FREE HEALTH SERVICE FOR FOARD COUNTY

Free public health service, including a public health nurse and a sanitary inspector for Foard, Knox, Haskell, Baylor and Throckmorton counties, and enough small pox vaccine, typhoid serum and diphtheria toxin for every person that needs it in this area, and who are unable to secure it otherwise, was promised here last week by Dr. J. R. Robinson of the state department of public health.

This service is available beginning May 1 for a period of at least 8 months and probably for 14 months through an appropriation made by the federal government to be used for public health in drouth stricken sections. Neither food nor medicine will be distributed and no curative measures will be undertaken, the entire work being prevention of disease, sanitation and health education.

Plans for the work of the health nurse and sanitary inspector in Foard County will be worked out under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. R. L. Kincaid and Dr. J. M. Hill, county health officer. The nurse will assist in the examination and vaccination of school children, while the sanitary inspector will advise and assist in the elimination of mosquito breeding places, the construction of approved sanitary toilets, the repairing of dangerous water supplies and other such work. Each county is obligated to organize a county committee, consisting of representatives from various organizations to assist in the work. Mrs. Kincaid was elected to head the committee at a meeting of the Crowell Parent-Teachers Association Tuesday.

WHEAT CROP ASSURED BY BIG RAINS

The wheat crop for Foard County is practically assured as the result of heavy rains that fell over Foard Wednesday and Thursday. Rain at Crowell measured one seven-tenths inches, according to an official reading at the First Bank, however, it is reported the rain was heavier in most of the county. A greater part of Texas has been drenched by rains this week. Foard farmers state that a big wheat crop is made if no more rain falls before harvest. If the wheat crop fails this year it will be by a factor other than for lack of moisture, farmers agree. It is estimated that there are over thousand acres planted in wheat in Foard County this year.

Cooper will accompany the group on the trip. The Crowell High School representation at the district meet is larger than that of any other school in this section.

STREET DRESS CONTEST TO BE HELD ON MAY 29

A street dress contest for the women and girls of the home demonstration clubs of Foard County will take place in Crowell on Friday, May 29, as the result of action taken at a recent meeting of the county council. Dresses are to be of cotton material, according to Miss Dosca Hale, home demonstration agent. Silk will not be permitted, although rayon, a cotton product, will be allowed. In the clothing work of the home demonstration clubs last year a sheer wash dress contest was conducted and the year before that a house dress contest was held. It is hoped that each of the ten women's clubs of the county will have one hundred per cent representation in the contest. There are now 235 Foard County women represented in the home demonstration clubs. The third year club girls and others who have had sufficient training sewing to enable them to make a dress will be permitted to enter the contest. Miss Hale stated that the contest is being put on earlier this year in order that the women may have time to plan their wardrobes early in the season. Much interest is being shown in the contest and from all indications it will be by far the most successful one yet held in the county. Contestants are now being urged to study their type in order that they may be able to select suitable colors and designs best suited to the individual. Prizes and judges for the contest are now being arranged for.

Fortieth Birthday Event for Foard County And Crowell Here Monday Attended By More Than 5,000 People

The greatest crowd in the history of Foard County assembled in Crowell Monday for the 40th birthday celebration of both Crowell and Foard County which came on that day. The vast crowd exceeded all expectations and it is estimated that over five thousand people were present for the all-day event, which was held particularly for the purpose of honoring the pioneers who were here at the time of the organization of Foard County on April 27, 1891. The celebration also served as a home-coming affair for great numbers of former residents, many of whom came great distances to greet their relatives and friends. Included in the enormous crowd were hundreds of people from all over this section of Texas.

The celebration was officially opened at about ten o'clock in the morning when George Self, program chairman and master of ceremonies for the day, made a few announcements that were broadcast through 8 loud speakers on the large radio truck furnished for the celebration the courtesy of the Sinclair Refining Company. Mr. Self introduced Claude Callaway, county judge, and general chairman for the celebration, who officially welcomed the many visitors.

The radio truck was located in the street on the west side of the square and the microphone, connected with it and into which the talks and musical numbers were received, was located in the rear of the Self building headquarters for the celebration. Through the use of the radio truck every spoken word was amplified to a great extent and could be clearly heard over most of the town. The radio truck added much to the success of the celebration and the Sinclair Refining Company is to be sincerely thanked for furnishing this feature.

Several numbers by the Crowell band, under the direction of Arnold Rucker, aided greatly in giving the celebration the proper send-off early during the day.

At an early hour many of those who were here before 1900 started registering at a booth in the Self building that was in charge of Mrs. M. N. Kenner of Crowell and G. A. Shultz of Thalia. Before the day had ended 385 persons had registered and received their tags, upon which the year of their arrival here was printed.

The Self building was also the scene of great numbers of old-time relics, which were properly tagged and arranged by a committee headed by J. R. Beverly, assisted by N. J. Roberts. Throughout the day visitors enjoyed looking at the interesting exhibits in the show windows over the business section.

The principal part of the program during the morning was given over to a broadcast of old-time numbers by the Pioneers' family and Jim Dockery of Gilliland. Fiddles, guitar, banjo and piano were the instruments used by this group. Their numbers were greatly enjoyed and celebration officials considered themselves fortunate in securing their services, which were donated.

Basket Lunch

At noon one of the greatest basket dinners ever held in this section was spread on the court house lawn and much credit for the success of this part of the celebration must go to D. R. Magee and his lunch committee.

Early Monday morning they arranged long rows of tables, a total length of over 500 feet, and it was felt that these would easily take care of the crowd, expected. However, at noon the number of visitors had become so great that even the vast amount of table space was not nearly sufficient and great numbers spread their lunches on the ground. As was the case with every other feature of the celebration the success of the dinner exceeded all expectations.

Dinner for the old-time cowboys of this section was prepared from an old chuck wagon that occupied a special reserved section on the lawn near the flag pole. No one but old cowboys were allowed in this area. This feature was in charge of Bob Allee, Will Gamble and Jesse Lankford. Local grocery stores donated the food prepared at the chuck wagon.

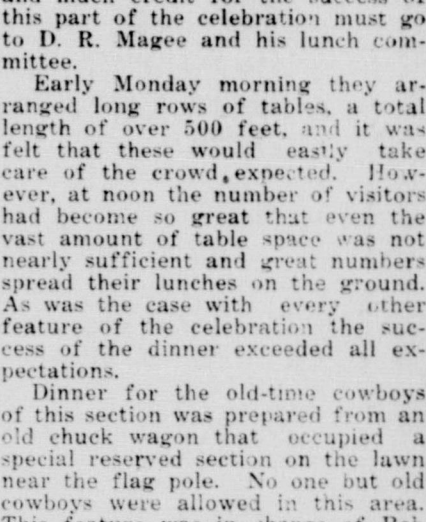

TEN HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS TO HAVE BOOTHS AT EXHIBIT OF FOODS HERE ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 6

An exhibit of food products, sponsored by the home demonstration clubs of Foard County, will be held in Crowell on Wednesday, May 6, at the Russell building, if the post office has been moved from it by that time. Each of the ten clubs of the county is to have a booth containing as many different varieties of foods produced on Foard County farms that it is possible to secure, according to Miss Dosca Hale, home demonstration agent. Garden, poultry, pantry, dairy and field products will be among the food products exhibited. Practically all of the clubs will have exhibits of canned wheat. Exhibit officials are hoping that around one hundred different varieties of foods will be on exhibit at this time. No doubt there would be more than this number if the exhibit that is to take place next Wednesday had been given several months ago, since great numbers of products have already been consumed on the farms over the county, and the exhibit here next week will represent that which is left over. The county council of home demonstration club officials voted to conduct the exhibit at its regular meeting on April 18. The purpose of the exhibit is to serve as an incentive to cause women of the county to put up more home products and to preserve all food possible. The exhibits will be judged by women who are non-residents of Foard County. Prizes for first, second and third places are now being arranged for. Everyone is invited to inspect the exhibits.

Santa Fe Is Raising Grade South of Town

Employment was given last Friday to about fifteen local men by the Santa Fe Railway to assist in the work of raising the railroad's grade about a mile and a half southwest of Crowell. The bridge cross a branch of a creek at this point was recently raised and the grade approaching it is now being raised. The dirt for raising the grade is being secured near the railroad crossing on the pavement near the Todd Service Station. A power shovel and a special train is being used for securing and hauling the dirt. The work will likely be completed by the early part of next week, or sooner.

Young. The News would like to have any other names that have been overlooked for publication next week.

CONVENIENT TENT

Roy (Red) Mints pitched for Thalia and fanned 9 men and let the visitors down with 5 widely scattered hits. Thalia scored its 4 runs in the second and third innings, making 2 in each inning. Pennington of Chillicothe pitched a good game and held Thalia to 4 hits. Bailey caught for Thalia and Canafax for Chillicothe.

Crowell Show Windows Attract Much Interest

Much interest before and during the recent celebration was created by the displays in show windows of Crowell business firms that were decorated appropriately for the occasion. A pioneer picture gallery featured the Reeder Drug Co. windows. Mrs. T. P. Reeder was responsible for this exhibit which had over two hundred old-time photographs that were secured from Foard County homes. A vast number of items also decorated the windows of Self Dry Goods Company. Pictures, old-time clothing and various other items of pioneer days also decorated the windows of Ferguson Drug Co., Blaw & Rosenthal, M. S. Henry & Co., Harwell Variety, R. B. Edwards Co., Allen Chevrolet Co., Bank of Crowell, Womack Bros., Self Motor Co.

Poultry Man Urges People to Keep Hens

Profits from poultry flocks, even with the lowest priced eggs in the history of the business, was the discovery made when a group of Foard County people, in company with E. N. Holmgreen, poultry specialist of A. and M. College, visited the poultry flocks belonging to R. J. Roberts, O. R. Boman, J. J. McCoy, Frank Weatherall, Henry Hlavaty and Joe Orr, on Thursday, April 16. Each of these flocks have had accurate records kept on their performance. The feed cost, loss of hens, egg production and in fact every item of expense has been kept and the flocks have shown a profit of from $38 per month down to $10 per month since the first of November.

Radio Truck Popular

The radio truck of the Sinclair Refining Company that was here for the celebration, was one of the most valuable and interesting features of it. Bryan Reiger of Fort Worth was in charge of the truck, which was mounted on a G. M. C. chassis and which was equipped with its 8 loud speakers and other equipment by the Western Electric Co. The people of this section are looking forward to another visit of the radio truck. It went from here to Hillsboro. The headquarters for the radio truck are in Fort Worth.

Vilbig Co., contractors for the triple bituminous pavement from the point 4.9 miles west of Crowell to the Cottle line, 13.4 miles, are well under way with their work. All of the highway work was halted Wednesday as the result of the rain.

Supply of Cotton Now In U. S. Is 2,214,000 Bales More Than '30

Austin, Texas, April 30—Supply of cotton in the United States on April 1 amounted to 2,214,000 bales, an increase of 224,000 bales over the supply on April 1, 1930, according to Dr. A. B. Cox, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. "This heavy increase is in spite of the fact that the 1930-31 crop was 895,000 bales less than last year," Dr. Cox said. "The increase has been due to the fact that on last August 1, the carry-over was 2,217,000 bales more than the previous year, and consumption plus exports are down 1,087,000 bales. Imports have been decreased 193,000 bales, making a net gain of 2,215,000 bales in supply on April 1 over the supply on the same date last year. "Changes in supply on April 1 in the past seven years totaled 8,681,000 bales and the changes in the deflated price for the same period amounted to 2,987 points or about 34 points change in price for each change of 100,000 bales in supply. If that ratio holds good at the present, the increase of 2,215,000 bales in supply should cause a decrease of 753 points in the New Orleans deflated spot price from last year, or a decline from 17.67 cents to 10.14 cents. When the 10.14 cent deflated price is converted to the present low wholesale price level of all commodities of 74.5 as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, it puts the calculated actual New Orleans spot price down to 7.55 cents. "The supply of American cotton in and afloat to Europe March 27 amounted to 247,000 bales more than last year. Applying the 34 points to this increase of stocks, the price should be only about 6.75 cents based on the heavy increase in supply and the drastic decline in the price level. "At this time of the year the prospects for the new crop becomes the dominating supply factor causing price changes. The anticipated decline in both numbers of acres to be planted and probably yield per acre are strong factors in sustaining present prices."

WHEN FOOD SOURS

ABOUT two hours after eating, many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, the kind physicians prescribe to correct excess acid. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. A SUCCESS

If the expressions that have been continuously heard throughout the week are an indication of the success of an event, then the 40th anniversary celebration here Monday was one of the most successful celebrations that has ever been held anywhere.

We feel that the success of any event is to be determined by the whole-hearted enjoyment derived by those attending it. For that reason we feel that the 40th anniversary celebration came as near being a perfect success as has any event of its kind.

"I never had a greater time in my life," is one of the most common expressions heard from the old-timers since the celebration. If the celebration served no other purpose than to show this deserving class the time of their lives, then it was an outstanding success, for the primary purpose of the event was to honor the pioneers. However, this was not the case, for everyone, as far as we know, had an unusually enjoyable time and we believe that this celebration will be forever remembered as one of the outstanding events in Foard County history.

The truth of the saying, "The best things in life are free," was certainly substantiated Monday. With but little expense, but plenty of co-operation, an event resulted that was by far more enjoyable than most of those to which much expense is devoted. No amount of money could have bought the enjoyment that was derived from the true fellowship, the pleasant recollection of old-time events, and the other features that come when a crowd assembles for such an occasion as the one here Monday.

To us the absence of commercialism in the celebration was one of its most creditable features. There was not even a hot dog or cold drink stand erected; there was no carnival, and the customary schemes to touch the people's pocket books were conspicuous by their absence. The co-operation on the part of the people of Crowell and Foard County in general was responsible for this outstanding success. Every detail, the attendance, the lunch, the parade, and the program in general, exceeded the most optimistic expectations and it was not cash, but co-operation, that was responsible for this fact.

STILL ON THE REDISTRICTING JOB

The boys at Austin are still busy at the job of redistricting the state to provide for the election of three new, and additional, Texas congressmen.

House and Senate passed redistricting bills which contained so many differences they had to be sent to conference committee for the working-out of a measure which would prove satisfactory to the two houses. Upon one point—the placing of Congressmen Mansfield and Briggs in the same district—these two bills agreed, and, strangely enough, it is upon that one point that most popular resentment has been incurred.

Constituents of Clay Stone Briggs, most of them from Galveston and Texas City, descended upon the legislature in an irate body, demanding reasonable reasons for the legislature's action in "legislating their veteran congressman out of Congress." The people of Judge Mansfield's district were little better pleased at the unnecessary affront to their representative—a man whose influence and strength can prove so beneficial to the state, and Gulf Coast newspapers, outside of the two districts so directly affected, want to know why Gulf Coast representation has been decreased by one, now that the state as a whole is entitled to three more congressmen.

The duty of the legislature is plain. They most emphatically cannot afford to place any unnecessary hazards in the way of Judge Mansfield's re-election. They should not legislate Congressman Briggs out of Washington. They should not reduce the congressional representation of the Gulf Coast country. They can redistrict the state without doing any of these objectionable things. Retain the districts now served by Mansfield and Briggs, and the three principal objections to the bills now in conference committees are removed.

There is a way out of this mess; there is always a way out. And the conference committee can do much for the cause of peace and harmony if they will seek diligently for the agreeable answer to a disagreeable problem.—Editorials of the Month.

Celebration—

proved to be a very interesting feature. They were also accompanied by three women riders, Mrs. J. M. Allee, Mrs. E. L. Ribble and Mrs. P. P. Cooper. Next to them came the modern girls, represented by Misses Frances Hill and Lella Ben Allee, on their horses. About ten boys on Shetland ponies followed. Bob Allee was in charge of the cowboy and pony riding part of the parade. George Allison was represented with an old freight wagon. The 4-H Club float, on which rode a canning exhibit, two dairy calves, and a number of club boys and girls, was particularly impressive.

Maurice Kenner represented the Crowell Service Station by driving a 1912 model White auto. Dave Solis drove a 1913 Ford for Self Motor Co. Bob Bell drove a 1916 Chevrolet for Allen Chevrolet Co. Local auto dealers also had their later models in the parade.

Other entries were: E. B. Edwards Co., wagon full of old customers; Lanier Hdwe. Co., buggy; Ferguson Bros., wagon; Baptist Church, decorated car; Clint White, high school pep squad; football team; Sinclair Radio truck; T. B. Richmond, as clown on donkey; Fox Bros. buggy; Womack Bros., ambulance; Rotary Club, flags of 57 nations; T. B. Klepper, bicycle; Reeder Drug Co., surrey; E. J. Smith, decorated truck; Sellers' Market, cow; West Texas Utilities Co., float; Geo. Self, 1895 coach; Roy Hanna, decorated truck; R. B. Edwards Co., buggy; M. S. Henry & Co., old plow and modern machinery; Self Truck & Tractor Co., Jersey cow and cream separator on truck with actual demonstration taking place; old plow and modern machinery.

The program following the parade started at about two o'clock on the east side of the court house with George D. Self in charge. Duke Wallace led the large crowd in singing "America," after which Rev. Woodie W. Smith pronounced the invocation.

The entire program was broadcast from a platform on the court house steps through eight loudspeakers on the radio truck of the Sinclair Refining Company. Each speaker faced a microphone on the platform and through this arrangement every part of the program was clearly audible to the thousands of people present.

Several numbers were given by the Crowell band before the program was officially started. Mrs. J. M. Allee, who came to what is now Foard County in 1885, was the first speaker on the program. She gave an interesting account of early day experiences.

Dr. R. L. Kincaid of Crowell followed Mrs. Allee with a talk in which he paid an impressive tribute to the pioneers. Sacred harp music, with J. C. Davis of Rayland in charge, was next given. About 15 persons took part in this enjoyable presentation of old-time music.

"Passing of the Longhorn," written in 1889 by John Wesley, was next read by Mr. Self. John Wesley of Margaret, Foard County's first citizen, was next on the program. He gave many interesting remarks concerning conditions here fifty years ago. Jim Glover of Foard City and a Mr. Autrey also of Foard City, came next with some old-time fiddling which made it impossible for many old-timers to keep their feet still during their renditions. A quartet, composed of E. A. and Henry Dunagan, Duke Wallace and Rev. W. W. Smith, with Mrs. Arnold Rucker as accompanist, followed with an enjoyable vocal number.

One of the most interesting events of the program came next with Mr. Self reading a poem written by Mrs. J. W. Cope of Fort Worth. Mrs. Cope is one of Foard County's pioneers and her lengthy poem entitled, "Our Old Pioneers Friends," eulogized and paid tribute to those sturdy pioneers of Foard County who have passed on to their reward. After the program the poem was recorded on four phonograph records through the courtesy of the Sinclair Refining Company, by the use of its radio truck, and were presented to Mrs. J. H. Self.

Judge M. M. Hinkins of Quanah, one of Foard's pioneers, gave an interesting address on the early development of Foard County. Dick Coffer of Dallas, the first deputy sheriff of Harrison County, followed with a few remarks.

The next number was the feature address of the program by Judge L. S. Kinder of Plainview, a pioneer judge of this section of Texas. He paid special tribute to the pioneer woman and gave many historical facts concerning this section.

Three enjoyable French harp numbers were next given by Mrs. Roy Ricks of Thalia and Mrs. Arnold Rucker of Crowell.

The program came to an end with Mrs. Roy Steele greeting the pioneers on behalf of their children.

A football game, with the Seniors of Crowell High School playing the other classes, next took place at the ball park with Seniors winning 18 to 0. Bronco riding also took place at intervals during the contest. A large number of those who did not attend the game either witnessed or took part in the pioneers square dance on the west side of the square. The music for the occasion was furnished by an old-time fiddling group, composed of Jack and Buck Propps and Jim Dockery of Knox County and Ross Edwards of Lubbock.

From every standpoint the celebration was a success. Too much praise cannot be given the large number of local people who donated their work to make it such. Officials of the celebration have requested The News to convey their thanks to those who aided them in any way in their efforts.

In the late Spanish elections, those in favor of a Republic brought the days of King Alfonso to an end. In our own country, an oil official says that the consumer is not taken into consideration by him at all. This sounds like ring stuff. His own head may come off, along with that of King Al, for a United States Senator, of a breed not to be trifled with, has it in mind to make oil a public utility, and to man-handle operators accordingly.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Foard County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Charles Marts by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Foard County, to be holden at the court house thereof, in Crowell, on the first Monday in May, A. D. 1931, the same being the 4th day of May, A. D. 1931, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 4th day of April, A. D. 1931, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 2274, wherein Mary Ruth Marts is plaintiff, and Charles Marts is defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows: Suit for divorce, wherein plaintiff alleges that on or about the 2nd day of February, A. D. 1924, plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married to each other; that they continued to live together as husband and wife until on or about the 8th day of October, A. D. 1928, when without any fault on the part of the plaintiff, she was forced by the acts of the defendant to leave him and since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife; that defendant's conduct toward plaintiff generally is of such nature as to render their further living together as husband and wife, insupportable.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for judgment dissolving said marriage relations, and for care and custody of minor children.

Herein fail not but have before said court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Crowell, Texas, on this the 6th day of April, A. D. 1931.

"What Has Become of the Old-time Campbellite Preacher," will be the subject of the sermon next Sunday morning. Not that the name "Campbellite," was ever correct, but used here to designate that old-fashioned type of preachers in the Christian church so-called by those outside the church.

Mother's Day is near at hand. Let's not forget. Choir practice next Wednesday evening especially to prepare for Mother's Day. All come.

The State Convention at Wistar Falls May 12th to 15th should be kept in mind. We want several automobile loads to attend this convention.

"1931, the Greatest Year in the History of the Crowell Christian Church," is our aim for 1931. Let's hold this aim before our eyes all the time to inspire us to do our best.

Baptist Church News

Good Sunday school last Sunday. A little off in attendance. This is an incentive to take up the slack next Sunday. May each of us bring a new pupil. May, with the beauties of Spring-time, is calling for us to give of our best to the Master.

The preaching attendance was very fine at each service. Our good friends, many of them from the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches, worshiped with us Sunday, their pastors being out of the city. The pastor spoke at the morning hour on "Preach the Word" and at the evening on "The Cross."

At Black in the afternoon he spoke on "A Mother's Interest in Her Daughter." Good crowd and service.

Next Sunday: Sunday school at 9:45; preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.; B. Y. P. U. training service at 7 p. m.; W. M. S. at 3 p. m. Monday and O. and T. meeting at 6:45; prayer-meeting at 7:30 and choir at 8:15 Wednesday evening.

The pastor will preach on "Tithing" at the morning hour and "The Cost of Salvation" at the evening hour.

Many are the welcomes at our church. A good place to spend Sunday. Come and welcome.

WOODIE W. SMITH.

P. S. Thank to the men of the church for the grass and weed cutting Tuesday.

Christian Science Churches

"Probation After Death" was the lesson-sermon subject in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, April 26.

The golden text was from Psalms 37:18, "The Lord knoweth the days of the upright; and their inheritance shall be forever."

Included in the service was the following passage from the Bible: Hosias 13:14: "I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death; O death, I will be thy plague; O grave, I will be thy destruction."

The following citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, were also read: "Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material conditions and his exaltation explained his ascension, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave. . . The sin and error that possess us at the instant of death do not cease at that moment, but endure until the death of these errors."

SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY TO BE OBSERVED

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Sunday School Day will be observed at the Methodist Church with an appropriate program. This will include a representation from each department of the Sunday School which will explain in a measure the aims and purposes of that department. It is sincerely hoped and earnestly urged that the mothers and fathers of the children who are in Sunday School as well as of those who are not will attend this service which will be both instructive and entertaining. Parents inform themselves on matters relative to the literary school of their children so why not on Sunday School affairs? The teachers of your children desire and deserve your co-operation and help.

You are invited to come at the Sunday School hour and remain for this special recognition service at the eleven o'clock hour

The Church of Christ

Last Sunday was a great day. Good crowds, good singing and a good service.

A short talk was rendered by Eld. McFadden of Ballinger on the 6th chapter of St. John. The talk was followed by a lesson on First Peter 5:1-11 by A. G. Ketchersid. The night service was fine also. Remember the one Tuesday night. E. J. SMITH, Minister.

JESUS IN THE HOME OF ZACCHAEUS

Luke 19:1-10

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

Here is a human interest story that took place in real life. Jesus had completed His Persian journey, which lasted about three months. The Jordan river had been forded and now interest centers in the city of Jericho. Then it was a decidedly popular resort; now it is largely a place of ruins with a few dwellers in another site called modern Jericho. Blind men were healed as the Teacher both entered and departed from Jericho. A miracle would draw a crowd and the people thronged about the Nazarene as He sought to pass through the city.

Zacchaeus was a man of short stature and this handicapped him as he wanted to see the Visitor about whom all were so concerned. He used his wits and ran ahead of the advancing throng that he might get a vantage point after having climbed the low branches of the tree. As Jesus passed by, the upward glance revealed the little fellow who had arranged to see Him in spite of every obstacle. The Omniscient One knew all and made the rest very easy for the despised citizen. By a self invitation the Lord became a guest in this home. Hatred of this Jew did not prevent the people from crowding into the home, and some came only to criticize. Jesus also met their challenge by His gracious treatment of the oppressor. Meanwhile Zacchaeus had given his heart to the Saviour, and followed this up by a public pledge to restore all ill gotten gain. There is an activity of penitence which shows that something has really come into a man's heart and completely changed his life. The Golden Text tells the continuing purpose to Jesus: "The Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost." Luke 19:10.

POISON in Your bowels!

Poisons absorbed into the system from souring waste in the bowels, cause that headache, sluggish, bilious condition; coat the tongue; foul the breath; sap energy, strength and nerve-force. A little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will clear up trouble like that, gently, harmlessly, in a hurry. The difference it will make in your feelings over night will prove its merit to you.

Dr. Caldwell studied constipation for forty-seven years. This long experience enabled him to make his prescription just what men, women, old people and children need to make their bowels help themselves. Its natural, mild, thorough action and its pleasant taste commend it to people of all ages. That's why "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin," as it is called, is the most popular laxative drugstore sell.

SERMONETTE

KEEP HIM IN GOOD CLOTHES

(By Arthur B. Rhinow)

The parents of a boy in a city of the Middle West were very much worried about their son, who showed a decided inclination to become a loafer. They plead and threatened, but to no avail. The boy refused to go either to school or to work, and he was drifting into bad company.

At the time a friend gave the parents an advice which certainly revealed a keen knowledge of human nature.

"Always keep the boy in good clothes," he said. "Even if he behaves like a bum, see to it that he is well dressed."

The purpose of this counsel evidently was to help the boy keep his self-respect. Good clothes are likely to make a youth brush his hair and clean his fingernails; and in this particular case they reminded him that he did not belong to the crowd he palled with at that time.

More than that, they reminded him that his best friends did not want him to become a good-for-nothing. Every new suit, the crease in the trousers, the carefully brushed coat, all that and much more told him that his parents yearned to have him become a real man. And eventually he did come to himself.

And I said to myself, even so divine love showers kindnesses upon us from childhood to old age to remind us of our eternal destiny. We are here for something better than to loaf through life and just follow the line of least resistance. We are to yield to the promptings of the best in us, and ever struggle upward toward Him who is with us every step of the toilsome way.

MEASURED IN MILES

SUPPOSE for a moment that advertising didn't exist—that there were no trade-marked goods—that everything you bought had to be judged solely by its look or feel or taste.

Imagine yourself setting out to do the morning's shopping under such conditions. You'd drive down the street, looking in windows for the articles you needed—the blouses for Johnny, the half dozen bath towels, the toilet soap, the ginger ale for tomorrow's picnic. You'd stop, ask questions, examine the towels, smell the soap, wonder if here was your money's worth or if you might find something better farther on. And though you followed this procedure mile after weary mile, you could never be sure.

Computed simply in terms of gasoline and tires and shoe leather, advertising saves you a startling sum every year. And if you add the value of your time, the amount is vastly increased.

When you buy a product that is advertised you know in advance what you will get, how much it costs and where you can obtain it. That is why, in millions of modern homes, the newspaper advertising columns are a daily guide to purchases.

Read the advertising in The Foard County News, decide what you need, then buy with assurance.

Let advertising save you time and money

JUNIOR PICNIC

Twenty-one Juniors including a visitor, Jim Boswell, from the Pease River, met at the high school building at 8 o'clock Saturday morning for an all day picnic. All piled on a truck covered with straw to ride to the Pease River railroad bridge at Margaret. After reaching the place, the crowd divided into groups and started walking all over the side of the world. Several in the crowd enjoyed boat rides, while others were in the river bed playing football. Later everybody joined in a game of football, even the girls, who came intercepted long passes and gained for their side. Everyone went back to his second childhood by pulling off barefooted and letting the mud ooze up between his toes.

At the sound of the dinner bell everyone was mad rush to the table to see who could get his feet washed first. Dan Callaway won. After eating four or five sandwiches each and eating three or four oranges and drinking

Musings of The Owl

We often wonder that if Jack had not fallen down, would Jill have not come tumbling after anyway?

The wise old gentleman who said, "These are the times that try men's souls," must have been on a Senior hay ride at the time.

The way that those Seniors gave their yells, when making their departure for the hay ride, makes one believe they had the right spirits.

We often wonder whence goes so much knowledge that each year's close takes from our high school.

Somewhat we just have to blush each year as the commencement speaker turns to the dignified group and so eloquently repeats, "You have gained your goal through hard work and consistency."

Most everyone has now satisfied his desire to know why D. S. Todd wished to remain in grammar school so long.

Then there is the fellow who, quite confidentially comes around and lets you in on a secret that you have known for some months.

Our girl friend wanted to know if a mush room would still be a mush room if there were no musing in it.

Our college friend who asked to borrow the ten spot has probably been passing the buck too much.

SENIOR HAY RIDE

The Seniors enjoyed an unusual type of entertainment last Saturday evening at seven o'clock. A group of yelling Seniors journeyed through town on a truck covered with straw singing, "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," and cheering.

A very picturesque place near Jim Bell's place was our destiny. While explorations were made and games played, a delicious supper was spread even though it looked like rain. The bunch rode around for a long time.

Seniors Defeat Other Classes 18 to 0 in Football Game Mon.

In one of the features of the celebration here Monday a football team from the Senior class of Crowell High School defeated a team from the other classes by the score of 18 to 0. The game brought to an end the four weeks of spring training that has been conducted under the direction of Coach Grady Graves.

Crews Cooper scored the first touchdown with a 40-yard return of a punt. On the very last play of the first half Guy Todd passed thirty yards to Ragsdale Lanier for a touchdown.

The final touchdown for the Seniors came on the last play of the game when Lanier passed to Guy Todd who crossed the goal line.

Both teams showed up extra well on the defensive. The Seniors made seven first downs to one first down for the other team.

Prospects for a good team next year now appear rather bright. Three of those playing on the Senior team will be back next year. They are: Crews Cooper, Recie Womack and John Todd.

THE SPONGE CORNER (Your questions answered)

Idah Pearl Harris asks why Marion got mad when she went to the banquet with Rags. The Sponge said, "My dear little girl, please don't be silly, any Senior can answer that."

Elbert Griffith asks, "Can't it be I am losing my looks." The Sponge says, "Do, dear, your wave is very pretty."

Harold Hinds asks why the girls don't fall hard for him. The Sponge answers, "Dear boy, the girls fall too hard but they see so many others falling that they think there is no chance, so they fade away. No slams intended."

The Sponge corner is a new organization and your questions will be answered every week in the News or privately. Watch this corner.

A mistake was made last week in the honor roll. Lida Sue Gorrell and Rocille Harrison made the high honor roll instead of the scholarship honor roll.

SENIOR PLAY

Several sketches from the Senior play, "The Family Upstairs," which is to be given Friday evening, May 1, were presented at the assembly program Tuesday morning. The play is a comedy of American life in 3 acts. Joe Heller is a street car inspector on $42.50 a week. Louise is his eldest daughter, an office worker, now aged twenty-one, who hasn't managed to land a husband yet. Her mother's one anxiety is to get her properly married, while father's ambition is to get his son, Willie, to work. Sister Anabelle, the "kid sister" of the family, has one passion, and that is getting out of doing her piano lessons. It is a typical average American home that we look into: Annabelle practicing on the tin-panny piano, Willie making a telephone date with a girl friend, father coming home from work in his uniform, fagged out, mother bossing Annabelle's playing, everyone wanting dinner, and so on. Louise announces at dinner that a young man is calling on her later and she would like to have the parlor for herself if the family doesn't mind. Sensation! Louise has never had a young man caller before. Charles Grant comes, a fine upstanding fellow, and after embarrassed introductions all around, he is left alone with Louise. They are in love with each other, and before the evening is out they are engaged. But mother puts her finger into the domestic pie. She drops hints and tells Grant that $100 a week is too little for Louise to live on. She tells the neighbors what a wonderful fellow Louise has won and that he is a big banker (in reality he is making $40 a week). And the game of bluff goes on. Having heard all this "propaganda" Grant begins to wonder what sort of family he is getting into. There is an unhappy half-hour when the engagement seems to be off, and then Grant's mother appears on the scene. Mrs. Grant is just the bluffer that Mrs. Heller is, and both see through all the bluffs and discount them. Everything ends happily.

Those taking part in the play are Recie Womack, Elbert Griffith, Rags Lanier, Fred Allen Beverly, Idah Pearl Harris, Mary Frances Self, Evelyn Sloan, Maggie Meason, and Frances Allison.

See this comedy of spontaneous myrths! Marion and his "blues chasers" will also entertain you.

Modern Methods Make Ironing a Real Pleasure

Competent and unbiased authorities have figured that in ironing an average family laundry the housewife pushes her iron a distance of over five miles, and lifts an accumulative weight of over five tons! Amazing, isn't it?

But those days are past, for now the modern Homemaker sits at ease before an Electric Ironer, and gets the job done in but one-third the time formerly required. And best of all she finds herself fresh and happy when the last piece is finished.

Sheets, towels, pillow-cases, table covers, garments of all description glide rapidly through the modern ironer, coming out smooth, lustrous and perfectly ironed.

Find out how effortless, how inexpensive in operation these modern electric ironers really are. The Fedco Ironers are considered the finest available—drop in and see them today.

The News is in receipt of two interesting letters, one from Miss Leona Young of Dallas, and another from Claude A. Adams, Palacios, Tex. Miss Young's letter follows: "This is just to ask that you send me another copy of your pioneer number. I received my regular issue and it was so full of interest that I wanted Mr. Denley to see it and sent it in his office for him to look over. He wrote me a little note thanking me for the paper but didn't return it as I had intended. Since he is president of the A. H. He complimented it very highly and commented on its attractive, well-balanced make-up. I intended to show it to our State Press but it got away from me before I had the opportunity.

"I know the anniversary meant a lot to all of you and my mind was in Crowell all day Monday. I wasn't in Dallas at all. I am now looking forward to your next issue.

Official of Lee Hi-Way Writes H. E. Ferguson

The following letter has been received by H. E. Ferguson from Dr. S. M. Johnson of Washington, D. C., director-general of the Lee Highway Association.

"Wish you could have been at the board meeting in Hot Springs. This year closed without debt and the directors are to serve on until a later date, so you are still a director.

"The Virginia and Tennessee and California sections are all paved. Mississippi is all fine grade and gravel and 5 miles north from Corinth to Tenn. line will be paved by September. Much of the Alabama section is paved and the governor has recently agreed that the pavement will be continuous out of next available funds.

"All the Arkansas section will be paved by September. Entering Oklahoma, it is all a fine grade to Red River and all gravel or pavement to the east side of Cotton Co. west of Comanche or will be when present work is finished, so Cotton and Tillman must be jacked up.

"All of Arizona will be paved by Christmas and all of New Mexico is a smooth, fast and fine road, or will be by Christmas. So you see we are nearing the goal of a continuous pavement across the continent.

Sincerely, S. M. JOHNSON."

Thanks We wish to take this method of again thanking the people of the Black and Jamison communities who so willingly helped us raise our quota in the Legion Auxiliary drive for funds to erect the statues.—Mrs. J. A. White, Mrs. Paul Clifford, committee.

It is said that Japan, England, Italy and France will agree on a plan for smaller warships. The Navy League of the United States argues that we need larger fighting machines than those contemplated, on account of the fact that this country is not self-supporting, and must bring in its supplies over sea routes that are longer and more difficult to guard than those that Europe must depend upon. The argument is patriotic, but not compelling. It seems that the United States is capable of taking her place, and holding her own, under almost any general disarmament program.

Letters from a former President of the United States, about which the veil of mystery has been thrown, turn out to be nothing more than part of a familiar correspondence, carried on with an old neighbor in the home town. have performed a like service in Washington and London. It is quite so easy to compile a list of prominent persons, the likes of the unusual, and the incentive will always tempt a minded to try to prove that has feet of clay.
