Sweet smell of victory

The Dispatch's Victory Edition, commemorating the Post Antelopes' 14-0 triumph over Denver City's Mustangs, is available in 100 extra copies of the Victory Edition have been printed. A hundred of these are being sent to Coach Glynn Gregg, Post Antelope football scrapbooks, relatives, friends and other Post Antelope fans. Other 100 extra copies of the Victory Edition are for sale at the Dispatch and on newsstands. The Dispatch will mail copies to residents, relatives, students, friends or what you want for a copy. This covers all charges anywhere in the state. The supply should be available within a week.

It's a lot of fun of news- things different — as The staff is doing today with the Victory Edition.

'Lopes end reign of 'Big Red' gridgers

The Post Antelopes knocked the "Big Red" out of the District 4AA saddle, 14 to 0, here Friday night for Denver City's first loss in district play in eight years.

The victory for Coach Glynn Gregg's fired-up Antelopes came on two quick touchdowns in the fourth quarter before a wildly cheering crowd of approximately 2,400 that packed Antelope Stadium.

Jimmy Bartlett rounded left end from eight yards out for the first touchdown with 5:15 left in the game, and quarterback Dick Kennedy slashed around right end with 2:33 left for the second counter. Paul Walker's trusty toe added the extra points.

THE TWO TOUCHDOWNS do not tell the complete story, however. The Post victory belongs to the defense as much as it does to the offense, for the Black and Gold defenders held the Big Red completely in check for 60 minutes of head-knocking football and allowed only one Mustang penetration of the Post 20-yard line.

In fact, defensive plays led to both Post touchdowns. The first counter came after Post got new life on a roughing-the-kicker penalty against Denver City, and the second came after big tackle Norman Tanner fell on a Denver City fumble at the Mustang 20.

Up until the Antelopes got their two touchdowns, the outcome was as much in doubt as any scoreless game can be. At halftime and well into the second half of play, the press box corps was anxiously keeping track of penetrations—of which there were none until late in the third quarter—and of first downs, which were all even, 6-6, at the end of the first half.

THE MUSTANGS made the first penetration, forcing to the Post 13-yard line late in the final quarter before end Roy Sappington, seeing

Credit given those who didn't get into game
Game co-captain Paul Walker in a post-game interview Friday night said much of the credit for the Antelopes' win over Denver City should go to the squad members who did not get to play.

"Even though they didn't get into the game, they were out there all week in the workouts helping the rest of us get in shape for it," Walker said.

his first action since the Hamlin game, dumped Gary Hatfield for a six-yard loss that set the ball back to the 19.

Jimmy Streety got a yard at the line, but the Mustangs drew a five-yard penalty for taking too much time, and Hatfield's pass across the goal line overshot the receiver. On fourth down, fullback John Powell attempted a field goal from the 33, but the kick was short and to the right.

The Mustang drive had started on their 32 and was kept alive by the running of cousins Gary and Biff Hatfield, with the latter getting loose on one 23-yard scamper on which he would have scored if Sappington hadn't hauled him down from behind.

THE RUN TOOK the ball to the Post 28, and Gary Hatfield rounded left end on a keeper and crossed the goal line, but the officials ruled that he had stepped out of bounds on the 15. Biff Hatfield got two at the line before Sappington blitzed Gary Hatfield for the six-yard setback. Aided by the 15-yard roughing-the-kicker penalty, Post went all the way after getting the ball on the 20 following the field goal attempt.

Kennedy and Walker carried for a first down on the 37, but the drive bogged down there, and punter Davis Heaton was crashed into and knocked down after booting the ball to the Mustang 30.

The penalty placed the ball on the Denver City 47, and Heaton made seven and Kennedy 13 to the Mustang 27. Walker, Bartlett and Kennedy carried to the 17 for another first down, to the chant of "Go, go, go," from the Post fans. Kennedy kept for five to the 12. Walker banged the right side of the line for four, and Bartlett skirted left end behind two good blocks for the touchdown.

THE MUSTANG fumble, that led to the second Post touchdown came on the first play from scrimmage after Charles Rice had returned the kickoff 10 yards to the 20. Jimmy Streety was jarred loose from the ball as he crashed into the Post line for no gain, and Tanner fell on it.

Kennedy kept for one yard, and Heaton cut back beautifully for a 10-yard gain to the 9. Heaton lost a yard on his next try, but then picked up six to the 4, from where Kennedy rounded right end and went across just inside the flag.

Bedlam rules dressing room

The Post Antelopes' fieldhouse dressing room was a happy bedlam Friday night after the "big win" over the Big Red.

"We normally keep everybody out," Coach Glynn Gregg commented the next day, "but the way it looked half the town was in there with the team to congratulate them."

The entire squad and their coaches formed a circle and joined hands in the midst of all the hubbub because this is part of the Antelopes' post-game ritual.

"IT SYMBOLIZES this squad's togetherness," Coach Gregg explained afterwards to some of the fans. "We join hands and anybody that wants to talk gets a chance."

Gregg told his ball club he was mighty proud of them.

The group then stood together and said the Lord's Prayer after they were "talked out" in the circle.

After that the two game captains for Post — Donnie Windham and Paul Walker — wrote in the game score on the bulletin board. That is part of the post-game ritual too — win or lose.

One of the casualties of the dressing room crowd was a Dispatch picture of the whole squad "shouting it up." Editor Charlie Didway was jostled a little as he snapped the camera shutter and the picture just didn't come out.

The club apparently came out of the game with no new injuries. At least no one was acting "hurt" in the dressing room after the game.

COACH GREGG was congratulated twice by Denver City's head football coach, Don Orr, after the game. Orr sought him out on the field and then came into the coach's office a little while later to congratulate him again.

"Don told me he thought we had the best team," Gregg said afterwards.

Denver City Quarterback Gary Hatfield came into the Post dressing room shortly after the game ended, while the Antelopes were still in their circle "talking it out."

He said he wanted to congratulate the Antelopes and added he and the Mustangs hoped Post would go all the way to the state title.

HATFIELD WAS applauded by players, coaches, and fans for his sporting gesture.

Coach Gregg told The Dispatch that he wasn't really worried or nervous about the Denver City game all day Friday as he usually is on a game day.

"I felt like we were ready mentally for a victory," Gregg explained.

Last district crown in 1948

It's been 18 years since Post High School's Antelopes last won a district football championship.

That was in 1948 when Coach Bing Bingham's team sailed through a 10-game schedule undefeated and took the District 4A crown with a 14-0 playoff victory over Littlefield here in Antelope Stadium.

That game — on Nov. 19, 1948 — drew 4,500 fans, the largest crowd ever to see a football game here. Post had sailed through the southern half of the district undefeated against O'Donnell, Slaton, Taboka and Seagraves. Littlefield won the northern division.

In the playoff, Halfback Junior Malouf was the running star, going 39 yards for the first touchdown and breaking away for 43 yards for the second.

Jack Kirkpatrick, later to become a Texas Tech standout, kicked both extra points.

The next week after the district playoff — on Thanksgiving Day — Post's Antelopes went into Texas Tech's Jones Stadium at Lubbock and eked out a 7-4 victory over Lockney in the bi-district title game before 10,000 fans.

Kirkpatrick's toe made the difference on the extra point kick after Malouf scored the tying touchdown, going 38 yards in five plays after a 71-yard Post drive had bogged down on Lockney's one-inch line.

That was the high point of the season.

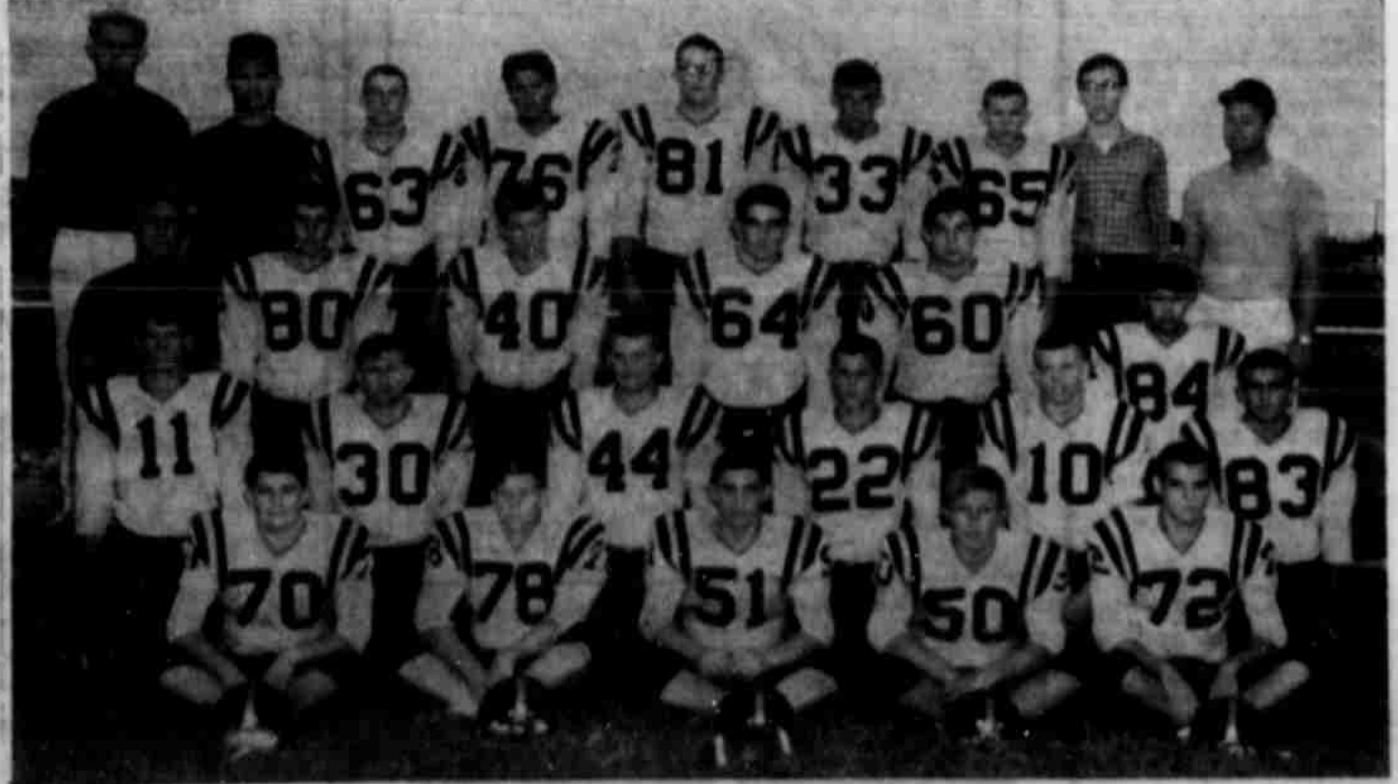

At Amarillo's Butler Field on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 4, 1948, the Phillips Blackhawks met the Antelopes for the regional grid crown. It was all Phillips that afternoon with the Hawks winning 41-0.

The next week Phillips bowed 13-7 to Monahans in Lubbock in the semi-finals of the state playoff.

Some of the players on that 1948 championship club were co-captains Junior Malouf and Jimmy Smith, quarterback Charles McGuire, halfback Ronnie Bouchier, ends Gene King and Buddy Hays, halfbacks Kay Kirkpatrick and R. E. Josey, tackle Maurice Stetzer, guard Carter Gene White, tackles Billy Ramage, Roy Wade, guards Calvin Storie, Donald Carpenter, and tackle George Pierce.

Vernon Ray was the assistant coach on the club.

The 1948 club was touted to be Post's best team since 1928 when Post won its first district crown. (See District Title, Page 8)

The Post Antelope squad "covered itself with glory" Friday night by blanking the Denver City Mustangs to end one of the longest football reigns on the South Plains. Front row, left to right: Wiley Miller, Chris Stetzer, Danny Cooper, Jackie Huff and Norman Tanner. Second row: Davis Heaton, Jimmy Bartlett, Paul Walker, Duke Altman, Dick Kennedy and James

MUSTANGS TAKE IT LIKE REAL SPORTS

Credit the Denver City Mustangs with taking their first District 4AA defeat in eight grid seasons with real sportsmanship.

Gary Hatfield, star quarterback for the Big Red, entered Post's dressing room after the game during the Antelopes' victory celebration, climbed up on a bench, and congratulated the Post squad on its victory.

"We of Denver City wish you the best of luck and hope you go all the way to the state AA championships," Hatfield told the Antelopes and their well wishers.

Former Coach Black sees Antelopes win

One of the happiest of Friday night's after-game dressing room crowd was Charles "Chili" Black of San Angelo, a former Post High School coach.

Black came up from San Angelo especially to see the game and was a guest of Coach and Mrs. Glynn Gregg. He was first assistant coach here for two years before leaving the coaching profession to accept a sales position with a wholesale pharmaceutical firm.

Lest we forget — 3 games to go

The Post Antelopes' well-deserved victory over Denver City Friday night at Antelope Stadium already has Post fans agog at prospects for a district football championship and a crack at the state grid playoffs.

Certainly, the entire team and its coaching staff are to be congratulated for this all-important triumph—the first ever scored against Denver City in eight years of District 4AA play by any opponent.

The boys have been pointing to the Denver City game for 12 months, ever since walking off the Mustangs gridiron in defeat a year ago.

It was a solid team effort all the way. The Antelopes were peaked and ready and played their best game of the season.

Post has a great deal to be proud of in its 1966 high school football team. This group of youngsters not only are good football players, but they possess real team spirit and the willingness to pay the price in work and conditioning.

They are ably led by coaches who have earned the respect and backing of both players and community.

While the Denver City victory must of course be the highlight of this 1966 season, three important games remain on the schedule.

This is not a time to look back, or to bask in the warm glow of that Denver City victory.

The Antelopes must win three more to win the district championship and a chance at the playoffs. There can be no letup in team effort or fan support.

The three games must be played one at a time—and won with the same kind of Antelope football effort which made the "road back" to Denver City such a long one for the Mustang team and supporters Friday night.—JC

Another safe, sane Halloween?

With Halloween only a few days away, hopes are high no doubt among city officials, members of the volunteer fire department and many others that we have the same safe, sane and sensible Halloween this year that we had last year.

Last year, you'll remember, was the first time in more than a decade that there wasn't at least one outhouse burning on West Main Street, and the let-up followed a stern warning from the city council that such acts are violations of the law and would be prosecuted as such.

Since none of us are so naive as to think that such warnings "get the job done," we'll have to give credit where credit is due and contribute the fact that many an outhouse was burned to the vigilance of the police department, which maintained a constant patrol of the area during the night.

The city's campaign to halt the outhouse burnings was certainly called for. The year before, firemen had stayed up all night to fight the blazes, at considerable expense to the city, and the paving on West Main was seriously damaged by the fires.

There is no excuse for such acts at Halloween or at any other time of the year, and while they're "funny" to a few people, they're childish and silly to the majority. Those who have engaged in the outhouse burnings in previous years will indicate they've reverted to normalcy if they refrain from doing so this year without having to be warned by the city council and threatened with arrest.

This is also the occasion to warn motorists to drive carefully on Halloween night to keep from running over any of the dozens of young trick-or-treaters who'll be swarming the streets.—CD

Each Homecoming is bigger

This time next week, the Post Ex-Students Association will be well under way with preparations for Homecoming, or with Homecoming itself, all depending on which day you're reading this. At any rate, the Post schools' Homecoming is set for Friday, Nov. 4.

We've said it before, but this year's Homecoming holds promise of being the biggest ever. More plans are being made and more class reunions are scheduled than ever before.

In a manner of speaking, every Homecoming is bigger than the one the year before, because the number of the school's alumnus has grown to the extent of the size of its graduating class. For instance, if there were say 2,000 ex-students last year, then there are something like 2,060 this year.

After all, though, no homecoming should be measured in terms of "bigness" when we're thinking of its success. Homecoming holds a special meaning for the individual ex-student who returns to enjoy it, rather than to the sum total of ex-students attending, and if he individual student has a happy Homecoming, then the event can be termed a success.—CD

I'D BE OUT of step with today's Victory Edition of The Post Dispatch if I didn't head my column off with something about football in general and the Antelopes' victory over the Denver City Mustangs in particular.

I'm personally dedicating my share in today's Victory Edition of the Dispatch to Beth Walker, who asked me the night we beat Floydada if The Dispatch would get out an extra if we beat Denver City. I told her we would, but I'm halfway falling down on my promise, since this Victory Edition is not exactly an extra.

To Mr. C, the publisher, must go full credit for the idea of this Victory Edition, and I'm sure that if things had been different Friday night The Dispatch would have come out with an extra. Mr. C, who had yelled himself hoarse during the football game, was rearing and ready to go long after the game, but his editor was drooping with an attack of influenza, and his shop foreman was leaving town to attend a Jaycee meeting, so an extra was out of the question.

But I hope Beth and all the others on the Antelope Booster Club bus who heard me promise a Dispatch extra if we beat Denver City, will take today's Victory Edition as at least a halfway-kept promise.

Most of the clippings I receive from readers are well worth publishing. Here is another good one. APHORISMS—NOW HE KNOWS What I Wish I Had Known at 18:

That a "free offer" is usually the most expensive kind.

That a man isn't judged by what he knows, but by how he wears it.

That it's useless to get into a spraying contest with a skunk.

That when a man's position in life depends upon his having a certain opinion, that's the opinion he will have.

That friends who break fast at the wire often fade in the stretch.

That the best person to borrow from is the one who doesn't have much.

That women who seem the most "feminine" turn into the most feline and most feral.

That the cynic is good-hearted beneath his facade, whereas the sentimentalist is flint-hearted beneath his.

That the worst sins are committed by indifference, not by vice.

That the people who are suspicious of certain things are the very ones who are the most capable of doing that of which they are suspicious.

That nobody can misunderstand a child as much as his own parents.

That the more neurotic partner in a marriage is the one who is not seeing a psychiatrist.

That ends never justify the means, but, quite the contrary, means tend to corrupt ends.

That being able to do exactly as one pleases is the surest way to remain perpetually unpleased.

That human nature doesn't need to change; it just needs to ask itself continually what is meant by "human" and to give itself an honest answer.

That the way in which we say something is often more important than what we say.

That the "liberal" who gets power can be violently illiberal, just as the "conservative" who gets power can be greedily unconserving.

That it can take less courage to face death than to face life.

That the atheist who believes in man and scoffs God can be closer to holiness than the religionist who believes in God and scoffs man.

That nobody has the power to hurt us or help us as much as we fancy, and mortal hurts are almost always self-inflicted.

That it is impossible to have a good opinion of one's self and a low opinion of others; the downer is projecting his self-contempt.

That "pleasure" and "joy" are no synonyms, but may be as profoundly different as Heaven and Hell.

Cattle price continues good

COLLEGE STATION — Texas cattle prices will remain favorable for the remainder of 1966 and into 1967, especially for the efficient producer, a Texas A&M University agricultural economist predicted today.

John G. McHanev, Extension economist, said continued strength in the general economy would insure an increasing price trend for beef cattle, beginning very late in 1966. All of 1967, he added, should be favorable if our economy continues to grow and range conditions remain good.

McHanev said feed operators at the present were more reluctant than usual to bid up feeder cattle prices. Their feed costs are rising and will be higher in the months ahead than in the first half of 1966 and fed cattle prices have declined to narrow their margins, he said. But, taking all factors into consideration, feeder prices are expected to remain near current levels which are much better than for the same period a year ago.

Democratic Committee publishes new book as souvenir program

When's the birthday of your Congressman? How many votes did President Johnson get in Loving County in 1964? What are the names of all 22 State officials? How many registered voters are in Ochiltree County?

The answer to these political questions and to thousands of others can be found in a handsome, 84-page book published by the State Democratic Executive Committee as a souvenir program for the recent state convention.

The books now are available to the public at $2.50 each. Orders should be sent to SDEC, Brown Building, Austin, Tex.

The book has pictures and biographies of all 22 State officials and the Democratic members and nominees of the Texas Delegation in Washington.

All candidates — both Democrats and Republicans — for the Texas Senate and the House of Representatives are listed by districts, along with their home addresses and telephone numbers.

Perhaps most useful to the general public is the section on the voting habits of each county for key races in 1964 and 1966. The guide gives the votes and percentages for the presidential, gubernatorial and senatorial races of 1964; the registered voters and population in the two Spring primary races.

The book also has maps showing district boundaries of Congressmen, State Senators and State Representatives.

 friends, buy them early.

The last time The Dispatch made a special press run was for this newspaper's Golden Jubilee Edition in 1957 and it was all sold out the day it hit the street.

We think this "Denver City" win strak has bugged adult fans even more than the youngsters all these years. We guess the coaches thought so, too, because the first thing Coach Gregg tried to get across when the season started was "a positive fan attitude" that this team could win against any opponent.

The "break through win" over Denver City is important not only to the team and its title chances, but to the school and the town as well. There is nothing which quites welds a student body or a Texas community together like a good football team.

If some of the adult fans wondered why there was no big bonfire or night pep rally before the Denver City game, this is to report the lack of it was all a part of Coach Gregg's pre-game strategy.

The coach felt the boys would be ready to play. He didn't want a lot of special town or student enthusiasm to get them wound up so tight they would fumble and make mistakes. While Denver City was staging a "Beat Post Week" from Monday on, the Antelopes were going on with pre-game preparations—no extras.

After all, the Antelopes had been "getting up for this one" for a whole year.

Most unusual thing about the football programs for the Denver City game, to our way of thinking, is that Denver City listed 10 — count them 10 — coaches in its football program. Post lists four.

The diller, the dollar, the ten o'clock scholar. Remember how the rhyme ended? Tardiness leads from bad to worse. The boy ended by sleeping until noon.

Often parents ask, "WHEN IS IT TIME TO BEGIN THE RELIGIOUS TRAINING OF OUR CHILD?" Here's a straight-forward answer: "THE MOMENT YOU BEGIN TO LOVE HIM!"

You see, God is love. And, in a home where God is loved, a child quickly begins to associate the love of his parents for him with this Other Love which is felt by those he loves. Then come Bible stories and pictures and a simple prayer to help him experience and express his growing faith. Soon he'll be starting Sunday School — but his religious training has already begun.

Our churches are helping tomorrow's parents equip themselves spiritually today. The couple planning marriage needs a mature religious faith. For when God has given us a little son or daughter . . . THERE GOES THE BELL!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

This new Chevy pickup looks so good you could call it a 2-door. (You could also call it the toughest Chevy pickup ever built!)

This Fleetside pickup's got a lot more than good looks going for you. It's got new construction to bring you more durability, working ease, comfort and safety. Check that new all-steel pickup box, for example. New full double-wall side panels and tailgate keep your load from leaving its mark on Chevy's good looks. And new measures have been taken to help keep out rust and corrosion. Like the one-piece wheelhouseings that now protect sheet metal against tire splash. Inside, the color-keyed cab looks and feels like a pleasant place to work. There are a number of new safety features, too: an energy-absorbing steering wheel and a dual master cylinder brake system, to name two. And here's another thing the new Chevy pickup's got going for you: it rides better than some cars. Choose from 26 Fleetside and Stepside models now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

VS

FRENSHIP TIGERS

Friday Night, Oct. 28 At Wolfforth

7:30 P.M. KICKOFF

The last three district games are all "big ones" for Coach Glynn Gregg's Post Antelopes. They must win them all to win the district 4AA championship.

The first comes tomorrow night at Wolfforth when the district-leading Lopes take on the Frenship Tigers, who are improving each week and who pack some scoring punch.

A letdown would be disastrous to Post's title chances.

Post hit its peak form of the season in corraling the Denver City Mustangs here, 14-0, Friday night with two fourth period touchdowns

The club figures to be "up" the rest of the way with the town all excited over prospects for a district football crown and a crack at the state playoffs.

Post boosters may outnumber Frenship backers tomorrow night. So take a tip. Be there a little early if you want a seat.

FHA is selling home products

By Jane Cannon
Future Homemakers of America girls have been selling home products for the past two weeks to raise money for their annual Mother-Daughter banquet.

The girl that sold the largest amount of products, Marsha Tipton, will receive a large tote bag, a wrist watch or a sweetheart diamond ring.

Second and third place winners have not been determined yet, but their awards will be a scissors set or a sewing kit and a vanity mirror or a Ming jade set.

Each girl who sells $25 or more of products will receive her choice of a jade pendant necklace, a compact razor or a Spanish ship pin. Marsha Tipton won by selling approximately $160 worth of products. The FHA will receive 20 per cent on sales.

Drama Club is active in Post Junior High

By Peggy Bevers
Last Friday, the Drama Club met at 11:30 in the Post Junior High auditorium, with the committee meeting to make further plans.

The cast was named for the play, "Shall We Go Steady?" This cast consists of Chip Polk, director; Belinda Blacklock, Sherry Bird, Robert Bullock, Johnny McGuire, June Davis and Benny Seward.

Toward the last of the period, a short skit, "It Can Happen in the Best of Families," was presented by Cynthia White and Lee Maddox.

Wednesday, Oct. 19, members who wished to try out for the play, "The Appletons and U. N.," met in the auditorium at 6.

DRESS REVUE WINNER

As state winner, she will receive an all-expense paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 27-Dec. 1. Runner-up in the dress revue was Sharon Davis of Odessa, Ector County 4-H member.

Archeology Club takes field trip

By Eddie Jennings
The Archeology Club of Post Junior High went on another successful field trip Sunday. We were invited to the Bob Macy ranch, about five miles south of the Graham community. Approximately 20 members made the field trip.

Indian photographs were located and observed, and photographs were taken of these drawings. Four or five arrowheads were dian scrapers.

The Archeology Club is looking forward to a great year and we encourage all of our members and friends to take an active part in the organization.

We wish to pay tribute to our sponsors, Mr. Bud Davis and Mr. Bruce Burnett, who give their time diligently for the success of our club.

The Student Council met last Thursday to discuss a number of important matters.

It has been determined that the Coke machine will provide enough profit for the council's projects. These projects include the installation of more trash cans on the school grounds, the purchase of a specially designed Post Antelope flag and a lighted bulletin board to be placed outside the school to inform everyone of coming events at PHS.

Post High School Happenings

By Marcia Newby
WE BEAT DENVER CITY! All other school news seems trivial compared to our 14-0 victory over the D. C. Mustangs. I say O U R victory because I believe that it took everybody—the band, the pep squad, the student body, the boosters, and of course those Number One Antelopes — to beat the one-time unbeatable Mustangs. The general reaction following the game was, "We really did beat 'em. I can't believe it!" But it's now very believable and still very wonderful.

The Pep Rally last Friday afternoon will be hard to top in spirit and enthusiasm. The eighth graders, who got to come over from Junior High, helped make the pep rally a success. Also adding to its success was the speaker, Supt. Bill Shiver, whose talk helped give the Antelopes the confidence they needed.

The "spirit stick" was won by the Seniors this week. They finally got together and showed the underclassmen what real school spirit is all about. All the students should be credited with great spirit though, and it will take the same kind of spirit to keep the Antelopes on top.

The cheerleaders would like to thank Mrs. Eugene Martin for the beautiful mums she sent us for the Denver City game. Earlier in the year we received mums from Mrs. W. H. Childs as well as Edna's Flower Shop. Without such thoughtful people, the cheerleaders would be mumless. Thank you very much!

While I'm on the subject of football, I'd like to say that the Freshman football team deserves some recognition for the great job they're doing, too. Under Bill Smith, the coach, the Freshmen remain undefeated thus far this season. So spend Thursday nights watching the future leaders of the Post High Varsity Antelopes in action.

There's still time, boys, to order those homecoming mums from the Senior representatives and also to get a date. That's spelled D-A-T-E and it's different — you'll like it!

Slaton Cub Scouts visit in Southland

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Slaton Cub Scout Den No. 6 came out to visit the Southland Cub Scout Den No. 9 recently in the home of the den mother, Mrs. Joyce Odom. They explained the rules and regulations of being a Cub Scout and showed how to do different things and answered questions. The Southland Scouts just recently organized and probably had a lot of questions. At the present time the Den just has five members but hopes that before too long more young boys will become interested and join. The Cubs are Dale Odom, Roy Belk, Kendon Wheeler and Abel and Danny Cardenas. The Southland Den invited the Slaton Den to come back soon to go arrowhead hunting with them. Games were played and cookies and Kool-Ade were served.

Four girls go to cage clinic

By Karen Windham
Saturday, four of the girls out of the Varsity basketball class went to Big Spring for a basketball clinic. Those attending were Brenda Lee, Vicki Martin, Karen and Sharon Windham and Coach King. The basketball clinic was held at Howard County Junior College, and lasted from 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. After a lunch break there was a volleyball clinic.

At 1:30 p. m. the first of two games started. The first game was played by the Sundown team and the Sands team. The second game was played by Flower Grove and Garden City.

The girls enjoyed it and learned a lot from the speakers.

Post over Frenship
102.2 — Power Ratio — 73.4
By 29 Points

The Post Antelopes came off their 14-0 victory over Denver City this week rated 29 points better than the Frenship Tigers with whom they tangled Friday night in what Post fans hope to be another step down the road to the first district grid crown in 18 years. Post's power rating jumped 3 points this week and Denver City's fell 4.3 points as a result of the Antelopes' rated upset over the Mustangs. This week, Post was tied for 50th place in the state ratings with Cameron and Sour Lake. The Antelopes have regained their position as NO. 1 ON THE SOUTH PLAINS. Denver City fell all the way from 52nd last week to 73rd this week by reason of their loss. The three district games this week are all rated as one-sided affairs, but that doesn't necessarily mean they will come out that way. While Post passed Tahoka this week in power ratings they still have not climbed back to their rating after the big Floydada victory. Post ranked 45th in Class AA and had a power rating of 103.4 after that one.

Difference between power ratios determines predicted margin.

Deputy Sheriff Gordon is employed as police chief

Special deputies for Halloween

Bill Gordon, Garza County deputy sheriff, accepted the position of chief of police at a special meeting of the city council yesterday afternoon.

Gordon will replace Leldon P. Miller, whose resignation as chief of police was accepted by the city council at a special meeting last Friday.

Miller asked in his letter of resignation that it become effective Nov. 1. Gordon told the council yesterday that he wanted to give Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn ample notice of his resignation as deputy sheriff, but that he could take the city position as soon as he is released from his present position by the sheriff's department.

Gordon came here from Brownfield about two years ago to accept the deputy sheriff job. Miller has been chief of police for a little over two years—since mid-October of 1964.

GORDON WAS HIRED by the council at a salary of $500 a month, the same that is being paid Miller. Mayor Harold Lucas said the new chief of police will be "in complete charge of the police department," with his duties to include the "hiring and firing" of other members of the department, with those hired being subject to approval by the city council.

"We've hired Bill (Gordon) to completely 'revamp' the police department," Mayor Lucas said. At a special council meeting Friday morning, the council voted to again hire five special deputies to guard against Halloween vandalism, and adopted a resolution opposing Amendment No. 1 on the Nov. 8 general election ballot.

THE SPECIAL DEPUTIES will be paid $5 each on a "standby" basis for Saturday night and $10 for Monday night, the council decided. If it becomes necessary to call them for duty Saturday night, they will be paid $10 for that night, too.

Special deputies were used for the first time last year and it is estimated that they saved the city approximately $1,000, which was the cost estimate for property damage and firemen's pay the previous Halloween.

Amendment No. 1, which the council went on record as opposing, would, if passed, alter the Texas Constitution to permit land designated by the owner for agricultural use to be assessed for all tax purposes on consideration of only those factors relative to such use.

A NUMBER of objections and potential ill effects of the amendment were raised, however, by the city council. The resolution passed yesterday stated that the proposed amendment:

(1) Would result in a boom in land speculation by holding so-called agricultural land out of development at low tax value;

(2) Would increase the cost of utility service as a result of the extra cost of providing service to undeveloped areas beyond the undeveloped agricultural land;

(3) Would cause an increase in litigation as a result of vague definitions and provisions of the amendment;

(4) Would create confusion in planning for orderly municipal development;

(5) Would increase probability of higher tax rates by holding the agricultural land at artificially depressed value.

The council's resolution concluded that Amendment No. 1 represented unsound tax policy detrimental to cities and other political subdivisions of the state.

AT THE SPECIAL meeting last Friday at which they accepted the resignation of Police Chief Miller, the council also voted to sell five water well sites on the former (See Police Chief, page 13)

Triple producer completed here

George R. Brown's City of Post, Unit 39, Well No. 1 has been completed as a triple producer and will be given potential tests next week, E. R. (Buster) Moreland announced today.

Drilled on vacant lots on the corner of West 12th street and Avenue Q, the No. 1 will produce from the San Andres D zone and from the S21 and S25 zones of the Gorieta.

Moreland said that no oil was found in two other zones of the San Andres, so Brown will have no need to drill the No. 2 well on the unit for which application had been sought.

The J. E. Lynn No. 2G, located in the 400 block on Mohawk, was drilling at 3,113 feet Tuesday morning and will core only about 100 feet of the San Andres E zone and the bottom zone of the Gorieta, Moreland said.

Moreland said that the Brown interests are now working on securing 118 pooling agreements here to permit more utilized drilling and that it probably will depend upon which units are signed up first which way future drilling will go.

"We know the new pay zones are playing out to the east," Moreland explained. "We probably will make up our minds where to drill next by the response we get to the as yet untested agreements we have prepared."

No 'killing frost' as yet, word from agent

The Post area hasn't received a "killing frost" as yet, County Agent Syd Conner reported this week.

Heavy frost has been reported on the plains north of Garza County, but the county agent said the cold nights have only nipped Garza County cotton in spots so far, stopping the top growth, but not the stalk growth.

George (Scotty) Samson reports that his friends in Lubbock have had all their chrysanthemums killed by frost, but that his are doing well here.

Harold Massey opens Delta Tire of Post

Harold W. Massey of Lubbock, former Post resident, this week opened the Delta Tire Store of Post at 114 West Main, in the garage building formerly occupied by King's Auto Electric.

Massey left Post in 1955 and moved to Lubbock where he has been operating a Gulf Station. He plans to operate the store here and move back to this community in the future.

His Grand Opening Tire Sale appears on page 8 of today's Dispatch.

USED CLOTHING NEEDED

Post's clothing distribution center for needy adults and children is badly in need of winter clothing, according to R. G. (Wilke) Wilkerson. "We have calls every day for clothing and shoes the less fortunate citizens of the community are badly in need of," Wilkerson said. Anyone with warm, usable clothing they'd like to donate is asked to take it to Wilke's Supplies, 212 East Main, or telephone 2500 for pickup.

EX-STUDENT QUEEN, FOOTBALL SWEETHEART CROWNED

HUNDREDS at Southland's homecoming

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE

SOUTHLAND — Southland's annual school homecoming was held Friday, with highlights including a reunion of ex-students, crowning of an ex-student queen and a football sweetheart and a conference football game between Southland and Dawson, which the latter won, 20-4.

The ex-students began their reunion with a dinner that was catered by Underwood's of Lubbock, with approximately 100 persons served dinner and a number of others attending the meeting later.

Following the dinner, the invocation was given by Sam Ellis, Harley Martin, president of the ex-students, recognized several former Southland teachers that were present — Mrs. I. J. Duff, Otis Neil and Sam Ellis. Several persons that graduated in 1935 were present and recognized.

Mrs. Helen Barton Thomas was named as ex-student queen after she was presented along with the other queen candidates, Mrs. Kelly Davies Sparkman and Miss Brenda Dabbs. The new queen was presented a corsage of carnations and a gold engraved charm. A tiara of rhinestones was placed on Mrs. Thomas' head by last year's queen, Mrs. Emma Lou Bassinger Taylor.

Burford Duff of Slaton, the guest speaker, was introduced by Harley Martin, Duff and his parents, Mrs. I. J. Duff and the late Mrs. Duff, are former residents of Southland, where I. J. Duff was superintendent of schools and Mrs.

Duff was a teacher. Burford's talk was filled with reminiscence as well as with good advice for parents of today.

During the business meeting, it was voted that the ex-students will gather for another dinner and business meeting in three years—1969—but that each year at Southland's homecoming coffee and doughnuts will be served in the gym after the football game for all ex-students. Four women were nominated as queen candidates for 1969. They are Mrs. Gloss Oala Davies, Mrs. Audine Whitel Johnson, Miss Martha Sue Oats and Mrs. Mary Jane Hampton Jackson.

The Southland Eagles' chances for a victory in the homecoming game with Dawson were hurt by the absence of Jackie Abshire, who was out with a sprained ankle. The highlight of the game was Dennis McGehee's 60-yard run in the fourth quarter for the Eagles' only touchdown. This week, Southland plays Klondike at Klondike.

Gloria Cisneros was crowned as football sweetheart between halves at the football game. She was presented a bouquet of red roses by the football captains while the pep squad sang "There She Is." Later, Gloria circled the football field in a convertible driven by Mike Mason.

The evening of activities was topped off with coffee and doughnuts in the gym, where many students and ex-students gathered for more talk and fellowship.

LOYAL ANTELOPE FAN

Jim Hundley displays the plaque he was presented Friday night as one of the Antelope Booster Club's most devoted and loyal members. Hundley has been a player, coach, sponsor and fan on the local scene for nearly 50 years.

Plaque is awarded to loyal supporter

Jim Hundley, who coached and played on Post High School's first basketball team and who has followed the fortunes of high school athletic teams ever since, was presented a tribute plaque by the Antelope Booster Club at Friday night's Post-Denver City football game.

The plaque was awarded in a surprise presentation between halves of the football game, with the booster club's executive committee of Pat N. Walker, Donald Windham, Elwood Wright, Frank Blanton and Lonnie Duke taking part.

"The Antelope Booster Club tonight is paying tribute to one of its most devoted and loyal members," Dave Sanford announced over the public address system.

Hundley moved to Post in 1915 and graduated from high school here in 1918. The Post High School basketball team with Hundley as player and coach defeated Canyon College (now West Texas State University) and on Nov. 10, 1917, beat Sour, 90 to 5, with Hundley scoring 52 points.

The Post team won district meets in Lubbock in 1917 and 1918 against competition from towns of all sizes.

When Hundley graduated in 1918, basketball was well established at Post High School, and Hundley turned his talents to organizing the school's first football team. Within two years, the school board voted to create Post's first Antelope football team, and Hundley raised money for equipment, and for many years he furnished the transportation for the school's football, basketball and baseball teams.

Later, he served on the school board and it was during that time that the first gymnasium was built, which is now the junior high gym. At the time, it was the finest in West Texas and the site of practically all basketball tournaments in this area.

"For fifty years," Sanford said, "rarely ever has a Post athletic team taken the field or floor that Jim Hundley was not present as player, coach, sponsor or devoted fan. Like the man at a Fort Worth coaching school said to one of Post's coaches, 'If you need anything for a Post athletic team, just call Jim Hundley.'"

USED CLOTHING NEEDED

Post's clothing distribution center for needy adults and children is badly in need of winter clothing, according to R. G. (Wilke) Wilkerson. "We have calls every day for clothing and shoes the less fortunate citizens of the community are badly in need of," Wilkerson said. Anyone with warm, usable clothing they'd like to donate is asked to take it to Wilke's Supplies, 212 East Main, or telephone 2500 for pickup.

EX-STUDENT QUEEN, FOOTBALL SWEETHEART CROWNED

HUNDREDS at Southland's homecoming

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE

SOUTHLAND — Southland's annual school homecoming was held Friday, with highlights including a reunion of ex-students, crowning of an ex-student queen and a football sweetheart and a conference football game between Southland and Dawson, which the latter won, 20-4.

Reorganization of Chest board set

The board of directors of the Garza County Community Chest will be reorganized for the 1967 campaign next Tuesday afternoon with ten local organizations asked to name a director each to the board.

The ten club representatives then will be asked to elect five at-large directors to represent the rest of the community in helping to plan annual fall financial campaign.

DECISION TO reorganize the Chest board came Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of 1966 directors of the First National Bank to make plans for the 1967 drive.

Organizations whose presidents were contacted yesterday to name Chest directors were the Post Rotary Club, Post Lions Club, Post Jaycees, Woman's Culture Club, Amity Study Club, Classroom Teachers Association, Ministerial Alliance, Garza Young Farmers, the Post Music Club, and the Garza Young Homemakers.

The meeting is scheduled for 4 p.m. Tuesday in the Community Room. Retiring 1966 directors, most of whom volunteered for chest assignments, will meet with the new board to help it get organized.

The new directors will elect Chest officers for the year—including a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and Chest drive chairman.

THE NEW BOARD will appoint a budget committee to receive the budget requests of participating organizations and decide upon budget recommendations which will determine the needed goal for the Chest campaign, which it is hoped can be completed before Thanksgiving.

Purpose of the reorganization of the Chest board is to set up a representative board with broad community involvement which can be rotated through staggered appointment terms by the clubs with new directors coming on year after year.

The group set 4 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 8, as the time for the Chest's 1967 budget committee meeting. Chest participating organizations are being notified by letter to submit their budget requests to the new budget committee at that time.

Normally two weeks notice of such budget hearings is required. The date was set this week to get the budget hearing on the November schedule just as quickly as possible.

RETIRING CHEST directors heard a report from Treasurer Vernon Scott that the 1965 Chest budget was $10,650, but that only $8,850 was raised in cash or pledges and of this amount $475 in pledges have not been paid.

The group voted to pay participating organizations for this year only 85 per cent of their approved budget requests. The organization will be able to do this by partially using some carryover funds from previous drives.

Last year's campaign fell 16 to 17 per cent short of its goal, Scott pointed out.

Attending the Tuesday session were Dave Sanford, retiring Chest president, Pat Walker, Bryan J. Williams, J. B. Potts, Scott, Fred Myers, S. E. Camp and Jim Cornish.

TO BE AT CLINIC

Dr. J. A. Stirman of Plainview will be at Dr. C. H. Bausman's clinic here from 1 until 5 p.m. today, Oct. 28, to see any of Bausman's patients. Hospital Administrator W. C. Stivers is today.

As special nurses for him at his own expense, following the operation. Dr. Prather and Mrs. Judy Ropodendone pints of blood to him at the operation.

Dr. Bausman plans to return to practice here at the earliest possible date.

The local physician went into temporary retirement because of illness here Oct. 6, and announced in the Dispatch the following Thursday his temporary retirement for approximately one month because of illness.

He went to Dallas to receive medical treatments at Baylor Hospital prior to the operation. Yesterday, Dr. Bausman celebrated his birthday at the Plainview Medical Center.

1,400 invitations go out for Homecoming

Members of the Post Ex-Students Association will meet at the Reddy next Tuesday night to make plans for the annual homecoming here Friday, Nov. 4, Elwood Wright, exes' president, said today.

Wright said 1,400 postcard invitations have been mailed ex-students for the homecoming and that it is figured these 1,400 invitations will "cover" about 2,000 people. "And we hope they all come," Wright said.

The homecoming activities will open at 4:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 4, with a reception at the All-Star Corral, with the reception including a smorgasbord. "We'll have enough food out there for plenty to be left for the dance that follows the game," the exes' president said.

Tickets to the dance will cost $5 a couple, which will be the only cost of the homecoming affair to ex-students. The general public is also invited to the dance, where popular and western swing music will be played by Cliff and Jay and the Caprock Ramblers.

Also at the reception and prior to the Post-Slaton football game at 7:30, a business meeting of the ex-students association will be held.

Shackles rites conducted here

Funeral services for Ms. Hettie Ollie Shackles, 63, who died Friday morning at Twin Cedar Nursing Home, were held at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Hudman Funeral Home Chapel, with burial in Terrace Cemetery.

Mrs. Shackles, who was born in Independence, Mo., moved here two and a half years ago from Texarkana. She was a Methodist.

Surviving are a son, Jack M. Shackles of Lubbock; three sisters, Mrs. Thelma Walker of Riverside, Calif., Mrs. Clara White of Van Nuys, Calif., and Mrs. Minnie Burnett of Texarkana; a brother, Troy Tester of Sedalia, Mo., and two grandchildren.

The Rev. Clarence Stephens, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Spur, officiated at the funeral services.

Crump funeral is held at Sherman

Funeral services for Joe Dean Crump, 61, who died about noon today in a Sherman hospital following a heart attack, were conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Sherman Funeral Home chapel at Sherman, with graveside rites following at the Ridgeway Cemetery.

Mr. Crump had moved from Post Sherman just three days before death after having retired as an employee of Posters Mills. He lived in Post for seven years.

On March 2, 1905, in Banks, Georgia, he was married to Ollie Goode at McKinney on Oct. 14, 1936.

Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Billy Wayne Dickson Sherman; one son, Doyle Cole Crump of Houston; four sisters, Mrs. Millie Burk of Athens, Mrs. Beattie Lynch and Miss Mary Crump, both of Carnesville, and Miss Fannie Crump of Post.

Surviving are a son, Jack M. Shackles of Lubbock; three sisters, Mrs. Thelma Walker of Riverside, Calif., Mrs. Clara White of Van Nuys, Calif., and Mrs. Minnie Burnett of Texarkana; a brother, Troy Tester of Sedalia, Mo., and two grandchildren.

The Rev. Clarence Stephens, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Spur, officiated at the funeral services.

Piggly Wiggly cuts food prices

LUBBOCK — Piggly Wiggly stores this week announced they are discontinuing their Magic Lamp game immediately and "discontinuing all expensive promotions" to permit the firm to slash food prices.

J. S. Reinhart, executive vice president of the food chain, in a statement declared:

"We at Piggly Wiggly have always been aware of our obligation to our customers, and we'll be best or bust. For 13 years we have expanded our operation from one store to more than 200. Our growth and success have been based on the philosophy of efficient operation, the finest in meat and reproduce, nationally famous and popular local brands, all at the lowest possible price with a double your money back guarantee.

"We as employees are proud of the company and the customer merit we have earned in an honorable and truthful manner. We recognize the need to do everything possible to lower the cost of living. Piggly Wiggly is slashing prices. We are discontinuing all extra expensive promotions. Our Magic Lamp game is being discontinued immediately. Our suppliers have given us their full cooperation; therefore, we are cutting prices to the bone."

FATHER HOSPITALIZED

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pate and family returned home Sunday after spending a few days in Clifton where her father, J. R. Kiker, was hospitalized. He was dismissed to his home Saturday.

IF YOU THINK
It Is Time for A CHANGE
In the County Judge's Office
THEN WRITE-IN JOHN HOPKINS
at the General Election
Tuesday, Nov. 8

Eight years is a long time for one man to serve in the office of County Judge. When we have the same problems facing the county today as we had eight years ago—many of them worse—then eight years seems like too long a time.

If you are one of those voters who are ready for a change, then write-in JOHN HOPKINS for County Judge when you go to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 8.

It is true that Rome wasn't built in a day, but it is hard to believe that it took eight years. If elected County Judge by your write-in vote, I don't guarantee to solve all the county's problems overnight, but I pledge myself to set about trying to solve them the day I take office.

These problems I am talking about include, among others, the county's financial dilemma and the hospital situation. These are problems that NEED to be solved if Garza County is to make any kind of progress during the next year, four years or eight years.

Time isn't all that changes things. Your write-in vote for JOHN HOPKINS for COUNTY JUDGE can do it in the Nov. 8 General Election. Another reminder: When you write my name on the ballot, write it this way, "JOHN HOPKINS."

Mrs. W. L. Luttrell underwent eye surgery at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock. Her daughter, Mrs. Joel Hallway, is with her.

The Draw ladies are having a meeting on "evangelism" in the Noel Caswell home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker were among other family members attending a supper in honor of Ronnie McGrew in Lamesa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bailey Sr. have returned from their annual fishing and hunting trip and had about 35 luncheon guests in their home Sunday.

Our pastor at the Methodist Church will teach from the book, "Christian Being and Doing" beginning Sunday at 5 p. m. It's a commentary on James and First Peter. Come out and hear him.

Library Listening Post

By ROSEMARY CHAPMAN

If you notice some of our books in the library sporting pretty new red, black and green covers this week, it is all due to the Jayceettes. These women, under the direction of Mrs. Myrna Richardson, have done an excellent job of mending 15 of our books and plan to do more in the future.

Mrs. Richardson learned the fine art of book mending at McMurry College, and we are delighted to have an expert in our midst.

Many thanks to Myrna, Mrs. Norma Baumann, Mrs. Jane Bigott, Mrs. Anita Blanton, Mrs. Diana Moxley and Mrs. Jo Newman for taking on this time-consuming but worthy project.

My favorite title in the library is "The King Who Saved Himself From Being Saved." This little tale was written by John Ciardi, poetry editor of the Saturday Review, and, although it is classified in the "easy" section, it is a satiric poem which adults will enjoy as much as the younger set. The cast includes a Queen who pampers her cold with aspirin pie, a King who dozes all day, and a gentle Giant who spends his time lolling beside a brook and smelling the flowers.

Unfortunately for our peaceful Kingdom by the sea, a Hero arrives, making heroic noises and impressing all the stable boys. What happens next, of course, is for you to find out. (This is known in the trade as a not-too-subtle version of the come-on.)

"The Best of Best in Books," published by Nelson Doubleday, Inc., 1965, has been placed on our shelves in memory of "Shorty" Greenfield by Pauline and Ed Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wood of Midland have contributed a number of good books this week. Christine Morris has given us several fine biographies in the junior line, and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Odum have added some interesting mysteries to our collection.

We've also received a letter from Mrs. Merriweather Post, who has recently returned to her home in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Post said that she has been going through her books in Washington, and plans to send us "quite a list".

The Catalogue Committee is running out of things to do, and is

WTCC Special Task Force will study problems of small towns

ABILENE — C. L. Cooke, president of Community Public Service Company, Fort Worth, has been named today to head a West Texas Chamber of Commerce Special Task Force to study the problems of West Texas small towns, John Bon Shepperd of Odessa, president of the organization announced.

A "blue ribbon" panel of 25 West Texans, to be named shortly, will conduct an in-depth study and evaluation of the problems, resources and potentialities of towns under 12,000 population. Seventy-one towns in this category have lost population during the past 10 years.

"Too many people," Shepperd said, "are willing to write-off small towns but we cannot do this if we want West Texas to grow and prosper."

The study to be made will include exhaustive research, surveys, conferences in Austin and Washington and town hall type meetings and hearings in small towns of West Texas. The hearings will develop ways and means of utilizing existing assets and methods of accentuating the cultural, educational, recreational and industrial opportunities of the smaller towns.

The Special Task Force is a group for planned action and not an academic study, according to Shepperd. The group will seek to determine what the small town has and what it is possible for them to have; what assistance is needed, if any, from the State and Federal governments; what the metropolitan areas may do to assist small towns within their spheres of influence; growth patterns of small towns and the reasons for losses or gains; the development of criteria as to what an aggressive small town, with proper leadership, can expect in the way of industrial development, tourism, cultural development and retention of young people in their community. The study will also evaluate available Federal programs and services as well as those possible aids from the State agencies that will be helpful in attaining the goals set by the individual city.

In the formation of this important Task Force President Shepperd said "Small towns are our last citadels of graciousness and true hospitality... they have been and will continue, with help, to be an important element in West Texas' economy, characteristic of the demerit free to make choices and achieve

This publication will be distributed to leaders in small towns for guidance of their action programs and to enable them to utilize their assets. Shepperd expressed hope that this study will also serve as a mod-

7th, 8th grade to play Tahoka

Post's Junior High football teams, which lost a doubleheader at Frenship Tuesday, will close out their season next Tuesday in a pair of games at Tahoka.

In the Frenship games, Coach Bud Davis' 8th grade team lost, 46 to 8, and Coach Will Bigott's 7th graders dropped a 14-0 decision.

Post's only touchdown in the 8th grade game came on a 40-yard run by Jimmy McGuire, with quarterback Robert Pace adding the extra points. Earlier, Pace had blasted up the middle for 30 yards and a touchdown, but the play was called back and Post penalized 15 yards for clipping. McGuire's touchdown run came two plays later.

Coach Davis named as among his team's standouts Pace, McGuire, Robert Bullock, Mike Slatner, Dewayne Gray, Larry Hilberry, David Stelzer and Ricky Blacklock.

In the 7th grade game, Frenship scored on runs in the first and last quarters. "Except for the two touchdowns we gave up, we played a good defensive game." Coach Bigott said. Seventh grade standouts included David Woods, Danny Vargas, Danny Rose, Kim Owen, David Hart, Ricky Bush and Tommy Zachary.

Cripple children clinic Saturday

LUBBOCK — The fall session of Cripple Children's Clinic for South Plains children will be conducted Saturday, Oct. 29, from 1 to 5 p. m. at St. John's Methodist Church, 15th and College Avenue, Lubbock.

The clinic is free to cripple children of Lubbock and surrounding area through the cooperation of doctors and the sponsor, Fellowship Class of St. John's Church. Four orthopedic surgeons will be present to examine the children Saturday. City-county health nurses from several counties are to assist.

The clinic has been financed by contributions. Clinic personnel will arrange for braces and further care when necessary. Braces and appliances for 75 different patients and approximately 320 pairs of shoes have been donated.

More than 600 children have received free examinations since the first clinic in April, 1953. Children being taken for the first time to be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

SERMON TOPIC ANNOUNCED
First Presbyterian Church minister, the Rev. George Miller, announced that his Sunday 11 a. m. sermon topic will be "On How to Avoid Paying Your Rent."

Amendment 5 would set retirement plan

(Editor's Note: This is another in a series of analyses on the proposed amendments of the Texas Constitution to be voted on in the General Election Nov. 8.)

PROPOSITION 5 on the ballot would add a new subsection (c) to Section 62 of article XVI of our Constitution, giving the Legislature authority to provide a statewide system of retirement, disability and death benefits for all officers and employees of a county or of any other political subdivision in the state. The retirement system would include elective as well as appointive officers.

There is already a constitutional provision for Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Funds and employees of a county or of any other political subdivision in the state. The retirement system would include elective as well as appointive officers.

IT LIMITS the county's contribution to not more than 5 per cent of an employee's compensation and not more than $180 in one year for each employee. Subsection (b) also requires that all funds of a county system must be invested in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas or counties or cities of the state, or in bonds issued by any agency of the U. S. government if payment of principal and interest is guaranteed by the government.

There are also statutory provisions permitting pension funds in other political subdivisions such as Municipal or City employees, Firemen, Policemen and Navigation District employees. The language of the proposed amendment is very broad. Apparently, these could be merged into the proposed statewide system. It appears there might be a considerable overlapping of possible pension benefits and that in the case of county employees there might be a duplication of benefits.

Under the proposed statewide system, the governing body of a county, or political subdivision, would determine whether it would participate, without a vote of the people. The cost of the system would be determined by the Legislature but the county or political subdivision would pay all the cost. The amendment would specifically provide that the Legislature "shall never make an appropriation to pay the costs of this system."

THE LEGISLATURE would be free to establish the kind of system it deemed best, to decide the kind of investments which could be made with the funds contributed, the type of board which would administer the system, and the amount of contribution per employee.

The result of Proposition 5, if it should be adopted, would be that state officers and employees, judges and college and university employees would be members of separate and restricted systems, while officers and employees of counties, cities and the various other political subdivisions could have available to them a statewide system, virtually without constitutional restrictions.

Apparently the proposition would allow school districts to be eligible for the new statewide system, although such a shift would probably not be practical for many reasons. A school district would have to pay the cost of the program under the new system, while the state pays the cost under the present Teacher Retirement System.

HEMISFAIR PREVIEW—HemisFair president Marshall Steves (left) points out features of a HemisFair scale model to Nelson Jones, a director of Humble Oil & Refining Company. Mr. Jones announced that Humble will restore one of the historic buildings in the fair area. He said the building, which will be a place for fair-goers to relax, will also have a travel service, a movie theatre, and space for art and cultural exhibits. Domestic and foreign governments and major industries and services from throughout the world will be represented with exhibits at HemisFair's 92-acre downtown San Antonio site. The first major international exposition ever scheduled in the Southwestern United States, HemisFair will run from April 6 to October 6, 1968.

THERE IS also a broad statement that it is the further intention of the Legislature that officers and employees of counties and other political subdivisions "may be included in these systems regardless of whether" their county or political subdivision participates in the statewide system or in a county retirement system under Article XVI, Section 62 (b).

Such language might allow the Legislature to bring officers and employees under the statewide retirement system even though the governing body of their political subdivision had not chosen to participate. Or it might establish a constitutional right for an individual employee or officer to adopt the statewide plan and force the governing body to match his contribution.

The two possibilities mentioned are only by way of illustrating the language employed in vague and confusing so that the exact import of this proposed amendment, if adopted, will probably have to await an interpretation by the Legislature or the courts.

Numerous Halloween activities on schedule for Saturday night

It'll take a Halloween witch on broom stick — preferably a jet propelled one — to take in all the Saturday night activities in Post. It will be comparatively easy to attend the Woman's Culture Club's Halloween Games, Fun and Food in the Community Room at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Card games of all kinds and dominoes will be featured with refreshments being served. Tickets are on sale for $1. Homemade pies and cakes will be available.

Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority opens the evening activities at 6:30 on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Kay Pace, 306 West 11th St. A small charge will be made for youngsters wishing to go through the "spook house" located in a barn on the Pace property, having fortunes told, throwing darts and "fishing" in a pond. Adults and youngsters will participate in the "cake walk."

Coffee, popcorn, drinks and candy will be on sale throughout the evening. Mrs. Pace said it is hoped those attending the "Snow White" production will either bring their children by before or after. A tentative closing time of 10 p. m. has been set.

Post Home Dem Club elects new officers

The Post Home Demonstration Club met last week in the home of Mrs. W. A. Gray and elected new officers. They are as follows: President, Mrs. Marietta Pruitt; vice president and council delegate, Mrs. Hughes; alternate delegate, Mrs. Gray; secretary - treasurer, Mrs. Frances McAfee; reporter, Mrs. W. C. Kiker. Mrs. Gray gave a demonstration about buttonholes and Miss Lil Wilke gave a talk on the proper length of gloves for different occasions.

Cystic fibrosis meeting topic

Mu Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority met at the Community Room Monday night and heard a talk on "Cystic Fibrosis" by Maritta Reed, who also showed the film on the subject entitled "Mask of the Pied Piper."

The program was of particular interest as BSP contributes generously to cystic fibrosis research each year.

It was announced that the "thrill sale" will be held Saturday, Nov. 12. Members made "Post Antelopes No. 1" lapel pins for the Antelope Booster Club to sell before the Frenship - Post football game.

A Halloween Carnival will take place at the Graham Community Center Halloween night beginning at 7 o'clock. Everyone must come in appropriate costume or be fined at the door. Sandwiches, pie, coffee and punch will be sold. Proceeds from the food and activities will be equally divided among the community center, Graham Home Demonstration Club and the Graham 4-H Club.

Garza County couple to mark 60th anniversary of wedding

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Williams, who will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary Oct. 31, will have an open house at their home at 2 o'clock Sunday, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Williamses have farmed in the Close City community since Jan. 1, 1936, when they came here from Jones County where they had lived for 30 years following their marriage in 1906. Mr. Williams commented that he had retired once during the 30 years at Close City but had eventually returned to farming.

Mr. Williams and the former Miss Leila Tubbs were married in Abilene and ten children were born to this union. One son died at birth and another son, Joe, was killed in an automobile accident in 1963 at the age of 40.

Of the eight daughters, two live here in Post. They are Mrs. Ruth McAfee and Mrs. Billie Poole. The other daughters are: Mrs. Anna Meeks, New Braunfels; Mrs. Opal Rodden, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Agnes Templeton, Dublin, Tex.; Mrs. Evalena Shepherd, Houston; Mrs. Jimmie Odom, Bellflower, Calif.; Mrs. Wanda Brown, Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams have 29 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren. They anticipate most of their family home for the celebration.

Close City HD Club elects its officers

Mrs. Wade Terry was elected president of the Close City Home Demonstration Club when it met last week at the community center. Other officers are: Mrs. R. H. Spinton, vice president; Mrs. H. Paal, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. A. A. Ritchie, council delegate; Mrs. Clarence Gunn, alternate delegate.

All call was answered with the members naming their favorite of music. Mrs. Irvin Cross gave a demonstration on antique. The ten - minute demonstration was on salads and each member brought a salad.

The salads and party crackers and drinks were served during the refreshment hour to six members of one guest.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

—Then Proceed with Caution!

INVITATION EXTENDED

Mr. and Mrs. James Doggett cordially invite friends and relatives to attend the wedding of their daughter, Shirley Ruth, to Lawrence Young of Lubbock, Saturday, Oct. 29, in the Graham Chapel Methodist Church at 7 o'clock in the evening.

A reception will follow at the church.

Visiting with Coach Gregg and his wife, Sidney, after the Denver city-POST game Friday night I started thinking about what a coach's wife must go through during a season.

The wife sits in the stands where all must be fine as long as the team is winning but on those nights when things go wrong, I'm sure she has to listen to a lot of "things" she'd rather not hear. It's not that people mean to be unkind, but we're all guilty of saying a few words better left unsaid in the "heat of the game."

I asked Sidney if Glenn was hard to live with during the week before the game. The - week - before - the - game adds up to ten long weeks, so a wife must be as dedicated as her husband. Anyway, Sidney said "not really" — it's just that he's gone a lot (which she is used to) and even when he's home he's "not really".

She did comment that he was awfully sweet to her and their three sons, Gregg, Dale and Mike who are 8, 7 and 5, respectively, after his team wins a game. If he's "awfully sweet" after a normal game, I'm sure we can all envy them for the weekend they must have had after the Denver city - POST game.

Sidney said she was "so proud of all those boys" that she couldn't think of much else to say.

I'd say our team and town can be "so proud" of having Glenn and Sidney. They are two mighty fine people.

Sidney said they awoke their eldest son as soon as they got home to tell him the big news. I don't know if any other parents awoke their children but I do know a lot of long distance phone calls were made to colleges around the state. We waited up till 11:30 to reach our Miss C. the younger and she was so excited — mostly about how keen for her favorite ex - history teacher, Coach Gregg.

Other long distance calls went out to Carol Camo from her parents, the Shellee Camos; Nita Wilson from the C. R. Wilsons; Curtis Didway from the Charlie Didways; Lin Alvin Cox from the Robert Coxes; Dee Ann Walker from the Pat Walkers, and from Marcia and Steve Newby to their parents who were in Oklahoma City for the Oklahoma - Notre Dame game.

I laughed at Maxine Cummins last week when I was getting the story on the activities at Teen Town for after the game. She said just call it a "victory" dance. And she was so right — a "victory" dance it was.

The part I loved most about the game — other than winning — was while waiting for Mr. C and Editor Didway to come out of the dressing rooms, I watched the Denver city fans silently and slowly walk to their buses and cars. I didn't feel one bit of compassion for them, as I've been "there." I knew how long that road home was going to be and I stood there and relished the very thought.

It's sort of hard to feel compassionate about a team that has 10 coaches!

Ah, what a glorious game!

Safe Driver Award will be presented at Nov. 1 event

Do you know a safe driver worthy of a Garza County Safe Driver Award?

If so, nominate this person by sending his or her name and qualifications to "Garza County Safe Driver", Post.

Presentation of driving awards will be made at the Garza County Safety Program, Tuesday, Nov. 1, jointly sponsored by the Woman's Culture Club and Amity Study Club.

The program will be presented at the primary school auditorium at 8 p. m. A ten-cent fine will be the price of admission for those not having their driver's license with them.

The Rev. Curtis Lee, minister of the First Methodist Church, will give the invocation. Girl Scout Troop 377 will present the flag and lead in the Pledge of Allegiance. Jim Jackson will direct the singing of "America", accompanied by George Willson.

Culture Club President Mrs. James Minor will give the welcoming address and introduce county safety officials.

Supt. of Schools W. F. Shiver will introduce the guest speaker, Sgt. C. A. Dempsey of Lubbock, public relations man for the Texas State Highway Patrol. Sgt. Dempsey will also show a film in conjunction with his talk.

The guest speaker will make the presentations of Safe Driving Awards to a teen - ager and an adult. First Christian Church minister, Bernard S. Ramsey, will give the benediction following the retiring of the Colors by the Girl Scouts.

General arrangements are being made by Mrs. Lee Davis Jr., and Mrs. Bob Collier of the Amity Club and Mrs. C. R. Thaxton and Mrs. Virgil Bilbo of the Culture Club. Hospitality committee are Amity members, Mrs. Wayne Carpenter and Mrs. Dean Sterling, and Culture Club members Mrs. Lee Davis Sr., and Mrs. Mason Justice.

All Garza County residents interested in safety are cordially invited to attend.

CLASS OF 1956 REUNION

An informal reception will be held, Saturday, Nov. 5, for the members of the Post High School Class of 1956 at the Community Room between 3 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Husbands and or wives of class members are invited to attend also.
