CROWELL WILL BE BURNING NATURAL GAS NEXT WEEK

The report reached us Monday afternoon that drillers had struck a two million gas flow in the Matthews No. 1 well drilled for Culbertson Bros. gas with which to supply Crowell, Thalia. This well is 300 feet from the first well drilled and is two miles north of Thalia and about ten and a half miles northeast of Crowell. The gas was struck at the 855-foot sand, as was expected. Mr. Culbertson is well pleased with the success had in drilling and keeping the well in good condition.

Mr. Culbertson stated Wednesday morning that he would be ready to turn the gas into the pipes this week and that next week connections would be made for its use in the city.

Mr. Culbertson knew what he was doing when he made the statement and Wednesday night turned the gas into the mains and lighted it at the end of a hoisted pipe on the court house lawn where the gas burned, giving a big glowing light all night.

This is the culmination of a dream and marks a period in our history that means much to us all.

Opposing Veterans of the Civil War Review Experiences

The number of the veterans of the Civil War, both Union and Confederate, is being reduced rapidly but there is one here and there. C. B. Garlinghouse, who fought in the Union Army, has been a resident of Crowell for a good many years, and one time was the only man in the county to cast a vote here for a Republican candidate for the President of the United States. That was for Benjamin Harrison. He is now 84 years of age. Among Mr. Garlinghouse's friends in this county that fought on the Confederate side are four or five yet living, but if any of these ever fought against Mr. Garlinghouse in the war it is not known.

Not long ago, however, he met T. Bull of Sulphur, Okla., who has been here visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. Jonas, and in talking over war experiences they learned that each was familiar with many of the same circumstances that must have surrounded the two armies as they were arrayed against each other in Kansas and Louisiana, and in all probability shot at each other many times as they were obeying orders from their superiors.

Mr. Garlinghouse had Mr. Bull dine with him at his home here last week and they found it interesting to recount their experiences of the 60's in connection with the war.

Mr. Bull was sworn into the Confederate Army at Denton, Texas, in 1861, when he was 16 years of age. One hundred and nineteen men joined the cavalry from Denton at that time and of the group of seventeen returned home after the war. Mr. Bull is the only survivor of that group of Texas cavalrymen. After the first year he was in for three years of further service in Company E, 29th Texas Cavalry under Captain Otis G. Welch during the war he had three horses and from under him and two others. But Mr. Bull went through the conflict without a wound. He is now 83 years of age.

Mr. Garlinghouse enlisted in the United States Army in August 1861, in Indiana, and was discharged from service in Indianapolis in September 1865. In the first year of the war he was in Company E, 5th Regiment, Indiana Infantry. Following the war he married a daughter of a Confederate soldier and moved to Foard County in 1891 and has made this home since that time. Mr. Garlinghouse says there are seven other members of his old company now living and that four of these are in Oregon and three in Indiana.

Scout Movement Is Being Revived

Several of the News' exchanges tried announcements last week of effort to revive Boy Scout work in this county. The indication is that there are few in our towns who have the inclination to accept the leadership of a troop. But the demand is pressing. It is an opportunity to render real service, and anyone who can and will do it is to be commended.

Crowell now has the opportunity of getting behind the movement here and help make it a success.

The boys of today will be the men of tomorrow. Give them every advantage of training that will make them the citizens our country needs.

Baylor County is still putting on bit drives. Recently 1200 of the animals were slaughtered in one day.

Winters His Cattle Without Having to Feed

"I have never had to feed more than two full winters since I have been operating my ranch in Texas," said John L. Kilworth when he stopped in for a few moments at the News office Wednesday to have his paper changed from Gilliland to Lawrence, Kansas.

Mr. Kilworth and his wife come down in the fall and spend the winter on the ranch, and then return to their Kansas home in the early spring, as they are now doing.

Mr. Kilworth explained his method of grazing his cattle by saying that he has a number of pastures and he runs his stock in the early winter in the one furthest from the ranch house. As the grass gets short in that one he moves the herd to the next closest one, and so on as grass conditions make it necessary, and in case feeding becomes necessary in the middle or late winter his stock are close to headquarters where feed is convenient and where they can be looked after. That method of caring for his stock has been a big item in eliminating the necessity of feeding through the winter.

Mr. Kilworth said he was forced to feed through 1925, but that all the feeding he had ever had to do up to that time was only a small item in an occasional year, which, altogether, would constitute only about one winter's feed.

Mrs. Purcell Gets Hip Hurt in Fall

Mrs. D. S. Purcell happened to the misfortune Sunday night of getting her hip injured and she is now confined to her bed.

The accident happened when her foot slipped as she was descending the steps to the house of Mrs. W. R. Tuttle, with whom she had been visiting for a short time, and was going to the car of her daughter, Miss Emily Purcell, who was waiting for her to go to church.

When Mrs. Purcell fell little was thought of it and she got up and went on to the car and she and Mrs. Tuttle got in and went to the church building, but when Mrs. Purcell tried to ascend the steps at the church she found that she was injured more seriously than she at first thought.

She is resting very well, but it is mighty hard on her to be confined to her room, as she is very active for one of nearly 80 years.

Her friends are anxious that she may be able to get up in a short time and be herself again.

Two Important Elections in April

There are to be two important elections in Crowell in April, one on the 3rd, the election of two aldermen for a period of two years for the city. J. H. Self is the presiding judge for that election. The other is for the election of three trustees for the Crowell Independent School District to serve for a period of two years, the election to be on April 7th. S. E. Seales will manage that election.

These are important because the positions filled impose responsibilities of more weight than we are disposed to grant, and consequently the demand is for the very best of men.

It is the part of wisdom to look about us for the right kind of men for these responsible places.

Graham is soon to have a water bond election of $225,000 with which to build a large reservoir near the city. It is proposed to provide a water supply for a city of 25,000 people.

Agricultural Premiums to Be Increased

At first thought it may appear that the matter of increasing the premiums on agricultural exhibits at the State Fair is a thing of little interest to the average person, but that is a mistake.

Texas, and especially this section of the State, is pre-eminently an agricultural section, and one who is not interested in the agricultural developments of the country does not see the things of greatest value in a material sense.

Mack Boswell received a letter from J. A. Moore, superintendent of the agricultural department of the State Fair, calling attention to the fact that the State Fair Association has accepted the suggestion of the Exhibits Association that the premiums be raised. So $500 will be the premium for first winner, as against $3350 last year. The premiums range downward to a minimum of $100, the lowest any county will receive, provided there is a full score card. The minimum last year was $50.

That means that many more counties are certain to make agricultural exhibits this year than ever before under normal crop conditions. It means, of course, keener competition and better exhibits.

Another thing of even greater interest to this section of the State is the fact that the Upper Red-Bease River Valley, of which Foard County is a part, will have choice space in the agricultural buildings, upon which $100,000 is to be spent between now and the next fair. The tremendous advertising value of this can not be known at this time.

It might be well to say that this is due to the fact that co-operative effort has been made by the nine counties comprising the Upper Red-Bease River Valley with the aim of obtaining every possible advantage to make a good showing for this section.

Mack Boswell, Jerry Debenport, Carl Guin, and Grady Shipp, of Crowell, Childress, Quanah and Vernon, respectively, went to the Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth Wednesday, and planned to go on to Dallas to confer with Mr. Moore, regarding matters above mentioned.

Gets Hurt While Playing Baseball

Milton Callaway, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Callaway, was dangerously and painfully hurt Monday of this week while playing ball at the Foard City school when the ball struck him in the head. He was rendered unconscious for some time but was apparently better Tuesday morning.

Mr. Callaway thinks the boy will improve if no complications arise and that he will soon be all right.

FOUR NEW BRICK BUSINESS HOUSES TO BE CONSTRUCTED

The contract was let several days ago to Poland & Housour, local contractors, for the construction of three brick business houses on the east side of the square, and final arrangements were made Wednesday to include the fourth, the buildings to constitute a connected group near the center of the block facing the court house.

The first one to the north, on the fourth lot from the corner, is to be built by C. E. Flowers, to be on the site of Flowers Battery Station and is to be the new home of his station. This will be a 25 by 75 foot structure.

The next 25-foot lot to the south of Mr. Flowers will be the site of a 75-foot brick to be built by Kimsey & Klepper and to be occupied by them as the permanent home of the Foard County News.

The third building to the south is to be built and owned by M. N. Kenner. It will also be a 75-foot building and will be the home of the City Tailors.

The fourth building is to be 25 by 100 feet and will be the property of C. C. McLaughlin. Announcement as to who will occupy that building is yet to be made.

Foard County Loses Another Good Citizen

The death of Len Johnston occurred at the home of his wife's brother, Mr. McDonough, Healdton, Okla., Friday morning of last week about 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston had gone to take Mrs. Johnston's sister, Miss May McDonough, to her home after a visit she had made with them, and while they were in Oklahoma Mr. Johnston had an attack of appendicitis which proved fatal, although an operation was performed and everything done that was possible in order to save his life.

Mr. Johnston was born in Honey Grove, Texas, July 20, 1875. After having grown to young manhood he married Miss Ida Virginia McDonough, Ardmore, Okla., on August 21, 1901. They made Oklahoma their home for fifteen years and in 1916 they moved to Foard County and resided on the B. J. Smith ranch about ten miles southwest of Crowell until Mr. Johnston's death.

The deceased is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Vera Jones, of Quanah, and Mrs. Gladys Ely, of Crowell. Also by one brother, Herbert Johnston, Oil City, Okla., and by three sisters, Mrs. Pannie Smith and Mrs. Zeta Ellison, both of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Precilla Thompson, Foard City. Another relative, Mrs. S. E. Tate, a cousin, resides near Crowell. The two sisters in California could not attend the funeral services.

Mr. Johnston was one of Foard County's substantial citizens and was a good Christian man. He told his loved ones before his death occurred that he was ready to go. He had had his individual battles to fight, as do all men, but he had overcome them, and not many months ago he arose at night and told his wife that he was a changed man and wanted to tell the children about it.

The many friends of the family in Foard County extend their sympathy to the bereaved in their time of grief and sorrow.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church here Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after which interment took place at the Crowell cemetery.

For Commissioner Precinct Number 2

C. W. Beidleman offers himself as a candidate for commissioner of precinct No. 2, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

Mr. Beidleman served as commissioner for about 7 years in the earlier days. He believes in a careful and conservative handling of the public money and is opposed to spending it when there is none to spend. Economy of administration, therefore, is one of his strong arguments.

He expects to see all the voters in his precinct and wants each voter to give his candidacy consideration.

A MODERN HOTEL FOR CROWELL PRACTICALLY AN ASSURED FACT

The building of a modern hotel for Crowell now seems a reasonable certainty.

C. I. Kugler made the proposition that he would build the hotel if the town would furnish a suitable site. After several meetings of a number of the business men of the city and discussions as to the best location, a location was finally decided upon and an option taken until it could be determined as to the possibility of raising the funds with which to pay for the site. A canvass has been made and all of the $6500 for the four lots on the southeast corner of the square has been subscribed except a little more than $400. That will, of course, be subscribed without a doubt. So the matter of selecting a site, one of the biggest kinds of a job, has been settled.

The abstracts to the property are now being examined and Mr. Kugler is having the plans and specifications drawn up to be submitted for approval.

The hotel will cost in the neighborhood of $65,000 and will be modern in every particular, with 40 guest rooms, and will be a two-story structure. It will meet the needs of Crowell fully at the present time and for years to come, and will be so constructed as that it can be enlarged as conditions demand.

It is considered a fortunate thing for Crowell that it has such splendid proposition by Mr. Kugler and also because such an excellent site has been secured for the structure.

If the title to the property proves to be all right Mr. Kugler will be ready to start work on the building in very short time. So it is reasonably certain that not many weeks will pass before we shall begin to see that long-wished for hotel becoming a reality.

Father of Crowell Man Slain at Smithville

William Waybourne and his aunt, Mrs. M. N. Kenner, were called to Henrietta Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Waybourne's father, W. W. Waybourne, who was found dead in bed at his home in Smithville Monday afternoon. Following is an account of his death which appeared in Tuesday's Star-Telegram:

Smithville, March 12.—With head mashed in, the body of W. W. Waybourne, 50, retired railroad man, was found in bed at his home here Monday afternoon.

A coroner's verdict of murder was returned by Justice of the Peace D. J. Gresham.

The justice said robbery obviously was not the motive, for the pockets of the murdered man's clothes had not been rifled. Waybourne is believed to have been killed as he slept some time Sunday. He had been dead, Justice Gresham believed, some 12 hours.

Gresham said the house was in order and there was no evidence of a struggle.

Waybourne is said to have worked for a number of years as bridge builder for the M.-K.T. Railroad. He is survived by his wife and several children.

Crowell Sends Fine Cattle to Stock Show

Over 175 yearling Hereford bulls were shipped from Crowell to the Fat Stock Show to Fort Worth by Dr. J. M. Hill and Shirley & Offield, Hereford breeders of Crowell.

Shirley & Offield have 107 yearling bulls that have been purchased out of leading herds in Kansas, Oklahoma and various sections of Texas, along with a number of bulls that they have raised. Dr. J. M. Hill has 62 that have come from the same localities and practically all of this stock was purchased last Fall and have been kept up and fed through the winter preparatory to exhibiting at the Fat Stock Show.

The bulls included in the herds of Dr. Hill and Shirley & Offield are all pure bred animals and are credited by local cattlemen as being the finest collection ever gathered in this section of Texas. Shirley & Offield are exhibiting 120 bulls out of their herd of 167, and Dr. Hill is showing 30 bulls from his herd of 62.

Dr. Hill is also exhibiting a two-year-old Hereford bull of which he is very proud. This is "Fancy Boy No. 1490715" and was sired by Kansas Domino, No. 978571, a bull weighing more than a ton. His dam was Fancy Lady Anxiety Fourth, No. 1252082.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram, March 13.

Q. R. Miller Puts in Grocery Stock

Q. R. Miller is making the announcement in this issue of the paper that the Sanitary Market is adding groceries to its business, which will enlarge the service of the market, making it possible to supply customers with either or both groceries and fresh meats.

Arrangements were made this week to take care of the stock and have the opening today.

Club Boys Are Elated Over Their Success

Eighteen of the 24 Calf Club boys met with County Agent Fred Rennels at the office of the latter here Saturday and reviewed the success they have made in their purchase of thoroughbred Jersey calves last Summer, and surveyed the future briefly with its possibilities.

Those who made talks to the boys are T. N. Bell, Mack Boswell and Fred Rennels. All these gentlemen are intensely interested in the Calf Clubs' success and are ready at all times to lend them a helping hand. Mr. Bell told them that any time they wanted to start a pig club or any kind of a club that possesses such possibilities or any thing like the possibilities of the Calf Club, all they had to do was to call on him for assistance. He believes in the boys and knows they will succeed if they start right.

It is interesting to note how the boys came out in their calf venture, and for the benefit of the readers of the News we are going to give it here. It will be remembered that they planted cotton and turned the proceeds of the crop to the payment of the debts they had assumed at the banks for the Jersey calves. It must be remembered that they all paid for their calves and made a good profit besides. Here are their records:

Antelope Club—Carl Lawson, age 15, 4 bales on 4 acres, clearing $250 profit.

Hubert Abston, age 14, 4 bales on 5 acres, and $150 profit.

Merle Roberts, age 16, 2 bales on 3 acres, $40 profit.

Rayland Club—Hearell Scales, age 11, 6 bales on 3 acres, $150 profit.

Homer Cribbs, age 16, 5 bales on 5 acres, $175 profit.

Jerry Young, age 17, 5 bales on 5 acres, $210 profit.

Lloyd Whitten, age 16, 3 1/2 bales on 3 acres, $150 profit.

Margaret Club—Cecil Ray Moore, age 14, 3 3/4 bales on 5 acres, $125 profit.

Lance Middlebrook, age 12, 5 bales on 5 acres, $270 profit.

Jack Russell, age 14, 3 bales on 5 acres, $95 profit.

Charlie Haseloff, age 10, 4 bales on 5 acres, $150 profit.

Earl Orr, 4 bales on 5 acres, age and profit not stipulated.

Thalia Club—Charlie Wisdom, age 16, 2 1/2 bales on 5 acres, profit $27.

Hamp Pittillo, age 17, 3 1/2 bales on 5 acres, $25 profit.

Willie Cato, age 16, 4 bales on 5 acres, $150 profit.

Russell Taylor, age 16, production not given.

Raymond Phillips, age 14, production not given.

It is interesting to note that these figures show that the aggregate crops made by these boys on a total of 69 acres was 58 bales, or not very much below an average of a bale to the acre.

Does any one for a moment consider that this has not been a real success?

Troy Erwin and family made a trip to Childress Saturday. They were accompanied by Miss Lola Bell.

NEW USES FOR COTTON

Congressman Jones' bill to enlarge Government in the task of discovering new uses for cotton has been favorably reported by the House Agricultural Committee. The Texan's effort is thus again brought to the final stage. In the last Congress, a similar bill by Mr. Jones was passed by the House only to be caught in the legislative jam which was precipitated by the filibuster in the Senate during the closing hours of the session. A considerable amount of work was done, however, under the authorization of the appropriation bill, which carried an item for this purpose. Mr. Jones' new bill is to authorize continuance of this work.

The bill does not, of course, set itself up as a solution of the troubles of the cotton farmer. But since it is obvious that an increase in the use of cotton would benefit the man who produces it, the measure has its merits as farm relief legislation. The Government has been called on to extend aid to agriculture. Many of the legislative expressions of this demand provide for more or less direct extension of federal aid. Mr. Jones' bill, however, would merely perform for the cotton farmer that service which management in other industries always seeks to accomplish—the stimulation of consumption of the product. Private organization of the steel industry, the copper industry, the electric industry, and what not, undertake this promotion work. The cotton farmers have no such organization. The Government is asked to stand in the fostering position indicated.

Obviously, the finding of new uses for cotton will be most valuable when these uses are found not at the expense of other American products. We take it that such will be the guiding principle of the investigation. Obviously, also, stimulation of consumption of cotton will be valuable only so long as a corresponding stimulation of production does not nullify the gains that may be made in the first instance.

To this latter end, all the efforts which in recent years and now are being devoted to holding cotton production within bounds should be continued. Overproduction of cotton in the South has a two-fold ill effect. It prevents the farmers from getting a living price from their principal crop, and it prevents the development of balanced farming or diversification.—Ft. Worth Star-Telegram, March 1, 1928.

THE FOARD COUNTY NEWS

KIMSEY & KLEPPER, Owners and Publishers

Entered at the Post Office at Crowell, Texas, as second class matter

Crowell, Texas, March 16, 1928

A few years ago one had little thought that Foard County would ever use fuel from its own gas sand. Wednesday night, March 14, 1928, was the first time it ever burned here from the end of a pipe. Bulbertson Bros. turned it through the pipes and reduced the pressure and gave the city a lighted torch all night on the court house lawn. This marks an important achievement in the development of this section of the country and will mean much to Crowell and the other towns and the county as a whole.

Another reason why so few young men of today do not make great men like their daddies is because they were not born in a log cabin. It may seem strange, but no one born in a modern bungalow has ever become president.

Another good rain Wednesday night brightens the prospects for small grain crops. The rains are coming about right to keep the crops in growing condition, but there is little margin of moisture.

Al Smith is going to the "white elephant" at the Houston show next summer and it matters not how much his elimination from the ring may be desired he will be a strong performer.

Although March came in like a lamb and is still acting like one, that does not mean that if it goes out like a lion it will be a baby one.

And if we should find a dead bandit we do not see how we could prove that he was one.

Vernon Man Wants Store Building Here

O. R. Wells, manager of the Ve-O-La Shop, Inc., and the New York Style Shop of Vernon was in Crowell Wednesday and stated that he would like to establish a store in Crowell, and would likely do so if he could get a suitable location here.

Mr. Wells has been in Crowell before, but not for the last few months, and he was surprised to see the growth and development that had taken place.

That he has his eye on our little city is evidenced by the fact that he has the News sent to his address so that he may keep posted as to conditions here.

Gasoline consumption in the United States increased 12.4 per cent during 1927. California led all the states with more than a billion gallons, while New York was second with 892,000,000. All but two states are imposing a gasoline tax, New York and Massachusetts. The total gas collections for the year approximate $200,000,000.

COMMUNITY CLUB

The Community Club had a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Tom Russell on March 9 in honor of Mrs. Fred Bell. An interesting lesson on the month of March was studied. Mrs. Jim Cates read a paper on the origin of the month. Mrs. Kell Erwin gave a reading, "The Spring Song." Some very interesting facts and beliefs in regard to St. Patrick were told us by Mrs. Tom Russell. Mrs. Hubert Brown concluded the lesson with "The Coming of St. Patrick to Ireland."

We next enjoyed two clever contests. Mrs. Jim Cates and Mrs. Kell Erwin, being the lucky winners, were each presented with a prize, which they in turn presented to the honoree.

We were then interrupted by a knock at the door. A messenger entered and handed Mrs. Bell a telegram which she said contained good news. Upon following its directions she found a beautiful hat box at the door. When this was opened she was further surprised to find several small gifts. Among these gifts was a framed motto presented and signed by the club members, that in a very small way expresses our friendship for her. The motto follows:

Friendship
What is life without a friend,
To cheer one all the way?
A friend is like the sunshine
That gladdens all the day.
Like the gorgeous color of the butterfly.
Friendship is a thing of beauty,
Shared by you and I.
In losing Mrs. Bell from our club we feel like we have lost one of our most faithful and loyal workers as well as one of our dearest friends. The members of the Community Club extend to her their very best wishes and ask her to remember that "Friendship is a thing of beauty," and that each and everyone of us feel honored to have her for our friend.—Reporter.

J. S. Woods Family Have Reunion Feb. 19 at Wilmington, Cal.

The following newspaper account of the family reunion and celebration of her grandfather, J. S. Woods, was sent to the News by Mrs. James R. Moody. It follows:

At a joyous family reunion yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woods, formerly of Pomona, were hosts to a number of relatives and friends who gathered at their present home, Keepsake Cottage, Cliff Drive, Laguna, to celebrate Mr. Woods' seventy-fifth birthday anniversary, and those of five other members of the "clan." The birthday dinner was served in the pergola. The table and place cards were decorated with sweet peas, violets and hyacinths. The flowers were also used for the centerpiece around a large birthday cake for Mr. Woods. Candles of pink, lavender and white decorated the lower layer, and smaller birthday candles were placed on the upper part. The cake was made for the occasion by Mr. Woods' daughters.

Five smaller cakes bearing the names and birth dates of those having birthdays in January and February were also placed on the table. They were similarly decorated in the three colors, and honored: John D. Woods, Edward L. Woods, Seth A. Woods, sons of the host and hostess, and Clyde D. Woods and James R. Moody, their grandsons.

During the afternoon, special panorama pictures of the 28 members of the family were made by a photographer, who also took pictures of the decorated table, and the beach home. A special picture was made of Mrs. Woods, together with her daughter, Mrs. Arrie Bell of Pomona; her granddaughter, Mrs. James Moody, of Wilmington, and her great-granddaughter, little Miss Jimmie Ree Moody, who represent four generations.

On February 3, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, the host and hostess yesterday, celebrated their fifty-second wedding anniversary at a similar reunion attended by all members of the family who were in California at that time. The event was doubly significant as it was also the second wedding anniversary of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Duvall, 606 North Park Ave., Pomona. Mr. and Mrs. Duvall were married on the golden anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Woods' marriage.

Having motored from Texas, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Woods and sons, Clyde D., and James Bell Woods, of Dalhart, and Seth A. Woods, of Truscott, arrived here last week for a visit with members of the family, and to attend the reunion yesterday. John D. Woods and Seth A. Woods, sons of the host and hostess, will return to Texas at the beginning of March. Mrs. John D. Woods and her sons plan to remain in California for a longer visit. The Texas visitors did not arrive in time for the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Woods' wedding anniversary, and were unable to be present at a reunion held on Christmas day at which Mr. and Mrs. Woods were hosts at Laguna Beach. Members of the family present at the delightful reunion yesterday have all lived at Pomona at some time. Included on the list are: the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Oates and son, J. W., of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Woods and sons, Clyde D. and James, of Dalhart, Texas; Mrs. Arrie Bell, Pomona; her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Moody, and children, Jimmy Ree and John Edward, of Wilmington; Mrs. Etta Finn and daughter, Lorana May, of Los Angeles; Dr. Willie May Woods, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Duvall, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Metier, all of Pomona; Mr. and Mrs. Herriek Edward Roche of Laguna Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Woods of Pomona; Seth Woods of Truscott, Texas, and Don Woods of Pomona. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Woods who were present yesterday included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olsen and daughter, Eleanor, of Ontario; Mrs. Kate Francisco, and her nephew and grandniece of Los Angeles.

An electric interurban railway has been proposed for operation between Wheeler, Shamrock, Wellington and Childress.

Baby Chick Troubles

(By F. W. Kazmeier, Bryan, Texas)

No doubt, everybody raising chicks, sooner or later will get into some kind of a trouble with them. Raising chicks is just like everything else, and that is you get the sweet as well as the sour.

We have found it much easier, however, to keep chicks healthy, than to try to cure them after they have become diseased. Your success in raising chicks depends upon your ability to keep them healthy, rather than doctoring the sick ones.

Coccidiosis

We will start with this, because it will soon again be more or less common all over the country. It attacks birds between 2 and 10 weeks of age. A high death rate accompanied by bloody droppings. Birds drink much and appear sleepy. In making a post-mortem, examine the intestines, especially the caecum or appendix, sometimes also known as blind pouches. These will be found enlarged or swollen and filled with a bloody material. In this connection it might be interesting to note, that coccidiosis does not attack chicks the first two weeks, or at least it does not kill any at that age. The life cycle of the coccidiosis germ is such that it does not cause much trouble until after the chicks are two weeks old. There are no drugs or medicine, as far as we know that will cure this disease. Good advice is to kill all very sick or badly affected chicks.

Cleanliness

One factor, cleanliness, will do more to prevent and control this disease, than all the remedies we know of. Real cleanliness, means regular and thorough cleaning. During the coccidiosis period clean the brooder house early every morning, thoroughly, disinfect and cover floor with clean fresh litter. Cleaning twice a day will help to further control this trouble. Placing chicks in a house or brooder with wire screen floors so they cannot possibly get to or eat each others droppings, will do most to prevent the spread of this disease.

Move to Fresh Ground

In the first place, do not try to raise chicks on the same ground your old hens range over, or upon ground that you raised chicks last year. Clean ground is very important. If your chicks contract this disease, if possible, at once make arrangements to move them onto clean ground. If they are in a portable house, move chicks and brooder to new, clean ground. Watch drinking dishes, the damp litter around these is an ideal place for the coccidiosis germ to develop and spread. Clean and scald all feeding and drinking dishes daily.

Feed

Use a good commercial baby chick starter, and add 30 lbs. of dry buttermilk or dry skim milk to 70 lbs., making a total of 100 lbs. Mix thoroughly and keep before them dry in troughs or feed boxes. Provide plenty of feed troughs so they won't have to crowd to get all they want. Do not feed any scratch grains. Give milk to drink only, if possible, if not then provide water. Keep floor clean and dry.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Foard County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to cause to be published once each week for a period of ten days before the return day hereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year in said Foard County, a copy of the following notice:

Thompson, deceased, Mrs. Serena Thompson has filed in the County Court of Foard County, an application for the Probate of the last Will and Testament of said E. L. Herein fail not, but have you before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

HOT WEATHER LUNCHES

SO MANY people labor under the impression that if food is cold and refreshing it is also good food for anyone. The fat person who sits down to a luncheon of sliced cold ham with plenty of the fat, a potato salad with a mayonnaise dressing and tops it off with a soda or sundae with rich ice cream probably thinks he has had a cooling luncheon. The fact is he has stored up a lot of heat units which he would better have done without. Ice creams, rich salads, iced tea or coffee creamed and sweetened are all full of calories which will make them feel stuffy and will add to their already too fat condition. Many foods low in temperature are high in food value.

For a good salad with little food value and much refreshment use fruits, crisp lettuce and drinks of orange or lemonade. Nothing surpasses a good old fashioned lemonade as a thirst quencher; it adds no calories to speak of to your food intake and the effect is decidedly refreshing and healthful.

All vegetables should be used freely except potatoes; these of course will be served once a day at the dinner meal. Lean meats, clear soups, fresh fruits without sugar or cream for those who need to cut down the calories, with gluten and whole wheat bread are the best foods for the summer.

Cottage Cheese Salad.

Mix two cupfuls of cottage cheese with one-half cupful of shredded almonds that have been blanched, one teaspoonful of chives (chopped), or new onions finely shredded; season with salt and paprika and mix with cream. Serve on crisp lettuce with a boiled dressing.

Frozen Custard.

To one quart of milk add three slightly beaten eggs, one cupful of sugar, the juice and rind of an orange and a little salt. Cook the rind of the lemon in the custard until smooth, then add the juice and freeze. When partly frozen add one-fourth pound each of chopped walnut meats and steamed chopped figs. Finish freezing and let stand a few hours to ripen.

Humorous Talk Went Unheeded After That

A good Bret Harte story is told by William H. Crane, the veteran actor, in "Footprints and Echoes." Bret Harte was engaged to deliver a humorous lecture in a small western city. Just after he had started, one of the deacons sitting on the stage grabbed hold of his coat and whispered:

"Hold on a minute, I want to make an announcement."

Harte was very much astonished and stepped aside, while the deacon took the center of the platform.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he said, after a pause, "is Mr. Rogers C. Jones in the hall?"

There was a protracted pause and, as Mr. Jones failed to respond, the deacon continued:

"Well, if he is, I have the pleasure to say that his wife has just died."

As everyone in the small city was intimately acquainted with Mrs. Jones, Harte's task, giving a humorous lecture, was far from successful.

Maybe you have a High Compression Motor—RIGHT NOW

THERE are two kinds of high-compression motors. In one the compression ratio has been raised purposefully by the car manufacturer to produce more power; the other is a high-compression condition caused by the natural formation of carbon in the combustion chamber. This condition exists, to some extent, in every motor.

But in either case there is one best fuel to release the full power caused by high compression. That fuel is Winter Conoco Ethyl Gasoline, the super-gasoline that knocks out the "knock," turns carbon into power and assures a smooth-running motor at any speed and under practically all operating conditions. It gives the extra pull you need for snow and slush and muddy roads. It is the last word in motor fuels.

Drive up to a Conoco Ethyl pump—and convince yourself.

Party of Government engineers inspecting Boulder Canyon dam site on the Colorado River where it is proposed to erect the world's largest flood control dam. The project is unique in that it is to be financed entirely from the water and hydro-electric power it will make available.

With the Colorado River threatening to break over its banks and permanently destroy a dozen towns, the homes of a hundred thousand people and a million acres of fertile farm land in Arizona and Southern California, the Department of the Interior is preparing to push forward the construction of Boulder Canyon flood control dam in accordance with the adoption of legislation now pending in both houses of Congress.

Boulder Canyon is situated 125 miles below the Grand Canyon and is in that section of the river that forms the boundary line between Arizona and Nevada. According to plans already prepared by Department of the Interior engineers, Boulder Dam will be 550 feet high and will create a reservoir 80 miles long and 30 miles wide, capable of holding 26,000,000 acre feet of water. It will be the world's largest dam and will be twice as high as the largest dam now in existence.

Acting on the recommendation of Dr. Hubert Work, Secretary of the Interior, authors of pending Boulder Dam legislation have written into the bill a provision which specifies that the government is not to expend a single dollar on the project until the Interior Department has received from private and public agencies in the Southwest sufficient contracts for the sale of water and hydro-electric power rights to guarantee the return of all money expended on the dam plus interest.

Construction of Boulder Dam will provide a site for the development of a million horsepower of hydro-electric energy, according to government engineers.

Legislation providing for Boulder Dam has been favorably passed upon by the house committee on reclamation and is scheduled to come on the floor of the House for action the latter part of March, it has been announced by Congressman Addison T. Smith, chairman of the committee.

Pretty Soft

"Explorers have found a tribe of half civilized natives in the wilds of the Asiatic Caucasian mountains called 'maiden people' by neighboring tribes because they are ruled by women," reports Copper's Weekly. "The women of the tribe appear to have carried feminism beyond the dreams of civilized modern women, but not to the disadvantage of the men for the women do all the work of the men and the woman who provides the most luxuries for her husband and sons is most respected. All the men have to do is eat the food set before them, sleep, fish and smoke stone-bowled pipes which their women fill and light for them."

Communion With the Great

Imagine that we had it in our power to call up the shades of the greatest and wisest men that ever existed and oblige them to converse with us on the most interesting topics—what an inestimable privilege should we think it!—how superior to all common enjoyments! But in a well-furnished library we in fact possess this power. We can question Xenophon and Caesar on their campaigns, make Demosthenes and Cicero plead before us, join in the audiences of Socrates and Plato, and receive demonstrations from Euclid and Newton. In books we have the choicest thoughts of the ablest men in their best dress.—Alkin.

T. E. L. CLASS

The T. E. L. Class of First Baptist church met Thursday, March 8th, in the class room in regular business meeting. The devotional was led by Mrs. George Hinds. The reports from the different officers were given. The superintendent of cradle roll department, Mrs. Tanner Billington, asked all mothers to enroll their babies up to four years old in this department. There were five promotion certificates given out and four were babies enrolled for last month. After the business hour we had an interesting contest. The hostesses, Mrs. Dunagan and Mrs. Billington, served a tempting plate. Our class aim for 1928 is to train our children right, to extend our help and hospitality, to keep in touch with all the married ladies of the church and learn to do the work of the church.—Reporter.

Miller Answers Charges Made Against Him

OPEN LETTER

Crowell, Texas, Mar. 15, 1928. Rev. J. E. Smith, Margaret, Texas. My Dear Brother Smith:

After mature consideration of suggestion that I have printed in the Foard County News my answer to your charge that I was a drunkard and as such would be friendly to the whiskey crowd, and after being urged by you on two different occasions to make a public reply to your charge, I now comply with your request. Before answering your charge, I would like to ask you the following questions, just to keep the record straight.

First, did I not come direct to you after Bro. Mayfield told me that you gave him the information that I was a drunkard, and when I asked you if this was true that you replied that it was, and when I asked you when and where you had ever seen me under the influence of liquor, you replied that you were going on information furnished by a man from Crowell, and that you did not know his name, but that you would secure the same for me right away? Did I not come to you three times seeking this boy's name as it developed that he was a minor, and was it not nearly three weeks before you did give me his name?

Second, did you not keep making the remarks about me being a drunkard, saying that you had given me the name of the party that told you so and that I was making no effort to clear the matter up, and that you were going to keep on until I made a public answer to your charge? This, without giving me as much time to get in touch with the boy that told you about me, as I allowed you to secure his name for me.

Third, did I not bring this boy to you at your home, and did he not in the presence of reliable men make the statement that he hardly knew you, that the remark that you were going by was only made to hear his head rattle, that he did not think what he was saying, that he had no grounds to make such a remark and that he was sorry that he had done so?

My answer to the charge of being a drunkard, now or at any time during my life, is that it is an untruth, and has no right to be said by ANY-ONE, and I now make this offer, that if you or any other person that is interested in me will find a person of reliable character (and I will let you and two other ministers whom you may select decide whether or not the person is reliable or not), who will say that they have ever seen me under the influence of liquor that I will withdraw from the Sheriff's race. I make the above offer in good faith, as all my life I have been a prohibitionist, both in faith and practice, and realize that it is the main issue of our country today, and that candidates must take a stand for or against this menace to our Government.

I hope this letter answers your questions and if there is any further statement about anything that you desire, I will gladly furnish the same. Respectfully, QUE R. MILLER.

Adelphian Club

Mrs. W. B. Johnson was hostess to the Adelphian Club on Wednesday, March 7th.

After a short business session, Miss Inez Sloan led an interesting program on "Indian Music."

Talks were made and papers were read by members of the club on the Religion of the American Indian, the Evolution of Indian Music, Indian Songs, Rhythm in Indian Music and the Use of Music in the Treatment of Disease. A sketch of the life of Cadman, a noted American composer who has collected and used Indian melodies, was given.

A number of records were played among which were, "From An Indian Lodge," and "Indian Love Song" by MacDowell.

Misses Inez and Evelyn Sloan played as a piano duet, "Indian Scalp Dance" by Lieurance.

Miss Carrie Maurice Allee sang "From the Land of the Sky-blue Water" by Cadman.

"By the Waters of Minnetonka" was presented as a trio by Misses Allee, Sloan and Woods.

After the program, the hostess served a refreshment course to a large number of club members and the following guests: Mrs. W. R. McCarter, Mrs. J. R. Allee, Misses Carrie Maurice Allee and Evelyn Sloan.—Reporter.

A reservoir dam broke in California the other day, releasing twelve billion gallons of water, that swept millions of property and hundreds of lives away. Possibly the only charge to be made is that of neglect somewhere, but that is bad enough.

Published in the interest of the people of Crowell and vicinity by the Cicero Smith Lumber Co. R. J. ROBERTS, Manager.

Home ownership is easier today than it ever was before. Usually it is possible to pay most of the cost of building a new home in small amounts by the month like rent. We will be glad to assist you in plans for financing yours.

Mrs. E. D. Shaw is building a new home at Thalia. Will L. Johnson has the carpenter work in charge on the Shaw home.

Women may be as able as men at automobile driving, but we as a pedestrian always jump faster and farther when we find ourselves in the path of a woman-driven car.

The secret of excess—Prohibition.

Tom Bursay is finishing a new and modern home on his farm six miles north of town. Tom says he sure likes the way our flooring lays and looks.

The man who says "I run things at my home" usually refers to the lawn mower, washing machine, vacuum cleaner and the arrands.

Officer, Bob Thomas: (to couple in parked car): "Don't you see that sign—'Fine for Parking'?" Driver: "Yes, officer, I see it, and I heartily agree with it."

It strikes us that Foard County is a mighty good place to live. What do you think about it?

The somewhat cynical young man was gazing at an exhibition of local art labeled "Art Objects." "Well," he remarked to the attendant, "I can't say I blame Art for objecting."

BELL GRAIN CO.

Good Food

Is the strongest enemy of disease because it fortifies the body against the attacks of germs. Only pure food is good food. That which is not pure is worse than no food.

Here you get quality—not just by itself—but combined with such moderate and reasonable prices as to convince you of the wonderful buying power of your money.

Then, thrown in for good measure, is our excellent service which we like to render.

HUGHSTON GROCERY COMPANY

NOTICE To The PUBLIC

We have added a complete line of Groceries to our store and it is our intention to give to the trade the best values possible in quality merchandise.

We do not intend to add a delivery service because this is one of the largest overhead expenses connected with a Grocery Store, and we will show you by our prices that we are passing this important saving on to the buying public.

From time to time, we will give bargains on special articles, selecting the items that we think should be sold due to their being offered to us at Bargain Prices, and this week we are centering on Pork products, because there is an overproduction of Pork, while we have had to raise the price of Beef to the place where it is very near to high to eat.

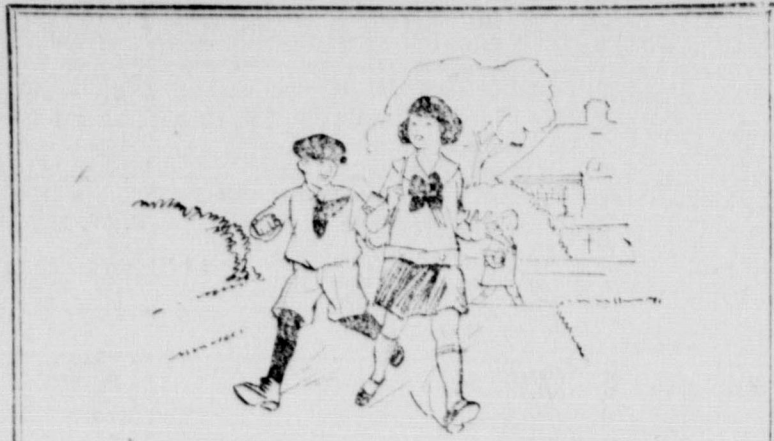

Just as an example of our prices, we are listing for our Saturday sales:

The best grade skinned hams, half, whole or sliced, for 25c per pound, best grade breakfast bacon, sliced or whole, 32c per pound, fresh pork and all other pork products in line with these items.

We have a two thousand dollar refrigeration plant to take care of our fresh merchandise, and we invite you to come in and inspect our line.

Commencing with next week we will pay you the highest prices for your eggs.

When the Children Come Trudging In..

Is there something about the looks of their shoes that remind you that cheap materials can be made to look nice when a shoe is new, but that it soon goes to pieces on the romping feet of an active boy or girl?

Or are your children wearing our Poll Parrot shoes, the kind that keep their shape and give such excellent service because they're made up to that high standard of solid leather value? That's the kind of materials the makers of "Star Brands" put in their shoes.

Poll-Parrots stay with busy feet. Let us fit them.
