CROWELL JUNIOR CAGERS WIN COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP; FIVE TEAMS COMPETE IN TOURNAMENT

Dick Smith of Crowell 'High Point Man' of Meet

The Crowell Juniors won the county basketball championship Saturday afternoon when they defeated Thalia 31 to 8, in the final game of the county class "B" tournament held in the local gymnasium last Saturday.

The five teams that participated were: Margaret, Riverside, Thalia, Foard City and Crowell. Dick Smith, Crowell forward, was the high point man of the tournament, making 32 points in three games. His highest score was made in the final game with Riverside when he sank 7 field goals for a total of 14 points.

First Round

In the first round Riverside eliminated Foard City by the score of 12 to 8 and Crowell defeated Thalia 14 to 10. Foard City took the lead early but lost it in the second quarter when the Riverside boys started clicking. Lewis Ward, Riverside and Barker of Foard City were outstanding.

Crowell won their hardest game of the meet when they met Thalia. This game was the best and hardest fought one of the entire tournament. Smith scored 10 points against the Thalia boys and Tom Andrews accounted for the rest of the Crowell scoring. Barker won high scoring honors for Foard City by making 5 points. Margaret drew a bye in the first round of play. Whitfield and Curtis fouled out of the game and were the only players to receive fouls during the tournament. Margaret called time out while the Crowell team had possession of the ball to commit the only technical foul of the game.

Second Round

A coin was flipped to determine which of the two winners of the first round would meet Margaret in the semi-final and Crowell lost the flip.

In the Crowell-Margaret tilt Smith and Russell of Margaret led for scoring honors with 8 points each. Solis was second with six, and Curtis, Dunn and Andrews made four a piece. (Continued on Last Page.)

CROWELL CAGERS DEFEAT QUANAH, 36-35, WEDNESDAY TO EVEN PLAY-OFF SERIES

Crowell Scouts to Attend Jamboree in Washington

Charlie Clark, Joe Spencer and J. M. Hill Jr., First Class Scouts of the Crowell Troop, have made reservations to attend the first National Jamboree that will be held in Washington, D. C., in June. These boys will go to Camp Lee in Wichita Falls, Saturday, June 26 for three days' training and leave for Washington Monday, June 28, at 4:45 p. m. The train will arrive in Washington Wednesday, June 30. The trip will cost each Scout $68 aside from spending money, but this fee provides for transportation from Wichita Falls to Washington and return, meals on train both ways and jamboree fee for ten days.

This is the first National Jamboree and the only one that those who are scouts at the present time will have a chance to attend. There will be approximately 25,000 First Class Scouts and 5,000 scout officials to attend. They will stay in the camp that will be provided for the purpose.

A wonderful sight-seeing experience will be had as a trip will be made each day to some shrine or noted place and a boat trip will be made down the Potomac to Mount Vernon. The boys will have the opportunity to mix and mingle with Scouts from 44 different nations and the 48 States. They will meet President Roosevelt, Dan Beard and James E. West, chief scout executive of the United States. Nine arenas will be running twice daily where shows will be given by different groups. Movies will be made of the training camp, entraining, en route and at Washington of the Wichita Area Council.

ROBBERS FAIL TO LOOT BANK IN TRUSCOTT

Gas Bomb Touched Off As Attempt Made to Enter Vault

Robbers were foiled in an attempt to loot the vault of the First Bank of Truscott in Truscott Monday morning when a tear gas bomb was accidentally touched off in an endeavor to enter the vault. The precaution of cutting the main telephone cable at the Truscott telephone exchange was taken by the would-be robbers before entering the bank. The town was without telephone communication from about 2 a. m. until 10 a. m.

The bank was entered through a window and a piece of the vault door, large enough for a man to crawl through, was cut out with a torch. The door was charged with wires and when the piece of the door was removed the wires were broken and the tear gas released on the inside of the vault. After the gas had filled the vault it was impossible for the looters to enter it through the hole they had cut for that purpose, so they were forced to abandon the attempt to rob the bank.

Sheriff A. W. Lilly and Pete Bell, deputy, were called to Truscott early Monday morning by telephone to aid the Knox County officials.

It was started as a help-selfly with a small amount of equipment but new equipment has been added during the year until now it is complete in every detail.

Many people are expected to visit the Nu-Way Laundry on its first birthday and at the same time help the Cemetery Association. "We hope to have a big business on Monday in order that the Cemetery Association will receive the greatest benefit possible," said Mrs. Franklin.

Time and Site of Third Game to Be Decided At a Later Date

The Crowell Wildcats defeated the Quannah Indians in the Crowell gymnasium Wednesday night 36 to 35 with a story book finish when Nelson sank a free toss in the last seconds of play to break a 35-35 tie and give the Wildcats the winning point.

The site of the third game has not been decided as both teams will participate in the district meet which will be held in Childress Friday and Saturday.

The lead changed hands seven times, although the Indians lead throughout most of the fray. The Indians had a one point lead at the end of the first quarter, 7-6, and both teams sank 12 points to end the first half 19 and 18 with the Quannah boys still holding the lead.

Going wild in the first few minutes of the last half the Indians increased their lead 7 points before the Wildcats could check them and start scoring, but the Crowell basketballers quickly tallied 6 points to end the third period (Continued on Page Five.)

EXTRA HIGH TEST NO EXTRA COST

BECAUSE PHILLIPS IS—the World's Largest Producer of Natural HIGH TEST Gasoline

WANT SPLIT-SECOND STARTING? Then remember... is nothing like high test gasoline to wake up a cold, old engine. Every motor-wise driver knows that.

And most of them know that Phillips 66 Poly Gas always set the high-test pace—is still far out in front.

This is not a matter of opinion. It is no boastful or No trick statement to win unfair advantage.

The fact is that the Phillips Testing Laboratory, after analyzing many thousands of samples of all available motor gasoline purchased in the open market, assures you that the Vol. Index (effective high test) of Phillips 66 Poly Gas is superior to any other gasoline, even those selling at a low price.

Day in and day out, almost without exception, Phillips Poly Gas is higher test than others... higher test means higher price! Plus the added energy units supplied by patented POLYMERIZATION process.

Thus you get the economy of low first-cost per gallon on top of that, the economy of faster warm-up and smoother running... reduced battery drain... less crankcase dilution and extra miles usually wasted by prolonged use of the old.

BITS OF PHILOSOPHY (CIA)

Silence is the best rebuke who talks too much.

You do not have to be a command respect.

Count the good deeds you do to do, not those you have done.

PWA loan and grant for a municipal light plant construction for Electric on February 9th for $221,818, only to have another injunction, enjoining the construction of said plant. It will be remembered that the same power trust enjoined the Electric approved a bond election by a vote of 7 to 1, alleging the city was unable to construct and pay for the plant. Now that the Government offers aid, the same power trust files another injunction, on the grounds that the Government should not interfere with the power trust's private monopoly. The private power companies have enjoined practically all PWA loans and grants nation-wide for the construction of power projects both hydro-electric and otherwise. The people feel that when the utilities fail and refuse to give reasonable rates that they should be allowed to build their own utility service systems, and the flagrant injunction abuses set up by the power companies and others have caused wide spread dissatisfaction.

They that know thy name will put their trust in thee for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.—Psalm 9:10.

WHAT WILL IT TAKE?

The disastrous floods that have been sweeping down through the Ohio Valley and causing such misery and loss of life and property serve to emphasize the necessity of flood control. They also serve to show the futility of attempting to rely upon dikes as a means of control.

Again it is being brought to the attention of this nation that the only sensible and effective way to control floods is to control the water as close as possible to the water sheds.

If the water were impounded in reservoirs and ponds and lakes at its source at flood time it could be gradually released when the natural channels of the rivers would care for it.

It is in the nature of an indictment against the intelligence of the people of this nation that though this fact is known, and countless millions of dollars have been spent for less useful things, a condition is permitted to exist that each year constitutes a possible hazard and menace against life and property.

The better the story, the sooner it gets old, because the better it is the faster it travels.

Although the dust storms have been bad for more than a week prospects for rain might not be so bad. One man told us that it would rain the latter part of the month, and it sounds good to us for a man to predict rain because he might hit it and wouldn't we all be glad? It makes us feel bad for a man to say it is not going to rain for we know he might be right. Here's hoping it does rain and settle this dust.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—The bitter and lengthy battles that are usually fought before committees of the house of representatives over revenue measures apparently will be fought out on the floor at this session, and from this circumstance, the people who hope recovery in Texas will be permitted to go forward without the burden of tremendous new tax imposts this week took heart.

The carefully selected committees, which are made up largely of rural legislators who don't give a lot of thought to the problems of business that is struggling to prevent being bogged down by new tax levies, this week brought out two tax measures that are estimated to yield $54,000,000 a year. These are the corporation franchise tax bill of Herman Jones increasing levies on all corporate business—large and small—about 700 per cent. The bill, if finally passed in the form approved by the committee, would yield about $14,000,000 a year.

The other measure was the bill by Reed of Texarkana, imposing a tax of 10 cents per barrel on crude oil production, estimated to bring in $40,000,000. Committee hearings were brief and perfunctory, and recommendations favorable almost without dissent.

Both bills are sure to bring extended battles on the floor of the house, and opponents took heart from the fact that if committees bring out this kind of legislation as rapidly as indicated, the calendar will become so crowded that an unprecedented legislative jam will result in the last few weeks of the session. This will automatically kill a lot of legislation that probably should be killed, and may result, as one observer expressed it, in a "great break for the people."

May Vote on Pensions

Sentiment for the submission of a constitutional amendment specifically permitting the people to pass on whether the state should pay a pension of $15 to everybody over 65, regardless of need, is growing here. Advocates of the plan point out that it would settle finally the constant agitation over this question, and remove it from politics. The pension problem so far has consumed more time than any other issue, and already the politicians are setting their sails to catch the pension breeze in the 1938 primary elections. Some advocate submission of a sales tax at the same time, thus ending another highly powerful and persistent political issue. If the sales tax is tied in with the pension question, Texans ought to see a red-hot campaign for and against the amendments, even if it is an off political year.

INDIANS WIN OVER CROWELL TUESDAY, 36-37

Kelsey High Point Man With 14 Points; Page Second

The Quannah Indians trounced the Crowell Wildcats by the score of 36 to 27 at Quannah Tuesday night to win the first game of the play-off series to determine the champion of the Northwest Texas Basketball conference.

Quannah took the lead early in the game and ran it up so high that the Wildcats did not seriously threaten even after their rally in the last half.

Anderson of Quannah and Middlebrook of Crowell were ejected from the game in the fourth period for excessive fouling.

Kelsey of Crowell was high point man with 14 points and W. Page of Quannah was second with 13.

The box score:

week-end of Gov. Allred, ostensibly to plead with President Roosevelt for $10,000,000 of PWA money for Texas cities that have issued bonds to match federal funds, led to a revival of political talk. Incidentally, Gov. Allred's trip is timed to put him in Washington when the huge testimonial banquet for Jim Farley is being staged. Revived were the stories that Allred is seeking a federal judgeship and that he hopes to close a trade with Farley and John Garner for the job on this trip.

The latest underground here is that the deal is virtually made now, with Allred to get an appointment as judge of the West Texas district, where an additional place is to be created. This report, however, says the appointment, by stipulation of Sen. Tom Connally will not be available for Allred until he finishes his term as governor. The senator is said to be friendly both to Rail Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson and Atty. Gen. McCraw, now leading candidates for governor in 1938, and he wants to avoid complicating this race by letting Allred resign, which would automatically put Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul in office, with a very good chance to be re-elected governor over both McCraw and Thompson. Connally naturally wants to remove Allred from the field as a potential candidate against himself in 1940 and this program would neatly solve the problem. Allred is said to have been tentatively offered an appointment on the federal court of claims, at -10,000 a year for an eight-year term, but is said to have declined, because he wants to live in Texas, and the district judgeship is a lifetime tenure.

Bobbitt Inaugurated

Before a notable gathering of politicians and friends, Judge Lee Bobbitt stopped off at Dallas for 14 minutes, en route to Washington, and was sworn in as chairman of the state highway commission on the station platform by Dist. Judge Sarah Hughes, Texas' only woman jurist.

Friends of Bobbitt forecast a new era of courtesy and co-operation on the highway commission, recalling that he once headed a delegation from his former home, Laredo, to Austin, to ask for some highway improvement. The commission gruffly told the Laredo delegation they could have two minutes to present their case.

"Then we'll leave now," retorted Bobbitt. "If our interest is only worth two minutes of the commission's time, we won't even trouble you, gentlemen."

The delegation started to withdraw, and was hastily recalled by the commission. They got half an hour to present their plea for road improvement.

"And I'll bet that never happens to another county delegation at Austin, with Lee Bobbitt, presiding over the commission," remarked one of Bobbitt's friends, as he was sworn in.

Varied Program at Rialto This Week

The famous Dionne quintuplets return to the Rialto Theatre Thursday night in "Reunion." They are supported by Jean Hersbell, Rochelle Hudson and Helen Vinson. The latest release of "The March of Time" is an added attraction. This program is sponsored by the high school home economics class.

Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy are featured Friday night and at the Saturday matinee in "Our Relations." Dual roles in this picture are played by Laurel and Hardy. They play the part of twin brothers and one of the Laurels and Hardys and wild and their brothers are hen-pecked husbands. The story of their trials and tribulations brings one of the funniest pictures of the year to the Crowell screen.

In "The Accusing Finger" which is showing Saturday night, Paul Kelly plays the part of a lawyer who is sentenced to die for a crime that he did not commit. He is supported by Marsha Hunt.

"That Girl from Paris," a newly released picture featuring Lily Pons, opera star, Jack Oakie and Gene Raymond shows at the Rialto during the week-end. Oakie fans will have a chance to see him at his best and Miss Pons and Gene Raymond furnish the love interest in this new comedy.

Edward Everett Horton in "Let's Make a Million" is featured on the screen Tuesday night.

Crowell movie fans will have their first opportunity to see the ice skating champion, Sonja Henie, supported by Don Ameche and a cast of favorites, when "One In A Million" is presented next Wednesday and Thursday.

In addition to the features, good comedies and short subjects will be shown at every program.

1938 is the subject of much discussion here, with several candidates already campaigning actively, and half a dozen others reported ready to announce later.

Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul is obviously far out ahead now, having frankly begun his campaign the day he took office as lieutenant governor. Gerald Mann, of Dallas, is an avowed candidate, too, while Elbert Hooper of Austin, Franklin Spears of San Antonio, Roy Hoffening of Houston, Judge Ralph Yarborough of Austin, and several others are potential candidates.

Lennie Stinson, treasurer of Rockwall, the smallest county in Texas for the past 24 years, will seek election to the state treasurer's post next year, according to Dick Gaines, genial Rockwall publisher and booster, who attended the Press association session here.

Ends "Big 6" Schedule; W. Page of Quannah High Point Man

Crowell's Wildcats scalped the Quannah Indians by the score 38-33 last Thursday night to tie the Indians for first place in the last scheduled Northwest Texas Basketball Conference game played in the Crowell gymnasium.

The Wildcats were trailing the Indians by one game and had to win to stay in the race. If the Quannah team had been victorious they would have won their second consecutive "Big 6" championship, but now a play-off will be necessary to determine the champion for this year.

The game was one of the hardest fought and fastest games that has been played on the local court. Determination, fight and stickability were the main factors in the Wildcat victory over the taller Indians. This was the second conference game between the two teams and Quannah won the first by one point in a heart-breaking defeat for the Crowell boys. The SAFETY---OR THIS?

DEATH, in the guise of heavily loaded motor trucks, rides the highways of Texas every day and every night. The toll of human death and injury of these vehicles is appalling.

In the five-year period, 1932 to 1936, inclusive, trucks in Texas have participated in 8,416 highway accidents in which 2,195 persons were killed and 11,962 injured. In 1936 alone, their record stood 2,208 accidents with 3,323 persons injured and 576 killed. These actual records of people killed, as shown by Texas newspapers, compared with the number of deaths resulting from all motor vehicle accidents, as given by the Bureau of Vital Statistics in Austin, show that the average Texas truck participates in twice as many fatal accidents as the average passenger car.

Likewise, as might be reasonably expected from their greater weight and size, and as shown by the records of the Texas Railroad Commission, the Carrier-for-Hire truck accidents, during 1936, have resulted, vehicle for vehicle, in three times the number of fatalities as for the average passenger car.

Increased liability to highway accident forms an inseparable result of BIG truck operation. But even now, the threat of greater highway hazards hangs over the people of Texas. Newspapers report that operators of BIG trucks have organized for the purpose of securing an increase in weight and speed limits, already too large. These are the elements, weight and speed, which, in highway accidents, spell "D-E-A-T-H."

The right to grant, condition or deny the use of the highways for profit, belongs to you, the people of Texas, notwithstanding the attempts of the operators of BIG trucks to take it away and give it to the federal government instead. Your present laws, limiting the size, weight and speed of trucks, were enacted by reason of your insistence, and by your insistence they have remained on the statute books. Their amendment would serve the sole purpose of increasing the profits of operators of the BIG trucks, with the certain results of also increasing the mounting injuries, deaths and property losses now taking place on your highways.

Public welfare and public safety demand that existing highway regulations shall be retained and enforced.

Methodist Church
 Under the direction of Sam Mills, the young people of our church are preparing a play to be given Easter Sunday night. This Easter pageant is one of the prettiest programs in print and the congregation will surely appreciate their work.

The young people of our church have been asked to sponsor a spring revival to begin April 25 and close May 2. The church waits with anticipation their answer to this request.

Our presiding elder, Rev. C. C. Wright, was a pleasant caller at the parsonage Monday, when plans were discussed for the work of the church this year.

The League union is to meet here Thursday night. Some ninety visitors are expected from the nearby towns. The local League will entertain and give the devotional program.

The meeting of the District League organization convenes this week-end at Quanah. This will be Saturday evening and Sunday morning. It is planned to have the Leaguers go from here in a bus.

We invite the public to our services next Sunday. You will enjoy it and be benefited by it.
 E. L. YEATS, Pastor.

 "Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, February 21.

The Golden Text is: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding" (Proverbs 3:5.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord" (Deuteronomy 6:4.)
 The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We can have but one Mind; if that is infinite, we bury the sense of infinitude, when we admit that, although God is infinite, evil has a place in this infinity, for evil can have no place, where all space is filled with God" (page 469.)

Brief Bits of News From Here and There

Congress recently voted Mrs. Coolidge, widow of the late President Coolidge, a pension of $5,000 a year. President Coolidge, when he died, left an estate valued at over $700,000. Other widows of presidents receiving the pension are Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt. Three other living widows of presidents who do not receive a pension are Mrs. William Howard Taft, beneficiary of a Carnegie Foundation annuity; Mrs. Francis Folsom-Cleveland Preston, wife of a Princeton professor; and Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, who declined because she did not need it.

Gold is being shipped from the Philadelphia mint to the new Federal Government Treasury at Fort Knox, Kentucky. The vaults here are protected with the latest scientific safety devices. The purpose in building the vault on the Fort Knox military reservation was to provide a place of storage that would be safer from foreign invasion than present storage facilities afford. Eventually the government will store $6,000,000,000 of its $11,295,950,000 gold reserve at Fort Knox.

573,522 tons of crude rubber was consumed in the United States last year. This was 23 per cent more than was used in 1929 when the all-time high consumption was established.

Two Minute Sermon (By Thomas Hastwell)

That the World Might Have Light: The other day, in the account of the flood that spread with such devastation along the Ohio Valley, I read an Associated Press news dispatch that compelled more than passing attention. At Louisville, Kentucky, a city of 330,000 population, the city was given electric lights only through the struggles of a half dozen men toiling seventy-five feet below the water level in a generating boiler plant room in which braces kept the floor above from falling in on them. Power company officials said that if the lights went out during the night the darkness would signal the death of this crew by drowning. A remarkable act of self sacrifice in a selfish age and a selfish world. It reminded me of the man who two thousand years ago yielded his life on a cross that a world lost in the darkness of sin might have light that would show it the way out. The brave men risking their lives to give a distressed city physical light deserve the gratitude and honor of its citizens but how much more grateful should a distressed world be to him who gave his life, despised and alone, that a heedless world might have the priceless gift of spiritual light?

WHAT WE THINK (By Frank Dixon)

I like to have a man around who never worries about anything and is what is known as a confirmed optimist, but I don't care to lend him any money.

Few thrills one gets in life equal the one that comes when we step in the old family car on a crisp, cold winter morning and she starts right off.

No matter how many times the faithful old car performs that miracle, we invariably hold our breath each time we start it on these cold mornings.

To me the biggest bore is the fellow who after delivering himself at length of his opinion of this and that, appeals to his listener by demanding if the listener doesn't think so too.

My innate contrariness invariably prompts me to take issue with him. I should know better than that because when anyone disagrees with him it always sets him off again.

These newspaper columnists like to make disparaging remarks about how unimportant the groom is at a wedding and how little attention anyone pays to the groom. It may all be true but I'd like to see anyone put on a wedding with the groom absent. It wouldn't be much of a wedding.

My guess is that a lot of these young folks who talk so flippantly about red underwear never saw any of it. It has been fifty years since I saw a piece of red underwear and it was on its way out then.

The difference between some men today and the old fellow Belshazzar of Biblical fame is that Belshazzar was able to see the handwriting on the wall.

I found out the other day what a financial wizard is. A financial wizard is a man who made enough money last year to pay income tax.

When I was a young man I had an ambition to have enough money to retire when I reached the age of fifty.

I am quite a bit past fifty now and still don't have enough on which to retire. My chief ambition and hope now is that the rheumatism will miss me.

At the picture show the other night, William Powell was playing opposite Myrna Loy. During one of the love scenes, when Powell gathered the altogether beautiful and charming Miss Loy in his arms, and with perfect technique kissed her smiling lips, a young man sitting back of me said to his companion, another

It's a sign you are old fashioned if you would rather ride in a three year old car that is paid for than a 1937 model with a mortgage on it.

Along some lines the country's greatest need is a few more old fashioned people.

My state, which is an agricultural state, and which received a

When hunting, don't drag your gun through the fence or hedge, carry it over the fence, keep abreast of the other members of the hunting party not behind them or in front of them.

Do not start your car or allow the engine to run in the garage while the doors are closed. The exhaust fumes will produce death in a few minutes. They attack without warning, first paralyzing their victim, so that he cannot escape.

leaving you with your normal payroll of seven, you still are an employer.
If you, as an individual, own or control several small stores, each having one or two workers, and the total number of workers in all these stores is more than eight, then you are an employer.

If your total payroll has less than eight workers, then you may voluntarily come under the Act, but you are not required to.

If you are an employer engaged in one of the exempted occupations such as farming, you may voluntarily come under the Act.

How Does the Law Affect Contractors and Sub-Contractors
Question 17: "I am in the contracting business. On some jobs I sub-let work. Is my payroll measured by the number of men working directly for me on the job, or does it also include the workers on the sub-contracts?"

Answer: If the sub-contractor himself employs as many as eight workers and therefore is under the law himself, then he is responsible for the contributions on his payroll.

But if the sub-contractor does not employ as many as eight workers, then you as a contractor are liable for the contribution on his payroll. However, any contribution that you pay on the sub-contractor's workers may be recovered by you from the sub-contractor.

It is understood of course that the sub-contractor must be otherwise eligible to pay contributions under the Act.

How Can An Employer Volunteer To Come Under the Law?
Question 18: "In my business, I employ only seven men. Therefore, I am not subject to the Unemployment Compensation Act. However, I want my employees to have the benefits of the Act. How do I go about voluntarily becoming a contributor?"

Answer: You must first file an application with the Commission. This voluntary submission to the law is open not only to firms employing less than eight workers, but also to those who employ exempted laborers such as agricultural workers.

When you become an employer within the meaning of the Act, you must remain subject to its provisions for at least two years. To sever your connection you must file another application with the Commission at least 30 days before January 1 of the calendar year during which you desire to sever your connection with the Act.

You understand, of course, that your employees would benefit only during the period in which you elected to be an employer under the law. In other words, in getting their benefit payments, your workers could not count for credit any week of employment prior to the time you came under the law.

If you have any questions concerning the operation of this law as it affects employers or workers, you can have your questions answered by writing to R. B. Anderson, chairman, Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, Austin.

The hostess gave a floating prize to the one who made "168" greatest number of times and this prize exchanged hands several times during the afternoon. Mrs. M. S. Henry was high scorer and was given a pottery vase. The honor guest was also presented with a pottery vase. A dainty and delicious salad course, which accentuated the Valentine motif, was served to Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Joe Long, Mrs. Marion Hughton, Mrs. Baxter Johnson, Mrs. M. S. Henry, Mrs. O. R. Boman, Mrs. T. V. Rascoe, Mrs. Clarence Self, Mrs. C. C. McLaughlin, Mrs. R. L. Kincaid, Mrs. Leonard Male, and Mrs. L. A. Andrews. Guest favors were containers of Valentine candied hearts.

VALENTINE PARTY

Mrs. M. S. Henry entertained three tables of guests at her home on Saturday afternoon with a delightful Valentine party. The tables, with covers of red, were arranged for games of forty-two. The guest list was composed of Mesdames Hines Clark, Geo. Self, O. W. Orr, Paul Shirley, John Long, E. L. Yeats, J. H. Lanier, T. M. Beverly, Hubert Brown, Clint White, R. R. Magee and T. B. Klepper. In the games, a prize was given to the person who made "84" the largest number of times and to high scorer. These went to

Mrs. O. W. Orr and Mrs. T. B. Klepper. Immediately following the diversion, the hostess served a cocktail in the living-room. Guests were then invited into the dining-room where they were seated at the dining table which was attractively decorated with a large Valentine heart on a reflector for a centerpiece. This was flanked by lighted red candles. Heart-shaped boxes of nuts arranged on the table added to the scheme and were used as guest favors. Delicious refreshments in two courses were served. The Valentine motif was further carried out in the plates.

THALIA IDLE HOUR CLUB MET SATURDAY

The Idle Hour Club met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. G. A. Shultz hostess in her home. It was postponed from Thursday afternoon on account of the funeral of Uncle John Sims. Decorations throughout the house, carrying out the Valentine motif, were very beautiful. A while was spent working, after which a few contests were enjoyed and valentines were exchanged. New Texas Health Program Planned by Health Department

Austin, Texas, Feb. 16.—Outline of a new Texas health program to cope with the changing social goal of "equal opportunity for old and young, adequate health protection for all" was made by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, at the fourth Texas Conference on Child Health and Protection. Present plans of the State Department of Health are designed toward an expansion of activities in line with the current aspects of this new social order. Since health is a purchasable commodity, it behooves us to spend our money in a way that will buy the most health for the greatest number. In a nutshell, our job is to provide preventives with our tax money rather than palliatives, such as job insurance and pensions for the unemployed.

Recently the State Health Officer has been in conference with the Board of Health and other leaders, and together they have mapped out a plan with the general objective of reducing infant and maternal mortality, malnutrition, tuberculosis, malaria, pneumonia, hookworm disease, dysentery, syphilis and pellagra. To do this the State Health Department hopes to maintain (1) a well organized and well equipped central office with trained specialists, (2) to establish health districts to cover these counties and towns which do not now have any health service. (3) To continue to cooperate with existing health departments in various counties and cities.

Through the creation and maintenance of these new health districts the Health Department hopes to standardize health procedures throughout the State so that the following objectives may be approximated: Better supervision and enforcement of our health laws; adequate teachings of health in our public schools; providing at least some health service for the vast area now without protection; development of local health services; facilities to meet emergencies and epidemics; and development of a well balanced program on maternal and child health protection.

Taxes on Payrolls For 1936 Due Feb. 25

Austin, Feb. 16.—Chairman-director R. E. Anderson this week issued a final warning to Texas employers that their taxes on 1936 payrolls under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act must be paid before February 25.

"All employers subject to the Act must pay their tax of nine-tenths of one per cent on total 1936 payrolls before February 25, or they will lose their credit with the Federal Government," Anderson declared.

Payment of the tax can be made by personal check, cashier's check, money order or in cash, Anderson pointed out. He also reminded employers that they must not confuse this payment on 1936 payrolls, which is due February 25, with the payment on January, 1937, payrolls, which is due March 25.

"On February 25 employers must pay a tax of nine-tenths of one per cent on total 1936 payrolls, while on March 25 employers must pay a tax of one and eight-tenths per cent on their 1937 payrolls during the month of January, 1937," Anderson emphasized.

COTTON STUDY COURSE WILL BE CONDUCTED

College Station, Feb. 14.—Courses of instruction in grading and stapling of cotton in at least five sections of the State this summer was recommended at a conference at Texas A. & M. College attended by representatives of various phases of the cotton industry. The purpose is to aid in the movement to improve the quality of Texas cotton.

Co-operation was pledged by President T. O. Walton of the college, who agreed to expansion of the work now being done in the annual summer School of Cotton at the college by organizing a similar course at the North Texas Agricultural College, Arlington, a junior branch of A. & M. It was suggested that these two summer courses at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, be supplemented by courses of instruction at two other points to be selected. One of the chief functions of this educational work will be to encourage the buying of cotton on basis of grade and staple as against hog-round buying by ginners and others prevailing in some sections. With elimination of hog-round buying, the producer of cotton of good grade and staple will profit according to the quality of his product. It was pointed out, whereas in hog-round buying good staple is lumped with poor and brings no price bonus.

The school will be held from June 8 through July 17. Attendance usually includes cotton buyers, ginners, and others interested in the industry. It was proposed to hold the cotton study courses, other than those at the educational institutions named, at points that will serve the ginners most equitably. The conference came as a step in the movement launched last fall to improve the quality of Texas cotton.

A committee named at the time to push this movement includes representatives of the cotton co-operatives, cotton compress industry, Texas Cotton Association, Texas Bankers' Association, Texas Cotton Ginners' Association, and Cotton oil mill interests. Co-operating agencies include the State Department of Agriculture, Texas A. & M. College, and the State Seed and Plant Board.

Wildcats Win—

trailing the Indians by two points, 26-24.

The last quarter was the most thrilling one played here this year. The fighting Wildcats continued the rally they had started in the third period and jumped to a three point lead, 33-30, but could not hold it. The Indians retaliated by promptly running their score up to 35 to take a two point lead. Quannah started playing for time in the last minutes of play and Kelsey tied the ball under the Crowell goal. On the jump a Wildcat took possession of the ball and passed to Kelsey who rang the basket with the tying score. Nelson was fouled a few seconds later by Anderson and dropped the gratis shot through the hoop for the winning score. In the last 30 seconds of play Quannah made a gallant try to win the game that had slipped through their fingers, but a wild shot gave the Wildcats possession of the ball as the game ended.

Free tosses decided the game as both teams registered 15 field goals. Crowell counted one more gratis shot than the visitors, sinking 6 out of 10 and the Indians dropped 5 out of 11 through the ring. Quannah could have won the game by making good only two of the six that they missed.

Although Nelson was the hero of the game, Kelsey was the star and nabbed high scoring honors with 16 points. Middlebrook of Crowell, W. Page and Edmondson, both of Quannah, tied for second with 11 points.

Fitzgerald, Wildcat substitute, was in the starting line-up for the first time and played a jam-up defensive game against the taller Indians until he fouled out of the game in the fourth quarter. Nelson and Owens turned in a good defensive game.

Weathered of Quannah displayed a fit of temper in the fourth period when he jumped on the back of Middlebrook who was dribbling down the court, and was immediately taken from the game.

The Wildcats did not lose heart even though they were trailing and their determination to win was the big factor in their victory.

RIVERSIDE H. D. CLUB

"A kitchen floor should be smooth, grease proof, easy to clean, durable, attractive and resilient," stated County Home Demonstration Agent Miss Myrna Holman, at a meeting of the Riverside Home Demonstration Club in the school auditorium February 9. Inlaid linoleum comes nearest to meeting all of these requirements if laid over a reasonably smooth floor with a layer of felt or newspapers under it. As the inlaid linoleum is too expensive in most cases the agent showed cheaper grades of linoleum that are practical. Paint is a good floor finish and Miss Holman emphasized the importance of using good paint.

As the kitchen should be a sanitary work shop the wall coverings should be of a type that is easily cleaned and should be a light color. Wood work should be painted with enamel or a semi-gloss paint.
