stagger belief. A chance to save money—right in the heart of the Fall season—that will bring joy to the hearts of the thrifty and cause buying activities the like of which this town has never seen. There are only a few prices quoted here, but everything in the store goes—every price a genuine cut price and every item a real bargain. A sale especially prepared to make bargain history in this part of the state and one you owe it to yourself, your family and your pocketbook to attend. Come—take advantage of these low prices.

We Want to Share Our Profits With You

Realizing the conditions brought about by the decline in cotton prices, we feel, through a sense of duty, that we should help, in every way possible, those upon whom this circumstance has worked a hardship. We can help—and WILL by cutting prices on all those things needed RIGHT NOW for Fall and Winter comforts. We can help by offering YOU values that will make real savings possible. With this thought in mind we announce this mighty FALL LOW PRICE SALE and invite you to share in its usefulness. It isn't just an ordinary, every day sale and one prompted by any desire to sell you something you don't want or need—it's a genuine cut price event and one prompted by a sincere desire to bring prices down to the levels of your products sale value. Here's a chance to save on your every cool and cold weather need and one that you should take advantage of. It's a sale for YOUR benefit and one that carries price for a long time to come. IT'S A SALE YOU SIMPLY CANNOT AFFORD TO MISS.

Sincerely,

Christian Church Notes

The pastor, Elder A. R. Caudle, will preach at 11 a. m., Sunday Oct. 31. Let there be a full attendance of members and friends of the congregation. Also those who gave the Christian church as their preference in the Morris revival are invited to meet us at this service and complete your obedience to the gospel. You will do this if you are in earnest concerning a better life.

IMPORTANCE OF ROADS

Once upon a time every road was a toll road and the user paid fare just as he does now when he boards a railroad train or interurban car.

The users of roads are paying toll today only there are no toll gate keepers to collect every time you drive over a road.

In 1925 these tolls amounted to $1,094,000, collected through motor licenses, gasoline taxes, property, corporation, income, production and other taxes on automobiles, automobile manufacturers, the petroleum industry and allied business.

In the same year $1,003,000,000, was spent on rural roads, thus showing the importance of roads to the American people. If the same rate is maintained in building highways, we will invest as much money in twenty years as was spent in a century to build up the great railroad system which joins the Atlantic and the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico with the Great Lakes.

Some people have attempted to profit from the people's investment in roads through the operation of buses for transportation purposes. Most attempts in this direction have failed. The most signal failure was in this state when the Red Ball line went into the hands of a receiver. The promoter asserted that buses could be operated on rates of one and one half cents a mile over Indiana's state highways and pay a profit of 20 per cent.

This failure should be a lesson to others ambitious to turn to their own use roads built by taxation. It has been amply demonstrated that the motor bus can't compete with interurban or steam lines, even when the people provide the right-of-way and maintain it.

H. D. Poland Gets Piece of Steel in Eye

H. D. Poland while doing some work on his car Sunday morning happened to the misfortune of getting a piece of steel in his right eye. Monday he went to Quanah and had Dr. Hanna take X-ray pictures of the eye but the steel was not located and he was advised by Dr. Hanna to go to Dallas where a more powerful machine could be used. He left Monday night for Dallas returning Wednesday morning. The piece of steel was located but as the eye was not giving him any pain it was decided to leave the steel in it for the present, as removing would necessitate a surgical operation and danger of losing the eyesight.

Columbian Club

Mrs. L. S. Spencer was hostess to the Columbian Club in regular meeting Wednesday afternoon. A very interesting and profitable afternoon was spent as we listened to the program as follows:

Mrs. Clark gave us the story told in the picture, "Sir Galahad" as painted by Watts. Mrs. Hunter depicted the Grecian setting that prompted Tadema to paint "A Reading from Homer." Mrs. Shults, in a beautiful description told us the story of the "Aurora" painted by Reni. Mrs. Womack concluded the program with a vivid description of the "Avenue at Middelharnes," a Dutch scene painted by Hobbema.

Little Marjorie Spencer and Frances Allison dressed in Halloween costume, served dainty refreshments to the club members and their guests, Mrs. Speck and Miss Self. The plate favors were mysterious Halloween packages, and when opened were found to contain a snapper, cap and motto verse.—Reporter.
