

City zoning ordinance is recommended by planners

Something long sought by many

A city zoning ordinance for Post something long sought by many local community leaders—was recommended here Tuesday to city officials and the city planning commission by Fowler and Grafe, Inc., Dallas firm of consulting engineers.

The zoning ordinance, together with proposed sub-division regulations for future residential subdivisions development here, were contained in the final sectional report, termed "Administrative Regulations", of a comprehensive city plan for Post.

The Dallas firm has been working on the city plan for the last two years through the cooperation of the Texas State Department of Health and financed in part through an urban planning grant from the federal home finance agency.

A ZONING ORDINANCE would be the real core of a city plan for future growth of this community. It would specify in what areas retail business, commercial, manufacturing operations, multi-family dwellings and single family residential homes would be permitted.

By controlling such growth within specific areas better planning could be accomplished for future utility, traffic, and other needs for various parts of the city.

As Dan Carr, Fowler & Grafe, Inc. representative, explained in his talk before Rotarians Tuesday prior to presenting copies of the administrative regulations and the zoning map to Mayor Harold Lucas, the zoning ordinance can be retro-active.

In other words a business now located in an area designated only for one family dwellings would not be forced to move. Such a zoning ordinance would only protect the area from new businesses being established within the area.

Still to come from the consulting engineering firm is a final condensed report containing all of the firm's recommendations.

The mayor and city councilmen have received copies of the proposed administrative regulations, but have yet to formally consider them and adopt them.

THE ENGINEERING CONSULTANTS recommended the following general zones for the city's zoning ordinance:

Retail business: The courthouse block east on both sides of Main Street, half block deep, to within a half block of the Santa Fe railroad tracks; and up and down Broadway from the City-County Park to 15th Street, extending half block deep on both sides of streets; all of 100 and 200 blocks of West Eighth on north side only.

Manufacturing: Up and down Santa Fe tracks, half block either side from Third Street to within half block of Main Street; the Postex Mill area; Clairemont highway from F Street east to city limits for block on each side of highway; both sides of Avenue H, half block deep between Seventh Street and Main.

Multi-family dwellings: Half block on east side of Avenue K all the way from Third Street north to 15th Street; three blocks on the north side of Third Street between Avenues K and N; and half block either side of Avenue H from Third Street to Seventh Street.

General commercial: Two to three block area on Lubbock highway north of 15th Street; half block on south side of Tenth Street from Avenue S east to railroad tracks; half block on either side of Avenue S from Seventh Street to the alley behind Main Street; both sides of North Avenue F from Main to 11th Streets; five blocks on FM-1313, both sides, south of Third Street.

All of the rest of the city would be zoned for single family residences.

Manufacturing, wholesale and retail firms, or commercial firms, would not be permitted to locate in residential areas after the adoption of the ordinance without a specific change in the zoning regulations.

A procedure of hearings to change such zoning regulations would be established in the ordinance so that all concerned parties would receive ample notification for any protests, they might wish to make.

The ordinance also would establish minimum and maximum requirements for off-street parking, size of buildings on lots, height of buildings, etc. It also would establish uses permitted within each zone.

For example, besides single residential units in the residential zones, also permitted would be cemetery or masaleum, electrical substations, field crops, golf course, model homes sales office within development, public library, museum, park or playground, microwave relay tower, schools, school nursery, private swimming pools, telephone exchange, railroad right-of-way, etc.

Home occupations would be permitted in residential zones that do not require employment of outside help, except for the following: any office in which chattels or goods are commercially created, exchanged or sold, barber or beauty shops, beauty culture schools, commercial stables or kennels, or doctor's office for the treatment of patients.

The city planning commission, of which Irby Metcalf is chairman, is expected to study the zoning ordinance and make its recommendations to the city on adoption of such a zoning ordinance in the next few weeks.

Of paying the full bill

Original White River loan $230,000 short

The first $4,000,000 state loan for construction of the new White River dam, filtration plant and water pipelines to the four member towns will lack some $230,000 of paying the full bill.

This was the construction report figures presented to White River directors in Crosbyton last Thursday night by General manager Al O'Brien.

Only $499,219.20 remains to be spent, including $63,670.65 on construction of all facilities, $16,091.57 to the engineering firm of Freese, Nichols and Endress of Fort Worth as its final payment for plans and supervision, $9,178.92 to Southwestern Lab for pipe inspection, and $410,278.06 for contract retainage from all contractors until the district accepts the completed facilities.

DIRECTORS WERE TOLD that the final state loan of an additional $500,000 to complete payment on the contract and to operate the district until water deliveries begin will become available as requested Oct. 15, but the district, if possible will ask to defer receipt of this loan money until Nov. 15 as the money will not be needed before that time and thus the 30-day delay would save some interest.

It was also pointed out that if the delay could be taken until Nov.

★ INDUSTRIAL GROUP'S SESSION IS TONIGHT

The Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee is inviting all local business and professional men and women to an important meeting in the Community Room tonight at 7:30 p. m.

Post's future will be discussed, Irby Metcalf, chairman of the Industrial committee declared.

He urged a big turnout and promised that the meeting will be fast-moving and to the point. "We're counting on everybody turning out," he declared.

15 it would enable the district to more correctly ascertain how much of the $500,000 actually will be needed.

The district is still "in the courthouse" on two land condemnation suits which might result in additional land payments for the lake site.

The directors' intentions are to accept only that amount of the $500,000 the district actually will need to finance it until water deliveries begin and the district will be "on its feet" financially.

It is hoped all the $500,000 won't

Free tickets are made available for big barbecue

Free tickets for farmers and ranchers to Post's second annual Farmer-Rancher-Merchant Barbecue, scheduled for Antelope Stadium here Monday night, Oct. 7, are ready for pickup at bins throughout the area and other business houses as well.

This was reported today by Lewis Herron in charge of ticket distribution to farmers and ranchers.

Tickets may now be picked up at Planter's Gin, Graham Co-op, Close City Co-op, Grassland Co-op, Producer's Co-op, Storie Gin, Gort, don Gin, Hackberry Co-op, Pleasant Valley Gin, Basinger Gin at Southland, West Texas Gin at Kalgary, Grassland Butane Co. and the Basinger Seed Delinters in Southland, Herron said, as well as at the bank and the Chamber office here in Post.

Herron urged all ranchers and farmers to set aside the night for the big event and to pick up their tickets within the next few days. The number of tickets picked up will help the barbecue committee plan for the number of meals to be served, he pointed out.

The Post Chamber of Commerce, which is staging the affair in cooperation with Post merchants, calls attention to the ticket locations in an ad on page 6 of today's Dispatch.

Dozens of door prizes, donated by Post merchants, will be given away to their farmer and rancher guests.

A big domino tournament will be held in the old gym next to the football stadium at the conclusion of barbecue and prize drawings.

No speech making is planned. Mike Mitchell is in charge of ticket sales to local merchants, and block captains are now busy selling the tickets to raise funds for the affair.

Jim Rogers to operate Mineola drug store

Jim Rogers, Bob Collier and Jess Rogers have purchased the Service Drug Store in Mineola, Texas, and Rogers will move to Mineola Oct. 1 to take over its operations. Rogers has been a pharmacist at Bob Collier Druggist here for the last three years. He is the president of the Post P-TA. Mineola is a town of about 2,800 located 79 miles east of Dallas.

ONE OF TWO WHITE RIVER WATER RESERVOIRS

Ready to take White River water when it is available is this 420,000-gallon reservoir, west of town about halfway to the present city reservoir. There is another reservoir just like the one pictured, six miles northeast of town just off the Spur

Road. As soon as the water is available, both reservoirs will be sanitized and then filled, according to City Supt. Eddie Warren, who is shown in the picture along with Mayor Harold Lucas.—Staff Photo

Thirty-Seventh Year

Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, September 26, 1963

Number 17

The "new car season" — a marketing event we always enjoy — kicks off today in Post and continues through next weekend as local auto agencies put their new 1964 offerings in their showrooms for the first time and start writing orders.

Claud Collier at Collier Chevrolet-Olds gets the premiers under way today with the start of a three-day weekend showing of the new '64 Chevrolet family, including the all-new Chevelle. He has a $50 U. S. bond as his door prize and refreshments for everybody who comes to see.

Tom Power will have a big Ford House Party Friday at Tom Power — Ford to unveil his '64 Ford line — and there are dozens of models here too with the popular Falcon completely remodeled for the first time. Every guest, besides refreshments and gifts, will be offered the opportunity to sign up in Ford's big nationwide "house party" drawings for over 1,200 fine prizes worth $200,000.

Next week, Guy Floyd will have his big weekend showing on '64 Pontiacs and Ramblers and Collier will be back with another for new Oldsmobiles.

The Dispatch tries to cover the new car news on the local front just as thoroughly as everything (See Postings, Page 8)

Patience asked on phone exchange

Patience, please! That's the request to the new rural telephone subscribers of the new Verbera exchange in eastern and southern portions of Garza County.

Latest unofficial report is that installation is virtually complete but not quite ready for operation. James Wright, president of Caprock Telephone Co. of Spur, builder of the new exchange, is scheduled to confer Friday with General Telephone officials in San Angelo relative to a contract between the two phone concerns to offer Verbera subscribers extended area service with Post phones (no long distance charges).

General Telephone has indicated it will ask the city of Post for a rate boost to cover its cost of such extended area service after a contract with Caprock Telephone has been signed. With new phones installed several weeks ago in their rural homes, the new exchange subscribers want to get the service into operation, rural reports indicate.

Colt show will be added attraction at Garza Fair

An open all-breed 1963 Colt Show will be held at the county 4-H barn Saturday, Oct. 5, in conjunction with the annual Garza County Fair.

All details of the colt show had not been completed this morning, but will be within the next few days, according to Glenn Davis, who with Oscar Gray will be chairman of the show. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded winners following judging of the colts by an out-of-town judge, Davis said.

All owners of 1963 colts are urged to enter them in the show, which will be the first of its kind ever held here.

Meanwhile, other plans for the fair are shaping up fast, according to Miss Juanette Williams, county home demonstration agent.

The fair, sponsored by the Garza County Home Demonstration Council, will have divisions for everyone, according to Miss Williams.

Alma McBride is general superintendent of the fair and, Mollie Kolb is co-superintendent.

Lola Peel will be in charge of the women's department, assisted by Velma Long. The youth department will be in charge of Faye Payton, assisted by Jewel Long.

Superintendents in the adult division will be as follows:

Sue Maxey, clothing; Thelma Thomas, foods; Onetta Gunn, handicraft; Juanita Terry, flowers; Iris McMahon, crafts; Sybil White, canning; Virginia Schlehauer, antiques; Ann Bratcher, arts.

In the youth division the superintendents will be as follows:

Selma Kiesel, clothing; Doris Fluit, foods; Lucille Morris, handicraft; Helen Thomas, flowers; Lavonne Lee, crafts; Orabeth White, canning; Estelle Williams, antiques; Isabelle Stelzer, arts.

To be organized Monday

Course to be offered in Survival Education

An "Education for Survival" course in civil defense adult education will be offered without cost to all interested local residents.

William F. Shiver, director of instruction for the Post schools, announced this week.

An organizational meeting for those interested will be held at 4 p. m. Monday, Sept. 30, in the Primary School auditorium.

The 12-hour course, consisting of six two-hour sessions, will begin at 4 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 1.

The course is designed to develop an understanding of the role of the individual, family and community in disasters, to develop a knowledge and awareness of local survival plans, and to inform school personnel of protective measures to cope with nuclear and natural disasters.

Broad areas of instruction include nuclear weapons and effects, radiation and effects, radiological defense, shelters, first aid, community civil defense plans, school survival plans, and family planning. The course will consist of six hours of television instruction and six hours of discussion led by civil (See Course Offered, Page 8)

11 are indicted by grand jury

The grand jury here Monday returned seven indictments involving 11 men.

Those indicted, together with charges and date of alleged offense are as follows:

Jim Dunaway, theft of German short-hair pointer bird dog, named Lady, from J. D. Windham, June 6.

Juan Valdez and Max Vargas, for burglary with intent to commit theft of house owned by C. K. Robinson, May 13.

Ronald Cash of Lubbock, theft of property over $50, in taking of bed sheets from the Postex Mills, July 12.

Keith Hancock and Larry Hadderton, burglary with intent to commit theft of house owned by E. W. Williams.

J. W. Powers, forgery and passing as true a forged instrument in writing, July 25, for $38.70 check with forged signature of James B. Boren.

Gilbert Collazo, forgery and passing as true a forged instrument in writing, for $11 check with forged signature of Paul Simpson, Sept. 14.

Marvin Lee Brown, Oles Dwayne Odum, and Jimmy Lee Long, theft of property over value of $50, for taking a pay telephone owned by General Telephone, Aug. 4.

Boll weevils move deeper into Garza

Old Mister Boll Weevil is now "chomping" his way through an estimated 2,000 acres of Garza County cotton in the Kalgary, Verbera, and Cross Roads community areas in the northeast part of the county.

In the last two weeks, boll weevils have caused considerable cotton damage in this area, Lewis Herron, farm representative of the First National Bank, reported today.

County Agent Syd Conner, who is devoting full time to the Panhandle South Plains Fair at Lubbock this week, reported the same thing last weekend.

Some control measures already are being taken by farmers in the infested areas. That means spraying. But spraying is expensive. Cotton has to be sprayed about every five days to control the weevils, Herron said.

With 38,000 Garza acres planted to cotton this year, the overall damage to the total cotton crop will be small for 1963, Herron said, but it will be damaging for farmers whose fields are infested.

Herron said the weevils are "knocking off and ruining the top cotton" in these fields. He said the "bottom crop"—old bolls on the stalks which were turning hard prior to the boll weevils moving in—will make some cotton.

But the new fruit on the stalk is being lost.

"If the weevils stay over winter and are in the cotton when fruit— (See Boll Weevils, Page 8)

Improved patient care and accreditation

2 primary goals at hospital

The primary goals at the Garza Memorial Hospital are improvement of patient care and affiliation with the Joint Commission of Hospital Accreditation, says new administrator J. B. Rickels, who is a native of Spur.

"Personally, my most important project is the continuous improvement of patient care, and we here at the hospital have been working on it ever since I took over as administrator," Rickels said.

"The right attitude toward patient care is important for a number of reasons," the administrator continued. "In the first place, the patient is in the hospital because he is not well; in the second place, he is not home, and in the third place, he is not in his own bed. To do our job well and help speed the patient toward recovery, we must make his stay in the hospital as pleasant as possible."

The goal of affiliation with the Joint Commission of Hospital Accreditation, Rickels admits, will take time. "There are not more than 20 or 30 accredited hospitals in Texas," he said.

There are numerous requirements to be met and standards to come up to before accreditation can be made. One of these, the administrator pointed out, is the very program of improved patient care the hospital here is working on.

"Hospitals, like everything else, don't stay the same," he said. "They either go up or down and we are trying to go up. We've got to shoot for something and accreditation is what we are shooting for."

Rickels was administrator at the county-operated McCamey hospital for two years before he came here recently to replace Don Curi, who resigned to accept a similar position at Memphis, Tex. Following his graduation from

Meeting together still best way

A community meeting of all merchants and business and professional folks has been called for tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Community Room by the Industrial Committee of the Post Chamber of Commerce.

Recognizing that it is difficult in this day and age to get a good representation out to do any meeting, Post business and professional people will do well to mark the one down tonight as important and be there.

A number of projects are to be discussed. It will be a good time to gain some fresh ideas from everyone on how to proceed once plans have been outlined.

Seeking new industry and encouraging present industry to expand is a complex problem which requires the full energies, support, and dedication of everybody.

Not only will tonight's meeting stir up some enthusiasm around town for progress, but it will give the industrial committee a boost if everybody turns out and demonstrates their genuine interest.

The lack of communications in this modern world is a tough one despite all the news and information media available. The best way is still to sit down together and talk it out.

That is just what is planned tonight.

So arrange to attend. The meeting will be fast moving and won't take too long. It's been a long time—too long really—since we've gotten together to hash over some things of interest to all of us.

So remember tonight's the night—and be there.—JC

The lean years appear over

Football literally is in the air around town this fall.

Coach Harold Teal and his Post High Antelopes with a three-game winning streak going have captured the imaginations of Post fans.

They play hard-nose football, or is it "jaw to jaw football" this year? They stay in there and give away nothing. Their defense is rugged. They try to keep the football.

It is all too true that football is the rallying point for communities such as ours here in Texas.

For the Morton game last Friday night—the Antelopes' home opener—a big crowd was on hand. It was an appreciative crowd that jumped to its feet, that made a lot of noise.

They enjoyed the two fine bands—Morton had a good one, too—during halftime festivities and rooted hard for the Antelopes.

There's no doubt about it, with five more home games to play, anybody who enjoys football ought to get those reserved seat tickets and turn out and have some fun.

We don't profess to know how many games the Antelopes can win out of their ten-game schedule this year, but we're confident they will be tough and competitive with all comers. And that is all the fans can ask in return for their support.

Post's lean years of grid famine are over. Follow them each and every Friday night along with their hundreds of faithful followers.

Encourage them. Stay off the coaches' backs. Root for them. Let yourself go. Football 1963 for Post reminds us of one of Harry Golden's good best sellers which was entitled, "Enjoy, Enjoy." —JC

Recreation gets big boost

Since recreation is a part of the American way of life, the organization of a country club here last week is as much a sign of progress as was the institution of city mail delivery service, the switchover to dial telephones and a number of other milestones in the race to keep pace.

For some eight years now, Post has had a golf course that was a credit to the city to begin with and has since made many improvements, including greens upgrading. The time was, and had been for several years, ripe for the organization of a country club.

There is considerable work to be done by this fledgling organization in planning various golfing activities, and, as new members come in between now and Jan. 1, 1964, the planning work will be made easier by the sheer weight of numbers.

The new Post Country Club is hopeful of signing up a total of 100 members between now and the first day of next year, and our prediction is that it will succeed in doing so. We believe there are enough golfing enthusiasts in and around Post who want to become charter members of the new club that it won't have any trouble getting the members.

Full details on membership can be obtained from the Caprock Golf Course clubhouse or from any present members of the new organization. —CD

You can help this year's Fair

With "fairs in the air," now would be a good time for everyone who already has or who can come up with something to enter in the Garza County Fair to start thinking about it.

The Garza County Home Demonstration Council is sponsoring the fair again this year, and these energetic clubwomen and their Extension Service agent, Miss Juanette Williams, are due no little credit for keeping the county fair going.

The success of this year's fair, which, by the way, is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 5, will largely determine whether another fair is held next year. And the only way a fair can be a success is for there to be enough entries in each class and division to hold the public's interest.

So, make up your mind now to enter something in this year's fair. If you don't have anything to enter—no antiques, no handicraft, no agriculture products, no livestock—then the best way you can help make this year's county fair a success is to go out to the 4-H Building and see what the others entered.—CD

Water problem stretches out

It isn't going to make much of a splash here, where the White River Dam is being rushed to completion, but the water problems of the nation—and of the world, for that matter—are going to get worse instead of better.

The above dire forecast is based on a staff report made by the U. S. Senate Committee on Public Works.

By 1980, the total dependable fresh water supply that will be available in the United States will be about 515 billion gallons a day. The most the nation can ever hope to have available as a result of engineering works is about 600 billion gallons a day.

Today, the nation uses 355 billion gallons of water a day, but at the present rate of development, by the time we can achieve a fresh water supply of 515 billion gallons a day, our requirements will have climbed to 600 billion gallons a day. By the year 2000, our water requirements will be more than 1,000 billion gallons a day.

It is obvious that the nation must complete as rapidly as possible the engineering works necessary to capture the maximum 600 billion gallons a day and that it must treat the water in such a way that each gallon is usable at least twice.

Such projects as the White River Dam are temporary "life-savers" to the communities involved, but they are only drops in the bucket in the long-range, over-all picture.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

When the ghosts of old cowboys warm their rope-scarred hands at phantom fires on the high mesas of forgotten nights, and coyotes cry into the canyons of silence, they listen. The faint chime of long-silenced spurs, the creaking of saddle leather drifts to the empty hills and valleys where herds once grazed.—Douglas Meador in Matador Tribune.

Higher education, as any parent of a college student can tell you, certainly is—Al Hinds in The Haskell Free Press.

With so many earth-shaking problems confronting us—automation, international tensions, the population explosion, agricultural problems—problems which defy solution, isn't it strange that many Americans would consider the chief issue in the selection of a President not these very real problems, but such relatively inconsequential ones as whether or not a colored student sits in the same classroom with Johnny or whether or not we serve a colored person in our place of business? Isn't it time to re-evaluate our problems? To assign new priorities?—H. M. Baggary in The Tulsa Herald.

Texans should make up their minds right now to vote for the repeal of the poll tax as a requirement for voting when a constitutional amendment comes up for consideration Nov. 9. Otherwise, voting could become even more complicated than it is. Right now, 36 states have already ratified a U. S. Constitutional amendment outlawing taxes on the right to vote in elections of Federal officials. When two more approve, which should be soon, it will go into effect. This would mean Texas would have to have two ballots—one for Federal officials, the other for state and local candidates. I see nothing else to do now but eliminate the poll tax entirely. —Hubert Curry in The Crosbyton Review.

THIS IS THE last week of September, but I really hadn't given any thought to how close Christmas is—close considering the fast pace we're going—until I caught wind the other day of some of the Chamber of Commerce plans for the opening of the Christmas season.

Of course, we still have October, November and most of December between us and Christmas Day, and October will put in its appearance next Tuesday. What a month it promises to be! Starting things off will be the Garza County Fair Friday and Saturday, Oct. 4-5, with most of the activities on the 5th. Monday, Oct. 7, is the date of the C. of C. barbecue for farmers, ranchers and businessmen.

THERE'S NO TELLING what all else we'll have going on between the Oct. 7 barbecue and Halloween, which, as always, comes on the last day of the month.

The Man up the Street says his old electric razor doesn't give him much of a shave, but it's so noisy it shuts out a lot of the morning yelling around his house.

The Saturday Review magazine is in a class to itself in coming up with new word games. The magazine's newest is a journalistic game with apparently endless possibilities. It's a list of self-introductions as practiced by would-be news reporters:

- "I'm Brown, from the Sun."
 - "I'm Cutt, from the Blade."
 - "I'm Alice, from the Mirror."
 - "I'm Justice, from the Tribune."
 - "I'm Tied, from the Post."
- I've been racking my brain trying to work The Dispatch in, and maybe will come up with something in next week's column. I did think up these two new ones however:
- "I'm Flatt, from the Press."
 - "I'm Early, from the Times."

And here is an elephant joke to end all elephant jokes:

A 15-year-old boy approached his girl friend with one hand cupped over the other. "Kay," he said, "if you can guess what I have in my hand, I'll take you to the show tonight."

"An elephant?" Kay asked.

"Nope," he replied, "But that's close enough. Pick you up at 7:30."

FRANK HILL led off his column, "Printer's Inkings," in last week's Lynn County News with an item telling of a revival at the Baptist Church at Tokio in which the preacher's name was Kennedy and the song leader's name was Castro.

Tokio is a small community west of Brownfield on U. S. Highway 380. At the outset of World War II, some of the people there wanted to change the name, but those who didn't prevailed, and it remained Tokio, but spelled with an "i" instead of a "y," as the capital city of Japan is spelled.

AND NOW TOKIO is back in the news with a Kennedy and a Castro conducting a Baptist revival meeting.

Our apologies to Lana Haynie for listing her under the drum majors' picture in last Thursday's Dispatch as assistant drum major. Lana is drum major and Yvonne Corley is assistant drum major. Both are doing top jobs and we are sorry for the "switcheroo" in positions.

FROM THE MINUTES of an engineering association meeting: "Since former secretary Bruce Brunton had left the area and the former minutes could not be found, it was moved, seconded and carried that the minutes of the last meeting be adopted as they would have been read had they been found."

There is nothing The Dispatch news staff had rather have than personal items—news about people coming and going. Yet, sometimes, people will call in these items and then not see them in the paper. To put it briefly, those little items that sometimes get left out are the ones that come in late... what The Dispatch has only four pages left to print instead of 12 or 16.

NONE OF THE personals are ever left out when there is room for them. But, sometimes they stack up on us on Wednesday, and there is no way to get them all in. At such times, no distinction is made between the ones that are left. The page make-up men in the back shop squeeze in as many of these items as they can, but they just take them as they come on the galley, which is what any make-up man is supposed to do.

Last week, a number of these personal items were left out—much to our regret. We've worked on small town newspapers long enough to know that the coming-or-going items are as widely read as any other news in the paper. So, keep calling us when you have company or go anywhere—but call as early in the week as possible.

'64 FORD LINEUP FRIDAY

Shown above are the four stylish new Ford Motor Co. lines for 1964 which will be on display at Tom Power—Ford beginning Friday. Top is the Ford Galaxie 500, next the Fairlane 500, the restyled Ford Falcon, and at the bottom the new Thunderbird. The Falcon is completely restyled for the first time since introduced four years ago.

Many styling changes in new '64 Ford lineup

The new 1964 Ford lineup, which will be unveiled at Tom Power—Ford here Friday includes:

(1) A completely restyled package with three distinctive new roof lines and a roomier interior for the 16 models of Ford Custom, Ford Custom 500s, Ford Galaxie 500s, Ford station wagons, and Ford Galaxie 500-XLs.

(2) A full range of Indianapolis-proven engines and action-keyed new styling in the 1964 Fairlanes.

(3) A complete restyling for the first time since its introduction four years ago for the Ford Falcon, which combines a new look of action with a more spacious interior, added economy, and a dramatically smoother new ride.

(4) All new styling underneath a famous roofline which gives the 1964 Thunderbird a fresh, new personality of its own.

(5) Highlighting the light and medium Ford trucks for 1964 are increased durability, lower maintenance and operating costs and greater versatility.

THE FORD GALAXIE 500 and Ford Custom and Custom 500s are designed to combine an exterior look of greater luxury with still more of the luxury engineering features that have made the 1963 Ford our best seller, Tom Power says.

These 1964 Fords have been redesigned inside as well to reduce the front compartment tunnel size by one-third and to increase headroom and seat height over 1963 by as much as an inch.

Every ounce of added weight to the 1964 models is muscle to give a more solid, longer-lasting body frame for greater ruggedness and durability and a new luxury car suspension to reduce road shock and noise.

New in the Ford power lineup for 1964 is a Thunderbird Special 352 CID V8 with 4-barrel carburetion rated at 250 horsepower and offering both good performance and good economy on regular fuel.

"FRESH STYLING OF THE 1964 Fairlanes may give some the impression that the Fairlane has become a bigger car," Power said. "Actually, it retains its original size."

The dynamic new lines of the Fairlane are complemented by a selection of five engines, three of which are of the same basic design as the V8 which powered the Lotus cars to second and seventh place finishes in the 1963 Indianapolis 500-mile Memorial Day Classic.

The eight Fairlane model lineup includes two and four-door sedans and a four-door ranch wagon in the Fairlane series. The Fairlane 500 series includes two and four-door sedans, a two-door hardtop, a two-door sports coupe, and a four-door custom ranch wagon.

THE COMPLETELY new styling of the 1964 Ford Falcons emphasizes a forward-thrusting side profile that gives the car a look of movement even when parked.

"A softer and more controlled ride for the new Falcon contributes both to quietness and to greater comfort," Power said. "Major changes in both front and rear suspension combine to reduce road vibration and provide a significant ride improvement."

The new luggage compartment is longer and wider with 25 per cent more usable cargo space.

A full range of big car options are offered on the new Falcon including power steering and Ford air conditioning.

The basic engine for Ford Falcon models is an improved version of the six-cylinder, 85-horsepower engine that in 1961 recorded the greatest gas mileage ever achieved for any six or eight in the 25-year history of the Mobilgas Economy Run. Standard on convertibles and Deluxe Club wagons is the 101-horsepower, 170 cubic inch six-cylinder engine. Standard on sprint models is the Challenge 260 cubic inch V-8 which made its debut with a 1-2 finish in its class in the Monte Carlo Rallye early in 1963.

The Falcon will offer 17 models in five series.

THE 1964 THUNDERBIRDS have been given a longer hood and a shorter roofline, while the all-new body side panels are highly sculptured. Completely new in interior styling too, the Thunderbird features a cockpit styling motif in the driver's compartment. Thin-shell, front bucket seats which seem to "float" on twin-pedestal mounts provide added foot space for rear-seat passengers. Also featured are the industry's first retractable seat belts, the outboard side of which "disappear" when not in use.

IN THE TRUCK LINE OF Ford, the Falcon Ranchero is completely restyled with a redesigned suspension for better ride and handling. Added economy is offered in all grades.

F-100 and F-250 pickups feature increased oil change and lubrication intervals, new durable-wall box for Styleside pickups, increased capacity self-adjusting brakes, aluminum longer-life mufflers and tailpipes, color-keyed cab interiors with better insulation for greater drive comfort and tailgate with easy one-hand latch operations.

Post team wins roping title

Post ropers Walter Arnold and Jim Prather won the team tying title in the Championship Rodeo sponsored by the Tahoka Rodeo Association.

The team of Arnold and Prather was the only one finishing with an average in the team tying contest.

Other champions in the various events were as follows: Calf Roping — Roy Thompson, Happy.

Saddle Bronc Riding—Edd Workman, Lubbock.

Bareback Bronc Riding—Sidney Johnson, Snyder.

Bulldogging—Edd Workman.

Bull Riding — Cratus Doughitt, Henrietta.

Barrel Racing — Debbie Ferguson, Petersburg.

Those competing for the championships had been contestants this year in shows produced by the M&R Rodeo Co. of Tahoka.

Crosbyton plans new sewage disposal plant

CROSBYTON—Freese, Nichols & Endress of Fort Worth have been employed by the Crosbyton city council as architects for a proposed new sewage disposal plant here.

The present disposal plant, built in 1928, has been inadequate for a number of years, according to City Secretary Norman Barrett.

The need for a more adequate disposal plant has become acute because of the construction of the White River dam as a reservoir for municipal water. The present plant, built on the edge of the canyon southeast of the city, dumps into White River.

NEW PREACHING SERIES

The Rev. J. R. Brincefield, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, will begin a new preaching series emphasizing the Holy Spirit, starting this Sunday. The subject, "His Nature", will be preached on at both morning and evening services. The public is cordially invited to hear these expository messages.

INMATE CONTESTS

The '64s from Ford are here: The Year of the Test Drive starts today!

Ford cars have changed. Only a test drive can tell you how much. Races and rallies, economy runs, braking and acceleration tests have bred into our 1964 models the kind of total performance you just can't create on the test track alone. They are hard-muscled, fast-moving, sure-footed. Open competition helped make them that way. They offer you substantially more car than anything at their price. You don't have to take our word for it. We're willing to rest our case on our cars.

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!

FORD

Falcon-Fairlane-Ford-Thunderbird

1964 SUPER TORQUE FORD
Strongest, smoothest, steadiest car in its field—by hundreds of pounds... More steel in frame and suspensions... Unique suspension system allows wheels to move backward as well as up and down to flatten bumps... Distinctive new rooflines.

1964 FAIRLANE
Unique combination of family-size room, sports car feel and modest price... Optional 289-cubic-inch V-8 so lively it was adapted for famous Cobra sports car... Five engine choices, six transmission choices, eight different models.

1964 FALCON
Everything's changed except the economy that made Falcon famous... Falcon's Six still holds all-time Mobil Economy Run record for Sixes or Eights... Plushest ever built into a compact car... 14 models—plus three extra-duty wagons.

Vet's Forum

Q. Under what conditions can a peacetime veteran be admitted to a VA hospital for a non-service-connected disability?

A. Veterans who were discharged or retired for disability incurred or aggravated in line of duty or are receiving compensation or would be eligible to receive compensation except for receipt of retirement pay may be admitted for ailments not connected with their service if beds are available.

Q. Is there an exception to the rule that VA outpatient treatment is given only for service-connected conditions?

A. Yes. Disabled veterans who are receiving training under either the World War II or the Korean Conflict Vocational Rehabilitation Act and who need outpatient medical treatment for non-service-connected disabilities to prevent interruption of their training, may be entitled to this treatment from the VA.

Q. In the fall, I will be retiring from the Army after 20 years of service. Will I be eligible to go to school under the GI Bill?

A. It will depend upon when you received your first unconditional discharge after Jan. 31, 1955. If less than three years have passed since that discharge, you are eligible. If more than three years have passed, you are not. Immediate re-enlistment at the time you received that first unconditional discharge after Jan. 31, 1955, would have had to effect on extending the deadline.

Rotary to host local teachers

The Post Rotary Club will entertain all teachers of the Post schools, and their wives or husbands, at a buffet dinner on the west side of Antelope Stadium next Tuesday evening.

Serving will begin at 6:30 p. m. and last for about an hour.

Wives of Rotarians also are invited.

The civic club annually entertains the teaching staff and the Antelope stadium was necessary because there are no enclosed facilities large enough for the anticipated turnout.

No specific program is planned, James Mitchell, Rotary president, announced this week. "Just eating and visiting," he added.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Total carloads moved over Santa Fe System lines for the week ending Sept. 21 were 31,369 compared with 34,787 for the same week a year ago. On-line loadings were 19,844 compared with 22,941 for the corresponding week last year. Cars received from connections totaled 11,525 compared with 11,846 for the same week a year ago. Santa Fe handled a total of 30,147 carloads in the preceding week of this year.

4-H Marks 35th Anniversary of Canning Awards Program

Thirty-five years is a long time for a private business concern to sponsor a specific youth program. But that is the record attained this year by the Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation of Sand Springs, Okla. for its support of the national 4-H canning program.

The company's president, Mrs. Ruth Kerr, herself a homemaker and pioneer in the home canning field, personally has congratulated thousands of 4-H members who won trips to the National 4-H Club Congress for their canning ability.

Give Canning Awards
Soon another championship group will arrive in Chicago as guests of Mrs. Kerr. From about four dozen girls, six of the best will be selected for a $500 national canning scholarship. Over the years the firm has helped 174 high school graduates with their college education by way of scholarships.

Home canning was the first 4-H project for girls and the product to be canned was tomatoes, which the girls were supposed to grow. That was around 1910.

Today, according to a recent survey, tomatoes still head the list of home canned foods. Pickles, beans, peaches, jellies and preserves are next in the order named.

Methods Improved
A half century ago club members were taught to can in tin rather than in glass because they were encouraged to sell the surplus for cash. Housewives of that era were accustomed to buying linned foods.

Probably the main difference between the early canning project and the 1963 version is that greater varieties of plain and fancy foods—including meat, fish and poultry—are preserved by easier and safer methods.

Today's 4-H pantries are stocked with goodies such as chicken a la king, meatballs in tomato sauce, apricot-raspberry jam, soups, pie fillings and just about every kind of vegetable. In fact, an entire meal can be

Post Art Guild is to present lecturer here next Tuesday

The Post Art Guild will present Rabbi Alexander S. Kline D. D., of Lubbock, lecturing on "A Survey of European Paintings," at 8 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 1, in the Post Primary School auditorium.

Rabbi Kline's lecture will be lavishly illustrated, including color slides and reproductions.

Members of the Post Art Guild said they are honored to be able to bring this cultural program to the community. Rabbi Kline has been a lecturer on the history of art and art appreciation for 30 years. He and Mrs. Kline have traveled extensively in Europe.

Rabbi and Mrs. Kline will be honored at a dinner by members of the Guild and their husbands before the lecture.

Tickets to the lecture here may be purchased in advance from any Guild member for $1, or may be purchased at the door.

Tuesday, Oct. 8, one week after his lecture in Post, Rabbi Kline will begin an art seminar entitled "One Thousand Years of French Art," at the West Texas Museum auditorium in Lubbock. The course will continue through Dec. 10. Ten sessions will be held at a fee of $10. Registration ends Oct. 1. Anyone interested may contact the Post Art Guild for additional information.

Sunday School class holds monthly party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gray Sr., 121 South Ave. N., was the scene for the monthly party of the Homemakers Sunday School class of the Church of the Nazarene.

Those having birthdays this month were honored guests. They are Mrs. Junior Gray and Marion Smith.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Among the members and their families attending were:

The first Cub Scout pack meeting of the 1963-64 season will be held at 7:30 p. m. today in the primary school auditorium for the purpose of reorganizing present den and enrolling new boys in the Cubbing program.

Parents whose son is interested in joining the Cub Scouts are asked to bring him to tonight's meeting. Jim Power, acting Cubmaster, states that Cubbing is a family program and both parents are urged to attend.

"If your son is to participate in this program we will need your help to carry it out," Power said. "We will have to have new den mothers in order to form new dens. Everyone will be asked to help in some way with the den activities. This is the only way we can have an active program and be assured that no one will be called on to do it all alone."

A training film for den mothers will be shown at tonight's meeting. It is one of a series of training films that will be shown to all present den mothers, new den mothers, assistant and Cub pack committee members wanting such training.

"Please come out tonight and do your part to make this the most active Cub pack in the district," the acting Cubmaster urged.

Punt, Pass, Kick sign-ups begin

Registration is under way at Tom Power Ford here for the 1963 Punt, Pass and Kick contest and will continue through Oct. 11.

The contest is for grade school boys ages eight through 11 years. Each boy registering must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

The PP&K competition will be held in October at Antelope Stadium with Athletic Director Harold Teal and other members of the Post coaching staff in charge.

At the local level, boys will be competing in their own age group for National Football League warm up jackets, football helmets and autographed photos of star NFL punters, passers and kickers.

Post couple's granddaughter is married Sunday in Denver, Colo.

DENVER, Colo. — Miss Beverly Jean Harper and Virgil Dean Rutledge were married at 8 p. m. Sunday in a double-ring ceremony in Evans Chapel on the campus of Denver University. The Rev. William E. Rhodes, chaplain of the university, read the vows. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harper of Mt. Pleasant, Ia., and Capt. and Mrs. David R. Rutledge of Sun Prairie, Wis. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harper who were in Denver to attend the wedding. Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a formal gown of pearl white peau de soie. The bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline, and a fitted waistline which was accented by a self fabric bow. The controlled bell skirt was enhanced in the back by a removable square train. Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion fell in tiers from a tiara of lace and seed pearls. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis centered by a white orchid and white roses.

Attending the bride as maid of honor and junior bridesmaid were the sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Barbara Rutledge and Miss Diane Rutledge. They wore street-length dresses of open blue taffeta designed with bateau necklines and bell skirts. Circular veils of blue tulle were held in place by matching blue petal hats. Each attendant carried a fan arrangement of feathered blue mums and white stephanotis.

Cris Harper, brother of the bride, served as best man. Groomsmen were Jerry Whaley of Wilton Junction, Ia., and Ed Bigby and Carl Sandorff of Denver. The chapel was decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli and blue mums and two candelabra.

Following the ceremony the couple greeted guests at a reception in the Coachman Room at South Park Inn.

They will reside at 45 South Grant in Denver where the bride is employed at the Colorado Industrial Bank, and the bridegroom will open a singing engagement at the Exodus Club.

Initial training session of year is held by Auxiliary

The first orientation training session of the year was held Tuesday night at 7 o'clock for the Women's Auxiliary of Garza Memorial Hospital, Texas Association of Hospital Auxiliaries, with Mrs. J. E. Parker, chairman, in charge. J. R. Rickles, hospital administrator, was introduced by Mrs. Parker and he expressed his appreciation of the auxiliary and welcomed them as a part of the hospital organization. Mr. Rickles told of the aims, needs and purposes of the hospital and how the auxiliary could work with the hospital so it can better serve the community.

The administrator introduced Mrs. E. E. Russell, supervisor of nurses, who explained the duties of the three types of nurses in the hospital and what the auxiliary could do to extend the extra courtesies and attention so important to the patients and their families. Mrs. T. C. Polk extended the cooperation of her department to the organization, a help that each member has appreciated since the first day of service in the voluntary work. Rules and regulations were discussed for the workers. Mrs. Homer J. Irons was presented as a model of how an auxiliary worker should be dressed while on duty. Needed services were also discussed.

Mrs. James Minor, president, told of plans and projects for the year and ways that the auxiliary could be a more effective organization. Mmes. C. M. Dawkins, Bobby D. Woods, Norman Moriearty, Edna Morris and Hansford Hudman were welcomed into the club and given assignments of duty. Mrs. A. C. Cooke was welcomed as she returned to active membership. Active members who were not present for this meeting can attend the next session Wednesday, Oct. 2, in the nurse's dining room at the hospital at 2 p. m. Mrs. M. J. Malouf, Mrs. Walter Boren, Mrs. D. C. Williams and Mrs. Garland Davies were hostesses and served refreshments to the 22 members attending.

Amity Study Club under way with new study course

Starting its study course "Countries of Concern", the Amity Study Club heard a program on Berlin when it met Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Thurman Francis with Mrs. Bob Collier as co-hostess. After roll call which each member answered with an appointed category, Mrs. C. H. Hartel gave a background history of Berlin and the present situation. Her talk was entitled "A Capitol Without a Country." Mrs. Bob Macy, in presenting her part of the program, "Mayor Brandt's Fight Against Communism", read the speech the mayor gave to the International Rotary Convention held in St. Louis, Mo., in June.

Butterscotch parfaits, pound cake and coffee were served to the following: Mmes. Ronald Babb, Bill Carlisle, Malcolm Bull, Jack Burress, Wayne Carpenter, Bud Davis, Marion Duncan, Hartel, Macy, George Miller, Lorene Scarbrough, Darrell Stone, Pat N. Walker, Preston Poole, V. L. Peel, Wayne Richardson and the hostesses.

Girl Scout troop chooses officers

Girl Scout Troop 286 had their first meeting last Thursday of the school year. We discussed our new handbooks. This new Girl Scout Handbook is a great improvement. It will make the girls work harder and better toward their goals.

The members who participated in this discussion were Brenda Clemmons, Zelika Freeman, Iris Howell, Sulinda Little, Pieta Litton, Patsy Pierce and Brenda Ward.

We also elected officers for the six weeks. Our new president, who will receive a patrol leadership rope, is Kaye Litton. Our vice-president is Zelika Freeman; secretary, Sulinda Little, and reporter, Brenda Ward.

Sulinda Little has fulfilled the requirements to become a Girl Scout. We will hold a special ceremony for her.

Three Post artists exhibit paintings

Mrs. Mildred Outlaw, Mrs. Juance Robinson and Mrs. Johnny Rogers are exhibiting original paintings at the South Plains Fair in Lubbock.

The paintings are on display in the Women's Building. They were judged last Friday by the head of the art department of Baylor University.

Mrs. Outlaw and Mrs. Robinson also assisted in the hanging of the pictures for the exhibit.

NURSING HOME SERVICE

The Rev. Aubrey White, Methodist minister from Tahoka, will preach at the Twin Cedar Nursing Home Sunday at 3:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Pat Schmidt is chosen as '64 Valentine Sweetheart

Mrs. Pat Schmidt was chosen Valentine Sweetheart of Texas Mu Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority when the club met Monday night at the Reddy Room. Mrs. Schmidt will be presented at the annual Valentine dance in February and her picture is to be sent to "The Torch", national sorority monthly publication.

Mrs. Flute King, who as vice president, will be in charge of the pledge costume party, reported on plans for the event which is scheduled for Saturday night at the First Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. A western motif will be carried out in decorations and in serving the meal and members and guest pledges are to come costumed in western attire. A prize will be awarded for the most original outfit.

The group discussed attending the area convention of Beta Sigma Phi sorority to be held in Sweetwater during October. Several plans to attend.

The reports were heard by standing committees and officers and the minutes of the previous meeting were read. Mrs. Margaret

THE POST DISPATCH

IT'S MY TURN

Yesterday I didn't know which to buy about the most—the State of Alabama, giving $50 million dollars to rebuild a "red" city, a trip to the moon with the Russians or TV.

Today it is none of those. I am worried about the price of bread increasing one cent. I'd almost rather they had been real sneaky about it and decreased the size of the loaf. The bread companies are just as well join the candy companies. If candy bars get smaller they will all be bite-size.

I tried to watch TV one night last week while catching up with the news. I was hoping some news might be on, but I was wrong. It was the same old stuff. First I had a choice between a jewelry store in a record-breaking commercial and the tail end of "The Virginian". Being less interested in record-breaking commercials than in westerns I chose the latter. At the end one can pick up the story in the next one regardless of how long the western is going on. That is, except for Paladine—even after watching his complete show, one is sometimes confused as to what it is all about.

My next choice came between Dr. Ben Casey, (ugh) and "Beverly Hillsbillies". My choice to turn the set off but Mr. C. remarked that he had never seen a show so why not watch a bit. He lasted all of ten minutes sneaked out of the room. I the ironing board away and went to bed to read.

I'll be asking for is one good TV set to do the ironing, but I guess asking for too much.

A good football season is in the making what with Post and Texas winning ball games. Texas even showed a little bit of imagination we had been promised.

As usual, the Cs arrived early for game in Lubbock but I've given up about that and now pursue one of my favorite hobbies—people-watching. Since the weather is already a bit warm for the first game is a hoggedge of fashion of garment from sleeveless to mink (and I use that loosely) was worn Saturday night. I notice that hats are still being worn by many—those hair-dos just won't allow. By the way, I keep wondering if the women will start believing the articles about straight coming back into style and something about it.

In the people-watching pales, in people-listen. I heard one tale from a woman sitting diagonally behind me. One of her comments commented that their high school football game had been extremely exciting Friday night. One of the boys caught the ball and returned it for a touchdowns. The woman in back of who had already hit me in the back with her purse, kneed me in the back several times and tried to make a hole in my new frock with a cigarette, said: "Oh, that is exciting. When our son was playing in his senior year of high school he did that very thing at the game. I guess it was some record."

I had not choked on my drink but remark I would have turned around to get a real good look at the teller of tall tales. Her comment said in a weak voice, "Oh, that's exciting and the conversation was sketchy for the rest of the game."

Just realized why the bread companies went up one cent! We thought we were getting that new end label to reseal each loaf. But it is really costing us money. Maybe we can all gang up and go back to closing it that way.

SEE TECH VICTORY

Post football fans attending Texas Tech victory over Oklahoma State in Lubbock Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Vic Eisman, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Dave S. and Mrs. Lew Marks, Mrs. Joe Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cornish.

ROMANTIC NOTE

Annette Funicello and Bob Cummings in romantic beach scene from American-International's "Beach Party," now showing through Saturday at the Tower Theatre. Dorothy Malone and Frankie Avalon also star in the color and Panavision musical comedy.

Most hunted game bird in Texas is the mourning dove.

It is also one of the most trying of all winged targets. And that probably is the reason it ranks so high with sportsmen.

When you go dove hunting, you don't just take along one box of shells. Most hunters take two boxes and sometimes more.

A few expert shotgun artists can grass a dove with almost every shot. But let's face it—only a minute percentage of hunters are expert marksmen.

The mourning dove is a small bird. It can't take a lot of punishment, and it's easy to kill. That is, if you can hit it. And hitting this bird is the real challenge in dove hunting.

To begin with, the dove flies very fast. Furthermore, its flight pattern is deceiving.

FOR EXAMPLE, most birds will tower for altitude when shot at—but not the mourning dove. It makes a shallow dive to pick up speed. This dive confuses tyro gunners into believing they have a hit bird. Thus they don't follow up with a second shot.

The dove's small size makes range estimation difficult. With field loads in a 12-gauge gun you can kill doves at 40 to 45 yards. But at that distance the bird looks mighty small. Some hunters pass up these shots because they think the bird is out of range.

Too many hunters wait until the bird is just 20 or 25 yards out. At this distance, if they're shooting a full choke gun, they must have the bird right in the pattern. Actually at this short range, the pattern of a full choke gun doesn't open up enough.

So, quiet often they'll shoot in front of or behind the bird.

A MODIFIED CHOKE is best for this range. Open bore is even better. But an open bore gun is useless on long range shots.

Some hunters even wait to make their shots at 10 or 15 yards.

Unless it's a straight-in shot, they'll usually miss at this close distance because of the difficulty in swinging the gun on a target crossing at 50 or 60 miles per hour. And when they do hit on these short shots, they literally blow the birds to bits.

Doves are plentiful throughout Texas. Often you can get some choice shooting just outside the city limits.

There are several ways to hunt doves. In dry years the best hunting usually is around a pond or farm tank. Take a stand and pop the birds as they sail in for water. You don't even need a blind. Just squat down in the grass and keep still.

Good hunting is found in corn and rice fields too. Note where the birds are coming to feed and take a station accordingly.

DOVE HUNTING can get tough in a wet year. Then the birds don't have to use ponds and farm tanks for water.

Wet-year hunting calls for jump shooting. Crisscross a field and take your shots as you jump the birds out of the grass.

It's a lot like quail shooting, except that doves will take to the air when you get within 30 or 40 yards of them. You'll have a lot of long shots. But it only adds to the sport.

Improve your hunting by using decoys. Place the decoys on fence wires or on the limbs of trees.

When picking trees for decoys, select only those with little foliage so doves can spot the decoys from a distance.

You can place decoys on the shorelines of ponds and farm tanks. But pick spots where there is little grass so that the decoys will show up.

Decoying doves differs from decoying waterfowl in that you only need a few decoys to do the trick. A half dozen is plenty if they're placed in conspicuous places.

FACE THE DECOYS into the wind. Doves, like other birds, don't like their back feathers ruffled by the wind.

Because of the small size of the dove, some folks may think a small shotgun is needed.

Well, you can drop doves with a .410 if you're a good shot, but if you check the hunters in the field, you'll find the 12-gauge is by far the most popular weapon.

Shot size is a matter of hunter choice with the range going all the way from No. 6 to No. 9. Some hunters use No. 6 shot in a full choke gun for long-range shooting, because the pellets carry better. Most popular shot-size, however, is No. 7½ and No. 8.

Both sizes have ample pellets to give a dense pattern, which is the key to success in dove hunting.

YOU CAN JUDGE the shot size to fit your need by noting the pellet count on various sizes. Now, these counts are for one ounce of shot. With No. 6 shot you'll have 225 pellets in the load. An ounce of 7½ counts 350; No. 8 counts 410, and No. 9 counts 584.

No. 6 shot is okay for long-range shooting in a full-choke gun. You can use 7½ for long range if there is very little wind. Use 8 and 9 for those 30-yard shots. But if there is a stiff wind blowing, you can expect some terrible wind-blown patterns with the light No. 9 pellets.

But remember this. Take along plenty of ammo. Doves are tricky targets, and you'll blow a lot of holes in the sky before getting your limit.

1964 CHEVROLETS ON DISPLAY TODAY

The new '64 Chevrolets went on display here today at the Collier Chevrolet-Olds Co. with a total of 43 models offered buyers in five separate passenger car lines. Four of the five lines is distinguishable above by its own styling and wheelbase. Not shown is the Corvette Sting Ray, which sports a 96 inch wheelbase. Above, reading down: the 108-inch wheelbase Corvair Monza Coupe, 110-inch wheelbase Chevy II Nova 4-door sedan; the newest car in the Chevrolet family, the Chevelle Malibu 4-door sedan with 115-inch wheelbase; and 119-inch wheelbase Chevrolet Impala.

Chevrolet in '64 will offer widest choice ever

Chevrolet — virtually certain of setting an all-time sales mark in 1964 — intends to continue this success in 1964 by offering the widest choice of automobiles in its history, and Collier said today as the '64 models of the line were unveiled for a three-day weekend opening (through Saturday) at Collier Chevrolet-Olds Co.

Introduced in Chevrolet dealers across the nation today are 43 models in five distinct sizes. There is 10 more models than Chevrolet offered for 1963, and the great number Chevrolet has ever offered in a single year.

Included will be the industry's all-new car for 1964 — the Chevelle.

This much-discussed combination of beauty, quality, performance and function is sized between the regular Chevrolet and Chevy II.

All Chevrolet's five lines of 1964 have styling and engineering improvements which — teamed with increase in models and options — allow the customer to tailor a car to his particular requirements as never before.

"Car buyers today like diversity," Collier declares. "They like to be able to choose cars from a wide range of sizes, styles, and performance characteristics."

"We expect the broad diversity of 1964 cars to win the customer's interest needed to continue Chevrolet's traditional industry leadership," he said.

REGULAR CHEVROLETS—Extensive new styling is evident in the regular Chevrolet line, again stressing the big car luxury which has made it so popular.

A Super Sport series featuring bucket seats and special interior and exterior appointments in both a convertible and sport coupe has been added for 1964, bringing the total models of regular Chevrolets to 15 in four series.

Although over-all dimensions are the same as in 1963, the regular Chevrolet has a longer, wider look created by new floating side lines and a smooth, broader styling of front and rear ends.

Crisp, distinctive exterior moldings and interior appointments distinguish between the Super Sport, Impala, Bel Air and Biscayne series.

Seven engines ranging from 140 to 435 horsepower will be offered. Optional for the first time in 1964 on 409 cubic inch engines is a full transistor ignition system. Four transmissions will be offered and the four-speed Synchro-Mesh includes refinements for smoother shifting and greater durability.

CHEVILLE—Chevrolet's new automobile line for 1964 embodies a distinctive styling and will be offered in 11 models in three series—the top-of-the-line Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300.

Quality and vehicle width are stressed in the front end design which makes use of dual headlights and horizontal grille bars. Side treatment is clean and a peak line which carries throughout the car gives a look of length.

The rear end design accents car width with tail and backup lights at the extreme ends of the rear back panel. A textured molding extends the full width of the car.

A special feature of the Chevelle body is the use of curved side windows to give a lower look. A strikingly wide instrument panel is part of the distinctive interior styling which includes trim styles and materials color-keyed to the new exterior colors.

Built on a 115 inch wheelbase, the chassis is completely new, featuring a perimeter frame. Front suspension makes use of coil springs and rear suspension is of the coil spring four link type.

Fourteen inch wheels, self-adjusting Safety-Master brakes and a high capacity Delcotron generator are standard equipment. Four engines—two six-cylinder and two optional V8s—are offered on all Chevelle models. Four different transmissions are available.

CHEVY II—In its third year on the market, the Chevy II continues its popular blend of small car handling, roominess, economy and good taste in a total of 6 models in two series—the Nova and the 100 series.

The basic styling personality of the Chevy II is continued in 1964, but there is added beauty through refinements in the grille, side moldings, emblems and hub caps and more luxurious interiors.

A V8 engine will be offered for the first time as an extra-cost option on all models. With the V8, which will be Chevrolet's 283 cubic inch 195 horsepower model, the customer may choose either standard three-speed, optional four-speed or Powerglide transmissions.

Two six-cylinder engines at 120 and 155 horsepower will be available in all Chevy II models. The economical four-cylinder 90 horsepower engine will continue to be available in the two- and four-door sedans of the 100 series.

An important mechanical feature on all Chevy II models will be new, larger 9.5 inch self-adjusting brakes to give greater margin of stopping safety.

CORVAIR — Entering its fifth year, the Corvair will continue its important place in the Chevrolet lineup by appealing to a group of buyers who like something sportier and less conventional in a small car.

A Monza Snyder series comprised of a top-of-the-line convertible and club coupe is added for 1964, bringing the total models to seven in four series — the Monza Snyder, Monza, 700 and 500 series, plus two Greenbrier Sports Wagons.

Corvair styling for 1964 retains the clean, classic theme with new identification through emblems and ornamentation. All models except Greenbrier feature a slender new front body molding with colorful plastic emblem insert. The word "Corvair" extends across luggage and engine compartment lids in bright block letters.

All Corvair models will feature a new larger displacement 164 cubic inch engine that delivers higher performance and top economy. This new engine retains the six-cylinder air-cooled design. Horsepower ranges from 95 to 110 to 150.

CORVETTE — America's only sports car—fresh from its most successful year in 1963—continues the famed design of its two Sting Ray models, the convertible and the sports coupe for 1964.

Offering broader appeals to more kinds of buyers, the 1964 Corvette combines the driving and handling enjoyment of a genuine sports car with the luxury and convenience most fine car owners want.

GOOD POSTURE

AUSTIN—Good posture makes it possible to use the body in the simplest and most effective way—muscle contraction and relaxation, balance, coordination, rhythm, and timing makes all tasks easier.

Posture has a direct bearing on comfort, work efficiency and body functions. Poor posture can become a habit, like overeating. Poor posture reduces blood circulation, induces drowsiness and fatigue. Because breathing is shallow, abdominal organs sag and perform poorly.

Posture, some experts explain, is the end result of body mechanics. The human body is composed of many intricate and interacting components. Body mechanics might be defined as the functioning of the body parts.

TENSION IS A deterrent to good body mechanics. Relaxation is a lessening of tension. Learning to relax completely is an important aid to body mechanics. A person may lie down to rest but defeat his purpose by not relaxing.

For an example of how tension feels, contract a part of the body strongly. Clench the fist tightly then start releasing it gradually, taking away more and more of the tension until there is a feeling of complete looseness. Another method is to close your eyes and, starting from the tip ends of the toes, fingers or scalp, let each muscle relax or go completely limp. After mastering these methods of tension relaxation, it becomes possible to locate tense areas within the body and relax them.

Aside from building good principles of body mechanics with the fundamentals of health—plenty of sleep, regular exercise, meals which keep up stamina and provide a supply of energy and attention to medical and dental needs—there are specific posture points to consider.

THE MOST EVIDENT fact in a person with good posture is that the body is carried in a well balanced manner with the weight line of the body falling through the main midline joints of the body. Any posture in which the various segments or parts of the body assume a zigzag line, or in other words sag

Dickens FFA chapters declare war on rats

SPUR—The Spur chapter of Future Farmers of America has joined forces with other FFA chapters in Dickens County in a war on rats in farm communities.

In carrying out the program, the FFA chapters are informing the farm communities of the rat problem and are organizing campaigns to enlist community support in the campaign.

In one spot or bulge out in another, is apt to indicate poor body alignment. Good posture results in body movements of ease, grace and efficiency. Poor posture is usually awkward and inefficient.

A person with poor posture can get tired just sitting. It's worth learning the right way to sit, too, for it can save much fatigue and weariness. Try it, using these simple rules: Use a firm chair with a seat equal to leg length from bottom of the heel to the back of the knee, minus 1½ inches. Sit tall—on the back of the thighs rather than the end of the spine. Hold the head and trunk erect, centered over the pelvis or tilted slightly forward. Flex the knees at right angles.

Expect great things from Chevrolet again—for '64

Today... Jet-smooth Luxury '64 CHEVROLET

Chevrolet was luxurious before, but you should see it now. With smart new styling, the '64 Chevrolet looks even longer (but isn't). There's even a whole new series this year—the Impala Super Sports—with front bucket seats as standard equipment. (The new Impalas and Bel Airs are more luxurious, too. Even the lowest priced Biscaynes have new foam-cushioned seats front and rear and are fully carpeted.) Of course, you expect more than just luxury from Chevrolet. A choice of 16 power teams, for instance—a 6 and six V8's up to 425 hp (optional at extra cost). And quieter transmissions. Jet-smooth ride with Full Coil suspension. Flush-and-dry rocker panels, Delcotron generator, self-adjusting brakes and other low-upkeep features. If you've ever wondered how luxurious Chevrolet could get—with all the extra-cost options there are to choose from—that seems to be entirely up to you.

Take your first look at the first CHEVELLE!

CHEVELLE! by Chevrolet

You've never seen anything like this totally new line of cars before. Chevelle is new in everything but Chevrolet quality. Chevelle is a good foot shorter than the big cars, so it parks easily. Yet the interior dimensions of its Body by Fisher provide a generous amount of head, leg and shoulder room. (Chevelle's trunk is big and roomy, too.) The ride is surprisingly smooth with a rugged coil spring at all four wheels. And not so surprisingly for Chevrolet, the new Chevelle offers a choice of engines ranging from an economical 120-hp 6 to a 230-hp V8 (optional at extra cost.) Choose the Chevelle you like best from the three series—the Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300 Series, eleven models in all—at your Chevrolet dealer's. (Like this good-looking Malibu Super Sport, maybe?)

Tree vandal faces hearing

Six of the young trees, which were planted around the local schools only a few weeks ago, were broken in half Friday night, but the 14-year-old vandal has already been identified and faces a juvenile hearing before County Judge J. E. Parker this afternoon.

School Superintendent Barry Thompson said the boy's parents also are being charged with violation of the compulsory school attendance law. The boy was not an enrolled student.

Future vandalism to the Post schools will be prosecuted "to the fullest extent of the law", Thompson promised.

He said R. G. (Wilke) Wilkerson has worked many hours in an effort to save the trees, but if they do not survive he plans to replace them at cost.

Thompson praised Wilke's community interest and good citizenship in this endeavor.

He said letters sent to parents warning them of violation of the state compulsory school attendance law has resulted in the enrollment of 19 more students during the last week, bringing enrollment in Post schools to 1,384.

He promised that charges will be filed in county court here Monday against parents who have failed to heed his warning and place their youngsters in school.

DIRECTORS VOTED to let the district's contracts for power for 10-year periods. The contracts will go to the Dickens Electric Co-op, the City of Crosbyton, and Southwestern Public Service Co. to serve various power points in the four-city district.

The Dickens Co-op has the principal contract with Southwestern Public Service providing power for the Post pump station and Crosbyton for the pump station at Crosbyton to push White River water up the pipe line to Ralls.

The directors also voted to purchase seven lots from the city of Crosbyton for $875. The lots are occupied by a White River district pump station and storage tank for the Ralls water line.

THE BOARD authorized Manager O'Brien to accept bids on office furniture from dealers in the four member cities and to place an order for necessary furniture for the district's office in the filtration plant building near the damsite with the low bidder.

Directors hope to hold their October meeting and all following ones in the new White River offices in the filtration plant.

Attending from Post were Tom Bouchier and James Minor, White River directors, and Publisher Jim Cornish.

else on the local scene, so you will find this and next week's issue of The Dispatch filled with '64 car picture and stories.

Elsewhere on today's front page you'll find a story on Post's proposed zoning ordinance. This is the recommendation of the consulting engineers who have been busy with mapping for Post its first overall city plan. It hasn't been considered by the council as yet. It is not something to "view with alarm."

It can't be retroactive. It won't apply to a business in a residential area, already located. It will protect residential property in the future and it will enable the city fathers to better plan utility expansions to meet future needs. It will be a good thing—a mighty good thing for Post. Copies are available for study. A few or many changes may be made. But the city planning commission has been waiting two years now for this week's report and they are ready to go. Post is going to consider and pass a good zoning ordinance. And it will help Post to grow—in the right directions with present property owners protected.

Shiver was requested to preside over the conference at WTSU by Mrs. Maurine Walker, assistant director, Division of Teacher Education and Certification, Texas Education Agency.

Hospital goals—

Baylor University. Rickels was a pharmaceutical salesman for six years before accepting the McCamery hospital position. His sales territory was the Permian Basin area in and around Odessa.

"Outside of not being on the go all the time, hospital administration work has about the same environment as that of pharmaceutical salesman," he said. "In both lines, most of your daily contacts are doctors, druggists and nurses."

Rickels was born and reared in Spur, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Rickels, and his twin brother, J. D., still live. His father and brother own the Rickels Chevrolet Co. there.

"I'd been through Post many times and have always liked the town," he said. "It always has struck me as being a good business town."

The new administrator is of the opinion that we have as good a hospital board here as will be found anywhere. "Every member of the board is interested in the hospital's growth and progress, and I enjoy working with them," he said.

Rickels said he was immediately impressed with the Post hospital. "Many towns this size have no hospital at all, and not many of those that do have one as nice as ours," he commented. "We are also fortunate in having three doctors, the size of Post have."

Rickels' wife, Dorothy, is from DeKalb, in East Texas. They have two children, a 22-months-old daughter and a four-months-old son.

Post faces old nemesis Abernathy here Friday night

They've toppled Lopes six games out of six

The undefeated Post Antelope here Friday night what the Post football team has done in six attempts? They beat the Abernathy Antelope on the question that is plagues Harold Teal and Greg as they put their through their paces this through their paces this preparation for Friday battle. Post is favored to beat Abernathy, but habit always has a way for it, and the Antelopes definitely have a better record than the other team has even come to defeating Abernathy the times they have played.

Shmen lose to Friendship, 26-6

Freshman football team the Friendship freshmen here Friday night, 26 to 6, in a that cost them the services of Clyde Allen Cash. Allen suffered a broken arm on the first play of the game and will be lost for the season. Coach Elvin Jones' freshman team was dealt another blow when starting quarterback Jimmy Bartlett went out in the second quarter with a hip injury.

Men still top ground gainer

Back Benny Owen's 62 net yards on 17 carries topped the Antelopes' rushing total in Friday night's 7-6 victory over Morton.

Quarterback Pat Cornell netted 20 on 20 tries, and halfback Ross, 19 yards on five carries. The Antelopes' rushing total is now 302 in three games. He is averaging 5.7 yards on 53 tries.

Fullback Pat Cornell netted 20 on 20 tries, and halfback Ross, 19 yards on five carries. The Antelopes' rushing total is now 302 in three games. He is averaging 5.7 yards on 53 tries.

9 teams play in am-am event here

Seventeen teams participated in an am-am event at the Cap-Gold Course, with two teams competing for the top spot and three trying for second.

Winner of the first place was Harold Lucas and Sue Shtyles, which had tied at 144 in the whole event with Lucille Ackard and Charles Hopkins.

Eagles lose 18-0 contest to Elks

By BEVERLY STOLLE Southland lost to the Cotton Center Elks, 18 to 0, Friday night in an eight-man football game. Martinez DeLeon scored two touchdowns for the Elks.

Southland tightened up their defense on extra points. The Elks failed to make any of them. Don Altman scored a 50-yard apparent touchdown run for the Eagles, but it was called back by a clipping violation.

Delroy Odom was outstanding on defense for the Eagles. Southland is to play the Pettit Eagles at 8 p. m. Friday, Sept. 27, at Southland.

SECTION TWO Sports The Post Dispatch Thursday, September 26, 1963 Page 9

Extra point is difference

Antelopes take close one from big Morton

By the skin of their teeth and quarterback Pat Cornell's kicking toe, the Post Antelopes defeated a big, tough Morton Indian team here, 7 to 6, Friday night in a game that was so close it could have gone either way at any time. All the scoring was packed into the final 42 electrifying seconds of the third quarter. Post scored first, with Cornell boring through the center of the line from one foot out after the hardest kind of a drive from the Morton 42-yard line. The Antelope quarterback tackled on the extra point with a place-kick and that proved to be the margin of victory.

The aroused Indians got back into the ball game—much less time than it had taken Post to step out in front. Charles Ledbetter, shifty Indian halfback, lost his footing and slipped to the turf after returning Cornell's kickoff 11 yards to the Morton 26, and for the few remaining seconds of the quarter, the Indians looked like a new team.

Sherrill Griffith, 200-pound quarterback, rounded right end and streaked 24 yards down the east sidelines before being forced out of bounds on the midfield stripe by Teddy Scott.

GRIFFITH CARRIED again on the same play and ripped off 13 yards to the Post 37. With the Antelope defense rocked back on its heels by the sudden turn of events, Ledbetter took a handoff from Griffith, tore through the line and cut sharply to his left to cover the 37 yards to the goal line with no one near him.

The Indians gambled for the two extra points that would have put them ahead, but Griffith's screen pass to Ledbetter failed to connect and the Indians were one point behind.

The Morton touchdown came on the last play of the third quarter. When the Post offense was unable to move the ball after receiving the kickoff, the Indians took Cornell's punt on their 20 and from that point mounted their only other serious scoring threat of the game.

Long runs give Floydada JV's win over Post

The Post Antelope junior varsity lost to the Floydada JV's, 20 to 12, here last Thursday night, with the payoff being a fourth quarter 80-yard run with an intercepted pass that broke a 12-12 tie.

Coach Charles Black's team was on the Floydada 10 when quarterback Rickey Welch's pass was deflected, then picked out of the air for the touchdown run.

Earlier in the fourth period, the visitors had tied the score at 12-12 by running back a kickoff for 80 yards.

Floydada took an early lead on a 60-yard gallop in the first quarter, but Post tied it up in the second when Mike Ayala went over for 10 yards out.

Tech underdog against Texas

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech, with a surprise win under its belt, resumes the underdog role against the University of Texas in Austin Saturday night.

University of Texas, defending Southwest Conference champion, returns 28 lettersmen from the team that trounced the Red Raiders 34-0 in Lubbock last year.

Still, there's a hint of things to come for Coach J. T. King's Red Raiders. They overcame by a 16-7 score the Washington State University Cougars in Lubbock last Saturday night.

Texas Tech will have the support of a large delegation from its student body and other South Plains Panhandle fans. It's the official student trip, and Dean Killian's band will perform.

Following the clash in Austin the Red Raiders take up a home stand with three consecutive Southwest Conference games in Jones Stadium. The Raiders will be hosts to Texas A&M Oct. 5, Texas Christian Oct. 12, and Baylor Oct. 19. All are night games.

Post Antelopes and Denver City Mustangs won Friday over Morton, 7-6, and Lovington, N. M., 20-0, respectively, to uphold District 4AA prestige in non-conference play.
The Slaton Tigers got on the win side of the ledger by nosing Tahoka, 16-15, but the Spur Bulldogs and Friendship Tigers continued to take it on the chin. Spur was trampled by Class AA power Hamlin, 48-13, while Friendship lost to undefeated Class A Idalou, 21-6.
This week, Post plays host to Abernathy and Denver City travels to Levelland. Spur and Friendship both have a good chance to come up with their first victory, Spur against Crosbyton and Friendship against O'Donnell. Slaton plays host to Portales, N. M.

Against Spur gridders Junior High teams win, tie Tuesday

Post's junior high football teams played two close games with Spur's 7th and 8th grade teams here Tuesday night, the Post 7th graders winning, 20 to 16, and the 8th grade elevens battling to a 16-16 draw.

In the 7th grade game, Spur scored in the first quarter and tacked on the extra points for an 8-0 lead, but Thomas Cain returned the ensuing kickoff 70 yards for a touchdown and Redman ran over the extra points to pull Post up to an 8-8 tie.

Post went ahead, 14-8, on a 40-yard pass play from quarterback Jimmy Jones to Jimmy Lee, then increased their lead to 20-8 when Jones scored on a quarterback sneak.

Spur, running from the single wing, scored on a power play in the fourth quarter and made the extra points to end the scoring. Post took a first quarter lead in the 8th grade game on a 20-yard pass play from quarterback Joe Reno to halfback David Condon, and Reno punched over the extra points on a quarterback sneak.

Post had scored an apparent touchdown on the second play of the game on a pass from Reno to Condon, but the play was wiped out by a penalty against Coach Will Bigott's team.

The Spur team tied it up in the second quarter and it was 8-8 at halftime.

The third quarter was scoreless, but Post went out in front in the fourth on a pass from Danny Cooper to Condon. Cooper had taken over at quarterback when Reno was injured in the third period. Cooper added the extra points on a quarterback sneak.

A Post fumble led to Spur's second touchdown, which came on an end run, and the extra points were added to deadlock the two teams.

Guard Norman Tanner, linebacker Hugh Boyle and Condon and end Ronnie Petty were Post defensive standouts in the 8th grade game.

Boys grooming stock for Fair

By Mary Beth Ford
Last November or December, some of the Future Farmers of America boys purchased their stock and have been getting them ready for the State Fair of Texas in Dallas.

These boys and their animals are: Wendell Johnson, calf; Larry Johnson, calf; Johnny Bilberry, calf; Danny Richardson, 4-H calf; Lewis Herron, 4-H calf; Danny Stone, barrow.

Also Vicki and Jan Wilks will be going to this fair.

The stock will be brought to school on Sunday, Oct. 13. Then they will be loaded on trucks and Friday — Livestock auction.

Saturday — Have the sale.

The boys will return home Saturday following the sale. While at the fair, the boys will stay in rooms above the show barns.

Wednesday — Junior Steer Show.

Thursday — Market Steer Show shipped to the State Fair. Danny Stone's barrow will be carried in a trailer.

The schedule of the week's events at Dallas is as follows:
Monday, Oct. 14 — Weigh the stock in.
Tuesday — Sift stock, and Swine Show.

Sophomores welcome four new students

The Sophomores would like to give a special welcome to the new students of our class. They are: Doug Chance, from Ralls; Clara White, from McCamey; Jodie Bronner, from Wink, and Felix Murphy, from Hallettsville.

We are also glad to have David Perez back with us.

We hope all of you enjoy PHS.

P. E. Department has that brand-new look

Not only do we have many changes in our classrooms, but we also have a great change in our Physical Education classes. Miss Mary Lee Stockton, of Fallfurris, Tex., is our new gym teacher. She attended school at Texas A & I in Kingsville and previously taught at Premont.

Miss Stockton has some wonderful ideas and is trying to accomplish everything possible this year. Our P. E. program is set up on a two basis. Therefore, what is not accomplished this year will be accomplished next year.

At present, we are learning how to tumble. Later on we hope to build pyramids. This is to help us develop more grace and poise, which I am sure we all could use. Instead of dancing to music we will tumble to our favorite record.

Physical fitness tests will be given three times a year. During this period we work on broad jump and shuttle run.

Miss Stockton wants to bring out more individual sports such as golf, tennis and badminton.

Most of all, she hopes she can bring us all closer together so that:

Gayle Frederick is new teacher

By Christine Morris
Mr. Gayle Frederick is the new 6th grade Science teacher. He came here from Ada, Okla., where he attended East Central State College. Before that Mr. Frederick lived in Holdenville, Okla., where he was born on May 5, 1939.

At 24 he is married to a lucky girl named Genean. They are an "old married couple" of three months.

Mr. Frederick says he likes Post Junior High just fine, and we here like him. We hope he stays for a long time.

'Come As You Are' breakfast is held

By Carol Camp
Bright and early Saturday morning, the officers of the Future Homemakers of America were knocking on people's doors. Why were they knocking on doors at 6:30 in the morning? The FHA was having a "Come As You Are Breakfast."

There were really some different people there. For instance, Beverly Duncan's pajamas didn't match. Judy McCampbell had on blue pj's and a blue robe. Some of the hairdos were a little different! (All rats!)

Even though everyone looked a little "wild," the breakfast was fun. Hot chocolate and sweet rolls were served.

Calvary Baptist YWA holds Mexican supper

The Calvary Baptist Church YWA's held a Mexican supper Sept. 18.

Those attending were: Barbara Britton, Linda Rogers, Ann Long, Sandra Howell, Barbara Holleman, Debra Britton, Sandra Holleman, Donna Bowen, Diane Kiker, Mary Beth Ford and Jean Rolan.

The advisors were Mrs. Kiker and Mrs. Howell. Everyone really enjoyed the Mexican dishes.

TO LEAVE SATURDAY

Pam McCrary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles McCrary, will leave Saturday for Baltimore, Md., where she will be a freshman at Goucher College.

Cheerleader is in week's spotlight

The cheerleader of the week is Margie Harrison.

Margie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Harrison. This year is her first year to be a cheerleader, and she is a senior. Margie, at present, is the Post Lions Club Queen. She attends the Calvary Baptist Church, where she is organist.

Some of Margie's favorites are: Sport, football; movie, "Ben Hur"; food, fish; song, "The Twelfth of Never"; hobby, music, and her favorite town, outside of Post, is Brownfield.

Margie has been very successful in high school and has always helped in school activities.

She is enjoying cheerleading very much and says she feels that the school spirit is better than it has been since she has been in high school.

Margie plans to attend Texas Tech.

Linda McMahon FFA sweetheart

By Mary Beth Ford
The Future Farmers of America held their first meeting of the year on Sept. 9. At this meeting, Mr. Herron gave the boys a very interesting talk.

The boys selected Linda McMahon as their chapter sweetheart. Linda will be presented a jacket from these FFA boys later. She will also have various banquets to attend.

Linda was asked what she thought of being chosen FFA Sweetheart. She said she wanted to thank each of the boys and that she will try her best to make them proud of her.

Club dues of $2 a year were set during the meeting.

Danny Stone elected FFA district secretary

By Mary Beth Ford
Danny Stone of the Post High School Future Farmers of America chapter was elected district secretary Tuesday, Sept. 17, at a Mesa District meeting.

Others attending were Johnny Bilberry, Billy Hodges, Ricky Borgman, Gene Nowell, DeWayne McWhirt and Mike Kruger. Also attending was Ike Trimble, chapter advisor.

Junior High elevens divide Tahoka games

By Gary Nichols
The 7th and 8th grade football teams played the Tahoka Bulldogs here Tuesday night.

The 7th grade team lost 34 to 12. Jimmy Lee was an outstanding player, scoring six of the 12 points. The other score was made by Thomas Cain.

The 8th grade team won by a score of 22 to 7. Their team really looked good and we are proud of them.

ATTEND ICE CAPEDES

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ammons and Donna attended the Ice Capades at the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock Sunday. Donna was chosen to ride in a sleigh during the Santa Claus production number.

Halftime show features band

By Cathy Harlan
The Post High School Antelope Band received a warm welcome and applauding response from the hometown crowd as they came on field for their half-time performance last Friday night in Antelope stadium. Both students and band director worked very hard all last week to make this first hometown show a big success.

Freshmen band students decorated the band hall with signs and streamers to help boost the band's spirit. Each week a different class is in charge of the decorations.

The band would like to say thank you again for your support and hope that you will continue to enjoy the half-time shows throughout the year.

Junior officers named by FHA

By Carol Camp
At the last meeting of the Future Homemakers of America officers it was decided to have junior officers.

These junior officers are girls classified as freshmen and their jobs would be to help the senior or older officers in their duties. Also, the junior officers will be in charge of one or two meetings this year. This will help to train them to be an officer in later years.

The junior officers are: Edith

VS

ABERNATHY ANTELOPES

Friday, Sept. 27

8 P. M. Kickoff

In Post's Antelope Stadium

These Abernathy Antelopes are no club to take lightly for Coach Harold Teal's Antelopes. Despite three straight losses in their 1963 grid record to date. Abernathy has made a "habit" of beating Post, thumping them six straight times in the last decade without Post registering a victory. The Post team with three straight triumphs will be gunning for their fourth in a row as they are rolling on their best win streak in many autumns. A large crowd was on hand to see Post squeeze past a big, tough Morton club 7-6 last weekend in delightful "nose to nose" football. Even more fans should be on hand tomorrow night as the Antelopes play their second of four straight games at home.

Lots of fans see Eagles lose to Cotton Center

By MRS. MAX CHAFFIN
Cheer up, Southland! You have a host of loyal supporters even if you didn't win Friday night's game against Cotton Center. (The score was 18-0 but it could have been worse, you know) those who went to cheer them on were: the Deamos Altman, Buddy Halls, Robert Mocks, Richard Lewis, Weldon McGehees, Herman Dabbs, and no telling who all I missed.
Brrrr! It's cold this morning! Had to put the heat on to keep my hands from freezing on these typewriter keys! (So my son, John, woke up and went out to play in his shorts! (rugged you know)
The Earl Lancasters visited Rolly Woods on Sunday afternoon.
On Sunday, Elder and Mrs. Jerry Burnaman of Lubbock visited Mrs. J. F. Rackler and had supper.
Mr. and Mrs. Leo Barker and baby are staying with the Weldon McGehees for two weeks.
Ed. Milliken is doing badly again. We wish the best for him.
Monroe and Dolly Shelton have been visiting around in the area.

MRS. EARL MORRIS formerly of this area, and now living in Slaton, thought you all might like to know who her visitors were recently. Mrs. Morris' sister, Mrs. G. E. White and son, Dyer, and his son, Mike, from Lubbock, Mrs. White's daughter, Mrs. Eugene Whitt (formerly Mary Anice White who lived in Graham) and her daughter, Judy from Terrell, Judy has entered Texas Tech this year, following in the footsteps of her parents who attended Texas Tech.
Company at the D. D. Pennell home on Saturday night were Mrs. Carl Cederholm and Mrs. Arville Ferguson of Post and Mrs. Elmer Howard of Anson.
THERE WAS AN old-fashioned picnic at Slaton in the park last Sunday evening at 5 p. m. given by the menu committee of the Southland Baptist Church for celebrating the Rev. Ed Fortson's first year there. About 37 attended the good eats.
Mrs. Roy Josey and Rodney of Post visited the Southland Baptist Church on Sunday with the Hubert Taylors.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rackler and four daughters, Carlene, Wanda, Judy and Sandra of Wolfforth had dinner with the J. B. Racklers on Sunday.
BRENDA DABBS went back to Texas Tech a week ago last Sunday as she is a legislator in the new women's dormitory and has 19 girls under her wing. Brenda is studying elementary education.
The Sonny Hitts enjoyed a family dinner at the Elmer Hitts two Sundays ago when the Hitts had all their children to dinner.
Mrs. Velma Smotherman from Claude and Mrs. Birdie Walser of Sudan spent a couple of days with Mrs. Earl Lancaster and the Hubert Taylors last week.
Mrs. Claude Roper, Mrs. George Roper and Mrs. J. F. Rackler visited Mrs. William McBride in Slaton on Friday afternoon and Mrs. Virgie Corbell in Slaton Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Corbell is feeling pretty good.
Jimmy Lancaster called Saturday night at the Earl Lancasters and everything is A-okay with him in the service.
The Herman Dabbs and that includes David went to the Texas Tech football game Saturday night and they witnessed Texas Tech beat Washington State, 16-7.
Sonny Hitt took all of his children and Kathy Bryson to the South Plains Fair in Lubbock Monday afternoon. Mrs. Paul Winterrowd took her children too. I imagine many more were there also from Southland for they weren't at home.
Mrs. D. D. Pennell took Mrs. Lee Frederickson to RAFB Hospital Friday for a check-up and her doctor said that she was doing all right.
I hear tell that the John Leakes have moved into the house Mrs. Pritchard vacated. Couldn't reach the Leakes. I guess their phone isn't connected yet.
Mrs. Earl Lancaster's sister, Mrs. Carl Foster and Snappy of Lubbock were out at her house and her brother's house, Hubert Taylors on Sunday.
Cline Drake is still not too strong. Take care!
Attend the South Plains Fair if you haven't already. It is a lot of fun, you know! Garza County exhibits!

2,000 loan offices come under new act

AUSTIN — Finance companies which hope to operate in the state under the new Texas Regulatory Loan Act must be licensed by Nov. 21.
The so-called "Loan-Shark" law, passed by the 58th Legislature, allows a much higher rate of interest for lenders. But it saddles them with stiff licensing requirements.
Frank Miskell, Regulatory Loan commissioner, predicted that 2,000 loan offices would come under the act.

Nursing home probe is on committee agenda

AUSTIN — Possible scandals in nursing home construction will be explored by the House General Investigating Committee, according to its chairman, Rep. Bob Fairfield of Center.
Investigation was requested by Speaker Byron Tunnell after a series of stories on sub-standard nursing homes for old people appeared in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.
A separate check by the State Department of Public Safety has been ordered by Gov. John Connally.

The Old Timer
"A smart husband is one who thinks twice before saying nothing."

Stronger water program needed

AUSTIN—Texas, with 53 reservoirs completed since 1950 and 12 more under construction, needs a stronger water development program, says Gov. John Connally.
He proposes that the state harness surplus flood water for the protection of persons and property in areas which have too much water, then transport it to areas which have too little.
"We have the water resources to meet future demands. But only if they are properly developed, conserved and managed," the Governor said.
According to the Texas Water Commission, reservoirs in the state stand at 65 per cent of capacity. That is 9 per cent less than last year at this time. As of the end of August (before Hurricane Cindy) streamflow was deficient for the entire state.

Legislator fighting repeal of poll tax

AUSTIN—Rep. George Hinson of Mineola has come out swinging against the repeal of the poll tax. Furthermore, he has volunteered to join any statewide organization which might develop to retain it.
Hinson said his district—Wood, Upshur and Camp counties—is two-to-one against repeal. He charged that voter registration laws are not strong enough at this time to justify dumping the poll tax.

Rainmaking agency proposed by Sadler

AUSTIN — Texas should have an official rainmaking agency, Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler thinks. He says he has discussed the subject with the Governor and hopes to soon have a "concrete proposal to offer."

RAW MILK PRODUCTION

Raw milk can be produced with a bacteria count of under 10,000 per cc with average conditions on Texas dairy farms. And with a little extra care in washing, cleaning and sanitizing equipment it can be reduced to less than 3,000. Milk temperature, the health of the cows, milking equipment, udders and teats, and the milk parlor should be checked when unusually high bacteria counts persist.

Lots of visiting going on in Graham community

By MRS. GLENN DAVIS
Here I am trying to write the news with about the worst case of hay fever I have had so don't expect many news items this week.
The Ambrose Parrish family spent the weekend out El Paso way visited their son, Byron, and family.
Mr. and Mrs. James Stone and Mary Ann visited over the weekend in Capitan, N. M., with the Gerald Deans.

Clovis Robinson brings in first bale at Pleasant Valley

By MRS. MAX CHAFFIN

There is hay fever in the air! Look all around you and sneeze—Gerundheit! Everyone I saw on Monday was holding a handkerchief to their nose so that is where I got the idea it was that season of the year.

The E. A. Franklins had some good news to tell me about Mrs. E. A. Franklin had her newest grandbaby, Joan Lynn Woodard, and the baby's mother and father all of Houston as house guests a week or so ago for three days and Mrs. Kyle Smith of Mineral Wells. Also, her youngest son, Duke, and Dorothy and daughter, Anne Woodard, were there.

Shirley Lee didn't stay long at Hardin-Simmons. She was back home for the weekend this last one with two friends, Laney Tubbs and Jane from Lubbock.

Mrs. Carl Payton, Garza County delegate, and Virginia Mock got back on Friday from their trip to San Antonio to the State meeting of Home Demonstration Club members. Mrs. Inez Ritchie, also a delegate, went too, from Close City. There were 300 women who shook hands with Lady Bird Johnson at the meeting that lasted from last Tuesday until Friday. They listened to many interesting talks by prominent women who had just returned from Russia, Scandinavia and Australia.

Vernon Scott was off to Dallas a weekend ago with Claud Collier on a business trip.

PAT CLABORN and Beth Kemp were hostesses for a Coke party a week ago Saturday night at the Henry Wheatley home. This was to honor all the kids going back to college. About 25 came to the affair! Kent Wheatley left on Sunday, a week ago, to start in at West Texas State University and Pat left on Wednesday, a week ago.

Mrs. J. I. Northcutt of Post came out for a stay at Mrs. Lena Chaffin's home from Tuesday until Saturday last week. Her daughter, Ruby, of Oklahoma City, Okla., brought her out here.

Mrs. James Shelton has been in bed this past week. Hope that you are doing better! Enjoyed my cup of coffee with you last Thursday morning.

Would you like to know who ginned the first bale of cotton at the Pleasant Valley Gin on Tuesday, Sept. 24? Why it was none other than Clovis Robinson who wins the prize money this year!

I found out where Mrs. B. D. Robinson went after she was released from the hospital. She is staying with the D. C. Roberts in Post; they have moved to another house, you know, and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Winchester are living in their old one.

Mrs. Jim Hall had a bad spell on Monday afternoon and had to have the doctor.

Ben Altman and daughters, Carrie and Artie all went to the Vancil Bowens' home in Post on Sunday.

YOURS TRULY ATTENDED the Plains Presbytery 1963 Fall Leadership School at Amarillo with the Rev. Ed Graham (that's not the same Mr. Ed as on TV) and his wife, Anne. (My husband stays home and baby-sat—Mrs. Spence Bevers did it!) After consuming information all day we returned via Palo Duro State Park. It's a canyon, you know, and oh what beauty! The time to go is in the latter part of the afternoon and see the Spanish skirts, etc., in beautiful color! The sights are breathtaking, good camping areas and a chair lift skyride. Don't miss it if you haven't been! It's a must. Saw some queer, big, busy crop on the way to Amarillo and when I got back found out it was soybean. I thought that was funny looking cotton!

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gurrard of Lamesa, Calif., spent the night at the Henry Wheatleys recently. Mrs. Vic Kuykendoll is working at Post across from the school during the noon hour now.

Mrs. Clay Johnston isn't working now as of three weeks ago and is a lady of leisure.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Dunn were at the T. L. Barnes' home on Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Eubank were there for coffee cake Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Zoobor of Morton were at the Maurice Fluitt home on Friday night.

Mrs. Carl Payton arrived home in time from her trip to San Antonio to bake a birthday cake with a boat on it for David Mock. The Mocks ate it on Sunday.

There was a surprise birthday party held after the evening services at the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church on Sept. 22; it was for the preacher, Joe Green, who isn't quite 39 yet!

And there were shingles put on the roof of the new addition to the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church by a tremendous work crew on Monday, all men volunteers in this area, and they did a pretty job.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Brestrup of Fieldton and their two sons visited Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Hall and the Will Bartons last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Clovis Robinson's sister, Mrs. D. Tipton, and her husband of San Bernardino, Calif., spent a couple of days at the Clovis Robinson home and a couple of days at Weldon McGehee's residence as Mrs. McGehee is also Mrs. Tipton's sister.

Mrs. Mike Winchester started in at her new job in Slaton and she started out with a bang—gave four permanents the first day!

B. Howell of Long Beach, Calif., visited the Henry Wheatleys on Sunday.

THE PLEASANT VALLEY Home Demonstration Club met Monday morning at 9 a. m. and we had good attendance. (Should do it at that hour more often). Everyone was going to the South Plains Fair as it was area school children's day so the schools let out early in the afternoon and we met in the morning. Roll call was answered by "A basic garment I plan to buy" a ten minute demonstration on "Points on fair exhibitions" was given by Carl Payton. Our county agent, Miss Juanette Williams, gave the program on "Year around basic wardrobe planning." (she has some beautiful clothes) A most delicious cake, coffee and cold drinks were served to the guests by the hostess, Mrs. Elmer Hitt. Those present were: Mmes. Vernon Scott, Carl Payton, Maurice Fluitt, B. L. Thomas, Spence Bevers, Robert Mock and Max Chaffin and Miss Williams.

Jackie Sherbert, David Green of Slaton and the Bever boys went to the White River dam Saturday and had a cookout and worked on R. A. steps with Spence Bevers.

Mrs. C. R. Scott and the Vernon Scotts went to a birthday party for J. B. Potts at his home after the game, football, that is, at Post on Friday night.

The Maurice Fluitts went to Portales over last weekend and saw her parents.

The B. L. Thomas family made the rounds at Denver City on Sunday and saw the M. C. Thomas, Dan Martins and Carlisle Edwards families.

Saturday, David Mock, Curtis Lancaster, Mikey Scott and Mrs. Robert Mock went to Lake Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chilcoat invited the Elmer Hitts over for Sunday dinner last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Hodges were out from Post at Spence Bevers on Sunday.

Mrs. William Lester and Mrs. Will Barton went to see Mrs. May Voss on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Virgil Smith's parents of Slaton are down at Padre Island catching red snappers. UMM!

Mrs. Clay Johnston had a busy Monday. First, she went to Lubbock to see the South Plains Fair parade and then she came back to Slaton and gathered up her daughter-in-law, Mrs. B. C. Johnston, and six children and Mrs. Bill Autrey and children and they all went back to the fair.

The Spence Bevers went to the fair and everyone else in the neighborhood who has children of school age. (I can take mine any old day and they will still get in free!)

Mrs. L. M. Sherbert called on the Spence Bevers on Saturday and Fidel Garza called on Sunday.

Don't forget these important dates! The Food for Fitness Committee of Garza County, chairman, Mrs. James Shelton, is giving a course called "Food for Fitness" at the Reddy Room in Post starting Oct. 7 through Oct. 15 at 7 p. m. until 9.

A CORAL GATEWAY TO THE SUN:

Neither time nor tide can mar this couple's concentration as they solve the problems of the world from a tiny beach in Bermuda. The secluded, sandy cove can be "discovered" by wading along the shoreline and through the coral gateway. Neither time nor tide? That's really only partially correct. Should the tide sneak up, this couple might find themselves floating through the coral opening and headed for the United States... an invigorating swim of some 700 miles.

Post girls are on SPC's Drill Team

LEVELLAND — The Tex-Ann Drill Team of South Plains College will feature 26 girls, including two from Post, this year in a variety of routines. The team will perform at all college basketball games and will present programs at various activities over the South Plains area.

A total of 15 Texas towns are represented on the drill team, with five from Levelland, three from Seminole and two each from Littlefield, Brownfield, Post, Dallas and Lubbock.

The drill team members from Post are Wanda Williams and Sue Grant. Wanda, a freshman elementary education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Williams. Sue, a sophomore secondary education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emon Grant.

Post sailor on duty in attack squadron

SANFORD, Fla. (FHTNC)—Alfred T. Beauchamp, aviation machinist's mate first class, USN, son of Mrs. Lillie A. Mills of 115 East 4th St., Post, Tex., recently reported for duty with Heavy Attack Squadron 11, homeported in Sanford, Fla.

The squadron is part of the Navy's hurricane seeding research program. They are attempting to decrease the destructive power of a hurricane by injecting them with silver iodide bombs from A3B "Sky-warrior" aircraft.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Only from the carefree heart of a child could come such joy. Or could it? Is it necessary to lose childhood's happy laughter? Must we feel depressed and burdened with the yoke of adult cares?

Certainly not! The God-given gifts of joy and happiness are possessions we can and must retain throughout all our years. But how can we keep this wonderful spirit?

Here is a formula that is very simple: attend the church of your choice regularly. In God's house you will learn to accept life's burdens — and soon they will be ever so much lighter. His Peace will fill your heart. Here, in fellowship with others, you will receive the needed peace and understanding to reclaim and sustain the merry heart.

Scouting event is set for Saturday

Outdoor living, the ring of a good fire and woodsmoke will serve to give volunteer Scouters to C a m p here Saturday, Sept. 28, to participate in the Scout Plains Council's Showando, a ten-hour session of events designed to bring the program of Scouting to boys of their areas.

Registration begins at 9 a. m. and the session will be closed with a campfire at 8 p. m.

Martin Cannon, Lubbock, chairman of this year's Showando, stated, "We are expecting a large number of Scouters to participate in this year's event."

The Showando, a training course designed to give instruction and practice in Scouting skills, will offer such things as teamwork as a part from a troop, a competitive patrol rally, a cookout prepared to Scouting standards by Scout methods, viewing and participation in the best program aids and gimmicks available to the Council.

"The day of activity will be closed with a campfire program to send Scouters home pledged to give more and better Scouting to the boys enrolled in their troops," Cannon continued.

In addition to offering Scouting skills and practices, the event will provide a chance for Scoutmasters from different parts of the South Plains Council to work together and exchange ideas for furthering the interest of Scouts on the South Plains.

Cannon has urged troop committees to have especially their Scoutmasters participate in this year's Showando, and any other adult interested in Scouting. "The more people we have trained and interested in Scouting, the more boys we will be able to reach with the Boy Scout program," he said.

Stubble mulching, where practical, leads to more economical returns

A good system of stubble mulching not only protects the soil from wind and water erosion, but also improves intake of rainfall and helps cut down the loss of moisture from the soil. Soil Conservation Service technicians of the Garza County Extension Office said.

Stubble mulching can be defined as the managing of plant residues on a year-round basis in which harrowing, tilling, planting and cultivating operations are performed in such a way as to keep protective amounts of vegetative material on the surface of the soil until the time of seeding the next crop.

Wind erosion is controlled by mulching through preventing the direct force of the wind from striking the soil. The stubble or residues left on the surface acts as all dams or barriers that slow runoff water, giving it time to sink into the soil, and thus aids in reducing erosion.

Moisture is conserved after it enters the soil by stubble mulching. The mulch keeps the direct rays of the sun from striking the moist soil, and also keeps the soil from coming into direct contact with warm dry air. By reducing these factors, evaporations, which remove a large amount of moisture from the soil, is slowed down.

In the ever-increasing need to produce higher yields per acre, a farmer should use every feasible practice to help meet this end. Stubble mulching is one practice that, where practical for use, can help the land to yield more economical returns.

WATCH THOSE KIDS!

Small children are often injured while riding on farm machinery. They are also hurt in driveways and work areas and should be kept away from these areas unless properly supervised.

National 4-H Electric program sponsored by Westinghouse Educational Foundation

How many ways is electricity used in this picture?

How many ways is it used in your home? Do you ever wonder what happens when you plug into a wall outlet? Where does the power come from? You usually can't see it unless it is in a light. Why do fuses blow? Why should you NEVER touch an electrical object with wet hands? Scores of 4-H Club members could tell you the answers. They found them while working in the 4-H electric program. Through the Cooperative Extension Service and sponsoring groups, the young people have access to some of the best personal guidance and informative literature in the electrical field. Boys and girls interested in electricity should see the county extension agent.

DANGER MONTHS FOR SCREW WORM

The red warning light burns a little brighter on screwworm infestation threats from September through November, officials warn.

Although the eradication program has been remarkably effective this year, the fall months are critical. Favorable weather conditions and shearing and other ranch operations usually result in a marked increase in screwworm infestations in both livestock and wildlife. More than 2,400 cases were reported during one week in November alone last year.

Eradication teams are active in Arkansas and Louisiana. The pest has been known to cost the livestock industry of the Southwest as much as $110 million per year.

Research officials stress that livestock producers should watch closely for animal wounds infested with larvae. They should save samples of the larvae and report the discovery immediately to their county agent or veterinarian.

Anxious to protect gains made so far in this cooperative Southwest program, officials urge producers to use preventive sprays and to treat all animal wounds to eliminate opportunities for the pest to multiply.

The 19-month-old program has already reduced the annual incidence of infestation a whopping 99 per cent. As fall operations approach, screwworm cases are now at an all-time low for the season. Only one case was reported during August in the 65,000-square-mile area of southern Texas where the screwworm can survive the winter. This area, which provides the source of screwworms that usually infest other regions following winter, must be kept free if eradication is to be achieved.

Capacity for producing sterile screwworm flies is at an all-time high. More than 140 million sterile flies per week can be released to mate with native flies and prevent reproduction.

The barrier formed by continuous release of sterile flies along the U. S. - Mexican border is in operation and being widened to prevent reinfestation.

HOOD COUNTY REUNION

The annual reunion of residents and former residents of Hood County and the counties surrounding it will be held Sunday, Sept. 29, at the barbecue party house in Mackenzie State Park, Lubbock. Those attending are asked to bring a picnic lunch, and those with musical instruments are asked to bring them, since there will be a session of music. An old fiddlers' contest is scheduled for 2 p. m.

VISIT IN DAVIS HOME

Visiting here recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Isaacs. He recently received a medical discharge from the Air Force due to a heart attack he suffered in Viet Nam in February. The Isaacs went on to Charleston, S. C., and expect to make their home there.

Sailor from Post taking part in landing exercise

(FHTNC) — Richard DeLeon, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. DeLeon of Post, Tex., serving aboard the tank landing ship USS Westchester County recently participated in joint Army-Navy amphibious landing exercises on the beach of Pobang, Korea.

Dubbed "Bayonet Beach", the amphibious assault operation involved the Navy's Seventh Fleet units and the Army's Seventh Infantry Division. It started Aug. 29 when the attack transport USS Henrico, flagship of Commander Joint Amphibious Task Force, began loading assault troops at Inchon. At the same time, five other Navy ships took on supporting equipment, vehicles, and supplies needed for the landings.

Westchester County's primary role in "Bayonet Beach" consisted of landing the heavy trucks and tanks on the beach after the assault troops had gained a beachhead.

The successful assault landings demonstrated the combined efforts of the Army and the Navy in supporting the amphibious motto: "United We Land".
