FINAL PRESENTATION OF "CASEY'S TRIAL" TONIGHT

The second and final presentation of "Casey's Trial" in Crowell will take place at the high school auditorium tonight, Thursday. The auditorium was packed to capacity last night for the pleasing performance given by over one hundred local people in this 2-act farce comedy, which is presented under the auspices of the Crowell Cemetery Association.

SCATTERED SHOWERS

Scattered showers fell in Foard County Monday night. The moisture at Crowell amounted to two-tenths of an inch. East from a point a few miles east of here no rain was received. A fair down-pour was received a few miles west and northwest of here.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Glynn Shultz of Davidson, Okla., underwent an operation Sunday morning and is reported to be doing well.

Tonsil operations were performed on Wednesday morning on Mark Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Saunders, and Weston Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward, of Thalia.

JOHN RITCHIE DIED SUNDAY AT HOME HERE

John S. Ritchie, 84, died Sunday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Bell, with whom he had lived at her home in Crowell since Sept. 1921. He had been confined to his bed since last Oct. 9, at which time he suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Following brief funeral services at the home Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Geo. E. Turrentine and Rev. O. L. Savage, local Methodist and Baptist pastors, the body was carried to Wichita, Kansas, in Womack Bros. hearse, for burial in a grave beside that of the deceased's first wife. The body was accompanied by Mrs. Bell, W. R. Womack and daughter, Miss Bertha Womack.

Native of Scotland

Mr. Ritchie was born in Carrolton Hill, Scotland, 30 miles from Dumries, on Aug. 4, 1849, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ritchie.

He came with his family to Saybrook, Illinois, in June, 1866. The family settled on a farm at that time. After that he lived in Illinois, Missouri and Kansas until coming to live with his daughter in Crowell in September, 1921. His first marriage was to Alice Naomi Livsey in Illinois. Two children, William Edwin and Jessie Euphenick, were born to this union. Both are dead.

On Sept. 12, 1888, he married Margaret Euphenia Gamble. Three children, Mrs. W. H. Bell of Crowell, Eugene D. Ritchie of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. F. J. Kanatzer of San Antonio, were born to this union, all of whom survive the deceased.

Mr. Ritchie was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Culver, Kansas. Several months before death came, he stated that he was satisfied with his religious life and was ready to go. He was self-educated largely and through much reading he maintained a great interest in travel, history, biography, national affairs and religion. He was a good, hard-working father who provided well for his family in his working days.

WILDCATS AND EXES IN GRID CONTEST FRI.

Spring football training at Crowell High School will come to an end Friday afternoon with a free football game between the prospects for the 1934 team and former Crowell High football stars.

The game will begin at 4 o'clock at the baseball grounds a short distance southeast of Crowell. The regular football field will not be used on account of the fact that Bermuda grass that has been planted on it is now being irrigated and is just beginning to grow.

Guy Todd is the captain of the ex-Wildcats. The high school team will be in charge of Coach Grady Graves and Capt. Lester Patton.

The high school team will be selected from the following: ends—Jim Riley Gafford, Lester Pat-

Rotary President

H. K. EDWARDS

Herbert K. Edwards was elected president of the Crowell Rotary Club at its regular luncheon Wednesday. Other officers elected were: W. F. Kirkpatrick, vice president; Mack Boswell, secretary-treasurer; C. V. Allen and A. F. Wright, directors. Geo. D. Self, who is now president, will automatically become a director when his term expires July 1.

A nominating committee consisting of J. E. Harwell, John Ray and Fred Rennels submitted the names of the new officers, which were approved by the club members.

The program at the luncheon was in charge of Rev. O. L. Savage and was supplied by the Crowell High School debaters: Misses Lona Johnson and Sue Gorrell, and Bill Baker and Jeff Bell, who conducted a debate on the subject, "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation." The boys represented the affirmative and the girls the negative.

Rotarians George Backus and W. D. Curtis of Vernon, and Gus Hooks of Wichita Falls, who has accepted a position as bookkeeper with Lilly Motor Co., were visitors at the luncheon.

Truck and 3 Cars In Single Accident West of Here Mon.

One truck and three automobiles figured in a wreck near the top of the long hill six miles west of Crowell on Highway 28 Monday night shortly after 8 o'clock. W. H. Alvey of Wichita Falls was the only person injured to any extent. He suffered severe cuts and bruises about the head and body and was promptly taken to the local hospital. He was dismissed the following day.

The accident occurred when the left front wheel of the Chevrolet coupe, driven by L. L. Wade of Bowie, hooked with the left front wheel of the Diamond T oil truck driven by Lee Lovejoy of Plainview. The truck was thrown into the middle of the highway and Mr. Alvey, who was traveling behind Wade in a Ford tudor, crashed directly into the truck.

The truck belonging to A. H. Mabry, Panhandle Refining Co. agent of Plainview, was returning from Wichita Falls with over 1-100 gallons of gasoline, however, none of it was lost. A Ford coupe was fastened bumper to bumper with the car driven by Wade. It with the car least damage of any of the machines, the other two automobiles being almost completely wrecked.

According to reports, the accident occurred about 100 yards from the top of this steep hill. Poor visibility on account of rain that was falling possibly contributed to the cause of the mishap.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hooks of Wichita Falls have moved to Crowell and are now living at the T. N. Bell home. Mr. Hooks, who has been connected with Chevrolet agencies at Graham and Wichita Falls for the past few years, has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Lilly Motor Co., local Chevrolet agency. Mrs. Hooks is a former home demonstration agent of Baylor County.

FUNERAL FOR MILLARD MARR HERE TUESDAY

The death of Millard Marr, 17, at 5 o'clock Monday morning came as a distinct shock to his many friends in Crowell High School and over the county in general. Just one week after becoming ill with pneumonia, the youth lost a courageous fight for life at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Marr, of Vivian community.

Millard Monroe Marr was born in this same home on March 3, 1917. This marked his second year in Crowell High School and at the time of his death he was connected with both Junior and Senior courses and was preparing to graduate next year.

He was prominent in school athletics and was counted upon as being a regular in the school's major sports in 1934-35. Last fall he was a member of the bi-district championship football squad. Just a few weeks ago he was awarded a letter sweater for his work as a substitute with the district championship basketball team. In recent weeks he had participated in track work-outs.

Millard's eagerness for an education and the efforts he put forth in this respect made him an ideal student. He was steady and studious and spent no time loitering about town. He was very clean in his habits and speech and combined a serious attitude toward life with a quiet and likable personality. His frankness in expressing his convictions attested to his high ideals on many occasions and his cheerful nature proved an inspiration to all who came in contact with him.

HOLLIS PLAYS CROWELL NINE IN NEXT GAME

Hollis, Okla., will be Crowell's third opponent so far this season in the Red River Valley League in a game to be played on the local ball grounds, southeast of town Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock.

In its league opener, the Hollis club beat Childress 1 to 0. Last Sunday the Oklahomans dropped their second game to Vernon with a count of 7 to 5.

Although Crowell has lost each of its first two games, the local club has outscored each opponent on earned runs, however, errors at critical moments have contributed largely toward the Cats' losses.

Possessing good hitters and pitchers, the local nine believes that it will overcome its main weakness to date and begin a victory march in Sunday's game here.

Government Wants Vacant Farm Homes For Needy Families

An effort is being made by Bryan O'Connell, county administrator, and the County Board of Welfare and Employment, to secure leases on houses in Foard County in connection with the government's Rural Rehabilitation Program.

Houses that are not now occupied or houses in the rural sections occupied by those now on the relief rolls are wanted for this program and anyone knowing of a house that the owner might lease for this purpose is urged to report this matter to the local relief office.

So far little success has been achieved in this program in Foard County. Its object is to make it possible for destitute persons eligible for relief in such areas to sustain themselves through their own efforts.

Houses leased in this program will be properly repaired by the government. Small tracts of land are also wanted in connection with the houses leased in order that destitute families may have plots available for the production of home gardens and for feed for domestic livestock and poultry. It is planned to purchase dairy cows and hogs locally in starting families in this Rural Rehabilitation program.

Any co-operation that can be given by the public toward the success of this worthy project will be greatly appreciated by local relief officials and destitute families who will have an opportunity to benefit from this program.

John H. Banister To Begin Meeting At Thalia Sunday

A series of services will begin at the Thalia Church of Christ Sunday with John Hugh Banister of Memphis doing the preaching. B. M. Taylor of Burkburnett will preach Sunday morning and evening and after the arrival of Mr. Banister on Monday, he will conduct the song service throughout the meeting.

John Hugh Banister, who was raised in the Thalia community, is being recognized every where he goes as one of the church's leading preachers. Many fine reports concerning his work in various places have been received since his service with the Thalia church several years ago. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Banister of Thalia.

B. M. Taylor is an excellent song director and has had many years of experience in this work. The church is expecting a great meeting and everyone is urged to attend the services.

COUNTY-WIDE SINGING HERE SUNDAY, MAY 6

The major singing event of the year in Foard County will take place in Crowell on Sunday, May 6, at which time the semi-annual singing convention of this county will be held with an all-day program at the Methodist Church.

Many prominent musicians will be here for this occasion, including the Stamps quartet of Dallas; L. D. Huffstutler, prominent choir director and song writer of Dallas; Miss Viola Ramsey, an accordionist of the Stamps Music Co., and quartets from adjoining counties, according to Duke Wallace, president of the Foard County Singing Convention.

E. A. Dunagan is chairman of the arrangements committee for this event. Mrs. A. Y. Beverly is chairman of the dinner committee and all Foard County people in attendance are requested to bring basket lunches.

Crowell business men are co-operating in a financial way to help make the occasion an outstanding success.

Due to the Hardeman County singing convention at Medicine Mound Sunday, there will be no singing this Sunday in Foard.

PERSONS WHO REFUSE JOBS TO BE TAKEN FROM RELIEF ROLLS WARNS COUNTY WELFARE BOARD

The following resolution concerning the local relief office was adopted at a meeting of the Foard County Board of Welfare and Employment at its meeting here Tuesday afternoon:

To Whom It May Concern: This office does not attempt to enforce any wage scales. Nor does it recommend any scale. The only wage that we enforce is that paid in return for grocery orders, namely, 35c per hour.

Let it be known to everyone on the relief rolls that securing a job does not disqualify the person for relief. The rules still stand that one must be destitute before aid can be given.

Securing a job does mean that during the time that a person is working, aid cannot be given. Also, aid cannot be given until the funds which one earned are exhausted.

This office wants the following to be understood:

Persons who refuse to work for a wage will be taken from our rolls. In short, this means that whenever a job is offered, this job must be accepted, provided a reasonable wage is offered, or the one refusing will no longer be eligible for relief.

The one purpose of this relief organization is to extend aid to those who cannot secure work.

Foard County Board of Welfare and Employment.

All persons needing workers are requested to report their needs to the local relief office, which is now located in the basement of the court house.

Over 225 out-of-town delegates and visitors from the 44 Methodist churches of the Vernon district attended the annual district conference that was held at the Crowell Methodist Church on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The attendance was the best that the Vernon district conference has enjoyed in a number of years and the progress shown in various reports reflected the general upturn in business conditions over the district.

The Kingdom Extension offering over the district was 200 per cent above that of last year. It was also brought out in reports that all indications point to the fact that the churches of the district this year will meet all financial obligations in full, such as salaries, benevolences and general operating expenses.

Substantial increases in new members, conversions and reclamations were reported over the district. Three new church buildings have also been added this year. New structures have been completed by Wesley Chapel in Wilbarger County and Medicine Mound and another is being finished at Tell in Childress County.

Rev. Stewart Presider.

Rev. R. A. Stewart of Vernon, presiding elder, was in charge of the conference and conducted the devotional at the opening session Tuesday morning. He gave a resume of Methodist history, this year being the 150th anniversary of Methodism in America and the 100th in Texas.

The first part of the Tuesday morning program was given over to the appointment of committees to transact the business of the conference. Rev. B. W. Wilkins, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Quanah, and Rev. A. J. Jones, pastor of the Vernon circuit, were named secretary and assistant secretary, respectively.

One of the features of the morning session was the sermon on "Regeneration" by Rev. J. H. Hamblin of Vernon.

Various reports from churches over the district were made Tuesday afternoon. The election of delegates to the annual Northwest Texas conference at Abilene next fall resulted as follows: Claude Callaway and M. S. Henry, Crowell; Hugh Black, Childress; Joe Anderson, Chillicothe; Mrs. Walter Hoffman, Ray; H. Nichols and U. S. Davis, Vernon; Will Wood, Thalia, and J. H. Williams, Quanah.

Rev. W. M. Murrell, presiding elder of the Abilene district, was present the first day and spoke in the interest of McMurtry College.

Rev. Hardy Speaks.

One of the most interesting features of the conference was the address of Rev. G. S. Hardy of Clarendon, pioneer pastor, on the subject, "The Development of Methodism in the Northwest Texas Conference as I have known it."

Activity Wednesday morning consisted of reports by pastors and continued efforts in gathering historical data about the churches of the district for permanent record.

CROWELL WINS 3RD PLACE AT CANYON MEET

Crowell High made the greatest record of any school of its district, No. 4, at the Regional Interscholastic meet at Canyon Saturday, by winning third place in the track and field meet.

Dick Todd accounted for 11 of Crowell's 13 points and was second high point man of the meet. Lamesa won first with 27 points and Happy came second with 16, all of which were made by H. Barnard.

Many larger schools, such as Amarillo, Plainview, Lubbock, Childress, Pampa and others were unable to match the performance of the entries from the smaller schools that took the first three places.

Todd's victories were: first in broad jump, second in high hurdles, third in 220-yard dash, and fourth in 100-yard dash. Lester Patton of Crowell won third in the shot put.

Pampa won the one-act play contest in which Amarillo, Crowell and Plainview completed.

BEER DEFEATED IN PRI. ELECTION

The narrow margin of 27 votes in the proposal to sell 3.2 beer in the corporate limits of the Crowell was defeated in the vote here last Friday.

The four local boxes, Crowell and S. W. Crowell, No. 3, voted wet, 114 to 85. The largest box, No. 4, N. W. Crowell, voted 56 to 45 against.

Action Asked Emergency Loans

Farmers who plan to make application for emergency crop loans requested to attend to their affairs as early as possible, as the period is scheduled to close on May 31. The loan period has been extended a week of a possible delay in the arrival of cotton checks, which probably make application for emergency loans who had previously intended to.

Persons who desire to borrow more than $150 must first apply to the Crowell Association, then if they are not eligible for a loan at that source, they may apply for an emergency loan at the county agent's office.

SHOCK-PROOF STEERING

on a low-priced car

Drive it only 5 miles and you'll never be satisfied with any other low-priced car

When you pay the price of a Knee-Action car, you naturally want genuine Knee-Action and all that goes with it. You want the new gliding ride at its smoothest, safest, and best. You want simple, foolproof, and trouble-proof construction—the huskiest, sturdiest front-end you can buy. And, of course, you want shock-proof steering—it is the natural companion of the gliding ride. You pay for these things, and you want them all—but you can get them, in the low price field, only from Chevrolet. The reason is simple. Fully-enclosed Knee-Action wheels are costly to build—so costly that only Chevrolet, world's largest builder of cars, can afford to make the necessary huge investment in new machinery—and still keep prices among the lowest of the low. Only Chevrolet has the resources and the assured volume of sales that permit this extra production cost. Chevrolet does it because Chevrolet believes that, to KEEP ON SELLING THE MOST CARS, YOU MUST KEEP ON BUILDING THE BEST. And judging from the popularity of the 1934 car, America agrees with Chevrolet. CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICH.

West Texas Feeders' Day May 4 at Spur Experiment Station

The following announcement concerning the West Texas Feeders' Day at the Spur experiment station on May 4 has been made:

Six questions pertaining to farm feeding problems are being asked 100 yearling steers. The questions are to be answered in a 112-day feeding test to end May 4.

(1) Can a part of the grain ration be replaced with cotton seed?

(2) Can cotton seed be profitably used in place of cottonseed meal?

(3) Is silage more profitable than dry roughage?

(4) Does it pay to grind milo heads?

(5) Does it pay to grind roughage?

(6) How much mineral should be added to a ration?

For twenty years the Spur Station has been conducting feeding tests with cattle and sheep to secure additional information pertaining to the feeding value of West Texas feeds. The information obtained has played no small part in an intelligent use of the 40 million bushels of grain sorghum produced annually in Texas and also has helped to place these grains in the enviable position they now hold on the grain markets of the country. The grain sorghums, especially yellow milo, are valuable in many feed mixtures and fed rations. Their excellent value is reflected in prices on primary grain markets during the past 7 or 8 years. Prices generally have been on a par with that of corn and very frequently higher than corn.

Many other feed lot problems have been studied at the Spur Station, and the information obtained has been invaluable in promoting the finishing of livestock. With an almost unlimited number of excellent feeder calves and lambs, an increasing supply of cheap feeds, an abundance of water, an ideal climate, and reliable information rapidly accruing, West Texas is coming to the front as a feeder section.

If West Texas is to develop as a feeder section as it should, it is certain that an intelligent use of the rough feeds will be necessary. Frequently the grain crop is short. There is a big waste in the rough feeds. Most of the cattle in this test were purchased as short yearlings weighing 413 lbs. in March, 1933. They were carried during the summer and fall of 1933 and until January 10, 1934, on alfalfa and sudan pasture and fed bundle feeds, silage and a limited amount of cotton seed meal and cotton seed. During the period they gained 503 pounds, a daily gain of 1.59 pounds, at a cost of $2.96 a hundred pounds gain. This gain was made without the use of grain. Since they have been in the dry feed lot on a heavy grain ration the cost of gain

THE BOOK

Ten fairly representative people were asked, "What do you know about Solomon?" Four of the ten answered, "Nothing." Other answers were: He had two thousand wives; he was the husband of the Queen of Sheba; he built Solomon's Temple; he was the wisest man that ever lived.

The statistics regarding Solomon's marriages as given in the Book of Kings are "seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines." The Queen of Sheba was not officially among this distinguished company. A monarch in her own right, she was so impressed by the stories of Solomon's splendor and wisdom that she made a long journey to visit him and after a series of receptions and banquets returned to her home.

The present kings of Abyssinia claim their descent from Solomon and this queen. If they are justified in their proud boast her visit was not wholly Platonic. It may have been true of her, as she said of Solomon that "the half has not been told." All that we know certainly is that she never appeared in the Bible again.

Solomon did build the temple and it remained the pride and glory of Jerusalem until the destruction of the city by the Babylonians in 586 B. C. But the most enduring monuments left by this great ruler were not in stone or bronze, but in words--The Proverbs, a rich mine of wisdom wherein every nugget is solid gold. One can only marvel after reading them how a man so wise in other ways could have been so unwise about women.

He made a fine start as king. The Lord appeared one night in a dream, asking him to name his heart's desire, and Solomon answered: Thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father; and I am but a little child; I know not how to go out or come in. . . . Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad; for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

To which the Lord replied: Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king: Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall any after thee have the like.

Without this wise choice on the part of Solomon we probably never should have had the Proverbs; but something more than inspired knowledge went into them. They bear evidence of comprehensive experience with every phase of human nature and conduct. Some of them, as might be imagined from Solomon's own record, contain warnings against the unrighteous woman.

The services at that time gave the congregation its first opportunity to enjoy the auditorium's new pews and the improvement in acoustics through the installation of a new ceiling.

CROWELL TEAM LOSER IN TILT WITH TIPTON

Scoring four runs in the opening inning, the Tipton, Okla., Boosters defeated Crowell's Cats, 5-3, in a Red River Valley baseball league contest Sunday afternoon at Tipton.

Successful hits by Petty, Reece, Banks and Belue helped ice the game in the initial frame.

Harvey Hutton, manager and ace hurler of the Boosters, went the route and struck out 14 Crowell batters. Skeet Rasberry and Dink Russell divided the Crowell mound duty. Each team garnered nine hits, but errors aided Tipton's scoring.

It was the first victory for Tipton in the current campaign and the Cats' second successive loss.

ence in that city was accepted during the morning session.

Hubert T. Johnson, superintendent of the Methodist Orphans' Home at Waco, gave a report soliciting the co-operation of the district in the egg campaign that the home will conduct in this area in May.

The morning program was brought to a close with a sermon by Rev. E. A. Maness of Childress on the subject, "The Witness of the Spirit."

The closing session of the conference Wednesday afternoon consisted mainly in the taking of reports from the committees that had been appointed to transact the business of the conference.

A resolution was passed expressing appreciation of the district for the service rendered it during the past four years by the presiding elder, Rev. Stewart, and Mrs. Stewart. Another was passed thanking the local church and Crowell citizens for the hospitality shown during the two days.

The conference went on record as offering fullest support to officers in the suppression of the crime wave that is sweeping the nation.

An octet from McMurry College, Abilene, under the direction of Mrs. Robert B. Wylie, presented a program of vocal numbers in the afternoon. Members of this group were: Misses Kay Elliott, Jo Patterson, Elizabeth Johnson, Juanita Pickens and Josephine Palmer, and Noel Bryant, Alby Cockrell, Glenn Coffee and Wiley Turner.

Rev. A. F. Reifnyder, a returned missionary from South America, spoke before the conference. He was accompanied by Billy Domingo, 4-year old Indian boy, native of the Amazon valley of South America, whose ability to speak and sing in three different languages, was shown those present.

THE STORY SO FAR

Gordon trades herself in with Dr. Richard Moore for fifteen thousand dollars—her family from the Missouri of her brother, Roddy's, of that amount for a woman, of love penniless young Page, and Richard is loved by a Haddon, a sophisticated married woman. Kingdon, Helena's husband, sees her, but holds his counsel. In the ceremony, Nancy re-leases to her parents' home, and goes to see Page, who urges her to divorce her husband. Mr. Haddon, who is to be released his daughter, what he considers her shame-ful, sells his house to his Major Lomax, who rents it to his original owner. Helena is of Richard's interest in, although she knows nothing of the marriage, and tries to make her. Once Page comes to Nan-cy, and makes love to her. She is frantic—she loves Page and refuses to go back on her own with Richard by divorcing

GO ON WITH THE STORY

Richard started perceptibly at sight of Nancy, but he came in now, greeting them all cheer-fully.

"I'm sorry I'm late, major," he said simply. "Had a bad case—stay all night."

The major, releasing Nancy's turned on him crustily. "I'm going to see some old beg-ger, I'll warrant!" he said sharp-ly.

Richard laughed grimly. "I'm here to kill that major."

"Bump, you look like an owl!—where's that girl?" the old man looked about, bewildered.

"She went out with Angie," he said dryly. "Let me see your foot, major," and he laid hold of the bandages.

Meanwhile, Angie found it hard to keep her friend even a moment. Nancy had utterly forgotten Angie might be hurt about her feet. She wrenched her hand from Angie's detaining fingers. "I've got to go!" she cried, and she wanted me—I promised—come again!"

She was off, running down the hill like a frightened deer. She ran around, ran down to the fence, climbed over into some berry brambles, stumbled and fell.

She tried to take the short cut through her home but a sudden pang of agony through her ankle, she stumbled again, went lame and tried to hobble toward the river. She could sit there on the bank un-der the big tree. Suddenly he put his arms around Nancy and kissed her. He kissed her forehead, her cheeks, her lips, her throat. Then she wrenched herself free, hot and trembling.

"How dare you!" she cried. "How dare I?" he laughed bit-terly. "Didn't you tell me that you let Page Roemer kiss you? And I'm your husband! Would you rather have another man kiss you?"

She was furious, her face glow-ing with color. "Let me go," she cried. "I hate you! Let me go— you said you didn't want a woman who didn't love you!"

"Yes, I know it!" he said hoarse-ly. "I know it—I thought I could let you go, but what if I can't? What if my love is too strong for it—if—?" he caught her hands now and held them, looking down at her. Love in his face, love trium-phant and beautiful, but dominant and selfish, too. "Suppose I will not let you go?"

She panted, trying to break away from his hold, her eyes ablaze with anger.

"You've got to let me go—you— you wet her parched lips— you paid for it—that's how you feel, I know it—and you've taken half the money back. You've got to let me go!"

He flung her hands from him, rising to his feet, his face dark.

"You love that fellow! You want Roemer's kisses not mine! I—?" he choked with fury—"he shan't have you!" he began to walk up and down the room; "he shan't have you, do you hear me, Nancy?"

He stopped short. The door of his office stood ajar and he sud-denly saw a woman's figure coming down the hall. Unannounced, Mam-my Polk had admitted a patient. It was Helena Haddon.

"Nancy, stay here—I'll take her into the other room," he said be-low his breath, going to meet his visitor.

But Nancy had struggled to her feet. "I'm going home," she gasp-ed, and steadied herself, leaning on the table beside her.

Helena heard her. "Don't let me break in on another patient," she said, smiling, and then, coming to the door: "Why Miss Gordon, are you ill, too?"

Richard flushed. "It's a twisted ankle," he said briefly. "Let me take you into the library, Mrs. Haddon; Miss Gordon can't walk very well yet, the ankle's just bandaged."

"I'm so sorry—" Helena be-gan.

But Nancy cut them both short;

she straightened herself and be-gan to walk quite steadily across the room.

"I'm going right home," she said.

"Sit down," Richard ordered sharply, "your foot will twist again."

Nancy flung him a look that breathed defiance. Agony was shooting through the hurt muscles, but she trod on the foot with an iron will. She had the side door open when Richard sprang to her aid.

"I'll help you home anyway," he said.

But Nancy recoiled from his touch. "Go back—to hell!" she whispered, her face flushed still with anger and pain. "I can walk."

Helena stood by the table, draw-ing off her gloves. Richard noticed it as he came in, bewildered and angry and in doubt. That ankle must hurt horribly, if it hurt at all. The doubt shook him, but he noticed how white and soft Hel-ena's hands looked, and that she had discarded her rings. He did not even notice the usual plain band on the marriage finger.

"I always come at the wrong time," Richard, I'm as inopportune as the measles!"

He pushed a chair forward. "On the contrary," his voice said, "you're always welcome. I hope you're not nervous again, Helena?"

She sank into the chair, putting up her hands with a graceful ges-ture to push back the light veil she wore.

"Well, I don't sleep at all," she replied with her provoking smile. "I suppose you'd scold dreadfully if I should ask for chloral or mor-phine or anything—to make me sleep!"

Richard dragged his mind back from its absent contemplation and looked at her intently.

"I wouldn't give it to you," he said gravely.

She smiled, drooping her lids over eyes that softened too much when they met his; even a little color went up in his face and trans-figured it.

"She's beautiful," he thought reluctantly.

"I've taken lots of it already," she said, laughing quietly. "I in-creased the dose last night."

"What?"

"Chloral." She stirred in her chair, and he saw that her chin was shaking.

"Look here, Helena, this won't do," he spoke kindly, with genuine concern. "Do you know, I ought to tell King?"

"King?" She sat up, turning the blaze of angry eyes on him. "Why King? He's thinking of nothing—of no one—but his new race horse he got from Lomax. He and the grooms are at him day and night, getting him in shape. He's to race next month. King cares more to have that horse win the race for him—or to win himself in a golf tournament, than he cares for my soul!"

She rose from her chair and went to the window. Helena was winking back hot tears. She had seen Richard's face as he looked at Nancy, and every instinct of her nature leaped up into furious jealousy.

Over 80 Vegetables Planted in Garden By Mrs. A. G. Bell

A garden plan which reads like a seed catalog is being used by Mrs. A. G. Bell, farm food supply demonstrator for the Community Home Demonstration Club. After counting over eighty varieties of vegetables that she had planted, Mrs. Bell said, "I have more than that but that sounds as if it should be enough." This list of vegetables includes about forty varieties of green or leafy vegetables as well as a good supply of other types. In addition to these already planted and up there are other varieties planned and those such as peas, potatoes, and corn planted in the field making a total of about one hundred varieties in all.

In addition to the vegetables planted, Mrs. Bell has put out this spring 100 strawberries, and 100 raspberries, dewberries, and black-berries, as well as three apricots and three fig trees.

The garden is located in a low place back of the tank and irriga-tion will be used when necessary. Mrs. Bell is looking forward to well stocked, well balanced pantry from her garden.

Foard Clubs Vote to Back Budget Plan of County H. D. Council

The Home Demonstration Clubs of Foard County voted 100 per cent to back the Council's budget plan for financing its various projects, and in nearly all the clubs, the voting was unanimous.

This was the outstanding fact brought out at the meeting of the County Council of H. D. Clubs in Miss Holman's office Saturday. Eight of the nine H. D. Clubs had representatives present at this meeting.

It was announced at this time that the type of dress for this year's dress contest is the street or neighborhood dress. The dresses are to be made of print or some other heavy cotton material and are to be made by the foundation pattern. Both dress and pattern are to be submitted to the judges.

GAMBLEVILLE H. D. CLUB

The fact that a good founda-tion pattern is the beginning of a wardrobe, was discussed by the members of the Gambleville H. D. Club and Miss Holman at the home of Mrs. Claude Dodd on April 19.

Six foundation patterns were started. The attendance at the meeting included thirteen mem-bers and two visitors. Mrs. Will Gamble and Mrs. Herman Green-ing.

The making of foundation pat-terns will be the subject of the next meeting on May 3 with Mrs. Frank Gamble.

GOOD CREEK H. D. CLUB

To send a delegate to the A. & M. Short Course should be the aim of every club, according to a state-ment made by Miss Holman at a meeting of the Good Creek H. D. Club, which met with Mrs. Rex Traveek on April 17.

The Short Course has so many demonstrations that each delegate can find what she is most inter-ested in, then bring back beneficial information to her club.

Three skirt patterns were made at the meeting. Two new mem-bers, Mrs. Dale Thorn and Mrs. Groomer, were added.

Waist patterns will be made at the next meeting on May 1 with Mrs. A. L. Davis.

THALIA H. D. CLUB

Mrs. Mack Eden led the lesson on foundation patterns at the meeting of the Thalia H. D. Club in the home of Mrs. W. J. Long on April 18.

Roll call was answered with each member giving a point that must be avoided in designing dresses. Miss Holman gave an in-teresting account of what one might expect at the A. & M. Short Course. Mrs. W. A. Jones told some things about the wardrobe contest at the Short Course.

Members of the club started making foundation patterns. This work will be continued at the next meeting, which will be May 2 with Mrs. W. A. Jones with Mrs. W. S. Tarver as the leader.

Mrs. Jones was appointed a member of the finance commit-tee. Mrs. Willie Cato became a

FOARD CITY H. D. CLUB

The different ways of prepar-ing whole wheat into appetizing dishes were given to club members by Mrs. Lawrence Glover, member of the Foard City H. D. Club, which met at the club house April 17.

Mrs. Glover says that whole wheat is very good as a cereal, cooked in the whole grain, or it may be ground before cooking. It may be used as a substitute for spaghetti or macaroni in soup, which is prepared the same as a rice pudding, using wheat instead of rice.

Mrs. C. H. Pittman was received into the club as a new member.

Refreshments were served to twenty-four members and three visitors.

The next meeting will be at the club house May set with Mrs. Lee Lefevre as program leader. Founda-tion patterns will be made at that time.

The Club ladies will sell sand-wiches, coffee and tea in Crowell next Trades Day, May 7th.

NEW VARIETY OF CORN PLANTED BY MRS. MOORE

"My Honey June corn is planted and it looks as if it is all up," says Mrs. Melvin Moore, farm food supply demonstrator for the Gam-bleville Home Demonstration Club. A careful record is kept on the date of planting, methods used in cultivating, and the yield of the crop. Mrs. Moore will give the members of her club an opportu-nity to see the corn while in pro-duction as well as to taste it cook-ed, fresh and canned.

Honey June corn is a new vari-ety recently developed by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station by converting Mexican June corn to a sweet corn. Mrs. Moore is one of the nine people in this county who are co-operat-ing with the Experiment Station in testing the adaptability of this corn to the different sections of Texas. It has been tested out in other sections and has been found to be far superior to ordinary June corn in eating quality as well as production and resistance to ear worm damage.

KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT MOTOR OILS—

Conoco dares to give you the facts!

Here are no idle claims—But PROOF!

COMPARE this positive proof of superiority with all the exaggerated claims you hear about motor oils—now the facts can be told. We arranged with the Contest Board, American Automobile Association, to test five widely-known and advertised motor oils along with New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil in a daring "Destruction Test."

These six oils, a single fill of 5 quarts, with no more oil added, in six brand new strictly stock cars, were driven until the motor in each car was destroyed from lack of lubrication. The first oil failed with motor destroyed at 1,713.2 miles—others failed in rapid succession. The best of the competing oils ran a total of 3,318.8 miles... while New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil lubricated its motor for a total of 4,729 miles!... more than 3,000 miles farther than the first oil to fail... and more than 1,400 miles farther than the second best oil. Thanks to Conoco's Hidden Quart protection, this amazing victory stands unchallenged!

This is evidence... these are facts... that should open a new era of results and economy for your motor. Drive into a Conoco Station or dealer—fill with this New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. There's no longer any guess about what oil is best for your car!

Warning TO NEW CAR OWNERS

Some car manufacturers are using new types of bearings which will stand greater pressures and temperatures, resulting from increased power and speed. New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil has been exhaustively tested on these new bearings. The results show that it gives them greater protection against damage than many straight mineral oils now on the market.

Protect your new car by using the motor oil you can be sure of.

1862, Rev. Hardy joined the Methodist Church at the age of 16 and 47 years ago, 1887, he received his license to preach at Burnet, Texas. About the same time he also received his license to practice law and engaged in that work for a short time. A revival changed his career and he decided to devote his life to the ministry.

Just before coming to Old Margaret in 1888, he served as pastor of the Burnet circuit, which included four churches. Rev. Hardy stated that the first official service held in the old Banister Chapel, which was built a few miles northeast of what is now Crowell, was the wedding that he performed for Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hunter, Sr., who are still residents of the Margaret community.

From Old Margaret, Rev. Hardy was sent to Altus and then back to Quanah, where he remained as pastor from 1892 to 1896. After serving as presiding elder for the Gatesville and Clarendon districts, he became pastor at Clarendon for two years and also served as president of Clarendon College for three years, 1903-06. From there he went to Plainview and was presiding elder there until going to Hamlin in the same capacity in 1910. After four years at Hamlin he became pastor at Sweetwater, serving four years, followed by two years as presiding elder of the Sweetwater district. Returning to Plainview he was presiding elder from 1920 to 1924 and then went back to Sweetwater for two more years as presiding elder. After one year as pastor at Chillicothe he completed his long career as a pastor with one year of service at Snyder. The three years that followed, he served as director of the Superannuate Endowment of the Northwest Texas Conference. He is now in his second year as a superannuated pastor.

Rev. Hardy has two relatives in the Methodist ministry. A brother, Rev. Ben Hardy, is Methodist pastor at Anson and a nephew, Rev. C. R. Hardy, is the Methodist pastor at Kress, Texas.

Rev. Hardy has two daughters, Mrs. M. R. Allensworth, with whom he is now living at Clarendon, and Mrs. Ben Smith of Plainview, two sons, Sam N. Hardy of McCauley, Texas, and Louie M. Hardy of Stamford, and two brothers, Joe and Paul Hardy of Wellington, Texas. His wife died over 19 years ago at Hamlin.

Thanks!—Chillicothe

The "News Hound" of the Chillicothe Valley News said some mighty nice things about The News and its new enlarged page size in his column last week. Not merely to return a compliment—but to give expression to an opinion of ours for a long time, we can say that those boys over at Chillicothe put out as neat and fine a weekly, week after week, as you could expect to find in a town several times its size. It is always full of live, local news—and as for attractive make-up—it will top most any list.

It seems that the "News Hound" recalls past Crowell-Chillicothe football history. He states that the Eagles are going to "perk up" this year and that Typo and other Crowell fans can begin right now to worry about the forthcoming battle with those Chillicothe Eagles this fall.

And since the subject has been brought up, it seems that local fans are going to be treated to the classiest brand of Class B football next season that they have ever known.

A writer in the Olney Enterprise says that prospects are very bright for the Cubs to recover the Crown they lost to Crowell last season. "The throne room does not look familiar without the red and white clad Cubs," he writes, "but the diadem will be recovered from all looks this early in the year."

Burkburnett is also letting the world know that the Bulldogs are going to have one of the greatest teams in years, and with strong clubs at Chillicothe and Seymour—there is a real treat in store for local fans next fall.

Fully conscious of the strength of the other clubs, nevertheless we take this opportunity to make a prediction—that in defeating the Cubs at Olney on Nov. 23, the Wildcats will win their second district championship.

pleases—alone. We watched him as he drove into town to attend the Methodist conference and marvelled at his ability to handle his Willys sedan through rather heavy traffic and to drive up and stop at a curb with the skill of an expert chauffeur. His eyesight is still so good that he does not use spectacles in driving.

Did You Know That—?

Tomorrow, April 27, is Foard County's 43rd birthday?

The C. H. S. Senior class of 1912 was composed of boys only? Recently it was stated in this column that there were more boys in the class this year than girls and we expressed a desire to know if situations of this kind had existed before. We are informed that three members of the 1912 class were John Long, now of this city; Aubrey Cooper, who was killed in France during the war, and Britt, who is reported to be in Oklahoma.

A perfect host even after was the late John Jones of Australia, who instructed in will that each mourner at his funeral receive two large glasses beer.

In an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide, George Grimes of Shawnee, Wis., swallowed stickpin, cuff buttons, some safety pins, glass and other matter.

After having been given up as dead for more than 26 years, Charles E. Keplinger, former road engineer, walked in on family, at Cumberland, Md.

A prisoner recently booked at a Washington police station, his name as Cabbagestak and occupation as huckster.
