YOUTHFUL NOTABLES

Foreign Minister Grandi, who made such a favorable impression during his stay in the United States, has been a leading figure in Italy for several years, although he is now only 35. His youthful ability has been the subject of much comment, and has recalled notables of the past who attained great fame at an early age, a few of which may be mentioned.

Alexander the Great had conquered virtually the entire known world before his death at the age of 32.

William Pitt became prime minister of England at 24.

Viscount James Bryce finished his great historical work, "The Holy Roman Empire," before he was 24.

Ruskin wrote "Modern Painters" at 24.

Michael Angelo did his statue of David at 26.

Keats died at 25, Shelley at 30, and Byron at 26.

Newton was only 24 when he formulated the law of gravitation.

Hume shocked the Christian world with his writings before he was 28.

Mandelstam wrote the incidental music to "A Midsummer Night's Dream," including the famous wedding march, at 17.

All these, and many more, illustrate in greater or less degree that elusive quality called genius, which neither science nor philosophy has ever satisfactorily explained.

PETROLEUM AND ITS PRODUCTS

The careless use of petroleum and its products is one of our most serious hazards. This classification means, of course, gasoline, kerosene and other manufactures of the petroleum industry. The yearly fire loss in the United States amounts to a little more than $11,000,000, and in the State of Texas during 1930 there were approximately 150 fires from this cause which resulted in a property loss of approximately $200,000.00.

The most serious danger arising from the improper use of gasoline and kerosene is the number of people burned to death.

Gasoline is the most dangerous of these products owing to its volatility, which causes it to vaporize rapidly, and its gas, when mixed in proper proportion with air, becomes highly explosive. The practice of cleaning clothes with gasoline is a dangerous one, for in doing so the fumes spread out in all directions, and when they come in contact with a blaze, or the merest spark, an explosion takes place. The following safety rules should be used for gasoline:

1. Never attempt to start a fire of any kind with gasoline.

2. Gasoline should be kept in approved "Safety" cans; not glass bottles.

3. Never leave gasoline uncovered so the fumes can spread.

4. Never use gasoline for cleaning clothes or any other article in the house where there is a fire, or where house is closed. Gasoline should always be used in the open air.

5. Do not smoke in garage, or smoke in automobile while its tank is being filled. Remember gasoline fumes spread.

Kerosene is dangerous and should always be treated with respect. Too many people have been burned to death in Texas this year by the improper use of kerosene, and we urge that the following safety rules be used for kerosene:

1. Never attempt to start a fire with kerosene.

2. Keep kerosene in "Safety" cans and out of reach of children.

3. Be sure that oil heaters and cookers do not leak and make sure they will not overturn easily.

4. Keep burners on all oil heaters clean and do not turn flames too high.

5. Do not let the floor beneath the can become oil soaked.

6. Never leave kerosene uncovered.

7. Fill by daylight only any receptacle in which oils is to burn.

8. Not more than one gallon should ever be kept in the house and it should be in "Safety" can.

9. Make sure that oil cans do not leak or drip.

MERCHANDISING

An earnest gentleman called at my office with a "message." He said that this is the time for me to write and induce somebody to publish some full-page advertisements on Merchandising.

The attention of all executives is now focused on the subject, he said. If we could only get them to "think straight" it would "clarify the whole business situation" and start the "return of prosperity."

I asked him what he meant by merchandising. He hemmed and hawed, and finally remarked: "Why, you know, merchandising; everybody knows what you mean by merchandising."

I told him that I had listened to much conversation on that subject in 1929, but had never heard any one define the term.

"In those boom days it seemed to mean over-selling," I continued. "It meant trying to get barber shops to put in a side line of lawn mowers, urging toilet goods departments to carry ice cream cones, forcing automobile parts into delicatessens."

"It meant pushing up the sales quota twenty-five per cent every year; lying awake nights to think up ways of making people buy more than they needed; going out extravagantly to steal the other man's customers. All that sort of high pressure activity was walking around under the banner of 'merchandising' in 1929," I said, "and if, when we speak of 'getting back to normal' we mean getting back to that rush and strain then I am not much interested."

He went away shaking his head, as if I had uttered treason against the great spirit of American enterprise.

Perhaps he was right; perhaps I am getting old and "unprogressive." But the kind of merchandising problems that I believe our country must face sooner or later are problems like the following:

Why, with so much wealth, are so many men out of work?

Why is our economic machinery so clumsy that men can go hungry in New York while other men are feeding wheat to hogs in Kansas?

Why, with so many labor-saving devices, have we so little leisure?

Why are factories closed when a large percentage of the human race is still barefoot, under-nourished, and wet when it rains?

Why were our parents, who were so much poorer than we, still so much more contented, peaceful and secure?

How can we think more about human beings and less about money? How can we recognize the economics of distribution so that everybody can have more of the good things of life as a result of steady, smooth production?

I cannot answer these questions, but I do believe it is important to get as many men as possible thinking about them.

Even if we have to divert a few minutes from our "merchandising."

was spread in the basement. Rev. Agee, district missionary of Wichita Falls, preached at the evening services.

MAGAZINE IS PAL OF BOYS

Those boyhood years between the ages of ten and twenty are the impressionable years—the formative years when the fundamental character of a boy is molded into the pattern it will maintain throughout the remainder of his life.

That is why so much importance is placed on the factors that govern the lives of adolescent boys—their companions, their environment, their reading, the food they eat, etc. At this age is determined whether the boy will develop into a cheerful or surly man, generous or selfish, intelligent or dull, ambitious or indolent.

School teachers, librarians, Scout leaders and others engaged in boy activities have found that THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION magazine is one of the most favorable influences a boy between ten and twenty can have. Its stories and articles are a force for good—wholesome, alive, inspiring.

The million or so boys who read this magazine every month consider it their closest friend. In it they find the keenest entertainment, adventure, mystery, athletics, aviation, humor, everything that delights a livewire American boy. Its sports articles by famous coaches and athletes help boys win places on their school teams. Its professional articles and biographical sketches aid them in selecting their life's work. Its keenly analytical editorials guide them in their daily problems.

That boy or young man in whom you are interested would have a world of pleasure reading THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION. Make a subscription to this magazine your gift to him. Subscription prices are only $2.00 for one year or $3.00 for three years. Mail your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, 550 W. Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

THE HOLY BIBLE

By J. E. HUTCHINSON, C. M. C. Student

This Book contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions are immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, the Christian's character.

Here paradise is restored, heaven is opened, and hell is disclosed. Christ is its grand object, our good is its design, and the glory of God is its end. It shall fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given to you in life, will be opened in the judgment, and

CHURCHES

Christian Science

Sunday, 11 a. m. Subject for Sunday, December 13, "God the Preserver of Man."
Sunday School at 9:30.
Wednesday evening service at 8 o'clock.
The public is cordially invited.

Christian Church

"Peacemakers" is the title of a play given by the Christian Endeavorers at the church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. This is a fine presentation of church life and teaches a very fine lesson, in fact, several fine lessons. All church people of the community are especially invited to come.
"The Test of Stewardship" will be the subject of the sermon Sunday morning. Read II Cor. 8:1-15 and I Cor. 18:1-2.
Christmas is coming. We are planning special services for morning and evening, Dec. 24th, and these services will be interesting and all who do not attend other services are urged to be with us.

Our 1932 plans as outlined by the special committee and accepted by the official board will be presented to the congregation for their consideration Sunday morning. Come and help us in this.
John 17:21, "That they all may be one; as thou, Father in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." This is our scriptural motto for 1932 and from it we take these words as our aim and theme for the year's work: "That we may all be one in Him."
C. V. ALLEN.

Baptist Church News

Our hearts were thrilled Sunday morning by Missionary Dr. V. L. David of Spain. He told the wonderful story of Jesus and how the people of Spain were accepting Him as Savior. How Catholic rule is swaying and the Nation is being opened to the Baptists and Protestants. Not a one of us but resolved to do more in carrying the blessed Gospel to the uttermost parts of the world. We hope that our "Lottie Moon" offering for foreign missions will be the largest it has been since the supreme sacrifice that started this move.

It was the pastor's joy to take Dr. David to Thalia where he spoke to a large crowd in the afternoon and on to Lockett where he spoke again. He also spoke at the First Church in Vernon Sunday night.
The Pastor preached at the evening hour to a medium sized crowd. His subject was "Heavenly Citizenship."

Our Citizenship is in Heaven.

The Sunday School was fine, the offering being the largest it has been for many Sundays. The training service was fine.

Sunday School at 9:45; preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.; training service at 6 p. m. Come and bring a friend. A good place to spend Sunday. You will find a welcome with us.

The pastor will preach at the evening hour on Revelation. He will discuss the working of the third church of Asia. If you are a singer help in the choir. Good singing and a day of worship. Come.
WOODIE W. SMITH, Pastor.

Christian Science Churches

"God the only Cause and Creator" was the lesson-sermon subject in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, December 6.

The golden text was from Deuteronomy 6:4,5. "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might."

Included in the service were these passages from the Bible (Psalms 33:8,9): "Let all the earth fear the Lord; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. For he spake, and was done; he commanded, and it stood fast."

As a part of the lesson-sermon, this citation from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, was also read (page 170):

"Spiritual causation is the one question to be considered, for more than all others, spiritual causation relates to human progress. The age seems ready to approach this subject, to ponder somewhat the supremacy of spirit, and at least to touch the hem of Truth's garment"

The Church of Christ

Last Sunday at the Church of Christ, the service in the morning was well attended and fine interest manifested. The singing was good, the lesson was interestingly received and the entire service was overflowed with a spirit of devotion to God.

The singing Sunday night was above an average. Among the visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunagan and daughter, whose assistance in the song service was highly appreciated and we hope to have them with us often. Other visitors were also welcomed and appreciated. We have just received word from Elder C. R. Graves of Lockett, that he will be here and preach for the Church of Christ next Sunday morning. The Church extends to everybody a hearty welcome to come and hear Bro. Graves, as well as at all services of the church.
Come to the Church of Christ next Sunday morning.
E. J. SMITH, Minister.

At the Methodist Church

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. League at 6 p. m. Woman's Missionary Society, Monday at 4 p. m. Young Woman's Missionary Circle, Monday at 5 p. m. Prayermeeting, Wednesday at 7 p. m.

At the evening hour next Sunday the young people will put on a pageant that will be very interesting. Everybody of the town is invited to be present. It is free. Tell your friends about it and come yourself, each and everybody.

Come to Sunday School and preaching in the morning. We are interesting and profitable. We invite everybody to be with us next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.
Yours for the very best service possible.
B. J. OSBORN, Pastor.

JOHN'S VISION ON PATMOS Revelation 1:4-18

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

There are three schools of interpretation for the book of Revelation; it has been fulfilled, it will be fulfilled, or it is being fulfilled. Most of the conservative scholars follow the latter method. At least, this is positive. Revelation tells of the final triumph of Jesus Christ and His Church, and this sublime fact is a wondrous assurance in the midst of present evil condition. Do not try to find a meaning for every symbol or relate each episode to some event in history. Rather, read the book for its message of victory and the glorious way in which it presents Christ as King of kings and Lord of lords. No matter how great is the imagery of heaven, the symbol will be far less than the actual which will be experienced in time by the redeemed of the Lord.

John, the seer, was in exile on the island of Patmos and was granted the series of apocalyptic visions: there are seven series with seven items in each. Select the seven promises to the seven churches for cumulative blessings that come to the faithful.

Christ no longer is depicted as the Man of Nazareth in humble garb, but as the established Lord whom none can gainsay. He moves majestically in the midst of the churches. The occasion was when John "was in the Spirit on the Lord's day." This sublime manifestation of Him Who was once crucified is another argument for His immortality. The assurance is "I am alive forever more." Such contact with God was not to cause any distress and the encouraging word is given: "Fear not."

Turn now to the last chapter in Revelation and observe the heritage of the child of God. Heaven is the Home Land of the Soul. The invitation is to all: "Come—and he that is athirst, let him come; he that will, let him take the water of life freely."

RICH AND POOR

From the subway I stepped out upon Madison Square Park, a comparatively little patch of green framed in majestic buildings, a scene such as Arabian Nights never dreamt of. Madison Square Garden, the New York Life Building, a little to the left the Flatiron Building, and the Empire State Building at some distance, but near enough to dominate the group, its very height bringing it nearer. These were the giants; but clustering about them were structures every one of which would have looked out of proportion with surroundings in a small town.

What wealth these buildings represent. Hundreds of offices, many of them dealing in millions, and reaching out commercially to the ends of the earth. Enormous wealth!

DIATHERMY

Literally, it means "heating through," this diathermy form of treatment. The apparatus used in administering is expensive; not many rural physicians nowadays can afford such high-priced staff, considering the almost impossibility of carrying it to widely-scattered bedside patients.

Nevertheless, it is, and has been for some time, a growing, popular method of applying heat in the treatment of localized inflammations. That it will destroy germs by heat that are deeply situated within the body, I seriously doubt. I believe diathermy will greatly accelerate local circulation, hastening the blood through the part affected, and do some good in that way—just how much may not be accurately estimated.

The destruction of diseased tonsils is being brought about by diathermy, thus saving a more or less bloody operation; but it had better not be attempted by the amateur or beginner without competent instruction. The specialist is the only safe man to employ in the electrical extirpation of the tonsil.

My own experience has not been very pleasing in the use of diathermy, much that I regret to say. I have used it in numberless cases of chronic arthritis; if any improvement was noticeable it was very slight. I used it in a desperate attempt to relieve pneumonia in an aged patient—and lost; yes, in two cases, without benefit, and where I needed help, oh, so badly.

I believe diathermy to be a very refined, technical, expensive way of applying the simple principle of heat in the treatment of disease. I have yet to be shown that it furnishes greater heat inside the diseased member than on the outside. But I am not an authority, mind you; I am just an intelligent, common-sense, family doctor, with thirty-eight years of experience. I do not own a diathermy apparatus, but I work in hospitals where it is available in any instance desired. I sincerely hope it may come to be the standard, accepted method of obliterating diseased tonsils.

And yet on the benches of the park I saw men that looked down and out. They seemed to be weary. Perhaps they were tired of looking for a job. A few of them scanned the want ads of a paper somebody else had thrown away. Was it just imagination that made me see some of them look out dreamily to a far away home where the green was more inviting than in the city park?

What a picture of contrast! The wealthy and the down and out. They were all in the picture, but a clean divided them. And is there nothing that can bridge the chasm? There is nothing and there will be nothing until men realize that mankind is one, that all must suffer if one suffers, and that trying to become rich by making others poor is futile and foolish.

Tryouts were held for the selection of characters for the play "On Vengeance Height" which is to be given to Amarillo for a tournament on Dec. 11-12. Those who tried out in the play and those who won are: Pauline Donaldson, Mitchell Allee and Pauline Donaldson. The play is being directed by Jim Gafford. Gromley played by Jim Gafford, no competitors for this part. Clay, her grandson, is played by Leslie Thomas, who defeated Clark and J. M. Crowell for this part. Hope, a mountaineer girl, is played by Peggy Thompson, who defeated Jo Griffith and Bertha Womack for this part. There was much interest taken in the play last year and Crowell made a big headway with it by winning first place in bi-district and first district. With a new cast, much expected of this team and its up these players to carry Crowell to the top.

PEP SQUAD ENTERTAINS

The Crowell PEP Squad entertained the football and basketball teams and also the Kings High School basketball team Friday night, Dec. 4, in the home economics room. All of the pep squad and football boys were admitted to the basketball game free of charge. After the game every one went to the home Ec. room where sandwiches and cocoa were served. Delightful music was furnished by the Crowell band.

AMARILLO

Crowell will present "On Vengeance Height" in a tournament to be held in Amarillo Dec. 11 and 12. A loving cup is to be given to the best play. This tournament is being sponsored by the Public Speaking Department of Amarillo High School. It is hoped that Crowell will win the loving cup. Childress is taking "Pink and Patches," the play which won second in the district in 1930.

NEW BASKETBALL EQUIPMENT

The basketball players are the proud possessors of new sweat suits which are very attractive. The suits are with zippers. They have Crowell written on the front, and a Wildcat on the back. The numbers are on the arms. The players also have a new ball, so they are now ready for all future games.

ASSEMBLY TUESDAY MORNING

Mrs. Graves' drama class entertained in assembly Tuesday morning with the play, "On Vengeance Height." The characters were Jim Lois Gafford, Recie Womack and Leslie Thomas and Peggy Thompson. This same play was presented last year by different characters in the league contest, and will be presented in the Amarillo tournament Dec. 11-12.

HONOR ROLL FOR 2ND 6 WEEKS

Crowell high students are improving. Last six weeks there were only five on the high honor roll. This time six are on it. It would be something to marvel at if a new one made it every six weeks. Students for this month are, Leslie Thomas, Jo Roark, Pauline Donaldson, Merle Smith, Lida Sue Gorrell, Fred Allen Beverly.

The first six weeks, honors were claimed by the freshmen, but they have tied now with the juniors. C. H. S. is also proud of the seventeen which make up the low honor roll this month.

The first year home economics class served a luncheon to four members of the class Saturday. They intended to put the luncheon in Edwards' window down town but decided the weather was too cold. The luncheon consisted of the following: Salmon loaf, combination salad, English peas in the nest, hot chocolate and creamed puffs. The total cost was ninety-eight cents.

CHILDRESS

The play, "Flattering Word," was presented to the Childress student body Friday morning by Mrs. Graves' drama class. The play was presented here November 27th. Childress presented "Sauce for the Goshin" here some time ago.

INTERESTING NOTES ON LATIN

It is interesting to know that the "Romance Languages" (French, Spanish and Italian), which of course descended from Latin speech of the common people instead of the "classical" form, do not show the complicated system of inflection with which we are familiar in our study of Latin in high school. This is because the common people of Rome were careless in pronunciation and allowed final consonants to drop—just as we say "go'in'" instead of going. So in these modern languages we find that many of the case and verb endings of Roman times have disappeared.

Ordinary English words often contain picturesque meanings for the scholar who can see them. Example, any picture of a Roman scroll or book (called a volume from Latin verb volvo, to roll), makes clear the ancestry of our term "volume" as applicable to a book.

One frequently sees in the windows of stores this sign:
"We keep all the new novelties."
"Novelties" comes from the Latin novus, meaning "new". Therefore the sign really says, "We keep all new things."

NEWS FROM PRIMARY DEPARTMENT

Marion Williamson gave Mrs. Brown's room a picture show. The high first grade is making a new film for it.

Mrs. King's room gave the program Wednesday morning. It was a Thanksgiving program. All the children took part in the program.

The fourth grade boys defeated Miss Black's, Mrs. Walden's and part of Mr. Burrow's boys in football, 12-6.

Mrs. Self's room won the flower for having the most mothers at the P. T. A. Tuesday.

Mrs. Graves is home from the Quannah hospital.

HEIGHT OF THE RIDICULOUS

Mr. Graves: Take your time about getting to assembly, boys and girls. No educated person would be foolish enough to organize his time and live by schedule.

Leslie Thomas: I am awfully sorry I haven't my work ready, but I just wasn't in the mood to study. It's such a bore.

Miss Winnie: Yes, I know that Shelley's a bore, so just slump down in your seats and chew your gum if you like, and we'll read "True Stories" instead of "Eve of St. Agnes."

Mr. Black: I don't think that it is necessary for you to keep those things in mind that I have just told you, because even though we spent half of the period on them, they are of no real importance.

Miss Ball: I think it is perfectly wonderful how we agree on absolutely everything, Orville.

Mrs. Graves: Never go to the trouble of saying "How-do-you-do" to people, always say "Hello" or "Hi, There."

Miss Patterson: Why, of course you need not report to your physical education classes, if you do not want to. I just told you that you had to report merely for the fun.

PERSONALS

The cast of "On Vengeance Height" received quite a shock when it arrived at Mrs. Graves' to practice to find that the same play was being broadcast from W. B. A. P. The cast listened and made comparison of the two plays.

The home economics girls, under Miss Patterson, spent Saturday at the school house preparing luncheon.

On account of conflicts in work, the Junior play, "Oh Kay," has been postponed until the latter part of January.

HISTORICAL REMAINS

Proof of the fact that babies can talk when very young is that Job cursed the day he was born.

"A man after my own heart," said Antonio, as Shylock approached.

First Roman Citizen: Hail, Petronius.

Second Ditto: Hail nothing, that is the ashes from Vesuvius.

"Caesar," yelled Brutus.

"I've got her," came the reply.

I can not tell a lie. I did it with my little hatchet in a moment of temporary insanity.

Lowly Worm: Who was Hamlet?

Sophisticated Soph: I'm amazed at your ignorance. Bring me the Bible and I will show you.

Abraham Lincoln was noted for his honesty.

Freshman Ward: Then how come they close up the stores on his birthday?

"What is young Raleigh up to now?"

"Oh, just another publicity stunt for his father's pressing establishment."

"The Roman circuses should have been profitable," stated Stanley.

"Well, weren't they?" asked Sue.

"No, the lions ate up all the prophet."

Fred: What did you do with your chivalry?

Mamie Lee: I turned it in for a Buick.

JOKES

According to what most of the prominent students say, the only way to make a freshman understand anything is as follows:

1. Tell him what you're going to say.
2. Say it.
3. Summarize what you said.
4. Write him a letter.

An egotist is one who, reading a book and not understanding something in it, decides it is a misprint.

Melvine: What was the that joke about that the Prof. told in class.

Stanley: I don't know. He didn't say.

Recie: What are you thinking Doyle: Thanks for the compliment.

Miss Patterson: Tell me, what does the Christmas tree stand for?

Iris: Well, it would look sort of silly lying down.

The English three class was studying exposition. Miss Winnie assigned to the class the task of directing a stranger. When the papers were handed in, Miss Winnie was greatly surprised at Orville's. She found the following: "Sorry, partner, but I'm a stranger around these parts too."

Mr. Todd: When do the leaves begin to turn?
Ollie Mae: The night before exams start.

THE DORCAS CLASS

The Dorcas Class of the Baptist Sunday School had a spend-the-day meeting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Self on Thursday, Dec. 3. At noon a delightful covered-dish dinner was enjoyed to the fullest. In the afternoon one verse of the favorite song of each one present was sung. The devotionals were led by Mrs. J. T. Carter with a prayer by Mrs. B. F. Ringgold. Two contests were conducted by Mrs. Ida Reavis, teacher of the class, one of which was a fruit tree puzzle which proved to be very interesting. Before leaving for their homes, the guests were each given a number and from a pretty Christmas tree as the numbers were called, each was given a pretty handkerchief.

Several ladies from the Methodist Sunday School presented and very much appreciated the hospitality of this class who were the hostesses.

The following ladies enjoyed the day: Mrs. J. H. Carter, Mrs. J. J. Brown, Mrs. L. G. Andrews, Mrs. Jim Long, Mrs. J. R. Edgin, Mrs. B. F. Ringgold, Mrs. Jim Gribble, Mrs. Z. W. Smith, Mrs. Belle Allee, Mrs. J. W. Bell, Mrs. Nora Boardman, Mrs. R. P. Womack, Mrs. Lee Ribble, Mrs. M. F. Thacker, Mrs. R. B. Edwards, Mrs. Joel Thompson, Mrs. M. F. Meadows, Mrs. Ida Reavis, Mrs. C. C. McLaughlin, Mrs. Pearl Carter and Aunt Harriet Russell.—Contributed.

THE FIRST THURSDAY STUDY CLASS

The Thursday Study Class of the Christian Church met Dec. 3rd in the home of Mrs. Pete Bell. In the absence of our president, Mrs. Jim Cates, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Dow Miller, vice president. Mrs. John Long was leader for the afternoon and read Acts 2nd for devotional. Our lesson was on India and many interesting talks were given.

We will meet with Mrs. Kincaid in January for a covered dish luncheon and also a lesson in the afternoon. Everybody be present with that "dish."—Reporter.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

Mrs. W. B. Johnson was hostess to the Adelphian Club Wednesday afternoon. There were nineteen members present. Mrs. M. S. Henry gave a splendid review of the outstanding current news featured in the magazines, "Time," "Saturday Evening Post," and "Daily News."

Mrs. Esca Brown was leader for the lesson which concerned Christmas Carols.

As leader, Mrs. Brown gave an introduction "The History of Christmas Carols."

Mrs. Beverly gave an interesting discussion on the well known Christmas Carol, "Silent Night." This Carol is sung in every country where Christ is known. The words to this Carol were written by Mohr, while the music was composed by the German, Kuber. We feel extremely fortunate in getting this information about "Silent Night," because it is only through his niece that we were able to obtain this information, which was sent to her from Germany in a newspaper. Mr. Guber's niece, Mrs. Hobbs, tells us that sorrow inspired him to write this song, as he had lost his wife early in the Christmas season. We are proud that Mrs. Hobbs lives in Texas as a neighbor of ours, as she is now an instructor in music at Southern Methodist University at Dallas.

One of the most unique parts of the program was the harmonica duet by Frances Henry Johnson and Joe Wallace Beverly of "Silent Night."

Miss Lottie Woods played the carol, "While Shepherds Watched their Flocks by Night," on the violin.

The composer of "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful," is not known, however, we do know that originally it was in Latin. Doris Oswalt sang this carol for the club in its original language.

"Little Town of Bethlehem," composed by Phillip Brooks, is an American song. Doris sang it also, accompanied in both by Mrs. Sidney Miller.

Mrs. Girsch was very clever in telling two Christmas stories. These stories were different in content. The first one, "Her Token of Love," was humorous in content, while the other "When Christmas and I were Young," was inspirational in content.

After this delightful program, the club members all sang, "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," and "Silent Night."

Mrs. Johnson served a delicious plate to the club members, which carried out the Christmas idea both in color and arrangement.—Reporter.

GAMBLEVILLE CLUB GIRLS

Miss Hale met with twelve girls of the Gambleville community in the afternoon of December 3, at the home of Edith Turner to re-organize the club.

With Mildred Sollis as chairman, officers were elected as follows: President, Prebble Bailey; vice president, Edith Turner; secretary, Mildred Sollis; song leader and reporter, Edith Turner.

The sponsor of the club is to be elected later.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent learning new club songs and discussing the club work for the coming year.—Reporter.

FOURTH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

Miss Lottie Russell was hostess to a large number of little girls and boys last Saturday afternoon at a party in honor of the fourth birthday of her little niece, Joan Gentry. Games of all kinds were played. Lemonade, cake and candy were served to the following: Sandra Jo Bell, Joyzelle Tysinger, Mary Evelyn Edwards, Sam David Russell, Glendon Russell, Beverly Hughston, J. T. Hughston, Billie Brown, Juanita Brown, Evelyn Jean Scales, Mildred Marlow, Margarette Marlow, Ada Jane Magee, Virginia Thomas and Jean Orr. Joan received a larger number of nice birthday gifts.—Contributed.

TRUSCOTT P. T. A. MEETING

Perhaps the most outstanding program given by Truscott P. T. A. so far this year, was conducted last Tuesday night in the school auditorium.

It being "Dad's Night," the program was in charge of the men. Killan Moore as leader, gave a most forceful and thought provoking talk on "Respect and Appreciation Due Fathers." Mrs. Masterson, in an excellent way, supplemented Mr. Moore's talk by presenting the value of "Father's Influence in the Home and School."

The comical numbers were indeed a success and were enjoyed by the large number present.

On the night of December 15th, a Christmas program will be rendered and it is hoped everyone will attend.—Reporter.

THALIA HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Thalia Home Demonstration Club met Friday, Dec. 4, 1931, with Mrs. E. V. Cato with 10 members and Miss Hale present. After a short business meeting Miss Hale gave a demonstration on the making of cakes, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

We are to have a social at the home of Mrs. G. W. Scales Friday, 18. All members are requested to be present.—Reporter.

Mrs. Frank Ward Fills Pantry Inexpensively

The following report has been made by Mrs. Frank Ward, who is the pantry demonstrator for the West Rayland home demonstration club:

I have been a member of the West Rayland Home Demonstration Club since it was organized three years ago. I have learned many things that have been a great help to me. I bought a pressure cooker six years ago and have canned some every year, but I have tried harder this year, 1931, to fill a balanced food budget than ever before. One reason for this is the fact that my club those me as 4-H Pantry Demonstrator, so I wanted to make as good a record as possible, and also because I realize more and more the importance of serving my family a balanced diet. A well filled pantry certainly goes a long way toward the serving of well balanced meals at little cost.

In the early fall of 1930 I began planning for my pantry. Miss Dosca Hale, County Demonstrator, gave us a demonstration on "Planning the Canning Budget," and also on the "Adequate Diet." Then I worked out a budget for my individual family. I planned a budget of 670 containers but since I had a surplus of several products I canned more than enough for one year because in West Texas we often need to can enough for two or three dry years.

Early in the fall we were not sure that we would be able to raise plenty of vegetables so I canned leafy vegetables for our neighbors on the share. Then we canned and cured plenty of meat and also raised an adequate supply of poultry and dairy products.

We have a fruit orchard but since the crop was killed by the freeze we had to supply our fruit from some other source. We have a berry patch, so with the canned berries, peaches and plums left from last year we were able to fill our fruit budget. We had fall tomatoes so since tomatoes are a very good substitute for fruit in the diet we put up a good supply.

We now have 945 containers in our pantry and yet have our meats to can. At present prices our pantry is worth over $200.00. It has cost us very little except the work of raising and canning the products. It has meant some work but we have also got lots of pleasure from it.

ROTARY LUNCHEON

Byron Reese was the principal speaker at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Wednesday. He gave a very interesting discussion of national and international conditions.

A few vocal numbers by a quartet composed of W. F. Kirkpatrick, John Ray, Eli Smith and John Rasor brought forth vociferous applause. They were accompanied by the piano by Mrs. Arnold Rucker. J. R. Beverly was in charge of the program. Chas. P. Stephenson of Quanah and W. H. Shelton of Dallas were visitors at the luncheon.

Opening Basketball Game Here is Won by Crowell Over Kings

A large crowd was present at the high school gymnasium last Friday evening to see the Crowell Wildcats defeat Kings High School of Hardeman County 33 to 16 in the first basketball game played here this season.

Crowell got off to a slow start and the first quarter ended with the local quintet leading 4 to 2. The score at the half was 12 to 2. At the end of the third quarter it was 24 to 9.

The game clearly demonstrated that Crowell should have another fine team this year. It lacks the scoring ability of the district championship team of last year, however, much improvement should be shown within the next few weeks, especially in the case of the new members of the squad.

ACID STOMACH

EXCESS acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and sourness about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which will neutralize it. The best corrective is Phillips Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. It is harmless and tasteless and its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods once you learn how quickly this method acts. Please let it show you—now.

Be sure to get the genuine. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.
