

Record vote gives Demos smashing win in Garza

A record-smashing turnout of 2,007 Garza voters handed President Lyndon B. Johnson a better than 2 to 1 margin over Republican Barry Goldwater in the general election Tuesday despite the best-organized Republican effort in the county's history.

It was a Democratic sweep "from the courthouse to the White House" as far as Garza countians were concerned.

Biggest interest shown here was in the race for Precinct 3 county commissioner in which Ben Sanchez, the Democratic nominee, defeated David Tyler's well-organized write-in bid, 143 to 92.

Tyler took the Verbeno box 25 to 7, but Sanchez piled up his winning margin at the Two Draw box, getting 135 votes to only 66 for Tyler. They split the two votes cast absentee in the race.

SANCHEZ, WHO IS 40 and owns his own farm two miles out on the Spur highway, thus becomes the first Latin-American to be elected to a Garza County office.

Ninety-five per cent of the more than 175 phone calls received by The Dispatch for election results Tuesday night concerned this precinct race.

Just as across the nation, there were no surprises in the presidential campaign.

The "hidden vote," which Goldwater talked about in campaign speeches, went to the polls in Garza County, all right, but most of them padded Johnson's total.

President Johnson received 1,254 votes in Garza County to 567 for Goldwater. Goldwater carried only one of the nine precincts—the No. 7 voting box in Pleasant Valley, 40 to 26.

The previous voting high for the county came in the May primary this spring when 1,898 voters turned out. The previous presidential election high was in 1952 when 1,566 voted.

IT IS ESTIMATED there are about 2,300 eligible voters in the county, including 1,797 non-taxpayers and the many 60-and-over exemptions. This means that approximately 90 per cent of Garza's eligible voters helped make Tuesday's ballot decisions.

Assuming that everybody who went to the polls voted for president, about 10 per cent of the total vote cast was lost through incorrect marking of ballots in the "ticket splitting."

Biggest loss of votes was in Two Draw where 283 ballots were cast and only 182 were tabulated for president.

Only 1,827 votes were counted in the presidential race, out of the 2,007 cast, and only 1,806 in the U. S. senatorial contest. The biggest vote tally of all was in the 19th District congressional race in which Cong. George Mahon scored a 1,533 to 327 vote sweep over Republican Joe B. Phillips for a total vote of 1,860.

As usual, the big North Post box in which 820 votes were cast had a counting problem.

All the other eight voting boxes and the absentee vote was "in" at the courthouse and tallied by shortly after 9 p. m.—two hours after the polls closed.

THE NORTH POST box, listed No. 1 for good reason, didn't report until 5:20 a. m. Wednesday. By that time, County Clerk Carl Cerber, who had waited until about 3 a. m. for its tally, had gotten two hours sleep.

North Post election judge Marvin Hudman, who couldn't sleep late and just "got up and came to work" Wednesday, told The Dispatch that the counting boards worked hard but it was a big haul and a huge vote and that counting facilities in the youth center were inadequate as long as the polls were open.

Tuesday's was expected to be the last of the "waiting vigils" at the courthouse for that big North Post box.

By the time another election rolls around, the new county commissioner precinct changes will be in effect and this big box will be cut to 600 eligible voters or less.

County Judge J. E. Parker indicated Wednesday that the change in the commissioner districts probably will mean the addition of another voting box in Commissioner precinct 3 for the new city votes added to that precinct.

SOME 217 VOTED in this commissioner precinct Tuesday, but the eligible vote will be 400 or more next time with the new territory added.

President Johnson picked up his biggest margin over Goldwater in the city's Two Draw box where the civil rights issue counted most. Johnson carried the voting box by a 14 to 1 margin—169 to 13—or an almost unheard of 93 per cent of the vote.

The closest contest on the big ballot, as far as Garza County was concerned, was the U. S. Senate race in which Sen. Ralph Yarborough tallied 1,061 votes to 800 for Republican George Bush. Only four votes separated the two until the Two Draw and North Post boxes came in. Tow draw, as would be expected, voted the heaviest for the liberal Yarborough, 141 to 25 votes for Bush.

Bush carried three boxes—Close City 36 to 33, Pleasant Valley 51 to 17, and South Post 211 to 191—and stood off 15 to 15 at Verbeno.

The Constitution Party, the third party on the ballot, drew only six votes for Joseph B. Liebhorn for President and less for their other

Decides something must be done

City council frowns on Halloween doings

Halloween vandalism, including the burning of outhouses on city streets, is getting out of hand and something must be done about it, the city council decided Monday night at its regular November meeting.

Fire Chief Loyd Mock told the council 18 fire runs were made by the volunteer fire department Saturday night as compared with six at the same time last year and three at the same time two years ago.

"I'd say it's getting out of hand," the fire chief told the council. Firemen stayed up most of Halloween night at a cost to the city of $760, the council was told by Mayor Harold Lucas.

State highway to be promoted

All local businessmen interested in getting more traffic through Post are invited to attend a Chamber of Commerce sponsored meeting in the Community Room of the bank at 2:30 p. m. Friday.

A group of Borger men will explain at the meeting plans for a new state highway which would run south from Borger to the Big Bend country.

It would come through Post and miss Amarillo, Plainview, Lubbock and other larger cities.

Chamber President Frank Blanton, in calling the Friday meeting, pointed out that such a highway should attract a greater volume of tourist traffic through Post each year.

Little highway construction would be required. Mostly the new state highway could be created by a new designation of present farm to market roads.

In addition to the outhouse fires, there were reports of 150 feet of city-owned sewer tile being busted, at least two store window glasses broken, and damage to automobiles and other private property.

ONE COUNCILMAN pointed out during the discussion that the main reason vandalism hit a new high this year was because Halloween fell on Saturday.

Police Chief Leldon P. Miller told the council that he made no arrests during the night because no one signed a complaint.

"Most people had told me beforehand," Miller said, "that outhouses had been burned here on Halloween night for the last 20 years and that they would be burned again this Halloween."

Halloween egg-throwing hit a new high this year and paper bags and balloons filled with water were other popular missiles, the council was told.

Fire Chief Mock said not all the fire runs were to outhouse burnings. In one instance, brush was set afire on railroad right-of-way.

All three fire trucks were kept out until well past midnight Saturday. On a few occasions, all three were running at the same time.

"WHAT IF ONE of your fellow's place of business or home had caught fire while all three trucks were running here and there?" the fire chief asked.

City Manager Eddie Warren said street paving was damaged by the outhouse burning. He also said he was of the opinion the sewer tile was busted by some of the crowd hunting outhouses to burn.

The city manager said the sewer tile was laying beside alleys in the northeast part of town, where he said most of the outhouse-hunting took place.

Mayor Lucas told the council "most of the citizens are up in the air over what went on Saturday night." He said about 20 persons are believed to have been involved in the outhouse burnings.

The council made no decision on what steps it would take to prevent any such future outbreak on Halloween. Councilman Bob Collier said he would favor hiring 20 special deputies if it took that to prevent a recurrence of Saturday night's events.

"It wouldn't cost the city as much as the $760 it cost to have the firemen out nearly all night," he said.

OTHER COUNCIL business Monday night included making Mrs. Wanda Wilkerson city secretary at a $25-a-month increase in salary. Mrs. Wilkerson has been acting city secretary for the last three months.

The council also officially approved the employment of Walter Clark as a city policeman. Clark was hired by Police Chief Miller a few weeks ago, subject to the council's approval.

City Water Supt. Jimmy Holleman was authorized to purchase 1,000 feet of two and one-half inch fire hose for the fire department (See City Council, Page 8)

★ MAIL CARRIERS ARE 'ARMED' FOR DOGS

Postal employees here on street delivery are making their rounds "armed" with the post office department's approved dog repellent. Postmaster Harold Voss said today.

Termed "Halt," the repellent consists of 15 per cent oleoresin capsicum, an extract of cayenne pepper, and 85 per cent mineral oil dissolved in an aerosol spray can.

Postmaster Voss said that the repellent is being put into use throughout the postal system because dog bite injuries account for about 18 per cent of all injuries to postal personnel each year.

The repellent is sprayed directly at the eyes of the attacking animal. It has an effective range of up to 12 feet. The repellent does not harm the dog, but causes him to retreat and the effects wear off in 10 to 15 minutes.

The postmaster emphasized that the repellent is carried by postmen solely for their protection and will not be used indiscriminately.

JOE WILSON

Joe Wilson new garage operator

Joe Wilson is the new owner and operator of the Broadway Garage, purchasing the business from W. O. Stewart effective Nov. 1.

Stewart, advised to get out of the garage business by his physician because of carbon monoxide poisoning in his blood, said he plans to remain in Post and hopes to get an "outside job" like the physician recommended.

Wilson moved to Post in November, 1958, from Silverton to open the Garza Auto Parts store here for James Mitchell and has been employed by the store until this week when he entered the garage business.

Joe is an experienced mechanic, having worked as a mechanic many years at Childress.

He will do all types of automotive, truck, and tractor repair work.

Wilson lives at 908 West Fourth with his wife, Helen, and their family of four children, Cindy, 17, Ronnie, 16, Freddy, 10, and Phillip, Todd, 1.

Wilson's announcement ad appears on page 7 of today's Dispatch.

3,000 bales are ginned in Garza

Approximately 3,000 bales of 1964 Garza County cotton already has been ginned, a survey conducted yesterday afternoon by the Dispatch revealed.

County ginners reported either a short crop this year or refuse to estimate prospects and most of them reported the cotton grading well.

In and out of Post

Major postal service change is coming up

Postmaster Harold Voss today announced an impending major change in postal service in and out of Post, effective Saturday, Nov. 14, when the new "sectional center" postal system becomes effective in Texas.

Beginning that Saturday, a truck will bring Post's mail out of Lubbock daily each morning arriving here at 7:05 a. m. The truck will pick up Post's outgoing mail at 6 p. m. each evening and carry it into the "sectional center" at Lubbock.

A network of night-time deliveries between "sectional centers" is scheduled so that all incoming mail into each sectional center can be delivered the next morning out.

Wilke is staging toy, clothes drive

R. G. (Wilke) Wilkerson, who is staging a local used clothing and toy drive of his own for Christmas distribution, told The Dispatch this week that he already is beginning distribution of used clothing.

He is working through the schools and receives notes from the teachers when youngsters are in need of such clothing.

Those having toys they would like to see go to the needy this Christmas are urged to take them to Wilke.

No local organization are conducting such drives this year.

Veterans' Day supper to be held Tuesday

Members of the American Legion post and other ex-servicemen will hold their annual Veterans' Day supper at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 10, at the Legion Hall on South Avenue K.

All ex-servicemen, whether or not they are members of the American Legion, are invited to the supper.

of nearby sectional centers such as Amarillo, Midland and Childress.

Postmaster Voss, who has attended several meetings on the new "sectional postoffice" service, said the plan is designed to speed mail deliveries so it can be delivered in all nearby towns the following morning.

The postmaster said some train service still would be used with mail arrival in the post office too late for the evening truck into Lubbock being dispatched via the southbound Santa Fe train.

The new truck route out of Lubbock will go through to Justiceburg six days a week and will stop at Post on Sundays, Voss said.

Voss said the present star routes to Spur and Brownfield will not be effected by the new truck service.

Post will be a "satellite" postoffice in the new sectional center system.

Voss said that letters to Post from any point in the nation will be routed to the Lubbock sectional postoffice under the new system. He said work crews will be waiting each morning in the new sectional center at Lubbock to quickly process all incoming mail from nearby towns such as Post.

The postmaster asked for even better cooperation from local patrons in getting their outgoing mail into the local postoffice earlier each day. He said the bulk of the outgoing mail now is received from 5 to 5:30 p. m. each weekday. If much of this mail can be placed in the postoffice earlier it will facilitate getting all of it "tied out" for the truck into the Lubbock "sectional center."

Voss emphasized that outgoing airmail should be in the postoffice by 4:30 p. m. each day. He said schedules at Lubbock for airmail are tight with much of it being flown out of Lubbock at 8 p. m. By early airmail mailing, the postmaster said such letters probably will reach their destination 24 hours earlier.

Christmas parade in 'the making'

Another Christmas Opening Parade is in "the making" for Post, basically with the same ingredients which made the 1963 event such a smash, despite a two weeks postponement because of the presidential assassination and then a stinging sandstorm that completely blew one float apart in the assembly area and damaged others.

The nucleus of course will be the imagination and enthusiasm of high school students who will build the parade floats with construction funds provided by local merchants.

They came up with some really clever ideas last year and within the new theme—"The Spirit of Christmas"—they should do so again.

The parade this year will come on the first Saturday after the Thanksgiving weekend. That puts it on Saturday, Dec. 5, at 10 a.m.

By the time the parade comes swinging down the street with Santa Claus, floats, bands, and other features, Post's permanent Christmas decorations will be up to brighten the downtown business area.

The Chamber parade committee has made one change this year—that of accepting floats from business firms, providing they come within the parade theme, are non-commercial and comparable in quality. The float invitation also is extended to any clubs and organizations around town which want to participate.

Such floats won't be competing with the high school organizations for the four float trophies but they are welcome to join the line of march.

What made the Christmas Opening Parade such a success last year was the spirit of cooperation that was manifest by everyone, especially the schools—teachers, administrators and students. The feeling of the committee is that if more want to get into the act on building floats, let them.

The committee is working, too, in trying to attract some new extra features for this year's parade. They will be announced only when definitely scheduled for appearance here.

We can spread the parade cooperation even further by asking the public to come forward with any ideas you may have for good parade features. See or call Parade Chairman Elwood Wright. All suggestions will be appreciated.—JC

Veterans' Day — all but forgotten

Veterans' Day, which is gradually losing ground as a nationally-observed holiday, is next Wednesday, Nov. 11. The only observance marking it locally will be the annual Veterans' Day supper at the American Legion hall.

It's too bad that the nation has forgotten so soon that it isn't doing too much for our war veterans to set aside a day in their honor. For a few years following each of the World Wars, we paused long enough to properly observe the day, but not any more, except in a few isolated instances.

The services the veterans rendered their country should mean just as much today as it did the first year following each of the big wars, when we went all out to observe Veterans' Day, or Armistice Day, as it was then called.

Actually, our men and women in the armed forces have never stopped contributing to their nation's safety, even though we have not officially been at war since 1945. The Korean conflict, in which thousands of American men died, was not officially designated as a war by this nation. Our present embroilment in South Vietnam is not a war, yet scores of our servicemen are being killed and wounded over there.

Even in peacetime maneuvers, many of our servicemen make the supreme sacrifice for their country. In the maneuvers now under way by the Navy off Spain, 14 American aviators have lost their lives in air accidents.

Every day they serve, the men and women in our armed forces are contributing to their country's safety. They come out as veterans, not as war veterans, perhaps, but as veterans nevertheless. Nov. 11 is their day, the day originally set aside to honor them.

Our veterans may wonder, but they're not supposed to ask why on anything they're told to do while in the service. How many of them, do you suppose, wonder after they leave the service why this nation has all but forgotten Veterans' Day?—CD

We appear to have the job filled

After a month or so on the job, Post's new police chief, Leidon P. Miller, appears to be getting the job done.

Chief Miller has made a good impression on the law-abiding citizens of the community by being on the job early and late. Until employing an additional policeman several days ago, Chief Miller, along with City Policeman Otis G. Shepherd Jr., was putting in several hours overtime every day and night.

The new chief also has made an excellent start toward improving the police department's image, which is just a fancier way of saying that he is doing a good job in the field of public relations. He has shown that he can and will cooperate with other law enforcement agencies in the city and county, which certainly is to the public's benefit. Chief Miller is one of those experienced lawmen who realizes that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and that it works out to a police officer's own benefit to go as far as possible toward educating the public as to what is right and what is wrong—before it has a chance to happen. He has been especially effective in dealing with traffic problems.

The new police chief also has improved the records system at the police station as another step toward upgrading the City of Post's law enforcement program. All in all, he has worked out, as far as this newspaper has been able to determine, to the satisfaction of the City Council, which employed him, and to the general public, which is paying his salary.—CD

IT WAS A nice, quiet election, wasn't it?

The election, in many ways, was even quieter than Halloween night was here. The fire and police sirens Saturday night almost outdid the victory bell of Friday night, Oct. 23, but since they were being sounded in the line of duty, none of us should complain.

THE TRICK AND treaters, bless their little hearts, didn't give anyone too much trouble Halloween night; at least, in our neighborhood they didn't. They came to the door in an orderly manner, remembered to say "thank you" for the hand-outs, and got through with their trapezoid around at an earlier hour than usual.

I noticed this Halloween that folks in our neighborhood went to both extremes in receiving (or not receiving) the trick and treaters. Some had their doors locked and their lights off when the youngsters came calling while one family threw open its front door and invited the nighttime "prowlers" into the house. Most of us, however, hit a medium between those two extremes by simply answering the door and dropping candy or cookies into the seemingly bottomless sacks.

OH, WELL, LIKE Christmas and the income tax deadline, Halloween comes but once a year.

The Man U, the Street says about the only thing you can do with money these days is owe it.

LIKE SO MANY of the other fans at Friday night's football game, our cat Blackie thought for a little while that his Antelopes might pull an upset over the Denver City Mustangs. Blackie is shown here whooping it up during that thrilling first quarter.

I was talking to a fellow in the press box at Friday night's game who said he played football back in the days before it took so long to get a game started. He said he wasn't opposed to all the pre-game ceremonies, but he'd noticed that nowadays if you don't get to the stadium at least 30 minutes before the kickoff, you're going to miss something. "Back when I played football," he said, "the teams and their coaches would arrive at the field, one side would ask the other side if it was ready, and if it was, the game would get under way without any additional fanfare." "But," he added, "I yield to progress."

It's hard to know exactly when one generation ends, and the next one begins, but it's somewhere around 9 p. m.

BACK TO HALLOWEEN, it no longer works its old magic. I suppose children who have been subjected to "The Monster Crawdad" and "The Werewolf From Mars" find it hard to pretend they're scared by a pumpkin.

Over in a neighboring town, there's divided opinion about the new preacher. The division is between the afflicted he's comforted and the comfortable he's afflicted.

A Moment With God

Read Matthew 18:15-22
FOUR HUNDRED NINETY TIMES

When ye pray, say, Forgive us our sins: for we also forgive everyone that is indebted to us. Luke 11:4

As Christians we are to live and move and have our being in the forgiveness of God, which is the "fresh air" of the soul. Our need for forgiveness is seventy times seven. We can seek the grace of God too frequently or too fervently. So teaches us to seek it as we seek for bread—day by day and end.

No where is this need more clearly indicated than in the answer to Peter's question: How often should one forgive his brother? We are to forgive our brother, not seven times, seventy times seven; 490 times! As one writer has pointed we usually need to forgive our brother this seventy times seven for each single offense. Often, in practice, we no sooner forgive our brother and clear the air than we find our mind returning to his offense against us. Our resentment against him is renewed. We need to forgive our brother all over again.

We are changeable creatures; part saint, part sinner; sometimes merciful, sometimes painstakingly just and demanding. The saint and sinner within us are locked in conflict. We seek the constant renewing of our spirits by the forgiveness of God, "the saint" within us is to emerge victorious.

Gracious Lord, forgive us seventy times seven, for Thy sake, that we may at last fully forgive those who trespass against us. Amen.

Sophomores enjoy hay ride, party

About 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Oct. 24, the Sophomore class along with sponsors and room mothers climbed on a hay-covered flat-bed truck and headed toward the creek bed on the Spur highway. This spot has become a favorite for class parties and the Sophomore class was looking forward to the best party ever as they bounded along singing songs and throwing hay.

Just after arriving at the appointed site, a light rain began to fall, but the boys playing football, with side-line coaching from Coach Jones, seemed unconscious of the damp. Groups of girls struck out in several directions, intent on exploring. Miss Stockton and Mrs. Moody tramped along with them, occasionally stopping to pluck out all the grassburrs and briars which insisted on attaching themselves to pants legs and socks.

Cotton is coming in fast in Grassland area

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER
 The cotton is coming in fast at the Grassland gins. The Farmer's Co-op Gin reports 1,125 bales ginned up to Monday and running steadily all day and until midnight or after. The Producer's Gin reports 852 bales ginned and not too busy yet. They are steadily increasing—look out in about 10 more days.

Mrs. Amos Gerner did not take the anniversary supper she prepared to the hospital but took it to the Claborn home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Mutt McCaugh and son, Mike, of Aberrathy spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Propst.

The Propsts hope to move into their house in about a week or 10 days.
 Mrs. W. A. Oden and Mrs. O. H. Hoover took a 90-mile drive Sunday down in the breaks country around Gail. The haze in the hills made beautiful scenery.

The Rev. J. E. Yeats, former pastor, preached Sunday morning at the Grassland and Draw Methodist churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy LeMond spent the weekend with the Ted Pridemores near Dallas.

The Rev. and Mrs. Ira Campbell are leaving Monday for Memphis, Tenn., to hold a two-week revival. We wish for them much success.

The Rev. McCoy of Lamesa will preach here in his absence.
 Mrs. Mary Lee Laws and children spent the weekend in Hobbs, N. M. with her parents, Mrs. Cordie Laws was a weekend guest of her son and family, the Kelly Laws.

Mrs. May Lewis, former resident, suffered a heart attack and was hospitalized for some time in Wichita Falls.

Raymond Langford passed away Oct. 28 at 7 a. m. after suffering a heart attack. He was the son of G. W. Langford and was reared in this community. He has been gone for a number of years. Services were held in a Fort Worth funeral home with the Rev. Ritchey of the First Baptist Church officiating. Attending the Saturday service were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lanford and a sister, Mrs. Millie Ols Harpox of Portales, N. M.

THE CAROLS McCleskey family were super guests of the James Murry family Monday.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Allen came home from the valley via Grassland and visited with their daughter and family, the Hooley McCleskeys, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dubose of Brownfield spent the day Thursday with the W. G. McCleskeys.

 The L. J. Murrays, the Hulan Murray family of Lamesa, the James Murray family, Mrs. Ollie Huffaker and daughter, Mrs. Ludie Johnston and two sons of Colorado Springs, Colo., were Sunday luncheon guests of the Bert McDonalds. Mrs. Johnston and sons are here visiting her parents and other relatives.

The Hooley McCleskey family and the W. L. Gribbles went to Lubbock Sunday after church to have lunch with the J. C. Allens and visit the J. W. Warricks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McCleskey took their dinner and went to their grandson's house and had dinner with them. I call that cooperation.

Guy LeMond of Snyder came after Mrs. A. Z. Sewell to take her to Lovington, N. M., to be with her brother, Grady Le Mond, who is very ill.

Grandma Riley is not doing well but J. E. Sherrill is improving.
 Mrs. Caswell is in the hospital in Lamesa but they plan to take her to a specialist in Lubbock for further tests. Seems she also has a heart ailment.

The W. T. Luttrells attended the funeral services of their brother-in-law, a Mr. King, in Wilson Methodist Church last Wednesday. We extend to these good people our sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Norman attended funeral services for a cousin in Chico last Wednesday.

The L. B. Burks and E. M. Normans visited the Ferman Chapmans in Brownfield Sunday.

Mrs. Leucian Walker spent a few days last week with her son, L. J. Walker, and family in Littlefield.

The Joe Flemming family of Brownfield visited her brother and family, the Gerald Normans, Saturday night. Johnnie and Jim Norman took the eight children trick or treating.

The C. A. Walkers were weekend guests of their daughter and family.

The Rev. and Mrs. Ray Forbes went to Tulsa Saturday for the rehearsal of a wedding. They spent the night with the Busk Cammells, attended services at the Trinity Methodist Church Sunday and performed the wedding ceremony in the afternoon in the Calvary Baptist Church.

The Forbes went to Vera this week to attend funeral services for an old friend and former member, a Mr. Moore.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Yeats were luncheon guests of the Gus Porterfields Sunday.

R. W. Halev and Mrs. Amos Gerner visited their mother one day last week. Mrs. Gerner also visited Fav Claborn who is improving.

W. P. Thomas has been transferred to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock and seems to be slowly improving. The L. S. Turners visited the H. B. Crosby of Wilson Sunday afternoon.

Post businessman James L. Minor, a graduate of the Tahoka schools, was principal speaker at Tahoka's annual homecoming held recently.

 The Post man is one of five brothers who made the name "Minor" famous on Tahoka athletic teams for more than 20 years. He was president of his class through high school and his valedictorian.

It's a fine thing when there are to build outhouses in order to be sure of keeping up with the high school instructor saying during Friday, "You're the fourth one today who has acted out on an out-house as his pantomime."

the new chief of police turned out to be a good "egg" which is me to the next subject of merry Halloween. A check of the market and grocery stores on Monday told me that there were a few eggs left in town. I don't know what "egg" I dreamed up the egg bit. I say he had lots of followers they went all out.

ATTEND CHURCH DEDICATION
The Rev. and Mrs. Ed Graham attended the dedication ceremonies Sunday of the new Littlefield Presbyterian Church.

HOW DOES LIFE GET SO TANGLED?

Interesting thing about a rope—it rarely becomes tangled when it's serving some useful purpose. It stretches firm and taut . . . reaching . . . holding.

But lay the rope aside . . . waiting without a purpose . . . and it becomes so tangled you can't even find the ends.

Life is like that! For some folks it seems an impossible tangle of conflicts, worries and disappointments. They haven't discovered how to devote their strand of years to a vital, constant purpose.

But for others life stretches firm and taut from birth to Eternity. The tangles disappear as men reach across time to hold certain the truths by which God would have us live.

Life without tangles . . . life with purpose . . . discover it in Church next Sunday!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Don't Be Litterbugs

Students: Would your parents pay the same bill two or three times? Certainly not! But let's be a little better — if you are a litterbug, your parents are walking, riding or driving around and throw down papers, cups, etc. If you are a litterbug, your parents pay a fine — the maximum in Texas, $5.00. Parents also pay taxes for cleanup on highways, schools, and public areas. Isn't this paying for litterbugs? Let's not double our bills by being litterbugs. —Mrs. Wrisberg

Band brings Antelopes back on the gridiron

The Post High School Band continued their usual job as keeping the audience well entertained at the Post-Denver City game Friday night.

The closing of their halftime was quite different than usual. They really brought the football boys back on the field at the beginning of the second half with the Post fight song!

Part of the Friday night show will be used at contest, Nov. 24 at Jones Stadium in Lubbock.

The band will have night rehearsals on Tuesday nights until the date of the contest.

'This Is It!' theme of rally

The theme of the pep rally last Friday was "This is it!" This was the game—Denver City. Everybody always looks forward to the "D. C." game. This game means more to PHS than any other game.

The pep rally got under way with "What's the Good Word?" and then on with "Stomp Clap" and "Hey, Post, Fight!"

Mr. Barry Thompson, superintendent of Post Schools, spoke to the student body.

The cheerleaders led "What's the Good Word", but it was louder than the first time. The band added to the spirit-building pep rally.

The final yells were "Take a V", "Out to Get You Tonight", and "What's the Good Word".

The band ended the pep rally with the school song.

Cheerleaders' Column

Thank you, pep squad and band, for your tremendous support Friday night. You supported the Antelopes all the way and never gave up. I was told (by a very reliable source) that the Antelopes need our help the most when our opponents have the ball on their end of the field. Usually this is when the crowd stops supporting our team and becomes disinterested. If we plan on boosting the Antelopes, we must do so all the time; not only when we have the ball, but when our defense is out there trying to get it. Frequently fans are only fans when we have the ball in our possession and are doing well. Friday night's game was filled with some of the best cheering I've ever heard and I was proud of Post High School. Let's keep it up, band and pep squad!

I assume that most of the Antelope fans have noticed the beautiful mums the cheerleaders have worn the last two home games. Evidently we have a secret admirer, for we have yet to discover the donor. Whoever it is, though, we would like to say "Thank you very much." They were beautiful and we enjoyed them so much.

Friday we travel to Frenship to play the Tigers, who seem to play twice as hard as usual when tangling with the Antelopes. We are ready for another victory, and tomorrow night is the time for it. It is Frenship's homecoming and they will be out to make it a successful one, too. Two years ago we battled to a scoreless tie under the same conditions, and I'm sure the Tigers will be ready again this season. We spoiled Morton's big celebration and I, for one, am ready to do the same to Frenship.

Antelopes, we're behind you all the way. Keen on fighting for PHS. BEAT TIGERS!

Chapter of FTA organized here

A new club has been formed this year in Post High School which has created quite an interest among the students and faculty.

This new organization is the Future Teachers Association, better known as the FTA. The local chapter has been named the Charles E. Hopkins Chapter.

There are 23 members in the club, and Mr. Hopkins, vocational arts instructor, is the sponsor. The officers are: Danny Pierce, president; Dee Ann Walker, vice president; Bobbie Compton, secretary; Johnny Tom Bilberry, parliamentarian, and Carolyn Matsler, historian.

The main purpose of the FTA is to encourage the interest of students in the teaching profession.

During the year, the members will have the opportunity to do some practice teaching. At the first meeting, the president, vice president and secretary from the Monterey FTA in Lubbock were present and advised the Post group on forming the chapter.

The FTA is planning on attending the district convention in Leveland on Dec. 12, and send delegates to the state convention in Houston.

This is the first year for the chapter and it will be a busy one. If the student body and faculty support the FTA it will develop greatly and be a credit to everyone.

Postings—

of foreboding, fearing routing of all Post mail through Lubbock will mean slower not faster service.

The Dispatch is no fan of the Lubbock postoffice, what with our Thursday Dispatches delivered in Lubbock the following Monday, but we do believe in giving the new system a chance to prove what it can do before sounding off.

Lubbock's postal problem as we understand it is a lack of postoffice space to work the mail. A new postoffice for Lubbock is being planned, but it is still a couple of years away. However, a lot of planning has gone into the new "sectional center" system and we're willing to see if progress is possible.

Speaking of the mail, Postmaster Harold Voss asked us yesterday to urge Dispatch readers to send their Christmas cards first class this year. A first class mailing enables the postoffice to forward Christmas cards to new addresses. Since many remember old friends only at Christmas, unless cards are mailed first class they may never catch up with friends who have moved. We for one think return addresses should be on Christmas cards mailed out of town, too, so friends would know where to reach the sender if they had lost the address.

Last mail comment item is the zip code. Postmaster Voss urges everyone to put the zip code not only on their return address on the envelope but on the address on the letter as well, so the zip code will be handy when somebody answers after the envelope is thrown away. Post's zip code number is 79356.

Post's two drug stores—Post Pharmacy and Bob Collier, Drugist—both have new fulltime registered pharmacists added to their respective store staffs this week as announced in today's Dispatch.

Tommy Bird at Bob Collier's was born and reared in Post and moved to Lubbock when he was a junior in high school. He is the son of Charlie Bird, former Garza rancher, who now lives in Lubbock. Tommy attended Texas Tech, then Brigham Young University, took two and one-half years for a mission for the Mormon Church in Finland, returned and attended a semester at Tech and then transferred to the University of Texas where he obtained a pharmacist degree in January of this year. He and his wife, Peggy, and their two-year-old daughter now live in Lubbock and he will commute for the present back and forth to Post. He has been working part-time at Collier's since May.

Floyd (Mick) Wells is the new pharmacist hired by Frank Blanton at Post Pharmacy. He has been a pharmacist for 31 years, coming to Texas 12 years ago from El Reno, Okla., where he managed a drug store. He owned and operated his own drug store at Balingler for 11 years.

You'll notice a new women's page advertiser today—Jake's Recreation—which has joined the new trend to family recreational centers. The local recreational parlor has been remodeled and is now open for lady pool players too. It's a free get-acquainted night tonight at Jake's for the ladies and Mr. and Mrs. Heiskell tell you all about it in their announcement ad.

Operating budget is approved for housing project

Directors of the Housing Authority of Post approved an operating budget for the 28-unit housing project here, once it is occupied next year, at a monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon in the city council room.

The resignation of Tom Greenwood, who is leaving Post, was received and accepted and Jim Poer, named Monday night by the city council to succeed Greenwood on the authority, was welcomed to the board.

The board will act at its December meeting on operating policies for the project and expect at that time to consider maximum incomes for eligible renters and establishment of rents for the various units.

Regional housing authorities from Fort Worth will confer with the local housing directors on these matters within a few weeks.

Construction of the 28-units are expected to be completed before Feb. 1.

Formal applications for renters will not be accepted until all operating procedures and rents are fixed by the authority and approved by the regional PHA office.

Directors voted to accept the low bid of $151 from L. M. Crowley for construction of garbage pail racks for the units.

Directors expressed the view there wasn't enough money in the proposed budget for lawn watering and care. They expect to get some advice on that problem from regional PHA officials on their next visit.

Attending the session were Jim Cornish, Frank Blanton, Powell Shytles, Poer, and Executive Director Luther Harper.

County Commissioner Precinct 1: Paul Jones, unopposed 949.

All of the three state constitutional amendments carried as far as Garza voters were concerned, although at least 40 per cent of the county's voters still skinned the amendments without voting either way.

Observers said this indicated that many voters didn't feel they knew enough about the amendments to express their opinion.

The school fund amendment (No. 1) carried, 609 to 444, in the county. The conservation district amendment (No. 2) carried 607 to 436. The good medical care, to implement Kerr-Mills medical care in Texas, (No. 3) carried by the biggest margin and drew the biggest vote, 945 to 274.

STOOD 10 FEET TALL

To the citizens of Post:
An incident that occurred following the Denver City vs. Post football game impressed me so profoundly that I feel it should be shared with all your people.

A member of the Post team approached the Mustang bus after the Denver City team was almost ready to leave. In a very gentlemanly manner he asked for permission to board the bus and address the team. After this was granted he spoke to them for a minute or so expressing the hope that we would go all the way etc. His exact words are not so important as the obvious sincerity he spoke. It was an impressive and moving thing. I am sure that he spoke out of keen disappointment. He had undoubtedly worked long and hard only to see all his hopes and dreams frustrated. But he rose above it! I don't know his name, but I will always think of him as one of the toughest players. I do know that at that moment he stood 10 feet tall. A young man of that calibre is not only a credit to himself and his team but to the community that he represents.

Hard-hitting competition is essential and thrilling but, when it is over, let's all shake hands in mutual respect—win or lose. What an example this young man has set for all of us. We at Denver City hope to win State, but when and if we lose, I hope that we can put aside our disappointment and be like the men that this boy was. If we can't, we don't deserve to be champions.

A number of other Post players came to the visiting team dressing room and they should be commended also. Several of the Denver City players remarked that this was one of the best teams that we have played and they certainly were the finest sportsmen.

We won the ball game, but only after having to put out our best. We left your city with a deep admiration for your team.

and materials for construction of a hose-drying rack.

The council renewed the city's contract with Prichard & Abbott for oil property and new construction tax evaluation, and re-set Nov. 16 as the date of a hearing on condemnation of the Ameen building at the southwest corner of Main and Avenue I. The condemnation hearing had been set for an earlier date, but was postponed when the building's owner was unable to appear because of illness.

THE COUNCIL also voted to advertise for bids on purchase of a new back hoe for the water department. The new hoe would replace a used one purchased three years ago.

Jim Poer was appointed to complete the unexpired term of Tom Greenwood on the Post Public Housing Authority at the written request of Luther Harper, executive director of the PHA here. Greenwood recently resigned.

The council voted to authorize repainting and other improvements at the police station, including new flooring and construction of a counter. The council had received one bid on the work, but indicated it would like to receive at least three bids before letting a contract.

The council heard Police Chief Miller's police department report for October, which showed a total of $416 in fines collected, with seven other offenders living out in jail a total of $114 in fines.

Frenship Tigers to host Post Antelopes Friday night

Teal's gridders bidding for 2nd place 4AA finish

The Post Antelopes, hopeful of a second place finish in District 4AA, journey to Wolforth Friday to take on the Frenship High School Tigers, with the kickoff scheduled for 7:30.

Only Frenship and Slaton remain on the Antelopes' schedule, with both teams well out of the running for the district title. Post will have to defeat both teams for a second place finish, providing Denver City beats Morton in another Friday night game.

Coach Harold Teal said today that he isn't overly optimistic about the Antelopes' chances at Frenship, even though the Tigers, like the Antelopes, have only one win to their credit.

"FRENSHIP ALWAYS seems to play a little tougher against us than against any other team on their schedule," Teal said. "Last year we beat them only by 14 to 8, and the year before we were lucky to gain a scoreless tie, even though we were favored by two touchdowns."

"On top of that, we catch them on their homecoming," continued the coach.

In their two District 4AA games, the Tigers have lost to Denver City, 58 to 0, and to Slaton, 18 to 0. Their only victory has been over winless O'Donnell, 22 to 0. The Tigers have also lost to Abernathy, 20-14; Sudan, 13-12; Seagraves, 41-0; Tahoka, 12-0, and Farwell, 21-0.

The Frenship squad roster shows that the Tigers still have a few boys on the team that have dealt the Antelopes trouble the last two seasons. These include Jerry Kindred, 150-pound senior guard; Robert Parham, 150-pound senior halfback; and Bobby Kindred, 170-pound senior end.

Tentative starters and weights are: B. Kindred, 170, and Carmon Turnbow, 175, ends; Johnny Holland, 155, and Carlos Dupler, 175, tackles; J. Kindred, 150, and Danny Coleman, 160, guards; Robert Ingle, 165, center; Jerry Pinner, 140, quarterback; Van Grady, 160, and R. Parham, 150, halfbacks; and Joe Lara, 160, fullback.

Coach Teal said that with the exception of halfback Teddy Scott, who is a doubtful starter, the Antelopes are in fair physical condition for the Frenship game. Scott didn't see much action against Denver City because of a knee injury, but may be used more in the Frenship game, especially as a defensive cornerman, Teal said.

8th basketball clinic

PLAINVIEW — Wayland Baptist College's world-famous Hutcherson Flying Queens will hold their eighth annual basketball clinic for all high school coaches and players Nov. 14, at 9 a. m. in Plainview High School Gymnasium. The announcement was made by Harley J. Red, in coach of the team and director of the clinic.

got back to the Denver City 27, helped along by a clipping penalty, but Morgan intercepted a pass and got back to the Post 42.

Denver City then wheeled to the Post 17, but an interception by Teddy Scott gave the Antelopes the ball on the 4. The game ended two plays later with Cross completing a first down pass to Sims.

Morgan, with 116 net yards in 16 carries, was the game's leading ground-gainer. Simpson led Post with 93 yards on 20 tries. Owen netted 49 on 28 attempts.

The Post Antelope junior varsity, which won a 7-6 squeaker from the Frenship JV's last Thursday night, are to play the Ralls "B" team here at 7 o'clock tonight in their final game of the season.

Frenship scored first in last Thursday's game, which was played on their gridiron, counting on an end sweep, but missing the extra points try to lead 6-0 going into the second quarter.

Post scored in the second quarter with quarterback Lewis Hise going over on a QB sneak, and Paul Walker kicking the extra point that decided the game.

The Post touchdown was set up by a fumble recovery on the Frenship 40 and a run to the four-yard line by Walker.

The Post team, coached by Charles Black and Elvin Jones, missed three more scoring opportunities inside the Frenship 10-yard line. The locals held a big edge in first downs and yardage gained.

The victory was the third of the season for the Post JV's against four defeats.

Post horsemen win in Coahoma Paint Show

Two Post paint horse owners, Oscar Gray and Floy Richardson, entered four animals in the Coahoma Paint Horse Show held Saturday and brought back five trophies.

Horses entered by Gray won first place in the paint show and second in color. Richardson's horses won first in class and first in color, and one of them was a reserve champion.

POST JUNIOR HIGH'S BLUE DEMONS

For nearly two amazing quarters Friday night, the Post Antelopes battled the undefeated, untied Denver City Mustangs off their feet in a District 4AA game here, but finally yielded late in the first half to a bone-crushing Mustang offense that just couldn't be denied.

Post takes early lead

Denver City defeats Antelopes, 42 to 8

The final score was 42 to 8, but the contest itself between the two teams was closer than that. Neither team gave nor asked any quarter in a game that kept the fans cheering even after it was out of reach of the embattled Antelopes, who scored first, but couldn't hang on.

Offensively, it was just about all Post throughout the first quarter and part of the second, with Coach Harold Teal's gridders going out in front on Benny Owen's eight-yard romp with 2:20 of the second quarter ticked off the clock. That was all the scoring for Post, however, until they added two points on a safety late in the third quarter.

THE MUSTANGS, meanwhile, roared back for two second quarter touchdowns following the Post icebreaker, and held a 14-6 lead at the half. Fourteen points in each of the third and fourth quarters gave the visitors all the margin they needed for their ninth consecutive victory and their third in conference play.

Owen's eight-yard blast for the Post touchdown put the Mustangs behind in a District 4AA game for the first time in three years.

The Antelopes had hammered hard at the Mustangs' goal line, however, even before their touchdown. After end Sammy Sims covered Denver City's fumble of Butch Cross' punt on the Mustang 18, the Antelopes powered to the two-yard line, but on a third down play Cross was jarred loose from the ball and the Mustangs recovered on their 15.

TWO LINE PLAYS gained five for the Mustangs before end Donnie Windham pounced on another fumble on the Denver City 10. Guard Mike Noble's interception of Cross' pass on the 15 got the Mustangs out of trouble again.

The Antelopes started their touchdown drive after fielding a Denver City punt on the Mustang 49. Owen and halfback Ronald Simpson gained five, and Cross hit Danny Pierce with a 17-yard pass for a first down on the 32.

A five-yard penalty against the Mustangs, a four-yard gain by Owen and a one-yard QB sneak by Cross gave the 'Lones' another first down on the 22. Two line plays and a six-yard pass from Cross to Simpson gained to the 13, and another five-yard penalty against Denver City took the ball to the 8, from where Owen scored on a slashing run through the left side of the line. Cross' pass for the extra points failed to find a receiver.

The chances for an upset still appeared bright when Simpson covered a Denver City fumble on the Mustang 36, but Mike Sharp's interception of Cross' pass ended the threat.

THE MUSTANGS' FIRST touchdown came with 5:56 left in the half when fullback Dennis Morgan scored on a 41-yard run after breaking through the line. Reserve quarterback Mike Bickley kicked the extra point to give Denver City a 7-6 lead.

The visitors upped it to 14-6 with only 1:27 left in the first half when halfback Jimmy Young scored from four yards out and Bickley kicked the point. The touchdown had been set up by Cross' 15-yard punt out of bounds against the wind, with the Mustangs taking over on the Post 39.

Tackle Ronnie Morgan's 64-yard run after intercepting a pitchout in the Post backfield gave the Mustangs their third touchdown, with 7:57 left in the third quarter. Bickley's kick made it 21-6.

Denver City's next touchdown drive covered 47 yards after a high punt by Cross traveled only 14 yards and was downed on the Post 47. Young's 22-yard scamper was the big gainer down to the Post 3, from where Young went in for the TD. Bickley's kick from placement made the score 28-6.

THE POST safety came after a 15-yard clipping penalty set the Mustangs back to their 13. A line play gained three yards but a five-yard penalty erased it and put the ball on the 8. Quarterback David Mitchell, attempting a punt, got a bad pass from center and slipped to the ground while trying to run it out.

Another pass interception, one of four for the Mustangs, set up their first fourth period touchdown from the Post 36. A 21-yard pass, Bickley to end Jerry Martin gained to the 15, from where Morgan and halfback David Laughlin alternated in totting to the one-yard line, from where Morgan crashed through. A passing try for the points failed.

A fourth-and-two attempt on their 48 failed for the Antelopes when Cross lost four trying to pass, and Denver City took over on the Post 44. A pass and a five-yard penalty against the Antelopes set up a first down on the 22, from where Morgan broke through left tackle and went all the way. Mitchell passed to end Chip Bennett for the extra and an end to the scoring.

Frenship Tigers

Friday Night, Nov. 6

At Wolfforth

Don't Forget-Kickoff Is At 7:30

The Post Antelopes will be out to salvage victories in the season's final two games against Frenship and Slaton and thus again finish runnerup in district grid play.

While Frenship's Tigers haven't been strong in years past — and aren't rated as such again this season—they never have been particularly easy for the Antelopes.

Two years ago—the last time the Post club invaded Wolfforth to play Frenship—the game ended in a tie. The Tigers are not a club to take lightly, especially at home.

It is too easy for the Antelopes to be letdown over the Denver City defeat or be "looking ahead" to the homecoming game with Slaton and thus not be ready for a real effort Friday night.

Fans and students can get too complacent too. We shouldn't. This will be the Tigers big opportunity to try and catch a surprise victory and they will be allout to win.

FARMERS WINNING BATTLE OF THE BOLL WEEVIL!

BATTLE RECORD TO DATE

SPRAYING	ACRES SPRAYED	COMMENT
Number 1 (Beginning Sept. 15)	303,000 acres (Originally estimated 240,000 acres. Total includes Skip-row)	First application was hampered by rain, wind, etc. Migrating weevils caused increase in size of control zone. Extremely high adult and unemerged weevil populations encountered.
Number 2 (Beginning about October 4)	281,000 acres (Reduction due to acreage desiccated or harvested)	Field checks indicated effective kill of adult weevils but continuing emergence kept new weevil population up. Additional planes brought in to speed up sprayings.
Number 3 (Beginning about October 13)	230,000 acres (Continuing harvest and desiccation)	Field examination showed great reduction in number of adult weevils, with low occurrence of weevils in diapause stage. Also fewer unemerged weevils.
Number 4 (Beginning about October 21)	190,000 acres	Few unemerged and very young weevils left. Practically no weevils in diapause stage.

CONCLUSION: Remaining unemerged and young adult weevils will be kept from going into hibernation either by frost or a fifth spraying. Entomologists agree that hibernating weevils will have been reduced by more than 90 percent by end of this year's program.

Financial Arrangements

- Compresses to collect 50c per bale, and remit to a special boll weevil control fund in bank — no connection with P.C.G. regular funds.

POST ANTELOPES

VS.

Frenship Tigers

Friday Night, Nov. 6

At Wolfforth

Don't Forget-Kickoff Is At 7:30

The Post Antelopes will be out to salvage victories in the season's final two games against Frenship and Slaton and thus again finish runnerup in district grid play.

While Frenship's Tigers haven't been strong in years past — and aren't rated as such again this season—they never have been particularly easy for the Antelopes.

Two years ago—the last time the Post club invaded Wolfforth to play Frenship—the game ended in a tie. The Tigers are not a club to take lightly, especially at home.

It is too easy for the Antelopes to be letdown over the Denver City defeat or be "looking ahead" to the homecoming game with Slaton and thus not be ready for a real effort Friday night.

Fans and students can get too complacent too. We shouldn't. This will be the Tigers big opportunity to try and catch a surprise victory and they will be allout to win.
