FARMER MAKES $500 PER MONTH

Quit Working for Salary and Planted Crop of Cotton and Feed

Last spring W. H. Dunagan came up from Dallas where he had been at work for some months as a street car motorman and went to farming. He left Dallas on the 5th of May and arrived in Crowell on the 7th and took a piece of land amounting to 32 acres. This land had been disced. Mr. Dunagan went to work and planted this to cotton and feed. He has already sold 14 bales of cotton and says he will get about three more.

Mr. Dunagan has sold his cotton at an average price of a little more than 40 cents per pound. Figuring the bales at about 525 pounds each and the seed at $30 to the bale, the total amount of his cotton crop alone will net him more than $4,000, which means $500 per month for each month since he commenced to put in his crop last spring. Remember we are here speaking only of his cotton crop. Besides this he has a splendid feed crop. And then to add to independent home living he has feasted on vegetables of many varieties until the frost has finally come.

Mr. Dunagan brought us some of his late raising ears yesterday. And by the way, he has gone one better than most fellows in showing samples of his stuff in that, supposing that the News fore would not allow such stuff to go to waste, he enclosed a neat package of Foard County pork of his own raising to season the feast which he knew would be indulged in.

Mr. Dunagan has been a reader of the Foard County News ever since he has been in this country, which covers a period of about 12 years, and he has always co-operated with the paper in its efforts to advertise the country and properly place its boundless resources before the world.

MRS. J. W. WISHON ENTERTAINS
On November 5, Mrs. J. W. Wishon threw open the doors of her spacious and beautiful home for an all day meeting of the Adolphus Club ladies. On arriving we were met by Mrs. C. E. Thacker with assisted in various capacities throughout the day.

At the appointed hour, 10 o'clock, the club was called to order by the president and after all business was disposed of, a very interesting and profitable lesson followed in the afternoon we took up Act III of Julius Caesar, and it is here we reach the climax of the play. While comparing the speeches of Brutus and Antony, our efficient leader, Mrs. Henry, brought out many interesting points which portrayed the characters of these two men. Differences of opinion added much zest to the discussion.

After the club adjourned, at the noon hour, we were ushered into the large dining room, where a beautifully arranged table awaited us. The favors were white christenings and the place cards were dainty little baskets of yellow roses, held in place by streamers of yellow ribbon fastened to the center piece, which was an immense bowl of marigolds. The same color scheme was carried out throughout the entire house. A very elaborate and delicious four-course dinner was served, at which Mesdames Thacker, McCormick, Matthews, and Miss Edging. These pleasant features caused the afternoon to pass rapidly, and all too soon we were compelled to bid our hostess and each other adieu.

In days to come, as we reflect over the past, we shall remember this day as one of the best spots in our lives. We shall ever hold in sweet remembrance our hostess, and wish for her all that is bright and beautiful in life.

ELECTRIC POWER MAY REVOLUTIONIZE AVIATION
Electricity, the wizard that has already performed so many wonders for the welfare of mankind, is now to revolutionize the airplane and make it a real, dependable servant of humanity instead of a dangerous toy, according to a statement made yesterday at Chicago by Henry Woodhouse, of the Aero Club of America, telling of the construction, in that city, of a new type of aircraft to be electrically driven by six thousand horse power. The plane under construction, it is claimed, has a wing spread of 240 feet, and will be able to carry from 75 to 100 passengers across the country or even across the Pacific Ocean, giving the accommodations equal to that of a Pullman car.

The statement of Mr. Woodhouse calls attention to the fact that, six years ago, Nikola Tesla, the noted inventor, predicted that the airplane of the future would be driven by electricity and said that a power plant could be built at Niagara Falls which would be capable of supplying enough electricity to drive airplanes around the world.

THE BRONZ MEDALS
All the boys entitled to medals were not here on the 11th. Those who have not received them can get one by calling at either of the drug stores or at Beverly's office.

MARGARET SCHOOL NEWS

Arther Owens is among those absent on account of cotton picking. Also Freddie Mae Reinhardt. We wish they would hurry and "come back."

If we don't get the books that have failed to arrive we may all go on a strike as that seems to be the popular way of getting results.

The wasps have been very chummy with Emma of late, but she says she is sure glad that the one which stung her was not twins.

The first series of examinations slipped upon us without warning and found us wanting in more ways than we like to confess. We are going to do better next month.

Miss Rose said that when she had just decided to move to town it stopped raining.

God helps those who help themselves, and he certainly will have to help those who are absent on account of cotton picking when they come back to school.

Miss Rose and pupils assisted by the Rops of Mrs. Singleton's room have organized a Literary Society for Friday afternoons. Robert Sharp, president, and Eva Goodman, secretary.

We will give a box supper on Friday night with a short program for the benefit of the school.

We have organized a community Literary and Debating Society with Fred Goodman, president, and Madge Munroe, secretary, and we expect to have some splendid programs during the winter. Every one is invited to come out and help.

COTTON SEED IN DEMAND

Austin, Texas, Nov. 4, 1919.—The State Department of Agriculture is receiving many letters asking where cotton seed may be bought for next year's planting.

These inquiries come as a result of excessive rains which have ruined the germinating qualities of many thousands of tons of seed and unless farmers get their cotton seed now and store them, it is almost certain that not enough seed can be had next spring to plant a normal acreage.

Therefore, we are writing this letter to the members of the farmers institutes, urging them to buy their cotton seed this fall, if they need any, for fear that they may not be able to buy them at all next spring.

Again, if you have good sound seed for sale, write T. S. Minter, Director of Bureau of Markets, Austin, giving him the variety, quantity and quality of the seed you have for sale and he will list your offering in the Market Journal free and otherwise assist you in finding a market for same.

If you wish to buy cotton seed for next year's planting, write Mr. Minter and he will give you a list of those who may have seed for sale.

Bear in mind that we do not handle any one's money nor the seeds offered, which portray the characters of these two men. Differences of opinion added much zest to the discussion.

We would appreciate any assistance that any local newspapers may give by publishing this letter, and thus assist the farmers in the sections where said papers go to buy or sell their cotton seed.

Sincerely yours,
J. W. NEILL,
Director of Farmers' Institutes.
T. S. MINTER,
Director of Bureau of Markets.

THE COLUMBIAN CLUB

The Columbian Club enjoyed a most pleasant meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Allison, with Mrs. O'Connell as hostess.

Business was disposed of in a very short time and the regular lesson followed out. A most interesting lesson on our planet neighbors with Mrs. Kincaid as leader was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Frank Crews gave an interesting talk on the Azores.

All the members responded to roll call with current events which should show they were keeping up with the times.

We were glad to have as visitors, Mrs. Garland Burns of Thalia, Miss Martha Chambers of Denison, and Mrs. Kirby of Crowell.

Our hostess served very delicious refreshments. We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Kincaid November 28.

I. W. W. SHOOT INTO ARMISTICE PARADE; WOUND EX-SOLDIERS

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 11.—One man, Arthur E. McElfresh, was killed, Ben Cassagranda was so badly wounded that he probably will die and about half a dozen others were wounded here today when Industrial Workers of the World, it is believed, fired upon former service men marching in an Armistice day parade.

Several alleged Industrial Workers of the World were arrested following the shooting. A mob took one from the police and made preparations to hang him on a downtown street. Before the rope could be applied, officers took him from the mob and placed him in jail.

At 3:30 p. m., a crowd of over 500 persons was gathered about the jail. Shots poured from roofs of buildings as the parade neared Tower avenue, near the I. W. W. headquarters. Among the wounded were Warren Grimm, Centralia attorney, former University of Washington football star, shot three times; George Stevens, Centralia, shot in leg; Dale Hubbard, Centralia, shot in breast;—Frisco, Chehalis;—Watt, Chehalis.

Former soldiers and sailors were guarding the Centralia jail late today to keep the mob from the prisoners. The I. W. W. who narrowly escaped hanging was being led with a rope about his neck to a pole when he was taken from the mob by the chief of police, according to one version of the incident.

TENNESSEAN SEES FUTURE FOR FOARD

First Visit Gives Wonderful Impression Favorable of Country

J. W. Chilcutt of Cookeville, Tenn., was here this week having been invited, he said, to come with a bunch of Tennessee "boys" who were making a visit to Burk Burnett. When he got to Burk Burnett he told them that he was coming on up to Crowell. Mr. Chilcutt has some real estate interests here and is well pleased with his purchases.

"I was surprised," he said, "to see so much good cotton. It is simply better than what I saw further east." Speaking of the agricultural possibilities of this country, Mr. Chilcutt frankly stated that the country is far ahead of East Texas. He once lived in the country near Dallas, so that he is not altogether a stranger to Texas. He thinks there is no comparison between this country and those further east, this being so much better. "Not only have you great agricultural possibilities, but you are in the path of the oil boom," he said, "and it's coming sooner or later."

Mr. Chilcutt was here only a short time, and when he went to leave he said, "I'm coming back one of these days and bring a bunch of the Tennessee 'boys' with me."

A great many of the people of this country are from Tennessee, some of the best citizens we have, and they have made good and would not exchange Foard County for any other in the world. There is more room here for others and when Mr. Chilcutt returns with a bunch of the "boys" who are looking for a better place in which to live, they will find a hearty welcome among our people.

PROMINENT BANKER SAYS EUROPE FACES BANKRUPTCY OR COMMUNISM

Paul Warburg, the well-known banker who was Vice Governor of the Federal Reserve Board during the war, returned to New York recently after a three months' stay in Europe. "One cannot spend three months in Europe," Mr. Warburg said, "without being deeply impressed with the fact that war has opened wide the dykes once more protecting our old form of society and that the uncontrolled currents, still uncontrolled, are raging over areas far beyond the boundaries of the countries directly involved in the war. Nobody can tell at this time what the world's picture will be when ultimately the floods will subside, how far it will remain submerged or able to emerge will be the result, however, of an automatic process. The lesson that one brings home from Europe is that we must not stand idly by with folded hands while the world is crowding us out of our own, and within our power, to arrest a movement which, if unchecked and permitted to run into extremes will engulf us all."

TO THE EX-SOLDIERS

The News is asked to say for the benefit of the ex-soldiers that an American Legion was organized here Tuesday with a membership of about 75 charter members. There should be something like 200 in the county, and in order that those who were not here Tuesday may come in as charter members the announcement is given that you can get to that if you wish to. By coming in as charter members you will get your name on the charter.

The membership fee is $1.50 and you may either come in person and pay this or send it by mail to Adjutant Claude Adams, Crowell, Texas, and thus become a charter member and get your name on the charter.

BRO. HAMBLIN IMPROVING

For about a week, Rev. J. H. Hamblin has been seriously ill with erysipelas and for several days relatives and friends were apprehensive as to the outcome, but we are glad to report at this writing a decided improvement in his condition.

Unfortunately by reason of his illness he was deprived of the privilege of attending the Methodist Conference at Lubbock, which has been in session this week.

It is hoped that his condition will improve so that soon he will be on his feet again.

ONE BALE BRINGS $351.11

W. B. Griffin gets the most money for a single bale of cotton, and has therefore broken the record made by S. W. Getty.

Mr. Griffin sold a bale at 44 1/2 cents per pound, which brought him $307.44. The seed added to this amounting to $43.67, makes a total of $351.11. After the cost of ginning was taken out he had left $341.11.

Mr. Griffin marketed 6 bales at the above price receiving from the six $1433.97, not including the seed.

BRO. HENDERSON MOVES AWAY

We should have had the item in the paper last week about Bro. Henderson's having moved to Margaret, but in our rush the matter was overlooked. Besides, he did not move until towards the last of the week.

Bro. Henderson will have the care of the Margaret and the Thalia Baptist churches, giving each half his time. We are glad he is going to remain in the county and congratulate these two churches upon their having secured his services.

1200 BALES WEIGHED

Public Weigher C. W. Thompson tells us that he has weighed a little more than 1200 bales of cotton this season.

Mr. Thompson incidentally remarked that we had better quit boosting the farmers on their big bales or he would have to get him a new pair of scales or else tie a stick to the end of the beam.

J. L. ORR PAYS $500 FOR POLAND CHINA

Stock Comes from Prize Winner in Many Shows in the North

J. L. Orr returned from Chillicothe this week where he purchased from Lewis Bros. of that place a Poland China pig of the Big Bone type, paying for it the fancy sum of $500.

This is from the Long Orange stuff, doubtless the best in Texas today. The size of this pig sold recently for $3,000, and has been a prize winner throughout the North and West where he has been shown.

So Mr. Orr is making good his recent statement that he meant to go after the best stock to be found when he made the next addition to his herd. That he has done already and within the next few years we shall see him with a herd not surpassed for thoroughness of the Big Bone type in the state.

ENLISTMENT MAN HERE

Rev. J. W. Arnsperger, now of Chillicothe, enlistment man for the Red Fork and the Wilbarger Baptist Associations, was here Sunday and Sunday night and preached at the Baptist church both in the morning and at night. Rev. Arnsperger is only temporarily located at Chillicothe, his home being at Shamrock, and he is working in the interest of the Seventy-Five Million Campaign.

After this work is completed and the campaign is over he will devote several weeks to Sunday School work in this part of the State, provided his services are called for. This work consists in holding institutes for the training of teachers in the Sunday Schools. He has had considerable experience along this line and is very enthusiastic over the work.

The Crowell Baptists can procure his services for the first two weeks in February or the first two in March for a two-week institute.

GIN INSTALLS OIL BURNER

The Kimble Gin is installing an oil burner this week and will use oil as fuel instead of coal. This has become necessary because of the coal strike and the shortage of coal. They have ordered the burner and a supply of oil and hope to be in position to start up by next Monday.

The Terry Gin is still burning coal and have a supply on hand now that will last them about 30 days. Of course, since the strike has been called off there is some probability of their being able to get coal by the time the present supply is exhausted.

WITH OUR READERS

L. N. Johnson of Tell while here last week gave us a renewal for another year. He used to be one of our citizens, and while he is now residing in another county, he is still very much interested in Foard County. He not only wants the News regularly, but he comes down once in a while to get a square meal. But they tell us that L. N. has made one of the biggest crops in that country this year he ever made and will be able to get by.

Mrs. Martha Dix of Kansas City renews for the paper. Mrs. Dix has real estate interests in this county and keeps up with conditions here by being a regular reader of the paper.

Mrs. G. A. Rogers of this city makes sure that she will not miss a paper by renewing even before the time is out.

C. A. Mitchell is the first to renew with us for the Foard County News and the Star-Telegram. This is one of the best combinations we have to offer at the price of $7.00.

Mrs. L. L. Henderson of route 1 is a new subscriber to the News.

N. P. Ferguson should have been on our list last week as a renewal. He is another one of our regular readers who never allows his time to expire.

A. Bird orders the paper for another year. Mr. Bird is one of the best farmers of the county, as well as a most substantial citizen.

W. E. Hallmark divides coin with us and asks that we favor him with a renewal for another year.

Prof. Con Singleton of Margaret starts right by having his name placed on our list of readers. Mr. Singleton is a new man in this county but is not new to the profession of teaching and is having a good school at Margaret. He is one of our foremost teachers, a fact already recognized.

We overlooked the fact of T. M. Beverly's renewal last week. Mr. Beverly, of course, does not care, but we want to keep our record straight, and publishing the list of renewals and new readers helps us to do it.

Mrs. M. E. Boren, formerly of the Vivian country, but now of Crowell, renews and has her paper changed to this place. She is here in order to give her children the advantage of the school.

Mrs. S. L. Powell says she can't get along without the News, and therefore renews for two years, making sure that she will not get behind soon. She sends the News to her daughter at O'Brien.

A. W. Dishman of the Vivian country wants the Foard County News and the Dallas News. For a long time he has been a regular reader of the two papers and thinks it a fine combination.

Claude Adams sends the News to Mrs. Sophia Staton at Hobart, Okla. She is a sister to Mrs. Adams and for several years was one of the leading teachers of this country.

Len Johnson of the Foard City country was in Wednesday and renewed for the paper. He is one of the big farmers of the county, having in his charge the E. J. Smith farm. Mr. Johnson says he made 12,000 bushels of wheat on 600 acres, but will not be able to get in anything like that acreage for next year's crop. He thinks he will do well if he sows half that acreage. But he expects to put in a big cotton crop. Besides renewing for himself he sends the News to Ed McDonough of Glenn, Okla.

C. M. Mulry of Roysie City is interested in this country and therefore orders the News sent to his address. A considerable number of the Roysie City people came to Foard County this summer and helped save our bumper wheat crop, and without an exception, as far as we learn, they are very favorably impressed with the country and a number of them will locate here. They can't beat it in the state.

Mrs. M. A. Logan of Crowell came in Wednesday and had the News sent to her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Gibson, at Aspermont, Texas. Several years ago Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were residents of Crowell.

J. R. Gamble sends the News for six months to R. M. Johnson of Mineral Wells. Mr. Johnson has made one or two visits to this country and we understand is very favorably impressed with the country.

W. M. Wisdom sends the paper to his son, W. W. Wisdom, at Valley View, Texas. Mr. Wisdom is a typical Southerner and although now about 80 years of age is very spry and was out at the celebration Tuesday enjoying the occasion as if he had been a 16-year old boy. He and all his sons are regular readers of the Foard County News.

J. W. Beverly orders Rev. Luther Roberts' paper changed from Cuero, Texas, to Oklahoma City, to which place they have recently removed.

Uncle Joe Reeves who is at Douglas, Ariz., writes to J. W. Allison to have his paper sent to that place.

Jim O'Hair was seriously injured at Onalaska last week while engaged in unloading some heavy implements from an elevator on the second floor of the Carroll Hardware Co. When the elevator gave way the man fell about 16 feet and was struck by some implements which rendered him unconscious. He sustained a broken ankle and other injuries of a minor nature.

On Saturday night, Nov. 1, a freight train on the Denver was wrecked near Childress and eleven cars loaded with wheat, lumber and other stuff were partially demolished. The wreck is supposed to have been caused by a dragging brake beam. No one was hurt.

BIG CROWD HERE ON ARMISTICE DAY

Program Well Rendered and Everybody Enjoyed the Occasion

The mad caused by the big rains Sunday was not so abundant as to seriously interfere with the program prepared for Armistice Day at Crowell, and so a very large crowd was present. It would be difficult to estimate with any degree of accuracy the number. Suffice it to say that the general interest in a celebration of our great victory in the world war was abundantly reflected by the presence of so many of our people.

The program was opened with the march of the school children from the school grounds, followed by the boys in uniform who had served in the war, the boys being under the command of Capt. Claude Adams. The march ended at the court house lawn where some patriotic songs were rendered and where the United States flag was hoisted while "Star Spangled Banner" was sung and the flag saluted by the soldiers.

For the next three-quarters of an hour the ex-soldiers met in the district court room where the Gordon J. Ford Post of the American Legion was organized with the following officers:

Post Commander, Albert Maeze; Vice-Post Commander, George Hinds; Adjutant, Claude Adams; Historian, W. B. Taylor; Honorary Chaplain, Rev. J. H. Hamblin.

The organization started out with 73 charter members. The annual membership fee will be $1.50, 25 cents of which goes to the State headquarters and 25 cents to national headquarters.

In the meantime a very interesting part of the program was being carried forward on the court house lawn in the spread of one of the most sumptuous dinners ever placed before a crowd in Crowell. There was cause for worry as to whether there would be enough to feed the crowd when the numerous boxes and baskets began to yield their contents to the busy hands of the good women who were arranging these on the table. If there had been any fear as to a sufficiency of food, it would have been dispelled by the huge pile of barbecued beef at the north end of the table, the preparation of which was due to the matchless skill of Messrs. L. G. Andrews and Carl Thacker. Too much praise could scarcely be given to them for this, their part, so well performed. Next came the good women who brought baskets of chickens, pies, cakes, dressing and scores of other delicious things to eat, all of which constituted a veritable feast, such as would remind one of old times, when we were all less lucky than at present of allowing business to get our time at the detriment of the social side of life.

But, while this was a very essential part of the day's program, it was not all. The occasion was one for the celebration of one of the greatest triumphs of right over wrong that the world has ever known, and we might very properly term as honored guests those of our boys who had been so largely responsible for that triumph. And this fact makes the 11th of November 1919, one of peculiar interest. Through the coming years it will be celebrated as a national holiday, never more intimately associated with it as such will be the names of the boys who fought than is true this year. It was the first and most of them were present to acknowledge the public demonstration of appreciation for their services.

The exercises were concluded in the afternoon at the Baptist tabernacle with addresses by Col. J. G. Witherspoon and Judge Robert Cole, by the formal presentation of a medal to each soldier by Mrs. R. L. Kincaid, and with appropriate vocal and instrumental music prepared for the occasion.

The building was filled and hundreds of people turned away because of lack of room, a fact that speaks loudly of the spirit of patriotism among our people.

MERCURY DROPS TO 23

We had felt ourselves fortunate in that we thought we had escaped the blizzard that has been sweeping the northern states until about 12 o'clock Tuesday night when it struck forcing the mercury down until it stood at 23 Wednesday morning. This is the coldest spell of the season so far and may stop the rains for a while at least, which will come as a benefit to the farmers.

THE RED CROSS DRIVE

Up to the present time 553 Red Cross members have been secured in the present Red Cross drive, and 244 juniors. Everybody in the county should join the Red Cross and as the time has been extended two weeks, send in your membership fee to J. R. Beverly, chairman, and you will receive proper credit.

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED SUN.

Mr. John C. Stout and Miss Pearl Duncan were married Sunday, Rev. Tharp of Margaret officiating.

Mr. Stout is a business young man, being connected with a wholesale house in Alton. The bride is the daughter of J. W. Duncan of this city and has been employed in the office of the county clerk for several months.

The young couple left on the afternoon train for Alton where they will make their home.

Two more wells have been spudded in near Childress, one about 9 miles northwest and the other about the same distance southwest of that town.

Messrs. Frank Pittillo, Will Johnson and families were business visitors in Vernon Monday.

Henry Hays and family of Crowell passed through this community Tuesday en route to Rayland.

There were several men from the Russell community hauling corn from this community last week.

Walter Banister, J. R. Rabb, Jas. Abston and Henry Reeves made a business trip to Crowell Friday.

Earnest Tole and his uncle, Cecil Cooper, spent Saturday night with Bud Tole and family at Rayland.

Messrs. Porter and Ewald Shroeder made a trip to Crowell to get some wagons they purchased Saturday.

Bob Huntley and family spent Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. Cap Adkins in the Plainview community.

Mode Haney has a Ford truck and has made several trips to Vernon with cotton seed bringing back coal for the gin.

Messrs. Shroeder and Porter made a business trip to Crowell Saturday. Each one bought a new wagon while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Short and children of McKinney came in Thursday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Short.

Jack Maine has been hauling cotton seed from the gin to Vernon in his father's Maxwell truck, and hauling coal back for the gin.

Dr. Maine was called to Rayland Friday to see some of his patients. He was also called in to see Mrs. Shroeder who is very sick.

Some of our men spent Sunday duck hunting but we won't give their names for fear their wives might get hold of it—which would not do at all.

J. G. Thompson and family went to the home of their son, Hugh, Sunday to help eat the fine wild goose that Garland killed Thursday. They report it immense.

Quite a few of the farmers spent Monday strawing the road north of Thalia where so many have bogged up with their wagons and cars. We recommend that others go and do likewise.

We failed to get our mail Saturday. The roads were so bad Mr. Chapman went part of the way but had to turn back. Some one kindly met him and brought the letter mail which helped a great deal—papers can wait.

Those who hauled cotton here to have it ginned last week from Talmage and Rayland follows: Messrs. Huddleston, Lee Jordan, E. V. Cato, Dave and Sam Jobe, Henry Pressley, Oscar and Ben Haney and two of the Morris boys and Eric and Cap Wheeler.

The gin has been running day and night trying to keep up with the cotton. Some farmers are bringing in three and four bales per day and leaving over what they can't get ginned in the day for the night force to handle. By this means their wagons are empty and waiting for them in the morning. But Saturday the yard was cleaned up and everybody waiting impatiently for fair weather.

MARGARET MUSINGS

(By Special Correspondent)

The cold chilly winds of November reminds us that we need clothes and more especially do we need coal.

We don't expect to get any action on coal until we get through with the League of Nations, and then we may have to ship it to Siberia to keep our boys warm who are still over there.

Bro. Munroe has rounded us up good and strong. He says we have him beaten on grand children but we can't show any grand children and he has lots of them. We asked him to wait a little and we would show him.

Bro. J. B. Henderson who has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church is now with us. We were fortunate in securing such an able pastor and we sympathize with the people of Crowell for having lost him.

We warned the dear people that they should lay in their winter's supply of coal while it was cheap and plentiful, but the dear people were too busy with harvest and threshing and we were not able to buy it for them.

Bro. Tharp has gone to attend the Methodist conference at Lubbock. We will be very much disappointed if he has to move. Bro. Tharp has made us a good preacher and an all-around man for anything where help was needed.

I notice that the people of Memphis applied to Marvin Jones and got coal at once. And now the people of Margaret will apply for an act of congress to get some coal for them, at least, what we have paid for, unless they got it at Memphis.

The cotton pickers association met this morning to arrange a strike. Uncle Jake says we must have shorter days and more pay and chicken pie for dinner. He will furnish the chickens at reasonable prices. Mr. Stephens wants Saturdays off with pay, so the pickers can attend the picture show.

In order to keep our schools running I got my son-in-law in Oklahoma to buy me a car of coal and ship it at once. He bought the coal, paid for it and shipped it October 27, but our all-wise government took it in. The railroads must have coal if the people freeze, the schools close, the gins stop running and the cotton lost.

Tuck Ingle brought his father and mother to take the train for North Carolina. They have been visiting here for several weeks. This was their first meeting in thirty years and when Tuck left home he did not have time to say goodbye. Mr. Ingle is pleased with our country and we may look for them back. Some of our best citizens are from North Carolina and they all left home for about the same reasons.

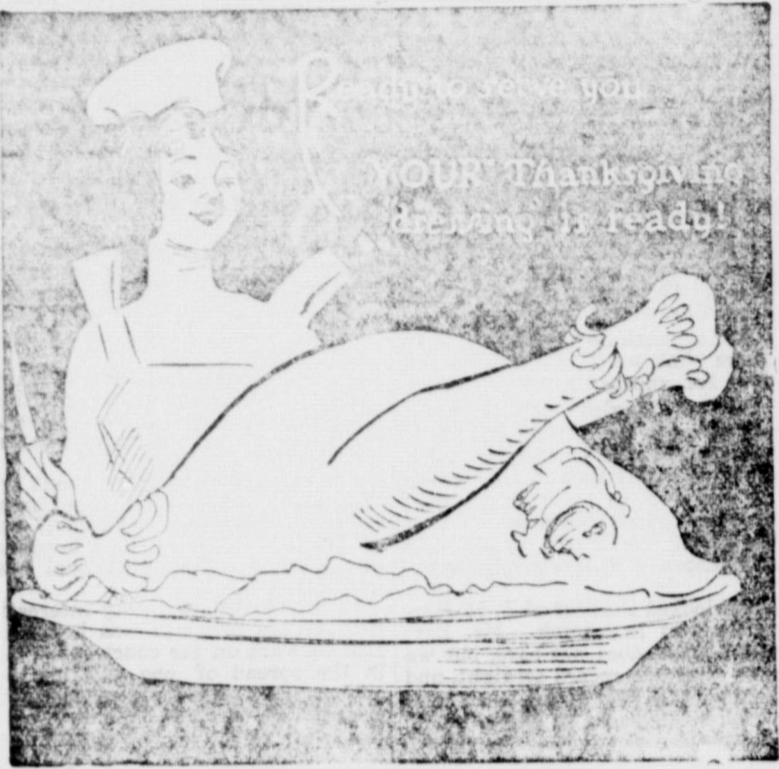

Our school turned out on the 11th on account of the returned soldiers' reception. There was no arrangements made for the children so the most of them made mud soldiers at home and some made money picking cotton. It always seemed to me that there was more sadness than joy on such an occasion. While we are glad to meet the boys who have returned our minds wander to those who will never come back.

Gem's Romantic History.

Truly romantic is the story of the Braganza diamond, a stone of 1,000 carats, and "as large as a goose's egg" which, for more than a century, has been the proudest possession of the Portuguese crown. This amazing stone, which Mr. Streeter, the great authority on gems, has valued at $58,000,000, was picked up by three Brazilian outlaws in the half-dried bed of the Abate river, in the province of Minas Geraes.

The outlaws took the stone to the nearest village priest, who obtained access for them to the governor, into whose possession it was given. The diamond, the largest and finest brilliant found, was dispatched to Lisbon, with the result that the three outlaws received the royal pardon and a rich reward, while the padre to whose friendly offices they owed their good fortune was given high preferment in the church.

Hiding a King's Statue.

The fine equestrian statue of King Charles I, which was hidden in London for protection during the war, has been brought to light again. The statue, which was cast during the reign of the monarch, according to reports has not enjoyed the uneventful career permitted to most works of its kind. It was executed for Sir Richard Weston, afterward earl of Portland, who intended to place it as an ornament in his garden at Rochampton. But this function it never fulfilled, for it was seized by parliament during the Civil war and sold to one John Rivett, a brazier, to be broken up. John, however, being a royalist, hid the statue, and, by selling hundreds of bronze knife handles purporting to be made from it, disarmed any parliamentary suspicions in the matter. On the restoration of Charles II in 1660 Rivett produced the statue, which was claimed by Sir Richard's son. The brazier refused to yield it, and after years of dispute it was eventually presented to King Charles II and erected on the spot formerly covered by the original Charing cross.

ARMY OVERCOATS LOST

GETS 2 CTS. PREMIUM ON ACALA

W. W. Welch, from the forks of Pease and Red Rivers was in Vernon yesterday with a load of cotton. He came in Wednesday night and waited nearly all day Thursday for his turn. Mr. Welch is growing Mebane and Acala cotton. He expects to get better than half a bale to an acre, and says he will have about seventy-five bales.

A premium of 2 cents a pound has been offered Mr. Welch for his Acala cotton if he will keep it separate. He is strong for better cotton, and believes the price paid in Vernon this year for non-descript cotton would be much lower except for the longer staple being grown. Mr. Welch is anxious to help Vernon build a reputation for producing high grade lint. He is sure it will mean much more money, in the long run.—Vernon Record.

INCORPORATE THE UNIONS

Tom C. Lewis, former president of the United Mine Workers, (now on strike) stated recently that a bill will be introduced in Congress to require all unions to be incorporated just as other corporations.

Union leaders would then become responsible just as other corporation officials, and not only to the unions themselves. When wage contracts were breached, such as the present coal wage scale, the New York printing scale, and the like, the unions could be sued for breach of contract and be made to respond to damages.

This bill, says Lewis, was drawn up by the government, and will be introduced as a part of the plan to make unions more responsible in the future than in the past.

FAVORS LONG STAPLE COTTON

J. A. Wilbanks, three miles south and a mile and a half west of town, is sure that it pays to raise long staple cotton. Last spring he planted 29 acres of Imperial Valley seed in Johnson grass sod land. Despite the fact that the grass got the start of him and he saved but three acres out of the tract, he is expecting to make at least a half bale to the acre, besides getting a top price for the staple. He sold a bale from another field Monday for 43.10.

Mr. Wilbanks believes that it will be worth the while of Wilbarger farmers to look into the matter of selling seed to planters in insect devastated regions of central and south central Texas.—Vernon Record.

FORMER DEMONSTRATOR GOES INTO BUSINESS AT VERNON

According to the Vernon Record, W. C. Orr, who was County Demonstrator in Foard County for the year 1918, is going into the implement business in Vernon. Mr. Orr will be one of two members of the firm, the other being H. L. Terhune, a former resident of Wichita Falls.

For the past year Mr. Orr has been engaged in farming about three miles west of Vernon.

SOUTH IS TURNING AGAINST CALOMEL

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man. Responsible for Change for the Better

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it." Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.

Orchid Hard to Secure.

Nearly all the orchids found in Burma can be grown with a little care and attention in private gardens. There is one exception, a sweet-smelling species called tazin by the Burmese, and which is usually brought to market in Christmas week in Rangoon. It only seems to flower in the most malarious and least frequented localities, and at a time of the year which is the tigers' mating season, and when they are most dangerous to human beings. It is in great demand by Burmese and sells for its weight in silver.

What Mother Wanted.

I heard a knock at my door the other morning and on answering it found my neighbor's small son. "Mother wants to borrow your lemon-lemon—" I at once knew he wanted my lemon squeezer but as he always finds some way to express himself I did not offer to help him out.

Again he started and, with suggestive motions of his hands, said: "She wants your lemon—O, I know now—your lemon hugger."—Exchange.

Crowell, Texas, November 14, 1919

SCHOOL CORRESPONDENTS

As was stated in last week's issue, the News is endeavoring to get a correspondent from each school in the county, especially from the towns, and so far it has met with good encouragement. We have one in the Crowell school and Prof. Singleton at Marret states that he thinks he will be able to line up with us some one in his school. We are expecting to hear from Foard City and Thalia.

We regard this as a very fine feature of the News and would furnish interesting reading matter to the entire county, for every one is interested in the working of our schools generally. It would be matter of especial interest to the communities whose schools are thus represented. It is a form of advertising that will be worth much to the schools of the county and to educational interests generally. So let us have these cor-

Teachers' Institute Program

To Be Held at Crowell High School Building
December 15-19, 1919

In presenting this program, which varies a great deal from those of preceding years in ways which I feel sure will be beneficial, I am asking every teacher of Foard County to lend his or her best efforts to make this the most successful Institute ever held in Foard County.

Every department, I am sure, will prove interesting and beneficial to the teacher who desires to accomplish a more successful school year and to make herself a credit to her chosen profession.

Every teacher will be expected to take part in the discussion of the various subjects, and if the leader assigned to each subject succeeds in bringing out a lively, general discussion of his subject we will surely have a most successful session.

Wednesday has been designated Trustee and Patrons' day and we will be glad to have every Trustee in the County with us on that day as a number of questions will be discussed which will be of vital interest to the schools of this County. Come and take part.

Come prepared to do a hard week's work and the time will be spent pleasantly and profitably by all.

KNOWS NO NORTH OR SOUTH

Southern Doughboy Who Fought in France is Strong for the Appellation "Yank."

The monicker, Yank, is going to stick. Just read what this fellow, who was born south of Mason and Dixon's line, writes:

"I come from a line of 'rebels' who boast that they did not surrender. Until I was quite a husky chap I believed that 'd— Yankee' was one word and 'Republican' its synonym, and knew the 'rebel yell' as a varsity boy knows his college yell. Before the war I wore a souch hat, rode horseback and shot squirrels. I still say cawn bread, think Dixie should be our national air, that Robert E. Lee was the world's greatest general, and Jefferson Davis, sub, the world's greatest statesman.

"But, speaking for myself and a not every small bunch of fellow 'rebels' I am exactly satisfied with the honest, hard-fisted, firm-jawed and seemingly inevitable nickname of Yank, and say, with one of the papers back home:

"Let Yank be the official battle name of our boys, and the 'rebel yell' their official battle cry."

In truth, the South and the North are welded.—Stars and Stripes.

Cutting the Nation's Tire Bill.

"Forty makes of motor tires were submitted to the bureau of standards by the office of the quartermaster general," writes Thomas H. Uzzell in Everybody's. "They were given laboratory 'durability runs' after which they were autopsied by the rubber specialists. Their carcasses were cut up and the pieces boiled, roasted, stretched. The results were discouraging. Even the best of them seemed to suffer from improper 'toughening'."

"So into their little rubber-mill went the experts, with notes furnished them by the tire manufacturers, and proceeded to make up some tire rubber which had the proper degree of toughness. They succeeded. They passed out the word: 'The trouble is that you makers are not sifting your zinc oxide before mixing it with the rubber compound.'"

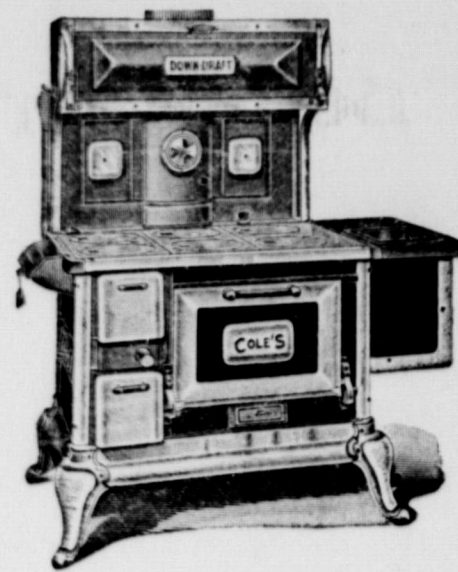

"The makers began to sift. Better tires resulted. Some $30,000,000 were saved to the government. And today you are enjoying a cut in your tire bill by getting better tires—a result of that experiment with zinc oxide."

Merely Breach of Discipline.

An air cadet in England recently swooped down toward a country road while practicing diving and struck a carriage in which two convalescent officers were driving. Both officers were killed. When the cadet was put on trial the defense set up the plea that there had been no such culpable negligence as would justify a verdict of manslaughter, although the pilot had committed a breach of discipline in flying low over the road. The cadet was acquitted.

When it comes to durability, the name, "Wearever" is a most fitting word to apply to this line of rubber goods. That's why they are called "Wearever" Rubber Goods.

Made of the best material to be had, they cannot fail to give satisfactory service. That's why this line is worth more than the ordinary rubber goods, for when there is a break in rubber goods, they are not easily repaired.

CAR JUST KEPT ON MOVING

Lucky for Sleeping Occupants That the Road Had Been Cut Up by Heavy Wagon.

I recall a funny motoring incident that might have turned out decidedly otherwise if it had not been for a mere chance, writes a correspondent. It occurred in the country during the early spring.

A young fellow and his sister were returning in the wee small hours from a dance in a neighboring town. He was driving a fivver. They were both very tired, and finally they both dropped off to sleep.

It so happened that late the day before a heavy farm wagon had frozen that way, leaving deep ruts in the mud, and during the evening these had frozen solid. The car got into these ruts and ran along them with no one guiding it for some time. The tracks turned several corners and finally turned into a farmyard and went into the barn.

The fiv turned the corners and followed the tracks into the yard. It was going straight on and would have smashed into the barn door had not the girl waked in time to see the building looming up just in front of them. Realizing the situation immediately, she jammed on the brake and stopped the car a few feet from the closed door.

I am assured that this is a perfectly true story.

SHED WALK MILES TO TELL ABOUT IT

Nashville Woman Says She Gained 25 Pounds by Taking Tanlac
"I feel so grateful for the wonderful relief I have gotten through taking Tanlac that I would willingly walk twenty miles to tell other sufferers what this medicine has done for me," said Miss Adela McKenzie, of 424 Sixth Ave., Nashville, Tenn.
"I suffered for about eighteen months from nervous prostration," she continued, "and kept getting worse in spite of all I could do. I had no appetite and after eating anything my stomach would burn like fire. I would turn cold one minute and hot the next, and I was so nervous I could hardly sleep at all and lost sixty pounds."
"After trying several different medicines without getting relief, my brother got me a bottle of Tanlac and I started taking it. By the time I had finished my second bottle my appetite began to improve and my other troubles were greatly relieved. That burning sensation has disappeared from my stomach, the nervousness is gone, I sleep like a child and I have gained twenty-five pounds in weight." Tanlac is sold by all druggists.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

What has become of the fall of Petrograd?

Some men who think they are out for statesmen are in the wrong pew.

The hunting season opens and the membership of the Ananias club shows steady growth.

The Japanese are reported to be critical over the peace terms. Is there anybody that isn't?

D'Annunzio's army has been reported as shooting up each other. Who's worrying over that.

One cause for the high price of everything is the fact that the world is playing hooky.

A Maine jury has convicted a public speaker of blasphemy. It is the first conviction in modern times!

Forty thousand people are reported starved to death in Petrograd. We thought they were fed up on Bolshevism.

France has declared herself dependent upon our coal supply this winter. Just when we had a strike on our hands, too.

A Maryland bell-hop recently bought an automobile on tips. Prior to this he bought a home, a cheaper car and some stock.

One of the first martyrs to prohibition is a citizen of New Britain, Conn., who mashed off a finger while working a wine press.

Some Austrians are arguing that the United States went to war to save England. We might have gone to war for a worse cause!

The Italians at Fiume hissed the American flag, but so far as we know there is no thought of asking the irresponsible to apologize.

Marshal Foch has reported the discovery of 40,000 Belgian freight cars in Germany, and Belgium, has sent experts to identify them.

Youngstown, Ohio, has ordered the city's attorney to prepare an ordinance regulating air traffic over the town. Who'll arrest the violators?

Real Americans who want a job can find one when they learn that ten million Americans of the age of ten years and over cannot read or write.

It's getting worse. A Pasadena preacher wrote a novel during the summer, and last Sunday he read it to his congregation in place of a sermon.

There are 3,500,000,000 pennies in circulation now and the mints are turning out 75,000,000 more each month. Most anybody can be penny wise.

You'd better be careful! The second prohibition martyr, and the third, died in Camden, N. J., after drinking a bottle of home-made alcoholic liquor last week.

A CHILD HATES OIL, CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Constipated

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask the druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

For Sale—Case tractor, plows, disc and drill.—J. O. Bagley, Margaret, phone 3 shorts on line 10. 26p.

WORLD'S NEWS
Japan Announces Huge Warship Plan.—A dispatch from Japan states that the Japanese Government has adopted a program for naval construction which involves the expenditure of $824,000,000 during the next eight years. It is said that the plan includes the construction of four 40,000 ton battleships of the Nagato class, four battle cruisers, twenty light cruisers, eighty destroyers, seventy submarines, and thirty other craft. Coming as it does almost immediately after the announcement of the ratification by Japan of the German Peace Treaty and the Covenant of the League of Nations, this warlike plan is a curious one, inasmuch as Japanese ideas as to the practical efficacy of the new League as a means of preventing future wars.

Milk Prices Again Boosted in New York.—The fact that the consumer is usually quickly called upon to pay the added cost when the wages are increased, and that strikes against the general public instead of against the employer, is clearly illustrated by the announcement, within but a few days after the strike of the milk-wagon drivers was settled by increasing their wages, of increases in the prices on all grades of milk. The new prices are as follows: Grade B, 17 1/2 cts; Select Grade A, 20 cts.; Sheffield Certified, 28 cts.; Brookside Certified, 30 cts. It might be interesting, in this connection, to know whether these increases are merely equivalent to or materially exceed the increased wages of the drivers, in view of the suggestion that the strike may have been looked upon in a kindly manner, if not indeed actually promoted by the big milk merchants as a convenient excuse for boosting the price of milk and thus increasing their dividends.

Paris Decries Gold Anklets and Black Powder.—The Paris fashion fashioners seem to like nothing so much as changes—something to make trade, and incidentally to make grotesques of the blind devotees of the Goddess of Fashion. The latest decree from Paris is for gold anklets worn underneath thin grey socks; also black face powder, a heavy rouge for the lips, sleeveless gowns, short skirts anchored below the knee to create a pantaloon effect, with black or grey powder for the legs.

Son of Former Emperor May Get Hungarian Crown.—A dispatch from Budapest states that the crisis in connection with the formation of the Government has been overcome by a compromise between the Republicans and the Royalists which will eventually bring the son of the former emperor and King, Karl, to the Hungarian throne.

Canadian Parliament Threatened with Dissolution.—Opposition to the proposal to purchase the Grand Trunk Railroad, which would involve the acceptance by the Government of a liability for $216,207,138 of debentures, and also liability for the finding of the arbitrators of the value of $124,232 of preference and common stock, has threatened the dissolution of the Canadian Parliament, and the matter will probably be submitted to the people in a general election. Popular opposition to the Grand Trunk Bill is increasing as the terms of the Bill is increasing as the terms of the posed to it.

Incorporation of Trade Unions Urged.—The "Boot and Shoe Recorder," in a recent issue, says that trade unions should be compelled to come within the operations of the law, as all other corporate bodies are. "Until this is done," the paper says, "there can never be peace and stability in industry, nor constancy of work and wages for the worker. Once responsibility and obligation are made compulsory by law, what will result? The union will be inspired and guided by the moral standards of the individual worker. The union will be a real democracy, and not the corporation described as an organization without a soul to damn or a body to kick."

American Mandate for Constantinople Urged.—In a leading article in "Le Matin," Stephen Lauzanne, the editor, appeals to America to accept a mandate for Constantinople and Armenia. The article says in part: "America is the great reservoir of energy. It holds the secret of doing things on a grand scale. It has youth, power, riches and efficiency. What an example it would be if America accepted the Constantinople mandate! All that would be necessary would be American engineers and contractors. A Hoover or a Davidson would suffice and America is full of Hoovers and Davidsons."

Lusitania Captain Charged with Disobeying Orders.—A Parliamentary paper published yesterday states that Captain Turner, of the Lusitania, disobeyed instructions in steaming at the rate of only eighteen knots an hour instead of the greater speed required, and in failing to run the vessel on a zigzag course at full speed as he had been ordered to do by the Admiralty.

France Presents New Proposal for Adriatic Neutrality.—According to the Paris newspaper "Echo de Paris," England has given her support to a new proposal of Italy relative to the Fiume question. The details of the plan have not been divulged but it is reported that it originated with Premier Clemenceau who wished to make his retiring act as Prime Minister one which would contribute toward cementing the friendship of Italy and France.

According to Admiral Thaon Di Revel, former representative of Italy on the Interallied Naval Council, the only way to settle the Adriatic problem is to make the Adriatic a "disarmed sea," including prohibition of fortification or the maintenance of naval forces there.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY
Woman's Missionary Society met in regular business session at 3 o'clock, Nov. 3, at the church. Mrs. Clark being absent on account of sickness in home Mrs. Wright presided. Subject for the afternoon was Stewardship Administered, which was read and commented on before reading Scripture lesson which was found in Acts 4, from 32 to 37 verses and II Cor., 9 chapter, 5 to 19. It seems natural to hear her, as leader, for she filled the place with ease and dignity. We had a good attendance. Officers gave their reports. Mrs. Stovall reported most all dues and pledges paid in full. Mrs. Sam Bell gave a good report of local work. Under order of new business motion carried that we have a bakery and candy sale, which will be November 22, the fourth Saturday in this month. Mesdames Sandifer, Pittillo and Margee were appointed to arrange for the bakery and our president for candy. We were then dismissed by repeating Lord's prayer in concert and went to our respective homes with the thought on our minds that we would meet the following Thursday to observe the week of prayer which date was set apart throughout Methodism in our great land by the Council held annually, but the two last meetings held in 1918 and 1919 will long be memorable in the history of Southern Methodism as the time in which the conference of the church at home and abroad gave women, by an overwhelming vote, full membership in the church. For 75 years they had served as its handmaidens, supported its institutions and worshipped at its altars as minors. But when that splendid body of men met in Atlanta, Georgia, our fondest hopes were realized; to some the time had had seemed long but it was at this meeting that a three-fourth vote from forty of the forty-five conferences was registered in the affirmative. So today we sit in our Missionary Societies and churches with all the privileges and rights of laymen by reason of this legal membership in the church whose name we have so long borne, and now are we ready for these opportunities. Do our hearts thrill with joy as we read again the great command, "Go ye into all the world?" Yes, even to the bloodstained land where the sacred dust of so many of our American boys rest. Many of the women in our society are always ready to do when called on and looked forward to this week of prayer with gladness and pride. So on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock the ladies began to gather at the church with their covered dish dinner, and at 10:20 Mrs. Henry, our leader for the day, opened the meeting with a few brief but fitting remarks. Mrs. Clark talked on the evangelization of San Francisco. She told us in an impressive way how that in the home land San Francisco, Cal., was the most needed for missionaries and in foreign fields China was in the greatest need. In observing this day of prayer the central thought and hope was that our prayers would help change the world for better and our offering would help build our medical school in Shanghai, China, and the Evangelic Center in Cal. Next in order was "What the Council has done in China in the medical field, and the proposed union medical college in Shanghai. This subject was very forcefully brought out by Mrs. Hughton. This brought us to the close of the morning session. We were dismissed for dinner. We soon prepared our spread. All seemed to enjoy the social side and well as they had the devotional.

Christian Missions by the lancet of Dr. Peter Parker. Miss Hattie Love tells of the ignorance among the Chinese people. Medical Missions has opened up to the heathen world a new profession, that of the trained nurse. Is it any wonder that the white robed nurse in Christian hospital in heathen lands is regarded as an angel from Heaven? At present there are 1315 medical missionaries in all the world and 365 of these missionary doctors are in China, and this number includes some of the greatest surgeons in the world. The last on program was Mrs. Yoder. Her subject was the privilege of giving. She always comes before us bringing something good. She handled the subject with ease and all felt she "practiced what she preached." We loth to give Mrs. Yoder up for she truly has been an inspiration to our society and last, but not least, Mrs. Henry asked for a song, "Just a Little Bit of Love," and while it was being rendered by Mesdames Thompson and Rob Wells, the free-will offering was taken and the ladies walked rapidly to the pulpit and laid it down. There were only twelve members present and the offering amounted to $14.35. Mrs. Eaves joined us in time to make her offering. This brought us to the close of the day which we all felt had been well spent.

We are offering this week the Foard County News and the Fort Worth Star-Telegram for one year for the sum of $7.00. This is one of the best clubbing offers we have and we insist on those of our readers who want to take advantage of the offer to do so at once.
