

Santa Claus visit, music, prizes to highlight Saturday's festival

Event set for 1 p. m. start

Post's second annual Christmas festival Saturday afternoon will be a gay holiday mixture of Santa Claus, music and prizes. The big show, sponsored jointly by the Post Chamber of Commerce and local merchants, gets under way at 1 p. m. when Santa Claus descends through the downtown area by the high school band.

The line of march this year for the band, not Santa—will be from the courthouse square east on Main to Avenue I where Santa will spend the rest of the afternoon reviewing youngsters and giving them candy.

Last year, literally hundreds of youngsters besieged Santa and it took a busy afternoon for a couple of local helpers to keep the boys and girls in line.

Santa will ride a white convertible into town this year and will throw free candy from his car.

Avenue I, south from Main street, will be roped off from traffic for the afternoon. It will be in this area Santa will interview the youngsters until 5 p. m. and the fiesta bands will play.

The 54-PIECE high school band will play a Fiesta concert on South Avenue I until 2 p. m. after bringing Santa into town.

Three other bands also are billed for hour-long concerts or shows during the afternoon.

Moseley rites held at Slaton

Funeral services for Edgar Moseley, 67, of Slaton, formerly of the Southland community, were conducted at 2:30 p. m. last Friday at the First Baptist Church in Slaton.

Mr. Moseley died at his home about 4:45 p. m. Wednesday of last week after suffering a heart attack.

Born Jan. 2, 1899, in Erath County, he moved to Wilbarger County as a young man and lived at Vernon until moving to the Southland community in 1949, where he was actively engaged in farming. He and his wife moved to Slaton three years ago.

Mr. Moseley had just received his 25-year membership pin from the Masonic Lodge, having joined the fraternal order through the Chillicothe lodge. He had been a member of the Southland lodge and was a member of the Slaton lodge at the time of his death. He was a member of the First Baptist Church, having joined in the early 1930's.

Surviving are his wife, the former Amy Uebach, to whom he was married July 25, 1927, in Vernon; two daughters, Mrs. Jack Lancaster of Amarillo and Mrs. Harley Martin of Route 1, Slaton; one son, Edward Moseley of Slaton; also three sisters, Mrs. Edna Gutierrez and Mrs. Emma Couch, both of Slaton, and Mrs. Pearl (See Moseley Funeral, Page 8)

Rotary governor visits local club

Earl L. Wilbur, Dalhart banker who is governor of this Rotary district, paid his official visit to the Post Rotary Club Tuesday and addressed the club luncheon in city hall on Rotarianism.

Speaking of the global growth of Rotary, Wilbur said, "Rotary is the pioneer of the service clubs and today numbers more than 12,000 clubs with a combined membership of nearly 600,000 business and professional men.

The Mains Brothers band, a country western group well liked throughout the area, will be on the bandstand from 2 to 3 o'clock. The Blackouts, a rock and roll band from Lubbock, will play from 3 to 4 p. m.

Clifford, Joy and the Caprock Ramblers, another highly successful country western band will wind up the musical portion of the Fiesta from 4 to 5 p. m.

MERCHANDISE prizes, worth $200 or more, will be given away from the bandstand throughout the afternoon.

The drawings will be held each 30 minutes beginning at 2 p. m. at the bandstand with the winners having until the next drawing to claim their prizes. Several prizes will be drawn for each 30 minutes.

The $50 cash grand prize will be drawn at 5 p. m. and the winner must be present to claim the money or the drawing will continue until a person whose name is drawn is present.

Dave Sanford is the general chairman of the Fiesta and will preside at the microphone for the drawings.

PERSONS MAY sign up for the prizes throughout the week in local stores exhibiting the red Fiesta sign-up cards in their windows.

The Fiesta was a real crowd pleaser last year and this one is expected to draw another big turnout of youngsters and adults.

Arrangements for the event were completed Tuesday afternoon by the Chamber's promotion committee headed by Bryce Martin.

City employees completed putting up the Chamber's Christmas lighting downtown this week. Southwestern Public Service employees will erect the Chamber's 600-light Christmas "tree" on the courthouse lawn next week as soon as monthly meter readings are completed.

The Chamber promotions committee also has made arrangements for Christmas music to be played daily over downtown loudspeakers beginning next Monday.

Merchants are being asked to stay open at nights until 8 p. m. for the week before Christmas, except for Christmas Eve when the choice is left to the individual merchants.

The Post Dispatch

Fortieth Year Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, December 1, 1966 Number 27

The Dispatch crew took a real "Thanksgiving vacation" last week, locking the front door Tuesday afternoon and not returning to regular labors until Monday of this week.

The publisher, wife, and employees all enjoyed the extended holiday (we don't get many of them in the newspaper business).

But the equipment didn't do so well.

Just about everything in the back shop but the linotype broke down this week. That added to the difficulty of getting out another weekly paper on time today.

The old press gave us the most trouble. The long layoff seemed to have affected the inking of the rollers some way or another. Just about everybody in back took a turn of trying to adjust the ink yesterday before the first run rolled out hours late — and awful light.

The Post Antelopes are rooting for the Iowa Park Hawks to win the state Class AA title in three weeks. The Lopes don't want to be beaten by anybody but the champions, if they can't win it themselves.

For a long and hard three months campaign (12 games in as many weeks), the Antelopes and their coaches gave a good account of themselves. They did an excellent job in winning district and bi-district crowns for the first time in 18 years before running up against one of the true powers of Texas schoolboy football over at Wichita Falls.

It was a great season — and we're hoping to have one just as great coming right up next in basketball.

The Christmas Fiesta Saturday afternoon should be a real crowd pleaser for young and old alike. There's something for everybody in this Fiesta, so don't miss the run and festivities.

Gin reports indicate

Cotton harvest is about half over

Garza County's cotton harvest was reported better than half completed by over half of the county's seven gins yesterday with a total of 7,896 bales ginned to date and another 675 bales out on the gin yards.

Only the Hackberry Gin, which gins both Garza and Lynn county cotton, is working round the clock. Most of the gins are working 15 to 16 hours daily.

The rush is just starting at the Planters Gin in Post where 586 bales had been ginned through mid-afternoon Wednesday. The rush began Tuesday for that area and if the weather holds is expected to continue for another two weeks.

The Storie Gin has 536 bales ginned and is about "half through" in its area. Ginnings have been

Mail balloting Dec. 5-9

Research program on cotton to be decided

Producers of upland cotton will vote Dec. 5-9 to determine whether a research and promotion order should be issued for upland cotton.

The referendum will be conducted by mail ballot through the county offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service in conjunction with the upland cotton marketing quota referendum, but in a separate ballot.

Emmarhe I. Hartel, manager of the Garza County ASCS office, said today the two ballots will be mailed producers Friday and, after being marked, are to be returned to the ASCS office by mail or in person.

Following the close of the mail balloting on Dec. 9, the ballots will be counted Dec. 14 at the ASCS office by the county ASCS committee.

Approval by two-thirds of the producers voting, or by a majority of producers voting if that majority accounts for two-thirds of the cotton represented in the referendum, is necessary for the research and promotion order to become effective.

The proposed cotton research and promotion program would be administered by a Cotton Board composed of members nominated by cotton producing organizations and selected by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The program would be financed through assessments of $1 per bale from upland cotton producers, to be collected by cotton handlers designated by the Cotton Board.

Assessment would start at the beginning of the ginning season for the 1967 crop.

Officials said producers are eligible to vote in the referendum if they were "engaged in the production" of the 1966 upland cotton crop during calendar year 1966.

The research and promotion order to be voted on in the referendum was proposed by the National Cotton Council. The legislation authorizing it was designed to enable cotton producers to engage in a comprehensive self-help program to strengthen cotton's competitive position and to maintain and expand domestic and foreign markets and uses for U. S. cotton.

A summary of the proposed cotton research and promotion order to be voted upon will be sent to each eligible voter along with his ballot.

Three wildcat tests highlight oil news

Three new wildcat tests in and around Post and a new "south edge" test to the George R. Brown oil development within the city highlight area oil news this week.

The wildcats include: HMH Operators' No. 1 Boy Scouts of America, a 3,900 foot Gorieta and San Andres wildcat which will be drilled on Camp Post acreage two miles southwest of Post. The drillsite is 882 feet from north and 629 feet from east lines of Section 12, Block 5, K. Aycock Survey.

D. J. Stone Oil and Gas Operations, Lubbock, No. 1 Connell Estate. This is a 3,500-foot San Andres and Gorieta pool and 1 1/2 5 1/2 miles southeast of Post, two miles southeast of the Garza San Andres and Gorieta pool and 1 1/2 miles north, northwest of the Northwest Rocker A San Andres pool.

F. W. Holbrook and R. S. Benham Jr., No. 1 Post - Montgomery, a wildcat which will be drilled to 4,285 feet, two and three-fourth miles west of Post.

THE NEW "south edge" test, which won't be started until a going test is completed, is the George R. Brown, No. 1-G Earl Rogers and others unit. It will be located 467 feet south of US-389 just outside the old Post city limits. Midhurst Oil Corporation will have a half interest in the well with Brown.

E. R. (Buster) Moreland also announced that the F. B. Robinson No. 9G, a new test begun during Thanksgiving week, was drilling at 2,424 feet here Wednesday morning. It is a twin of the Robinson 4G and is located a quarter mile northwest of the old Post city limits in open country.

IN OTHER OIL developments here, Moreland reported: A completion rig has been moved onto the F. B. Robinson No. 8G for completion in the B and D zones of the San Andres.

The C. I. Williams Et Al Unit No. 1 has been re-entered for completion as a dual instead of as a single producer from the Gorieta SZ-1. The new zone, the San Andres B zone, has been potentialized at 88 barrels of oil and 30 per cent water.

The F. B. Robinson No. 7G has been completed as a dual producer from the San Andres C and D zones. The C zone potentialized 114 barrels of oil plus 12 per cent water. The D zone's potential was 146 barrels of oil plus only 5 per cent water.

Obscene language over telephone brings fine

Cole used the bad language in a call to the sheriff's office here.

SANTA CLAUS READY FOR YULETIDE MAIL

"Get those cards and letters coming, kids!"

That's the word Santa Claus sends from the North Pole, where he says he will have time to read all the mail he gets between now and Christmas — if he gets it early enough.

Again this year, The Dispatch is helping out by acting as his clearing house for all the letters mailed to him. Just address them to Santa Claus, in care of The Dispatch.

Copies of the letters will be made for publication in The Dispatch's annual Christmas Edition.

Teachers in the lower grades of the schools are invited to have their pupils write letters, which may be brought to The Dispatch for publication in its Christmas Edition.

United Fund expected to go 'over the top'

With 87 per cent achieved in cash or pledges, Garza County's 1967 United Fund Drive is expected to go "over the top" of its $2,200 goal when it ends tomorrow.

A final reporting session for drive workers is scheduled for Friday afternoon.

Dick Dickinson, president of the United Fund organization, reported

Playoffs helped athletic fund

Post High School's share of the bi-regional game receipts at Plainview two weekends ago was $1,871.50 after game officials were paid, Supt. Bill Shiver announced this week.

He said that the school has not received its share of receipts in the regional playoff loss to Iowa Park at Wichita Falls last Friday night, but estimates it in the neighborhood of $2,800.

With local expenses for the regional game, much heavier than for bi-district, with chartered buses needed for the team, pep squad and hand duff to the 290-mile trip, the administrator estimated that the two playoff games would leave the high school athletic fund $1,200 to $1,500 to the good.

A recent athletic fund analysis, made to the school trustees by Shiver, as of Nov. 22, showed that football receipts for the regular season totaled $11,991.93, including revenue from season tickets, tickets sold at the gate, game contracts, and football program revenue.

Football expenses for the season ran over $8,000 and this does not include planned off-season purchase of grid equipment which will be included in the current fiscal school year.

Drive ends Friday

ed to The Dispatch yesterday that $7,125 already was in workers' hands in cash or pledges with a number of divisions yet to report or to report completely.

The Postex Mills division of the drive is leading the way.

Dickinson said that fund contributions from Postex employees plus contributions from the Burlington Industries Foundation has totaled more than $2,000.

That is more than has ever been raised in mill employe and mill contributions before.

Only a few divisions of the drive were reported as complete.

At a meeting of drive workers Monday afternoon, the big gifts division reported nearly $3,000 raised with more to come. Both the downtown employes and school division made turn-ins but had additional cards out.

The farm, Santa Fe, ministerial alliance, federal and bank employe portions of the drive were reported complete.

Five divisions, as of Monday, had not reported. These included liquor stores and employes, city employes, ranches, oil firms and employes and county employes.

At the Monday session, the drive was extended until tomorrow in an effort to wrap it up with a few more days of work.

Boy loses fingers in farm mishap

Jimmy Don Porterfield, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bob Porterfield of Grassland, had both hands mangled in a boll pulley Nov. 21 while his father was working on the machine.

The child was taken to West Texas Hospital in Lubbock, where the little finger and the finger next to it on his left hand were amputated. The tips of the fingers of his right hand were also mangled.

Gold Star Boy, Girl to district banquet

Bill Bevers and Zelika Freeman, Garza's 1966 Gold Star 4-H winners, will be among those honored during the district 4-H Gold Star banquet which will be held Monday night in the First Methodist Church in Lubbock.

Also expected to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Spence Powers, Bill's parents, and others of the family; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Freeman of Post, parents of Miss Freeman, Judge and Mrs. J. E. Parker, County Commissioners Ben Sanchez and A. P. Gurley, Mrs. Gurley, County Agent and Mrs. Sic Conner, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gentry.

Larry Bevers and Dayneen Durr of the Pleasant Valley 4-H Club will represent the county as banquet workers.

Bank sponsoring cage scoreboard

The First National Bank is sponsoring a fancy new electric scoreboard for the high school gym. Supt. Bill Shiver announced today.

The school administrator said the new scoreboard, which will cost about $500, will not only include the time and the score, but the number of fouls against individual players as well.

The scoreboard is now on order and delivery is expected within about 10 days.

board will be moved to the junior high gym for use there.

The bank several years ago sponsored a big new electric scoreboard for Antelope Stadium.

J. B. Potts, bank president, said the bank appreciates the fine work of Supt. Shiver, his administrators and faculty and wants to encourage the local school program.

With what is expected to be the best Antelope cage club since Post last won district in 1959-60, the new scoreboard is going to be in for a lot of exposure this winter.

'Kindergarten' program in schools?

The time has come, many educators think, to provide in the Texas public school system opportunity for a public school program for five-year-old children. Some may regard such a step as a long overdue. Others may think it premature.

What do you think? Actually, it is the first time that the citizens of Texas generally are in position to give serious consideration to such a proposal. The past quarter-century has been a busy one for Texans with respect to their public schools.

Many of us can remember when the State began its change from an 11-grade system to a 12-grade system, since the change came only 25 years ago. It was in this general time period that the legal age for entering a public school was changed from seven to six. At about the same time that the move to 12 grades started, the State brought public junior colleges into the State-supported educational system by a plan of financial assistance and supervision of these institutions.

In this way, the State increased for a substantial number of youth the opportunity for the 12th and 14th years of public education.

In the years after World War II, Texans were faced with the effects on their public schools of two explosions—Population and Knowledge—both of which absorbed the attention of all.

Then came the school reforms of the mid-1950's based mainly at the "academic" subjects. Strengthening processes, originating mainly in the colleges, moved cautiously but steadily through the high schools and into the elementary grades.

As the academic areas were strengthened, it became more apparent that occupational, vocational, and technical areas must be made more realistic in terms of actual employment needs and opportunities.

Texans have had to tackle all these jobs during the past 25 years. While none can be regarded as completed, each is far enough along that attention can be given to some unfinished business—such as public school for five-year-olds.

We can think of a number of arguments in favor of earlier schooling, and we believe the idea is supported by a mass of evidence that in today's increasingly complex society, it is not only desirable but virtually essential that the schools take in those under age six.

The Texas Education Agency cites one researcher who has stated that 50 per cent of intelligence development takes place by the time the child is four years old, 30 per cent between four and eight and 20 per cent between ages eight and 17.

If approved by the Legislature the program could go into effect for participating school districts as early as the opening of school next year.

However, as pointed out by Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education, "it should not be a crash program. The proposal provides for a gradual, rather than sudden move toward the new additional year."

The program is to be voluntary—if a school district wants to participate the state will pay half the costs.

The Texas Education Agency estimates that in the first year the voluntary program would enroll about 50 per cent of the eligible children. A yearly increase of 10 per cent in enrollment is predicted until there would be 90 per cent of eligibles enrolled in 1970.

It is also pointed out that a voluntary plan of participation during the initial years would allow local districts time to provide classrooms, for the colleges to prepare sufficient teachers and for curriculum specialists to plan, prepare and implement an instructional program.

Daily sessions, TEA recommends, should be between 2½-3 hours. The classes would be held 175 days a year, the same as other grades.

Good way to get Christmas spirit

There might be better ways of getting in the Christmas season mood early than by attending Post's second annual Christmas Fiesta Saturday, but, offhand, we can't think of any.

A full afternoon of entertainment—from 1 until 5 o'clock—is being provided for young and old by the Chamber of Commerce's retail promotions committee, and it's all free.

Santa Claus will make his annual pre-Christmas visit with the youngsters, handing out candy and interviewing them on their Christmas wants.

There'll also be "Santa Claus" for the adults in the form of $50 in cash, in addition to other prizes.

The four-hour Christmas Fiesta program will include western and rock and roll music by area bands from a downtown bandstand, and other attractions.

If the Christmas spirit hasn't hit you yet, and you want to get in the mood well ahead of time, then don't miss Saturday's Christmas Fiesta!—CD

Basketball takes over spotlight

Now that a highly successful football season has ended, basketball takes over the spotlight in the Post Public Schools' athletic program.

Something like ten teams, from the Antelope varsity down to the 7th grade girls, either have already swung into action or will be swinging into it within the next few days.

The season has been shortened a couple of weeks for Coach Wilbert Bigot's Antelopes because of the football playoffs. Local cage fans have high hopes for this season's edition of the Antelope team, which tied Denver City for the District 4AA championship last year.

Also being loyally backed for a district title are Coach Jiggs King's Post Does, the high school girls' team, which already has played a couple of games.

Post fans are urged to support all the basketball teams, from high school down through junior high, by their attendance both at home and on the road.—CD

TODAY IS THE first day of December and if you are one of those who are wondering "what happened" to the first 11 months of 1966, you have plenty of company. It is hard to believe that it has been 11 months since we watched the New Year 1966 tumble in.

And now all we have to do is wait for Christmas, but unless you want to take a chance of getting stepped on in the rush, you can't afford to sit back and wait on it. The way things are being "shot-punned" nowadays, New Year's Day will slip up on the stoopokes while they're still celebrating Christmas.

THE MAN UP the street says the person who is willing to admit that he was in the wrong is wiser today than he was yesterday.

One of those who isn't going to let Christmas slip up on him is our cat Blackie, seen here in a typical "look busy" pose.

SPEAKING OF HOW time flies, which I've been doing all along in this week's column, here is a clipping tossed nonchalantly on my desk:

HOW LONG IS A MINUTE? Yes, how long is a minute—when you are waiting for the school bus to load its passengers — or to discharge them?

How long is a minute — when you are asked to stop by a youngster on school traffic control to let pupils cross at the cross-walk?

How long is a minute — when you need it to stop when youngsters are chasing each other from sidewalk to street and back again in the distance?

How long is a minute when you have the urge to drive faster to make up for those minutes you lost?

Yes, how long is a minute when you cut out of line into the path of another car?

The minute can be just as long as you make it. It can assure you, and the youngsters traveling to and fro from school on time—safe time.

Or the minute you lose — can be multiplied hundred times over — waiting in the Emergency ward — for the results of the accident resulting from being a minute too late.

How long is your minute?

The application blank for a new driver's license carried the following question: "Have you ever been arrested?" The applicant put down, "No." The next question was, "State why." The applicant answered, "Never been caught."

SOMETIMES YOU think you know a fellow real well and then he says or does something that convinces you that you didn't know him too well, after all. Throughout the football season, I've been thrown in close contact with a Post Antelope fan who didn't talk much else and who saw all the Antelope games and then the game films on Monday nights at the Booster Club meetings. After the season finale at Wichita Falls last Friday night, this same fellow told me he was glad, in a way, that the football season was over. "Ever since the new TV season started," he said, "I've been just dying to see the 'Tarzan' show on television, but because it's on Friday nights, I've missed it." Well, he'll get to see "Tarzan" now; he will, that is, if he doesn't get as tightly wrangled in in basketball as he was in football.

With the mornings getting cooler and cooler, we've started checking the temperature by looking at an outside thermometer attached to the frame of the window above our kitchen sink. The thermometer, a gift from our No. 2 son, is hard to read in the dim light of early morning, so we sometimes take a flashlight to see how hot or how cold it is. In fact, it sometimes sets to be such a chore that I've often thought it might be easier to fall back on the old cricket method of determining the temperature. To do that, all you have to do is find a cricket, count the number of times he chirps in 14 complete and in that total add 40. They say this will give you the temperature to within one degree.

Soldier sends home Thanksgiving program and menu from Vietnam

"Thanksgiving Day — Vietnam — 1966" was much like Thanksgiving Day in the United States as far as the holiday meal was concerned, but there the resemblance ended.

Sgt. Paul Dewayne Capps sent his mother, Mrs. Inez Capps, a copy of the printed Thanksgiving program issued the troops in Vietnam along with their holiday dinner. Many of the troops — those in position to do so — ate their Thanksgiving dinner on the fighting fronts.

The menu on the four-page program sent home by Sgt. Capps lists: Shrimp cocktail with cocktail sauce and crackers, roast turkey, giblet gravy, poultry dressing, snow-flaked potatoes, glazed sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, buttered peas and corn, crisp roll tray, parkerhouse rolls, butter, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, mince pie, old fashion fruit cake, fresh chilled fruit, mixed nuts, assorted candy, tea, coffee and milk.

The program contained the following Commander's Message from Gen. W. C. Westmoreland: "This Thanksgiving Day we find ourselves in a foreign land assisting in the defense of the rights of free men. On this day we should offer our grateful thanks for the abundant life with which we and our loved ones have been provided.

May we each pray for continued blessings and guidance upon our endeavors to assist the Vietnamese people in their struggle to attain an everlasting peace within a free society."

The following prayer also appeared in the program:

"Father of mercies and giver of all good, by whose power we were created, by whose bounty we are sustained, and by whose spirit we are transformed, accept, we beseech Thee, our prayer of thanks.

"For those who love us and of whose love we would be more worthy; for those who believe in us and whose hopes we cannot disappoint; for every good gift of healing and happiness and renewal, we bless Thy name. We thank Thee for our homeland, for all that is just and true, noble and right, wise and courageous in our history. We praise Thee for our place in the community of nations and we invoke Thy blessings on men of goodwill wherever they may be and who labor for a world of justice, freedom, and fraternity.

"Most of all, Eternal Father, we thank Thee for Thyself, the nearness of Thy presence and the warmth of Thy love, whereby our minds and hearts find joy and peace. Freely we have received, O God; freely let us give ourselves to Thy gracious purposes. For Thy love's sake. Amen."

Considering number afield, early hunt toll in Texas is moderate

AUSTIN — Considering the enormous numbers afield for the big game season opener, the safety record was considered moderate although five hunters were killed by gunfire the first week, according to reports to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Mystery shots accounted for two deaths. Two others were attributed to the victims possibly being mistaken for wild game.

A 15-year-old Diboll lad fired his 30-30 rifle at a swooping chicken hawk without knowing a 56-year-old squirrel hunter was in line of fire. The latter was struck in the left chest and apparently died instantly.

A 27-year-old Victoria school teacher was struck in the back of the head by a slug from a high-powered rifle while hunting deer near Bloomington. His instant death was blamed on a stray bullet. Authorities reported many hunters were in the area.

A 20-year-old man was killed by a 30-30 slug through his head. The Brazos County sheriff's office said the victim's uncle did the shooting. The victim, wearing camouflaged clothing, was in brush 110 yards from where the shot was fired.

In a similar tragedy, a 65-year-old Ratcliff man was killed by a rifle shot in his head. A 25-year-old man said he mistook the victim for game.

A 47-year-old Palestine man fell from a tree blind and died of a broken neck.

An earlier hunting death occurred when a 14-year-old boy's small bore shotgun was discharged as he crawled up a stock-tank bank, while hunting frogs. He was struck in the head.

The five gunfire deaths raised the fall fatalities to 19, just two short of the fatality total for the entire 1965 hunting season, as reported by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Meanwhile, four additional water recreational deaths raised the season's total to 230, compared with an even 200 for 1965. One of the victims perished while swimming. Two of the other three drowned while fishing from a boat at night on Lake Texoma. The fourth died while wade fishing in Copano Bay near Rockport.

Meredith gets more catfish

CANYON — An additional 8,000 blue catfish fingerlings from the Sheldon State Fish Hatchery have been released in the new Meredith Reservoir on the Canadian River, according to fishery biologist Jack Crabtree of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department staff.

Fishery workers also released 146,000 channel catfish.

Blue catfish, the largest of all freshwater catfish, can exceed 150 pounds. Channel catfish may reach 30 pounds, but a 20-pounder is considered a very large channel cat, said Crabtree.

Some canaries live 15 years or longer.

DAKOTA DOVE BAGGED

Southland church to observe anniversary

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE

The Southland Baptist Church will be celebrating its 50th anniversary Sunday. Everyone is invited to come and join in this joyous occasion. There will be Sunday School and worship in the morning, with a basket lunch at noon and special music in the afternoon. Let's all go sometime during the day and extend our congratulations to this fine church and members.

I sincerely hope that each of you had a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday. My family and I most certainly did! All of us were well and that was something that we were thankful for, what with all the flu and colds going around. We have so many things to be thankful for this past year and I am sure we will have just as many next year. God has been so good to my family and me!

Mrs. Walter Kellum fell and hurt herself recently and was confined to Mercy Hospital for several days. We certainly hope she is feeling much better by now.

We would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the Delbert Abshire family - Mrs. Abshire's mother, Mrs. Mayo of Arkansas passed away recently.

Mrs. Carl Wartes underwent surgery last week at West Texas Hospital. She is doing much better and will be coming home in a few days.

What'd you expect us to put our Overhead Cam Six in?

An ordinary car?

Our revolutionary 165-hp OHC 6 is so revolutionary we had to do something special with it. So we made it standard in all Tempests and LeMans.

You see, it was inspired by those famous overhead cam engines in expensive European sports cars. With a few Pontiac refinements, of course. And with a power reserve for expressway passing you'd normally expect from a V-8.

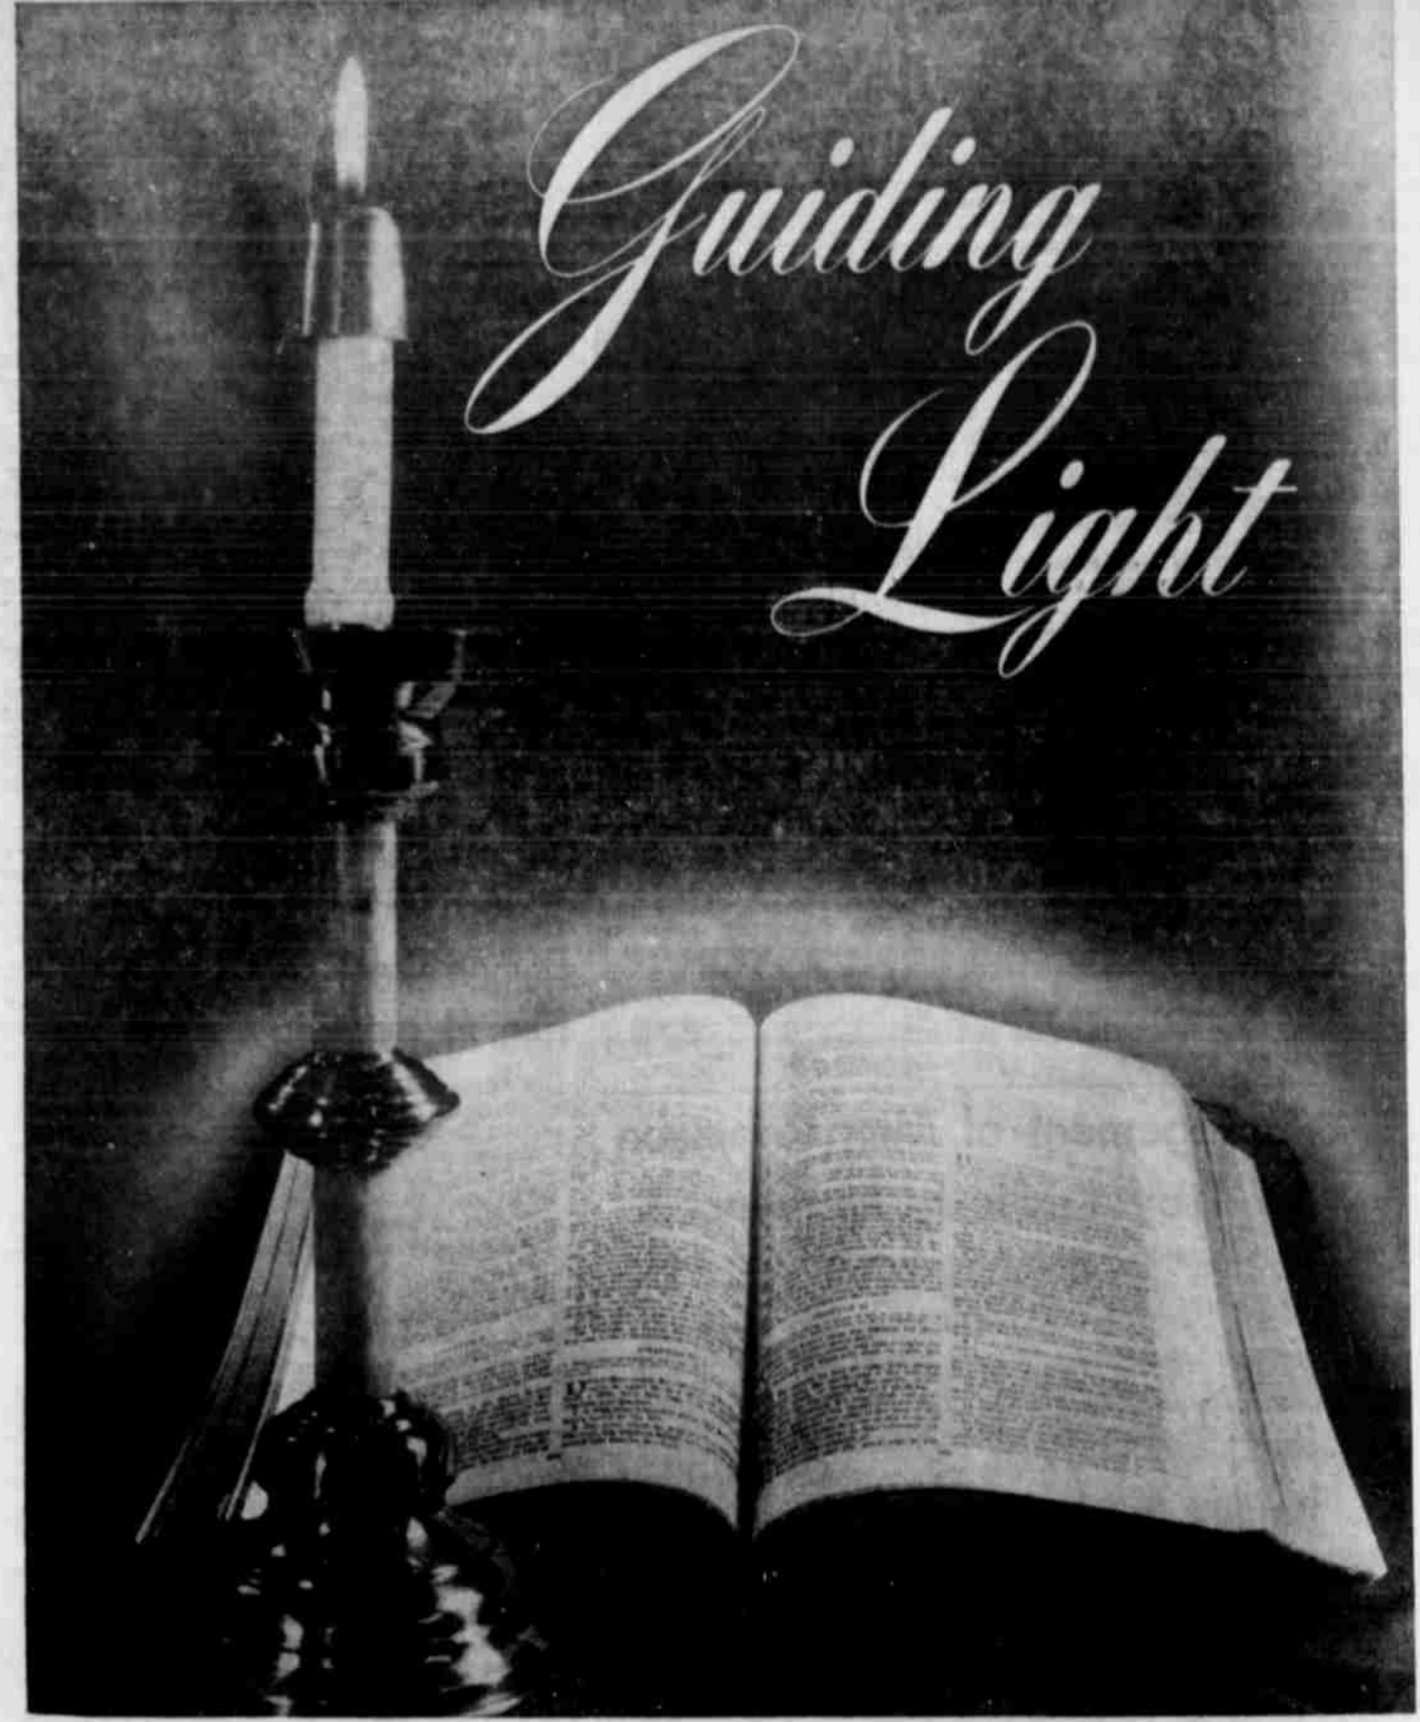

We even offer a 215-hp version that makes a lot of big V-8s seem awfully extravagant. Which is why we say, with a six like this who needs an eight?

Incidentally, a four-way hazard warning flasher, backup lights, and GM's energy absorbing steering column are some of the safety features also standard in Tempests and LeMans. How can you resist seeing your Pontiac dealer today?

We no longer have to read the Bible by the light of a single candle. We can shine a whole battery of floodlights upon God's Holy Book if we want to. But sometimes we tend to interpret our lives in terms of technical achievement only.

Sunday Psalms 4:1-8	Monday Psalms 32:5-9	Tuesday Isaiah 30:8-18	Wednesday Luke 1:67-80	Thursday Acts 8:26-38	Friday II Corinthians 4:1-6	Saturday II Corinthians 6:14-18

One night, while traveling, we stopped at a motel. In the stillness of the room, I heard my young son reading to his younger brother. I listened, surprised, for he was reading the motel's Bible. He stumbled over some of the words, but still there was a clarity to their meaning as he pronounced them. Passages, spoken in his childish voice, had a certain simplicity.

Children approach things directly, with open minds and hearts. In this fashion, my young sons were approaching the Bible. In this fashion, so should many of us return to it again. Bring the Bible back into your life. You will find a guiding light to help you in the church of your choice.

FFA group to banquet

By Dennis Ray
Members of Post's Future Farmers of America chapter and the annual Mesa District at Tahoka on Monday in the school cafeteria. The chapter sweetheart, Natha Edith Johnson, will be the chapter in competing for the district sweetheart. Bartlett, chapter president, Jay Bird, Greenhand will attend, along with Robert Thruett and E. A. Howard and Ger-entire student body for the great season they had this year. We are all very proud of the Antelopes, and of the way they represented PHS.

Recently the Post Does elected their co-captains for the 1966-67 basketball season. Edith Johnson and Linda Altman were elected, who will be first leaders. Congratulations girls!

Now that football is over, both the boys' and girls' basketball teams are preparing for a tough season ahead. This weekend, the boys play in the Plainview tournament with their first game against Coronado of Lubbock on Thursday 12:30. The girls also participate in a tournament this weekend at Forson, a small town near Big Spring. Their first game will be at 12:30 Friday. In both of these tournaments, the competition will be stiff so, good luck!

The Antelope basketball team scrimmaged the Snyder Tigers last week and were defeated by a small margin of only five points. Being that Snyder is a Triple A school, and a strong competitor, the Antelopes did an excellent job.

Last week we had six-week's tests, which made everybody really look forward to the Thanksgiving holidays. But even four days of holidays don't make us terribly eager to return to school, especially since report cards are due this week. Oh well, at least everybody had a big time before the lowering of the boom!

FFA Contest

Howard, vocational agriculture teacher of Post, was a member of the FFA Farm Skill contest at Big Spring Nov. 19. The chapter, Senior Farm placed first in the contest teams placing were second: Big Spring, third, and fourth. Seven teams participated in the contest.

HIGH SCHOOL EDITORIAL

Let's Be Number One All the Way

By Lorena Anderson

Post High School has the right of being mighty proud of the Post Antelopes this year. Not only did they win the district title but also won the first bi-district title since 1948. They have showed us by their actions the true meaning of pride and that pride is a big factor in success. They have started the year off right by proving that Post can be a winner.

It is our job as a student body to finish what the 'Lopes of '66 have started by taking pride in everything we attempt to do so that we will remain winners. The best way to do this is by doing

Tony Hutto with McMurtry Band

ABILENE — Tony Hutto, a McMurtry College Band member, will be with that organization when they start a four-day tour Dec. 4. Hutto is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hutto Jr., 816 West 12th St. At McMurtry he is majoring in science education. Graduating from Post High School in 1966, he was a member of the Post High Band and Stage Band.

The Indian Band will travel to eight West Texas towns to present concerts in high schools and complete worship services in Merkel and Lamesa. The band will also play in Brownfield, Slaton, Hale Center, Ralls, Floydada and Spur before returning to Abilene, Dec. 7.

The band, under the direction of Dr. Raymond Bynum, will present a program that includes overtures, South American numbers, a prominent display of soloists and a generous sprinkling of showmanship and comedy. Novelty numbers are a tradition of the McMurtry musicians. Another tradition is a stirring rendition of "Stars and Stripes Forever" that ends each concert. The most distinguished achievement of the McMurtry College Band is that of being able to present in churches a complete worship service built around the theme: "Let Us Worship Through Music."

Descriptive writing is up to Juniors, Seniors

By Jane Cannon

What does walking barefooted through a fish pond full of dead goldfish feel like? Or how does it feel to touch your tongue to a frozen ice tray? These are just a few of the subjects the Junior and Senior English classes have to describe. "To be a good writer, you have to be descriptive," says Mrs. Alexander. The trouble is, the Junior and Senior classes aren't as descriptive or as imaginative as they were when they were first graders.

The purpose of the descriptive exercises is to stretch the student's imagination and to increase writing fluency.

CONSERVATORIES

VERSAILLES! Palace of Louis XIV, where the Sun King "reigned" by staging bear hunts or moonlight masquerades in his own "indoor forest." The magnificent Orangerie, Louis' famed conservatory, 509 feet long, was filled with 100,000 square feet of exotic plants, trees, and flowers for his many ladies-in-waiting.

WHEN HYDRONIC HEATING (hot water circulating through steel pipes) first came into use, every earl, duke, and millionaire built his own private conservatory. Today, conservatories and household greenhouses are once again in fashion and much less expensive to own! Steel pipes circulating steam or hot water can recreate economically the native environments of many plants. Build your own private conservatory or visit one of the many public botanical gardens around the country.

Mammoth conservatories, new methods of farming, ultra-efficient steel pipe irrigation, heating and cooling systems, will be needed to supply the food for generations to come.

Plantation park has wide appeal

WEST COLUMBIA — The wide appeal of historic Varner - Hogg State Park Plantation was reflected again when one party alone comprised guests from eight states.

Thus, last year's roster showing 46 states and 16 foreign nations represented on the official roster already has been challenged.

The much traveled group from eight states came as the guests of Mrs. Gardiner Symonds of East Columbia. They were from Colorado, New York, Connecticut, Mississippi, Massachusetts, New Jersey, California, and Ohio.

The elegant plantation mansion — built in 1835 with slave-made bricks — in addition to containing many early American artifacts and mementoes of Texas history, displays on its grounds examples of colonial agriculture and horticulture. Cotton and sugar cane are still grown and magnolia and other native shrubs and flowers are still cultivated.

Boys' sextet is heard by Lions

Other guests included E. A. Howard Jr., high school vocational agriculture teacher, Mrs. Georgie M. Wilton, and wives of the Lions.

Jack Alexander will be in charge of the program at next Tuesday night's meeting.

Kerr area yields 91 deer early

KERRVILLE — Typical of the successful public deer hunts was the report by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department that 91 hunters on the Kerr Wildlife Management Area bagged 76 deer during the first five days of the season.

The 60 bucks and 16 does were described as in "excellent condition." Most hunters got their deer on the first day of their two-day shoot.

The largest buck to date was by a San Antonio man, using a 264 Magnum rifle, who got an eight pointer with an antler spread of seventeen and three fourth inches. The buck was six and one-half years old and weighed 105 pounds, field dressed.

A 17-year-old Point Comfort hunter brought in a bonus along with his eight point buck with a fine antler spread. It was a gaudily colored bobcat weighing 26 lbs. Both were shot with a 30-06 calibre rifle.

Post Antelopes, Does start tournament play today

Boys play Coronado in tough Plainview meet

Wilibert Bigott's Post Antelope basketball team will make its first start of the season at noon today (Thursday) when it plays Coronado in the 14th annual Plainview Invitational Tournament, in which 16 of the top high school teams in West Texas are entered.

If the Antelopes defeat Coronado, their next game will be at 4:30 p. m. Friday against the winner of the Lorenzo - Levelland game, scheduled for 10:30 a. m. today.

If Post loses its first game, it plays next at 10:30 a. m. Friday against the Lorenzo - Levelland loser.

The Antelopes are in the tournament's upper bracket with Coronado, Lorenzo, Levelland, Shallowater, Midland Lee, Plainview junior varsity and McAdoo. Teams in the lower bracket are Adrian, Phillips, Dimmitt, Abilene Cooper, Monahans, Hereford, Floydada and Plainview.

The Antelopes were forced to cancel last Friday's scheduled opener with Hamlin because of the Post - Iowa Park football game, and Tuesday night's scheduled game with Seagraves was cancelled because of the death of a Seagraves school teacher.

The Antelope squad in the Plainview tournament opening today will include three boys who have been working out for the last few weeks. They are all - starter Ronnie Pierce, J. O. Smith and Larry Johnson. Others on the squad will include seven boys who have just completed the football season. They are lettermen Donnie Windham, Davis Heaton and Jimmy Bartlett and Duke Altman, Dennis Altman, Norman Tanner and Roy Sappington, up from last season's "B" team.

The football squadmen were out for basketball practice Monday, but will have only three days of workouts before the opening of the tough Plainview tournament.

Four of the teams in the Plainview tournament are Class AAAA clubs. They are Plainview, Coronado, Midland Lee and Abilene Cooper.

Class AAA teams in the tournament are Levelland, Monahans and Hereford. Class AA clubs are Post, Phillips, Dimmitt and Floydada, with Lorenzo the only Class A team entered. Class B teams competing are Shallowater, Adrian and McAdoo.

The Antelopes' first home game will be Tuesday night, Dec. 6, against Littlefield, with both "A" and "B" boys' games scheduled.

Officers are elected by Primary 4-H Club

The Post Primary 4-H Club met last week and elected officers. They are as follows:

President, David McBride; vice president, Bruce Sanderson; secretary-treasurer, Benny Green; reporter, Donna Dye; council delegates, Rebecca Knox and Bruce Sanderson.

County agents Sid Conner and Juanette Gentry explained duties of officers and parliamentary procedure.

Iowa Park rolls on with win over Post

The Iowa Park Hawks, gaining momentum in their drive toward a state Class AA championship, defeated the Post Antelopes, 41 to 14, in Coyote Stadium at Wichita Falls last Friday night before a crowd of approximately 6,000.

The undefeated and untied Hawks scored one touchdown in the first quarter, two in the second and three in the third before turning the game entirely over to reserves, against whom the embattled Antelopes scored one touchdown late in the third period and another early in the fourth.

Both Post touchdowns were scored by senior end Roy Sappington on passes, one from Duke Altman and the other from Dick Kennedy, with Paul Walker kicking the points after.

COACH GYLYNN Gregg's Antelopes played the heavier and faster Hawks on fairly even terms throughout the first quarter and part of the second before a fumble recovery on the Antelope 16 set up Iowa Park's second touchdown and opened the floodgates.

The Hawks scored their first touchdown a little over three minutes deep in the opening quarter when halfback Randy Jackson ran over from the five at the end of a 72 - yard drive. The back-breaker came on the first play from scrimmage when split - end Harry Price, all alone on the Iowa 40, took a pass from quarterback Robert Watson and went 36 yards to the Post 24, where Dennis Altman brought him down. It took the Hawks seven plays to score, with Watson booting the first of his five - for - six extra point kicks.

The Antelopes made it to the Hawk 47 after Heaton returned the kickoff 14 yards to the Post 31, but the Iowa Park defense held a nd Heaton punted to the 13.

A HOLDING penalty set the Hawks back to the 11, but Jackson gained 19 yards to the 30 before end Donnie Windham intercepted a Watson pass and brought it back to the Iowa Park 39.

Unable to move, the Antelopes were forced to punt again, with Heaton's kick killed on the Hawk six-yard line.

Iowa Park was penalized to the three, but got back up to the 42 on runs by Webb and Jackson before Price took Watson's pass all the way to the Post 14, where Jimmy Bartlett hauled him in. The Antelopes held, with Heaton breaking through to throw Watson for a 12-yard loss and Watson's attempted field goal from the 23 struck the crossbar and bounced back onto the playing field.

A fumble on an attempted double reverse gave the ball back to the Hawks on the Post 16, and Watson went over four plays later on a quarterback sneak from the one, with 5:58 left in the first half.

The Antelopes got the ball on their 20 when the Iowa Park kickoff went into the end zone and they brought it back up to the 50, with Kennedy's 18 - yard run the big gainer.

FORCED TO punt again, Heaton got one off to the 22, and the Hawks brought it back to the Post 36 in two plays—a 26-yard run by Jackson and a 22-yard pass. Jackson ripped off a 22-yard gain to the eight on a Statue of Liberty play, and Webb plowed over from two yards out with 54 seconds remaining in the first half.

Sappington lost the ball on a fumble after returning the second half kickoff 26 yards to the Post 31, and the Hawks upped the score to 27-0 on Jackson's 32-yard run.

Iowa Park added their fifth touchdown after fielding Heaton's punt on their 49, with Watson passing to Price on a 34-yarder for the six points.

The Hawk reserves, inserted following the Watson - to Price touchdown pass, scored after taking the ball on downs on the midfield stripe, with Jim Clapp passing 35 yards to Charlie Woodfin, and Watson coming back in to kick the extra point.

THE ANTELOPES DROVE 71 yards for their first touchdown, helped along by a clipping penalty against Iowa Park that took the ball to the Hawk 38. The infraction came on a play that saw Heaton retrieve a bad snapback and get off a running punt that traveled some 30 yards to the Iowa Park 45.

Duke Altman, in at quarterback, missed on a pass to Windham, but hit Sappington on the five - yard line with his next one, and the receiver scooted on across.

Tackle Norman Tanner's recovery of a Hawk fumble on the Post 49 gave the Antelopes field position for their second touchdown. Heaton and Walker carried for a first down on the 40. Kennedy passed to Walker for 10, and Heaton circled end for five to the 25. On second down, Kennedy pitched to Sappington in the end zone for the six points.

THE HAWK reserves held onto the ball most of the remaining eight minutes of play and offered another threat of their own, getting to the Post five, where the Antelopes held for downs with 1:40 left to play.

The consensus of the fans, several hundred of whom made the 215-mile trip to Wichita Falls, appeared to be that the Antelopes played a good game against a superior team, and but for a few bad breaks might have held the Hawks to a much closer score.

The attitude of the Post fans was never better, despite the fact that their team was fighting a losing battle. They cheered the Black and Gold to the finish in a gesture of fan sportsmanship that rivaled that shown by the Antelopes throughout their 12 - game campaign.

The Tigers, under new coach Kenneth Housden, have the two top scorers back from last season in Mason and Washington.

Post Junior High basketball teams broke even in conference games at Frenship Monday night, the 8th grade girls and 7th grade boys winning and the 8th grade boys and 7th grade girls losing.

Coach George Edgerton's 8th grade girls' team had an easy time of it in posting a 31-10 victory. Sherry Bird scored 11 points, Stephanie Davis, 10, and Rita Valdez, 8. The guards were Sue Eubank, Bertha Torres, Karen Sneed and Debra Mason.

The 7th grade boys won by a score of 22 to 19, with David Woods scoring 7 points and Jimmy Doolley, 6.

Coach Bud Davis' 8th grade boys lost, 34-25. Larry Ribberry led the Post scoring with 11 points.

The 7th grade girls, playing their first game, lost, 15 to 4, with Wilma Bullard getting all of Post's points on two field goals.

The four teams play O'Donnell here Monday night, Dec. 5, with the first game starting at 5:30 o'clock.

Coach Jiggs King's team defeats Flower Grove, their next game will be at 11 a. m. Saturday against the winner of the Garden City-Lorraine game, which is to be played at 3:30 p. m. today (Thursday).

If Post loses to Flower Grove, they play a consolation game at 8 a. m. Saturday against the Garden City - Lorraine loser.

The championship game will be played at 8 p. m. Saturday, with the consolation championship scheduled for 3:30 p. m. Saturday.

Library Listening Post

By ROSEMARY CHAPMAN
We have some very witty volunteers working at the library. Here is a series of communications left by three favorites. I may be pinched for publishing them, but who could resist?

Sat., Nov. 11
I NEVER see anyone on Saturday afternoon. Someone PLEASE come by and show me how to turn this heat when I go home.
Estelle Davis

Sat., Nov. 19
We thus far have not changed the heat controls. Wouldn't you leave note. Thanks.
Sue Shytles

Sat., Nov. 26
Sue: I have found the solution. I leave it just like I find it. If I get cold, I put on my coat. If I get hot, I pull it off. I thought I was Saturday I was going to have to pull off my dress.
Estelle

Mon., Nov. 28
Sorry, I can't help you two with your heat problem. I don't even know where the thing is.
Dot Perdue

Now, why don't some of you big strong men go down and help those ladies with the furnace? Estelle is one of our best workers, and we simply can't afford to have her hauled off to jail on an indecent exposure charge.

Do you realize that we are in danger of losing one of our best customers? Mrs. Sam Sanders, another of our nice volunteers, tells me that Carl Webb has just about run out of reading material. LET'S KEEP CARL! GIVE MORE WESTERNS!

Mrs. Ben Jones, Chapel Hill librarian, was unable to make her proposed trip to Post because

FRIENDLY PERSUASION

Barbara Werle attempts to make Robert Show see her point-of-view in this scene from "Battle of the Bulge," now showing through Saturday at the Tower Theatre. Also starred in the dramatic war film are Henry Fonda, Robert Ryan, Dana Andrews, Pier Angeli and Telly Savalas.

Big Spring area gets francolins

TYLER—From the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department state hatchery, a shipment of exotic birds will be sent to Howard County and liberated in the Big Spring area.

The game bird, a part of the Department's exotic program, is the gray francolin, originally from India, but a newcomer on a relative basis in Texas. It has been released in recent years in few sections of the state with undetermined results.

Howard County has scattered grain crops, with heavy acreages of maize. The combination of farm and ranch areas could prove ideal for survival of the francolin.

These birds are larger than the bobwhite or the blue quail, hale and hardy, and the Department hopes some day may prove a boon to the hunter's game bag.

of illness. After the big build-up last week, I have considered making up some appropriate remarks and attributing them to Vicki. However, as it is conceivable that she might see them, the dull truth will have to do.

Myrna Richardson just brought in 25 more of our books which have been given a complete overhaul by the Jayceettes. I wish that we had "before" and "after" photos of them. They go out looking quite shoddy, and come back as good as new. The following women are doing a truly professional job and we owe them at least 5,000 votes of appreciation apiece: Myrna, Norma Baumann, Jane Bigott, Anita Blanton, Diana Moxley and Jo Newman.

The other day I was saying to myself, "Self, how is it that you never get any fan mail like ol' Helen, and ol' Jim, and ol' Charlie Didway? Could it be that you are doomed never to have a David King in your literary life?"

Then I walked into the back room at the library and there were two of our missing Nancy Drews from Frances Camp, and a copy of "Valley of the Dolls" in a plain brown wrapper. You've made me so happy! Now I know that there are at least two people who read this column, and, frankly, I'd lots rather have the books than the mail.

Better Never Than Late Department: The library will not be opened Thursday, Nov. 24, because of the Thanksgiving Holiday.

COULD YOU GET BY IF YOU HAD TO PAY CASH?

How many people could enjoy the pleasure and convenience of an automobile, piano or refrigerator if they had to pay cash? Credit is your most valuable possession.

The only way to maintain a good credit record is to buy only what you can pay for—and pay for it on the date it is due.

You will find it mighty convenient to say: "Charge it please."

COLLEGE STATION — Holiday food shoppers can look for especially good supplies of broiler-size chickens this December, according to the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Reports from the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicate broiler supplies will run about a tenth greater than this time last year.

There'll also be big supplies of pears, grapes and raisins. In addition, you'll see lots of pork and canned salmon at local food markets.

This year's big Bartlett pear crop is overlapping into the winter season. So you'll find unusually large stocks of these pears, along with the winter varieties of Anjou, Comice and Bosc.

Market news office of USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service report increasing arrivals of such popular California table grapes as Emperor, Almeria and Ribier. They'll make a delicious looking centerpiece for your holiday table.

Raisins will be a real boon to your holiday baking. They add flavor to such a variety of cakes, pies and cookies. A raisin pie is hard to beat for the holiday season.

With such good supplies of pork on hand, you'll want to include a ham on your shopping list. Baked ham and cans of salmon in the pantry can make snacks extra-easy to prepare.

For the best in eating this December, plan your shopping around these plentiful foods.

HUNTER FROM INDIA

MASON — Game Warden J. C. Moore reports deer hunting in Mason County is gaining international fame. A man from Bagdad, India, flew here and hunted on the Jeffers Ranch. Original plans were designed to open the season with the other hunters on Nov. 12, but there was a delay in securing a visa.

Greater London, including the 28 metropolitan boroughs, comprises 443,455 acres. The original old city consists of 675 acres.

Good security should be provided for policies, other family papers

COLLEGE STATION — Insurance companies, banks, attorneys and government agencies report that a staggering number of important family papers are lost each year.

For example, an estimated 300,000 life insurance policies are lost annually, says Miss Joy Arrington, Extension home management specialist. Fortunately, these policies can be renewed in about 30 days, but sometimes even this delay can be upsetting.

To help avoid the difficulties and actual money loss that can occur because important papers are lost or destroyed, it is advisable to review regularly where and how you should safeguard them.

According to Miss Arrington, a bank safe - deposit box provides the best security for vital records, particularly those which might not be replaceable in their original form or would require considerable time and expense for replacement. These include birth, baptismal, marriage and death certificates, divorce and adoption papers, property deeds, military discharges, stocks and bonds (if not left with a broker), mortgages, automobile bills of sale and titles, personal property and household inventories, and passports.

Other important papers should be kept at home in a suitable fire-resistant container. These include equipment and appliance warranties, guarantees and instruction books, medical records, Social Security records and insurance policies.

The original copy of your will should be left with your attorney. In Texas, the safe deposit box is sealed upon death of the renter and is not opened until the will is probated.

In both safe deposit box and home storage container, have a list of what is kept in each place. Also list the names and address of persons, companies and agencies who can help replace particular records or provide copies in case of loss or damage.

The Producer's Co-op Gin has ginned 2,000, have 50 to 75 on the yard and are about half finished. So, harvest will soon be over if the weather stays pretty.

Christmas Seal buys more, per penny invested, than most anything else

What in the world does a Christmas Seal buy?

Well, in 75 countries of the World it probably buys more per penny invested than anything you can name. This is partly because the world's tuberculosis associations, like the 23-county West Texas Tuberculosis Association, depends primarily on volunteer help.

To be specific, it buys education to inform people about all chest diseases. It even goes so far as to educate people to the danger of smoking.

It has, in the past, paid for legislative lobbies to get laws passed against things as simple vulgar as public spitting — or for things as large as state-supported tuberculosis hospitals.

It buys research that has led to wonder-working cures for tuberculosis, once commonly known as the "White Plague".

A Christmas Seal saves lives like yours.

In West Texas, Christmas Seals have contributed toward the purchase and upkeep of the WTMA mobile x-ray unit. In just the first nine months of this year, this unit discovered 50 cases of suspected tuberculosis, 35 cardiovascular irregularities (suggestions of heart disease), and 139 other chest abnormalities.

One of these "chest abnormalities" resulted in a letter sent to the WTMA offices in Lubbock. It was mailed from a West Texas hospital room. The body of the letter said:

"Thanks for saving my life. I don't know what more to say."

This was from a West Texan who made the casual effort it takes to use the mobile x-ray unit. While his chest picture showed no sign of TB, it did reveal a tumor which proved to be malignant. This is not an unusual discovery for the x-ray unit. In this case, successful, early surgery now promises this man a longer life than he could have had without those who have cared enough to purchase Christmas Seals.

Where does the job of Christmas Seals leave off? Wherever someone other responsible agency takes over a job done by the Tuberculosis Association. Then the Association gratefully says, "Thank You" and turns to tackle another problem of respiratory disease that is necessary and still undone.

The very first Christmas Seal—originating in Denmark because a postman worried about some sick children—built a hospital.

America's first Christmas Seals in 1907 kept a TB hospital open after all other funds were exhausted.
