Indian Family's Race With Death Ends Near Crowell

A race from Albuquerque, N. M., to Duncan, Okla., between an Indian family and "death," came to an end in Foard County on Highway 28 west of Crowell Tuesday night with death as the victor.

William, who would have become 11 years of age on Oct. 29, died in the arms of his mother, Mrs. Agnes Bond, of Duncan, as he was being rushed to Crowell for medical aid.

A few months ago the thin little Indian was taken to New Mexico in an effort to cure him of tuberculosis, the disease which had previously taken his father and a brother. Several days ago the brave Indian mother was told that there was no chance for her son to live.

Mrs. Bond then started an auto trip to Duncan and home with her four children, hoping to reach there before death removed William, the eldest child, from the group. The other children, two girls and a boy, ranged in age from 3 to 9.

The mother had received some assistance from transients in driving her car from Albuquerque. A truck driver who was headed west delayed his trip in driving the car to Crowell from a point about 12 miles west of here.

It was planned to take the body to Duncan this morning. Funeral services are to be held there.

BURKBURNETT BEATEN 20 TO 7 BY WILDCATS

Crowell won its first conference game of the season last Thursday night, defeating the Burk Burnett Bulldogs 20 to 7 before about one thousand people at the local stadium.

Sam Crews led a drive in the first quarter that netted the initial touchdown. Mark Saunders going over on an end-around play from the 2-yard line just after Crews had circled left end for 16 yards to put the ball in scoring position.

Neither team scored in the second quarter, however. Crowell kept the ball in Bulldog territory throughout this period.

Paul McKown, who did not play during the first two quarters, entered the game at the opening of the second half and scored two touchdowns, one on a 59-yard run in the third quarter and the other on a sprint of 26 yards in the final period.

Crowell's final touchdown came just after Burk had scored its lone counter, near the end of the third quarter. Burk recovered a punt fumbled by Paul McKown on his 24-yard line. A line play netted a yard and then Clifton tossed a beautiful pass to Majors who raced the remaining 10 yards to the goal line.

Another Burk threat was stopped at Crowell's 3-yard line on fourth down when Albert Dunagan dropped Tollie McKown for a 3-yard loss.

Wayne Rose, Bulldog end, featured on both the offense and defense throughout the game. McKown and Clifton were principal ground gainers for the visitors and were on the tossing end of several fine passes.

Marked improvement was shown in the work of Sam Crews and Frank Meason, both of whom were effective ground gainers and blockers, in addition to playing splendid defensive ball. The all-around work of the Wildcat ends, Dunagan and Cogdell, aided the Wildcat cause to a great extent.

PEASE RIVER FLOOD CONTROL DIST. AUTHORIZED BY ACTION OF LEGISLATURE THIS WEEK

A bill authorizing the creation of the "Pease River Flood Control District" passed at the special session of the Legislature and will be signed by Governor Allred, according to information received by The News in a telegram yesterday from George Muffett of Chillicothe, representative from this district.

While this is just a preliminary step toward actual realization of a dam over one mile in length on Pease River at a point about nine miles northwest of Crowell, yet it is absolutely necessary if the project is to be secured through present plans.

An official district will now be ready to secure funds from the Works Progress Administration to build the proposed dam in case the W. P. A. takes favorable action on the project. Without the legislative action, there would be no official source to apply for or receive funds on a district-wide basis, since several counties in this area are co-operating in the movement to secure the dam.

May Finish Bridge Over Pease River In 6 or 8 Weeks

Work on the Pease River bridge between Crowell and Quannah on Highway 16 has proceeded at a rapid rate since the completion of all piling work over a week ago and with favorable weather conditions, prospects are favorable for completion of the bridge within six or eight weeks.

Concrete floor has already been poured for thirty-eight of the fifty-one bents. All but seven of the bents have been connected with the heavy steel I-beams and workmen are now preparing the concrete caps of the seven bents to receive the remaining steel.

Construction of the bridge railing is scheduled to start within a few days. The rail on each side of the bridge will consist of concrete posts which will be connected with 12-inch galvanized iron.

When completed the bridge and approaches will have a total length of over three-fourths of a mile and will provide a 22-foot clear roadway, six feet wider than the old bridge.

TRAFFIC AGAIN MOVES OVER OKLAUNION BRIDGE

F. Meason kicked off to Majors, who took the ball on his 25 and lateraled to T. McKown, who carried to his 34. Clifton lost 6 at his left end as the quarter ended. Crowell 6, Burk 0.

After a 3-yard gain, Clifton quick kicked out on his own 35. Crews made 2 and then 4, but Crowell penalized 5. Crews' pass failed. Another pass by Crews was intercepted by Teal, who returned from his 20 to the 25. A pass failed. McKown failed to gain.

ETHIOPIAN SITUATION DISCUSSED AT LUNCHEON

An interesting discussion of Ethiopia and the war situation that has developed in that country was given in a talk by W. F. Kirkpatrick at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Wednesday, Oct. 16.

Mr. Kirkpatrick was in charge of the program. R. R. Gilliland and C. J. Stebbins, Quannah Rotarians, were visitors.

In his talk Mr. Kirkpatrick mentioned that Ethiopia was probably the oldest country in the world. He compared its size with that of Italy, stating that the African country had 350,000 square miles and 10,000,000 population, while Italy had only 120,000 square miles and 42,000,000 population. Two million people in Ethiopia are said to be slaves.

"It is a case of expand or explode with Italy," Mr. Kirkpatrick stated. In reviewing Ethiopia, he stated that it had an area equal to that of Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana combined and was extremely rich in mineral resources, which were practically intact. Its value as a cattle producing country was also mentioned. The speaker reviewed problems confronting the Italian army in Ethiopia and efforts of the League of Nations to preserve peace.

MAY FEED CATTLE COTTONSEED MEAL INDEFINITELY IF VITAMIN A SUPPLIED EXPERIMENTS SHOW

(By A. D. Jackson, Chief Division of Publications.)

The necessity for vitamin A in the rations for fattening beef cattle has just been emphatically demonstrated in a test at Spur in which Hereford steer calves weighing 450 pounds each were placed on feed in dry lot in December.
A ration of cottonseed meal, ground white kafir grain and cottonseed hulls which are known to be very low in vitamin A was compared with the same ration except that alfalfa hay was added to supply the vitamin A. The steers on the low vitamin ration made rapid and uniform gains for a time and at the end of 112 days were as good as those receiving the vitamin A ration; but after 116 days the vitamin deficiency began to assert itself.
One steer got sick and others followed at intervals until after 181 days all of the 10 steers on the low vitamin ration had become sick with the condition known as "mealiness" which is characterized by night blindness, watering at the eyes, nose, labored breathing, slobbering, staggering and wobbly gait, and on occasion the animal will fall. The sick steers were quickly cured by feeding cod-liver oil or small amounts of alfalfa excepting that one steer was purposely not treated at all and died after 180 days.
The cured steers, some of which were placed on vitamin A ration, have gained as much as those originally on the vitamin ration but, of course, did not regain the losses incurred during the period of vitamin starvation and they are in good condition after being fed in dry lot 290 days.
These results indicate that beef animals may be fed indefinitely on cottonseed meal together with gain and sufficient roughage if vitamin A is supplied. It was formerly thought beef cattle could be fed for only about 100 days on cottonseed meal and hulls as they usually showed "mealiness" very soon after 100 days of such feeding. Thought had not been given to the possible need for vitamin A to the experienced feeders had found that the feeding could be prolonged by grazing on alfalfa or feeding alfalfa hay. More recently vitamin A was found helpful and even necessary to the health of the animals and it was found that alfalfa supplied vitamin A.
It has also been found that animals on green grazing not only secure their daily needs, but store up reserves of vitamin A that will last about 100 days under feed lot conditions. These 450-pound steers went into the feed lot with enough vitamin A reserve to last 116 days, and the vitamin A carried by as little as one pound of bright alfalfa hay per day restored them after "mealiness" developed and sustained them for the remainder of the feeding period. Five of these animals will be continued on the ration with the one pound alfalfa added and it is thought they may continue to thrive until they can be used as an interesting exhibit at the Centennial next year.

After the animals had become sick from vitamin A deficiency various means were used in restoring their health, including cod-liver oil in doses varying from 10 to 25 and even 50 cc, each amount being found effective. One-half pound alfalfa dry or green or one pound alfalfa dry proved effective in curing the steers of "mealiness." It was thus shown that very small amounts of vitamin A, fed regularly will prevent "mealiness." Future experiments may show the best amounts to use in economical fattening. So far there seems no danger of the animal receiving too much vitamin A and it is known that when amounts in excess of the daily needs are received, the animal is able to store the surplus as a reserve.
These experiments have further shown that when the animals become affected with "mealiness" they cease to make gains until they are cured and while they seem to gain as well as the others after being cured, they nevertheless do not recoup the losses sustained while sick. Successful feeding therefore involves the necessity for regular supplies of vitamin A in the form of green grazing or alfalfa or other rich source of vitamin A.
The identification of vitamin A deficiency as the cause of the sickness that develops after about 100 days among cattle on a restricted ration of meal and hulls fed in a dry lot offers a possible explanation of similar troubles with range cattle during protracted droughts when no green grazing is available for long periods. Such diseases among range cattle may be due to vitamin deficiency. It may also explain why range with a good browse of oak or other growth supplying green leaves seems to carry the cattle in better condition than open dry range. The green leaves of whatever sort supply some vitamin A at a time when the bodily stores of the vitamin are becoming exhausted and the deficiency would become acute.
It has previously been stated that animals in production, as for example, cows giving milk or hens laying eggs, need more vitamin A than they do at times when only their bodily needs are to be met. It has also been found in the case of the gestating mother animal that larger supplies of vitamin A are necessary to preserve the health of the mother and assure development of the embryo. In fact, it has been shown that if the deficiency is marked the eyes and certain other organs of the embryo will not develop. I will report next week on experiments in which entire litters of blind pigs have been produced at will by simply depleting the mother of vitamin A for a definite period, before and during gestation.

Rubinoff Featured on Chevrolet Radio Program This Season

A new all-star Chevrolet program featuring Rubinoff and his violin with his 30-piece orchestra, Virginia Rae, popular soprano, Jan Peerce, tenor, and Graham McNamee will be heard over an NBC-WEAF network beginning Saturday, Oct. 19.
The new weekly series will be heard each Saturday night at 8:00 o'clock, C. S. T.
While Rubinoff has been one of radio's most popular instrumentalists on the air and the screen and in theaters for the last five years, this will be the first time that he has been starred in his own right. One of the best known figures of the entertainment world, he has appeared in practically every theatre in the country in person as well as on the screen. In addition to numerous short subjects, he has just finished a featured role in "Thanks a Million" now in the process of release.
Virginia Rae and Jan Peerce will co-star as the featured singers of the new program. Miss Rae is one of the most popular sopranos of the air whose following has been constant since the early days of radio. Jan Peerce, sensational Pacific Coast tenor, who was brought to New York this year as an NBC star, has a national following.
McNamee, whose name is synonymous with radio, is not only one of the most colorful figures and

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold
Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.
How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs are one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both which are needed in the treatment of colds.
Calotabs are quite economical—only

Cigarettes give a lot of pleasure to a lot of people.
More cigarettes are smoked today because more people know about them—they are better advertised.

KGKO REMOVAL

We believe most of those owning radio sets in Crowell and Foard County are heartily in accord with the efforts of the Wichita Chamber of Commerce to prevent the removal of Radio Station KGKO from Wichita Falls to Fort Worth.

The Federal Communications Commission recently approved the removal, however, the law prescribes that any interested party may, within twenty days from the date of approval, file a protest against such action.

The sale of the station to Amos G. Carter of Fort Worth has not been protested by the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce and other organizations of this area, however, the removal of this station has been vigorously protested.

The law governing the allocation of radio stations states that they are located on the basis of public convenience, interest and necessity.

KGKO is the only station that we may refer to as a "home" station. Besides many programs of particular interest to this section, we have enjoyed listening to the broadcasts of Crowell High's bi-district and regional football games during the past two years; programs rendered by the local Parent-Teacher association and others of Foard County origin.

In various ways, Crowell and Foard County, have co-operated with Wichita Falls and KGKO in requests for additional power. We felt a considerable degree of local pride when this power was granted.

when KGKO was hooked up with the Columbia Broadcasting System, and the general improvement of facilities which gave Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma the type of "local" station of which the entire area is deserving.

We realize that Wichita Falls will no doubt secure another radio station if KGKO is removed. In fact, an application for a station of small power has already been made. Unless something is done to change the situation as it now stands, this area is headed for a big step backward so far as radio facilities are concerned.

SUBSCRIPTION TIME

The Foard County News is hoping to have one of the greatest subscription campaigns this fall that it has ever enjoyed during its forty-four years of operation in Foard County. During this long period the paper has had its ups and downs, prosperous years as well as lean years, however, somehow it has always pulled through and is now the oldest business institution in the county.

For the past several years the going has been tough for all of us, but with a fair cotton crop now being harvested which is selling at a reasonable price, prospects for more money to be in circulation and better times for all the people, are much improved over the previous four or five years.

The experience of this newspaper for this period has been no different from the average business firm or farmer—it has been tough, but we have used every effort and resource at our command to constantly improve the paper, giving careful thought to each feature added and at the same time increasing the size to seven columns to the page instead of six. We have made improvements that apparently were not justified from a financial standpoint, however, they were made to better serve the people of this county with a good weekly newspaper.

MEETING AN EMERGENCY

Despite the only serious breakdown at the Lake Pauline plant of the West Texas Utilities Co. since its erection about 7 years ago, electric service in this area went on "as usual" and had it not been for reading about the accident in the Quannah Tribune-Chief, the mishap would probably have escaped our attention.

Although the plant was shut down 24 hours, the load which it ordinarily carries was taken up by plants at San Angelo, Abilene and other diesel plants over the section served by the company. So far as customers were concerned, they were aware of no trouble other than a flickering of lights for a moment early Sunday morning, Oct. 6.

The shut-down resulted when the head plate on a giant condenser broke from constant stress. This plate was 13.5 feet in diameter, about two inches thick and weighed about seven tons. Six men were working around the condenser when the accident occurred, two of whom received minor injuries.

New equipment was rushed out of Dallas during the night and skilled W. T. U. workmen had it in place and the giant plant in operation again within 24 hours. The cost of the damage was about $7,500.

HASKELL'S NEW PAPER

The Haskell County Leader, a new weekly newspaper located at Haskell, made its first appearance October 10. The first edition contained eight pages, seven columns to the page, and was well filled with interesting local news and advertising.

William G. Forgy, former employe of the Haskell Free Press, and Clyde O. Miller of Stamford, are the editors and publishers of the Leader, newest member of the West Texas family of newspapers.

Ford V-8 Streamlining Steps Ahead

THE IMPROVED streamlining of the front end of the Ford V-8 for 1936 is well illustrated by this camera shot. Note the horn set into the fender apron behind a chromium grille and the way the graceful contour of the fender is carried to the edge of the new radiator grille. A glimpse of the new hood bezels is caught behind the headlamp. The V-8 insignia on the nose of the car is also visible.

New Ford V-8 Cars for 1936 to Go On Display Saturday

Ford V-8 cars for 1936 will be publicly shown for the first time Saturday, according to Geo. D. Self, local Ford dealer, who returned from Dallas yesterday when the new Fords were shown for the first time to dealers at group meetings throughout the United States and Canada.

Body lines which strike a new note in conservative streamlining, a new treatment of the interior and three important refinements in chassis engineering summarize the principal improvements. There are no radical changes. The 85-horsepower V-8 engine, of which more than 2,000,000 are now in operation, is unaltered.

Among the new features are improved steering; new steel wheels which lessen the unsprung weight; and an improved transmission using quiet helical gears in all forward speeds and reverse.

Mrs. A. Y. Beverly, Mrs. W. C. McKown and Miss Minnie Ringgold spent Thursday in Wichita Falls visiting Mrs. L. A. Beverly.

PERSONALS
Those who attended the Quannah-Plainview football game last by their presence last Sunday that they were interested in continuing the Sunday school, so there will be Sunday school next Sunday. We extend an urgent invitation to everyone who does not attend Sunday service elsewhere, Sunday School Committee.

Christian Science Services
"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Oct. 20.

The Golden Text is: "We are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God" (II Corinthians 5:20.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised" (Luke 4:18.) The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus taught the way of Life by demonstration, that we may understand how this divine Principle heals the sick, casts out error, and triumphs over death" (page 25.)

Friday night were Sam Crews, Mark Saunders, Bill Dunn, Bob Moyer, Fred Mabe, and Frank Meason. The group met R. B. Underwood, a former superintendent of C. H. S.

Theresa Gamble was a visitor in Lubbock Saturday.

Mary Lou Fudge attended a show in Wichita Falls Saturday night.

Raymond Horn was absent from school last week on account of blood poisoning caused by an infection from a boil.

John Cogdell is also absent from school on account of an attack of appendicitis.

Raymond Bell and Malcolm Reinhardt from Margaret have enrolled in C. H. S.

A number of C. H. S. students are in the play "Oh Professor," which is sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Norman Hunter is back in school after an absence of a week. He has been repairing his car.

Miss Vera Patton spent the week-end in Waxahachie, and Dallas. She was accompanied by friends from Plainview.

C. H. S. CUSTOM
In this seventh week of school we look about and try to define the routine and changes which the student body has undergone. We find that customs hold and the senior students "hang out" on the west steps as others have done in years gone by. They are losing that class division and becoming Wildcats in a true sense of friendliness—"All for one and one for all."

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB
The Home Economics Club met Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 9, in the high school auditorium. It was decided that the members pay five cents in order that the club may be affiliated. It was voted that the club should meet once every three weeks.

The next meeting will be held Monday evening, Oct. 21, at 7:30 in the auditorium. Mrs. J. R. Beverly will speak on "Manners and Foods" that she observed on her trip. Although the meetings are for Home Economics Club members, anyone who wishes to attend is invited.

ASSEMBLY
On Tuesday morning, Oct. 15, Miss Patton's home room, assisted by Merrill Allee, rendered a Columbus Day program in Assembly. Outstanding events of the fifteenth century such as the popularity of Queen Isabella, the plea of Columbus to the King and Queen of Spain, and the Red Man's interpretation of Columbus' story were portrayed.

FOOTBALL MANAGER
The Wildcats, like any other group of hard-to-handle fighters, decided to get a manager this season. For this task Gilbert Lankford was chosen. This is the first year that the Cats have had a high school manager, and Gilbert seems to be equal to that task. Gilbert has charge of the first-aid accessories, uniforms, balls, etc., and is pretty well occupied while with the team. Due to the fact that Gilbert is manager he has acquired that nickname and is known all over town as "Manager."

PEP SQUAD IS BUSY PRACTICING LETTERS
The pep squad is kept busy most of the time practicing and getting ready for another football game. The pep squad girls practice almost every afternoon after school.

During the period between halves of last Thursday's game with Burk Burnett, the girls, equally divided under the leadership of Peggy Cooper and Lois Norris, carried out a football formation. Peggy Cooper kicked the ball to Lois Norris, and both groups ran to the center of the field, giving a number of yells. After turning out the lights, the Burk Burnett pep squad marched to the center of the field. Using flashlights they formed a big "C" and also a large "B."

CHS EX
Jim Allee Hart, a graduate of this school and who is also a graduate of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, has been secured as the new Journalism teacher and instructor for English in Crane High School.

Hart received his B. A. degree in Journalism in the summer of 1934. He has been employed in the Texas Tech library for two years prior to his employment in Crane, Texas.

FOOTBALL HIGHLIGHTS
The Wildcats only broke even in their practice games, winning one, tying one and losing one, but they have started off the district games with a perfect score and we can't be satisfied with anything less. Did you notice the performance last week of the three teams with whom Crowell had had practice games? Quannah beat Plainview one touchdown, while Mastador was trouncing Silverton 67 to 6, and Paducah was running over Quaitake 73 to 0.

The Burk boys were mighty good for their size, and they should give some of the other district contenders plenty of trouble. Crowell, Olney, and Seymour are the only district 9 teams without conference loss and on November 22 we hope Crowell will be alone with that standing.

Oscar Nichols, John Cogdell, and Albert Dunagan looked like all-district material against Burk, while some of the other Wildcats were plenty good, for example, Frank Meason.

The "B" team boys were outweighed about 15 lbs. to the man last week against their class "A" opponents, but as that they were not disgraced. They get to play two games with Paducah before their season closes, and we shall see what they can do in their own class.

"Slim" Horn is being sorely missed on this squad not just because he is a good player, but also because of the moral inspiration that he gives to his teammates. Here's hoping he gets back in school in the near future.

Wardrobe Contest For 1935-36 Now Underway in Foard

During the wardrobe demonstration of 1934-35, one class I and three class II demonstrators enrolled and completed their work. These 13 demonstrators spent a total of $475.95 for their clothing, averaging $36.61 each. On an average they spent for outer clothing $15.60; underclothing $9.54; headwear $3.01; footwear $11.05; and accessories and cosmetics $3.41.

Seven closets were built and 8 remodeled. This was done at a total expense of $22.81 or an average of $1.75 each. There were a total of 381 garments and 32 foundation patterns made by the demonstrators.

The 1935-36 wardrobe demonstration contest started on September 1 with six of the class I demonstrators enrolled and a new one enrolled for each club. The new ones enrolled so far are Mrs. Dave Solis, Gambleville; Mrs. H. H. Beggs and Mrs. Arthur Sandlin, Vivian; Mrs. C. L. Adkins, West Rayland; Mrs. C. R. Bryson, West Side; Mrs. Fred Taweeck, Foard City; and Mrs. J. B. LaRue, Margaret. Their work as demonstrators will continue until August 1, 1936.

MARGARET 4-H GIRLS
The 4-H Club girls of Margaret met in the school auditorium Oct. 11 and elected the following officers: Marjorie Davidson, president; Eugene Marlow, vice president; Iva Mae Bradford, secretary; and Ruby Pauley, reporter. The next meeting will be Oct. 25. The place of the meeting has not been decided.

RIVERSIDE 4-H CLUB
The officers of the Riverside Girls 4-H Club were elected Oct. 8 as follows: Velma Sittou, president; Maurice Bagley, vice president; and Elizabeth Whitten, secretary. Doris Simmons was appointed reporter. After a short recreation period the members adjourned. The next meeting is on Oct. 22.

VIVIAN H. D. CLUB
The Vivian H. D. Club met at the home of Mrs. Jess Dishman Oct. 10, with 6 members and 4 visitors. Miss Holman gave a very interesting demonstration of appetizing foods from left-over dishes.

The club will meet with a covered dish dinner at the home of Mrs. B. W. Matheus on Thursday, Oct. 24. All members are urged to be present, as it is time for election of officers for the coming year.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB
The West Side H. D. Club met with Mrs. Curtis Ribble Wednesday. Miss Holman gave a demonstration on appetizing dishes made from left-overs.

A dish of stuffed sweet potatoes was made from five baked potatoes and a cup of chopped meat. The potatoes were cut in half and the inside scraped out, mixed with the meat and put back in skins then brushed with butter and browned. Scalloped sweet potatoes and bananas was an excellent dish; this was made by cutting the baked potatoes in slices and covering the bottom of a baking dish, sprinkling with butter, sugar, nutmeg and grated orange rind, adding a layer of bananas, repeating until desired amount; then plum juice was poured over this and dish placed in the oven to bake until slightly glazed.

To make a meat pie she made a sauce from three tablespoons of flour and one cup of milk, added chopped meat, put this in muffin pan which had been lined with biscuit dough and baked.

The club was glad to have Mrs. A. E. McLaughlin and Mrs. Walter Thompson as new members and Mrs. S. A. Carter of Mangum, Okla., and Mrs. J. F. Steele as guests. Next meeting Oct. 23 will be with Mrs. E. L. Ribble.

hook in the pocket of 'em, I'll bet a nickel!"

Marm Pierce looked at the sheriff almost apologetically, in a curious chagrin.

There was a reluctant honesty in her tones; she faced Bart again.

"But just the same," she insisted, "I don't swallow the whole of your tell!"

"I was figuring you'd ask that, by and by," he assented frankly.

"But when I was going through the shed, I happened to look out the window on the back side, and I see something move over in the alders."

"You never said nothing about that before!" Marm Pierce exclaimed.

"Soon as I come in, you jumped me right out into the barn again, went with me," he reminded her.

"And when we come back with the feathers, Huldy was dead, and Jenny said there was somebody in the Win-side house, so I knowed it was probably Win that I had seen."

The old woman considered this. "Maybe if Win was around here after Huldy died."

"Well, whoever it was," Bart said in a conciliating tone.

They were all silent then a while, considering this suggestion that there had been some man, who was not Win Haven, near the house when Huldy died.

"Like as not it was a cow you see," she decided, returning to the attack.

"But Sohler said in a baffled tone: 'Well ma'am, it looks to me like Carey here tells a pretty straight story, take it all the way through.'"

"Sheriff, what do you aim to do?" she demanded in irascible shrill tones.

do?" she demanded in irascible shrill tones. "You going to set there all night? This is your business, not mine. Stir your stumps, man!"

Sohler rose and turned to face Bart. "Bart," he said, "I don't mean to say you had anything to do with this. But what if you and Will was both to come along to town and talk it over with the county attorney there?"

His tone was as though he urged Bart to humor old Marm Pierce thus far, and Bart answered agreeably enough.

"Why, it's foolishness, Sheriff," he protested. "But if it'll favor you, I'll go. I'll have to stop by my place and pull down some hay and give the critters water. They ain't been fed tonight."

"Shore," the big man assented. "We can do that." He looked at Saladine, "Jim, say you drive me and Bart 'round there first?"

Saladine hesitated, since there seemed no better course, Huldy Perrin was dead, and doubtless murdered; but if Bart were guilty, then he was an incredibly shrewd and crafty man; and if he lied, then he was incredibly apt at mendacity.

But she said no new word while the sheriff buttoned his overcoat, and Bart put his slicker on.

The sheriff hesitated; but Jenny came to her grandmother's side, touched the old woman's arm. "It's all right, Granny," she said gently.

But Saladine suggested: "Sheriff, taking Will along is going to leave these two women alone here."

Sohler scratched his head. "That is so," he agreed; and he said reluctantly: "Well, Will, maybe you'd best stay here tonight, I'll be out again in the morning."

Will assented. Bart said in dry ill humor: "Looks like the pack of you was bound to lay this on me. Why sh'd I go, any more than Will? Huldy blamed it on him. Sheriff, you can't get around her own say-so, it looks to me."

The sheriff was uncomfortable; but after a moment Bart in a returning good humor yielded the point. "I can stand it, though," he said.

So it was decided. It did not occur to Saladine till somewhat later that a remembered fear of Zeke on his own account might have prompted Bart to this easy—and surprising—surrender.

Bart and the sheriff stepped outside; and Saladine, after a word of farewell, followed them to his car. They had taken the rear seat.

He cranked the engine, and climbed in and turned on the headlights. The kitchen door was open yonder, and Will and Jenny stood in silhouette against the light, their shoulders touching.

Saladine backed the car, preparing to turn; but in that last moment, old Marm Pierce came bursting through the door, brush-ing Will and Jenny out of her way, holding up both hands, calling something. Saladine waited, and she ran across the yard and drew close beside the car and shouted over the engine's roar:

"Sheriff! I've got a hold of the answer to it now!" Her tone was ringing; her countenance triumphant.

"Sheriff! I've got a hold of the answer to it now!" Her tone was ringing; her countenance triumphant.

"Listen here!" she cried. "If Bart had left his gun belt, with the bait can and the gun, there on the ground in all that rain while he fetched Huldy over here, the belt'd be soaked through and wet as a string; and there'd be rust on that gun! But there ain't a speck of rust, and his belt is dry as a bone!"

Saladine had not noticed whether Bart's gun were rusted or not; yet he perceived the justice of this argument, and turned to hear what the sheriff would say. But Bart laughed, and he protested:

"Maybe that belt looked dry to you, Granny, but it's wet enough! I can feel it right through my overalls. And the holster kep' the gun dry." He told Sohler: "I'll show you, when we get over to my place, Sheriff. You can see for yourself!"

Sohler accepted this. "All right, ma'am," he shouted to the old woman, over the engine's roar. "I'll look at it, sure!"

And Marm Pierce, after a moment's hesitation, drew back almost reluctantly. She stood there, small and straight in the darkness, as they drove away.

By mistake Moe Mamek broke into jail at London, O., and explained to Sheriff Gorman F. Clark that he was hungry and thought the fence surrounded a canning factory.

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about GENUINE BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.

DR. MILES ANTI-PAIN PILLS have been used for the relief of pain for more than forty years. They taste good, act quickly, do not upset the stomach, nor cause constipation, leave no dull, depressed feeling.

Thousands have used them for twenty, thirty, forty years, and still find that nothing else relieves pain so promptly and effectively.

Why don't you try them? Once you know how pleasant they are to take, how quickly and effectively they relieve, you won't want to go back to disagreeable, slow acting medicines.

You too may find quick relief. Why wait forty minutes for relief when Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills will relieve you in ten to twenty minutes?

As a household remedy I have never found anything that equalled Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. Mrs. Silas D. Keller, Penfield, Pa. I never found anything that was so good to stop pain as Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. I have told many about them and I find they are all using them.

Daughters Honor Mrs. Thomson at Hines Clark Home

Mrs. Hines Clark was hostess at a lovely party at her home on Friday afternoon, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Bettie Thomson, on her 84th birthday. She was assisted by her sisters, Mrs. H. W. Norwood of Vernon, Mrs. D. P. Beatty of Wichita Falls and Mrs. S. H. Puryear of San Antonio. For a number of years, one of the four daughters has entertained on the birthday of their mother.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Clint White, a grandniece of Mrs. Thomson, and greeted by an informal receiving line composed of Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Puryear, Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Norwood.

A program was given, the first number of which was a piano solo by Mrs. Paul Shirley, Bettie Jo Norwood of Vernon, great-granddaughter of the honor guest, gave a reading, as also did Nancy Norwood, another great-granddaughter. Mrs. C. W. Thomson and Mrs. T. B. Klepper, accompanied by Mrs. Shirley sang "The Quilt" as a prelude to a reading "The Patchwork Quilt" which was given by Miss Jim Lois Gafford, great-grandniece of Mrs. Thomson. Miss Gafford was dressed in costume befitting the time of the reading.

Mrs. Leonard Male, a granddaughter, played "The Spinning Wheel" as a piano solo and was followed by her own little daughter.

ter, Marilyn Male, who presented her great-grandmother with a beautiful bouquet of roses. Mrs. H. W. Norwood gave a "recitation" which she had learned as a little girl in her mother's home. Mrs. N. J. Roberts gave some reminiscences of former days in Foard County, which were suggestive of experiences shared by all the pioneers.

Then little Lee Edward Probst, great-grandson, led Mrs. Thomson to the bedroom to receive the lovely birthday gifts, expressing love and good wishes, which awaited her.

The dining table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a beautiful white birthday cake with 84 candles. Tall yellow tapers burned at each end of the table. A color scheme of yellow and white was used in all appointments of the dining room.

Mrs. Thomson cut the birthday cake, while the friends joined in wishing "Happy Birthday."

Mrs. Lee Probst, a granddaughter, poured tea from a silver tea service, and this was served with yellow sandwiches, cake and mints by Mrs. Male and Miss Gafford.

The guests numbered about fifty from Crowell, the relatives named from Vernon and the following from Quanah. Mesdames Warren Riley, Jeff Dickerson, Marvin Whitfield, Zack Henderson and Eldridge Dickerson.

Mrs. Thomson, affectionately known to many as "Aunt Bettie" has been a resident of Foard County for about fifty years, having moved here with her husband, Dan Thomson, from Williamson County. Mr. Thomson served as county treasurer of Foard County for a number of years. He passed away at the family home here many years ago. Mrs. Thomson is very active and well, in spite of her 84 years. She is a lovable character, radiating cheer and happiness wherever she goes.

Church Pianist Is Honored at Shower

Mesdames W. R. Womack, M. Duvall, A. F. Wright and Ino. Razor were hostesses at a shower at the home of Mrs. Womack last Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. L. Rucker, in appreciation for her faithful services as pianist of the local Baptist Church.

The party and shower came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Rucker, it being a cleverly planned without any intimation to her.

A short program was rendered. Mrs. Duvall gave a reading, Miss Doris Oswald, accompanied by Mrs. Wright, sang, then Mrs. Billington very pleasantly presented the shower gifts to Mrs. Rucker. She responded with words of thanks.

Punch was served to about fifty members of the Baptist Church.

Unlighted Wagons

Foard County has been fortunate in escaping a fatal accident resulting from unlighted wagons on the highways at night. Old man "Law of Averages" is not to be trifled with and unless greater precautions are taken mighty soon, we are afraid we shall have the unpleasant task of reporting a fatal or serious accident from this cause.

Scores are killed in Texas each year during the cotton season as a result of the menace of unlighted wagons and usually the greater injury is suffered by the occupant of the wagon. Lighted wagons are required by law, however, the disobedience to this law is widespread.

This law is more for the protection of those who drive horse-drawn vehicles than it is for motorists, for numerous accidents resulting from wagons being run down by motor vehicles have proven that the danger to the wagon driver is the greater.

For your own protection, as well as others, keep a lantern or other light ready for use at nightfall

The proper treatment for a bilious child

ANY mother knows the reason when her child stops playing, eats little, is hard to manage, Constipation. But what a pity so few know the sensible way to set things right!

The ordinary laxatives, of even ordinary strength, destroy all hopes of restoring regularity.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use a liquid laxative. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. The liquid laxative they generally use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Any druggist has it.

Wester-Field and Wester Field

Northwest Texas now has two gridiron plants by the name of "Wester-Field." The original "Wester-Field" was established at Burkburnett a few years ago and was named for Butler Westerfield, Burk Superintendent.

Floydada's new stadium and lighted field was dedicated last week and was named "Wester-Field" by the school board in honor of J. C. Wester, who came to Floydada High as coach and principal in 1919, serving in that capacity until becoming superintendent two years and for the past seven years has been on the school board.

Incidentally, it appears from this angle that Mator and Floydada will fight it out for the championship of the adjoining district to the west.

Malcolm Linder, quarterback with the Floydada Whirlwinds, is rated as the "Dick Todd" of the district and is the greatest drawing card in that section. Edwin Golightly, a regular guard on the team, is a nephew of T. T. Golightly of this city.

Miscellaneous

Last week in the comment about duplicate names of Foard County people appearing in print elsewhere, we mentioned about Marvin Bretherton of Lockney, an outstanding backfield man on the high school team there. This week we learn that he is a nephew of Rev. Marvin Bretherton, Margaret Thalia Methodist pastor, and that he was named for the Foard pastor, who was in France when the Lockney player was born during the World War.

One of our local football stars is likely to get hurt—and we don't mean on the football field. If he would confine his speed to the gridiron and circle opposing ends as he has been circling the court house square, then Crowell would be a safer town in which to live and the Wildcats would be sure of another district championship.

And aren't our streets dangerous enough as it is, especially since Dud Greening, proprietor of the "Lightning Mail Express" from the depot to the post office, bought a V-8 delivery vehicle?

From Dallas

Alton Bell, who is in Dallas for medical treatment, sends a letter with some interesting grid information. A portion of the letter follows:

"I saw Baylor and Arkansas play Saturday night and talked to George Gilmore of Olney, a regular end for Arkansas. I have a pass to all the Baylor games. Am expecting a great game when Rice and S. M. U. play here Saturday. The best players I have seen are Shufford of S. M. U. and Russell of Baylor. Robbins and Howell of Arkansas are nice players."
