Mrs. Lat Johnson and Misses Myrtle Johnson, Edna Shaw and Fannie Shultz visited Lee Shultz and family at Vernon Thursday.

Monta Wisdom took Messrs. Tom Newsome of Dallas and L. N. and F. M. Dougherty of Gainesville to Floydada in his car this week.

Mrs. L. C. Johnson of Tahoka passed through and stopped awhile here while enroute to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Lyles, of near Vernon who is quite sick.

H. A. Tipps of Tioga Wells, Fate Tipps of Whitesboro, Cecil Coe of Wellington and Miss Ethel Sanderson of Gordoville, all relatives of the Lambert family, attended the funeral of their child Saturday.

A crowd of young people spent Sunday afternoon very pleasantly in the home of Misses Fannie and Essie Shultz. They played croquet and took pictures besides amusing themselves in other ways. Those present were: Misses Ethel Neill, Myrtle Johnson, Bessie Kenny, Edna Shaw and Belle Abston; Messrs. Gus Neill, Marvin Phillips, Bob Abston, John Thompson and Tom Johnson.

On the 17th of April, Miss Fannie Wisdom gave a surprise birthday dinner for her father, it being his 71st birthday. She prepared quite an excellent dinner and invited a number of relatives and friends. It was an occasion of rare pleasure for all those so fortunate as to be present, and the dinner was "A feast fit for a King," owing to the expert management and efficient culinary experience of Miss Fannie. The following were present: Bee, Charley and Monta Wisdom with their families, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ferrin, Mesdames Nona and Maud Johnson, Tom Newsome of Dallas, F. M. and J. N. Dougherty of Gainesville and M. S. Henry of Crowell, all wishing Grandpa many happy returns of the day.

A letter was received from C. R. Bryson by J. M. Glover Friday. The letter was dated April 1st and follows in part: "Just received a letter from papa and he stated that you had not heard from Lawrence in some time. I will say this much for Lawrence, and that is he has been writing home at least once a week ever since Nov. 1st, for I myself have been censoring the mail and therefore I'm in a position to know that he is writing to you often. But, I am sure you understand that mail travels very slow, for only a day or so ago, I had a letter from home dated in October. I am sorry to state that at this writing Lawrence is in the hospital with a slight case of the 'flu.' We have just been advised that he would join us in a few days which is good news to me. I can assure you he isn't alone there, for we have thirty others from this company there also. This organization has sailing orders now and we boys expect to be in the States within a very short time. Since Lawrence went to the hospital we have moved and are now seven hours ride from Brest, which port we will sail from very shortly. At the time Lawrence went to the hospital he was driving a heavy truck for the M. T. C. which was located at Conflans. Hoping you have heard from him, and he will be with you soon."

The railroad is constructing cattle pens and loading facilities to accommodate this important branch of business.

Some capitalists were here and selected a site for a big grain elevator to handle the tremendous wheat crop that now is assured.

Ed Taylor has gone to Burkburnett to familiarize himself with the oil business so he will be able to get in on the ground floor when the oil boom starts here.

Something is really going to happen in Margaret. We can see evidence of prosperity in all directions. We note today that wagons are hauling sand and gravel to build concrete walks.

Farmers are buying new machinery to save the large crop, refitting their old machines and negotiating for help which will be the hardest proposition of all. And the wages will be high for the harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few.

Mr. Fletcher is about to pull off a matrimonial stunt and this time it is no widow for he has all the appearance of a very young man. His hair and beard that was gray as a rat has grown jet black in a single night and he without a doubt has discovered the fountain of eternal youth.

We were expecting a Burkburnett oil boom but while it has been delayed it is sure to come. Mr. Wright who is the promoter and general manager was kicked by a mule and he languishes with a broken leg, and the well is in such a condition that it will not do to touch it unless he is there, but he will not wait long, for it is hard to keep a good man down.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make this beauty lotion for a few cents and see for yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons. 99

Our good wife still lingers in the State of Oklahoma and we are not reconciled although we try to assume a don't care appearance. This morning we caught ourself singing the old song, "Bachelor's Hall," and the appearance of our house indicates that it is bachelor quarters. It being a busy day we failed to sweep and do up the work properly and this evening we were surprised by a large delegation of ladies who called to see how we were getting on. They made no remarks about the untidyness of the place but I noticed they did not want to sit on our furniture which had not been dusted. They inquired if I did not get lonesome and of course I lied. They promised to come again and I asked them to bring some pie.

SIMPLE FACTS ABOUT NOTES OF VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

There are two kinds of notes being issued. Both mature in three or four years, as the Government chooses later.

The first kind bear 4% per cent interest yearly, payable every six months. These are free from State and local taxes, except estate and inheritance taxes, and from the normal Federal Income taxes.

The second kind bear 3% per cent interest and are free from taxation as the others are, but in addition are free from super-taxes and every other form of taxation, except the usual estate and inheritance taxes.

Notes of either kind can be changed for those of the other issue, at the wish of the buyer.

The notes of both series will be dated and bear interest from May 20, 1919, and will mature on May 20, 1923. Interest will be payable on December 15, 1919, and after that on June 15 and December 15, and at maturity. The dates upon which payments will be required on the notes are as follows:

Ten per cent with application on or before May 10.

Ten per cent on July 15.

Twenty per cent on August 12.

Twenty per cent on September 9.

Twenty per cent on October 7.

Twenty per cent on November 11 with accrued interest on deferred instalments.

Payment in full can be made on May 20, the ten per cent required with application having been duly paid on or before May 10. Payment can also be completed on any installment date with accrued interest.

This accrued interest is the money you refund the Government on account of the fact that it pays you interest on the full amount of your Bond from May 20, whereas it does not have the full use of your money until you have paid the last instalment. This amounts to very little, of course.

ALINE LAMBERT

On Friday, April 18th, the death angel again entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lambert of Bayland and took from them their little daughter, Aline. Her body was placed beside her little sister, Francis, in the Thalia cemetery the 19th at 4 p. m. Little Francis preceded her sister to the Glory Land just six days. Our heart goes out to you dear friends in your sad bereavement. We know you are bereft and cast down, but you have a friend, Jesus, who is able to bear you up through every trial. Do not grieve for Aline, for she is with little Francis basking in the sunlight of God. Oh, just think how happy she was when met at the beautiful gate by little sister.

As we see our loved ones grow cold in death this world grows dark, oh, so dark, to us, but when we raise our weeping eyes heavenward and there by the eye of faith we behold our loved ones in the very presence of our Savior enjoying home with our dear Lord's face for their light, and he bids us press on till he is ready to call us home. Don't grieve after your little darlings, but only think of that happy home, that they are now enjoying.

Elder Tharp of Margaret conducted the funeral services.

You loved her, yes you loved her. But angels loved her more, And they have sweetly called her To yonder's shining shore.

The golden gates were opened. A gentle voice said "come!" She calmly entered home.

S. S. CONVENTION TO BE HELD AT SEYMOUR NEXT YEAR

In our rush last week to get off the press and attend the Press Association at Vernon, we allowed some important items to pass without mention in the News, one of which is the fact that the Northwest Texas Baptist Sunday School Convention is to be held at Seymour next year. Rev. J. B. Henderson, pastor of the Baptist church here, and Mrs. J. W. Wood were our representatives from Crowell to Henrietta where the convention was held April 13, 14 and 15, and they report a very pleasant and profitable trip. Dr. Ward of Decatur was elected President for next year and Dr. Riddle of Olney was made secretary. It is planned to have an expert in the district which comprises eleven counties, and this expert will work among the Sunday Schools of the district. The aim is to promote greater efficiency in the teaching forces of the Sunday Schools, and thereby to place them on a higher plane of usefulness. In other words, they are to be made more of a business proposition.

Crowell, Texas, April 25, 1919

Foard County's quota of the Victory Liberty loan is $89,000, or $4,000 less than that of the Fourth loan. While the present financial conditions are little if any better than when we were called upon to raise the Fourth loan, the outlook is much better and it should be a comparatively easy matter for our people to raise this quota. The payments will be very easy, being strung out for several months. The terms are printed in another column of this issue. Let us make quick work of this and get it off. As well do it in one day and it's done.

"Will Shoot Rannels County Well," is a headline in the Dallas News. That's all right if they don't shoot a hole in it, but where the well itself is nothing but a hole it makes poor property for the investor to have another hole shot in it. We'll be slow to invest so long as they persist on making wells a target like that.

The Dallas News thinks it is all right to victual the Bolsheviki, but warns us against contracting their table manners. As we see it no decent people would be any more likely to follow their practice of table manners than they would those of any other breed of hogs.

We have never been strong in the belief that communion with the dead is possible, yet we know there are some whose propensities are so strong for forcing a hearing that if on the other side they possess the gift of speech they may exercise it in "talking back."

Some folks talk about cutting expenses in two. That's not our plan. We have cut at both ends just about as long as there is anything left. To give them a whack in the middle would be to reduce them to nonentity.

HOW PROHIBITION RUINED NORTH DAKOTA

Oklahoma and North Dakota are the only two States of our Union bone dry. North Dakota is one of the bone dry states, even prohibiting the sale of Near-beer. On February 1st of this year she had 111 in her penitentiary, or 15 to every 100,000 population, the lowest per capita of any state in the Union. During the two years from July 1st, 1912 to June 30th, 1914, 292 were sent to the penitentiary, of this number 127 were non-residents, convicted of crime while scrounging in that state.

Since July 1, 1917, when the Federal Bone dry law came to the assistance of the State Bone dry law, the penitentiary population has decreased from 208 to 11. Though fatter north than South Dakota and with a more rigorous climate, the population increased from 1890 to 1910, 20 per cent. During the same period, South Dakota, then wet, increased only 47 per cent. During the 25 years of dry policy North Dakota tax levy has increased 219 per cent, the population 246 per cent, the valuation 245 per cent and bank deposits 2188 per cent, so says F. E. Packard, State Tax Commissioner. The best evidence of prosperity that prohibition brings is well illustrated in the case of the two cities, Fargo, of North Dakota and Morehead, of Minnesota, just across the Red River of the North from each other. Fargo had 32 grocery stores and no saloons, Morehead had 8 grocery stores and 28 saloons.

Let us vote Texas dry on May 24th.

FROM CORP. WILLIAM COOK

23 Inf., Vallerendar, Germany, Mar. 20. Miss Mary Cook,
My dearest sister:

I received your letter yesterday evening and sure was glad to hear from you, and to know you were all o. k. I am always glad to get any news from the States.

You were asking me to tell you about some battle that I had been in, but you haven't the least idea how hard that is to do, for about the time you get about the middle of your story you'll think of something real interesting you've left out. But I'll try and give you some idea of how some of it was. After we came off the St. Mihiel front we got a few days' rest and then they loaded us on a train early one morning and we rode all day and about sun-down stopped and unloaded and then hiked nearly all that night, reaching our billets about four o'clock in the morning, staying there two days. From there we loaded in trucks and went up toward the Champagne front and thought we were going to be in reserve of the French, and were unloaded back of the lines at a French camp. We stayed all night there and started to drill the next morning, but an order came in for us to move up to the front, although we didn't know it at that time where we were going for we never knew that. We started at dusk and hiked and hiked and the next morning at day break found us near the front lines and a few shells were dropping around and we stayed all day nearly in shell holes. They were not hard to find for it looked like there wasn't a space of ground that a shell had not struck. We left there at dusk, moved to our right and stopped for two hours and then started for the front line. The night was dark and you had to keep close to the fellow in front of you or you would break the column and some of them would get lost. About 1 or 2 o'clock we thought we were in the front line. My platoon was away down a trench which had several dead Dutchmen in it, but the worst of all it was the wrong place and we found that we were the only platoon in there. So, we had some time catching up again, and just before we got to our jumping off place the barrage started. We got into our trench and got ten minutes rest before we went over. I sat down and loosened my pack and loaded my rifle, then peeped over the top and as I peeped over one of our shells hit a big German ammunition dump. Gee! You should have seen it. It jarred the whole earth and seemed to lift you off the ground. By that time orders came it was time to go over and out we came. Shells were falling all around but some how you don't notice them so much after you get started. We hadn't gone any distance before prisoners began to pour in, and of course, that made us feel good. We gained our objective by 10:30 in spite of the machine guns which appeared to be everywhere. After digging in there were lots of snipers "sniping" at us, and that same evening we left those holes and went over at about 4:30 and advanced till dark digging in in front of a little forest, staying there till the next day. I had to go out on patrol twice that day to locate machine guns, and they sure were easily located when one walked out in No Man's land, but I got by lucky and got some information. That same evening we went over again and when we started the machine bullets were whistling everywhere. It was one of the most severe machine gun barrages ever put over. I can't see how we ever got out of it alive. When I got a chance in my hole to look myself over I found my canteen shot through the middle and my gun was hit in three different places, and I can't see yet how I came out of it so well. That was Saturday and the next day we went over again and that sure was one time that I was wishing we would have to go over before we did because the Germans must have located us and got the range for they sure were putting over some barrage when we hopped out of our holes. We had a big open space and then a strip of woods about one-half kilometer through it, then another opening about one kilometer. When we started out the barrage seemed to just follow us so we doubled time across the open space and the Germans lost track of us, and it was some relief too, believe me. Arriving at a narrow stretch of fine woods which was our final objective we began digging in and that was one place you didn't have to tell any one to keep his head down.

We were there nine days under heavy artillery fire all the time and they shot some gas over too. We went over the top four times the first five days. It was known as the famous battle of Blanc Mont, which means white mountain, and if ever you see a fellow who was on that sector he will tell you the rest.

I could write all night, but will have to quit for you won't believe half of this. Of course, you know I have left a whole lot out, but this will give you some idea of how it was. Will close hoping to hear from you soon. With love to you and my best regards to all.

RAILROAD MECHANIC ALMOST IN DESPAIR

Went Down Hill So Fast He Had to Quit Work—Tanlac Ends Troubles

"I have already gained seven pounds since I began taking this Tanlac and am still gaining at the rate of a half pound a day," said Sam Cook, a well-known mechanic for the Texas & New Orleans railroad, living at 1815 Keene street, Houston, Texas, recently. "For more than a year," continued Mr. Cook, "I had been suffering with catarrh of the stomach and was going down hill so fast that I was almost in despair. My food would sour soon after eating and seemed to roll up into my throat, and I would puff up with gas until I was miserable. I had a cough that worried me a great deal, and especially in the mornings. I would cough up quantities of phlegm. I was given to understand by those who examined me that my condition was very serious and was put on a diet of raw eggs and sweet milk. I kept going from bad to worse until I was almost a nervous and physical wreck. I got so weak and lifeless that I felt I could no longer stand and asked for a lay off from my work, fearing I might not be able to take up my job again.

"I had heard the boys about the plant talking about Tanlac and some of them said to me, 'Sam, why don't you try Tanlac?' So I did, and do you know it has acted almost like a miracle with me. I am just now on my third bottle and my wife is making all my clothes larger so I can wear them. I feel as young and hearty as I did twenty years ago and am gaining in strength and energy rapidly. I'm eating everything on the place and if my wife didn't yank me out of bed in the mornings I would oversleep myself. Tanlac is simply wonderful and I can't praise it enough for giving me back my health."

Mrs. Cook witnessed her husband's statement and said: "When I heard what Mr. Cook's trouble was called, after he was examined, I was distressed nearly to death. I felt if it was so, he would soon be taken away from me, and then what would me and my little children do. But Tanlac soon dispelled all my fear and my husband's wonderful recovery has made me the happiest woman in Houston." Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

DUBINSKY BROS. STOCK CO.

To Return to Crowell for Three Days Starting Next Monday

On account of a gap in the routing of Dubinsky Bros. Stock Co., this popular dramatic organization will return to Crowell for a three nights engagement starting next Monday, April 28th. The company is scheduled to open the new airdome in Wichita Falls the week of May 5 and for this reason are desirous of remaining in this vicinity until that time. The company is playing in Vernon this week.

During the Crowell engagement three new plays will be presented and the vaudeville numbers also will be new to Crowell amusements fans. The opening play here Monday, April 28th will be "Any Man's Sister," the king pin of all white slave productions. The play is considered to be one of the best in the vast Dubinsky repertoire and the comedy element in it is said to surpass any of their former offerings.

Why We Sell Plymouth Twine

Plymouth Twine

There is a real demand for the celebrated Plymouth Twine, for those who have once used it want it year after year.

Always the same—strong, even, free from knots and weak places, runs freely through the binder, does not kink, and is full length.

Sold by

During the coming season this store will be headquarters for PLYMOUTH TWINE.

We will handle this well-known twine for several seasons.

First: Because we want your trade not only this year but in the future, and we know that the only way to merit it is to sell the best merchandise it is possible to secure.

Second: We do not know of a better twine made.

Third: We are convinced that we can give our customers better twine service by selling PLYMOUTH TWINE than in any other way.

Fourth: We believe in the company that makes it and in the policies that have built up, in the past hundred years, the largest independent cordage factory in the world.

Fifth: Because the Plymouth Cordage Company is an independent company—not controlled by any trust or combination. Its only practice is to make PLYMOUTH TWINE so good that users will secure greater value for their money than with any other twine.

Sixth: Because there is a real demand for PLYMOUTH TWINE. Those who have once used it want it again.

They know that PLYMOUTH is strong, even, free from knots and weak places, runs freely through the binder, does not kink, and is full length.

PLYMOUTH TWINE will tie more bundles than interior twines.

These are our reasons for selling PLYMOUTH TWINE. Now we have a suggestion to make to you. Get your order for PLYMOUTH in early. It is not always easy to secure additional allotments of this high-grade twine. By early ordering you avoid disappointments.

Was Taking No Chances.

One of Lucy's friends was giving a little birthday party for the little boys and girls of the neighborhood, and of course the children were much excited about it, particularly as it was customary for each little boy to ask to take the little girl he was most proud of. Several days passed and no one asked Lucy. And then one afternoon she came home from school in great glee.

"Mother," she said, "I have asked Bobby to go to the party with me." Mother was shocked. "You asked Bobby to go with you? Why, Lucy, that wasn't a very nice thing for you to do. Bobby might prefer to take some other little girl." "Well, you know, mother," Lucy replied, "that's just what I was afraid of."

The Airplane Runabout.

At last there is being produced in England a small airplane, with wings extending only 15 feet, or actually less than the wing extension of a real bird, the albatross. This, to be sure, would be a large albatross, but cases have been known of these birds measuring 17 and 18 feet from tip to tip. There is evident advance toward the day when anybody who can afford the price will be able to own an airplane, without the need of a special landing place for it. The one referred to can, it is claimed, come down in the street without blocking traffic any more than would a hay wagon on its way to market.

Famous Generals.

Admiral Keyes of the Dover patrol, who landed at Ostend not long ago, was present at the siege of Peking in 1900. He was then a lieutenant and naval A. D. C. to Gen. Sir Alfred Gaselee, commandant of the British force, and in that capacity took part in the famous march to the relief of the legations. The British were the first to effect an entrance to the Chinese capital, which they did by the water gate under the city wall. Besides Admiral Keyes there were present two naval officers whose names have become famous during the war just ended—Admirals Jellicoe and Beatty.

Let's Get Together

You often hear folks talk of "co-operation" and yet some people know little about co-operation. No one lives to himself. You must have friends. The same is true in a business sense. A merchant depends on his friends for his business, for his enemies won't trade with him. Then if one succeeds he must make his money off his friends.

That is one reason why we treat our costumers right—they are our friends and we do our best to please them, not just because it pleases them to treat them right, but because it is RIGHT that we should treat them that way. If you are not one of our regular costumers, let's get acquainted.

BELL OPERA

PHILIPPINE FREEDOM IS URGED BY QUEZON

New York, April 19.—Immediate independence for the Philippines, on the double ground of the islands' fitness for self-government and their right to this status under the United States' war policy guaranteeing the liberties of small nations, was urged here today by Manuel L. Quezon, president of the Philippine Senate and chairman of the Territory's mission to this country.

How could America give its recognition, even its assistance and co-operation, to the independence of Czechoslovakia, Poland and other submerged nationalities, the Senator asked, and withhold it from the Philippines? He called attention to his country's six years of self-rule, pronounced successful by supervising American officials, comparing it with the total lack of experience of some of the liberated republics.

Mr. Quezon voiced the Philippines' "enthusiastic approval" of the League of Nations, not only because of the need of an international agency to curb militarism and protect peace-loving peoples, but of his country's experience under some of its features. He described as a "proud precedent" for the mandatory idea contained in the league covenant the "unprecedented progress" of the Philippines under American suzerainty, an administration "free from exploitation."

"This magnanimous treatment," he continued, "has made America what it is today in the eyes of the weak and struggling peoples—the champion of their rights, the redeemer of their bondage."

When America assumed trusteeship of the Philippines, "for humanity and civilization," Senator Quezon said, establishment of a stable Government was made a prerequisite to independence. This state had been accomplished, he said, in an archipelago governed in practice wholly by native officials. He cited development of the educational system, by which within six years every child of school age would be given an opportunity to study in classrooms where English is the legal language, the expansion of foreign and domestic commerce and the increase in wealth. He mentioned also the islands' loyal support of the United States in the war, which he declared was inspired by the same motive—belief in the principle of self-determination—that had led the Filipinos after the defeat of Spain to "wage an unequal war rather than submit unconditionally to American sovereignty."

With the Filipino people ready for independence, the Senator said, the commission which he headed had been sent to America in confidence that it would be able to win for the country "a share of the fruits of democracy's victory."

More Particulars Coming. They had been married in November.

"Did you see anything that particularly struck your fancy when you were looking round the shops today, sweetheart?" he asked, on his wife's return from a round of Christmas shopping.

"Well," she replied, "I saw something extremely pretty in looking-glasses."

"I have no doubt you did," he observed, "if you looked into them."

They were married in November. A further and more exciting installment of this young couple's adventures will appear in our Christmas number for 1919.

To Keep Your Shoes Dry.

Here is an item which the doctor tells us to add to our long list of things to do to keep the "flu" away: By standing just outside your door in a dry place for a moment before wading out in the snow in severe weather you will find that the snow does not cling to the shoes and they will remain perfectly dry. The reason for this is that the soles of your shoes are cooled so that they do not melt the snow through which you walk. If you rush out of a warm house in warm shoes they melt the snow which sticks to them, and the water soon soaks through to the feet.

WILL TRY TO REDUCE HIGH COST OF LIVING

Washington, April 19.—Members of the Department of Commerce's Industrial Board indicated today that the board would resume its general price stabilization program without waiting for settlement of differences with the Railroad Administration over steel prices. It was said that an intensive effort would be made to reduce the cost of food and other necessities.

President Wilson's cablegram to Secretary Redfield was interrupted by the board members as authorizing the board to continue its activities. Mr. Redfield returned to Washington tonight from New England and it was expected that conferences between the board and the Railroad Administration representative would be resumed Monday, although it was regarded probable that no final agreement could be made effective until Director Hines returned from his Western trip.

Officials said today that before the board not only had held conferences with many authorities producing raw materials, but also had taken vigorous steps to bring about a reduction in the cost of living.

In this connection it was said that the board had been active in urging a clearly defined administration of the wheat appropriation bill, to the end that people could purchase wheat products at a reasonable cost, with the government taking the loss on the difference between the guarantee price and the normal market price.

Members of the board, it was said, already have held conferences in New York and Chicago with manufacturers of food products, and it is understood that some of the manufacturers have pledged themselves not to take undue advantage of the world's demand for food to make abnormal profits.

Conferences also have been started with representatives of the textile manufacturers and assurances have been given by them that this industry is in sympathy with the policy of the board to liquidate war prices as rapidly as possible. Negotiations also were started with shoe manufacturers and members of the board expect to resume them soon.

Mrs. C. W. Thompson entertained the Adelpian Club at the home of Mrs. T. A. Taggart, Wednesday 16, 1919.

Peru, one of the lessons in the Mentor Course, was under discussion for the afternoon. Mrs. Henry, who served as leader brought out some very interesting facts. Among these were the history of the country and its being conquered by Pizarro, description of scenery, llamas, observatory and its equipment, railroads, principal cities, etc.

The club also unanimously voted to pay for the furniture for the rest room. Seeing the crying need for one we feel the money could not be better invested.

Dainty refreshments were served after the club adjourned.

HOBBY PROMISES REDISTRICTING OF WEST TEXAS

Mineral Wells, April 16.—A committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce conferred with Governor Hobby Tuesday with regard to reapportioning legislative representation in order that West Texas shall have representative proportionate to population. Governor Hobby told the committee he will submit the subject at the June special session unless some unforeseen situation arises between now and June to cause him to change his opinion that it is a proper matter to be submitted.

C. T. Herring of Amarillo, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was spokesman. Other members were R. L. Penick of Stamford, Guy Crost of Mineral Wells and Porter Whaley of Wichita Falls.

"Nervous Breakdown!"
When your nerves fail your whole body suffers—headaches, stomach disorders, sleepless nights, make you miserable indeed. The experience of Mrs. H. G. Redman, of New Haven, Conn., is an example. Read what she says:
"For months I suffered from extreme nervousness. My nerves were completely unstrung and I suffered distressing pains across stomach and chest. Doing light housework left me completely fatigued, and loss of sleep made nights long and tiresome. I began taking DR. MILES' NERVINE and the first night slept soundly. I continued using the medicine and soon all the unpleasant symptoms were gone."

The Many Mysteries of Nature BY L. W. BOWER, M. D.

You can take an onion seed and a pansy seed, and plant them side by side in the same spot of ground. In one case, you get an onion, with its peculiarly strong odor, and in the other you get a flower of rare beauty. You can plant a poppy seed and get opium (a dangerous habit-forming drug), or you can plant a rhubarb seed and get something that helps constipation. No scientist, living or dead, can explain the mysteries of Nature. Behind the life germ in each seed is hidden a secret that nobody understands, and growing out of the ground under different conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, New York, since found out what is the secret for women's diseases. He has all through treating thousands the result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Remedy. This medicine is made of herbs that nature surely intended for women's diseases. It cures headache, weakness, nervousness, down-pains, periodical irritable inflammations, and for women common to women in general. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Remedy is made of lady's slipper root, blue Oregon grape root, this standard remedy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Remedy is a safe woman's druggist everywhere.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Resolutions of love and respect from the members of the Cemetery Association of Crowell, Texas. First—Our dear friend and co-worker, Mrs. Joe W. Beverly, has passed earth's shadow into life eternal. Second—Mrs. Beverly was one of the charter members of this Association and took an active and earnest interest in the work from the beginning to the time of her passing away, never tiring but always ready to work for the good of the Association. She would often stand at the phone for hours calling the members to a regular or called meeting to attend to important business. Third—While Mrs. Beverly has passed from our sight and the members can no longer call on her personally, and all will miss her personal leadership and good counsel, she has left her good work behind for us to follow. "Give her the fruit of her hands and let her own works praise her in the gates," Prov. 31:31, and as another scripture reads in Rev. 14:13, "And their works do follow them." Fourth—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family, one sent to the Foard County News and one spread upon our minutes. Respectfully, MRS. G. W. WALTHALL, MRS. BELLE ALLEE, MRS. E. L. KINCAID, Committee.

I have put a wagon on the streets to do light hauling, baggage, coal or anything to be hauled. Will find me about M. S. Henry & Co.'s hardware store when not busy. FROM A. L. HONEYCUTT, MARSAILLES TO WIFE, TRUSCOTT

Marsailles, France, Mar. 22, 1919. Dear Wife: I received a letter from you two or three days ago—was glad to hear from you. Was glad to hear you were all well. I am well now. I am feeling better after my inoculation than I have for several months. You wanted to know what I was doing. Well, I have told you several times, but perhaps you didn't get the letters. For the last three months I have done nothing but work in the shop except guard every two or three weeks. Of course, I have done a little of everything since I have been here. As you know the duties of the M. T. C. boys is mostly driving, well I have driven wheel borrows, picks, shovels, brooms, and other things I have made a wagon of myself hauling lumber, etc. And if all the pots and pans I have washed in the kitchen were all one pan it would be large enough to carry all the soldiers in the A. E. F. back across the ocean at one trip. And if all the spuds I have peeled were in Old Foard County the people wouldn't have to import any more for months to come. Perhaps you wonder if I have ever been in the guard house. If any one tells you I have you may believe it. I am in the guard house once or twice every month, what do you think of that? True though, before I cause a misunderstanding, I had better say I never was in the guard house only when I am on guard—the guards sleep in the guard house. I am now at the Y. M. C. A. hut. It is about the best place we have to go. The boys from Paris and other cities in France say this is the best city in France, but we boys who have been here six months are tired of the city. We can get a pass to town any time we wish but a fellow gets tired of going down town when there is no one that can talk to him except the boys he is with all the time. One of the boys that has been in the tent with me all the way through took the rheumatism and I think he is on the boat now if he isn't, he will be soon. He lives next door to your uncle, Will Elliott. He owes me seventy-five francs (about $15.). He may send it to you when he gets home or at least I think he will. I had some more pictures made this week and will send them to you next week. The wind has certainly been blowing this month and the last few days the weather has been a little cold but it has not been so cold that one couldn't go without his coat. To my great joy it has almost quit raining here. We had a light rain this week but the ground was dry and it didn't last long. The boys from all over France say this is the best part of France. They tell us we should feel lucky that we were here instead of the northern part. I am thinking when we leave here we will go to the central part of the country. I don't know when we will leave yet, but don't believe it will be many weeks. I was on one of the highest mountains in this part of the country a few days ago, (3,600 feet above the camp.) I wish I had a picture of Marsailles as it is seen from this mountain. It took me all day to go to the top and return. I was sure I was tired when I got back. In the side of the mountain where I was can be found huge lime kilns where they make lime. In my estimation it is very poor lime, but it has stood for centuries, so I guess it is alright. I saw quite a few homes built in the side of the mountain. At the foot of the prettiest homes in the country. Here they grow vegetables all winter. One thing I noticed that day was a small poultry farm. It was the first time I had heard a hen cackle since I have been in the army. Levi Daniels gave me eight copies of the Quannah Tribune-Chief last week and I have been reading them all the week. About once a month I get the Foard County News and they are like letters from home when I do get them. I see so many things of interest in the county that you never speak of in your letters. Of course, a great many things happen which you think wouldn't interest me, but a fellow this far from home is anxious to hear any kind of news from home, just so it is from home. I see in the papers that President Wilson is here again, also two other officials from Washington. Guess that means peace pretty soon. I hope so any way. Don't do like some of the people at home are doing. They have stopped writing to the boys thinking they would be home soon. Keep on writing until I say stop. Will close for this time. Write often and tell all the news. Give my love to all. Your husband, A. L. HONEYCUTT, M. T. Co., 489 M. T. Co. A. P. O. 752. CALOMEL DYNAMITES

A SLUGGISH LIVER Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work. Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasing and safe to give to children; they like it. 13

OUR COLLEGES

What will be the effect of the war on our colleges is a question that cannot yet be fully answered, but it is a matter of profound importance. The registration in the higher institutions of learning in the United States is almost four hundred thousand. It is mere justice to the students to assume that they have studied, understood and been impressed by the mighty events of the last few years. Multitudes of them volunteered for service. All through their lives their experience in the war, the opinions they have formed and the hold they have got on public affairs will make them prominent in the communities where they are to live.

But it is not of the effect of the war on the young men now in college that we wish to speak. The institutions themselves will be made over, if they have not already been made over. The early colleges were chiefly fitting schools for the learned professions. The course of study was mostly classical. No doubt it was narrow, but it was adapted to its purpose. When commerce and manufacturing got ahead of agriculture, a change had to come. The colleges adapted themselves to the new order, and for many years more students have been fitting themselves for positions in business or science than for medicine, law or the ministry. Another change now seems inevitable. In some way there must be a partial return to the original mission of the college. The country needs a greatly enlarged body of men of the broadest culture who shall become leaders in the learned professions and in public service. They should be better instructed, of higher aims, more far-seeing, than the men of any former time. The country looks to the colleges as the only source that can provide such men.

There are signs that the colleges see the duty and are going to accept it. New courses especially designed to train men for public service appear in the lists. The college that does not offer instruction in international law will soon be no better than third rate. Journalism, and the historical, economic and social education essential to competent journalism, will have much greater attention. Incidentally, since the war has taught us that there is a reasonable mean between militarism and unpreparedness, the young men will have their bodies trained and their minds broadened by military drill and science, and the country will be assured of safety against attack from without. The colleges have been the moral security of the nation, the hope of its civilization, the recruiting ground for its public service. Let us hope that they will be in the future all that they have been in the past.—Youth's Companion.

FROM LIEUT. HENLEY GOODE

France, Mar. 22, 1919.
Editor Foard County News,
Crowell, Texas.
Just at this time I am spending a few days leave in France, and have therefore come in contact with a few American periodicals. I am very much surprised to learn that some of our leading citizens are seeking to promote their own interests and that of the corporate bodies whom they serve at the interest of the American people, others are grossly ignorant or misinformed. I refer in particular to the public utterances of ex-Attorney General Wickersham, now a corporation lawyer of New York, and Senator Phelan of California. The former is quoted as having declared that he desired to have America send to her principal allies—England, France and Italy—a receipted bill for their indebtedness to the American people—approximately $10,000,000,000. The latter is quoted as having declared that the Allies would not only resent such generosity on the part of the American Government, but that they would actually refuse to accept the gift if tendered—because the American people are known to be waging war for altruistic reasons and laying a heavy tax upon her people to pay the cost. Now, it seems to me, that a casual observer could see that the corporation lawyer has some ulterior motive in his suggestion—an ax to grind, if you please—and that the other public servant is either ignorant of the situation, or misinformed, is easily shown by recalling the wishes recently expressed by M. Alexandre Ribot—ex-Prime Minister of France. This leading French statesman said recently in an interview writes some American newspaper men that it was taken for granted that America would cancel the $2,000,000,000 debt which France owed her, and moreover, that the cost of the war would be apportioned among the Allies according to their ability to pay and the damages suffered. This would mean nothing short of America shouldering the major part of the war debt—for, in counting damages sustained, loss of manpower would be counted alongside material losses and since France claims to have lost approximately 1,500,000, and credits us with only 50,000, (when we really lost 100,000, typical of the tendency to diminish our part in the war.) England close to 1,000,000, etc. Furthermore, our financial obligations in the war would be anti dated, according to the French statesman, to 1914, and, thus in one way and another America would be called upon to pay what the Germans could not. These views, coming as they do from leading Americans and Frenchmen are enough to alarm the average American citizen, and cause him to secure a more accurate knowledge of the views of the people who represent him in State and National politics during the next decade. Men of the type of these should be sought out and condemned to political oblivion for they neither understand nor represent the interests of the American people. America has the balance of trade in her favor today because by honest, straightforward industry she has earned it, while one half of Europe aimed at world dominion through force of arms, and the other half, England and France, was asleep or living in luxury.

Europeans accept charity without remorse or conscience, and America has done enough for them.
What we should do with our money is: 1st. Pay our own debts; 2nd. Educate our people; 3rd. Help our farmers, working men, and distressed classes; and 4th. Make America a better place for Americans.
I repeat, we have earned our advantage, let us not throw it away.
Respectfully,
H. M. GOODE.
1st Lieut., U. S. Marines.

DEVELOPMENTS IN WILBARGER PLANNED BY HOME COMPANY

Fort Worth, Texas, April 21.—Four hundred thousand dollars has been appropriated by the Home Oil and Refining Company for the purpose of developing the holdings of the company in Wilbarger County, it was officially announced today. Ten locations have been made on the 200,000-acre lease of the company and six wells will be started at once. William Babcock, president of the company, and the company's geologist, returned to Wilbarger County today after spending Easter here.

The refining plant of the company is one-third completed, it was also announced, and will be in operation by July 1. Five hundred carloads of material have already been unloaded and 100 more are yet to be placed on the ground. The plant will be supplied with crude oil from the Ranger and Burkburnett oil fields.

Kind, Strange Old Lady—And what did you get for Christmas, little boy?
Little Boy—Why, I got dis-dis-dis-er.
K. S. O. L.—Oh, tut, tut, my boy, not dis; you should say 'this.'
Little Boy—Well, if you know so much about it, I got this disappointed.

Too Old for Little Folk.

An Indianapolis teacher in the early thirties was recently transferred from the first primary to teach in one of the upper grades of the same building. Most of the youngsters missed her, but it took little Carl I., a particularly bright youngster, to explain.
"You see, Miss Anne used to tell us in the first grade," he told one of the other teachers, "but she just got too old to teach the little children and had to go up to teach the big ones."

MAMMA! DON'T YOU SEE YOUR CHILD IS SICK, CONSTIPATED

Look at tongue! Move poisons from liver and bowels at once

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs," for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

FLED IN DISGUISE

Noted Men Who Escaped Captivity by Subterfuge.

In Hours of Grave Danger Soldiers Proved Bravery Have Not Healed to Save Lives by Igominious Flight.

Gen. Hans von Beseler of the German army is said to have escaped out of Poland in disguise as a stowaway on board a Vistula river steamboat. In the fall of 1914 Von Beseler was glorified as the conquerer of the city of Antwerp, the chief stronghold of Belgium and the chief port of continental Europe. Germany's conquering heroes of 1914 have been vanquished and Von Beseler is but one of a great company of notable fugitives who have saved their lives by fleeing in disguise. Judge Jeffries of English history, whose name is associated with the "bloody assizes," tried to hide himself and escape the vengeance his savage cruelty merited by donning the garb of a coal miner and hiding in a tavern at Woking, but he was recognized, captured, imprisoned in the Tower of London, where he soon died. Prince Charles Edward Stuart, pretender to the throne of Great Britain, escaped from Scotland in petticoats, disguised as Betty Burke, maid to Flora MacDonald.

Tornado and Hail Insurance

Did You Ever Consider—
That your home, household goods, barns, farming tools, horses and mules, wagons and buggies, feed and provisions,—all cost you money? That these things belong to you as the result of hard work and economy, and should be protected?
Can you afford to have this property destroyed? You are daily exposed to loss from causes you cannot control. YOU CANNOT PREVENT.
FIRE—resulting from—
Defects in flues and chimneys;
Overturning and explosion of lamps;
Explosion of gasoline stoves;
Ignition of matches in closets and attics;
Lightning;
Carelessness or evil intent of others—

TORNADOES AND WINDSTORMS
Which may come without a moment's notice and either completely destroy or badly damage the most substantially constructed buildings—

HAIL STORMS—
Which break windows, damage roofs, and admit floods of rain water into handsome homes.
Any one of these disasters will cost you money, worry and annoyance.
The solution is Insurance in the Old Reliable "Saint Paul."
It will cover all your property, and at lowest possible cost. We make easy terms for payment of premiums, and by issuing three-year policies give you three years' insurance for the same cost as two years.
