"WEEKLY PAYROLL" CAMPAIGN IN FULL SWING; FRIENDS SHOULD HELP THEIR FAVORITES AT ONCE

Credit Standing Shows New Leader in Big Drive As Workers Battle Hard to Win Choice and Costly Awards

Without doubt, less work was accomplished last week in the Foard County News' big "Weekly Payroll" campaign than at any time during the subscription drive. Those workers in the campaign who seemed to be "pulling away" from others, slipped and those very same "others," and brand new entrants made themselves important factors in the greatest subscription drive ever staged in this section of the state.

The reader only has to observe the credit count to see that the race has started in earnest, and those "Weekly Payroll" workers who are ambitious, and not afraid to ask for subscriptions from their friends to get, not only an extension of one year, but longer terms, while they count more.

Now Is Time To Work
If the candidates and their friends could only realize the opportunity afforded at the present time to pile up a huge credit total, it is almost certain that no one would delay "bearing down" nor giving a subscription while credits are worth double over the amount given in the last week of the campaign.

Why, right now, three Merit Certificates of subscriptions, which means only $30, would bring over one-half million credits. Read those credit possibilities.

No Bargain Days
Every day is a bargain day during the campaign, for with each subscription sold, a pass, good for two people, to the Rialto Theatre is given, which entitles the subscriber to witness any picture during the drive. This is clearly a saving of 70c to the subscriber. As announced last week by the publisher, it will be impossible to hold any "Bargain Rate" this year, as has been the custom for the past several years. There are a number on the present list, whose time expired on January 1st, 1931, which shows that the method was unsatisfactory, and owing to the fact that the United States Postal Department requires subscriptions be kept up-to-date, this necessitates that the list be cleaned up at once.

Friends Should Help Now
No subscriber now on The News' list, nor those contemplating subscribing, should wait to give their favorite worker a subscription. To do so, will cause that friend to lose many thousands of credits, and possibly, the loss of the choicest prizes. Right now is the time to help, for in just a few days the large credits will take a huge drop and never again in this campaign will they be so high.

New Workers Can Win
With the present BIG period schedule yet in effect, giving a brand new worker or a late starter an opportunity to pile up credits on the double quick, no one should delay entering nor working. Work done during this period may easily bring success to real campaigners. The laggard, unwilling to devote time or thought to the prizes, however, will reap but small reward. This is a campaign for live-wires. Candidates, if you are ambitious, if you are awake to your opportunity, you will get REAL RESULTS THIS WEEK.

Thalia Wins 13-Inning Contest from Truscott

Thalia defeated Truscott by the score of 6 to 3 in a 13-inning ball game at Truscott Sunday. Doubles by Roy Mints and Bailey, followed by a home run by Gotchie Mints accounted for the victory.

Thalia is now leading the Wheat Belt League with only one game left to play in the first half. A double-header will be played with Medicine Mound Sunday, one game counting in the first half, and the other in the second half.

Roy Mints pitched the entire 13 innings for Thalia and held Truscott to 9 hits. Truscott used Stone, B. Abbott and J. Myers on the mound. With Roy Mints on second as the result of a double in the 13th, and with two out Bailey connected for

Fire Destroys Farm Home of H. E. Schlagal

The farm home of Harry E. Schlagal and family, located about three miles northeast of Crowell, was totally destroyed by fire between five and six o'clock Monday morning.

The fire started from an oil stove that was being used to prepare breakfast. Only a few household items were saved. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

The Schlagal family is now living in a residence in Crowell. The 5-room home destroyed by fire was built about two years ago.

a double drive Mints home and Gotchie Mints followed with a home run to cinch the contest. Truscott failed to score in the last half of the 13th.

MAYOR ASKS BUSINESS HOUSES TO CLOSE THURS. AFTERNOON, JULY 23, FOR GAME TO AID STATUE FUNDS

The most interesting baseball game of the season for Foard County fans will be played here next Thursday, July 23, between Crowell and Thalia at the local ball park and the entire receipts from this contest will be turned over to the American Legion statue funds for the dough-boy and sailor statues that are to be erected on the court house lawn. The game is to start at four o'clock.

Because of the worthy purpose of this contest and the co-operative spirit that is being shown by each ball club in helping to raise the statue funds, Mayor C. T. Schlagal has requested Crowell business firms to close their doors during this game in order that the attendance may be as heavy as possible.

As has been the case in past years, Thalia has one of the best ball clubs in West Texas and at the present time is the leader in the Wheat Belt league. The Crowell club will have its full strength at this time, according to Manager O. O. Hollingsworth, and is expecting to furnish a real contest for the invading Tigers.

Special Features
In addition to the ball game a number of other special features have been arranged for. Contests in long distance baseball throwing, fungo throwing, circling bases, hitting, pepper games, special races and other contests between members of the two clubs will take place.

Small Admission
The admission to the game and the other features is only twenty-five cents. This not only enables local fans to see an entertaining contest, but also offers them an opportunity of helping a very worthy cause. About five hundred dollars of the two thousand dollar statue fund is yet to be raised.

Rock Base on Five Miles of Hi-way 28 to Open for Traffic

Through traffic will be routed over about ten miles of pavement on Highway 28, west of Crowell, some time next week. At present through traffic is required to detour after traveling on the concrete pavement to a point about two miles west of Crowell. Five miles of concrete pavement west of Crowell has been ready for traffic for some time but no detour near its end has been available.

The rock base on the first 5 miles for the triple bituminous surface treatment, beginning where the concrete pavement ends, will be completed some time next week and traffic will be routed over this rock base for a short period, according to Byron Reese, resident engineer for the state highway department. The detour will be changed back to its present location when the work of applying the surface treatment is started. About ten days or two weeks will be required to complete this work.

Modern New Oven Now In Operation At Orr's Bakery

A large type of bakery oven was installed at Orr's Bakery Wednesday and is now in operation there. This modern oven is entirely different from the one it replaces and also has a slightly larger capacity.

It operates on an entirely different principle, having six small shelves in the place of one big shelf as was the case with the old oven.

These shelves are attached to two wheels on each side of the oven and while in operation the shelves revolve in "ferris wheel" style.

Through such an arrangement each loaf of bread receives an even amount of heat. Uniformly baked goods—thin even crust, better texture and more tasty bread is insured by the arrangement.

The oven is heated by natural gas and has a capacity of 212 loaves. The capacity of the old oven was 180. Since coming to this city about three years ago, Orville W. Orr, owner of the bakery, has installed modern and expensive bakery equipment and now has one of the most up-to-date bakeries to be found anywhere.

Play Ball Club to Local Girls Team from Wichita, Kan., in Aug.

Manager O. O. Hollingsworth of the local baseball club reports that a contract has been signed for a game between Crowell and Goldsmith D. & M. Girls of Wichita, Kansas, to be played in Crowell either on August 12 or 13.

This girl's team has an excellent reputation as a club and is expected to provide an interesting contest here next month.

CLUB BOYS TO HAVE ALL-DAY MEET FRIDAY

The 4-H Club boys of Foard County are to gather in an all-day meeting in Crowell this Friday, July 17. Fred Rennels, county agent in charge of boys club work, reports that an entertaining and instructive program has been arranged for the occasion.

The club boys have been instructed to assemble on the court house lawn Friday morning at nine o'clock. From there they will go to the Ricks Dairy where a talk on judging dairy cows will be given. A talk will also be given on feeding and other subjects that will be of interest to the boys and their fathers, who are also invited to take part in the day's activities.

Each club boy is requested to bring his lunch, a bathing suit, baseball equipment and his dad. The swimming will take place in the country club lake.

Armadillo Is Killed Near Crowell Monday

An armadillo, a very unusual animal to be found in this section of Texas, was killed Monday morning in a barn by Henry and Pat Johnson on the H. J. Watkins farm, where they live, which is located 4 miles south of Crowell.

Many believed that this was the first armadillo ever found in this section, however, some old-timers state that they have been seen before in the Peace River brakes.

Rev. W. R. McCarter Transferred to Calif.

He and his wife left for California this week and his appointment will be made on July 22. He expects to be stationed somewhere in Southern California.

The McCarters desired this transfer in order that they might be near their children, who live in California. Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum of Modesto, California, will take Rev. McCarter's place at Ralls. Rev. Quattlebaum is an old Texan. His parents now reside in Clarendon.

BATTLING FOR THE LEAD!

Yes sir, and it is liable to be one of the most interesting races you have ever witnessed. Everyone a thoroughbred. Look at the credit standing and see where your favorite worker is. There are several changes this week and there will be others on the next count Saturday night. Keep your eye on some of those lower in the standing. It only takes a few subscriptions to put them at the top and they are working to get there.

Less Than 3c Per Week!

Is what you pay for the Foard County News at the regular price of only two dollars per year. EVERY CENT that this newspaper is spending, or giving as prizes, WILL STAY RIGHT HERE IN THIS SECTION. It will go into the grocery stores, the dry goods stores, churches, etc. When you help a worker, you help yourself and your town and county. Give your favorite worker a five-year subscription.

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

Everyone has an Adam's Apple—Every man—every woman has one. Touch your Adam's Apple with your finger. You are actually touching your larynx—this is your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple, you are considering your throat—your vocal chords.

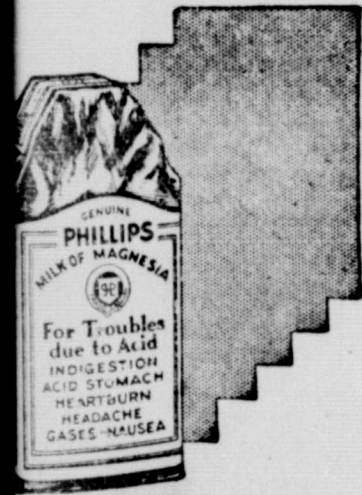

"TOASTING" expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE—the modern cigarette. We sell these expelled irritants to manufacturers of chemical compounds. Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" Process includes the use of Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED"—an extra, secret and exclusive heating process. It is this process that expels these harsh irritants. No wonder 20,679 American physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple." Reduce the Acid Stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. Alkali kills acid instantly. The best is Phillips Milk of Magnesia; one glass, tasteless dose neutralizes 10 times its volume in acid. For 50 years the standard with physicians everywhere. Take a spoonful in water and your happy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always be what you do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Give this for your own sake. It may save you a great many disagreeable hours. Get the genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia, the kind physicians have prescribed for 50 years.

THE NEWSPAPER

I would rather write about newspapers than any of the fine and useful institutions of modern culture and civilization. I like to think of them as alert sentinels of the public conscience, as crusaders for progress and prosperity, as unselfish champions of the right and traditional enemies of the wrong. They are all of that, and more; but if they survive, they must be business institutions, too.

However well managed newspaper plants may be, they seldom earn returns commensurate with the time and effort and talent expended. Indeed, were they not slaves to the subtle incense of printers' ink, did they not love their work more and money less, there would be no newspaper men and therefore no newspapers.

Yet business men—men who would not think of asking the druggist to donate a five-cent drink—will resort to any device to slip into the newspaper advertising camouflaged as news. They forget that newspapers are not some form of privately endowed philanthropy; they do not stop to think they ask a business institution to donate the only commodity it has for sale. (Subscriptions are obtained at an actual loss, for the business purpose of making valuable space offered to advertisers. It costs any newspaper more to print and mail a year's production than the reader pays for it.)

Frequently good news stories are ruined by almost ludicrous attempts to write into them clumsily concealed advertising. At the present time, the publicity for a splendid and worthy movement, a movement to which every newspaper is pleased to lend its influence, is disfigured by persistent mention of its leader's business connection. Even when the newspapers submit to the imposition, no good purpose is served because the public sees—not the guiding genius of a great, progressive program—but the slapstick antics of a publicity hound.

There are two very good reasons why advertising should be presented in paid space. First, the advertiser who succeeds in "slipping in" unpaid advertising annoys and irritates the reader who feels he has been made the victim of a fraud; and, second, the newspaper that consistently permits advertising to appear in its news columns ceases to be a business institution and therefore soon ceases to be a newspaper.

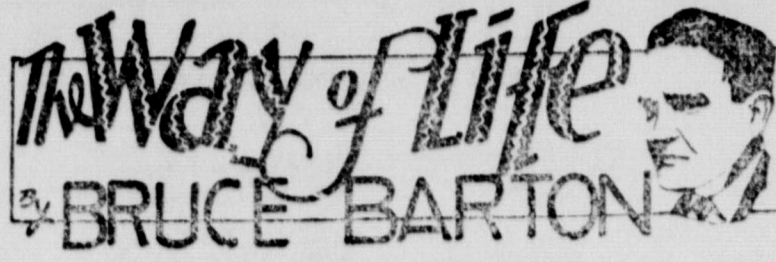

Modern newspapers have a larger capital investment than the average business institution, skilled craftsmen must be employed, and large overhead expenses must be met. Properly supported, and with its advertising space sold at a legitimate profit, the newspaper can render the essential and constructive service expected by a critical public. Without that support and paid advertising, it quickly becomes a miserable remainder of the splendid institution that might, have been.—Editorials of the Month.

TYING THE NATION TOGETHER

The process of tying every part of the United States to every other part of the United States by means of modern, hard-surfaced highways is going on more rapidly than ever before. It is a big program, for this is a big country. But we only have to look back a few years, to the days before the automobile, to realize what tremendous progress has been made.

One would have to go a long way into the back country these days to find a main-travelled road as bad as even the average highway was twenty years ago. Where today is there a main road that is not passable for teams in any weather? There used to be thousands of them in which wagons would be mired hub-deep in the spring and defy all efforts of horses, mules and oxen to move them.

It has cost us something to build our national system of highways, but the result has been worth the cost. Some states have built more roads than others, but every state is doing its share. This year the greatest

WHAT DOES IT MATTER?

Last summer there was a water shortage in a town where I was visiting. I happened to be chatting with my host, who is a noted man, while he was shaving, and I noticed how careful he was to use very little water.

"It seems sort of silly for you to be so conscientious," I remarked. "After all, the few drops that you conserve won't make any difference."

"They don't make any difference in the final result," he said, "but they make a lot of difference to me."

When he saw from my expression that I didn't quite get his meaning, he proceeded to give me his philosophy of life.

He said that when he graduated from college, a quarter of a century ago there was a great deal of popular emphasis upon so-called "social service."

Science had begun to introduce wonderful new inventions for increasing human happiness. Men were stirred by the hope of a quick millennium. Young people graduated with the notion that a few years of earnest effort would transform the world.

My friend was one of the most eager of the reformers. He organized, and voted, and agitated, and did all the things that he should. But nothing happened. The good candidates for whom he cast his vote were defeated. The good causes made show progress. Human nature showed a discouraging unwillingness to change.

"I went through a period of deep disillusionment," he said. "I thought to myself, what's the use of doing anything when one's single effort seems so futile?"

"One day while I was in this mood I discovered these words of Socrates: 'I, therefore, . . . consider how I may exhibit my soul before the judge in a healthy condition. Wherefore, disregarding the honors that most men value, and looking to the truth, I shall endeavor in reality to live as virtuously as I can; and when I die, to die so. And I invite all other men, to the utmost of my power; . . . to this contest, which, I affirm, surpasses all contests here.'"

"That flashed across my mind like a bolt of lightning," my friend continued. "It clarified everything."

"I realize that I am not responsible for the success or failure of any good cause. All I am responsible for is my own best effort in that cause. Whether my vote be effective or not; whether the amount of water I can save will make any difference—these are not questions."

"The only question is: Am I doing my best?" "That discovery gave me great comfort," he concluded. "Maybe you could use it in one of your editorials?" "Many thanks," I answered. "I can."

increase in highway expenditure is being made by Louisiana, with a $71,350,000 road budget for 1931 compared with about half as much as last year. All told, states, counties and the Federal government are spending $259,897,000 on roads this year. That is only $15,000,000 or so more than last year. New York, naturally, is spending the most, a hundred and fifty-three millions, with Pennsylvania, second. Sixteen states are spending less on roads this year than last, 32 of them more. One noticeable result is the greatly increased freedom of intercourse between all parts of the nation. The people of one section no longer regard those of others with suspicion, as strangers. It is probably true that the majority of Americans have travelled farther from their home communities, seen more of the rest of the world outside their local boundaries, than have any appreciable proportion of the people of any other country. That alone will, in time, make us a broader-minded, more cultured people than is to be found anywhere else.

RUNNING A NEWSPAPER

The thing that makes it hard for a person to run a newspaper is his friends. When a friend thinks something ought to be kept out of the paper he doesn't hesitate to ask it as a personal favor. An enemy doesn't ask any favors. But a friend thinks the conduct of a newspaper is the personal matter of the editor, when as a matter of fact he is largely in the position of a man serving a public trust.

A philosophical old fellow once said to the writer, "A newspaper that doesn't make you mad once in a while isn't worth the subscription price."

To make people mad isn't the chief province of a newspaper, but if it's going to be one worthy the name, it must print the news without fear or favor. This paper has been threatened with and indeed has suffered business reprisals, not once, but frequently. These things must necessarily be borne in silence. The great reading public which a newspaper serves is not interested in the personal difficulties of the editor or publisher, though we have known instances when a full airing of threat and subsequent reprisals would have made absorbing reading.

But such things must be regarded as part of the game—to be suffered perhaps because of sins committed in other directions. And then, too, it must be remembered that all things both human and divine, are subject to criticism. Even the Bible does not escape.—Perry, Iowa, Free Press.

BETTER BE SAFE THAN SORRY

The drowning season is now in full swing. From now until school begins again thousands of boys—girls, too, these days—will take unnecessary chances in the water and lose their lives in consequence. That has always been true, and it will always be true. Youth will always take chances, and never listen to advice. Nevertheless, we offer some advice to those who would go swimming.

- Don't stay in too long. Half an hour is enough at a stretch.
- Don't go into the water immediately after eating a heavy meal.
- Don't keep on swimming after you are tired.
- Never go swimming alone.
- Don't try to "find bottom."
- Don't get into a canoe unless you can swim.

Most of the drowning accidents come from disregard of those simple precautions. If everybody would follow them there would be fewer young lives lost.

PERFORMANCE

More than five thousand years ago, the great rulers of Egypt erected as monuments to their vanity, the obelisks and pyramids and Sphinx that may still be seen standing nobly and eloquently in the sands of the desert.

These baffling phenomena have withstood the ages and the elements because of the engineering genius, the patient workmanship, the boundless wealth that created them.

Today, man believes in another kind of permanence. Today, an institution endures because of its ideals, because of its desire and capacity to serve.

The Bank of Crowell is such an institution. Its present building may give way to another, and still another, but the institution will endure, a credit to its community and founders.

We are getting ready to participate in one of the biggest invitation polo meets ever staged in Texas. A number of teams, including a team from Houston enroute to the Broadmoor Tournament at Colorado Springs, Fort Worth, with Charley Featherstone from Wichita Falls, a picked team from Abilene, three San Angelo teams, one or two from Texon, possibly Menard, Fredericksburg, Midland, Big Lake and other teams will take part in the games the last of the month at San Angelo.

We are trying to get up a wagon train to go to California this fall. We need old Indian scouts, pack mules, covered wagons, saddle horses and money. We have a camp cook who knows how to make sour-dough bread. We need a man who knows how to pack a mule and throw the diamond hitch. We won't fool with anybody who plays French harps. Any mules donated to this outfit must have teeth good enough to eat corn or they will be ignored. This wagon train will leave here early enough to work all the gold mines in California if it leaves at all. We aim to strike out in the spring and head for the Klondike region to work the mines in Alaska during next summer. Next winter all those who wish will trap in the big snows of Alaska, provided it snows there then. Anyone not having anything else to do and wish to take a covered wagon along and go may do so at their own expense and neither will chuck or anything be furnished unless someone wants to do so. Also we would be glad to find some one willing to finance this project.

Local Goodyear Dealer Trying for Akron Trip

"It's difficult to get a correct idea of the size and detail of the Navy Airship USS Akron from pictures," declared M. F. Crowell of the Crowell Service Station. "That's why I'm out to make my quota in Goodyear dealers' Third Annual Zeppelin Sales race because the dealers who make the highest percent of sales to quota win a trip to Akron, and a chance to see this Leviathan of the air at the Goodyear-Zeppelin dock where it is being built. The Zeppelin Sales Contest ends in August about the time the USS Akron is expected to be making its trial flights so fortunate dealers who earn the trip will get a close-up view of the ship.

"Few of the thousands of spectators who see the Akron on its test flights will realize the number of special features of the ship's construction. For example, the gas cells. The tailoring of these cells is much more exact than in any human garment, and few will stop to think that the fabric used is measured in acres rather than in square yards.

"The 6,500,000 cubic feet of non-inflammable helium gas that will provide the lift for the Akron will be contained in 12 separate cells which will require 60,000 square yards or more than 1 acres of fabric. The largest of these cells will contain almost 1,000,000 cubic feet; the smallest will have a 100,000 cubic foot capacity.

"Gas cells in previous rigid ships were made of goldbeater skin, (small portions of the intestines of cattle,) but the Akron will have approximately one-half of its cells made from rubber impregnated fabric with a paraffin spread, and the remainder will be from a new fabric developed by Goodyear research which is known as "Gelatin-latex."

LAY AWAY FOR RAINY DAY

A lot of foolish folks today
To put on style, keep up display,
Are spending every cent they make,
No heed of future needs they take.
When sickness comes, with money gone,
Or old age comes a-creeping on,
Alas! they'll find their substance spent,
With naught to pay their keep or rent.
The First State Bank has found it pays
To save for sickness and rainy days.

CHURCHES

Christian Science

Sunday, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Subject for Sunday, July 19, "Life." Sunday School at 9:30. The public is cordially invited.

Christian Church

Our revival plans are now under way and the help of everyone is earnestly desired. There are three particular ways you can help in this preparation: first, pray; second, attend the services each Lord's Day; third, tell others about the coming meeting and especially the unsaved. On account of the Baptist revival there will be no evening services Sunday. The subject for the morning sermon will be, "Working Together for Jesus."

Invitations have been sent out to all neighboring churches to attend our meeting beginning August 2, and we are expecting a fine attendance from these churches. Bro. R. E. Shepard, the "Singing Mayor" of Wichita Falls, is expected to be with us one or more times during the meeting and being us a special song service. Also we expect Bro. Harry Hines to be with us at least for one service.

The Childress District Evangelical Association meets at Paducah next Monday, July 20, for both a day and night service. The program begins at the Christian Church at 11 o'clock in the morning and ends at about nine thirty in the evening. The noon and evening meal will be furnished without cost by the Paducah brethren. All who possibly can, are requested to attend. We want 20 delegates at least.

Be sure to help in the cottage-prayer-meeting as Bro. Long has them arranged. "If we pray we will work, if we work we will win."

C. V. ALLEN, Pastor.

The Church of Christ

Services at the Church of Christ last Sunday was one of the best, and the leading spirit of the gathering was really an inspiration to all present. That warm welcome and congenial interest seem to fill every heart, as always is found at this Church.

The sermon was delivered in that meek and humble spirit that makes a message appreciated by the hearers. And after the service was dismissed everybody was so glad to see each other that it was hard to leave the church. But we are glad to know that our services are so well appreciated by those attending them.

We had a number of visitors present among whom were Mrs. Erwin of Childress and her son, Troy Erwin. We were glad to have them with us and hope they will be with us often.

The singing last Sunday night was not so well attended and we do hope that as the harvest is about over attendance at all of our services will be better. While the harvest of the wheat crop is or will soon be past, let us remember that there is another harvest far greater, which is the harvest of the souls of men and women, come and let us labor in that great harvest.

The meeting opened with a song. Mrs. Daniel led the devotional and read the third chapter of Matthew. Mrs. Rosenthal followed with a prayer.

After the business session was over, two clever contests were enjoyed very much. One was a flower contest and the other a snake contest.

How to train BABY'S BOWELS

Babies, bottle-fed or breast-fed, with any tendency to be constipated, would thrive if they received daily, half a teaspoonful of this old family doctor's prescription for the bowels.

That is one sure way to train tiny bowels to healthy regularity. To avoid the fretfulness, vomiting, crying, failure to gain, and other ills of constipated babies.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is good for any baby. For this, you have the word of a famous doctor. Forty-seven years of practice taught him just what babies need to keep their little bowels active, regular; keep little bodies plump and healthy. For Dr. Caldwell specialized in the treatment of women and little ones. He attended over 35% births without loss of one mother or baby.

SOCIAL SERVICE IN THE EARLY CHURCH

Acts 4:32-35; 6:1-4;

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

Christianity is far more than an ideal. Its principles can be put into practice. Calvin Coolidge recently said in one of his daily messages: "It would be difficult to find anywhere on earth a human being whose life has not been modified in some degree by the influence of the Christian religion." Thought of others rather than of self is basic. This being gain with the Founder and every true follower has the same idea.

Today the world still needs the fullest expression of Christian socialism. As people had need in the Jerusalem congregation, provision was made by turning into a common fund whatever could be spared. Many quarrels resulted over the distribution of money. When the apostles faced the situation they realized that their work of preaching was so great that they could not also give adequate attention to the physical needs of the growing Christian community. Then the office of deacon was inaugurated and seven were chosen to undertake this special type of service. This office of deacon persists in the church of today and a long line of men and women have thus very honorably served the Lord in helping the poor.

Later the gathering of the poor found was an extensive enterprise. The Council of Jerusalem decreed that Paul, and the other apostles to the nations, should seek funds for the poor in Jerusalem when they ministered abroad. The church in Corinth was held up as an example to the friends in Macedonia quite as we are urged today to measure up to the gift made by another. Thus what are called modern financial pressure methods in raising money seem to be rather old.

One hundred and twenty pairs of trousers were sold at 18 cents each at a sale of policemen's cast-off clothing in Baltimore.

SERMONETTE

INCONSISTENT MAN

By Arthur B. Rhinow

A notorious criminal was recently surprised and arrested by the police. When he recognized the officers of the law, he looked relieved.

"I was afraid you were some gangsters trying to 'put me on the spot,'" he explained.

Of course, he was relieved. In the courts of law, he will be given a chance to defend himself. He will be judged on the basis of right and wrong, and everything in his favor will be given consideration.

The rule of gangland is not so. It makes loyalty to the gang the supreme virtue, and disloyalty the most heinous crime, no matter how much that disloyalty might benefit society at large. From the officers of the law, the criminal may expect justice, from his own kind he can expect nothing but vengeance, narrow, tyrannical and brutal vengeance.

An yet he has lived to antagonize that very justice in whose protection he now finds relief.

How pitifully inconsistent is man, always tearing down the house in which he wants to live! We sing sentimentally of home, sweet home, and do so much to weaken the foundation of home. We glorify mother and break mother's heart. We speak beautifully of friendship and are not willing to make the sacrifices necessary to sustain friendship, break the law and want the law to protect us. We recite prayers that live like outlaws of the kingdom of God.

Not all of us, to be sure. But the best of us often feel like criminals.

"God, be merciful to me, a sinner." If we were true to ourselves, we would thank God for justice, mercy and divine, and above all, for abundant mercy.

CIGARETTE TOBACCO YIELD DOUBLED IN U. S. A. SINCE '21

Production of flue-cured tobacco in the United States more than doubled since 1921, according to government estimates. Flue-cured tobacco is used chiefly in the manufacture of cigarettes and the gain in production of this type of tobacco is the result of the increasing numbers of men and women who are reaching for cigarettes. The overgrowing popularity of the cigarette is attributed by authorities in the industry to the fact that people are paying more attention to their Adam's apples and are using cigarettes from which certain harsh irritants present in all tobaccos have been removed by modern methods of manufacture such as the toasting process including the use of ultra violet rays. According to government records, production of flue-cured tobacco last year amounted to more than 870,000,000 pounds as compared with only 372,000,000 pounds in 1921. Production in 1930 set a new record for flue-cured tobacco, the next largest being about 750,000,000 pounds in 1929.

Local Men Invited To Attend Reunion of Old School in Ga.

Frank L. Ownbey, J. W. Bell and W. S. J. Russell, all of Foard County, have received invitations to attend a reunion of the old rural school that they attended as boys about 50 years ago.

The event is referred to as a "Reunion of the Antioch School of the 80's." This is a rural school near Blairsville, Georgia, and its reunion is to be held on September 7. Mr. Bell first attended this school in 1877. Mr. Ownbey and Mr. Russell attended it early in the 80's. The school instructor at that time, Prof. Luther Mauney, is still alive and will again conduct classes.

A copy of the invitation received here follows:

"Moved by sincere expressions, verbal and written, by surviving students of the 80's that they again wished to assemble at this institution of learning and playground of their youth, together with much interest shown by the church and community, a meeting was held June 13 which unanimously favored a reunion to be held on Labor Day, September next.

"Pursuant of the action alone, a committee has been appointed to promote and make this a pleasant occasion for the now thin ranks whose heads have grown white from the snows of many winters.

"You are requested to contact your old playmates and request them to meet at Old Antioch.

"It is sincerely hoped that you can arrange your business, leave all cares behind and with 'the old Blueback Spelling Book,' assemble at this hallowed spot, Old Antioch, Sept. 7, and enjoy for a day that once carefree atmosphere of boyhood and girlhood school days—meet playmates you have not seen for years. Prof. Mauney is seriously interested in the Reunion and will be present and again have classes."

The three former Antioch "school boys" now living in Foard county do not know yet whether they will be able to attend the reunion.
