

Police chief resigns job at city council's request

Elton Corley is given two weeks notice by mayor

The Post city council, in a three and a half hour session Tuesday night, voted to ask for the resignation of Police Chief Elton Corley, tentatively adopted a budget for the new fiscal year, adopted two fire ordinances and voted to reduce the city license fee on package stores in the more important items on a crowded agenda.

The councilmen voted unanimously to ask for Police Chief Corley's resignation after arriving at the conclusion that he "just isn't getting the job done."

Corley, who has been police chief here nearly two years, was told of the council's action by Mayor Harold Lucas Wednesday morning. He was given two weeks' notice and will continue as chief for those two weeks or until he gets ready to leave, whichever comes first, the mayor said.

IN OTHER ACTION concerning the police department, the council voted to raise the salary of Policeman Oscar Gray $24 a month from $300 to $325.

The new budget tentatively adopted by the city is $21,278.90 less than the current year's budget. The difference, explained Auditor Arthur (Bud) Davis, is that the city issued $30,000 in sewer system improvement warrants last year.

The new budget calls for total expenditures and balances of $472,758.53 as compared with the 1963-64 budget's $493,537.43. Total expenditures under the new budget will be $399,272.75 as compared with $343,126.90.

The budget is based on a $1.50 tax rate, the same as last year. THE CITY COUNCIL set 2 p. m. Monday, Sept. 21, as the date of a public hearing on the proposed new budget.

The council also heard and approved the audit report on 1963-64 business, and authorized the payment of the auditor's $950 fee for his work on the audit and budget.

One of the new ordinances adopted by the council amends the fire zone and creates secondary fire limits, and the other imposes a $250 fine for the crime of arson within the city's corporate limits. The fire zone ordinance was adopted in order for the city to hold its present insurance credit rating, following a visit by an inspector, who informed the mayor that the present fire zone limits are inadequate.

Adoption of the $250 arson fine ordinance also was necessary for the city to maintain its fire insurance credit rating, and calls for the posting of six signs in public buildings calling attention to the ordinance. That Post now has a key rate of 42 cents on fire insurance and that the city's fire rating credit is 25 per cent, which is the maximum for towns with volunteer fire departments.

The council also considered, but tabled until later, a proposed ordinance that would change the title of E. A. (Eddie) Warren from city superintendent to city manager.

"There is no such thing as the MAYOR LUCAS told the council office of city superintendent under Texas Municipal League Laws, and we need to change Ed's designation to city manager," Mayor Lucas told the council. The mayor said it is a change he has been working five months to bring about.

The change in title would not change Warren's present duties, it was explained. As city manager, he would be the administrative head of the city government under the supervision of the city council. "That's what he is now," the mayor said.

THE CHANGE in Warren's title had been requested in a letter from the Texas Municipal League, and some of the councilmen wanted to read the TML letter specifically setting forth what Warren's duties as city manager would be before acting on the proposed ordinance.

The council voted unanimously to reduce by one-half the $62.50 annual license fee on liquor stores after being asked by store owner Mike Mitchell that they reconsider their earlier action in which they voted against any reduction in the fee.

The county commissioners' court voted last month to reduce the fee by one-half — from $62.50 to $31.25.

At Mitchell's request the motion approved by the council also included that the new fee of $31.25 be made retroactive to Aug. 31, which is the date on which pack store license fees become due.

In the only other action Tuesday night, the council voted to set the salaries of the mayor and the city councilmen at the same rate as last year.

The council met Tuesday night instead of Monday because of the Labor Day holiday.

CEMETERY GATE MARKER

George "Scotty" Samson, who with Jimmy Napier built the Terrace Cemetery gate out of native stone, displays the historical marker that will be placed atop the gate at a formal dedication ceremony at 10 a. m. Wednesday, Sept. 16. The Garza County Historical Committee will be in charge of the dedication, to which the public is invited.

Garza county eligible for emergency FHA loans

According to telegram received from George Mahon, congressman from this district, Garza County has been designated as eligible for Emergency Loans from the Farmers Home Administration.

The need for emergency loans has been caused by the adverse weather conditions and the extremely hot and dry weather during the past months in this county.

The Secretary of Agriculture may designate an area where serious losses in agricultural production have occurred as a result of drought, floods, storms, or some other natural calamity, and there is a widespread need among the farmers of the area for credit to continue their normal farming operations, and such credit cannot be obtained through commercial banks, cooperative lending institutions, or other responsible sources.

When an emergency arises, the State director, acting on information obtained through and recommendations by local agricultural leaders, groups, and agencies, reports to the Farmers Home Administration Administrator in Washington. Several weeks ago, the local agricultural leaders, groups and agencies recommended that Garza County be designated as an Emergency Area.

Any established farmer or rancher in a designated area is eligible if he is a citizen of the United States, is unable to obtain from other lenders the credit required to continue his normal operations, has reasonable prospects for success with the assistance of a loan and possesses the legal capacity to contract for a loan.

Billy H. Stewart, Farmers Home Administration County Supervisor, states that application forms and full information concerning Emergency Loans may be obtained at the FHA sub-office in the county courthouse here on every Tuesday from 9:30 a. m. to noon, or at the FHA county office, located at 1656 Ave. J in Tahoka.

She was born Ellen Smith at Hope, Ark., and was married to Oscar Polk on Dec. 1, 1901, at Warham, Tex. Mr. Polk died Nov. 24, 1961.

The Rev. C. B. Hogue of Odessa, former pastor of the First Baptist Church here, officiated at the funeral, assisted by the Rev. Joe Vernon, pastor.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home, with grandsons serving as pallbearers.

Mrs. Polk is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Estelle Williams and Mrs. Daphne Howell, both of Post, and Mrs. Lucille Taylor of Morton; a sister, Mrs. M. C. Lindsey of Lamasa; 10 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

7 TIRES, 9 HITS—HOW MANY SHOTS?

Maybe it was a disgruntled dove hunter.

Whoever it was, used county road equipment for target practice east of Southland sometime Sunday.

Workmen Monday morning found that seven tires on the road equipment had been pierced by nine bullets. The seven tires had to be taken off and patched.

Absentees may now apply for ballots

County Clerk Carl Cederholm is accepting requests for absentee ballots for the Nov. 3 general elections.

Cederholm noted the state election code provides he may begin accepting requests 60 days before the date voters go to the polls.

Qualified voters may mail Cederholm requests for ballots if:

- (1) Sickness or physical disabilities will block them from going to polling places.
- (2) They are outside the county and do not expect to return before the election.

Lions set date of turkey shoot

Post Lions set a date for a turkey shoot and also dates for two practice shoots preceding it at their regular weekly dinner meeting Tuesday.

The turkey shoot will be held Saturday, Sept. 26, at the Lions Club gun range at the Post Stampede rodeo grounds. The first practice shoot will be held Sunday, Sept. 13, and the second on Saturday, Sept. 19.

Preston Poole, Garza County attorney-elect, showed a film on the nation's judicial system at Tuesday night's meeting. The program also included awards of 100 per cent membership pins to eight Lions.

Paul Foster and Johnny Conder were guests at the meeting.

ANTELOPE WORSHIP SERVICE IS SUNDAY

The fourth annual Antelope worship service will be held at 7 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 13, at the First Christian Church, Bernard S. Ramsey, minister, has announced.

The church will be host at the special service to the Post Antelope football squad, band, pep squad, cheerleaders, coaches and other faculty members, members of the Antelope Booster Club and their friends and families.

"Stripped to Win" will be the sermon subject at the Antelope service, to which the general public is invited.

The sermon subject at the 11 a. m. service will be "He smothered the Serpent!" The Lord's Supper will also be observed.

SIX CHEERLEADERS HEAD POST PEP SQUAD

Management course will start Sept. 28

A 10-hour course, "New Directions in Management," sponsored locally by the Retail Merchants Association, starts at 7:30 p. m. Monday, Sept. 28, in the Community Room here.

The course is conducted by the Distributive Education Department, Division of Extension, University of Texas. It will be taught by Mrs. Mary Frances Bowden, supervisory and management training specialist from the University.

The course will give business executives the opportunity to view their jobs as managers and explore new directions.

The purpose of the course is to establish what management consists of in its fullest sense and what knowledge it requires to be effective: (1) How to recognize violation of management principles and the effect on human relations;

(2) The organizing function of management — how to make and use an organization chart; (3) Carrying out the act of managing — techniques and pitfalls of planning, establishing objectives, coordination activity in directing the attainment of objectives; (4) The control activity in management — external and internal forces affecting the manager's job.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting the Retail Merchants Association office, telephone 3026.

R. P. Tomlinson rites held here

Last rites for R. P. Tomlinson, 75, of 213 South Ave. Q, who died at 4:30 p. m. Friday at Garza Memorial Hospital, were conducted at 2 p. m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Tomlinson, who had lived in Garza County for 45 years, had been ill for some time and had been in the hospital here for 17 days before his death.

He was born at Florence, Tex., and was married to Lela Miles at Tahoka on July 25, 1909. Mr. Tomlinson and his wife owned and operated a dairy here for a number of years. He had been a member of the Missionary Baptist Church since 1912.

Besides his wife, Mr. Tomlinson is survived by a son, Bland Tomlinson of Slaton; a sister, Mrs. C. C. Cook of Albuquerque, N. M.; two brothers, A. B. Tomlinson of Lampasas and Hugh Tomlinson of Santa Rosa, Calif.; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The Rev. Joe Vernon officiated at the funeral services, assisted by the Rev. Clarence Wood of Slaton.

Burial, under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home, was in Terrace Cemetery. Pallbearers were E. R. Moreland, Dee Hodges, William Robinson, M. H. Hutto, Curtis Davies and Charles Benson.

SPEAKS ON STEWARDSHIP

The Rev. Clarence Stephens, minister of the First Methodist Church, addressed Post Rotarians at their weekly luncheon in City Hall Tuesday on the subject of stewardship.

Clark will explain the state commission's program to attract industry into Texas and how it cooperates with all Texas communities seeking new industry.

JAYCEE REST STOP BUSY

Post Jaycees accommodated some 500 tourists over the Labor Day weekend at their rest stop on U. S. Hwy. 84, just north-west of town. Here Jaycees Doug Cunningham, Lonnie Gene Peel and Charlie Morris are serving one of the tourists who stopped for refreshments. The Jaycees said they wish to thank the merchants who donated refreshments and Oscar Garner for the use of his trailer.

Car license sales here total 3,489

Garza county has licensed 3,489 vehicles this year, with licenses of all types bringing in total gross fees of $78,098.57, according to figures at the office of Tax Assessor-Collector T. H. Tipton.

Statewide, according to the Texas Highway Department, 5,632,373 vehicles were licensed, a new record and a 5 per cent increase over last year.

Licenses of all types brought in total gross fees of $120,833,060. Of this amount, $64,180,000 goes to the state, $27,862,000 to Texas counties and $29,851,000 to county commis-

Weevil spraying to start Monday in Garza

Spraying is expected to start Monday in Garza County in the long-awaited boll weevil control program for the High Plains area.

County Agent Syd Conner said yesterday that only weevil infested cotton fields below the caprock are going to be sprayed in the program.

No infestations by weevils are reported in the county above the caprock.

The county agent was busy checking this week in an effort to get the spray line moved after discovering some of Garza's worst weevil infested fields were behind the original spray line.

Only a few farmers have failed to sign permits for the spraying. Conner said. He pointed out that their fields won't be sprayed without first having a signed permit to do so.

The county agent said plans call for spraying every 14 days until frost, which would be three or four times.

School enrollment increases to 1,368

Enrollment in the Post Public Schools had increased by 22—from 1,346 to 1,368—through Tuesday of this week, Supt. Barry B. Thompson said today.

The new enrollment figures by schools are: Elementary, 676; junior high, 374; and high school, 318.

The increases are 16 in the elementary school, three in the junior high school, and three in high school.

More students are enrolling every day, the superintendent said, and next week's figure is expected to be higher.

Garza County's gross fees

Garza County's gross fees of $78,098.57 goes as follows: County, $42,819.02; state, $12,957.45, and county commissions, $2,322.10.

Current vehicle registrations in Garza County break down this way: Passenger cars, 2,234; commercial vehicles, 585; farm trucks, 332; trailers, 311; farm trailers, 56; motorcycles, 33; truck tractors, 23; farm truck-tractor, 1; house trailers, 14.

Unique promotional partnership

Local leaders who spearhead this community's search for new industry will have the opportunity this afternoon to hear the highly successful state industrial promotion program explained to them by Harry Clark, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission.

Clark took hold of the industrial commission reins two years ago and has accomplished a tremendous amount on a limited state budget.

Proof of his success is that the state of Texas ranked second among the 50 states last year in attracting new industry within its borders.

Clark has developed a unique program to attract industry and that is what he will explain here this afternoon, as well as offer all the advice he can on problems facing the local community.

His program is really a partnership between each community of Texas and the state, via the state industrial commission. At the state level, the commission advertises the state's industrial potential—and have done such a good job of it, again on a limited budget—they have received the first place award for the best such state advertising campaigns. The inquiries the state industrial commission receives are put on a prospect list—or a "suspect list" as Clark calls it. The list is made available to each and every community which wants to follow up the inquiry and attempt to sell the advantages of that particular community or area.

We've heard Clark before and he is blunt about the fact that his organization has no time or patience with communities who don't make their own effort to attract industry.

"There are too many Texas towns or cities which work hard for new industry to spend time with those which don't," Clark has said before, and probably will say again this afternoon.

The state industrial commission will work closely with all communities who are organized and trying to find industry.

This will be Post's first full look at opportunities afforded down in Austin by the Texas Industrial Commission. It is a story well worth the hearing.—JC

We salute new T-Patch president

The Dispatch, in extending its congratulations to local businessman James L. Minor upon his election Saturday in San Antonio as president of the 36th Division Association, knows that it is joined by hundreds of other of James' friends in Post and throughout Garza County.

James ascended to the presidency of the famed World War II fighting division from his post as executive vice president.

The Post man has attended all reunions of the 36th Division, also known as the "T-Patch" organization, since his discharge from the outfit with the rank of lieutenant-colonel at the close of World War II.

James, incidentally, is one of the 36th Division's most decorated fighting men. His medals and other awards include just about every war decoration given by this nation and also by our allies.

James, like most other T-Patchers, returned to a life of community activity following the war. He has served Post as mayor, has served on the school board and has taken a prominent part in all civic activities, including the Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club, and also in the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars organization.

James L. Minor is living proof of the axiom that a good man can serve his nation and his community equally well in war and peace.—CD

Glad to see 'Antelope Boosters

The newly-organized Antelope Booster Club is one of the best things that has "happened" to the sports program at Post High School in several years.

Enthusiasm in the new organization is higher than it has been in any similar organization in 10 or 12 years. Much of this enthusiasm was visible last Friday when members began donning and wearing their new "Antelope Booster" hats.

The spirit has "been there" for the last three or four years. You could see it before every game when large numbers of fans would go out onto the gridiron and help welcome the Antelopes onto the field. But there was no organization behind it, at least no organization with membership open to everyone.

The 46-56 Club has done and is continuing to do a commendable job in boosting the Antelopes and has even tried to branch out to form a sort of auxiliary club that would welcome all Antelope boosters, regardless of whether they played football from '46 through '56, which is necessary for membership.

There is plenty of room for both organizations and plenty of work to be done when it comes to supporting the high school athletics program. We can see no danger of them getting in each other's way. In fact, many of the 46-56 Club members belong to the new Antelope Booster organization.—CD

New FHA project commendable

There is an affinity between youth and old age, and some of the happiest moments for residents of Post's two rest homes come when they receive visits from the town's young people.

During the last few years, youth groups here, including the Girl Scouts and some of the church organizations, have visited our senior citizens in the rest homes, either in groups or individually.

The newest organization to adopt such a project is the Future Homemakers of America chapter at Post High School, as reported on the school page in today's Post Dispatch. These girls and their sponsors are to be commended for adopting such a worthwhile project for the 1964-65 school year.

The residents of the rest homes will enjoy the visits as much as the FHA girls enjoy making them. When our younger generations work on such projects as taking sunshine into the day-to-day life of the older generation, we're never bothered by the question, "Where is the younger generation headed?"—CD

IT'S EASY to forget a holiday when you don't get the day off, and that is the reason I almost forgot why the flags were out in front of the business places when I came to work Monday morning, which was Labor Day. But, after a long weekend, if I'd taken Labor Day off, Tuesday and Wednesday would have been double labor days.

The Man up the Street says there are so many medical shows on TV these days, that a viewer needs a first-aid kit just to switch channels.

NOW THAT school has started, our cat Blackie spends much of his time watching the buses go by. He likes football, but won't go near the field on game nights because there is always at least one smart-aleck dog roaming around the gridiron.

The women, bless them, now lead in another field: There are 88,763 more women drivers than men drivers in Texas. The same source from which that item came also says that the latest Census Bureau head-count shows Texas has replaced Ohio as the fifth most populous state with 10,300,000.

SOME WISE MAN once said that 15 apes punching at random on typewriters would, in time, turn out all the literature that ever has been written. Well, here is what actually happened when they tried it. Read with care: it contains a little catch:

After they put the 15 apes in front of the typewriters there was a long wait. The animals sat and looked at the machines and at the paper on the rollers. There was a long pause, then each ape, one after the other, leaned forward and typed a single, different word.

The experimenter waited a long, long time. But after the one flurry of activity, nothing happened. Finally, seeing that the apes had no intention of continuing, he went towards the typewriters.

The first ape had typed, NOW; the second ape had typed IS; the third one, THE; the fourth, TIME; the fifth, FOR; the sixth ape, ALL; the seventh, GOOD; the eighth one, PARTIES; the ninth, TO; the 10th, COME; the 11th, TO; the 12th ape, THE; the 13th, AID; the 14th, OF; and the last ape had typed, MAN.

Prayer should never be taken out of the public schools. That's the only way some of us got through.

WE HAD COMPANY from Dallas at our house over the weekend, and they were real surprised when they learned that "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" was showing here at the Tower Theatre. The film was in Dallas over the weekend and our company thought they'd miss it the first time around by leaving Big D and sending the weekend in Post. So, they were pleasantly surprised to find that Johnny Hopkins also gets "first run" pictures at the theatre here, and they had a big time at the movie Friday night while nearly everybody else in Post was over at Floydada for the first football game.

I went out to the Post Jaycees' highway rest stop to take a picture Saturday afternoon and arrived just in time to miss what would have been a good one. A fellow drove off just as I got there, and Jaycee Charlie Morris told me the fellow was en route to the Philippines. He was one of many who availed themselves of the Jaycees' Labor Day weekend driver refreshments. Also manning the rest stop at the time were Jaycees Doug Cunningham and Lonnie Gene Peel.

SINCE I TRY to run jokes to please everybody, here is one that might reach some of those I haven't pleased yet:

A man took his twin grandsons to a store to buy each a suit. When they had tried on matching suits, the clerk asked if they would like to look in a mirror.

"That will not be necessary," their grandfather said. "They can look at each other."

A neighboring newspaper describes a small town as a place where babies are not born unexpectedly.

A Moment With God

DISCOVERING OUR NEEDS
When ye pray, say Hallowed be Thy name, Luke 11:2
The more Jesus Christ teaches us about the glory of our heavenly Father, the more clearly we see what our real needs are. When we first hear that God in heaven is our Father, who hears and answers prayer, our thoughts turn to all the temporal blessings we would like to enjoy. We are tempted to think of God as our "Aladdin's Lamp"—as one who will give us the things we have been unable to get for ourselves.

But as Jesus lifts our sights from the temporal to the eternal, from ourselves to our God, we see that things are not our basic need. As we behold His glory, the value of all things begins to pale. We see things for what they are: provisions along the way. The destination and the fulfillment of our heart's desire is the kingdom of God. Our basic need is to live as "children of light" and as "citizens of His kingdom." Our need and our desire is to fit ourselves for a life with God. We seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness above all else.

This is exactly what Jesus teaches us: "Pray... Hallowed be Thy name." Ask your Father to help you keep the first table of the Law. Pray for the grace to love and trust God above all things. Pray for a joyous faith that will sing His praises and worship Him in spirit and in truth.

Lord, help us love Thee wholly that Thy name may be truly hallowed among us. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

I woke up in the morning bright and ready to go. I didn't mention it to a soul. I was sure all the C's would notice right away. I always sat at the table enjoying a cigarette after everyone had left and they don't even notice that I'm not doing this. Quite frequently I would leave them all waiting in the car while I dashed back into the house for a forgotten package of my favorite brand, and I'm not doing this.

So I guess they can read all about it in this column and hope they are rather embarrassed about the whole thing.

I hope the makers of Camels will miss me. They have been a good loyal company to do business with and I've enjoyed every minute of the $5,460.00 I spent with them.

The first thing that popped into my mind when we had this little fire scare Monday at The Dispatch was: "Did I forget to put out a cigarette some place?" Here I hadn't smoked for four days but I find one keeps forgetting that. I really do keep thinking about when I'll light my next cigarette and then I remember! It's really sort of sad.

I think it must be like losing a good friend, the ache must surely pass in time. I've decided to stay out of zoos, however, as spectators might think I'd flipped if they saw me weeping over the camels.

TOPS chapter may be established in Post

Anyone is Post interested in "taking off pounds sensibly"? If so, call Mrs. Howard Kolb at 2631 and let her know.

Mrs. Kolb informed The Dispatch yesterday that she has been contacted by Mrs. C. W. Hollingsworth, president of one of the three Lubbock chapters of TOPS, and if enough interest is shown in Post, one of the Lubbock groups will help organize a chapter here.

Four generations represented at family gathering

Four generations, including 26 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren were present in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hays for a day of visiting and dinner in honor of the Hays' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Hays, and Marilyn of Anaheim, Calif.

The James Hays family arrived last Thursday for a five-day visit in Post and the Sunday gathering at which 11 of the 12 sons and daughters of the Jim Hays' were present.

Those enjoying the family get-together were Mr. and Mrs. James Hays and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hays and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hays and children, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilmore and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Hays and children of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hays and children, Pam Probst, Jerry Hays, Donnie Hays and Herb Hays of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Anthony and son, and Mrs. Eddie Peoples and sons.

Visitors during the day were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shedd, Mr. Clyde Knowles, Joan and Johnny Minor, and Argan Robinson and Barbara Hunter of Odessa.

Richard Williams wed in Lubbock

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gillipie Mellard of Lubbock are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mary Lane, to Richard Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Williams of Post.

The wedding took place Saturday, Sept. 5, at St. John's Methodist Church in Lubbock.

The couple are at home at the Monclair Apts., in Lubbock. Mr. Williams, who has served five years with the Navy, is stationed in Lubbock. Mrs. Williams attended a business college in Lubbock.

Mrs. Wade Terry is club hostess

Mrs. Wade Terry was hostess at the first fall meeting of the Close City Home Demonstration Club when it met in her home recently.

Mrs. Lola Peel reported on the profit made by the club at the horse show and told of sending a gift to a member who has been ill.

Miss Juanette Williams, county agent, spoke on stain-spot removers and washing products on the market today. She passed out literature on the topic at the close of the program.

Cookies and punch were served to a guest, Mrs. W. V. Taylor of Corpus Christi, and Mrs. M. M. Moezelle Bartlett, Alta Heiskell, Wanda Morris, Lola Peel, Inez Ritchie, Cleo Sappington and Thelma Thomas.

Garza Young Farmers, Homemakers attend Area II meeting at Midland

The Fluvanna chapter of Young Farmers was named the outstanding new chapter in Area 2 Saturday in Midland at the combined Area 2 convention of the Young Farmers and Young Homemakers.

Mrs. Bobby Cowdrey of Post was elected area reporter-historian for the Young Homemakers at their annual election.

A group of 14 Garza Countians attended the convention. They were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Delwin Fluit, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cowdrey and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis.

The Garza delegation expressed its thanks to Postex Mills for donating sheets to be used as convention door prizes.

Delton Gregg of Brownfield was named the area's outstanding young farmer and the Terry County chapter of Young Farmers was named the outstanding area chapter. The Wall Young Homemakers club was named the area's outstanding homemakers club.

Some 250 Young Farmers and a portrait of Frank Runkles, camp ranger at Camp Post. He is pictured in the ceremonial costume of the Sioux Indians. The Sioux gave him the name "Mato Nomp" meaning "Little Bear Claw". The necklace of bear claws is indicative of his name.

Mrs. Robinson has studied under Dr. Emilio Cabellero, head of the art department at West Texas State University; palette knife from Mrs. Octavia Thompson of Lubbock; water color from Mrs. Juanita Pollard, head of the art department at Lubbock Christian College; oils from Mrs. Connie Martin, Texas Tech and private studio teacher, and special instruction in childrens courses from Mrs. Caroline Harkpe of Lubbock.

The artist has exhibited paintings at the Algerita Hotel, Community Room, Motorola TV Show, Panhandle South Plains Fair, Lubbock Methodist Hospital and at Crosbyton.

Mrs. Robinson taught creative art to children last year displaying the work at a Mother's Day exhibit. Through the summer she gave lessons in oil and is now teaching children and adult classes in original drawings in various medias and techniques.

Mrs. Robinson lives with her husband, William, and her four children at 801 S. Ave. N.

Smith funeral is held in Post at 3 p. m. Saturday

Funeral services for Reynolds H. (Ray) Smith, 72, who died last Thursday afternoon at his home at 115 West 4th St., were conducted at 3 p. m. Saturday at the Post Church of Christ with Ernest McCoy, minister, officiating.

Mr. Smith, who was a retired painter and carpenter-contractor, had been in ill health for some time.

He was born in Louisiana, Mo., and was married to Miss Nona Turner on Dec. 30, 1937, at Aspermont. They moved to Post in 1940 from San Antonio.

Mr. Smith had been a member of the Church of Christ for 63 years. He was a World War I veteran.

Surviving him is his wife.

The Rev. Clayton Pennington, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, assisted the officiating minister at the funeral services.

Interment was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Billy Greene, Roy Ethridge, Howard Ferguson, Bobby Gordon, Ronnie Ticer and Johnny Mickey.

Honorary pallbearers were: Garland Davies, Paul Duren, Jack Kennedy, Arnold Parrish, Robert Cox, Tom Bouchier, Vancil Bowen, J. B. Potts, Charles Benson, Carl Cederholm.

Also Lefty Davies, Billy Hill, Ike Brown, Ercell Franklin, T. J. Johnston, Orrian Clary, Leon Clary, Harold Britton, Wilf Scarborough, and Carleton Webb.

able to attend school Wednesday. DANNY MCWHIRT received a cut on his forehead last Friday at school when he was hit by a swing. He already had a cut on his foot so I would say this has been a bad week for Danny.

The Douglas McWhirt family attended the Post-Floydada football game and visited the Dale Dozier family.

Bruce Reed visited his grandparents, the Chris Cornetts, Friday night after making his first trip to the dentist to have a tooth pulled. Bruce said there is nothing to it. He is a first grade student here.

Mrs. Bud Schlehuber and Denise visited Mrs. Harry Lee Mason Saturday morning Sunday, the Schlehubers attended the wedding of Harold Wayne Mason and Barbara Davis at Abilene.

New Faces

They're newcomers. They moved into the neighborhood just last week, and this is their first Sunday in our church.
Very soon they'll be making friends, and joining in many worthwhile church activities. Mr. Jones may develop his talent for organization, or fund-raising, or youth leadership. His wife may find her place in one of the busy organizations for women, or discover that she loves to teach. The children will settle happily into Sunday School classes suited to their age group.

Above all, this young family will share in the secure feeling of Christian fellowship and spiritual well-being that comes from serving God and His Church. They will be better people, better neighbors and better citizens because of their decision to put God's work first. THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

By Lana Haynie
Evans, band director, made a good job in introducing the band last night when he called it "Black and Gold."
It looked as if their going to be quite simple, but it was quite surprising and...

During marching season the band will begin 8 o'clock rehearsals each Wednesday and Thursday mornings.
The 1964-65 officers were elected in May. They are: Lewis Herron, president; Rickey Welch, vice president; and Pamela Stewart, secretary-treasurer.
In front of the band will be: Lana Haynie, drum major, and major-ettes Pamela Stewart, senior, and Marilyn Jones, Arleta Robinson and Pat Martin, all juniors.
The band hopes to keep its No. 1 rating in marching. They also hope to help give enough spirit to all townspeople so that Post will truly be represented at all games at home or away.

The Post (Texas) Dispatch Thursday, Sept. 10, 1964 Page 7

FOOTBALL FAN IN THAILAND
U. S. Navy Commissary Bangkok, Thailand Sept. 1, 1964
Dear Mr. Didway: I just finished reading this week's Dispatch and I thought I would drop you a line. I receive the Dispatch over here by air mail from my parents and I really appreciate the way it helps me keep up with things in Post. The mail service over here is very good with it usually arriving on Tuesday of the following week.
You have really got me excited over PHS's football prospects for this year, and I did want you to know that you have a reader half way around the world who will eagerly look forward to receiving another Dispatch each week with news of another PHS football victory.
By the time you receive this, we will have already played and beaten Floydada so will you pass on to everyone concerned my congratulations and best wishes for a very successful season. I only wish that I could be there to attend all of the games, but I know that you will do your usual outstanding job of reporting each one.
Thanks again, and keep up the good work.
Yours truly,
Lt. Don Davies

Pep Squad off to good start

The Pep Squad has put in a lot of hard work to start the 1964 football season off right. The decorations in the gym for Friday's pep rally was proof of this.
Among the decorations there are heads representing the teams with which the Antelopes have conference games. On one wall there is a cage where the heads of the Antelope "victims" will be put after each victory.
Friday night, the Pep Squad, in their black and gold uniforms, formed the victory line with the Antelope hoop at the head.
The Pep Squad is doing its part in supporting the Antelopes. All backers are invited to attend the pep rallies in the high school gym every Friday afternoon at 3:30.

The school days of PHS began Monday, Aug. 31, with a general assembly in the gym. The Rev. Joe Vernon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, addressed the student body, stressing that students should plan a goal in their education and in life. After the address, students were given instructions and dismissed to go to class.
—fpp—
Why was Dodson's full during the lunch hour the first day of school? Maybe it was because those beautiful Senior rings came in!
—fpp—
Coach and Mrs. Teal sponsored a Back-to-School Dance for 75 students and exes Saturday, Aug. 29. A band called the Rookies from Brownfield played favorite tunes. Everyone, including the out-of-town guests, seemed to enjoy this last summer dance.
—fpp—
What seems to have happened to that old Antelope spirit we had last year? Could it be school starting earlier or the hot weather?
PHS extends a hearty welcome to Linda Stephens, senior, from Hale Center; Jimmy Carpenter, Junior from Andrews; Gary Donelson, Junior from Eldorado; Dave Clark, Sophomore from Port Aransas; Arthur Enloe, Sophomore from Slaton; Rosie Walker, Sophomore from Paducah; Lew Bishop, Freshman from Brownwood; Danny Pennington, Freshman from Levelland, and Frank Taylor, Freshman from Atlanta, all of whom are new students.
—fpp—
Freshmen are really having trouble finding places, especially in the big gym.

The 1964-65 school year has added to its faculty Miss Shirley Moody, American History; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis, VA and speech; Miss Ana Martinez, Spanish and French; Mr. Bob Hutchins, science; Mr. Elvin Jones, Algebra I; and Mr. Dale Schmidt, Distributive Education.
—fpp—
Among all the other new things at PHS we have a new grading system. Letter grades and their numerical value will be as follows: A — 90-100; B — 80-89; C — 70-79; D — 62-69; F — 0-61.
—fpp—
There are six new courses being offered this year, those consisting of: Business Machines, Homemaking IV, Biology II, Distributive Education, Study Hall, and Journalism.

Old folks homes new FHA project

By Judy Ballentine
The Post High School Future Homemakers of America chapter has made plans this year to take an active part in helping with the old folks homes in Post.
The chapter plans to visit the patients at least twice weekly and help them in any way they can. Some of the things they plan to do are read to them, talk with them and keep them company or just sit with them.
They hope to set up special programs in which they will sing favorite old hymns to the patients.

'Get No. 1' is Suggested Slogan

The first game has come once again, we're back routine of things, and now preparing for our first home. The spirit was good last week it's got to be up against Ballinger, one of the best AA schools in the fact they are ranked number one, according to the San Angelo newspapers. It's going to be tough and it's going to take every one of us to come out on top. No one is more important than another. It'll take all of us working together to be band member, pep squad member, football player, cheerleader, or just plain old Antelope fan. We'll have to be behind the Antelopes all the way, but we can beat those Bearcats.
We shocked the sports world last season by upsetting Hamlin, rated number five, and I have enough confidence in the '64 Antelopes to propose the following:
Let tomorrow be "Get Number One Day". Wherever you go and whoever you meet, use that slogan. Instead of your "Hi", greet them with "Get Number One". Start your conversations with it. Even answer the roll with it! Imagine the tremendous amount of spirit we'd have by game time Friday night if every person did this. How could we lose, no matter what the score, if we all had this kind of spirit?
Let's be behind those fighting Antelopes all the way and never doubt until that final whistle blows Friday night that we can . . . "Get Number One".

Science and math members elect

Forty-nine members of the Science and Math Club met in an organizational meeting Sept. 2 with Mr. Norman Gee, club sponsor.
Officers for 1964-65 are: Charlie Brown, president; Tony Hutto, vice president; Dee Ann Walker, secretary - treasurer; Ronnie Pierce, reporter, and Elisabeth Tubbs, Student Council representative.
Dues of $1 each semester were set. Club dues are used to finance the Science Fair each year, as well as to purchase materials for club members' use.
Instructors in the math and science departments serve as sponsors of the organization. Sept. 21 was set as the date of the next regular meeting.

Seniors elect officers and advisors Friday

The first business on hand at the Senior class meeting held Friday afternoon was the election of class advisors for 1964-65. Those elected were Mr. Glynn Gregg, Mr. Charles Hopkins and Mr. N. R. King.
The second business was the election of the following officers:
Benny Owen, president; Danny Pierce, vice president; Neal Barnes, secretary - treasurer; Ronald Simpson, Student Council representative, and Susan Ramsey, chairman of ways and means committee.

To the Freshmen of Post High School

Your first days in high school have come and gone. No doubt some of you were anticipating coming to high school and at the same time you were probably a little scared of the mean seniors. Don't let initiation scare you, it's a lot more fun than you think. I've often wished to be a freshman again.

Before your class lie the four most eventful happy years of your life thus far. In these coming years you will have some wonderful experiences. You will enjoy being an Antelope and thrill to the excitement of ball games and other contests where PHS is represented. You will make friends and learn from different personalities. Your understanding of others and of yourself will be broadened. And toward the end of the coming four years, you will discover that you have become young men and young women. Then you will face your second and third great challenges: college, and a life on your own.
But remember high school brings some letdown at times, also. Most of you will, in the next four years, experience many disappointments. You will make new friends and leave some of your old gang. You will have some hard times making your grades. Some of you might come to the point of considering dropping out. But, remember, you are educated in more ways than one in high school. You are a part of a community of young people, the citizens of tomorrow. By sharing this mixture of good and bad times together, you will grow and mature together. You will learn to share, to be understanding to appreciate others and what they are doing for you. All this can make you a better and a happier student, and finally a more successful citizen. Best wishes for a fruitful four years in Post High School.
—A Senior

Grassland woman and daughter-in-law take 3,230-mile trip through South

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER

Lura, my daughter-in-law, and I left Post Aug. 20 for a trip to Tennessee to see our new granddaughter, Shelley Louise Hoover.

Our first stop was Rotan where we were luncheon guests of my granddaughter, Linda Schkade, and then we drove 317 miles via Fort Worth and Dallas to Paris where we spent the night at a Holiday Inn. We left at 7 a. m. and drove through Broken Bow clear across the state of Arkansas. It rained, a slow steady rain, all day. We crossed the Mississippi River at Memphis, Tenn. The road between Clarksville and all the way across the corner of Oklahoma was a thing of beauty and joy forever.

All the way to Little Rock we drove along the rice fields and saw the rice elevators. We crossed the top of Mississippi having driven 532 miles that day and stayed at the Holiday Inn at Florence, Ala. We left at 7 a. m. and drove thru Athens. A stop at an antique shop proved interesting before going on to Huntsville, Ala., and Chattanooga. We arrived at our destination about 12:30 Saturday after driving 1,200 miles to see Joe and Pat Hoover and the new baby.

Tuesday we went to see the place where the battle of Missionary Ridge was fought. It is now a beautiful residential area overlooking Chattanooga. We drove through Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., to see the Chickamauga Battlefield, which has been made into a state park. The battlefield has been reconstructed and most everything is in the same position it was in 1863 when the battle was fought. The same farm home, occupied at that time by the Brotherton family, made of heavy logs and a cooking fireplace, still stands.

Thursday, Lura, Joe and I drove to the top of Lookout Mountain. On a clear day you can see seven states, however, it was so hazy that morning, one could hardly see Chattanooga. While in the mountains we drive by "Castle in the Clouds", a former resort hotel, now a Presbyterian Seminary School. What an inspiration the boys must get from the magnificent view of the country side.

We visited the First Methodist Church in Chattanooga where my grandson and family are members. This church was built in 1865 and is a beautiful stone building with a high steeple. A portion of the church was built in 1878. We left Chattanooga for Johnson City at 9 a. m. Friday. We drove through Cleveland, Tenn., which is the home church of a faith healer who is quite well-known. We passed through Coosa and drove along the lake in a valley by the Natchala River with the mountains on either side. Nature had already begun to paint the trees with color and the drive was gorgeous.

The river soon began to turn into a gorge with the water splashing, rushing and tumbling along. This is the gateway to the Smokies and I was breathless with wonder as we entered. The clouds were lying down in the valleys with the mountains peering through at the top. The scenery from Cherokee, N. C., to Gatlinburg was still beautiful with winding roads and a surprise at every turn. Gatlinburg is a large resort town filled with motels, restaurants and curio shops. We ate lunch here in an out-door restaurant and toured the candy kitchens of the Smokies. Traveling northeast about five miles out of our last stop we came upon a large bear. Tourists were all around taking pictures. We stopped naturally, being tourists ourselves, and took our picture. Driving on to Cosby, we were surprised by the picnickers on both sides of the road spreading their lunches and looking happy.

We arrived in Johnson City about 6:30 p. m. for a visit with my grandson, Bob Hoover. Saturday morning we left Johnson City and drove through upper East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia. We stopped at Rocky Mount, the original US Territorial Capitol, 1790-1792. It has been restored. From here we drove onto the beautiful rolling hills of Virginia with farm lands at the bottom and trees on top. Each farmer has a tobacco crop and a corn crop. They looked like garden patches to me. The tobacco crop was in various stages as we drove along. East Tennessee is noted for its fine Burley. We arrived at Bristol, Va., and drove through another beautiful valley.

Driving on to Kingsport, Tenn., we saw the beginning of the TVA system of dams. The lakes made by the various dams are like mirrors with the trees reflected in them—a picture beyond words. We attended the Methodist Church in Kingsport, had lunch at the Eastman Chemical Plant where my grandson, Bob, works and left in rain for Chattanooga.

We started back to good ole Texas Monday at 7 a. m. driving through Arkansas to cross the Mississippi River on a two-mile long bridge and spending the night at a Holiday Inn at Eldorado, Ark. Left at 7 a. m. Tuesday morning comine via Shreveport, La., Marshall, Louisiana, Gladewater, Willis Point and Terrell.

We arrived at my home at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday having driven 605 miles. On our trip we drove a total of 3,230 miles and had a marvelous vacation.

VFW will sponsor 'lite-a-bike' program
The Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor a "lite-a-bike" program in the Post elementary school at 1:30 p. m. Monday, Sept. 21, it was announced today.

The safety program will show young bike riders how to install reflector tape on their bikes for night riding and will stress the need for bike safety.

whole drop cord from the ceiling was aflame. Shop Foreman Corky Ammons, Walter Dwyer and Abel Camacho had our fire extinguishers handy, but we didn't want to douse the Intertype machine because that would require a lot of cleaning. It got so smokey, the fire department was called just to be sure the fire didn't spread to wiring above the ceiling. Fortunately, it didn't. Our volunteer firemen were prompt and efficient. The air conditioner blew the smoke all out the front door and things were back to normal in just about 20 minutes.

The David Newbys, Post's only yachting family at present, enjoyed their first regatta over the Labor Day weekend at Lake Concho, near San Angelo. They sailed their 18-foot Y-Flyer, the Witchcraft, in five races over the three-day period with various members of the family taking turns "crewing" for Skipper David. The Witchcraft turned over during one of the races but David, Ruth Ann, and son, Steve, who were aboard succeeded in righting it themselves and finishing the race. About 40 sailboats participated in the four classes of the regatta.

Karen Hundley and Pat Hogan, local teen-agers, tied for runner-up in the national "Win 75 Beatele Sweaters" contest and each won five Beatele sweatshirts as a prize. The contest was to see how many words could be made out of the letters in Beatele. Karen and Pat worked on the project for six weeks and each came up with 246. The Beatele sweatshirts arrived Tuesday—just in time for them to attend the Tower's Beatele movie in their new prized possessions.

Minor is elected T-Patch president

James L. Minor, manager of Hanson & Co., was elected president of the 36th Division Association Saturday at the annual convention in San Antonio.

Minor was elevated to the presidency of the famed T-Patch organization from his post as executive vice president. Minor served with the 36th Division in World War II and was discharged with the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He is a former mayor of Post, a past president of the Chamber of Commerce here and a former school board member. Mr. and Mrs. Minor returned to Post Monday night from the convention.

TB X-ray unit to Post Oct. 20

The Veterans of Foreign Wars post here will sponsor a visit of the mobile TB laboratory to Post for free chest x-rays Oct. 20, it was announced today.

Services of the mobile lab will be available to school children during the morning and to all interested adults that afternoon.

Two enumerators needed for census

Applications for two 1964 Census of Agriculture enumerators in Garza County are being accepted by N. C. Outlaw.

The agricultural census, to be conducted by the U. S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Census, will start in November. Requirements for census enumerators are that they be under 35 years of age and live on a farm. Outlaw will turn in the names of applicants here to the district census supervisor with his recommendations. There will be nine supervisors in this congressional district. The enumerators will be trained through home study assignments. Their selections are to be made in October.

School administrators in Austin on business

School Supt. Barry B. Thompson and Asst. Supt. William F. Shiver left at noon Wednesday for Austin to meet with the Texas Education Agency.

Shiver is to confer with the TEA on the National Defense Foundation education program, in which the Post schools are participating. Thompson will be seeking tentative approval by the TEA of the new Vocational Education program in the local schools.

The Post school men will return this Friday.

Field Day is set for next Tuesday

The latest developments in agricultural research will be shown and discussed Tuesday, Sept. 15, at the annual field day at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, seven and one-half miles north of Lubbock on U. S. Hwy. 87. The field day, which will be from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m., is being held by the experiment station in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Field day highlights will include weed control, cotton diseases, sub-irrigation, and broadcast cotton. A number of Garza countians plan to attend the field day, according to County Agent Syd Conner.

WASHINGTON TRIP

Mrs. W. C. Kiker returned home Sunday from Chehalis, Wash., where she spent three weeks helping to care for her sister, Mrs. Glen Booth, who suffered a severe stroke. While there, Mrs. Kiker's brother-in-law took her on a trip to Mt. Ranier and they ate lunch at Paradise Inn, about half way up the snow-covered peak.

Rotarians to host entire school faculty

Post Rotarians will host the faculty of the Post schools, their brothers or husbands, and Rotary Anns in their annual "get together party" Tuesday evening, Sept. 22, at Antelope Stadium.

Complete arrangements for the event are now being worked out.

KERRVILLE VISIT

Sunday visitors in the Post were Mr. and Mrs. Add Moore, brother-in-law and wife, Mrs. Rhode Moore, daughter, and children.

The club approved the Tuesday luncheon, subject necessary change due to events on the school calendar.

"REMEMBER THE ALAMO"

-- the cry that fanned Texas' defeat to victory!

On March 1, 1836, thirty men from Gonzales broke through the lines of Mexican Army Commander Santa Anna to increase the Alamo's defenses to 187. This little band of heroes held the Alamo against overwhelming odds for five more days in one of the most heroic struggles to be found in the annals of man.

On March 6 Santa Anna with over 4,000 troops stormed the Alamo, and the last of the heroic band of Texans died fighting. Names like William Barret Travis, James Bowie, Davy Crockett and James B. Bonham became immortal.

The massacre at the Alamo inspired General Sam Houston's men at the battle of San Jacinto. Crying "Remember the Alamo!", the Texans sprang upon Santa Anna's soldiers and in a swift bloody fight won Texas its freedom.

SPEAK OUT FOR FREEDOM ... with U. S. Savings Bonds!

Through the years that have followed, other "Alamos" and "San Jacintos" have inspired Americans to lead and win the fight for Freedom—Pork Chop Hill, Iwo Jima, the Meuse-Argonne Forest.

Today, by purchasing a United States Savings Bond, you can also speak out for Freedom as clearly as the battle cries of old. Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in Freedom. Buy Bonds at your bank or on the payroll savings plan where you work.

Vet's Forum

Q. I have a service-connected disability which requires continuing treatment. I plan to travel abroad this summer. What arrangements shall I make regarding medication and treatment?

A. You should contact the VA Clinic now treating you to obtain appropriate supplies of prescribed medication to carry with you, and for suggestions about obtaining medical supplies and services abroad. In case of a medical emergency, you should contact the American Embassy or Consular Office.

Q. My husband died recently and the VA paid his insurance to his former wife even though they had been divorced 15 years ago. Why was this done?

A. The VA is required by law to pay the insurance to the person last designated as beneficiary by the insured veteran. Your husband either neglected to change his beneficiary after the divorce, or it was his wish that the insurance be paid to the former wife.

Q. Is it necessary to report compensation or pension from the VA as income if I am receiving VA pension?

A. The person receiving the compensation or pension directly from VA need not report it as income on his pension claim. However, if the money was paid by the VA to someone else and received by the pensioner by inheritance or gift from that person, then it would be reported as income for pension purposes in the same manner as other property received by gift or inheritance.

Revamped Antelope '11' to play Ballinger here Friday

Bearcats will be Post's home opener foe

The Antelopes will meet the Ballinger Bearcats under lights at Antelope Stadium Friday night, and there have been so many changes in the Post team that the coach is unable to tell the players a program.

Harold Teal's shake-ups in the starting line-ups, both offensively and defensively, were brought on partly by the dismal performance last night in losing to Floydada, and partly because of the season opener.

Coach Teal said Scott is looking good this week in his first try at the quarterback position, but that he is bound to have some trouble in making the sudden transition from halfback. "He's a good thrower and a real smart boy," the coach said.

Stars win in ball finale

City Softball League All-Stars defeated the league champion No. 1, by a score of 10-1 Thursday night at Babe Ruth Park.

Hays was the winning pitcher and Billy G. Jones the losing pitcher in the game between the champs and the All-Stars.

The Babe Ruth League season ends with the Babe Ruth League season's teams competing in the league.

The Ballinger team doesn't throw much, but is not weak in the passing department, according to the scouting report.

"Our boys are still unhappy over the Floydada game, but they're showing lots of spirit this week, and I am confident they'll play the type of ball Friday night they're capable of playing," Coach Teal said.

With new men at new positions, our offense can be expected to be razzed, but we're working hard to smooth it out by Friday night," the coach said.

Lopes lose services of Butch Cross

Floydada edges Post, 15-14, in weird tilt

Frustration due to their own mistakes, and tough breaks, not all of their own making, dealt the Post Antelopes a double blow Friday night at Floydada, where they wound up on the short end of a 15-14 score in an erratically-played season opener for both teams.

It was the closest Post has come to beating the Whirlwinds in eight consecutive Floydada victories dating back through 1957.

Each team made enough mistakes to lose two ball games.

The defeat was doubly costly to Coach Harold Teal's Antelopes, as they lost the services of Butch Cross, their only experienced quarterback, early in the third quarter and won't have him back for at least four more weeks.

The senior caller suffered a shoulder separation when he was tackled after pitching out behind his own goal line.

POST WAS AHEAD, 8-0, when Cross left the game, having scored three minutes deep in the second period on a 22-yard pass play from Cross to halfback Luis Ayala, who sidestepped a lone Whirlwind defender after taking the pass on the 5-yard line. Cross passed to end Ronald Simpson for the extra point.

Six plays after Cross had left the field, the Whirlwinds had knotted the score.

With the ball on the Post 3, substitute quarterback Rickey Welch, playing his first varsity game, short-punted out of bounds on the Post 15.

Four plays later, Floydada had a first down on the 3-yard line, and tailback Sammy Watts ran left end for a touchdown. Quarterback Keith Teague passed to end Waldo West for the extra points.

THE ANTELOPES had been put in the hole earlier in the quarter when Welch fumbled Teague's punt and the 'Winds recovered on the Post 20. The Antelopes held for downs on the 13, but Floydada came roaring back after the short punt sailed out on the 15.

With the Floydada linebackers swarming through and punting repeatedly on the 119-pound Welch, the Antelopes couldn't get an offense going, but they went ahead again on the last play of the third period when halfback Benny Owen intercepted a Teague pass on the Post 38 and streaked 62 yards for a touchdown. Halfway to the goal, he was sprung by two good downfield blocks and then neatly sidestepped the lone defender between him and the goal.

The snapback from center was fumbled on the try for extra point.

and Post held a 14-8 lead going into the final period.

THE WHIRLWINDS scored again without relinquishing the ball after wingback James McNeill returned Billy Mitchell's kickoff 14 yards to the Floydada 34.

The 'Winds drove to the Post 35 on short runs and one 6-yard pass, from where on fourth down Watts cracked through Post's left tackle position and raced 35 yards to pull Floydada up to a 14-14 tie.

One of the many bad breaks that went against the Antelopes, this one of their own making, came on the Whirlwinds' extra point try. McNeill's place-kick failed, but Post was offside, and on the next try he split the uprights, this time from a yard and a half closer in.

Post couldn't get rolling following the Floydada touchdown — in fact, they didn't make a single first down the second half — but they did come close to scoring again.

WITH THE BALL on the Floydada 49, Welch pitched out to halfback Teddy Scott, who spotted Simpson waiting for his throw and backing across the goal line, well behind the Floydada defender.

Scott's pass was to the mark, but Simpson, usually as glue-fingered an end as ever played for the Antelopes, couldn't hold the ball for what would have been a certain touchdown.

The desperate Antelopes, with time fast running out, immediately tried the same play again, but this time Floydada was prepared for it and swarmed Scott for a 15-yard loss.

With few things going right for either team, both missed a number of golden opportunities to score.

Leading, 8-0, late in the first half, Post had a first down on the Floydada 9, but end Phil Wylie recovered Cross' fumble on the 11 to halt the threat.

FOLLOWING the fumble recovery, the 'Winds couldn't go, and Post's Sammy Sims blocked Teague's punt, with the ball going to Post on the 8.

Owen lost four yards with a fumbled pitchout, two passes failed to connect, and Cross slipped and fell attempting a handoff to give Floydada the ball back on their 14.

Except for Floydada's grounding off-tackle smashes, which came when yards were needed, Post's defense performed well, with

Reservations for barbecue needed

Reservations for the barbecue to be held at the Caprock Golf Course clubhouse at 7 o'clock Saturday night, in connection with the second annual George Samson men's championship golf tournament, should be called to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mitchell by 7 p. m. tonight.

The number planning to attend is needed to place the order with the caterer. The barbecue will cost $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Those planning to attend should call 3104 or 3170 for reservations.

The golf tournament, Saturday and Sunday afternoons, will be a 36 hole handicap medal play affair with 18 holes being played each of the two afternoons with a shotgun start at 1 p. m. both Saturday and Sunday.

The tourney will determine the men's club champion and the men's handicap champion. Entry deadline is today. No entry fee is required with the entry list restricted to Garza County residents and Caprock golf course members.

many of the new players looking good, along with veteran defenders Owen, Jackie Braddock and Charlie Brown.

Sophomores Donnie Windham and Paul Walker were among the newcomers standing out on defense with Walker also taking a turn in the backfield on offense late in the game.

Boosters adopt Code of Ethics

The New Antelope Booster Club adopted a code of Ethics at its meeting Monday night, with approximately 25 members attending.

Club President A. C. Cash urged at the meeting that all members attend the first home game here Friday night and give the team their support. Ballinger is rated as one of the state's top Class AA teams, he reminded the boosters.

"Now is the time to decide if we are to be a booster club or a Saturday morning gripe club," Cash said.

Members are requested to turn in membership cards and money at once to Frank Blanton, treasurer. The Antelope Booster hats are on sale at Wylie Oil Co., Elwood Wright's Texaco Service and the Post Pharmacy.

The Code of Ethics adopted by the club follows:

1. Members of the Post Antelope Booster Club will observe all the regulations of the Interscholastic League.
2. Members of the Post Antelope Booster Club will observe all rules of good sportsmanship as an example to the student body.
3. Members of the Booster Club represent the school and the community. People will gain either a favorable or unfavorable image of Post from the Booster Club. It is essential that all members conduct themselves accordingly.
4. Members of the Booster Club will stand and remove their hats from the "Star Spangled Banner" and the respective school songs.
5. Members of the Booster Club will encourage athletes and athletics. They will not discourage athletes because of mistakes.
6. Only hat-wearing members of the Post Antelope Booster Club will be allowed on the football field before games to encourage their team. This method will be used to determine active members.
7. The officers of the Booster Club will be responsible for the actions of the club on all occasions. Good sportsmanship is a must.
8. The members of the Post Antelope Booster Club will support the coaching staff and the athletic program.

In Texas... after a swim, beer is a natural

On a hot summer day, a dip in a cool stream can be wonderfully refreshing. Equally refreshing when you're relaxing afterwards with friends is a hearty glass of beer. There's hardly another beverage around that suits what you do for fun as much as beer. Camping, hiking, or just lounging on a lawn chair—beer brings to each just the right touch of extra good living.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Texas... beer goes with fun, with relaxation

Ex-Grassland resident falls and breaks her hip

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER
Here I am again after having been gone for two weeks to pester you with my chit-chat.

A very bad accident happened to one of our former Grassland citizens, Mrs. Myrtle Mathis. She fell in her home in Tahoka and broke her hip Saturday night. It was a very bad break and she crawled to a phone to get her cousin, Mrs. Violet Wist, to come help her. The house was locked and had to be broken into. She underwent surgery at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. Her doctor is Dr. Shannon and she is in Room 422. She is doing as well as could be expected with a crushed hip bone. We wish for her rest and peace.

Mrs. Betty Hoover and children, Kelli, Kyle and Dane of Los Altos, Calif., visited her mother-in-law, Mrs. O. H. Hoover, from Wednesday until Saturday. Mrs. W. A. Oden visited them a while Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hoover's daughter, Nina Belle, came from Plainview Friday night and Lura Hoover of Littlefield came Saturday morning so we had an enjoyable day together Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker and Mrs. Leucian Walker were weekend guests of Mrs. Leucian Walker's niece, Mrs. Abb Goree, in Coleman. They also visited an old friend, Mrs. Emma Pelton, in Anson. Mrs. Pelton is 90 years of age and has been bedfast for some time.

Mrs. Bernice Gribble and Mrs. Lucy Cunningham visited the John Warricks last Wednesday. Mr. Warrick is not well and is in bed most of the time.

Thursday Mrs. Cunningham helped Mrs. Gribble fix chickens, corn and peas for the deep freeze.

MRS. C. C. JONES' grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joby Doyle Claborn of Weatherford were overnight guests Sunday. Joby is a medical student. They all visited the Carl Joneses in Post Sunday afternoon. They watched films of some scenes taken in Post and at the World's Fair and Yellowstone National Park, before having dinner.

The C. M. Greers met his brother from Lampasas at the Aaron Greer home in San Angelo Saturday night. They all attended services together Sunday.

W. P. Thomas is in the Post hospital. He seems to be doing O. K. They are making tests. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Moore took their daughter, Lavonia, and Vivian Campbell to the Missionary Bible College in Rock Island, Ill., last Friday.

Mrs. Maggie Murray entertained with a family luncheon Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Colvert of Colorado Springs, Colo. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Huffaker and children, the B. R. McDonald family, the James Murray family, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Campbell, Donna and Linda Keese. The Coverts came for their daughters who had spent two weeks with their grandmother, Mrs. Ollie Huffaker.

The James Murrys spent two weeks sightseeing in Colorado recently.

Reba Mathis visited Mrs. Lorene Gerner one day last week.

Mrs. Lorene Gerner visited her mother, Mrs. O. F. Haley, and Mr. and Mrs. Buford and Grandma Mathis last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Owen and children and Pat Landreth and Dennis Odum spent Sunday with the Ralph Dean family.

Louise Gerner of Dallas spent the Labor Day weekend with her parents, Raymond Gerner of Fort Polk, La., Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gerner of San Angelo and Vernon Harmon of Lubbock visited in the home Saturday night.

Those attending a boating and skiing party and a pot luck supper at Lake Thomas were the Amos Gerner, Fritz and Farla Gerner, Laura Gerner and Johnny Kuykendoll, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brewer and

VISITS HERE

Pvt. Ike Joe Hare, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hare, left Wednesday for Fort Sill, Okla., after spending two weeks here with his family. Pvt. Hare enlisted in the Army June 23 and has completed basic training at Fort Polk, La. He will complete his high school education and attend a communications school while at Fort Sill.

Registration of draft age men lagging in area

Registration under the draft law is lagging in Lubbock, Lynn, Crosby and Garza counties, which are served by Local Board No. 88 in Lubbock.

Because of this lagging, J. W. Gillon, chairman of the local board area, wants every 18-year-old male that the law requires him to register within five days after his 18th birthday.

Failure to register, like failure to comply with other provisions of the law, may subject men to prosecution, or induction into the army out of turn and ahead of other men, Gillon said.

Maximum penalty for failure to comply with any provision of the law, upon prosecution and conviction, is five years in prison, fine of $10,000, or both.

Young men in Garza County may register with County Judge J. E. Parker at the courthouse here.

After a young man registers, he is required to keep the local board informed of any change in his address or personal situation that would affect ability or requirement for military service.

Wolfforth man buried following rites here

Graveside services for Harry De La Rue Jr., 46, of Wolfforth, were held at 10 a. m. Saturday at the Terrace Cemetery with Capt. J. L. Mann, chaplain at Reese Air Force Base, officiating.

De La Rue died Thursday of asphyxiation, self-inflicted. He was a

Five new teachers are at Southland School

By MRS. EDGAR MOSELEY

The Southland School has five new teachers this year. They are Wayne Newton of Houston, boys basketball coach; Angela Newton, girls basketball coach and PE instructor; Roscoe Trussell of Lubbock, Noble G. Allen of San Angelo, elementary principal, and Ann Chaffin of Pleasant Valley.

The Southland Eagles held their first scrimmage game last Saturday. They will play their first game Sept. 18, with the Bobcats at Smyer.

News has been received that Freddie Smith of Quanah, a nephew of Mrs. Van Foster, has been killed.

Charles Alexander of Lubbock, a lay preacher, filled the pulpit at the Methodist Church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Binnick of Pampa visited in the Will Barton home Sunday.

Mrs. Clara Stonewall has returned home after visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. L. Hill, at Corpus Christi, her sister, Mrs. Essie Lee Johnson at El Campo and her mother, Maggie Swain, at Lane City. She visited other relatives at Galveston.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Edmunds visited their son, Dale Edmunds, and family at Lubbock Sunday. It was their granddaughter, Ginger's first birthday along with the other grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haddox of Slaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Barton spent the weekend at Lake Thomas.

DEBBIE HITT, who has been visiting here, returned home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donny Hitt, last Saturday.

Mrs. Nellie Mathis and granddaughter, Mrs. Helen Odum, recently visited Mrs. Odum's father, Dick Mathis, at Talent, Ore.

Frances Hopper is home after visiting relatives in Kilgore.

Leo Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Hall, underwent surgery on his knee recently. He had slurred his leg football but doesn't know how long he will be out.

Ricky Housa, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mason and son of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Slate and sons of Lubbock.

The Ralph Dean family recently made a trip to Los Angeles, Calif. They visited the Efford McCree family, former Post residents. Efford and Pukev Ammons took Bobby Dean and Dennis Ammons to the Saltan Sea, a famous fishing resort. They had a wonderful day. The bad part for the Dean family was having the flu when they got home. (O, well).

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Arnold and children of Texarkana visited Mrs. E. A. Thomas over the weekend. Mrs. Eunice Thomas visited her son, Dr. Arthur Thomas in Kermit last week.

Taylor hauls in first plains bale

Joe B. Taylor of the Graham community is the grower of the first 1964 bale of plains cotton ginned in Garza County.

Taylor delivered the bale to the Graham Co-op Gin one day last week. The load of seed cotton weighed 1,800 pounds and the finished bale 460 pounds.

J. W. (Bill) McMahon, gin manager, said the bale was ginned free and is believed to be the first bale of plains cotton ginned in the county.

The Graham gin had turned out six bales up to Tuesday morning and was expecting three more during the day.
