Panhandle Buys Falls Service Station Here

The Panhandle Refining Company purchased the service station and wholesale equipment in Crowell of the Falls Refining Company of Wichita Falls and leased the building three blocks east of the square from A. D. Campbell this week. The station was closed several days for painting and was reopened with a complete line of Panhandle products and U. S. car and tractor tires.

The station will be operated under the management of Roy Mitchell of Tulsa, who will be assisted by Chester Sprague of Tulsa, and Wayne Diggs, who was connected with the station while it was operated by the Falls Refining Company.

Mr. Mitchell is the wholesale and retail dealer of the Panhandle Refining Company in Foard County and the wholesale department will be located at the station, as the Falls wholesale department was in the past.

Exhibit of Vivian H. D. Club Will Be on Display Aug. 27

Useful articles made of sacks by members of the Vivian Home Demonstration Club will be on display in the north window of R. B. Edwards Co. store from Saturday, August 27, to Saturday, September 3.

This is an educational exhibit and will prove interesting to those who may see it.

With the closing of the second week of the football training period, Coach Grady Graves' Wildcat team for the 1938 season is beginning to take shape, and gives promise of being a fast, hard charging eleven. Coach Graves is attempting to build a team that will be equally as strong defensively as it will be offensively and such a team would have few, if any, equals in this district.

Work Out With Quannah
The Wildcats will travel to Quannah Friday afternoon to work out with the Quannah Indians, during which session each team will run their plays against the other in order to find weaknesses that would not show up in an inter-squad scrimmage.

New Men Report
Two new rookies, Leonard Smith and Eugene Everson, reported to Coach Graves this week and will strengthen the reserve strength of the Wildcats. Smith, fast and heavy griddler, shows much promise, and by the time the training period is closed, he should be able to fit into the line-up in either the line or backfield. He has been doing good work in the backfield during the time he has been working out. Smith received some training last spring.

Everson donned a football uniform for the first time last week and received his first taste of football. Evidently he liked the first taste, as he has been giving an account of himself in the line. He has not yet been with the squad long enough to be able to cope with more experienced boys but from his first showing, he will do much on the gridiron during his remaining years in high school. Everson transferred to Crowell High School from Vivian this year.

Rookie Comes Through
J. S. (Cotton) Owens, all-district basketball player, seems to be out to prove he is equally adept on the football court. He is the outstanding player from the rookie camp and is being groomed for the fullback position by Coach Graves. Owens worked with the Wildcats last spring at which time his speed caught the eyes of local fans, but his ball handling and carrying, with his broken field running is heading him for a berth on the first eleven.

Will Strengthen Defense
Coach Graves plans to use Owens in the safety position on defense, if he continues to improve, and letting Que Meason, who is a hard-hitting tackler, come up behind the line as a line backer, thus strengthening the line. The basketball experience of Owens makes him adept at gathering in punts and he has placed himself as one of Coach Graves' best broken field runners during the past two weeks. This change will do much toward strengthening the Wildcat's defense.

With the absence of Raymond Joy, who is expected to join the squad next week, Charles Branch and Smith have been handling the quarterback position. When Joy returns, Branch will be shifted back to his old position as guard.

Coach Graves has two regulars and two rookies holding down half back positions. John Lee Orr and Que Meason are the veterans and Leroy Gibson and H. C. Brown are the rookies. Both the latter boys have had football training.

CONDITIONS IMPROVE
Sanitary conditions in Crowell cafes, drug stores and grocery stores have improved since February, according to C. L. Sumner, state food and drug inspector, who was in Crowell Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. Sumner warned merchants who have public drinking places in their stores about the tin cup. If a tin cup is used at a public drinking place, the law states that the cup must be sterilized after each person has used it. He advised that the tin cup be abolished and paper cups be placed at the public drinking places. Any one who does not comply with this health law is subject to arrest and a fine.

Mr. Sumner stated that as a whole the cafes, drug stores and grocery stores will pass state health inspection, but a few warnings were given and if the recommended changes are not made before another state inspector visits Crowell more drastic steps will be taken.

City Ordinance to Stop Delivery of Out-of-Town Bills

An ordinance becomes effective today, Thursday, which prohibits any person, firm or corporation who is not an actual bona fide merchant, and actually conducting a business in Crowell from distributing circulars within the city limits of Crowell.

This ordinance allows Crowell merchants to distribute circulars, but prohibits the flood of foreign circulars and hand bills that have poured into Crowell in the past. The reason given for this move follows: "The fact that our city is flooded with hand bills, circulars and papers of divers kind and character, has greatly increased our fire hazards and sanitary conditions, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the rule requiring ordinances to be read at three several meetings be suspended, and that this ordinance take effect, and be in force from and after its passage and publication."

JODY F. BOSTON SENDS DATA ON AAA PROGRAM

In College Station With Applications of Farmers

Following is a letter from Jody F. Boston, Foard County Administrative Assistant of the AAA program, who is in College Station at present in connection with the cotton subsidy payment, in which he gives the additional information about the farm program:

Wheat Allotments for 1939
"As had been stated previously, the 1939 wheat allotment will be about 41,000 acres for Foard County. This will be a reduction of about 25 to 30 per cent from each wheat base, which has been set by the county committee. Farmers can expect the official wheat allotment about September 1. If it is possible the AAA office will get out the wheat allotments the following day in which they arrive from College Station. As yet, we cannot tell farmers how much their payment will be for 1939, if they reduce their wheat acreage to their allotments. It is anticipated that wheat farmers will be paid well for their reduction for 1939.

Marketing Quotas
In the near future, farmers will receive their marketing quotas for the 1938 crop. It is hoped that farmers will not overplant their cotton allotment for 1938, for it will mean "lots of misery" for the producer, the AAA office and the gins.

Subsidy Payment
No subsidy payment will be sent to the state office until the farmer has kept within the cotton allotment for 1938. Those who have not plowed up their cotton will have their applications suspended until that acreage is plowed up. All the farmers know who have overplanted, and they should do this little job now, so that payment will not be delayed."

OWNERS OF RESIDENT PROPERTY IN CROWELL HAVE OPPORTUNITY TO GET CHEAP PAVING-CURBING

The City of Crowell is now in position to sponsor WPA Paving and Curbing projects on resident streets in Crowell where enough property owners agree to take the paving and curbing to make a WPA project. The cost of the paving will be 50c per lineal foot and the curbing will be 25c per lineal foot, making a total of 75c per lineal foot for both paving and curbing, under the WPA set-up, which is the entire cost to the property owner.

At the present time two petitions are being circulated, giving property owners a chance to ask the mayor and city council for WPA paving and curbing projects. One of these projects will be on Houston Street which runs north from Commerce Street and the northeast corner of the square and is already paved two blocks to the Christian Church. The other is on Denton Street which runs north from the Fox-Way Food Market on Commerce Street.

Never before in history has property owners in the resident section of the city had an opportunity to secure paving at such a low price. The curbing is optional and it is not necessary to take it to get the paving.

The Vernon Livestock Commission Company of Vernon, whose announcement of their opening sale on horses and mules on Friday, Sept. 2, is carried elsewhere in this edition, was organized some three years ago with an opening sale of about $500,000.

This company has a wide trade territory, buyers coming here from many states and horses and mules have been shipped to many out of state markets and to foreign countries.

The cattle sales the past season have been the most successful in their history and is now considered to be one of the best and most stable markets to be found anywhere in the state.

The company was incorporated on October 1, 1936, and among the original stockholders were Harry Blair of Clarendon and W. W. Smith and son, A. H., of Electric.

Ed Gossett Makes Last Appeal Here Sat. Afternoon

Ed Gossett, Wichita Falls attorney and candidate in the run-off campaign for Congress from the Thirteenth District against the incumbent, W. D. McFarlane, spoke to Foard County voters assembled last Friday night for an outing on the Wichita River.

"I deplore the necessity of replying to my opponent's repeated attacks, because I believe principles, not personalities, should be discussed in all campaigns," Gossett told a large crowd assembled.

"I condemn the political philosophy that 'anything you can get by with in politics is fair.' Honesty in politics is more to be desired than honesty in personal affairs, because more people are affected," Gossett declared.

"Two years ago when first running for Congress, I ran on my platform alone, and made no mention of my opponent. I was held up to ridicule by him throughout his campaign. In all his speeches was repeated ridicule of my platform, and of my fight on war, crime and disease. Then, as now, my shrewd political opponent condemned me for being a 'special interests' candidate. Then, as now, he stated he was 100 per cent for the President, and that those who opposed him were enemies of the Administration," Gossett asserted.

"I want to say in defense of myself and my friends that we are for the President, and believe in his social ideals and objectives. I have promised my friends I am not, and will not be a 'rubber stamp' Congressman. Our President needs intelligent, honest, and courageous help in fighting the battles of democracy. A Congressman who pledges himself ahead of time to a 'rubber stamp' program has no bargaining power. He is not in a position to procure concessions for his district," the candidate said.

"An investigation of the award of Federal money, and of Federal projects will disclose evidence in support of this contention. Recent figures on the per capita award of Federal money by states shows Texas is receiving far less than other states in the Southwest," Gossett said.

"McFarlane's political machine has just mailed to all war veterans of this district a letter saying that if Ed Gossett is elected, their pensions will be cut off and various calamities will befall them. Such a circular is the height of dishonesty. I have included in my platform this plank 'I think the Government honor bound to care for disabled veterans who fought her wars, and to compensate all veterans insofar as possible for the services insofar rendered and risks they assumed,'" the candidate announced.

"I have been reliably informed that pressure has been put on various WPA laborers in this district to compel them to vote for McFarlane. Some have been told they would lose their jobs if they turned. I want to re-ly WPA laborers will not lose their jobs if Ed Gossett is elected, but that they will be given better jobs. WPA labor in this district is not treated fair, and does not receive wages equal to those given in neighboring states. It seems to me that Texas labor should be just as well paid as in adjoining territories," Gossett asserted. "Again your Congressman in a recent circular, containing many false affidavits labels me in one place as 'Powder-puff Ed' and in another as 'the owner of a honky-tonk whose drinking, dancing, and carousing activities are well known.'"

"Gas Mask Necessary" "For the last eight years it has been necessary to have shin-guards and a gas mask to run for Congress in the Thirteenth Congressional District, and I want to promise the good citizens of this district that when Ed Gossett becomes your Congressman, this sort of thing is to be put at an end," the candidate said.

Gossett discussed several planks in his platform and emphasized his plan for regulations of public utilities. "Reasonable rates, efficient service, fair competition, and honest dealing should be required of all public utilities," he said.

The candidate said he favored making old age pensions available to every person over 65 who applied for them, and advocated abolition of expensive old-age boards as a means of helping secure the funds with which to pay pensions.

The speaker also stressed his farm program, declaring "The farmer, the laborer, the small merchant, and the little man in every walk of life, still faces a troubled future. His condition is distressing. We must have in this country a back-to-the-farm program. Ed Gossett pledges himself to work for such a program, and to work toward breaking farm and gin machinery trusts, and readjustment of tariffs in the promotion of such a program."

In The News 15 Years Ago

The items below were taken in whole or in part from the issue of The Foard County News of August 24, 1923.

Picnickers Driven In After weeks and weeks of dry weather and pleasant nights that would have been ideal for camping, some folks in Crowell selected last Friday night for an outing on the Wichita River. They had to drive 15 miles through threatening weather early Saturday morning, or else take chances on getting drenched and have to slip and slide like everything before reaching home after daylight.

Rain clouds appeared about three o'clock and a hurried exit was made, with the crowd barely reaching Crowell before the ground became slippery. The crowd was made up of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Womack, visiting guests from Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Womack and children, Recie and Bertha, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Reavis, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Greening and children, Edwin, Erwin, Tommie and Mattie Belle, Miss Lela Womack, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kimsy and children, Fred, Lucile, Mabry and James Henry; Howell and Raymond Hallmark, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Womack and son, Stanley, and Mrs. R. P. Womack.

Will Have Rodeo If plans are not changed a rodeo will be held at Crowell on Sept. 12 and 13. The Chamber of Commerce met this week to discuss the proposition of having a county fair and other attractions at the same time, although a decision has not been definitely reached yet.

Enlarging Home The work of enlarging and remodeling the home of John Bradford by H. D. Poland is practically completed. Mr. Bradford now has a five-room modern bungalow.

Sells Garage Interests R. L. Moseley has sold his interests in the Barry & Moseley garage to Charlie Wishon. Mr. Moseley and Joe Brown left Tuesday morning for Georgia and Tennessee.

Fish to Get School Plans are being examined for the building of a new school building at Fish. Plans for the house have not yet been decided upon, but it is intended that it shall comply with the law so that state aid can be secured.

Much Maize J. L. Orr, who resides a few miles northeast of Margaret, has just finished gathering his maize crop and made a little more than a ton to the acre on his entire crop of something like 30 or 35 acres.

Taint Good Tanner Billington accidentally swallowed kerosene oil last week while siphoning the oil from one barrel to another. As a result he has been in bed most of the week with temperature 102. At present he is able to be up.

LIBRARY NOTES Rebecca West, English critic and novelist, was born in Ireland. At the age of seventeen, she received an acting offer and entered a dramatic academy in London. Since leaving the stage, she has been an editor and contributor to English periodicals. Miss West was married to Henry Maxwell, a London banker, in 1930. Her home is in London, but she spends parts of each year on the Continent. She has visited and lectured in America.

Her latest book, "The Thinking Reed," is the brilliant story of an American beauty and her search for a place in gay Europe. "The New York Times" has said

NOBODY'S BUSINESS BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—Three developments in Texas this week combined to focus the attention of a roodly proportion of the population, which depends directly or indirectly upon the oil business for its living and its well being, upon oil. They were: The State proration hearing, at which Commissioners C. V. Terrell, Ernest Thompson and Lon Smith unanimously agreed it is necessary to continue Sunday shutdowns, and hinted broadly that the wells may have to be pinched in Saturdays also, in the near future.

A cut of 15 cents a barrel in the price of crude in East Texas by a small buyer. The arrival at Gulf ports of the first cargoes of Mexican oil, produced from the "expropriated" properties of American and British oil companies. "Expropriated" is a polite term used by the Mexicans to describe the process of seizing something belonging to foreigners, and not paying for it.

Oil Flood Threatens Disaster Whatever affects the price of oil in Texas affects the livelihood of a large portion of the population. Oil money filters into every community. It affects the sales of merchants, the business of banks, the income of landowners and royalty owners, as well as the thousands directly employed in oil.

The Mexican government, having seized the oil properties of foreigners, has been desperately seeking a market for it. The Mexican oil can be shipped to Texas, duty paid, and still be sold at a price that is substantially below Texas oil, because it didn't cost them here to get it. The first few hundred thousand barrels of seized Mexican oil, landed this week in Houston, may be the forerunner of a flood of cut-price Mexican oil that may break the price in Texas and force further restriction of Texas production. Oil dollars have kept Texas a bright spot on the economic map of the nation for months, while Eastern states were building up huge relief rolls. A break in crude oil prices, from overproduction, from imports, or from both, would also hit State and Schaefer fund revenues, as oil is taxed on a sliding scale based upon crude prices. The other side of the picture probably would include a slash in retail gasoline prices, which wouldn't make the filling station patrons angry.

Lee Plugs His Ticket Taking cognizance of a considerable unfavorable sentiment aroused by his first endorsement of a slate of six runoff candidates, W. Lee O'Daniel, next governor, made two additional radio speeches during the week, plugging his selected slate. He "turned the heat on" when he called upon the voters to elect his nominees, and then held him responsible for fulfillment of his pension payment pledges, but denied responsibility unless the voters go along with him. He declared payment of pensions would be his first concern when he takes office, but denied he has worked out any taxation plan to finance pensions as yet.

Observers here believe O'Daniel had strengthened the position of his slate considerably with his additional pleas for support for them, and reported antagonistic sentiment among a roll by the Dallas News listing 12,000 voters, showed a heavy majority opposed to O'Daniel's endorsement idea, but also showed opposition waning after the first few days. Many observers here expressed belief the entire blessed ticket would win, while some believed Bascom Giles, for Land Commissioner, would be unable to beat the incumbent, Bill McDonald. In the Attorney General's race, publication of a purported photostatic copy of a letter alleged to have been written by one of Gerald Mann's campaign aides, soliciting funds from oil interests, created a hot issue in that race, and Walter Woodul forces claimed an easy victory would be theirs. Mann denied all knowledge of the letter.

Flood Probe Goes On The development of the Colorado River Authority program already has resulted in potential savings of $3,500,000 a year on the electric light bills of consumers in cities within the 200 mile area available for service from the power developed, members of the Senate flood probe committee were told this week by Clarence McDonough, general manager of the CRA, who was the only witness. He cited reductions in rates granted in Fort Worth, Dallas, and many smaller towns as evidence of the savings CRA has brought about. The week's sessions were filled with a mass of technical testimony, designed more to establish the ability of the CRA while saving the both flood protection and power generation, when its system of four dams is completed, than to fix responsibility for the flood which wiped out $15,000,000 worth of property in July.

Insurance Legislation May Come Efforts will be made in the regular session in January to reform certain Texas insurance laws of it. "It is in some ways the most intelligent and certainly is the most witty piece of fiction to appear this season. . ."

BULLETIN!

The following article appeared in the City edition of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram Saturday, August 13th, 1938.

"At least one run-off candidate for Representative felt that the O'Daniel blessing would be beneficial to the chosen six, and made a personal effort to get a nod for himself.

"He was B. W. Snody of Benjamin. Calling at the O'Daniel residence yesterday, he was told by the nominee that he was not considering making any other endorsements at this time."

On Tuesday, August 23rd, the following was published in the Star-Telegram under the heading, Letters From the People:

Editor Star-Telegram: In Lee O'Daniel's first campaign most of his talks were on old age pensions and to do away with politicians of Texas. A few days after his nomination he comes out and endorses a bunch of men for the people of Texas to vote for, among them Mr. Terrell, whom I have been voting for since I was a boy and I am now 66 years old. O'Daniel would go ahead with the old age pension. The people would like to know what could five of these people be endorsed have to do with the old age pension. "It looks as if he knew, as well as I, that he couldn't give the people the old age pension at $30 a month, when $15 was our limit. I don't believe the thinking people are going to follow his endorsement."—W. F. Snody, Benjamin, Texas. (Political Advertisement)

Tea Defined

Tea is defined as the name given to the leaves of the tea bush prepared as a beverage. The term is by analogy also used for an infusion or concoction of other leaves, such as camomile tea, and usually for the afternoon meal at which tea is served. The name comes from the Amoy dialect "te." The Chinese word for tea is "cha." According to Chinese legend, the virtues of tea were discovered by the Emperor Shennong in 2737 B. C. Knowledge of its use spread slowly over the Orient and the British were first to introduce it to the Western world in the seventeenth century. Some persons may believe that the use of tea in America ceased with the giving of the Boston Tea Party in 1773. At that time a group of colonists disguised as Indians boarded three ships loaded with tea which were lying in Boston harbor and threw the tea overboard. Actually, this was not an American protest against tea as a beverage, but against the tax imposed on tea by the British government.

AUSTRALIAN COWBOYS ARE "DROVERS" OR "JACKEROOS"

Australia has its cowboys, too, although "down under" they call them "drovers," "boundary riders," and "jackeroos." And instead of ranches they have "stations," often thousands of acres. They are stations covering 10,000 square miles, according to a writer in the Detroit News.

The cattlemen of Australia are tall, bronzed, sinewy and hard-bitten. They do not wear the chaps of the Texas cow-puncher but in recent years some have taken to the "ten-gallon" hat, which is useful in the burning sunlight of the cattle lands.

But if not as picturesque as the American cowboys, they are fearless riders and skilled cattle drafters. They know the lore of the bush, find their way by instinct through the uncharted areas that go to the making of a big station, and on occasion travel great distances with only the sun and the stars to guide them.

The "drover" is a driver of cattle, and sometimes he is on the road for months at a time taking a "mob" of "stores" or partially fattened animals from the "back o' beyond"—the "Never-Never Land" of Australia—to fattening paddocks near the big city markets. The boundary rider's job is to ride the boundary fences and keep them in repair. The "jackeroo" usually is a young man from the city, a "dude," seeking experience and knowledge of cattle-raising so that in later years he may become a land owner.

Australia has thousands of cattle and exports some 200,000,000 pounds of beef yearly.

Brief Bits of News From Here and There

Jack Judge died recently at the age of 60 in Birmingham, England. Judge was the writer of the song "It's a Long War to Tipperary."

Wheat futures established a new five year low in the Chicago market recently when September wheat sold at 67 and three-fourths cents a bushel.

United States exports for the first six months of 1938 exceeded imports by $631,074,000, the highest since 1921.

In 1937 over 100,000 letters were mailed at the various post offices of the country with no address whatever upon them.

The Selby Shoe Company, of Portsmouth, Ohio, recently instituted a policy whereby the employees of the company will receive 25 per cent of the net profits of the company above 6 per cent.

Between September 1937 and June 1938 unemployment increased from 5,651,000 to 10,981,000, according to the National Industrial Conference Board.

Jennie Kammergaard, 19-year-old girl of Denmark, recently swam 28 miles from Falster Island to Niengenhagen, Germany, a distance of 28 miles in 40 hours and 9 minutes.

Explanations on 1938 Soil Conservation Program

Midnight, August 31, is the deadline for signing application for government wheat insurance for the crop of 1939. At that hour, will close, for this season, the opportunity to obtain the new, all-risk insurance on wheat to be harvested in 1939.

Because seeding (especially in localities which use wheat partly for winter pasture) will be starting soon and the policies of this new insurance becomes effective as soon as the seed is in the ground, this limit seemed necessary to give the service office at Kansas City time to send out the premium notices, get back the payments and put out the policies before seeding begins.

Jess D. Miller, the Crop Insurance Supervisor for our county, in giving the foregoing information to this paper, tells us that he will keep open until 6 p. m. Wednesday, August 31, if necessary, his office at the county agricultural agent's office.

The first policy was issued July 15. For the two weeks following July 15, the rate at which applications reached the Kansas City branch, that serves this territory, was over two and one-half times as fast as for the week ending July 15.

While this new, all-risk crop insurance is, in a way, a part of the general program in which the farmers of this county are co-operating, through the services of our ACP Committee of farmers, this is not, in any sense, mutual insurance.

Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just—Thomas Jefferson. Better to have loved amiss than nothing to have loved—George Crabbe.

Family Reunion Held At W. A. Patton Home August 17 on 87th Birthday of Mr. Patton's Father

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Patton near Crowell was the scene of a family reunion of the Patton family on Wednesday, August 17, and at the same time the 87th birthday of Mr. Patton's father, M. J. Patton, of Stephenville was celebrated. A beautiful cake was baked by a granddaughter, Mrs. Clifton Patton, on which appeared the following words: "Happy Birthday to Grandpa on His 87th Birthday."

Despite Mr. Patton's advanced years, he has excellent health and when at home attends to his garden, a cow and chickens and walks several blocks to town every day. There were 53 descendants of Mr. Patton present for the day, including four generations of Pattons, each being the oldest son in his respective family. They were, M. J. Patton, his son, W. A. Patton, his son, Clifton Patton, and his son, J. C. Patton Jr.

At noon long tables were erected in the back yard under the shade trees where dinner was served. After dinner, the afternoon was spent in making pictures of those present.

Six of the seven living children of M. J. Patton were present as follows: Mrs. W. B. Syler of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Bun Carey of Stephenville, John Patton of Lubbock, Math Patton of Levelland, Truss Patton of Duncan, Okla., and W. A. Patton of Crowell. A daughter, Mrs. Ed Powell, of Baton Rouge, La., was unable to attend. Twenty-four grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren were present. Music for the occasion was furnished by Truss and Math Patton, who played a violin, and Lewis Henderson of Vernon, who played a guitar.

This was a happy day for all gathered here for the occasion as many of them had not seen each other in 16 years. Late in the afternoon all left for their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Patton and daughters, Miss Truda and Mrs. Roy Fox of Paducah, had just returned from Stephenville where they attended a like celebration on August 14 at the home of Mrs. Bun Carey when 49 relatives gathered at her home near Stephenville.

What Good People Say of Ed Gossett

McFarlane having with malice falsely accused Ed Gossett of accepting bribes, patronizing honky tonks, gambling, drinking, etc., his friends of long standing offer the following testimonials to his integrity and ability:

Austin and University of Texas Friends Say:

Austin, Texas
August 15, 1938

Because we understand that the good character of our friend, Ed Gossett, has in some way been questioned, the undersigned Austin and University friends of Ed Gossett, wish to state that we knew him well during his seven years' attendance at the University of Texas.

Ed not only worked his entire way through the university and finished with two college degrees, but, at the same time, he distinguished himself in religious and school activities. He served for two years as president of the Baptist Student union and many years as an active officer of the university, holding an outstanding record on the university debating team for several years. Ed was noted also as a brilliant student leader. He served one year as chairman of the Men's Honor Council, and the following year he was elected to the highest office within the gift of the student body—president of the Students' association. He opposed and fought all forms of vice and contributed much to the university community. We have never known a young man of higher ideals or cleaner morals than Ed Gossett.

Vernon and Wilbarger Friends Say:

We, the undersigned, citizens of Wilbarger county, wish to publicly endorse Ed Gossett as a candidate for congress. Ed Gossett lived among us for nine years, during four years of this time he was district attorney in Foard, Hardeman and Wilbarger counties. In public and private life Ed Gossett's conduct has been above reproach. During his service as district attorney, there wasn't a better official in Texas. He is a young man of exceptionally high ideals and good character. His character, ability and aggressiveness assure us that he will make this district an outstanding congressman.
