Gray youngsters growers of first bale of 1966 cotton

Garza County's first bale of 1966 cotton, ginned Saturday at the Gray gin, is the project of the children of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. (Dub) Gray, who live four miles west of Post. The proud owners of the first bale are Deborah Lynn, 14; Pamela Carol, 11, and Rodney Jay Gray, 6, who said they will use some of the money from the sale of the bale to purchase school clothing. Ginned free by Planters Gin, where T. D. Craft Sr. is manager and L. C. Ellenberger is ginner, the finished bale weighed 445 pounds. It came from 1,650 pounds of seed cotton, with 720 pounds of seed coming from the load. The children's father said it is the first cotton raised on his place since 1945. Mainly engaged in ranching, he planted his 22.5-acre cotton allotment this year in order to comply with government crop regulations on other products. The dryland cotton was planted May 9. It was badly beaten by hail when about a month old and was also hard hit by blowing sand. The Gray children hoed the crop twice this summer. The first bale came from cotton gathered from over about five acres, Gray said. "I planted the cotton for our three youngsters and they've claimed it as theirs ever since," he added. This year's first bale is later than any in recent years, the ginner said.

Drive is launched for proposed club

A membership drive for the proposed White River Country Club launched here last Thursday at a meeting of golf enthusiasts in the Community Room at the White River Lake were explaining details. Construction of a clubhouse, 18-19 green golf course, driving range and swimming pool would be financed through a $275,000 40-year loan from the Farmers Home Administration at 3 1/2 per cent interest. THE COUNTRY club facilities would be built on the peninsula between the fork of the White River and Sand Creek. One hundred and eighty acres would be leased by the White River Municipal Water District to the club at $1 a year and space between the lake shore and country club facilities held for shore-front cottage sites which could be leased by the water district to club members. Family memberships for the country club would cost $150 and would be saleable in the future through the club. Monthly dues of the club would be not less than $10, nor more than $15 and would not begin until sufficient facilities are constructed for member use. Those in charge of the membership drive are accepting $150 checks for family memberships with all such checks to be held in escrow until 300 memberships are sold thus assuring the club's future. THE THREE-MAN committee (See Club Drive, page 8)

Saturday morning

Ground-breaking is slated for airport

A ground-breaking ceremony for Post's new city-county airport is scheduled for 10 a. m. Saturday and construction is expected to get under way Monday, Tom Gamblin announced today. The chairman of the city-county airport board said final federal clearance on title to the airport land and the construction contract with Thomason Construction Co. of Denver City was received here Monday by letter from the FAA. "The public is invited to the ground-breaking ceremonies," Gamblin said. He explained site of the airport is two miles east of Post on the north side of the Clairemont highway. Gamblin said that the Denver City construction firm hopes to get its equipment here in time to start dirt work at the airport site Monday. He explained that all the project but the paving of the two landing strips should require between two and one-half and three months. The airport would be ready for use at that time. Due to weather conditions, the landing strips will not be paved until next spring, Gamblin said.

Mrs. Marjorie Post visits city, hears story of local progress

Bank luncheon given for her

Mrs. Marjorie Merriweather Post returned to Post yesterday for the first time since she unveiled a statue of her father, a national founder, C. W. Post, on the courthouse lawn during a stinging spring sandstorm April 5, 1958. This time she and her small party were guests of the First National Bank at a luncheon in the bank's Community Room during which six Post leaders told her the story of Post's progress on five fronts. MRS. POST expressed keen interest in the new White River Lake, operations of the Postex Cotton Mill, the historical preservation of Garza County, and new Post Public Library, and the economic growth of the county. Making luncheon talks were Tom Bouchier, report on White River Lake; Dr. B. E. Young, effects of White River water to dental health (ideal now instead of teeth staining, he reported); Louie Burkes, who gave a pictorial report on the Postex Mill showing step and step procedures from the time the raw cotton enters the mill until it is shipped out in finished Burlington products; Mrs. A.

C. Surman, who gave a report on the historical preservation of Garza County; Mrs. Tom Gamblin, who reported on the Post Public Library, and Bank President J. B. Potts, who detailed some of the economic growth of Garza County. Mrs. Surman presented Mrs. Post with an album containing pictures and information on each of Garza's present historical markers. Members of Mrs. Post's party at the luncheon were Kenneth Montgomery, Meyer Handelman and his son, Don, and John Dahlgren, all of New York City, and Monta Moore of Levelland. Local people attending the luncheon were Mayor and Mrs. Harold Lucas, County Judge and Mrs.

J. E. Parker, George Samson, Dr. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Burkes, Mr. and Mrs. Bouchier, Dr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Surman, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gamblin and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Potts, Walter Hildebrandt of Greenville, N. C., vice president of the B&I cotton division of Burlington Industries was also a luncheon guest. Mrs. Post flew into Lubbock at 4 p. m. Tuesday from Houston where she had attended the dedication of the new Jones Opera Theatre there. She drove here with her party for the luncheon. Mrs. Post is scheduled to visit Levelland today and will fly from Lubbock to New York City Friday. The luncheon was prepared by Mrs. C. W. Terry.

The Post Dispatch

Fortieth Year Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, October 6, 1966 Number 19 Price 10c

Next week is Fire Prevention Week and the First National Bank on page 3 of today's Dispatch salutes the 26 members of Post's volunteer fire department and thanks them in behalf of the entire community.

Next week also is Oil Progress Week. Ralph S. O'Conner, general manager of the oil and gas division for George R. Brown of Houston (which recently absorbed Brown Brothers, Et Al Holdings here), will fly up next Tuesday to give an oil progress address to Post Rotarians. The Dispatch also will publish its annual Oil Progress Edition. Theme of the "week" this year will be the observance of Texas' 100th oil birthday — the first Texas producer "came in" exactly 100 years ago in the fall of 1866.

Biggest ad of the year in The Dispatch appears on pages 10 and 11 of today's second section. It is the Hudman Furniture Co. takes a double page spread to "tell all" about their 21st Anniversary Sale which opens Friday. Not only are their sales prices low on quality, name brand furniture, but they are uncracking the biggest carpet bonanza in the history of the community. Seeing will be believing. If you have any carpet plans at all for the future don't miss taking a look at all the carpet bargains at near 50 per cent or more savings. Victor and Marvin Hudman also have had a lot of circulars printed of this big ad on our regular newspaper press for distribution in nearby towns usually outside the local trade territory.

The group of ten Chamber and city leaders who went to Austin last week for the Texas Industrial Planning Seminar got a lot of earfuls on how to go about the complicated search for additional industry. The Texas Industrial Commission staff emphasized their 5-step program for industry hunting: community betterment, research, financing, sites, and prospecting.

Right off the bat the local group got into an earnest discussion about how to upgrade the appearance of Post's downtown business district. The worst problem of course, is the dilapidated old Ameen Hotel which everybody agreed ought to be condemned and razed. Also suggested by one of the TIC staff was the fronting of the old, burned-out Garza Theater building with a brightly painted plywood cover at the Chamber's expense.

A whole lot of stress was put on community betterment at the TIC conference. It was pointed out a lot of industrial consultants "write off" many towns just driving through because of an apparent "lack of pride." So they don't even bother to stop and get out of their car.

Post's downtown problem isn't new, the Texas Industrial Commission staff assured the local group. Most communities have downtown "bad spots." It's the communities which do something about them that improve their appearance immeasurably.

That one 20-minute talk sent the Post group home thinking about what should be done here. Post doesn't need an all-out "face lifting" downtown as Littlefield's merchants recently financed. (See Postings, page 8)

Industrial group is nominating directors

Stockholders of the new Post Industrial Foundation are now in the process of nominating 18 from their membership for the board of directors. From this list, nine will be elected on a second ballot to guide the activities of this non-profit corporation in its search for industry.

BRYAN J. Williams, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee, reported to the committee yesterday morning that a letter is being sent all stockholders of the foundation by registered mail asking them to select 18 from the membership list as nominees for directors. Deadline for nominee ballots will be 3 p. m. Friday, Oct. 14. The 18 members receiving the most nominations will be placed on the ballot for the selection of the nine directors. This vote also will be conducted by registered mail.

The nominees ballots and the election ballots both will be canvassed by the three temporary trustees, J. B. Potts, Victor Hudman, and Lou Marks, named at an industrial meeting several weeks ago. Election of directors for the industrial foundation must be completed before application can be made to the Texas secretary of state's office for a charter as a non-profit corporation.

BOOSTERS WANT TO SEE LONGER LINES

Members of the Antelope Booster Club said today they would like to see a bigger demonstration of fan support of the Post Antelope football team at Tahoka Friday night than was shown here at the Hamlin game. "We'd like to see every man, woman and child who is for the Antelopes form a long line from their dressing room to the field when they come on at the start of the game and at the start of the second half," one booster said. They explain that a fan does not have to be a member of the booster club to take part in the demonstration. "Let's show the coaches and boys we're really behind them at Tahoka Friday night," the booster club member urged.

First and seventh grades

Some pupils must have patch tests

All first and seventh graders will be required to take the tuberculosis patch test here as recommended by the state health department and the Texas Educational Agency. Post school trustees at a special session last Thursday night, which replaces the board's October meeting, voted to follow state recommendations and make the testing mandatory. Students may either receive the test free at the school — with details to be announced later — or receive the test from their private physician as long as results of the test are given school authorities. Students showing positive reactions must have chest x-rays given under the auspices of the students' private physicians, the board noted. Supt. Bill Shiver told the board that the state will furnish the vaccine at no cost to the schools for the testing. In other actions, the board: Refused to increase the cost per (See Patch Tests, page 8)

Ordinance creates office

Warren employed as city manager

The city council employed E. A. (Eddie) Warren as city manager Monday night after adopting an ordinance creating the office. Warren, who has served in the capacity of city superintendent since Henry Tate resigned some two years ago, was hired as city manager at a salary of $500 a month. The action came at the council's regular October meeting, at which they also: Tentatively appointed three members to the five-member Post Public Housing Authority. Voted to install and maintain new blinker lights in front of the school buildings on the Tahoka highway and to make a study of the school board's request for no-parking zones in front of the buildings. —Set 7:30 p. m. Oct. 17 as the time of a hearing on a special drilling permit application filed by George R. Brown. —Discussed the provisions of the dog ordinance with Tom Ammons, newly employed animal warden. —Heard the police department report for September presented by Police Chief Leldon P. Miller. As city manager, Warren will be the administrative head of the municipal government under the direction and supervision of the mayor and city council. The powers and duties of the city manager are described by the ordinance, in part, as: "To devote all of his working time and attention to the affairs of the City, and administration of its affairs." Warren's appointment as city manager is for an indefinite period, subject to discharge at the will of the governing body of the city. (See City Manager, Page 8)

Carl Aycock, Jack Alexander and Jim Jackson form the club's pancake supper committee. Plans for the affair were made at Tuesday evening's Lions Club meeting, at which Postmaster A. J. McAllister was a guest.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith will speak on "Americanism" here Thursday, Oct. 13, as a guest of the Post Lions Club and Woman's Culture Club. The lieutenant governor will speak in the grade school auditorium at 8 o'clock. The occasion is the annual Americanism and Texas Heritage program of the Woman's Culture Club. On the arrangements committee for the program are Gordon Lee, Lions Club program director; Mrs. Tillman Jones, Americanism chairman, and Mrs. Virgil Bilbo, Texas Heritage chairman, both of the Woman's Culture Club. The program will also include "Texas History in Song," presented by Mrs. R. L. Marks. The public is invited.

Fire fighting is for trained men

Oct. 9-15 is Fire Prevention Week and once again The Dispatch joins the entire community and county in saluting the members of the Post Volunteer Fire Department, who are always on call to guard against loss of life and property by fire.

Amazingly, some people will ask why we observe Fire Prevention Week every year.

The answer is simple. Three out of every four fires are the result of carelessness. By using ordinary care, we can prevent fire from happening. And if we do that, Fire Prevention Week will have been worthwhile.

Fire Prevention Week also affords the opportunity to remind you that if a fire starts in your home, school or place of business, you should call the fire department immediately.

All fires are little ones when they begin, and the first five minutes is the crucial period if fire occurs.

Fire fighting is a job for men who know their business and our volunteer firemen are trained to extinguish fires before they get out of hand.

Not so long ago, a man in a town not far from Post found an upholstered davenport smoldering in the living room of his home—someone had dropped a cigarette on one of the cushions. He went to the kitchen, filled a pan with water and came back and doused the flames. He assumed the fire was out, hauled the davenport out of the house, and placed it on the front porch. Then he retired.

The fire in the davenport should have been out, but there was still a small spark smoldering in the upholstery. A brisk wind arose, and fanned the ember into a flame.

The result: Before the fire was rediscovered, the whole house was involved and burned to the ground.

"We stand a chance of putting out any fire quickly if the alarm comes in fast enough," said Fire Chief Loyd Mock of the Post Volunteer Fire Department.

If you discover a fire in your home, report it at once by dialing 2322.

However, remember this: If you have a fire, first, get everyone out of the house, then call the fire department.

Property can be replaced, but a life can not. —CD

It hasn't spilled over out here

On the opening night of the Panhandle South Plains Fair at Lubbock, a Tahoka woman's arm was broken by two young thugs who snatched her purse as she and another woman were leaving the fairgrounds to go to their car, which was parked nearby.

The incident was one such as we read about happening every day or night in certain other parts of the country, but which doesn't happen with the same frequency in these parts.

It is hard to read anything good into such an incident, but we were glad to read that the thugs dropped the woman's purse when two other youths gave chase, along with the other woman involved, who was carrying a baby in her arms.

The account of such crimes that we are more used to reading about usually emphasize that no one came to the victim's help. We've read account after account of robberies and even murders in broad daylight when crowds of onlookers stood by without lifting a hand to help the victim or raising a voice in alarm.

We've felt all along that people out in this part of the country aren't "made that way."

Whatever it is that glossed over many people to the extent that they'll stand by and watch someone robbed or murdered without lifting a hand, just because they don't want to become involved, evidently hasn't spilled over out here — thank goodness.—CD

Is that all it would take?

The traffic situation on North Avenue 1 between Main and 10th Street has been bad for so long that most of the people who once harbored hopes that something would be done about it have about given up.

The angle parking on the narrow street is what makes the situation bad and it sometimes gets tighter than Dick's husband when two cars try to pass.

There was once talk of the City Council making it a one-way street there, but nothing ever came of it, which might be just as well, since one-way streets leave a lot to be desired, especially when there is some other way of remedying the situation.

We've heard a few people suggest that the City change the parking angle on both sides of the street by slanting the parking lines just a little nearer parallel. One fellow has figured it out where there would be a foot of additional space on each side by slanting the parking lines just a little. And brother, there are times when two cars meet in that block that an additional two feet would be the answer to a big problem.

Slanting the parking lines just a little wouldn't mean that you'd have to parallel park on the street. You could still park at an angle, but it wouldn't be as sharp an angle as you have to park in the way the lines are painted now.

The problem has been there a long time. It appears to us that if such a simple procedure as changing the angle of the parking lines will remedy it, then it should have been done long ago. —CD

UP UNTIL NOW I've laughed at those people who complain that drilling an oil well is a noisy operation — but not any more. There's one being drilled just a few hundred feet northeast of our house and it's so noisy I can barely hear my wife when she bawls me out for something.

I didn't notice the noise so much until Saturday afternoon when it got to interfering with my audio reception of the football game on TV, so when my wife suggested that we make an early trip to Snyder and stay to see the Stamford-Denver City football game, I seconded the motion so fast that it sort of surprised her.

THEY WERE STILL thumping and grinding away over at the oil well when we went out to get into the car, and as I paused to watch the operations for a moment, I felt something gnawing on my foot. I looked down and it was one of our larger tomcats. I was standing on his foot, but I hadn't been able to hear his yowls because of the noise from the oil well.

The noise is even worse at night when you're trying to sleep. It reminds me of something I either read or heard a few days ago about some folks who lived near a railroad track over which a long, noisy freight train rumbled at about 3 o'clock every morning. Well, one morning the freight train failed to run for the first time in a coon's age, and the old man hit the floor in his bare feet and yelled out, "What was that?"

THE MAN UP the street says don't borrow trouble... be patient and you'll have some of your own.

One of this column's frequent contributors submits this profile of a typical American as a service to politicians, poll-takers and market researchers.

A TYPICAL AMERICAN
A typical American is a guy who has driven home from his job in a Fiat, has a cocktail of British gin and Italian vermouth before dinner, a couple of Norwegian sardines on crackers with the drink, and then sits down to a dinner of imported Polish ham, with German beer as a beverage, drunk from English glassware. The table is Swedish-made, the china is from Japan and the silverware from Germany. He departs the table to a living room decorated with Japanese prints, fills his pipe with Turkish tobacco, flips on a German-made hi-fi set and props his feet up on a footstool made of a camel seat from Egypt. Wearing of the paper, he switches off the German-made hi-fi and switches on the Japanese-made TV to watch a Spanish film. During the commercial (about a Swedish manufactured car) he pours himself a snifter of French brandy and changes from his English street shoes to some shuffle-slippers made in Hong Kong.

He pauses on the way to inspect a Belgian book of art prints his wife has just received through an Italian book club, and is pleased to find his favorite Mexican-made pipe where he left it in the pocket of his English robe. He hasn't worn the robe since he spilled the Colombian coffee on the sleeve two weeks ago.

Bored by the Spanish film, he talks briefly with his wife about taking a winter vacation this year, in the Bahamas, going and coming aboard that wonderful Scandinavian cruise ship, checks his Swiss-made watch and finds it's time for the 10 o'clock news. He turns on a German-made radio and hears that the cost of living has gone up again and that De Gaulle has presented a few million more dollars for gold.

Irritated, he pulls some Irish linen paper from the Hungarian antique desk, grabs a Japanese-made pen and dashes off a letter to his Congressman in Washington beefing about the amount of American gold being shipped abroad.

IT HAS BEEN so long since I've run a tongue twister in this column that I just couldn't resist this one:

General Fite stormed the fort of General Fort. Fite was before Fort's fort before Fort could fight Fite but Fite's unfortified for enabled Fort to fight Fite better than Fite fought Fort. However, Fite fought Fort until Fort took Fite's unfortified fort and then how Fort fought Fite! If Fite had fought Fort before Fort's fortified fort instead of Fort fighting Fite before Fite's fort, then Fort and Fite might not have fought.

HOW AMERICA GREW

TOIL, SWEAT and TEARS

THE PIONEERS sacrificed homes, comfort, friends, and safety to build a nation out of the wilderness. Working long and hard to get the rich land ready for the first crop, trees had to be cut. Stumps and boulders were dragged up by teams of horses and oxen. In Nebraska, the first pioneer shelters were crude sod dug-outs with sod roofs. Comfort would always be secondary to the land.

BY THE 1850's, farms produced wheat for the small gristmills located on many streams throughout the countryside. Thirty bushels an acre was a common yield, but the number of acres one man could farm was small. Planting, reaping, flailing, and winnowing were all done by hand. This was a prelude to the great wheat treasure the Midwestern states would yield in time.

TODAY, amid the rolling wheat fields of South Central Nebraska, in Minden, there stands a monumental tribute to the pioneer men and women who founded the great communities of the Midwest. Pioneer Village, a unique and comprehensive collection of Americana, was built by Harold Warp as a living museum. Here you can see how the pioneers lived, among the 22 buildings completely furnished, an actual sod house, country house, and church, even to the clothes they wore, and the implements they used to help found a mighty nation.

American and English literature classics return to lower grades
DALLAS — If your youngster walks in from school next semester quoting Carl Sandburg or Robert Louis Stevenson, don't be too surprised.
The great classic and contemporary stories of American and English literature are returning to the fourth, fifth and sixth grades in a number of schools throughout the nation for the first time since many educators can remember.
Students are learning to read faster and with more understanding while enjoying the literature of such renowned writers as O. Henry, Kipling, Mark Twain and Longfellow through a series of textbooks written and edited by Glenn McCracken and Charles G. Walcutt.
THE READERS are a part of a full reading program — from pre-primer through eighth grade — available to public and private schools from the J. B. Lippincott Company, a 174-year old Philadelphia publishing firm.
Both the phonetic and linguistic methods of teaching have been employed in this new reading series. These methods have experienced a high level of success in more than 40 schools and school systems using this reading program at various grade levels in the State of Texas.
Schools using the Lippincott Basic Reading series number more than 8,000 nationally. Some are using the entire program, others only a part of it.
Many of the stories included in the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grade readers are usually not available in other reading programs until later.
The publishers and many teachers of reading feel that children in these grades are hungry for literature which helps them better understand and appreciate their American heritage, literature which many adults learned in these same grades thirty or forty years ago.
ONE OF THE key points voiced by teachers in favor of this reading program is the combination of reading and language arts training the books offer. Following the reading of a story, the teacher may question students on vocabulary, grammar, punctuation and sentence patterns.
Material for the readers was selected to give the students a variety of cultures, history and experiences which extend their understanding of the world in which they live.
Each reader is divided into sections, such as "Stories of Yesterday" in the fifth grade book. Included here are "An Early American Orphanage" by Louisa M. Alcott, "The Pine-Tree Shillings" by Nathaniel Hawthorne, "The Blind Toy-Maker" by Charles Dickens, "A Tooth for Paul Revere" by Stephen Vincent Benet and "The Village Blacksmith" by Longfellow.
OTHER SECTIONS are "Adventure Stories", "Famous Americans", "Favorites", "Real and Strange People" and "Legends and Fantasies."
Some of the better-known contemporary authors are included in the readers. John Steinbeck's "The Great Mountains" is among stories in the sixth grade book and Lindbergh's "New York to Paris" is included in the fifth grade reader.
Although some selections are excerpts from longer works, the material has not been diluted by the editors—the stories are published in their original form in grades four through eight.
How will all this new learning affect us as parents? It could mean we'll have to start digging for our fourth grade reader—or encyclopedia—just to stay one step ahead.

New Arrivals

A daughter, Cynthia, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Samora, Sept. 30 in Garza Memorial Hospital, weighing 7 lbs., 7 1/2 ozs.

I've never been so shocked! There was Miss Kitty being held by two men and being soundly slapped by another woman.

I had been in the bedroom preparing to read when I made a trip to the kitchen Saturday night and encountered this horrifying scene.

Well, ole Matt Dillon certainly lowered himself in my eyes getting poor Miss Kitty involved in anything like that.

I went back to the bedroom. I went to a baby shower last week—the first in ages.

I love baby clothes. They all look so sweet and cuddly and improve through the years, as most things do.

One would think that someone would come up with something different. Maybe we ought to turn that department over to the Indians.

I am most impressed with the junior high school's beautification program. Maybe some of it will rub off on the rest of our fair city.

I saw my fist "star-fish" cactus flower yesterday. Wilke Wilkerson brought a bloom into the office Monday from one of his plants.

I'm real excited about our football game with Tahoka Friday night. I've always wondered why we didn't play Tahoka in a non-district game.

During the social hour refreshments were served to Mrs. L. H. Peel, Mrs. J. F. Storie, Mrs. A. E. Floyd, Mrs. Percy Printz and Mrs. Mable Martin.

At Tahoka

Friday Nite, Oct. 7
8 P.M. Kickoff

It's A Natural!
Both Schools Unbeaten
—Each With Their Best
Club in Over A Decade

This game is a natural! Both schools have undefeated football teams. Both schools have their best clubs in over a decade and each has stirred a lot of hometown pride.

The Antelopes, who have been rated No. 1 among the Class AA clubs on the South Plains will need all of their balanced firepower for this one.

Fullback Cliff Thomas is the super star of the Tahoka Club and appears headed for all-area selection. Big and shifty, Cliff carried the ball 20 times against Idalou for over 220 yards and a 11.6 yards per carry average.

On the other hand, the Antelopes have balance—good passing and an all-around running attack, plus tough defense.

Both teams were apparently "looking ahead" last weekend and barely escaped with their unbeaten records intact—Tahoka coming from behind to edge Slaton and Post hanging on to edge Hamlin.

It's the last pre-district game for the Antelopes—and rates as their toughest to date.

Southland news

Late crops being plowed and hoed

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Well, here it is the first week in October: six weeks test time at school and the farmers in this community are still plowing and hoeing, when usually by this time harvesting has already started.

There is some grain being cut and Stonewall Jefferson has gotten a bale of cotton. Other than that, harvesting is going pretty slow. This has been an unusual season, even since the middle of August — cold and damp, etc. Less one of these mornings before too long we will be getting a spot!

Mrs. Beatrice Moore passed away at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock Sunday. Mrs. Moore had lived here since 1933 and has been in ill health for several years. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Elsin Crawford of Southland, and Mrs. Cleone Hamaker of Wofford; two sons, Frank of Liberal, Kans., and Slater of Lansing, Mich.; one sister, one brother, 17 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Mav God bless and be with this family in their time of sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker spent several days at Lake Stamford last week.

Mrs. Herman Dabbs took Mrs. G. N. Smallwood, Mrs. Alpha Taylor, Mrs. Snow Moore and Mrs. Alice Martin to the Panhandle South Plains Fair last Wednesday. Some of these ladies hadn't been to the fair for years and one had never been, so they must have had a wonderful time.

Misses Judy Malone and Judy D. Esel, roommates at Texas Tech, spent the weekend with Miss Klesel's mother, Mrs. Selma Klesel. Miss Malone is from Pearsall.

Having a marvelous time at the Texas Home Demonstration Association convention held at Corpus Christi recently at the Robert Driscoll Hotel were Mrs. Carl Payton, Mrs. Juanette Gentry, Mrs. Mollie Cobb, District 2 incoming director, Mrs. Virginia Custer and Mrs. Dixie Graves.

Mrs. OPAL Hagler gave her mother, Mrs. Susie Bradshaw, a surprise birthday party Saturday. Mrs. Johnnie Gilliam and daughter, Shanna, of Orona visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Hagler, Sunday.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stolle were Mr. and Mrs. Arno Albrecht of Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Hallman and children of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Kendeall Holcomb and son of Odessa and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stolle and Mrs. Emma Spinn of Corpus Christi who visited other friends and relatives in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Payton became the proud grandparents of a baby boy last Monday. A son was born to Earl and Kinda Kenney of Arrington. R. L., Sept. 26, weighed 7 lbs., 6 oz. He has been named Michael Douglas. Mrs. Payton left Wednesday for Rhode Island and plans to be gone about a month. But she is having fun taking care of little Michael.

Mrs. Francis Lightfoot of Fort Worth spent several days recently visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. Paul Winterrowd, and Mr. Winterrowd.

Rah! Rah! Rah! We did it again. Southland football boys came out with victories again last Friday. They beat Threeway and beat them 10-0 This Friday Southland has an open date and won't be playing daddy. A. B. Dozier, of Rose, N. M., and my aunt, Mrs. Edna Williams of Lancaster, Cal., visited in our home Wednesday of last week. First time I had seen my aunt in 25 or 26 years. They visited so much.

We were so sorry to hear that

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stolle and Mrs. Mary Stolle and Roy will attend the Stolle reunion at Columbus, Tex., this coming weekend. After the reunion they will go to Corpus Christi and spend a few days visiting the Arno Albrechts.

We would like to congratulate Joe Hall and Pam Owen who were united in marriage Wednesday. May God grant this young couple many, many years of happiness.

Edmund, Darrell, Sherri and Yours Truly attended a delicious fish-ry in the home of the Leroy Zieschangs Tuesday night.

Sherri Wilke spent Saturday and Sunday night in the home of Larry and Martha Wilke in Lubbock. I would like to thank the two ladies that called and brought me some old sheets last week. They are greatly appreciated.

Remember this date: Oct. 21 — Southland's homecoming! Begin now making plans to attend.

Band takes part in Fair parade

By Belinda Lee
The Post High School Band, directed by Douglas Hillock, participated in the annual parade of the South Plains Fair Monday of last week. After marching for ten blocks, the band then attended the fair.

Approximately 22 bands participated in the parade with each band receiving a participant's trophy. The winning bands in Class AA were: Abernathy first, Denver City second, and Hale Center third.

Even though the weather was very warm, the band had an enjoyable time.

Arts and Crafts Club under way

The first meeting of the Arts and Crafts Club of Post Junior High was held Sept. 23 in Mrs. Lobban's room, with officers elected for the school year.

Ronald Martin was elected president, Danny Ross vice president and Debbie Cross secretary and reporter.

Each member decided on crafts and these were discussed at the second meeting held Sept. 30.

After a brief business session, presided over by Ronald Martin, the members worked on their crafts and hobbies they had brought. These included pillows, burning wood and knitting. Those who didn't bring anything to work on made fish bowls.

Garza bond sales in August county $3,611

J. B. Potts, chairman of the Garza County Savings Bonds Committee, has announced that savings bond sales in Garza County totaled $3,611 during August.

The August sales bring the county's 1966 total through the first eight months to $70,524, which is 59 per cent of the year's goal of $120,000.

Series E and H bond sales in Texas during August totaled $12,803,089, which is an increase of 8 per cent over the same period last year. Texas sales for the first eight months of 1966 totaled $103,420,978, which is 70 per cent of the state's goal of $147.5 million.

Pride said secret of 'Lope success

By Lorena Anderson
The Post High School band started off Friday afternoon's Pep Rally by playing "Dixie." The cheerleaders took over and led the group in the "Class Battle Cry" and several other yells.

Pat Walker, the guest speaker, then said something like this: "I don't know what I am doing here. I don't know a thing about football and I never attend the games—that is, unless one is being played."

He went on to say that the main reason that the Antelopes are NUMBER ONE is because they possess a five-letter word, p-r-i-d-e. The spirit that was begun at the Pep Rally was finished Friday night when the 'Lopes beat Hamlin.

Mr. King pleasantly surprised his basketball girls last Thursday when he came back to school for the first time since his accident. He got to witness a "Coach Bigott special"-type workout that made all the girls swear they'd never be able to take another step again!

Everybody should take advantage of the great opportunities we are offered in the PHS library this year. But such privileges as no fines on overdue books should not be abused, or we may have to revert to the old "10 cents a day" routine. So don't ruin a good thing because of carelessness to re-check books.

Archeology Club outlines plans

By Irene Cisneros
The Archeology Club at Post Junior High School plans to hunt for prehistoric fossils and arrowheads. When and if we find these things, they will be kept by the club to help others in following years.

Each member is required to have his own personal snake bite kit, canteen and pocket knife. We'll also be needing a tablet and pencil in case that we find anything so that we will be able to give the location and date we found them.

We'll be going on field trips anywhere around Garza County.

Several changes at high school

By Emily Potts
A major change in PHS is the opening of the library on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30. Stated the principal, Charles Hutchins. There will be no fines on overdue books from the library.

Every Friday afternoon, there is planned guidance activities in organization of Coach Bigott and his committee.

A change that the students are very happy about is that of water coolers in both halls. This comes in very handy on hot days.

When asked about his plans for the year, the principal replied: "To have school as well as we can and make it so interesting and attractive students will want to study."

Disc Jockey members try taping programs

By Mary Ann Wright
The Disc Jockey Club at Post Junior High is coming along fairly well. We learned how to operate the tape recorder and we've tried taping programs.

Mrs. Walker and Mr. Pollard guide us in the disc jockey activities.

10 trees are planted at Post Junior High

The Junior High Student Council planted 10 fruitless mulberry trees in front of the school Saturday.

The tree project, made possible with profits from last year's magazine subscription sale, is a part of the school beautification program, which will be continued with the planting of shrubs later on.

Slaton football game Dress-up Day occasion

Dress-up Day for the Slaton game in Junior High was a boys' fashion parade. Several wore dress suits with multi-colored ties and white shirts.

The sport set wore plaid jackets in new fall colors of plum, blue or brown plaids. Jersey shirts and sweaters with plaid fronts were seen often.

Velours in green, plum and gold were popular with 7th grade boys. Plaid cotton shirts and jeans of many colors were worn.

Post High students express their opinions on Coke, candy machines

By Gayton Hutte
A Coke and a candy machine have been added to the halls of PHS. Most students seem to be taking full advantage of these machines. Various students gave their opinions of the new machines as follows:

Mickie Taylor: "The Cokes have too much water."
Carolyn Davis: "The Cokes need more ice."
Donnie Cole: "They are all right if used correctly."
Dennis Ray: "All right."
Bo Hutchins: "They are wonderful!"
Linda Davis: "They are great— for everything except my complexion."
Mickie Sterling: "Ummm. Fat-tening though."
Karen Hundley: "Too many calories."
Linda Josey: "I don't like 'em."
Faculty (in general): "They're all right if used properly."
Patsy Pierce: "They're okay."

Number of students in Post High School are employed part-time

By Sherry Woods
Several students of Post High School are beginning to occupy their time wisely by working at local places of business. These people work after school and on Saturdays and Sundays.

Homer Stillwell and George Villarreal are employed at Piggly Wiggly's; Bo Hutchins, Linda Hays and Roger Kirby work at Collier's; Paul Harmon at Western Auto; Johnny Jones at Long's Enco Station; Dennis Bush at KPDS; Doug Chance at Corner Grocery; Lois Gill, Daylene Fry and Zelika Freeman at Wackers.

These are only a few of the students that work, and PHS is very proud to have such conscientious people as students in our school.

George Pierce is new Junior High teacher

Mr. George Pierce is a new teacher this year at Post Junior High School.

He was born and reared in Post and went to college at Texas Tech. He started teaching because he thought he would see how he liked it.

"50¢ a tablet can be cheap!"

No one likes to pay 50¢ for a single tablet—including us. Nevertheless, some of the newer drugs cost that much. They seem expensive—yes, only seem. Consider this: Pneumonia used to mean 4 to 6 bedridden weeks. Loss of pay. Often hospitalization. Often death. Now, a few dollars' worth of one antibiotic will generally cure pneumonia in days. And this is only one example... there are many others. When you consider what a few 50¢ pills will do for you, they seem downright cheap.

HARRY W. CLARK, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, told a group of ten Post business leaders in Austin last Thursday that he would "recommend the full-time professional approach" to industry hunting that the new Post Industrial Foundation proposes.

Clark was asked by the group at the close of an all-day Texas Industrial Planning Service conducted by the Texas Industrial Commission staff for the Post group, what he would recommend, knowing the Post situation.

Without hesitation, Clark advised the group to take "the professional approach" and spend the industrial funds to hire an experienced man to head the industry hunt.

Not only that but Clark and some of his staff gave the group names of several persons the TIC felt were qualified and who might be interested in such a proposition.

During the all-day seminar on industrial planning, the program included:

Opening remarks by Larry S. Milner, industrial development consultant of the TIC; a 20-minute talk on community betterment by Don R. Raburn, another TIC industrial development consultant; a talk on candidate industries and research by James J. Kelly, TIC's assistant executive director; a discussion of sites and building for industry by Milner; a talk on speculative buildings by Raburn; a review of labor markets and services offered by the Texas Employment Commission by Randall Keeling of the Texas Employment Commission.

A visit to the governor's office; lunch in the Texas Employment Commission cafeteria; tour of the Texas Industrial Commission office in the Sam Houston State Office Building; a talk on tourist promotion by Sam Godfrey of the state tourist development agency; training programs for industry—a talk by Raburn; building strong civic leadership—a talk by Clark; promoting Post, a talk by Milner; using the prospect computer systems offered by the TIC, an explanation by Kelly; finding industrial prospects, a talk by Clark; and a final question and answer session with the entire TIC staff sitting in.

Attending the seminar at their own expense were Chamber President Glen Barley, Mayor Harold Lucas, Chamber Industrial Chairman Bryan J. Williams; City Councilmen Arnold Parrish and Lewis Herron; and J. B. Potts, Pat N. Walker, Frank Blanton, Dave Sanford and Jim Corvish, all members of the Chamber industrial committee.

The school will pay the cost of the blinker lights and signs on the no parking zone.

Tabled Mike Mitchell's proposal to sell his 70 by 240 foot warehouse to the schools for $15,000 cash for use as bus fleet storage. Tabling action was due to lack of available funds for such a purchase.

No action was taken on the two roofing bids received for the high school building because of insufficient funds in the budget to accept either bid.

One bid was for $3,000 and the other for $13,000. Only $4,400 had been budgeted for the roofing job.

Several reports heard Tuesday at GCHSC meeting

Members of the Garza County Historical Survey Committee held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday morning and heard reports from Walter Duckworth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Runkles and Mayor Harold Lucas.

Duckworth reported that three descendants of Civil War veterans had made contributions to the committee in appreciation of the work done by the committee on marking the graves of Civil War veterans.

The contributions came from Mrs. Vina Elkins of Trinidad, Colo., Mrs. Ralph Seward of Las Vegas, Nev., and Mrs. Irene Rodgers of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Runkles reported on their attendance at the conference on small museums held recently at Woodville. Mr. Runkles plans to make a more detailed report on the conference at an open meeting soon.

Mayor Lucas reported on the Texas Industrial seminar at Austin, which he and nine other Post citizens attended.

Duckworth and Walter Boren were appointed to a committee on a state fund for special recognition of law officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty.

Two Post women attend area library session

Mrs. Rosemary Chapman and Mrs. Patti Kirkpatrick attended an area meeting for library board members at Lamesa Saturday afternoon as representatives of the Post Public Library.

Our Fire Department Is TOPS!

Club drive—

Spur and Crosbyby already have 80 members signed up.

The 300 membership goal is required by the FHA for the $275,000 construction loan. Two-thirds of the membership must come from an eight-county area around the White River Lake though not necessarily from the four member cities of the district. The remaining one-third of the memberships can be sold in Lubbock or outside the eight-county area established by the FHA.

Warren Cantrell, Lubbock golf pro and former president of the National Professional Golfers Association for two years, has designed the 18-hole course which would be 5,900 yards long from the short tees for regular play and 6,920 yards from the championship tees, which will meet all course requirements of the National Professional Golfers Association for sanctioned tournaments.

Besides the golf course, Cantrell told those attending the meeting here last Thursday night that plans call for a clubhouse, pro shop, swimming pool, pro residence, maintenance building and practice driving range.

Cantrell explained that $5 from the monthly dues of each of 300 members would retire the $275,000 construction loan over 4 years with the remainder of the dues going for club operations.

Cantrell said construction of the course could be started by Dec. 1 of this year with the possibility of having the course ready for initial play by July 6, 1967, or more probably by Aug. 1, 1967.

One of the problems still to be solved is how and who will build a road into the proposed golf site. It would be considerably further north on the present paved entrance from the Crosbyby highway.

Postings—

(Continued From Page 1) ed. If just a half dozen of our "beat up" store fronts could be spruced up (or torn down), Post's downtown face would be generally appealing.

While Post has a whole lot to accomplish in putting its house in order to attract industry, downtown improvements should rank right up at the top of the list.

It would help everybody's pride in their community if the "bad spots" were eliminated and fresh paint applied.

Friday Night Picks By HARRIS RATING SYSTEM of DALLAS

As sponsored weekly by Bob Collier, Druggist, on outcome of games played by Post Antelopes and their seasonal opponents.

Post over Tahoka 101.2 — Power Ratio — 99.1 By 2 Points

Post still remained No. 1 among the South Plains Class AA clubs this week in the Harris State ratings, but dropped 2.2 points in their power ratio with their narrow 14-12 victory over Hamlin here Friday night. The Antelopes dropped from a tie for 45th to 57th in the state AA ratings. Tahoka also dropped down in the Class A ratings in the state from 9th to 14th and from a 101.6 power ratio to 99.1 after their close victory, 20-14, over much lower ranked Slaton last week. The Harris system picks the "headline games" in the state each week naming 10 or 12. This week for the first time Post made the list being picked by two points over Tahoka. Denver City, which plays excellent defensive ball but which has yet to win a 1966 game, is doped to lose again this week. Denver City, which has been playing only AAA schools before bowing 7-6 to Stamford at Snyder Saturday night, is ranked 65th among the AA schools in the state with a 99.6 power ratio.

Difference between power ratios determines predicted margin.

Table with columns WINNER, LOSER, MARGIN. Rows include Abernathy 100.5, Lockney 90.5, Olton 92.5, Clyde 102.2, Bovina 78.4, Muleshoe 103.2, Springlake 90.9, Wink 88.5, Hale Center 96.7, Friona 88.5, Floydada 92.0, Hamlin 89.0, Morton 75.7, Denver City 99.6, Slaton 82.6, Stanton 67.0.

Boat violations head docket in August hearings

AUSTIN — The county courts dusted off the wheels of justice last month, possibly in preparation for what is expected to be the greatest Animal Kingdom invasion of hunters ever.

They handled 914 cases filed by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department field force for a record August fine and court costs total of $17,056.50.

But it wasn't so much infractions involving wildlife as it was game warden enforcement of the new state water safety code.

Violations connected with operating pleasure boats were 252 as against 914 the total number of cases filed.

The second largest prosecution item was 202 for failure to have a life jacket for each person in a boat.

Here's the water safety report: operating a boat without registration, 7; operation of rented boats without a life preserver, 1; driving a boat recklessly or at a high rate of speed, 2; sking in unauthorized zone, 1; operating motorboat without proper lights, 6; no rear view mirror, 15; operating motor boat without number displayed, 17; no fire extinguisher, 1. Cooperation of the courts was reflected in the fact that only one fine was suspended and seven persons even spent time in jail.

Sports fishing violations totaled 568, with 513 cases for lacking a fishing license. Twenty anglers were nabbed for using electrical devices to take fish.

Trouble in the big game habitat involved everything from night hunting, through taking game out of season to possession of a wild fawn deer.

Annual Meeting Lynn County Farm Bureau will be held October 10, 1966 in the LYNTEGAR ELECTRIC BOARD ROOM 8:00 p. m. All Lynn and Garza County Farm Bureau Members Invited Refreshments Door Prizes

Proposed amendment

Farm use would be basis for taxation

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of analyses of the proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 6. The proposed amendment analyzed here will appear as Proposition 1 on the ballot and has to do with land to be assessed on consideration of only those factors relative to agricultural use.)

This amendment would exempt farmers and ranchers from paying full taxes on high priced land so long as they use the land for raising livestock or growing crops, flowers and other products of the soil. These products would have to be grown under natural conditions and the owner would have to be conducting the farm or ranch as a business venture for profit.

The wording is vague and in conflict with other constitutional requirements that all taxation shall be equal and uniform and that all property in the state shall be taxed in proportion to its value. Its lack of clarity might void the amendment for all practical purposes but if the courts can resolve its conflicts and vagueness, it might create serious tax and bond problems for cities, towns, schools and other local districts.

IN EFFECT, this amendment is an exception to the basic constitutional requirements that taxation shall be equal and uniform. The exception would apply for all tax purposes, both state and local. It would affect local districts more since the Constitution already gives the owner of a homestead exemption from state taxes on $3,000 of assessed value. The homestead exemption applies to all property owners; this exception for agricultural use would apply to a restricted group.

The valuation and assessment of any minerals or sub-surface rights to minerals would not be affected by this exception for agricultural use. They would be subject to full assessment and taxation the same as if they were on land not designated for agricultural use.

The exception could be claimed only by an owner of property, and a natural person rather than a corporation. The owner's primary occupation would have to be raising livestock or growing products of the soil. This would also have to be the owner's principal source of income. For example, if the owner's income from oil or other minerals, or income of any other type, either from his land or from other sources, exceeded the income from his ranching or farming operations, he could not claim the agricultural exception.

HOW LAND would be assessed for agricultural use is not well defined. It would be assessed "on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use." The factors to be considered are not named and there is no formula for determining what is "relative." The application of these terms would have to be spelled out in future court decisions or the amendment could prove meaningless because of vagueness.

For each assessment year in which the owner wished to qualify his land as agricultural he would have to file with the local tax assessor a sworn statement in writing describing the use to which the land was devoted.

The tax assessor could require such evidence as was necessary to determine whether the agricultural use designation should apply. He could require some sort of return, or information, about all of the owner's income in order to determine whether raising livestock or growing products on the land involved was the owner's primary source of income.

NO LAND could qualify for the agricultural designation unless for the last three consecutive years it had been devoted exclusively to agricultural use, or had been continuously developed for agriculture during that time.

Each year the tax assessor would make a note on his records of what the valuation would have been if

ZIP Code Week to be Oct. 10-15

Residents in Post will be offered an opportunity to ZIP Code their mailing lists during October. Postmaster A. J. McAllister announced today.

Letter carriers will deliver "no postage needed" cards to each of the city's 1,290 residential delivery stops beginning Oct. 10, the postmaster said. The cards will have blanks for addresses used most often, but for which individuals do not know the proper ZIP Codes.

This is a good time to get the ZIP Codes missing from your lists, Postmaster McAllister noted. "This Christmas, ZIP Code will be as important as shopping and mailing early for the efficient and on-time delivery of the record-breaking avalanche of mail expected in the pre-holiday weeks."

After filling in the street number, city and state, the cards are to be mailed back to the postmaster. Post office personnel will add the proper ZIP Codes and return the cards to the sender.

President Johnson has proclaimed Oct. 10-15 as "ZIP Code Week" to promote greater usage of ZIP Code.

ENGLISH DIFFICULTIES

A recent study concluded that nearly one-half of the estimated 1.75 million Spanish speaking children in the Southwestern United States will drop out of school because of difficulties comprehending English - language classroom instruction.

Contributions to be urged of those receiving mobile unit chest x-rays

LUBBOCK — The higher cost of living has hit home for the West Texas Tuberculosis Association, which operates the widely used mobile x-ray unit.

Dr. John H. Selby, president of the WTTA, announced today that the Executive Committee of the Association's Board of Directors met Sept. 28 in Lubbock and voted to urge those receiving x-rays at the unit to make voluntary contributions to help defray rising costs as well as upkeep and depreciation.

The actual cost of each x-ray, he said, amounts to about one dollar. The unit has been operating at a loss for several months, and the Committee decided to urge voluntary contributions in order to continue the service — still to be given free to any who need it and cannot contribute to the cost.

The Committee, meeting at the WTTA office at 916 Avenue M, also considered the problem of late requests from public schools for tuberculin skin testing supplies. The Committee agreed that requests will be accepted any time during the school year. They will be filled 60 days after receipt. The WTTA now has all supplies booked up to the Thanksgiving holiday period and can fill no orders until after Nov. 28.

Orchestra leader Fred Waring has been in show business 59 years.

The Board of Directors meeting for the Association was set for Nov. 5 in Lubbock.

STORY TIME with GOD

Religion is a vital need at every age. And these boys and girls are busy gaining religious knowledge that will be important to them all through life.

We grownups are accustomed to the Church's presence in community life. It is always there, gracing the horizon with its spire . . . offering its message of faith to a confused world.

But peek into the corner of a beginner's room on Sunday morning and behold the majesty of the Church's mission. It brings the consecrated talents of artists, writers and teachers together, and focuses them upon the eager minds of a generation preparing to face life. It gathers the spiritual truth unfolding for centuries, and in beloved story brings it to the ready ears of tots and toddlers.

Support and attend the church of your choice. Make sure your children are sharing in this life — enriching STORY TIME WITH GOD.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Area's two top grid teams clash at Tahoka Friday

Antelopes and Bulldogs to renew old rivalry

The Post Antelopes and Tahoka Bulldogs, top-rated in the area in their respective classifications, will renew an old gridiron rivalry at 8 o'clock Friday night at Tahoka.

Neither team has lost a game this season and both have achieved top ratings in their respective classes after several lean years in gridiron warfare.

One of the largest, if not the largest, crowds ever to see a football game in Tahoka is expected for Friday night's clash.

The last time the teams met was in 1961 when the Antelopes defeated the Bulldogs, 32 to 16, at Post High School homecoming, which also included Norm Cash Day in honor of the Garza County native who that season won the American League batting championship.

Through 1961, Post and Tahoka had met every year for at least 20 years in a gridiron rivalry dating nearly as far back as that between Post and Slaton.

The Class A Bulldogs of Coach Don Smith have defeated Lorenzo, 45 to 0; Crosbyton, 26 to 13; Idaho, 27 to 0; and Slaton 20 to 14. The Bulldogs' big gun in the backfield is junior tailback Cliff Thomas, a 155-pound football "natural". But Thomas is by no means the "whole show," according to Post football scouts. The Bulldogs have a fine quarterback in Mitchell Williams, who is a capable passer, good running backs in Doyle Schneider, John Tyler and Larry Arnold.

"At Tahoka Friday night, the Antelopes will be up against the best team they've played thus far this year," is the scouts' report.

Thomas has scored nine touchdowns through the Bulldogs' first four games and has kicked most of the extra points. Against the tough Crosbyton Chiefs, the Tahoka tailback rushed for 208 yards on 33 carries and scored three of his team's four touchdowns. He plays on both offense and defense.

The Bulldogs run their offense from a flinger slot and an "I" slot, and flip-flop their line.

The probable line-up for Coach Smith's Bulldogs is as follows: Chris Roberts, 150, and Wayne Thurman, 160, ends; Tommy Kidwell, 183, and Jody Edwards, 175, tackles; Randy White, 180, and Milton Edwards, 215, guards; Gary Brooks, 162, center; Mitchell Williams, 185, quarterback; Thomas, 183, tailback; Doyle Schneider, 152, wineback; Larry Arnold, 166, fullback.

With two or three exceptions, the Post squad will be at full strength Friday night, Coach Gregg said. End Roy Sappington, who suffered a knee injury in the Hamlin game, may see only limited action, if any, against Tahoka, according to the coach.

Guard Joe Hudman, who missed the first four games because of illness, suited out for the first time this week and it was to be decided Wednesday if he will see action Friday night.

Center Jackie Huff suffered a pinched nerve in the neck against Hamlin, and halfback Jimmy Bartlett and end Dick Kennedy are still hampered by leg injuries, Coach Gregg said.

TO HOST ANTELOPES FRIDAY

Tahoka's undefeated Bulldogs will host the Post Antelopes at 8 p.m. Friday in the first football game between the two schools since 1961. Coach Don Smith's Bulldogs, paced by all-state candidate halfback Cliff Thomas, are No. 1 in area Class A rankings. Thomas wears jersey number 35.—(Engraving courtesy Lynn County News)

Post scores early to nip Hamlin, 14 to 12

The Post Antelopes struck for two touchdowns in the first half here Friday night and then hung on to defeat the stubborn Hamlin Pipers, 14 to 12, with Paul Walker's two extra point kicks making the difference.

Three 15-yard holding penalties and injuries to split end Roy Sappington and center Jackie Huff slowed the Antelopes in the second half, with the Pipers scoring late in the third quarter and early in the fourth to make the game uncomfortably close. A lost fumble on the Hamlin 26 at the end of a 73-yard gain also helped spike the Antelopes' chances of boosting their margin in the second half.

Lewis Shelton, Hamlin's speedy end, who beat Post last year when he scored two extra points on a run to give his team an 8-7 victory, almost did it again Friday night. He made a fine leaping catch of a 36-yard pass from quarterback Paul Long on the Post 44 and a few plays later scored on a 20-yard end-around to pull the Pipers up to 14-12. Earlier in the game he had gone 57 yards on an end-around run.

END JOE ADAMS fumbled the opening kickoff on the Hamlin 21 to give the Antelopes their first scoring opportunity. Adams was jarred loose from the ball on a tackle by Norman Tanner, with Walker, Clyde Cash and Huff all having a hand in the scramble that resulted in a Post recovery.

On fourth down from the 18, Davis Heaton circled right end for the touchdown, with only 1:29 gone off the scoreboard clock. Walker's kick split the uprights for the extra point.

After Phillip Simpson returned the kickoff to the Hamlin 30, Shelton unleashed his 57-yard end-around run to the Post 13, shaking off four tacklers before Dennis Altman finally nailed him.

The Pipers couldn't cash in, however, with Post taking over on downs on the 11 after Sappington stopped Simpson for a two-yard loss on a flare pass.

Heaton and Walker carried to the 50 in three plays, with Walker getting loose for one 26-yard scamper, and Jimmy Bartlett and Walker then advanced the ball to the 37 before a 15-yard holding penalty set the Antelopes back to the 50.

SHELTON RETURNED HEATON'S

Freshmen defeat Slaton; to play Frenship today

Coach Bill Smith's freshman team, winner over Slaton last Thursday, will play the Frenship freshmen here at 5 p.m. today.

Jay Bird and George Torres each scored two touchdowns in the Post team's 38 to 0 win over Slaton there last Thursday.

Torres ran 40 yards for a touchdown on Post's first play from scrimmage and a 40-yard pass play from Ray Altman in Bird gave Post another touchdown before the first half ended.

Three touchdowns in the second half came on a 20-yard run by Torres, a one-yard dive play by Manuel Sanchez and a 35-yard run by Bird.

Extra points were added after three of the Post touchdowns. Coach Smith said Larry Don Johnson, playing a good game on both offense and defense, was Post's outstanding individual player.

Billy Shumard playing football in Germany

Billy Shumard, former Post Antelope footballer, is playing starting center on an army football team in West Germany where he is stationed.

He recently flew from his base at Kitzingen, Germany, 300 miles to Ums, Germany to play a game, according to information he has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Shumard.

Billy holds an SP4 rank in the army.

Cash, a former Post High School athlete, ended the season with a batting average of .378, his highest since he won the American League batting title in 1961.

His 32 home runs led the Detroit team in that department, and his 90 runs batted in was also tops for the club.

'Greatest Guy in the World' is man who takes family out to eat

Who is the "Greatest Guy in the World?" According to restaurant operators in this community and throughout the nation, he's the man who takes his family out to eat — and often!

Food service establishments, along with food processors and suppliers, are saluting the Greatest Guy in October, which has been designated National Restaurant Month.

In the past, dining out of entire families was primarily restricted to special occasions, such as Mother's Day or birthdays, or similar events. "Now, however," says Watson Rulon, president of the National Restaurant Association, "frequent dining out by families is becoming the American way of life in keeping with higher incomes and the tendency of breadwinners to appreciate more leisurely living."

243 museums give Texas big lead in nation, with others in plans

ODESSA — The eyes of the nation are upon Texas, watching the growth of Texas' record-breaking number of museums — 243 — and waiting to see how their vast educational and cultural potentialities will be developed to preserve history and attract tourists.

"No other state has so many museums as Texas, and only one other state — New York — has organized on a statewide basis to coordinate the work and goals of its museums," says John Ben Shepperd.

"For example, consider the development of interpretive exhibits. Large museums had such a wealth of items that often they simply displayed them in cases. But the little museums had a limited number of objects, so they had to use every item to its utmost — and the result was creative, interpretive exhibits."

"The small museums also originated the concept of museum education programs for children and adults."

"This is why Texas is expanding its program to offer professional counseling to small museums. The large museums have helped a great deal, but still more assistance is needed."

"The Texas State Historical Survey Committee started the action by encouraging and assisting in the development of individual county history museums."

"Now the museum institute will initiate statewide coordination. If the personnel of small museums can meet and counsel with experts in the museum profession, they will overcome their problems... and the contributions they can make to the state are boundless."

appetite, there are now more than $25,000 away from home feeding establishments. These include establishments such as company cafeterias, hospitals and schools in addition to the various types of commercial or public restaurants. There is one eating place for every 350 people.

Industry spokesmen are quick to point out, however, that the industry's true growth should be measured in terms of increased size of individual restaurants rather than number. This, they say, is where the increase in family dining out can be identified as the most important growth factor.

The average restaurant of 1942 did something like $11,000 to $20,000 in sales annually. Today, the average is from $44,000 to $100,000 each year. Some commercial food service operations may do millions of dollars in sales in just one location.

Measured in dollars, food service industry sales amount to about $29 billion annually. This means that approximately ten per cent of the total retail business is done in away-from-home eating establishments. Of all the food produced in the U. S., the food service industry uses one-fourth.

Wrist bone broken by yearlings kick

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER

C. O. McCleskey had an unfortunate accident Saturday morning. It was rather an odd happening. He was helping to load some cattle when a yearling kicked him on his left arm breaking a bone in his wrist. The odd part was he didn't know it was broken until he had unloaded the cattle. We hope it wasn't put C. O. out too much. It's cotton harvesting time. Sorry, Hooley.

Well, it's fall weather again—that is most of the time. It's been warm today, however, but boy, wasn't it cold Saturday and Sunday mornings? Did you ever see cotton open so fast? It's popping open like popcorn. Soon be harvest time. Hope the nice weather holds.

The Jim Bob Porterfield family were Sunday luncheon guests of the Gus Porterfields.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Townsend had supper with the Carl Greers and stayed until bedtime Saturday. I was talking to Mrs. Greer just now and she said Carl was about the same. They are having central heating installed in their home. How nice for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray and grandson, Dennis, had lunch Sunday with the W. G. McCleskeys. They brought some fish from Lake Falcon and did they ever enjoy a fish fry!

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCleskey visited in Brownfield Tuesday in the W. M. Dubose home. Mrs. H. E. Huffaker and Mrs. Bobby Huffaker and children drove to Roswell, N. M. Monday and visited Mrs. Huffaker's mother, Mrs. Hicks, while their husbands were gone fishing.

Talking about fish, the bunch that went fishing last week from here caught over 1,000 catfish and crappie. Are they ever strutting and crowing!

The H. E. Huffakers' granddaughter, Faira, of Lamesa visited them over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gribble and the Roy Huffakers of Lamesa enjoyed a fish dinner at the Herman Huffakers Sunday.

Mrs. Tom Murray and Mrs. G. W. McCleskey visited in Lubbock Wednesday in the J. W. Warrich home. We are sorry to report that he is no better.

Mrs. Amos Gerner visited with her mother Saturday. Miss Freda Gerner of Los Angeles, Calif., visited last week in the homes of her brothers and sisters.

She spent Thursday with the Amos Gerners.

Mrs. Gerner visited Mr. and Mrs. Bishop Mathis Tuesday afternoon.

Freda and Lorene Gerner visited Alene Brewer and children Thursday afternoon and the Anton Muelers that night.

Lee Mason visited the Amos Gerners late Sunday evening.

Rusty Dean spent four days in Methodist Hospital last week.

Bobby Dean and a friend, Barry Weaver, students at West Texas State University, spent the weekend with Bobby's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray and son and Mr. and Mrs. Carlos McCleskey and children visited the C. O. McCleskeys Sunday.

Arlie Moore spent the weekend in Lubbock with his sister and husband, Lavonia and Tom Crutchfield.

Mrs. O. C. Harrison's mother, Mrs. Dottie Fortenberry of Welch, is in Methodist Hospital. She is doing nicely and we wish for her better days soon.

Mrs. W. A. Oden spent last week in Clarendon with her sister-in-law, Blanche Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sherrill, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sherrill, Mrs. A. Z. Sewell and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield attended funeral services of Mrs. U. S. Sherrill at the First Methodist Church in Abernathy. She had lived there for years and was buried in Rest Haven Cemetery. There was a large crowd attending. The Porterfields stopped on the way home to visit Herbert and Laura Watson.

Mrs. Clyde Childress went to Oregon with her brother and wife to visit relatives.

Mr. Poston has returned home from the hospital. We are glad he was well enough to come home. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cook of Lubbock visited her mother, Mrs. A. Z. Sewell, Sunday.

Some of the farmers at Draw are putting acid on the cotton that was hauled out sometime ago. The stalks have put on a lot of foliage that they want to get rid of so they can harvest what little is left from the hail storm.

Sunday was such a beautiful day but it's clouding up again (Monday) and the report is for cold and rain. Oh, well.

DOING WELL

Mrs. Bobby Gordon, who underwent surgery in the Plainview Hospital last Friday, is reported to be doing well.

LEVELLAND GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ransom of Levelland were guests here in the home of Mrs. A. C. Cooke Friday.

Huntley is with patrol squadron

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Aviation Antisubmarine Warfare Technician Second Class Glenn B. Huntley, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sexton Huntley of Post, Tex., has reported for temporary duty under instruction with Patrol Squadron 31 at North Island Naval Air Station in San Diego, Calif.

He is currently undergoing training in anti-submarine warfare. Anti-submarine warfare units are hunter-killer groups composed of surface, sub-surface and air units designed to seek out and destroy enemy submarines.

Trinity Baptist Church to observe anniversary

The Trinity Baptist Church will observe its first anniversary in its new building Sunday with dinner in Fellowship Hall and a special program at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to which the public is cordially invited.

The Rev. Clayton Pennington, former pastor now at a church at Carlisle, will be the principal speaker. The Rev. A. T. Nixon will give a review of the past year.

Upon completion of this training, he will be transferred to one of the Pacific Fleet's patrol squadrons.

Rails now using water from lake

RALLS — The City of Ralls' water system is now officially using water from the White River Lake.

White River water began flowing into the lines here Sept. 26 when the gate valve on a 12-inch pipeline from Crosbyton to Ralls was opened.

Prior to the opening of the valve into the Ralls water system, a blow off valve about a mile east of town was opened to flush out the Crosbyton - to - Ralls line. A booster pump in Crosbyton was used to force the water to this city, as Crosbyton is approximately 100 feet lower in elevation than Ralls.

After the main valve was opened into the Ralls system, a second booster pump in Crosbyton was started to help push the water into the storage tank here.

Supervising the valve opening was Al O'Brien, manager of the White River Municipal Water District.
